

PREFACE

— 10: —

The translation of Jaimini's Pārva Mīmāṃsā is now published and placed before the learned readers. The translator knows how difficult it was to understand the Mīmāṃsā in interpreting the dead Vedic rituals of the ancient Aryans and is still not sure whether he has correctly explained them. It is for the public to judge it.

The Vedic rituals which were once the be-all and end-all of the Aryans have fallen into desuetude and the study of the Pārva Mīmāṃsā is completely neglected.

In my old age, I took to the study of the Hindu philosophy and I found solace in it. In the course of my study, I found the Mīmāṃsā system of philosophy to be the most difficult of all. I took Dr. Ganga Nath Jha's translation published in the series of the Sacred Books of the Hindus; but the translation stops short at the end of chap. iii. Mr. Kunte who, I am informed by Major B.D. Basu, is the brother of Dr. Annā Moreśwar Kunte, the demonstrator of Anatomy, Grant Medical College, Bombay, was one of the distinguished graduates of the Bombay University and belonged to the school of Ranade and Bhandarkar. He was a school master and undertook to publish the translation and annotation of the Sātra works of the six schools of the Hindu philosophy at the end of seventies of the last century, in his well known periodical publication called वसुदेवविजितिका. This useful publication to the students of Hindu philosophy, came to an abrupt end by the premature death of Mr. Kunte in the early eighties. His translation of the Jaimini's Mīmāṃsā stops short at sūtra 10 of pāda vi of chap. vi. It appears that a limited number of the journal was published from Poona from time to time and was distributed amongst the subscribers. Here only one copy of it was available in the valuable library of Major B. D. Basu. I must here frankly confess that I could not have, placed this translation of the Pārva Mīmāṃsā but for the help I got from Mr. Kunte in understanding it. I can not discharge the debt due to him. I have got help from several other writers in this heavy and onerous undertaking and have mentioned their names in the introduction of this work.

I must thank Major B. D. Basu the learned editor of the series of the Sacred books of the Hindus for rendering me help by placing his valuable library at my disposal and making important suggestions in order to enhance the utility of the book to the readers and the subscribers of his valuable series. In a word his was the head and mine was the hand in bringing out this big volume before the public.

I must also thank Mr. Ram Nagina Pande of the Allahabad collectorate for arranging the word meanings of the sūtras from my manuscript from chapters vii to xii and the staff of the Pāṇini Office for going through the proofs of this publication.

In conclusion I must thank Pandit Raghunath Sahai Pathak, the Manager and the staff of the Union Press, who very kindly and courteously did their utmost to bring out the big work as early as possible.

I know what short comings and defects there can be in a big undertaking like this and, therefore, crave the indulgence of the learned readers to overlook them and inform the translator who will, if he lives to see the second edition of the work, correct them.

PURVA MIMAMSA.

CHAPTER I

Adhikarana I. Dealing with the enquiry of duty

अथातो धर्मजिज्ञासा ॥ १।१।१ ॥

1. Now is the enquiry of duty (धर्म)

The author commences his enquiry into the nature of धर्म. धर्म is used when any auspicious beginning is made

Adhikarana II. Definition of duty

चोदनालक्षणोऽर्थो धर्मः ॥ १।१।२ ॥

चोदनालक्षणोऽर्थः The object which is distinguished or qualified by a Command धर्मः duty

2. The duty is an object distinguished by a command.

The author says that धर्म is an object itself and its binding character is by reason of the vedic injunction

Adhikarana III. Dealing with the examination of its authority

तस्य निमित्तपरीष्टिः ॥ १।१।३ ॥

निमित्तपरीष्टिः Examination of the cause

3. The examination of its cause

The author says that the examination of the cause of the duty is now made.

Sûtras are of six kinds.—

संज्ञा definition, परिभाषा key to interpretation, विसि statement of a general rule, नियम restrictive rule, अधिकार heading to which a number of rules belong; अविवेक general application of a rule.

Adhikarana IV Dealing with the subject that in matters of Dharma perception is not an infallible authority,

सत्संप्रयोगे पुरुषस्येन्द्रियाणां बुद्धिजन्म तत्प्रत्यक्ष- मनिमित्तं विद्यमानोपलम्भनत्वात् ॥ १।१।४ ॥

सत्संप्रयोगे on having the contact with , पुरुषस्य of a man , इन्द्रियाणां of the organs , बुद्धिजन्म the origin of knowledge , तत् that , प्रत्यक्ष sensuous perception

4. The perception is the knowledge which one has by the senses coming in contact with the soul. It is not the cause of duty by reason of acquiring knowledge of the thing existing.

The author here explains प्रत्यक्ष and says that it relates to an object that is in existence & objects perceptible by senses. It has nothing to do with supersensuous things. In connection with this other प्रमाण्य have been discussed by the commentators

Adhikaran : V. Dealing with the subject that in matters relating to धर्म, the Vedas are of paramount authority

औत्पत्तिकः eternal , तु because, शब्दस्य of the word , अर्थेन with the meaning ; सम्बन्ध connection , तस्य its , ज्ञान knowledge , उपदेशः precept , अव्यतिरेकः never -erroneous , च and , अर्थे on the object , अनुपलब्धे not getting or visible , तत् that , प्रमाण authoritative , वादरायणस्य of the Rsi of that name , अनपेक्षत्वात् by reason of not depending on others

5. Certainly there is eternal connection between the word and its meaning , its knowledge is उपदेशः it is never erroneous in matters invisible ; it is authoritative in the opinion of Bādarāyaṇa by reason of its not depending on others.

The author says that the word and its meaning are eternally connected, this is one proposition, the knowledge thereof is called उपदेश in the language of मीमांसा, it is the second proposition. In matters connected with invisible things it is never erroneous , this is the third proposition. In the opinion of Bādarāyaṇa the word is authoritative ; this is the 4th proposition ; and lastly it does not depend upon any other proof and is sufficient in itself

In this connection the Commentators have described all the six modes of proof. 1 perception (प्रत्यक्ष,) 2. inference (अनुमान) 3.

analogy (वपमान) 4. testimony (सदृ) 5. presumption (अर्थापत्ति)
6. absence (अभाव)

Adhikāraṇa VI. Sūtra 6 28 dealing with the eternity of sound.

कर्मेके तत्र दर्शनात् ॥ १।१।६ ॥

कर्मे act ; एके one , तत्र there , दर्शनम् by seeing.

6. One set says that it is an action ; by reason of seeing it there.

The objector says that word is not eternal as said in Sūtra 5 , because it is an act and we see that it is produced by an effort.

अस्थानात् ॥ १।१।७ ॥

अस्थानात् by reason of no stability

7. By reason of no stability.

The second objector says that there is no stability of the word ; as soon as it is pronounced, it vanishes

करोतिशब्दात् ॥ १।१।८ ॥

करोतिशब्दात् by reason of the word 'make'

8. By reason of the word 'make'.

The third objector says that the word 'make' is used in relation to 'word'. It is said, 'make a sound'. This fact also shows that sound is made and so it can not be eternal.

सत्त्वान्तरे च यौगपद्यात् ॥ १।१।९ ॥

सत्त्वान्तरे in other beings , यौगपद्यात् by reason of its being simultaneous.

9. By reason of its being heard simultaneously by other beings.

The fourth objection to the eternity of the sound is that it is heard simultaneously by all beings who stand at a distance from the source of the sound. This fact also goes to establish the transitory nature of the sound, voice or word.

प्रकृतिविकृत्योश्च ॥ १।१।१० ॥

प्रकृति original form , विकृति modified form , च and.

10. And on account of the original and modified forms.

There is the fifth argument against the eternity of sound. The changes take place, for instance इति श्रुतम् become इत्युक्तम्. The इ and आ change into वा

वृद्धिश्च कर्तृभूम्नाऽस्य ॥ १।१।११ ॥

वृद्धि increase ; च and ; कर्तृभूम्ना with the multiplicity of the agents ; अस्य its.

11. Its increase by reason of many persons pronouncing it.

There is another sixth argument against the eternity of the sound; when many persons together pronounce a word, it increases in sound. What increases and decreases is not eternal.

समं तु तत्र दर्शनम् ॥ १।१।१२ ॥

समं equal , तु on the other hand , तत्र there ; दर्शनं reasoning.

12. On the other hand there is a reasoning of equal force.

The author proceeds to reply in serialim all the six objections raised to the eternity of sound. The first objector said it was an act and an effort ; that is to say it was pronounced. The author says you are quite right that it is a product of an effort i e, pronunciation, but if the word did not exist before, it could not be pronounced. The very fact that it was pronounced shows that it existed before the pronunciation. It is by parity of reasoning that the contrary proposition is established.

सतः परमदर्शनं विषयानागमात् ॥ १।१।१३ ॥

सतः of the existent ; परं after , अदर्शनं disappearance; विषयानागमात् by reason of the object not coming into contact.

13. Disappearance after once coming into existence is by reason of the object not coming into contact.

The reply to the second objection is that the sound is the quality of ether. The ether is eternal. The sound was brought into existence, because it existed there and disappeared because the object is not obtainable by the sense though existing.

प्रयोगस्य परम् ॥ १।१।१४ ॥

प्रयोगस्य of the application , परं after.

14. After the application.

The author replies the third objection which is about the verb 'make'. It is also applicable to an effort, to bring into manifestation. When a word is pronounced it is audible, the audibility of the word is after the pronunciation. The word existed and the pronunciation only made it audible.

आदित्यवद्योगपद्यम् ॥ १।१।१५ ॥

आदित्यवद् like a sun ; वद्योगपद्यम् simultaneity.

15. The simultaneousness is like the sun. ९

The author replies the fourth objection. You say that sound is heard simultaneously by several persons standing there, so you say that there is not one sound. There you are wrong. There is one sun and spectators all see it, by the number of spectators the sun will not increase in number. So there is one sound and it is eternal.

वर्णान्तरमविकारः ॥ १।१।१६ ॥

वर्णान्तरं change of letters; अविकारः non-modification.

16. The change of letters is not a modification.

The author now replies the 5th objection. He says that the changes of letters are no modifications, the word still exists there the words 'इधि' and 'आनय' both exist there.

नादश्चिद्विपरा ॥ १।१।१७ ॥

नादश्चिद्वि increase of noise ; विपरा with reference to.

17. The increase is with reference to the increase of the tone.

The author replies the 6th objection. He says that the increase is of the tone or the noise, it is not the increase of the word.

नित्यस्तु स्याद्दर्शनस्य परार्थत्वात् ॥ १।१।१८ ॥

नित्यः eternal ; तु on the other hand , स्यात् is ; दर्शनस्य of the manifestation . परार्थत्वात् by reason of its being subservient to others.

18. On the other hand, it is eternal by the reason of its manifestation being for the sake of others.

The author after refuting the arguments of the objector formulates his own view and says that the word is eternal, the reason is that it is for the sake of imparting information to others that it is pronounced and that the words come and go but the effect that they leave behind is permanent. The word 'cow' is pronounced, the word as pronounced has disappeared but the knowledge of the cow that it has left on the mind of the hearer is still there even though the sound is not heard.

सर्वत्र यौगपद्यात् ॥ १।१।१९ ॥

सर्वत्र everywhere ; यौगपद्यात् by reason of the simultaneity.

19. By reason of the simultaneity, it produces the same effect everywhere.

The author further advances an argument and says that as soon as the word 'cow' is pronounced, all the hearers understand that it means a particular animal of a particular shape. There are three terms आकृति, व्यक्ति and जाति, the first is the form which you have before your mind's eye. You know the figure 'cow' and you go examining each animal and when you find a particular animal corresponding to the figure that you have before your mind's eye, you at once recognize the individual cow called व्यक्ति. The word जाति is genus. The difference between जाति and आकृति is that the former is the essential quality which is inseparable from the object. When you go on examining the individuals the qualities in which they differ are rejected and the qualities in which they agree are accepted. This accepted generalised quality is called आकृति।

संख्याभावात् ॥ १।१।२० ॥

संख्या number ; अभावात् by the absence.

20. By reason of there being no number.

You pronounce the term 'cow' ten times, it will convey the idea of one cow only. The word cow though pronounced several times conveys the idea of one individual cow.

अनपेक्षत्वात् ॥ १।१।२१ ॥

21. By reason of its being non-correlative.

There are correlative terms, such as husband and wife; father and son &c. You can not think one without the other. Sound may be produced or vanish but the 'word' is absolute and not correlative, it exists independently and therefore eternal.

प्रक्याभावाच्च योगस्य ॥ १।१।२२ ॥

प्रक्या manifestation ; अभावात् by the absence of , योगस्य of the assemblage of words, sentence (particles of air according to शबर)

22 And by reason of no manifestation of the collection of words.

The author gives an additional reason for holding the word to be eternal, because the words in a collected form have no manifestation. The words collectively do not denote a class but only an individual word does so.

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ १।१।२३ ॥

लिङ्ग दर्शनाच्च by seeing the force of the text , च and.

23. And by seeing the force of the text.

The author relies on the Vedic text in support of his view.

Adhikāṣaṇa: VII, sūtra 24-26 dealing with the subject that the Vedic words have a meaning.

उत्पत्तौ वाऽवचनास्स्युरर्थस्यातन्निमित्तत्वात् ॥ १।१।२४ ॥

उत्पत्तौ in the manifestation, वा not; अवचनाः meaningless. स्युः are; अर्थस्य of the meaning; अतन्निमित्तत्वात् by reason of its not being an efficient cause.

24. It has no meaning when manifested, because the meaning does not depend upon it.

The objector says that I accept your proposition that the word and its sense are connected eternally but a number of words put together is not so connected, because the sentence does not depend upon the words for its meaning, the meaning of the sentence is conventional.

तद्भूतानां क्रियार्थेन सामान्नायोऽर्थस्य तन्निमित्तत्वात् ॥ १।१।२५ ॥

तद्भूतानां of the constituent parts; क्रियार्थेन with the action; सामान्नायः pronunciation; अर्थस्य of the meaning; तन्निमित्तत्वात् by reason of their being the efficient cause.

25. The pronunciation of the constituent parts (words) is with the object of an action, the sense being dependant upon them.

The objector in the preceding sūtra said that the words conveyed the sense but the words put into a sentence had only a conventional sense but no meaning of their own. The author in reply says you are wrong there, the words are used for action and the sentence, being composed of the words which you admit to have a meaning, has necessarily a meaning.

लोके in the world, सन्नियमात् by reason of the special relationship; प्रयोगसन्निकर्षः the contact of the sense of an object.

26. Just as in the world you get knowledge by having the object in contact with a sense, so you have the knowledge of a sentence by reason of the arrangement of the words with which it is made up.

The author says that in common life you have knowledge of the objects when they come in contact with the sense organs. So in the Veda, you get knowledge of a sentence by having the knowledge of the words of which it is composed.

Adhika. apa VIII. Sôtras 27-32 dealing with the divinity of the Vedas.

वेदांश्चैके सन्निकर्षे पुरुषाख्याः ॥ १।१।२७ ॥

वेदाश्च the Vedas च and एकै one set, सन्निकर्षे object of sense modern (Śābar) पुरुषाख्या having derived the name from human being.

27. And the one party hold that the Vedas are modern being called after human names.

The author first discussed the sense of the word connected with it eternally and then the sense of the sentence depending upon the words of which it is composed. Now he proceeds to discuss the divinity and the infallibility of the Vedas. The objector says that I accept that a word is eternally related to its sense and further admit that when put into a sentence it conveys a sense, but where is the authority of the Vedas? They are of human origin being called after human names such as, काण्डक काण्डक &c.

28. And by seeing transitory things (in them)

The objector further develops his argument and says that the names of the human beings are mentioned in the Vedas and so they are the works after the birth and death of those human beings. So they are human products.

उक्तन्तु शब्दपूर्वत्वम् ॥ १।१।२९ ॥

उक्त' said तु on the other hand. शब्द पूर्वत्व' the priority of the word.

29. On the other hand the priority of the word is already spoken of.

The author now proceeds to give replies to the objection of the objector in Seriatim. What he says is that he has already established the eternity of the word, so every word whether human or divine is eternal. The objection is therefore groundless. This is called संगति सूत्र

आख्या प्रवचनात् ॥ १।१।३० ॥

आख्या name, प्रवचनात् by reason of interpreting them.

30. The name is on account of the explaining them.

* The author says that your argument that the Vedas are of human origin because they are called after human beings is untenable; they are called after human names, because those great sages were first to expound them and so the different branches of the Vedas were called after those sages in their honour.

परन्तु श्रुतिसामान्यमात्रम् ॥ १।१।३१ ॥

परन्तु but ; श्रुतिसामान्यमात्रम् the vedic words in a general sense.

31. But the Vedic words are used in a general sense only.

The author says that certain names of the persons are used in the Vedas, but they are common nouns and not proper nouns. The persons bore the names subsequently. So this argument of the objector does not detract from the eternity of the Vedas.

कृते वा विनियोगः स्यात्कर्मणस्सम्बन्धात् ॥ १।१।३२ ॥

कृते for action ; वा on the other hand , विनियोगः inducement ; स्यात् is ; सम्बन्धः of the action ; स्यात्वात् by reason of the connection.

32. On the other hand the inducement is for the purpose of the action, because it is connected with the sacrifice.

The author says that there are texts such as, वनस्पतवसत्रमासत, सर्वाः सत्रमासत । These are absurd acts but they are mentioned as inducements. Their meaning is that when animals and vegetables perform the sacrifice, it is highly necessary, that the man who is bestowed with reason should do it. It is for the purpose of extolling the वज्र . This is called कैमुतिकन्यायः ।

END OF PADA I.

PADA II.

Adhikaraṇa I. Sūtra 1—18 Dealing with अर्थवादः .

आम्नायस्य क्रियार्थत्वादानर्थक्यमतदर्शानां

तस्मादनित्यमुच्यते ॥ १।२।१ ॥

आम्नायस्य of the Veda ; क्रियार्थत्वात् by reason of its being for an action ; आनर्थक्यं useless ; मतदर्शानां of those that are not actions ; तस्मात् therefore ; अनित्यं not eternal , उच्यते is said.

1 The Veda being for the sacrifice, the portion which is not for the sacrifice is useless therefore it can not be said to be eternal.

The objector says that the main object of the Veda is sacrifice according to you ; if there is any thing which does not relate to sacrifice, it is useless and that can not be considered to be eternal. There are different modes of interpretation as (1) ellipsis (2) adaptation (3) theory of adjunct ment (4) the theory of restriction (5) the theory of subordination. See for examples in the आष्य।

शास्त्रद्विविरोधाच्च ॥ १।२।२ ॥

शास्त्रद्विविरोधाच्च by reason of being contradictory to religious rules and sensuous perception.

2. And by reason of being contrary to the religious rules and sensuous perception.

The objector continues that there are many things in the Vedas which are against the religious rules and sensuous perception.

तथाफलाभावात् ॥ १।२।३ ॥

तथाफलं that fruit which is mentioned

3. By reason of the absence of that fruit.

The objector continues that there are certain texts which lay down fruits of certain acts. These results do not follow the acts. So they are useless and the Veda can not be eternal.

अन्यानर्थक्यात् ॥ १।२।४ ॥

अन्य other ; आनर्थक्यात् by reason of uselessness.

4. And by reason of the uselessness of others.

The objector says that there are texts

सर्वं वैपूर्णाहुतिः । सर्वमेवाप्नोति ॥ तै० ब्रा० ३।८।१०।

These texts show that every desire is fulfilled by those acts. When such is the case there is therefore no necessity for any other sacrifice. So the Vedas are useless.

अभाविप्रतिषेधाच्च ॥ १।२।५ ॥

अभावि that which is not divisible, that which can not form the subject of prohibition.

5. By prohibiting a thing which can not form the subject of prohibition.

The objector continues “ब्रह्म वादिनो वदन्ति न पृथिव्यांतरिक्षे न दिव्यमिश्रयेतस्यः” (ते० सं० ५।२।११) How can one establish fire in the sky and heaven? This kind of impossible things can not form part of a prohibition. So the Vedas are useless.

अनित्यसंयोगात् ॥ १।२।६ ॥

6. By reason of the connection with the transitory things.

The objector continues that transitory things are mentioned in the Vedas; so they cannot be eternal.

Sec. I, 1, 28. As. "अथवाः अवाहिरकामयत"

विधिना त्वेकवाक्यत्वात्स्तुत्यर्थेन विधीनां स्युः ॥ १।२।७॥

विधिना with the injunction; तु on the other hand; एकवाक्यत्वात् by reason of being one sentence; स्तुत्यर्थेन with the object of the praise; विधीनां of the command; स्युः may be.

7. They by reason of one sentence with the injunction are with the object of the praise, parts of the injunction.

The author lays down his Siddhanta view. Well objector, you have tried your best in showing the uselessness of the Veda in your own way. The passages on which you rely are syntactically connected with विधिवाक्य and by reason of their being for the praise they are parts of the विधि i. e. they are अर्थवादः ।

स्तुत्यं च साम्प्रदायिकम् ॥ १।२।८ ॥

स्तुत्यं equal; च and; साम्प्रदायिकं one who has a purpose.

8. And equal is the object (of विधि and अर्थवादः).

साम्प्रदायिक is a new word; it means one that has a purpose, the विधि has a purpose which is expressed by the अर्थवादः. So one depends on the other; both are therefore equally valuable, one depending on the other. This is what the author means by the sūtra.

अप्राप्ता चानुपपत्तिः प्रयोगे हि विरोधस्स्याच्छब्दार्थस्त्वप्रयोगभूतस्तस्मादुपपद्येत ॥ १।२।९ ॥

अप्राप्ता wanting; चानुपपत्तिः no proof, प्रयोगे in the sentence; हि because विरोधः contradiction, स्यात् is, शब्दार्थः the meaning of a word; अप्रयोगभूतः not a sentence; तस्मात् therefore उपपद्येत utility is proved.

9. And no proof is wanting, there is a contradiction in the sentence; but the meaning of the word is not the sentence. Therefore the utility of अर्थवादः is established.

The author replies the objection contained in sūtra 2. The objector said that there were many incongruities in the Vedas which were against the canons and things perceived.

The author says that they are वर्णवाद and their utility is thus established, otherwise they will appear as incongruous. As said above one depends upon another.

गुणवादस्तु ॥ १ । २ । १० ॥

10. On the other hand description of quality.

The author says that they are descriptive of qualities. The विधि is the original sentence which lays down a rule for guidance. वर्णवाद is the subordinate sentence in support of a विधि. It is either direct or indirect, the former is called अर्थवाद and the latter is called गुणवाद ।

रूपात्प्रायात् ॥ १ । २ । ११ ॥

व्याद by resemblance ; प्रायाद by its frequent observation.

11. (गुणवाद) is either by the nature or by its frequent observation.

The author explains what गुणवाद is. When mind is called a thief, it is compared with a thief ; it is रूप Tongue is called a liar, because it is frequently seen uttering lies , it is प्रायः ।

दूरभूयस्त्वात् ॥ १ । २ । १२ ॥

12. By reason of the distance.

The author meets the objection of the objector when he says that there are certain passages which are contrary to the observed facts ; it may be on account of the distance

अपराधात्कर्तुश्च पुत्रदर्शनम् ॥ १ । २ । १३ ॥

अपराधात् by reason of the fault (of the woman) ; कर्तुः of the husband ; च and ; पुत्रदर्शनं birth of a son.

13. And by reason of the fault of the wife, a son is born to her husband.

The author explained the passage “ न चैतद् विप्रोक्तं ब्राह्मणवाक्यं अपराधात्पुत्रात् ” He says that the parentage is never certain ; one cannot be certain of his parentage by reason of the fault of a woman. She may go amiss and bring forth a child to her husband.

आकालिकेप्सा ॥ १ । २ । १४ ॥

14. Untimely desire.

The author says that बुद्धावृत्ति is known by an untimely desire. It is a question of appeal. Does a ब्राह्मण ever kill a cow ? knowing full well that a क्षत्रिय would not do it.

विद्याप्रशंसा ॥ १।२।१५ ॥

51. Praise of learning.

The author replies the objection raised in sūtra 3. You say that there is no fruit ; it is only a praise of knowledge. It is not necessary that what is mentioned as praise should happen.

सर्वत्वमाधिकारिकम् ॥ १।२।१६ ॥

सर्वत्व Universality ; आधिकारिकम् exaggeration.

16. Universality is an exaggeration.

The author gives a reply to the objection raised in sūtra 4. The objector said that all desires were accomplished by the पूर्णाहुति ; there was then no necessity for performing a sacrifice. The reply is that it is only a figure of speech called hyperbole.

फलस्य कर्मनिष्पत्तेस्तेषां लोकवत्परिमाणतः फल-
विशेषस्यात् ॥ १।२।१७ ॥

फलस्य of the fruit. कर्मनिष्पत्तेः of the accomplishment of the act ; तेषां of theirs , लोकवत् just as in the world परिमाणतः in proportion ; फल विशेषः special fruit.

17. The fruit of the accomplishment of the act is a बुद्धावृत्ति just as in the world, so in the case of the Vedas the special fruit is proportionate (to the act done.)

The author continues his argument and says that the fruit of an act is in proportion to the act done. It is true in both the religious and worldly acts.

अन्त्ययोर्यथोक्तम् ॥ १।२।१८ ॥

अन्त्ययोः of the last two ; यथोक्तम् as said.

18. Of the last two objections the reply is said above.

The author replies the objections contained in Sūtras 5 and 6. He says that the reply is the same as said above.

Adhikaraṇa II. Sūtras 19 25 dealing with विधि which is like विधि ।

विधिर्वा स्यादपूर्वत्वाद्वाद्मात्रं ह्यनर्थकम् ॥ १।२।१६ ॥

विधिः Command; वा on the other hand; अपूर्वत्वाद् by reason of its being an अपूर्व, वाद्मात्रं only अर्थवाद; अनर्थकम् without any purpose.

19. On the other hand, it may be a विधि by reason of securing an unseen fruit and mere अर्थवाद is to no purpose.

The objector says that in the preceding adhikaraṇa you have stated that certain texts of the Veda are अर्थवाद Why should they be not considered विधि by reason of securing an invisible result,? mere अर्थवाद is to no purpose.

लोकवदिति चेत् ॥ १।२।२० ॥

लोकवद् like the worldly affair; इति चेत् if you say.

20. If you say that it will be like the worldly transaction.

The objector raises an objection to his own view, he says that if your reply is that it will be like the worldly affairs. As it is said of a cow that it gives much milk, gives birth to female offspring and no issue dies. This description is only to enhance the value of the cow. So also in the case of the Veda. This is the supposed reply to the objection of the objector raised in Sūtra 19

न पूर्वत्वात् ॥ १।२।२१ ॥

न not; पूर्वत्वात् by reason of knowing it before.

21. Not so; by reason of knowing it before.

The objector removes the doubt by saying that in the worldly affair the description is such that we know it and that induces us to strike the bargain, but in the Vedic affair such is not the case; we know nothing of the result.

उक्तन्तु वाक्यशेषत्वम् ॥ १।२।२२ ॥

उक्तं described; तु on the other hand.

22. On the other hand the subordinate sentence is explained.

The author says in reply and sums up his view. He says that they are supplementary sentences in support of the विधि as stated in Sūtra 19 of this pada.

विधिश्चानर्थकः कचित्तस्मात्स्तुतिः प्रतीयेत तस्मान्मान्यादितरेषु तथात्वम् ॥ १।२।२३ ॥

विधिः injunction ; च and ; अनर्थकः without any purpose ; कचित् some where ; तस्मात् therefore ; स्तुतिः praise ; प्रतीयेत is known ; तस्मान्मान्यात् by reason of its general nature ; इतरेषु at other places , तथात्वम् the same thing .

23 Somewhere the विधि is without any purpose, therefore it is considered a praise (eulogy) ; by reason of its general nature at other place it is so considered.

The author develops his argument and says that in some instances, it is impossible to explain the passages as विधि, there it is only eulogy and from such particular instance, you have general statement that such passages are generally अर्थवाद ।

प्रकरणे in the subject ; सम्भवन् being possible ; अपकर्षः transference ; न not ; कल्प्येत should be made ; विध्यानर्थक्यं uselessness of the injunctive passage ; हि therefore ; तं प्रति to it .

24. When the content can be construed reasonably the transference should not be made ; the injunction will be useless by reason of it.

The author further observes that if you construe the passages reasonably, you ought not to transfer the passage from अर्थवाद to विधि, otherwise the force of the विधि will be useless. See for examples in the भाष्य ।

विधौ च वाक्यभेदः स्यात् ॥ १।२।२५ ॥

विधौ in a vidhi , वाक्यभेदः splitting of a sentence ; स्यात् is .

25. If you consider it to be a विधि then there will be splitting of a sentence.

The author finally gives his own opinion; what he says is that if you consider the अर्थवाद to be a विधि then you will have to split a sentence into two and this is considered to be a fault by the Mīmāṃsā-writers. So you must keep both विधि and अर्थवाद distinct; consider it only अर्थवाद. See for examples in the भाष्य ।

Adhikaraṇa III Sūtra 26-30 dealing with विधि (text of the अनुबन्ध) which contains reason.

हेतुर्वा स्यादर्थवत्त्वोपपत्तिभ्याम् ॥ १।२।२६ ॥

हेतुः cause, reason, वा on the other hand ; अर्थवत्त्व independent signification ; उपपत्तिभ्याम् by explanation.

26. On the other hand it is a statement containing reason by virtue of the independent signification and explanation.

“सूर्येण बुधोति तेन इत्यक्रियते” (तै० ब्रा० १।६।१५) The question is whether such texts are causative statements independent in themselves. The objector says they are statements containing a reason, because there is independent signification and explanation.

स्तुतिस्तु शब्दपूर्वत्वादचोदनाच्च तस्य ॥ १।२।२७ ॥

स्तुतिः eulogy, तु on the other hand ; अचोदनाच् an injunction ; च and ; तस्य its.

27. On the other hand, it is only a praise; because it presupposes an injunction and it is not commandatory in itself.

The author says that causative text is only an अर्थवाद ; because a sentence which contains a reason presupposes another विधि text, it in itself is not a विधि ।

व्यर्थे स्तुतिरन्याय्येति चेत् ॥ १।२।२८ ॥

व्यर्थे useless, स्तुतिः eulogy ; अन्याय्य improper, इति चेत् if you say.

28. If you say that the reason is useless and then the eulogy is improper

The objector says that if you say that the causative text is a reason in support of another text, then it is useless. If it is useless, the eulogy is improper and absurd

अर्थस्तु विधिशेषत्वाद्यथा लोके ॥ १।२।२९ ॥

अर्थः object, तु on the other hand, विधिशेषत्वात् by reason of its being subordinate to विधि ; यथा just like ; लोके in the world.

29. The causative sentence is with an object being subordinate to another विधि text, just as it happens in ordinary life.

The author replies the objector that the causative sentence is not useless; it is useful in so much as it supports a विधि text by assigning a reason. It also happens in an ordinary life, as for example the mountain is fiery because it smokes.

यदि च हेतुखतिष्ठेत निर्देशात्सामान्यादिति चेद-
व्यवस्था विधीनां स्यात् ॥ १।२।३० ॥

यदि and if; हेतुः reason; अवतिष्ठेत is restricted; निर्देशात् by reason of the particular statement, सामान्यात् by reason of the general; इति चेद if you say; अव्यवस्था unsettled state; विधीनां of the injunctions; स्यात् is.

30. And if the reason is restricted by reason of the particular statement, it is all right; if you say that by reason of the general character of it, then the injunctive passage will be unsettled.

The author gives his final view. Take for example the text mentioned in connection with Sūtra 26. He sacrifices with शुभं because with it food is prepared. Now the sentence containing the reason is a praise of the शुभं and it applies to the particular case mentioned, but if you hold that whatever prepares a food can be substituted, then the विधि will be unsettled and loses its force. The first passage is विधि and the second passage is an अर्थवाद and is in support of the विधि. According to the author the sentence containing a reason is an अर्थवाद.

Adhikaraṇa IV Sūtras 31-53 dealing with the practical application of the Vedic *मंत्र*s and लिङ्ग।

तदर्थशास्त्रात् ॥ १।२।३१ ॥

31. By reason of the scriptures for it.

The objector says that the scriptures are in order to interpret the Vedas; then the Vedas are useless and should be committed to memory without knowing their meaning. It is in continuation of Sūtra 30. The question that arises is whether the Vedic *मंत्र*s convey any sense or not. The objector's reply is that they do not as they stand in need of other passages to support and explain them.

वाक्यनियमात् ॥ १।२।३२ ॥

32. By reason of arrangement of the sentence.

The objector continues in the same style and says that the *मंत्र*s are useless and as their reading depends upon the arrangement of sentences and letters, their meaning is to no purpose. The arrangement of words and letters is the important thing in the Vedic मंत्रs.

बुद्धशास्त्रात् ॥ १।२।३३ ॥

33. By reason of laying down what is known.

The objector continues that the मंत्रs are of no purpose for they mention that which is already known

अविद्यमानवचनात् ॥ १।२।३४ ॥

34. By reason of the description of that which does not exist.

The objector says that the मंत्रs describe those things which do not exist. For example चत्वारि ऋक्नात्रयोऽस्य पादा द्वेऽशीर्षे सहस्रस्तोत्रास्य । (ऋ० मं० ४ सू० ५८ ऋचा ३)

अचेतनेऽर्थवन्धनात् ॥ १।२।३५ ॥

अचेतने in an inanimate object, अर्थवन्धनात् ascribing of the object.

35. By ascribing of the object to the inanimate object.

The objector continues औषधे त्रायस्वैनम् (तै० सं० १।२।१) । शृणोतन्मावाणो विदुषोऽनु (तै० सं० १।३।१३) ।

“O ! Protect us medicinal herbs ! hear you stones being learned.” So the Vedic mantras are to be learnt by rote

अर्थविप्रतिषेधात् ॥ १।२।३६ ॥

36. By reason of the contrary statement on the same subject.

• There is an additional reason, says the objector that, the Vedic मंत्रs are to be learnt by rote and their meaning is not to be explained as there are self contradictory passages. As अदितिर्द्यौरदितिरतरिक्ष । (शु० यजु० २५, २३) एक एव कद्रो न द्वितीयव्यतस्थे (तै० सं० १।८।६) ॥ सहस्राणि सहस्रशोऽप्येकदा अभिभूयाम् ॥ (तै० सं० ३।५।१३)

स्वाध्यायवद्वचनात् ॥ १।२।३७ ॥

स्वाध्यायावत् the mantras that are taught, अवचनात् by reason of not teaching their meaning.

37. By reason of not teaching the meaning of the मंत्रs which are taught.

In the system of teaching, the Vedic मंत्रs are taught without their meaning. This fact also according to the objector shows that the Vedic मंत्रs are to be learnt without their meaning, they are therefore to no purpose.

अविज्ञेयात् ॥ १।२।३८ ॥

38. By reason of not knowing their meaning.

The objector says that there are certain मंत्रs the meaning of which can not be known, अर्धरी, तुर्धरी &c. See निरुक्त परिशिष्ट chap. I. 5 on the point.

अनित्यसंयोगान्मन्त्रर्थानर्थक्यम् ॥ १।२।३९ ॥

अनित्यसंयोगात् by reason of the mention of transitory things ; मन्त्रानर्थक्यं the meaninglessness of the mantras.

39. The मंत्रs are meaningless by reason of the mention of the transitory things.

The objector concludes by saying that the Vedic texts are meaningless in as much as they contain transitory things. Such as कौत्स प्रमगद, नैवाशाख । See Rigveda. III 53, 14. The Vedas are therefore to be learnt by heart without understanding their meaning. In this connection see the question of कौत्स and the reply of यास्क in the Nirukta chap. I from paras 15 to 20.

अविशिष्टस्तु वाक्यार्थः ॥ १।२।४० ॥

अविशिष्टः essential ; तु on the other hand , वाक्यार्थः the meaning of the sentence.

40. On the other hand the meaning of the sentence is essential.

The author now commences to reply all the objections raised in sūtras 31 to 39. He says that the Vedic sentences have a meaning just as you have in the ordinary life. A sentence has a subject, predicate and object, ; by means of these, a sentence conveys a meaning. Such is also the case with the Vedic मंत्रs ।

गुणार्थेन पुनः श्रुतिः ॥ १।२।४१ ॥

गुणार्थेन with the object of describing the quality , पुनः श्रुतिः repetition.

41. The repetition is with the object of describing the quality.

The author replies the objection raised in sūtra 31. What he says is that the repetition is with the object of describing the गुण. The term गुण is defined in chap. II. 8. By repetition, the मंत्रs are purified ; just as when water is sprinkled on a darbha grass with the संज्ञ, a new quality is produced which is called गुण

परिसंख्या ॥ १।२।४२ ॥

42 The repetition may be by way of परिसंख्या ।

This is author's reply. परिसंख्या is an implied prohibition. One says "पञ्चनखाः मध्याः" ; it means that all other animal's flesh is prohibited ; परिसंख्या has three defects, श्रुत्याग or स्वार्थ हानि , disregarding its own signification or disregarding what is distinctly heard that is what is distinctly stated in a text परार्थ कल्पना conception of another sense, प्राप्तवाच setting aside the sense that offers itself for our acceptance.

इमाम गृह्यन् रशनां मृतस्य । इत्यश्वाभिधानी मादत्ते । (तै० ब्रा० ५।१।२)

There in the passage रशना is used , in order to restrict it to the horse's reins, the latter sentence is used It is called exclusive specification when there are different modes for doing a thing but one is preferred to another. It is called नियम , you can remove the husk by peeling it with your nails from the rice or you can pound it The latter mode is preferred to the other. When what is not already known is stated, it is called विधि ।

अर्थवादो वा ॥ १।२।४३ ॥

43. Or it may be an अर्थवाद ।

The repetition, the author says, may be by way of अर्थवाद (explanation)

As in उरु प्रथस्वो रुते यद्वपतिः प्रथतां ॥ (तै० सं० १।१।८) यजमानमेव प्रजया- पशुभिः प्रथयति ॥ (तै० सं० ६२७)

अविरुद्धं परम् ॥ १।२।४४ ॥

अविरुद्धं contrary ; परम् the other.

44. The other is not contrary,

The author further goes on to say that by reason of reading the संज्ञ with their meaning an invisible effect is produced. This is not contrary It is in reply to sūtra 32.

संप्रेषे कर्मगर्हानुपालम्भः संस्कारत्वात् ॥ १।२।४५ ॥

संप्रेषे ; in a sacrificial order, कर्मगर्हान् the censure of the sacrifice उपलम्भः removal ; संस्कारत्वात् by virtue of the purification,

45. In a sacrificial command, by virtue of the purification, the reproach for a sacrifice is removed

This is in reply to the objection contained in Sūtra 33. The example is प्रोक्षणीरासादय. (सू० मा० १।२।१०) Put the प्रोक्षणी (a vessel full of water for sprinkling); प्रैव is a command given by one ऋत्विक् to another. What the author means to say is that the Vedic commands are not the things already known as said in Sūtra 33, but they produce an invisible effect by purification and removal of any impurity of the materials required for the sacrifice.

अभिधानेऽर्थवादः ॥ १।२।४६ ॥

अभिधाने in the figurative description.

46. The figurative description is by way of अर्थवाद.

This is in reply to the objection contained in sūtra 34, The description of the thing not in existence is by way of figurative speech. See for the explanation of चत्वारि ऋगा &c. in the माष्य ।

गुणादप्रतिषेधः स्यात् ॥ १।२।४७ ॥

गुणात् by describing, अप्रतिषेधः no contradiction.

47. There is no contradiction if you consider it as description of a गुण (subordinate quality).

This is in reply to the objection embodied in sūtra 36. If you consider it only a description of quality, there is no contradiction. As for example त्वमेव माताच पिता त्वमेव ।

विद्यावचनमसंयोगात् ॥ १।२।४८ ॥

विद्यावचनं understanding the meaning of the Vedic मंत्रs while reading; असंयोगात् by reason of their no connection with the sacrificial work.

Not laying down that the meaning of the Vedic मंत्रs should be understood, is by reason of their connection with the Vedic sacrifice.

This is in reply to the objection raised in sūtra 37. The author says that there is no doubt that it is nowhere laid down that the meaning of the Vedic मंत्रs should be learnt; the reason is that the learning the meaning and performing of the sacrifice have no connection with each other.

सतः परमविज्ञानम् ॥ १।२।४६ ॥

सतः of the existent , पर after ; अविज्ञान ignorance.

49. There is ignorance of that which is beyond the existent.

This is in reply to the objection raised in sūtra 38. Whatever we know is in existence but beyond that is ignorance. This is due to carelessness and indolence. The author means that every Vedic मंत्र has a meaning, it does not necessarily follow that the मंत्रs have not a meaning ; our supreme ignorance is due to indolence.

उक्तश्चाऽनित्यसंयोगः ॥ १।२।५० ॥

उक्तः is said , च and ; अनित्यसंयोगः mention of the transitory things.

50. And the mention of the transitory things is already said.

This is in reply to the objection embodied in Sūtra 39. The author says that we have discussed the mention of the transitory things in the Vedas see for this I-1-31. The same objection is embodied in I. II. 6 and reply in I, II, 18,

लिङ्गोपदेशश्च तदर्थवत् ॥ १।२।५१ ॥

लिङ्गोपदेशः The name by the mark ; तदर्थवत् like the object of that.

51. The naming by the mark is like the object of the मंत्र

The author after replying to all the objections of the objector as to the meaninglessness of the मंत्रs and having established that the Vedic मंत्रs have their meaning now deals with the naming of the मंत्रs by the marks. Some of the mantras are called आग्नेया , the author says that they are with the object of the मंत्रs themselves. The mantras that are in honour of the god Agni are आग्नेया & so on. This also supports the author's view.

ऊहः ॥ १।२।५२ ॥

52. Substitution.

The subject of ऊह is discussed in chapter IX. where in the Vedic mantras the singular number is used, but the same text is to be repeated at the time of sacrifice on such occasion when plural number is needed, the plural number will be substituted. It is called ऊह. The author says that the principle of ऊह also supports the view that the Vedic मंत्रs have a meaning.

विधिशब्दाश्च ॥ १।२।५३ ॥

53. And the injunctive sentences.

The author says that there are injunctive sentences in the Vedas which can not but convey sense; they can not be meaningless.

END OF PĀDA 2.

PĀDA III

Adhikaraṇa I Sūtras 1—2 dealing with the authority of स्मृतिः

धर्मस्य शब्दमूलत्वादशब्दमनपेक्षं स्यात्॥१।३।१॥

धर्मस्य of the duty; शब्दमूलत्वात् by reason of its depending on the Veda; अशब्द non-Veda, अनपेक्षं not acceptable, स्यात् is.

1. Because धर्म depends upon the Veda and the non-Veda is therefore not acceptable.

The objector says that you say that the source of धर्म is वेद; the result is that the non-Veda has no authority and is not acceptable.

अपि वा कर्तृसामान्यात्प्रमाणमनुमानं स्यात्॥१।३।२॥

अपिवा not so; कर्तृसामान्यात् by reason of the common author; प्रमाण authority; अनुमान inference; स्यात् is.

2. Not so; by reason of the common author, the non-Veda may also be an authority.

The author gives his own view Before we see what reply he gives we must determine in what sense he uses certain words अनुमान is used for अशब्द. शब्द is Veda because that alone is the word of God and you are bound to bow down to its authority whether you agree with it or not. The word अशब्द is used for स्मृति and it is a belief that every dictum laid down in the smṛiti is supported by the Vedic authority behind it; if there is none available the presumption is that such authority is lost. This is the meaning of the author by अनुमान or inference. The smṛitis therefore deriving their authority from the Veda are said by the author as being the work of common impersonal being. Such being the case they are authorities.

Adhikaraṇa II. Dealing with the superior authority of the श्रुति ।

विरोधे त्वनपेक्ष्यं स्यादसति ह्यनुमानम् ॥ १।३।३ ॥

विरोधे on contradiction ; तु on the other hand ; अनपेक्ष्यं not acceptable ; स्याद is, असति on absence ; हि because, अनुमान inference.

3. When there is contradiction on it is not to be accepted ; when there is none then there is the presumption.

In the preceding adhikaraṇa we have seen that our author says that the smṛitis are authorities because they have the support of the Veda behind them. If we do not find the express Vedic text to support the smṛiti we must presume that there was a Vedic text in its support which is lost. Further question that naturally arises is "What are we to do when the smṛiti text is in contradiction with the express Vedic text" ? The reply according to our author is that the smṛiti is to be rejected in such a case because the presumption as to its validity arises when there is no such contradiction.

Adhikaraṇa III. Dealing with the subject that smṛiti text which is based on selfish motive is not an authority.

हेतुदर्शनाच्च ॥ १।३।४ ॥

4. And by seeing the selfish motive.

The author gives another case in which smṛitis will not be authorities. When any rule is laid down out of selfish motive i.e. ; when we see the reason for the text in a motive, it is not to be accepted. For example the अश्वयुज takes cloth after the वैश्वर्जन होम ।

Adhikaraṇa IV. sūtras 5-7. dealing with the superiority of the meaning of the terms.

शिष्टाकोपे विरुद्धमिति चेत् ॥ १।३।५ ॥

शिष्टाकोपे when it is not contradictory to the Vedas, अविरुद्धम् acceptable इति चेत् if you say.

5. If you say what is not contrary to the Vedas is acceptable.

The objector now introduces his objection thus that your view is that which is not contrary to the Vedas is acceptable.

न शास्त्रपरिमाणत्वात् ॥ १।३।६ ॥

6. No, because the system has a limit.

The objector says that can not be so because the शास्त्र has a limit and therefore not infallible.

अपि वा कारणग्रहणे प्रयुक्तानि प्रतीयेरन् ॥ १।३।७ ॥

अपि वा not so ; कारणग्रहणे on not accepting the cause ; प्रयुक्तानि words used ; प्रतीयेरन् are known.

7. Not so; on not accepting the system, the meaning of the words used is known.

The author says that even if you do not accept the system you will know the sense of the words used to guide you in your actions in the life.

This adhikarāṇa is otherwise interpreted by शबर. He interprets पदार्थ as action. The objector says what is the authority for such act as आचमन &c.? If you say that they are not in contradiction with the practice sanctioned by the Veda, the reply is that it is of limited scope. To this the author replies that because it is not based on any selfish motive such practices should be recognised.

Adhikāṇa: V. Sūtras 8-9 Dealing with the subject that the words used in the शास्त्र are authoritative

तेष्वदर्शनाद्विरोधस्य समा विप्रतिपत्तिः स्यत् ॥ १ । ३ । ८ ॥

तेषु in them, अदर्शनात् by reason of not seeing, विरोधस्य of the contradiction; समा equal, विप्रतिपत्तिः; doubt; स्यत् is.

8. When there is no contradiction seen amongst them there is equal doubt on both sides.

There are certain words in the Vedas which are used in several meanings. Now the question is in what sense they should be used, the doubt on both sides is equally balanced.

शास्त्रस्था वा तन्निमित्तत्वात् ॥ १ । ३ । ९ ॥

शास्त्रस्था sense of the Śāstra, वा on the other hand, तन्निमित्तत्वात् by reason of its being its cause

9. On the other hand they should be used in the sense in which they are used in the Veda, because they derive their origin from it.

Adhikāṇa: VI Dealing with the subject that the words used in foreign language should be used in that sense.

चोदितं तु प्रतीयेताऽविरोधात्प्रमाणेन ॥ १ । ३ । १० ॥

चोदितं laid down as duty; तु on the other hand, प्रतीयेत is recognised; अविरोधात् by reason of no contradiction प्रमाणेन with the authority.

10. On the other hand that which is not opposed to authority is recognized as a duty laid down.

The author says that there are certain words of foreign origin which have their conventional sense attached to them. Should they be accepted? The general proposition is laid down "Everything that cannot be shown to be unreasonable should be presumed to be laid down and sanctioned by the Veda." The examples are given as सामस्य, पिक, नीम &c., in the भाष्य.

Adhikarana VII Sūtras 11-14 dealing with the subject that the कल्पसूत्र is not an authority independently.

प्रयोगशास्त्रमिति चेत् ॥ १।३।११ ॥

11. If you say that the treatises on the sacrifice (कल्पसूत्र) are an authority.

The objector says that the कल्पसूत्र are authorities because they are the works on sacrifice by the R̥sis.

नाऽसन्नियमात् ॥ १।३।१२ ॥

न not ; असन्नियमात् by reason of the absence of accents.

12. No, they are not authorities because there are no accents as we find in the Veda.

The author replies that the कल्पसूत्र are no authorities as there are no स्वर as we find in the Veda.

अवाक्यशेषाच्च ॥ १।३।१३ ॥

13. And by not being supplementary to any text.

The author gives another reason for not holding the कल्पसूत्र infallible because we do not find the relation of the subordinate and principal sentence in them as we do in the Vedic text. One is मुख्य and the other is गौण. One a विधि and the other an अर्थवाद.

सर्वत्र च प्रयोगात्सन्निधानशास्त्राच्च ॥ १।३।१४ ॥

सर्वत्र everywhere ; प्रयोगात् by reason of the application सन्निधान शास्त्राच्च by reason of their compilation.

14. And by their applicability everywhere and their being mere compilations.

The author advances another reason for not holding the कल्पसूत्र infallible. He says that they are applicable in the sacrifice as said everywhere in them, and further they are only compilations from other works. Some commentators say that they cannot be held infallible by reason of containing contradictory statements.

Adhikarṇa: VIII. Sūtras 15-23 dealing with होलिका or otherwise called the theory of general revelation.

अनुमानव्यवस्थानात्तत्संयुक्तं प्रमाणं स्यात् ॥ १।३।१५॥

अनुमान inference ; व्यवस्थानात् by adjustment ; तत्संयुक्तं pertaining to the non-Veda ; प्रमाण authority , स्यात् is

15. Anything established by inference and adjustment is an authority.

The objector says that anything connected with the non-Vedas* being established by the inference and adjustment is valid. The adhikarṇa deals with the validity of the local customs. According to शबर the meaning is that the Smṛitis have sanctioned certain local rites which are valid for the locality, such as होलिका for the eastern country. In this view the translation of the sūtra is "By reason of the establishment of the authority of the smṛiti the local custom (तत्संयुक्तं) is valid to that extent."

अपि वा सर्व धर्मः स्यात्तन्नयायत्वाद्धिधानस्य ॥ १।३।१६॥

अपि वा not so , सर्व धर्मः universal duty , स्यात् is , तन्नयायत्वात् by reason of its being valid and proper , धिधानस्य of the duty that is laid down.

16. No, it is a universal duty because of the validity of the duty laid down.

The author says that it is the universal duty , it can not be said to be binding in that locality only

दर्शनाद्विनियोगः स्यात् ॥ १।३।१७॥

दर्शनात् by seeing ; विनियोगः applicability , स्यात् is.

17. By reason of seeing (them in the Vedas), their applicability is (justified).

The author gives a reason that if we find the practice sanctioned by the Veda, its applicability is justified by all means.

लिङ्गभावाच्च नित्यस्य ॥ १।३।१८॥

लिङ्गभावात् by reason of the absence of the marks , च and ; नित्यस्य of the permanent or eternal.

16. And by reason of the absence of the marks of the eternal.

The author gives an additional reason why a duty is universal ; it has a sign of eternality. If truth is a duty, it is so always and everywhere ; so when a so-called duty has no marks of eternality it can not be accepted.

आख्या हि देशसंयोगात् ॥ १ । ३ । १६ ॥

आख्या designation , हि because ; देशसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the country.

19. Because the name by reason of the connection with country.

The author says that if a duty is called after a country it can not lose its universal and eternal character. You can call it by any name you like.

न स्याद्देशान्तरेष्विति चेत् ॥ १ । ३ । २० ॥

न not ; स्यात् is , देशान्तरेषु in a foreign country , इति चेत् if you say.

20. If you say that such local practice may not be in the foreign country.

The objector says that the hoh is observed in the eastern country! what is to happen when an eastern countryman migrates to another country. ?

स्याद्योगाख्या हि माथुरवत् ॥ १ । ३ । २१ ॥

योगाख्या name by the compound , हि because , माथुरवत् like the man of Mathura.

21. The compound name is like the name of a Mathura man.

The author gives a reply that the name of the local custom is like that of a man who migrates from Mathura and establishes at Calcutta , he is called a native of Mathura. It is a mis-nomer.

कर्मधर्मो वा प्रवणवत् ॥ १ । ३ । २२ ॥

कर्मधर्म practice , वा or , प्रवणवत् like the sloping ground.

22. No, the practice varies just as the sloping ground (in वैश्वदेव

The objector says that there is a difference of practice “ प्राचीन प्रवणे वैश्वदेवेन यजेत ” One should perform वैश्वदेव sacrifice in the eastern slope of the sacrificial ground. So the practice varies according to the locality.

तुल्यं तु कर्तृधर्मेण ॥ १ । ३ । २३ ॥

सुख equal; दुःख on the other hand ; कर्तृवर्मेण by difference of the qualities of the agent.

23. On the other hand it is equal or analogous to the qualities of the agent.

The author gives a reply that the practice does not vary by reason of colour of यजमान or his other qualities, so an established practice can not be changed by the change of the locality.

This adhikaraṇa has been commented on by all the commentators as favouring the validity of the local custom but Mr. Kuṇṭa interprets it just the contrary.

Adhikaraṇa IX Sūtras 24—29 dealing with the correct form of words.

प्रयोगोत्पत्त्यशास्त्रत्वाच्चब्देषु न व्यवस्था स्यात् ॥ १।३।२४॥

प्रयोगोत्पत्ति अशास्त्रत्वात् there being no system as to the origin and their applicability. शब्देषु in words, व्यवस्था rule.

24. There being no system as to the applicability and the origin of words, there is no rule as to words.

There are several words both correct and corrupt for one idea. The objector says that there is no guide for their applicability and the pronunciation, so any word may be used to express an idea.

शब्दे प्रयत्ननिष्पत्तेरपराधस्य भागित्वम् ॥ १।३।२५॥

शब्दे in a word, प्रयत्ननिष्पत्तेः by reason of making an effort; अपराधस्य of mispronunciation or mistake, भागित्वं partaking of 25 On account of the effort in pronouncing a word, there is partaking of the in stake or mispronunciation.

The author gives a reply, he says that different persons make an effort in pronouncing a word, on account of some error, it is wrongly pronounced. This is the reason why there is a variety of words and languages.

अन्यायश्चानेकशब्दत्वम् ॥ १।३।२६॥

अन्याय improper, unjust ; अनेकशब्दत्वम् having the quality of a variety of words.

26. It is improper to have several words for an idea.

The author gives a reason that it is confusing to have several words for the same idea.

तत्र तत्त्वमभियोगविशेषात्स्यात् ॥ १ । ३ । २७ ॥

तत्र there; तत्त्व essential form, अभियोगविशेषात् from particular dissertations; स्यात् is

27. On that subject correct form can be known from special dissertations.

The author says that there is Panini's grammar from which you can know correct forms and pronunciation of words

तदशक्तिश्चानुरूपत्वात् ॥ १ । ३ । २८ ॥

तदशक्ति-their incapacity, च and; अनुरूपत्वात् by reason of the similarity.

28 And by reason of the similar forms, their incapacity (to signify the meaning).

The author says that corrupt words which have given rise to different languages have no power to convey any sense by reason of their false similarity with Sanskrit words. In the author's view all languages are the corrupt forms of words derived from Sanskrit. He considers Sanskrit to be the mother of languages.

एकदेशत्वाच्च विभक्तिव्यत्यये स्यात् ॥ १ । ३ । २९ ॥

• एकदेशत्वात् by reason of its being apart, विभक्तिव्यत्यये in the wrong forms of the declensions; स्यात् is.

29. And in the forms of declensions being parts of the original, they convey sense.

The author says that the corrupt declension of the words being derived from the Sanskrit origin convey sense. Reading the sūtras 28 and 29 together, the corrupt words have no inherent power of their own to convey any sense but because they are derived from Sanskrit words, they convey sense.

Ādhikaraṇa १ Sūtras 30-35 dealing with the subject that the word conveys a form. The worldly and Vedic words are identical

प्रयोगचोदनाभावादर्थैकत्वमविभागात् ॥ १ । ३ । ३० ॥

प्रयोगचोदनाभावात् by reason of directing the application; अर्थैकत्वं unity of the meaning ; अविभागत् by reason of indivisibility.

30. By reason of the direction as to action there is the unity of sense, because there is no distinction.

The objector says that both the Vedic and common words direct action to be done by reason of conveying the same sense, because there is no distinction. What the objector means is that both sets of words convey the same sense, because the words can not be divided.

अद्रव्यशब्दत्वात् ॥ १ । ३ । ३१ ॥

31. Because the word does not apply to a substance.

The objector says that there is no connection with the word and the substance. So there is unity of sense. You can pronounce cow hundred times in different languages, but it will convey one sense only.

अन्यदर्शनाच्च ॥ १ । ३ । ३२ ॥

32. By seeing another.

There is a controversy as to whether a word connotes (आकृति) form or denotes the individuals. When the term horse is used, the peculiar form arises before our mind's eye and when we see a quadruped of the corresponding form in our mind, we stop there and recognize it as a horse; this is one view. The second view is that when we see an individual horse we make a form and generalize from seeing different horses, so our knowledge of the horse arises from seeing the individual horse. So the question is whether a word conveys a form or an individual. The objector in these 3 sūtras establishes the theory that a word conveys an idea of an individual. Though there may be several words to convey the sense, still they all mean one thing because the words are indivisible and because repeating the words several times it does not convey different animals but only one individual, and when one is lost you can at once substitute the other in its place.

आकृतिस्तु क्रियार्थत्वात् ॥ १ । ३ । ३३ ॥

आकृतिः form ; तु on the other hand , क्रियार्थत्वात् by reason of having the action for its object

33. It is form by reason of its having an action for its object.

The author examines the other side of the question and it may be said that it is his own view. The word indicates a form, then only an action can be performed. If on the objectors' theory the term 'cow' conveyed an idea of an individual cow then on the loss of one individual cow you can not have another in a sacrifice as that individual is lost.

न क्रिया स्यादिति चेदर्थान्तरे विधानं न द्रव्य-
मिति चेत् ॥ १।३।३४ ॥

न not; क्रिया action; स्यात् is; इति चेत् if you say; अर्थान्तरे in another object; विधानं direction, द्रव्य substance

34. If you say "no action is possible," in the substitution of another object there is not a substance" if you say.

The author summarises the objection of the objector, you say that if a word indicated a form no action was possible, for example 'consecrate barley' there is no form in existence, secondly no second cow can be substituted for the lost cow and and if it is done it will not be the substance. You can not say one cow or two cows &c with reference to a form.

तदर्थत्वात्प्रयोगिस्यविभागः ॥ १।३।३५ ॥

तदर्थत्वात् by reason of its being for that object, प्रयोगस्य of the performance of an act; अविभागः indivisibility.

35. By reason of the word conveying a form, the performance of the act is undivided

The author sums up the whole controversy and says in reply that the word indicates a form and at the time of the action it applies to the individual. Now when a sentence, "Bring a cow" is uttered to a servant, he has at once before his mind's eye a form, the servant goes and when he gets hold of an individual cow and finds it to correspond with the form which he has before his mind's eye, he brings it. So the words originally indicate form (genus) but at the time of application they apply to individuals.

END OF PĀDA III.

PĀDA IV.

Adhikāṣaṇa I, Sūtras 1-2 dealing with the subject that the words उद्भिद् &c. are the name of the sacrifice.

उक्तं समाम्नायैदमर्थं तस्मात्सर्वं तदर्थं स्यात् ॥१।४।१॥

उक्तं said, समाम्नायैदमर्थं this is the object of the Veda, तस्मात् therefore;
सर्वं all; तदर्थं for that object, स्यात् is.

1. It is said that the object of the Veda is sacrifice; therefore all is for that object.

‘अग्निं वाचैत’ In the preceding pāda, विधि, अर्थवाद, गुणवाद, and नञ् are described. What is the meaning of the sentence “one should sacrifice with अग्निं?” Whether the instrumental case is वैयधिकरण or सामानाधिकरण. If अग्निं be considered independent of the sacrifice, it will be a material with which the sacrifice is to be performed; if it be considered identical with the sacrifice, then it means the sacrifice. The view of the objector is that every thing in the Veda points to the sacrifice, so it is a case of वैयधिकरण and means a quality (गुण विधान) ।

त्वात् ॥ १।४।२॥

अपि वा not so; नाम धेयं name, स्थाद्य is; यत् that, उत्पत्तौ in the origin; अविधायकत्वात् by reason of being not injunctive

2. Not so, it is a name; it is a new thing in its origin not known before, by reason of its being not injunctive

The author says that it is a proper noun, it does not denote any-thing that is known to us already, because it does not lay down any material. It is a case of सामानाधिकरण Let us play blind man’s buff; it is a case of सामानाधिकरण and is a name of a particular play, but let us play at bat and ball; it is a case of वैयधिकरण; it means a play in which bats and balls are used. You may call it मत्स्यवर्णनम् ।

Adhikaraṇa II Dealing with the subject that चित्र etc. are the names of a sacrifice.

यस्मिन् गुणोपदेशः प्रधानतोऽभिसम्बन्धः ॥ १।४।३॥

यस्मिन् in which; गुणोपदेशः description of a quality; प्रधानतः with the principal; अभिसम्बन्धः connection

3. Where there is the description of a quality it is connected with the principal.

“चित्रवायजेतपशुकामः” (तै० सं० २।४।३।१) What is the meaning of चित्र? Is it a गुण विधि or नामधेय. The author says though it describes a quality, yet it is a name of a sacrifice.

Adhikaraṇa III. Dealing with the subject that the terms Agnihotia &c. are the names of a sacrifice.

तत्प्रत्यञ्चान्यशास्त्रम् ॥ १।४।४॥

तत्प्रत्यञ्च that name, च and, अन्यशास्त्रम् in another code.

4. It is known by that name, but the description is in another book.

The author says that Agnihotra is well known but the name does not show what it is. It is described some where else. It is called तद्व्यपदेशन्याय i. e., conventionalism Adhikarana IV. Dealing with the subject that the terms इयेन &c. mean the names of the sacrifices.

तद्व्यपदेशं च ॥ १।४।५॥

5. And the resemblance with that

The इयेन is known by the resemblance with a hawk. Just as a hawk pounces upon a bird of prey, so the sacrificer falls upon one's enemy in the same way.

The author says that the name is given to an object by supposed similarity. It is called तद्व्यपदेशन्याय. Take for example, a play at duck and drake, the play is called after the resemblance of a drake pursuing a duck who is running.

Adhikarana V. Sutras 6 to 8 dealing with the subject that the terms वाजपेय &c. are names

नामधेये गुणश्रुतेः स्याद्विधानमिति चेत् ॥ १।४।६॥

नामधेये in a name, गुणश्रुतेः of the quality, स्यात् is; विधानं laying down, इति चेत् if you say.

6. If you say that in a name there is the mention of the quality.

The objector says that in the name itself there is the mention of the quality, it is therefore a quality and not a proper noun. Take for example "वाजपेयेन यजेत" (१।३।६।९) The वाजपेय means extract of the food grain; it means that he sacrifices with the extract of the food grain.

तुल्यत्वात्क्रिययोर्न ॥ १।४।७॥

तुल्यत्वात् by reason of the similarity, क्रिययोः of the two acts; न not.

7. Not so by reason of the similarity of the acts.

The author says in reply that it can not be so; the reason is that procedure of the वाजपेय is that of उयोतिहोम which belongs to Saumic class and if pure extract of food grain is used, it would belong to हवि class of which the वाजपेय is not. The वाजपेय is therefore the name of a sacrifice.

एकशब्दे परार्थवत् ॥ १।४।८॥

देकशब्दे in one word ; परार्थत्वात् by reason of dependance on another.

8. By reason of dependance on another, in one word (two things are meant.)

The author gives a reason in support of his view. राजपेवेन स्वराज्यकामो यजेत. If you take राजपेय to be a material then in one sentence you will have two sentences viz., one who is desirous of sovereignty should make a sacrifice ; he should sacrifice with the extract of the food grain. This interpretation will make the object dependent on another. The sovereignty depends upon a sacrifice and the sacrifice depends upon the material i.e., the extract of the food grain. In order to avoid this it should be considered a proper noun.

Adhikarapa VI. Dealing with the subject that the terms आग्नेय &c. are not names

तद्गुणाः the action and its qualities, तु on the other hand ; विधीरेत् laid down ; अविभागात् by reason of indivisibility ; विधानार्थं for the purpose of laying down , न चेत् if not, अन्येन by another , शिष्टाः to be directed.

9. On the other hand the action and its qualities are laid down because they can be separated for the purpose of laying down ; otherwise the qualities will be known by another.

आग्नेय &c. are mentioned. The question is whether they are qualities or names. The author says that they are गुणविधि. They lay down the action and its qualities because they are inseparable ; if you do not admit that they are inseparable, then you will have a recourse to others for the description of the quality. So the terms like आग्नेय &c are common nouns expressive of quality.

Adhikarapa VII. Dealing with the subject that the terms बर्हि &c. do not denote things.

बर्हिराज्ययोरसंस्कारे शब्दलाभादतच्छब्दः ॥ १।४।१०॥

बर्हिः आज्ययो of the grass and the clarified butter ; असंस्कारे though not consecrated ; शब्दलाभात् by use ; अतच्छब्दः does not mean consecrated things.

10. The use of the terms of grass and ghee in consecrated things does not convey the meaning of consecrated things.

The author says that बर्हि and आज्य are used in ordinary parlance ; they are not confined to sacrifice, they are therefore generic terms.

Adhikaraṇa VIII. Dealing with the subject that the terms प्रोक्षणी etc. are compound.

प्रोक्षणीष्वर्थसंयोगात् ॥ १।४।११ ॥

प्रोक्षणीषु in प्रोक्षणी (sacrificial vessel), अर्थसंयोगात् because of the meaning of the component parts.

11. In the terms प्रोक्षणी &c. by reason of the meaning of the component parts.

The author says that the terms like प्रोक्षणी &c. are compound words.

Adhikaraṇa IX. Dealing with the subject that the terms like निर्मन्थ्य &c. are Compound,

तथानिर्मन्थ्ये ॥ १।४।१२ ॥

12. Similarly. निर्मन्थ्य ।

The term निर्मन्थ्य is also a compound.

Adhikaraṇa X Sūtra 13—16. Dealing with the subject that the terms वैश्वदेव &c. are names.

वैश्वदेवे विकल्प इति चेत् ॥ १।४।१३ ॥

13. If you say that there is option in the term वैश्वदेव.

The objector says that in the term वैश्वदेव you have a full option ; you may consider it गुणविधि or कर्मनामधेय.

न वा प्रकरणात्प्रत्यक्षविधानाच्च न हि प्रकरणं
द्रव्यस्य ॥ १।४।१४ ॥

न वा not-so, प्रकरणात् by direct statement, च and ; न not ; हि because ; प्रकरणं context ; द्रव्यस्य of the thing.

14. Not so, by reason of the context and the direct statement because a context can not override a statement.

The author's view is that वैश्वदेव is a name, the reason which he assigns is that context and direct statement both go to show that वैश्वदेव is the name of a sacrifice.

मिथश्चानर्थसम्बन्धः ॥ १।४।१५ ॥

मिथः breaking into component parts ; अनर्थसंबन्धः connection with meaninglessness.

15 If you break the component parts there will be meaninglessness.

The author gives an additional reason in support of his view. If you consider वैश्वदेव to be a compound word and derive the meaning from the component parts it will be meaningless. So you will have to consider it a proper noun. i. e. a name of an action.

परार्थत्वाद्गुणानाम् ॥ १।४।१६ ॥

16. The qualities being subservient to another.

The गुण means subsidiary, subordinate, but it is here translated by quality. The main object is the sacrifice while subsidiary actions are गुणः. In this view also वैश्वदेव is the name of the sacrifice which is the principal thing and does not depend upon any thing.

Adhikarapa XI. Sūtra 17-22 dealing with the subject that "eight" in वैश्वानर is अर्धवाद्.

पूर्ववन्तोऽविधानार्थास्तत्सामर्थ्यं सामाम्नाये ॥ १।४।१७ ॥

पूर्ववन्तः Those that are known already ; अविधानार्थाः are not injunctive in object ; तत्सामर्थ्यं that power, सामाम्नाये in the Veda.

17. What is known is not a विधि, its force is in the Vedas.

The अष्टाकपाल etc. are used in वैश्वानर sacrifice, what is the force of numeral ? whether it is a part of a विधि or is it an अर्धवाद् ? The objector says that as the Vedic texts are विधिवाक्य, they are विधिस. The objector defines a विधि by negative. What is known is not a विधि. The text which lays down any invisible effect is a विधि and in the Veda the texts are injunctive ; hence the objector concludes that the numerals used are parts of that विधि.

गुणस्य तु विधानार्थं तद्गुणाः प्रयोगे स्युरनर्थका न हि तं प्रत्यर्थवत्ताऽस्ति ॥ १।४।१८ ॥

गुणस्य of a quality ; तु on the other hand ; विधानार्थं in the original statement ; तद्गुणाः its qualities ; प्रयोगे in the practical application ; स्युः are ; अनर्थकाः meaningless ; न not ; हि because , तं प्रति to it , अर्थवत्ता the quality of being indicative ; अस्ति is.

18. No, they are qualities for the विधि ; its qualities are meaningless in the practical application, because it has no independent signification.

The author's reply is that the numerals used are अर्धवाद्. They are subordinate qualities and they have nothing to do with the practical application of the वृत्त ; because they have no independent significations. Take for example "Feed 12 cows." This is a sentence ; the number is only a quality ; the details will be the context, feed 7 with grass and the rest with husk.

This is the difference between a वाक्य and a प्रकरण. The वाक्य predominates over the context. The subordinate sentence can not lay down any action, it only supports or qualifies the विधि.

तच्छेषो नोपपद्यते ॥ १।४।१६ ॥

तच्छेषः its subsidiary, न, not, उपपद्यते possible.

19. Its subsidiary is not possible.

The objector says that it is not possible to have a subsidiary to a वृत्त. It is आभास sūtra introductory to another sūtra which follows it. The main original statement can not be divided by its context which only explains it.

अविभागाद्विधानार्थे स्तुत्यर्थेनोपपद्येरन् ॥ १।४।२० ॥

अविभागाद् by reason of the indivisibility ; विधानार्थे in the object of a विधि ; स्तुत्यर्थेन with the object of eulogy, उपपद्येरन् may be possible.

20. In the object of the विधि being indivisible, they are possible as praises.

The author says that the विधि and its quality are indivisible and so the latter may be by way of praise. The context can not be separated from the main statement and independently considered. The context therefore only enlarges the main statement, a procedure which determines the relation between them. You can not separate the अर्थवाद from the विधि. The विधि lays down a rule and the अर्थवाद recommends it.

कारणं स्यादिति चेत् ॥ १।४।२१ ॥

कारण cause, reason ; स्यात् is, इति चेत् if you say.

21. If you say that there is a reason.

The objector says that there are different objects. In a वैश्वानर sacrifice if 12 pans are used, it is with the object of offspring ; when 9 pans are used, it is with the object of obtaining power ; if 10 pans are used, it is with the object of obtaining food. The कपालs therefore in a वैश्वानर sacrifice vary according to the desire of the sacrifice.

अनर्थक्यादकारणं कर्तुर्हि कारणानि गुणार्थो हि विधीयते ॥ ११४।२२॥

अनर्थक्यात् by reason of the meaninglessness; अकारणं not cause; कर्तुः of the agent ; हि because ; कारणानि causes, गुणार्थः quality, विधीयते is laid down.

22. They are not a reason because of the meaninglessness ; because the reasons pertain to the performers, therefore they are said to be only qualities.

The author says that so many motives as said in the commentary on sūtra 21 as instigating the variations of कपाल are not the causes ; if you say that they are, then there will arise a split of sentences and a fault of meaninglessness. The motive belongs to the performer who uses 12 pans for the offspring, but the result accrues to the son. It is therefore proper to consider it अर्थवाद. This अधिकरण is called वैश्वानर म्याय i. e. the particular statements under a general statement only explain the details and are अर्थवाद ।

Adhikarapa XII. Dealing with the subject that प्रत्सर &c of the term यजमान are praises.

तत्सिद्धिः ॥ ११४।२३॥

23. Its accomplishment.

What is a praise or अर्थवाद ? that which enlarges a subject is अर्थवाद, as for instance यजमानः प्रत्सरः (तै० ब्रा० ३।३।७।३) यजमानो वा एक कपालः (तै० ब्रा० १।६।३।७) As Rama is a tiger It is a figure of speech

Adhikarapa XII.1 — Dealing with the subject that the ब्राह्मण्य &c. of the term अग्नेय are praises

जातिः ॥ ११४।२४॥

24. Class.

It is also a figure of speech: आग्नेयो वै ब्राह्मणः (तै० ब्रा० २।७।३।१) द्रौत्रो वै राजन्वः तै० सं० (२।४।१।१) वैश्वदेवो हि वैश्यः । As for example 'Cat is a domestic tiger' cat and tiger belong to the same genus. Fire is also produced from the mouth and the Brāhman is also produced from the mouth.

Adhikarapa XII. 2. Dealing with the subject that the terms दूय &c. are praises of यजमान.

सारूप्यात् ॥ ११४।२५॥

25. By reason of similarity.

The अर्थवाद arises by reason of similarity, for example वज्रमालो रूपः, आदित्यो रूपः It is a metaphor Adhikaraṇa XV. Dealing with the subject that the terms अपशु & c. are the praises of cow &c.

प्रशंसा ॥ १।४।२६ ॥

26. Praise.

The praise fall under the head of अर्थवाद. As for example, "Beasts excepting cows and horses are no beasts."

अपशवो वा अन्ये गो अश्वेभ्यः । (तै० सं० ५।२।६।४)

Adhikaraṇa XVI. Dealing with the subject that by means of large number, the सृष्टि (sacri-sial brick) is described. It is called भूमा adhikaraṇa.

भूमा ॥ १।४।२७ ॥

27. A multitude.

That which expresses a large number is also an अर्थवाद. Take for example the term 'Seth'. All the banias whether poor or rich are called seth but if a man happens to be rich he is also called a seth. Take another example of Paṇḍit. All the Kashmiris whether literate or illiterate are called pandits, but a non-Kashmiri who is a learned scholar is also called a pandit. सृष्टी रूपदधाति (तै० सं० ५।३।४।०) He disposes bricks called सृष्टि. It is not known which brick is called सृष्टि but as in the यजन sacrifice सृष्टि abound, so all bricks are called सृष्टि.

* Adhikaraṇa XVII. Dealing with the subject that the term प्राणधृत् is by way of praise.

लिङ्गसमवायात् ॥ १।४।२८ ॥

28. By the permanent connection with the badge or symbol.

All the pilgrims are called flag-bearers. All the pilgrims do not carry flags only a few of them carry flags i. e. ध्वज. Take for instance प्राणधृत्; the bricks on which प्राणधृत् verses are recited are called प्राणधृत् but other verses are also recited; if the strict sense of प्राणधृत् be insisted upon, then the other verses which are not प्राणधृत् will be useless by reason of those bricks on which प्राणधृत् verses are not recited, but which are called प्राणधृत्.

Adhikaraṇa XVIII. Dealing with the subject that the doubtful sense can be determined by syntactical ellipsis.

सन्दिग्धेषु वाक्यशेषात् ॥ १।४।२९ ॥

सद्विषयेषु in doubtful meanings, वाक्यशेषात् by ellipsis.

29. In doubtful meanings by ellipsis.

The example will clear the sense of the sūtra. A man taking food says to his servant "Servant, I am thirsty, bring....." The servant at once understands that the master wants water. So in the Vedic sentences.

शर्करावका उपदम्यात् । तेजोयुत ॥ (ते. मा. ३।१२।५।१२) "He places besmeared pebbles, the light is ghee". From the passages taken together it is clear that the pebbles "besmeared with ghee" is meant. It is called the principle of वाक्यशेष.

Adhikaraṇa XIX. Dealing with the determination of the sense of those that do not admit of sense by means of the inherent potency thereof.

अर्थाद्वा कल्पनैकदेशत्वात् ॥ १।४।३० ॥

अर्थात् by force of the sense, वा or ; कल्पना adjustment of sense ; एक देशत्वात् by reason of being a part.

30. An ellipsis is to be determined by the power of the meaning because the adjustment of sense is the part of the Veda.

शुवेनावाचयति स्वधितिनावचयति हस्तेनावचयति : He makes an offering with a ladle, he makes an offering with a knife, he makes an offering with the hand. The sense requires that in the first passage ghee is meant. in the second passage flesh is meant and in the third grain etc are meant Take the examples. He ate on a mat He ate in a bellmetal vessel. The meaning is that he sat on a mat and took his food and in the other passage it means, that he took his food which was served in bell-metal vessels

END OF PĀDA IV

CHAPTER II.

PĀDA I.

Abhikaraṇa I. Sūtras 1-4 Dealing with the subject that the अपूर्व is known from a verb.

भावार्थाः कर्मशब्दास्तेभ्यः क्रिया प्रतीयेतैष ह्यर्थो
विधीयते ॥ २।१।१॥

भावार्थाः signifying existence ; कर्मशब्दाः words denoting action ; तेभ्यः from them ; क्रिया action , प्रतीयेत is known, एष this, हि because, अर्थः object, fruit ; विधीयते is laid down

1. The words signifying existence are words denoting action ; from them an action is known , this object is laid down.

In the first chapter the author has discussed the theory of words ; he has described those words which denote some name or quality i. e. the noun and the adjective of grammar. Now he is going to treat of those words which are known in grammar as 'verbs.' This is very important from the Mimamsā point of view. The substantives i. e. the noun and the adjective independently convey their meaning , as soon as the word is uttered, you know what it means.

In this sūtra the author says that words denoting existence are words indicating action ; this definition of Mimamsā does not differ from that which is given in grammar.

* The verb is never independent in meaning, it means an action ; it presupposes the agent and the object. It is from the verbs that what is laid down for you is a rule of guidance.

सर्वेषां भावोऽर्थ इति चेत् ॥ २।१।२॥

सर्वेषां of all , भावः action, existence ; अर्थः meaning , इति चेत् if you say.

2. If you say that the meaning of all words is existence.

The objector says that all words denote existence.

येषामुत्पत्तौ स्वे प्रयोगे रूपोपलब्धिस्तानि नामानि
तस्मात्तेभ्यः पराकाङ्क्षा भूतत्वात्स्वे प्रयोगे ॥ २।१।३॥

येषां of those ; उत्पत्तौ in the origin ; स्वे in their own , प्रयोगे application, use , रूपोपलब्धिः perception of form , तानि they , नामानि names ; तस्मात् therefore; तेभ्यः from them; पराकीर्ण independent; भूतत्वाद् by reason of the existence.

3. The words in whose origin while used, there is the perception of the form or substance are called nouns; therefore from them dependence on others is removed by reason of the existence in their use.

The author replies the objector and says that all words do not denote existence. Certain words when used, at once convey the things in the objective world; they are the names of the substances and qualities which you perceive. They are independent in their meaning. When you say 'a cow,' you at once see an object corresponding to your idea of a cow; the word does not depend upon any other for its meaning.

येषां तूत्पत्तावर्थे स्वे प्रयोगो न विद्यते तान्याख्या-
तानि तस्मात्तेभ्यः प्रतीयेताऽऽश्रितत्वात्प्रयोगस्य ॥१॥२॥४॥

येषां of those; तु on the other hand, अर्थे in the object, स्वे in their own; प्रयोगः use, application, न not, विद्यते exists, तानि they; आख्यातानि verbs; तस्मात् therefore; तेभ्यः from them, प्रतीयेत is known, आश्रितत्वाद् by reason of being dependant, प्रयोगस्य of the application.

4. On the other hand the words which do not have a meaning in their use, they are verbs, therefore from them is known (action) by reason of the dependence of the use.

Those words which have no meaning in themselves and which depend for their meaning on others but which are very important by reason of denoting action are verbs Adhikaraṇa II. Dealing with the existence of अपूर्व (extraordinary principle).

चोदना पुनरारम्भः ॥ २॥१॥५॥

चोदना exciting motive, laying down a motive, पुनः again; आरम्भ commencement.

5. There is the exciting cause and then the commencement.

The author explains the principle of अपूर्व. स्वर्गकामोयजेत. A person desirous of heaven should perform a sacrifice, in this sentence the fruit is heaven which is an incentive to perform a sacrifice. This fruit which is an invisible result is अपूर्व. This instigates one to the performance of a sacrifice.

Adhikaraṇa III. Sūtras 2-8. Division of acts into principal and subordinate.

तानि द्वैधं गुणप्रधानभूतानि ॥ २।१।६ ॥

तानि they, द्वैध of two kinds, गुणप्रधानभूतानि principal and subordinate.

6. They are of two kinds principal and subordinate.

There is a division of acts into principal and subordinate.

Definition of the principal

यैर्द्रव्यं न चिकीर्ष्यते तानि प्रधानभूतानि द्रव्यस्य गुणभूतत्वात् ॥ २।१।७ ॥

यैः by which; द्रव्य substance, न not; चिकीर्ष्यते is desired to be acted upon, प्रधानभूतानि principal, द्रव्यस्य of the substance, गुणभूतत्वात् being subordinate.

7. By which no substance is desired to be acted upon, they are principal because the substance is there subordinate.

When the object is not to produce any visible effect upon any substance it is a principal act, because producing of the visible effect on the substance is subordinate. As for example in the performance of a sacrifice the main object is the attainment of heaven, which is invisible; while the different acts such as kindling of the fire and preparing of the पुरोडाश &c. the result of which is visible on the different substances used in the sacrifice, are subsidiary acts.

• Definition of the subordinate.

यैस्तु द्रव्यं चिकीर्ष्यते गुणस्तत्र प्रतीयेत तस्य द्रव्यप्रधानत्वात् ॥ २।१।८ ॥

यैः by which, तु on the other hand, गुणः subordinate; तत्र there, चिकीर्ष्यते is desired to be acted upon, प्रतीयेत is known; तस्य of it; द्रव्य प्रधानत्वात् by reason of the substance being principal.

8. On the other hand by which any substance is desired to be acted upon, there subordinate act is known because of the substance being principal.

When the object is to prepare any visible effect upon a substance, such act is subordinate act.

Adhikaraṇa IV Sūtras 9-12 Dealing with the subject that washing &c. are not principal acts.

धर्ममात्रे तु कर्म स्यादनिर्वृत्तेः प्रयाजवत् ॥२॥१॥६॥

धर्ममात्रे in all qualities ; तु on the other hand ; कर्म principal act ; स्यात् is ; अनिर्वृत्तेः by reason of the effect being not produced or visible ; प्रयाजवत् like प्रयाज.

9. On the other hand, in all actions there is the principal act by reason of no visible effect being produced like प्रयाज ।

The objector says that all acts are principal such as the performance of Sandhyā and ablution &c, because they produce no visible effect. The प्रयाज mantras are recited in a sacrifice and the reciting of these mantras are considered to be principal.

So the objector says that if your test is that act which produces no visible effect is principal, then all acts are principal.

तुल्यश्रुतित्वाद्देतरैः सधर्मः स्यात् ॥२॥१॥७०॥

तुल्यश्रुतित्वात् by reason of the similarity of declension ; वा on the other hand ; इतरैः with others ; सधर्मः of the same class ; स्यात् is.

10. On the other hand, by reason of the similarity of declension, they are of the same class with others

The author's reply is that they are subordinate actions. The object is always in the accusative case as for example मीहीनचहति, अग्निं संमष्टि, पुरोडाशं पर्यग्निकरोति. The material upon which any effect is to be produced is in the accusative case, as he removes the husk from the rice., Here the visible effect of removing the husk is produced, so these acts are all subordinate acts.

द्रव्योपदेश इति चेत् ॥२॥१॥७१॥

द्रव्योपदेशः mention of the substance ; इति चेत् if it be said.

11. If it be said that there is a direct mention of the material.

The objector says "you are right when you say that the objective case is used when material is sacrificially acted upon ; but what do you say when the material is directly offered though used in the accusative form ? As सकृद्भुज्यते ।"

न तदर्थत्वाल्लोकवत्तस्य च शेषभूतत्वात् ॥२॥१॥७२॥

न not ; तदर्थत्वात् by reason of its being for it ; लोकवत् as the common life, तस्य of its ; भूतत्वात् by reason of its being subsidiary.

12. No ; it being for the sacrifice just as in the common life ; and its being subordinate.

The author says " you are wrong. सक्तु is a material offered to the fire ; it is a means of the sacrifice. So it is subordinate. There are several acts performed during the course of a sacrifice. The sacrifice is the principal act which produces अपूर्व and all acts such as pounding of rice cleaning it and other similar acts which all lead to the performance of the sacrifice are subordinate."

Adhikaraṇa V. Sūtras 13 - 29 dealing with the subject that the स्तोत्र etc. are principal.

स्तुतशस्त्रयोस्तु संस्कारो याज्यावद्देवताभिधान-
त्वात् ॥ २।१।१३ ॥

स्तुत poetical songs, शस्त्रयोः of the prose work, तु on the other hand ; संस्कारः subordinate, याज्यावत् like the याज्या mantras ; देवताभिधानत्वात् by reason of the praise of the gods.

13. On the other hand the poetical and prose praises are subordinate by reason of the praises of the gods.

The objector says that the praises that are sung in poetry and prose are only गुणकर्म as said in the preceding adhikaraṇa because of the praises of the gods.

अर्थेन त्वपकृष्येत देवतानामचोदनार्थस्य गुण-
भूतत्वात् ॥ २।१।१४ ॥

अर्थेन by the sense, तु on the other hand, अपकृष्येत is transferred ; देवतानामचोदनार्थस्य of the mention of the name of the deity, गुणभूतत्वात् by reason of its being subordinate.

14. On the other hand there will be transference by the sense because of the mention of the dieties' name being subordinate.

The author says "If your position be accepted then the principle of transference will be applied which will violate the syntactical sequence and proximity. ययामित्वाशूरनो नुमः (तै० सं० २।३।१४२) this occurs in तैत्तिरीयसंहिता and directly mentions इन्द्र. Then in the same संहिता in the अग्निहोम सोम at ब्रह्म-यामि the passage that occurs is महानिन्द्रभोजसा. (तै० सं० १।३।२०१) In the latter passage we find the name of महान्द्र ; it is subordinate and will have to be carried where principal सम occurs. This offends against the principles क्रम sequence and of समिधिः. Proximity it is therefore not desirable.

वशावद्धा गुणार्थं स्यात् ॥ २।१।१५ ॥

वशावद् like a barren goat, वा on the other hand, गुणार्थं subordinate ; स्यात् is.

15. Or it is subordinate like a barren goat.

The objector says, "you do not accept the sentence containing praises to be subordinate sentences, there you are mistaken. The two passages quoted by you from the तैत्तिरीय संहिता are not independent. The first passage containing the praise of इन्द्र is a general statement and the second passage mentioning महेन्द्र is special, so they both should be read together like वशा. See the passage सावा एषा सर्वं देवत्यायदजावशा वायव्यमालमेत. (तै० ३।१।३।२) So the special is to be read with the general. The first is general and the second is special.

16. No, by reason of the affinity of the Śruti text.

The author says that there is a close affinity of the Śruti texts with the gods. The Śruti which describes इन्द्र is the ऐन्द्र mantra and that which describes महेन्द्र is माहेन्द्र. So there is a close affinity between इन्द्र and ऐन्द्रमन्त्र and माहेन्द्र with माहेन्द्र मन्त्र. The gods are different, so your position is untenable; both the texts are independent by the close affinity with the respective gods described therein

व्यपदेशभेदाच्च ॥ २।१।१७ ॥

व्यपदेशभेदाच्च by the difference of the name, च and

17. And by reason of the difference of the name.

The author gives a reason in support of his view, he says that we find the praises in honour of the gods, they mention, as for instance ऐन्द्र and माहेन्द्र।

गुणश्चानर्थकः स्यात् ॥ २।१।१८ ॥

गुणः quality; च and, अनर्थकः useless, स्यात् is.

18. And the quality will be useless.

The author supports his view, he says that if इन्द्र and महेन्द्र be the same, then the adjective महात् is useless. This fact also goes to show that they are two different dieties.

तथा याज्यापुरोरुचोः ॥ २।१।१६ ॥

तथा similarly; याज्यापुरोरुचोः of the याज्या and पुरोरुच verses.

19. Similarly of याज्या and पुरोरुच verses.

The author advances another reason and says that the याज्यामन्त्र and पुरोरुचमन्त्र of इन्द्र are different from the याज्या and पुरोरुच verses of महिन्द्र. So the gods are different.

वशायामर्थसमवायात् ॥ २।१।२० ॥

वशायाम् in a barren goat; अर्थसमवायात् by the affinity of the sense.

20. In the case of a barren goat by the affinity of the sense.

The objector says that you have given the example of the term वशः; but it is synonymous with goat. So the analogy does not hold good.

यच्चेति वाऽर्थवत्त्वात्स्यात् ॥ २।१।२१ ॥

यच्चेति which; इति this; वा on the other hand; अर्थवत्त्वात् by reason of being of use; स्यात् is.

21. On the other hand, which (where Indra is, there is transference,) by reason of its being for some purpose.

The objector says that wherever there is इन्द्र, it can be transferred there, so that it may be of meaning, this does not violate the principle of sequence and juxtaposition.

न त्वाम्नातेषु ॥ २।१।२२ ॥

न not; तु on the other hand, आम्नातेषु in the Vedic matter.

22. On the other hand, not in the Vedic matter.

The author says that the principle of उत्कर्ष and अवकर्ष does not apply to Vedic mantras.

दृश्यते ॥ २।१।२३ ॥

23. Seen.

The objector says that the principle of अवकर्ष and उत्कर्ष applies to vedic mantras, as for instance, अक्ष सूक्त in राजसूय; अथिक्ता सूक्त in यजुर्वेदश्रुति and पारिलब्ध in अश्वमेध.

अपि वा श्रुतिसंयोगात्प्रकरणे स्तौतिशंसती क्रियोत्पत्तिं विदध्याताम् ॥ २।१।२४॥

अपिवा not so ; श्रुतिसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the Vedic text, प्रकरणे in the context, स्तौतिशंसती he praises and extols ; क्रियोत्पत्तिं production of the action, विदध्याताम् conduce

24. Not so, by reason of the connection of the Vedic text in the same context ; the terms "he praises and he extols" produce invisible result.

The term स्तौति is used for स्तोत्र and शंसति for शस्त्र. The former is the poetical work and the latter is the prose work. The author says that both the poetical and prose work produce the invisible effect by repetition. Any thing that produces the invisible extraordinary result is principal. So the praises sung of gods in poetry and prose are both principal.

25. And by reason of the difference of words.

The author gives an additional reason in support of his view. He says that these songs are to be repeated in a particular way. The Vedas themselves have given direction to their repetition, this shows that the repetition of these verses produce the extraordinary invisible result.

अनर्थकं च तद्वचनम् ॥ २।२।२६॥

अनर्थकं meaningless, useless, च and ; तद्वचनं the Vedic texts

26. And the Vedic texts will be useless.

The author gives the second reason in support of his view. He says that in the Vedic passages it is said, he praises Agni with आग्नेय verses. If the आग्नेय verses be not considered to be principal, then the Vedic text will be useless.

अन्यइचार्यः प्रतीयते ॥ २।१।२७॥

अन्यः other ; च and ; अर्यः sense, प्रतीयते is known.

27. And other sense is known.

The author advances the third reason in support of his view. It is said that स्तोत्र and शस्त्र are connected, they are therefore not identical.

The Vedas lay down that they should be repeated to propitiate the gods. Their repetition therefore produces the extraordinary principle, they are thus principal.

अभिधानं च कर्मवत् ॥ २।१।२८॥

अभिधानं name, च and, कर्मवत् like an act

28. And they have names like an action.

The author advances the fourth reason in support of his view, he says that शब्दs have different names as प्रउग and निष्केवत्य &c. Their names also show that they have forms and are principal.

फलनिर्वृत्तिश्च ॥ २।१।२९॥

29. And the accomplishment of an object.

The author gives the fifth reason in support of his view; what he says is that the repetition of the verses and prose passages produce a result. This fact also shows that they are principal.

The स्तोत्र and शब्द are repeated at the time when the offerings are made to the fire, their repetition conduces to the invisible extraordinary result. Hence their importance.

Adhikarana VI. Sūtras 30-31 dealing with the mantras that do not lay down any duty.

विधिमन्त्रयोरैकार्थ्यमैकशब्द्यात् ॥ २।१।३०॥

विधिमन्त्रयोः of ब्रह्मण and संहिता; ऐकार्थ्यं one purport, ऐकशब्द्यात् by reason of having the same word

30. The Brahman and the Samhitā have the same object or sense by reason of the similarity of words.

The objector says that there is no difference between Brahman and Samhitā as the same words in the same sense occur in both of them.

अपि वा प्रयोगसामर्थ्यान्मन्त्रोऽभिधानवाची

स्यात् ॥ २।१।३१॥

अपिवा not so, प्रयोग सामर्थ्यान् by the force of the application; अभिधानवाची conveying the meaning.

31. Not so by the force of application the mantra conveys a meaning.

The author gives his own view that the mantras expound different matters for the enlightenment of the mind

Adhikaraṇa VII. Dealing with the definition of मन्त्रः ।

तच्चोदकेषु मन्त्राख्या ॥ २।१।३२॥

तच्चोदकेषु in instigating that, मन्त्राख्या name of a मन्त्र ।

32. The name of a mantra applies to the instigation of that.

The author defines what mantra is ; it lays down a motive for an action. त् in the Sūtra refers to प्रयोग in Sūtra 31

Adhikaraṇa VIII. Dealing with the definition of ब्राह्मण ।

शेषे ब्राह्मणशब्दः ॥ २।१।३३॥

शेषे in the remainder.

33. To the remainder the word ब्राह्मण applies.

This kind of definition is called शेषिक लक्षणा ।

See for the illustration of the definition in the भाष्य इत्याहोपनिषद्, आख्या-येकास्वरूप, हेतु, निर्वचन, निदा, प्रशंसा, संशय, विधि, परकृति, पुराकल्प are the characteristics of ब्राह्मण.

Adhikaraṇa IX Dealing with the subject that the ऊहा &c are not mantras.

अनाम्नातेष्वमन्त्रत्वमाप्नोतेषु हि विभागः ॥ २।१।३४॥

अनाम्नातेषु in the non-Veda, अमन्त्रत्वं non-mantra ; आप्नोतेषु in the Vedas, हि because, विभागः division

34. The definition of mantra does not apply to that which is not in आप्नोत and the above division is applicable to आप्नोत ।

The division of mantra and Brahman applies to the Vedas, it does not apply to the non-Vedas.

Adhikaraṇa X. Definition of ऋक् ।

तेषामृग्यत्रार्थवशेन पादव्यवस्था ॥ २।१।३५॥

तेषां of them ; ऋक् Rigveda, यत्र where, अर्थवशेन by the meaning, पादव्य-वस्था metrical arrangement.

35. Of those are ऋक् where there is a metrical arrangement by sense.

The characteristic of the ऋक् is a mantra ; secondly it is in metre and thirdly it has a meaning.

Adhikaraṇa XI. Definition of सप्तः ।

गातिषु स माख्या ॥ २।१।३६ ॥

गीतिषु in songs, सामाख्या the names of, साम ।

36. The term साम applies to songs.

The साम has an additional characteristic of its being sung. It is a mantra, has a metrical arrangement and has a sence

Adhikarana XII. Definition of यजुः ।

शेषे यजुः शब्दाः ॥ २।१।३७ ॥

37. In the rest the term यजुः ।

That which is neither ऋक् nor साम is यजुः ।

Adhikarana XIII. Sutras 38-45 Dealing with the subject that निगदः ar यजुः ।

निगदो वा चतुर्थं स्याद्धर्मविशेषात् ॥ २।१।३८ ॥

निगदः a kind of mantra pronounced loudly, वा on the other hand, धर्म विशेषात् by reason of special quality

38. On the other hand, निगदः is the fourth Veda by reason of the special quality

The objector says that there is a text उच्यते ऋक् वा क्रियते, उच्येताम्ना, ऊपायुयजुषा, अत्रनिगदेन, according to it the निगदः is the fourth kind.

व्यपदेशाच्च ॥ २।१।३९ ॥

39. And by reason of the nomenclature.

The objector advances a reason and says that it has a distinct name, this fact also proves that it is a fourth kind.

यजूंषि वा तद्रूपत्वात् ॥ २।१।४० ॥

यजूंषि yajus, वा on the other hand, तद्रूपत्वात् by reason of partaking of that form.

40. On the other hand they are यजुः by reason of having the same form.

The author's reply is that निगदः are यजुः because they resemble the form of यजुः .

वचनाद्धर्मविशेषः ॥ २।१।४१ ॥

वचनान् by command ; धर्मविशेषः the special quality.

41. By reason of the special text there is a special quality.

The author replies the argument of the objector that as the निगदs are pronounced aloud, they form the fourth Veda. He says that there is a special text mentioned in commentary on Sūtra 38, by which there is a special quality attached to the यजुः ; those यजुर्मन्त्रs that are spoken aloud are निगदs.

अर्थान्न ॥ २।१।४२ ॥

42. And by reason of the meaning.

The author supports his view by an additional reason. He says that the etymology of the word also shows that which is pronounced loudly is निगदः (नितरां गच्छते येन सः निगदः) So there are two divisions of यजुः (1) the mantras that are pronounced aloud and (2) those that are pronounced silently and slowly. The former are called निगद.

गुणार्थो व्यपदेशः ॥ २।१।४३ ॥

43. The nomenclature is with the object of quality.

The author replies the argument of the objector embodied in Sūtra 39 He says that it is based on a special quality For example, seat the Brāhmanas in a feast on one side and the Sanyāsīs on the other The Brāhmanas who are not Sanyāsīs are to be seated on one side Similar is the case of निगद. The यजुर्मन्त्रs that are loudly pronounced are called निगद ।

सर्वेषामिति चेत् ॥ २।१।४४ ॥

सर्वेषां of all ; इति चेत् if you say.

44. If you say that all mantras are Nigadas.

The objector says that if that is your definition then all mantras that are pronounced aloud are निगदs.

न, ऋग्व्यपदेशात् ॥ २।१।४५ ॥

न not, ऋग्व्यपदेशात् by reason of having the name of ऋक् ।

45 Not so ; by reason of having the name of ऋक् ।

The author gives a reply to the doubt raised by the objector to the effect that according to the definition all mantras pronounced aloud are निगदs. The author says that is not so, it does not apply ऋक् though it is pronounced aloud ; the yajus mantras that are pronounced aloud are निगदs, Adhikaraṇa XIV. Dealing with the characteristic mark of the unity of a sentence

अर्थैकत्वादेकं वाक्यं साकाङ्क्षं चेद्विभागे
स्यात् ॥ २। १। ४६ ॥

अर्थैकत्वात् by reason of the unity of the meaning, एकवाक्यं one sentence; साकाङ्क्षं dependant, चेत् if, विभागे on division

46 By reason of the unity of sense there is one sentence; on division it is dependant.

The author defines a sentence. If it gives one idea, it is simple sentence, but if there are several sentences mutually depending on each other for their meaning, they constitute a complex sentence. For example, simple sentence "Brave Rāma from a car killed wicked Rāvaṇa with the aid of Hanumāna for the good of the people in a battle" Complex sentence, "When battle raged and when Hanumāna gave his aid, Rāma (who possessed courage and who was mounted on a war chariot killed Rāvaṇa whose conduct was wicked, that the good of the people might be accomplished"

Adhikaraṇa XV. Dealing with the split of sentences

समेषु वाक्यभेदः स्यात् ॥ २। १। ४७ ॥

समेषु in equal, वाक्यभेदः split of sentences, स्यात् is 47 In equal, there is a split of sentences.

The author says that when the sentences are independent and do not depend on each other for their meaning, they are compound or co-ordinate sentences. There is a split sentence. For example, "Rāma came and Kṛṣṇa went"

Adhikaraṇa XVI. Dealing with अनुषंग ।

अनुषङ्गो वाक्यसमाप्तिः सर्वेषु तुल्ययोगित्वात् ॥ २। १। ४८ ॥

अनुषंगः ellipsis; वाक्यपरिसमाप्तिः completion of a sentence; सर्वेषु in all; तुल्ययोगित्वात् by virtue of equal fitness.

48. अनुषंग is a completion of a sentence by reason of the equal fitness in all.

The author explains what अनुषंग is. In order to understand it, it should be borne in mind that there are three essential things of a sentence आकाङ्क्षा, बोध्यता, मङ्गिति. The first is the desirability; if you utter the words now, horse etc. they require the aid of some other words to complete the sense as, "Bring a cow or send the horse" योग्यता is fitness, if you say "sprinkle with fire" it is not suited, it ought to be sprinkle with water संबन्धि is proximity. If you say "Bring" in the morning and 'water' in the evening; these two words have no meaning if uttered so differently Now अनुषंग is the insertion of a word or a phrase in order to complete the sentence, so that every part of it may fit in and may not violate the rules enumerated above. It is an ellipsis to be filled in, in order to fit in there.

Adhikaraṇa XVII Dealing with the subject that there is no अनुषंग when words and sentences intervene.

व्यवायान्नानुषज्येत ॥ २।१।४९ ॥

व्यवायात् by reason of intervention, न not, अनुषज्येत there is अनुषंग.

49. There is no अनुषंग by reason of intervention.

The author gives an example where there is no case of अनुषंग. If there is व्यवधान i.e. intervention by means of a word or phrase which breaks in the continuity, then it is not a case of अनुषंग.

Cases of अनुषंग:—याते अग्नेऽशया राजाशया हराशया तदूर्वर्षिष्ठा गङ्गरेष्ठोऽग्रवचो
अपा वचो त्वेष वचो अपत्तर्धास्वाहा ॥ १ ॥ (तै० सं० १।२।११२)

चिन्मपतिस्त्वापुनातु वाक्यतिस्त्वापुनातु देवस्त्वासत्रितापुनात्वछिद्रेण पवित्रेण वसोः
सूर्यस्य रश्मिभिः ॥ २ ॥ (तै० सं० १।२।११२)

In the 1st passage हे अग्ने याते अयाशया तद् will have to be taken from the third sentence.

हे अग्ने याते राजा शयातनू । हे अग्ने याते हराशयतनू.

For details P. 332 of सैतरीय संहिता of Nīṇṇaya Sāgara edition vol I.

In the 2nd example, you will have to repeat the instrumental case in all three sentences.

चिन्मपतिस्त्वाअछिद्रेण पवित्रेण वसोः सूर्यस्य रश्मिभिः पुनातु Repeat the same in all the three passages.

Illustration where the principle of अनुषंग does not apply.

संते प्राणो वायुना संगच्छतां संयजत्रे रंगानि संयजति राशिषा ॥१॥ (तै० सं० १।३।८।१)

ते प्राणी वायुना संगच्छतां ते अंगानि यजत्रेः संगच्छतां यजपतिः आशिषा संगच्छताम् ॥ २ ॥

Here in the three sentences, the verbs are in different numbers; in the first it is in singular, in the second it is in plural, in the third it is in singular. It is not a case of अनुबन्ध but it is a case of सम्बन्धेय. See I, 4, 29. This is the difference between अनुबन्ध and सम्बन्धेय।

END OF PĀDA I.

PĀDA II.

Adhikaraṇa I Dealing with the subject that the extraordinary principles of subordinate actions are different

शब्दान्तरे कर्मभेदः कृतानुबन्धत्वात् ॥ २ । २ । १ ॥

शब्दान्तरे, On having a different verb, कर्मभेदः, difference of extraordinary principles ; कृतानुबन्धत्वात् by reason of having different verbs.

1. On having a different verb, there will be a difference of extraordinary principle by reason of having different verbs.

It is said in connection with अयोतिष्टोम, सोमेन यजेत दाक्षिणाभिर्बुधोति, हिरण्यमात्रे वाच ददाति. The question is whether the यजति, ददाति, बुधोति all produce one अनुबन्ध or three different अनुबन्ध.

The reply our author gives, is that as there are three different verbs so there are three different actions, and they all produce three different extraordinary principles.

Adhikaraṇa II. Dealing with the subject that the sacrificial fuel etc. produce an extraordinary principle.

एकस्यैवं पुनः श्रुतिरविशेषादनर्थकं हि स्यात् ॥ २ । २ । २ ॥

एकस्य ; of one ; एवं similarly ; पुनः श्रुतिः ; repetition ; अविशेषात् ; there being no distinction , अनर्थकं meaningless ; हि because.

2. Similarly the repetition of one verb produces the invisible effect ; by reason of there being no distinction, there will be meaninglessness.

समिधोयजति, तद्वनपातं यजति इको यजति स्वाहाकारं यजति. (सं० सं० २।६।१।१।२) The author deals with another aspect of the verb in the present adhikaraṇa. In the former adhikaraṇa it is stated that there will be different extraordinary principles caused by the uses of the different verbs. In the present adhikaraṇa it is stated that when the same verb is repeated as in the above extracts, then there will be different extraordinary principles evolved. The author gives an additional reason for it, if you say that the repetition is a common thing and makes no difference there will be meaninglessness which is ways to be avoided by the mīmāṃsakas.

Adhikaraṇa III Sūtras 3-7 dealing with the subject that आघार etc are part of आग्नेय etc. nāpal.

प्रकरणन्तु पौर्णमास्यां रूपावचनात् ॥२१२३॥

प्रकरणं context, तु on the other hand, पौर्णमास्यां in connection with the full moon sacrifice; रूपावचनात् by reason of having no word indicating form.

3. On the other hand the context is in पूर्णमासी याग by reason of there being no word indicating the form.

The adhikaraṇa is an exception to the principles enunciated in the preceding adhikaraṇas. The sūtra will be clear from the different texts noted in the भाष्य ।

यद्वाग्नेयोऽष्टा कपालोऽमावस्यायां पौर्णमास्यां वाच्युतो भवति ॥ (तै० सं० २।६।३।३)
आघार माघार यति (तै० सं० २।५।१।६) ।

आज्यभागौ यजति । खिष्टं कृते समं वयति । पत्नी संयाजान् यजति । समिष्टं यजु-
होति य एवं विद्वान् पौर्णमासीं यजते । (तै० सं० २।३।६।१) ।

य एवं विद्वान् मावास्यां यजते ॥ (तै० सं० २।६।६।२)

These different passages occur at different places in the तैत्तिरीय संहिता. One passage describes the full moon sacrifice in details, if all the passages are taken together, then the description is complete. What is then the relationship of these passages to each other? Are they independent or dependent on the other? We have fully discussed the nature of the complete and coordinate sentences in the preceding chapter. According to the author they are dependent on each other; they form a complete sentence when read together.

विशेषदर्शनाच्च सर्वेषां समेषुह्यप्रवृत्तिः स्यात् ॥२१२४॥

विशेषदर्शनात् By seeing the special description, सर्वेषां of the preceding sentences, समेषु, in the coordinate, प्रवृत्तिः non-application

4. And by reason of seeing the special description, the application of the preceding sentences can not be coordinate.

The author gives a reason in support of his view. He says that there are particular descriptions contained in the latter passages; so the preceding passages can not be independent. What he says is that they can not be the examples of the coordinate sentence but of the complex sentence.

गुणस्तु श्रुतिसंयोगात् ॥ २।२।५ ॥

गुणः quality ; तु on the other hand ; श्रुतिसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the text.

5. On the other hand it is a quality by reason of the connection with the text.

The objector says "you are wrong, it is only a description of the qualities or form as we see in the texts. It describes the sacrifice in details. So it is गुण and therefore गुणविधिः".

चोदना वा गुणानां युगपच्छास्त्राच्चोदिते हि तदर्थत्वात्तस्य तस्योपदिश्येत ॥ २।२।६ ॥

चोदना injunction , वा on the other hand , गुणानाम् of the qualities , युगपच्छास्त्रात् by reason of the simultaneous description चोदिते ; on being enjoined ; तदर्थत्वात् by reason of its being for it , तस्य तस्य of this and that ; उपदिश्येत is directed.

6. On the other hand it is an injunction by reason of the simultaneous description of the qualities ; and being enjoined for it, it will be an injunction for each detail.

The author says that the passages quoted in the commentary on Sūtra 3 are not गुणविधिः , they constitute a चोदना or उत्पत्ति विधिः ; because by simultaneous description many qualities can be described. If you do not consider them constituting उत्पत्ति विधिः but consider them गुणविधिः , then there will be many विधिस, which is absurd.

व्यपदेशश्चतद्वत् ॥ २।२।७ ॥

7. The naming is also like that.

The author gives an additional reason in support of his view. He says that the names such as अग्नेय etc, point to the same conclusion, viz. it is not a गुण विधिः but an उत्पत्ति विधिः.

Adhikarṇa IV Sūtras 8-12 dealing with the अपूर्व nature of उपोषयाजः ।

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ २।२।८ ॥

8. And by seeing the force of the text.

The author now relies on the text of the Vedas.

चतुर्दशोपनिषद्मास्यामाहुतयो हव्यंते त्रयोदशमानास्यायाम् ॥

पौर्णमासीवदुपांशुयाजः स्यात् ॥ २।२।६ ॥

9. Like full moon sacrifice is the उपांशुयाज ।

The objector says that उपांशुयाज is also an अर्थवाद like पूर्णमासी वाग as said in the previous Adhikarṇa, because there is no description of मंत्र, देवता and materials.

चोदना वाऽप्रकृतत्वात् ॥ २।२।१० ॥

चोदना injunction ; वा on the other hand, अप्रकृतत्वात् being not mentioned elsewhere.

10. On the other hand it is an injunction by reason of its being described elsewhere.

The author gives a reason in support of his view, he says that the text about उपांशु याज is independent and no scattered passages occur here and there, so it is a सिद्धि and the उपांशु याज is an independent sacrifice in itself.

गुणोपबन्धात् ॥ २।२।११ ॥

11. By reason of describing the quality.

The author gives an additional reason in support of his view, he says that the name itself describes the nature of the sacrifice; so it is an अनुवाद.

प्राये वचनाच्च ॥ २।२।१२ ॥

प्राये frequently, वचनाच्च by the text.

12. And frequently by the text.

The author gives a final reason in support of his view and says that frequently in the Vedic text the उपांशुयाज is described as the principal act.

Adhikarṇa V. Sūtras 13-16 describing the अर्थवाद nature of आघार etc.

आघाराग्निहोत्रमरूपत्वात् ॥ २।२।१३ ॥

आघार sprinkling of ghee on the sacrificial materials. अग्निहोत्र fire-offering ; अरूपत्वात् by reason of the form being not described.

13. The आघार and अग्निहोत्र are not independent (समुदायानुवाद) by reason of there being no description (of मंत्र, देवता & सामग्री)

The objector says that आघार and अग्निहोत्र are not principal acts because there is no description of the nature, god and materials

संज्ञोपबन्धात् ॥ २।२।१४ ॥

14. By reason of having the name

The objector gives an additional reason in support of his view. He says that the names of the sacrifice are too well known and they do not describe any thing new. As there is nothing new it is only समुदायानुवादः.

अप्रकृतत्वाच्च ॥ २।२।१५ ॥

15. And by reason of being not mentioned elsewhere

The objector gives an additional reason in support of his view, he says that where अग्निहोत्र and आचार are mentioned, there no mantra, god and material are given. They are therefore subordinate and not principal.

चोदना वा शब्दार्थस्य प्रयोगभूतत्वात्तत्सन्निधेर्गुणार्थेन पुनः श्रुतिः ॥ २।२।१६ ॥

चोदना injunction, शब्दार्थस्य of the meaning of the word, प्रयोगभूतत्वात् by reason of its being applied, तत्सन्निधेः in proximity with it, गुणार्थेन with the object of the description of the quality, पुनः श्रुतिः repetition.

16. On the other hand they are injunctions by reason of the application of the sense of the words; by reason of being in proximity with the object of the description of the quality there is repetition.

The author gives his own view; he says that they are commands and therefore principal. He explains the difference between चोदना and गुणविधि. The difference will be better illustrated by the following sentences अग्निहोत्र जुहोति, दध्ना जुहोति. The first sentence lays down the apūrva and is therefore उत्पत्तिविधि; and the second sentence describes the quality and is therefore a गुणविधि. The verbal form in the first sentence by reason of its application to the sacrifice which is known for the first time, is by way of a चोदना (command,) the second sentence describes the quality i. e. the material and the verbal form is only a repetition (अनुवादः).

Adikharana 11 Sūtras 17-20. Dealing with the अपूर्व nature of the animal and Soma sacrifices.

द्रव्यसंयोगाच्चोदना पशुसोमयोः प्रकरणे ह्यनर्थको द्रव्यसंयोगो न हि तस्य गुणार्थेन ॥ २।२।१७ ॥

द्रव्यसंयोगात् by reason of the mention of the material, चोदना injunction; पशुसोमयोः of the animal and Soma sacrifices; प्रकरणे in the context; अनर्थक meaningless; द्रव्यसंयोगः mention of the materials; गुणार्थेन with the object of the quality.

17. The animal and Soma Sacrifices are principal by reason of the mention of the material. In the context, mention of the material is meaningless; but it is not with the object of describing the quality.

In the commentary on the last Sūtra we showed that दम्नाहुती is a गुण-विधि. Now what is to be said about सोमेनयजेत?

The author says that it is अपूर्वविधि though the material is mentioned. The objection arises in the second part of the text, it is to the effect that it is meaningless during the course of the same context. The author's reply is embodied in the third part of the sentence; it is to the effect that the mention of the material is not with the object of describing the quality. It is the name of the याग though Soma is used there. The same reasoning applies to the animal sacrifice.

अचोदकाश्च संस्काराः ॥ २।२।१८ ॥

अचोदकाः not injunctive, च and, संस्काराः purificatory acts.

18 And purificatory acts are not injunctive.

The author says that there are चोदक and अचोदन texts; the one lays down the duty, the other is only non-obligatory. To the latter class belong all the संस्काराः. What the author means to say is that the animal and Soma sacrifices are not purificatory acts and so they are not subordinate.

तद्भेदात्कर्मणोऽभ्यासो द्रव्यपृथक्त्वादनर्थकं हि स्याद्भेदो द्रव्यगुणीभावात् ॥ २।२।१९ ॥

तद्भेदात् by reason of the difference of it, कर्मणः of the action, अभ्यासः repetition; द्रव्यपृथक्त्वात् by reason of the difference of the material, भेदः difference; द्रव्यगुणीभावात् by reason of the material being subordinate.

19. By reason of their (Samskaras) being different, there is the repetition of the sacrifice; because by reason of the material being separate, the principal act is meaningless; the difference is by reason of the materials being subordinate.

The Sūtra embodies the author's view; it is divided into three parts. There are several subordinate acts in a Soma sacrifice and as they are described, the repetition of the principal, viz. the Soma sacrifice is necessary. The second part consists of the statements that the Soma is the principal material and there are several subordinate materials used which subserve the principal material and if they are to be considered as essential as the principal material, then the principal material is unnecessary and insignificant, and the third part is that all the subordinate materials subserve the principal substance, and all the ways in which the principal substance is acted upon impart qualities i. e., the subordinate acts and the substances connected with the principal substance, are its qualities.

त्वात् ॥२॥२॥२०॥

संस्कारः purificatory rite; तु on the other hand; भिद्येत differs, परार्थत्वात् by reason of its being subservient, द्रव्यस्य of the material; गुणभूतत्वात् by reason of its being subordinate.

20. On the other hand the purificatory rite is not divided, being subservient because the material is subordinate.

The samskāras are not divided, if they are so mentioned, there is no option left; they all should be performed being subservient to the main act. By reason of the multiplicity of the materials used, the Samskāra will not be considered to be manifold.

Adhikaraṇa VII. Dealing with the difference of the acts by means of enumeration.

पृथक्त्वनिवेशात्संख्यया कर्मभेदः स्यात् ॥२॥२॥२१॥

पृथक्त्वनिवेशात् by reason of the separateness, संख्यया by enumeration; कर्मभेदः difference of action.

21. Because there is separateness with the enumeration, there is a difference of action.

Seventeen animals are killed in honour of ब्रजापति. Now the question is whether the seventeen animals are to be killed in the वाजवेद्यवह or whether there are seventeen separate sacrificial acts. The reply according to the author is that there are different sacrificial acts by reason of the number used.

Adhikaraṇa VIII. Dealing with the difference of acts by means of difference of nouns.

संज्ञा चोत्पत्तिसंयोगात् ॥ २ । २ । २२ ॥

22. And name by reason of the text which lays down the action.

In connection with ज्योतिष्टोम it is said अथैवज्योतिष्येष विषज्योति रथैव सर्वज्योति रेतेन सहस्रदक्षिणेन यजेत. What is the force of these texts? Whether there are three separate actions or only one. The author says that there are three different acts by reason of the names used as ज्योति, विषज्योति and सर्वज्योति ।

Adhikaraṇa IX. Dealing with the difference of acts by means of the difference of gods.

गुणाश्चाऽपूर्वसंयोगे वाक्योः समत्वात् ॥ २ । २ । २३ ॥

गुणः subordinate act, अपूर्व संयोगे in connection with the mention of अपूर्व; वाक्ययोः of the two sentences, समत्वात् by reason of the equality.

23. And subordinate act in connection with the mention of the अपूर्व is independent act by reason of the two sentences being coordinate.

तत्ते पयसि दध्यामयति सावैश्वदेवता मिश्रा वागिभ्यो वाजिम । "In the hot milk when curd is thrown in, it becomes अमिश्रा the dish of the विश्वेदेवा and whey is for the strong" The first sentence lays down an अपूर्व and is therefore independent the second sentence is also independent though subordinate; yet as it has been mentioned in connection with the original sentence it is coordinate.

Adhikaraṇa X. Dealing with the unity of an action by means of not mentioning a particular material.

अगुणे तु कर्मशब्दे गुणस्तत्र प्रतीयेत ॥ २ । २ । २४ ॥

अगुणे when not describing the quality, तु on the other hand; कर्मशब्दे the word denoting an action, गुणः quality, तत्र there; प्रतीयेत is recognized.

24. On the other hand when the word denoting an act does not describe a quality, a quality is known.

अग्निहोत्र जुहोति, दद्या जुहोति. Here we have two sentences. The first lays down the अगूर्व and so it is अगूर्वविधि and the second describes the material with which the sacrifice is to be performed, it is therefore गुणविधि. So these two sentences lay down a single act.

Adhikaraṇa XI. Sūtras 25—26 Dealing with the subject that the materials such as curd &c. are with fruit.

फलश्रुतेस्तु कर्म स्यात्फलस्य कर्मयोगित्वात् ॥२।२।२५॥

फलश्रुतेः by reason of the text laying down a reward ; कर्म act ; स्यात् is ; फलस्य of a fruit , कर्मयोगित्वात् by reason of its being fit with the act.

25. On the other hand by reason of the text laying down a fruit ; it is an act because a fruit fits in with an act

Take the sentence “दध्नेन्द्रिय कामस्य जुह्यात्” The objector says that in the sentence the fruit is mentioned and as the fruit accompanies an act so it is an independent act and it is not a single act as said in the preceding adhikaraṇa.

अतुल्यत्वात्तु वाक्ययोर्गुणे तस्य प्रतीयेत ॥२।२।२६॥

अतुल्यत्वात् by reason of not being equal ; वाक्ययोः of the two sentences , गुणे quality , प्रतीयेत is recognized.

26. On the other hand by reason of the disparity of two sentences, there its quality is recognised

The author replies to the objection raised in the preceding Sūtra He says that the two sentences mentioned in the commentary on Sūtra 24, are not equal , in the second sentence a quality is described and it is therefore subordinate The first sentence being complete in itself is a श्रुति , and the second sentence being dependent on its meaning on the first is गुणविधिवाक्य ।

Adhikaraṇa XII Dealing with the subject that दारवन्तीय psalm &c. are independent acts.

समेषु कर्मयुक्तं स्यात् ॥ २।२।२७ ॥

समेषु in equal sentences , कर्मयुक्तं accompanied by the acts.

27. In the coordinate sentences, the fruit accompanies the act.

In the preceding adhikaraṇa we have seen that the two sentences are not independent, the one is principal and the second is dependent on the first. Here in the present adhikaraṇa the author says that when the act and its fruit are described separately in two sentences, they are coordinate or in other words in coordinate sentences, the fruit and the act are described independently. For example :—

त्रिवृद्धिः कृमिद्योमस्तस्य चाप्य्यासु एकविंशमग्निद्योमसाम कृत्वा ब्रह्मवर्चस कामो
प्रेत ॥२॥ एतस्यैव रेवतीपुंवारवतीयमग्निद्योमसाम कृत्वा पशुकामो ज्योतेन
प्रेत ॥२॥

Here in the two sentences we see the fruit and the act described separately. So the two sentences are coordinate.

Adhikaraja XIII. Sūtras 28-29 dealing with the subject that सौमर and निधन both accomplish one object.

सौमरे पुरुषश्रुतेर्निधनं कामसंयोगः ॥२॥२॥ २८॥

सौमरे in the सौमर psalm, पुरुषश्रुतेः by reason of the text laying down the effort of a man, निधने in a cadence, कामसंयोगः connection with the mention of the desire

28. In the song called सौमर, there is a text laying down the effort of the human being, and in the cadence there is the mention of the desire.

The objector says that there is a psalm known as सौमर about which a text lays down the human effort by which it can be sung and then there is another which mentions the accomplishment of the desire by means of cadence called निधन. There are two texts and they are both independent, for example :—

यो वृष्टिकामो यो ज्ञाद्य कामो यः स्वर्गकामः य सौमरेण स्तुवीत सर्वे वै कामाः
सौमरे । ह्रीषिति वृष्टिकामाय निधनं कुर्यात् उगित्यन्नाद्य कामाय । ऊरतिस्वर्ग कामाय ॥

In the musical songs which the priests sang in the sacrifice, there was a musical mode called सौमर. Every song ended with the chorus, singing and thrilling a particular word such as ह्रीष, उ or उर्ग. Such a cadence is called निधन.

सर्वस्य वोक्तकामत्वात्तस्मिन्कामश्रुतिः स्यान्निधन-
नार्था पुनः श्रुतिः ॥२॥२॥ २९॥

सर्वस्य of all ; वा or ; उक्तकामत्वात् by reason of mentioning the desires, तस्मिन् in it, कामश्रुतिः text relating to desire, स्यात् is, निधनार्था with the object of cadence, पुनः श्रुतिः the second text

29. Or by reason of accomplishing all desires there is a text .

mentioning the desires and the repetition is for the purpose of a cadence.

The author gives a reply to the objection of the objector that a text, which describes the fruit of सोम, is one in which it is said that सोम accomplishes all desires and the second text is one which lays down how the cadence is to be sung in order to accomplish these desires. So these two texts are not independent. The second depends on the first. The first is a विधि text and second is a नियम text.

END OF PĀDA II.

PĀDA III

Ādikāṇḍa I Sūtra 1.2 dealing with the subject that the prominence of the cup of 'oma sacrifice is a part of उपोतिहोम

गुणस्तु क्रतुसंयोगात्कर्मान्तरं प्रयोजयेत्संयोगस्या-
शेषभूत्वात् ॥ २।३।१॥

गुण quality, तु on the other hand; क्रतुसंयोगात् in connection with the mention of क्रतु, कर्मान्तरं another sacrifice; प्रयोजयेत् indicates; संयोगस्य of the connection of the mention; अशेषभूत्वात् by reason of being not subordinate.

1. On the other hand the quality by reason of the mention of the sacrifice points to another independent action because the description is not dependent on any other.

The objector says that you assert that the subordinate sentence is not independent. This is not so; the so called subordinate sentence which describes the quality in full, points to another independent action because the description in itself is independent. For example, "If fifty rupees be sought, sit down." In the sentence fifty rupees are principal, and it means if you sit down you will get fifty rupees. So the objector says that it is difficult to say which is principal in conditional sentences. In his opinion therefore the conditional sentence is also principal. Here the difference between क्रतु and यज्ञ may be explained. In the former Soma is used such as जमिहोम. यज्ञ is the sacrifice in which the soma is not used, such as पाकयज्ञ.

See महाभाष्य vol II P 312, Sūtra 4-3-68. Bombay Government edition.

एकस्य तु लिङ्गभेदात्प्रयोजनार्थमुच्येतैकत्वं गुण- वाक्यत्वात् ॥२।३।२॥

एकस्य of one ; तु on the other hand ; लिङ्गभेदात् by reason of the difference of the signs ; प्रयोजनार्थ for an object , उच्येत is said ; एकत्वं unity , गुणवाक्यत्वात् by reason of the sentence describing quality.

2. On the other hand, of one by different syntactical signs, the purpose is described. There is unity by reason of the sentences describing the quality.

The author says that there is one principal sentence which lays the purpose, and other sentences which describe the quality are only subordinate

Adhikarapa II Dealing with the subject that अवहेति is a separate कर्तु

अवेष्टौ यज्ञसंयोगात्कर्तुप्रधानमुच्यते ॥२।३।३॥

अवेष्टौ in an अवहेति ; यज्ञसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the mention of यज्ञ ; कर्तुप्रधान chief कर्तु , उच्यते is said.

3. In aveṣṭi there is the connection with the mention of yajña ; it is said to be a principal कर्तु

The author says that अवहेति is a principal sacrifice ; he gives a reason because it is performed in connection with a राजसूय यज्ञ which can be performed by a king alone राजा राजसूयेन स्वराज्यकामोयजेत ; but अवहेति can be performed by all twice-born. यदि ब्रह्मणो यजेत वाङ्मनस्यत्वं मन्वे निधायाहुतिं हुत्वाभिचारः ; यदि राजसूयेन यदि वैश्वो वैश्वदेव . अवहेति is therefore a separate हवि from राजसूय यज्ञ.

Adhikarapa III. Dealing with the subject that आधान is subordinate.

आधाने सर्वशेषत्वात् ॥२।३।४॥

आधाने in the establishment of fire , सर्वशेषत्वात् being subsidiary.

4. By reason of its being subsidiary to the entire act, in the establishment of fire.

The अन्वाधान ceremony is the consecration of fire. Two pieces of wood are taken and rubbed against each other and Vedic mantras are chanted. This sacrificial operation of the production of fire is preliminary to performance of the sacrifice. It is a subordinate act leading to the main act of sacrifice.

Adhikaraṇa IV Sūtra 5-11 dealing with the subject that the दाक्षायण &c. are separate acts.

अयनेषु चोदनान्तरं संज्ञोपबन्धात् ॥२।३।५॥

5. By reason of the conventional naming there is separate चोदना in the sacrifices known as अयन.

दाक्षायणयज्ञेनयजेत प्रजाकामः सार्वप्रस्थायीयेन यजेत पशुकामः (सौ. सं. २।५।३।)। संहमयज्ञेन यजेतावाचकामः ॥ The objector says that there are separate names of the sacrifices as दाक्षायण, सार्वप्रस्थायीय, संहम, so they are separate acts.

अगुणाच्च कर्मचोदना ॥२।३।६॥

अगुणात् by reason of being not qualities; च and; कर्मचोदना laying down of the binding act.

6. And they do not describe any quality of an act, so they are independent acts.

The objector gives an additional reasoning in support of his view; he says that as they do not describe any quality, they are therefore separate and independent acts.

समाप्तं च फले वाक्यम् ॥२।३।७॥

7. And in the fruit the sentence is complete.

The objector develops his view and says that the sentence is complete in itself because the fruit of the action is given there.

विकारो वा प्रकरणात् ॥२।३।८॥

8. On the other hand they are modifications by reason of the context,

The author commences to reply the objections raised by the objector. He says that the अयन sacrifices which are performed on the occasion of the solstices and the equinoxes are the modifications of the दशपूर्वमास sacrifices.

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ २।३।१६॥

9. And by seeing the force of the text.

The author now relies on the Vedic texts to show that the अयन sacrifices are not separate sacrifices but they are the modifications of दशपूर्वमास sacrifices.

गुणात्संज्ञोपबन्धः ॥ २।३।१७॥

10. By reason of the quality, they have the conventional name.

The objector in Sūtra 5 based his arguments on the names of the sacrifice. The author says that the name of the sacrifice is by reason of the quality described; so the argument loses force

समाप्तिरविशिष्टा ॥ २।३।१८॥

11. The end is common.

The author says that you rely on the completion of the sentence and say that it contains a fruit; but there is nothing special in it. It is only a common thing. According to the author the full moon and the new moon sacrifices are the qualified and principal, and the solstices sacrifices are only qualities and modified and therefore subordinate sacrifices.

Adhikarapa V. Sūtras 12 - 15 dealing with the subject that the mention of materials and gods, point to an independent sacrifice.

संस्कारश्चाप्रकरणेऽकर्मशब्दत्वात् ॥ २।३।१९॥

संस्कार subordinate; च and; अप्रकरणे without a context; अकर्मशब्दत्वात् by reason of there being no word to indicate action.

12. And it is a purificatory rite without a context, by reason of no word indicating action.

वाचस्पत्येतिमात्रमेतत् श्रुतिकामः ॥ (सौ. सं. २।१।१।१) सौवर्चिकं निर्वर्णं निर्वर्णकामः ॥ (सौ. सं. २।१।२।१) इतिमात्रमेतत् ॥ The objector says that the distinction between the principal sentence and the subordinate sentence is fully grasped by me. These sentences are गुणविधि, because they do not occur in any context and further there is no verb indicating an action; the verbs वाच्यम् and निर्वर्णम् are only terms conveying some quality.

यावदुक्तं वा कर्मणः श्रुतिमूलत्वात् ॥ २।३।१३॥

यावत् what; उक्तं is said; कर्मणः of an act; श्रुतिमूलत्वात् by reason of its having an origin in the Veda.

13. Or if what is said is not acceptable, by reason of the sacrifice having its origin in the Veda.

The objector says that if you do not accept the first alternative, the second alternative namely that it is principal by reason of all acts having their origin in the Vedas, is inevitable. There are two alternatives; one that it is a quality, second that it is qualified, if the first be not acceptable the second is inevitable but in that case there will be a split of sentence. "He who desires glory ought to kill a white animal to be offered to the god vāyu" The verb "kill" involves the idea of bringing the white animal and then killing it. So there is a dilemma.

यजतिस्तु द्रव्यफलभोक्तृसंयोगादेतेषां कर्मसम्बन्धात् ॥ २।३।१४॥

यजतिः sacrifice; तु on the other hand; द्रव्यफलभोक्तृसंयोगात् by reason of mentioning the materials and final and efficient causes, एतेषां of these; कर्मसम्बन्धात् by reason of the connection with the action.

14. On the other hand they mean "sacrifices" by reason of the mention of the materials; reward and agents, they are connected with the principal act.

The author gives a final reply. He says that such words, as 'निर्वर्ण' and 'वाच्यम्' mean 'a sacrifice' because they are connected with the principal act. In a principal act there are three essential things, viz. an agent, the fruit, and the materials. So in the sentences quoted in the commentary on Sūtra

2. all the three essentials are found. The verbs are, therefore, to be taken in the sense of a sacrifice and are to be connected with the subordinate acts.

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ २।३।१५ ॥

15. And by seeing the force of the text.

The author relies on the vedic text to strengthen his view. सौमारीवृक्षं च नृवंदेत् (तै० सं० २।२।१०।११) ॥ परिश्रितेवाजयति (तै० सं० २।२।१०।१२) ॥

Adhikaraṇa VI. Sentences 16-17 Dealing with the subject that touching of the calves etc. is a sacrificatory rite.

विषये प्रायदर्शनात् ॥ २।३।१६ ॥

विषये in a doubt, प्रायदर्शनात् by seeing the constant use of it.

16. In a doubt, by seeing the constant use of it.

In the preceding adhikaraṇa the term आहुति is used in the sense of a sacrifice, "what is its sense in the following sentence, वत्समालाभेत् । वत्समालाभेत् शवः " (तै० सं० २।१।१४।८)? It occurs in the ceremony called गोदोहम् milking of the cow. It can not therefore mean a sacrifice, because no cows will give milk. It is therefore a संस्कार विधि but not वागविधि.

अर्थवादोपपत्तेश्च ॥ २।३।१७ ॥

17. And by reason of the proof of अर्थवाद ।

The author gives an additional reason in support of his view; it is an अर्थवाद (because the animal are fond of their offspring.)

Adhikaraṇa VII. Dealing with the subject that the boiled wild rice is for the establishment of fire

संयुक्तस्त्वर्थशब्देन तदर्थः श्रुतिसंयोगात् ॥ २।३।१८ ॥

संयुक्तः connected; तु on the other hand, अर्थशब्देन with the significant word; तदर्थः that object, श्रुतिसंयोगात् by reason of its mention in the Veda.

18. On the other hand, connected with the significant word, it is with the object by reason of its being mentioned in the veda.

The author says that when a Vedic text mentions the purpose of any sacrificial material, it should be taken with that object. As for example.

देनेच सुपदधानि । बृहस्पतेर्वा एतदन्नं यज्ञीवाराः ॥

Adhikaraṇa VIII. Dealing with the subject that the पर्यग्निकरण is a quality of स्वाह्वी- वत

पात्नीवते तु पूर्वत्वादवच्छेदः ॥२।३।१६॥

पात्नीवते in a पात्नीवत ; तु on the other hand , पूर्वत्वात् by reason of the preceding description , अवच्छेदः determination.

19. On the other hand, in the पात्नीवत by reason of the preceding description, determination should be made.

After describing the स्वाह्वीपात्नीवत, as for example, "स्वाह्वी पात्नीवतमालभेत ।" there is a text "यत्पर्यग्निकृतं पात्नीवतं मुत्सृजति" (तै० सं० ६।६।१।१) The पात्नीवत is completed by turning the burning grass round the sacrificial hearth, the author says that the पर्यग्निकरण is not a separate ceremony, it is a final ceremony of the स्वाह्वीपात्नीवत. It is therefore a subsidiary act.

Adhikaraṇa IX dealing with the subject that अदाम्य &c are the names of the sacrificial cups.

अद्रव्यत्वात्केवले कर्मशेषः स्यात् ॥२।२।२०॥

अद्रव्यत्वात् by reason of there being no mention of the material ; केवले in the name only , कर्मशेषः subsidiary , स्यात् is.

20. There being no description of any material, it is subsidiary only in name.

एषहवै हविर्यजति योऽदाम्यं गृहीत्वा सोमाय जुहोति ॥ पारा वा पश्यायुः प्राण पति योऽंशुं गृह्णाति ॥ (तै० सं० ३।३।४।१)

Here in the text we see that यजति is used. But the material is not described and the words अदाम्य and अंशु indicate that they are the names of the sacrificial cups. So the verb यजति does not mean an independent act and the names of the cups of the Soma sacrifice show that the text describes the अग्निष्टोम sacrifice.

Adhikaraṇa X. Sūtras 21 - 23 Dealing with the subject that अग्निचयन is a संस्कार ।

अग्निस्तु लिङ्गदर्शनात्क्रतुशब्दः प्रतीयेत ॥२।३।२१॥

अग्निः fire , तु on the other hand , लिङ्गदर्शनात् by seeing the force of the text , क्रतुशब्द Soma sacrifice ; प्रतीयेत is known

21. 'On the other hand, the word 'अग्नि' by reason of the force of the text indicates the soma sacrifice.

The objector says that अग्निचयन is an independent Soma sacrifice because we find the term 'agni' used which indicates an independent act; there are texts from which it is inferred.

द्रव्यं वा स्याच्चोदनायास्तदर्थत्वात् ॥२।३।२२॥

द्रव्यं material, वा on the other hand, चोदनायाः of the command; तदर्थ-त्वात् by reason of its being for it

22. On the other hand, it is a material by reason of the command being for it.

The author's view is that 'agni' is used there in the sense of the material. He gives the reason that the command relates to material and it is with that object

तत्संयोगात्क्रतुस्तदारूपः स्यात्तेन धर्मविधानानि ॥२।३।२३॥

तत्संयोगात् by reason of the connection with that, क्रतुः sacrifice, तदारूपः known by that name, तेन by reason of that, धर्मविधानानि laying down the qualities

23. By reason of the connection with that, the sacrifice is known by that name, therefore it is a description of qualities

The author says, "you allege that अग्निचयन is known by that name, it is nothing. As the material अग्नि is used, the sacrifice is known by that name and it is only a गुणविधि and not a कर्मविधि. The word 'agni' is an adjective there.

Adhikarana XI Dealing with the subject that the monthly अग्निहोत्र &c are separate sacrifices

प्रकरणान्तरे प्रयोजनान्यत्वम् ॥ २।३।२४॥

24. In the different contexts, there are different objects.

मासं अग्निहोत्रं बुद्धेति, मासं पूर्णमासाभ्यां यजते । The author says that these are separate sacrifices because the contexts are different and the objects are different.

Adhikarana XII Dealing with the subject that the क्षारदेव &c. are काम्येष्टि ।

फलं चाकर्मसन्निधौ ॥ २।३।२५ ॥

फलं fruit ; अकर्मसन्निधौ not in juxtaposition with the act.

25. And the fruit when it is not in connection with the act.

The author says that where there is no description of the sacrifice, the fruit points to its being independent As for example:—अग्नये कर्मते पुरोडाशमष्टाकपालं निर्वपेत् अन्नवर्चसकामः (तै० सं० २।२।३।१।१)

Adhikarṇa XIII. Dealing with the subject that अग्नेष्टि produces corn &c. as its reward.

सन्निधौ त्वविभागात्फलार्थेन पुनः श्रुतिः ॥ २।३।२६ ॥

सन्निधौ in juxtaposition, तु on the other hand ; अविभागात् by reason of indivisibility ; फलार्थेन with the object of the fruit ; पुनःश्रुतिः repetition.

26. On the other hand, in juxtaposition by reason of indivisibility with the object of the fruit, there is the repetition.

आग्नेयोऽष्टाकपालः पुरोडाशो भवति । एतयाग्राधकर्म वाजवेत् ॥ In the second sentence the fruit is given, according to the principle enunciated in the foregoing adhikarṇa, it is an independent act. The author says that though it occurs in connection with the अग्नेष्टि sacrifice, still as the act and the fruit are not divisible, the second sentence is only an अर्थवाद. The first sentence is the principal sentence and the second sentence is subordinate.

Adhikarṇa XIV. Śāntas 27-28 dealing with the subject that the repetition of आग्नेवेत् is with the object of praise.

आग्नेयसूक्तहेतुत्वादभ्यासेन प्रतीयेत ॥ २।३।२७ ॥

आग्नेय सूक्तहेतुत्वाद् by reason of the आग्नेय सूक्त, अभ्यासेन by repetition ; प्रतीयेत is recognized.

27. By reason of the आग्नेय सूक्त, from repetition an independent act is inferred.

आग्नेयोऽष्टकपालोऽमावस्यायां पूर्णिमास्यां चाभ्युतो भवति । The objector says that आग्नेय is to be performed on the new moon day and again on the full moon day. So the repetition of the act shows that they are independent acts.

अविभागात्तु कर्मणां द्विरुक्तेर्न विधीयते ॥ २।३।२८ ॥

अविभागात् by reason of the indivisibility ; कर्मणः of the act ; द्विक्रमेः of repetition ; विधीयते is sanctioned.

28. On the other hand by reason of the indivisibility of the act, no repetition is sanctioned.

The author gives a reply and says that the आग्नेय sacrifice is one and the same ; by prescribing the performers of it on two occasions, there can not be separate sacrifices of that name. The repetition is explanatory.

अन्यार्था वा पुनः श्रुतिः ॥ २।३।२६ ॥

अन्यार्थाः with another object ; वा or ; पुनःश्रुतिः repetition.

29. Or the repetition is with another object.

The author further says that the repetition serves the purpose of अववाह, but this does not make a separate act.

END OF PĀDA III

PADA IV.

Adhikaraṇa I. Sūtras 1-7. Dealing with the life long nature of अग्निहोत्र.

यावज्जीविकोऽभ्यासः कर्मधर्मः प्रकरणात् ॥ २।४।१ ॥

यावज्जीविकः life long ; अभ्यासः repetition , कर्मधर्मः essential of an act, प्रकरणात् by virtue of the context.

1. It is an essential quality of the act which is to be repeated for one's life by reason of the context.

The objector says that there is a text, "यावज्जीव मग्निहोत्रं जुहोति" The agni-hotra is to be repeated for one's own life. It is not one act ; there are many अग्निहोत्रs, The context shows it. The word यावज्जीव qualifies the agnihotra.

कर्तुर्वा श्रुतिसंयोगात् ॥ २।४।२ ॥

2. Or of the agent by reason of the mention of the text.

The author gives his own view. He says that यावज्जीवं qualifies the agent. It is the quality of the sacrificer. It is so by reason of the vedic text. The श्रुति prevails over प्रकरण. So the Agnihotra is one but a performer is to perform it for his own life

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च कर्मधर्मे हि प्रक्रमेण नियम्येत
तत्रानर्थकमन्यत्स्यात् ॥ २।४।३ ॥

लिङ्गदर्शनात् by seeing the force of the texts, च and, कर्मधर्मे in the quality of the action, हि because, प्रक्रमेण with the commencement, नियम्येत is restricted, तत्र there, अनर्थक meaningless, अन्यत् another; स्यात् is.

3 By reason of the force of the text, if the term be restricted with the commencement of the action to the quality of the action, then other texts will be meaningless.

There is a text यावज्जीवं दर्शपूर्णमासभ्यां यजेत. If you restrict the term यावज्जीवं as the quality of the act, then what will be the intention of the following text?

अथ वा एष सुवर्गलोकाच्छिद्यते यो दशपूर्णमासयाजी सन्नमाधवर्षा वा पूर्णमासी वा तिपातयति (तै० सं० २।२।५।३)

"Or, he who being a performer of new and full moon sacrifices allows the new or full moon days to pass away without performing the sacrifice falls from the heavenly region."

This text will be useless, so the author argues that this fact also shows that the term यावज्जीवं qualifies the agent and the sacrifice is one which is to be continued for one's own life.

व्यपवर्गं च दर्शयति कालश्चेत्कर्मभेदः स्यात् ॥ २।४।४ ॥

व्यपवर्गं completion, च and, दर्शयति shows; कालः time; चेत् if; कर्मभेदः division of the act

4. And shows the completion; if time, there is division of the action.

The author gives an additional reason in support of his view. He says that the texts show that the 'agni' has an end; if you interpret यावज्जीवं to refer to time, then one sacrifice will be split up into two. दशपूर्णमासव्यामिह्या सोमेन यजेत. After performing दशपूर्णमासवाग one should sacrifice with Soma juice. If यावज्जीवं qualifies time, the soma sacrifice should commence after the death of the sacrificer which is simply absurd.

अनित्यत्वात् नैव स्यात् ॥२।४।५॥

अनित्यत्वात् by reason of being not permanent ; नु on the other hand ; नैव not so.

5. On the other hand by reason of its being not permanent, it can not be so.

The author gives an additional reason that if you hold अग्निहोत्र &c. to be not permanent, then there will be meaninglessness in the Vedic passage.

जतामर्यवा एतत्सत्रं यदग्निहोत्रं दर्शपूर्णमासौ च जत्रया ह वापताभ्यां विमुच्यते मृत्युनाच.

विरोधश्चापि पूर्ववत् ॥ २।४।६॥

6. And there will be a contradiction as in the preceding.

The author gives an additional reason in support of his view, he says that there will be self-contradiction as in the preceding sūtra. The सौर्व and others are the modifications of दर्शपूर्णमास and so they will also become lifelong ceremonies which are not sanctioned by the Vedas.

कर्तुस्तु धर्मनियमात्कालशास्त्रं निमित्तं स्यात् ॥२।४।७॥

कर्तुः of the agent , नु on the other hand , धर्मनियमात् by reason of the restriction of the quality , कालशास्त्रं laying down of time , निमित्तं cause , स्यात् is.

7. On the other hand by reason of the restriction of the quality of the agent, laying down of time is a cause.

The author finally sums up his view and says that Agnihotra is the quality of the sacrificer and that it is not occasional but to be performed by him for his whole life Time that is laid down in the Veda is the cause of the performance of the Agnihotra.

Adhikaraṇa II Sūtras 8-32, Dealing with the unity of अग्निहोत्रं laid down in the different branches of the Vedas.

नामरूपधर्मविशेषपुनरुक्तिनिन्दाऽशक्तिसमाप्तिव- चनप्रायश्चित्ताऽन्यार्थदर्शनाच्छाखान्तरेषु कर्मभेदः स्या- त् ॥ २।४।८॥

8. By seeing the name, form, peculiar qualities, repetition, censure, incapacity, final sentence, penance and different objects (it appears) that there are different acts, in different recensions of the Veda.

The objector has taken the trouble of showing in nine ways that the Agnihotra is not one because there is a difference in the different recensions of the Veda by reason of

(1) The name e g काठक and कालापक, the sacrifice is also called after the name of the शाखा.

(2) Form, in one शाखा you find 11 pans for जन्निचोमीय and in another you find 12.

(3) Peculiar qualities or duties; some शाखाs sanction food to be taken on the ground while reading songs for bringing down rain; while others do not.

(4) Repetition; the same thing is repeated in different Śākhās showing that the acts are different

(5) Censure, some censure the homa before the sunrise and others censure the homa after the sunrise.

(6) Incapacity; there are some sacrifices in the different recensions which one can not perform during one's life, so the sacrifices are different.

(7) Final sentence:—some recensions lay down that here ends the sacrifice and others say the contrary.

(8) Penance, some recensions lay down that there is a penance for performing homa before sunrise and others prescribe penance for performing homa after sunrise.

(9) Different objects; if one has performed a Soma sacrifice, he chants a बृहत्साम while sacrificing; if he has not performed a Soma sacrifice, he chants a रघुतरसाम।

एकं वा संयोगरूपचोदनारूपाविशेषात् ॥२॥४॥६॥

9. On the other hand, it is one on account of there being no distinction of the mention in the text, laying down of the procedure and the name.

The author says that there being the same material, gods and procedure and no difference is made, so the sacrifice is one; it can not be different by reason of the causes assigned by the objector.

न नाम्ना स्यादचोदनाभिधानत्वात् ॥ २।४।१० ॥

नाम्ना by the name; अचोदना non-command; अभिधानत्वात् by reason of laying down nothing.

10. Not so, by the name there is no command by reason of its laying down nothing.

The author now tries to reply the objection in seriatim. The first is name in the category, he says it matters nothing; it lays down nothing; there is no command attached to it. So there can not be a difference of sacrifice by reason of the difference of name.

सर्वेषां चैककर्म्यं स्यात् ॥ २।४।११ ॥

सर्वेषां of all; एककर्म्यं unity of action.

11. And of all, there will be the unity of action.

In support of his view the author advance a reason; he says that if you hold अग्निहोत्र to be different by reason of the names of काठक and कापलक then all the sacrifices mentioned in काठक will be one. This is simply absurd. So the name means nothing.

कृतकं चाभिधानम् ॥ २।४।१२ ॥

कृतकं artificial; अभिधानम् name.

12. And the name is artificial.

The author gives another reason, he says that names of the school were called after the Rishis who taught the Vedas.

एकत्वेऽपि परम् ॥ २।४।१३ ॥

13. In unity also there is diversity.

The author says that the act is one and it matters little if the name or form be different in different recensions.

विद्यायां धर्मशास्त्रम् ॥ २।४।१४ ॥

14. In knowledge, there are laid down the duties.

The author replies the objection raised in sūtra 8 number 3. He says that the different duties are with a view to acquire knowledge. The practice of reading according to the different recensions does not make अग्निहोत्र several

आग्नेयवत्पुनर्वचनम् ॥ २।४।१५ ॥

15. The repetition is like अग्नेयमंत्रः.

The objector repeats the same objection as in II, 3, 29

अद्विर्वचनं वा श्रुतिसंयोगाविशेषात् ॥ २।४।१६ ॥

अद्विर्वचनं no tautology, no repetition, श्रुतिसंयोगाविशेषात् by reason of there being a special thing in the mention of the text.

16. On the other hand, there is no tautology because the Vedic text mentions nothing special.

The author says that it is not a repetition if the same act is described in the different recensions in different ways, it does not make the homa several.

अर्थासन्निधेश्च ॥ २।४।१७ ॥

17. By reason of the non-proximity of the object

The author says that the different objects are described at different places, this is not a repetition nor does this make an act different. Śaṅkara gives an example of a tree of which flowers, buds and leaves are described at different places but this does not make the tree several, nor is there a repetition of the description.

न चैकं प्रतिशिष्यते ॥ २।४।१८ ॥

न not; च and, एकं प्रति to one, शिष्यते is restricted or enjoined,

18. And nor is it restricted to one only.

The author says that the अग्निहोत्र that is described in one recension is not restricted to the follower of that recension.

समाप्तिवच्च संप्रेक्षा ॥ २।४।१६ ॥

समाप्तिवत् like the completion, च and, संप्रेक्षा assertion, statement.

19. And the assertion is like the completion

The author says that the वाजसनेयीs complete the अग्निहोत्र, by performing a certain act while the मैत्रायणीs complete it by performing another act. Such a description of the completion of the sacrifice shows that it is one and not different.

एकत्वेऽपि पराणि निन्दाशक्तिसमाप्तिवचनानि ॥ २।४।२० ॥

20. In the unity also there are censure, incapacity and completion of sentences.

The author says that the sacrifice is one and its unity is not destroyed by reason of censure, incapacity and completion of sentences mentioned in reasons 5, 6 and 7 in sūtra 8. Even in censure there is praise, incapacity shows that it is beyond human power and the completion occurs when one sacrifice is finished and another is commenced.

प्रायश्चित्तं निमित्तेन ॥ २।४।२१ ॥

21. The penance is with an object.

The objector says that one text prescribes a homa before sunrise and another after sunrise. In both cases there is a penance. So the sacrifices are different. See the 8th reason in sūtra 8. It is an introductory sūtra.

प्रक्रमाद्वा नियोगेन ॥ २।४।२२ ॥

प्रक्रमात् from the beginning, वा on the other hand, नियोगेन by the command

22. On the other hand by the command from the beginning

The author says that a command is for the penance at the commencement. It is performed in order to remove any possible or probable mistake that might occur in the performance of the sacrifice. It does not show that the sacrifices are different.

समाप्तिः पूर्ववत्त्वाद्यथाज्ञाते प्रतीयेत ॥ २।४।२३ ॥

समाप्तिः completion, पूर्ववत्त्वात् by reason of the beginning, यथा just like, ज्ञाते on being known, प्रतीयेत is known

23. Completion, because of the commencement, should be inferred as known.

The author replies the objection, he says that an act once begun, should be considered to be presumed. What has a beginning has also an end.

लिङ्गमविशिष्टं सर्वशेषत्वान्न हि तत्र कर्मचोदना
तस्माद्द्वादशाहस्याहारव्यपदेशः स्यात् ॥ २।४।२४ ॥

लिङ्गे secondary statement, अवशिष्टं dependent, सर्वशेषत्वात् being subsidiary to all, हि because, तत्र there, कर्मचोदना command as to the act; तस्मात् therefore, द्वादशाहरय of a sacrifice lasting for 12 days, आहार procedure, व्यपदेशः incongruity, स्यात् is.

24. A subordinate sentence is dependent by reason of its being subsidiary, because there is no injunction as to any act, therefore there is no incongruity of procedure in द्वादशाह ।

See the reason no. 9 in Sūtra 8 The author says that you have shown the incongruity put there is no विशिष्ट, it is a लिङ्ग i e an inferred statement. It is a procedure in the द्वादशाह sacrifice for one who has performed a Soma sacrifice and for one who has not performed it

द्रव्ये चाचोदितत्वाद्विधीनामव्यवस्था स्यान्निर्देशा-
द्व्यतिष्ठेत तस्मान्नित्यानुवादः स्यात् ॥ २।४।२५ ॥

द्रव्ये in a substance : अचोदितत्वात् by reason of being not enjoined, विधीनाम् of injunctions, अव्यवस्था confusion, निर्देशात् by reason of pointing out, व्यतिष्ठेत is restricted, तस्मात् therefore, नित्यानुवादः permanent description.

25. And the material being not enjoined the injunctions will be in confusion, by reason of its being pointed out, it is restricted; therefore it is a permanent description.

The author says that there are several texts about the distance in a परवेकादशिनी sacrifice in which 11 horses are tied to the sacrificial posts, they are all apparently contradictory, but in reality they are not. Some of them are principal texts and others are subordinate texts. In this way the texts are to be reconciled

विहितप्रतिषेधात्पक्षेऽतिरेकः स्यात् ॥ २।४।२६ ॥

विहितप्रतिषेधात् by reason of the prohibition of the enjoined, पक्षे optional; अतिरेकः redundancy.

26. By reason of prohibiting the enjoined, the redundancy is optional

There is षोडशी song which is sung on the occasion of अतिरात्र sacrifice. It is a complex mixture of विराज. There are two contradictory texts about it, one says that the षोडशी is to be sung in an अतिरात्र and the other is that it should not be sung. So according to the objector the thing enjoined is prohibited. The author says that on account of this injunction and prohibition the vidj is increased some times by two syllables and sometime by three syllables.

सारस्वते विप्रतिषेधाच्चदेति स्यात् ॥ २।४।२७॥

सारस्वते in a Sâraswat sacrifice, विप्रतिषेधात् by reason of the prohibition; यत् when; इति (to finish the quotation), स्यात् is.

27. In a Sâraswat offering by reason of the prohibition the term 'when' occurs.

In a Sâraswat cup of the soma juice, those who offer पुरोडाश and those who offer सन्नाय are mentioned. A सन्नाय offering can be made by a person who has performed the soma sacrifice but for a पुरोडाश offering such a condition is not necessary. The objector says "how can a सन्नाय and पुरोडाश offerings be made on the same occasion?" In reply the author says that though a person who is entitled to offer पुरोडाश can not make a सन्नाय offering, yet a person who can make a सन्नाय offering can make a पुरोडाश offering.

उपह्वयेऽप्रतिप्रसवः ॥ २।४।२८॥

उपह्वये in the उपह्वय soma juice cup, अप्रतिप्रसव no counter exception.

28. In the उपह्वय Soma juice, there is no counter exception.

The objector says how do you explain the contradictory statements in connection with the उपह्वय Soma juice cup? Here the term प्रतिप्रसव is to be explained. First a rule is laid down called विधि when (2) it is prohibited, it is called निषेध, thirdly when the prohibition is set aside, it is called प्रतिप्रसव.

गुणार्था वा पुनः श्रुतिः ॥ २।४।२९॥

29. On the other hand¹ the repetition is for describing the quality.

There are texts, “उपह्वयोऽग्निदोमः रथतरं 'सामाशः श्यावोदक्षिणा” Second उपह्वय उपधो यज्ञः बृहत्सामाशः श्वेतोऽक्षमललाटो दक्षिणा. In the preceding sūtra the objector showed that there were contradictory texts without the प्रति प्रसव. The author says that this description is with a view to describe the quality, it has nothing to do with the प्रति प्रसव. It is a second description.

प्रत्ययं चापि दर्शयति ॥ २।४।३० ॥

30. And the same conviction is also conveyed.

The author says that all the recensions of the Veda point that the act is one. One is a principal sentence and the other is subordinate. See in the भाष्य for illustration.

कृतवोवै प्रथाजाः समानीय होतव्याः ॥ कुटुरसि । कुङ्कुटोमीत्यश्मान मुपादत्ते ॥ कुटुरसि ॥

The different texts convey the same idea, and the acts do not thereby become several.

अपि वा क्रमसंयोगाद्विधिपृथक्त्वमेकस्यां व्यव-
तिष्ठेत् ॥ २।४।३१ ॥

अपि वा or also, not so. क्रमसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the order, विधि पृथक्त्वं difference of injunction, एकस्यां in one, व्यवतिष्ठेत् is adjusted, should be

31 Or also, by reason of the connection with the orderly description, in one there should be a difference of injunction.

The objector says that these sacrifices are described in an order in one recension and in the same way they are so described in another. This shows that they are different

विरोधिना त्वसंयोगादैककर्म्ये तत्संयोगाद्विधीनां
सर्वकर्मप्रत्ययः स्यात् ॥ २।४।३२ ॥

विरोधिना with the contradictory; तु on the other hand; त्वसंयोगात् by reason of no connection; एक कर्म्ये in one action; तत्संयोगात् by reason of the connection with it; विधीनां of the injunctions; सर्वकर्मप्रत्ययः conviction of all actions as one; स्यात् is.

32. On the other hand by reason of no connection with the contradiction in one action, because the injunctions are connected with it, there is a conviction that all acts are one

The author summarises his reply and says that there is a harmony in the different recensions and there is no contradiction in the unity of the act, and all the commands are connected with it, the different acts are connected with each other, so the statements in different recensions point to the same.

END OF PÂDA IV.

CHAPTER III.

PÂDA I.

Adhikarana I. Enunciation

अथातः शेषलक्षणम् ॥ ३।१।१ ॥

1. Now is therefore an enquiry about accessory.

The author says that he is going to enquire into the nature of शेष.

Adhikarana II. Dealing with the definition of शेष together with the cause of the nature of शेष.

शेषः परार्थत्वात् ॥ ३।१।२ ॥

2. The accessory is by reason of its being for the sake of others.

According to the author the definition of शेष is that which serves the purpose of another.

Adhikarana III. Sûtras 3-6 the object referred to by शेष.

द्रव्यगुणसंस्कारेषु बादरिः ॥ ३।१।३ ॥

3. The substance, quality and purificatory acts are शेष according to बादरि ।

The author gives the view of बादरि. According to him शेष denotes substance, quality and purificatory act.

कर्माण्यपि जैमिनिः फलार्थत्वात् ॥ ३।१।४ ॥

4. According to जैमिनि actions are also included under it by reason of their being for a fruit.

The author says that according to him actions are also included in शेष in as much as they produce a fruit They are therefore also subsidiary.

फलं च पुरुषार्थत्वात् ॥ ३।१।५ ॥

5. And fruit is by reason of its being for the object of a person.

The author says that from another point of view, even fruit is also subsidiary because it is the object of the human effort. In comparison with a person, the fruit is subsidiary. It is a correlative term.

पुरुषश्च कर्मार्थत्वात् ॥ ३।१।६ ॥

6. And a person by reason of his being for an act.

The author says that a person also becomes subsidiary in comparison with the acts. When the acts are principal the agent is subsidiary.

The substance, quality and purificatory acts are always subsidiary; but the agent, the actions and fruit are sometimes subsidiary and sometimes principal according to the change of the point of view.

Adhikarṇa IV. sūtras 7-10 dealing with the determining nature of the consecration of things according to their purpose

तेषामर्थेन सबन्धः ॥ ३।१।७ ॥

7. Their relationship is with the purpose.

Mr Kunte says that 'their' is used for the agent, acts and fruits and that the nature of the principal and accessories are to be determined by the relationship with the purpose. The Indian commentators including Śābara say that the sūtra is connected with the धौत system of sacrifice. There are several acts as pounding of the rice, drinking of water and preparing the flour &c, mentioned in the भाष्य. Are these acts to be performed in all the sacrifices or in a particular sacrifice? But शबर thinks that according to the author, these acts are to be performed when necessary

विहितस्तु सर्वधर्मः स्यात्संयोगतोऽविशेषात्प्रकरणविशेषाच्च ॥ ३।१।८ ॥

विहितः sanctioned, सर्वधर्मः all duties, स्यात् is, संयोगतः from the mention, अविशेषात् by reason of there being nothing special, प्रकरणाविशेषात् by reason of there being nothing special about the context, च and.

8. All duties are sanctioned by reason of there being nothing special about the mention and there being nothing special about the context.

The objector says that the distinction which you have made by dividing a sentence into principal and accessory is arbitrary. It has neither the support of the context nor is there any inference from the Vedic texts. In this view all acts are to be considered sanctioned by the Veda and there is no distinction.

अर्थलोपादर्कमे स्यात् ॥ ३।१।६ ॥

9. By removal of the purpose, there is no act.

The author gives a reply that all acts are performed with some purpose; if there were no purpose there is no act possible. If there are acts there will be a division of them into principal and accessory. So the distinction is not arbitrary.

फलं तु सह चेष्टया शब्दार्थोऽभावादिप्रयोगे-
स्यात् ॥ ३।१।१० ॥

फलं fruit, तु on the other hand, सह with, चेष्टया with an act, शब्दार्थः the sense of the word, अभावात् on the principle of अभाव, विप्रयोगे in case of not existing, स्यात् is

10. On the other hand the fruit accompanies the action; in case of such non-connection, the sense of the word on the principle of अभाव.

The author says that every act is accompanied by a fruit, when it is not so accompanied, there will be a presumption of such a fruit on the principle of अभाव. It is a presumption that arises from certain fact, as for example देवदत्त who is fat does not eat during the day. The presumption from Dévadatta's fatness arises that he takes meals at night. The presumption that arises from negation is called अभाव. It is one of the means of proofs. The author says that acts are invariably followed by the results, if there be no such result you can presume it on the principle of negation as the sense of the word requires it.

Adhikarana V Dealing with the subject that the wooden sword &c are to be adjusted according to the mention in the text.

द्रव्यं चोत्पत्तिसंयोगात्तदर्थमेव चोद्येत ॥ ३।१।११ ॥

द्रव्यं material, च and, उत्पत्तिसंयोगात् by reason of its connection with original text, तदर्थं for that object, एव alone, चोद्येत is laid down.

11. And the material by reason of its mention in the original text, is laid down for that very object.

See for the texts in the भाष्य. There are 10 sacrificial utensils. In the texts where they are mentioned their use is also given. So the author says that instruments such as wooden sword &c. are for the use which is mentioned in the text which lays down originally. This is called उत्पत्तिवाक्य.

Adhikarapa VII. Dealing with the subject that the adjective red &c. are not mixed up.

अर्थैकत्वे द्रव्यगुणयोरैककर्म्यान्नियमः स्यात् ॥३१११२॥

अर्थैकत्वे in the unity of the object, द्रव्यगुणयोः of the substance and quality, ऐककर्म्यात् by reason of the unity of action, नियमः restriction, स्यात् 18.

12 The purpose of the substance and its quality being one, there is a restriction by reason of the act being one.

‘एकदायस्या अक्षया पिगाक्षया क्रीयति’ (तै० सं० ६।१।६।७) He purchases with a year old cow of red colour and yellow eye. Here we have a noun one year old and its adjectives are ‘red’ and of ‘yellow eye’. The verb is ‘purchases’. The action is one, the qualities belong to the noun, they do not qualify the action of purchasing. So the meaning of the sentence is that he purchases some with a year old cow who happens to be &c. The adjectives in this view are not conditions precedent to purchasing. This is called कारुणिम्याय.

Adhikarapa VII. Sūtras 13—16 dealing with the washing of all the sacrificial cups.

एकत्वयुक्तमेकस्य श्रुतिसंयोगात् ॥३१११३॥

एकत्वयुक्तं specified by one, एकस्य of one, श्रुतिसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the text

13. A singular number stands for one, by reason of the mention in the Vedic text.

The objector says that the text ‘दत्तापवित्रेणग्रहं सम्प्राष्टि’ shows that ग्रह is used in singular number and that it therefore means one cup

सर्वेषां वा लक्षणत्वादविशिष्टं हि लक्षणम् ॥३१११४॥

सर्वेषां of all, वा on the other hand, लक्षणत्वात् by being general, अविशिष्टं not specified; हि because; लक्षणम् general description.

14. On the other hand, it applies to all by reason of the general description, because the general description is not specific.

The author says that the singular applies to the object in general, so it means all the things of that class or description. It does not apply to the individual only.

चोदितेतुपरार्थत्वाद्यथाश्रुति प्रतीयेत॥३।१।१५॥

चोदिते on a thing being commanded, तु on the other hand; परार्थत्वाद् by reason of its being for another, यथाश्रुति as from the text, प्रतीयेत is inferred or known.

15. On the other hand, in a command for another object, it is known as it is in the text.

The author says that from the text you can know whether the singular number is used for an individual or for a class. Where in the Veda, one thing is meant it applies to an individual but where the singular is for a class, it applies to all of the same class. In a sacrifice, several cups are used, so the singular number means all the cups of the same class. This अधिकरण is called ग्रहैकत्वन्याय.

Adhikarana VII—Śūtras 16-17 dealing with the subject that in spoons &c washing is not done

संस्काराद्वागुणानामव्यवस्था स्यात् ॥३।१।१६॥

संस्काराद् by purificatory act; गुणानां of qualities, अव्यवस्था irregularity; स्यात् 16

16. On the other hand by purification, there will be an irregularity in the qualities

The objector says that if washing or purification means washing of all which are fit to be washed, in that case under the general expression, of vessel the spoon or goblet will be also included because it comes under the general expression

व्यवस्थावार्थस्य श्रुतिसंयोगात्तस्य शब्द प्रमा-

णत्वात् ॥ ३।१।१७॥

व्यवस्था regularity, वा on the other hand; अर्थस्य of the meaning; श्रुति-संयोगाद् by reason of the connection with the text; तस्य its, शब्दप्रमाणत्वाद् by reason of the authority of the word

17. On the other hand there is a system in the meaning by reason of the connection with the text,⁹ because it depends for its authority on the word.

The author's meaning will be clear if the terms आधी भावना and शब्दी भावना are explained. In secular matters, actions⁸ are done for some visible object. You are told to do because certain result will follow. This is called आधी-भावना, but in Vedic matters you do a certain act because it is so enjoined by the Vedas, certain invisible effects are said to follow. You do so, because the Veda has commanded you to do so. This is शब्दी भावना. You cannot escape the duty imposed upon you. So every word is to be fully scrutinized. When cups are ordered to be washed, you can not say cup may mean all the vessels such as spoons &c. So on account of the connection of the object with the sacred text it is restricted to that object only.

Adhikaraṇa IX dealing with the subject that seventeen cubits mean the property of the animal sacrifice.

आनर्थक्यात्तदंगेषु ॥ ३ । १ । १८ ॥

आनर्थक्यात् by reason of meaninglessness, तदंगेषु in its parts.

18. It is in the parts by reason of meaninglessness.

सप्तदशारन्निर्वाजपेयस्य यूगे भवति ॥

"In a वाजपेय sacrifice there is a sacrificial pillar 17 cubits in length." In the वाजपेय there is no sacrificial post so the text is meaningless. The author says in the present sūtra that in order to avoid the defect of meaninglessness, the text applies to the subordinate parts of वाजपेय where the sacrificial post is erected. It is a metonymy.

Adhikaraṇa X Sūtras 19 and 20 dealing with the subject that walking forward ceremoniously on the sacrificial ground is a part of the प्रयाज.

कर्तृगुणेतु कर्मासमवायाद्वाक्यभेदः स्यात् ॥ ३ । १ । १९ ॥

कर्तृगुणे in the quality of an agent, तु on the other hand, कर्मासमवायात् by reason of no connection with the act, वाक्यभेदः split of a sentence; स्यात् 18.

19. On the other hand in a quality of an agent, by reason of the action being not connected, there is a split of a sentence.

The text will explain the objector's position अभिक्रामं युहोत्वभिजित्वै "He offers oblation by going forward for victory" (ते० सं० २।६।२।३) In the text there are two actions; they are not connected with the quality of the agent. One is अभिक्राम and the other is युहोति. One has to perform अभिक्राम going forward on the sacrificial ground and to offer oblations. So the objector says by virtue of two actions there is a fault of the split of the sentence.

साकांक्षत्वेकवाक्यं स्यादसमाप्तं हि पूर्वेण॥३।१।२०॥

साकांक्ष dependent ; तु on the other hand ; स्यात् is ; असमाप्तं incomplete, हि because ; पूर्वेण with the preceding

20. On the other hand, it is dependent one sentence, because it is incomplete with the preceding.

The author says that it is a complex sentence, because the first verb अभिक्ता does not complete the sense. In a complex sentence as we have seen the subordinate sentence depends on the principal sentence. So there is no splitting up of a sentence.

Adhikāra XI. Dealing with the subject that the wearing of the sacred thread is a part of the general topic.

सन्दिग्धे तु व्यवायाद्वाक्यभेदः स्यात्॥३।१।२१॥

सन्दिग्धेषु in doubtful matters, व्यवायाद् by reason of intervention ; वाक्यभेदः split of a sentence, स्यात् is

21. In doubtful cases by reason of intervention, there is a split of sentence.

In the तैत्तिरीय ब्राह्मण in the 7th & 8th अनुवाक, the sacrificial fuel in connection with दर्शपूर्णमासी sacrifices is mentioned. In the ninth अनुवाक the निविदमंत्रs are mentioned. In the 10th, the sacrifices for securing the accomplishment of some desires are mentioned. The मंत्रs for throwing the sacrificial fuel into the sacred fire are इदं कामस्यैतावती रनुज्यात् । इदं कामस्यैतावती ॥ (तै० सं० २।५।११।१) "This for accomplishing the desired object, so many are to be pronounced next ; this for accomplishing the desired object, so many"

In the 11th अनुवाक the sacred thread is described. Now the question is whether the sacred thread is to be worn during the sacrifice or after the मंत्रs have been recited. According to the view expressed in the preceding adhikāraṇa, the sacred thread is to be worn after the recitation of the मंत्रs but the author says that as there is intervention, so the principle of juxtaposition enunciated in the preceding adhikāraṇa does not apply and the sacred thread is to be worn throughout the दर्शपूर्णमासवयम्. There is therefore a split of sentence by reason of the intervention. They are therefore independent sentences.

Adhikāra XII. Dealing with the subject that the vessels made of वासु and वैश्वकत &c. are the qualities of all sacrifices

गुणानां च परार्थत्वादसम्बन्धः समत्वात्स्यात् ॥ ३।१।२२ ॥

गुणानां of the qualities ; च and ; परार्थत्वात् by reason of their being subservient to others ; असम्बन्धः no relationship ; समत्वात् by reason of the equality ; स्यात् is.

22. And the qualities being subservient to others, there is no relationship inter se because of the equality.

That which serves the object of another is a quality or subordinate. अनुष्ठापन and पशुमान are subordinate acts of a sacrifice; they are independent acts and are therefore co-ordinate inter se.

तस्या इत्यथो वैयहायवतः स्यात् । नत्वेतेन जुहुयात् । वैकृतोन्वितावचरः स्यात् जुहु- यादेतेन ॥

The sacrificial vessels serve the purpose of अनुष्ठापन and the latter serves the purpose of the new and full moon sacrifices. They are both therefore subordinate parts of दर्शपूर्णमासयजन but between themselves they are co-ordinate. This Adhikarana is called मिश्रसंबन्धवाच. i. e. the relation of two co-ordinate acts subordinate to the principal act. The vessels can be therefore used in all the sacrifices.

Adhikarana XIII. Dealing with the subject that the वार्त्राणी &c. अनुष्ठापन are the parts of आयुभाग.

मिथश्चानर्थसम्बन्धात् ॥ ३।१।२३ ॥

मिथः mutuality , च and ; अनर्थसंबन्धात् by reason of the connection with the meaninglessness

23. There is mutuality to avoid meaninglessness.

वार्त्राणी पूर्णमासेनूच्येते । वृधन्वती अमावस्यायां ॥ "They (two) recite वार्त्राणी verse on the full moon day वृधन्वती on the new moon day." (तै० सं० २।१।२४)

The आयुभाग offerings are the part of the new and full moon sacrifices and are therefore subordinate. The वार्त्राणी and वृधन्वती verses are recited on the full & new moon days and are therefore subordinate. Though they are subordinate to one and the same, yet they are to be connected with each other. This is just the opposite of the principle of मिश्रसंबन्धवाच. The present अधिकरण is called वार्त्राणीवाच.

Adhikarana XIV. Sūtras 24-25 dealing with the subject that sitting with enclosed flat is a part of the whole sacrifice.

आनन्तर्यमचोदना ॥ ३।१।२४ ॥

आनन्तर्यं juxtaposition ; अद्योदना no command

24. Close juxtaposition does not lay down.

मुष्टीकरोति वाचं रञ्जति स्त्रीभिः । नावेदयति ॥ इत्यो अवनेदिके उपपत्तिस्तृतीयसि ॥ He closes his fist, observes silence and explains to the initiated He cleans his hands and arranges a sheaf इक्षु of grass These are different sentences; though they are close to one another yet they are all independent and lay down nothing special. These acts pertain to the whole sacrifice; being all independent they have no connection with each other.

वाक्यानां च समाप्तत्वात् ॥ ३।१।२५ ॥

वाक्यानां of the sentences, च and, समाप्तत्वात् by reason of the completion.

25. And by reason of the completion of the sentences.

The author gives an additional reason and says that each sentence is complete in itself and therefore independent

Adhikaran. XV Sūtras 26-27 dealing with the subject that division of the sacrificial cake into four is a part of the entire offering to the god अग्नि.

शेषस्तु गुणसंयुक्तः साधारणः प्रतीयेत मिथस्ते-

षामसम्बन्धात् ॥ ३।१।२६ ॥

शेषः subsidiary, तु on the other hand, गुणसंयुक्तः connected with the quality, साधारण common, general. प्रतीयेत is known मिथः mutually, inter se; तेषां of theirs, अयं वात् by reason of there being no connection.

26. On the other hand, the subsidiary connected with the quality is known to be common, because amongst themselves there is no connection.

आग्नेयं चतुर्धा करोति. The cake to be offered to Agni is to be divided into four. The question is whether it is to be quartered when the offering is made to अग्नि only or to the gods when they happen to be with अग्नि as ईशान्नी and अग्नीषोती. The objector says that it applies to all whether the gods happen to be in pair or single, because you have laid down that the subordinate sentences are co-ordinate and apply to the whole act. Upon the principle enunciated by you, the quartering of the cake will apply to the dual gods also when Agni happens to be there.

व्यवस्था वाऽर्थसंयोगाद्विद्वत्स्यार्थेन सम्बन्धात्प्र-

णार्था गुणश्रुतिः ॥ ३।१।२७ ॥

इयवस्या rule; वा on the other hand; अर्थसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the meaning; लिङ्गस्य of the force of the text, अर्थेन with the sense, संबंधात् by reason of the connection; कल्पयार्था figurative sense, गुणश्रुतिः the text laying down the quality.

27. On the other hand there is a rule by reason of the connection with the meaning and by reason of the force of the text being connected with the meaning, the text laying down the quality is by way of figure of speech.

The author says that the nature of the sentences is to be determined by the sense they convey. The Vedic text points out the marks by which they can not be classified as principal and subordinate. The sūtra is divided into 4 parts. The first is the reply in the negative, the second is that the rule for determination depends upon the sense. The third is that the inferential sense of the text is connected with the original sense; that which serves the purpose, is known by the force of the text and fourthly that where the text lays down the quality, its meaning is to be determined by the force of the text. It should be introduced into the general text or with that part with which it is connected. In accordance with this exposition of the सूत्र, the quartering of the cake is to be made when Agni alone happens to be the god worshipped. The text can not therefore be construed so as to have the quartering made when he happens to be in the company of any other god.

END OF PĀDA I.

-----:o:-----

PĀDA II

Adhikarpa I. Sūtras 1-2 dealing with the application of the verses recited on the occasion of cutting of grass in the principal sacrifice

अर्थाभिधानसामर्थ्यान्मन्त्रेषु शेषभावः स्यात्तस्मा-
दुत्पत्तिसम्बन्धोऽर्थेन नित्यसंयोगात् ॥ ३।२।१ ॥

अर्थाभिधानसामर्थ्यात् by the power of the meaning of words; मन्त्रेषु in the mantras; शेषभावः subordination; स्यात् is, तस्मात् therefore; उत्पत्तिसंबन्धः relationship with the original, everlasting, अर्थेन with the sense or meaning; नित्यसंयोगात् by reason of constant connection

1. There being an inherent power of meaning in the words the mantras are subsidiary; therefore there is the relationship arising from the origin with the meaning by virtue of the everlasting connection.

According to the Mīmāṃsā view every word has a meaning; there is a relationship between them arising with the origin and it is an everlasting relationship. In this view, the meaning in the word of the मंत्र is principal and the मंत्र or words are subsidiary. The action depends upon the meaning. The words denote the primary sense as वहिर्देव सदनंदाभि. "O ! grass I cut thee for the seat of the gods", वहिर् has two meanings. The primary meaning is kuṣa and secondary meaning is grass, the words as a rule are used in the primary sense, you should not try to stretch them in the secondary sense, if the primary sense is possible

संस्कारकत्वादचोदितेन स्यात् ॥ ३।२।२॥

संस्कारकत्वात् by reason of being purificatory, अचोदितेन with that which is not ordained, स्यात् is.

2. By reason of their being purificatory they are with that which is not ordained अचोदितेन is in the instrumental: but some read it in the locative and न is used as negative. The author says that as far as possible, the मंत्र should be interpreted in the primary sense but if that is not possible by the context, you transfer it forward where it may be of sense. As for instance, how are the materials to be purified? it is described in a place where it has no bearing, you can upon the principles of अकर्ष and उत्कर्ष transfer this description where it is pertinent. This adhikaraṇa is called वहिर्न्याय.

Adhikar १. ११. Sūtras ३-४ dealing with the application of the mantras describing इन्द्र to the गार्हपत्य fire.

वचनात्त्वयथार्थमेन्द्री स्यात् ॥ ३।२।३॥

वचनात् by reason of the text; तु on the other hand, अयथार्थ does not serve its purpose; ऐन्द्री the verses in honour of Indra, स्यात् is

3. On the other hand, by reason of the text, the verses in honour of Indra do not serve their purpose.

ऐन्द्रव्यवाहृत्य सुपतिहते "He worships the god गार्हपत्य fire with the verses which are in honour of Indra". There are two gods. The गार्हपत्य fire is worshipped but the verses in honour of Indra are recited. This is an incongruity. Which is principal? Worshipping of अग्नि is principal, the ऐंद्री verses being in the instrumental case are subordinate.

गुणाद्वाऽप्यभिधानं स्यात्सम्बन्धस्याशास्त्रहेतु- त्वात् ॥ ३।२।४ ॥

गुणात् from the quality, अपिवा or also अभिधान name, स्यात् is, सम्बन्ध of the relationship, आशास्त्रहेतुत्वात् by reason of its being not dependent on the Śāstra or the textual injunction.

4. On the other hand the name is by the quality, because the relationship does not depend on the textual injunction.

The relationship is not determined by the vedic injunction and therefore the name is by reason of the quality it expresses. Here we see that terms गार्हपत्य and ऐंद्री are not coordinate. As seen in the preceding sūtra गार्हपत्य is principal and ऐंद्री is subordinate. Here Indra should not be taken in the primary sense but in the secondary sense i.e. victorious. Thus Adhikāṇa is an exception to the last अधिकरण and is known as गार्हपत्यन्याय.

Adhikāṇa III Sūtra 5 9 dealing with the application of the mantras containing invitation, in invitation

तथाह्वानमपीति चेत् ॥ ३।२।५ ॥

तथा similarly, आह्वान मपि also invitation, इतिचेत् if it be said

5. Similarly it is be said that the invitation mantras are also.

The objector says that गार्हपत्यन्याय will also apply to the आह्वान mantras. Here is the example, हविष्कृदेहि (तै० ब्रा० ३।२।५८) इति त्रिविधं आह्वयति । He thrice beats the mortar, and he invites. In the preceding अधिकरण we have seen that गार्हपत्य is principal and ऐंद्री is subordinate; in accordance with the same principle अवघ्नन् is principal, because by thrice beating the mortar he invites. Beating of the mortar is principal and invitation is subordinate.

नकालविधिश्चेदित्यात् ॥ ३।२।६ ॥

न no, कालविधिः injunction about time चेदित्यात् by reason of its being laid down

6. So it is an injunction about time as it is laid down.

The author says that it only indicates time. But the invitation is principal. The beating of the mortar is laid down elsewhere ; the text as to invitation is original and new . Beating thrice of the mortar is only with an object to show the occasion when invitation is to be made

गुणाभावात् ॥ ३।२।७॥

7. By reason of the absence of the quality.

The author supports his view by another reason ; he says that there is no quality described in it . In the text "come with the oblation, thus beating the mortar thrice he invites " The first part does not describe the quality, so there is no relationship of a quality and the qualified

लिङ्गाच्च ॥ ३।२।८॥

8 By reason of the force of the text

The author relies on the text , वाग्वै हविष्कृदाच्च मेवेनत् । (श० ब्रा० १११४) The tongue is the lady of the sacrifice who prepares oblation. The sacrificing priest calls the lady of the sacrifice and so the force of the text also shows that of the sentence which invites the lady is principal

विधिकोपश्चोपदेशे स्यात् ॥ ३।२।९॥

विधिकोपः confusion in the injunction च and . उपदेशे in an injunction स्यात् is

9. There will be confusion of injunction if the direction be considered (as applicable to pounding).

The author says that if the text be considered as direction for pounding of the rice then the texts in connection with it will be in confusion. अपहर्तृक्षः ह्यवहति (वा० सं० १११६) । अपहृतायातुधाना ह्यवहति । "The giant is killed, so saying she pounds " "The devils are killed, so saying she pounds."

Adbikeraṅga IV Dealing with the application of the mantras referring to the carrying of the fire from one place to another, in so carrying

तथोत्थानविसर्जने ॥ ३।२।१०॥

तथा similarly , उत्थान विसर्जने in rising up and dismissal.

10. Similarly in rising up and dismissal.

The same principle which has been laid down in the preceding adhikaraṇa applies to the other acts of rising up and dismissal.

उत्तिष्ठन् अग्निं हासिदग्नीन् विहर । (तै० सं० ६।३।१२) वृत्तं कुरुतेति वाचं विजसृति ॥ (तै० सं० ६।१।३।४) ॥

In the first text, two acts are mentioned viz rising up and carrying fire; the first act namely rising up is the principal. "Rising up he says O! kindler of fire, carry fire"

In the second also, वाचं विजसृति breaking silence is principal "You practise the rite, so saying he begins to speak or breaks silence."

Adhikaraṇa V Sūtra 11-14 dealing with the subject that the सूक्तवाक is a part of the ceremony of offering of the grass into the fire.

सूक्तवाके च कालविधिः परार्थत्वात् ॥३।२।११॥

सूक्तवाके in the Sūktavāka; च and, कालविधिः injunction as to time; परार्थत्वात् being subservient to another

11. And in the Sūktavāka there is an injunction as to time by reason of its being subservient to another.

'सूक्तवाकेन प्रस्तरं प्रहरति' । प्रस्तर is a handful of grass; it is spread over the altar and placed under the sacrificial vessels. When the sacrifice is over this grass is thrown into the fire and सूक्तवाक is recited It is called प्रस्तर प्रहरण. The objector says that the two acts are simultaneous and therefore the text quoted in the beginning is only an injunction as to time.

उपदेशो वा याज्याशब्दो हि नाकस्मात् ॥३।२।१२॥

उपदेशः direct statement, वा on the other hand, or, याज्याशब्दः the word याज्या; हि because; न not; नाकस्मात् by chance, at random, without any purpose.

12. On the other hand, it is an order because the word याज्या is not used without a purpose.

सूक्तवाक एव याज्या । प्रस्तर एव आहुतिः ॥ The author says that सूक्तवाक is used in the instrumental case, it is a means to an end and प्रस्तर is an offering. So the सूक्तवाक is a part of the प्रस्तरप्रहरण and it can not therefore be a काक-विधि as explained in the preceding अधिकरण.

सदेवतार्थस्तत्संयोगात् ॥ ३।२।१३॥

स that; देवतार्थः with the object of the god, तत्तद्योगात् by reason of its being connected with it

13. It (सूक्तवाक) is with the object of describing the god, because it is connected with the sacrifice.

The author says that at the time of the offering, the gods are described and at the time of the grass offering the सूक्तवाक is recited, it is therefore done with the object of describing the gods

प्रतिपत्तिरिति चेत्स्विष्टकृद्दुभयसंस्कारः स्यात् ॥ ३।२।१४ ॥

प्रतिपत्ति. final disposal, इतिचेत् if you say; स्विष्टकृद् like a स्विष्टकृत् offering, उभयसंस्कार double purificatory acts, स्यात् is

14. If you say that it is final disposal, then like स्विष्टकृद् it serves two purposes.

प्रस्तर as explained above is a handful of grass brought from a jungle, it is spread over the altar and under the sacrificial vessels. Nothing in the sacrifice is thrown away. After the sacrifice is over, this grass instead of being thrown away is offered to the fire and finally disposed of. This act is called प्रतिपत्ति. The author says that if you argue that the प्रस्तर-प्रहरण is only प्रतिपत्तिकर्म, then in that view it serves two purposes, one is that the प्रस्तरप्रहरण rite is performed and the other is that the प्रस्तर is finally disposed of. This kind of serving double purposes by one act is called प्रस्तरप्रहरणन्याय.

Adhikarana VI. Verses 15-18 dealing with the application of the सूक्तवाक according to the meaning

कृत्स्नोपदेशादुभयत्र सर्ववचनम् ॥ ३।२।१५ ॥

कृत्स्नोपदेशात् the whole being directed, उभयत्र at both places, सर्ववचनम् recitation of the whole

15. Because it is laid down that the whole should be read, at both places, the whole should be read.

The objector says that it is laid down that the सूक्तवाक should be read on दश (new) and पूर्णमास (full moon). It should be read in its entirety.

यथार्थं वा शेषभूतसंस्कारात् ॥ ३।२।१६ ॥

यथार्थं according to the rite or meaning; वा on the other hand, शेषभूत संस्कारात् by reason of the purificatory acts of the शेष.

16. On the other hand they should be read according to the suitability of the rite, because they are purificatory of the subordinate acts.

The author says that in a sacrifice, the recitation of सूक्तवाक is a subordinate act. The सूक्तवाक should not be recited blindly; it should be recited as much as it serves the purpose according to the meaning.

वचनादिति चेत् ॥ ३।२।१७॥

वचनात् by reason of the command, इति चेत् if you say

17. If you say that it is so enjoined by a command.

The objector says that the reading of the whole सूक्तवाक is laid down by the Vedic text

प्रकरणाविभागादुभे प्रति कृत्स्नशब्दः ॥३।२।१८॥

प्रकरणाविभागात् by reason of the indivisibility of the context, उभे both, प्रति to; कृत्स्न शब्दः the word 'entire'.

18. By reason of the indivisibility of the context the word 'entire' applies to both.

The author says that the सूक्तवाक is not one text but consists of several texts. The texts of the सूक्तवाक can not be divided, the whole is called सूक्तवाक. Only those मंत्रs are recited which serve the purpose, for convenience' sake they are called सूक्तवाक.

Adhikarana VII Dealing with the subject that the portion (कांड) containing the वाज्या and अनुवाक of the desire-accomplishing sacrifice are the constituent parts of the entire desire accomplishing sacrifice.

लिङ्गक्रमसमाख्यानात्काम्ययुक्तं सामानानम् ॥३।२।१९॥

लिङ्ग significant power, क्रम order; समाख्यानात् by the meaning according to the division; काम्ययुक्तं connected with the desire-accomplishing acts; सामानानम् description in the Veda.

19. The description in the Veda in connection with the desire accomplishing sacrifice is known from the force of the text, the order and the classification and meaning of the division.

The author says that वाज्या and अनुवाक मंत्रs that are recited at the time of the offerings are given in सैतरीय संहिता at one place and the काम्य sacrifi ce is described at another. How are we to connect them with each other? This you can determine with the aid of लिङ्ग, क्रम & समाख्या. See chapter III, पाद ३ सूत्र १४.

Adhikāraṇa VIII. Fū ras 2) 23 dealing with the application of the mantras of the model sacrifice in connection with the praise of the place of अग्नीध्र priest.

अधिकारे च मन्त्रविधिरतदाख्येषु शिष्टत्वात् ॥३।२।२०॥

अधिकारे in the general heading, च and, मन्त्रविधिः the applicability of mantras, अतदाख्येव, not in the classification and meaning, शिष्टत्वात् by reason of its being laid down

20. And in the general description is the application of the mantras, there being nothing laid down in the classification and naming.

आग्नेयर्वाग्नीध्रमग्निमृशेत् । ऐन्द्रियासदः । वैष्णव्याः हविर्वातम्. (तै० सं० ३।१।६।१) The objector says that there are also अग्नेर, ऐन्द्रिय and वैष्णव mantras in the Vedas, the समाख्या does not help us in determining मन्त्र, it is by the लिङ्ग and क्रम that we know to which deity the मन्त्र belongs

तदाख्योवा प्रकरणोपपत्तिभ्याम् ॥३।२।२१॥

तदाख्यः samākhyā, वा on the other hand, प्रकरणोपपत्तिभ्याम् by the context and philosophical explanation

21 On the other hand, समाख्या depends upon context and philosophical explanation

The author says that a rational explanation of the application of the मन्त्रs of the तैत्तिरीय संहिता and their context can be given, if समाख्या be recognised

अनर्थकश्चोपदेशः स्यादसम्बन्धात्फलवता न ह्युपस्थानं फलवत् ॥३।२।२२॥

अनर्थकः meaningless; च and; उपदेशः direction; स्यात् is; असम्बन्धात् by reason of no connection; फलवता with one that produces fruit; न not, हि because, उपस्थानं praises, फलवत् producing fruit.

22. And the direction is meaningless by reason of there being no connection with one that produces fruit; because the praise is not producing fruit.

The author says that every act bears some fruit and the mantra is connected with some act ज्योतिष्टोम produces a fruit, but "if a mantra about अग्नि be recited, अग्नीत्र's place is to be touched" this produces no effect.

The inference is that it is not an independent act. Hence the praise of the अग्नीत्र's place is to be regulated by ज्योतिष्टोम.

सर्वेषां चोपदिष्टत्वात् ॥ ३ । २ । २३ ॥

सर्वेषां of all, च and, उपदिष्टत्वात् by reason of being laid down.

23. And by reason of all being enjoined.

The author says that no मन्त्र in the Veda is useless, the use of every मन्त्र is pointed out

Adhikarana IX. Sūtra 24-25 dealing with the application of the मन्त्र-referring to the soma being drunk before the soma cups are taken by means of the significant power of words

लिङ्गसमाख्यानाभ्यां भक्षार्थताऽनुवाकस्य ॥३।२।२४॥

लिङ्गसमाख्यानाभ्यां by the लिङ्ग and समाख्या, भक्षार्थता drinking of the soma being the object, अनुवाकस्य of the अनुवाक.

24. The drinking of the soma is the object of the अनुवाक and can be inferred by means of लिङ्ग and समाख्या.

The objector says that the अनुवाक which is quoted from the तैत्तिरीय संहिता is for the purpose of drinking soma and it can be inferred by means of लिङ्ग and समाख्या The language and classification show that the whole of it is to be used at the time of drinking the soma.

तस्य रूपोपदेशाभ्यामपकर्षोऽर्थस्य चेदित-
त्वात् ॥ ३ । २ । २५ ॥

तस्य its, रूपोपदेशाभ्यां by means of the form and direction; अपकर्षः transference; अर्थस्य of the sense; चेदितत्वात् by reason of being laid down.

25. There will be transference of sense by means of its form and direction, by reason of its being laid down.

The author says that you are wrong. the whole will not apply in the case of drinking. You have to take the meaning into consideration and see where it applies In this connection the principle of transference will apply and that will be governed by the form of the अनुवाक and the direction in connection with it

Adhikaran: X. Dealing with the subject that the mantras commencing with मन्द्राभिभूति and ending with मन्त्रायामि are one

गुणाभिधानान्मन्द्रादिरकमन्त्रः स्यात्तयोरेकार्थ-
संयोगात् ॥ ३।२।२६ ॥

गुणाभिधानात् by reason of describing the quality, मन्द्रादिः the mantra commencing with मन्द्र, एकमन्त्रः one mantra, स्यात् is, तयो. of those two; एकार्थ-संयोगात् by reason of their being connected with one object

26. The मन्त्रs commencing with मन्द्र by reason of describing the quality, constitute one मन्त्र, because they both are connected with one object.

मन्द्राभिभूतिः केतुर्यज्ञानांवाग्जुषणा सोमस्यदृश्यतु ॥ वसुमद्रणस्यसोमदेवते मति-
विदः प्रातःसवनस्यगायत्र्यर्चदसोऽग्निष्टुत इन्द्रपीतस्यमधुमत उपहृतस्योपहृता मन्त्रायामि
॥ तै० सं० ३।२।५॥

"Producing joy, knowing a sacrifice, drinking soma juice, may my tongue be satisfied I drink that soma juice which I am invited to drink by others as being sweet at the morning libation with which the number of eleven Rudras, the number of eight vasus, the number of 12 Adityas, metre gayatri which comprehends the intellect are connected with the morning libation in which the soma juice offered to Indra is drunk."

The two मन्त्रs that are quoted from the तैत्तिरीयसंहिता in the आख्य are one because they both serve one purpose and one of them describes the quality, that is one is principal and the other is subordinate It is an example of a complex sentence and the अनुवाक mentioned in the preceding अधिकरण is the example of a compound sentence

Adhikaran: XI. Verses 27-28 dealing with the application of the 'इन्द्रपीतस्य' mantras in all drinking ceremonies by means of ऊदृ (substitution)

लिङ्गविशेषनिर्देशात्समानविधानेष्वनैन्द्राणाममन्त्र-
त्वम् ॥ ३।२।२७ ॥

लिङ्गविशेषनिर्देशात् by reason of the direction from the special force of the text; समानविधानेषु in the case where equal things are enjoined; अनैन्द्राणां of the non-Indra gods. अमन्त्रत्वम् no mantra

27. By reason of the direction from the special force of the text, in things equally enjoined, the dieties other than इन्द्र are without मंत्रः.

इन्द्रपीतस्य मन्त्रा मन्त्रपीतस्य चिद्रपीतस्य मन्त्रमपि, उपहृतस्योपहृतो मन्त्रमपि इति ॥ ३२॥ ३३॥

"I drink that soma juice which I am invited to drink by others as being sweet which is drunk by Indra, which is drunk in मन्त्रास्य cups, and which is drunk by the manes."

The objector says that the मन्त्र commencing with 'इन्द्रपीतस्य' quoted in the मन्त्र on sūtra 24 is to be recited in honour of इन्द्र, but if any other diety is to be invoked, then no mantra is to be recited. The objector says that it appears from the force of the text that it is intended for इन्द्र only.

यथादेवतं वा तत्प्रकृतित्वं हि दर्शयति ॥३२॥ ३३॥

यथादेवतं according to the diety; वा on the other hand; तत्प्रकृतित्वं the general property of being that which has an original sacrifice for its model, हि because; दर्शयति shows.

28. On the other hand, according to the gods; because the model sacrifice shows it.

The author gives a reply. There are two kinds of sacrifices ब्रह्मन्ति and चिकित्ति. The दर्शपूर्णमासयोग्य are the model sacrifices of all petty sacrifices and अग्निहोम is the model sacrifice of all big sacrifices. In the दर्शपूर्णमासयोग्य only इन्द्र is invoked; there are मन्त्रा for him; when a modified sacrifice is performed, the diety is अग्नि but there are no mantras separately for him. They are only the मन्त्रा of इन्द्र. By the principle of उद् you have to substitute अग्नि in place of इन्द्र and repeat those मन्त्रा.

Adhikarṣa XII. Sūtras 29-31. Dealing with उपहृतस्य of Indra at the time of drinking of the अमृतपीत soma juice.

पुनरभ्युचीतेषु सर्वेषामुपलक्षणं द्विशेषत्वात् ॥३२॥ ३४॥

पुनः again; अभ्युचीतेषु in the अमृतपीत soma juice cups; सर्वेषामुपलक्षणं of all; द्विशेषत्वात् mention; द्विशेषत्वात् by reason of the residues of two.

29. Again in अमृतपीत soma juice cups there is उपलक्षणं of all by reason of the residues of two.

There are several cups full of soma juice, the first is offered to इंद्र and then without washing the cup, the second is offered to नैत्रावरुण. When the offering is made to इंद्र the मंत्र "इंद्रपीतृभ्य" &c. is read; when नैत्रावरुण is invoked, then on the principle of इह, "नैत्रावरुणपीतृभ्य" should be read. The second offering of the juice is called अम्युचीत. There is in this cup a residue of two, therefore the term द्विशेष is used. The author says that in such a case of अम्युचीत all the dieties are to be mentioned on the principle of उपलक्षय. When a subject is discussed, it necessarily produces some knowledge of other subjects whether connected with it locally or mentally; such knowledge is called उपलक्षय.

अपनयाद्वा पूर्वस्याऽनुपलक्षणम् ॥ ३।२।३० ॥

अपनयाद् by reason of setting aside; वा on the other hand; पूर्वस्या of the foregoing; अनुपलक्षणम् non-mention.

30. On the other hand by setting aside there is non-mention of the foregoing diety.

The objector says that when the second offering is made to another diety, the first diety is set aside and so there should not be a mention of the diety thus set aside.

ग्रहणाद्वाऽपनयः स्यात् ॥ ३।२।३१ ॥

ग्रहणाद् by taking; अपनयः setting aside, स्यात् is.

31. On the other hand, there is setting aside by reason of taking the soma juice (remnant of Indra's drink.)

There are two views, at the time when अम्युचीत drink is taken, either all the gods be invoked or Indra be omitted. The author accepts the former view.

Adhikaraṇa XIII. Sātra- 32-33 dealing with non-mention of Indra's name at the time of drinking पात्रीवत cup.

पात्रीवते तु पूर्ववत् ॥ ३।२।३२ ॥

32. On the other hand, in पात्रीवत cup like the preceding.

The objector says that the principle enunciated by you in the preceding adhikaraṇa also applies to the पात्रीवत cup; that इंद्रा &c. gods should all be mentioned when the cup is drunk after the remnant, as in the case of अम्युचीत cup.

ग्रहणाद्वाऽपनीतं स्यात् ॥ ३। २। ३३ ॥

33. On the other hand, by taking there is setting aside.

The author says that the principle enunciated in the preceding अधिहरण does not apply in the present case. On drinking the cup, the former god is set aside. In the प्रातः सवन, ईश्वराय, मैत्रावरुण and अश्विनौ the dual gods have the cups. The residual soma from the cups is put in a vessel called वाही and then it is transferred to आपययस्थाली. The soma juice taken from it is called वाहीवत and the cup in which it is drunk is वाहीवते cup.

Adhikarapa XIV Sūtras 34-35 dealing with the non-mention of the name of त्वष्टृ when the remnant of वाहीवत is taken.

त्वष्टारं तूपलक्षयेत्पानात् ॥ ३। २। ३४ ॥

34. On the other hand त्वष्टृ should be mentioned by reason of the drink.

अग्नाह पत्नीवत् सङ्घर्षेण त्वष्टा सोमं पिब (ती. सं. १।१।२७।१) "O! patnivat Agni, drink soma with god त्वष्टृ."

The objector says that the text cited above from the तैत्तिरीयसंहिता shows that god agni is invited and is invoked to drink soma along with त्वष्टृ. From the association of ideas (उपलक्षण) the name of त्वष्टृ is to be invoked. This is the gist of the opponent's argument.

अतुल्यत्वात् नैवं स्यात् ॥ ३। २। ३५ ॥

35. On the other hand, by reason of the inequality, it is not so.

The author says that there is no equality. The god अग्नि is invited and he is asked to drink soma in company with त्वष्टृ. There is no equality, the chief god is अग्नि; hence the name of त्वष्टृ is not to be mentioned. The principle of उपलक्षण does not apply.

Adhikarapa XV. Dealing with non-mention of 30, at the time of drinking वाहीवत.

त्रिंशच्च परार्थत्वात् ॥ ३। २। ३६ ॥

36. And 30, by reason of being subservient to others

The author says that 33 gods are mentioned in connection with the drinking of वाहीवत सोम; but this description is subordinate. The god Agni is principally mentioned; the principal is to be mentioned but not the subordinate. The principle of उपलक्षण does not apply.

देवान्युपयन्नावह मादयस्व ॥ (ऋ० सं० ३।६।६)

"O! Agni come unto us with them in thy chariot or in several chariots, because thy horses are powerful bring three and thirty gods with their wives for food and be intoxicated."

Adhikarṇa XVI. Dealing with the non-mention of अनुषट्कार duty at the time of drinking soma.

षट्कारश्च कर्तव्यत् ॥ ३।२।३७ ॥

37. And pronouncing of षट्कार is like an agent.

"सोमस्याग्ने दीहीत्यनु षट्करोति" (दे० ब० १।१५) When drinking soma and saying "O! agni, come he pronounces षट्." When a होता drinks soma, he recites a mantra, When अन्वयुः drinks सोम he recites a मंत्र; but they are not gods so षट् is not a god. When an offering is thrown into fire the priest pronounces षट्. It is called षट्कार. It is not to be mentioned in association with the invocation of the dieties and the principle of उपलक्षण does not apply.

Adhikarṇa XVII. Dealing with the subject of drinking of soma without a मंत्र when god Indra is not connected

छन्दः प्रतिषेधस्तु सर्वगामित्वात् ॥ ३।२।३८ ॥

38. On the other hand, prohibition of छन्द by reason of its going into all.

The author lays down another principle that every oblation has its मंत्र but there are some in which no मंत्र is recited; where god Indra is not invoked, the drinking is done without reciting any मंत्र.

Adhikarṇa XVIII. Sūtras 39-40 dealing with the drinking of soma without a mantra when dual gods Indra and Agni are associated.

ऐन्द्राग्ने तु लिङ्गभावात्स्यात् ॥ ३।२।३९ ॥

39. In the cup of Indragṇi dual gods, by the inferential power of the text, there is a मंत्र.

The objector says that when the soma cup is offered to इन्द्राग्ने, the मंत्र "सोमस्य" (See the mantras at p. 105) should be recited because इन्द्र is one of the dual gods and so his मंत्र will be recited by the principle of लिङ्ग.

एकस्मिन्वा देवतान्तराद्विभागवत् ॥३।२।४०॥

40. On the other hand, one cup will be divided by reason of another diety.

The author says that the cup is offered to the individual god ईशानो. He is invoked but there is no मन्त्र for him. So no मन्त्र will be recited when soma is drunk from Indrāgni cup. Otherwise one cup is to be divided into two which is improper. In exegetics, the derivative term is independently considered and its etymological sense is to be set aside. ईशानो is entirely a different diety from ईश and अग्नि.

Adhikarapa XIX. Sūtra 41-43 dealing with the application of 'गायत्र्युद्द' mantras in offerings in which several उद्द are used.

छन्दश्च देवतावत् ॥ ३।२।४१॥

41. And छन्द is like a diety.

The objector says that when ईश is invoked, there is one metre; but where the soma is drunk with many metres, there will be no mantra.

सर्वेषु वाऽभावादेकच्छन्दसः ॥ ३।२।४२॥

42. On the other hand, in all, by reason of the absence of one metre.

The author says that as there is an absence of one metre, the mantra is to be recited. In every mantra there is a heading; the metre is mentioned, there are sometimes several metres mentioned, so you can not argue from the analogy of the preceding अधिकरण that no मन्त्र is to be recited when there are several उद्द mentioned in connection with it.

The summary of the 11th अधिकरण. (Sūtras 27 and 28.)

सर्वेषां वैकमन्त्र्यमेतिशायनस्य भक्तिपानत्वात्स- वनाधिकरोहि ॥ ३।२।४३॥

सर्वेषां of all; वा on the other hand; एकमन्त्र्य one mantra; इतिशायनस्य view of इतिशायन; भक्तिपानत्वात् by reason of many occasions of the drink; सवनाधिकार general subject of squeezing and preparing soma; हि because.

43. On the other hand, the view of इतिशायन is that there is only one मंत्र for all, by reason of the different occasions of soma drinking; because they all come under the general subject of squeezing and preparing soma.

The view of एतिशासन is that there is one मंत्र for all. We have seen in Adhikaraṇa XVII, that there is no mantra recited where god invoked is not ईद. एतिशासन says that everywhere, you are to recite the मंत्र, "ईदपीतव" quoted in the भाष्य on sūtra 24.

END OF PĀDA II.

PĀDA III.

Adhikaraṇa I. Sūtras 1-8 dealing with the subject that loudness &c. are the qualities of the Veda.

श्रुनेर्जाताधिकारः स्यात् ॥ ३ । ३ । १ ॥

श्रुतेः by reason of the text ; जाताधिकारः class ; स्यात् is.

1. By reason of the direct text, there is a class of the Vedas.

उपवेर्जाचाक्रियते उपवेः साम्ना उपश्रुदुषा ॥ The objector says that "the ऋक् verses should be read aloud and the soma verses should also be read aloud and yajus verses should be read low." He says that if the ṛik verses are in Yajur Veda, they should be read low because this text applies to the class.

वेदो वा प्रायदर्शनात् ॥ ३ । ३ । २ ॥

2. On the other hand, the Veda by reason of seeing it often.

The author says that this description applies to the Veda but not to the class ; whether the verses in the यजुर्वेद be from the ऋग्वेद or not they should be read low. The reason is that there are many such verses from the ऋग्वेद in the यजुर्वेद.

लिङ्गाच्च ॥ ३ । ३ । ३ ॥

3. And also by reason of the force of the text.

The author quotes the Vedic text in support of his view.

अग्निः पूर्वाह्नेदिविदेवर्हयते । यजुर्वेदेतिहमिषयेग्रहः । सामवेदेनासामवे मही-
कृते । वेदेऽग्न्यस्मिन्निति सूर्यः (तै० ब्रा० ३।१२।३।१)

"In the forenoon, the shining god comes in the heavens with the ऋक् verses ; in the midday he stays with the यजु verses ; he is glorified with the Sāma verses at sunset ; with three Vedas, the complete sun goes back."

धर्मोपदेशाच्च न हि द्रव्येण सम्बन्धः ॥३।३।४॥

धर्मोपदेशाच्च by reason of the description of the property ; च and ; न not ;
हि because, द्रव्येण with the matter ; सम्बन्धः connection.

4. And by reason of the description of the quality; because it is not connected with the matter.

The author gives another reason in support of his view; he says that these qualities belong to the Veda but not to the subject matter. There is no doubt that there is no difference between the Sāma Veda and the Rigveda as to the quality but the verses sang from the ऋग्वेद after the sacrifice are called साम and constitute सामवेद. This quality attaches to the Veda and has nothing to do with the matter.

त्रयीविद्याख्या च तद्विद्धि ॥३।३।५॥

5. And a person who knows the three Vedas is called knower of the three Vedas.

The term "त्रयीविद्य" also shows that there are 3 Vedas.

व्यक्तिक्रमे यथाश्रुतीति चेत् ॥३।३।६॥

व्यक्तिक्रमे on confusion ; यथाश्रुति according to the text, इति चेत् if it be said.

6. "And on confusion, it should be according to the text" if it be said.

The objector says that there is व्यक्तिक्रमः i. e. the verses from the ऋग्वेद are found in the यजुर्वेद and this anomaly can be reconciled by acting according to the text i. e. reading them aloud.

न सर्वस्मिन्निवेशात् ॥३।३।७॥

7. Not so, by reason of inclusion in all.

The author says that there is no anomaly if you take the quality of lowness and loudness to belong to the entire Veda. The loudness is the quality of the Rig and Sama Vedas and lowness is the quality of the यजुर्वेद. There is therefore no anomaly.

वेदसंयोगान्न प्रकरणेन बाध्येत ॥ ३।३।८ ॥

8. By reason of the connection with the Vedic text, it is not violated by the context.

The Vedic text quoted in the commentary on sūtra 1 will prevail over the context. वाक्य predominates over the context where the वाक्य, verses occur.

Adhikarapa II. Dealing with the subject that in the अग्न्याधान, the Sama verses should be read low.

गुणमुख्यव्यतिक्रमे तदर्थत्वान्मुख्येन वेदसंयोगः ॥

३।३।९ ॥

गुणमुख्यव्यतिक्रमे in the conflict between the principal and subordinate ; तदर्थत्वात् by reason of its being subservient to it, मुख्येन with the principal; वेदसंयोगः connection with the Veda.

9. In the conflict between the principal and the subordinate, by reason of the latter being subservient to the former, the principal has connection with the Veda.

The अग्न्याधान is the ceremony connected with the यजुर्वेद and Sama verses are sung there. As the ceremony is the principal and chanting of the hymns, is a part of it, so the principal will govern chanting of the hymns. The Sama hymns will be therefore sung lowly when अग्न्याधान ceremony is performed.

Adhikarapa III. Dealing with the subject that स्मृतिहोम is a Yajurvedic act.

भूयस्त्वेनोभयश्रुति ॥ ३।३।१० ॥

भूयस्त्वेन with the length of description ; उभयश्रुति an act which is described in two Vedas.

10. An act described in two Vedas is governed by one in which it is described at length.

When a sacrifice is described in two Vedas, the question arises "which is the principal description?" The answer is "that is the principal description which goes into details and describes it fully; while the other which has not entered into details is only subordinate." The उपोतिहोम is described in the Yajurveda and Sāma Veda, but in the former it is described more fully; so the sacrifice will be governed by the यजुर्वेद.

Adhikarana IV Dealing with the applicability of context.

असंयुक्तं प्रकरणादितिकर्तव्यतार्थित्वात् ॥३।३।११॥

असंयुक्तं unconnected; प्रकरणात् from the context, इतिकर्तव्यतार्थित्वात् by reason of its being for an action.

11. When there is no applicability of भुति, लिंग and वाक्य, the context (प्रकरण) will apply, because it shows how an action is to be done.

In this सूत्र, the exegetical principles are discussed. There are भुति, लिंग and वाक्य. The Śruti is the direct sense of a term; it has been called बर्हिण्याय, the metaphorical sense of a word is called लिंग; it is called गार्हपत्य्याय. In a sentence, we have to see the force of the verb which is an important part and to determine how the principal action is modified. It is called वाक्य. It is technically called आरुयिन्याय. When these three principles do not apply, you will have to fall upon context. It is the dependence of one part of a passage upon another as the outcome of the mental process called expectancy. It is inferior in force to the above principles mentioned.

Adhikarana V Dealing with the applicability of क्रम (sequence)

क्रमश्च देशसामान्यात् ॥ ३।३।१२॥

12. And क्रम (sequence) is by the place being common.

The author examines the 5th principle which he calls क्रम or स्थान, it is called sequence. The thoughts occur in a certain order, the action is also performed in an order. This order is described in chap V. It is first divided into two.

Adhikāraṇa VI. Dealing with the applicability of समाख्या.

आख्या चैवं तदर्थत्वात् ॥ ३।३।१३ ॥

13. And समाख्या also, being subservient.

समाख्या is the last principle and weakest of all. It depends upon the principal statement in a passage. The Āchāryas have made artificial division and classification in the Veda; this is called समाख्या. It is also divided into two.

Adhikāraṇa VII. Dealing with the predominance of श्रुति &c. over the ones following it.

श्रुति-लिङ्ग-वाक्य-प्रकरण-स्थान-समाख्यानां
समवाये पारदौर्बल्यमर्थविप्रकर्षात् ॥ ३।३।१४ ॥

14. In the common applicability of श्रुति, लिङ्ग, वाक्य, प्रकरण, स्थान and समाख्या, the weakness of the latter is by reason of the distance of the sense.

When there are more than one principle applicable to the interpretation of a text, the one which is prior in the above order will apply.

Adhikaraṇa VIII. Sūtras 15—16 dealing with the subject that the 12 'upāsads' are the parts of अहीन.

अहीनो वा प्रकरणाद्गोणः ॥ ३ । ३ । १५ ॥

15. On the other hand, अहीन is subordinate by reason of the context.

अहीन is a sacrifice which extends for a period more than one day. It lasts from the 2nd night to the 11th night, द्वादशसाहस्योपसदःस्युत्तिहोऽहीनस्यवर्ज्यं विहोम क्रियेत् तिल एव साहस्योपसदोद्वादशाहीनस्य वज्रस्य सर्वोयत्वाय (तै. सं. ६।२।५।१) ॥

"There are to be 12 upāsads (oblations) [of a Jyotistoma sacrifice; of an अहीन sacrifice there are to be three, it is to be done in an inverted order. Of a ज्योतिहोम there are to be three oblations and twelve of अहीन sacrifice for valour."

Here साह्य means ज्योतिहोम. The objector says that अहीन from the context appears to be a part of ज्योतिहोम.

असंयोगात्तु मुख्यस्य तस्मादपकृष्येत ॥ ३ । ३ । १६ ॥

16. On the other hand, being not connected with the principal, therefore there is a backward transference.

The author says that there is nothing in the Vedic passage quoted that ज्योतिहोम is principal and अहीन is subordinate. The 12 upāsads are connected with the principal and are therefore to be transferred to their principal अहीन.

Adhikaraṇa IX. Sūtras 17-19 dealing with the subject that in कुलाय &c. the verses called प्रतिपद are to be transferred forward.

द्वित्वबहुत्वयुक्तं वा चोदनात्तस्य ॥ ३ । ३ । १७ ॥

17. On the other hand, connected with two or more by reason of its being ordained.

There are प्रतिपद मंत्रः which are chanted in the beginning, in some of them two gods are mentioned and in others more. Are they to be done by two sacrificers or more according to the number of the dieties? The कुलायवज्र and द्विरात्र are the sacrifices in which several sacrificers join.

There are two Rik verses quoted in the śra the bearing of which is there shown.

१. पुर्वदित्यः स्वर्वतीर्दृश्वसोम गोवती । ईशाना पिप्यतक्षिः ॥ (ऋ० सं० १।१।१२)

२. एतेनसृग्मिदवस्त्रिः पश्चिन्माशवः । विश्वान्यमि सौमगा ॥ (१।६।२।१)

1. O! Soma thou and Indra, you both are lords of heaven, protectors of cows and masters, extend our sacrifice

2. These quick somas all auspicious with reference to wealth are pure, and have been strained by the priests through a piece of cloth

The first is to be chanted when two यजमान perform the sacrifice and the second when more than two. So the verses are to be transferred to कुलाययज्ञ. This is the siddhanta view of the author.

पक्षेणार्थकृतस्येति चेत् ॥ ३।३।१८ ॥

पक्षेण with the help, support, अर्थकृतस्य of the sacrificer; इतिचेत् if it be said.

18. If it be said that with the help of the sacrificer.

The objector says that the मन्त्र occur in ज्योतिष्टोम sacrifice and you transfer them from there to कुलाययज्ञ. It is not proper. A sacrificer who is single in the ज्योतिष्टोम can take help from others in a sacrifice, so the necessity of transferring the mantras from ज्योतिष्टोम to कुलाययज्ञ is avoided.

नकृतेरेकसंयोगात् ॥ ३।३।१९ ॥

न not; प्रकृतेः of the model sacrifice, एकसंयोगात् by reason of the mention of one

19. Not so; because one sacrificer is mentioned in connection with the model sacrifice.

The author says that ज्योतिष्टोम which is the model sacrifice has only one यजमान; he can not take any help. So those two mantras of the Rig-veda which are chanted in the beginning called प्रतिपद are to be transferred to the कुलाययज्ञ where there are two sacrificers.

Adhikaraṇa X. Mūtras 19-23 dealing with the subject that the tail of a sacrificial animal is not to be transferred

जाघनी चैकदेशत्वात् ॥ ३।३।२० ॥

2. And the tail of an animal by reason of a part.

The objector says that there is a text आहुत्या पक्षीः संयाजयति ॥ "He offers the oblations called the पक्षीसंयाज with the tail of an animal." This occurs in connection with the context of दशपूर्णमासयाग, but the tail of the animal is of no use there. It should, therefore, in accordance with the principle laid down in the preceding adhikaraṇa, be transferred to the animal sacrifice.

चोदना वाऽपूर्वत्वात् ॥ ३।३।२१ ॥

21. On the other hand, it is a command by reason of its being an extraordinary and invisible result.

The author says that the tail of the animal is connected with the पक्षीसंयाज. The पक्षीसंयाज is therefore principal and the tail of the animal is subordinate. The पक्षीसंयाज is useless without दशपूर्णमासयाग. So there can not be a transference of it to the animal sacrifice as stated by the objector.

एकदेश इति चेत् ॥ ३।३।२२ ॥

22. If you say that a part (stands for the whole).

The objector says that the tail stands for the animal, it means the animal should be killed. So it is a case of transference to the animal sacrifice where the text is of use.

न प्रकृतेरशास्त्रनिष्पत्तेः ॥ ३।३।२३ ॥

न not so; प्रकृतेः from the model sacrifice, अशास्त्रनिष्पत्तेः by reason of not getting the command

23. Not so; by reason of not getting the command from the model sacrifice.

The author says that there is only a tail mentioned; we do not find that the whole animal is meant. There is nothing to warrant this in the model sacrifice. In the दशपूर्णमासयाग no animal is sacrificed, further you can have the tail of the animal and make an offering of it. It is therefore not necessary that you should sacrifice an entire animal.

Adhikaraṇa XI. Sūtras 24-31 dealing with the subject that fastening is used in a soma sacrifice.

सन्तर्दनं प्रकृतौ कयणवदनर्थलोपात्स्यात् ॥ ३।३।२४ ॥

सन्तर्दनं fastening; प्रकृतौ in a model sacrifice; कयणवदन् like the purchase

अवर्णनेनात् by reason of no loss of anything essential, स्यात् is.

24. In the model sacrifice, the fastening is like the purchase of soma (optional) because there is no omission of anything essential.

The objector says that in a ज्योतिष्टोम sacrifice the purchase of soma is optional, so the fastening is also optional. Under the circumstances the text ("असंवृणे.....दीर्घसोमे संवृषे ह्यस्य" (तै. सं. ६।२।१।१३). "In the soma sacrifice called दीर्घसोम a fastening is to be made for securing steadiness") is not to be transferred to the sacrifice called दीर्घसोम.

उत्कर्षो वा ग्रहणाद्विशेषस्य ॥ ३।३।२५ ॥

25. On the other hand, there is transference forward by virtue of a particular reference

The reply to the objection is that there is no fastening in the ज्योतिष्टोम sacrifice, so the text quoted is useless but as there is a special reference to दीर्घसोम sacrifice, the text is to be transferred forward in connection with दीर्घसोम sacrifice

कर्तृतो वा विशेषस्य तन्निमित्तत्वात् ॥ ३।३।२६ ॥

कर्तृतः from the agent; वा on the other hand, विशेषस्य of the particular; तन्निमित्तत्वात् by reason of his being the cause of it.

26. On the other hand, from the agent, there is a special reference because he being the cause of it

The objector says that you are wrong to take the term दीर्घसोम to mean the sacrifice of that name, it means one who has performed soma sacrifice for a long time. It is a बहुव्रीहिसंज्ञा. So there is no transference forward.

क्रतुतो वाऽर्थवादानुपपत्तेः स्यात् ॥ ३।३।२७ ॥

क्रतुतः from the sacrifice; वा on the other hand, अर्थवादानुपपत्तेः by reason of the proof of अर्थवाद, स्यात् is.

27. On the other hand, from the sacrifice by reason of the force of the अर्थवाद.

The reply to the objection is that ह्यस्य describes the sacrifice; it can not be a quality of the sacrificer. So the sacrifice is meant by the अर्थवाद and therefore the दीर्घसोम can only be the name of a sacrifice and can not be a quality of the sacrificer. If your interpretation be accepted, it will be an absurdity.

संस्थाश्च कर्तृवद्धारणार्थविशेषात् ॥ ३।३।२८ ॥

संस्थाः soma sacrifices, च and; कर्तृवत् like the agent; धारणार्थ-विशेषात् there being nothing particular in, the sense of steadiness.

28. And soma sacrifices like an agent, by reason of the word 'धारणा' having no particular sense.

The objector says that there are seven सोम sacrifices called संस्थाः, अग्निहोम, अत्यग्निहोम, उक्थ्य, शोडशी, वाजपेय, अतिरात्र, आसौर्याम. If the transference of the text is made to any of these संस्थाः, the word steadiness as used in the text will be meaningless just as you say in the case of the sacrificer.

उक्थ्यादिषु वाऽर्थस्य विद्यमानत्वात् ॥ ३।३।२९ ॥

29. On the other hand, in उक्थ्य &c. by reason of the presence of the object.

The reply is that in उक्थ्य &c. the seven संस्थाः enumerated above, there is सोम present already. There is, therefore, no necessity of transference of the text there.

अविशेषात्स्तुतिर्व्यर्थेति चेत् ॥ ३।३।३० ॥

अविशेषात् by reason of there being no distinction; स्तुतिः praise; व्यर्थः useless; इति चेत् if it be said.

30. "By reason of there being nothing particular, the praise is useless"; if it be said.

The objector says that the praise of the Soma becomes useless. The text which contains the अर्चवाद् is meaningless.

स्यादनित्यत्वात् ॥ ३।३।३१ ॥

31. It is by reason of its being not permanent.

The author says that the text 'दशगुह्यी मिमीते he measures ten handfuls') thereby limiting the supply, is not permanent. The text quoted in the beginning (i. e. Sūtra 24) is therefore not to be transferred but to remain in ज्योतिहोम.

There are two stone slabs in a ज्योतिहोम sacrifice to serve as the receptacle upon which the सोम is to be pounded. The joining of these two stone slabs is called संवदन.

Adhikaraṇa XII. Sūtras 32-33 dealing with the subject that the prohibition of प्रवर्ग्य applies to the first performance.

सङ्ख्यायुक्तं क्रतोः प्रकरणात्स्यात् ॥३।३।३२॥

सङ्ख्यायुक्तं connected with the numerals; क्रतोः of the sacrifice, प्रकरणात् by reason of the context, स्यात् is

32. The connection of the numerals is with the sacrifice by reason of the context.

नप्रथमयज्ञे प्रवृज्यात् द्वितीये तृतीयेवा प्रवृज्यात् । एषवाच प्रथमोयज्ञानां वसुधोतिष्ठोमी च एतेना निष्ठा भयान्येनयजेत ॥ "In the first sacrifice the प्रवर्ग्य ceremony is to be performed, in the second and third sacrifices, it is to be performed. O' वसुधोतिष्ठोमी sacrifice is the first of all the sacrifices. He does not perform the वसुधोतिष्ठोमी sacrifice but some other" The प्रवर्ग्य ceremony is as follows:—Soma twigs brought in and received as guests and a bow is made to heaven and earth. Then commences the प्रवर्ग्य ceremony. The cows are brought out with their calves. An ewe is brought with her young one; they are milked. Altars of mud are built, a vessel called महावीर is prepared, its form being prescribed, the milk ready is poured into it. It is heated. Then its oblations are offered into the गार्हपत्य fire of the first Veda as distinguished from the इक्षारवेदी. The objector says that this प्रवर्ग्य ceremony ought not to be performed at all in a वसुधोतिष्ठोमी, because the 'first' qualifies the sacrifice in the above text.

नैमित्तिकं वा कर्तृसंयोगास्त्रिङ्गस्य तन्निमित्तत्वात् ॥३।३।३३॥

नैमित्तिकं occasional; कर्तृसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the agent; त्रिङ्गस्य of the inferential sense; तन्निमित्तत्वात् by reason of its being for it.

33. On the other hand, it is occasioned by reason of the connection with the agent, because the inferential sense is for it.

The author says that the numeral is connected with the agent and the whole text points to it. The meaning therefore is that the प्रवर्ग्य is not to be performed when the वसुधोतिष्ठोमी is performed for the first time.

Adhikarana XIII Dealing with the application of the flour offering to पूषा in a modified sacrifice.

पौष्णं पेपणं विकृतौ /प्रतीयेताऽचोदनात्प्र-
कृतौ ॥ ३ । ३ । ३४ ॥

34. The offering of flour to पूषा is known in a modified sacrifice, because there is no such direction in the model sacrifice.

तस्मान् पूषा परिष्ट गगो अङ्गकोदित् ॥ (तै० ब० २.६.१५) The god पूषा is without teeth, so flour offering is made to him. Though the offering to पूषा is mentioned in दूर्णमासयाग, yet it is not offered to पूषा here, its application in the modified sacrifice चतुर्मास्य necessarily follows.

There are two kinds of sacrifices called model and the modified sacrifices. Of all the इष्टीः, the दूर्णमासयाग is the model and of the soma sacrifices, the अग्निष्टोम is the model.

Adhikarana XIV Sūtra 35-38 dealing with the subject that the flour offering to पूषा is connected with the boiled rice.

तत्सर्वार्थमविशेषात् ॥ ३ । ३ । ३५ ॥

35. That is in all purposes, by reason of there being nothing particular.

The objector says that the flour offering to पूषा is in all oblations as for instance, in animal sacrifices, in rice offerings and पुरोडाश or cake offerings, so there is nothing special about it.

चरौवऽर्थोक्तं पुरोडाशेऽर्थविप्रतिषेधात्पशौ न
स्यात् ॥ ३ । ३ । ३६ ॥

36. On the other hand, it is ordained in चरु offering and in पुरोडाश offering; it is indispensable and by reason of no use, it is not to be used in animal sacrifice.

The author says that the flour can be mixed with the boiled rice and it is there proper, and पुरोडाश is made from the flour so it is indispensable there. But flour can never be mixed with flesh; they are both incongruous.

चरावपीति चेत् ॥ ३।३।३७ ॥

37. "In चढ also" if it be said.

The objector says that just as flour can not be mixed with flesh, similarly it can not be mixed with rice

न पक्तिनामत्वात् ॥ ३।३।३८ ॥

38 Not so, by reason of its being a synonym for boiled-rice.

The author says that the term चढ is synonymous with boiled rice. The flour of rice can be boiled. It can therefore be mixed with flour

A bhikarāṇa NY Sūtra 39 to 46 dealing with the subject that the flour offering to पूषा may be when there is only one god

एकस्मिन्नेकसंयोगात् ॥ ३।३।३९ ॥

39. In one by reason of the connection of one

Now the question is whether the boiled flour offering is to be made to पूषा alone or it is to be made even when he happens to be joint with other diety. The reply of the author is that it is to be made when he is alone as the following shows :—

“एँद्रपौष्णच” ... “श्यामेदक्षिण” (नै० सं० १।२।२।१) “Boiled rice is the offering for the dual gods—Indra-sun (dual gods)”

धर्माविप्रातिषेधाच्च ॥ ३।३।४० ॥

40. And by reason of incongruity

The author gives an additional reason in support of his argument. The portion to be offered to पूषा is flour, and to the other diety it will not be flour. So this mixture is incongruous.

अपि वा सद्वितीये स्याद्देवतानिमित्तत्वात् ॥ ३।३।४१ ॥

41. Not so, it applies to dual gods because the gods are the cause.

The objector says that even in the case of the dual gods, the flour offering can be made.

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ ३।३।४२ ॥

42. And there is also the figurative sense of the text.

The objector gives a reason, सोमापौष्णं चरुं निर्वपेन्नेमिपिष्टं पशुकामः ॥ "One who is desirous of cattle should make an offering of half paste to-Soma puṣa twin gods."

वचनात्सर्वपेषणं तं प्रति शास्त्रवत्वादर्थभावाद्धि-
चरावपेषणं भवति ॥ ३ । ३ । ४३

वचनात् by reason of the text, सर्वपेषणं the whole flour, तं प्रति to him, शास्त्रवत्त्वाम् by reason of its being under a rule; अर्थभावात् by reason of its uselessness; द्विचरौ in an offering to the dual gods, अपेषणं without flour; भवति is

43. To the god पूषा the entire offering is of flour by reason of a text, for there is a rule of the Śāstra, there being no purpose served in the dual offerings, there is no flour.

The author's reply is that when there is an offering to a single deity, the entire offering consists of flour; but when the offering is double, the flour offering can not be made: it is useless.

एकस्मिन्वार्थधर्मत्वादेन्द्राग्नवदुभयोर्न स्यादचो-
दितत्वात् ॥ ३ । ३ । ४४ ॥

44. On the other hand in one by reason of its being the quality of the sacrifice like इन्द्राग्नी; to dual dieties there is no such offering because it is not so ordained

The author now clears the whole thing; he says that when पूषा alone is the god, the offering consists of flour because it is the quality of the sacrifice; but when the offering is to be made to dual gods it does not consist of flour because it is nowhere so ordained. The author gives an example of the dual gods इन्द्राग्नी.

हेतुमात्रमदन्तत्वम् ॥ ३ । ३ । ४५ ॥

45. The toothlessness is only reason.

See the text quoted in the commentary on sūtra 34. The author says that toothlessness is an अर्थवाद and gives a reason why the offering of पूषा consists of flour only.

वचनं परम् ॥ ३।३।४६ ॥

46. Further there is \ text.

See the text quoted in the commentary on सूत्र 42 It is not a quality of the god but the quality of the action नेमिपिष्ट is therefore connected with the verb If it be not so interpreted and if it be considered to be a quality of the god then there will be a split of a sentence which should be avoided under all circumstances by a सीमात्मक ।

END OF PADA III.

— O —

PADA IV.

Adhikaraṇa I. Sūtras 1—9 dealing with the subject that निवीत is अर्थवाद ।

निवीतमिति मनुष्यधर्मः शब्दस्य तत्प्रधानत्वात्

॥ ३।४।१ ॥

1. 'Nivita' is the duty of man ; because of its being principal of the word (veda).

There is a text, निवीतं मनुष्याणां प्राचीनावीतं पितृणामुपवीतं देवानां उपव्ययते देव लक्ष्ममेव तत्कुर्वते ॥ (तै० सं० २।५।१।१।) "nivita is of man, prāchīnāvita is of the man ; upavita of the gods He who puts on upavita, accepts the symbol of "gods "

The objector says that this text is मनुष्यधर्म i. e. lays down the duty of a man because the Veda is mainly concerned with it Man is principal and निवीत subordinate

अपदेशो वाऽर्थस्य विद्यमानतत्वात् ॥ ३।४।२ ॥

अपदेशः common practice , वा on the other hand , अर्थस्य विद्यमानत्वात् by reason of the presence of the purpose

2. On the other hand it is a common practice by reason of the object being present

The objection to the objector is that the wearing of the sacred thread is a common practice and what is a common practice is customary. So a text about it can not be a विधि or original statement but it is only a restatement or reproduction.

विधिस्त्वपूर्वत्वात्स्यात् ॥ ३।४।३ ॥

3. It is a command (विधि) by reason its being (अपूर्व) new.

The objector again comes forward and says that the text is a विधि because it lays down a new thing for guidance. It is not an explanatory statement as you say.

स प्रायात्कर्मधर्मः स्यात् ॥ ३।४।४ ॥

4. It is a quality of the action by reason of the context.

There is another objector who says that the text is only a quality of action. In a context where it occurs it shows that it is to be worn in a particular way at the time of the performance of a sacrifice. It is ther e subordinate and the action is principal.

वाक्यशेषत्वात् ॥ ३।४।५ ॥

5. By reason of the completion of a sentence.

The second objector gives his reason and says that the text is in अपूर्वकारे and is connected with the new and full moon sacrifices and what pertains to अपूर्व is subordinate. So by the principal of प्रकरण, it is a quality of an action.

तत्प्रकरणे यत्तत्संयुक्तमविप्रतिषेधात् ॥ ३।४।६ ॥

तत् that i. e. अपूर्व विधि, यत् because, तत्संयुक्तं the connection of the अपूर्व विधि with context, अविप्रतिषेधात् by reason of there being no prohibition.

6. On accepting the context, there is अपूर्व विधि because its connection with the context is not inconsistent or prohibited.

The 1st objector comes forward in reply and says that there is nothing wrong. If you accept the principle of context, even then there is nothing inconsistent in accepting the text to be an अपूर्वविधि ।

तत्प्रधाने वा तुल्यवत्प्रसंख्यानादितरस्य तदर्थ- त्वात् ॥ ३।४।७ ॥

तत्प्रधाने on that being principal, वा on the other hand ; तुल्यवत्प्रसंख्यानात् by reason of the equal description ; इतरस्य of the other ; तदर्थत्वात् by reason of its being for it

7. On the other hand, if the मनुष्यधर्म is principal by reason of equal description of all three, the other is for it.

In the text quoted in the beginning of this अधिकरण that निवीत is for men etc., different modes of wearing the sacred thread are given. When you have to perform the आतिथ्य ceremony, you have to put the sacred thread in the निवीत way that is to say, to place it on the right shoulder, and if you have to perform the पितृयज्ञ then you have to put it on in a प्राचीनावीत fashion like a garland; when you have to make an offering to the gods you have to wear it on the left shoulder. The objector says that if you accept that it is निवीत fashion which is man's duty, then other modes are equally good. You can not say that the sacred thread should be in a निवीत fashion always. The particular mode of wearing is prescribed for a particular occasion.

8. It is अर्थवाद by reason of the context,

The author after discussing the पूर्वपक्ष view of so many different objectors, lays down his own view. He says that it is अर्थवाद by reason of the context.

विधिना चैकवाक्यत्वात् ॥ ३।४।९ ॥

9. By reason of being in harmony with the विधि.

The author gives a reason in support of his view and says that it is supplementary to the विधि. The विधि is उपस्यते देवदक्षमेव तत्कुले ॥ He makes it indeed a sign of gods, when the sacred thread in the उपवीत fashion, is worn. This is important and principal and the other two modes of wearing the sacred thread are subordinate and are therefore occasional.

Adhikaraṇa II. Dealing with the अर्थवाद nature of the division of direction

दिग्विभागश्च तद्वत्सम्बन्धस्यार्थहेतुत्वात् ॥ ३।४।१० ॥

10. And the division of the direction is like it by reason of the relationship being for a purpose.

The author says that as we have discussed the pros and cons in the preceding adhikaraṇa about the sacred thread, similarly the arguments mutatis mutandis apply in the case of the division of direction.

The text is as follows:—

प्राचीन वंशं करोति देवमनुष्यादिशोऽवभजत प्राचीं देवा दक्षिणपितरः प्रतीचीं मनुष्यावदीचीं रुद्राः ॥
(तै० सं० ६।१।१।१)

“He prepares the ancient place; the gods and men divided the directions, the gods took the east, the manes the south, the man the west and the Rudras the north”

Similarly प्राचीनवंशं करोति is a विधि and the rest is अर्थवाद ।

Adhikarana III. Dealing with the अर्थवाद is a rule of “परुषिदित &c.”

परुषि दितपूर्णघृतविदग्धं च तद्वत् ॥३।४।११॥

11. And similarly are परुषिदित-पूर्ण-घृतविदग्ध verses.

The author says that there are 4 texts which are also governed by the same principle laid down in the preceding अधिकरण.

यत् परुषिदितं तद्देवानां यदंतरा तन्मनुष्याणां यत् समूलं तत्पितॄणां ॥ १ ॥ (तै० सं० १।६।८।६)

योविदग्धः सनैऋतो योऽऋतः सरोद्रोय ऋतः ससदेवः ॥ २ ॥ (तै० सं० २।६।३।४)

यत्पूर्णं तन्मनुष्याणां उपर्यर्धे देवानां अर्धः पितॄणां ॥ ३ ॥ (तै० सं० १।६।८।४)

घृतं देवानां मस्तु पितॄणां निष्पक्कं मनुष्याणां ॥ ४ ॥ (तै० सं० ६।१।१।४)

1 That which is divided at joints is of the gods, that which is of the end is of men, that which is of the root is of manes.

2 The burnt up पुरोडाश cake is of निष्कृति; the unbaked cake is of रुद्र and the baked one is of dual gods.

3 That which is complete is of men; the upper half is of gods, the lower half is of manes.

4. Clarified butter is of gods, curd is of manes and whey is of men.

These are all अर्थवादs and are in harmony with the विधि given below:—

1. पर्वं प्रतिबुनाति । 2. उपरि विल्लादुगृह्णाति । 3. त्वनीतेनभ्यंक्ते ।
(तै० सं० ६।१।१।५) 4. तदमाद्विद्वतागतंकृत्यः । (तै० सं० २।६।३।४)

(1) He cuts at joints. (2) He takes it above the aperture. (3) He anoints it with butter. (4) It is to be baked by one who does not burn it.

Adhikarana IV. Sūtras 12 and 13 dealing with the subject that prohibition against telling lies is a quality of a sacrifice. (कनुषर्म) ।

अकर्म क्रतुसंयुक्तं संयोगान्निव्यानुवादः स्यत्

12. Connected with a sacrifice, it is not a duty ; being connected with moral rectitude it is a permanent rule of practice.

The objector bases the argument on the text नानृतवदेत् (तै० सं० २।५।५।६) "Do not tell lies" The question is, whether the text lays down the duty of a man or it is a duty to be performed in connection with the performance of a sacrifice. The passage occurs in दर्शपूर्णमास context. The rule as not to tell lies is a conduct of life which one has to lead. The view of the objector is that it is पुरुषार्थ and is to be practised for ever in one's life. The श्रुति prevails over the context.

विधिर्वा संयोगान्तरात् ॥ ३।४।१३॥

13. On the other hand it is विधि by reason of the connection with another.

We have seen the view of the objector that not to tell lies is a moral precept and belongs to man's conduct in life. When this precept is applied to दर्शपूर्णमास or उपनयन, it is a perpetual अनुवाद but not अपूर्वविधि. The author says in reply that not telling lies is to be looked upon from a different point of view in connection with दर्शपूर्णमासयाग. In that view it is a विधि.

Adhikaraṇa V. Sūtras 14-16 dealing with the subject that yawning is connected with the context.

अहीनवत्पुरुषस्तदर्थत्वात् ॥ ३।४।१४॥

14. Like अहीन it is a duty of man, being subordinate to it.

The objector says that there is a text तस्याज्जम्ब्य मानोज्ञ्या मयि दक्षकृ इति प्राणापानविवात्मवृद्धौ ॥ (तै० सं० २।५।२।३) "Therefore he may yawning violently recite (Mantras) He holds in his soul, the two airs प्राण and अपान that is mental abilities and knowledge."

This text about yawning relates to the moral conduct of man and should not belong to any particular context. He gives an illustration of अहीन. There are 3 kinds of soma libations एकाह, अहीन and सत्र. एकाह lasts for a day only, अहीन lasts for 12 nights while सत्र lasts for months and years. In अहीन there are 12 upasads which are described somewhere else ; so they are transferred from their context to the अहीन. The text about yawning should be therefore transferred from its context and applied to general moral conduct of man.

प्रकरणविशेषाद्वा तद्युक्तस्य संस्कारो द्रव्यवत्

15. On the other hand by reason of the particular context being connected with it, it is a purificatory rite like a material.

The author gives a reply to the objector's objection. What he says is that the text about yawning occurs in a particular context and therefore belongs to that rite; it may also belong to a particular action in life. For example you take barley, it is used in a sacrifice and also in common life. So the text relates to the practice in the sacrifice.

16. There is a transference by reason of the special mention.

You talk of the transference of 12 उपसद्स to अहीन but there is a special text about it तिस्र एव साम्बस्योपसदो द्वादशा हीनस्य । तै० सं० ६. २. ५. १. "There are 3 upsads of साम्ब and 12 of अहीन"

Adhikarapa VI. Dealing with the subject that threatens &c. pertain to man's duty.

शंखौ च सर्वपरिदानात् ॥ ३।४।१७ ॥

17. And in the passage शंखु by reason of the application to all.

See the text quoted from तैत्तिरीय संहिता in the भाष्य with some variations (तै० सं० २।६।१०।१) See at P. 2047 of the Ānandaśrama edition. It means, the gods said to शंखु "तेऽश्ववन् ब्राह्मणायावगुरेत् संशतेन यातयात् योनिहन्तं सहस्रं वा यातयात् योकोहितं कर्तव्यं यावतः प्रस्कंधं पांशुन् संगृह्णात् तावतः संवत्सरान् पितृलोकं न प्रजानी-यादिति ॥ तस्माच्च ब्राह्मणायावगुरेद्देन हन्याद् न लोहितं कुर्यात् ॥" "They said, he who assaults a Brāhman, should be punished with hundred panis, he who beats him should be punished with thousand panies, he who sheds his blood, shall not be permitted to enter the region of the Pitris for so many years as there are particles of dust saturated with his blood. A Brāhman therefore should not be assaulted, beaten or besmeared with blood" This occurs in दर्शपूर्ण

नास context. By reason of the context it will appear that the rule prohibiting the assault on a Brāhman applies to the दर्शपूर्णमासकाल. The author says that it is not so. Its applicability is for all times; the rule is ethical but not merely liturgical. So it is transferred from the context and to be applied to the ethical code.

Adhikaraṇa VII. Śātras 18-19 Dealing with the subject that the prohibition against talking with a dirty woman is ethical (पुरुषधर्मः)।

प्रागपरोधान्मलवद्वाससः ॥ ३।४।१८ ॥

18. By reason of the exclusion of a dirty woman from before.

मलवद्वाससान् संवदेत्.....नाद्या अन्नमद्यात् ॥ (सं० सं० २।५।१६)

"One should not speak to a woman in menses; nor should food be taken from her."

The text occurs in connection with दर्शपूर्णमास context. It is also ethical not merely liturgical, because she has already been excluded from the sacrifice by reason of her menses, she ought not therefore to be talked to. This is to be transferred from its particular context to the general ethical code.

अन्नप्रतिषेधाच्च ॥ ३।४।१९ ॥

19. And by reason of the prohibition of the food.

The author in support of his view gives a reason; because taking of food from her is forbidden. This is a general principle of daily life and is not confined to religious acts only.

Adhikaraṇa VIII. Śātras 20-24. Dealing with the subject that wearing of gold is a general principle of daily common life (पुरुष धर्मः)।

अप्रकरणे तु तद्धर्मस्ततो विशेषात् ॥ ३।४।२० ॥

20. On the other hand not in any context; it is an ethical principle because of this speciality.

दुर्वर्तेत्य आतप्यः। तस्मात्सुवर्णं हिरण्यं च सुवर्णं एव भवति (सं० सं० २।२।५६)। सुवस्तुता भवितुं रूपमेव विभर्ति ॥ "His enemy becomes pale; gold should be worn, he becomes comely; one should be properly clad because that enhances beauty."

Wearing of gold ornaments does not belong to any sacrifice. It is therefore an ethical rule and belongs to the daily common life of man.

It is a rule of etiquette.

अद्रव्यत्वात् तु शेषः स्यात् ॥ ३।४।२१ ॥

21. On the other hand by reason of its being not a material, it is subsidiary.

The objector says that wherever there is an original statement there is the mention of a deity and the material; but here in the present case we find that there is no mention of the material. So it is a subordinate statement and ought to be connected with the context where it occurs. The rule is therefore liturgical rather than ethical.

वेदसंयोगात् ॥ ३।४।२२ ॥

22. By reason of the connection with the Veda.

The objector gives a reason that the Vedas are divided into kandas; there is अष्टादशकाण्डः. Any thing that belongs to it, is शेष and liturgical. So the text should remain where it is appropriate.

द्रव्यसंयोगाच्च ॥ ३।४।२३ ॥

23. And by reason of the connection with the material.

The objector gives an additional reason that the text quoted has a reference to the material and is to be sacrificially acted upon. It is therefore शेष and is liturgical.

स्याद्वाऽस्य संयोगवत्फलेन सम्बन्धस्तस्मात्कर्म-
तिशायनः ॥ ३।४।२४ ॥

स्यात् is; वा on the other hand; संयोगवत् having connection (with material); फलेन with the fruit, सम्बन्धः connection, तस्मात् therefore, कर्म act of common life, देतिशायनः is the view of the देतिशायन Rishi.

24. On the other hand, its connection with the material is as the connection with the fruit; therefore it is an ethical act. It is the view of देतिशायनः.

The author replies the objection of the objector. He says that the action is connected with the material and is also connected with the fruit. It depends upon the effort of a man; it is therefore his duty. It is supported by the view of देतिशायनः By wearing gold ornament, one appears splendid and the enemies are afraid of him.' So this rule is not restricted to liturgy only but belongs to the common life of man. It is therefore not restricted to any particular context.

Adhikaraṇa IX Sūtras 25-27 dealing with the subject that "victory" &c. are the parts of the vedic rite.

शेषाः प्रकरणेऽविशेषात्सर्वकर्मणाम् ॥ ३।४।२५॥

25. Not in any context, it is subsidiary and by reason of no speciality it belongs to all actions.

The text is quoted from तैत्तिरीय संहिता in the भाष्य. येनकर्मणा ईत्सेत् सन्नवाच जुहुयात् । राष्ट्रमृतो जुहोति । अभ्यातात् जुहोति " (तै० सं० ३।४।६।२) with modification. "He makes oblations called victories in connection with that action by means of which he seeks to prosper. He offers oblations of the sovereignty. He offers the oblations of expansion" Does it belong to any sacrificial act? or is it a common conduct of life? The objector says that celebrations about victory are secular acts. These texts occur in no context and therefore belong to no particular rite, being general in nature they are acts connected with general conduct of common life.

होमास्तु व्यवतिष्ठेरन्नाहवनीयसंयोगात् ॥ ३।४।२६॥

26. On the other hand, the oblations are restricted by reason of the connection with आहवनीय ।

The author says that the texts quoted refer to the homas, and they are connected with the आहवनीय fire. So they are vedic rites- यदाहवनीये जुहोति तेन सोऽग्रामीष्टः प्रीतः ॥ (तै० सं० १।१।१।१५) "when he makes an offering to आहवनीय, he obtains his object"

शेषश्च समाख्यानात् ॥ ३।४।२७॥

27. And it is शेष by reason of समाख्या.

The author gives a reason that the preceptors have made a division of the vedas from which it appears that it is शेष of some vedic rite.

Adhikaraṇa X Sūtras 28-29 dealing with the subject that an इष्टि is to be performed when a gift of a horse is taken in a sacrifice.

दोषाविष्टिर्लौकिके स्याच्छास्त्राद्धि वैदिक न दोषः
स्यात् ॥ ३।४।२८॥

दोषात् by reason of the fault ; इष्टिः expiatory ceremony ; लौकिके in a secular act; स्यात् is; शास्त्रात् by reason of its being sanctioned, हि therefore; वेदिके in the religious acts ; न not, दोषः fault; स्यात् is.

28. On the other hand there is an expiatory rite in the secular acts by reason of the fault; therefore in the vedic act, there is no fault, by reason of being sanctioned.

वरुणो वापतं गृह्णाति योश्चं प्रतिगृह्णाति यावतोऽश्वात् प्रतिगृहीयात् तावतो वाक्यान् अनुष्कपात्नाभिर्दपेत् ॥ (तै० स० २।३।२।१) पौंडरीकेऽश्वसहस्रं दक्षिणा ज्योतिष्टोमे गोश्चाश्वश्च ॥

"God Varuṇa takes hold of him who receives a gift of horses, he ought to offer as many पुण्डरीक cakes based on four pans to Varuṇa as he gets horses in donation. In a पौंडरीक, there is a gift thousand horses, in a ज्योतिष्टोम, there is a gift of a cow and a horse.

The objector says that when any fault is made in secular acts there is a penance prescribed, but when an act is done under the sanction of the Veda, then there is no fault. The acceptance of a horse during a sacrifice is allowed and so there is no fault committed and no penance is required.

अर्थवादो वाऽनुपपातत्तस्माद्यज्ञे प्रतीयेत ॥३।४।२६॥

अर्थवाद. recommendation, वा on the other hand, अनुपपातात् by reason of being no mishap ; तस्मात् therefore, यज्ञे in a sacrifice, प्रतीयेत is known;

29. On the other hand, it is commendatory to avoid any mishap, therefore it is known to be connected with the sacrifice.

The author says that in the Vedic text, it is said that one who accepts a horse is afflicted with dropsy, but no disease is seen in a person who takes such a gift. What the text means is that he is affected by some unknown trouble, hence in order to avoid it, an इष्टि is performed. This description is subordinate i. e. अर्थवाद

Adhikaraṇa XI. Sūtras 30-31 dealing with the subject that a donor performs वाक्येष्टि

अचोदित च कर्मभेदात् ॥ ३।४।३० ॥

30. And not laid down, by reason of the difference of act.

The objector says that it does not appear who is to perform वाक्येष्टि. Is it to be performed by the donee of the horse or by the donor?

The objector's view is that it is to be performed by the donee.

लिङ्गाद्विजे स्यात् ॥ ३।४।३१॥

31. That, by reason of the force of the text, is in the sacrificer.

The author says that a बरुणेष्टि is to be performed by the sacrificer. So it appears from the force of the text. See the texts quoted in the आप्य.

प्रजापतिर्वरुणायश्वमनयत्सः स्वादेवतामार्क्षत्सपर्यदीर्यत स कृतं वारुणं च
तुष्टकपात्रमपश्यत्तं निर्वपत् ततो वैस वरुणं पाशावमुच्यत । (२।३।२।१)

Then follows the text quoted in the commentary on sūtra 28.

"Prajāpati brought a horse for वरुण He decreased his divine power. He was troubled with a disease He saw puroḍāśa cake to be baked on four pans and to be offered to वरुण. He offered it, then he was disentangled from the meshes of वरुण"

Adhikaraṇa XII. Sūtra 32 33 dealing with the subject that boiled rice should be offered to Soma and Indra in case there is mishap in the course of drinking soma, in a vedic rite.

पानव्यापन्न तद्वत् ॥ ३।४।३२॥

32. And a mishap in drinking, like it.

There is a text under which it is said that a boiled rice offering should be made to Soma-Indra if there is vomiting when soma is drunk. The question is whether this offering should be made while Soma is drunk during the sacrifice or during the ordinary course of life. The objector says that this offering is to be made when soma is drunk in the ordinary course of life.

दोषात्तु वैदिके स्यादर्थान्द्वि लौकिके न दोषः स्यात् ॥ ३।४।३३॥

33. On the other hand, by reason of the fault in a Vedic rite; but by reason of the object there is no fault in the ordinary life.

The author's reply is that in a Vedic sacrifice if soma is vomited by over drinking it is a great sin and so a penance should be performed to obviate it; but while drinking soma ordinarily, you take excess; it is good that you should vomit it so that it may¹ do no harm. So no sin is committed by vomiting the soma overdrunk in ordinary life.

Adhikaraṇa XIII. Śūtras 34-36 Dealing with the subject that the boiled rice offering to Soma and Indra is to be made when there is a mishap in connection with the drink of the sacrificer.

तत्सर्वत्राविशेषात् ॥ ३।४।३४ ॥

34. That (offering) everywhere as there is nothing special.

The objector says that it is admitted that boiled rice offering is to be made to सोम and Indra in a religious rite but it should be made in each case where vomiting takes place whether it is by the priest or the sacrificer.

स्वामिनो वा तदर्थत्वात् ॥ ३।४।३५ ॥

35. On the other hand, the lord of the sacrifice that being for his sake.

The author says no, that the offering is to be made by the sacrificer, as the sacrifice is performed for his sake.

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ ३।४।३६ ॥

36. And there is the force of the text.

The author in support of his view relies on the texts There is a text in which it is said, that he who vomits spoils his sacrifice, this means the यजमान.

Adhikaraṇa XIV. Śūtras 37-41 dealing with the subject that two portions of cakes baked on eight earthen pans and to be offered to Agni are fit for offering.

सर्वप्रदानं हविषस्तदर्थत्वात् ॥ ३।४।३७ ॥

37. The whole offering should be made as it is for it.

The objector says "यदाग्नेयोऽष्टकपाटोऽमावस्यायां च पूर्णमास्यां चाप्नुतोभवति". (ते. सं. २।६।३।३)—"A पुरोडाश cake baked on eight pans and to be offered to Agni on new and full moon days becomes firm." Here the cakes that are baked on 8 earthen pans are to be offered to Agni and no division is to be made.

निरवदानात्तु शेषः स्यात् ॥ ३।४।३८ ॥

38. On the other hand there will be a residue by reason of being cut up.

The author says "दिहंविषोऽवयति । द्वयदानं जुहोति" "He cuts up twice from the oblations. He sacrifices two offerings." These texts show that the cake is to be divided into two and there will be a residue left.

उपायो वा तदर्थत्वात् ॥ ३।४।३६ ॥

39. On the other hand it is a device, by reason of its being for that object.

The objector says that it is a mere device to offer the whole पुरोडाश cake.

कृतत्वात् कर्मणः सकृत्स्याद्द्रव्यस्यगुणभूतत्वात्
॥ ३।४।४० ॥

कृतत्वात् by reason of its being done, तु on the other hand, कर्मणः of the act; सकृत् once, स्यात् is द्रव्यस्य of the substance, गुणभूतत्वात् by reason of its being subordinate.

40. On the other hand, by reason of the act being done, it is once because the material is subordinate.

The author says that when the पुरोडाश cake is divided and offered, the sacrifice is finished and it is done only once because the material is subordinate and it is the sacrifice which is principal. The residue will be kept for use.

शेषदर्शनाच्च ॥ ३।४।४१ ॥

41. And by seeing the residue.

शेषाद् इहामवयति । शेषात्स्विष्टकृतं यजति ॥ He cuts up इहा (sacrificial) food, from the residue. He sacrifices from the residue to स्विष्टकृत fire "

The author relies on the vedic text that a residue is kept for use

Ādhikarans XV. Sūtras 42-46 Dealing with the subject that स्विष्टकृत offering is to be made from the residue of all.

अप्रयोजकत्वादेकस्मात्क्रियेरञ्छेषस्य गुणभूतत्वात्
॥ ३।४।४२ ॥

अन्नयोजकत्वात् not being the means ; एकस्मात् from one ; कियेत् should be done , शेषस्य of the residue; गुणभूतत्वात् by reason of its being subordinate.

42. By reason of being not the means, an offering should be made from one because the residue is subordinate

The objector says that there are several offerings; parts of these offerings are reserved as sacrificial food called इडा and some are reserved as the food of ब्रह्मा priest called प्राशित्रभक्षण and offering to स्विष्टकृत् fire. The objector says that the स्विष्टकृत् offering should be made from one of these residues, because these remnants are of no use

संस्कृतत्वाच्च ॥ ३ । ४ । ४३ ॥

43. And by reason of a purificatory rite being performed.

The objector strengthens his position and says that in दत्तपूर्वमासयाने these three पुरोडाश mentioned in the commentary on सूत्र 42 are prepared, प्रयाज and अनुयाज मन्त्रs are recited on them only once. So it is proper to take the offering from the residue of one main offering.

सर्वेभ्यो वा कारणाविशेषात्संस्कारस्य तदर्थत्वात्
॥ ३ । ४ । ४४ ॥

44. On the other hand from all by reason of there being no special cause because the purificatory ceremony is for that object.

The author says that this स्विष्टकृत् offering should be taken from all पुरोडाश cakes; there is no special reason why this offering should be taken from one cake, all are sacrificially acted upon

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ ३ । ४ । ४५ ॥

45. And by seeing the force of the text.

The author relies on the Vedic text देवा वैस्विष्टकृतमब्रुवन् इत्यनोषह । सोऽब्रवीत् अहमे भोगी मेऽस्त्विति । इतीषेति तेऽब्रुवन् । सोऽब्रवीदुत्तरार्द्धादेव मय्य सक्तु सक्तुदवणात् ॥ "The gods said to स्विष्टकृत् "bring us an offering," he said "give me a boon; let there be my portion." They said "Ask a boon" He said "Let there be an offering for me once once from the latter half."

The repetition of the word सक्तु (once) shows that the residue is to be offered from all cakes

Adhikarana XVI Sūtras 46-47 dealing with the subject that the first offering of स्विष्टकृत should be made from the residue of the first cake

एकस्माच्चेद्यथाकाम्यमविशेषात् ॥ ३।४।४६ ॥

46. If it be taken from one, it should be according to the desire of the sacrificer by reason of there being nothing special.

The objector asks in what order should the offering be made? There are three cakes, the first offering should be made at random from any cake, because there is nothing special in the text

मुख्याद्वा पूर्वकालत्वात् ॥ ३।४।४७ ॥

47 On the other hand from the principal, by reason of its priority

The author says that the first offering should be made from the principal cake, being the first in order

Adhikarana XVII Sūtras 48-51 dealing with the subject that the portions of पुरोडाश are for the purpose of food

भक्षाश्रवणादानशब्दः परिक्रये ॥ ३।४।४८ ॥

48. There being no word for eating, the word 'gift' is in the sense of purchase

इदं ब्रह्मणः । इदं होतुः । इदमश्वर्योः । इदमग्नौषः ॥ (तै० ब० ३।३।६) "This is of the ब्रह्मा, this is of the होता, and this is of the अग्नीध्रः."

These texts show that there are different portions for the different priests as दान. There is no word to indicate that these portions are for the food of the priests. The donation is for securing the services of the priests and so it means purchase. This is the view of the objector.

तत्संस्तवाच्च ॥ ३।४।४९ ॥

49. And by reason of praising it.

एषावैदशपूर्णमासयोर्दक्षिणा ॥ "This is the donation of new and full moon sacrifices" The objector gives a reason in support of his view. He says that in the Veda the gift is described as the wages for securing the services of the priests

भक्षार्थो वा द्रव्ये समत्वात् ॥ ३।४।५० ॥

50. On the other hand, it is for the purpose of food, both being equal in the substance.

The author says that as soon as the पुरोडाश cakes are offered to the god they become his property. They are no longer the property of the sacrificer. The priests and the sacrificer have equal rights to them. The residue of the पुरोडाश cakes is finally disposed of by the priests eating it; this constitutes the प्रतिपत्तिकर्म.

व्यादेशादानसंस्तुतिः ॥ ३।४।५१॥

व्यादेशाद् by reason of division, दानस्तुति praise of gift

51. There is a praise of gift by reason of division.

The author says that the residue is divided by the sacrificer and the priests. This gift to the priest is praised, from it, it does not necessarily follow that the services of the priest are purchased. It is his honorarium as the Romans would call it.

PĀDA IV -APPENDIX

There are four Adhikaraṇas which do not find their place in the authorised books after the Adhikaraṇa I Sūtra 9 of pada IV.

Adhikaraṇa I. Sūtras 9-A & 9-B dealing with a subject that the उपवीत is a part of the दशपूर्णमासयाग ।

उपवीतं लिङ्गदर्शनात्सर्वधर्मः स्यात् ॥३।४।६(अ)॥

9-A. उपवीत, by seeing the force of the text, belongs to all ceremonies.

The doubt is whether उपवीत belongs to the दशपूर्णमास only or to all sacrifices. The objector says that it belongs to all sacrifices because the force of the vedic texts leads one to that conclusion.

न वा प्रकरणात्तस्य दर्शनम् ॥ ३।४।६(इ)॥

न not; वा on the other hand, प्रकरणम् by reason of the context तस्य its reference.

9-B. Not so, by reason of the context; (the सिद्धि is) its reference only.

The author says that it is not so; the उपवीत occurs in the इतिपूर्व context and the सिद्धि is only with reference to it Adhikaraṇa I. Dealing with the subject that उपवीत is विधि.

विधिर्वा स्यादपूर्वत्वात् ॥ ३।४।६(उ) ॥

9-C On the other hand, it is vidhi because it is a new thing.

In the text quoted in the commentary on sūtra 1, there is a passage, उपवीतये देवतश्चमेव तत्कुर्वते The question is whether it is a विधि or अनुवाद. The author says that it is a विधि and lays down a new thing. See the commentary on sūtra 9.

Adhikaraṇa III. Sūtras 9-D & 9-E dealing with the subject that उपवीत and the उपवीतम् are अनुवादः.

उदक्त्वं चापूर्वत्वात् ॥ ३।४।६(ऋ) ॥

9-D And the quality of being north, by reason of its being a new thing.

There is a passage पुरोदक्षोदभास्तान् दक्षिणाग्रास्तृणीयान् ॥

"These grass leaves lying in front to the north, should be spread with their front part to the south."

The question is whether पुरोदक्ष is विधि or अनुवाद. The objector's view is that it is विधि by reason of the new thing as said in the preceding अधिकरणम् ।

सतो वा लिङ्गदर्शनम् ॥ ३।४।६(लृ) ॥

9-E. On the other hand, it is already existent by seeing the force of the text,

The author says that it is already known from the long established practice and smṛiti texts that the grass should be spread with their tops towards the north, so it can not be a विधि, it is therefore an अनुवाद.

Adhikaraṇa VI. Dealing with the subject that holding of the sacrificial line is विधि,

विधिस्तु धारणेऽपूर्वत्वात् ॥ ३।४।६(ए) ॥

9-F. On the other hand it is a विधि in holding by reason of its being new.

There is a passage in connection with महाविद्युतः, “अवस्तात् समिधं धारयन्ननुद-वेदुपरिहिदेवेभ्यो धारयति” “Holding the sacrificial fuel from underneath, he certainly holds it in the sacrifice to the gods.” The question is whether समिधं धारयन् is विधि or अनुवाद. The author says that it is a विधि because it is a new thing.

END OF THE PĀDA IV.—APPENDIX.

— O. —

PĀDA V

Adhikaraṇa I. Sūtras 1-12 Dealing with the non-performance of such acts as स्निग्धकृत् with the clarified butter stored up in a vessel called ध्रुवा.

आज्याच्च सर्वसंयोगात् ॥ ३।५।१॥

1. And from the clarified butter by reason of its being connected with the whole sacrifice.

In the Pāda IV adhikarṇa XV, it has been laid down that इडा, प्राशिक् and स्निग्धकृत् are to be made from the residue of all पुरोडाश cakes. Upon the same principle, says the objector, the remaining rites such as इडा, प्राशिक् and स्निग्धकृत् are to be performed from ध्रुवाञ्च which is connected with the whole दशगुणमाख्यानम्. The ghee is kept in three kinds of vessel; 1st leather bags; 2nd common vessel and 3rd sacrificial vessel. The latter is called ध्रुवाञ्च (ghee stored in the vessel called ध्रुवा) It is sacrificially acted upon and taken out in a vessel called उपवृत्त, this is with a view to pouring into उद् (spoon) and offering to अग्नि.

कारणाच्च ॥ ३।५।२॥

2. And because of the reason.

The objector supports his argument by citing authorities quoted in the commentary on सूत्र 45 of पाद 4 of chap. III at p. 137.

एकस्मिन्त्समवत्तशब्दात् ॥ ३।५।३॥

3. In one, by reason of the word समवत्त (oblation).

The objector strengthens his position by assigning another reason अग्नये स्विष्टकृने समवयति (ते० सं० १।१।१४) ॥ आज्यादेकस्माच्च हविषोवयति ॥ मिश्रवान्वेन हविषावयति "He makes an offering to स्विष्टकृन् fire, he makes an offering from one butter oblation, he makes an offering mixed with another oblation." He says that the text clearly shows that the offering should be made with clarified butter stored in one vessel. The word समवयति is derived from the same root as समवयति

अग्नये च दर्शनास्विष्टकृदर्थवदस्य ॥ ३।५।४ ॥

4. And from seeing in clarified butter, it is अर्थवाद of स्विष्टकृत् ।

अवदाय अवदाय ध्रुवां प्रत्यभिचारयति । स्विष्टकृनेऽवदाय न ध्रुवां प्रत्यभिचारयति "After taking an offering, he besmears the ध्रुवा, after making an offering to the स्विष्टकृन् fire, he does not besmear the ध्रुवा." From these texts, it is clearly proved that the oblation of the स्विष्टकृन् is to be made from ध्रुवाण्या । So the objector strengthens his position by saying that we see in the Vedic texts the connection of the ध्रुवाण्या with स्विष्टकृन् offering. The latter is therefore an अर्थवाद

अशेषत्वात् नैव स्यात्सर्वादानादशेषता ॥ ३।५।५ ॥

5. On the other hand by reason, of there being no residue, it cannot be so; there is no residue by reason of taking the whole in use.

The author says that ध्रुवाण्या is used in the whole sacrifice. There is no residue left, and as there is no residue left so there can be no offering of the स्विष्टकृन् from the ध्रुवाण्या.

साधारण्यान्न ध्रुवायां स्यात् ॥ ३।५।६ ॥

6. By reason of its being common, there is not in a ध्रुवा.

The author gives an additional reason and says that the clarified butter kept in the ध्रुवा is for the whole sacrifice, it is common and so no प्रतिपत्तिकर्म can be performed from it. "सर्वस्मै वा एतच्छाय गृह्यते । यद् ध्रुवायामाज्यं". (ते० ब० ३।३।५५) "It is taken for the whole sacrifice, that ghee which is in the ध्रुवा vessel"

अवत्तत्वाच्च जुह्वां तस्य च होमसंयोगात् ॥ ३।५।७ ॥

अवत्तत्वात् by reason of being taken, च and; जुह्वा in the juhu, तस्य its, च and;

होमसंयोगात् by reason of its connection with homa-

7 And by reason of its being taken in a जुहू and by reason of its being connected with the homa.

The author says that even there is no residue in the जुहू, because the ghee in जुहू is also connected with होम, there cannot therefore be any residue of ghee there

चमसवदिति चेत् ॥ ३।५।८ ॥

8. If you say 'like a spoon'.

The objector says that just as soma juice is left in a spoon, so the ghee is left as residue in a जुहू

न चोदनाविरोधाद्द्विःप्रकल्पनात्वाच्च ॥ ३।५।९ ॥

न not, चोदनाविरोधात् being contrary to the command, द्विः प्रकल्पनात्वाच्च by reason of preparing the oblation, च and

9 Not so, by reason of this being contrary to the command and by reason of preparing the oblation.

The author says in reply that there is no analogy In the case of soma, it is both offered to Agni and drunk, while in the case of ghee, it is only offered to Agni. So there is no similarity

उत्पन्नाधिकारात्सति सर्ववचनम् ॥ ३।५।१० ॥

उत्पन्नाधिकारात् by reason of sanctioning the remaining rite if there be residue, सति on the existence, सर्ववचनं the word 'all'

10. The word 'all' applies, by reason of sanctioning the remaining rite, if there be a residue.

"तद्यत्सर्वेभ्यो हविर्भ्यः समवयति" "He makes an offering from all oblations" The word 'all' in the text quoted is applicable only to the case where there is any residue left

जातिविशेषात्परम् ॥ ३।५।११ ॥

11. And further by reason of a particular species.

The author says in reply to the objector's statement in sūtra 3 He says that the objector referred to the word समवयति but that is only by way of a species The text describes the particular species of ghee

अन्त्यमरेकार्थे ॥ ३।५।१२॥

अन्त्य last, अरेकार्थे in the sense of not empty.

12. The last reason (is not valid) because it is not empty.

The objector has referred to certain texts in sūtra 4. And infers that the remaining rite is connected with श्रुवाज्या The author says that this reason is not good, when स्विष्टकृत् offering is made, the vessel called श्रुवा is not empty of its ghee. So the remaining rite cannot be performed from the residue as stated by the objector.

Adhikaraṇa II. Dealing with the subject that in साकं प्रस्थाप्य sacrifice, the remaining rites are not to be performed.

साकम्प्रस्थाप्ये स्विष्टकृदिडञ्च तद्वत् ॥३।५।१३॥

13. In a साकंप्रस्थाप्य sacrifice स्विष्टकृत् and ईडा are in the same way.

The author says that in the साकं प्रस्थाप्य यज्ञ the same principle embodied in sūtra 5 of the last अधिकरण applies i. e. the remaining rites स्विष्टकृत् and ईडा मन्त्रादयः are not performed, साकं प्रस्थाप्य is a काम्येष्टि and is the modified form of दर्शपूर्णमास.

Adhikaraṇa III. Sūtras 14-15 dealing with the subject that in सौत्रामणीयाग, the remaining rites are not performed.

सौत्रामण्यां च ग्रहेषु ॥ ३।५।१४॥

14. And in a सौत्रामणी sacrifice, in the cups.

The सौत्रामणी sacrifice is an animal sacrifice, there are cups called माक्षिण सारस्वत and दूध, some of them are full of milk and some of them are full of wine. As there is no residue left, so the remaining rites can not be performed in what is called ग्रहज्जात.

तद्वच्च शेषवचनम् ॥ ३।५।१५॥

15. And the text regarding the residue is like that.

The author says that as to the text about residue, it is to be interpreted and adjusted in the way as in सूत्र 7. दक्षिणमिदं न सर्वं जुहोति, माद्वयं परिकीर्षीया जुष्टेष्वहस्य पातारं (सं. व. १।८।६।२) । शतानृच्यायां समवनयति (सं. व. १।८।६।३) "He keeps a residue, he does not offer the whole. A Brāhmaṇa should be hired to drink the residue. He washes soma in a vessel having hundred holes "

Adhikarāṇi IV Sūtras 16-17 dealing with the performance of स्विष्टकृत्, and इडा &c. once in a सर्वपृष्ट

द्रव्यैकत्वे कर्मभेदात्प्रतिकर्म क्रियेरन् ॥३॥५॥१६॥

16 By reason of the difference of the main acts, in the unity of the materials, each act should be done.

In a सर्वपृष्ट there are many main oblations, the objector says that each main oblation should have remaining rites separately i. e. the rites such as स्विष्टकृत्, इडाभक्षण and प्राशिन्नभक्षण are to be performed separately for each main oblation, though पुरोडाश is common

अविभागाच्च शेषस्य सर्वान्प्रत्यविशिष्टत्वात् ॥३॥५॥१७॥

अविभागात् by reason of the indivisibility, च and, शेषस्य of the residue, सर्वान् प्रति to all, अविशिष्टत्वात् by reason of no speciality

17 And by reason of the indivisibility of the remaining half, all are performed at once because there is no special mention about it

“उत्तराद्वर्तिस्विष्टकृते समवयति” ‘He offers to the स्विष्टकृत् fire from the remaining half’ The पुरोडाश cake is divided into two halves, the first half is offered to इडा as often as 5 or 6 times and the other is not divided, and from it the स्विष्टकृत्, इडाभक्षण and प्राशिन्नभक्षण are performed

Adhikarāṇa V Dealing with the subject of drinking of the two residues of the ‘soma’ juice left in the cup known ऐन्द्रवायव

ऐन्द्रवायवे तु वचनात्प्रतिकर्म भक्षः स्यात् ॥३॥५॥१८॥

18. On the other hand, in a cup called ऐन्द्रवायव by reason of a text, there will be drinking with each subordinate act.

“द्विरैन्द्रवायवस्य भक्षयति” “द्विर्हर्षेतस्यवपट्करोति” “He twice partakes of the ऐन्द्रवायव cup, he twice pronounces वपट्कार of this” In a ज्योतिष्टोम sacrifice, the Soma juice is extracted, it is put in cups and then it is offered to the fire, This is called ब्रह्मप्रचार In it Soma juice is extracted once and two cups are filled up and offered to इडा and वायु So there is residue left in two cups The Soma juice should be therefore drunk twice in the ऐन्द्रवायव cup.

Adhikarāṇa VI Sūtras 19-21 dealing with the subject that in a Soma sacrifice, the residue should be drunk.

सोमेऽवचनाद्भक्षो न विद्यते ॥ ३।५।१६ ॥

19. In a Soma sacrifice by reason of no text, there is no drinking.

The objector says that there are several Soma cups in a Soma sacrifice, they are offered to fire. There is residue left, but there is no Vedic text as to drinking of it

स्याद्वाऽन्यार्थदर्शनात् ॥ ३।५।२० ॥

20. On the other hand, there is, by seeing the other text.

The author says there is drinking, as the texts show भक्षयति सर्वतः परिहारमाश्विनो (तै० सं० ६।१।१।४) अक्षिताभ्यायितोश्चमसानदक्षिणस्या न सोबलम्बे स्पृद्यति ॥ "He drinks turning the ashvin cup round his head, drinking the Soma juice they dilute it with water in spoons and arrange them in the frame of a cart to the south'

21. On the other hand, there are texts by reason of laying down something new, therefore it should be according to the direction.

The author says that there are direct texts which show that the residue of some juice should be drunk भक्षयति सर्वतः परिहारमाश्विनं तस्माद्य सर्वतः श्रोत्रेण शृणोति (तै० सं० ६।१।१।४) "He drinks.... . turning the Ashvin cup round his head, therefore he hears from all sides "

Adhikarana VII Dealing with the subject that the residue is to be drunk by the priests called चमसी.

चमसेषु समाख्यानात्संयोगस्य तन्निमित्तत्वात्

॥ ३।५।२२ ॥

22 By reason of the समाख्या in the case of spoons and of the mention of the connection being for it.

The priests called होता, ब्राह्म, वैत्रावरुण, ब्रह्मपादंशी and अग्नीष्व are called चमसी because they are entitled to drink Soma juice from the cup called चमस. This is based upon the authoritative statement made by the भाष्यार्थ called समाख्या and from the etymology of the word. So the conclusion is that these priests are entitled to drink Soma juice in a Soma sacrifice.

Adhikarapa VIII. Sātras 23-26 dealing with उद्गातृ priests' right to drink with सुवक्ष्य.

उद्गातृचमसमेकः श्रुतिसंयोगात् ॥ ३।५।२३॥

23. One should drink from the उद्गातृ cup by reason of the Vedic text.

“प्रेतुहोतुश्चमसः प्रवक्ष्यः प्रोद्गातृणां” “Let the spoon cup of the होता go forward, that of ब्रह्म and that of उद्गातृः” There is an उद्गातृ cup, in the text quoted above, the उद्गातृ priests are mentioned in plural. The question is whether a priest should drink the Soma juice or all the उद्गातृ priests should do so. The objector says that one priest should only drink as there is only one cup of the उद्गातृ priests mentioned in the above text.

सर्वे वा सर्वसंयोगात् ॥ ३।५।२४॥

24. On the other hand, all, by reason of the mention of all.

The second objector says that as उद्गातृ is used in plural so all the उद्गातृ priests should drink the Soma juice from the cup

स्तोत्रकारिणां वा तत्संयोगाद्बहुश्रुतेः ॥३।५।२५॥

25. On the other hand, by reason of its connection, all the singers should drink it, because the plural number is used in the Vedic text.

The third objector comes forward and says that as the plural number is used, all the singers are meant with the exception of सुवक्ष्य : e. उद्गाता, प्रस्तोता, प्रतिहर्ता.

सर्वे तु वेदसंयोगात्कारणादेकदेशे स्यात् ॥३।५।२६॥

26. On the other hand, all by reason of the connection with the text and by reason that a part represents the whole.

The author says in reply to all the objectors that you ought not to take the term उद्गातृ to mean उद्गातृ in its limited sense, it includes all the four priests viz: प्रस्तोता, प्रतिहर्ता, उद्गाता and सुवक्ष्य. There is no doubt that only उद्गाता sings but under the class of उद्गातृ priest all the above-said priests come. So they are all entitled to drink the Soma juice.

Adhikāṇa IX Sūtras 27-30 dealing with the subject that प्रावस्तुत् is also entitled to drink सोम juice.

प्रावस्तुतो भक्षो न विद्यतेऽनाम्नानात् ॥३।५।२७॥

27. The प्रावस्तुत् is not entitled to a drink by reason of non-mention in the Vedas

The objector says that प्रावस्तुत् who comes under the head of होतृ priest is not entitled to drink Soma, because there is no rule laid down for his drinking, in the Vedas

हारियोजने वा सर्वसंयोगात् ॥ ३।५।२८ ॥

28. On the other hand, in the हारियोजन cup, by reason of the mention of all.

The author says that in the हारियोजन cup the प्रावस्तुत् priest is entitled to drink Soma, because in the text all priests are mentioned, so the प्रावस्तुत् is necessarily included यथा चमस मन्याश्चमसाश्चममिनो भक्षयति ॥ अथैतस्य हारियो जनस्य सर्वेण्वलिप्यन्ते ॥ "When from a spoon and from other spoons the spoon-bearers drink (the Soma), then from the हारियोजन, all drink it"

चमसिनां वा सन्निधानात् ॥ ३।५।२९ ॥

29. On the other hand, the चमसी priests, by reason of the close proximity

The objector says that in the above text the word सर्वे refers to the चमसी priests but not to all priests as you say. As प्रावस्तुत् is not a चमसी, so he is not entitled to Soma drink.

सर्वेषां तु विधित्वात्तदर्थो चमसिश्रुतिः ॥३।५।३०॥

30. On the other hand, of all, by reason of the command; the mention of चमसी in the text is with that object.

The author says that the text quoted in the commentary on सूत्र 28 consists of two sentences, the first part is in praise of हारियोजन cup and the 2nd lays down अपूर्वविधि. In this view it is one complex sentence. The term 'सर्वे' therefore refers to all priests.

Adhikāṇa X Dealing with the subject that pronouncing of वषट्कार is a necessary condition of drinking

वषट्काराच्च भक्षयेत् ॥ ३।५।३१ ॥

31. And one should drink by pronouncing वषट्कार.

“वषट् कर्तुः प्रथमभक्षः” “He who pronounces वषट् has the first drink” The author says that one should drink after pronouncing वषट्कार and relies on the Vedic text quoted above

Adhikarana XI. Dealing with the subject that ‘homa’ and extracting of Soma juice are the necessary conditions of drinking

होमाऽभिषवाभ्यां च ॥ ३।५।३२ ॥

32 And by Homa and extraction of Soma juice

हविर्धाने चमसं च धि प्रावमिरभिषुत्याहवनीयेहुत्वा प्रत्यक्षः परेत्य मदस्त्रिभक्षवन्ति “Having extracted juice with stones from the soma placed in a हविर्धान cart and having offered it to आहवनीय fire, they going forward drink it in an assembly” The text is quoted in support of the view embodied in the sūtra; those who extract the Soma juice and offer it to the fire are entitled to drink it.

Adhikarana XII sūtras 33-35 dealing with the subject that those who pronounce वषट्कार are entitled to drink Soma from चमस cup

प्रत्यक्षोपदेशाच्चमसानामव्यक्तः शेषे ॥ ३।५।३३ ॥

प्रत्यक्षोपदेशात् by reason of direct command, च and, चमसानां of the चमस cups, अव्यक्तः general, not undeveloped, शेषे in the residue.

33. And by the direct command of the चमस cups and the general in the residue

The objector relies on the text ‘प्रैतुहोतुश्चमसः प्रवक्ष्यः प्रोदगातृणां” See the commentary on the सूत्र 23 at p 147 So according to the objector, these priests mentioned in the text are entitled to drink Soma juice from the चमस cups and as the priests pronouncing the वषट्कार are not mentioned, they can drink only from the residue because the general class of priests is to drink from the residue

स्याद्वा कारणभावादर्निर्देशश्चमसानां कर्तुस्तद्वचनत्वात् ॥ ३।५।३४ ॥

34. On the other hand, there is no direct statement about the चमस cups because there is no reason, but there is a direct state ment about one who pronounces वषट्कार.

One who pronounces वषट्कार is the same as होता, so in the above text there is a direct statement about a kota drinking from the chamasa cups. प्रेतुहोतुश्चमसः”

चमसे चान्यदर्शनात् ॥ ३।५।३५ ॥

35. And in a chamasa cup by reason of another Vedic text.

There is another Vedic text upon which the author relies in support of his view चमसांश्चमसाध्वर्यवे प्रयच्छति । तान्मवषट्कर्तुं हरति ॥ “He hands over the chamasa cups to chamasa priest, he passes them on to the priest pronouncing वषट्.”

Adhikarana XIII Sūtras 36-39 dealing with the subject that a ‘kota’ priest is first entitled to drink

एकपात्रे क्रमादध्वर्युः पूर्वो भक्षयेत् ॥ ३।५।३६ ॥

36. In one cup in an order, the adhvaryu priest drinks first.

The objector says that because there is one cup and there is also an order of precedence, so the adhvaryu comes first and he therefore drinks first from the cup and then others follow him

होता वा मन्त्रवर्णात् ॥ ३।५।३७ ॥

37. On the other hand, होता by reason of his mention in the text.

होतुश्चित् पूर्वं हविरयमाशन (ऋ० सं० १०।१४।२) । होतेवनः प्रथमः पाहि (ऋ० सं० ५।४३।३) “Even before the होता, they obtain the offering first” “Drink for us first like as होता” The author says that these texts clearly show that a होता is to drink first

वचनाच्च ॥ ३।५।३८ ॥

38. And by reason of the direct text.

The author strengthens his position by quoting the direct text वषट्कर्तुः प्रथमं भक्षः ॥ See the commentary on सूत्र 31 at p. 149.

कारणानुपूर्व्याच्च ॥ ३।५।३९ ॥

39. And by reason of the sequences of causes.

The author says that the order in which the sacrifice proceeds also strengthens the view expressed by him. The वषट्कार is pronounced first by the होता and then the homa is performed by अध्वर्युः. So the होता drinks first and next follows the अध्वर्युः ।

Adhikarana XIV Dealing with the subject that drinking is preceded by permission.

वचनादनुज्ञातभक्षणम् ॥ ३।५।४० ॥

40. By the direct text, there is drinking after obtaining permission.

“तस्मात्सेमोनानुपहूतेनपेयः” “Soma should not therefore be drunk by one who is not invited to it.” So the author says that one should not drink it without getting an invitation first.

Adhikarana XV. Dealing with the subject that the permission is to be given by the Vedic words.

तदुपहूत उपह्वयस्वेत्यनेनानुज्ञापयेल्लिङ्गात् ॥ ३।५।४१ ॥

41. Then “you who are invited, invite,” from this, permission is given by reason of the force of the text.

There is the Vedic text “उपहूत उपह्वयस्व” By this mantra permission is given. The force of the text shows it. This मंत्र is recited when permission is given.

Adhikarana XVI Dealing with the subject that the reply to the invitation should be made by the Vedic मंत्र.

तत्रार्थात्प्रतिवचनम् ॥ ३।५।४२ ॥

42. There, by the object is the reply.

The text is उपहूत उपह्वयस्वेत्यनेन अनुज्ञापयेत् ॥ “permission should be given ‘you who are invited, invite’” The author says that the text itself shows that there is a reply. The order in the text should be reversed. It is thus ‘उपह्वयस्व’ ‘invite,’ and the reply is उपहूत ‘called’. The arthat e the object shows that it indicates the acceptance of the invitation.

Adhikarana XVII Dealing with the permission to those who drink from one cup.

तदेकत्राणां समवायात् ॥ ३।५।४३ ॥

43. That applies to those who drink from the same cup by reason of their collecting (for the object).

The invitation to drink and the acceptance of the same are in the case of persons who can drink from the cup and who have congregated there with that object

Adhikarana XVII Sūtras 44-46 Dealing with the subject that sacrificer himself is entitled to the sacrificial food

याज्यापनयेनापनीतो भक्षः प्रवरवत् ॥ ३।५।४४ ॥

याज्यापनये when याज्या verses are not read न not, अपनीत is deprived of, भक्षः food, प्रवरवत् like the appointment

44. When याज्या is not recited, there is no deprivation of food like the appointment-

Both होता and यजमान perform the sacrifice, the होता recites the याज्या, but when it so happens that a यजमान himself recites the याज्या in a ज्वेतिहोम, the होता does not recite the याज्या verses. The objector says that होता gets the food in spite of not reading the याज्या just as there is no obstacle in the way of his appointment as होता

यष्टुर्वा कारणागमात् ॥ ३।५।४५ ॥

45. On the other hand, of the यजमान by virtue of the reason

याज्याया अविषट्कतेति । स्वयंनिषद्य यजति "After याज्या he pronounces वषट्, he himself performs a sacrifice" When याज्या is recited, the वषट्कार is pronounced and after वषट्कार has been pronounced the sacrificial food is taken. So the person who reads याज्या is entitled to the sacrificial food. This is called कारणागम i. e. the existence of reason

प्रवृत्तत्वात्प्रवरस्यानपायः ॥ ३।५।४६ ॥

प्रवृत्तत्वात् by reason of the commencement, प्रवरस्य of the appointment, अनपायः annullment

46. There can not be annullment of the appointment by reason of the commencement of the act.

The author says that the illustration given by the objector does not apply, because when an appointment is already made it can not be annulled, but the reading of the याज्या carries with it the emolument in the form of the sacrificial food

Adhikaraṇa XIX. Sātra 47-51 dealing with the subject that the ghee in a fruit cup is intended for the sacrifice.

फलचमसो नैमित्तिको भक्षविकारः श्रुतिसंयोगात्

॥ ३।५।४७॥

फलचमसः fruit cup. नैमित्तिकः conditional; occasional. भक्षविकार substitute for food. श्रुतिसंयोगात् by reason of its mention in the Vedic text.

47. The fruit cup is a conditional substitute for food, by reason of its mention in the Vedic text.

सद्यदि रात्रन्वं वाचैश्चं याजयेत् ॥ सद्यदि सोमविमक्षयिवेत् ॥ यमोऽस्तिमीः क्षाराह्- स्याः ताः संपिष्ट दध्नि वन्मुन्य तमस्मै मक्षं प्रयच्छेजसोमं ॥

"If a kṣatriya or a vaiśya be assisted in performing a sacrifice and if he wished for Soma drink, then young sprouts of udamōṭa tree should be pounded and their juice mixed with curd should be given to him for a drink; no Soma is to be given". The question is whether this mixture intended as substitute for Soma is for the यजमान or for offering as well. The view of the objector is that it is a substitute for soma as laid down in the above quotation

इज्याविकारो वा संस्कारस्य तदर्धत्वात् ॥ ३।५।४८॥

48. On the other hand it is a substitute for oblation because the sacrificial purification is for that object.

The author says that this mixture is a substitute for oblation, because all preparations in a sacrifice are made with that object

होमात् ॥ ३।५।४९॥

49. By reason of the homa.

यदाभ्याश्चमसादुद्धति अर्धेऽल दर्मतद्वहनेनोपदयदुतेति "When he makes an offering from other चमसा, he by striking it with any young shoot of दर्म grass makes an offering" This text also shows that this mixture is a substitute for oblation.

चमसैश्च तुल्यकालत्वात् ॥ ३।५।५०॥

50. And by reason of contemporaneousness with the cups

"यदाभ्याश्चमसाद् उद्धति अर्धेन चमसं उद्धति" "When he raises other चमस, then he raises this चमस "

The author strengthens his position by quoting the text When they lift up other cups, then they lift this cup (एतच्चमस) This shows that all cups are to be lifted up for oblation simultaneously

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ ३।५।५१॥

51. And by seeing the force of the text.

The author gives the third reason and says that "समस्यैवमहं प्रयच्छेत्सोमं" "Give him this drink but no soma" When this substitute is prepared, the soma is not drunk. From this, it follows that this substitute is intended for oblation.

Adhikaraṇa XX Sūtras 52-53 dealing with the subject that the ब्राह्मणः alone follow the 'ohamāsa' of the क्षत्रियः in a procession

अनुप्रसर्पिषु सामान्यात् ॥ ३।५।५२॥

अनुप्रसर्पिषु in a procession, सामान्यात् by reason of its being common

52. In the procession by reason of its being common.

शतैवब्रह्मणाः सोमान् मक्षन्ति । दशदशैकैक चमसमनुप्रसर्पति "Hundred Brāhmanas drink Soma, ten-ten follow each cup."

There is a दशपेय sacrifice in a राजसूय It is a substitute for सोमयाग There 100 Brahmanas drink soma, there are 10 cups. each ten carry one in a procession, to the sacrificial seat In this procession, says the objector, both the ब्राह्मणः and क्षत्रियः carry ten cups according to the principle called सृष्टिर्वाच See chap I pada IV. Sūtra 27 This is the force of सामान्य, every one is a ब्राह्मण there, just as every Zamindar is called Thakur sâhib irrespective of his caste though the term Thakur is exclusively used by a क्षत्रिया.

ब्रह्मणा वा तुल्यशब्दत्वात् ॥ ३।५।५३॥

53. On the other hand the Brāhmanas by reason of the word 'equal'.

The author's view is that the procession consists of Brāhmanas alone, because then only there will be homogeneity.

END OF PĀDA V

—:O:—

PĀDA VI.

Adhikaraṇa I Sūtras 1-8 dealing with the subject that the text enjoining of खादिर wood &c for construction of कुवा &c. is connected with the model sacrifice

तत् सर्वार्थमप्रकरणात् ॥ ३।६।१॥

तत् that, सर्वार्थ to all cases, अप्रकरणात् by belonging to no context.

1. That belongs to all cases by reason of the text not belonging to any context

The text in this connection is as follows “यस्य खादिरः कुबोमयति इव तमेव तस्या वयति सखा जस्याहुत बोमयति” (तै. सं. ३।५।१।१) “He whose ladle is made of khadir wood, offers the oblation with the juice of the Veda, his offerings become full of juice”

The objector says that the text about the sacrificial ladle does not belong to any context, it is therefore applicable to all sacrifices whether model or modified.

प्रकृतौ वाऽद्विरुक्तत्वात् ॥ ३।६।२॥

2. On the other hand, it applies to the model sacrifice by reason of no repetition.

The author says that this text should be applied to the model sacrifice, if you do not accept it and if you insist upon its application to both model and modified sacrifices, then there will be a repetition; as it is laid down that the modified sacrifice should be performed like a model sacrifice. As here should not be a repetition, it is therefore proper that the text should be applied to the model sacrifice only.

तद्वर्जं तु वचनप्राप्ते ॥ ३।६।३॥

तद्वर्जं excepting that, तु on the other hand; वचनप्राप्ते on getting or obtaining.

3. On the other hand excluding it, the direct text is applicable.

The objector says that the Vedic texts are of two kinds direct प्रत्यक्ष and inferential अनुमानिक. When there is a conflict between the two, the former prevails. So the text quoted is direct and applies to both the model and modified sacrifices.

दर्शनादिति चेत् ॥ ३।६।४॥

4. If it be said that by reason of seeing (Vedic text).

The objector further says that there are two kinds of texts, one general and the other particular. In some cases, general text is quite sufficient and the particular text is unnecessary. In other cases general text is not quite sufficient and particular text is absolutely necessary. Take the illustration of प्रयाजा, in some modified sacrifices they are made and in other they are not made.

न चोदनेकार्थ्यात् ॥ ३।६।५॥

5. Not, by reason of a चोदना being for the same end.

The objector says that the general and the particular texts both supplement each other. As for example general statement applies to all sacrifices and a particular statement adapts it to a particular sacrifice. So the particular statement supplements the general statement.

उत्पत्तिरिति चेत् ॥ ३।६।६॥

6. If it be said that there is 'a priori' ground.

The word उत्पत्ति in the above sūtra is used in the meaning of शेषक of Gotama's न्याय. It is a kind of अनुमान where you infer the cause by seeing the effect. As for instance seeing the flood in a river you infer the previous fall of rain on the upper land.

The objector says that when there are abridgment and enlargement described in the Vedas you make an inference that they describe a model sacrifice, there are abridgment and enlargement described in the सुनारम्भविधि (general statement), so it is applicable to प्रकृति sacrifice.

न तुल्यत्वात् ॥ ३।६।७॥

7. Not by reason of parity of reasoning.

तुल्य is used in the sense of सामान्यतोद्भूत of Gotama's न्याय. The objector replies the objection raised to his view. He says that such abridgment and enlargement are described in both the general and the particular statements. So this is not an invariable guide.

चोदनार्थकार्त्स्न्यात् मुख्यविप्रतिषेधात्प्रकृत्यर्थः

॥ ३।६।८ ॥

चोदनार्थ कार्त्स्न्यात् by reason of the chodana serving all purposes; न on the other hand. मुख्यविप्रतिषेधात् by reason of the general text being applicable to both, प्रकृत्यर्थः applicable to the model sacrifice.

8. On the other hand, a particular statement serving all purposes and the general text being applicable to both, it is applicable to the model sacrifice.

The author gives his own view finally after the discussion of the views of the objector. There are three kinds of Vedic texts 1 अनारभ्यविधि. general statement, these are texts which belong to no context, (2) प्रकृतिवाक्य. text laying down the model sacrifice, (3) चोदकवाक्य, texts showing the relationship between the model and the modified sacrifices. So the author says that अनारभ्यविधि should be connected with the model sacrifice and, by virtue of the चोदकवाक्य, it is connected with modified sacrifice; the general statement is therefore connected with the model sacrifice.

Adhikarana II. Dealing with the subject that Samadhani मंत्रा which are 17 in number should be used in a modified sacrifice

Samadhani mantras are recited while offering sacrificial fuel in a sacred fire

प्रकरणविशेषात् विकृतौ विरोधि स्यात् ॥ ३।६।९ ॥

9. On the other hand, by reason of the particular context, there will be contradictions in the modified sacrifice.

(प्रकृति प्रकरण पठित) पंचदश सामधेनीरन्वाह । (तै० सं० २।५।६) "He says after, 15 सामधेनी verses "

(अनारभ्यविधिः) सप्तदशसामधेनी रजुमन्वाह ॥ (दे० भा० १।१) "He ought to say after, 17 सामधेनी verses "

Now there are two texts, the first is already in connection with the model sacrifice and the other is a general statement; if the latter were also connected with the model sacrifice, there will be a conflict. So in such a case of conflict the अनारभ्यविधि is applicable to the modified sacrifice.

Adhikarana III. Dealing with the subject that the texts about the cooking utensils are connected with the model sacrifice.

नैमित्तिकं तु प्रकृतौ तद्विकारः संयोगविशेषात्

॥ ३।६।१० ॥

10. On the other hand, the occasional should be used in प्रकृति and the exclusion of the other by reason of particular mention.

अमसेनग्रहः प्रणयेत् । गोदोहनेन पशुकामस्य प्रणयेत् । वैद्वो दूषोभवति । ब्रह्म-वर्चस मवदधे ॥ (सौ. स० २।८।१) "Carry water with the spoon, one desirous of cattle should carry water with the गोदोहन vessel, one who is desirous of splendour of knowledge, should have a दूष of bel wood."

"By means of a cup, water is carried" The text is read in connection with the full and new moon sacrifices. गोदोहनेन &c. i. e. with the vessel of milking cows the water is carried by one who is desirous of cattle. This text can not be applied to the model sacrifice in accordance with the rule laid down in the preceding adhikarana as two texts will be contradictory, one laying down a cup and the other a milking vessel. So according to the objector the latter text applies to the modified sacrifice. The author says no, because there is a निमित्त or reason for doing so i.e. one who desires cattle, should carry water in a milking vessel. In that case the text should be connected with the प्रकृति वाग

Adhikarana IV Sūtra: 11-18 dealing with the subject that अग्न्याधान is not a part of पवमानेहि

इष्ट्यर्थमग्न्याधेयं प्रकरणात् ॥ ३।६।११ ॥

11. By virtue of the context, the establishment of fire is for पवमानेहि.

पवमानेहि is performed for renewing the power of the sacred fire already established. The objector therefore says that अग्न्याधान is a part of पवमानेहि.

न वा तासां तदर्थत्वात् ॥ ३।६।१२ ॥

12. Not so, because they are for it.

The author says that the पवमानेहि are for the establishment of fire and so the अग्न्याधान can not be subordinate to the पवमानेहि

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ ३।६।१३ ॥

13. And by seeing the force of the text.

The author relies on the vedic texts. यथावै पुत्रोऽरवो गौर्बल्येव सग्निराहितो जीर्वाति संवत्सरस्य परस्मादाग्निर्वाच्यो माग्नीमिह्यतिष्ठते पुनर्नव मैत्रेयस्य जर्करोति ॥ (तै. सं. १।५।१।३)
Just as a man, horse or a cow becomes old, so the established fire becomes old in a year, subsequently it is praised by means of एवमान, it is again made new and youthful. The force of the text shows that the अग्न्याधान is not a part of the एवमानेष्टि.

Adhikarṇa V Sūtras 14-15 Dealing with the subject that अग्न्याधान subserves the purpose, of all the sacrifices

तत्प्रकृत्यर्थं यथान्येऽनारभ्यवादाः ॥ ३।६।१४ ॥

14 That is for the model sacrifice just as other general statements.

The objector says, you have laid down in the sūtra 2 that अनारभ्यवादि is to be connected with the model sacrifice, upon this principle I say that the अग्न्याधान should be connected with the model sacrifice.

सर्वार्थं वाग्न्यधानस्य स्वकालत्वात् ॥ ३।६।१५ ॥

15 On the other hand, it is connected with all sacrifices by reason of अग्न्याधान having its own time.

The author says that when once fire is established, it is taken for all ceremonies. So अग्न्याधान is connected with all sacrifices.

Adhikarṇa VI Sūtras 16-17 dealing with the subject that एवमानेष्टि are to be performed in the un consecrated fire

तासामग्निः प्रकृतितः प्रयाजवत्स्यात् ॥ ३।६।१६ ॥

तासां of their, अग्नि fire, प्रकृतितः from the model sacrifice; प्रयाजवत् like प्रयाज, स्यात् is.

16. Their fire from the model sacrifice like the प्रयाज.

The objector says that as प्रयाज मंत्र are transferred from the model sacrifice to the modified sacrifice, so the fire prepared for the model sacrifice is taken to the एवमानेष्टि.

17. Not so, their being for that.

The author says that there is no similarity. The प्रयाज offerings are related to the model and modified sacrifices as parts. The वेदिक text directs the अतिदेश namely "perform modelled sacrifice like the model sacrifice." While on the other hand *पवमानेष्टि*s are related to the model sacrifice as cause and effect. For the establishment of fire the *पवमानेष्टि*s are performed. The पवमानेष्टि prepares the sacred fire for the model sacrifice and is therefore related to it as cause and effect, while प्रयाज offerings are made both in the model and modified sacrifices; they are therefore related as parts to the whole.

Adhikaraṇa VII. Sūtras 18-27 Dealing with the subject that the subsidiary operation are to be performed on the Agni Soma animal

तुल्यः सर्वेषां पशुविधिः प्रकरणाविशेषात् ॥३।६।१८॥

18. Equal is the animal ceremony in all sacrifices by reason of there being nothing special about the context.

The पशुविधि or पशुवर्ग consists of (1) उपाकरण preparatory ceremony (2) उपावयनम् bringing it to the sacrificial ground (3) जलवाधनः tying it to a peg (4) दूरेनिवेशन putting it to sacrificial post (5) सङ्घर्ष suffocating it to death and (6) विश्लेष dissecting it.

There are three kinds of animals, (1) अग्निपोलीयः (2) सवनीय and (3) जलवधन.

The objector says that in a अतिदेशीय sacrifice there is only one context containing a description of a sacrificial animal; the पशुविधि therefore applies to all animals equally. Then there is a सवनीयपशु context where the animal ceremony is described, by reason of this context, the पशुविधि may apply to a सवनीय animal only.

स्थानाच्च पूर्वस्य ॥ ३।६।१९॥

19. By reason of location, it would apply to the first.

The other objector says that on account of the order in which the animals are described, the पशुविधि applies to the अग्निपोलीय animal. The day preceding the extraction of the soma juice is called जीववसन्तः. On this day the sacrificial animal called अग्निपोलीय is prepared and killed. On the next day the soma juice is extracted and सवनीय animal is killed; this day is called सुखाह. According to this पूर्वस्य view, in the order in which the animals are killed, the अग्निपोलीय comes first, so the animal ceremony should be performed on him but it may be mentioned here that the context is stronger than the order according to the Mīmāṃsā rules of interpretation.

इवस्त्वेकेषां तत्र प्राक्श्रुतिर्गुणार्था ॥ ३।६।२० ॥

• the following day, एकेषां of one set; तत्र there; प्राक्श्रुति first description; गुणार्थाः for the purpose of describing quality.

20. According to one, the पशु वेदि of the succeeding day is described first with a view to describe the quality.

The author's view is that the पशुवेदि is to be performed on the अग्निषोमीय animal, though in the context the सदसीय animal is described with a view to describe the quality of a sacrificial animal, it is not a वेदि. Further this description is to be met with in some of the recensions of the Veda, not in all.

तेनोत्कृष्टस्य कालविधिरिति चेत् ॥ ३।६।२१ ॥

21. "By this means, it is laying down of time of the transferred" if you say.

"अपवाप्रातः सवनेचरति" They make an offering of the tallow in the morning. The objector says that you base your argument on this text and say that the अग्निषोमीय animal is killed on the औपवस्यवाह and the animal ceremony is to be performed on the अग्निषोमीय animal; but on the other hand, it is a rule laying down time, on which day the सदसीय animal is to be killed.

नैकदेशत्वात् ॥ ३।६।२२ ॥

22. Not so, by reason of the partial (context).

The author says that can not be; the tallow is only a part of an animal: by reason of it there can not be a transference forward nor can there be any fixing of time. The ज्योतिष्टोम is a big sacrifice; its principal materials are animal and soma. The whole animal is sacrificed and by reason of a part of an animal, there can not be a transference forward of a text as to the time of sacrifice by means of a partial description. So the context being set aside we have to depend upon sequence only.

अर्थेनेति चेत् ॥ ३।६।२३ ॥

23. If you say by the sense.

"शुद्धिनामिकान् बधोद्धरणमसीत आवाप्रातोमात्" By closing the fist and covering the tallow, he must sit till the वपाहोम. The objector says that the tallow is the tallow of the animal killed on the preceding day i. e. ~~अपवर्ग~~; it is very cumbersome to remain sitting with the fist closed and keeping the tallow covered till the next morning, the reasonable inference, therefore, is that it is ~~सवनीय~~ animal that is meant and the text quoted in the commentary on sūtra 21 is with a view to lay down time of the sacrifice of the ~~सवनीय~~ animal.

न श्रुतिविप्रतिषेधात् ॥ ३।६।२४ ॥

24. Not so, by reason of the two Vedic texts of equal force.

The author says that there are two texts of equal force; the second text quoted by you can be very easily interpreted. You have pointed out the difficulty of a यजमान sitting silently with closed fist and tallow covered in it. It is indeed cumbrous, but the difficulty can be removed; he can cover the tallow with grass made into the form of a fist. He should not be confined to one place, but he may attend other business as well.

स्थानात्तु पूर्वस्य संस्कारस्य तदर्थत्वात् ॥ ३।६।२५ ॥

25. On the other hand by reason of the sequence; because the former purificatory ceremonies are for it.

The author finally sums up his view, he says that there are two principles involved; one of context and the other of place. Here in the present case the principle of context is not applicable; the पशुविधि is prescribed in connection with the animal sacrifice but not in the context of ज्योतिहोम. The animal ceremony is only a purificatory ceremony and is described as अपूर्व in connection with animal sacrifice. In this view, the context being set aside the location remains intact and by virtue of it, the अग्निहोमोप comes first

26. And by seeing the force of the text.

The author in support of his view relies on the Vedic texts वपाप्रातः सवने चरति । पुरोडाशेनमाध्वं दिने सवने ॥ "They make an offering of tallow in the morning libation and of पुरोडाश cakes in the midday libation."

अचोदना गुणार्थेन ॥ ३।६।२७ ॥

27. There is no injunction with a view to describe the quality.

The author says that the texts which have been discussed in the अधिकरण are not of the वेदना class as they are mere descriptive of the details.

Adhikarana VIII. Sūtras 23-29 dealing with the subject that fetching of a branch to belong to both the milking times.

दोहयोः कालभेदादसंयुक्तं शृतं स्यात् ॥३।६।२८॥

दोहयोः of morning and evening milkings, कालभेदात् by reason of difference of time, असंयुक्तं unconnected; शृतं heated milk स्यात्, is.

28. By reason of the difference of time in the milking, the heated milk is unconnected.

The objector says that in दूर्गैर्गणैश्चयाम्, milking of cows is done in the morning and evening, and in connection with this a branch of a tree is brought for driving off calves, cows are praised and are sent to the forest for grazing. According to the principle of sequence these sacrificial operations apply only to the evening milking. You also know that संत्राय is prepared from heated milk. So there will be no connection with the heated milk in the morning.

प्रकरणविभागाद्वातत्संयुक्तस्य कालशास्त्रम् ॥३।६।२९॥

29. On the other hand by reason of the indivisibility of the context, the time of the two milkings connected with each other is pointed out.

The author says that the description of the milking of the cows is given at one place and so the context is the same, the description therefore applies to both the milkings. So the time of the milking of the cows is connected with each other. If you do not milk the cows on the previous evening, there will be no curd in the morning.

Adhikarana IX. Dealing with the subject that washing of the soma cups and placing them on the altar should be performed when soma juice is offered to the sacred fire.

तद्वत्सर्वनान्तरे ग्रहाम्नानम् ॥ ३।६।३०॥

तद्वत् like it; सर्वनान्तरे at different times of soma offerings, ग्रहाम्नानं direction about the cups.

30. Similarly is the description of the cups at different times of soma offering.

The savana consists of bringing in soma creeper, pounding it, sprinkling water on it, extracting its juice, putting it in a sacrificial cup and offering it to Agni. There are three such savans in an ajihotoma sacrifice. In the context where these savanas are mentioned, the cups are also mentioned. The author says that the same principle which was laid down in the preceding adhikarṇa applies to the cups. They are connected and they are to be washed at every time the savana is performed.

Adhikarṇa X. Dealing with the subject that the reins made of grass consisting of three twists belong to all animal sacrifices

रशना च लिङ्गदर्शनात् ॥ ३।६।३१ ॥

31. And the bridle by seeing the force of the text.

In a ajihotoma sacrifice, a string or bridle is described, विष्टुवति त्र्यम्बयी भवति त्रिपिष्टानां कर्तव्याश्च "It is made three-fold, it is of darbha grass, and it is made of pounded grass." By the context the description applies to ajihotomīya animal, but by the Vedic sentence it applies to all sacrificial posts. आश्विनं ग्रहणृहीत्वा त्रिष्टुतासूयं परिधीया श्वेयं पशुमुपाकरोति. "Taking the astvin cup, and tying the three-fold string round the sacrificial post, he prepares the sacrificial animal." According to the śrīmāta rule of interpretation, a sentence (vākya) predominates over a context (prakaraṇa). So the author says that the rope with three twists applies to all animal sacrifices.

Adhika. apt. XI. Sūtras 32-34 dealing with the subject that washing and placing on the altar &c. are to be performed on astvin and ajihotoma cups.

आराच्छिष्टमसंयुक्तमितरैः सन्निधानात् ॥ ३।६।३२ ॥

आरात् at a distance, शिष्ट laid down, असंयुक्तं unconnected, इतरैः with others सन्निधानात् by reason of the proximity.

32. What is laid down at a distance is not connected by reason of its proximity with others.

The anuvākyas verses are repeated at the time of ajihotoma sacrifice and are given in a chapter, the cups called astvin & ajihotoma are described there. They are distantly connected with ajihotoma sacrifice.

The objector says that washing and placing of the cups relate only to those cups described in the context but not to those cups which are in a ज्योतिष्टोम sacrifice by reason of the distant connection.

संयुक्तं वा तदर्थत्वाच्चेष्टस्य तन्निमित्तत्वात् ॥३।६।३३॥

33 On the other hand, they are connected by reason of their being for it; because their use is for the residual sacrificial act.

The author says that the cups known अंशु and अदाम्य subserve the purpose of the ज्योतिष्टोम sacrifice though the अंशु and अदाम्य are not described in connection with the cups, yet by force of the वाक्य what happens in the case of the other cups will apply to the cups called अंशु and अदाम्य connected with the ज्योतिष्टोम sacrifice.

निर्देशाद्व्यवतिष्ठेत ॥ ३।६।३४॥

निर्देशात् by reason of special enunciation; व्यवतिष्ठेत is to be adjusted or fixed upon.

34. The interpretation of the text is to be adjusted by reason of special enunciation.

The author says that a context gives a general description and a sentence gives a particular description, but this is not true in the case of the cups called अंशु and अदाम्य. The general description is given in the sentence quoted in the text on Sūtra 30 in the आप्य while particular description is given in the context दशापवित्रेण ग्रहंसमाष्टि "He cleans the cups with the filtering cloth "

Adhikarapa XII Dealing with the subject that the bricks called चित्रिणी &c. are the parts of the Agnichayana.

अग्न्यङ्गमप्रकरणे तद्वत् ॥ ३।६।३५॥

35. Though not in a context, similarly they are parts of the अग्निचयन.

Just as we have seen in the case of अंशु and अदाम्य cups that they are described in a context, and in a sentence, the cups connected with the ज्योतिष्टोम sacrifice are described, so in the same way चित्रिणी and वज्रिणी bricks are described in a context and the other bricks are described in the Agnichayana ceremony So the ceremonies that are to be performed upon चित्रिणी and वज्रिणी are to be performed upon the bricks in the अग्निचयन sacrifice.

Adhikaraṇa XIII. Dealing with the subject that such sacrificial operations as fixing the quantity of Soma twigs, taking them down ceremoniously, buying them ceremoniously and pounding them into juice belong to all Soma sacrifices.

नैमित्तिकमतुल्यत्वादसमानविधानं स्यात् ॥३६॥३६॥

36. The casual by reason of being not equal, there is unequal description.

There are two kinds of texts namely नित्य and नैमित्तिक. The former are permanent and general and नैमित्तिक are occasional and particular. In a सोम याग certain ceremonies are performed, but when कुरुक्षमस is used these ceremonies are dispensed with. The Soma juice is drunk only by a Brāhmaṇ but when a kṣatriya or a vaiśya drinks, he drinks कुरुक्षमस as the following text shows :—

स्यदिराजन्वं वा वैश्यं वा याजयेत् स्यदितोमं विभक्तयिषेत् न्यग्रोधस्तिनीराहृत्य ताः संधिष्य दधनिःकुण्डलं समस्मै मर्जयत्वेद् न सोमं ॥ "If a kṣatriya or a vaiśya be assisted in performing a sacrifice and if he wished for a soma drink, then young shoots of udambara tree should be pounded and their juice mixed with curd should be given to him for a drink, no soma is to be given."

Adhikaraṇa XIV. Sūtras 37-39 dealing with the subject that the sacrificial operations to be performed upon the principal substance, should be performed upon the substitute

प्रातिनिधिश्च ॥ ३ । ६ । ३७ ॥

37. And similarly the substitute.

नीवार is a substitute for ब्रीहि. The objector says that similar principle of असमानविधान which applied in the preceding अधिकरण will apply in the case of a substitute i.e. the sacrificial operations should not be performed upon the substitute.

तद्वत्प्रयोजनैकत्वात् ॥ ३ । ६ । ३८ ॥

38. Like it, by reason of there being one object.

The author says that नीवार is like ब्रीहि, so there will be समानविधान, i.e. the similar sacrificial operations will be performed on the substitute as would be done on the principal, their object being the same, the substitute serves the purpose of the principal while in the case of कुरुक्षमस, it was different; it was a drink intended for particular castes, it is therefore casual (नैमित्तिक).

39. By reason of there being no distinctive quality mentioned.

The author gives another reason in support of his view. He says that the principal is directly described and the Mīmamsā rule of वृत्ति applies to it. The substitute is not directly described but it can be only inferred by the second principle known as ङिग. There is no relationship of model and modified sacrifices between them while such is the relationship in the case of a कडचमस. The same relationship which exists between a model sacrifice and a modified sacrifice exists between Soma and कडचमस, but between a principal and its substitute, there is no such connection as described above.

Adhikaraṇa XV. Dealing with the subject that the sacrificial operations to be performed upon the principal are to be performed upon the substitute mentioned directly in the Vida.

नियमार्था गुणश्रुतिः ॥ ३।६।४० ॥

40 Description of qualities is with a view to restriction.

In the preceding अधिकरण we have seen that the sacrificial operations are to be performed on the substitute which is not directly mentioned but inferred from the ङिग, but where the substitute is directly mentioned, the same operations are a fortiori to be performed. The term गुणश्रुति means a description which directly restates qualities and नियम is that which prescribes originally what substance is to be taken and what act is to be performed exclusively and thus narrowing the application of a general original statement. When a substance is directly and distinctly mentioned then it is a case of नियम, because the choice is restricted to it only.

Adhikaraṇa XVI. Verses 41 to 47 dealing with the subject that the sacrifices such as होम &c. are the parts of अग्निहोम.

संस्थास्तु समानविधानाः प्रकरणाविशेषात् ॥ ३।६।४१ ॥

41. On the other hand, *संस्था*s are समानविधान by reason of their occurring in no context.

What are *संस्था*s? The होम is the model sacrifice. The modified sacrifices are अग्निहोम, अत्यग्निहोम, उक्त्य, वेदसा, अतिरात्र, अहोयमि, and वाजपेय. They are also called *संस्था*s. The objector says whatever oblations and other sacrificial ceremonies are performed in a होम, the model sacrifice, the same should be performed on the *संस्था*s; the reason is that they are not described in any context stating that they belong to the model sacrifice only.

व्यपदेशश्च तुल्यवत् ॥ ३।६।४२॥

42. And the designation is alike.

The objector assigns a reason for it. He says that both the model and modified sacrifices are equally described and no distinction is made in the Veda.

विकारास्तु कामसंयोगे नित्यस्य समत्वात् ॥३।६।४३॥

43. On the other hand, the modifications in connection with the desire, are of the permanent (sacrifice) by reason of the equality.

The author says that the model or the permanent sacrifice is an end in itself, while the modified sacrifice is a means to some other end, because they fulfill certain desires. The minor oblations are prescribed for a ज्योतिष्येयम्, but by virtue of the वेदकवाक्य they are applicable to the modified sacrifice also.

अपि वा द्विरुक्तत्वात्प्रकृतेर्भविष्यन्तीति ॥३।६।४४॥

44. Or also by virtue of want of repetition they will belong to the model sacrifice.

The author gives a reason that both ज्योतिष्येयम् and अग्निष्येयम् are the same with the exception that one is the model sacrifice and the other is the modified sacrifice. All the minor इष्टिः are to be performed in both. So the author concludes that in order to avoid repetition these minor sacrifices are mentioned in connection with ज्योतिष्येयम् only.

बचनात्तु समुच्चयः ॥ ३।६।४५॥

45. On the other hand by reason of the Vedic text, all sacrifices collectively.

यदि अग्निष्टोमेऽहुतीति । यदि अकथ्यः परिधिर्ममक्ति । यदि अतिरात्रः एतदेव ब्रज्जान् हविर्धानं प्रतिपद्येन । आग्नेषमजमग्निष्टोमे आहमेत । वैश्वानरं द्वितीयं अकथ्ये । देवं वृजं तृतीयं वोदशिति ॥ "If he performs Agniṣṭoma, if he anoints the three sacrificial sticks with ghee in an अह्वय, if in an अतिरात्र uttering the yağus silently obtains the हविर्धानं part, he shall sacrifice a goat sacred to Agni in the Agniṣṭoma, the second sacred to Indra and Agni in the ukthya, the third sacred to इन्द्र in the वेङ्करी sacrifice."

The पूर्वपक्ष view is that in the अग्निष्टोम one of the modifications of उपोसिद्धोम the first, second and third sacrificial animals are described in order. As all the sacrifices are collectively described, they are therefore equally important. The author in reply says that the terms 'second' and 'third' make particular original statements. This is the purpose they serve. By means of a particular original statement, it is shown that they are modified sacrifices.

प्रतिषेधाच्च पूर्वलिङ्गानाम् ॥ ३ । ६ । ४६ ॥

46. And by reason of prohibiting the preceding texts.

यदि अग्निष्टोमो जुहोति । यदि उक्थ्यपरिचिनक्ति जुहोति. "An agniṣṭoma is performed, if in an उक्थ्य the sacrificial fuel is annointed, he does not perform the sacrifice."

When उक्थ्य is performed, the butter is annointed and no sacrifice is performed. The author says that the previous text is prohibited; this fact also shows that उक्थ्य is a modification of अग्निष्टोम.

गुणविशेषादेकस्य व्यपदेशः ॥ ३ । ६ । ४७ ॥

47. There is the designation of one by reason of special quality.

They are all one but on account of the qualities they are different in name. The model sacrifice is one but the modified sacrifices which are named differently are on account of their different desire-accomplishing qualities.

END OF PĀDA VI.

— O —

PĀDA VII.

Adhikaraṇa I. Sūtras 1 to 5 dealing with the subject that grass &c. are the parts both of रश्मिपूर्वकसमवाय and their constituent parts.

प्रकरणाविशेषादसंयुक्तं प्रधानस्य ॥ ३ । ७ । १ ॥

1. By reason of the special context, the un-connected belongs to the principal.

The objector says that the full description of दर्शपूर्णमास is given in a context; this description belongs to the principal and is not connected with their constituent parts.

सर्वेषां वा शेषत्वस्याऽतत्प्रयुक्तत्वात् ॥३।७।२॥

2. On the other hand, of all because of their subsidiary nature, they are not described.

The author says that principal operations are though no doubt described in a context and the subsidiary operations are described in a sentence. The operations are made applicable to the constituent parts also.

आरादपीतिचेत् ॥३।७।३॥

आराद by reason of the immediate relationship; अपि also, इतिचेत् if it be said.

3. If it be said by means of the proximate relationship.

Those that serve the purpose of the principal directly are आरादुपकारक अंग and those that serve the purpose of the अंग and thus subserve the principal indirectly are सहाय्योपकारक अंग. Take for example, smaller rivers supply the water to the Ganges, it in its turn falls into the ocean. The ocean is principal. The smaller rivers are the remote constituent parts of the ocean and the Ganges is the direct constituent part. The commentators have given the example of दर्भा grass. It is taken from the jungle in a religious way and a ceremony is performed. The oblation is the principal part and the दर्हि serves its purpose; there are other subsidiary operations which are performed on the दर्हि and are therefore remotely connected with the main oblation. The objector asks whether it is a case of immediate relationship as explained above.

 न तद्वाक्यं हि तदर्थत्वात् ॥ ३।७।४॥

4 Not so; because that statement is for that purpose.

The author says that it is not so, the दर्भा grass is prepared in दर्शपूर्णमास because the sentence occurs in connection with their context. No where its preparation is mentioned in connection with the विहविद्वान्.

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ ३।७।५ ॥

5. And by seeing the force of the text.

The author relies on the text and shows how his position is established by force of the texts स वै भूवा मेवाग्नेऽभिघातयतिततोहि अथमावाग्नेयमागौयश्चन्द्र मवति । "He first saturates the भूवा with ghee, because then the first two parts of the ghee he sacrifices "

Adhikarapa II. Dealing with the subject that the purificatory ceremonies which a master undergoes are for the principal

फलसंयोगात्तु स्वामियुक्तं प्रधानस्य ॥ ३।७।६ ॥

6. On the other hand by reason of the mention of the fruit, (all ceremonies) connected with the master are for the principal.

The author says that in the मीमांसा an action is very important; it depends upon volition The volition is divided into two The mental effort and the fruit The latter is invisible and the former is visible The visible effort and the invisible fruit and the subsidiary operations for securing it constitute an act called sacrifice. The sacrificer enjoys the fruit and certain purificatory ceremonies are performed upon him. The hair on the head and his beard are shaved. He has to live on milk only and practise austerities All these purificatory operations are subservient to the principal.

Adhikarapa III Dealing with the subject that the altar in a soma sacrifice is a constituent part of both the principal and its constituent parts

चिकीर्षया च संयोगात् ॥ ३।७।७ ॥

7. By reason of the connection with the volition.

The objector says that the purificatory ceremonies that you have mentioned in connection with the master should be done everywhere, because volition is connected every where in a ज्योतिष्टोम sacrifice. The altars &c are therefore for the sacrifice.

Adhikarapa IV. Sūtras 8-10 Dealing with the subject that touching is a constituent part of both the principal and its constituent parts.

तथाऽभिधानेन ॥ ३।७।८ ॥

8. Similarly by the name.

The objector says that in connection with the full and new moon sacrifices, there is अभिमर्शन (touching) ceremony mentioned. It is for the principal. The full moon and new moon sacrifices are principal because the full moon and new moon sacrifices expressly mentioned in the Vedas.

तद्युक्ते तु फलश्रुतिस्तस्मात्सर्वचिकीर्षा स्यात्

॥ ३।७।६ ॥

9. On the other hand, in connection with that there is a text about the fruit; therefore there is volition of all,

The author replies to the objection raised in the sūtras. The altar not only subserves the purpose of the principal but it serves the purpose of all its parts. The reason is that the principal sacrifice being accomplished, the reward is obtained and the success of the principal depends upon the performance of all its constituent parts

गुणाभिधानात्सर्वार्थमभिधानम् ॥ ३।७।१० ॥

10. By naming the parts, the whole is named.

The author replies to the objection raised in Sūtra 8. What he says is that you have argued on the strength of naming and from it you say that अभिमर्शन is for the principal, but when the parts are named and described, the whole is also named and described. So the अभिमर्शन serves the purpose of the principal as well as the purpose of its constituent parts.

Adhikāṣya V sūtras 11-12 dealing with the subject that initiation and donation are for the principal

दीक्षादक्षिणं तु वचनात्प्रधानस्य ॥ ३।७।११ ॥

11. On the other hand initiation and donation under a text belong to the principal

त्रिषोदीक्षाः । तस्यद्वादशशतं दक्षिणाः । दीक्षासोमस्य । दक्षिणः सोमस्य ॥ "There are three initiations, their donation is twelve hundred, the initiation of Soma, the donation of सोम" The दीक्षा and दक्षिणा belong to the main sacrifice.

निवृत्तिदर्शनाच्च ॥ ३।७।१२ ॥

12. And by seeing the cessation,

They enure for the whole sacrifice. The author relies on this argument in support of his view expressed in सूत्र 11. The appointment of a priest lasts for the whole sacrifice and the payment of fees is also for the whole of it.

Adhikaraṇa VI. Sūtras 13-14 dealing with the subject that the interior altar is not a part of the sacrificial post.

तथा यूपस्य वेदि ॥ ३।७।१३ ॥

13. Similarly the altar is not a part of the sacrificial post.

The objector says that just as दीक्षा and दक्षिणा are the parts of the soma sacrifice as stated in the preceding अधिकरण, so is an interior altar a part of the sacrificial post.

देशमात्रं वा शिष्टेनैकवाक्यत्वात् ॥ ३।७।१४ ॥

14. On the other hand, it is only a part of the locality by reason of its being in harmony with what is incapable of being enjoined.

The author says that it is only a part of space, to mark off certain space, it is described in the Veda, but it is nowhere said that it is a part of the यूप.

Adhikaraṇa VII. Sūtras 15-17 dealing with the subject that a cart is not a part of the सामधेनी.

सामधेनीस्तदन्वाहुरिति हविर्दानयोर्वचनात्साम-
धेनीनाम् ॥ ३।७।१५ ॥

15. "Then they recite the सामधेनी verses"; two carts under the word are the parts of the सामधेनी.

इदमत्र सूचति सामधेनी इत्यन्वाहुः ॥ "Or as on the carts on which soma is extracted, so they recite the मंत्र called the सामधेनी"! 'on the carts' means 'near the cart'. So the description of the carts and the mantras called सामधेनी are connected with each other as parts with a whole. This is the view of the objector.

देशमात्रं वा प्रत्यक्षं ह्यर्थकर्म सोमस्य ॥ ३।७।१६ ॥

16. On the other hand a part of the space; the object of the soma sacrifice is visible or evident.

इक्षिणेहविर्धाने सोममासादयति । यस्य हविर्धानस्य समीपे सुगन्धंति तत्संबद्धः । सामिधेन्योऽपि अग्निं समिधनार्थं उपादेयाः ॥ अपरेणवेदि ॥ "He places सोम in the southern हविर्धान cart, those सामिधेनी verses which are connected with the cart near which soma juice is extracted are to be recited for kindling the fire."

The author says that हविर्धान refers to a certain space where सोम juice is extracted, if you do not accept this interpretation then there will be a defect of वाक्यभेद । It is therefore a part of space where southern cart stands and सामिधेनी verses are recited

समाख्यानं च तद्वत् ॥ ३ । ७ । १७ ॥

17. And the naming is accordingly

The author says that the etymology of the word हविर्धान (a cart) also shows that it is a portion of the space हविर्धान means a place where offering is placed. So the description in the Veda relates to the place but not to the cart.

Adhikaraṇa VIII śāstras 18-20 dealing with the subject that the parts of the principal can be performed through another.

शास्त्रफलं प्रयोक्तारि तल्लक्षणत्वात्तस्मात्स्वयं प्रयोगे
स्यात् ॥ ३ । ७ । १८ ॥

18. The fruit enjoined accrues to the sacrificer, by reason of his quality; therefore he must perform it personally.

The objector says that the fruit of the sacrifice accrues to the performer ; it is so laid down in the Vedas. As it is so, he must perform the sacrifice himself.

उत्सर्गे तु प्रधानत्वाच्छेषकारी प्रधानस्य तस्माद-
न्यः स्वयं वा स्यात् ॥ ३ । ७ । १९ ॥

19. On the other hand in donation by reason of the principal, and the subsidiary acts subserve the principal, they may therefore be performed by himself or by another.

The second objector says that the sacrificer should pay the fee which is the most important and the principal in the sacrifice and all other acts which subserve the principal may be performed either by the sacrificer himself or by some other on his behalf.

अन्यो वा स्यात्परिक्रियाम्नानाद्विप्रतिषेधात्प्रत्यगा-
त्मनि ॥ ३।७।२० ॥

20. Or another may perform by reason of the Veda laying down the hiring (of the priests) and by reason of the prohibition of the performance by one's self.

The author gives his own view and says that the Veda provides for the employment of the priests. The priests are to perform the subsidiary acts and the principal act which is the main oblation, is to be done by the sacrificer. It is a नियमविधि.

Adhikarapa IX. Sutras 21-24 dealing with the subject that the number of the hired priests is fixed

तत्रार्थात्कर्तृपरिमाणं स्यादनियमोऽविशेषात् ॥ ३।७।२१ ॥

21. There by reason of the object, there is a limit of the workers; there is no rule or limit by reason of there being nothing special.

The objector says that according to the nature of the sacrifice the number of the officiating priests may be increased or decreased, because there is nothing special about it in the Vedas.

अपि वा श्रुति भेदात्प्रतिनामधेयं स्युः ॥ ३।७।२२ ॥

22. Or also by reason of the different vedic texts, there are different officiating priests named for each.

The vedic texts directly mention the names of the officiating priests and their functions. So the number can be determined. तावपुरोऽध्वर्युर्विमजति प्रतिप्रस्थातामर्चिर्ननुहोति । नेहा पक्ष मन्त्रुदायति । उन्नेता चमसाक्षरयति । प्रस्रोता प्रसूति । बहुगाता बहुगायति । प्रतिहर्ता प्रतिहरति । सुवह्वर्यः सुवह्वर्यामाह । होता प्रातरनुवाक मनुते । मैत्रावरुणः प्रैषयतिवातुचाह । जम्बावाको वजति । प्रावस्तुव प्रावस्तोऽप्रीयामन्वाह ॥ "The अध्वर्यु" priest divides them before, the प्रतिप्रस्थाता sacrifices from the मर्ची vessel; the नेहा brings forward the wife of the sacrificer. The उन्नेता uplifts the चमस cups, the प्रस्रोता utters praises; the बहुगाता sings; the प्रतिहर्ता removes sacrificial articles from one place to another; the सुवसव recites सुवसवा verses; the होता recites प्रातरयुवाक hymns; the मैत्रावरुण gives order and recites after (another); the अश्विन makes an offering; the ब्राह्मण recites ब्राह्मणीय mantras."

एकस्य कर्मभेदादिति चेत् ॥ ३।७।२३ ॥

23. If it be said "of one by reason of the difference of duties."

The objector says that one priest can perform all the duties and can be so called by different names on different occasions.

नोत्पत्तौ हि ॥ ३।७।२४ ॥

24. Not so, because at the time of appointment.

The author says that the different priests are appointed by their different names at the commencement of the sacrifice. So their number can be determined.

Adhikaraṇa X. Dealing with the subject that चमसाध्वयु's are separate.

चमसाध्वर्यवश्च तैर्व्यपदेशात् ॥ ३।७।२५ ॥

25. And चमसाध्वयु's by reason of their being mentioned separately.

The author says that the चमसाध्वयु's are separate as they have separate names.

Adhikaraṇa XI. Dealing with the subject that चमसाध्वयु's are many.

उत्पत्तौ तु बहुश्रुतेः ॥ ३।७।२६ ॥

26. On the other hand at the time of appointment by reason of the Vedic text mentioning many.

The vedic text which enjoins the appointment of the चमसाध्वयु, uses the number in plural which shows that there are many चमसाध्वयु's.

Adhikaraṇa XII. Dealing with the subject that the चमसाध्वयु's are ten in number.

दशत्वं लिङ्गदर्शनात् ॥ ३।७।२७ ॥

27. Ten, by seeing the force of the text.

The author says that there are 10 चमसाध्वयु's. दश चमसाध्वयवो दशवत् एते

कचमस अनुवर्षति । दत्तमात्कारणं दशपेयो भवति ॥ "There are 10 चमसाध्वयु^१ priests; each ten go to the चमस cup, for this reason, the दशपेय is so-called."

Adhikaraṇa XIII Sūtras 28-29 dealing with the subject that शमिता is not different.

शमिता च शब्दभेदात् ॥३।७।२८॥

28. And शमिता is (different) by reason of having a separate word.

The objector says that शमिता (a priest who kills a sacrificial animal) is different from the ऋत्विक् and चमसाध्वयु^१s, because we have a separate word for him

प्रकरणाद्वोत्पत्त्यसंयोगात् ॥३।७।२९॥

29. On the other hand by reason of the context and there being no original text.

The author says that the शमिता is not a separate priest an ordinary priest can do the business of killing a sacrificial animal, further there is no Vedic text for the appointment of a separate शमिता priest

Adhikaraṇa XIV Dealing with the subject that उपगा (assistant singer) is not a separate priest^१

उपगाश्च लिङ्गदर्शनात् ॥३।७।३०॥

30. And the assistant singers, by reason of the force of the ext.

The author says that the assistant singer is not separate, any ऋत्विक् can take up the duty as the text shows. न अध्वयु^१ उपगायेत् ॥ "An अध्वयु^१ shall not assist in singing."

Adhikaraṇa XV Dealing with a subject that a seller of Soma is a different person.

विक्रयी त्वन्यः कर्मणोऽचोदित्वात् ॥३।७।३१॥

31. On the other hand, a seller is a different person because his function is not prescribed.

The author says that a seller of soma is a separate priest, the reason is that his function is nowhere described in the Veda.

Adhikarana XVI. Sūtras 32-35 dealing with the subject that a "ऋत्विक्" is not to perform all sacrificial works

कर्मकार्यात्सर्वेषामृत्विक्त्वमविशेषात् ॥ ३।७।३२॥

32. By doing the sacrificial works all are ऋत्विक्s, because there is nothing special.

The objector says that any one who officiates as a priest is a ऋत्विक्. "सौम्यस्य अश्वरस्य मशकतोः सप्तदश ऋत्विजः" There are seventeen ऋत्विक्s in a Soma sacrifice. It is a case of अवयुत्यवाद. A general description is given, which determines that so many things are to be done by such and such a class of priests, but when it is again laid down that any one of those things is to be performed by a particular priest out of the class, it is a case of अवयुत्यवाद.

न वा परिसंख्यानात् ॥ ३।७।३३॥

33. Not so, by reason of exclusive specification.

The author says that it is a case of परिसंख्या. The difference between अवयुत्यवाद and परिसंख्या can be explained thus. He who fights is a soldier. There are 700 soldiers in this nation. The first is a general statement. This general statement is narrowed down by the second sentence. It is a case of अवयुत्यवाद. In परिसंख्या there are three defects: (1) स्वार्थहानि (2) परार्थकल्पना (3) प्राप्तवाधः. Take for example पंचनखाः भक्ष्या. The animals with five claws should not be eaten, it is स्वार्थहानि. Animal diet with the exception of पंचनख may be taken, there is परार्थ कल्पना. One's natural desire to take flesh is controlled, this is प्राप्तवाध. Let us see how this परिसंख्या applies in the present case. Every one has a natural desire to become a ऋत्विक्, this desire is controlled, any one who performs a sacrifice is a ऋत्विक्, this sense is set aside but one who performs the functions mentioned in the Veda is a ऋत्विक्, this sense is accepted. It is therefore a case of परिसंख्या but not of अवयुत्यवाद.

पक्षेणेति चेत् ॥ ३।७।३४॥

34. If it be said "by either way."

The objector says that you may apply either of the principles; the Vedic text can be interpreted by either of them in the manner I have suggested.

न सर्वेषामधिकारः ॥ ३।७।३५॥

35. No, all are not entitled.

The author says that you can not make a general statement since all are not entitled to perform a sacrifice and become ऋत्विक्. It is therefore not a case of अवयुत्ववाद. When 12 is mentioned, 17 can include 8. As द्वादशकपाल may include अष्टाकपाल. This is अवयुत्ववाद. But in the present case 17 priests are directly mentioned and finally settled.

Adhikarana XVII Sūtrae 36 37 dealing with the subject that ब्रह्मा &c. who are mentioned in the text laying down initiation and donation are 17 in number.

नियमस्तु दक्षिणाभिः श्रुतिसंयोगात् ॥३७॥३६॥

36 On the other hand, there is a (नियम) restrictive rule by reason of the connection of the Vedic text with the donation.

The author says that by reason of the restrictive rule, the number of the ऋत्विक् is limited to 17 only. There is a text which mentions what donations are to be made to the different priests.

उक्त्वा च यजमानत्वं तेषां दीक्षाविधानात् ॥३७॥३७॥

37. And having described the position of the sacrificer by reason of the description of the initiation.

अध्वर्युर्गृहपतिं दीक्षयित्वा ब्रह्माणं दीक्षति । तनउद्गातारं । ततो होतारं । ततस्तं प्रति प्रस्थाता दीक्षयित्वा अर्द्धिना दीक्षयति । ब्राह्मणाच्छुशिनं ब्रह्मणः । प्रस्तोतारं उद्गातुः । मैत्रावरुणं होतुः । ततस्तंनेष्टा दीक्षयित्वा तृतीयिनो दीक्षयति । आग्नीध्रं ब्रह्मणः । प्रतिहतारं उद्गातुः । अच्छावाकं होतुः । ततस्तमुन्नेता दीक्षयित्वा पादिनो दीक्षयति । पोतारं ब्रह्मणः । सुब्रह्मण्यं उद्गातुः । प्रावस्तुतं होतुः । ततस्तं मन्थे ब्राह्मणो दीक्षयति । ब्रह्मचारी वाचायं प्रेषितः ॥ "Adwaryu after initiating the master of the house initiates ब्रह्मा then उद्गाता then होता, then प्रतिप्रस्थाता initiating him, initiates the second group, ब्रह्मणाच्छुशिनं from ब्रह्मा group, प्रस्तोतारं from उद्गाता group, मैत्रावरुणं from Hota group, then नेष्टा initiating him initiates the third group, आग्नीध्रं from ब्रह्मा group, प्रतिहतां from उद्गाता group, अच्छावाकं from होता group, then उन्नेता initiating him, initiates the 4th group, पोता from ब्रह्मा group, सुब्रह्मण्यं from उद्गाता group, प्रावस्तुतं from होता group, then another ब्राह्मण initiates him, either a religious student or one sent by the preceptor."

DESCRIPTION.

अध्वर्युगण	होतृगण	ब्रह्मगण	उद्गातृगण
अध्वर्यु	होता	ब्रह्मा	उद्गाता
प्रतिप्रस्थाता	मैत्रावरुण	ब्रह्मणाच्छंसी	प्रस्तीता
नेष्टा	अच्छावाक	आग्नीध्र	प्रतिहर्ता
उन्नेता	आवस्तुत्	पोता	सुब्रह्मण्य

Adhikarana XVIII. Dealing with the subject that the ऋत्विक् with the master are 17th number

स्वामिसप्तदशाः कर्मसामान्यात् ॥ ३।७।३८॥

38. The master completes the 17th number by reason of the function being common

We have seen in the preceding अधिकरण that there are only 16 ऋत्विक्. The author says that the sacrificer completes 17th number, because they all act with the common object सदस्य can not be the 17th number

Adhikarana XIX. Sutra 39-40 dealing with the subject that the sacrificial functions of the अध्वर्यु &c are restricted

ते सर्वार्थाः प्रयुक्तत्वादग्नयश्च स्वकालत्वात्

॥ ३।७।३९॥

ते they, सर्वार्थाः performing all duties, प्रयुक्तत्वात् by reason of the appointment, अग्नयः fires, च like, स्वकालत्वात् by reason of the fixed time.

39 By reason of their appointment, they perform all duties just as sacred fires by reason of their fixed time.

The objector says that though the ऋत्विक्s are appointed for separate functions yet they can perform all duties, he gives an illustration in support of his view, the fire is consecrated at its proper time, but it can be used for all sacrifices,

तत्सयोगात्कर्मणो व्यवस्था स्यात्संयोगास्यार्थव- त्वात् ॥ ३।७।४० ॥

40. By reason of its relationship, the arrangement of the duties has been made by reason of the significant power of the relationship.

The words and their etymology show that the functions of the different priests are separate. As for instance आध्वर्यवं, होत्रं, औद्गात्रं. This is the reply of our author to the पूर्वपक्ष view of the objector.

Adhikarana XX Sūtras 41-42 dealing with the subject that functions known from the etymology of the words are some times set aside

तस्योपदेशसमाख्यानेन निर्देशः ॥ ३।७।४१ ॥

41. Its nature is known from the direct statement and authoritative adjustment.

Sometimes there is a direct command by which a function is to be performed by a certain priest, the command overrides the etymology of the word, and sometimes the etymology is the guide. As for example तस्मान् मैत्रावरुणं प्रथमनिचानुवाह । पोत्रीयां नेष्टीयां ॥ (तै० सं० ३।१२।१।५) 'मैत्रावरुण' priest therefore gives commands and recites after, the verses of the Rig-veda called पोत्रीय and नेष्टीय which are generally recited by पोता and नेष्टा priests respectively.

तद्वच्च लिङ्गदर्शनम् ॥ ३।७।४२ ॥

42. And similarly by seeing the force of the text.

The author in support, relies on the text यत्र होतुः प्रातरनुवाकमनुवृत्त उपश्रुणुयात् ॥ उद्गीथ उद्गातृणां प्रणव उक्थं शंसिनां प्रतिहारो अध्वर्युणां ॥ योवा अध्वर्याः स्ववेदं स्थानेन भवति । (तै० सं० ३।१।२।३) "Where he ought to hear the होता reciting the morning अनुवाक, the उद्गीथ of the उद्गाता, the प्रणव with the पृक् verse of the उक्थ singers and प्रतिहार of अध्वर्यु's. He who knows the truth of the अध्वर्यु, becomes wealthy."

Adhikarana XXI Sūtras 43-46 dealing with the subject that the duties of the मैत्रावरुण priest are the after recitation and order that are described.

प्रैषाऽनुवचनं मैत्रावरुणस्योपदेशात् ॥ ३।७।४३ ॥

43. The command and after-repetition are the functions of the मैत्रावरुण, by reason of the direct Vedic text.

The objector says that there is a Vedic text तस्मात् मैत्रावरुणः प्रेषयितवानुवाह ॥ (See the translation in the commentary on सूत्र 12) Under this text the duties of the मैत्रावरुण is to give sacrificial command and to do the after-recitation

पुरोऽनुवाक्यधिकारो वा प्रेषसन्निधानात् ॥३।७।४४॥

44. On the other hand he has a right to पुरोनुवाक्य, by reason of the proximity with the sacrificial command.

The author says that the पुरोनुवाक्य and प्रेष are described in juxtaposition and the duty of the मैत्रावरुण is to repeat the पुरोनुवाक्य

प्रातरनुवाके च होतृदर्शनात् ॥ ३।७।४५ ॥

45. And in (the repetition of) प्रातरनुवाक, by seeing (the text authorising) the होतृ ।

The author in support of his view says that the होता is mentioned in some texts repeating the प्रातरनुवाक—“यत्र होतुः प्रातरनुवाकं मनुवुवन वरक्षुषुयात् तदा ऋष्युर्गृहीयात् ॥ “Where he ought to hear होता reciting the morning अनुवाक then ऋष्युर् should take it up” This shows that मैत्रावरुण is not entitled to all after-recitations

Adhikāṇa XXII Sūtras 46—49 dealing with the subject that in a चमसहोम an officiating priest is entitled to act

चमसांश्चमसाध्वर्यवः सामाख्यानात् ॥३।७।४६॥

46. The चमसाध्वर्यु's ought to make an oblation from the cups by reason of the authoritative adjustment

The objector says that when an oblation is to be made from the चमस cups a चमसाध्वर्यु should be engaged, because the etymology of the word shows it

अध्वर्युर्वा तन्नयायत्वात् ॥ ३।७।४७ ॥

47. On the other hand अध्वर्यु by reason of the principle.

The author says that you are not right, the अध्वर्यु who makes an oblation from the चमसा cup is a चमसाध्वर्यु; the अध्वर्यु is therefore principal and चमसाध्वर्यु is subordinate. The principal predominates over the subordinate.

चमसे चान्यदर्शनात् ॥ ३।७।४८ ॥

48. And in a चमस cup, by seeing other (priest).

The author gives an additional reason in support of his view; he says that other priests also offer oblations from the चमस cups.

चमसांश्चमसाध्वर्यवेमयच्छति । तान् सवषट् कर्त्रे हरति । योवाध्वर्योः स्ववे- दस्त्वामेष भवति । स्रुत्वा अध्वर्योः स्ववायव्यमस्य स्वचमसोऽस्यस्व ॥ "He hands over the chamasa cups to the चमसाध्वर्युः, he passes on to the reciter of वषट्, one who knows the truth of अध्वर्युः, verily becomes wealthy. The स्रुक् belongs to अध्वर्युः; it is dedicated to वायु the चमस cup belongs to him."

अशक्तौ ते प्रतीयेरन् ॥ ३।७।४९ ॥

49. In weakness, they are to be recognised,

The चमस cups belong to the sacrificer and the अध्वर्यु's use them, if the अध्वर्यु's are incapable of using them, then चमसाध्वर्यु's, are to be engaged Āthikarapa XVIII. Sūtras 50-51 Dealing with the subject that श्वेन & वाजपेय are to be performed by many

वेदोपदेशात्पूर्ववद्वेदान्यत्वे यथोपदेशं स्युः ॥ ३।७।५० ॥

50. By reason of the direct statement in the Veda like the preceding; if it be otherwise in the Veda, it should be according to the direction.

The objector says that if there is any thing described in the Veda under a certain chapter, you may be guided by समाख्या. As for instance under the chapter of औद्गात्र, the श्वेनयाग and in the chapter of आध्वर्यव the वाजपेय are described. By the principle of समाख्या, the वाजपेय is to be performed by the अध्वर्यु and श्वेनयाग is to be performed by the उद्गाता. When on the other hand, in the Veda no other description is given, then it should be performed according to the direction, the principle of समाख्या is not applicable

तद्गुणाद्वा स्वधर्मः स्यादधिकारसामर्थ्यात्सह- गैरव्यक्तः शेषे ॥ ३।७।५१ ॥

51. Or by accepting it, there is one's duty; by virtue of the बोद्ध text, it should be along with the constituent parts; in the rest indeterminate.

There are 4 parts of the sūtra, in the first part the author gives a flat denial, in the second part, it is said that if there is a direct statement it lays down a rule and it should be complied with, as prescribed: in the third part he says that by virtue of the चोदक text, the duty should be performed with all its constituent parts. When, 4thly there are no such direct texts or चोदक texts, then you may be guided by समाख्या. This recapitulates the whole discussion of the chapter.

शबर says that by accepting the details of the model sacrifice, it becomes connected with the चोदकवाक्य and by virtue of it, you have to perform all the details. As the ज्योतिष्टोम is the model sacrifice, it should be followed and many ऋत्विक्s should perform the वाजपेय and श्वेनयाग. This sūtra is very obscure.

END OF THE PĀDA VII.

— O —

PĀDA VIII

Adhikaraṇa I. Sūtras 1-2 dealing with the subject that hiring is the duty of the master.

स्वामिकर्मपरिक्रयः कर्मणस्तदर्थत्वात् ॥३॥८१॥

1. The duty of the master is hiring, because the sacrifice is for his sake.

The author says that it is the sacrificer who engages the ऋत्विक्s, because the sacrifice in which the priests are engaged is to secure his object.

वचनादितरेषां स्यात् ॥ ३ । ८ । २ ॥

2. By a direct text of others also.

The power of appointment originally vests in the sacrificer but sometimes the अध्वर्युः can also appoint a ऋत्विक्; it is only when there is a direct Vedic text.

Adhikaraṇa II. Sūtras 3-8 Dealing with the subject that the purificatory acts such as shaving of the head &c. belong to the sacrificer.

संस्कारास्तु पुरुषसामर्थ्ये यथावेदं कर्मवद्वयव- तिष्ठेरन् ॥ ३ । ८ । ३ ॥

3. On the other hand the purificatory ceremonies are in human power ; they are to be performed according to the Veda like the sacrificial act.

The objector says that as अश्वत्^१ priest performs the sacrifice according to the Veda, so the purificatory ceremonies should also be performed on him, these ceremonies produce certain power in him. It is he who goes through the elaborate ceremony and it is he who should be shaved &c.

दंतो धावते । केशश्मधुवपते । नखानि निकृन्तते.....स्नाति ॥ (तै० सं० ६।१।१२)
"He cleans his teeth, shaves his hair and beard, pares off his nails and takes his bath "

याजमानास्तु तत्प्रधानत्वात्कर्मवत् ॥ ३ । ८ । ४ ॥

4. On the other hand, of the sacrificer ; because he is principal like the sacrifice.

The author says that the purificatory ceremonies are to be performed on the sacrificer, because he is principal and the fruit of the sacrifice accrues to him.

व्यपदेशाच्च ॥ ३ । ८ । ५ ॥

5. And by reason of the designation.

The author says that we also find in the text quoted in the commentary on sūtra 3, that the आत्मनेपद form of the verb is used. The reason is that the fruit accrues to the sacrificer. The परस्मैपद indicates the act is to be done for another

गुणत्वे तस्य निर्देशः ॥ ३ । ८ । ६ ॥

6. It is prescribed in the case of being subordinate.

In a sacrifice persons and materials are used and upon both of them purificatory ceremonies are performed. When the purificatory ceremonies are performed upon a person they are principal but when they are performed upon the materials they are subordinate. The author says in the सूत्र that the application of समाख्या is in the case of the subordinate but not in the case of the principal

चोदना प्रति भावाच्च ॥ ३ । ८ । ७ ॥

7. And by reason of the connection with चोदना or the extraordinary principle.

The author gives an additional reason. There are several preparatory acts performed in a sacrifice upon the materials and the persons. The अपूर्व is the extraordinary principle which is obtained. The materials in a sacrifice serve the purpose in two ways, one set subserves the purpose directly, they are आरादुपकारक and others serve the purpose indirectly, they are सञ्चिपात्योपकारक. As for instance in a dinner the food that is taken is आरादुपकारक and the table and chairs are सञ्चिपात्योपकारक. So in the same way the preparatory ceremonies are performed on the persons. The यजमान is directly connected with the अपूर्व and the ऋत्विक्, who are employed, are indirectly connected. So according to the Mīmāṃsā rules, the संस्कारs are to be performed upon the principal person and material in the first instance and then upon the subordinate person and materials afterwards. The author therefore says that according to this principle also, यजमान who is directly connected with the अपूर्व should have the purificatory ceremony performed upon himself first.

अतुल्यत्वादसमानविधानाः स्युः ॥ ३ । ८ । ८ ॥

8. By reason of the inequality, the directions are not of similar nature.

The functions of the sacrificer and the ऋत्विक् are different; a ऋत्विक् can not perform the functions of a यजमान. So there is an inequality in their position, the functions of a यजमान are principal and those of a ऋत्विक् are subordinate. So the यजमान is principal in relation to the अपूर्व. There are different duties laid down for them.

Adhikaraṇa III. Sūtras 9-11 dealing with the subject that the sacrificer is entitled to perform austerities.

तपश्च फलसिद्धित्वात्लोकवत् ॥ ३ । ८ । ९ ॥

9. And the austerities, by reason of obtaining the fruit as in ordinary life.

द्वयहनाश्नाति । त्र्यहनाश्नाति. He does not eat for two days, he does not eat for three days" The question is who is to observe these fasts. The author says that as the यजमान obtains the fruit of the sacrifice, he is to practise austerities just as in common life we see that persons who derive the benefit, do the act.

वाक्यशेषश्च तद्वत् ॥ ३ । ८ । १० ॥

10. And filling up of the ellipsis is like that.

The completion of a sentence in the text which supports the view and is also like it, वाक्यशेष therefore completes a sentence or its sense. A principle is laid down and the argument which supports it, is वाक्यशेष.

यदावैदुषे न किञ्चनार्तमिति । यदास्य कृष्णचक्षुषोऽनश्यति । मयमेध्यतमः । यदा अनशनं तदा मेवाहः । मेवश्च यज्ञोयज्ञश्चत्यागः । त्यागं कर्तुमर्हः तपसा क्रियते ॥ "When in a person there is nothing inside, when the blackness of his sight is destroyed, he is most fit for a sacrifice, when fasting, he is fit for a sacrifice. A sacrifice is holy; a sacrifice is relinquishment, in order to make one fit for relinquishment, it is done by austerities" It also shows that a यजमान is to practise austerities.

11. By a direct text, of others also.

The author says that ऋत्विक्स also practise austerities if there is a direct text of the Veda सर्वे ऋत्विज इव वसन्ति "All the ऋत्विक्स fast"

Adhikarana IV. dealing with the subject that आकीर्णा is to be set aside wearing of the red turbans &c. are the duties of the priests

गुणत्वाच्च वेदेन न व्यवस्था स्यात् ॥ ३ । ८ । १२ ॥

12. And by reason of its being subordinate, there is no adjustment by means of the Veda.

लोहितोष्णीषा लोहितवसना ऋत्विजः प्रचरन्ति । हिरण्यमालिन ऋत्विजः प्रचरन्ति ॥ "ऋत्विक्स wearing red turbans and red clothes perform a sacrifice, the ऋत्विक्स putting on gold neck-ornaments perform a sacrifice." In the Veda, the प्रधान and गुण are described. The समाख्या applies to the description of the principal and it is of no use in the description of गौण. It is by the authoritative Vedic text that a गुण is described. There in the text quoted, the ऋत्विक् is principal and red turbans are subordinate. So you can not take the help of समाख्या; but you can only by the direct authority determine the nature of the गौण.

Śabar says that in a श्वेनयाम it is laid down that लोहितोष्णीष..... प्रचरति ॥ and in a वाजपेय it is laid down that हिरण्यमालिन..... प्रचरति ॥ The question arises whether the red turban is to be worn exclusively by the उद्गाता and gold necklace by the भध्वर्ष only because the श्वेन sacrifice is in the सामवेद and वाजपेय is in the यजुर्वेद. The author says that because it is a subordinate act, you can not determine it by means of a समाख्या of a particular Veda. The direct text is that all priests should wear the red turban and gold necklace

Adhikarana V Sūtras 13—14 dealing with the subject that the desire for rain pertains to the sacrificer.

तथा कामोऽर्थसंयोगात् ॥ ३ । ८ । १३ ॥

13. And similarly desire, by reason of the connection with the object.

यदि कामयेत वर्षेत् पर्जन्यः । नीचैः सदोमिनुयात् । ज्योतिष्टोमेन स्वर्गकामो यजेत ॥ “If one wishes that rain may fall, he shall measure the place for a low shed, one who is desirous of heaven should sacrifice with ज्योतिष्टोम ”

The desire of a sacrificer is fulfilled, it is he who is connected with the desire. If the desire is to have a rain-fall it is the यजमान who should perform the sacrifice

व्यपदेशादितरेषां स्यात् ॥ ३ । ८ । १४ ॥

14. By designation of others also

The author says that others can have also their desires fulfilled, if there is a direct vedic text उद्गाता आत्मने वा यजमानाय वा यकामं कामयते सामागायति । “An उद्गाता for himself or for his client sings with the wished for object.”

Adhikarana VI Sūtras 15—16 dealing with the subject that the mantras commencing with आयुर्दा are connected with the sacrificer

मन्त्राश्चाऽकर्मकरणास्तद्वत् ॥ ३ । ८ । १५ ॥

15. And the mantras which do not describe the sacrificial acts are likewise,

There are two sorts of mantras, one class lays down the sacrificial act and the other consists of chanting मन्त्रs and are called अकर्मकरा in the sūtra. The author says about these मन्त्रs, that they are connected with the sacrificer like the act stated in the preceding अधिकरण. “आयुर्दा जग्नेत्ता पुर्वदेहि चोदाग्नेनेति चोदेहि ॥ (तै० सं० १/५/५/४) “O ! Agni, giver of life give me life. O! fire giver of light, give me light" These मंत्रs are given in the ऋत्विक्कांड and so by the principle of समारूपा these verses would belong to the officiating priests, but as they describe the fruit which is connected with the sacrificer, they belong to the sacrificer.

विप्रयोगे च दर्शनात् ॥ ३ । ८ । १६ ॥

16. And by seeing on separation.

The author gives a reason that when the यजमान is travelling, he praises fire (अग्न्युपस्थान) These उपस्थान मंत्रs are in the chapter on ऋत्विक् but they belong to the sacrificer. The result is that the अकर्मकरा mantras belong to the यजमान.

Adhikarana VII. Dealing with the subject that a mantra twice repeated in the Veda is to be used by both.

द्वयाम्नातेषूभौ द्वयाम्नातस्याऽर्थवत्त्वात् ॥३॥८॥१७॥

17. When a mantra is repeated twice, it is to be used by both because there is a purpose in the repetition

There are some मंत्रs which are read in the यजमानकांड and repeated in the आचर्यवकांड The author says that such मंत्रs are to be used by both the sacrificer and the priest.

Adhikarana VII. Dealing with the subject that it is only the literate who is entitled to pronounce the mantras.

ज्ञाते च वाचनं न ह्यविद्वान्विहितोऽस्ति ॥३॥८॥१८॥

18. And in a literate, there is the repetition of the mantras ; because an illiterate is nowhere permitted.

The author says that if the sacrificer is a literate person, he can then pronounce the vedic mantras during the performance of the sacrifice but an illiterate person is nowhere permitted.

हृत्प्रीत्यजमानंवाचयति । उज्जित्प्रीत्यजमानंवाचयति ॥

A priest should make the यजमान repeat हृत्प्री मंत्र and उज्जित्प्री मंत्रs. See White यजुर्वेद 9. 21. आयुर्वेदेनकरवताम् &c. These are called हृत्प्री मंत्रs and the mantras commencing from 9 31 of White यजुर्वेद are called उज्जित्प्री मंत्रs.

Adhikarana IX. Sūtras 19 20 dealing with the subject that 12 sets of utensils are connected with the functions of an अथर्वयु

गाजमाने समारूयानात्कर्माणि याजमानं स्युः ॥३॥८॥१९॥

19. By reason of being described in the याजमानकांड, the sacrificial acts pertain to the sacrificer.

The Veda is divided into कांडs, in some of them the duties of the sacrificer are described, it is called याजमानकांड and there is another कांड in which the duties of the अध्वर्यु are detailed, it is called अध्वर्यवकांड. There are certain functions connected with the sacrificial utensils which are mentioned in the याजमानकांड. The objector says that these duties are to be performed by the यजमान as they occur in यजमान section of the Veda by the principle called समाख्या

अध्वर्युर्वा तदर्थो हि न्यायपूर्वं समाख्यानम् ॥३॥२०॥

20. On the other hand, अध्वर्यु; it is for him and the समाख्या is based on reason.

The author says that you are wrong, the अध्वर्यु should perform all these duties because he has been engaged and appointed on fee for that purpose, the principle of समाख्या is based on reason and it is applicable when there is no other proof available. Here we have a direct text that the अध्वर्यु is hired by the sacrificer

Adhikāṇa X Dealing with the subject that a होता is to perform the duties of an अध्वर्यु.

विप्रतिषेधे करणः समावायविशेषादितरमन्यस्तेषां
यतो विशेषः स्यात् ॥ ३ । ८ । २१ ॥

21. On conflict, the performance is by reason of special connection; the other by another out of them because there is a distinction.

The sūtra is divided into three parts. The first part says that it is laid down that a Hotā is to perform the duty of an अध्वर्यु, how can a होता perform two functions? In the first part it is therefore said that a होता is to perform the duties of an अध्वर्यु. The second part says that out of so many कृत्विक्s any कृत्विक् may perform the duty of the होता, when the latter acts for the अध्वर्यु. The third part says that this distinction should be maintained because a होता can not perform two duties. In अजोतिहोम, two functions are performed, the animal's cord is tied round a शूष by the अध्वर्यु and the होता repeats the mantra. In connection with the कुंडापाविनपञ्च there is a Vedic text यो होता सोऽध्वर्युः. The Hotā is, Adhvaryu. The Hotā therefore ties the cord round the सूय. In this view as expressed in the सूत्र, another ऋत्विक् repeats the mantra instead of the Hotā.

Adhikaraṇa XI. Dealing with the subject that the command and carrying out of the command are to be performed by separate persons.

त्रैवेणु च पराधिकारात् ॥ ३ । ८ । २२ ॥

22. And in commands by reason of another's right.

प्रोक्षणीरासादय । इक्ष्मावर्हि रूपसादय । क्षुचः संमृद्धि । पत्नी संनह्य ग्राज्येनेदेहि.
“Place प्रोक्षणी (water-vessels, place the sacrificial fuel and grass; wash ladle, having girded the loins of the sacrificer's wife rise with the clarified butter”

These texts occur in अध्वर्यवकोट. By the principle of समाख्या it will appear that both the commands and carrying out of them are to be performed by the अध्वर्यु, but this is simply absurd. One priest is to give order and the other is to carry it out. This is what the sūtra lays down, the reason is obvious ; one is dependent on the other.

Adhikaraṇa XII, Sūtras 23-24 dealing with the subject that the command and carrying out of the command are to be performed by the अध्वर्यु and अग्नीध्र respectively.

अध्वर्युस्तु दर्शनात् ॥ ३ । ८ । २३ ॥

23. On the other hand, अध्वर्यु by seeing the Vedic text.

The objector says that the अध्वर्यु is to carry out orders and the अग्नीध्र is to give them. He relies on the following texts.

वज्रोवैस्पया । तदन्वंचधारयेत् वज्रोऽध्वर्युः क्षणवोत ॥ पुनस्तात् तिर्यञ्चं धारयति ॥ (तै० ब्र० ३।२।१०।१) “Wooden sword is certainly a thunderbolt, when he may hold it upwards, in a thunder-bolt an अध्वर्यु perishes, he holds it in front and slantingly.”

गौणो वा कर्मसामान्यात् ॥ ३ । ८ । २४ ॥

24. On the other hand, it is subordinate by reason of the function being the same.

The author says in reply that you are mistaken, the word अध्वर्यु is used in the secondary sense in the text quoted by you, because the function is the same; the अध्वर्यु gets it done by the अग्नीध्र priest. It is done by his command, so it is his act.

Aḍhikaraṇa XIII. Sūtras 25-27 dealing with the subject that in the करणमंत्र the reward for the master is hoped for.

ऋत्विक्फलं करणेष्वर्थत्वात् ॥ ३ । ८ । २५ ॥

25. Inकरणमंत्र's, there is the reward of the ऋत्विक्; because it is for his purpose.

There are two kinds of मंत्र (1) करणमंत्र and (2) अकर्मकरणमंत्र. The former regulates the sacrificial operation, the latter is chanted in course of a sacrificial operation. There is a text which says that a ऋत्विक् should say ममाग्ने वर्चो विद्महेष्वस्तु. (तै० सं० ४।१।१४।१) "O! fire, let there be my splendour in the offerings" Here the ऋत्विक् wishes splendour for himself. The objector says that the fruit of the करणमंत्र accrues to the priest because it is he who performs the sacrifice.

स्वामिनो वा तदर्थत्वात् ॥ ३ । ८ । २६ ॥

26. On the other hand, of the master by reason of its being for him.

The author says that it is the master for whom the sacrifice is performed, so he gets the fruit. Though the ऋत्विक् repeats the mantra, yet the splendour referred to in the मंत्र is the splendour of the sacrificer. Though the victory is of the general, yet every individual forming the army considers it his own victory.

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ ३ । ८ । २७ ॥

27. And by seeing the force of the text.

The author supports his view by the Vedic text. वादेकांचन ऋत्विज आशिव-माशासते यजमानस्य एवताः "Whatever desire a ऋत्विक् hopes for, it is of his client." It is technically called वर्चोन्याय.

Aḍhikaraṇa XIV. Sūtras 28-29 dealing with the subject that in the करणमंत्र, the fruit of the actions accrues to the priest.

कर्मार्थं फलं तेषां स्वामिनं प्रत्यर्थवत्त्वात् ॥३।८।२८॥

28. On the other hand, their reward is the success of the sacrificial act by reason of its being for the purpose of the master.

The reward of the sacrifice accrues to the यजमान but where the object is to achieve the act itself, it is the reward of the priest. The reward of the principal act is to accrue to the sacrifice. The reward of the subordinate acts accrues to the priests अग्नाविष्णू मावायवक्मिष्व निजि- हर्षा मा मा संताप्त ॥ (सं० सं० ११११२११) "O ! Agni and Visnu, I have not crossed you, be separated for my passage, do not trouble me "

व्यपदेशाच्च ॥ ३।८।२६ ॥

29. And by the designation also.

The ऋत्विक् also gets a fruit, if there is special mention of it किमत्रभद्रं तदनीसह । (सं० सं० १११२११) "What good is there? Let it be for us both "

Adhikarana XV Dealing with the subject that the preparatory rites on the materials subserve the purpose of the constituent parts and the principal

द्रव्यसंस्कारः प्रकारणाऽविशेषात्सर्वकर्मणाम् ॥३।८।३०॥

30. The purificatory ceremony on the materials by reason of there being no speciality in the context, belongs to all sacrificial acts

The author says that in the context no distinction is made in describing the sacrificial acts. The purificatory ceremonies that are performed on the materials serve two purposes, one that of a constituent part consisting in a sacrificial substance and the other that of the whole sacrifice.
When the purpose of the constituent part is served, the purpose of the whole sacrifice is served.

Adhikarana XVI Dealing with the subject that the extraordinary principle of the model sacrifice does not belong to the modified sacrifice based upon the same

निर्देशात्तु विकृतावपूर्वस्याऽनधिकारः ॥३।८।३१॥

31. On the other hand, by the direct Vedic statement the extraordinary principle does not apply to the modified sacrifice.

There are three model sacrifices, दर्शपूर्णमासयाग, निरुद्ध पशुबन्ध and ज्योतिष्टोम.
The modifications are 1 इष्टी 2 पशुयाम 3 संस्था. The पशुबन्ध includes many of the operations of दर्शपूर्णमास and ज्योतिष्टोम includes many of the operations of the first two mentioned above. These operations as said are included in the model sacrifices but not in their modifications; if they are included, there will be two extraordinary principles which is absurd.
So the author says that the extraordinary principle does not apply to the modified sacrifice. Hence no subordinate operation or preparatory operations connected with the दसैर्गुणमासयाम्, can be extended to the modified sacrifice or पशुवच or ज्योतिहोम.

Adhikarana XVII, Dealing with the subject that विष्टति and पवित्रा should be made of परिमोजनीय दर्भा grass.

विरोधे च श्रुतिविशेषादव्यक्तः शेषे ॥ ३।८। ३२॥

32. On the conflict, by reason of the special text and the indirect in the remainder.

The दर्भा grass is brought from the jungle, it is sacrificially operated upon. The grass that is not sacrificially operated upon is called परिमोजनीय दर्भा grass. In the Veda, it is said that the altar should be covered with the purified grass but nothing is said about the making of the पवित्रा and विष्टति. It is silent as to which kind of grass, they should be made of. This is the conflict, the author says that where there is a conflict the direct text prevails i. e. the altar should be covered with the purified darbha grass but in the case where it is silent, the other common grass should be used i. e. the पवित्रा and विष्टति should be made from the परिमोजनीय grass.

“सनावप्रच्छिन्नाग्रौदर्भौ प्रादेशमात्रौ पवित्रे करोति । अरन्ति मात्रे विष्टति ।”

“Two front stems of grass, equal and uncovered to the extent of a span are called पवित्रा, if they are one cubit in extent they are called विष्टति”

Adhikarana XVIII Dealing with placing of the पुरोडाश cake of the model sacrifice.

अपनयस्त्वेकदेशस्य विद्यमानसंयोगात् ॥ ३।८। ३३॥

33. On the other hand, the transference is of a portion by reason of the connection with the one existing.

“पुरोडाश शकलं वैद्य वायव्यपात्रे निदधाति” “धानाशान्नपात्रे” “पयसां मैत्रावरुणपात्रे”

“He places a piece of पुरोडाश in the vessel belonging to Indra and Vāyu; parched rice in the vessel belonging to Aśvinas, and prepared milk in the vessel belonging to मैत्रावरुण dieties”

We hear these texts in connection with the ज्योतिहोम sacrifice. Now the question is whether the slice of a पुरोडाश cake that is to be placed in the वायव्य vessel should be taken from the cake prepared for the model sacrifice or another cake should be prepared as laid down in the preceding अधिकांश. The author says that the principle laid down in the preceding ~~sacrifice~~, does not apply. There will be a transference, because there is already a cake existing. Why should another cake be prepared?

Adhikaraṇa XIX. Sūtras 31-35. Dealing with the subject that the desire-accomplishing sacrifice belongs to the principal at low pronunciation of the mantras.

विकृतौ सर्वार्थः शेषः प्रकृतिवत् ॥३॥८॥३४॥

84. In a modified sacrifice, the subordinate acts fulfill all objects as in a model sacrifice.

"यद्वाप्यवर्ण्यै काम्या इहयः ता उपायुर्कर्तव्याः ।"

"All the desire-accomplishing sacrifices are वर्ण्य, they should be performed inaudibly."

The objector says that the विकृति is to be performed like the प्रकृति. Just as the preparation of the altar and the clarified butter are for both the constituent parts and the principal in the model sacrifice, so they are also in the modified sacrifice. The शेष is all accomplishing, both for the constituent parts and the principal. The purificatory ceremony is both for the principal and its parts. Low reading of the Vedic mantras belongs both to the principal and its constituent parts.

मुख्यार्थो वाऽङ्गस्याचोदितत्वात् ॥३॥८॥३५॥

85. On the other hand, it is for the principal because the constituent parts are not directly mentioned.

The author says no; you are mistaken. The कान्धेहि have certain objects in view. The principal and subordinate acts are performed. The principal act leads to the end in view, while the "subordinate" acts subserve the principal. The Vedas describe the principal act and at low reading in the course of the कान्धेहि pertains to the principal.

Adhikaraṇa XX. Sūtras 36-38. Dealing with the subject that the constituent part of श्वेन is to be performed with butter.

सन्निधानाविशेषादसम्भवेदतदंगानाम् ॥३॥८॥३६॥

86. On impossibility, by the reason of the special juxtaposition; its constituent parts.

"The श्वेनयान is a sacrifice which is performed to destroy an enemy. In this, altars are erected in the form of hawks. By the force of the principle called 'order' the butter comes in place of soma in the श्येनयाग ; but it is impossible to perform it with ghee alone and soma juice is absolutely necessary. The author says in such a case the constituent parts should be performed with ghee

आधानेऽपि तथेति चेत् ॥ ३।८।३७॥

37. If it be said "similary in अग्न्याधान".

The objector says that a पवमानेष्टि is performed for Agnyadhana and अग्न्याधान is for श्येनयाग. The conclusion is that the पवमानेष्टि is for the sake of श्येनयाग. It is therefore a constituent part of the श्येनयाग. The result from your proposition is that butter should be used in a पवमानेष्टि.

नाऽप्रकरणत्वादङ्गस्यातन्निमित्तत्वात् ॥३।८।३८॥

38. Not so, by reason of the context being not similar ; because the constituent parts are for the principal

The author says that the श्येनयाग and अग्न्याधान do not occur in the same context and they can not stand in relationship to each other as a part to the whole. The parts constitute the whole, but the अग्न्याधान is not a part of the श्येनयाग

Adhikāṇya XX. Sūtras 39-41 dealing with the subject that all the constituent parts of the श्येनयाग should be performed with butter.

तत्काले वा लिङ्गदर्शनात् ॥ ३।८।३९॥

39. On the other hand, at the time by seeing the force of the text.

The objector says that at the time of extraction of soma juice, some offerings are made to the fire. These offering should be of butter,

सर्वेषां वाऽविशेषात् ॥ ३।८।४०॥

40. On the other hand, of all, by reason of there being nothing special.

The butter should be used in all the constituent parts of the श्येनयाग and the texts quoted below mentions nothing special about it.

"अङ्गययता समते । अग्नीषोमीयस्य आनेऽग्निषोमीय पुरोडाशः । अनुषङ्गायाः आने षोडशोमीयस्य" ॥

"He offers with animals; in the place of ~~अग्नीषोमीय~~ animal's cakes pertaining to Agni and Soma should be used; in the place of ~~अग्नीषोमीय~~ sacrificial animal a cake pertaining to ~~सर्वनीय~~ dieties should be used."

न्यायोक्ते लिङ्गदर्शनम् ॥ ३ । ८ । ४१ ॥

41. The inference from the text is based on reason.

The author says that you rely on the inference from the text. "It is based on reason. No inference can be made from the text quoted by you in your favour."

Adhikarapa. XII.1. Sūtras 41-44 dealing with the subject that the ~~सर्वनीय~~ पुरोडाश is made of flesh

मांसं तु सर्वनीयानां चोदनाविशेषात् ॥ ३ । ८ । ४२ ॥

42. On the other hand, the ~~सर्वनीय~~ cakes are of flesh by reason of a special text.

संस्थिते संस्थितेऽहनि गृहपतिर्गयां याति । सतत्रयान् मृगाञ् हतिर्त्विषां तरसा पुरोडाशः सर्वनीयामवर्ति ॥

"In each departure of the day, a master of the house goes a-hunting; with the flesh of those deers which he kills there, the cakes are made"

The sacrifice of the Śākyaś lasts for 36 years; in connection with this it, is stated that the ~~सर्वनीय~~ cakes are of flesh. Now the question is whether, all the cakes are of flesh or only the ~~सर्वनीय~~ cakes are made of flesh. The author's reply is that only ~~सर्वनीय~~ cakes should be made of flesh as it is specially mentioned in the text

भक्तिरसन्निधावन्याय्येति चेत् ॥ ३ । ८ । ४३ ॥

43. "Metonymy is improper when there is no juxtaposition if you say.

The objector says that a पुरोडाश cake is made of rice flour; if you substitute flesh for rice, it is a case of metonymy. The metonymy is applicable when things are described in order; such is not the case here and the principle of metonymy is therefore not applicable.

स्यात्प्रकृतिलिङ्गाद्वैराजवत् ॥ ३ । ८ । ४४ ॥

44. It may be by reason of the signs of the model sacrifice like वैराज.

PŪRVA MĪMĀMSĀ.

इक्यवैवेक्यसामा एकविंश षोडशी वैराज सामा ।

"The song called वैरूप belongs to इक्य, there are twenty one songs in a षोडशी sacrifice known as वैराज."

There in the vedic text वैराज is used but instead of वैराजसाम, वैराजपुष्ट is sung. So by the principle of metonymy वैराजसाम stands for वैराजपुष्ट. In the same way in the आक्यानामयनं, fish cakes are prepared in the place of rice cakes.

END OF PĀDA VIII.

END OF CHAPTER III

CHAPTER IV.

PĀDA I

Preliminary Introduction.

In the third chapter भुति, लिङ्ग, वाक्य, प्रकरण, स्थान, समाख्या, and शक्ति have been defined. The author now proceeds to show the difference between पुरुषार्थः and कर्त्तव्यः. Subsidiary action is कर्त्तव्यः, and the principal one is पुरुषार्थः. फलविधिः is पुरुषार्थः and अर्थवादः is कर्त्तव्यः.

Adhikaraṇa I laying down the proposition for enquiry.

अथातः कर्त्तव्यपुरुषार्थयोजिज्ञासा ॥ ४ । १ । १ ॥

अथ now ; अतः therefore ; कर्त्तव्यं पुरुषार्थयोः of the कर्त्तव्यः and पुरुषार्थः ; जिज्ञासा enquiry.

1. Now therefore is the enquiry about कर्त्तव्यं and पुरुषार्थः.

This sūtra lays down a प्रतिज्ञा a kind of promise on the part of the author as to what he is going to deal in the chapter.

Adhikaraṇa II dealing with the definition of कर्त्तव्यः and पुरुषार्थः ।

यस्मिन्प्रीतिः पुरुषस्य तस्य लिप्साऽर्थलक्षणाऽवि-
भक्तत्वात् ॥ ४ । १ । २ ॥

यस्मिन् in which ; प्रीतिः love, desire , पुरुषस्य of a man ; तस्य of that , लिप्सा desire ; अर्थलक्षणा indicated by or dependent upon certain object ; अविभक्त-त्वात् on account of its being inseparable.

2. (पुरुषार्थः is that) in which there is a love of a man and that love is indicated by (a certain) object (which is) inseparably connected (with it.)

The author defines पुरुषार्थः. It is a natural prompting of a man to obtain certain object without any scriptural command to that effect. The action so prompted is called पुरुषार्थः ; and the opposite is called कर्त्तव्यः ।

Adhikaraṇa III. Sūtra 3 ३ प्रजापति उक्तः is Puruṣārtha.

तदुत्सर्गे कर्माणि पुरुषार्थाय शास्त्रस्यानतिशङ्क्यत्वान्न
च द्रव्यं त्रिकीर्ष्यते तेनार्थे नाभिसम्बन्धात्क्रियायां पुरुष-श्रुतिः ॥ ४ । १ । ३ ॥

'तदुत्सर्गे' there being no love ; कर्माणि actions ; पुरुषार्थाय are for पुरुषार्थः ; शास्त्रस्य of the scripture , अनतिशङ्क्यत्वात् of being infallible , नच not ; द्रव्यम् material substance , त्रिकीर्ष्यते produced or purified , तेन by that , अर्थेन with the object , अभिसंबन्धात् by connection ; क्रियायाम् in an action , पुरुष श्रुतिः direct signification that it is पुरुषार्थः ।

3. (There are) actions in which there is no natural prompting (but are done, on account of the infallibility of the scripture ; nor is there any material substance purified (but) in an action it is connected with the object (and also) there is a direct signification that it is पुरुषार्थः ।

In the preceding Ahīkaraṇa पुरुषार्थः is defined as the action' of a person which is naturally prompted by his desires , in the present Adhīkaraṇa, the author says that there are certain actions which are not so prompted nor is there any material substance purified but they are done under the command of the scripture and they are said to be पुरुषार्थः The illustration is given "नोद्यतमादित्य etc. He should not see the rising sun ; nor the setting sun because that delivers him from the sin ; this is his vow." The question is whether this sentence is पुरुषार्थः. The negative action enjoined is not prompted by a natural love for it nor is any material substance produced , because it is laid down that by refraining from seeing the rising and setting sun, a man becomes free from sin, it should therefore be done. Because the benefit is to accrue to the performer, it is therefore पुरुषार्थः ।

अविशेषात् there being no distinction , तु again ; शास्त्रस्य of the scripture ; यथाश्रुति according to the text , फलानि fruits , स्युः shall be.

4. Again there being no distinction of the passages of the scripture, the fruits shall accrue as described in the text (of the Veda).

The siddhānta is laid down in Sūtra 3, the objector comes forward with another passage of Taittirīya Samhitā "समिधो यजति तद्वृषपात् यजति, तै० सं० १. ६. १. १. नावृतं वदेन ॥ तै० सं० २. ५. ५. ६. "He makes an offering into Samidha ; he makes an offering in Tanūnapāt. He shall not tell a lie." "If that be your view," says the objector, "upon your reasoning the passage from the Taittirīya Samhitā is also a पुरुषार्थः, because the scripture makes no distinction and the rewards accrue according to the text laid down in the Veda." The reply is embodied in the next sūtra.

अपि वा कारणाऽग्रहणे तदर्थमर्थस्याऽनभिसम्बन्धात्

॥ ४ । १ । ५ ॥

अपिवा not so ; कारणाग्रहणे on not accepting the cause , तदर्थम् the object of a person , अर्थस्य of the object ; अनभिसम्बन्धात् being not connected.

5. Not so ; on not accepting the cause, there is the object of a person ; the object being not connected (with the cause).

The reply of the author to the objector is that it is not so ; when the six modes of interpretation mentioned in Chapter III, as श्रुति, लिङ्ग, वाक्य, प्रकरण, स्थान, and समाख्या do not apply, the text should be considered पुरुषार्थः. As the text quoted from the Taittirīya Samhitā can be interpreted by any of the modes, it is कृत्वर्थं and serves the purpose of the sacrifice.

तथा च लोकभूतेषु ॥ ४ । १ । ६. ॥

तथा similarly च and , लोकभूतेषु in the conduct of worldly affairs.

6. And similarly in the conduct of the worldly affairs.

The author concludes the Adhikarāṇa and strengthens his view by giving the example of the worldly action. We see that the principal action is the main object which a person aims at and there are other minor actions which lead to the principal action and are therefore considered subordinate.

Adhikarāṇa IV Sūtras 7—10 relating to the sacrificial materials being restated.

द्रव्याणि त्वविशेषेणाऽनर्थक्यात्प्रदीयेरन् ॥ ४ । १ । ७ ॥

द्रव्याणि materials , तु again , अविशेषेण without any particular description, अनर्थक्यात् on account of meaninglessness , प्रदीयेरन् should be offered.

7. Again materials should, without any distinction, be offered (in the fire to avoid) meaninglessness.

The pūrvapakṣa view embodied in this sūtra is based on the preceding Adhikarāṇa ; there is a passage of the Taittirīya Samhitā:

स्पर्शश्चकपालानिचाग्निं होत्र हवणी च शूर्पञ्च कृष्णाजिनं च शय्या चोदूलञ्च
च मुसलञ्च दूषध्वोपलाचैतानिवै दश यज्ञा युधानि ॥ तै० सं० १. ६. ८ ३.

"The wooden spade, cups, sacrificial dishes, a winnowing fan, black deer skin, cudgel, mortar, pestle, slab and muller are the ten sacrificial weapons" According to the principle, laid down in the preceding Adhikarana, the passage should be considered to be पुरुषार्थः, and accordingly these weapons should be offered to Agni.

स्वेन त्वर्थेन सम्बन्धो द्रव्याणां पृथगर्थत्वात्तस्मादप्या
श्रुति स्युः ॥ ४ । १ । ८ ॥

स्वेन own, तु on the contrary; अर्थेन with the object; द्रव्याणां of the materials; पृथगर्थत्वात् on account of their being of different use, तस्मात् therefore; अथाश्रुतिः according to the text, स्युः be

8. On the contrary the materials are connected with their own object. On account of their different uses, they are (to be used) according to the text (of the Veda)

This is the reply to the objection in the preceding sūtra In the Taittiriya Samhitā, different uses of the ten weapons are given, as for instance the spade for digging the ground and other weapons also for other purposes स्पर्शेन वेदिं मुह्यति । तै० सं० ६. ६. ४ १. । कपालेष्वाग्निं श्रुति । तै० सं० २ ३. ६. २.

अग्निं होत्र हवण्यां निर्वपति । शूर्पेण विविनक्ति । कृष्णाजिनं मुदूलस्याधस्ता-
दवस्तृणाति । शय्यायां दूषदं मुपदधाति । प्रोक्षिताभ्यां मुदूलमुसलाभ्यां मवहति प्रोक्षिताभ्यां दूषध्वोपलाभ्यां पिनष्टि ।

"He digs the altar with a wooden sword. He bakes on the earthen pans, he winnows with a basket, he spreads black deer's skin under the mortar, he places the stone slab on a cudgel. He pounds with consecrated pestle and mortar, he grinds with consecrated slab and muller.

These are all subsidiary to the main purpose. The passage is therefore कर्त्तव्यं, and the object of the weapons is served by uses for which they are meant under the Vedic text They are therefore not meant to be offered in the fire.

चोद्यन्ते चार्थकर्मसु ॥ ४ । १ । ८ ॥

चोद्यन्ते are enjoined, च and, अर्थ कर्मसु in the main or principal action.

9. The offering of the sacrificial cakes is also enjoined in the principal act.

The author fortifies his view by stating that puroḥāsa cake is enjoined to be offered in the fire, so the weapons cannot be said to be so offered अहिताग्निमग्निमिदं हति यज्ञपात्रैश्च "They burn the performer of Agni-hotra with the fire and sacrificial vessels"

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ ४ । १ । १० ॥

लिङ्गदर्शनात् from seeing indication, च and.

10. (There are) indications also (to that effect).

The author finally relies on the Vedic text from which he comes to the same conclusion by the method of interpretation called लिङ्ग. चतुर्दश पूर्णिमास्या माहुतयोद्ध्यते । त्रयोदशमावस्यायां ॥ Fourteen oblations are made on the full moon day and thirteen on the new moon day.

Adhikaraṇa V Sūtras 11—16. Dealing with the unity of an animal.

तत्रैकत्वमयज्ञाङ्गमर्थस्य गुणभूतत्वात् ॥ ४ । १ । ११ ॥

तत्र there, एकत्वम् unity, अयज्ञाङ्गम् not a part of a sacrifice, अर्थस्य of an object, गुणभूतत्वात् being subordinate

11. There unity is not a part of a sacrifice because of its being subordinate to the main object.

The sūtra embodies the pūrvapakṣa view The objector says that upon the principle laid down in the preceding Adhikaraṇa, the number of an animal is an anuvāda

योदीक्षते यदग्नीषोमीयं पशुमा लभते । तै० सं० ६ । १ । ११ । ६ । अनुद्वाही धुनक्ति । वसंताय कपिञ्जलानालभते । श० ब्रा० १३ । ५ । १ । १३ ।

"Then the initiated one sacrifices an animal to Agni and soma. He yokes two bullocks" "He offers partridges to spring." The passage gives the number but nowhere it is stated how many animals are to be taken, the animals are only subsidiary and do not form the main part of the sacrifice.

एकश्रुतित्वाच्च ॥ ४ । १ । १२ ॥

एकश्रुतित्वात् the indication of one, च and.

12. And on account of one being used in the Veda.

The objector supports his argument by the method of interpretation called श्रुति and says that number used in the passages are meaningless.

प्रतीयते इति चेत् ॥ ४ । १ । १३ ॥

प्रतीयते it appears from the usage , इति चेत् if so.

13. If you say that it also appears from the usage.

This is an objection to the pūrvapakṣa view. If you say that it is used in common parlance also , for example one says to bring one animal, one is brought , if more than one is ordered, then the same number of animals is brought , a reply to this objection is embodied in the next sūtra

नाऽशब्दं तत्प्रमाणत्वात्पूर्ववत् ॥ ४ । १ । १४ ॥

न not , अशब्दम् meaningless , प्रमाणत्वात् being authoritative , पूर्ववत् like the east.

14. Not so, that (number) is meaningless, being authoritative like the 'east.'

The reply of the pūrvapakṣa is that the number is not the integral part of the passage, but it is suggestive just as east suggests 'west.'

The suggested meaning of a word is not therefore integral part of it.

शब्दवत्तूपलभ्यते तदागमे हि तद्वदृश्यते तस्य ज्ञानं
हि यथाऽन्येषाम् ॥ ४ । १ । १५ ॥

शब्दवत् like a word , उपलभ्यते known , तदागमे on hearing it , तद्वदृश्यते that is known ; तस्य of that , ज्ञानम् knowledge , यथा just like ; अन्येषाम् of others

15. It (number) is known along with the word ; on the pronunciation of it, the number is known. Its knowledge (is obtained) just like other (things).

The siddhanta view is embodied in the present sūtra The author refutes the objection raised in the pūrvapakṣa by laying down the proposition that the number of a word is known as soon as the word is uttered by its form and is therefore connected with the main action.

तद्वच्च लिङ्गदर्शनम् ॥ ४ । १ । १६ ॥

तद्वच्च like that , च and ; लिङ्गदर्शनं indicative power of the Vedic text.

11. And the same (is from the) indicative power of the text.

The author supports his view from the texts of the Veda which he says also signifies the number used therein.

कश्यामा अश्वितारौद्रा नभोरुपाः पार्जण्याः ॥ वा० सं० २४ । ३ ।

“Three animals as white as moon to be offered to वसु and three proud animals to Rudra and three animals as blue as sky to be offered to Rain-god ”

Adhikarṇa VI. In continuation of the preceding Adhikarṇa relating to the gender of a word conveying sense.

तथा च लिङ्गम् ॥ ४ । १ । १७ ॥

तथा in the same way , च and , लिङ्गम् Gender.

17. In the same way, gender (is known),

The same reasoning which was applicable in the case of the number applies to the case of the gender of a word.

Adhikarṇa VII Sūtras 18—20 Relating to the अङ्ग living in the constituent parts.

आश्रयिष्वविशेषेण भावोऽर्थः प्रतीयेत ॥ ४ । १ । १८ ॥

आश्रयिषु in the constituent parts अविशेषेण Generally , भावः, भावना principal act , अर्थः object . प्रतीयेत is served.

18 In the constituent parts generally the purpose of the main act (sacrifice) is served.

In order to obtain heaven, a sacrifice is performed. By performance of a sacrifice the performer becomes fit for heaven and invisible result is produced which the Mīmāṃsikas call अङ्ग . And the act, which achieves it, is called भावना. The principal act, which is भावना is made up of many minor acts which constitute the भावना. It is the भावना that achieves the invisible fruit called अङ्ग . In the present Sūtra, the author says that he अङ्ग also resides in the constituent acts which go to make up the final and principal act

चोदनायां त्वनारम्भोऽविभक्तत्वाद्वा ह्यन्येन विधीयते

॥ ४ । १ । १९ ॥

चोदनायाम् in the Vedic command ; तु on the other hand ; अनारम्भः does not pertain, is not involved ; विभक्तत्वाद् on account of the parts being separate ; न not ; अन्येन by another ; विधीयते justified, commanded, regulated.

19. The Vedic command does not pertain to the parts on account of their being separate; nor can they be regulated by another (command).

The objector says that the Vedic command relates to the principal action and as the constituent acts are separate they cannot be regulated by another Vedic command. The Apūrva cannot therefore reside in the constituent parts.

स्याद्वा द्रव्यचिकीर्षायां भावोऽर्थे च गुणभूतताऽश्रया-
द्विगुणीभावः ॥ ४ । १ । २० ॥

स्याद्वा not so, द्रव्यचिकीर्षायाम् in the purification of the sacrificial materials, भाव invisible effect, अर्थे in the object, च and; गुणभूतता dependence, अश्रयात् by reason of its being a principal; द्विगुणीभाव being subsidiary.

20. Not so; in the purification of the sacrificial materials, there is an invisible effect (अपूर्व); in the object (of purification) there is dependence by reason of its being subsidiary to the principal act.

The reply of the author to the Siddhānta view is embodied in the sūtra. As all the minor acts depend upon or lead to the principal act which produces the invisible effect called Apūrva, the minor acts also share the apūrva so produced though each of them separately produces a visible effect.

Adhikarāṇa VIII Dealing with the proposition for enquiry

अर्थे समवैषम्यतो द्रव्यकर्मणाम् ॥ ४ । १ । २१ ॥

अर्थे in the fulfilment of the object, समवैषम्यतः by virtue of the parity and disparity, द्रव्यकर्मणाम् of the sacrificial materials and acts.

21. There is a parity or disparity of sacrificial material or act in the fulfilment of the object.

Having so far dealt with the principal and subsidiary acts, the author proceeds to examine the principle of parity and disparity. When in the performance of an act different effects are produced, one of which is directly connected with the principal object and the other is not, it is a case of disparity. While, on the other hand, the different effects so produced are directly connected with the main object, it is a case of parity.

Adhikarāṇa IX. Sūtras 22 to 24 Dealing with the preparation of आमिक्षा by bringing card and putting it into hot milk.

एकनिष्पत्तेः सर्वं समं स्यात् ॥ ४ । १ । २२ ॥

एकनिष्पत्तेः by producing different effects by one act, सर्वम् all ; समम् equal, the case of parity. स्यात् be

22. It is a case of parity when different effects are produced by means of one act.

The Sūtra contains the pūrva pakṣa view. The objector says that one act produces different results which are all equally connected. It is a case of parity.

संसर्गरसनिष्पत्तेरामिक्षा वा प्रधानं स्यात् ॥ ४ । १ । २३ ॥

संसर्गरसनिष्पत्तेः by virtue of the production of whey by contact, अमिक्षा curd dish ; वा or, प्रधानं principal, स्यात् be

23 By reason of the production of whey by contact, the Amikṣā (curd) is principal.

The Amikṣā—dish is prepared by putting curd into hot milk. The milk thickens and two substances are formed, one is solid called curd or Amikṣā and the other liquid, sour in taste, called whey. According to the objector, both being the results of one act are equally connected with the principal act, viz, the preparation of Amikṣā. In the present Sūtra the Siddhānta view of the author is embodied. He says no; the curd is the chief thing in the Amikṣā-dish and the whey is incidentally produced which is not a necessary ingredient of the Amikṣā-dish

मुख्यशब्दाभिसंस्तवाच्च ॥ ४ । १ । २४ ॥

मुख्यशब्दाभिसंस्तवाच्च by reason of the praise of the principal च and.

24. By reason of the praise of the chief object.

It may be stated in this connection that the curd is प्रयोजक and that whey which is incidentally produced is called अप्रयोजकः. The author strengthens his view by a statement that the curd which is the principal thing has been-praised in the Vedic passage on which it is based.

मिथुनं वैद्यि च शृतं च अथयत्सं सृष्टं मंडमिवमस्त्विव परि च ददृशे गर्भं एयमः

“The curd and hot milk are a pair: and when they are mixed, something like a solid mass and something like a watery substance are visible which constitute a foetus.”

Adhikāraṇa X Dealing with the subsidiary nature of walking of a cow when brought पदकर्माप्रयोजकं नयनस्य परार्थत्वात् ॥ ४ । १ । २५ ॥

'पदकर्म' making a cow walk ; अप्रयोजकम् Subsidiary act ; not the principal act नयनस्य, of bringing it, परार्थत्वात् subservient to another act.

25. Causing a cow to walk is a subsidiary act because the bringing of it is subservient (to some other act).

In the Jyotistoma sacrifice., Soma is purchased by means of a cow, red in colour and of one year in age and is made to walk seven steps.

Here there are two acts which are performed in order to transact the business of purchase, (1) bringing of the cow and (2) making it walk some steps. The chief act is the transaction of purchase ; the walking is only incidental and is therefore अप्रयोजक subsidiary.

Adhikarana VI Treating the subsidiary nature of throwing off of the husk with the earthen-pana.

अर्थोभिधानकर्म च भविष्यता संयोगस्य तन्निमित्तत्वा- त्तदर्थो हि विधीयते ॥ ४ । १ । २६ ॥

अभिधान कर्म the action of naming connected with the purpose ; च and ; भविष्यता with the future (sacrificial cake), संयोगस्य of the connection , तन्निमित्तत्वात् on account of that , तदर्थः the purpose of that , हि certainly , विधीयते is described

26. The action of naming पुरोडाश कपाल is based on the main object; on account of the connection with the future पुरोडाश कपाल that object is described.

In the Vedic text it is stated that sacrificial cakes are baked on the earthen pans and that husks are thrown by them. The earthen pan for baking the sacrificial cake is called पुरोडाश कपाल. It is so called on account of its main object, that is the baking of the sacrificial cake which is to come into existence in future. The throwing off of the husk by the earthen pans is only incidental (अप्रयोजक).

Adhikarana VII. Dealing with the incidental nature of dung and blood of an animal.

पशावनालम्बाल्लोहितशकृतोरकर्मत्वम् ॥ ४ । १ । २७ ॥

चरौ on the animal, अलम्बात् by reason of its being not sacrificed, लोहितशकृतोः of the blood and dung ; अकर्मत्वम् not pertaining to the action.

27. When an animal is not killed, the blood and dung do not constitute the (essential) act.

In the sacrifice of an animal according to the text of the Taittiriya Samhitā, three things are performed, the animal is to be killed, the heart and tongue are to be offered to the gods, and the blood and dung are to be cast away. The first two acts are essential and the third is incidental; so the principle of disparity is involved. When an animal is killed and no blood and dung are obtained, in that emergency no other second animal is killed. So the author in the present sūtra gives the Siddhānta view that the fact that in such emergency, the second animal is not killed, shows the incidental nature of the act of throwing off of the blood and dung of the animal killed for sacrificial purpose.

Adhikaraṇa XIII. Sūtras 28 to 32: Dealing with the incidental nature of स्विष्टकृत् offering in connection with the sacrificial cake.

एकदेशद्रव्यश्चोत्पत्तौ विद्यमानसंयोगात् ॥ ४ । १ । २८ ॥

एकदेशद्रव्यः a portion of the whole, च and, उत्पत्तौ in the origin; विद्यमानसंयोगात् by reason of presence of the relationship.

28. (स्विष्टकृत् offering) is a portion (of the sacrificial cake) being in existence with the whole in the beginning.

A puroḍāśa cake is prepared in the course of a sacrifice; this cake is offered in fire and a portion of it is cut off and offered in the swiṣṭakṛit fire. Now the question is whether this स्विष्टकृत् offering is अन्वये-जकृ or not. The author's view is embodied in the sūtra, he says that the part is included in the whole. The स्विष्टकृत् portion of the cake, which was set apart, was one whole with the puroḍāśa cake in the origin. So it is not a case of parity but of disparity and the स्विष्टकृत् offering is incidental.

निर्देशात्तस्यान्यदर्थादिति चेत् ॥ ४ । १ । २९ ॥

निर्देशात् by reason of special description, तस्य of it; अन्यत् another (puroḍāśa); अर्थात् from the object, इति चेत् if so

29. If it be said that on account of the special description of it; another (puroḍāśa cake should be prepared) from the object.

The pūrvapakṣa view is embodied in the present sūtra. The objector says that as soon as the puroḍāśa cake is offered in the fire, there is no part left and so another puroḍāśa cake should be prepared and the swiṣṭakṛit offering be made from it. So it is a case of parity and these two acts are independent and necessary.

न शेषसन्निधानात् ॥ ४ । १ । ३० ॥

न no ; शेष सन्निधात् on account of the remainder being near.

30. No ; on account of the remnant being near.

To the objection embodied in sūtra 29, the reply of the author is that a portion of the purodāśa has been cut off and reserved for swistakrit offering, so by reason of this reserved portion there is no necessity of preparing another purodāśa cake and it is therefore not a case of parity

कर्मकार्यात् ॥ ४ । १ । ३१ ॥

कर्मकार्यात् by reason of the performance of the act

31. By reason of the performance of the act

The praises are sung in the Vedas. It is said that the gods said to swistakrit to carry the offering and swistakrit asked the gods to give him a portion of it. We see in the world that a master partakes of the dish and gives the remnant to his servant. The author in this sūtra strengthens his view by the reason of swistakrit's performing the business of a carrier and getting the remnant as the reward for his services.

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ ४ । १ । ३२ ॥

लिङ्गदर्शनात् by reason of the suggestive sense (of the Veda)

32. By reason of the suggestive sense of the Vedic text

The author finally fortifies his view by the text of the Vedas. शेषादिदमवधति । शेषात् स्विष्टकृतं यजति ॥ "He cuts off इदं offering from the remainder, he sacrifices in स्विष्टकृत् from the remainder"

Adhikaraṇa XIV Sūtras 33 to 39. Dealing with the non use of the vessels for holding the clarified butter and the remnant thereof in sprinkling the clarified butter.

अभिधारणे विप्रकर्षादनूयाजवत्पात्रभेदः स्यात् ॥ ४ । १ । ३३ ॥

अभिधारणे in sprinkling, विप्रकर्षात् by distance, अनुयाजवत् like an अनुयाज offering, पात्रभेदः difference of vessel, स्यात् be

33. In sprinkling of ghee by reason of distant connection, there must be a separate vessel as in an Anuyaja offering.

अभिधारणा is an act of sprinkling of ghee on the parts of the body of an animal for offering. In the वाजपेय sacrifice, several animals are killed, some are offered in the morning and some in the noon. The ghee is sprinkled on the parts offered and the remnant is kept in the vessel for sprinkling in the noon. The question is whether there should be a separate vessel as in अनुपाज offering because the same vessel should not be used twice. The purvapakṣa view embodied in the sūtra is that a separate vessel should be used for keeping the remnant of the ghee.

न वा पात्रत्वादपात्रत्वं त्वेकदेशत्वात् ॥ ४ । १ । ३४ ॥

न वा not so, अपात्रत्वात् by reason of there being no vessel ; अपात्रत्वं absence of vessel, तु and एकदेशत्वात् being a portion.

34. Not so ; by reason of the absence of a vessel and the absence of the vessel is by reason of its being a portion (of the whole ghee).

The siddhānta view is embodied in the present sūtra. The author says that in the noon there is no sprinkling of the ghee as the vessel is emptied in the morning and as there is no remnant left, so no vessel is required.

हेतुत्वाच्च सहप्रयोगस्य ॥ ४ । १ । ३५ ॥

हेतुत्वात् by reason of ; च and ; सहप्रयोगस्य of using both at the same time.

35. And there is a reason for using both at the same time.

The author strengthens his view by assigning a reason. When an animal is killed in the morning, abhigharana is performed at that time and no sprinkling is done in the noon. So there is no necessity of a separate vessel

अभावदर्शनाच्च ॥ ४ । १ । ३६ ॥

अभाव दर्शनात् by seeing its absence, च and.

36. And by seeing its absence.

Because in the Veda, it is said that omentum should be dry, so no sprinkling is performed

सति सव्यवचनम् ॥ ४ । १ । ३७ ॥

सति, there being sprinkling of ghee, सव्य वचनं the term savya.

37. When there is abhigharana, the term सव्य is used.

The objector says that the term सव्य is used when अभिघारणा is performed, that it means 'wet' but not 'dry.'

न तस्येति चेत् ॥ ४ । १ । ३८ ॥

न 'Not', तस्य of it; इति चेत् if you say so,

38. If you say that it does not pertain to it (the omentum.)

The objector goes on replying a hypothetical question raised by him. He contends that if you say that it does not refer to the omentum, then the omentum which has become wet once by ब्रह्मसाम cannot become dry. Once wet, it is always wet though no अभिवारणा is performed at noon. So the term सस्य means wet but not dry.

स्यात्तस्य मुख्यत्वात् ४ । १ । ३९ ॥

स्यात् may be ; तस्य of it ; मुख्यत्वात् on account of its being principal.

39. May be so, on account of its being principal.

The author meets the objection and says that the omentum was dry before the performance of अभिवारणा and after roasting it, it again becomes dry ; so the term सस्य means dry but not wet as you assert.

Adikarana XV 80 ra. 40-41 Dealing with the principal nature of the quality of the clarified butter of the samanayana.

समानयनं तु मुख्यं स्यात्स्निग्धदर्शनात् ॥ ४ । १ । ४० ॥

समानयनं samanayana ceremony ; तु on the other hand ; मुख्यं principal ; स्यात् is , स्निग्धदर्शनात् by reason of the significant power of the Vedic text.

40. On the other hand, Samanayana is principal by virtue of the significant power of the Vedic text

There are five prayaja offerings made , the first is समित्, the 2nd is तनूमपात्, the third is इद्, the fourth is बहिः and the fifth is स्वाहाकार. The ghee is kept in a large vessel from which it is taken in a big wooden spoon called उपभृत् and from it the ghee is taken in a smaller spoon called जुह् which is kept for sacrificial purpose. The three offerings are made from this ghee in the sacrificial spoon called जुह् and then the ghee is again taken from the big wooden spoon called उपभृत् and the fourth offering is made from it. Carrying of ghee from the उपभृत् to the जुह् for the 4th offering is called समानयन. The objector says that according to your view embodied in the former adhikarana, the samanayana is अग्रयोजक. The author lays down his own view that it is principal and the view is supported by the sense of the Vedic texts. अतिहायेदोषहिः प्रतिसमानयति जुह्वामोपभृत् । चतुर्गृहीताभ्याऽपानि भवति नहिःश्रानुयाजान् यश्च भवति ॥ "After having made offering called इद्, he takes ghee in जुह् from उपभृत् for the offering called बहिः. The ghee is taken four times (up to, thus) and no अनुयाज offerings are made."

वचने हि हेत्वसामर्थ्यम् ॥ ४ । १ । ४१ ॥

वचने in the Vedic text ; हेत्व सामर्थ्य absence of the power of the reason.

41. In the Vedic text or authority the power of the reason is absent

The author has in mind the Vedic text where चतुर्गृहीतानि आश्वानि shows that the ghee is twice taken from the उपभृत् into the जुह् for प्रयाज offerings. The first lasts for three offerings and the 2nd one for the 4th and 5th offerings, this fact also supports the view of the author that समान्यन is principal Adhikarāṇi XVI Sūtras 42 to 45. The ghee taken in उपभृत् and जुह् is respectively for प्रयाज and अनुयाज both and that taken in the sacrificial spoon is not for both.

तत्रोत्पत्तिरविभक्ता स्यात् ४ । १ । ४२ ॥

तत्र there (new or full noon), उत्पत्ति production (but here it means the clarified butter taken), अविभक्ता undivided, स्यात् is.

43. There what is taken is undivided.

The objector says that the ghee taken, being undivided should be offered as occasion arises for अनुयाज and प्रयाज offerings.

तत्र जोहवमनूयाजप्रतिषेधार्थम् ॥ ४ । १ । ४३ ॥

तत्र there ; जोहव the ghee taken in जुह्, अनुयाज प्रतिषेधार्थ for the prohibition of अनुयाज.

44. There the ghee taken in जुह् is for the prohibition (that it is not to be used) for अनुयाज offerings.

The ghee taken in उपभृत् is to be used for both अनुयाज and प्रयाज while taken in जुह् is to be offered for प्रयाज only. This is the siddhānta view of the author.

अपभृतं तथेति चेत् ॥ ४ । १ । ४४ ॥

अपभृतं ghee taken in उपभृत्, तथा similarly, इति चेत् if you say.

44. If you say that the ghee taken in उपभृत् is similarly (prohibited.)

Just as the ghee taken in जुह् is interpreted to be impliedly prohibited for Anuyaja offering, so is the ghee taken in उपभृत् impliedly prohibited for prayaj offering. This is the reply on behalf of the objector.

स्याज्जुह्वप्रतिषेधान्नित्यानुवादः ॥ ४ । १ । ४५ ॥

स्यात् is ; जुह्व प्रतिषेधात् by reason of the prohibition relating to जुह्व ;
नित्यानुवादः permanent restatement.

45. By reason of the prohibition relating to जुह्व, there is permanent restatement.

There is a direct text of the तैत्तिरीय ब्राह्मण in which it is said that the ghee taken in उपमृत् is to be used for both अनुयाज and प्रयाज offerings and the text referred to by शनपय ब्राह्मण says that the ghee taken in उपमृत् is to be used in अनुयाज offering यदष्टाबुमृति प्रयाजानु याजेभ्यस्तद्वगृह्णाति ॥ तै० ब्रा० ३. ३. ५ ५. अनुयाजेभ्योहितद्वगृह्णाति ॥ श० प० ब्रा० १. ३. २. ९.

"That which he takes in उपमृत् he takes for प्रयाज and अनुयाज"
"He takes it verily for अनुयाज" The first text states that it is to be used for both, and the second restricts it. It is a case of permanent restatement see III 4. 12. at P 128. This is the reply which our author advances to the objector.

Adhikarana XVII Sūtras 46 to 48 Dealing with the act of taking ghee twice four times in the उपमृत्.

तदष्टसङ्ख्यं श्रवणात् ॥ ४ । १ । ४६ ॥

सत् its, of the clarified butter, अष्ट संख्यं eight times श्रवणात् on account of the direct text.

46. On account of the direct text of number eight for it (clarified butter.)

The objector says that in the Vedic text it is said that ghee should be taken eight times in the wooden spoon (उपमृत्) and this is an original statement and is प्रयोजक अष्टाबुमृति तै०स० ३. ३. ५. ५ "Eight times in उपमृत्"

अनुग्रहाच्च जोहवस्य ॥ ४ । १ । ४७ ॥

अनुग्रहात् on account of serving the purpose, च and, जोहवस्य of the ghee taken in a जुह्व.

47. Because of its serving the purpose of the ghee in a जुह्व.

The objector supports his objection by saying that an उपमृत् is a larger spoon and contains more ghee than in a जुह्व. So the ghee from the उपमृत् can be taken in the जुह्व several times.

द्वयोस्तु हेतुसामर्थ्यं अर्पणं च समानयने ॥४॥१॥४८॥

द्वयोः of two, तु on the other hand, हेतु सामर्थ्यं the power of reason ; अर्पणं the direct authority, च and, समानयने in carrying the ghee for the fourth offering.

48. Of the two there is the force of reason and direct authority in समानयन.

The reply of the author is embodied in the present sūtra. We have observed in commenting on the sūtra No. 40 that the समानयन is the 4th offering in a prayaj and an anyaj. So necessarily the ghee required in उपशृत् which serves the purpose of both should be twice four times. This, the author says, is quite in keeping with the text and reason.

END OF PĀDA 1

PĀDA II.

Adhikaraṇa 1 sūtra 1 dealing with the incidental nature of the act of cutting off of the svaru etc.

स्वरुस्त्वनेकनिष्पत्तिः स्वकर्मशब्दत्वात् ॥ ४।२।१॥

स्वरुः svaru , अनेकनिष्पत्तिः not from the one and the same tree , स्वकर्म शब्दत्वात् by reason of the direction about its preparation.

1. Svaru is to be made from a different tree because there is a direction of its preparation.

According to the rules of sacrifice, a tree is to be selected for preparing a यूप (sacrificial post) The tree is to be felled from a certain height, from it खण्ड a wooden ring to mount on the top of the यूप is prepared. From the bottom of the tree felled, a cubit in length is chiselled into 8 or 4 faces. One of the chips is called स्वरु and the other three are reserved for props to the अग्नि when fire is churned out.

Now the question is whether the tree so felled is for the purpose of preparing a यूप and the preparation of स्वरु is incidental or whether the preparation of the स्वरु is principal and a different tree should be felled for it The पूर्व पक्ष of the objector is embodied in the present sūtra and according to him, स्वरु should be prepared from a different tree and therefore the preparation of the स्वरु is principal

जात्यन्तराच्च शङ्कते ॥ ४।२।२॥

जात्यन्तरात् from another tree , च and , शङ्कते he doubts.

2 Because a स्वरु is prepared from another tree, he doubts.

The objector supports his view from the quotation of a Vedic text. न अन्यस्य स्वरुं कुर्यात् । यद्यन्यस्य वृक्षस्य स्वरुं कुर्यादन्येऽस्यलोकं मन्वारोद्देयुः ॥ यूपस्य स्वरुं करोति ॥ "A स्वरु should not be made from another, if a स्वरु is made from another tree, others will ascend into his region, a स्वरु is therefore made from a यूप" He says that a स्वरु is to be prepared from another tree, this fact shows that the preparation of a स्वरु is independent (a case of parity).

तदेकदेशो वा स्वरुत्वस्य तन्निमित्तत्वात् ॥ ४।२।३॥

तदेकदेशः being a portion of it , वा or (has the force of negation), स्वरुत्वस्य of the quality of being a स्वरु, तन्निमित्तत्वात् by reason of its being for its sake

3. On the other hand, the very nature of the स्वर is a portion (of the यूप) and its very purpose is for it (यूप.)

In the present sūtra, the author's siddhānta view is embodied. He says that the tree is felled for preparing a यूप and the chips that are cut are incidentally prepared. So the preparation of the स्वर is not independent but it is a case of disparity.

शकलश्रुतेश्च ॥ ४ । २ । ४ ॥

शकल श्रुते: by reason of the Vedic text of its being a chip , च and

4. And also by reason of the Vedic text to the effect that it is a portion.

The author supports his view that in the Vedic text the स्वर is described as a chip from a यूप, it appears that it is not an independent description. च: प्रथमः शकलः परापतेत् सस्वरः कार्यः ॥ "The first piece that falls off should be made into a स्वर "

प्रतियूपं च दर्शनात् ॥ ४ । २ । ५ ॥

प्रतियूपं for each यूप , च and , दर्शनात् by seeing

5. Because it is seen with each यूप.

The author gives additional reason in support of his view. He says that in पशवेकादशनी यज्ञ there are 11 animals and so there are eleven यूपसः, so for each यूप there is a separate स्वर. If it had been an independent action, one स्वर would have been quite sufficient.

आदाने करोतिशब्दः ॥ ४ । २ । ६ ॥

आदाने in (the sense of) taking , करोति शब्दः the word 'makes '

6. The word 'makes' (is used) in (the sense of) taking.

There is a Vedic text यूपस्यस्वरं करोति । 'He makes a स्वर out of the यूप ' When the यूप is made from the tree felled, the first chip that is chiselled out is taken for the स्वर. So the construction of the स्वर is not independent. The word 'makes' used there, is in the sense of taking the first chip, thus separated.

Adhikarapa II dealing with bringing of a branch

शाखायां तत्प्रधानत्वात् ॥ ४ । २ । ७ ॥

शाखायां in the branch ; तत्प्रधानत्वात् on account of its being principal

7 In (the sense of a) branch on account of its being principal

There is a Vedic text to the effect, "Bring the east" The question is whether it means the eastern direction or branch. The author says that bringing of the east is impossible, so prachā means branch. यत्प्राचीमाहरेत् । देवेभ्यो ह्यभिजयेत् । यदुदीचीं मनुष्येभ्यो । प्राचीमुदीचीमाहरेत् । उभयोर्लोकोरभिजित्व ॥ (तै० ब्रा० ३।२, १।३) "If he brings 'east,' he conquers the region of the gods. if he brings the 'north,' he conquers the region of men: he therefore brings both 'east' and 'north' for the conquest of both the regions."

Adhikarṇa III Dealing with the purpose of felling a tree for securing a branch

शाखायां तत्प्रधानत्वादुपवेष्टेण विभागः स्याद्वैषम्यतत्

॥ ४।२।८ ॥

शाखायां in the branch, तत्प्रधानत्वात् by reason of its being principal, उपवेष्टेण with the उपवेष्ट (lower portion), विभागः division, स्यात् is, वैषम्य the case of disparity, तत् that

8. On account of its being principal in the branch, there is a separation with the lower portion, it is a case of disparity.

A tree is felled in order to secure a branch, it is then divided into two parts, the upper portion called शाखा or branch is used for driving off the calves, the lower portion which is called उपवेष्ट is used for arranging the earthen pans. So the author says in the present sūtra, that the tree is felled for the main purpose of securing the branch and the उपवेष्ट is incidentally prepared. It is therefore a case of disparity

श्रुत्यपायान्च ॥ ४।२।९ ॥

श्रुत्यपायान् by reason of the absence of the Vedic text, च and

9. And by reason of the absence of the Vedic text

The author supports his view from another fact where उपवेष्ट is not prepared. When शाखा is prepared उपवेष्ट is necessarily prepared. When शाखा is not prepared उपवेष्ट is not prepared though it is required. As for instance on pūrnamāsi sacrifice no calves are to be driven off, so no शाखा is prepared but उपवेष्ट is required for arranging the pans, but it is done by other means Adhikarṇa IV Sūtras 10-18 dealing with the प्रतिपत्ति nature of securing of the branch.

हरणो तु जुहोतिर्योगसामान्याद्द्रव्याणां चार्थशेषत्वात्

॥ ४।२।१० ॥

इरणे in throwing , तु on the other hand , जुहोति: sacrificing ; योगसामान्यात् by reason of its use in common , द्रव्याणां of the materials , च and , अर्थ शेषत्वात् by reason of its being subsidiary to the object.

10. On the other hand the term 'throwing' means sacrifice by reason of its being used in common and by reason of the materials being subsidiary to the object.

There is the Vedic text सहशाखा प्रत्नप्रहरति "With the branch he throws off the bundle of grass" The objector says that it is the sacrifice of the शाखा so it is अर्थ कर्म The sacrificial acts are of two kinds अर्थ कर्म that is the action which is principal and the fruit of which is invisible while the प्रतिपत्ति कर्म is the final disposal of sacrificial material which is no longer required and which is used up. The effect of this act is visible When the शाखा has been used up, it is finally disposed of along with grass and consumed in fire The question is whether it is अर्थकर्म or प्रतिपत्ति कर्म The objector says it is an अर्थकर्म

प्रतिपत्तिर्वा शब्दस्य तत्प्रधानत्वात् ॥ ४ । २ । ११ ॥

प्रतिपत्ति: final disposal of the thing no longer required , वा or , शब्दस्य of the word, तत्प्रधानत्वात् by reason of its being principal.

11 It is the final disposal (प्रतिपत्तिकर्म) by reason of the word being principal in this connection

The author gives the reply to the objection raised by the पूर्वपक्ष embodied in the preceding सूत्र He says that the word शाखा is principal, it is used in the instrumental case while प्रत्न is used in the objective case, but in sense the शाखा is also in the objective case and the offering of the शाखा is the main object, but as the offering is not made to any god, so it is only प्रतिपत्तिकर्म

अर्थेऽपि चेत् ॥ ४ । २ । १२ ॥

अर्थे in sense , अपिचेत् if you say so

12. If you say that the sense (also indicates that it is अर्थकर्म).

The objector says that on account of the sense it is also अर्थ कर्म because throwing off of the शाखा is the main object, just as in the case of the text relating to एक कपाल to be offered to सूर्य मारुतंसप्तकपाल सौर्यमेककपाल ॥ (तै० सं० २।५।१०।२) "Cakes baked on seven pans to मरुत gods and a cake baked on one pan to sun-god"

न तस्यानधिकारादर्थस्य च कृतत्वात् ॥ ४ । २ । १३ ॥

न not; तस्य of it, अधिकारार् on account of there being no analogy ; अर्थस्य of the object, च and, कृतत्वात् on account of accomplishment

13. There being no analogy with it (एक कपाल) and its (शाखा) having fulfilled the object.

The author gives a final reply He says that there is no analogy between the case of एककपाल and शाखाहरण and secondly the शाखा is finally disposed of when it has served its purpose. So it is the प्रतिपत्तिकर्म

Adhikaraṇa V sūtras 14-15 dealing with the प्रतिपत्ति nature of निनयन

उत्पत्त्यसंयोगात्प्रणीतानामाज्यवद्विभागः स्यात्

४।२।१४॥

उत्पत्ति in the mandatory command, असंयोगात् having no use or connection, प्रणीतानां of the sacrificial water brought, आडावत् like the sacrificial ghee, विभाग division, स्यात् is 14 There being no connection with the mandatory command as to the water, there must be division as in the case of the ghee.

Pure water is brought for a sacrifice, it is called प्रणीतान. It is mixed up with the flour of the पुरोडाश cake and also thrown in the interior of the altar. The former act is called संयवन and the latter is called निनयन. The पूर्वपक्ष view embodied in the sūtra is that when the water is brought, it is brought for the case of the whole sacrifice without any special object. It is then used for both the purposes just as the ghee is used in the sacrifice as the occasion requires. So it is an अर्थकर्म

संयवनार्थानां वा प्रतिपत्तिरितरासां तत्प्रधानत्वात्

॥ ४।२।१५ ॥

संयवनार्थानां of the sanyavana which is the principal act, वा on the other hand, प्रतिपत्ति. final disposal, इतरासां of others i.e. of निनयन water, तत्प्रधानत्वात् of its being principal.

15. On the other hand the other water (namely निनयन) is the प्रतिपत्ति of the संयवन which is the principal act on account of its being principal.

The author gives his siddhānta view that निनयन is प्रतिपत्तिकर्म, संयवन being principal. When no water is brought in a पयाश (milk dish) by reason of the absence of पुरोडाश cakes, there is no निनयन. This is an additional reason for holding that निनयन is प्रतिपत्तिकर्म

Adhikarapa VI. Sūtras 16 to 18 Dealing with the अर्थकर्म nature of the act of handing over the staff

प्रासनवन्मैत्रावरुणस्य दण्डप्रदानं कृतार्थत्वात् ॥४।२।१६॥

प्रासनवत् like throwing off (of the horn of a black antelope), मैत्रावरुणस्य of a मैत्रावरुण priest, दण्ड प्रदानं handing over of the staff, कृतार्थत्वात् by reason of its having accomplished its purpose

16. Handing over of the staff to the मैत्रावरुण priest (is a प्रतिपत्तिकर्म) by reason of its having accomplished its object just like throwing off (of the horn of the black antelope).

There is a ceremony called कृष्णविषाणप्रासन The horn of a black antelope is used for scratching the body It is अर्थकर्म and after this, it is thrown into a pit called चात्वाल This act is प्रतिपत्तिकर्म So in the same way, a sacrificer holds a staff in his hand and subsequently in the course of the sacrifice, it is passed to the मैत्रावरुण priest. The objector says that after having accomplished its object the staff is passed over to the मैत्रावरुण priest, so this act is प्रतिपत्तिकर्म like throwing off of the horn mentioned above

अर्थकर्म वा कर्तृसंयोगात्स्रग्वत् ॥ ४ । २ । १७ ॥

अर्थकर्म arthakarma , वा on the other hand, कर्तृसंयोगात् by reason of its connection with the sacrificer, स्रग्वत् like a garland.

17. It is an arthakarma by reason of its connection with the sacrificer like the garland.

The अर्थकर्म is always principal and subordinate to some other act; while the प्रतिपत्तिकर्म is always principal because it is not connected with any other act. In the present case the मैत्रावरुण priest is the principal and holding of the staff is his act and is, therefore अर्थकर्म just the wearing of a garland is subordinate act of the person wearing it. The author therefore gives his own siddhanta view that a holding of the staff by the मैत्रावरुण priest is the अर्थकर्म

कर्मयुक्ते च दर्शनात् ॥ ४ । २ । १८ ॥

कर्मयुक्ते in connection with another act, च and, दर्शनम् by seeing.

18. Because it is seen in subsequent acts.

The मैत्रावरुण priest after taking the staff performs subsequent acts with the aid of the staff, so holding of the staff can not be प्रतिपत्ति कर्म which disposes of the thing finally This is an additional reason in support of the author's view

Adhikarana VII dealing with the प्रतिपत्ति nature of throwing off of horn

उत्पत्तौ येन संयुक्तं तदर्थं तच्छ्रुतिहेतुत्वात्तस्यार्थान्तर-
गमने शेषत्वात्प्रतिपत्तिः स्यात् ॥ ४ । २ । १९ ॥

उत्पत्तौ in the commencement, येन with which संयुक्तं connected, तदर्थं with that object, तत् that, श्रुति हेतुत्वात् by reason of the direct authority, तस्य its; अर्थान्तरगमने using it with other object, शेषत्वात् by its being subsidiary, प्रतिपत्तिः final disposal; स्यात् is.

19. It is for that object with which it is connected in the origin for reason of direct authority, its use subsequently by reason of its being subsidiary is pratipatti

This sūtra further explains अर्थकर्म and प्रतिपत्तिकर्म When some material is taken, it is connected with some sacrificial act, it is subordinate to the act and this is shown by the direct statement It is called, अर्थकर्म When the act is performed and further use of the material is finally taken it is its प्रतिपत्तिकर्म

Adhikarana VII Sūtras 20 - 22 treating प्रतिपत्ति nature of अवशृय bath

सौमिके च कृतार्थत्वात् ॥ ४ । २ । २० ॥

सौमिके in the soma sacrifice च and कृतार्थत्वात् having been accomplished.

20. Because they have all been used up in the soma sacrifice.

In the soma sacrifice when the whole thing is over the priest and the sacrificer with his wife perform the अवशृय bath The priest on such occasion takes away all the sacrificial materials smeared with soma juice and throws them into water This final act of disposing of the sacrificial materials is प्रतिपत्तिकर्म This is what the author lays down as his siddhānta view

अर्थकर्म वाऽभिधानसंयोगात् ॥ ४ । २ । २१ ॥

अर्थकर्म it is अर्थकर्म वा on the other hand अभिधान संयोगात् by virtue of its connection with the original name.

21. On the other hand, it is an अर्थकर्म on account of its connection with the original name.

The Objector says that it is not प्रतिपत्तिकर्म but an arthakarma because the अवभृथ is principal and the sacrificial materials being in the instrumental case are subordinate, अवभृथः in the objective case and the अवभृथ bath is performed by means of these materials

प्रतिपत्तिर्वा तन्नायायत्वाद्देशार्थावभृथश्रुतिः॥४।२।२२॥

प्रतिपत्तिः final disposal, वर on the other hand, तन्नायायत्वात् by reason of the propriety of the sense, देशार्था in the sense of a locality, अवभृथश्रुतिः the word अवभृथ

22. On the other hand it is प्रतिपत्तिः by reason of the propriety of its sense, the word अवभृथ signifies a place

The author gives a reply. The word अवभृथ does not mean a sacrifice it means a place of bathing where after the performance of sacrifice, the priest and the sacrificer with his wife go to bathe and throw the used materials of the sacrifice into the water. So going to the अवभृथ is only a प्रतिपत्ति being a final act for disposal of the sacrificial materials

Adhikarana IX Sūtras 23-24 Dealing with the restrictive nature of the statement relating to the agent, place and time of the sacrifice

कर्तृदेशकालानामचोदनं प्रयोगे नित्यसमवायात्

॥ ४ । २ । २३ ॥

कर्तृदेशकालानां of a sacrificer, place and time, अचोदनं not commendatory; प्रयोगे in the performance, नित्यसमवायात् by reason of its constant or essential connection

23 The agent, place and time being essentially connected with the performance of a (sacrifice) are not mandatory

When a Vedic sacrifice is performed, there are three things essential to the performer, the place and the time. "So the Vedic text about them" says the purvapakṣa, "can not be विधि but only an अनुवाद because it reproduces what is already known"

नियमार्था वा श्रुतिः ॥ ४ । २ । २४ ॥

नियमार्था in the restrictive sense, वर on the other hand, श्रुतिः vedic text.

24. On the other hand the Vedic text is restrictive.

The Siddhanta view is embodied in the present sūtra. There is no doubt that time, place and agent are essential for the performance of an act but the Vedic text which prescribes the particular time, place and agent is restrictive in its force

Adhikarana X Dealing with the restrictive nature of the description of the qualities of materials.

तथा द्रव्येषु गुणश्रुतिरुत्पत्तिसंयोगात् ॥ ४ । २ । २५ ॥

तथा Similarly, द्रव्येषु in the materials, गुणश्रुति description of the qualities; उत्पत्तिसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the original text.

25. Similarly the description of the qualities of the materials (is restrictive) by reason of its connection with the original text.

When an organic act is performed there are three constituents called तस्य the fruit which the act achieves, the साधन materials used in performing it and इतिकर्तव्यता the subordinate acts. When an organic act is directed to be performed, it is called उत्पत्तिविधिः and the qualities of the materials described there, are नियमविधि because general description of materials is vague but the particular statement of the qualities of a sacrificial material being restrictive in the nature is नियमविधि.

Adhikarana XI Dealing with the restrictive nature of the description of the purification of the materials such as pounding etc.

संस्कारे च तत्प्रधानत्वात् ॥ ४ । २ । २६ ॥

संस्कारे purification (of materials), च and, तत्प्रधानत्वात् by reason of its being principal

26 And in the purification of the materials by reason of its being principal

A Vedic text which gives the direction how the materials are to be purified are नियमविधिः because these acts aim principally at the purification of materials and produce visible effect.

Adhikarana XII Dealing with the form of sacrifice.

यजति चोदनाद्रव्यदेवताक्रियं समुदाये कृतार्थत्वात्

॥ ४ । २ । २७ ॥

यजतिचोदना the command as to sacrifice; द्रव्यदेवताक्रियं materials, gods and acts, समुदाये collectively, कृतार्थत्वात् by reason of its having accomplished its object

27. Command as to the sacrifice, the materials, gods and act, all collectively (constitute a sacrifice) by reason of their having accomplished their object.

In the present sūtra, the author has defined याग and says that all these constituents make up a याग.

Adhikarana XIII Dealing with the form of a homa.

तदुक्ते श्रवणाज्जुहोतिरासेचनाधिकः स्यात् ॥ ४।२।२८॥

तदुक्ते that being defined, श्रवणात् by the direct text, जुहोतिः homa or offering, आसेचनाधिकः a gift in addition, स्यात् is.

28. (याग) having been defined, a homa (includes) gift in addition by reason of the direct text.

The present sūtra defines होम and says that it includes gift in addition to all the constituents of the याग,

Difference between याग and होम is given in these two sūtras. Where any offering is made by invoking a god, it is याग. Where in addition to this, there is आसेचन gift of a material or throwing of liquid substance into the fire, it is called होम

कात्यायन in his श्रौत सूत्र says यजति जुहोतीनां को विशेषः । १।१२६॥

तिष्ठहोमा वषट्कारप्रदाना याज्या पुरोनुवाक्यवर्तो यजतयः । २।२७॥

उपविष्ट होमा स्वाहाकार प्रदानाः जुहोतयः । ३।२८॥

See p. 13 of the Benares Choukhamba edition

What is the difference between a याग and होम? While standing with the word वषट्कार and reciting याज्या and पुरोनुवाक्य mantras, homa offering) is called यजति (याग). While sitting, with the स्वाहा offering, a homa is called जुहोति (होम).

In some copies, gift is defined as follows:

ददाति दत्तार्णपूर्वकः परस्वत्वेन संबंधः ॥

Gift is the transfer of one's own ownership in favour of another. In such a case ददाति is used.

Adhikarana XIV. Sūtras 29—30 Dealing with the case of the वह्निर्grass in the stibhya. sacrifice etc.

विधेः कर्मापवर्गित्वादर्थान्तरे विधिप्रदेशः स्यात् ॥ ४।२।२९॥

विधेः of a command; कर्मापवर्गित्वात् by its lasting till the completion of an act. अर्थान्तरे for another object, विधिप्रदेशः another command, स्यात् shall be.

29. The force of Vedic command lasts till the completion of an act ; and for another act another command is required.

The objector says that a material used in a sacrifice can not be used for another sacrifice , so another material of the same kind will be required for it . Accordingly when वहि^१ has been used for Atithya sacrifice, another grass will be required for उपसद् and अग्निषोमीय

अपि वोत्पत्तिसंयोगादर्थसम्बन्धोऽविशिष्टानां प्रयोगैकत्वहेतुः स्यात् ॥ ४ । २ । ३० ॥

अपिवा not so, उत्पत्ति संयोगात् by reason of the original command; अर्थसंबन्धः connection with the object , अविशिष्टानां of that which are not specially described , प्रयोगैकत्वहेतुः cause of the act being one'; स्यात् is

30. Not so , by reason of the original command (an act is enjoined); and the connection of the acts not specially described with the object is the reason of their constituting one whole act,

The siddhānta view is embodied in the present sūtra . The grass which is brought for the Atithya sacrifice is described by the original विधि and as उपसद् and अग्निषोमीय are not specially described, it proves that the whole is one , the same grass may therefore be used and no separate grass is required

END OF PĀDA II

PĀDA III

Adhikaraṇa I sūtras 1—3 Dealing with कर्त्तव्य^१ nature of materials, their purification and note.

द्रव्यसंस्कारकर्मसु परार्थत्वात्फलश्रुतिरर्थवादः स्यात्

॥ ४ । ३ । १ ॥

द्रव्यसंस्कारकर्मसु in materials, their purification and acts ; परार्थत्वात् by reason of their being subservient to others , फलश्रुतिः the text regarding a reward ; अर्थवादः commendatory ; स्यात् is.

1. The text regarding the reward as to the materials, their purification and acts by reason of their being subservient to others is recommendatory.

As we have seen, there are three constituents of भावना or act; the साध्य that is the object or you may say the result or reward ; the साधन or the materials and इतिकर्तव्यता i. e. the subordinate acts which subserve the purpose. In this pāda, the author deals with the फल or the reward of the act. In the present sūtra, the author has laid down the general proposition that text laying down the reward of the materials is अर्थवाद

उत्पत्तेश्चातत्प्रधानत्वात् ॥ ४ ॥ ३ । २ ॥

उत्पत्तेः of the original (text), च and; अतत्प्रधानत्वात् on account of its being not principal.

2. In the original (Vedic text) on account of its being not principal.

In the original Vedic text (i. e. यस्य पर्णमयी जुहूर्भवति न पापं श्लोकं श्रणोति- तै० सं० ३।५।३।२ "He whose जुहु is made of leaves, does not hear bad news.") the reward mentioned is of subordinate nature. There is no relationship of invariable concomitance between not hearing bad tidings and the use of पर्णजुहु. So it can only be subordinate and an अर्थवाद. This is an additional reason advanced by the author in support of his view.

फलन्तु तत्प्रधानायाम् ॥ ४ । ३ । ३ ॥

फलं reward, तु on the other hand, तत्प्रधानायाम् when it is principal in it.

3. On the other hand, the (mention of) reward (is original) when it is principal in it

When the description in the original text is principal, the mention of the reward is अपूर्वविधिः. This is the distinction which our author has made as regards the फलश्रुति being अपूर्वविधिः or अर्थवाद

Adhikarana II. Dealing with the unessential nature of the बाह्यहस्तिर (a palm seen by बृहत्सृगिर) etc when they are used in performing occasional acts.

नैमित्तिके विकारत्वात्क्रतुप्रधानमन्यत्स्यात् ॥ ४ । ३ । ४ ॥

नैमित्तिके in performance of occasional acts ; विकारत्वात् on account of its being विकृति or modified sacrifice ; क्रतुप्रधानं the principal sacrifice, अन्यत् different ; स्यात् is.

4. On account of the procedure adopted in the performance of the occasional acts, being that of the modified sacrifice, the principal sacrifice is different.

The author says in this अधिकरण that the procedure adopted in performing the नैमित्तिक acts is that of विकृति, and what is called विकृति is non-essential and the प्रकृति or the model sacrifice is different and therefore essential or principal. This is the proposition which has been laid down by the author in the the present अधिकरण.

Adhikarana III. Sūtras 5 to 7 Dealing with the double (permanent and occasional) nature of curd etc.

एकस्य तूमयत्वे संयोगपृथक्त्वम् ॥ ४ । ३ । ५ ॥

एकस्य of one, तु on the other hand. उमयत्वे in double capacities, संयोग पृथक्त्वं split of the constituent (sentence)

5. On the other hand (when) one (substance used) in two capacities (both for नित्य and नैमित्तिक acts), (there is a) split of a sentence.

What the author lays down as his Siddhānta view is that the relationship of substance and the texts which describe it are to be considered separate and distinct

शेष इति चेत् ॥ ४ । ३ । ६ ॥

शेष subsidiary, इति चेत् if you say.

6. If you say (that the separate sentence be treated as) subsidiary.

The objector says that of the two texts, one may be considered principal and the other may be considered subsidiary to it in order to harmonise them.

नार्थपृथक्त्वात् ॥ ४ । ३ । ७ ॥

न no; नार्थपृथक्त्वात् by reason of the sense being different.

7. No, by reason of the sense being different.

The author gives a reply to the objector's objection raised in the last sūtra. इक्षी जुहोति, इक्ष्नेमियकामस्य जुहुयात्. "He sacrifices with curd." "Let him sacrifice with curd, if desirous of the power of senses." There are two sentences ; they cannot be harmonised because they convey two different senses.

Adhikarana IV Sūtras 3 to 9 Dealing with the कर्तव्य nature of the एवोक्तं etc.

द्रव्याणान्तु क्रियार्थानां संस्कारः क्रतुधर्मस्यात् ॥४।३।८॥

द्रव्याणां of materials, तु on the other hand, क्रियार्थानां for the purpose of an action, संस्कार purification, क्रतुधर्म pertaining to the performance of a sacrifice, स्यात् is

8. On the other hand, the purification of the materials for the purpose of an action is a कर्तव्य

The author has laid down the siddhānta view in the sūtra. The purification of the materials being with the object of performing an act is only for the purpose of the sacrifice and is therefore subsidiary.

पृथक्त्वादव्यवतिष्ठेत ॥ ४ । ३ । ९ ॥

पृथक्त्वाद् by reason of its being separate or different, व्यवतिष्ठेत has been made a rule.

9 By reason (of the acts) being different, this rule has been laid down.

The author gives an additional reason in support of his view ; that minor acts which subserve the purpose of the principal act, being various and many are therefore subsidiary in their nature. This rule has been fixed about क्रतुधर्म in order to distinguish it from पुरुषधर्म.

Adhikarana V dealing with the fruitfulness of विश्वजित् etc

चोदनायां फलाश्रुतेः कर्ममात्रं विधीयेत न ह्यशब्दं प्रतीयते ॥ ४ । ३ । १० ॥

चोदनायां in the original command, फलाश्रुतेः not containing any text about reward, कर्ममात्रं only an act, विधीयेत has been ordained, laid down; न हि न शब्दं that which is not laid down; न not, प्रतीयते. is recognised.

10. When there is no mention of a reward in the commandatory text, it lays down only an act. because what is not ordained is not recognised.

The objector says that where no fruit is mentioned, it may be safely presumed that it prescribes an act merely.

अपि वाऽन्मानसामर्थ्याच्चोदनार्थेनगम्येतार्थानां ह्यर्थ-
त्वेन वचनानि प्रतीयन्तेऽर्थतोऽप्यसमर्थानामानन्तर्ध्व-
सम्बन्धस्तस्माच्छ्रुत्येकदेशस्तः ॥ ४ । ३ । ११ ॥

अपि वा no, आन्मानसामर्थ्यात् by force of the Vedic sentence, चोदना command binding nature, अर्थेन object, अर्थोपपत्ति, गम्येत is inferred, अर्थानां of objects, हि because, अर्थवत्त्वेन by being for the purpose, वचनानि vedic texts, प्रतीयन्ते are recognised अर्थतः from the object, असमर्थानां of weak, devoid; आनन्तर्ध्व in proximity, अपि also; अस्त्यर्थः not connected, तस्मात् therefore, because; श्रुत्येक-
देशः a part of the Vedic text; सः that

11 Not so; the binding force (command) is inferred from the authority of the Vedic text; the texts are recognised to be for some object by reason of their having rewards. Those that do not contain any reward and have no connection with any (sentence) in the proximity (their connection should be sought in a remote passage) because it is a portion of the Vedic text.

This sūtra is in reply to the objection raised in sūtra 10. The author's own view is that the Vedas are themselves authorities and have a binding force. Every text should be presumed to contain reward because they can not be without an object, if it were so i.e. without an object you will have to seek the connection in some remoter passage containing a fruit because it is a part of the whole Vedic text.

वाक्यार्थश्च गुणार्थवत् ॥ ४ । ३ । १२ ॥

वाक्यार्थः sense of the Vedic text; गुणार्थवत् like the sense of the subordinate acts.

12. The sense of the Vedic sentence is like the sense of the subordinate act.

Here in the present सूत्र the author supports his view by an analogy; just as the principal is described in one text and its quality is described in another, but both these are connected by the principle of एकवाक्यता, so in the same way when at one place an act is described but at another place the reward is mentioned, both are to be connected together under the above mentioned principle of एकवाक्यता.

Adhikarapa VI sūtras 13-14 dealing with the subject that विश्वजित् produces one fruit only.

तत्सर्वार्थमनादेशात् ॥ ४ । ३ । १३ ॥

तत् that, सर्वार्थं fulfilling all objects, अनादेशात् on account of no specification.

That (विश्वजित् produces) all fruits, because no specific reward is mentioned.

The objector says that when no specific fruit is mentioned, it may then be presumed that विश्वजित् produces all sorts of rewards.

एकं वा चोदनैकत्वात् ॥ ४ । ३ । १४ ॥

एकं one, वा or, चोदनैकत्वात् by virtue of one command

14. (It produces) one fruit, because there is one command.

The author gives a reply that विश्वजित् is only one act and there is only one (विधि) command, so it can produce one fruit only

Adhikarapa VII. Sūtras 15-16. Dealing with the subject that विश्वजित् &c. secure heaven as their reward

स स्वर्गः स्यात्सर्वान्प्रत्यविशिष्टत्वात् ॥ ४ । ३ । १५ ॥

स, that, स्वर्गः heaven, स्यात् is, सर्वान् to all, प्रति to, अविशिष्टत्वात् by being commonly desired

12. That (reward) is heaven because it is desired by all

This sūtra embodies the sūdhanta view of the author, he says that the fruit of विश्वजित् is heaven as it is the summum bonum of all men.

प्रत्ययाच्च ॥ ४ । ३ । १६ ॥

प्रत्ययात् by reason of experience, च and

16. And by reason of (our) experience.

The author supports his view by an additional reason. He says that human experience also shows that the heaven is the ultimate object of all mankind.

The sūtras 10 to 16 constitute विश्वजित्-न्याय

Adhikarapa VIII. Sūtras 17 to 19 Dealing with the अर्थवाद nature of the reward of रात्रिसत्र.

क्रतौ फलार्थवादमङ्गवत्कार्णाजिनिः ॥ ४ । ३ । १७ ॥

कती in a sacrifice; फलार्थवाद the अर्थवाद-as regards the fruit; अगवत् like that of subsidiary act कार्ष्णाजिनि: (it is the opinion of) Kārṣṇājini.

17. It is the opinion of कार्ष्णाजिनि that the अर्थवाद description of a fruit in a sacrifice is like that of the description of a subordinate act.

A sacrifice consists of प्रधान and गौण acts, the principal is described by the विधि and the subordinate acts by अर्थवाद. So according to कार्ष्णाजिनि the description of reward of a sacrifice is only an अर्थवाद.

फलमात्रेण निर्देशादश्रुतौ ह्यनुमानं स्यात् ॥४॥३॥१८॥

फलं fruit, reward, मात्रेण: (it is the opinion of) Ātreya, निर्देशात् by reason of the command or direction, अश्रुतौ when there is no text; हि certainly, अनुमानं inference, स्यात् is.

18. It is the opinion of आत्रेय that there is a reward under the (Vedic) command and where there is no command, it can be inferred

The opinion of आत्रेय is opposed to कार्ष्णाजिनि. He says that the fruit mentioned in the विधि should be considered to be principal and that mentioned as अर्थवाद is redundant, the fruit not mentioned in the विधि but mentioned as अर्थवाद should be considered to be a part of विधि under the principle of वाक्यशेषता. Where no fruit is mentioned, it should be inferred

अङ्गेषु स्तुतिः परार्थत्वात् ॥ ४ । ३ । १९ ॥

अङ्गेषु in subordinate acts; स्तुतिः praise, परार्थत्वात् by reason of being subordinate to others.

19. The praise in subordinate acts (is) by reason of being subordinate to others (for the principal).

Where two acts are related as principal and subordinate, the praise of the subordinate act under the principle of वाक्यशेष is for the principal. This adhikaraṇa is called रात्रि सन्न्याय.

Adhikaraṇa IX Śātras 20-24 Dealing with the accomplishment of respective human desires as described, of the काम्य sacrifices.

काम्ये कर्मणि नित्यः स्वर्गो यथा यज्ञाङ्गे क्रत्वर्थः

॥ ४ । ३ । २० ॥

काम्ये in desire accomplishing; कर्मणि act or sacrifice; त्रित्य its own fruit; स्वर्गे heaven; यथा just as; यज्ञांगे in a subordinate act of a sacrifice; कर्तव्यं for the purpose of the sacrifice

20. In a desire accomplishing sacrifice, (there) is its reward in the shape of heaven; just as a subordinate act (besides fulfilling its result) is for the sake of a sacrifice.

This sūtra lays down the पूर्वपक्ष view of the objector. When a subordinate act is performed, it fulfils its own purpose and further produces the purpose mentioned in the text, गोदोहनेन पशु कामस्य प्रणयेत् "One who desires cattle, should carry consecrated water in the milking vessel." So in the same manner when a काम्य act is performed, it fulfils its own purpose and secures heaven in addition.

वीति च कारणे नियमात् ॥ ४ । ३ । २१ ॥

वीति being satisfied; च and; कारणे on the cause; नियमात् by virtue of the restrictive rule.

21. On the cause (which actuated the act) being over, by reason of the restrictive rule (the act is continued till completion).

The objector supports his view by stating a fact that the sacrifice is continued till completion even though the object to secure heaven is accomplished.

कामो वा तत्संयोगेन चोद्यते ॥ ४ । ३ । २२ ॥

काम motive, gratification of a desire; वा on the other hand, तत्संयोगेन in connection with that; चोद्यते has been enjoined.

22. On the other hand, the motive has been ordained in that connection.

The author gives his own view and says that the text lays down the object of the काम्य acts and the inference that heaven is secured in addition to it, is unreasonable.

अङ्गे गुणत्वात् ॥ ४ । ३ । २३ ॥

अङ्गे in a subordinate act; गुणत्वात् by virtue of its being subordinate.

23. In a subordinate act by reason of its being subordinate.

The author continues his reply and says that the case of a subordinate act is entirely different because it serves its own purpose beside being subservient to the main act. It is a case of disparity as explained before.

वीते च नियमस्तदर्थम् ॥ ४ । ३ । २४ ॥

वीते on being accomplished, च and, नियमः restrictive rule; तदर्थं with that object.

25 On the desire being accomplished, the rule (that it should be continued till completion) is for that object.

The author continues to reply the objection raised in the पूर्वपक्ष that the sacrifice is continued till completion even though the desire is accomplished under the rule that a work when once commenced should be completed

Adhikarana X. Sūtra 25-26 Dealing with the subject that दर्शपूर्णमास sacrifices fulfil all desires

सर्वकाम्यमङ्गकामैः प्रकरणात् ॥ ४ । ३ । २५ ॥

सर्वकाम्य accomplishing all desires, अङ्गकामैः desires connected with the subordinate acts, प्रकरणात् by reason of a context

25. All desires are fulfilled by fulfilment of the desires connected with subordinate acts (as is shown) by the context.

The sūtra embodies the objection of the पूर्वपक्ष In connection with दर्श and पूर्णमास sacrifices; certain subordinate acts are performed, they fulfil all desires as appears from the word 'all' used in the Veda, एकस्मै वाअन्या इष्ट्य, कामाय आह्वयन्ते सर्वेभ्यो दर्शपूर्णमासौ । एकस्मै वाऽन्येकतवः कामाय आह्वयन्ते सर्वेभ्यो योनिष्टोमः । आहार्यपुरीषां पशुकामस्य वेदिं कुर्व्यात् । छननपुरीषां प्रतिष्ठाकामस्य ॥ यदि कामयेत वर्णैतपर्जन्यः । नीचै सदो भिनुयात् ॥ "Other sacrifices are performed for the accomplishment of one object but the new and full moon sacrifices are performed for the accomplishment of all desires Other sacrifices are performed for the accomplishment of one desire but the योनिष्टोम is performed for the accomplishment of all. One who is desirous of cattle should construct an altar that can easily be swept, but one who is desirous of honour, should construct it in such a way that any rubbish may be removed from it by digging. If one is desirous of rains let him make a sitting place low "

फलोपदेशो वा प्रधानशब्दसंयोगात् ॥ ४ । ३ । २६ ॥

फलोपदेशः description of the reward, वा on the other hand, प्रधानशब्द संयोगात् by connection of the principal statement

26, On the other hand; (it is) a description of the reward by reason of the connection with the principal statement.

The author gives his own view in the सूत्र. He says that as the principal statement is connected with the दशपूर्वमास and ज्योतिषोम, the fulfilment of desires is in connection with the principal and is therefore an अपूर्ववधि:

Adhikarana XI. Sūtras 27-28 Dealing with the subject that दश and पूर्वमास are to be performed separately and have their respective rewards.

तत्र सर्वेऽविशेषात् ॥ ४ । ३ । २७ ॥

तत्र there, सर्वे all, अविशेषात् by reason of no distinction

27. There all (desires are accomplished) as no distinction is made

This and the following sūtra have been interpreted differently In one view it is argued that as no distinctive word is used, so it is fair to presume that all desires are produced at once In another view, it means all desires are fulfilled in the next world. It is an objection on behalf of the पूर्वपक्ष

योगसिद्धिर्वाऽर्थस्योत्पत्त्यसंयोगित्वात् ॥ ४ । ३ । २८ ॥

योग सिद्धिः fulfilment of desires in succession; वा on the other hand; अर्थस्य of the object or desire; उत्पत्ति production, असंयोगित्वात् by reason of the non-connection.

28 On the other hand, the desires are fulfilled in succession by reason of their not rising simultaneously.

The siddhanta view is embodied in the present sūtra The author is supposed to reply in one view that as desires do not rise simultaneously so they can not be fulfilled simultaneously; and in the other view he says that the desires are fulfilled in this and the next world This adhikarana is called योगसिद्धिर्याय and adhikaranas X and XI constitute दशपूर्वमासप्राय. The XI adhikarana according to the other view is called काम्यानामैहिकानुमितिक फलवत्त्वाधिकरणम् i.e. adhikarana dealing with the subject that काम्य sacrifices fulfil the desires in this and the other world. In this view this adhikarana is numbered XII

Adhikarana XII. Sūtras 29-31, Dealing with the subject that सौत्रामण्यि &c., are the part of चदन (architectural sacrifices) &c.

समवाये चोदनासंयोगस्यार्थवत्त्वात् ॥ ४ । ४ । २९ ॥

समवाये in concomittance or relationship; बोधनासंयोगस्य of the connection of the command, अर्थवद्वात् by reason of its conveying sense.

29. Because the sense of the text is properly conveyed when it is connected with the permanent relationship

The author expresses his view that the connection of the principal and its subsidiary conveys the full signification of the command, सौत्रमणि is a constituent of agnichayana अग्निं चित्वा सौत्रमण्या यजेत 'Having established fire, let him perform सौत्रमणि

कालश्रुतौ काल इति चेत् ॥ ४ । ३ । ३० ॥

कालश्रुतौ in the text enjoining time, कालः time, इति चेत् if you say

36. If you say that it indicates time under a text enjoining time.

The author raises a doubt that if you say that the text shows time, viz, first the performance of अग्निचयन and then सौत्रमणि; so according to the objector's view, it is a sequence of time.

नासमवायात्प्रयोजनेन ॥ ४ । ३ । ३१ ॥

न not, असमवायात् by reason of no relationship, प्रयोजनेन with the reward; स्यात् will be

31. Not so, because there will be no connection with the reward.

The author replies that it can not be considered to be sequence of time, as the two sacrifices are not independent, they are principal and subordinate; and as there is no connection with the reward; so one is subordinate and depends on the principal

Adhik. rana XIV. Sūtras 32 to 35. Dealing with the subject that वैवृष et. are subordinate to the full moon sacrifice &c.

उभयार्थमिति चेत् ॥ ४ । ३ । ३२ ॥

उभयार्थ double object, इति चेत् if it be said.

32. If it be said that it is for both.

The अजिहरण opens with the पूर्वपक्ष view The text is संस्थाप्य पूर्णमासी वैवृषानुनिर्वपति "Having made the offering of full-moon sacrifice, he performs वैवृष sacrifice" The वैवृष sacrifice is mentioned in connection with पूर्णमासीयाग; so it is a constituent part of the full moon sacrifice and be-use it is mentioned after the performance of पूर्णमासीयाग, it therefore also indicates the sequence of time. In the opinion of the objector it is both sequence of time and constituent part of दर्शपूर्णमासयाग.

न शब्दैकत्वात् ॥ ४ । ३ । ३३ ॥

न not so, शब्दैकत्वात् by reason of one sentence.

33. It is not so, by reason of its being one sentence

It can not be so; otherwise there will a be split of sentence. It is only one sentence; according to the principle of interpretation as laid down by the Mīmāṃsakās वैश्व can only be a constituent part of पूर्णमासीयाग.

प्रकरणादिति चेत् ॥ ३४ ॥

प्रकरणात् by reason of the context, इति चेत् if you say.

34. If you say that by reason of the context.

The author again raises a doubt on behalf of the पूर्वपक्ष. If it be said that the passage occurs in connection with the दर्शपूर्णमास sacrifices and therefore it partakes of the double nature as stated by the पूर्वपक्ष, the author's reply to it is embodied in the following sūtra.

नेत्पत्तिसंयोगात् ॥ ४ । ३ । ३५ ॥

न no; उत्तरसि संयोगात् by virtue of the original sentence.

35. No; by reason of the original sentence.

The sūtra embodies the siddhānta view of the author. He says that in the original sentence वैश्व is described as the part of पूर्णमासयाग and the force of the sentence predominates over the context according to the rules of interpretation laid down by the Mīmāṃsa authors. So the वैश्व can not be both

Adhikaraṇa XV. Dealing with the subject that अनुयाज &c, are to be performed after the recitation of agni māruta hymns

अनुत्पत्तौ तु कालः स्यात्प्रयोजनेन सम्बन्धात् ॥४॥३॥३६॥

अनुत्पत्तौ when there is no original statement; तु on the other hand; कालः sequence of time, स्यात् is, प्रयोजनेन with the object, सम्बन्धात् by virtue of the connection.

36. On the other hand when there is no original sentence, it is then sequence of time by virtue of its connection with the object.

From the above discussion, we clearly see that in order to determine whether an act is कालविधि or अंगविधि, it depends upon the Vedic text. If it is श्रुति, it is अंग, and if it is लिङ्ग, it is काल. Now the text is अग्निमारुतादूर्ध्वं मनुयाजैश्चरति "They perform अनुयाज after अग्निमारुत hymns." Agni-māruta is a part of soma sacrifice and Anuyāja sacrifice is a part of an animal sacrifice. So there is no connection whatever of one being the part of the other. Under the circumstance, it is a case of कालविधि sequence of time.

Adhikaraṇa XVI Dealing with the subject that soma-sacrifices are to be performed after दर्शपूर्णमासयागः

उत्पत्तिकालविशये कालः स्याद्वाक्यस्य तत्प्रधानत्वात्

॥ ४ । ३ । ३७ ॥

उत्पत्तिकालविशये when there is a doubt whether it is अंगविधि or काल विधि: काल time, स्यात् is, वाक्यस्य of the sentence तत्प्रधानत्वात् by virtue of its being principal.

37. When there is a doubt whether it is a relationship of a part to the whole or a sequence of time, it is a sequence of time by virtue of its being principal in the sentence.

There is a text दर्शपूर्णमासविष्टा सोमेन यजते । "After performing new and full moon sacrifices, he performs soma sacrifice." Now the question is whether there is a relationship of a part to the whole or whether it is a sequence of time. The author says that the original sentence which describes both दर्शपूर्णमासयाग and सोमयाग does not mention any साध्य, साधन or इतिकर्तव्यता; nor does it show that दर्शपूर्णमास sacrifices are subsidiary to सोमयाग. The only alternative is that it indicates sequence of time.

Adhikaraṇa XVII Sūtras 38-39 Dealing with the subject that the fruit of वैश्वानर sacrifice is to be derived by the son

फलसंयोगस्त्वचोदिते न स्यादशेषभूतत्वात् ॥४१॥३८॥

फलसंयोगः securing of fruit, तु on the other hand; अचोदिते not being commanded, न नो, स्यात् is, अशेषभूतत्वात् by reason of there being no relationship of a part to its whole.

38. On the other hand, when there is no commandatory text, there is no reward (to the sacrificer) by virtue of there being no relationship of a part to its whole.

वैश्वानरं द्वादशकपालं निर्वपेत् पुत्रे जाते ॥ This is the Vedic text, it means that on the birth of a son, one should perform वैश्वानर sacrifice with 12 earthen pans (for baking पुरोडाश cakes) The question is whether the fruit accrues to the performer or not According to the author, as there is no mention of the fruit in the original command, the fruit does not accrue to the performer but to his son The son is under another Vedic text, like one's self आत्मावैपुत्रः "A son is one's own self."

अङ्गानां तूपघातसंयोगो निमित्तार्थः ॥ ४ । ३ । ३६ ॥

अङ्गानां of the constituent parts, तु on the other hand, उपघातसंयोगः mention of the son's birth, निमित्तार्थः with a purpose

39. On the other hand, the mention of the son's birth is for the purpose of subsidiary actions

The word उपघात has been differently interpreted We have followed शबर who has taken it in the sense of the birth of a son In this view it means that the वैश्वानर sacrifice is to be performed on this occasion. It is not performed immediately but ten days after the birth.

Adhikaraṇa XVIII Sūtra: 40-41 dealing with the subject that subsidiary actions such as सौत्रामणि etc should be performed at their proper time

प्रधानेनाभिसंयोगादङ्गानां मुख्यकालत्वम् ॥ ४ । ३ । ४० ॥

प्रधानेन with the principal, अभिसंयोगात् by reason of the connection, अङ्गानां of the subsidiary actions, मुख्यकालत्वं the time of the principal, is the time

4. By reason of the connection with the principal, the time of the principal is the time of the subsidiary actions.

The objector says that सौत्रामणि is subsidiary to अग्निचयन, so the time of performance of सौत्रामणि is the same as that of अग्निचयन

अपवृत्ते तु चोदना तत्सामान्यात्स्वकाले स्यात् ॥ ४ । ३ । ४१ ॥

अपवृत्ते on the completion, तु on the other hand, चोदना commandatory text; तत्सामान्यात् by reason of its general nature, स्वकाले at the proper time, स्यात् is.

41. On the other hand, on the completion (of a sacrifice, another sacrifice should be commenced, is) the commandatory text; by virtue of its general nature (the subsidiary sacrifices) shall be (performed) at the proper time

The author gives his own view in this sūtra. The command is that on the completion of one sacrifice another should be performed. अग्निचयन is the principal and सौत्रमणि is its subsidiary sacrifice; वाजपेय is the principal sacrifice and बृहस्पतिर्वज्र is its part. The rule is that on the completion of one sacrifice, the other is commenced. So all the parts of a sacrifice should be performed at their proper time

END OF PĀDA III

PĀDA IV

Adhikarṇa 1 30 ras 1-2 Dealing with the subject that gambling &c. are part of Rājāsūya sacrifice &c

प्रकरणशब्दसामान्याच्चोदनानामनङ्गत्वम् ॥ ४ । ४ । १ ॥

प्रकरणशब्दसामान्यात् by virtue of context in general, चोदनानां commendatory text, अनङ्गत्वं does not constitute the relation of principal and subordinate

1. By virtue of the word 'context' in general, the commendatory text does not constitute subordinate acts.

In a Rājāsūya sacrifice, many minor acts are performed as for example minor sacrifices, animal sacrifice, soma sacrifice, gambling and narration of the story of शुनः शेष and द्विहोम. The objector says that they all occur under the subject of राजसूय and by that reason the minor acts do not become subsidiary

अपि वाऽङ्गमनिज्याः स्युस्ततो विशिष्टत्वात् ॥४।४।२॥

अपि not so; अनङ्ग a subsidiary act, अनिज्याः without an oblation; स्युः are, ततः from that, विशिष्टत्वात् by reason of the difference.

2. Not so, the subordinate acts are without oblation, therefore there is a distinction.

The author in the present सूत्र gives his opinion that gambling &c. in the राजसूय sacrifice are performed without oblation and do not produce any fruit so they are not अर्थकर्म and are therefore subordinate acts

Adhikaraṇa II. Sūtras 3—4 dealing with the subject that the gambling is the part of the whole राजसूय sacrifice.

मध्यस्थं यस्य तन्मध्ये ॥ ४ । ४ । ३ ॥

मध्यस्थं the middle of a particular context; यस्य of which; तन्मध्ये in that context.

3. It belongs to that subject under which it is described.

There is अभिवेचनीय act in the राजसूय sacrifice; there gambling is described. The objector says that gambling is therefore subordinate to the अभिवेचनीय कर्म

सर्वासां वा समत्वाच्चेदनातः स्यान्न हि तस्य प्रकरणं
देशार्थमुच्यते मध्ये ॥ ४ । ४ । ४ ॥

सर्वासां of all, वा on the other hand, समत्वात् by reason of equality; चेदनातः from the commandatory text. स्यात् is, नहि not; तस्य its, प्रकरणं context, देशार्थं for pointing out, for direction, उच्यते is stated, मध्ये in the middle.

4. By virtue of the original text they are all equally important, it is not its context; it is mentioned in the middle for the purpose of direction.

The author gives his own view in the present sūtra. The gambling &c, are described in a serial order under the subject of अभिवेचनीय act (of soma-sacrifice), that is not its context, it is described in that order. According to the rules of interpretation as laid down by the मीमांसा, the प्रकरण is stronger than the कर्म. So the context is of राजसूय यज्ञ and all other details are equally important

Adhikaraṇa III. Sūtras 5 and 6 dealing with the subject that the सौम्य &c., are to be performed at the time of उपसत्,

प्रकरणाविभागे च विप्रतिषिद्धं ह्युभयम् ॥ ४ । ४ । ५ ॥

प्रकरणाविभागे in the indivisibility of the context; च and; विप्रतिषिद्धं forbidden, split of the sentence; हि because; उभयं both.

5. On account of the indivisibility of the context, the direct command relating to two is forbidden (by reason of the syntactical division).

The offering of somya cup is made to Soma, Twiṣṭra, Viṣṇu and it is made at the time of उपसत् The question is whether it is a कालविधि or अंगविधि The objector says that by holding it to be a कालविधि there will be a fault of syntactical division It is, therefore, according to the objector a subsidiary act of उपसत्

अपि वा कालमात्रं स्याददर्शनाद्विशेषस्य ॥ ४।४।६ ॥

अपिवा not so, कालमात्रं time only, अदर्शनात् by reason of absence, विशेषस्य of the special (mention)

6. Not so; it (lays down) time only, by reason of the absence of any special mention

The author gives his own view in the sūtra As there is no special mention and as it is mentioned in connection with उपसद्, it is according to the rule (laid down in chapter IV, 3 pāda, 36 sūtra) a कालविधि:

Adhikaraṇa IV. Dealing with the subject that the आमनहोम is subsidiary to समग्रणी

फलवद्भोक्तहेतुत्वादितरस्य प्रधानं स्यात् ॥ ४।४।७ ॥

फलवत् which produces fruit or reward, वा on the other hand; उक्तहेतुत्वात् by the said reason, इतरस्य of another, प्रधानं principal, स्यात् is.

7. (The acts) which produce fruit are principal, by reason as given of another.

The acts are of two kinds, those that produce fruits and others that produce no fruit, आमन homa belongs to the latter class and is therefore subordinate to समग्रणी sacrifice in which विश्वेदेव are invoked and which is principal Here in the sūtra इतर is used in contradistinction with प्रधान

Adhikaraṇa V Sūtras 9-11 Dealing with the subject that the दधिग्रह is permanent and essential.

दधिग्रहे नैमित्तिकः श्रुतिसंयोगात् ॥ ४।४।८ ॥

दधिग्रहः the cup of curd, नैमित्तिकः occasional, श्रुति संयोगात् by reason of the description in the Vedic text.

8. The (offering of a) cup of curd is occasional by reason of its relation with the Vedic text.

According to the Vedic text, the दधिग्रह ceremony is performed whenever there is an error or omission in the performance of a sacrifice to appease the gods. The objector says that the performance of the दधिग्रह ceremony is therefore occasional.

नित्यञ्च ज्येष्ठशब्दात् ॥ ४ । ४ । ९ ॥

नित्यः permanent, essential, च and, ज्येष्ठशब्दात् by virtue of the word 'excellent.'

(The दधिग्रह is) permanent because of the word 'excellent' (used).

The objector takes up another position and says that as the word 'excellent' is used in this connection the दधिग्रह ceremony is therefore permanent, what is excellent should always be performed. According to the objector, the दधिग्रह ceremony is both essential and incidental. ज्येष्ठो वा एषग्रहाणायस्यैवगृह्यते ज्येष्ठमेवगच्छति ॥ (तै० सं० ३।५।६।१) "It is best of all the cups, he who uses it, becomes excellent."

सार्वरूप्याच्च ॥ ४ । ४ । १० ॥

सार्वरूप्यात् by reason of its being the form of all (gods), च and.

10. And also by reason of its being the form of all (gods).

The objector strengthens his view by stating that the दधिग्रह is the form of all the gods and the form of the gods is permanent. The दधिग्रह ceremony is therefore both permanent and occasional. सर्वासांवापतद् देवानां रूपं यदेवग्रहो यस्यैवगृह्यते सर्वाण्ये वै न रूपानि पशुनामुपनिष्ठते । (३।५।६।१) "It is the form of all the gods viz., this cup, he who uses this cup, obtains all the forms and cattle."

नित्यो वा स्यादर्थवादस्तयोः कर्मण्यसम्बन्धाद्भित्वा-
च्चान्तरायस्य ॥ ४ । ४ । ११ ॥

नित्यः permanent, वा on the other hand, स्यात् is, अर्थवादः recommendation, restatement, तयोः of the both (the priest and the sacrificer); कर्मणि in the sacrifice; असंबन्धात् by reason of no connection; भित्त्वात् by reason of impermanent nature, अन्तरायस्य of the impediment.

11. On the other hand, it is permanent; it is अर्थवाद because of their (of the sacrificer and the priest) having no connection with the act and by reason of the impermanent nature of the impediment.

The author gives his own view finally after discussing the subject from the objector's point of view. He says that both the अश्वयु' and यजमान have no connection with the impediment and because the impediment is of momentary nature it is therefore incidental. The दधिग्रह is performed to appease the gods in order to obviate the impediment that may happen. The performance of दधिग्रह is therefore essential.

Adhikarāṇi VI. Sūtras 12—13 Dealing with the subject that वैश्वानर is occasional वैश्वानरश्च नित्यः स्यान्नित्यैः समानसङ्ख्यत्वात् ॥१२॥

वैश्वानरः Vaiśvānara offering, नित्यः permanent, स्यात् is, नित्यैः with permanent (things), समानसङ्ख्यत्वात् by reason of numbering along or among.

12. Vaiśvānara is permanent by reason of its being numbered along with permanent things.

The पूर्वपक्ष view is that as the वैश्वानर offerings are mentioned amongst permanent things, so they are permanent

पक्षे वोत्पन्नसंयोगात् ॥ ४ । ४ । १३ ॥

पक्षे otherwise, on an occasion, वा on the other hand ; उत्पन्न संयोगात् by reason of the original statement.

13. On the other hand, it is occasional by reason of the original authority.

The author's view is embodied in the present sūtra. The original text which is quoted in this connection shows that ukhya fire is carried about one's neck for a year. Ukhya is an iron grate and fire in it is carried by tying it to the neck of the person for a year. He then, becomes qualified to perform the अग्निचयन sacrifice, if it is not done and the sacrifice is performed, the sacrificer is destroyed just as the fetus is destroyed. In order to obviate the evil which is to befall by reason of this omission, a puroḍāśa cake is offered to वैश्वानर fire and the danger of destruction is averted. But when ukhya fire has been carried, there is then no necessity of वैश्वानर offering. So the वैश्वानर offering is occasional ; it is performed when the emergency arises. यो वै सम्बत्सामुख्यमभृत्वाग्निं विनुते यथा सप्रतिगम्योवपद्यते तादृगेव तदतिमाच्छेदं वैश्वानरं हृदयकपालं पुस्त्यात् निर्वपेत् स वत्सतो वा अग्निर्वैश्वानरो यथा सम्बत्सामाप्त्वा ॥ काल आगते विजायत एवमेव सम्बत्सामाप्त्वा काल आगते ऽग्निं विनुते नातिमाच्छेद्ये वा अग्नेः प्रियतिनू यद वैश्वानरः प्रियाग्नेवास्य तनुवमवहति ॥ (तै० सं० ५।५।१।१३) "He who without holding fire in ukhya, establishes the sacred fire, is destroyed like the undeveloped fœtus, (in case, he is incapable to carry उक्ष for a year) he should offer cakes baked on 12 pans to वैश्वानर, because a year is वैश्वानर fire ; like the fœtus which becomes nature in a year and is born on arrival of its time, similarly having held उक्ष for a year, he establishes fire on the arrival of its time so that he may not perish. It is the dear body of अग्नि which is वैश्वानर, he obtains his dear body certainly "

Adhikaraṇa V'I Sūtras 14-18 Dealing with the occasional nature of षट्चितिः:

षट्चितिः पूर्ववत्त्वात् ॥ ४ । ४ । १४ ॥

षट्चितिः, satchiti sacrifice, पूर्ववत्त्वात् by reason of its being like the former.

14. The Satchiti sacrifice is like the former

The sūtra embodies the पूर्वपक्ष view of the objector He says that षट्चिति is also permanent as he argued in the previous cases.

ताभिश्च तुल्यसंख्यानात् ॥ ४ । ४ । १५ ॥

ताभिः with them, च and, तुल्य संख्यानात् by reason of its reckoning among.

15. And by reason of its being reckoned among them.

The objector supports his view by advancing an additional reason that the sixth chiti is described amongst the 5 chitis. The five chittis are permanent and the 6th chitti is also therefore permanent. "A chiti is a place made of various kinds of bricks in the form of a bird on a ground of two spans levelled by a plough Such 5 chitis are first made and the sixth one is lastly constructed, in them fire is established."

अर्थवादोपपत्तेश्च ॥ ४ । ४ । १६ ॥

अर्थवादोपपत्तेः by reason of the explanation of the recommandatory text ; च and.

16. And by reason of the satisfactory explanation of the recommandatory statement in this connection.

The objector further supports his view by saying that the अर्थवाद text in this connection can be explained by holding the षट्चिति to be permanent

एकचितिर्वा स्यादपवृक्ते हि चोदते निमित्तेन ॥४॥४॥१७॥

एकचितिः one chiti, वा on the other hand; स्यात् is, अपवृत्ते on completion, हि because, चोद्यते ordained, निमित्तेन with a purpose

17. On the other hand, there is only one chiti on the completion (of the अग्निचयन sacrifice) because it is ordained with a purpose.

In the sūtra, the author expresses his own view. The five chitis constitute the अग्निचयन sacrifice, if there is an error or omission, then the 6th chiti is performed. If 5 chitis are satisfactorily performed, then there is no necessity for the performance of the 6th chiti.

विप्रतिषेधात्ताभिः समानसङ्ख्यत्वम् ॥ ४ । ४ । १८ ॥

विप्रतिषेधान् by reason of opposition, ताभिः with them, समानसङ्ख्यत्वं equal reckoning

18. Though opposed, they are reckoned along with them.

The author replies to the objection raised in sūtra 15. Though the 6th chiti is occasional yet it is mentioned along with permanent things, as gods, men, and manes of opposite classes are mentioned together in the text देवा ऋषयोऽगंधर्वा स्तेऽन्यत आसन् । असुरा राक्षसांसि शिशाश्चा स्तेऽन्यत ॥ (तै० सं० २।४।११) "The gods, the Rishis and Gandharvas were on one side, the Asuras, the demous and evil spirits on the other"

Adhikarana V II. Sūtras 19-21 dealing with the subject that पिंडपितृयज्ञ is not a subsidiary action

पितृयज्ञः स्वकालत्वादनङ्गं स्यात् ॥ ४ । ४ । १९ ॥

पितृयज्ञ offering to the manes of the ancestors, स्वकालत्वात् by reason of its own time; अङ्गं not subsidiary, स्यात् is

19. The offering to the manes by reason of its (appointed) time is principal.

In the sūtra, the author expresses his view that पिंडपितृयज्ञ is an independent sacrifice being performed on a particular day. अमावस्यायामपराह्णे पिंडपितृयज्ञेन चरति "They perform पिंडपितृयज्ञ in the after-noon on अमावस्या."

तुल्यवच्च प्रसङ्ख्यानात् ॥ ४ । ४ । २० ॥

तुल्यवच्च like equal; च and, प्रसङ्ख्यानात् by reason of its being counted

20. And by reason of its being counted along with equal (things).

The author gives an additional reason and says that the पिंडपितृयज्ञ being mentioned along with principal acts, is also principal.

प्रतिषिद्धे च दर्शनात् ॥ ४ । ४ । २१ ॥

प्रतिषिद्धे in the case of prohibition, च and; दर्शनात् by reason of its being seen.

21. And by reason of its being seen on a prohibited day.

The author gives an additional reason in support of his view, he says that the पिंडपितृयज्ञ is performed on a prohibited day, so it is an independent act.

Adhikarana IX Sūtras 22—24. Dealing with the subject that the rope is a part of दृप.

पश्वङ्गं रशना स्यात्तदागमे विधानात् ॥ ४ । ४ । २२ ॥

पश्वङ्गं part of the animal, रशना the rope, स्यात् is; तदागमे in that context; विधानात् by being described

22. The rope is a part of an animal being described in that context.

The objector says that the rope is the part of the animal because it is mentioned in that connection.

यूपार्द्धं वा तत्संस्कारात् ॥ ४ । ४ । २३ ॥

यूपार्द्धं part of the यूप, वा in the alternative, on the other hand, तत्संस्कारात् by reason of purifying it

23. On the other hand, it is a part of the sacrificial post by reason of its purifying it.

In the present sūtra, the author gives his own view. He says that the rope is a part of the sacrificial post because it is tied round the sacrificial post to make it firm

अर्थवादश्च तदर्थवत् ॥ ४ । ४ । २४ ॥

अर्थवादः recommendation; च and, तदर्थवत् full of meaning.

24. It has a meaning (if we take it for an) arthavāda (descriptive).

The text of the R̥gveda where the rope is described in connection with the शूप will convey a meaning if we consider it as a descriptive statement. The author gives this as an additional reason in support of his view.

युधासुवासाः पत्विीत आगात् सउश्रेयान् भवतिजायमानः । तंधीरासः कवयउन्नयति स्वाध्वोऽ मनसादेवयंत ॥ ऋ० सं० (३।८।१३) "Here comes the strong, well clothed, and tied round (with ropes), it (शूप) certainly is the best of all products of wood, the wise poets with meditation, desirous of divine position, erect it "

Adhikarana X S̥tras 25—26. Dealing with the subject that स्वरु is a part of the animal,

स्वरुश्चाप्येकदेशत्वात् ॥ ४ । ४ । २५ ॥

स्वरु a chip, च and, एकदेशत्वात् by reason of its being a portion of it.

25. And स्वरु (is a part of यूप) by reason of its being a part.

The objector says that स्वरु is a part of शूप because it is prepared from it.

निष्क्रयश्च तदङ्गवत् ॥ ४ । ४ । २६ ॥

निष्क्रयः ransom, च and, तदङ्गवत् its part.

26 And (it is) a ransom and therefore it is a part of (the sacrificial post)

There is a story in the Veda that the ladle was broken and the ṛiṣis purchased it with the offering of a handful of grass as a ransom. From the chip of the sacrificial post, the स्वरु was prepared and the destruction of the sacrifice was thus avoided. The objector advances it as an additional reason in support of his view

अग्रश्यन् हस्मवैपुरा ऋषयोऽप्ये यूपं प्रापयन्ति । संमज्य क्षुब्धेन्यते । यत्त वैशसाय वाइदं कर्म इति । तेप्रस्तं स्नुषनिष्क्रयमपश्यन् । यूपस्य स्वरुं अयत्तवैशसाय ॥

"The Ṛiṣis who brought the शूप saw in the days of yore; when the ladle was broken, they believed that it foreboded the destruction of the sacrifice. They saw grass as ransom to purchase the ladle; the swaru made from the शूप is to avert the destruction of the sacrifice "

पशवङ्गं वार्थकर्मत्वात् ॥ ४ । ४ । २७ ॥

पशवङ्गं a part of the animal, वा on the other hand; अर्थकर्मत्वात् by reason of its being an object in itself.

27. On the other hand, स्वर is a part of animal because it is an अर्थकर्म.

The author gives his own view in this sūtra. The स्वर is used in anointing the animal ; as it subserves this purpose, so it is an अर्थकर्म and is therefore subsidiary to the animal.

भक्त्या निष्क्रयवादः स्यात् ॥ ४ । ४ । २८ ॥

भक्त्या by metonymy or transferred sense, निष्क्रयवादः description about ransom, स्यात् 18.

28. The description about ransom is by the transferred sense

भक्ति is the subordinate significant power of a word. When the principal sense of a word is rejected and the quality which it expresses is recognised, it is a case of a transferred sense or metonymy. When the materials of a sacrifice are finally disposed of, instead of the sacrificial post, the स्वर which has been prepared from the घृण is thrown into the sacrificial fire. This mode of release by ransom is called निष्क्रयवादः.

The author gives a reply to the objector's objection contained in sūtra 26 by saying that the निष्क्रयवादः is only by way of metonymy. One स्वर is used in anointing eleven animals with butter. This procedure in a sacrifice is called पशवेकादशिनौ, so स्वर is connected with the sacrificial animal.

Adhikarapa XI. Sūtras 29 to 38. Dealing with the subject that आचार &c. are subsidiary acts.

दर्शपूर्णमासयोरिज्याः प्रधानान्यविशेषात् ॥ ४ । ४ । २९ ॥

दर्शपूर्ण मासयोः of the new and full moons, इज्याः oblations, प्रधानानि principal, अविशेषात् by reason of no speciality (about it)

29. All the oblations (made) during new and full moons are principal by reason of no special mention (made about them).

There are several Yāgas that are performed on the new and full moon days ; they are equally mentioned and there is nothing special about them. The objector in this sūtra says that all यāgas are equally important and principal.

अपि बाह्यानि कानि चिदेष्वङ्गत्वेन संस्तुतिः सामान्योद्गमिसंस्तवः ॥ ४ । ४ । ३० ॥

अपि वा on the contrary also, not so ; अंगानि parts , कामिचिद् some , येषु in which , अंगत्वेन by being part , संस्तुतिः praise , सामान्यः common ; हि because ; अभिसंस्तवः praise.

31 Not so; some are parts which are praised as parts, because the praise is general.

The author gives his own view in the sūtra , that there are certain यागस्य which are praised as parts , and so they are parts but can not be principal.

तथा चान्यार्थदर्शनम् ॥ ४ । ४ । ३१ ॥

तथा also , च and , अन्यार्थदर्शनं seeing another case

31. And again seeing another case

The author supports his view , in some sacrifices प्रयाज and others are not performed , had they been principal, such would not have been the case

अवशिष्टन्तु कारणं प्रधानेषु गुणस्य विद्यमानत्वात्

॥ ४ । ४ । ३२ ॥

अवशिष्टं not distinctive , तु on the contrary , कारणं the reason , प्रधानेषु among the principal, गुणस्य of the subordinate, विद्यमानत्वात् by virtue of its inclusion

32 The reason (given) is not distinctive by virtue of the subordinate being included in the principal

The objector says that the reason given in sūtra 30 that the praise is general is not distinctive , there are texts in which the principal is also praised and the subordinate is included in it

शिरोवा एतत् यज्ञस्य यज्ञानेयः । हृदयं उपांशुयागः । पादावग्नीषोमीयः ॥

“Agnēya offering is the head of the sacrifice , उपांशु offering is its heart , the offerings to Agnisoma are its feet ”

नानुक्तेऽन्यार्थदर्शनं परार्थत्वात् ॥ ४ । ४ । ३३ ॥

न not , अनुक्ते being not mentioned , अन्यार्थदर्शनं seeing another case , परार्थत्वात् by reason of its being subservient to another

33. When it is not mentioned (in the Vedas) it can not be another case by reason of being subservient to another.

The objector supports his view by saying that it is not mentioned in the text that it is subservient to another, so it appears to be another case.

पृथक्त्वे त्वभिधानयोर्निवेशः श्रुतितो व्यपदेशाच्च
तत्पुनर्मुख्यलक्षणं यत्फलवत्त्वं तत्सन्निधावसंयुक्तं तदङ्गं
स्याद्भागित्वात्कारणस्याश्रुतश्चान्यसम्बन्धः ॥ ४ । ४ । ३४ ॥

पृथक्त्वे on being separate, तु on the other hand, अभिधानयोः of the names; निवेशः connection with the fruit, श्रुतिः by direction or command of the Vedas, व्यपदेशात् sacrificial custom, च and, तत् that; पुनः again, मुख्यलक्षणं the distinctive mark of the principal, यत् that; फलवत्त्वं the quality of producing reward, तत्सन्निधि in its proximity, असंयुक्तं unconnected, तत् that; अङ्ग constituent part, स्यात् is, भागित्वात् being sharers, कारणस्य of the cause, or principal, अश्रुतः not directly stated, च and, अन्य संबन्धः connection with other.

34. On the other hand, by reason of the connection and sacrificial custom, when there is difference of names, (there is) connection with the reward; that which is the quality of bearing the fruit is the distinctive mark of the principal and that in its proximity is unconnected, is a constituent part; the connection with any other is not heard.

In this sūtra the author attempts to show the distinction between मुख्य and अङ्ग. That which bears the fruit is मुख्य and that which is subservient to the मुख्य and bears no fruit is अङ्ग. On performing the principal act, minor acts are also performed which subserve the principal act. These minor acts are called इतिकर्तव्यता.

गुणाश्च नामसंयुक्ता विधीयन्ते नाङ्गेषूपपद्यन्ते ॥४।४।३५॥

गुणाः qualities, च and, नाम संयुक्ताः connected with the names; विधीयन्ते are ordained, न not, अङ्गेषु in the constituent parts, उपपद्यन्ते are not met with.

35. The qualities are ordained to be connected with the names (of the substances) and are not met with in the constituent parts.

This sūtra shows the difference between गुणकर्म and अंगकर्म. The author says that by qualities we know names. The name of the substance is by the quality it possesses and in the constituent part there is no quality independently. A गुणकर्म describes the quality when principal is known while अंगकर्म by means of इतिकर्तव्यता is connected with the principal; the गुणकर्म produces fruit independently and the अंगकर्म does not.

तुल्या च कारणश्रुतिरन्यैरङ्गाङ्गिसम्बन्धः ॥४१४३६॥

तुल्या equal, च and ; कारणश्रुतिः the text describing the origin or main act; अन्यैः with others, अङ्गाङ्गिसम्बन्धः the connection of parts with the whole or main act.

36. The text describing the main act is similar; the connection of the parts with the main act is with other (acts.)

The objector says that all acts mentioned are equally described and are therefore principal and their अङ्गाङ्गी connection should be sought somewhere else.

उत्पत्तावभिसम्बन्धस्तस्मादङ्गोपदेशः स्यात् ॥४१४३७॥

उत्पत्तौ in the origin, अभिसम्बन्धः connection, तस्मात् therefore; अङ्गोपदेशः description of the constituent part; स्यात् is

37. There is a connection in the origin; therefore there is a description of the constituent part.

Just as in the origin, first head is formed, then the middle part, then feet are formed, so in the same way आग्नेय, उपांशुयाज and अग्निषोमीय are performed in order. See at P. 250 the commentary on सूत्र 32. This statement in the Vedas is by way of description of अंगकर्म. The author has given the reply to the objection raised in सूत्र 36.

तथा चान्यार्थदर्शनम् ॥ ४ । ४ । ३८ ॥

तथा again; च and; अन्यार्थदर्शनं seeing another

38. Again, there is seen another case.

The author gives an additional reason in support of his view. That on the full moon day 14 offerings are made and on the new moon day 18 offerings are made. This number can be properly adjusted on the hypothesis that आग्नेय &c, are principal and आचार &c, are constituent parts.

चतुर्दश पूर्णमास्या माहुतयोहयन्ते । त्रयोदश अमावस्यायाम् ॥

"Fourteen offerings are made on the full moon-day and thirteen on the new moon-day."

Adhikarṇa XI sūtras 39-41. Dealing with the subject that in a ज्योतिष्टोम sacrifice, दक्षणीया &c., are the constituent parts

ज्योतिष्टोमे तुल्यान्यविशिष्टं हि कारणम् ॥४१३९॥

ज्योतिष्टोमे in a jyotiṣṭoma sacrifice, तुल्यानि equal, अविशिष्ट indistinctive ; हि because, कारण cause.

39. In a jyotiṣṭoma sacrifice all are equal because the साम is not distinctive.

The objector says that in a ज्योतिष्टोम sacrifice all the minor यागः such as दीक्षणीया &c, producing fruits are all equally important.

गुणानां तूत्पत्तिवाक्येन सम्यन्धात्कारणश्रुतिस्तस्मात्सोमः प्रधानं स्यात् ॥ ४ । ४ । ४० ॥

गुणानां of the qualities, तु on the other hand ; उत्पत्तिवाक्येन with the original statement, संबन्धः by reason of the connection ; कारणश्रुतिः the text describing the reward ; तस्मात् therefore ; सोमः soma yāga; प्रधानं principal; स्यात् is 40 On the other hand by reason of the connection of the qualities with the original statement there is a text describing the reward; the soma is therefore principal.

The author gives his own view in the present sūtra. In the original statement the reward of a principal act is mentioned and the subordinate acts constitute the principal act and produce the general fruit. The सोम sacrifice is therefore the principal act and दीक्षणीया and others are subordinate acts.

ज्योतिष्टोमेन हवर्गकामो यजेत ॥ कनमानि तानि ज्योतींषि । य एतस्य स्तोमा इति । त्रिदृत् पंचदशः सप्तदशः एकविंशः ॥ एतानि वावतानि ज्योतींषि । य एतस्य स्तोमाः ॥ तौ ब्रा० १. ५. ११. २.

"He who is desirous of heaven, should perform ज्योतिष्टोम. How many are its flames which are its songs? Threesfold, fifteen times, seven times and twenty times, these are, verily, its flames, which serve as songs."

तथा चान्यार्थदर्शनम् ॥ ४ । ४ । ४९ ॥

Similarly, च and अन्यार्थदर्शनं seeing another case.

41. And similarly there is another case seen.

The author in support of his view quotes the authorities.

शिरो वा एतद् यज्ञस्य यद्दीक्षणीया ॥ चतुर्विंशति मानं हिरण्यं दीक्षणीयार्था
दद्यात् ॥ प्रायणीयायां चै चतुर्विंशति माने ॥

“दीक्षणीया is the head of the sacrifice , 24 rattis of gold should be given in दीक्षणीया sacrifice , in प्रायणीया twice twenty four should be given.”

CHAPTER V.

PĀDA I.

Introduction.

In this chapter, the author deals with क्रम (order or sequence.) It is divided by him into six classes. (1) श्रुति क्रम (2) अर्थ क्रम (3) पाठ क्रम (4) श्राव क्रम (5) मुख्य क्रम (6) प्रवृत्ति क्रम. They will be explained as occasion arises.

Adhikarana I. Dealing with the subject that how order is to be limited.

श्रुतिलक्षणमानुपूर्व्यं तत्प्रमाणत्वात् ॥ ५ । १ । १ ॥

श्रुतिलक्षण the definition of श्रुति ; मानुपूर्व्य following one after the other ; तत्प्रमाणत्वात् by reason of its authority.

1. The definition of श्रुति is the order of following in succession by virtue of its authority.

The author explains what श्रुतिक्रम is. It is an order of following in succession, under a direct authority and expressed by such words अथ, अनुक्रम or by oblique case or by अन्यथ.

Adhikarana II. Dealing with the subject that order is sometimes governed by purpose.

अर्थाच्च ॥ ५ । १ । २ ॥

अर्थात् by purpose ; च and.

2. And by purpose.

The author explains the अर्थक्रम. It is an order determined by the purpose which a text serves. As for example अग्निहोत्रं जुहोति, यवाग्नौ पचति । He performs Agnihotra ; he cooks gruel. There अग्निहोत्र is first but a sacrifice can not be performed without यवाग्नौ (gruel), so the cooking of यवाग्नौ will be performed first. It is called logical order अर्थक्रम.

Adhikarana III. Dealing with the subject that order sometimes is not determined by any rule.

अनियमोऽन्यत्र ॥ ५ । १ । ३ ॥

अनियतः not governed by any rule ; अन्यत्र at another place.

3. Sometimes it is not governed by any rule.

The author says that sometimes the order is varied by reason of the difference of the recension of the Veda

Adhikarana IV Sūtras 4 to 7 Dealing with the subject that the order is governed by the order of reading

क्रमेण वा नियम्येत क्रत्वेकत्वे तद्गुणत्वात् ॥५।१।४॥

क्रमेण by the order, वा on the other hand, नियम्येत is regulated, क्रत्वेकत्वे being in one sacrifice, तद्गुणत्वात् by reason of its being subordinate to it

4. On the other hand by reason of being subordinate in one sacrifice, (the order of performance) is governed by the order (of reading)

The author propounds his siddhānta view in the sūtra What he says is that in a main sacrifice, there are many subordinate acts, these subordinate acts are performed in the order in which the text is read. This is called पाठक्रम The difference between श्रुतिक्रम and पाठक्रम is that in a श्रुतिक्रम there is only one sentence which lays down the order which is called direct, while in the latter there are several sentences which govern the order according to the order of their reading

अशब्द इति चेत्स्याद्वाक्यशब्दत्वात् ॥ ५ । १ । ५ ॥

अशब्द not direct expression ; इतिचेत् if it be said ; स्यात् is ; वाक्य शब्दत्वात् by reason of the sentences

5. If it be said that it is not a direct expression (of the order) by reason of the sentences.

The objector says that there are different sentences but none of them says directly in what order the acts are to be performed.

अर्थकृते वाऽनुमानं स्यात्क्रत्वेकत्वे परार्थत्वात्स्वेन त्वर्थेन सम्बन्धस्तस्मात्स्वशब्दमुच्येत ॥ ५ । १ । ६ ॥

अर्थकृते for the sake of the sense ; वा on the other hand, अनुमानं inference ; स्यात् is, क्रत्वेकत्वे in being a one sacrifice, परार्थत्वात् by virtue of dependence on another, स्वेन with its own, तु certainly, अर्थे object, sense, सम्बन्धः connection, तस्मात् therefore, स्वशब्द direct expression, उच्येत is said.

6. On the other hand there is an inference for the sake of the sense in the unity of a sacrifice; by reason of its dependence on another, there is a relationship with its own object; it can therefore be said to be a direct expression.

The author gives a reply to the objector's objection raised in sūtra 5. He says that there is one sacrifice which is one organic whole and there is only one agent. There are several subordinate acts which must be performed in order. There are texts corresponding to the acts, though there is no direct command regulating the order but an inference can be reasonably made that the order of performance of the act, is the order in which the text is read. This amounts to direct expression.

तथा चान्यार्थदर्शनम् ॥ ५ । १ । ७ ॥

तथा similarly, च and, अन्यार्थदर्शन seeing another case.

7. And similarly another case is seen.

The author in order to support his view relies on the Vedic authorities.

व्यत्यस्तमृतव्या उपदधाति । व्यत्यस्तं वोड्गशिनं शंसति । आश्विनो दशमो गृह्यते । संतृतीयं जुहोति ॥

He arranges bricks in a reverse order in the sacrifice about the seasons. He recites वोड्गशिन song in a reverse order. He takes the tenth cup dedicated to अश्विन and offers it in the third order.

Adhikarana V sūtras 8 to 12. Dealing with the subject that the order depends on the first start

प्रवृत्त्या तुल्यकालानां गुणानां तदुपक्रमात् ॥५॥१८॥

प्रवृत्त्या by commencement; तुल्यकालानां of equal time, गुणानां of subordinate acts; तदुपक्रमात् by reason of its commencement.

8. By the first start (is determined the order) of the subordinate acts which are to be performed simultaneously by virtue of the first commencement.

In the sūtra, the author explains what is called प्रवृत्तिक्रम. When one commences to do one particular act out of a series of acts without any particular reason, it is called प्रवृत्ति. For example there are 17 horses to be purified, one has to start from a particular place and this determines the order. This is called प्रवृत्तिक्रम or practical order. The first start depends upon chance or the choice of the person who starts.

सर्वमिति चेत् ॥ ५ । १ । ६ ॥

सर्वं all, इतिचेत् if you say

9. If you say that all (should be done simultaneously).

The objector says that all the purificatory ceremonies should be performed upon one animal and then they should be performed on another and so on.

नाकृतत्वात् ॥ ५ । १ । १० ॥

न not ; अकृतत्वात् by reason of its being not done

10. Not so, by reason of its being not done.

The author gives a reply There will be no continuity of the performance When one act is performed upon all the animals, then another purificatory act should be performed on the animals in the same order as you started at first

क्रत्वन्तरवदिति चेत् ॥ ५ । १ । ११ ॥

क्रत्वन्तरवत् like another sacrifice, इतिचेत् if you say.

11. If you say that like another sacrifice ; (सौर्ययाग)

The objector says that all the purificatory ceremonies can be performed upon one animal just as it is done in सौर्ययाग In it, all the sacrificial operations are performed on an animal at a time before killing it.

नासमवायात् ॥ ५ । १ । १२ ॥

न not so, असमवायात् by reason of there being no relationship of a part with the whole

12. Not so, there being no relationship of a part with the whole.

The author says that in the अतिरात्रियाग by way of penance सौर्ययाग is performed There is no relationship of a part with the whole between two यागस. They are independent; so the analogy does not hold good.

Adhikarna VI. Dealing with the subject that the order sometimes depends upon the position

स्थानाच्चोत्पत्तिसंयोगात् ॥ ५ । १ । १३ ॥

स्थानात् by position, च and, उत्पत्तिसंयोगात् by connection with the original text.

13. By position and the original text.

In a ध्येतिहोम sacrifice three animals called (अग्निषोमीय) agnishomiya सवनीय and अनुवक्ष्य are killed. Then there is another modified याम called सायस्क According to the principle laid down in the सूत्र, killing of the animals in सायस्क याम is governed by the procedure in the model sacrifice i. e. the ध्येतिहोम of which it is a modified form. This is called स्यानक्रम.

Adhikaraṇa VII Dealing with the subject that the order of the subordinate acts depends upon the order of the principal.

मुख्यक्रमेण वाऽङ्गानां तदर्थत्वात् ॥ ५ । १ । १४ ॥

मुख्य क्रमेण with the order of the principal, वा or, अङ्गानां of the subordinate acts, तदर्थत्वात् by reason of their being subservient to it.

14. The order of the subordinate acts (is governed) by the order of their principal, by reason of their being subservient to it.

The author explains what is called मुख्य क्रम. He says that the order of the subordinate act depends upon the order of the principal.

Adhikaraṇa VIII Dealing with the subject that among subordinate acts, of मुख्यक्रम and पाठक्रम the latter prevails.

प्रकृती तु स्वशब्दत्वादायाक्रमं प्रतीयेत ॥ ५ । १ । १५ ॥

प्रकृती in an archetype, model sacrifice ; तु again ; स्वशब्दत्वात् by reason of the direct authority ; यायाक्रमं according to the order ; प्रतीयेत should be known, should be followed

15. In a model sacrifice by reason of the direct authority, the order as laid down should be followed.

When there is a conflict between the पाठक्रम and मुख्यक्रम, the former prevails.

Adhikaraṇa IX dealing with the subject that the order laid down in the mantra is to be preferred to that laid down in the Brahmana.

मन्त्रतस्तु विरोधे स्यात्प्रयोगरूपसामर्थ्यात्तस्मादुत्पत्ति-
देशः सः ॥ ५ । १ । १६ ॥

मन्त्रतः from the mantra, तु again, विरोधे on conflict ; प्रयोगरूपसामर्थ्यात् by reason of the strength of the accomplishment ; तस्मात् because ; उत्पत्ति देशः seat of its origin ; सः it

16. Again, on conflict, (the order is governed) by the mantra

by virtue of the power of accomplishment (of an act); because the Brahmana is the seat of the origin.

In this sūtra the author shows the difference between the मन्त्र and ब्राह्मण. The mantra determines the form of the sacrifice and is therefore substantive law and the brahman deals with the procedure and is therefore adjective law. The former is अङ्ग and the latter is वहिर्ङ्ग. The author says that where there is a conflict between a मन्त्रपाठ and ब्राह्मणपाठ, the former prevails.

Adhikarana V. Sūtras 17-18 dealing with the subject that the चोदना text is preferable to विधायक text

तद्वचनाद्विकृतौ यथा प्रधानं स्यात् ॥ ५ । १ । १७ ॥

तद्वचनात् by reason of the word of the Veda. विकृतौ in a modified sacrifice, in an ectype, यथा just like, प्रधानं principal, स्यात् is.

17. By reason of the Vedic authority in a modified sacrifice, (the procedure is governed by that of) the principal.

The objector says that the procedure in the (विकृति) modified sacrifice is governed by the order of the principal.

विप्रतिपत्तौ वा प्रकृत्यन्वयादयथाप्रकृति ॥ ५ । १ । १८ ॥

विप्रतिपत्तौ in a conflict; वा on the other hand, प्रकृत्यन्वयात् by virtue of its being connected with the model sacrifice; यथाप्रकृति just like that of the model sacrifice.

18. On the other hand when there is a conflict, (the order) is that of the model sacrifice, it being a part of the model sacrifice.

The author says that when there is conflict as to whether the order is that of the subsidiary or of the principal act, it is governed by the order laid down in the model sacrifice because the modified sacrifice is connected with it. चोदक text lays down that a modified sacrifice is to be performed according to the model sacrifice, while the विधायक text makes it obligatory to perform the modified sacrifice. The former lays down the form and the latter makes it a duty. So the chodaka text is to be preferred to the vidhaya text as to order in a विकृति sacrifice.

Adhikarana XI Sūtras 19-22 dealing with the subject that in some modified sacrifice, the subordinate acts of the model sacrifice are omitted.

विकृतिः प्रकृतिधर्मत्वात्तत्काला स्यादयथा शिष्टम्

॥ ५ । १ । १९ ॥

विकृतिः modified sacrifice ; प्रकृतिधर्मत्वात् by reason of being of the same quality as the model sacrifice , तत्काला of the same time ; स्यात् is ; यथा शिष्टं as directed.

19. The modified sacrifice follows the order of the model sacrifice ; the time thereof is the same as laid down.

The objector says that according to the rule laid down in the preceding adhikarāṇa, the time of the विकृति is the same as that of the प्रकृति. As for example the full and new moon sacrifices are completed in two days ; the साकमेधयाग which is a modified sacrifice will also, according to the principle of the former adhikarāṇa, take two days.

अपि वा क्रमकालसंयुक्ता सद्यः क्रियेत तत्र विधेर-
नुमानात्प्रकृतिधर्मलोपः स्यात् ॥ ५ । १ । २० ॥

अपि वा not so , क्रमकालसंयुक्ता along with the order and time ; सद्यः immediately , क्रियेत is performed , तत्र there , विधे. of the command ; अनुमानात् from inference , प्रकृतिधर्मलोपः omission of the subsidiary acts of the model sacrifice ; स्यात् is.

20. Not so ; (the sacrifice) along with the order and time is performed immediately ; there command prevails over the inference and the order of the model sacrifice is omitted.

The author in the sūtra gives a reply to the objection raised in sūtra 19. He says that there is a direct authority in the text that साकमेध is to be performed in a day , so the time of the full and new moon sacrifices is to be omitted, because here the direct command prevails over the inference as to time.

कालोत्कर्ष इति चेत् ॥ ५ । १ । २१ ॥

कालोत्कर्षः transference of time forward , इति चेत् if you say that.

21. If you say that the time should be transferred forward.

The objector says that the time should be extended ; the minor sacrifice of the साकमेध may be performed in the morning and finished on the following day and so on.

न तत्सम्बन्धात् ॥ ५ । १ । २२ ॥

न not , तत्सम्बन्धात् by reason of its connective

22. Not so, because of its connection.

In this sūtra the author gives a reply to the objection raised in sūtra 21. He says that there are 3 *याग*s performed on the first day आनी-कवतेष्टिः, सातपनीयेष्टिः, गृहमेधीयेष्टिः; and four *याग*s on the second day क्रीडनीयेष्टिः, महाद्विः, महापितृयज्ञः and प्रसिद्धेष्टिः. If the first three *याग*s are not performed at their respective times on the first day, there will be a confusion. You must complete one याग in the morning, the other in the noon and the third in the evening. You must not leave them incomplete and commence them again on the other day. This Adhikaraṇa is called साकमेधीयन्यायः.

Adhikaraṇa XI sūtras 23-24 dealing with the forward transference of the acts preceded by Annyāja and the backward transference of the acts that are followed by प्रयाज.

अङ्गानां मुख्यकालत्वादथोक्तमुत्कर्षे स्यात् ॥५॥१२३॥

अङ्गानां of the subsidiary acts, मुख्यकालत्वात् by virtue of the time of the principal, यथोक्त as laid down; उत्कर्षे in the transference forward, स्यात् is.

23. On the forward transference, the time of the subsidiary acts is that of the principal as laid down.

The objector says that when an organic act is performed, the principal act with its subsidiary acts will be performed at their proper time. When transference is made, this can be done under the direction of the text and the time will be that laid down there.

तदादि वाऽभिसम्बन्धात्तदन्तमपकर्षे स्यात् ॥५॥१२४॥

तदादि the first part of it, वा on the other hand; अभिसम्बन्धात् by reason of the connection; तदन्त the last part of it; अपकर्षे in a transference backward; स्यात् is.

24. On the other hand, the first part is taken by reason of its connection (in the case of forward transference) and the last part is taken in the case of the transference backward.

In the उत्कर्षे i. e. transference forward, all the acts that follow the अनुयाज are transferred, that is technically called तदादि because that is in the beginning. In the अपकर्षे i. e. transference backward, on the other hand, all the acts that precede the प्रयाज are transferred; it is technically called तदन्त. In this sūtra the author has given a reply to the objection raised in sūtra 23. This अधिकरण is called तदादितदन्तन्यायः.

Adhikaraṇa XIII Sūtras 25-26 dealing with the subject that प्रवृत्तिक्रम determines the precedence of sprinkling of water etc., over the सौमिक

प्रवृत्त्या कृतकालानाम् ॥ ५ । १ । २५ ॥

प्रवृत्ता by प्रवृत्तिकम् conventional order ; कृतकालानां whose time is known.

25. (The order of those acts) whose time is known by convention

It will be better understood, if the procedure of the सोमयाग is described. (१) प्रातरनुवाकः (२) प्रचरणीहोमः (३) सवनीय पुरोडाश (४) वहिष्यन्मानसोत्र It is so laid down in the Veda. Then the consecration and ornamentation of the सवनीयपुरोडाश is laid down in the text called वैश्य The reasonable order will be (१) प्रातरनुवाक (२) consecration of पुरोडाश (३) प्रचरणीहोम (४) वहिष्यन्मानसोत्र and (५) ornamentation of पुरोडाश cake. This order is conventional and is effected by अपकृषं and उक्कृषं principles laid down in the preceding अधिकरण.

शब्दविप्रतिषेधाच्च ॥ ५ । १ । २६ ॥

शब्दविप्रतिषेधात् by inversion or prohibition of the word, च and.

26. And by inversion or prohibition of the word.

The author gives an additional reason If you do not accept the conventional order, then the ornamentation of the पुरोडाश cake will be first under the text and the ornamentation of the cake which is the anointing of the cake with ghee can not be done without sprinkling of water on it. So the procedure is governed by the conventional order.

Adhikarṇa XIV dealing with the subject that in a modified sacrifice only acts connected with the हव्य are transferred backwards.

असंयोगात् वैकृतं तदेव प्रतिकृष्येत ॥ ५ । १ । २७ ॥

असंयोगात् by reason of no connection; तु on the other hand, वैकृत pertaining to a modified sacrifice, तदेव that alone, प्रतिकृष्येत is transferred backward.

27. On the other hand, by reason of no connection with the modified sacrifice, that alone is transferred backward.

The author in this sūtra lays down what is called हव्ययाग which is just the opposite of तद्वादि तद्वाचय. In the case of हव्य (sacrificial post) तद्वादि तद्वाचय does not apply. So the हव्य is only transferred but not the acts connected with it such as अग्निप्रणयन etc. The reason is obvious, because हव्य is not connected with those acts.

Adhikaraṇa XV dealing with the subject that the दक्षिणाग्निहोत्र is not transferred forward.

प्रासङ्गिकं च नोत्कर्षेदसंयोगात् ॥ ५ । १ । २८ ॥

प्रासङ्गिकं accidental, च and, न not, उत्कर्षेत् should not be transferred forward, असंयोगात् by there being no connection.

28. And anything accidental should not be transferred forward, because there is no connection.

When a person aims to do a certain act and another act is accomplished, the latter is प्रासङ्गिक or accidental. When any forward transference takes place the accidental acts are not transferred. In an अनुयाज offering विहलेप and फलीकरण homas are performed. विहलेप is the remnant of the rice flour that is left sticking to the slab and mortar; फलीकरण means the particles of rice left behind. But as these acts are accidental they are not transferred when अनुयाज is transferred forward.

Adhikaraṇa XVI dealing with the subject that on a new moon day all acts up to spreading of ashes on the sacrificed cake should not be transferred backward.

तथाऽपूर्वम् ॥ ५ । १ । २९ ॥

तथा similarly; अपूर्वं model sacrifice.

29. Similarly model sacrifice.

It is ordained that on the new and full moon days, first the पुरोडाश cakes baked on pans be covered with ashes and then an altar be constructed. As the sacrifices performed on the new and full moon days are model sacrifices, so according to the principle laid down in the sūtra, no backward transference takes place in the case of new moon sacrifice and only the construction of the altar will take place.

Adhikaraṇa XVII. Sūtras 30—34 Dealing with the subject that the सांतपनीया of अग्निहोत्र can not be transferred forward

सान्तपनीया तूत्कर्षेदग्निहोत्रं सवनवद्वैगुण्यात् ॥ ५ । १ । ३० ॥

सांतपनीया, तु on the other hand; उत्कर्षेत् should be transferred forward; अग्निहोत्रं, सवनवद्वैगुण्यात् like a soma libation, वैगुण्यात् by reason of a difference.

30. On the transference forward of the सांतपनीया the अग्निहोत्र is also transferred like the soma libation to avoid difference.

The objector's position will be clear if the सांतपनीया and सवन are understood. The soma juice extracted for सवन is offered in the morning and that extracted at noon is offered at noon. If the morning libation is delayed, the noon libation is necessarily delayed; the सतिपनीया is always performed at noon and the अग्निहोत्र is performed in the evening. If the सतिपनीया is not finished till evening, then अग्निहोत्र will not be performed in the evening and it will be performed at a later time. This is what the objector says; if the सतिपनीया is transferred forward, the अग्निहोत्र will necessarily be transferred forward just as it happens in the case of some libations.

अव्यवायाच्च ॥ ५ । १ । ३१ ॥

अव्यवायात् by reason of no failure of order; च and.

31. And in order to avoid the break of order.

The objector supports his view by a further reason. By transference of the अग्निहोत्र forward, there will be continuity of the order.

असम्बन्धात् नोत्कर्षेत् ॥ ५ । १ । ३२ ॥

असम्बन्धात् by reason of no connection; तु on the other hand; च not; उत्कर्षेत् should not be transferred forward.

32. On the other hand, there being no connection there should not be a forward transference

The author gives his own siddhānta view in this sūtra. The अग्निहोत्र is not connected with सतिपनीया so the अग्निहोत्र will be performed at its proper time i. e., in the evening. There will be, therefore, no case of forward transference.

प्रापणाच्च निमित्तस्य ॥ ५ । १ । ३३ ॥

प्रापणात् by accrual; च and; निमित्तस्य of a reason.

33. And by accrual of a reason.

The author supports his view by a reason that under the Vedic text the time of the अग्निहोत्र which is evening can not be changed: यदनुदिते सूर्ये प्रातर्जु इतात् । उदिते सूर्ये प्रातर्जु होमि । सायं जुहोति (तै० ब्रा० २।१।२।३) "One should perform अग्निहोत्र before sun-rise; he performs अग्निहोत्र before sun-rise in the morning, he performs अग्निहोत्र in the evening"

सम्बन्धात्सवनोत्कर्षः ॥ ५ । १ । ३४ ॥

सम्बन्धात् by reason of a connection, सवनोत्कर्षः forward transference of the soma libation.

34. By reason of the connection there is a forward transference of the soma libation.

The author replies to the objection raised in sūtra 30 where सांपनीया is compared with सवन. His reply is that the soma libations are connected with each other, so there will be a forward transference. There is therefore no comparison with the case of सांपनीया which is not connected with the अग्निदीप्त.

A līkharapa XVIII treating the forward transference of षोडशी in relation to उक्थ्या.

षोडशी चोक्थ्यसंयोगात् ॥ ५ । १ । ३५ ॥

षोडशी च and, उक्थ्यसंयोगात् by reason of its connection with उक्थ्य.

35. And षोडशी (is to be transferred forward) by reason of its connection with उक्थ्य.

There are 8 cups of some juice called उक्थ्या in a gyotistoma sacrifice, after the completion of उक्थ्या, the षोडशी cup is offered. If for some reason the उक्थ्या offerings are completed till evening, the षोडशी can not be taken up in the middle of the performance so it will be transferred forward and षोडशी offering will be made on the completion of the उक्थ्या offerings. The reason is obvious, because they are so closely connected.

END OF PĀDA I.

PĀDA II.

Before we commence this पाद it will be much better if the terms पदार्थानुसमय and कालानुसमय are explained. If several sacrificial acts are to be performed on several objects, what will be the order? If all sacrificial acts are performed on one object out of several objects, then all sacrificial acts are performed on the second object and so on till all the acts are performed on the next; this procedure is called कालानुसमय. If on the other hand one sacrificial act is performed on all objects and then the second act is performed on all objects till the last sacrificial act is performed on them; this procedure is called पदार्थानुसमय. In the former, the sacrificial acts are to be performed successively on an object at a time; the latter the sacrificial objects are to be acted upon successively at a time. This is the difference which ought to be kept in view in the course of the study of this षाद

Adhikaraṇa I. Sātras I-2. Dealing with the subject that the victims of the वाजस्य should have their sacrificial acts performed at a time.

सन्निपाते प्रधानानामेकैकस्य गुणानां सर्वकर्म स्यात्

॥ ५ । २ । १ ॥

सन्निपाते in a collection, assemblage; प्रधानानां of the principals; एकैकस्य one by one; गुणानां subordinate acts, सर्वकर्म all acts, स्यात् is.

1. On a collection of the principals, the subordinate acts should, one by one, be performed till all are over.

The objector says that when several animals are to be sacrificially acted upon, all the acts should be performed on each of them till the sacrificial operations on all of them are over. This is what is called कर्तव्यसमय.

सर्वेषां वैकजातीयं कृतानुपूर्व्यत्वात् ॥ ५ । २ । २ ॥

सर्वेषां of all, वा on the other hand; कृतानुपूर्व्यत्वात् by reason of maintaining the sequence.

2 On the other hand, one kind of sacrificial act be performed on all, in order to maintain the order.

The author says that one kind of sacrificial act should be performed on all objects at a time so that the order may not be broken up. This is called पदार्थानुसमय

कारणादभ्यावृत्तिः ॥ ५ । २ । ३ ॥

कारणाद् by a reason; अभ्यावृत्तिः the repetition.

3. There is a reason for the repetition.

The author says in reply to the objector that in अथप्रतिग्रहेति there is a reason for acting upon the principle of कर्तव्यसमय. There are several पुरोडाशाः; if you proceed upon the principle of पदार्थानुसमय the first पुरोडास cake will dry up by reason of lapse of time; so all sacrificial acts should be performed on each of them successively. This sūtra has been independently treated by some commentator as a separate अधिकारः. It makes no difference. It may be looked upon as a separate subject treated by the author.

Adhikaraṇa III. Sātras 4-5. Dealing with the subject that कर्तव्यसमय is to be adopted in taking handful of materials and sacrificial pans.

मुष्टिकपालावदानाञ्जनाभ्यञ्जनवपनपावनेषु चैकेन

॥ ५ । २ । ४ ॥

मुष्टि taking handful of sacrificial material, कपाल taking the sacrificial pans; अवदान oblations; अञ्जन collyrium, अभ्यञ्जन anointing, वपन getting shaved, पावनेषु sprinkling of water for purification, च and; एकेन one by one.

4. And in the case of taking handful of sacrificial material, sacrificial pans, oblations, collyrium anointment, getting shaved, sprinkling of water for purification, (the procedure is) one by one.

The objector says that in these cases, the principle of पदानुसम्य applies.

सर्वाणि त्वेककार्यत्वादिषां तद्गुणत्वात् ॥ ५ । २ । ५ ॥

सर्वाणि all ; तु on the other hand; एककार्यत्वात् by reason of being one act, एषां of these ; तद्गुणत्वात् by reason of their being its quality.

5. On the other hand they are all (one) by reason of being one act, they being subsidiary to it.

The author refutes the view of the objector and says that they are parts of one whole; so the principle of कर्तानुसम्य should be adopted.

Adhikarapa IV Dealing with the subject that the principle of कर्तानुसम्य applies to an oblation till the end of the offering

संयुक्ते तु प्रक्रमात्तदङ्गं स्यादितरस्य तदर्थत्वात् ॥ ५ । २ । ६ ॥

संयुक्ते in a conjunction or relationship, तु again, प्रक्रमात् from the commencement ; तदङ्गं its part, स्यात् is, इतरस्य of the other, तदर्थत्वात् by reason of its being subservient to it.

6. Again in a relationship by reason of its commencement, it is its part because it is subservient to another.

When there is a relationship of a principal and subordinate, the act must be completed till the whole with its part is over ; this relationship can not be set aside When an oblation is taken first, all the sacrificial operations should be performed upon it and then it should be offered to a god This is done under the principle of कर्तानुसम्य In the method of वेदानुसम्य the object is the principal and in the कर्तानुसम्य, the act is principal,

Adhikāṇa V. Sūtras 7-9. Dealing with the subject that the principle of कर्तव्यसमय applies from the time of anointment till tying round of a string to a sacrificial post.

वचनात् परिध्याणान्तमञ्जनादिः स्यात् ॥ ५ । २ । ७ ॥

वचनात् by reason of the authority; तु again; परिध्याणान्तं to the end of tying round of a string; मञ्जनादि anointment &c., स्यात् is.

7. Again, under a direct authority, the anointment &c., to the end of tying round of a string continue.

The author gives his own siddhānta view. The anointment &c., include anointing, erecting, measuring, and tying a string round a वृष. The question is whether these acts should be performed on one वृष and then on the second वृष and so on. The reply is, according to the author, in the affirmative i., e., the method should be the कर्तव्यसमय.

कारणाद्वा(न)वसर्गः स्यादथवा पात्रवृद्धिः ॥ ५ । २ । ८ ॥

कारणाद् by a reason, वा or, वसर्गः relinquishment, स्यात् is; थवा just; पात्रवृद्धिः addition of a vessel.

8. Or there is relinquishment (of the past) by a special reason just as the addition of a vessel.

In an अनुयाज, वृषदाय consisting of clarified butter and curd is offered and in a प्रयाज only clarified butter is offered. When an अनुयाज offering is made, another vessel for वृषदाय separate from that which is used for प्रयाज offering is taken. The objector says that just as there is a change of vessel in these offerings, so there will be a relinquishment of one वृष after performing one sacrificial act. He means to say that the principle of कर्तव्यसमय applies. When one वृष is anointed the second should be anointed and then the second sacrificial act should be repeated on them. This is कर्तव्यसमय. When one act is performed on the first वृष, it is left off, then the second वृष is sacrificially acted upon.

न वा शब्दकृतत्वान्न्धायमात्रमितरदर्थात्पात्रविवृद्धिः

॥ ५ । २ । ९ ॥

न वा not so, शब्दकृतत्वात् by reason of the direct authority; व्यावर्तक matter of inference only, इतरत् other, अर्थात् by a reason, पात्र विवृद्धिः addition of a vessel.

9. Not so; by virtue of a direct authority; the other is a matter of inference only; there is a reason of an addition of a vessel.

The author in this sūtra gives a reply to the objection raised in sūtra 8. He says that the principle of कांडानुसम is directly laid down, while the principle of पदार्थानुसम is an inferential matter. So the former method should be adopted. अजवादि यजमानो यूपं नावसृजेत् आग्निव्याणान् ॥ "A sacrificer who has commenced anointing a sacrificial post, should not leave it before tying a string round it"

Adhikaraṇa VI. Sūtras 10-12. Dealing with the subject that the principle of पदार्थानुसम applies to the offering, viz दैवत &c.,

पशुगणे तस्य तस्यापवर्जयेत्पश्वैकत्वात् ॥ ५ । २ । १० ॥

पशुगणे in an assemblage of animals; तस्य its, तस्य its, अपवर्जयेत् should be completed; पश्वैकत्वात् by reason of the one class of animals.

10. On an assemblage of victims, each victim should have the complete performance, they being of the same class.

The objector's position in this sūtra will be better understood, if animal sacrifices are explained. निद्व पशुर्वच is a model sacrifice in which one animal is killed, when it is cut and cooked, portions are offered. This offering is called अवदान. There are three offerings, the first is to the main gods, it is called दैवत, the second is an offering to the विष्टकृत् fire which is called सौविष्ट कृत्; and the third is eaten up by the priest. It is called ऐष्ट. This is the general rule. The वाजपेय is a modified sacrifice, in this, seventeen animals are killed. The objector says that in this case also, the method called कांडानुसम should be adopted as laid down in the preceding adhikaraṇa.

दैवतैर्वैककर्म्यात् ॥ ५ । २ । ११ ॥

दैवते: by means of दैवत, वा or, on the other hand; वैककर्म्यात् by reason of one act.

11. On the other hand by the दैवत, because it is one act.

The author gives his own view in the सुत्र. He says that in the वाजपेय sacrifice, प्रजापति is the chief deity. So the flesh of all the animals should be first offered; then after this, portions of flesh should be given to विष्टकृत् fire and then the remaining portions of all animals should be eaten up by the priest This can be done only under the principal of पदार्थानुसम्य and thus the entirety of the act can be maintained.

मन्त्रस्य चार्थवत्त्वात् ॥ ५ । २ । १२ ॥

मन्त्रस्य of a mantra, च and, चार्थवत्त्वात् by reason of its serving the purpose.

12. And by reason of the mantra having its purpose fulfilled.

The author gives an additional reason in support of his view When the heart of an animal is cut, मनोता psalm is recited by the मैत्रावरुण priest. If you act upon the principle of कांडानुसम्य, the manota मंत्र will be repeated each time on taking out the heart from each animal But this is not the practice. So the practice also supports the principle of पदार्थानुसम्य.

Adhikarana VII SŪtra 13-15 Dealing with the tantra nature of the pestle and mortar in a sacrifice called नानाबीजेष्टि

नानाबीजेष्वेकमुलूखलं विभवात् ॥ ५ । २ । १३ ॥

नानाबीजेषु in different seeds, एक one; उलूखलं mortar, विभवात् by reason of its power or capacity

13. In the case of many seeds one mortar (is sufficient) by reason of its capacity.

In the headnote the word तंत्र is given. It is defined in chap XI If by one performance, several benefits accrue, it is called तंत्र There are several seeds of rice which all can be pounded by one mortar and pestle This is called तंत्र This is what the author says in the सूत्र

विवृद्धिर्वा नियामादानुपूर्वस्य तदर्थत्वात् ॥ ५ । २ । १४ ॥

विवृद्धिः manifold, वा or, नियमानुपूर्वस्य of the order of reading (पाठक्रम); तदर्थत्वात् by reason of its being subservient to it

14. On the other hand there must be many, because the order based on पाठ is for that purpose.

According to the पाठक्रम there must be spreading of the deer-skin under the mortar, placing of the pestle, consecration of the substance and finally pounding it. So there must be as many mortars as there are substances. This is the position of the objector.

एकं वा तदुलूखलभावाद्गुन्तेस्तदर्थत्वात् ॥ ५ । २ । १५ ॥

एक one ; वा on the other hand ; तद्बुद्धभावात् by reason of being rice ; इति till the end of preparation ; तदर्थत्वात् by reason of its being for it.

15. On the other hand, it is one, by reason of all being rice till their preparation, because pulverisation is for it.

All the different acts such as spreading of the deer skin &c., are for the preparation of rice, they constitute one act and one mortar is therefore sufficient. This is the principle of पदार्थानुसमय.

Adhikaraṇa VII. Dealing with the difference of vessels in प्रयाज and अनुयाज offerings when अग्निषोमीय animal is sacrificed.

विकारे त्वनूयाजानां पात्रभेदोऽर्थभेदात्स्यात् ॥ ५ । २ । १६ ॥

विकारे in a modified sacrifice, तु again; अनुयाजानां of अनुयाज offerings, पात्रभेदः difference of vessel; अर्थभेदात् by the difference of objects; स्यात् is.

16. Again in a modified sacrifice, there must be a difference of vessels for अनुयाज offerings by reason of the difference of purpose.

The षोडशोम sacrifice is based on both model and modified sacrifices. There is an अग्निषोमीय animal killed and the parts are offered to Agni and Soma ; at that time प्रयाज and अनुयाज offerings are made. The प्रयाज offering consists of clarified butter and curd called दूधजदाज्य ; so necessarily two different vessels will be required.

Adhikaraṇa IX. Sūtras 17-20 Dealing with the precedence of उपहोम to गारिहोम.

प्रकृतेः पूर्वोक्तत्वादपूर्वमन्त्रे स्यान्नहयचोदितस्य शेषा-
ख्यानम् ॥ ५ । २ । १७ ॥

प्रकृतेः of the model sacrifice ; पूर्वोक्तत्वात् by reason of being mentioned first ; अपूर्व new, not mentioned, subsidiary of a modified sacrifice ; अन्ते in the end, स्यात् is ; न not ; हि because, अचोदितस्य not so ordained ; शेषाख्यानं ordaining as subsidiary.

17. The (प्रकृति) model sacrifice (first), by reason of its being mentioned first, and (विकृति) modified sacrifice in the end, because of that which is not mentioned is ordained as subsidiary.

In the Vedas, the model sacrifice comes first ; then the modified sacrifice ; the qualified is known: it is the model sacrifice. Thus what is known is made the means of describing what is unknown. The qualities are described to convey the full sense of that which is not fully known. This is the relationship between the known and the unknown or between the अपूर्व and the अनुवाद. The qualities of a model sacrifice are known by the बोद्ध text. Certain *उपहोम*s (minor oblations) are not known to the model sacrifice, they are added to the modified sacrifice' नारिहोम is performed in the model sacrifice. So in a modified sacrifice both नारिहोम and उपहोम are performed. What is their order? According to the rule laid down in the present sūtra, first नारिहोम should be performed and then उपहोम. So the प्रकृति is अंतरंग and विकृति is बहिरंग. Those parts without which a whole can exist and which are yet essential are characterised as शेष. This is the distinction between (शेष) inseparable accident and (अंत) an essential quality.

मुख्यान्तर्गत्यमात्रेयस्तेन तुल्यश्रुतिवादाशब्दत्वात्म-
कृतानां व्यवायः स्यात् ॥ ५ । २ । १८ ॥

मुख्यान्तर्गत्य immediate sequence of the principal ; मात्रेयः Rishi मात्रेयः तेषु with that, तुल्यश्रुतिवात् by reason of being based on equal authority ; वादाशब्दत्वात् by reason of non-mention ; प्रकृतानां of those connected with the model sacrifice ; व्यवायः intervention , स्यात् is.

18. (In a modified sacrifice) there is an immediate sequence of the principal; (such is the opinion of) Ātreya by reason of its equal authority with the principal. As the acts of the model sacrifice are not mentioned, there will be an intervention (break).

The objector says on the authority of मात्रेय that there is an equally binding text by which in a modified sacrifice, first the principal sacrifice, then the *उपहोम*s and lastly the नारिहोम are to be performed.

अन्ते तु वादरायणस्तेषां प्रधानशब्दत्वात् ॥ ५ । २ । १९ ॥

अन्ते in the end ; तु on the other hand ; वादरायणः ; तेषां of these, प्रधानशब्दत्वात् of their being meant in the text as प्रधान.

19. On the other hand, according to वादरायण in the end; by reason of their being mentioned as principal.

The author gives the view of his own master वादरायण in order to refute the argument of the objector based on the view of मात्रेय. He says that the *नारिहोम*s are reckoned according to the Vedas among the principal ; so in a modified sacrifice, first the principal oblations and then the नारिहोम and subsequently उपहोम should be performed.

तथा चान्यार्थदर्शनम् ॥ ५ । २ । २० ॥

तथा similarly, च and, अन्यार्थदर्शनं seeing another case

20. And similarly there is another case seen,

The author in support of his view quotes the authority अध्वरस्य पूर्वमेथाग्ने रूपं प्रैत्येतत्कर्म यदग्नि कर्म । “The ceremony pertaining to अध्वर्यु comes first, आग्नेय follows next, that which pertains to Agni, is this act”

Adhikaraṇa X Dealing with the precedence of gambling over the अभिषेक ceremony.

कृतदेशात् पूर्वेषां स देशः स्यात्तेन प्रत्यक्षसंयोगान्न्याय- मात्रमितरत् ॥ ५ । २ । २१ ॥

कृतदेशात् having laid down the order, तु on the other hand; पूर्वेषां of the first, स that, देशः order, स्यात् is, तेन with that, प्रत्यक्षसंयोगात् by reason of the direct mention, न्यायमात्रं inferential, इतरत् the other.

21. On the other hand what order has been laid down of the first, that order shall be followed; because that is directly connected and the other is only inferential.

In a राजसूय sacrifice it is laid down that gambling should be done first and then the bath called अभिषेक This order should be strictly followed under the direct authority and sequence laid down by आग्नेय and वावरायण is only a matter of inference. अक्षेदीयति । शौनः शेषमाख्यापयति । माहेंद्रस्य स्तोत्रं प्रत्यभिषिच्यते । “He plays with dice, repeats the story of शुनः शेष; he sprinkles water as the माहेंद्र hymn is sung”

Adhikaraṇa XI Dealing with the subject that सावित्रहोम &c, take precedence over दीक्षणीया.

प्रकृताच्च पुरस्तादत् ॥ ५ । २ । २२ ॥

प्रकृतात् from the acts of the model sacrifice; च and, पुरस्तात् prior, यत् that.

22. Those acts that are mentioned prior to the acts of the model sacrifice shall be performed in that order.

It is laid down in तैत्तिरीयसंहिता that before दीक्षणीया is performed, सावित्रहोम, उखामभरण are performed, altars of bricks are erected and parts of an animal are sacrificed. What is their order in a modified sacrifice?

In the model sacrifice दीक्षणीया is performed. According to the principle laid down, the दीक्षणीया will come first but in the view as laid down in the present sūtra the सावित्रहोम &c., as laid down in the वैश्वीयसंहिता will come first. यद्वद्विद्वानग्निं निजुते । सवित्राणि जुहोति । "Knowing this he establishes fire ; he performs सावित्रहोम "

Adhikāṇa XII Dealing with the subject that the purificatory ceremonies connected with the sacrificer shall take precedence over tying of the gold piece round his neck

सन्निपातश्चेदथोक्तमन्ते स्यात् ॥ ५ । २ । २३ ॥

सन्निपातः a large number of acts ; चेत् if, यथोक्त as said ; अन्ते in the end ; स्यात् is.

23 When there are several acts to be performed, they shall be performed in the end as described.

When there is no पाठक्रम to guide us, the principle laid down in sūtra 17 should be followed. Under it in a modified sacrifice the order will therefore be 1st दीक्षणीया, 2nd रुक्म बध्ना tying of gold round the neck and उल्लालंभण tying of a sling with fire round the neck. First, acts connected with the model sacrifice should be performed and then those connected with the modified sacrifice will come next.

END OF PĀDA II.

PĀDA III.

Adhikāṇa I. Pātras 1-2 Dealing with the subject that the eleven number of प्रयाज &c. accomplishes all

विवृद्धिः कर्मभेदात्पृषदाज्यवत्तस्य तस्योपदिश्येत

॥ ५ । ३ । १ ॥

विवृद्धिः increase ; कर्मभेदात् by reason of the difference of act ; पृषदाज्यवत् like पृषदाज्य (clarified curd) ; तस्य of that, उपदिश्येत let it be laid down.

1. The increase is by virtue of the difference of acts just like पृषदाज्य ; let it be then laid down (separately) for each.

The sūtra embodies the पूर्वपक्ष view. The objector says that there is a preparation of curd and clarified butter each time for अग्निसंवाक्य offering; so when प्रयाज offering is made, it should be made eleven times.

अपि वा सर्वसङ्ख्यत्वाद्विकारः प्रतीयेत ॥ ५।३।२॥

अपिवा or also, not so; सर्वसंख्यत्वाद् by reason of all numbers, विकारः modification; प्रतीयेत is known.

2. Not so; by reason of all numbers, the modification is known.

The author says that is not so. The वृषदाज्य is not prepared each time. The number 11 is made up thus. There are five offerings in a प्रयाज and repeated twice, the number comes to 10 and the last offering which completes the whole sacrifice makes the eleventh. The वृषदाज्य once made is sufficient for eleven times.

Adhikaraṇa II. Dealing with the स्वस्थान repetition of the 1st &c., and the 3rd उपसद् offerings.

स्वस्थानात्तु विवृध्येरन्कृतानुपूर्व्यत्वात् ॥ ५।३।३॥

स्वस्थानात् from their own place, तु again, विवृध्येर should increase; कृतानुपूर्व्यत्वात् by reason of the established order.

3. Again (they) should increase from their own place by reason of the order that is already established.

There are two terms which should be explained. स्वस्थान and द्वाकलित. Three उपसद् offerings are to be made in an अग्निचयन; 1st on the first day and so on. They are to be repeated twice. How are they to be repeated? Should the offerings be made from the 1st to the 3rd day and then again in the same order on the succeeding days? This kind of repetition is called द्वाकलित. Then should the first offering be repeated consecutively on the first, and second days and the middle on the third and fourth days and so on? This method of repetition is स्वस्थानादुक्तिः because the repetition takes place at its own place. The author lays down in this sūtra that the स्वस्थान method of repetition applies to the उपसद् offerings.

Adhikaraṇa III. 4-6 Dealing with the subject of introduction at the end of the additional (unooming) verses amongst सामवेदी verses.

समिध्यमानवर्ती समिद्धवर्ती चान्तरेण धाय्याः स्युर्द्धा-
वापृथिज्योरन्तराले समर्हणात् ॥ ५।३।४॥

समिधमानवती verses of that name; समिधवती verses of that name; च and ; अंतरेष between; चाय्याः verses of that name, स्युः are; चाय्याविभ्योः of heaven and earth, अंतराले in the middle; समर्थात् by description.

4. The dhayya verses should be between समिधमानवती and समिधवती verses because they are described between heaven and earth.

The समिधमानवती verses are taken from ऋग्वेद and are recited at the time of kindling the fire. समिधवती verses are recited after the fire has been kindled. According to the पूर्वपक्ष view, the चाय्या verses come between these two classes of verses as they are so described in the Veda.

इयं वै समिधमानवती असौ समिधवती यदंतरा तद्वाय्याः ॥

“This is truly समिधमानवती and it is समिधवती; the चाय्या verses come between them.”

तच्छब्दो वा ॥ ५ । ३ । ५ ॥

तच्छब्दः that designation, वा or.

5. Or that designation.

There are two kinds of चाय्या. The चाय्या described by पाणिनि in III-1-129 are general and those that are described in the Vedas are to be read in the middle. The particular चाय्याs are to be read in the middle. The general चाय्याs are to be recited in the end.

उष्णिक्कुभोरन्ते दर्शनात् ॥ ५ । ३ । ६ ॥

उष्णिक्कुभोः of the metres of those names, अन्ते in the end, दर्शनात् by seeing.

6. By seeing at the end of उष्णिक् and कुभ

The author gives an additional reason in support of his view that the चाय्या verses come after उष्णिक् and कुभ metres.

Adhikarṇa IV. Sūtras 7—12 Dealing with the subject that in a बहिष्पवमाने the additional verses should be recited after दर्शनात्.

स्तोमविवृद्धौ बहिष्पवमाने पुरस्तात्पर्यासादागन्तवः
स्युस्तथा हि द्वष्टं द्वादशाहे ॥ ५ । ३ । ७ ॥

स्तोमविवृद्धौ in the case of enlargement of स्तोम, बहिष्पवमाने in a बहिष्पवमाने,

पुरस्ताद् before ; अगंतवः introduction ; स्युः are, तथा similarly ; हि because दृष्टं seen ; द्वादशाहे in the twelfth day ceremony.

7. In a बहिष्पवमान when स्तोत्र is enlarged, additional verses should be recited before पर्यास, because it is so seen in द्वादशाह.

In a big sacrifice like ज्योतिर्होम the priests sing in the morning, noon and evening. The songs thus sung are respectively called बहिष्पवमान माध्यदिनपवमान and आर्भवेपवमान. The बहिष्पवमान consists of three parts viz, 1st स्तोत्रीय, 2nd अनुरूप and 3rd पर्यास. In a modified sacrifice, certain Rik verses are introduced. The original three verses arranged in a particular way number 15 in the process of repetition. Such a song is called स्तोम. So according to the objector in a modified sacrifice additional verses should be introduced before पर्यास and he gives an analogy of the 12th day ceremony.

पर्यास इति चाऽन्ताख्या ॥ ५ । ३ । ८ ॥

पर्यासः the paryāsa. इति thus, च and, अन्ताख्या the last name.

8. The word पर्यास is the name of the last one.

In the description given above, the पर्यास is the last part of बहिष्पवमान. So the objector gives this as an additional reason.

अन्ते वा तदुक्तम् ॥ ५ । ३ । ९ ॥

अन्ते in the end, वा or, तदुक्तम् as it is described.

9. Or it is in the end as it is described.

The author gives his siddhānta view in the sūtra and says that the additional rik verses should be recited after the पर्यास and is based on the view of बादरायण in V-2-19 at p. 273.

वचनात्तु द्वादशाहे ॥ ५ । ३ । १० ॥

वचनात् by reason of an authority, तु on the other hand; द्वादशाहे in the case of the 12th day ceremony.

11. The case of the 12th day ceremony is based on authority.

, The author refutes this view of the दुर्बपक्षी that the case of the 12th day ceremony stands on a different footing, there is a direct authority that the additional verses should be recited before पर्यास.

स्तोत्रियानुहयौत्रिचौमवतः । वृषण्वतस्तुवामवन्ति । तुष. उत्तमः पर्यासः ॥ “स्तोत्रियः and अनुहयः are respectively two out of three ऋक् verses in a group; a group of three ऋक् verses ends in वृषण्व. The best is पर्यास.”

अतद्विकारश्च ॥ ५ । ३ । ११ ॥

अतद्विकारः it is not a modification of that, च and

11. And it is not a modification of that.

In अतिरात्र the additional verses are not recited before पर्यास, because it is not a modification of द्वादशाह

तद्विकारेऽप्यपूर्वत्वात् ॥ ५ । ३ । १२ ॥

तद्विकारे in the modification of that अपि also, अपूर्वत्वात् by reason of direct mention

12. In its modification also by reason of the direct statement.

The author further says that in the modification, the additional verses are to be sung in the end under a direct authority. This also confirms his own view

Adhik. 1an. V. Sūtra 13-14 Dealing with the subject that the additional सप्तमः verses are to be introduced in the middle.

अन्ते तूत्तरयोर्दध्यात् ॥ ५ । ३ । १३ ॥

अन्ते in the end, तु again, उत्तरयोः in the next two, दध्यात् should be introduced.

13. On the other hand, (additional verses) should be introduced at the end of the next two.

In the माध्यदिनपवमान and आर्भवपवमान the additional सप्तमः verses are introduced. According to the पूर्वपक्ष view, they are to be introduced at the end under the well known authority of बादरायण. See V. 2 19.

अपि वा गायत्रीबृहत्यानुष्टुप्सु वचनात् ॥ ५ । ३ । १४ ॥

अपि वा or also, गायत्रीबृहत्यानुष्टुप्सु in the गायत्री, बृहती and अनुष्टुप् metres, वचनात् by reason of the authority

14. Under the authority (of a text, they should be introduced) in the middle of गायत्री, बृहती and अनुष्टुप् metres

The author gives his own view that under the direct Vedic authority, the additional साम verses should be introduced in the middle of गायत्री, वृहती and अनुष्टुप्. त्रीणिहवै यज्ञस्य उदराणि गायत्री वृहत्यनुष्टुप् चिति ॥ अत्रहवै भावयति अत- एषोदुपति ॥ "There are three bellies of the sacrifice, गायत्री, वृहती and अनुष्टुप्, in it they take and out of it they emit."

Adhikaraṇa VI, Sūtra 15—16 Dealing with the subject that cups and bricks are subsidiary to sacrifice and fire

ग्रहेष्टकमौपानुवाक्यं सवनचितिशेषः स्यात् ॥५॥३॥१५॥

ग्रहेष्टकं the cups and the bricks, औपानुवाक्यं which are described in close proximity of अनुवाक्य, सवनचितिशेष subordinate to सवन and chiti; स्यात् 15

15 The cups and bricks which are described in proximity to अनुवाक्य are subordinate to सवन and चिति.

The सवन is an act of extracting Soma juice and चिति is a layer of bricks. The पूर्वपक्ष view embodied in the सूत्र is that cups are subordinate to सवन where they are required and so also bricks are subordinate to an altar where they are also required.

क्रत्वग्निशेषा वा चोदितस्त्वादचोदनानुपूर्वस्य ॥५॥३॥१६॥

क्रत्वग्नि शेषः subordinate to क्रतु and अग्नि, वा or, चोदितत्वात् by reason of a commandatory text, अचोदनानुपूर्वस्य no command as to order (or sequence).

16. Or they are subordinate to the sacrifice and fire by reason of a direct authority. No command as to order.

The author gives the siddhānta view in the present सूत्र, what he says is that cups are subsidiary to the sacrifice if they be considered subsidiary to a सवन, then there will be a separate set of cups for each सवन. In the same way the bricks are subsidiary to the fire. This is so under a direct Vedic text.

Adhikaraṇa VII Sūtras 17-19 dealing with the subject that चित्रिणी &c. should be laid in the middle layer

अन्ते स्युरज्यवायात् ॥ ५ । ३ । १७ ॥

अन्ते in the end, स्युः are; अज्यवायात् to avoid intervention or the break of sequence.

17. (The चित्रिणी and वज्रिणी bricks should be used) in the end in order to avoid the break of sequence

The objector says that under the well known dictum of वादरावय, (V. 2. 19) the bricks called चित्रिणी and वज्रिणी should be laid in the altar at the end, so that no other may intervene.

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ ५ । ३ । १८ ॥

लिङ्गदर्शनात् by seeing the force of the text , च and.

18 And because there is a force of the text

The objector gives authorities in support of his view. आवपनं वा उपमा- धितिः । अग्न्या इदं वा उपवर्जति ॥ "The last layer is the place, he places other bricks "

मध्यमार्था तु वचनाद्ब्राह्मणवत्यः ॥ ५ । ३ । १९ ॥

मध्यमार्था in the middle , तु on the other hand ; वचनात् by reason of the authority , ब्राह्मणवत्यः the bricks of the name ब्राह्मणवती.

19. On the other hand in the middle ब्राह्मणवती bricks should be laid under the authority.

The चित्रिणी and वज्रिणी bricks are characterised in the present सूत्र as ब्राह्मणवती It contains the siddhānta view of the author and lays down that these bricks called ब्राह्मणवती should be laid down in the middle layer of the altar.

Adhikarṇa VIII dealing with the subject that चित्रिणी, &c should be laid before लोकपूजा

प्राग्लोकम्पृणायस्तस्याः सम्पूरणार्थत्वात् ॥ ५ । ३ । २० ॥

प्राग् before; लोकपूजायाः the brick known as लोकपूजा, तस्याः its, सम्पूरणार्थत्वात् by reason of its completing the layer.

20 Before लोकपूजा by reason of its completing (the layer).

The author says that the bricks called चित्रिणी and वज्रिणी should be laid before लोकपूजा. चित्रिणी and वज्रिणी form the middle layer of the altar and लोकपूजा forms the last layer.

Adhikarṇa IX. Sūtras 21-25 dealing with the performance of अग्निहोत्र in a sacrificially purified fire.

संस्कृते कर्म संस्काराणां तदर्थत्वात् ॥ ५ । ३ । २१ ॥

संस्कृते in a purified; कर्म act; संस्काराणां of the purificatory ceremonies, तदर्थत्वात् being for that object.

21. In a purified (fire) an act (should be performed) ; because the purificatory ceremonies are with that object.

The fires that are sacrificially acted upon are गार्हपत्य, दक्षिणामि and आहवनीय. When the fires are sacrificially acted upon, the अग्निहोत्र is performed. This is the पूर्वपक्ष view.

अनन्तरं व्रतं तद्भूतत्वात् ॥ ५ । ३ । २२ ॥

अनन्तरं afterward, व्रतं vow, penance, तद्भूतत्वात् by reason of its being ready.

32. Afterwards penance, that being ready.

The objector further proceeds and says that when fire is ready, the sacrificer then takes a vow. Then the fire should be purified,

पूर्वं च लिङ्गदर्शनात् ॥ ५ । ३ । २३ ॥

पूर्वं first, च and, लिङ्गदर्शनात् by seeing the indicative marks, texts

23. First, by virtue of the indicative texts,

The objector gives the texts in support of his view. आहिताग्निर्नङ्गिन्- दार्वादध्यात् । अग्निवैतृष्ठं अग्निहोत्रेणानुव्रवंति ॥ "One who has established fire should not place wet fuel on the fire, they hasten with अग्निहोत्र, when fire is established."

अर्थवादो वाऽर्थस्य विद्यमानत्वात् ॥ ५ । ३ । २४ ॥

अर्थवादः recommendatory text, वा on the other hand, अर्थस्य of a purpose;
विद्यमानत्वात् being present

24. It is a recommendatory text because the purpose is present.

The author gives his own view in the present sūtra in reply to the objector's view as laid down in sūtras 21 to 23. He says that the texts are only recommendatory. They command a silent oblation यद् यजुषा जुहु- यात् । अथवा पूर्वमाहुती जुहुयात् । यन्न जुहुयात् अग्निः पराभवेत् । तूष्णीमिव होतव्यम् ॥
"If one performs homa with yaju mantras let him do so irregularly. If he does not perform होम, the fire will be overcome, let him silently perform होम"

न्यायविप्रतिषेधाच्च ॥ ५ । ३ । २५ ॥

न्यायविप्रतिषेधाच्च by reason of the violation of the rule; च and.

25. And by reason of the violation of the rule.

In III-6-12, at p. 158 it is laid down that पवमानेष्टि purifies the fire. Accordingly fire must be prepared and पवमानेष्टि must be performed, and if it be not performed, the rule will be violated. The order will be as follows; the fire must be established, next penance and then पवमानेष्टि. So when the fire is thus purified then the agnihotra can be performed. So the agnihotra should not be performed immediately.

Adhikarana X Sūtras 26-28. Dealing with the performance of penances of वर्चसु etc by a person who performs अग्निचयन, at the end of the sacrifice.

सञ्चिते त्वग्निचिदुक्तं प्रापणान्निमित्तस्य ॥ ५ । ३ । २६ ॥

सञ्चिते on an altar being built, तु on the other hand; अग्निचित् one who performs अग्निचयेन sacrifice, युक्तं proper, प्रापणात् by virtue of obtaining; निमित्तस्य of a cause, an occasion.

26. On the other hand, when altar is ready a person is अग्निचित्; it is proper for him (to perform penances) because occasion has arisen.

An अग्निचित् has to observe a vow; he shall not run in the rains; he shall not go to his wife nor shall he take any bird's flesh. The पूर्वपक्षी says that as soon as an altar is built, a person becomes an अग्निचित् and he should observe the vows mentioned above. अग्निचिद्वर्षतिन धावेत् ॥ (तै० सं० ५।४।१२) नस्त्रियमुपेयात् । तस्मादग्निचिता पक्षिणो न अशितव्याः ॥ "An अग्निचित् should not run in the rains, he shall not cohabit with a woman; an अग्निचित् therefore should not partake of bird's flesh."

क्रत्वन्ते वा प्रयोगवचनाभावात् ॥ ५ । ३ । २७ ॥

क्रत्वन्ते at the end of the sacrifice; वा or, प्रयोगवचनाभावात् there being no text as to procedure

27. Or at the end of the sacrifice, there being no text of procedure,

The author gives his own siddhānta view in reply to the objection. The vows are directly connected with the person, they are therefore पुरुषार्थ; they are not connected with the sacrifice. So they must be performed at the end of the sacrifice.

अग्नेः कर्मत्वनिर्देशात् ॥ ५ । ३ । २८ ॥

अग्नेः of the fire, कर्मत्वनिर्देशात् by being directed in the accusative case.

28. Of fire it has been directed to be in the accusative case.

The author gives an additional reason in support of his view. He says that the etymology of the word अग्निचिद् shows that one who performs अग्निचयन is अग्निचिद्. The word अग्नि is in the accusative case.

Adhikaraṇa XI sūtras 29 - 31 Dealing with the accomplishment of initiation by a small sacrifice.

परेणाऽऽवेदनाद्वीक्षितः स्यात्सर्वदीक्षाभिसम्बन्धात्

॥ ५ । ३ । २९ ॥

परेणावेदनात् by reason of declaration by others, दीक्षितः initiated, स्यात् is, सर्वैः with all, दीक्षाभिसम्बन्धात् being connected with the initiation.

29. One is initiated when he is so declared by others; because all are connected with the initiation.

The objector says that a person becomes initiated as soon as he holds a staff, ties round a girdle and covers himself with deer skin. On so doing he is declared initiated by all others, because these things mentioned are indispensable for an initiated दंडेन दीक्षयति । मेखलया यजमानं दीक्षयति । (तै० सं० ६।१।३।५) कृष्णाजिनेन दीक्षयति । (तै० सं० ६।१।३।२) "He initiates him with a staff, he initiates the sacrificer with a girdle, he initiates him with a deer skin."

इष्टयन्ते वा तदर्थं ह्यविशेषार्थसम्बन्धात् ॥ ५ । ३ । ३० ॥

इष्टयन्ते sacrifices are performed, वा or, तदर्थं that being their object, हि because; अविशेषसम्बन्धात् being not connected with anything particular.

30. On the other hand, when sacrifices are performed (then one becomes initiated); they are (performed) with that object because there is no connection with any thing particular.

The author gives his own view and says that it is the sacrifice that makes one initiated; it is not holding of the staff or anything particular that makes one initiated but the initiated holds the staff &c.

समाख्यानं च तद्वत् ॥ ५ । ३ । ३१ ॥

समाख्यानं name, etymology. च and, तद्वत् like it

31 The name is also like it.

The author gives an additional reason in support of his view. One who performs दीक्षणीया sacrifice is a दीक्षित. So holding of the staff &c. do not precede but follow the sacrifice; when a man becomes a दीक्षित, then he holds the staff &c.

Adhikarapa XII. Sūtras 32-36. Dealing with irregular performance of the काम्येष्टि sacrifices.

अङ्गवत्कतूनामानुपूर्व्यम् ॥ ५ । ३ । ३२ ॥

अङ्गवत् like constituent parts, कतूना of sacrifices; आनुपूर्व्यं following the order.

32. The order (of काम्येष्टि) is like that of the constituent parts of the sacrifices.

The objector's position is that the constituent parts of a sacrifice follow a certain order which is called पाठक्रम, so also the order of the पाठ is to be observed in the performance of the काम्येष्टि

न वाऽसम्बन्धात् ॥ ५ । ३ । ३३ ॥

न not, वा or, असंबन्धात् by reason of the want of relationship or connection.

33. Not so; by reason of want of connection.

The author gives his own view and says that there can not be any order in a काम्येष्टि which is a desire-accomplishing act because in a sacrifice, the constituent parts which constitute the whole sacrifice are connected, but a desire may arise at any time and a sacrifice may be performed at any time to accomplish it: so in a काम्येष्टि there can not be any order like the constituent parts of a big sacrifice

काम्यत्वाच्च ॥ ५ । ३ । ३४ ॥

काम्यत्वात् by reason of their accomplishing the desire, च and

34. And by reason of their accomplishing the desires.

The author gives an additional reason in support of his view. The human desires follow no order; so the sacrifice performed to accomplish them can not follow any order.

आनर्थक्याच्चेति चेत् ॥ ५ । ३ । ३५ ॥

आनर्थक्यात् by reason of fruitlessness. न not, इति चेत् if you say

35. If you say not, because (the purpose of the order) will be fruitless.

The objector again raises an objection that in the Vedic text an order is given, how can this inconsistency be reconciled?

स्याद्विद्वदर्थत्वादाया परेषु सर्वस्वारात् ॥ ५ । ३ । ३६ ॥

स्यात् may be, विद्वदर्थत्वात् for the purpose of education, यथा just as; परेषु among others, सर्वस्वारात् by reason of general accentuation.

36. It may be with the object of education, just as in the opinion of others general accentuation has an object.

The author gives a reply to the doubt raised in sūtra 35. He says that the reading of the पाठक्रम in the Vedas will conduce to the education of the reader and if read properly with proper accent, it will also teach accentuation.

Adhikaraṇa VIII. Sūtras 37-38 Dealing with the precedence of अग्निहोम over the sacrifices

य एतेनेत्यग्निहोमः प्रकरणात् ॥ ५ । ३ । ३७ ॥

य एतेन who by this, इति this, अग्निहोमः the sacrifice of that name, प्रकरणात् by force of the context

37 The words "who by this" (indicate) अग्निहोम, by reason of the context.

When the words "who by this" are used, they show that the अग्निहोम is referred to by the force of the context. एषत्राव प्रथमोयज्ञानां यज्येतिहोमः । यपतेनाऽनिष्ट्वा अथान्येनयजेत गर्तपत्यमेव तज्जायते प्रवामीयते ॥ "This verily is the first of the sacrifices, this यजेतिहोम, if one performs any other sacrifice without performing it, it falls into a pit or he dies,"

लिङ्गाच्च ॥ ५ । ३ । ३८ ॥

लिङ्गात् by force of the authority, च and.

38. And by force of the textual authority.

The author in support of his view embodied in sūtra 37 relies on the text. तस्यनवतिशतं स्तोत्रियाः ॥ (ऐ० ब्रा० ३।४१) "Ist one hundred and ninety स्तोत्रियाः."

Adhikaraṇa XIV. Sūtras 39-42. Dealing with the precedence of अग्निहोम over the modifications of यजेतिहोम

अथान्येनेति संस्थानां सन्निधानात् ॥ ५ । ३ । ३९ ॥

अथ now ; अन्येन by others , इति these words , संस्थानां seven big sacrifices , सन्निधानात् by reason of the proximity.

39. When words "now by others" are used, they mean seven big sacrifice by reason of proximity.

The objector says that the words "now by others" refer to seven big sacrifices but not to all the modifications of ज्योतिष्टोम. The seven big sacrifices and others also are the modifications of ज्योतिष्टोम. According to the objector, the words 'now by others' occurring in the context of the seven big sacrifices refer to the seven big sacrifices

तत्प्रकृतेर्वाऽऽपत्तिविहारौ न तुल्येषूपपद्यते ॥५।३।४०॥

तत्प्रकृतेः of those sacrifices of which it is the model i.e. the modifications of ज्योतिष्टोम ; आपत्ति विहारौ essential quality and production; हि because; न not, तुल्येषु in equal, उपपद्यते produced or obtained.

40. Or the आपत्ति and विहार are seen in the modified sacrifices but not in the model sacrifice

The आपत्ति and विहार require explanation. When from one fire several fires can be produced, it is called अग्निविहार, from one ज्योतिष्टोम all other sacrifices derive their origin: it is called वर्मविहार. These sacrifices, deriving their origin from the ज्योतिष्टोम have all one essential quality which is called इयाति or आपत्ति. So what the author lays down as his सिद्धांत view is that it is only in the modifications that one finds आपत्ति and विहार but not in sacrifices of equal rank

प्रशंसा च विहरणाभावात् ॥ ५ । ३ । ४१ ॥

प्रशंसा praise , वा or , विहरणाभावात् by reason of the absence of transference

41. Or it is praise because there is absence of transference.

The objector again says in reply to the view expressed by the author that all the sacrifices have sprung up from ज्योतिष्टोम. He says that it is only to praise the ज्योतिष्टोम. The essential qualities of the sacrifice (आपत्ति) and the transference thereof (विहार) do not apply to all other sacrifices.

विधिप्रत्ययाद्वा न ह्यकस्मात्प्रशंसा स्यात् ॥५।३।४२॥

विधि प्रत्ययाद् by the force of the command, वा or, न not, हि because, अक-

स्यात् by chance or haphazard or at random; प्रशंसा praise; स्यात् is.

42. Or by the force of the injunction, because there can be no praise at random.

The author gives a reply to the objector. He says that there must be an act which has been enjoined by a विधि and there can be no praise without there being an act which has been so enjoined. The essential characteristics of a model sacrifice are transferred to its modifications. There is no विधि text as to the जापसि and विहार but you can know by the वेदक text : e. by analogy or inference.

Adhikarapa XV Sūtras 43—44 Dealing with the precedence of अग्निहोमः over all special sacrifices in which one or more स्तोमः are chanted.

एकस्तोमे वा क्रतुसंयोगात् ॥ ५ । ३ । ४३ ॥

एकस्तोमे in those sacrifices in which one स्तोमः is chanted; वा or; क्रतुसंयोगात् by reason of their connection with the sacrifice (अग्निहोमः).

43. Or in those sacrifices in which स्तोमः is chanted by reason of their connection with the sacrifice.

There are two kinds of sacrifices एकस्तोमः and अनेकस्तोमः. The objector says that as एकस्तोमः is connected with the अग्निहोमः, so the अग्निहोमः must be performed and then the एकस्तोमः.

सर्वेषां वा चेदनाविशेषात्प्रशंसा स्तोमानाम् ॥ ५ । ३ । ४४ ॥

सर्वेषां of all; वा or; चेदनाविशेषात् by reason of there being no special command; प्रशंसा praise, स्यात् is.

44. Or of all; because there being no special command, it is a praise of the stomas.

The author now gives his own view. He says that the Vedic text in which अनाव्येन occurs is of general application. It therefore applies to both एकस्तोमः and अनेकस्तोमः sacrifices. There is no word restricting the general applicability to any particular sacrifice. So the अग्निहोमः must precede all these sacrifices.

END OF PADA III.

PĀDA IV.

Adhikaraṇa 1. Dealing with the predominance of श्रुतिपाठ and अर्थपाठ over पाठक्रम.

क्रमकोट्योऽर्थशब्दान्यां श्रुतिविशेषादर्थपरत्वाच्च

॥ ५ । ४ । १ ॥

क्रमकः the order ; यः which ; अर्थशब्दान्यां from अर्थ क्रम and श्रुति क्रम ; श्रुति विशेषात् by reason of the special text ; अर्थपरत्वाच्च by virtue of the predominance of the object ; च and.

1. The पाठक्रम is (set aside) by the अर्थक्रम and श्रुतिक्रम by reason of the special text and the desired object.

The author gives his view in this sūtra as to which should prevail when there is a conflict among श्रुतिक्रम, अर्थक्रम and पाठक्रम. When there is a conflict between श्रुतिक्रम and पाठक्रम the former will prevail ; and when there is a conflict between the अर्थक्रम and पाठक्रम the former will prevail.

Adhikaraṇa 2. Sūtras 2-4. Dealing with the subject that the अवदान etc., are to be performed first to the fire according to the मुख्यक्रम.

अवदानाभिचारणाऽऽसादनेष्वानुपूर्व्यं प्रवृत्त्या स्यात्

॥ ५ । ४ । २ ॥

अवदानाभिचारणासादनेषु in the acts of cutting a slice from the पुरोडाश cake, sprinkling it with clarified butter and placing it ; अनुपूर्व्यं the sequence ; प्रवृत्त्या by the प्रवृत्ति क्रम, स्यात् shall be.

2. In the acts of cutting a slice from the puroḍāśa cake and anointing it with the clarified ghee and placing it, the order shall be according to the inclination.

The objector says that in the acts enumerated above in the case of पुरोडाश cake, the order is to be determined by प्रवृत्ति.

यथाप्रदानं वा तदर्थत्वात् ॥ ५ । ४ । ३ ॥

यथाप्रदानं according to the order of the offer ; वा on the other hand ; तदर्थत्वात् by reason of its being subservient to that object.

3. On the other hand, (the order will depend) on the order of the thing offered because it is with that object.

The author gives his own view in reply to the objection of the objector. In the दर्शपूर्णमासयाग, curd is prepared which is called संज्ञाय and पुरोडाश cake is also prepared for an offering to fire. The question is, which should be performed? We have the पूर्वपक्ष view which says that according to प्रवृत्तिक्रम, the संज्ञाय should be offered first. The author says here that it should be guided by the offering i. e., the offering of पुरोडाश cake to the fire. So the order will be determined by the मुख्यक्रम because the offering is the principal act.

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ ५ । ४ । ४ ॥

लिङ्गदर्शनात् by seeing the force of the text, च and.

4. And by the force of the text

The author as usual relies on the Vedic text from which he makes an inference in support of his view. सवै ध्रुवामेवअग्नेऽभिघारयति । ततोहि ग्रथमावाज्यभागौ यक्ष्यन् भवति ॥ "He will first sprinkle ghee on the ध्रुवा and he will thus be ready to offer the oblations of ghee"

Āthikarāṇa III Sūtras ३ ९ Dealing with the subject that there is no rule as to the order of the performance of इष्टि and सोम

वचनादिष्टिपूर्वत्वम् ॥ ५ । ४ । ५ ॥

वचनात् by reason of the text, इष्टिपूर्वत्वं the priority of the इष्टि.

5. According to the text the इष्टि (new and full moon sacrifice) has priority.

There are two practices one is called ज्ञानतर्प and the other व्यवधान. Under the practice called ज्ञानतर्प, first fire is prepared and then सोमयाग is performed. Under the second practice, the fire is first prepared, then the full and new moon sacrifices called इष्टि are performed and lastly the सोमयाग is performed; under this practice the इष्टि intervenes between the preparation of fire and सोमयाग. The present sūtra embodies the पूर्वपक्ष view which adopts the second practice called व्यवधान.

सोमश्चैकेषामग्न्याधेयस्यर्तुनक्षत्राऽतिक्रमवचनात्तदन्ते- ज्ञानार्थकं हि स्यात् ॥ ५ । ४ । ६ ॥

सोमः soma sacrifice, एकेषां of one party; ज्ञानार्थकस्य establishment of knowparation of fire; तदुक्तमत्रादिमवचनात् by reason of the non-observance of the season and constellation; तद्वत् that being the end, न not; अर्थवत् meaning less; स्यात् is.

6. According to one party, soma sacrifice comes after the preparation of fire, because there is a text for non-observance of season and constellation; with that object the Vedic text does not become meaningless.

The author says that according to one party the आनन्तर्य practice is preferable; that is somayāga should be performed just after the preparation of fire. Under the practice, the performer has not to wait for a particular season and constellation as laid in the Vedic text. यः सोमेन यश्च माणोऽग्निमादधीत । न तु सप्रतीक्षेत् न नक्षत्रं ॥ "One who wishes to perform सोमयाग, he shall establish holy fires; he shall not wait for season or constellation of stars"

तदर्थवचनाच्च नाविशेषात्तदर्थत्वं ॥ ५ । ४ । ७ ॥

तदर्थवचनात् the text being for that; च and; न not; अविशेषात् by reason of its being for particular, तदर्थत्वं for that object.

7 And that (अग्न्याधान) being for that (सोमयाग) under a text and if not for particular (सोमयाग) the object of that will not be served.

The author gives an additional reason in support of his view. He says that there is a Vedic authority which says that अग्न्याधान is for the object of the सोमयाग, if that is not accepted the object as laid down in the text will be fruitless. यः सोमेन यजेत स अग्निमादधीत । "He who performs सोमयाग, shall establish holy fire."

अयक्ष्यमाणस्य च पवमानहविषां कालनिर्देशादानन्तर्याद्विशङ्का स्यात् ॥ ५ । ४ । ८ ॥

अयक्ष्यमाणस्य of a person who does not perform सोमयाग, च and, पवमानहविषां of पवमान offerings; कालनिर्देशात् by reason of the direction as to time; आनन्तर्यात् by reason of the doctrine or practice of immediateness; विशङ्का doubtlessness; स्यात् is.

8. By reason of the direction as to time for performance of पवमान offerings for a person not performing सोम याग; the doubt as to the validity of the practice of आनन्तर्य (immediateness) is removed.

The author gives second additional reason in support his view. It is laid down in the Vedas that a person who does not perform सोमयाग shall have to make offerings for a year. This fact also goes to show that the सोम sacrifice should be performed after the preparation of fire. अयस्यमाणोऽग्निमाधीत । सपुरा संवत्सरात् हवींषि निर्वायेत् ॥ "He who establishes fire without offering oblations of soma, shall have to make offerings for a year."

इष्टिरयस्यमाणस्य तदर्थे न सोमपूर्वत्वम् ॥५।१।९॥

इष्टिः full and new moon sacrifices, अयस्यमाणस्य of a person who does not perform (सोमयाग), तदर्थे for that object, सोमपूर्वत्वं the precedence of सोमयाग.

9. For a man who does not perform सोमयाग, the इष्टि (should be performed after अन्याधान); but if it (अन्याधान) is for that object (performance of सोमयाग) then सोमयाग, must be performed first.

The author gives the summary that if the object of the sacrificer is not to perform सोमयाग then इष्टि should be performed after अन्याधान i. e. the practice of व्यवाधान should be adopted, if the object of the अन्याधान is for the performance of the सोमयाग then सोमयाग must be performed after अन्याधान i. e., the practice called आनन्तर्य should be adopted.

Adhikaraṇa IV Sūtras 10—14. Dealing with the subject that there is no rule for a Brāhmaṇa as to whether he should perform इष्टि first or सोम.

उत्कर्षाद्ब्राह्मणस्य सोमः स्यात् ॥ ५ । १ । १० ॥

उत्कर्षात् by reason of transference forward; ब्राह्मणस्य of a Brahman, सोमः somayāga, स्यात् is.

10. By transference forward (of इष्टि) of a Brāhmaṇa, soma (sacrifice should be performed first).

The adhikaraṇa opens with the पूर्वपक्ष view and says that in the case of a Brāhmaṇa the principle of आनन्तर्य as explained in the preceding Adhikaraṇa applies.

पौर्णमासी वा श्रुतिसंयोगात् ॥ ५ । १ । ११ ॥

पौर्णमासी full moon sacrifice, वा on the other hand, श्रुतिसंयोगात् by reason of the direct Vedic text

11. Not so; the full moon sacrifice, as there is a direct Vedic authority.

The author gives his own view in reply to the objection of the objector. He says that a Brāhmaṇa can adopt either of the two practices mentioned in the preceding adhikaraṇa. If he adopts the आनन्तर्य, he can do so on the पूर्णमासी day First अन्वाधान; then सोमयाग and lastly the इष्टि.

यदेवादः पूर्णमासीहविः ॥ "This, then is the full moon offering."

सर्वस्य वैकर्म्यात् ॥ ५ । ४ । १२ ॥

सर्वस्य of all; वा not-so, एककर्म्यात् by reason of one act.

12. On the other hand, all constitute one act.

The objector says that if the principle of आनन्तर्य applies to the full moon sacrifice, it also applies to the new moon sacrifice as well because all of them constitute one act. So there must be a transference forward in all cases

स्याद्वा विधिस्तदर्थेन ॥ ५ । ४ । १३ ॥

स्यात् may be; वा on the other hand, विधिः command; तदर्थेन with that object

13. On the other hand, it is a command for the object.

The second objector says that by reason of the mandatory text it appears that there is another independent full moon sacrifice which is subsidiary to ज्योतिष्येन.

प्रकरणान्तु कालः स्यात् ॥ ५ । ४ । १४ ॥

प्रकरणान्तु by context, तु on the other hand, कालः time, स्यात् is.

14. On the other hand, time is (known) by context.

The author gives his own view; he says that there is no separate sacrifice. It is one. A Brāhmaṇa must perform अन्वाधान and then सोमयाग and lastly the full moon इष्टि. The description of the same in the Veda, is to indicate the time.

Adhikaraṇa V. Sūtra 16—18. Dealing with the subject that there is no particular time for सोमयाग as said in the sentence, 'one should not wait for any season'

स्वकाले स्यादविप्रतिषेधात् ॥ ५ । ४ । १५ ॥

स्वकाले at its own time; स्यात् is, अविप्रतिषेधात् by reason of no prohibition.

15. At its own time, because there is no prohibition.

In sūtra 6, at p. 291 it is said that under the आनन्तर्य practice neither season nor constellation of the stars is to be observed. The objector says that this prohibition relates to the अन्वाधान only but does not refer to सोमयाग; so it must be performed at its proper time.

अपनयो वाऽऽधानस्य सर्वकालत्वात् ॥ ५।४।१६ ॥

अपनयः prohibition, setting aside, वा on the other hand, आधानस्य of the establishment of fire, सर्वकालत्वात् by reason of its being for all time

16. On the other hand, the prohibition (relates to सोमयाग) because the establishment of fire can be done at all time

The author gives his own view in this सूत्र and says that the prohibition relates to the सोमयाग but not to अग्न्याधान, as the latter can be done at all time. So there is no fixed time for सोमयाग

पौर्णमास्यूर्ध्वं सोमाद्ब्राह्मणस्य वचनात् ॥ ५।४।१७ ॥

पौर्णमासी full moon sacrifice, ऊर्ध्वं upwards, सोमात् from the सोम sacrifice, ब्राह्मणस्य of a ब्राह्मण, वचनात् by reason of the text

17. (Performance of) the full moon sacrifice for a Brāhmaṇa is after the somayāga by reason of the Vedic text

The author says that it is enjoined that a Brāhmaṇa should perform the full moon sacrifice after the सोमयाग. यदेवादं पौर्णमासंहविस्तसहर्षं तु निर्वपेत् ॥ "This then is the full moon offering, he ought to consecrate subsequently" So the full moon sacrifice can only be transferred forward.

एकं वा शब्दसामर्थ्यात्प्राक् कृत्स्नविधानम् ॥ ५।४।१८ ॥

एक one offering, शब्दसामर्थ्यात् by the force of the text; प्राक् before, कृत्स्न विधानात्, by reason of prescribing all

18. By force of the text, one offering (should be made) before (सोमयाग) by virtue of all being prescribed.

We have seen that a Brāhmaṇa can adopt both practices called आर्जस्य and व्यवधान. When he adopts the second method, he will have to establish fire first, then offerings of the full moon sacrifice with the exception of one, then सोमयाग and lastly the one offering of the full moon sacrifice. The purport of the सूत्र is, that only one offering can be transferred forward because all are performed between अग्न्याधान and सोमयाग.

Adhikaraṇa. VI. 64tras 19—21. Dealing with the non-transference forward of आर्जस्य offering from सोम.

पुरोडाशस्त्वनिर्देशे तदुक्ते देवताभावात् ॥ ५।४।१९ ॥

पुरोडाशः puroḍāśa cake, तु on the other hand; अनिर्देशे on no direction तदुक्ते being connected; देवताभावात् by reason of being a deity.

19. On the other hand, when there is no direction the (offering shall be of) पुरोडाश; on the connection with that, by reason of being a diety.

The sūtra is very obscure. In the preceding अधिकरण it is shown when a Brāhmaṇa adopts the सवधान practice, he will have to perform the अन्वयाधान, then all offerings of the full moon sacrifice with the exception of one, then the सोम sacrifice and then the one offering which had been omitted. Now the question is whether this last offering is that of पुरोडाश or of clarified ghee. The author in this सूत्र says that it should be of पुरोडाश cake; the reason is that the पुरोडाश cake is connected with two dieties अग्नि and सोम and the sacrificer by reason of performing this becomes अग्निवोमीव.

आज्यमपीतिचेत् ॥ ५ । ४ । २० ॥

आज्य clarified butter, अपि also, इतिचेत् if you say

20. If you say that it may be an offering of clarified butter.

The objector says in reply to the author's view that this offering should be of clarified butter. It has also two dieties and it can be transferred forward.

न मिश्रदेवतत्वादैनद्राग्नवत् ॥ ५ । ४ । २१ ॥

न not so, मिश्रदेवतत्वात् by reason of mixed dieties, ऐन्द्राग्नवत् like the dieties इन्द्र and अग्नि.

21. No; by reason of the mixed diety just as in the case of the offerings to gods इन्द्र and अग्नि.

The author's reply to the objection of the objector is that the offering of the ghee is to be made to the mixed dieties. It is made to अग्नि, सोम, प्रजापति and विष्णु but the पुरोडाश is offered to अग्नि and सोम only. The conclusion arrived at, is that the last offering consists of पुरोडाश.

Adhikarṇa V.I. Sūtras 22—24 Dealing with the immediate performance of the modified sacrifices as ऐन्द्राग्न etc

विकृतेः प्रकृतिकालत्वात्सद्यस्कालोत्तरा विकृतिस्तयोः प्रत्यक्षशिष्टत्वात् ॥ ५ । ४ । २२ ॥

विकृतेः of the modified sacrifice, प्रकृतिकालत्वात् by reason of the time of the model sacrifice; सद्यस्कालोत्तरा must be performed immediately; विकृतिः modified sacrifice; तयोः of the two, प्रत्यक्षशिष्टत्वात् by reason of the direct com-hand of the Veda.

22. The time of the modified sacrifice is that of the model sacrifice; the modified sacrifice should be performed immediately. Both of them being enjoined by the direct Vedic authority.

The sūtra embodies the सिद्धांत view of the author. It says that the modified sacrifice is governed by the model sacrifice in time as well; but the modified sacrifice should be performed promptly and immediately. So that is the direction as to both the model and modified sacrifices in the Vedas

द्वैयहकाल्ये तु यथान्यायम् ॥ ५ । ४ । २३ ॥

द्वैयहकाल्ये two days' time, तु on the other hand, यथान्यायम् just as proper.

23 On the other hand, two days' time is proper.

The objector says that the model sacrifice takes two days, so the modified sacrifice will also take two days

वचनाद्वैककाल्यं स्यात् ॥ ५ । ४ । २४ ॥

वचनात् by reason of an authority, वा on the other hand, एककाल्यं one time or day, स्यात् is.

24. There is only one time by reason of the direct authority.

The author gives a reply to the objection raised in sūtra 23. He says that there is a direct authority that the modified sacrifice should be performed on the one and the same day. सश्रया पशुनासोमेन आग्रयणेन वन्यश्चमाणाः सपौर्णमास्या प्रमावास्यायां वा यजेत ॥ "He who is desirous of performing इष्टि. animal sacrifice, soma sacrifice or आग्रयण sacrifice, shall do so on full moon or new moon days."

Adhikarana VII Dealing with the transference forward of the modified sacrifice of सन्नाय्य &c., after सोम.

सन्नाय्याग्निषोमीयविकाराजर्ध्वं सोमात्प्रकृतिवत्

॥ ५ । ४ । २५ ॥

सन्नाय्याग्निषोमीयविकाराः modified sacrifices of सन्नाय and अग्निषोमीय, ऊर्ध्वं after; upwards, सोमात् from सोमयाग, प्रकृतिवत् like the model sacrifice.

25 The modified sacrifices सन्नाय and अग्निषोमीय should be performed after soma yāga like the model sacrifice.

सन्नाय is a mixture. A cow is milked, the milk is kept, and on the next day a cow is milked, and both milks are mixed together with the clarified butter. This mixture is called सन्नाय. अग्निषोमोद is a पुण्ड्राक cake offered to अग्नि and सोम after the performance of सोमयाग on the full moon day. The सन्नाय offering is made on the new moon day after the performance of the सोमयाग. These are modifications added in the case of one who has already performed the सोम sacrifice. So the author says that the सन्नाय and पुरोडाश offerings should be made after the performance of the सोमयाग.

Adhikaraṇa IX. Dealing with the performance of the modifications of सोम after the new and full moon sacrifices.

तथा सोमविकारा दर्शपूर्णमासाभ्याम् ॥ ५ । १ । २६ ॥

तच्च similarly; सोमविकाराः the modifications of सोम, दर्श पूर्णमासाभ्याम् from the new and full moon sacrifices.

26. Similarly the modifications of soma are performed after the new and full moon sacrifices.

We have already seen that under the practice called आर्गतर्प the fire is first established, then सोम is performed and in the end इष्टि is performed. If one follows व्यवधान practice, the इष्टि intervenes between the अभ्युपान and सोम. In the case of a Brahmana one offering is omitted which is made after the performance of the सोम sacrifice. This applies to model sacrifice. What is the procedure in the case of the modified sacrifice? The modifications of सोम shall be performed after the performance of the new and full moon sacrifices which occur in the end under the आर्गतर्प practice.

END OF PĀDA IV.

END OF CHAPTR V.

CHAPTER VI

PĀDA I

Adhikaraṇa' Sūtras 1-3 Dealing with the subject that the sacrifice and other ceremonies secure heaven as the reward

द्रव्याणां कर्मसंयोगे गुणत्वेनाऽभिसम्बन्धः ॥ ६।१।१॥

द्रव्याणां of the materials, कर्म संयोगे in connection with acts, गुणत्वेन by reason of being subordinate, अभिसंबन्धः relationship.

1 The relation of the materials in connection with an act is subordinate.

The present chapter discusses the right of a person to perform a sacrifice स्वर्गकामे यजेत "One who is desirous of heaven shall perform a sacrifice." In performing a sacrifice, there are three necessary things The agent, the motive power and the materials are indispensable for the performance of a sacrifice The sacrificer is the agent, the materials are pestle, mortar &c. What is the desire for स्वर्ग? Whether it is principal or subordinate? In an illustration दंडी पुरुषः, the man is principal and दंड is subordinate, so in स्वर्गकामः पुरुषः the man is principal and the desire for स्वर्ग is subordinate. If there be no desire to obtain heaven there will be no sacrifice. But according to the पूर्वपक्ष view स्वर्ग is not principal but a means to perform a sacrifice and it is therefore subordinate. All materials are subordinate in an action and the स्वर्ग being such is also subordinate.

असाधकं तु तादर्थ्यात् ॥ ६।१।२॥

असाधकं not means, तु on the other hand, तादर्थ्यात् by reason of its being for that object.

2. On the other hand, it is not a means by reason of its being for that object.

The author gives his own view in reply to the objection. The heaven can not be the means because it is the the object of a sacrifice. There can be no action without an object, So the object of a sacrifice is heaven.

प्रत्यर्थं चाऽभिसंयोगात्कर्मतो ह्यभिसम्बन्धस्तस्मात्कर्मोपदेशः स्यात् ॥ ६।१।३ ॥

प्रति towards ; अर्थ object , च and, अभिसंयोगात् by reason of the connection ; कर्मतः with an action ; हि because ; अभिसंबन्धः relationship ; तस्मात् therefore ; कर्मोपदेशः direction for action ; स्यात् may be.

3. By reason of the connection with the object, there is relationship with the act ; so there is a direction for the act.

The author gives an additional reason in support of his view. He says that a man is actuated by certain desires, there can be no action without a desire. There is a strong desire in the human mind for heaven, and with that object he performs a sacrifice. The direction for its performance is, therefore, given in the Vedas.

Adhikarṇa 14. Sūtras 4-5 Dealing with the subject that a man has a right to perform sacrifices.

फलार्थत्वात्कर्मणः शास्त्रं सर्वाधिकारं स्यात् ॥६।१।४॥

फलार्थत्वात् by reason of the reward being the object , कर्मणः of an action ; शास्त्रं anything enjoined , सर्वाधिकारं right of all , स्यात् is.

4. Because the reward of an action is desired, all are entitled to perform it.

The objector says that as the reward of an action is the desired object of human beings, so no one can be excluded from it ; every human being is entitled to it. Heaven is the summum bonum , all persons desirous of it, are entitled to perform a sacrifice to obtain it.

कर्तुर्वाश्रुतिसंयोगाद्विधिः कात्स्नर्येन गम्यते ॥६।१।५॥

कर्तुः of a doer or an agent, वा on the other hand ; श्रुति संयोगात् by reason of the connection of the text, विधिः command ; कात्स्नर्येन with the whole ; गम्यते applies.

5. On the other hand, the command by reason of its connection with the Veda, applies to a doer who can complete the whole.

The पूर्वपक्ष in the preceding सूत्र extends the performance of a sacrifice to all including human beings and animals. The author lays down his own view that every one, who can reasonably perform the whole act is entitled to perform it. Animals and human beings who are otherwise incompetent are not entitled to perform a sacrifice, because they do not possess the capacity.

Adhikarana III. Sūtras 6-16 Dealing with the right of man and woman to perform sacrifices.

लिङ्गविशेषनिर्देशात्पुंयुक्तमैतिशायनः ॥ ६ । १ । ६ ॥

लिङ्गविशेषनिर्देशात्, by reason of the mention of a special gender, पुंयुक्तं proper for a man, ऐतिशायनः the view of ऐतिशायनः

6. The view of ऐतिशायन is that a man alone is entitled, there being a mention of a special gender

The objector on the strength of ऐतिशायन's view says that a man is alone entitled to perform a sacrifice as there is a masculine gender mentioned in the Veda.

तदुक्तिवाच्च दोषश्रुतिरविज्ञाते ॥ ६ । १ । ७ ॥

तदुक्तिवाच्च by reason of the mention of that, च and; दोषश्रुतिः the text laying down the sin, अविज्ञाते being not known

7. By reason of the mention of it (masculine gender) there is a text which lays down sin on (the sex) being not known

The objector gives an additional reason that there is a sin in committing foeticide. The masculine gender is used, as the sex of the foetus is not known, it contemplates the male foetus. This analogy according to the objector supports his view that a male person is alone entitled to perform a sacrifice.

जातिं तु वादरायणोऽविशेषात्तस्मात्स्त्र्यपि प्रतीयेत
जात्यर्थस्याऽविशिष्टत्वात् ॥ ६ । १ । ८ ॥

जाति class, तु on the other hand; वादरायणः the Rish; वादरायणः, अविशेषात् without any distinction, तस्मात् therefore, स्त्री a female, अपि also; प्रतीयेत is included; जात्यर्थस्य of the object of the class, अविशिष्टत्वात् by reason of making no distinction.

8. On the other hand, the view of वादरायण is that it refers to a class without any distinction; therefore a woman is also included: the object of the class is without distinction.

The author gives his own view and supports it with the view of वादरायण. When the word man is used, it is used as genus, it includes the individuals without any specification of male and female. So the word 'man' includes 'woman' also.

चोदितत्वाद्यथाश्रुति ॥ ६ । १ । ६ ॥

चोदितत्वाद् by reason of its being a command, यथाश्रुति according to the Vedic text.

9. Being enjoined it should be performed, according to the direction of the Veda.

The author gives a reply to the objection raised in sūtra 7. He says that where it lays down that an animal should be killed, it refers to the material; and the gender is specific there but where it is said that an आत्रेयी should not be killed it does not refer to a pregnant woman but it is in praise of the आत्रेय गोत्र आत्रेयीहत्वा मूणहाभवति॥ "Any one who kills an आत्रेयी is guilty of foeticide" आत्रेयी is a pregnant woman or a woman of Atri family. Where it is said that a person desirous of स्वर्ग should perform a sacrifice, it includes both male and female though, the nemi-native is in masculine gender.

द्रव्यवत्त्वात् पुंसां स्याद्द्रव्यसंयुक्तं क्रयविक्रयाभ्याम- द्रव्यत्वं स्त्रीणां द्रव्यैः समानयोगित्वात् ॥ ६ । १ । १० ॥

द्रव्यवत्त्वात् by reason of possessing wealth; पुंसां on the other hand, पुंसां of males, स्यात् is, द्रव्य संयुक्तं connected with wealth, क्रयविक्रयाभ्यां by sale and purchase, अद्रव्यत्वं possession of no wealth, स्त्रीणां of females, द्रव्यैः with property; समानयोगित्वात् being on the same level.

10. On the other hand, on account of the male possessing wealth (is competent to perform the sacrifice) dependent on wealth; by reason of sale and purchase of females, they are devoid of wealth, they being on the same level as property.

The objector gives a view of the primitive people by whom the females were regarded as chattel. He says that for the performance of a sacrifice, a performer should possess wealth, it is man only that can have wealth; because a woman is purchased and sold in the ceremony called marriage, she is therefore not entitled to wealth and is like chattel. The objector's conclusion is that a female is therefore not entitled to perform a sacrifice.

तथा चान्यार्थदर्शनम् ॥ ६ । १ । ११ ॥

तथा similarly; च and, चान्यार्थ दर्शनं seeing other text.

11. Similarly there is another text.

The objector in support of his view relies on the Vedic text. यापत्या क्रीतासती अथान्यैश्चरति । "she though purchased by her husband, lives with others."

तादर्थ्यात्कर्मतादर्थ्यम् ॥ ६ । १ । १२ ॥

तादर्थ्यात् being for his object, कर्म an act; तादर्थ्यं for his object.

12. Being for his object, the act is all for him.

The objector proceeds further and says that a woman is entirely dependent upon her husband; her wealth, if there be any is for his object, her act will necessarily be for him. So she is not competent to perform any sacrifice.

फलोत्साहाविशेषात् ॥ ६ । १ । १३ ॥

फलोत्साहाविशेषात् by reason of there being no distinction of the desire for reward, तु on the other hand

13. On the other hand there being no distinction of the desire for the reward.

The author gives a reply to the objector. The desire to obtain heaven is as strong in a man as it is in a woman. As there is no distinction in this respect, so there can be no distinction in the capacity to perform a sacrifice.

अर्थेन च समवेतत्वात् ॥ ६ । १ । १४ ॥

अर्थेन with wealth, च and, समवेतत्वात् being always connected

14. And being always connected with wealth.

The author replies to the view of the objector that a female is incapable of holding wealth as said in sūtra 10. He says that a woman is equally partner with him.

क्रयस्य धर्ममात्रत्वम् ॥ ६ । १ । १५ ॥

क्रयस्य of a sale; धर्ममात्रं a form of religion only.

15. The sale is only a religious form.

We have seen in sūtra 10 that the objector assigns a reason for a female not holding wealth: i.e. she is purchased by the husband and sold by the father. To this objection the author says that it is not so, it is only a religious form, because no price of a bride is fixed upon her quality just like commodity in a market.

स्ववत्तामपिदर्शयति ॥ ६ । १ । १६ ॥

स्ववत्ता the quality of possessing wealth, अपि also, दर्शयति shows

16. (The Veda) shows that they have capacity to possess wealth.

The objector said that the females had no capacity to possess wealth. In reply the author says that in the Vedic text it is laid down that an offering of the buttock of an animal is made to the wives of the gods; this shows that even females can possess their separate property पत्नी हि पारीणह्यस्येशे पत्नियैवानुमनं निर्वपति ॥ (तै० सं० ६।२।१।१) "A wife is certainly the mistress of the household furniture, he makes an offering with the wife's permission"

Adhikarana IV. Sūtra 17—21 Dealing with the equal right of husband and wife as sacrifice.

स्ववतोस्तु वचनादैककर्म्यं स्यात् ॥ ६ । १ । १७ ॥

स्ववतोः possessed of wealth, तु on the other hand, वचनात् by reason of the text, एककर्म्यं pertaining to one and the same act; स्यात् is.

17. On the other hand, the husband and wife possessed of wealth are entitled to perform the one and the same sacrificial act.

The author lays down the siddhānta view that both husband and wife are equally entitled to perform a sacrifice and in support of this view, there is a direct text. धर्मैव अर्थैव कामेचनातिवर्तिव्या । सहधर्मश्चरतिव्यः । सहापत्यमुत्पादयितव्यम् ॥ "She should not be discarded in religious affairs, business, and desired objects, all religious acts, should be performed together: children should be brought forth together."

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ ६ । १ । १८ ॥

लिङ्गदर्शनात् by reason of the force of the text च and

18. And there is also an inference from the text.

In support of his view, the author derives a conclusion from the text of the Vedas मेखलया यजमानदीक्षयति योक्त्रेणपत्नी मिथुनत्वाय ॥ (तै० सं० ६।१।३।५) "He ties a girdle round the sacrificer, and a cord round his wife to become a pair"

क्रीतत्वात् भक्त्या स्वामित्वमुच्यते ॥ ६ । १ । १९ ॥

क्रीतत्वात् by reason of purchase, तु on the other hand, भक्त्या by figure of speech, स्वामित्वं ownership, उच्यते is said.

19. By reason of purchase, (she is not independent); by way of figurative speech (her) ownership is described.

The objector replies that as a woman is purchased, she can not be independent, the description of ownership is by way of metonymy.

फलार्थित्वात् स्वामित्वेनाभिसम्बन्धः ॥ ६ । १ । २० ॥

फलार्थित्वात् by reason of a desire for a reward, तु on the other hand; स्वामित्वेन with the ownership, अभिसम्बन्धः connection

20 On the other hand, by reason of having a desire for a reward, there is a connection with the ownership.

The author gives a reply to the objection raised in the preceding sūtra. He says that she also possesses a desire to secure heaven, she is, therefore, independent to perform a sacrifice just like a man having a desire to secure heaven

फलवत्तो च दर्शयति ॥ ६ । १ । २१ ॥

फलवत्तां obtaining of a reward, च and, दर्शयति shows.

21 The text shows that (she) obtains a fruit.

The author supports his view by quoting authority. The Vedic text shows that she is entitled to get reward, this fact also shows that she is entitled to perform a sacrifice संपत्नी कन्या सुदृतेन गच्छतां । यक्ष्ययुक्ता धुर्यावभृतां । संजानानौ विजहतामरातीः । दिविष्येति रजस्मारमेताम् (तै०सं० ३।७।११ 'A wife with her husband reaps the fruit of good actions, they both bear the yoke of a sacrifice being of one mind they overcome their enemies. They attain the undecaying light in heaven.'

A Itikarans V Sūtras 22-23 Dealing with the subject that one man only can perform अग्न्याधान

द्वयाधानं च द्वियज्ञवत् ॥ ६ । १ । २२ ॥

द्वयाधानं two persons performing the अग्न्याधान, च and, द्वियज्ञवत्, like the sacrifices which are performed by two persons.

22. An अग्न्याधान is to be performed by two persons, just like sacrifices which are performed by two persons

The हव्यग्निसोम sacrifice is performed by two men, one is यजमान and the other is पुरोहित. On this analogy the objector says that अन्याधान should also be performed by two men.

गुणस्य तु विधानत्वात्पत्न्या द्वितीयशब्दः स्यात् ॥६॥१२३॥

गुणस्य of the quality, तु on the other hand, विधानत्वात् by reason of enjoining, पत्न्या by a wife, द्वितीयशब्दः the dual number, स्यात् is.

23. On the other hand by reason of enjoining a quality, the dual shall be made up by the wife.

The author replies to the objection raised in सूत्र 22. There is a Vedic text क्षौमेवसानावग्निमादधीयतां "dressed in silk two should establish fire." The author says that the husband and wife shall perform the अन्याधान. The dual number can be explained by joining the wife with the यजमान. The clause 'क्षौमेवसानौ' is an adjectival clause qualifying the husband and wife.

Adhikarana VI. Dealing with equal right of wife in अशी and ब्रह्मचर्यं.

तस्या यावदुक्तमाशीर्ब्रह्मचर्यमतुल्यत्वात् ॥६॥१२४॥

तस्या: hers; यावदुक्तं all that is laid down, अशी: paring of the nail, ब्रह्मचर्यं celibacy, अतुल्यत्वात् by their being not equal.

24. For her, are all (acts) laid down (such as) paring of nails and celibacy, being not equal.

The author gives his view in the sūtra that a woman is equally entitled to have her nails pared and head shaved and to observe celibacy. She being not equal to a man in performing the Vedic rites, she can only perform those rites which have been specially mentioned. अशी is the shaving of the head and face and paring of the nails. Some commentators, have taken this word to mean benedictory verses of the Vedas.

Adhikarana VII. Sūtras 25 - 38, Dealing with the subject that शूद्र has no right to perform a sacrifice.

चातुर्वर्ण्यमविशेषात् ॥ ६ । १ । २५ ॥

चातुर्वर्ण्यं all the four castes, अविशेषात् by reason of no distinction.

25. All the four castes, there being no distinction.

In this adhikarana, the question is whether a शूद्र is entitled to perform a sacrifice; it opens with the पूर्वपक्ष view that all the four castes are entitled to perform it, because in the Vedas no distinction is made.

निर्देशाद्वा त्रयाणां स्यादग्न्याधेये ऽसम्बन्धः क्रतुषु-
ब्राह्मणश्रुतेरित्यात्रेयः ॥ ६ । १ । २६ ॥

निर्देशात् by a direction; वा on the other hand, or, त्रयाणां of three, स्यात् is, अग्न्याधेये in establishing fire, हि because, असम्बन्धः no connection, क्रतुषु in a sacrifice; ब्राह्मणश्रुतिः the Brāhmaṇa text, इति this much, आत्रेयः the view of आत्रेयः.

26. On the other hand, under a command, the three castes are entitled to the establishment of fire, he has no connection with the sacrifice. This is the Brāhmaṇa text. It is the opinion of आत्रेयः.

The author gives his own सिद्धांत view supported by the view of आत्रेयः. There is a text of तैत्तिरीय संहिता under which only first three castes are entitled to establish fire and the शूद्र caste is not mentioned. From this, the inference is that a शूद्र is not entitled to अग्न्याधान. He can not therefore perform a sacrifice वसते ब्राह्मणोऽग्निमादधीत । ग्रीष्मे राजन्य आदधीत शरद्विष्वेक्ष्य आदधीत ॥ "A Brāhmaṇa should establish fire in spring, in summer a kṣatriya should establish fire a vaiśya should establish fire in autumn."

निमित्तार्थेन वादरिस्तस्मात्सर्वाधिकारं स्यात् ॥६।१।२७॥

निमित्तार्थेन with special object, वादरिः the view of Badari, तस्मात् therefore, सर्वाधिकारं right of all, स्यात् is

27 "For special reason" says Badari "all are, therefore, equally entitled"

The objector in support of his view relies on the view of वादरि. The Vedic text mentions special reason for the higher castes for the establishment of fire, he is, therefore, of opinion that a शूद्र can perform अग्न्याधान at any time he likes. The word निमित्त in the sūtra means 'time or reason'; we have translated it as meaning "special object or reason,"

अपि वाऽन्यार्थदर्शनादथ्याश्रुतिप्रतीयेत ॥ ६ । १ । २८॥

अपि वा or also, नत so, अन्यार्थदर्शनात् by seeing other texts; यथाश्रुति according to the Vedic text, प्रतीयेत is laid down.

28 Or by seeing other text also; according to the Vedic text it is laid down.

The author gives a reply to the objector that there are other texts in which only the three higher castes are mentioned in connection with the performance of certain Vedic ceremonies. A शूद्र does not find place there. So the conclusion is that a शूद्र is not entitled to perform a sacrifice. बार्हद्गिरि ब्राह्मणस्य ब्राह्मणसामकुर्व्यात् । पार्थरश्मि राजन्यस्य । रायोवाजीय वैश्यस्य ॥ यशसू राजन्यस्य । आमिक्षा वैश्यस्य । पयोब्राह्मणस्य ॥ (तै० स० ६।२।५।३) अष्टसु प्रक-मेषु ब्राह्मणो ऽग्निना दधीत । एकदशसु राजन्यः । द्वदशसु वैश्यः ॥ “बार्हद्गिरि is the hymn of a Brāhmaṇa, पार्थरश्मि is of a kṣatriya and रायोवाजीय is of a vaiśya, the fast of a kṣatriya is by gruel, that of a वैश्य by आमिक्षा and that of a Brāhmaṇa by milk. A Brāhmaṇa should establish fire at the distance of 8 steps, a kṣatriya at the distance of 11 steps and a vaiśya at the distance of 12 steps.”

निर्देशात् पक्षे स्यात् ॥ ६ । १ । २८ ॥

निर्देशात् by reason of the direction, तु on the other hand, पक्षे on the other side स्यात् ॥

29 On the other hand, by reason of the direction, there is the other side

There is a general statement in the वेद that a person desirous of heaven should perform a sacrifice. All persons without any exception are desirous of heaven. In this view, says the objector, the other side, namely, that a शूद्र is entitled to perform a sacrifice, is established.

वैगुण्यान्नेति चेत् ॥ ६ । १ । ३० ॥

वैगुण्यात् by reason of the disability, न not, इति चेत् if it be said.

30 If it be said that by reason of the disability, he is not (entitled).

The objector develops his argument and says that if you say that as certain disabilities are attached to a शूद्र, so he is not entitled to perform a sacrifice

न काम्यत्वात् ॥ ६ । १ । ३१ ॥

न not; काम्यत्वात् by reason of the desire

31. Not so, by reason of possessing a desire.

The objector replies to the objection raised in sūtra 30 and says that * शूद्र has also a desire to obtain heaven, he is therefore entitled to perform a sacrifice to achieve that object

संस्कारे च तत्प्रधानत्वात् ॥ ६ । १ । ३२ ॥

संस्कारे in a purificatory or preparatory operation, च and, तत्प्रधानत्वात् by reason of that being principal.

32 And in purificatory operation, by reason of that being principal.

The objector supports his view further by saying that in all ceremonies the object of the performer is principal. The purificatory ceremonies are only subordinate; they may be left out but the desire to obtain heaven is the principal thing and if a person is possessed of that desire, he is competent to perform the sacrifice

अपि वा वेदनिर्देशादपशूद्राणां प्रतीयेत ॥ ६ । १ । ३३ ॥

अपि वा not so, or also, वेदनिर्देशात् by the direction of the Veda; अपशूद्राणां of non-śūdras, प्रतीयेत are recognised, included.

33. Not so, by the direction of the Vedas, only non-śūdras are meant.

The author gives a reply to the objection of the objector raised in the preceding sūtras. He says that the Vedic text by which the right is conferred, refers only to the first three castes.

गुणार्थित्वान्नेति चेत् ॥ ६ । १ । ३४ ॥

गुणार्थित्वात् by reason of the quality of seeker after knowledge, न चेत् if it be said.

34. If it be said, not by reason of his desire to acquire knowledge.

The author on behalf of the objector raises a doubt that if you say that a शूद्र also possesses a desire to be qualified for a sacrifice by education, the reply is given in the following सूत्र.

संस्कारस्य तदर्थत्वाद्विद्यायां पुरुषश्रुतिः ॥ ६ । १ । ३५ ॥

संस्कारस्य of a purificatory ceremony, तदर्थत्वात् by reason of it being for that; विद्यायां of learning, पुरुषश्रुतिः text of the Veda about a man.

35. The purificatory ceremony is with that object; there is a vedic text about a man in connection with learning.

The उपनयन संस्कार is performed for the purpose of the vedic study. A शूद्र is not entitled to have the उपनयन ceremony performed and no preceptor can teach him without initiation ceremony. There is a vedic text which lays down that only the three first castes are entitled to it. वसति ब्राह्मणमुपनयीत । ग्रीष्मे राजन्यं । वर्षासु वैश्यं ॥ "A Brāhmaṇa should be initiated in spring, a kṣātriya should be initiated in summer; and a vaiśya in the rainy season."

विद्यानिर्देशान्नेति चेत् ॥ ६ । १ । ३६ ॥

विद्यानिर्देशात् by reason of the direction for learning, न नो, इति चेत् if it be said.

36. If it be said not, because there is a direction for learning.

The author raises a further objection on behalf of the objector that a शूद्र is equally entitled to the study of the Veda, to this the reply is as follows :—

अवैद्यत्वादभावः कर्मणि स्यात् ॥ ६ । १ । ३७ ॥

अवैद्यत्वात् being not entitled to be taught, अभावः incapacity; कर्मणि in a Vedic act; स्यात् is

37. By reason of his being not entitled to be taught, he is incapable to perform a sacrifice.

The author says that no teacher will teach a शूद्र no school recognises his claim to be taught the Vedas, so he is not entitled to perform a sacrifice. शूद्रेण नाधेतव्यम् । "Nothing is to be learnt by a शूद्र."

तथा चान्यार्थदर्शनम् ॥ ६ । १ । ३८ ॥

तथा च similarly, अन्यार्थदर्शनं seeing another text.

38. Similarly there is another text seen.

The author in support of his view refers to the authorities of the Veda. पशुवा एतत् स्मृत्यन्यत् शूद्र समीपे न अभ्येयम् ॥ "A शूद्र is a walking cemetery; one should not, therefore, read near a शूद्र."

Athikarapa VIII Sūtras 39-40. Dealing with the right of a poor man to perform a sacrifice

त्रयाणां द्रव्यसम्पन्नः कर्मणो द्रव्यसिद्धित्वात् ॥ ६ । १ । ३९ ॥

ब्रह्मणा of the three castes, द्रव्यसम्पन्नः possessed of wealth, कर्मणः of an act, द्रव्यसिद्धित्वात् by reason of the fulfilment depending on wealth.

39. Of the three first castes, only a person possessed of wealth (is entitled to perform a sacrifice); because accomplishment of an act depends on wealth.

The objector says that the fulfilment of a sacrifice depends upon wealth, a person who is not possessed of it, is therefore not entitled to perform it.

अनित्यत्वात् नैवं स्यादर्थाद्धि द्रव्यसंयोगः ॥६॥१॥४०॥

अनित्यत्वात् being not permanent, तु on the other hand, न not, एवं so, स्यात् is; अर्थात् from a motive, हि because, द्रव्यसंयोगः acquisition of wealth

40. On the other hand, it is not so, by reason of its being not permanent. Wealth can be obtained from a motive.

The author gives a reply to the objection embodied in sūtra 39. He says that poverty or wealth are not permanent, one can acquire wealth for the performance of a sacrifice by exertion. So every one of the three castes can perform a sacrifice and poverty is no disqualification.

Adhikaraṇa IX. Dealing with the right of the persons deprived of limbs to perform a sacrifice,

अङ्गहीनश्च तदुर्मा ॥ ६ । १ । ४१ ॥

अङ्गहीनः deprived of limbs, or senses, crippled, lame &c. च and, तदुर्मा of that quality.

41. And persons deprived of limbs or senses are also of the same quality (or nature).

The author says that even persons deprived of senses and limbs are capable of performing a sacrifice, if they are otherwise fit.

Adhikaraṇa X. Dealing with the subject that persons possessed of diseased organs which can not be cured are incapable to perform a sacrifice.

उत्पत्तौ नित्यसंयोगात् ॥ ६ । १ । ४२ ॥

उत्पत्तौ at the time of birth, नित्यसंयोगात् by reason of permanent connection

42. A person born (deprived of senses or limbs is not entitled to perform a sacrifice) by reason of the permanent connection.

A person who is born blind, deaf or mute is incapable to perform a sacrifice. Here in the original text the word उत्पत्तौ is used; it is explained by शबर "in the original text " According to शबर the explanation of the sūtra is that all the operations mentioned in the text are permanently connected with the sacrifice; if one operation is not performed by a person suffering from an incurable disease, the whole sacrifice is useless. So a person suffering from an incurable disease is incapable of performing a sacrifice. The conclusion from these two interpretations is the same.

Adhikarana XI. Dealing with the subject that one who has not got three (ऋषि) pravaras, can not perform full and new moon sacrifices

अत्र्यार्षेयस्य हानं स्यात् ॥ ६ । १ । ४३ ॥

अत्र्यार्षेयस्य of a person not possessing three pravaras, हानं incapacity, disability, स्वात् ॥

43. A person who has not three प्रवर्ग has a disability (to perform a sacrifice).

The founder of a family is called ऋषि. There are several gotras in one family. They are called प्रवर्ग. There are 1, 2, 3, and 5 प्रवर्ग. There are not four groups (प्रवर्ग). The author says that only persons who have प्रवर्ग are entitled to perform a sacrifice. By saying three प्रवर्ग, the persons of one प्रवर्ग and of two pravaras are included under the principle of अवयुत्पत्त्यानुवादः, and the prohibition which relates to a person of four प्रवर्ग and two प्रवर्ग is a नित्यानुवादः.

Adhikarana XII Sūtras 44.—50 Dealing with the right of a रथकार besides the four castes, to अग्न्याधान

वचनाद्रथकारस्याधाने ऽस्यसर्वशेषत्वात् ॥ ६ । १ । ४४ ॥

वचनात् by a text, रथकारस्य of a mixed caste, आधाने in the establishment of fire, अस्य हि, सर्वशेषत्वात् being excluded from the four castes.

44. By a text, a रथकार's right to अग्न्याधान (is recognised), he being excluded from the four castes.

A रथकार is the offspring of a माहिष्य father from a करणी mother. A माहिष्य is the offspring of a kṣatriya from a vaiśya woman, a करणी is an issue of a vaiśya from Śūdra woman. The author says that under the vedic text वर्षासुरथकार आदधीत, a रथकार is therefore entitled to keep fire for a sacrifice during the rainy season

न्याय्यो वा कर्मसंयोगाच्छूद्रस्य प्रतिषिद्धतत्वात् ॥६११४५॥

न्याय्यः proper, वा or; कर्मसंयोगात् by reason of his connection with the profession (of chariot-making), शूद्रस्य of a शूद्र, प्रतिषिद्धतत्वात् by reason of the prohibition.

45. On the other hand, it is proper (to regard him belonging to the three higher castes) by reason of his profession, because a शूद्र is prohibited.

The objector says that as the right of performing अग्न्याधान is conferred on a रथकार, he therefore belongs to the first three higher castes. He can not be a शूद्र, as the latter is not entitled to perform a sacrifice as said in Adhikaraṇa VII.

अकर्मत्वात् नैव स्यात् ॥ ६ । १ । ४६ ॥

अकर्मत्वात् by taking to the prohibited profession, तु on the other hand; नैव not so, स्यात् is

46. On the other hand, he can not be of higher caste, having accepted a profession prohibited (by the Vedas).

The author gives a reply to the objector, that by reason of the right conferred on the रथकार he can not be classed amongst the three higher castes, because his profession of chariot-making is prohibited to the twice-born

आनर्थक्यं च संयोगात् ६ । १ । ४७ ॥

आनर्थक्यं meaninglessness, च and, संयोगात् by reason of the connection (with the time).

47. And there will be meaninglessness by reason of the connection (with time).

It is enjoined in the Vedas, that a ब्राह्मण shall establish fire in spring, a क्षत्रिय in summer and a वैश्य in autumn. A रथकार as we have said above in the commentary on sūtra 44 is entitled to perform अग्न्याधान in rains. He is given an independent right. If he be included amongst any of the higher castes, the Vedic texts will be meaningless which is always to be avoided by a Mīmāṃsaka. This is an argument in favour of the author's view.

गुणार्थेनेति चेत् ॥ ६ । १ । ४८ ॥

गुणार्थेन with the object of quality, इति चेत् if you say.

48. If you say that it is with the object (of mentioning) a quality.

The author raises an objection on behalf of the objector that if your contention is that the profession of chariot-making qualifies the three castes, &c if a member of the three higher castes takes to building chariot, then the text which lays down the season of rains for a chariot-maker will apply. The reply is as follows —

उत्तमनिमित्तत्वेम् ॥ ६ । १ । ४८ ॥

उत्तम said, अनिमित्तत्वं the want of the quality of being an accident.

49. It is said already that an accident does not apply.

The author's reasoning is that a member of the higher castes by reason of the accident of taking to the profession of chariot-building gets the rainy season as the time for the performance of अग्न्याधान. This निमित्त or accident is against the direct text See सूत्र 26 at P. 306. The śruti text is preferable to लिङ्ग. So this construction is not proper.

सौधन्वनास्तु हीनत्वान्मन्त्रवर्णात्प्रतीयेरन् ॥६।१।५०॥

सौधन्वनाः the chariot-builders, तु on the other hand; हीनत्वात् by reason of inferiority, मन्त्रवर्णात् from the Vedic text, प्रतीयेरन् ought to be considered.

50. On the other hand the chariot-builders, by virtue of their inferiority and the Vedic-text, ought to be considered (to be outside the pale of the three higher castes).

The author has summed up the whole thing and comes to the conclusion that a chariot-builder is not a twice-born

This adhikarṇa is called रथकारन्याय.

Adhikarṇa XIII Sūtras 51—52. Dealing with the right to perform रौद्रयाग by निषाद who does not belong to the three higher castes.

स्थपतिर्निषादः स्याच्छब्दसामर्थ्यात् ॥ ६ । १ । ५१ ॥

स्थपतिः sthapatih; निषाद a low caste, स्यात् is, शब्दसामर्थ्यात् by force of the word.

51. स्थपति is निषाद by force of the word.

वास्तुमध्ये रौद्र-यागं निर्वपेद्यज्ञः प्रजाशमयेत्..... एतयानिषादस्थपतिं वाजके
This relates to रौद्रयागः; by this निषादस्थपति should be made to perform the sacrifice "Let him offer boiled rice consecrated to Rudra in the dwelling house, where Rudra pacifies the family ; let him cause a निषाध-स्थपति to perform a sacrifice with it " The question is what is the meaning of निषाधस्थपति, a compound occurring in the Vedic text? whether it is कर्म-धारय or तत्पुरुष The author's view is that it is कर्मधारय and the compound means that स्थपति a chief who is a निषाध (wild tribe.)

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ ६ । १ । ५२ ॥

लिङ्गदर्शनात् by seeing the force of the text, च and.

52. And by seeing force of the vedic text.

In support of his view the author relies on the Vedic text from which he makes the same inference कूटा दक्षिणा तै० सं० १. ८. ९. १ "Gift of cows of broken horns " The cows without horns constitute the wealth of this non-Aryan tribe according to शबर.

END OF PĀDA I.

PĀDA II.

Adhikaraṇa I Sūtras 1-2 Dealing with the subject that in a सत्र each sacrificer is entitled to a fruit

पुरुषार्थैकसिद्धित्वान्तस्य तस्याधिकारः स्यात् ॥६।२।१॥

पुरुषार्थैकसिद्धित्वात् by reason of one result of the पुरुषार्थ, तस्य तस्य of each one, अधिकारः right, स्यात् is.

1. By reason of one end of the purpose of life (पुरुषार्थ), each one is entitled (to the fruit of an act).

A सत्र is a sacrificial session and is performed by a large number of persons; each of them is called a सत्री. The number of the सत्री is not less than 17 and not more than 24. The author gives his own view, that the object of a man, being the accomplishment of the fruit of his action, each and every one who takes part in the सत्र is entitled to the fruit of the सत्र.

अपि चोत्पत्तिसंयोगीयथा स्यात्सत्त्वदर्शनं तथाभावो विभागे स्यात् ॥ ६ । २ । २ ॥

अपि also, च and, उत्पत्तिसंयोगः connection with the original text, यथा just like, दयात् is; सत्त्वदर्शनं seeing a being, तथा in the same way; भावः invisible fruit, विभागे in separate individuals, स्यात् is

2. And also the connection with the original text ; just as on seeing a being a concept is formed, in the same way, is the invisible result in a separate (individual).

The author supports his view in two ways. The original text confers the right to fruit on all सत्त्वः. He further says that it is possible just like perception of a being by a large number of people, they all see similarly and one result is produced on each and every one of them. The author concludes from these two data that the invisible result is achieved by each and every individual in a सत्त्वः. The original texts are of two kinds (1) प्रत्येकवाक्यपरिसमाप्तिः ending of the sentence in each and every individual of which the whole is made up ; as for example, 'the city is burnt' it means that each and every house in the city is burnt. (2) समुदाये वाक्यपरिसमाप्तिः ending of the sentence in the whole group, as for example, 'he gave thousand rupees to the school', here school means the body as a whole. In the present case the original text is construed upon the first principle mentioned above.

Adhikaraṇa II. Sūtra 3 12. Dealing with the rule as regards one performer in the new and full moon sacrifice

प्रयोगे पुरुषश्रुतेर्यथाकामी प्रयोगे स्यात् ॥ ६ । २ । ३ ॥

प्रयोगे in a sacrifice, पुरुषश्रुतेः by reason of a text laying down a rule as to person, यथाकामी a person desirous (of a fruit), प्रयोगे in a sacrifice; स्यात् is.

3. By reason of a text laying down a rule as to person in a sacrifice any number desirous of a fruit is (entitled to join) the sacrifice.

The adhikaraṇa opens with the objector's point of view. The same principle which our author applied in the preceding अधिकरणे to सत्त्वः, the objector applies to दर्शनं and पूर्णमासं वागः. His position is that the पुरुषः is principal and the number is subordinate, though the agent of the performer is mentioned in a singular number, yet it means as many as are desirous to obtain the fruit of the sacrifice.

प्रत्यर्थं श्रुतिभाव इति चेत् ॥ ६ । २ । ४ ॥

प्रत्यर्थं for each; श्रुतिभावः the object of the text, इति चेत् if you say.

4. If you say that the object of the text is for each separately.

The objector raises an objection on behalf of the सिद्धांती Where the sacrifice is principal, the पुरुष is subordinate; and the Vedic text which gives the number, becomes important. The text mentions a sacrificer, a sacrifice and its result; so according to the सिद्धांती each and every individual is mentioned separately.

तादर्थ्यं न गुणार्थताऽनुक्तेऽर्थान्तस्त्वात्कर्तुः प्रधान- भूतत्वात् ॥ ६ । २ । ५ ॥

तादर्थ्यं on the object being for him, न not, गुणार्थता subordination, अनुक्ते on being not mentioned; अर्थान्तरत्वात् by reason of other proofs, कर्तुः of an agent; प्रधानभूतत्वात् by reason of his being principal.

5. On the reward being for him, he is not subordinate; as there is no direct text by reason of other proofs, the agent is principal.

The objector meets the objection raised in the preceding सूत्र; his reasoning is that the sacrificer can not be considered subordinate. The fruit is principal and the sacrificer being directly connected with it, he is principal. When the sacrificer is principal, the number loses its importance.

अपि वा कामसंयोगे सम्बन्धात्प्रयोगाद्योपदिश्येत प्रत्यर्थं हि विधिश्रुतिर्विषाणावत् ॥ ६ । २ । ६ ॥

अपि वा or also, not so, कामसंयोगे in connection with the desire; सम्बन्धात् by virtue of the relationship; प्रयोगाय for performance, उपदिश्येत should be directed; प्रत्यर्थं for each end, हि because; विधिश्रुतिः the text which lays down the order; विषाणावत् like the text (which prescribes) a horn.

6. Not so; by reason of the relationship in connection with the desire, the performance is directed; because the injunctive text for each and distinct individual is just like the text (which lays down) a horn.

The author now proceeds with his सिद्धांत view and criticises the position of the पूर्वपक्ष. He says that in relation to the act, the agent is principal; but the fruit is directly connected with the act; the act is therefore principal and the agent who is inferred indirectly from the act is subordinate. In the text, the act is mentioned and the fruit is mentioned (फलकामोयजेत्). The agent is inferred; what is inferred is not principal but subordinate. The sacrificer is, therefore, in the sentence subordinate and the number becomes important. He gives an example of the texts regarding the horn; there are two direct texts about it, but such is not a case here. We have only one text.

अन्यस्यस्यादिति चेत् ॥ ६ । २ । ७ ॥

अन्यस्य of another, स्यात् is; इतिचेत् if it be said.

7. If it be said that fruit may accrue to another.

The author raises an objection on behalf of the objector to his सिद्धांत view and says that if you argue that by virtue of making the performer subordinate, the result will be that one may perform a sacrifice and another may reap its fruit. The reply is as follows:—

अन्यार्थेनाभिसम्बन्धः ॥ ६ । २ । ८ ॥

अन्यार्थे in a case where the fruit is to accrue to another, न नो, अभि संबंध connection.

8. There is no connection in the case where the fruit is to accrue to another.

The author says that आत्मनेपद form is used when the result of the verb is to accrue to the agent; so in the text, the आत्मनेपद form is used and if the benefit of the verb was to accrue to another, the आत्मनेपद would not have been used.

फलकामो निमित्तमिति चेत् ॥ ६ । २ । ९ ॥

फलकामः the desire of the fruit; निमित्तं essential condition; इतिचेत् if you say.

9. If you say that desire to obtain fruit is an essential condition.

The सिद्धांती raises an objection on behalf of the objector and says that a desire to secure fruit is the chief cause which prompts one to action; it is quite possible that one may get fruit and another may perform the act.

The reply is given in the next सूत्र

न नित्यत्वात् ॥ ६ । २ । १० ॥

न not, नित्यत्वात् by reason of the permanency.

10. Not, by reason of the permanency

The author says that the performance of दर्शपूर्णमास याग is permanently enjoined and the fruit which the action secures, is also permanent. The performance of the दर्शपूर्णमास याग is permanent. It is permanently enjoined and must be performed. The fruit is directly connected with the act, the fruit is principal and the act is subordinate and the agent is, therefore, not principal. So the number is important when the agent is subordinate,

कर्म तथेति चेत् ॥ ६ । २ । ११ ॥

कर्म act, तथा similarly, इति चेत् if you say

21. If you say that there are acts similarly.

The author again raises an objection on behalf of the objector. If you say that there are sacrifices which are performed by two or more persons, a reply is as follows:

न समवायात् ॥ ६ । २ । १२ ॥

न not; समवायात् by reason of connection.

12. No, by reason of the connection.

Those sacrifices in which two or more sacrificers act are अहीन sacrifices. They have, therefore, no bearing on दर्शपूर्णमास याग.

Adhikaraṇa III. Śāstras 13—15. Dealing with the rule that a काव्य कर्म once commenced should be finished.

प्रक्रमात्तु नियम्येतारम्भस्य क्रियानिमित्तत्वात् ॥ ५ । २ । १३ ॥

प्रक्रमात् by reason of the beginning; तु on the other hand, नियम्येत it is ruled; आरम्भस्य of a commencement, क्रियानिमित्तत्वात् by reason of the cause of an action.

13. On the other hand, by reason of the commencement, it is ruled (that an act commenced should be completed) because the commencement is for the sake of an act.

The author says that the very word 'act' means the accomplishment of it i. e., the beginning, the continuance and the completion of it. An act, when commenced should be completed, otherwise no purpose can be accomplished.

फलार्थित्वाद्वाऽनियमो यथानुपक्रान्ते ॥ ६ । २ । १४ ॥

फलार्थित्वाद् by reason of a desire for a fruit, वा on the other hand, अनियमः no rule, यथा just as, अनुपक्रान्ते in the case of an act not commenced.

14. On the other hand, by reason of a desire for a fruit, there is no rule just as in the case of an act not commenced.

The objector raises an objection to the view of the author ; he says why should an act be completed ? The principal thing is to obtain a fruit, if the fruit is obtained, the sacrifice should not be completed. When an act is not commenced, it is not necessary to commence it, so when an act is commenced, it is not necessary to complete it

नियमो वा तन्निमित्तत्वात्कर्तुस्तत्कारणं स्यात् ॥ ६ । २ । १५ ॥

नियमः a rule, वा on the other hand, तन्निमित्तत्वाद् by reason its being the object for that, कर्तुः of an agent, तत्कारणं that cause, स्यात् is

15. On the other hand there is a rule for its sake and it is the cause of the agent.

The author gives a reply to the objection of the objector and says that the rule is with a view to complete an act once commenced and that is the cause of the agent's activity to act. If an act once commenced is not completed, the agent is looked down upon by good people of the society. So an act once commenced should be brought to an end

Adhikarṇa IV. Sutra 16-18. Dealing with the subject that there is no rule that the worldly act once commenced should be completed

लोके कर्माणि वेदवत्ततोऽधिपुरुषज्ञानम् ॥ ६ । २ । १६ ॥

लोके in the world, कर्माणि acts, वेदवत् like those enjoined in the Veda, ततोऽधिपुरुषज्ञानम् from that, अधिपुरुषज्ञानं the knowledge of an excellent man.

16. In the world, the acts are like those enjoined in the Veda; from them there is a knowledge of the excellent man.

The objector says just as there is a Vedic code regulating the sacrifice, so there is a worldly science which regulates mundane affairs. Just as the Vedic actions once commenced should be completed, so the worldly action should be completed, by doing so, the performer is known as an excellent man If you commence building a house and leave it incomplete, the society will hold you in contempt.

अपराधेऽपि च तैः शास्त्रम् ॥ ६ । २ । १७ ॥

अपराधे on a fault, अपि also, च and, तैः by them, शास्त्रं regulated.

17. And on fault also, by them regulated.

The objector supports his view by another argument; he says even a carpenter is punished for his default by those worldly codes. There are expiatory ceremonies prescribed, when any wrong is committed by a carpenter.

अशास्त्रात्तूपसम्प्राप्तिः शास्त्रं स्यान्न प्रकल्पकं तस्मा-
दर्थेन गम्येताप्राप्ते शास्त्रमर्थवत् ॥ ६ । २ । १८ ॥

अशास्त्रा without a code, तु on the other hand, उपसंप्राप्तिः obtaining of the fruit, शास्त्रं code, स्यात् is, न not, प्रकल्पकं cause, तस्मात् therefore, अर्थेन by inference (अर्था पत्तिः), गम्येत is concluded or arrived at, अप्राप्ते in (the case of a thing) not known, शास्त्रं code, अर्थवत् useful, pertinent.

18. On the other hand the fruit is obtained even without a code; a code is not the cause, therefore it follows from an inference that a code is helpful in cases where the subject is not known.

The author sums up the whole thing as the last conclusion. He says there is no work on carpentry, a carpenter without the guide of any code, does his work, so it follows that a शास्त्र is helpful where the subject is not known. The result of the whole discussion is that it does not necessarily follow that a worldly act once commenced should necessarily be completed. It depends upon the choice of the agent.

Adhikarana V Sūtras 19—20 Dealing with befalling of misfortune on doing forbidden

प्रतिषेधेष्वकर्मत्वात्क्रिया स्यात्प्रतिषिद्धानां विभक्तत्वा-
दकर्मणाम् ॥ ६ । २ । १९ ॥

प्रतिषेधेषु in forbidden (acts); अकर्मत्वात् by virtue of no action; क्रिया action; स्यात् is, प्रतिषिद्धानां of forbidden acts, विभक्तत्वात् by reason of being different, अकर्मणां of non-action.

19. In the forbidden acts, by reason of non-action, an act is performed, there being a difference between an act forbidden and non-act.

A nice distinction is made in the सूत्र between an act which is actually performed and the one that is mentally performed. The objector says that when an act is forbidden, it should not be done at all, but it can be done by thinking on it; for there is a difference between an actual commission of it which does not manifest itself in the form of an act. न कर्त्तव्यं-वित्तव्यं "No flesh of an animal struck with a poisoned arrow should be eaten." The question is whether the negative participle न qualifies eating or the act. No eating of कर्त्तव्य should be done. If you say that it is the absence of eating which is meant, then even the thinking of it is forbidden, this is the position of the objector. It is called पश्युदास by a मीमांसक. The other side says that it is the actual commission of the act which is prohibited. It is called प्रतिषिद्ध.

शास्त्राणां त्वर्थवत्त्वेन पुरुषार्थो विधीयते तयोः समवा-
यित्वात्तादर्थ्ये विध्यतिक्रमः ॥ ६ । २ । २० ॥

शास्त्राणां of rules, of injunctions; तु on the other hand, त्वर्थवत्त्वेन with the quality of an object, पुरुषार्थः purpose of the agent, विधीयते is laid down, तयोः of both, असमवायित्वात् by reason of being not connected, तादर्थ्ये with that object; विध्यतिक्रम violation of the command.

20. On the other hand, the injunction being for a purpose the duty of man is laid down, by reason of their being not in harmony, for that object, there is a violation of the rule.

The author lays down his own view. He says in order to fulfil the command of the Veda, the act in pursuance of it should be performed. There is the purpose of the rule to be fulfilled, and the purpose of the man is also to be fulfilled. If there is no harmony between these two different objects and if you recognise only one object, there is a violation of the rule. There is a nice distinction between a वाग and a व्रत. The former is the actual performance and is done by the hands; while the latter is a mental act or a determination not to do a particular act, as for example 'one ought not see a rising sun'. When a man has made a determination, he can refrain from seeing the rising sun, but in the other case viz, कर्त्तव्य or flesh in which a poisonous arrow is struck should not be eaten, one has to act. It is not a mere determination. This adhikarana is called कर्त्तव्यव्याप.

Adhikaraṇa VI Sūtras 21—22 Dealing with the subject that respect to a preceptor is to be paid after the performance of the उपनयन,

तस्मिन्स्तु शिष्यमाणां जननेन प्रवर्त्तेरन् ॥ ६।२।२१॥

तस्मिन् in him, तु on the other hand. शिष्यमाणां duties that are laid down or taught, जननेन by birth, प्रवर्त्तेरन् arise

21. On the other hand, the duties that are laid down (for a disciple) arise in him from birth.

We have discussed पाग and व्रत in the preceding अधिकरण. Now the question as to आचार arises, when should a particular kind of conduct be observed by a religious student? The objector says that it arises from birth, according to him good manners should be observed as soon as one is born

अपि वा वेदतुल्यत्वादुपायेन प्रवर्त्तेरन् ॥ ६।२।२२॥

अपि वा not so, or also, वेदतुल्यत्वात् by reason of the equality with the Vedas, उपायेन with the initiation ceremony, प्रवर्त्तेरन् commence, arise

22 Not so, by reason of the equality with the Vedas, the observance of duties arise from the time of उपनयन (initiation ceremony).

The author gives his own view and says that the observance of the social duties, arises as soon as one is initiated After the उपनयन ceremony the आचारs are to be observed

Adhikaraṇa VII. Sūtras 23—26 Dealing with the timely performance of अग्निहोत्र which is to be done for one's own life

अभ्यासोऽकर्मशेषत्वात्पुरुषार्थो विधीयते ॥ ६।२।२३॥

अभ्यासः repetition, अकर्मशेषत्वात् being not a शेष of any act, पुरुषार्थः purpose of a person, विधीयते is laid down

23. Because being not subsidiary to any act and as it is the purpose of a person, the repetition is laid down.

यावज्जीवमग्निहोत्रमुहोति "one should perform अग्निहोत्र as long as he lives" The objector says that the अग्निहोत्र is not subsidiary to any sacrifice, but it is itself principal, and it is an object of a person, so it should be performed 'incessantly'

तस्मिन्नसंभवन्नर्थात् ॥ ६।२।२४॥

नस्मिन् in him, अस्मिन् not possible, अर्थात् from necessary objects necessity.

24. In him it is impossible by reason of necessity.

The objector explains what he means by 'incessantly' ; अग्निहोत्र can not be performed at every time, it can be performed after other necessary acts such as eating, sleeping &c.

न कालेभ्य उपदिश्यन्ते ॥ ६ । २ । २५ ॥

न not, कालेभ्यः for the time, उपदिश्यन्ते laid down.

25. Not so ; time has been laid down.

The author gives his own view and says [that time has been enjoined for the performance of the अग्निहोत्र in the text and so it can not be performed at any time. प्रदोषं अग्निहोत्रं होतव्यं । द्युष्टायां प्रातः । पौर्णमास्यां पौर्णमास्येनयजेत । अमावस्यायामामावस्येनयजेत ॥ "अग्निहोत्रं should be performed in the evening, in the morning ; on the full moonday with full moon sacrifice and on the new moon day, one should perform new moon sacrifice". If performed at a time which is not enjoined, the act is equivalent to non-performance.

दर्शनात्काललिङ्गानां कालविधानम् ॥ ६ । २ । २६ ॥

दर्शनात् by reason of seeing, काललिङ्गानां the text of time ; कालविधानं fixing of time.

26. By seeing the Vedic texts laying down time, time has been fixed.

The author gives a reason in support of his view. He says that Vedic acts have their fixed times under the Vedic texts, so no Vedic act can be performed at any time one likes. The अग्निहोत्र has the stated time and is to be performed at its proper time. This Adhikarana is called अग्निहोत्रन्याय.

Adhikarana VII. Sūtras 27-28. Dealing with the repetition of अग्निहोत्र &c., at their proper time.

तेषामौत्पत्तिं कृत्वादागमेन प्रवर्त्तत ॥ ६ । २ । २७ ॥

तेषां of them ; औत्पत्तिकत्वाद् by reason of the original text, आगमेन by repetition ; प्रवर्त्तत should commence.

27. On account of the original text about them, repetition should commence (they should be repeated.)

The author lays down that the अग्निहोत्र and other sacrifice should be repeated at their stated time. The time is given in the Vedas, the अग्निहोत्र is to be performed in the morning and evening everyday. This is what is meant by अगमः.

तथा हि लिङ्गदर्शनम् ॥ ६ । २ । २८ ॥

तथाहि similarly; लिङ्गदर्शनं the force of the text.

28. Similarly there is the force of the text.

The author relies on the Vedic text in support of his view

अववाण्य सुवर्गाल्लोकाच्छ्रियते योदशपूर्णमासी सप्तमावस्थां वा पौर्णमासीं वा तिषादयति ॥ तै० सं० २. २. ५. ४. "He who, having undertaken a vow to perform दशपूर्णमासयागः, allow a new moon and full moon days pass by, without the performance of the same, falls from the heavenly region.

Adhikapa. IX Dealing with the repetition of the homa when any vessel is broken or anything spilled in the new moon sacrifices etc.

तथान्तःक्रतुप्रयुक्तानि ॥ ६ । २ । २९ ॥

तथा similarly ; अन्तःक्रतुप्रयुक्तानि those that are used in a sacrifice.

29. Similarly, when those (vessels) that are used in a sacrifice (are broken or their contents spilled, the repetition should be made.)

The author says that the expiatory libations should be made whenever in the course of a sacrifice any vessel is broken or its contents spilled. It is to be repeated as often, as this happens मिन्नेजुहोतिस्कन्नेजुहोति । "He sacrifices, when a vessel is broken ; he sacrifices, when contents are spilled "

Adhikapa X. Dealing with the repetition of respect due to a spiritual preceptor, as often as occasions requires.

आचाराद्गृह्यमाणेषु तथा स्यात्पुरुषार्थत्वात् ॥ ६ । ३ । ३० ॥

आचाराद् by virtue of social customs or etiquette; गृह्यमाणेषु in the cases recognised, तथा the same, स्यात् is, उपपत्तिः by reason of its being a पुरुषार्थः.

30. In the cases of social etiquette recognised, the same is the rule because they are the duties of a man.

Under the social etiquette, a preceptor is to be respected, the pupil should rise when he comes, such etiquette should be observed as often as the preceptor arrives. It is the duty of a person to respect his elders.

Adhikaraṇa XI. Dealing with the subject that it is essential for a Brāhmaṇa, Kṣatriya and Vaiśya to pay off the three debts.

ब्राह्मणस्य तु सोमविद्याप्रजमृणवाक्येन संयोगात्

॥ ६ । २ । ३१ ॥

ब्राह्मणस्य of a Brāhmaṇa; तु on the other hand; सोमविद्याप्रजं soma sacrifice, acquisition of knowledge and production of progeny; मृणवाक्येन with the text which enjoins the debts, संयोगात् by virtue of connection.

31. On the other hand, of a Brāhmaṇa soma sacrifice, acquisition of knowledge and production of progeny (are essential duties) on account of their relationship with the text which enjoins the debt.

The author says that in the Vedas, it is laid down that a Brāhmaṇa is born with three debts which he has to pay off; (1) the debt due to the gods, (2) the debt due to the ऋषि and (3) the debts due to the पितृ. The first is paid off by performing a सोमयाग, the second by the ब्रह्मचर्य, i. e. by living at the house of the preceptor and acquiring knowledge there, and the third पितृकर्म by entering into a family life and propagating the race.

जायमानो ह वै ब्राह्मणस्त्रिभिर्ऋणवाजायते ब्रह्मचर्येण ऋषिभ्यो यज्ञेन देवेभ्यः प्रजया पितृभ्य एष वा अनृणेऽयं पुत्रीयञ्च ब्रह्मचारिवासी ॥ तै० सं० ६. १. १०. ५. "A Brāhmaṇa from his very birth is under three debts; by celibacy to ऋषि by sacrifice to the gods, by offspring to the पितृ; he who has a male child, performs a sacrifice and lives a life of celibacy, discharges the debts."

END OF PĀDA II.

PĀDA III.

Adhikaraṇa I Sūtras 1 to 7. Dealing with the subject that in a permanent sacrifice the subsidiary acts may be performed as far as possible.

सर्वशक्ती प्रवृत्तिः स्यात्तथाभूतोपदेशस्त ॥ ६ । ३ । १ ॥

सर्वशक्ती on having the whole power; प्रवृत्तिः engagement, तत्र should be, तत्रा समिल्य; उपदेशस्त by the direction of the Veda as to the performance of all the constituent parts.

1. If one has a capacity, he should perform the whole as there is a direction in the Veda to that effect.

The sacrificial acts are नित्य and काश्य. The question is whether the नित्यकर्म should be performed with all its subsidiary minor acts: The position of the पूर्वपक्ष is that it should be performed with all its subsidiary acts., because it is so laid down in the Vedas.

अपि चाऽप्येकदेशे स्यात्प्रधाने ह्यर्थनिर्वृत्तिर्गुणमात्रमि-
तरत् तदर्थत्वात् ॥ ६ । ३ । २ ॥

अपि वा not so, or also एकदेशे on one portion, स्यात् is; प्रधाने on the principal; हि because; अर्थनिर्वृत्तिः accomplishment of the object, गुणमात्रं subordinate only; इतरत् others, तदर्थत्वात् being for the object of that

2. Not so ; performance of some parts is sufficient; because in the performance of the principal, the object is accomplished; others are only subordinate being subservient for it.

The author gives his own view. All the parts in a नित्य कर्म should be performed; which are essential and which subserve the principal. The author says that on the performance of the principal, depends the accomplishment of one's object.

तदकर्मणि च दोषस्तस्मात्ततो विशेषः स्यात्प्रधानेनाऽ-
भिसम्बन्धात् ॥ ६ । ३ । ३ ॥

तत् that; अकर्मणि on non-performance; च and, दोष sin; तस्मात् therefore; ततः from the subordinate; विशेषः special; स्यात् is, प्रधानेन with the principal; अभिसम्बन्धात् by reason of its connection or being essential.

3. And on non-performance of it, there is a sin; therefore it is distinguishable from the subsidiary acts, because of the connection with the principal.

The author supports his view by giving a reason in this sūtra. He says that in a नित्यकर्म the performance of the principal part is indispensable; if you omit it, you incur a sin; but such is not the case when any unnecessary act is omitted. This is the distinguishing feature and this makes the performance of the principal incumbent.

कर्माऽमेदं तु जैमिनिः प्रयोगवचनैकत्वात् सर्वेषामुपदेशः
निरादिर्ति ॥ ६ । ३ । ४ ॥

कर्मोन्नेदं no difference of an act; तु on the other hand ; जैमिनि the Rishi of that name; प्रयोगेन वचनैकत्वात् by reason of the one text laying down the rule for guidance, सर्वेषां of all; उपदेशः order, instruction, direction; स्यात् is, इति-चेत् if you say.

4 "On the other hand, the view of जैमिनि is that there is no difference of the act by reason of the oneness of the text laying down the rule of performance under which all are directed." If you say.

The author raises an objection on behalf of the objector to his own view that जैमिनि says that all the constituent parts and principal, go to constitute one act under the Vedic text ; so they are directed to be performed.

अर्थस्य व्यपवर्गित्वादेकस्यापि प्रयोगेस्यादयथा क्रत्व-
न्तरेषु ॥ ६ । ३ । ५ ॥

अर्थस्य of an object of the main part, व्यपवर्गित्वात् by reason of its being distinct, एकस्य of one, अपि also; प्रयोगे on performance, स्यात् is, यथा just like; क्रत्वन्तरेषु in another sacrifice.

5 On account of the main part being distinct, on the performance of one act only, the fruit may result as in another sacrifice.

The author gives a reply to the objection in the preceding sūtra. He says that there is a difference between the main and auxiliary parts. In the performance of the main part, depends the fruit of the sacrifice ; so it should be performed. The subsidiary parts are therefore not essential. He cites the example of modified and model sacrifices.

विध्यपराधे च दर्शनात्समाप्तेः ॥ ६ । ३ । ६ ॥

विध्यपराधे on the violation of the rule, च and, दर्शनात् by seeing ; समाप्ते on the completion.

6. And on the violation of the rule by seeing the completion.

The author gives an additional reason in support of his view. He says that if some part is omitted, even then the end of the sacrifice is seen. This additional fact shows that the performance of a subsidiary act is not essential.

कामः ॥ (सौं सं २।३।१२) "He who is desirous of children shall offer cakes baked on eleven pans and consecrated to the twin deities ईश and अग्नि. One who is desirous of Brahmanic splendour, shall therefore offer this boiled rice consecrated to sun. One who is desirous of a village, shall perform सामद्वयी pertaining to the gods विश्वेदेवः."

अकर्मणि चाप्रत्यवायात् ॥ ६ । ३ । १० ॥

अकर्मणि in non-performance; च and, अप्रत्यवायात् no obstacle, no calamity.

10 And there is no calamity in not performing it.

The author gives an additional reason in support of his view. He says that the performance of a नित्यकर्म is essential and the non-performance of it entails a sin; while a काम्यकर्म is not essential, it is performed when there is a special reason for it. It is an occasional act and if it is not performed with all its details, no fruit will accrue; and the performance of the काम्य is not incumbent; it is, as said, is for certain object. So the non-performance does not produce any calamity or sin.

Adhikarapa III. Sūtras 11-12. Dealing with the subject that the act is the same though the materials are different.

क्रियाणामाश्रितत्वाद्द्रव्यान्तरे विभागः स्यात् ॥ ६।३।११॥

क्रियाणां of actions; आश्रितत्वात् by reason of their being dependent; द्रव्यान्तरे on the change of materials, विभागः division, change; स्यात् is.

11. By reason of the actions being dependent, there is a change on the change of materials.

The sūtra lays down the view of the पूर्वपक्ष. The action is the quality of the matter and inheres in it, so by the change of the matter, the action which is its quality necessarily changes.

अपि वाऽऽयतिरेकाद्रपशब्दाविभागाच्च गोत्ववदैक- कार्यं स्यात्कामधेयं च सत्त्ववत् ॥ ६ । ३ । १२ ॥

अपि वा not so, or also; अयतिरेकात् by reason of the absence of diminution or augmentation; रूपशब्दाविभागात् by reason of the non-divisibility of the words expressive of forms, च and; गोत्ववत् like the quality of being a cow; सामान्यं unity of an act, स्यात् is, कामधेयं name; च and; सत्त्ववत् like an animal.

12. Not so; by reason of the absence of diminution or augmentation and the indivisibility of the word expressing the form, there is a unity of action like the quality of being a cow and the name is like an animal.

The author gives a reply to the objection raised in sūtra 11. He says that just as species come under one genus, so the action performed by different materials is one. There are hundred cows, they may differ, but the quality of being a cow is one; there may be several species but the genus under which they may be grouped, is one. So throwing of stone, wood or brick is one act, though there may be different materials employed in the performance of the act of throwing.

Adhikaraṇa IV. Sūtras 13—17. Dealing with completion of the नित्य कर्म and the निमित्त कर्म when commenced by means of a substitute when the original material is not available

श्रुतिप्रमाणत्वाच्छिष्टाभावेऽनागमोऽन्यस्याऽशिष्टत्वात्

॥ ६ । ३ । १३ ॥

श्रुतिप्रमाणत्वात् by reason of the Veda being authority, शिष्टाभावे in the absence of the material ordained, न नो, आगम. substitute, अन्यस्य of another; अशिष्टत्वात् by reason of its being not ordained.

13. On account of the Veda being an authority, in the absence of the material sanctioned, no other material (shall be used as) substitute by reason of its being not sanctioned.

The adhikaraṇa opens with the पूर्वपक्ष view which lays down that no substitute should be used in a नित्य and निमित्तकर्म, when the original material is lost, has become unfit for use or is not available.

क्वचिद्विधानाच्च ॥ ६ । ३ । १४ ॥

क्वचित् some where; विधानात् by laying down a command; च and,

14. And some where by laying down a command.

The objector supports his view by stating that in the Veda somewhere it is stated that such and such material should be used for such and such material in a certain case; this shows that in all cases, substitutes can not be used

आगमोऽना चोदनार्याविशेषात् ॥ ६ । ३ । १५ ॥

वाग्नः substitute, वा on the other hand; चोदनायामविशेषात् by virtue of the object of the command being not specific.

15. On the other hand, there is a substitute on account of the object of the command being general.

The author gives his own view, what he says is that the general character of the text that a substitute should be used in case the original is not available, is not effected by a particular text. The object of the command is the performance of a वाग्न and if an original material is not available, it must be performed by means of a substituted material.

नियमार्थः क्वचिद्विधिः ॥ ६ । ३ । १६ ॥

नियमार्थः with the object of restriction, क्वचिन् some where, विधिः command.

16. Some where a command is with an object for restriction.

The author supports his view by saying that special commands are, in some cases, made with an object for restriction.

तन्नित्यं तच्चिकीर्षा हि ॥ ६ । ३ । १७ ॥

तत् that, नित्यं permanent, तत् that, च and, चिकीर्षा desire, हि because.

17. That (statement) is permanent and because that is a desire.

The author further says that the specific statement laying down a substitute for the original material in certain cases is a permanent command and that the substitute is also a desired thing for the completion of the sacrifice.

Adhikaraṇa Y Sūtras 18—19. Dealing with the subject that there is no substitute in default of a diet, fire, mantra and act

न देवताग्निशब्दक्रियमन्यार्थसंयोगात् ॥ ६ । ३ । १८ ॥

न not, देवताग्निशब्दक्रिय for diet, fire, mantra and act; अन्यार्थसंयोगात् for being connected with other object.

18. There is no substitute for diet, fire, mantra and act by reason of the connection with other object.

There are two parts of a sacrifice, the general and the particular. The particular part consists of a god, the fire (which is of three kinds), the Vedic mantra and the action. About these, the author lays down that no substitute can be had. Every sacrifice has its diet; you will not have another in his place. So the same holds good in the case of others.

देवतायां च तदर्थत्वात् ६ । ३ । १९ ॥

देवतायां in the case of a diety, च and, तदर्थत्वात् by reason of its being for that object.

19. And in case of a diety, by reason of its being for that object.

The author gives a reason in support of his view. What he says is that a sacrifice is held in honour of a particular diety; no other diety can be substituted, otherwise the object of the whole sacrifice will be frustrated.

Adhikarapa VI. Dealing with the subject that a forbidden material can not be a substitute.

प्रतिषिद्धं चाविशेषेण हि तच्छ्रुतिः ॥ ६ । ३ । २० ॥

प्रतिषिद्धं forbidden, च and, अविशेषेण general, हि because, तच्छ्रुतिः the Vedic text about it

20. And a forbidden material generally, because there is a Vedic text about it.

The author says that a material which is forbidden can not be substituted.

Adhikarapa VII. Dealing with the subject that there can not be a substitute for a master.

तथा स्वामिनः फलसमवायात्फलस्य कर्मयोगित्वात्

॥ ६ । ३ । २१ ॥

तथा similarly, स्वामिनः of a master; फलसमवायात् by reason of the connection with the fruit; फलस्य of a fruit, कर्मयोगित्वात् by reason of the connection with the act.

21. Similarly of a master by reason of the connection with the act.

The author says that there can not be a substitute for the master of the sacrifice. The master performs the sacrifice at his cost with certain object in view viz. to obtain a fruit and that depends upon the sacrifice. No one can reap the fruit of the action of another; on this principle there can be no substitute for the master of the sacrifice.

Adhikarana VIII. Dealing with the appointment of a substitute in the absence of any master in any सत्र.

बहूनां तु प्रवृत्तेऽन्यमागमयेद्वैगुण्यात् ॥६॥३॥२२॥

बहूनां of many ; तु on the other hand ; प्रवृत्ते on engagement, अन्य another, आगमयेत् may be brought in, appointed, वैगुण्यात् by reason of the failure.

22. On the other hand when many are engaged, another may be brought in to avoid failure.

In a satra, 17 sacrificers are engaged and if one of them is dead or has fled away, then another person may be appointed, so that the required number of the sacrificers in the satra may not fail. This Adhikarana is called सत्रन्याय

Adhikarana IX. Sūtras 23—25 Dealing with the subject that in a Satra, the position of the locum tenens is not that of a master.

स स्वामी स्यात्संयोगात् ॥ ६ । ३ । २३ ॥

स he , स्वामी master , स्यात् is , तत्संयोगात् by reason of the connection with that.

23. He is a master by reason of the connection with it.

The objector says that the position of the locum tenens appointed in a सत्र in place of a sacrificer is that of the master, being connected with the sacrifice and completes the number of the सत्र which is essential.

कर्मकरो वा भूतत्वात् ॥ ६ । ३ । २४ ॥

कर्मकरः a servant, वा on the other hand, भूतत्वात् by reason of his being maintained.

24. On the other hand, he is a servant by reason of his being maintained.

The author gives his own siddhānta view in the present sūtra. He says that he is only a servant, he is only to make up the number 17. The master in whose place, he is appointed, gets the fruit of the sacrifice. The number 17 in a सत्र does not produce the fruit, though it is absolutely necessary; it is subordinate.

तस्मिंश्च फलदर्शनात् ॥ ६ । ३ । २५ ॥

तस्मिन् in him; च and, फलदर्शनात् seeing the fruit.

25. And in him, seeing the fruit.

PURVA MIMĀMSĀ.

The author supports his view by another argument. He says that when one of the sacrificers is dead, the fruit of the sacrifice accrues to the original sacrificer but not to the substitute योदीक्षितानां प्रमीयेत अपितस्य-फलम् ॥ "If any one of the initiated dies, his is the fruit "

Adhikarṇa X. Dealing with the subject that a locum tenens is to all intents and purposes a sacrificer

स तदुर्मा स्यात्कर्मसंयोगात् ॥ ६ । ३ । २६ ॥

स he ; तदुर्मा possessed of a quality of a sacrificer, स्यात् is, कर्मसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the act.

26. He becomes like him, by reason of his connection with the act.

The author says that as far as the fruit of the सत्र is concerned, the position of the locum tenens is no better than that of a servant, because he gets no fruit of the sacrifice, but to all intents and purposes his position is that of the original sacrificer. A श्रुतिक् who is also a servant helps the master but the locum tenens though not a master, has all the powers of the master for the time being.

Adhikarṇa XI Dealing with the subject that in absence of Vedic material, another material resembling it may be substituted

सामान्यं तच्चिकीर्षा हि ॥ ६ । ३ । २७ ॥

सामान्यं generality ; तच्चिकीर्षा the want of that, हि because

27. Any thing of the same class, because there is a want of it.

The author says that when any material is lost or not available, any material of the same genus may be used This is the force of the word सामान्य in the sūtra.

Adhikarṇa XII. Sūtras 28-30. Dealing with the non-use of another optional material in the absence of the material once used.

निर्देशात् विकल्पे यत्प्रवृत्तम् ॥ ६ । ३ । २८ ॥

निर्देशात् by direction, तु on the other hand ; विकल्पे in an optional (material), यत् that ; प्रवृत्तं commenced

28. By reason of the direction of the Veda, when commenced with the optional material, (the material resembling it should be used).

When the Veda has enjoined any optional material, and when one of them is used and the optional material used is lost, which material should be used? Whether any other material out of the optional material used, or any other material resembling the material which was used but afterwards lost? The author says - that once the option is exercised, you can not exercise it second time; you will have to use the material of the same class with which you started your sacrificial act. There is a text अदिरे पशुं बध्नाति, पलाशे बध्नाति, रोहितके बध्नाति. "He ties an animal to a अदिरे sacrificial post; he ties it to a sacrificial post made of पलाश; he ties an animal to a post made of रोहितक." In tying a sacrificial animal, you can make a choice of any of the वृक्ष; but when you have once exercised your choice and that particular वृक्ष is lost or made useless, you will have the वृक्ष of the same wood with which you commenced. This is the view of the author.

अशब्दमिति चेत् ॥ ६ । ३ । २९ ॥

अशब्दं not sanctioned, इति चेत् if you say.

29. If you say that it is not sanctioned.

The author raises an objection on behalf of the objector. Three optional materials are sanctioned as said in the commentary on sūtra 28. If one is lost, why should not the choice be made from any other materials thus sanctioned? because it is directly sanctioned by the Veda; the use of other material of the same class is not sanctioned.

नाऽनङ्गत्वात् ॥ ६ । ३ । ३० ॥

न not, अनङ्गत्वात् by reason of its being not a part

30. No, by reason of its being not a part.

The author gives a reply to the doubt raised by him in the preceding sūtra. He says that the optional material though sanctioned by the Veda is not a part (अङ्ग), so it can not be used. The material which resembles the one which is destroyed or lost is to be used. By the use of one of the materials for the वृक्ष, it becomes a constituent part of the sacrifice; so the material of the same class may be used with which you started the sacrifice.

Adhikaraṇa XIII Dealing with the use of पृथीक in place of some plant.

वचनाच्चाऽन्याप्यमभावे तत्सामान्येन प्रतिनिधिरभावा-
दितरस्य ॥ ६ । ३ । ३१ ॥

वचसात् by the command; च and ; अन्वयः unreasonable ; अभावे in the absence ; तत्सामान्येन by resembling it, by the class of it; प्रतिविधिः substitute; अभावात् by reason of the absence; इतरस्य of the other.

31. By reason of the command of the code, it is unreasonable (not to use the substitute) in the absence (of the original). By reason of the absence of the other, it is a substitute by coming under the same class.

In the Veda, it is laid down that if soma is not available, पूतीक may be used. The author says that it is unreasonable not to use पूतीक in the absence of सोम; when it is expressly sanctioned by the Veda as its proper substitute. यदि न सोमं विंदेत पूतीकानभिषुणयात् ॥ "If one does not obtain soma creeper, he may extract the juice of पूतीक plant."

Adhikaraṇa XI V. Dealing with the subject that when substituted material is lost, another material used, must be like the original.

न प्रतिनिधौ समत्वात् ॥ ६ । ३ । ३२ ॥

न not, प्रतिनिधौ in the substitute, समत्वात् by reason of the equality.

32. No (substitute) in (place of) a substitute by reason of the equality.

When an original material is lost or otherwise made useless, a substitute is used. The substitute is also lost. The question is whether the material which will be used in place of the substitute will be like the substitute or like the original. The reply is that it will be like the original.

Adhikaraṇa XV Sūtra 33—34. Dealing with the subject that when the substitute sanctioned by the Veda is lost, the material that resembles the original should be used.

स्याच्छुतिलक्षणे नियतत्वात् ॥ ६ । ३ । ३३ ॥

स्यात् should be; शुतिलक्षणे in the symptoms as given in the Veda; नियतत्वात् by reason of the restriction.

33. A substitute like the substitute should be used according to the signs mentioned in that Veda; because that is the restrictive rule.

The पूतीक is a substitute for सोम. When the substitute is lost, the question is whether the substituted material should be like पूतीक or सोम? The पूतीक in this सूत्र says that it should resemble the पूतीक, because the Veda has sanctioned the use of the पूतीक in the place of सोम.

न तदीप्सा हि ॥ ६ । ३ । ३४ ॥

न नो; तद्विना the desire for it; हि because.

34. Because there is no desire for it.

The author gives a reply that there is desire for soma; in the absence of the soma plant, पुष्य is used, the desired object is सोम. So the substituted material must resemble soma.

Adhikaraṇa XVI. Dealing with the subject that principal material should be used when it is lost but subsequently found.

मुख्याधिगमे मुख्यमागमो हि तदभावात् ॥६॥३॥३५॥

मुख्याधिगमे on obtaining the principal material, मुख्य principal; अगमः substitute; हि because; तदभावात् in the absence of that.

35. On securing the principal, the principal should be used because a substitute is used in its absence.

When the original is lost and a search is made to obtain it, or when it is not available but subsequently it is obtained, the original should be used because the substitute can be used only in case when the original is not present.

Adhikaraṇa XVII. Sūtras 36-37. Dealing with the subject that when once a sacrifice is commenced with a substituted material and subsequently the sanctioned material has been obtained, the sacrifice must be completed with the substituted material.

प्रवृत्तेऽपीति चेत् ॥ ६ । ३ । ३६ ॥

प्रवृत्ते on commencement; अपि also, चेत् if.

36. Even if a sacrifice is commenced.

A sacrifice is commenced with a substituted material but subsequently the original material is found out. In such a case, the objector says, the original material should be used under the principle that has been laid down in the preceding अधिहरण.

नानर्थकत्वात् ॥ ६ । ३ । ३७ ॥

न नो; अनर्थकत्वात् by reason of being without a purpose.

37. No, by reason of its being useless.

The author gives a reply to the objection. The use of the original material at a subsequent stage will be useless. The sacrifice once commenced with a substituted material should be completed with it; no change should be made.

Adhikarāṇa XVIII. Dealing with the principal object, even if the substitute is fit for द्रव्यसंस्कारविरोधे द्रव्यं तदर्थत्वात् ॥ ६ । ३ । ३८ ॥

द्रव्यसंस्कारविरोधे on the conflict between the material and purificatory rite ; द्रव्यं the material ; तदर्थत्वात् that being for it.

38. On conflict between a substance and the purificatory rite, the substance is preferable because the purificatory rite is for the sake of the material.

The original material is such that no purificatory ceremony can be performed upon it, and the material which can be substituted is such that a purificatory ceremony can be performed upon it. The question is which should be used ? The reply is that the original material is preferable. The purificatory ceremony is for the material but not the material for the purificatory ceremony.

Adhikarāṇa XIX Dealing with the use of the substitute when the original is unfit for use.

अर्थद्रव्यविरोधेऽर्थो द्रव्याभावे तदुत्पत्तेर्द्रव्याणामर्थशेष-
त्वात् ॥ ६ । ३ । ३९ ॥

अर्थद्रव्य विरोधे on the conflict between an object and substance ; अर्थ object ; द्रव्याभावे in the absence of the substance ; तदुत्पत्तेः the use of the substitute ; द्रव्याणां of the substance ; अर्थशेषत्वात् by reason of its being subordinate to the object.

39. When there is a conflict between the object and the material, the object is to prevail ; because in the absence of the material, the substitute is used : the material being subordinate to the object.

When the original material is unfit for the object for which it is to be used and the substitute can fulfill the object, the question is which is to be preferred ? As for example, the खरिद्रुप which is the original material is weak and the animal to be tied is restive ; while, the रुद्रद्रुप which can be substituted, is strong enough for the animal : the author says that in such a case the substitute is to be preferred.

Adhikarāṇa XX. Dealing with the subject that the principal material is to be used when it is sufficient for the performance of the principal act, though not sufficient to perform the parts.

विधिरप्येकदेशे स्यात् ॥ ६ । ३ । ४० ॥

विधि: command ; अपि also ; एकदेशे in a part ; स्यात् is.

40. The command of the text also (applies in the case) when the original material is sufficient to accomplish a part.

When the original material is sufficient to perform the principal only, while the material which is to be substituted is sufficient for the performance of the principal act with all its subsidiary acts, the question arises, which is to be preferred? The objector says that the Vedic command comes into operation and the substitute should be used.

अपि वार्थस्यशक्यत्वादेकदेशेन निर्वर्तेतार्थानाम- विभक्तत्वाद्गुणमात्रमितरत्तदर्थत्वात् ॥ ६ । ३ । ४१ ॥

अपि वा not so; अर्थस्यशक्यत्वात् by reason of accomplishing the object; एकदेशेन by performance of a part; निर्वर्तेत is achieved; अर्थानां of the objects; अविभक्तत्वात् by reason of their being not divisible; गुणमात्रं subordinate only; इतरत् others; तदर्थत्वात् being subservient to it.

41. Not so ; if by performance of a part, the object is fulfilled by its being sufficient for it ; the objects being indivisible, the other are only subordinate, being subservient to it.

There are two parts in a sacrifice ; one is principal and the other subordinate. The subordinate subserves the principal. If a material is sufficient to fulfill the principal object, the object of the subordinate is necessarily fulfilled. The author says that there is no harm in the use of the original material when it is sufficient to accomplish the object of the principal only, though not sufficient enough to accomplish the object of the minor acts. When the main object is accomplished, all the objects are fulfilled because they are all connected with the main object.

END OF PÂDA III.

PÂDA IV.

Adhikraṇa I. Sâtras I—2. Dealing with the subject that on the destruction of an oblation, another should be substituted in its place.

शेषाद् द्वयवदाननाशे स्यात्तदर्थत्वात् ॥ ६।४।१ ॥

शेषात् from the remainder; द्वयवदाननाशे on the destruction of double oblation; स्यात् is; तदर्थत्वात् that being for that.

1. On the destruction of the double oblation, (the offering should be made) from the remainder because it is with that object.

From the पुरोडाश cake, two portions are cut off; one from its first part and the other from the middle part. These two constitute a double offering to fire. When this double offering is destroyed during the continuance of the sacrifice, the question is whether a new cake may be prepared, or the oblation may be made from the remainder of the old cake that is left behind. According to the objector, it should be made from the remainder because that is reserved with that object.

निर्देशाद्वाऽन्यदागमयेत् ॥ ६।४।२ ॥

निर्देशात् by reason of a direct statement; वा on the other hand; अन्यत् another; आगमयेत् should be brought in, introduced.

2. On the other hand, by reason of the direct authority, another should be introduced.

The author gives the siddhānta view and says that there being no first and the middle part left; the oblation can not be taken from the so-called remainder: so another new oblation will have to be prepared.

Adhikaraṇa II.- Dealing with the subject that no other offering should be made when an oblation prepared for the स्विष्टकृत् is destroyed.

अपि वा शेषभाजं स्याद्विशिष्टकारणत्वात् ॥ ६।४।३ ॥

अपि वा not so, also, शेषभाजं of those that partake of the remainder; स्यात् is, विशिष्ट कारणत्वात् by virtue of a special cause.

3. Not so, the offering should be of the remainder for a special cause.

The स्विष्टकृत् offering is called the final oblation made to finish the sacrifice. The oblation is only a प्रतिपत्ति कर्म, because the remaining things which are not necessary are consumed in the fire. So the author says that if the offering prepared for स्विष्टकृत् is destroyed, there need not be another new offering, because the object of it is to destroy the remainder. The offering shall be made from the remainder left after the destruction.

Adhikaraya III. Sūtras 4—9. Dealing with eating of remnants by the ^{अग्नि} ~~अग्नि~~ alone.

निर्देशाच्छेषभक्षोऽन्यैः प्रधानवत् ॥ ६ । ४ । ४ ॥

निर्देशात् by reason of the direction; शेषभक्षः eating of the remnant; अन्यैः by others; प्रधानवत् like the principal.

4. By reason of the direction, the remnant should be eaten by others as in the case of the principal.

The question relates to eating of the remnants of the offerings; the objector says that they are to be eaten by other than the ^{अग्नि} ~~अग्नि~~ as there is an express text. यजमान पंचमाहुः भक्षयति ॥ आग्नेयोऽहुः कपालः । (तै० सं० २।६।३।३) "The fifth sacrificer including the four priests eat the sacrificial food. There is a cake baked on eight pans consecrated to Agni."

सर्वैर्वा समवायात्स्यात् ॥ ६ । ४ । ५ ॥

सर्वैः by all, वा on the other hand; समवायात् being connected; स्यात् should be.

5. On the other hand, they should be eaten by all being connected with it.

The author gives a reply to the objection raised in the preceding sūtra; he says that the remnants should be eaten by all the ^{अग्नि} ~~अग्नि~~ because they are connected with the sacrifice; and others who are not connected can not partake of them.

निर्देशस्य गुणार्थत्वम् ॥ ६ । ४ । ६ ॥

निर्देशस्य of a direction; गुणार्थत्वं with a view to benefit.

6. The direction is with a view to be of benefit.

The author supports his view by adding further arguments. यजमान पंचमाहुः भक्षयति. The four priests and the fifth sacrificer eat the ^{इहा} ~~इहा~~. The principle of exclusion does not apply. It is an original statement with a view to benefit the sacrificer. This is to show that the priests also eat the remnants.

प्रधाने श्रुतिलक्षणम् ॥ ६ । ४ । ७ ॥

प्रधाने in the principal; श्रुतिलक्षणं the signs of the direct text.

7. In the case of the principal oblation, there is the direct text.

In the case of the double oblations there is the text which is परिसंख्या, but in the present case there is no परिसंख्या and the mention of यजमान in the text quoted in the commentary on sūtras 4 and 6 at p. 341 is with a view to lay down अपूर्व. There are three defects in a परिसंख्या viz., loss of its own sense (स्वार्थहान्) and acceptance of a different sense (अस्वार्थ परिग्रहः) and barring of that which is obtained (प्राप्त बाधः) The author's argument is that the text quoted is not a परिसंख्या, because the Apurva is laid down in connection with it.

अर्थवदितिचेत् ॥ ६ । ४ । ८ ॥

अर्थवत्, with a purpose, इतिचेत्, if it be said.

8. If it be said that it is for a purpose.

The objector says that eating of the remnants is with a certain purpose. In a horse-sacrifice, there will be heaps of flesh and if the priests alone are to partake of it, they will die of surfeit; it is therefore reasonable that others should partake of it.

न चोदनाविरोधात् ॥ ६ । ४ । ९ ॥

न not so; चोदनाविरोधात्, being contrary to the command.

9. Not so; being contrary to the original command.

The author gives a reply and says that it is against original command; the case of a horse-sacrifice does not hold good here.

Ādhikaraṇa IV. Sūtras 10-16 Dealing with the performance of a penance when a sacrificial vessel is wholly or partially broken.

अर्थसमवायात्प्रायश्चित्तमेकदेशेऽपि ॥ ६ । ४ । १० ॥

अर्थसमवायात्, by reason of the connection with the object; प्रायश्चित्तं a penance; एकदेशे on a partial (breaking); अपि also.

10. By reason of the connection with the object, there is a penance on a partial breaking also.

There is a text जिह्मेऽप्युहोति. "When a vessel is broken, a sacrifice is performed." What is the meaning of the text. Whether a sacrifice in the form of a penance should be performed on the complete breaking of a vessel or on partial breaking of it. The author says that in both cases a penance should be performed, because the vessel is directly connected with the object of the sacrifice.

न त्वशेषे वेगुण्यात्तदर्थं हि ॥ ६ । ४ । ११ ॥

न not; तु on the other hand; अशेषे on the total breaking of the vessel; वेगुण्यात् by reason of the total failure, uselessness; तदर्थं with that object; हि because.

11. On the other hand none on the total destruction, by reason of the total failure, because that is with the object.

The objector says that no penance should be performed when the vessel is completely destroyed, because it becomes useless and no penance is necessary, but when the vessel is partially broken, it may be used and with that object a penance should be performed.

स्याद्वा प्राप्तनिमित्तत्वादतदुर्मो नित्यसंयोगात् हितस्य गुणार्थेनानित्यत्वात् ॥ ६ । ४ । १२ ॥

स्यात् shall be, वा or, on the other hand; अतदुर्मो: being not possessed of that nature; प्राप्तनिमित्तत्वात् by reason of the cause arising, नित्यसंयोगात् by virtue of the permanent connection, न not; हि because, तस्य its, गुणार्थेन with the quality; अनित्यत्वात् by being not permanent

12. Not so; because when an occasion arises, (the penance is performed); it does not partake of its nature by reason of the permanent connection, because it is not a quality by being not permanent.

This sūtra is obscure. The author says that a penance should be performed always on the breakage of the vessel, the occasion is the breakage and so the penance is permanently connected with breaking. The penance is not for operating upon the partial breaking of it, because it does not partake of the nature of the तत्कारः. It is not a quality because it is not permanent; its performance is occasional, arising only when the vessel is broken, This is the substance of the sūtra.

गुणानां च परार्थत्वाद्गुणानाद्व्यपान्नय स्यात् ॥६॥४॥१३॥

गुणानां of subordinate action; परार्थत्वात् being subservient to other; व्यपान्नय by reason of the Vedic text; व्यपान्नयः connection, स्यात् is.

13. By reason of the subordinate action, being subservient to other, there can be a connection by reason of the Vedic text,

The author advances another argument in support of his view. What he says is that the subordinate actions subserve the object of the principal action, the vessels and the penance are both subordinate to the principal. The connection of the subordinates inter se can be determined only by a Vedic text. There is none whatever to show the connection of the vessel with the penance. The breakage of the vessel is the occasion on which a penance is performed. So performance of the penance does not sacrificially operate on the broken vessel.

भेदार्थमिति ॥ ६ । ४ । १४ ॥

भेदार्थं for the benefit of breaking, to ward off the sin or calamity arising; इति चेत् if it be said

14. If it be said that the penance is to avoid any calamity arising from the breakage.

The objector says that the penance is performed to avoid the calamity that would otherwise arise on the breakage of the sacrificial vessel.

Here in the sūtra, the word भेदार्थ is used 'for breakage'. It means to ward off the calamity arising from the breakage. The phenyl is kept in order to avoid the evil effects that might arise on an epidemic breaking. The objector says that similarly the penance is performed to remove the evil effects arising from the breaking of the vessel. It therefore operates upon the vessel

न शेषभूतत्वात् ॥ ६ । ४ । १५ ॥

न not, शेषभूतत्वात् by reason of its being subordinate.

15. Not, by reason of its being subordinate.

The author gives a reply that the penance can not operate upon the broken vessel, it can not make it entire. The performance of the sacrifice is only a शेष to the principal. Here the words शेषशेषीभाव and अंगगीभाव may be explained. A man is made up of many parts, they all constitute the whole man. This kind of connection of the parts with the whole is called अंगगीभाव. The man has the surrounding circumstances and other accidental things which make him what he is. The connection of the circumstances and other things with the man is called शेषशेषीभाव:

अनर्थकश्च सर्वनाशे स्यात् ॥ ६ । ४ । १६ ॥

अनर्थकः useless; च and; सर्वनाशे on the total destruction; स्यात् is.

16. It is useless on the total destruction.

The author says that the performance of the penance is not by way of संस्कार. It will in that view become useless on the total destruction of the vessel. The fact that the penance is performed on the total and partial breakage of the vessel, shows that it is not a purificatory act but only an expiatory act

Adhikarana X. Sūtras 17 to 26. Dealing with the performance of a penance when the whole of the puroḍāśa cake is burnt.

क्षामे तु सर्वदाहे स्यादेकदेशस्याऽवर्जनीयत्वात् ॥६॥११७॥

क्षामे on the destruction, तु on the other hand ; सर्वदाहे on the total burning , स्यात् is ; एकदेशस्य of the partial burning, अवर्जनीयत्वात् by reason of its being inevitable.

17. On the other hand on the total burning (of the पुरोडाश cake, a penance is to be performed), because partial burning (of the same) can not be avoided.

The author says that the principle laid down in the preceding अधिकरण does not apply in the case of burning of the पुरोडाश cake, while being baked on the sacrificial pans (कपाल). In the course of baking the cakes, they are liable to be scorched; you can not avoid it; but when the cake is totally burnt or destroyed, you must perform a sacrifice.

दर्शनादेकदेशे स्यात् ॥ ६ । ४ । १८ ॥

दर्शनात् by seeing; वा or; एकदेशे on a part, स्यात् is.

18. On the other hand, there is a text that there is a penance on the partial burning of the पुरोडाश cake.

The objector says that there is a text that there should be a penance when the पुरोडाश cake is partially burnt; when it is totally burnt, it becomes useless and no penance is necessary. यद्वत्तद्वि. संतिष्ठेत्, अथैतदेव विनिर्वपेत् ॥ "When that offering stands still, the same offering shall be made"

अन्येन वैतच्छास्त्राद्वा कारणप्राप्तिः ॥ ६ । ४ । १९ ॥

अन्येन by means of another; वा or, on the other hand; एतत् this; शास्त्रात् from the text; हि because; कारणप्राप्तिः occasion arising.

19. On the other hand, by another (a sacrifice) should be performed; this (is a rule) from the text; because of an occasion arising.

The author gives a reply to the objection raised in sūtra 18. He says that the partial burning of the पुरोडाश cake is unavoidable and so a penance need not be performed. It is only when the total cake is burnt or destroyed and another material is offered in its place, that an occasion arises for a penance. This is what the Vedic text lays down.

तद्विःशब्दान्नेति चेत् ॥ ६ । ४ । २० ॥

तद्विः that offering, शब्दात् from the word; न नो; इति चेत् if it be said.

20. If it be said, not so, because of the term 'that offering'.

यदातद्विःसंतिष्ठेत्. "When that offering stands still." The objector says that such is not the case i. e., the penance is not to be performed on the total extinction of the purodāśa cake but the words तद्वि mean a partial burning of the पुरोडाश cake. Because when a cake is partially burnt, you are to continue the sacrifice and on the total extinction another material is necessary. So the necessity of the penance arises on the partial burning of the cake.

स्यादन्यायत्वादिय्यागामी हविः शब्दस्तल्लिङ्गसंयोगात्

॥ ६ । ४ । २१ ॥

स्यात् 18, अन्यायत्वात् to avoid unreasonableness; य्यागामी indicating the sacrifice, हविःशब्दः the term offering, तल्लिङ्गसंयोगात् of its being connected with the metonymy

21. In order to avoid unreasonableness, the term होम means the whole sacrifice by force of metonymy.

The author gives a reply to the objector and sums up his conclusion thus; यदातद्विः संतिष्ठेत् while that हवि continues; the word हवि means the whole sacrifice. When a पुरोडाश cake is partially burnt there is no necessity of a penance because the sacrifice progresses and the continuity thereof is not broken up, but when the cake is totally burnt up, the sacrifice comes to a stand still and another sacrifice is recommenced, and an offering of the clarified butter is made. This adhikāraṇa is called कामेष्टिन्याय.

Adhikāraṇa VI. Sūtras 22—23. Dealing with the subject that when one offering is spoiled five dishes full of boiled rice should be offered.

यथाश्रुतीति चेत् ॥ ६ । ४ । २२ ॥

यथाश्रुति according to the Vedas; इति चेत् if it be said.

22. If it be said that (one should act) according to the Veda.

यस्योन्यद्वयं राशिमाचष्टति । ऐं द्र पंचशराचमोदनं निबोधेत् (सै० ब्रा० ६।१।१८) ॥ "One whose two offerings are spoilt, should make an offering of five dishes full of boiled rice to the god ईन्द्र" Now the question is; whether an offering of the boiled rice as mentioned above, should be made when both the offerings are spoilt, or when one of them is spoilt. In the full and new moon sacrifices, cows are milked on the previous evening, this milk is stored up in a vessel and then on the morning of the full moon or the new moon day, the cows are milked and both the milks are mixed together. Two offerings are prepared, from this milk, one is made in the morning and the other is in the evening. The question relates to this offering of the new and full moon sacrifices. The objector says one should act according to the direction laid down in the Vedas, the word 'both' is used in the text. It means that the offering of the five dishes full of boiled rice should be made when both these two offerings of the milk are spoilt.

न तल्लक्षणत्वादुपपातो हि कारणम् ॥ ६ । ४ । २३ ॥

न not so, तल्लक्षणत्वात् by reason of the general description of it; उपपातः spoiling, हि because; कारणं occasion.

23. Not so, by reason of the general description of it; the spoiling is the occasion.

The author gives a reply to the objection of the objector. Spoiling of the milk is the occasion of the offering of the five dishes of the boiled rice; it is generally described, the term उपपात is an adjective; it does not make it special. If you do so, you split the sentence which should be avoided by a मीमांसक. The sentence, therefore, means that you should make an offering of five dishes of boiled rice whenever there is a case of spoiling of the milk on one occasion or on both occasions.

Adhikaraṇa VII. Sūtras 24-25. Dealing with the subject of eating by a person who is competent to perform a hōma and extract soma juice.

होमामिषवभक्षणं च तद्वत् ॥ ६ । ४ । २४ ॥

होमामिषवभक्षणं eating by one who can perform होम or extract some juice; च and; तद्वत् like it.

24. And similary in the case of a person who can perform होम or extract some juice.

In a soma sacrifice soma is to be extracted and oblation is to be made, The objector says that according to the principle laid down in the preceding adhikarāṇa, a person who extracts the soma juice is competent to partake of the sacrificial food and another person who offers an oblation is equally entitled to it. He who performs both the acts is necessarily entitled to partake of it.

उभार्यां वा न हि तयोर्धर्मशास्त्रम् ॥ ६ । ४ । २५ ॥

उभार्यां by two together; वा on the other hand, न not; हि because; तयोः amongst them, धर्मशास्त्रम् mention of the relationship.

25. On the other hand, both of them constitute the occasion ; because their relation is not laid down.

The author says that extracting the soma juice and making the offering, both collectively entitle a person performing them, to partake of the sacrificial food. To partake of the sacrificial food is the principal and to extract the soma juice and make an offering are subordinate acts. They have no connection inter se. So partaking of the sacrificial food does not arise on the performance of one separate act. This distinguishes the present adhikarāṇa from the preceding one.

Adhikarāṇa VII Sūtras 26 27. Dealing with the subject that the extinction of two fires is the occasion of the re-establishment of the sacred fire

पुनराधेयमोदनवत् ॥ ६ । ४ । २६ ॥

पुनराधेयं re-establishment, ओदनवत् like the offering of the boiled rice.

26. (The same principle applies in the case of) the re-establishment of fire as in the case of the offering of the boiled rice.

The principal enunciated in the present adhikarāṇa is that the penance of offering the five dishes of boiled rice to इन्द्र is to be made even when one offering of the milk is spoilt. The objector says that when either the गार्हपत्य or जादवनीय fire is extinguished, the re-establishment of the sacred fire is to be made.

द्रव्योत्पत्तेर्वोभयोः स्यात् ॥ ६ । ४ । २७ ॥

द्रव्योत्पत्तेः by reason of the production of the substance; वा on the other hand, उभयोः of both, स्यात् is.

27. On account of the production of the materials of the two, the two together cause the occasion.

The author gives his own siddhānta view ; the two fires are produced collectively ; when both of them are extinguished, then only अग्निवाक्यम् should be re-performed. So no occasion arises for पुनराधान on the individual occurrence but on the collective occurrence of the extinction.

Adhikarapa IX. Sūtras 28-29. Dealing with the independent nature of the act of offering the five dishes full of boiled rice.

पञ्चशरावस्तु द्रव्यश्रुतेः प्रतिनिधिः स्यात् ॥ ६।४।२८॥

पञ्चशरावः the five dishes ; तु on the other hand , द्रव्यश्रुतेः by virtue of the text laying down the substance, प्रतिनिधिः substitute, स्यात् is.

28. On the other hand, (the offering of the) five dishes (full of rice) is a substitute, because of the direct text about the material.

See the Vedic quotation from the तैत्तिरीयब्राह्मण quoted in the commentary on sūtra 22 at p. 347 The question is whether this offering of five dishes full of boiled rice to इन्द्र is an independent act or a substitute for the milk offering. The objector says that it is by nature of substitute; because another material comes in the place of the spoiled milk.

चोदना वा द्रव्यदेवताविधिरवाच्ये हि ॥ ६।४।२९॥

चोदना command, वा on the other hand, द्रव्यदेवताविधिः text about the material and the diety, अवाच्ये not proper to be mentioned; हि because.

29. On the other hand, it is a command; because a text about materials and diety can be laid down (in the same act).

The author lays down his siddhānta view that it is an independent action, because in one action there can not be two dieties. (इन्द्र and महेंद्र) The offering of the five dishes full of boiled rice is to be made to इन्द्र alone, the material is entirely different. So it is an independent act.

Adhikarapa X. Sūtras 30-31. Dealing with the subject that the offering of the five dishes is an occasional and subordinate act of the new moon sacrifice.

स प्रत्यामनेत्स्थानात् ॥ ६।४।३०॥

सः it , प्रत्यामनेत् comes in the place , स्थानात् by virtue of the collocation.

30. It comes in the place, by reason of its collocation.

Now the question is whether this offering of the five dishes full of boiled rice to Indra is a substitute for the spoiled new moon sacrifice or its part? The objector says that when the milk in the new moon sacrifice is spoiled, the offering of the rice is a substitute ; it is not a part of the new moon sacrifice which has become a nullity; for nothing can be a part of a nullity.

अङ्गविधिर्वा निमित्तसंयोगात् ॥ ६ । ४ । ३१ ॥

अङ्गविधिः statement about a constituent part; वा on the other hand; निमित्तसंयोगात् by reason of its connection with the occasion.

The author gives his own siddhānta view. He says that it is a part of the new moon sacrifice, because the boiled rice is offered under certain circumstances. The new moon sacrifice is progressing, during the continuance, the offering of the five dishes full of boiled rice is made to इन्द्र; this independent offering intervenes, so it is only a part of the new moon sacrifice.

Ābhikarapa XI. Sūtra 32. 33. Dealing with the subject that when the determination to hold a सत्र is given up, it is necessary to perform विश्वजित् sacrifice.

विश्वजित्वप्रवृत्ते भावः कर्मणि स्यात् ॥ ६ । ४ । ३२ ॥

विश्वजित् the sacrifice of that name, तु on the other hand; अग्रवृत्ते on not commencing; भावः fruit, कर्मणि in the sacrifice; स्यात् is.

32. On the other hand when (the सत्र) is not commenced, a विश्वजित् sacrifice should be performed, for the fruit is in the act.

When a person has made a determination to perform a सत्र and gives it up, he will have to pay the penalty by performing the विश्वजित् sacrifice. He will not be relieved of the duty to perform the सत्र.

निष्क्रयवादाच्च ॥ ६ । ४ । ३३ ॥

निष्क्रयवादात् by reason of the text about ransom, च and.

33. And by reason of the text about ransom,

The author gives an additional reason in support of his siddhānta view laid down in sūtra 32. He says that by making a determination, one becomes indebted to the gods; by the performance of the विश्वजित् sacrifice he discharges the debt so incurred and becomes free.

सर्वाभ्यो वा एषदेवताभ्यः सर्वेभ्यः पृष्ठेभ्यः आत्मानमागुरते यः सत्राय आगुरते विश्वजिता अतिरात्रेण सर्वपृष्ठेन सर्वदेवसदक्षिणेनयजेत । सर्वाभ्य एषदेवताभ्यः सर्वेभ्यपृष्ठेभ्यः यदात्मानं निष्क्रीणीते ॥ "He who vows to perform a सत्र, bind himself to all the gods and to all the पृष्ठs; if he performs a विश्वजित् अतिरात्रेण sacrifice with सर्वपृष्ठ psalm by giving all his wealth, he releases himself from all the gods and पृष्ठs (hymns)."

Adhikaraṇa XII. Sūtras 34—40. Dealing with the subject that when the words बहिर्
 &c., occur in a text, they fix the time for breaking the fast

वत्ससंयोगे व्रतचोदना स्यात् ॥ ६ । ४ । ३४ ॥

वत्ससंयोगे in the use of the word 'calf,' व्रतचोदना command about breaking of the fast ; स्यात् is.

34. When the term 'calf' is used, it directs the breaking of the fast.

There is a Vedic text बहिर्बावैषोर्णमासे व्रतं उपवति वत्सेनामावस्याय ॥ "On the full moon day, a fast is observed with the वर्मा grass and on new moon day with calf". The question is what is, the meaning of the word 'calf' in the above text? the objector says that it means the flesh of a calf.

कालो वोत्पन्नसंयोगाद्यथोक्तस्य ॥ ६ । ४ । ३५ ॥

कालः time, वा on the other hand, उत्पन्नसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the restatement, यथोक्तस्य of the previously stated.

35. On the other hand, it is time by reason of the connection with the restatement of what is previously stated.

The author says that the term 'calf' denotes the time when the calves are driven away during the sacrifice. The fast has been already described; as the Vedic text itself shows, it is here only restated for the purpose of fixing the time for breaking the fast

अर्थापरिमाणाच्च ॥ ६ । ४ । ३६ ॥

अर्थापरिमाणाच्च by reason of the non-determination of the sense, च and.

36. And by reason of the sense being not determined.

The author supports his view by another argument; if the metonymy is not applied, the meaning of the 'calf' can not be determined. It will be nonsense.

वत्सस्तु श्रुतिसंयोगात्तदङ्गं स्यात् ॥ ६ । ४ । ३७ ॥

वत्सः the term 'calf;' श्रुतिसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the text; तदङ्गं a part of it; स्यात् is

37. The term 'calf' by reason of its occurring in the Vedic text, is its part.

The objector says that the term 'calf' should be literally interpreted as it occurs in the Vedic text, and it, therefore, becomes a part of the fast.

कालस्तु स्यादचोदनात् ॥ ६ । ४ । ३८ ॥

कालः time, तु on the other hand, स्यात् is; अचोदना by reason of no previous injunction.

38. On the other hand, it means time, being not previously enjoined.

The author says in reply that the text given in the commentary on सूत्र 33 at p. 350 is not a विशि about calf; it is already known; it is only an अनुवाद about it. It is a विशि about time. If it be said that it is a विशि for calf and time both, then there will be a split of a sentence (वाक्यभेद) which should always be avoided.

अनर्थकश्च कर्मसंयोगे ॥ ६ । ४ । ३९ ॥

अनर्थकः meaninglessness, च and, कर्म संयोगे in connection with an act.

39 And it will be meaningless in connecting it with the act.

The author gives a reason in support of his view that if you take 'calf' to mean eating of it and वह्निम् to mean eating of grass, it will make nonsense. So the proper interpretation is that it means the time when the calves are driven off, while the cows are milked during the progress of the sacrifice.

अवचनाच्च स्वशब्दस्य ॥ ६ । ४ । ४० ॥

अवचनात् by reason of not having the meaning, च and; शब्दस्य of the word.

40. By reason of not having the meaning of the term.

The author finally lays down that the term 'calf' can never mean flesh.

Adhikaraṇa XIII. Sūtras 41-42 Dealing with the subject that the terms वह्निम् &c., which indicate time, apply to both who has performed संवाय and has not performed it.

कालश्चेत्सन्नयत्पक्षे तल्लिङ्गसंयोगात् ॥ ६ । ४ । ४१ ॥

कालः time, चेत् if; सन्नयत्पक्षे in the case of one who has performed some yāga; तल्लिङ्गसंयोगात् by reason of its connection with its description.

41. If it indicates time, it applies to one who has performed संवाय by reason of its connection with its description.

The new moon sacrifice is performed by one who has performed the soma sacrifice and one who has not performed it. A person who performs a soma sacrifice, has necessarily to make a सवाय्य oblation. The cows are milked on the night of 14th of the dark half of the month and is stored up. In the morning, the cows are again milked, the milk is mixed up with the previously kept milk. The mixture is called सवाय्य oblation. When the cows are milked, the calves are driven off, this is the time which is called the time of driving off the calves just like the गोहृति. Now from this explanation, the objector's position is very clear. He says that if the term 'calf' means time of driving off the calves, then it applies only in the case of one who has performed a soma yāga but not of one who has not performed it, as there is no necessity of driving off the calves in the latter case.

कालार्थत्वाद्बोभयोः प्रतीयेत ॥ ६ । ४ । ४२ ॥

कालार्थत्वात् by reason of the meaning of time; न on the other hand; उभयोः of both; प्रतीयेत should be known.

42. On the other hand the time of both should be known, by reason of its being used to mean time.

The author gives a reply to the objection embodied in sūtra 41. He says that the term 'calf' being used for the time of driving off the calf, applies to both, viz. one who has performed the soma yāga and one who has not performed it. It indicates the time for meals in both cases; but this explanation is to show how it came to mean the time for meals. पुरावत्त्वानामपाकर्तोः । "Before driving away the calves, the husband and wife should take a meal."

Adhikaraṇa XIV. Sūtra, 43-47 dealing with the subject that the terms 'with the branch, indicate time.

प्रस्तरे शाखाश्रयणवत् ॥ ६ । ४ । ४३ ॥

प्रस्तरे in the handful of grass ; शाखा branch ; श्रयणवत् like the mixture.

43. In the bunch of grass, there is the branch like the case of mixture.

सर्वशाखायां प्रस्तरे प्रहरति. "With the branch he throws the handful of grass in the fire." The grass is spread on the altar and the branch of a tree is kept with the purpose of driving off the cattle. When the sacrifice is finished, the grass and the branch are both thrown away in the fire to be consumed there. The objector says that the grass is the principal and शाखा is subordinate; because दृतीया (instrumental case) is used; and in order to support his view he gives an example of soma mixture. Soma is mixed up with milk and offered to नैत्रावरुण. There soma juice is principal and milk is subordinate.

कालविधिर्वौभयोर्विदामानत्वात् ॥ ६ । ४ । ४४ ॥

कालविधिः a text about time, वा on the other hand, उभयोः of both; विद्यमानत्वात् by their presence.

44. On the other hand, it is a rule for time, both being present.

The author gives his own view. He says that the rule about the branch and the grass is already laid down; so the text does not relate to the description of the grass and the branch. It therefore lays down the time, when they are to be finally disposed of in the fire.

अतत्संस्कारार्थत्वाच्च ॥ ६ । ४ । ४५ ॥

अतत्संस्कारार्थत्वात् by reason of no purificatory ceremony performed on them, च and.

45. And by reason of no purificatory ceremony performed on them.

The author further supports his view by another reason. No purificatory ceremony is performed on the प्रस्तर by the शाखा i. e. it does not sacrificially operate upon the grass; so there can not be any relationship of principal and subordinate.

तस्माच्च विप्रयोगे स्यात् ॥ ६ । ४ । ४६ ॥

तस्मात् therefore, च and, विप्रयोगे on separation, स्यात् is.

46. And because there is separation also.

The author gives another reason in support of his view. He says that it is not necessary that the branch and grass should accompany each other, Grass alone may be finally thrown in the fire. So there may be a separation at the final disposal. If they both happen to be there, they may be finally thrown in the fire as the प्रतिपत्तिकर्म.

उपवेशश्च पक्षे स्यात् ॥ ६ । ४ । ४७ ॥

उपवेशः wooden poker; च and; पक्षे in the alternative case; स्यात् is.

47. And the wooden poker is used in the alternative case.

The author says that in the case of the सखाय offering there is necessarily a branch of a tree. When there is a branch, there is also उपवेष्ट. When a branch is brought, it is cut off at the bottom. It is struck slantingly with a hatchet and a notch is made in it. This piece of wood is called उपवेष्ट. But when no सखाय offering is made, there is no branch of a tree; what the author here means is that when a सखाय offering is made, the उपवेष्ट along with the grass and the branch is finally disposed of in the fire. So these words indicate the time of final disposal.

END OF PĀDA IV.

PĀDA V.

Adhikarapa I. Sūtras 1-9. Dealing with the transference of the नैमिशिक dieties in an अभ्युदयेति connected with the new moon

अभ्युदये कालापराधादिज्याचोदना स्यादयथा पञ्चश-
रावे ॥ ६ । ५ । १ ॥

अभ्युदये on the rise (of the moon) ; कालापराधात् by reason of missing the time ; इज्याचोदना the direction as to a sacrifice ; स्यात् is; यथा just as; पञ्चशरावे in the case of the five dishes.

1. On rising of the moon, by reason of missing the time, there is a direction about a sacrifice as in the case of five dishes.

The दर्शनाग्नौ is performed on the night of अमावस्या ; a sacrificer commences his sacrifice and subsequently during the progress of the sacrifice the moon rises and then he finds that he wrongly considered it an अमावस्या night while it was the 14th of the dark half of the month. In such a case, he will have to perform an अभ्युदयेति as a penance. The question is whether the अभ्युदयेति is an independent act like the offering of the five dishes mentioned in Adhikarapa IX of Chap VI pāda IV sūtra 23. The objector says it is, because there is an independent command about the performance of the अभ्युदयेति and he relies on the reasoning contained in Chap VI pāda IV adhikarapa IX. विद्यापतं प्रजयापशुमिरर्धयति वर्धयत्यस्यैवातर्धयत्यस्य इति विद्वत् पुरस्तादर्थमा । अभ्युदयेति चेत्तान्कुलान् विमज्जेत् वेमज्जमाः स्युस्तान्नस्येदानीमुदोदयः

महाकपालं कुर्याद् येद्यविष्टा स्तानिद्राव प्रदात्रेदयश्च दं येऽविष्टा स्तान् विष्णवे विदि- विष्टावभृतेच ॥ (तै० सं० २।५।१२) "Certainly his children and animals will decrease and his enemies will increase, if the moon rises when he has already consecrated the offering; he shall divide the rice in three portions; he shall offer the middle class of them, baked on eight pans to Agni the giver; he shall offer the grossest of them, boiled in curd to Indra the giver; he shall offer the most minute of them boiled in milk to Viṣṇu, the dweller in cattle "

अपनयो वा विद्यानत्वात् ॥ ६ । ५ । २ ॥

अपनयः transference, वा on the other hand, विद्यानत्वात् by reason of the existence.

2. On the other hand, it is only a transference of the dieties by reason of the existencce.

The author gives a reply to the objection of the objector. He says that the offerings are already known but their connection with the dieties is not known; it is therefore a case of transference of the dieties. It is not an independent sacrifice.

तद्रूपत्वाच्च शब्दानाम् ॥ ६ । ५ । ३ ॥

तद्रूपत्वात् by reason of their leading to the same conclusion (form);
शब्दानां of words.

3. And by reason of the same conclusion from the Vedic words.

The author in support of his view relies on the Vedic text already quoted and says that words of it also lead to the same conclusion.

आतड्मनाभ्यासस्य दर्शनात् ॥ ६ । ५ । ४ ॥

आतड्मनाभ्यासस्य of the division of the curd or milk; दर्शनात् by seeing.

4. By seeing of the repetition (division) of the milk.

The author gives another illustration in support of his view. In the new moon sacrifice, as said already the cows are milked in the evening; this milk is stored up in a vessel and divided into two parts to be converted into curd and to be used for the अग्न्युदयेदि if necessary, and the other half for coagulating the milk to be obtained from the cows in the morning. The first half portion of the milk set apart for अग्न्युदयेदि is called आतड्म; this doubling of the milk or dividing of it, is called अर्धव्यापारः. What the author means to say is that all the materials are there; there is only a change of dieties, no new material being provided.

अपूर्वत्वाद्विधानं स्यात् ॥ ६ । ५ । ५ ॥

अपूर्वत्वात् by reason of its being अपूर्व, विधानं command; स्यात् is.

5. By reason of its producing an invisible effect, it may be an (independent) injunction.

यः पशुकामः स्वास्तोऽमावास्यामिद्धा वत्सानपाकुर्व्यात् "One who desires cattle should, after performing a sacrifice on the new moon day, drive off the calves." The author says that in the पशुकादेहि there is an invisible effect produced by performing it; so the text is a विधि. There the material and dieties are different but such is not the case in अभ्युदयेहि.

पयोदोषात्पञ्चशरावेऽदुष्टं हीतरत् ॥ ६ । ५ । ६ ॥

पयोदोषात् by reason of the defect in the milk; पञ्चशरावे in the case of the five dishes, अदुष्टं without any defect, हि because, हीतरत् the other.

6. In the case of the five dishes, by reason of the defect in the milk ; because the other has no defect

The objector in sūtra 1 gave the illustration of the offering of the five dishes. The author says that the analogy does not hold good because in the case of the offering of the five dishes, the oblation is spoilt; so there is the necessity of another independent offering : but in the present case, the material is there and a mistake is committed in finding out the correct date. So there is only a change of dieties in the अभ्युदयेहि and no change in the material is made.

सकाय्येऽपि तथेति चेत् ॥ ६ । ५ । ७ ॥

सकाय्ये in the सकाय oblation, अपि also, तथा the same; इति चेत् if it be said,

7. If it be said that in सकाय oblation, the same is (true).

We have explained what सकाय is. The cows are milked in the evening in the new and full moon sacrifices. The milk is stored up and kept at night. The cows are again milked in the morning of the following day. The evening milk that has been reserved, is mixed with the morning milk. This mixture is called सकाय. The objector says that the milk or the curd which is reserved in the evening is defective by reason of its being stale. It is mixed with the morning milk which also, therefore, becomes impure and unfit for oblation.

न तस्यादुष्टत्वादविशिष्टं हि कारणम् ॥ ६ । ५ । ८ ॥

न not; तस्य its; अदुष्टत्वात् by reason of its being not impure, अविशिष्टं not special; हि because; कारणं cause, reason

8. No. By reason of its being not impure, because there is no special reason.

The author says that the सन्नाय milk or curd is not spoiled; it is all right but अभ्युदयेति is performed whether it is spoiled or not, for quite a different reason i. e. for not performing the new moon sacrifice on the correct date.

लक्षणायां शृतश्रुतिः ॥ ६ । ५ । ९ ॥

लक्षणायां the metonymy, शृतश्रुतिः the text about heated (milk).

9. The word शृत (heated) is by way of metonymy.

We have seen that the evening milk is heated, converted into curd and reserved for the morning milk. Now the text शृतेवह i. e. rice boiled in the hot milk for the अभ्युदयेति, becomes meaningless, for no hot milk is available, the whole of it being converted into curd. The author says the term शृत should be interpreted by metonymy, it, therefore, means what is heated i. e. water.

Adhikaraṇa 17 Pāṭhas 10-11. Dealing with the subject that in the उपशुष्यान् also there is a change of dieties.

उपांशुयाजेऽवचनादथामकृति ॥ ६ । ५ । १० ॥

उपांशुयाजे in an उपांशुयाज; अवचनार्थं by reason of the absence of any text; यथामकृति just as in a model sacrifice.

10. There being no text, in उपांशुयाज (the diety shall be) that of the model sacrifice.

उपांशुयाज is performed on the full moon night and its diety is Viṣṇu and as the mantras are recited lowly the ceremony is called उपशुष्यान्. In the course of the अभ्युदयेति in the new moon sacrifice, it is also performed. The objector says that as there is no text, the diety of the model sacrifice i. e., विष्णु shall be diety of the उपांशुयाज performed in connection with अभ्युदयेति.

अपनयो वा प्रवृत्त्या यद्येतरेषाम् ॥ ६ । ५ । ११ ॥

अपनयः transference, change, वा on the other hand; प्रवृत्त्या by performance.

11. On the other hand, there will be a change (of deities) as in the case of others, by performance.

The author gives a reply. The उपोशुषात्र which is performed in connection with the अम्युदयेहि is by way of penance. The oblations in the latter are divided into three parts; similarly the oblation in the former is divided into three parts also. The उपोशुषात्र connected with the अम्युदयेहि should, therefore, consist of rice, and this is divided into three parts. The dietary of उपोशुषात्र viz. विष्णु is changed and three parts will be offered to special deities. So in place of Viṣṇu, three deities come in, in other words, there is a change of deities.

Adhikaraṇa III. Sūtras 12—15. Dealing with the performance of the अम्युदयेहि even when the material is not consecrated.

निरूपे स्यात्तत्संयोगात् ॥ ६ । ५ । १२ ॥

निरूपे on consecration being effected (on the material); स्यात् is ; तत्संयोगात् by reason of its connection with it (Vedic text).

12. On consecration, there will be (a moon-rise-sacrifice), by reason of the Vedic authority.

The objector says that when the purificatory ceremonies are performed on the different materials to be used in the new moon-sacrifice and the moon happens to rise, then the अम्युदयेहि should necessarily be performed, as there is Vedic a text to that effect. See the text quoted in the commentary on the सूत्र 1 at p 355. If the materials are not so sacrificially operated upon, then अम्युदयेहि should not be performed.

प्रवृत्ते वा प्रापणाद्विमित्तस्य ॥ ६ । ५ । १३ ॥

प्रवृत्ते on commencement, वा on the other hand, प्रापणात् by reason of accruing; विमित्तस्य of a cause.

13. On the other hand, on commencement, by reason of the cause arising.

The author gives a reply to the objector, the cause of the अम्युदवेदि is the rising of the moon on the supposed night of अमावस्या. When such an occasion arises, the अम्युदवेदि must be performed whether the materials are consecrated or not.

लक्षणमात्रमितरत् ॥ ६ । ५ । १४ ॥

लक्षणमात्रं only as an indication, इतरत् the other.

14. The rest is only by way of indication.

यस्यहविर्निष्. (तै. सं. २.५.५.१) quoted at p 355. The word निष् is used in the text which means 'consecrated.' It is used only to indicate the materials to be used in the performance of the अम्युदवेदि. This is how he meets the arguments of the objector.

तथा चान्यार्थदर्शनम् ॥ ६ । ५ । १५ ॥

तथा similarly, च and, अन्यार्थदर्शनं seeing the other texts.

15. And similarly seeing the other texts.

The author relies on the Vedic text in support of his view. सपरागृहीतं हविरभ्युदियात् । प्रज्ञातमेवतदैषाव्रतचर्या । यत्पूर्वेद्यु दुग्धं दधि हविरातं च तत्कुर्वति । प्रतिमुचंतिवत्सार । तानैव तत्पुनर पाकुर्वति । तानपराह्णे पर्णशाक्या अपाकयेति । तत्तथैवाद्ः प्रज्ञातममावास्थं हविरेव मेवतदयद्यु व्रतचर्या चानैषां सौते । गृहीतं वा हविरभ्युदियात् इतर यातर्हि कुर्यात् । एतानेव तंडुलान् सकृत्कलीकृतान् ॥ "If the moon arises, when he has not yet consecrated the offering, the procedure is fully known, the milk of the previous evening converted into curd is divided into an offering, the calves are untied; and subsequently they are driven off, he drives them off in the after-noon with a branch of a पर्ण tree. The whole procedure to be adopted in the new moon day offering is well known, even if he does not intend the performance. If the offering is consecrated and the moon arises, he must, then, act otherwise and prepare the rice husked once."

Adhikaraṇa IV Sūtras 16—17. Dealing with the subject that the offerings should be consecrated to the deities of the modified sacrifice when the material is not consecrated and the moon rises.

अनिरुप्तेऽभ्युदिते प्राकृतीभ्यो निर्वपेदित्याश्मरथ्य-
स्तथडुलभूतेष्वपनयात् ॥ ६ । ५ । १६ ॥

अविद्यते when not consecrated ; अम्युदिते on (the moon) rising ; अम्युदिते to the deities of the model sacrifice ; निर्वर्ण्य consecrate; इति this; अम्युदिते the view of आश्विन्य Rishi ; तद्गुणत्वात् on the preparation of the rice; अम्युदिते by reason of the change.

16. "When the materials are not consecrated and the moon rises, the offering should be made to the dieties of the model sacrifice". This is the view of आश्विन्य, by reason of the change of dieties on the preparation of the rice.

The opinion of आश्विन्य is given by the author in the sūtra. The अम्युदिते is a modified sacrifice. The materials are consecrated for the oblation. So long as the materials are not consecrated the offerings are to be made to the dieties of the model sacrifice; because the preparation of the rice and division of it into three parts is the cause of the change of the dieties.

व्यूर्ध्वभाग्यस्त्वाल्लेखनस्तत्कारित्वाद्देवतापनयस्य

॥ ६ । ५ । १७ ॥

व्यूर्ध्व भाग्यः to (the dieties) coming afterward ; तु on the other hand ; अल्लेखनः the view of the Rishi of that name; तत्कारित्वाद् by reason of his action ; देवतापनयस्य of the change of dieties.

17. On the other hand, the view of अल्लेखन is that to the dieties who come afterwards (the offering should be made) by reason of his own action being the cause of the change of dieties.

The author adopts the view of अल्लेखन which is that the offering of the rice should be made to the dieties of the modified sacrifice. Because the sacrificer committed an error in knowing the correct date, so there will be a change of dieties.

Adhikarṇa V. Sūtras 18-20. Dealing with the consecration of the remainder silently when a portion is consecrated and the moon rises.

विनिरूपे न मुष्टीनामपनयस्तद्गुणत्वात् ॥६॥५॥१८॥

विनिरूपे on half being consecrated ; न not ; मुष्टीनां of handfuls ; अपनयः change of dieties; तद्गुणत्वात् by reason of that being subordinate to it.

18. When the handfuls (of offerings) are half consecrated there is no change of dieties, because that being subordinate to it,

When an oblation is to be consecrated, the materials are taken and four handfuls are to be prepared. Two handfuls are consecrated and the moon rises on the supposed night of the अमावस्या. The question is, to whom should the remaining two be consecrated, either to the deities of the प्रकृति or विकृति? The objector's reply is that they should be consecrated to the gods of the प्रकृति (the model sacrifice), so that there may be no change of deities being dependant on the consecration.

अप्राकृतेन हि संयोगस्तत्स्थानीयत्वात् ॥ ६ । ५ । १९ ॥

अप्राकृतेन with the deities of the modified sacrifice ; हि because ; संयोगः connection , तत्स्थानीयत्वात् by reason of coming in their place.

19. Because there is a connection with the deities of the modified sacrifice by reason of their coming in their place.

The second objector says that the अग्न्युदयेऽह्नि is the modified sacrifice being performed on the अमावस्या night; it is, therefore, proper to have the deities of the modified sacrifice. So the deities of the modified sacrifice come in the place of the deities of the model sacrifice by virtue of their coming in the place of the deities of the new moon sacrifice.

अभावाच्चेतरस्य स्यात् ॥ ६ । ५ । २० ॥

अभावाद् by reason of the absence, च and ; इतरस्य of the other ; स्यात् is .

20. And by reason of the absence of the others.

We have understood the sacrificial procedure. The निर्वार is called the consecration of the materials. Formally in the names of the deities, a sacrificer sets aside the materials. He has thus consecrated only two handfuls out of the four handfuls of the materials when the moon is seen arising on the अमावस्या night. Two handfuls are already consecrated to the deities of the new moon sacrifice and the remaining two are yet to be consecrated. These two can not be divided into 3 parts and can not therefore be consecrated to the deities of the model sacrifice. The author further says that they can neither be consecrated to the deities of the modified sacrifice as it is not yet begun. Under these circumstances, the remainder should be consecrated without mentioning the name of any deity; this is technically called सूच्यं (silently.)

Adhikarapa VI. Sūtras 21 to 24. Dealing with the subject that a penance should be performed on the rise of the moon by a person who has performed the हव्यम् and who has not performed it.

सञ्जायसंयोगाद्वासञ्जायतः स्यात् ॥ ६ । ५ । २१ ॥

सञ्जायसंयोगाद् by reason of the connection with the text about सञ्जाय; न not; असञ्जायतः one who has not performed सञ्जाय ceremony; स्यात् is.

21. A person who has not performed a सञ्जाय shall not perform (the अग्न्युदयेष्टि) by reason of the connection of the text with the सञ्जाय.

We have already explained what सञ्जाय is. See the commentary on sūtra 7 (at p. 350.) The objector says that there is a Vedic text दध्मन्सः (हो. सं. १. ५. ५. २) "Rice boiled in curd; rice boiled in hot milk." See at p. 356. It shows that a person who has performed सञ्जाय shall alone perform अग्न्युदयेष्टि.

औषधसंयोगाद्बोभयोः ॥ ६ । ५ । २२ ॥

औषधसंयोगाद् by reason of the connection of the text mentioning the annuals (औषध); न on the other hand; उभयोः of both.

22. On the other hand, both (should perform the अग्न्युदयेष्टि) by reason of the text mentioning annuals (औषध).

औषध is a plant in general which bears fruit or cereals and dies out; it produces the fruit or cereals in a year once. It is distinguished from वनस्पति which are both plants and trees. The author gives his reply to the objector and says that both the persons who have performed the सञ्जाय and who have not performed it, shall perform अग्न्युदयेष्टि. The reason is that the rice is mentioned in the text and it refers to both.

वैगुण्याकीति चेत् ॥ ६ । ५ । २३ ॥

वैगुण्यात् by reason of the failure, न not; इति चेत् if it be said.

23. 'By reason of the failure, no' if it be said.

The objector says that both shall not perform, because it a non-सञ्जायी who having no milk or curd, can not perform the अग्न्युदयेष्टि. If he has cows, he becomes a सञ्जायी. By reason of this want, a non-सञ्जायी shall not perform the अग्न्युदयेष्टि.

नातत्संस्कारत्वात् ॥ ६ । ५ । २४ ॥

न not; नातत्संस्कारत्वात् by reason of the purificatory ceremony not performed on it.

24. Not so, by reason of the purificatory ceremony not performed upon it.

The author says that there is no necessity of boiling the rice in the curd or milk. You must necessarily divide the rice into three portions; boiling of it in the curd or milk is by way of अर्चयाम्. You can dispense with it. So both should perform the अग्न्युदयेदि.

Adhikaraṇa VII, Sūtras 25-27. Dealing with the performance of विश्वजित् by one who has only undertaken to perform a सत्र.

साम्युत्थाने विश्वजित्क्रीते विभागसंयोगात् ॥६॥५॥२५॥

साम्युत्थाने on rising without completing it, विश्वजित् the performance of the sacrifice of that name; क्रीते on purchase; विभागसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the text which lays down division of the soma.

25. One should perform विश्वजित् on his not completing the सत्र after the purchase of सोम by reason of the text which mentions the division of सोम.

The text referred to is as follows यदि सप्रायदीक्षिताभयसाग्न्युत्तिष्ठेरन् सोममपमस्य विश्वजिता अतिरात्रेण सर्वस्तोमेन सर्वपृष्टेन सर्ववेदसदक्षिणेन यजेरन् ॥ "If those who are initiated to perform a सत्र, relinquish it after the division of सोम, shall perform विश्वजित् with अतिरात्र in which all the स्तोत्र and सर्वपृष्ट psalm are sung, by giving away all their wealth." The objector says that persons who are initiated to perform a सत्र and relinquish it after the purchase of the सोम, should perform विश्वजित् as a penance for leaving the सत्र incomplete because in the Vedic text quoted above, the division of सोम is mentioned which can not take place without previously purchasing it.

प्रवृत्ते वा प्रापणान्निमित्तस्य ॥ ६ । ५ । २६ ॥

प्रवृत्ते on undertaking; वा on the other hand; प्रापणात् by reason of obtaining; निमित्तस्य of cause.

26. On the other hand, on undertaking (to perform a सत्र) by reason of the cause arising.

The author says in reply that cause for performance of विश्वजित् arises as soon as the determination to perform a सत्र is broken.

आदेशार्थेतरा श्रुतिः ॥ ६ । ५ । २७ ॥

आदेशार्थं for the general sense; इतरा श्रुतिः the rest of the text.

27. The rest of the text is for the general purpose.

The author further goes on and says that the division of the ~~text~~ mentioned in the text is in a general way. In other words it means the division of the materials amongst themselves after the relinquishment to perform the सत्र.

Adhikarṇa VIII Sūtras 28—29. Dealing with the limit of 12 days for the initiation ceremony.

दीक्षापरिमाणे यथाकाम्यविशेषात् ॥ ६ । ५ । २८ ॥

दीक्षापरिमाणे in numbering the days for initiation ceremony; यथाकाम्य as one desires, अविशेषात् by reason of there being no special text.

28. In numbering the days for the initiation ceremony, one should be guided according to his desire, as there is no special text.

The objector says that there is no limit of days for the initiation ceremony as there is no special text. One may act according to his own desire, he may continue it for a day, 3 days or 12 days. Some commentators, consider this sūtra to contain the siddhānta view of the author and make the sūtra 29 an independent adhikarṇa. In this view, the option is given of the days for performance of a दीक्षा.

द्वादशाहस्तु लिङ्गात्स्यात् ॥ ६ । ५ । २९ ॥

द्वादशाहः twelve days; तु on the other hand; लिङ्गात् by the force of the text; स्यात् is.

29. On the other hand, the initiation ceremony should last for 12 days by force of the Vedic text.

The author gives his own view and says that there is a Vedic text द्वादशरात्रीर्दीक्षितो ऋतिवन्वीत. "An initiated should beg for 12 nights, the means of a sacrifice"; from this text, it appears, that the initiation ceremony is to last for 12 days.

Adhikarṇa IX. Sūtras 30—37. Dealing with the performance of the initiation ceremony in गवामयन before the full moon of the Māgha (माघ).

पौर्णमास्यामनियमोऽविशेषात् ॥ ६ । ५ । ३० ॥

पौर्णमास्या on the full moon day, अनियमः no rule, अविशेषात् by reason of there being nothing special.

30. No rule as to the full-moon day because there is no special text, चतुर्दशे पुरस्तात् पूर्णमास्यै दीक्षेरन् ॥ (तै० सं० ७।४।८।२) "They should initiate him four days before a full moon day." This is the text from the चैत्रतीर्थ संहिता. A दीक्षा shall be performed 4 days before a पूर्णमासी. The objector says that as the word पूर्णमासी is used in a general sense, any पूर्णमासी may do.

आनन्तर्यात् चैत्री स्यात् ॥ ६।५।३१ ॥

आनन्तर्यात्, by reason of the immediate sequence, तु on the other hand; चैत्री the full moon day of the चैत्र, स्यात्, is

31. On the other hand, it may be the full moon day of the Chaitra by reason of the immediate sequence (of the text).

In a नवामयन sacrifice, the initiation ceremony is performed. It consists of shaving of the head and the purificatory rites. It is performed four days before the full moon night. The first objector has already expressed his view, according to him any पूर्णमासी will do. The second objector in the present sūtra says that there is another Vedic text immediately preceding which mentions the चैत्र पूर्णमासी specially; so both the texts should be read together. चित्रापूर्णमासेदीक्षेरन् मुखंवापतत् संवत्सरस्ययच्चित्रा पूर्णमासः ॥ (तै० सं० ७।४।८।२) "They should initiate him on the full moon day of चैत्र, it is the commencement of a year viz. the full moon of the chaitra."

माघी वैकाष्ठकाश्रुतेः ॥ ६।५।३२ ॥

माघी the full moon day of माघ; वा on the other hand; एकादशश्रुतेः by reason of the Vedic text containing the 8th day of माघ.

32. On the other hand, the full moon day of माघ because the Vedic text refers to the 8th day of माघ.

The author gives his own view. He says that the term used is एकादशक which means the 8th day in the month of माघ. The initiation ceremony commences 4 days before the full moon and lasts for 12 days and is over on the 7th day of the dark half (कुम्भपक्ष) of माघ. On the नवमी day, soma plant is purchased.

अन्या अपीति चेत् ॥ ६।५।३३ ॥

अन्या अपीति of another month; नपि also; इतिचेत् if it be said,

33. If it be said that एकादश may mean the अष्टमी of another month.

The objector says that the term एकादश may be used in a general sense and may mean any अष्टमी.

न भक्तिवादेषा हि लोके ६ । ५ । ३४ ॥

न not; भक्तिवात् by reason of the figure of speech; एषा this; हि because; लोके in the common parlance.

34. No, by reason of the secondary sense, because it is so known in common parlance.

The author says that एकादश in the secondary sense means any अष्टमी but the word is used in the common parlance in the sense of eighth day of माघ.

दीक्षापरोधे चानुग्रहात् ॥ ६ । ५ । ३५ ॥

दीक्षापरोधे on the failure of the initiation ceremony; च and; अनुग्रहात् by reason of the release, grace, remedy.

35. And on the failure of the initiation ceremony, by reason of the release (provided)-

The author gives an additional reason in support of his view. He says that if the initiation ceremony is not performed four days previous to the माघीपूर्वमासी a penance is provided. So this additional fact also shows that एकादश is the eighth day of माघ. संवत्सरायदीक्षिष्यमाण एकादश्यां वीक्षेत्तेषां वैसंवत्सरस्यपक्षी यदेकादशका..... चतुराष्टुरस्तात् पूर्णमास्यैदीक्षेत् तेषां मेकादश्यां क्रय संपद्यते तेनैकादश्यां नृचंद्र कुर्वति ॥ (तै० सं० ७।४।८।२) They, who wish to be initiated for a year should be initiated on the 8th day; it is certainly the wife of the year, namely the eight day; four days before the full moon day, they should be initiated; on the eighth day the purchase of soma is made. The eighth day should not be made fruitless."

उत्थाने चानुग्रोहात् ॥ ६ । ५ । ३६ ॥

उत्थाने on the rise (of the sacrificers after its completion). च and; अनुग्रोहात् springing up (of the herbs and plants)

36. And on the completion, the springing up (of the plants and herbs).

The author gives an additional reason in support of his view. He says that the Vedic text says that the वीषधि and वनस्पति spring up after the completion of the sacrifice. तावुत्तिष्ठतओषधयोवनस्पतयोऽनुत्तिष्ठन्ति ॥ (तै० सं० ७।४।८।३) "On their rising, the cereals and plants follow (in springing up)." This fact also shows that the word 'एकादका' means माघी अष्टमी after which spring comes.

अस्यां च सर्वलिङ्गानि ॥ ६ । ५ । ३० ॥

अस्यां in it; च and, सर्वलिङ्गानि inferential power of all the texts.

37. And the force of all the texts points to it.

The author in support of his view relies on the Vedic texts. आर्तं वा पते संवत्सरस्याभिदीक्षते य एकादकायां दीक्षते..... व्यस्तं वा पते संवत्सरस्याभिदीक्षते त एकादकायां दीक्षते ॥ (तै० सं० ७।४।८।१) "Those who are initiated on the एकादका day, do so by the trouble arising during the year, those who are initiated on the एकादका day do so in anticipation of the change of the year." In the text आर्तं means trouble arising from the cold of माघ and व्यस्त is the change of year in the spring following श्राव. They all point to the fact that the माघी पूर्णमासी suits the initiation ceremony, because the other पूर्णमासी are defective for one reason or other. On account of cold, no bathing ceremony can be performed or in summer by scarcity of water, the other पूर्णमासी is unsuited. So the माघी पूर्णमासी is the most suitable of all.

Adhikarṇa X. Sūtras 38-39. Dealing with the subject that on the transference forwards of the initiation ceremony, all sacrificial acts connected with it are transferred forward.

दीक्षाकालस्य शिष्टत्वादतिक्रमे नियतानामनुत्कर्षः

प्राप्तकालत्वात् ॥ ६ । ५ । ३८ ॥

दीक्षाकालस्य of the time of the initiation ceremony; शिष्टत्वात् being laid down; अतिक्रमे in allowing it to pass; नियतानां of the necessary acts (connected with it) अनुत्कर्षः non-transference forward; प्राप्तकालत्वात् by reason of the arrival of their time.

38. Because the time of the initiation ceremony is laid down; on the time being allowed to pass away, the necessary acts connected with it are not transferred forward because their time has arrived.

The objector says that when the time of the initiation ceremony has been allowed to pass by and is therefore commenced late, the daily acts such as gifts, homa and cooking should be stopped during the continuance of the ceremony. They can not be transferred forward because their time has come but during the interval when the initiation ceremony is stopped, the daily duties should be performed. यावज्जीवमग्निहोत्रमुहोति ॥
"One performs an Agnihotra as long as he lives."

उत्कर्षो वा दीक्षितत्वादविशिष्टं हि कारणम् ॥६॥५॥३८॥

उत्कर्षः transference forward, वा on the other hand; दीक्षितत्वात् by reason of being initiated; अविशिष्टं not special; हि because; कारणं cause.

39. On the other hand by reason of being initiated, they will be transferred forward because there is no special reason.

The author says that during the interval the initiation ceremony lasts whether it is stopped or not, the daily duties will be stopped and will be performed after the जवभूष bath Engagement in the ज्योतिष्टोम is the general cause for stopping the daily duties. तस्माद् दीक्षतो न ददाति न पचति न जुहोति ॥ "An initiated, therefore, does not give, cook or perform a homa."

Adelkarapa. XI. Sūtras 40—41. Dealing with the non-performance of the प्रतिहोम when the ज्योतिष्टोम is transferred forward.

तत्र प्रतिहोमो न विद्यते यथा पूर्वेषाम् ॥६॥५॥३९॥

तत्र there; प्रतिहोम oblation; न not; विद्यते exists, यथा just like; पूर्वेषां of the former.

40. There does not exist प्रतिहोम as in the case of the former.

प्रतिहोम is performed after the completion of the ज्योतिष्टोम, when it is prolonged by stopping it in the middle. The author says that there is no necessity for performing it, as there is no necessity of performing the daily duties and no impiety attaches to the sacrificer by prolonging the ज्योतिष्टोम and omitting the daily duties.

कालप्रधान्याच्च ॥ ६ । ५ । ४१ ॥

कालप्रधान्याच्च by reason of the time being principal; च and.

41. And by reason of the time being principal.

The author gives an additional reason in support of his view.

What he means to say is that when once time has been allowed to lapse, it can never come back; so there is no necessity for performing the penance.

Adhikaraṇa XII. Dealing with the non-performance of प्रतिहोम on the transference forward of उदवसानीय sacrifice

प्रतिषेधाच्चोर्ध्वमवभृथादेष्टे । ६ । ५ । ४२ ॥

प्रतिषेधात् by reason of the prohibition ; च and : उर्ध्व upwards; अवभृथात् after bathing ; इष्टे : till the sacrifice.

42. And by reason of the prohibition after the bath till (उदवसानीय) sacrifice.

The उदवसानीय sacrifice is performed after the अवभृथ. The author says that the prohibition about the performance of the daily duties extends to the time when उदवसानीय is performed after अवभृथ.

Adhikaraṇa XIII. Dealing with the subject that if प्रतिहोम is performed, the अग्निहोत्र &c., should be commenced in the evening.

प्रतिहोमश्चेत्सायमग्निहोत्रप्रभृतीनि हूयेरन् ॥६॥५॥४३॥

प्रतिहोमः prathoma ; चेत् if, साय in the evening; अग्निहोत्रप्रभृतीनि agnihotra &c., हूयेरन् should be performed.

43. If प्रतिहोम is performed, the अग्निहोत्र &c., should be performed in the evening.

कुटुम्बिकान्याय is taking for granted the position of the opponent. If प्रतिहोम is to be performed, in that case the अग्निहोत्र &c. shall be performed in the evening. The author says that after the completion of the big ceremonies during which the daily duties were stopped their recommencement and the preparation will take the whole day and so the अग्निहोत्र &c. will be performed in the evening.

Adhikaraṇa XIV. Dealing with the performance of अग्निहोत्र &c., in the morning in the चोदशी sacrifice.

प्रातस्तु चोदशिनि ॥ ६ । ५ । ४४ ॥

प्रातः morning; तु on the other hand; चोदशिनि in the sacrifice of that name.

44. On the other hand morning, in the case of चोदशी sacrifice.

The author says that in the case of the चोदशी the rule laid down in adhikaraṇa XIII does not apply. In this case the contrary is the rule.

The reason is that the वेदपूजा is finished at night and so the अग्निहोत्र &c., are performed in the morning because the time of the evening has been allowed to pass.

Adhikaraṇa XV. Sūtras 45—47. Dealing with the subject that when a homa is performed on the breaking of a vessel &c. it is a part of the full and new moon sacrifice.

प्रायश्चित्तमधिकारे सर्वत्रदोषसामान्यात् ॥ ६ । ५ । ४५ ॥

प्रायश्चित्त penance ; अधिकारे in a context ; सर्वत्र everywhere ; दोषसामान्यात् by reason of the fault being common.

46. In the context it is a penance, in all cases the default being common.

मिन्वेदुहोति, स्फण्डेदुहोति. "He performs a homa on breaking; the performs a homa on spilling." These are the texts in connection with दशपूर्णमासवाग. When a vessel is broken or the contents thereof are spilt, then a sacrifice should be performed. The question is whether the texts apply in connection with all sacrifices. The objector says that they apply to all ; though they occur in the context of the दशपूर्णमासवाग, yet their application is general. The force of the context is weaker than the force of the sentence.

प्रकरणे वा शब्दहेतुत्वात् ॥ ६ । ५ । ४६ ॥

प्रकरणे in a context, वा on the other hand; शब्दहेतुत्वात् by reason of the word.

46. On the other hand in the context, by reason of the word.

The author says that a sentence must contain साधन, साधन and इतिवर्तकता. The texts quoted above do not contain the fruits; so according to the मीमांसका they are incomplete. In order to have their sense complete one will have to find out the context where they occur. The principle that force of the sentence is greater than that of the context does not apply when the sentence is incomplete and is dependent on other sentence for its complete sense (समन्विताहारः).

अतद्विकारश्च ॥ ६ । ५ । ४७ ॥

अतद्विकारः not the modification of it; च and..

47. And they are not the modifications of it.

The author further says that the व्यतिथेय and अतिथेय are not the modifications of दशपूर्णमासवाग; so the texts do not apply to them.

Adhikaraṇa XVI. Dealing with the meaning of व्यापन्नं.

व्यापन्नस्याप्सु गती यदभोज्यमार्याणां तत्प्रतीयेत ॥६॥५॥२८॥

व्यापन्नस्य of the thing defiled ; अप्सु in the water : यत्नी on throwing ; यत् that ; अभोज्यं not eatable, आर्याणां of the Aryas ; तत् that ; प्रतीयेत should be known.

48. On throwing the defiled things in the water that which is not eatable by the Aryas should be known.

The sūtra defines what व्यापन्नं is. Anything which an Arya can not eat; any eatable in which a dead insect or hair is found, is called व्यापन्नं or defiled article.

Adhikaraṇa XVII. Dealing with the performance of a penance even when all leave off simultaneously.

विभागश्रुतेः प्रायश्चित्तं योगपदे न विद्यते ॥६॥५॥२९॥

विभागश्रुतेः by reason of the text laying down separation; प्रायश्चित्तं a penance ; योगपदे on simultaneously (leaving off); न not; विद्यते is.

49. On account of the text laying down separation, there is a penance ; but there is none if they are left off simultaneously.

There is a sacrificial procedure. In the श्वेत्विदोम sacrifice, बहिष्कृत्यमान is sung after walking out of the sacrificial ground. The priests प्रक्षोता, बह्वगास्त and प्रतिहर्षा walk out. The प्रक्षोता goes out first and then बह्वगास्त holding his (प्रक्षोता's) clothes tucked behind him, follows him and lastly प्रतिहर्षा holding the clothes tucked behind him, follows him (बह्वगास्त). If by chance one lets go the clothes of another thus held by him, there is a penance. The objector says that there is no penance when two simultaneously let go the clothes of the others ; it is only in the case of one letting go the clothes of another.

स्याद्वा प्राप्तिनिमित्तत्वात्कालमात्रमेकम् ॥६॥५॥३०॥

स्याद्वा may be, वा on the other hand, प्राप्तिनिमित्तत्वात् by reason of the cause arising; कालमात्रं time only, एकं the same.

50. On the other hand, it must be done by reason of the accrual of the cause ; the time is only one.

The author's reply is that the cause of the performance of the penance is leaving off the clothes, whether they be left off simultaneously or separately.

Adhikaraṇa XVIII. Sūtras 51 - 53. Dealing with the subject that either nothing may be given or the whole may be given if the clothes are simultaneously let go.

तत्र विप्रतिषेधाद्विकल्पः स्यात् ॥ ६।५।५१ ॥

तत्र there; विप्रतिषेधात् by reason of the conflict; विकल्पः option ; स्यात् is.

51. By reason of the conflict of texts, there is option.

यत्तु वृत्तताद्विप्रतिषेधात् सर्वस्य दद्यात्. "If an वृत्तता is separated, the sacrifice having been established, without a fee should be started afresh and there that fee which was intended for the first, should be given; if a विप्रतिषेध is detached, the whole should be given " The text is very clear that when वृत्तता lets go the tucked up clothes, another sacrifice may be performed without payment of any fee and the same may be paid to them. If a विप्रतिषेध lets go the tucked up clothes, the whole wealth may be given. Now the question is, what should be done when both let go the tucked up clothes. The reply according to the author is that there is an option under these circumstances.

प्रयोगान्तरे वोभयानुग्रहः स्यात् ॥ ६।५।५२ ॥

प्रयोगान्तरे in another sacrifice; वा on the other hand; उभयानुग्रहः accomplishment of both; स्यात् is.

52. On the other hand, in another sacrifice, both (penances) are accomplished.

The objector says no, you ought not to allow an option. Leave the first sacrifice incomplete and pay the whole wealth and after collecting money, you perform another sacrifice and pay the fee that was to be paid on the first occasion.

नैकसंयोगात् ॥ ६।५।५३ ॥

न not; न and; एकसंयोगात् by reason of the text laying down one sacrifice.

53. Not so, because the sacrifice has been laid down to be one.

The author's reply to the objector's view is that the sacrifice enjoined in the Veda is one but not two. The option is therefore given to these two kinds of penance in one and the same sacrifice.

Adhikaraṇa XIX. Dealing with the subject that when the clothes are let go by the priests one after the other, the penance is to be performed by the priest who lets go the cloth at last.

पौर्वापर्ये पूर्वदोषल्यं प्रकृतिवत् ॥ ६ । ५ । ५४ ॥

पौर्वापर्ये on giving up the tucked up clothes one after the other; पूर्वदोषल्यं the weakness of the first; प्रकृतिवत् like the model sacrifice.

54. When the clothes are let go one after the other the rule becomes weak in the first, like the model sacrifice.

The author lays down a rule about the performance of the penance. Who is to perform the penances when clothes are relinquished one after the other e. g. first the उद्गाता lets go the tucked up clothes of the प्रतिहर्ता then प्रस्तोता lets them go? The author's reply is that the last one will perform the penance because the rule becomes weak in first case. The author gives an illustration; when both the प्रकृति and विकृति sacrifices are to be performed, the last will exclude the first and only the विकृति sacrifice will be performed.

Adhikarapa XX. Dealing with the subject that when an उद्गाता's tucked up clothes are also let go, the whole wealth should be given away as a gift.

यद्गुद्गाता जघन्यः स्यात्पुनर्यज्ञे सर्ववेदसं दद्यादथे-
तरस्मिन् ॥ ६ । ५ । ५५ ॥

यदि if; उद्गाता the priest of that designation, जघन्यः last, स्यात् is; पुनर्यज्ञे in the new sacrifice; सर्ववेदसं all wealth; दद्यात् shall give; अथा like; इतरस्मिन् in another.

55. When the उद्गाता lets go his tucked up clothes being last, the whole wealth shall be given in another sacrifice as in the case of the other.

The procedure is described in the commentary on sūtra 49, see at p. 372; it appears from the said description that the उद्गाता is the last whose tucked up clothes are held by प्रस्तोता. If his clothes are let go, the penance will be performed by undertaking another sacrifice and the whole wealth shall have to be given as the fee. The author further says that the fee shall be given as it is mentioned in the case of प्रतिहर्ता. The ordinary fee is 1200 cows but the whole wealth will exceed this number of 1200 cows.

Adhikarapa XXI. Dealing with the subject that the order of the different sacrificial acts shall not be changed when the tucked up clothes are let go in a soma sacrifice which lasts for more than a day.

अहर्गणे यस्मिन्नपच्छेदस्तदावर्त्तेत कर्मपृथक्त्वात् ॥ ६ । ५ । ५६ ॥

अहर्गणे in a soma sacrifice lasting for more than a day ; यस्मिन् in which; अयच्छेत् letting go of the hold of the tucked up clothes; तत् that, आवर्तेत् should be changed ; कर्मयुक्तत्वात् by reason of the act being separate.

56. In a soma sacrifice extending for more than a day, that act in which the hold of the tucked up clothes is let go, should be changed by reason of the act being separate.

In a सोम sacrifice there are सोमसुत्याः The soma plant is brought ; the juice is prepared and extracted and then it is offered to the gods in cups. The soma sacrifice in which there are सोमसुत्याः varying from two to twelve is अहीन which is here called अहर्गण, because the sacrifice lasts for as many days as there are सोमसुत्याः Now the author says that when the hold of the tucked up clothes is let go in a particular सुत्या, that सुत्या alone is to be repeated as a penance but not the whole series of सुत्या, because they are not connected with each other END OF PĀDA V.

PĀDA VI.

Adhikaraṇa I. Sūtras 1-11. Dealing with the subject that persons who belong to the same kalpa are equally entitled in a सत्र.

सन्निपाते वैगुण्यात् प्रकृतिवत्तुल्यकल्पा यजेरन् ॥६॥१॥

सन्निपाते in an assembly , वैगुण्यात् to avoid failure, प्रकृतिवत् like the model sacrifice ; तुल्यकल्पाः those who belong to the same kalpa , यजेरन् should sacrifice.

1. In an assembly all who belong to the same kalpa should perform a sacrifice to avoid failure, just as in a model sacrifice.

The term सन्निपात means a gathering. Here it is used for a सत्र The opinion of गोवारी is that persons of the same गोत्र can perform a सत्र but the opinion of शौनक is that people of different गोत्रs but belonging to the same sacrificial system can perform a सत्र We have already seen that in a सत्र there can not be less than 17 sacrificers. सप्तदशाश्रयः सत्रमासीरन् ॥ "Seventeen should, at least, sit in a सत्र" So under these circumstances, can persons belonging to different कल्पा or sacrificial systems perform a सत्र? What is a कल्प? There are two systems called नाराशंस and तद्वनपात्. There are the verses of the Rīgveda repeated at the time of the प्रवाज offerings. Those who repeat नाराशंस verses belong to the नाराशंस कल्प and those who repeat तद्वनपात् verses belong to the तद्वनपात्कल्प. The reply of the author is that persons belonging to the same kalpa can join in a सत्र. He has given an illustration of a model sacrifice to avoid fruitlessness. All the details of a model sacrifice should be performed, so that the sacrifice may not be fruitless, so here in a सत्र all the persons of the same कल्प should be joined together to avoid fruitlessness.

वचनाद्वाशिरोवत्स्यात् ॥ ६ । ६ । २ ॥

वचनात् by reason of the authority, वा on the other hand, अशिरोवत् like a mixture, स्यात् may be

2. On the other hand by reason of an authority, it may be like the soma mixture.

The objector says that the Vedic text which limits the number of the sacrificers in a सत्र, is of general application, it does not say that the sacrificers should belong to the same कल्प or sacrificial system. He gives an illustration which is not clear, according to one reading it is शिरोवत्, in that case it means like a head. It refers to अग्निचयन where human head is used as a brick and the heads of other animals were also arranged around it. The custom is that the head of a dead body should not be touched but the Vedic text overrules it, in the same manner all persons whether they belong to the same kalpa or not are entitled to participate in a सत्र.

The other reading is अशिरोवत्, in that case it means like the mixture of soma juice with milk or curd. To prepare it in a अग्निपेष sacrifice, another cow is brought in, under a special Vedic text. So the Vedic text overrules the sacrificial custom. पुनश्चशीर्षमुपदधाति (तै० सं० ५।२।१२) अतपेयेष्टुतवतीभवति ॥ "He places a human head." "In अतपेय, one has to live on ghee only."

न वाऽनारभ्यवादत्वात् ॥ ६ । ६ । ३ ॥

न वा not so, अनारभ्यवादत्वात् by reason of the general statement.

3. Not so, by reason of the general statement.

The author gives a reply to the objector. It is a general statement; if the general statement is definite, it is with a purpose: but if the statement is vague, it should be harmonized by other means, to be for a purposs. The Vedic text is general but the principle of अनारम्भवाद applies. If the heterogenous element is to be introduced in a सत्र, the whole sacrifice will be fruitless; but if there is homogenous element, the purpose of a सत्र will be fully served. The Vedic text which limits the number of the sacrificers to seventeen is general and should be so harmonized as not to conflict with the sacrificial custom. It therefore follows that the sacrificers should be of the same कर्त्तृ. अनारम्भवादी is explained by वाचस्पत्य thus: any text read without any particular thing being in view; those mantras, the application of which is not mentioned in any particular act, as their application by virtue of the principle of अनारम्भवादी is in a ब्रह्मयज्ञः. In other words, the text is general but the application of it is for a particular act.

स्याद्वा यज्ञार्थत्वादीदुम्बरीवत् ॥ ६ । ६ । ४ ॥

स्यात् may be; वा on the other hand, यज्ञार्थत्वात् by reason of the object of the sacrifice; औदुम्बरीवत् like the twig of an औदुम्बर tree.

4. On the other hand, it may be by virtue of the object of the sacrifice like the twig of an औदुम्बर tree.

The objector says that a twig of a fig tree is taken in a sacrifice by the measurement of a यजमान; that alone serves the purpose. It is not measured by other sacrificers with their hand. So in the same way, the गोत्र or kalpa being subordinate by reason of its serving the object of the sacrifice, is the गोत्र or kalpa of the यजमान and the गोत्र or कर्त्तृ of the other sacrificers is not to be taken into consideration.

न तत्प्रधानत्वात् ॥ ६ । ६ । ५ ॥

न not, तत्प्रधानत्वात् by reason of that being principal.

5. Not so; by reason of that being principal.

The author says that the sacrificial system is principal. Though it subserves the purpose of a sacrifice, yet by joining sacrificers of heterogenous कर्त्तृ, the whole sacrifice becomes fruitless. So the homogeneity of the कर्त्तृ is very essential.

औदुम्बर्याः परार्थत्वात्कपालवत् ६ । ६ । ६ ॥

औदुम्बर्याः of the twig belonging to औदुम्बर tree; परार्थत्वात् by its being subordinate, कपालवत् like an earthen pan.

6. By reason of the twig of the ओदुम्बर tree being subordinate like an earthen pan.

The author gives a reply to the objector's illustration of the branch of a fig tree. The branch is fixed in the sacrificial ground and it is only one. It is of the height of the यजमान. There are several sacrificers in a सत्र but only one serves the purpose and there are not so many branches as there are sacrificers. The reason is that the branch of a fig tree is a इवमर्थ, but not a पुरुषार्थ. The author gives an example of sacrificial pan. It is used for throwing off the husk of the rice and is therefore subordinate.

अन्येनापीति चेत् ॥ ६ । ६ । ७ ॥

अन्येन by another, अपि also, इतिचेत् if it be said.

7. If it be said that by any other also.

The objector says that there are 17 sacrificers; measurement of the twig by one will do. Why should it be according to the height of the यजमान ?

नैकत्वात्तस्य चानधिकाराच्छब्दस्य चाविभक्तत्वात्

॥ ६ । ६ । ८ ॥

नैकत्वात् by reason of being one, तस्य his, च and; अनधिकारात् by reason of thier having no right or title, शब्दस्य of a word; च and, अविभक्तत्वात् by reason of its being indivisible

8. Not so, by reason of his यजमान being one and their (the sacrificers) having no right and the word being indivisible.

The author refutes the objection embodied in sūtra 7 in three ways; first the यजमान is one and his height is the standard height, secondly the other sacrificers have no right or title and therefore their height will not be taken into measuring the twig and thirdly the word यजमान is very specific and by no stretch can it be extended to mean the other sacrificers participating in a सत्र.

सन्निपातात्तु निमित्तविघातः स्याद्वृद्धयन्तरेष्वविभक्त-
शिष्टत्वाद्वासिष्ठनिर्वर्त्ये ॥ ६ । ६ । ९ ॥

सन्निपातात् by reason of mixing together (persons of different sacrificial systems), दु on the other hand, निमित्तविघातः removal of the cause (disinction); एतत् is; बृहद्वर्धतस्यत् just as in बृहद्वर्धतस्य song; विनकशितत्वात् by reason of the text laying down the separation (of different persons); वसिष्ठनिर्वर्त्ये in a sacrifice to be performed by वसिष्ठ.

9. On the other hand by reason of the fusion, the cause of distinction should be removed just as in a बृहद्वर्धतस्य song, by reason of the text laying down the fusion of different persons, in a sacrifice to be performed by वसिष्ठ priests.

There are two kinds of कण्ड (sacrificial systems). Those who are वसिष्ठ repeat the नाराशंस verses from the Rigveda and those who are काश्यप &c. repeat the तन्नूपात् verses. राजन्य वासिष्ठानां नाराशंसो द्वितीयः प्रयाजः तन्नूपा- दन्येषाम् ॥ "Of the kings and the वासिष्ठ priests, नाराशंस and second प्रयाजः offerings, of others तन्नूपात्." In a पृथस्तोत्र in बृहस्पति साम verses beginning with शुक्र are sung and in रथतरसाम verses beginning with इन्द्रवायव are sung, and in the modified sacrifice where both the songs are fused together, it depends upon the wish of the singer to sing either of them. The objector says that just as in बृहद्वर्धतरसाम where both the tunes are fused together, any one of it may do; so where persons of different कण्ड are fused together in a सत्र, the distinction (i. e. cause) may be removed by taking away the नाराशंस or तन्नूपात् songs.

अपि वा कृत्स्नसंयोगादविधातः प्रतीयेत स्वामित्वे-
नाभिसंबन्धात् ॥ ६ । ६ । १० ॥

अपि वा not so; कृत्स्नसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the whole; अविधातः not removing, प्रतीयेत is known; स्वामित्वेन with the ownership; अभिसंबन्धात् by reason of the relationship.

10. Not so, by reason of the connection of the entirety, the non-removal of the distinction is inferred because it is connected with ownership.

The author in reply says to the position of the objector embodied in sūtra 9. You say that the distinction can be removed by taking off either तन्नूपात् verses or नाराशंस verses in a सत्र. No, the suggested remedy is not proper. The entire sacrifice is one homogenous whole and is connected with the owner of it by reason of its fruit. Though there is one sacrifice and its object is one, by reason of the equality of sacrificial system, yet the integrity of the sacrifice will not be considered to be broken by a large number of sacrificers. They all subserve the purpose of the sacrifice. So there will be no removal of the verses, but the sacrificers of the same कर्ण will participate in a सत्र.

साम्नोः कर्मवृद्धयै कदेशेन संयोगे गुणत्वेनाभिसंबन्धस्त-
स्मात्तत्र विधातः स्यात् ॥ ६ । ६ । ११ ॥

साम्नोः of the two songs, कर्मवृद्धयै with the increase of the sacrifice; एकदेशेन with one part, संयोगे on connection; गुणत्वेन with the quality of the subordinate, अभिसंबन्धः connection, तस्मात् therefore; तत्र there, विधातः annulment, स्यात् is.

11. On the connection with a portion of the two songs with the increase of the sacrifice, it is connected as subordinate, therefore there may be an annulment.

The objector gave the illustration of बृहद्वयंतर song. While commenting on sūtra 9, we explained that in a बृहस्तोत्र when बृहस्पति song is sung, the verses beginning with शुक्र are chanted and when रथंतर song is sung, verses beginning with इन्द्रवायव are chanted. The बृहद्वयंतर song is a mixture of both and is therefore an increase of the sacrificial act and the बृहस्पति songs and रथंतर songs are both subordinate and are connected with बृहद्वयंतर as its parts. The author's reply to the objector's illustration is that it does not hold good because there two kinds of songs are connected with the main स्तोत्र as subordinate, so either of them may be left off and it depends upon the choice of the singer to sing any song he likes.

Adhikaraṇa II Sūtras 12-15. Dealing with the subject that in a कुकावयव the king and his priest even of different sacrificial system are entitled to join.

वचनात्तु द्विसंयोगस्तस्मादेकस्य पाणिबत् ॥६॥१२ ॥

वचनात् by reason of the text, तु on the other hand, द्विसंयोग the connection with two, तस्मात् therefore, एकस्य of one; पाणिबत् like a hand.

12. On the other hand by reason of the connection with two, (they are) of one like the hand.

We have seen how the author has discussed in the preceding adhikaraṇa the subject that the sacrificers in a सत्र should be of the same कर्ण. The objector says that there is a text एतेन राजपुरोहितौ सायुज्यं कामी यजेयाताम् "By this the king and his priest desirous of salvation should perform a sacrifice" In view of the principle laid down in the 1st Adhikaraṇa, there must be two priests of a king of the same कर्त्तृ. The compound in the सम्बन्धे द्वित्वा in this view, is कर्त्तृवात्. He gives an illustration that अर्थाभावे द्वित्वेति. "He offers oblations with the hollow of the hand." Though one has two hands, still the left hand is left out of consideration in all religious acts.

अर्थाभावात् नैवं स्यात् ॥ ६ । ६ । १३ ॥

अर्थाभावात् by reason of the absence of the object or purpose; न on the other hand; न not; एवं such, स्यात् is

13. On the other hand, by reason of the absence of the purpose, this can not be.

The author gives a reply to the objection of the objector. There can not be two priests of a king; it is nowhere heard. A king has only one family priest.

अर्थानाञ्च विभक्तत्वात् तद्व्युत्पत्तेन संबंधः ॥ ६ । ६ । १४ ॥

अर्थानां of the purpose; च and, विभक्तत्वात् by reason of the difference; न not; तद्व्युत्पत्तेन with the fruit thereof, संबंधः connection.

14. And by reason of the difference of the purpose, it is not connected with its fruit (which is laid down.)

The author in support of his view gives another argument. The king's greatness consists in his splendour. Such an object can not be achieved if there are two priests. According to our author, the compound, सम्बन्धे द्वित्वेति is द्विगु.

पाक्षेः प्रत्यङ्गभावादसंबन्धः प्रतीयेत ॥ ६ । ६ । १५ ॥

पाक्षेः of the hand; प्रत्यङ्गभावात् by reason of the composite parts; असंबन्धः want of connection, प्रतीयेत is known.

15. By reason of the component parts of the hand, there appears to be no connection.

The author finally replies to the illustration of the hand given by the objector, just as an अङ्गुलि is formed by joining both hands, so no purpose is served by joining the king's two priests, it can only be achieved if the king and priest join together.

Adhikaraṇa III Sūtras 16—23 Dealing with the subject that only Brāhmanas are entitled to perform a यज्ञ.

सत्राणि सर्ववर्णानामविशेषात् ॥ ६ ॥ ६ ॥ १६ ॥

सत्राणि the सत्रsacrifices, सर्ववर्णानां of all castes ; अविशेषात् by reason of no speciality.

16. All castes are entitled to perform sacrificial sessions, there being no special (restriction).

य एष विद्वांसः सत्रमासते, य एष विद्वांसः समुपयति ॥ "Knowing this, they sit in a सत्र, knowing this, they undertake a सत्र" The objector says that all castes are entitled to perform a सत्रthere being no restriction in the above texts, conferring a right on a particular caste and debarring the other castes from exercising it. The text is of gneral applicability and no one is excluded under it.

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ ६ ॥ ६ ॥ १७ ॥

लिङ्गदर्शनात् by seeing the texts, च and

17. And by seeing the force of the text.

The objector relies on the text in support of his view बार्हिङ्गिरं ब्राह्मणस्य ब्रह्मसामकुप्यात् । पाथुरश्मराजन्यस्य । रायो वजीर्य वैश्यस्य ॥ "Of a ब्राह्मण here is बार्हिङ्गिर of the Vedic song to be sung, of a क्षत्रिय, पाथुरश्मः of vanāśya, रायोवाजीय hymn "

ब्राह्मणानां वेतरयोरातिर्वज्याभावात् ॥ ६ ॥ ६ ॥ १८ ॥

ब्राह्मणानां of the Brāhmanas, वा on the other hand, इतरयोः of the other two; अतिर्वज्याभावात् by reason of their being not entitled to be ऋत्विक्.

18. On the other hand only Brāhmanas are entitled ; the other two being not entitled to be ऋत्विक्.

The author gives his own सिद्धांत view and says that only ब्राह्मणस्य are entitled to perform a सत्र, as the other two are not entitled to be ऋत्विक्.

वचनादिति चेत् ॥ ६ ॥ ६ ॥ १९ ॥

वचनात् by reason of the Vedic authority; इति चेत् if you say.

19. If you say that under the Vedic authority.

The objector says that just as a Brāhmaṇa can be initiated as ऋत्विक्, so the other two castes can also be initiated as ऋत्विक् under the Vedic authority. ये वज्रमानास्ते ऋत्विजः "Those who are sacrificers are the priests."

न स्वामित्वं हि विधीयते ॥ ६ ॥ ६ । २० ॥

न not, स्वामित्वं ownership, हि because, विधीयते is laid down

20. No, because it lays down ownership.

The author says that the Vedic text lays down only the mastership but not the right to be a ऋत्विक्. In the text quoted in the commentary on sūtra 19 the यजमान is subject and ऋत्विक् is predicate but in this view, the ऋत्विक् is subordinate to the यजमान and, as for the purpose of the यजमान's purification, the text will, therefore, mean those who are ऋत्विक्s are यजमानs.

गार्हपते वा स्यातामविप्रतिषेधात् ॥ ६ । ६ । २१ ॥

गार्हपते in all ceremonies connected with the (गृहपति) master of the house, वा on the other hand, स्याताम् may be, अविप्रतिषेधात् by reason of there being no prohibition

21. On the other hand, they (ksatriya and vaiśya) may be entitled in the ceremonies connected with the गृहपति, because there is prohibition.

The objector says that in the domestic ceremonies, the two other castes may act as ऋत्विक् for there is no prohibition to that effect. In this connection, see sūtra 137 of कात्यायन श्रौतसूत्र chap. I and the commentary of कर्क on it.

न वा कल्पविरोधात् ॥ ६ । ६ । २२ ॥

न वा not so, कल्पविरोधात् by reason of the difference of sacrificial system

22. Not so, by reason of the difference of the sacrificial system.

The author says no, even in गार्हपते the two other castes can not act as ऋत्विक्, because the spoon of one contains soma juice and that of the other contains fruit juice (फल चमन). See at P P. 153, 166. The song to be sung by a Brāhmaṇa is गार्हपतिगिर that to be sung by a Ksatriya is पाथुरश्म and that to be sung by a Vaiśya is रायोवाजीय. See at p. 382. On account of this difference of sacrificial procedure the two other castes are not entitled to act as ऋत्विक् in गार्हपते.

स्वामित्वादितरेषामहीने लिङ्गदर्शनम् ॥ ६ । ६ । २३ ॥

स्वामित्वात् by-reason of the mastership, इतरेषां of others, अहीने in a sacrifice extending over a period for more than a day; लिङ्गदर्शनम् seeing the force of the text.

23. There is inference from the text in the sacrificial sessions extending over a period of 12 days by reason of the two other castes being the masters.

The author gives a reply to the objector's view embodied in सूत्र 17. The objector's argument was that as there are different songs prescribed for different castes, the inference was that all twice-born were entitled to perform a सत्र (see commentary on sūtra 22). The author says that the inferential force of the text goes to show the ownership (गृहपति) of the other castes in an अहीन sacrifice but not the right to act as कर्त्तिक.

Adhikaraṇa IV. Sūtras 24-26. Dealing with subject that विष्णुमित्र and of those who are of the same कर्ष्य are entitled to perform a sūtra.

वासिष्ठानां वा ब्रह्मत्वनियमात् ॥ ६ । ६ । २४ ॥

वासिष्ठानां of the Vasiṣṭhas, वा on the other hand; ब्रह्मत्वनियमात् by reason of the restriction as to the appointment of ब्रह्मा.

24. On the other hand, the Vasiṣṭhas by reason of their appointment as ब्रह्मा.

As to the Vasiṣṭhas, see commentary on sūtra 9 of the present pāda p. 379. In the previous Adhikaraṇa, it is shown that a Brāhmaṇa alone is entitled to perform a सत्र. The question is whether all the Brāhmaṇas are entitled to it or Brāhmaṇas of a certain गोत्र. The reply to this question according to one party is that only वासिष्ठs are entitled as they alone can be appointed ब्रह्मा in a sacrifice under a text वासिष्ठो ब्रह्मा भवति. A वासिष्ठ becomes a ब्रह्मा.

सर्वेषां वा प्रतिप्रसवात् ॥ ६ । ६ । २५ ॥

सर्वेषां of all; वा on the other hand, प्रतिप्रसवात् by reason of the possibility of recurrence of the prohibited.

25. On the other hand all, by reason of the probability of the recurrence of the prohibited.

There is another class of objectors, whose view is that all Brāhmaṇas without any-exception are entitled to perform a सत्र, because they all have power to do it under the text "य एव कश्चिन् स्तोत्रभातामधीक्षीत स एव ब्रह्मा भवेत्; any one who can read the portion of स्तोत्र, is entitled to become a ब्रह्मा."

विश्वामित्रस्य हौत्रनियमाद्भृगुशुनक्रवसिष्ठानामिनधि-

कारः ॥ ६ । ६ । २६ ॥

विश्वामित्रस्य of a विश्वामित्र, हौत्रनियमाद् by reason of his appointment as होता; भृगु शुनक्रवसिष्ठानां of भृगु, शुनक्र and वसिष्ठ, अनधिकारः no title.

26. By reason of a विश्वामित्र being appointed a होता, भृगु, शुनक्र and वसिष्ठ are not entitled.

Our author's view is that a ब्राह्मण of विश्वामित्र's family can alone be appointed a होता, so the family of भृगु, शुनक्र and वसिष्ठ is excluded and is not entitled to perform a सत्र.

Adhikaraṇa V. Sūtra-27-32 Dealing with the subject that a person who has performed अग्न्याधान is alone entitled to perform a सत्र.

विहारस्य प्रभुत्वादनग्नीनामपि स्यात् ॥ ६ । ६ । २७ ॥

विहारस्य of the fire temple, प्रभुत्वात् by reason of the ownership; अनग्नीनां of those who have not performed अग्न्याधान, अपि also; स्यात् is.

27. By reason of the common property of the temple, even a person who has not performed अग्न्याधान is entitled.

Before a sacrifice is commenced अग्न्याधान ceremony is performed. The fire is produced by rubbing two pieces of wood; it is invoked and मन्त्रः are chanted. This fire is preserved in a hearth as it is sacrificially operated upon. The objector says that a person who has not preserved the fire in the way mentioned above can take it from the hearth of one who has done it, because it is for the benefit or use of all. The word विहार is used in a special sense, according to one it means आहवनीय fire. In the dictionary it is used in the general sense of temple. According to Śabara "विहारस्तमभुत्वात्" means the competency of the fire of the person who has performed अग्न्याधान to confer benefit on others. It subsequently came to mean 'Buddhist monastery' perhaps from the fire hearth of आहवनीय.

सारस्वते च दर्शनात् ॥ ६ । ६ । २८ ॥

सारस्वते in a सारस्वत sacrifice, च and, दर्शनात् by seeing.

28. And by seeing in a सारस्वत sacrifice.

With reference to the सारस्वत सत्र there is a text "पररथैवा एते स्वर्गं कोढं वति वेज्याहि सत्येवसत्रमासते" The objector says in support of his view that it is said of a सत्र that "the sacrificers who without performing अग्न्याधान, establish a सत्र go to heaven with the materials of others", and this text supports his contention that both अहिताग्नि and अनाहिताग्नि are competent to perform a सत्र.

प्रायश्चित्तविधानाच्च ॥ ६ । ६ । २९ ॥

प्रायश्चित्त विधानात् by reason of prescribing a penance, च and,

29. And by reason of prescribing a penance.

The objector supports his view by quoting another text. यस्याहिताग्नेरन्यै रग्निभिरग्नयः संसृज्यन्ते अग्नये विविचये अष्टाकपालं निर्वपेत् ॥ "Those who take the fire from the fire of those who have kept it shall offer 8 cakes to the fire." The penance for taking the fire of another person who has performed अग्न्याधान goes to show that both अहिताग्नि and अनाहिताग्नि can perform a सत्र.

सामीनां वेष्टिपूर्वत्वात् ॥ ६ । ६ । ३० ॥

सामीनां of those who have performed अग्न्याधान, वा on the other hand, इष्टिपूर्वत्वात् by reason of having the libations in the beginning.

30. On the other hand, only those persons who have established their sacred fire, are entitled to perform a सत्र, because the इष्टि is performed previously.

The author gives his own siddhānta view in reply to the पूर्वोक्त view. He says that as इष्टि (fire offering) is performed previous to the performance of a सत्र, the अग्न्याधान is indispensable, the conclusion therefore is that only a person who has performed अग्न्याधान is entitled to perform a सत्र.

स्वार्थेन च प्रयुक्तत्वात् ॥ ६ । ६ । ३१ ॥

स्वार्थेन with one's own object, च and, प्रयुक्तत्वात् by reason of being engaged.

31. And by reason of being engaged for one's own object.

The author in support of his view says that one should establish his own fire, for that confers a special boon on the sacrificer. सामीनादधीत ॥ "Let him establish fire."

सन्निवापं च दर्शयति ॥ ६ । ६ । ३२ ॥

सन्निवापं the mixture of all fires, च and, दर्शयति shows.

32. And mixture of all fires shows.

The author advances another argument in support of his view सावित्रायि होष्यतः सन्निवदेत् " "Those who wish to perform सावित्री should mix fire." The text also goes to support the proposition, that only an आहिताग्नि is entitled to perform a सत्र.

Adhikaraṇa VI. Sūtras 33—35. Dealing with the subject that जुहु &c., should be new ones.

जुहुदीनामप्रयुक्तत्वात्संदेहे यथाकामी प्रतीयेत ॥६।६।३३॥

जुहुदीनी of the sacrificial spoon &c., ; अप्रयुक्तत्वात् by reason of being not used ; संदेहे in a doubt , यथाकामी just as one likes ; प्रतीयेत appears.

33. It appears that one should act according to his desires on a doubt arising by reason of the sacrificial spoons &c , being not used.

Some sacrificer prepared the sacrificial vessels for his own sacrificial use but no sacrifice was performed, now another sacrificer wishes to perform a sacrifice , can he borrow the vessels from the other for his own use or should he make new ones ? The objector says that he can borrow the vessels from another.

अपि वाऽन्यानि पात्राणि साधारणानि कुर्वीरन्विप्रति-
षेधाच्छास्त्रकृतत्वात् ॥ ६ । ६ । ३४ ॥

अपि वा not so, अन्यानि other, पात्राणि vessels; साधारणानि new, कुर्वीरन् should be made, विप्रतिषेधात् by reason of the prohibition; च and; शास्त्रकृतत्वात् by reason of the object of the Vedic authority.

34 Not so, other new vessels should be made by reason of the prohibition and the object of the holy scripture.

The author gives his own view He says that new vessels should be made "आहिताग्नि मग्निभिर्दहति यज्ञपात्रैश्च" "A person who has established fire, should be burnt with the fire and the sacrificial vessels " If you borrow the vessel from another and he dies in the meanwhile, your sacrifice will be interrupted, if you give back the vessels, but if you finish your sacrifice with the aid of those borrowed vessels, the cremation ceremony of the other will be defective Taking this prohibition and the objects of the texts into consideration you ought to make your own new vessels.

प्रायश्चित्तमापदि स्यात् ॥ ६ । ६ । ३५ ॥

प्रायश्चित्त a penance, आपदि in a calamity, स्यात् is

35. There is a penance in a calamity.

The author strengthens his position by सिङ्ग i. e., an inference arising from the text. In sūtra 29, a penance is mentioned when fire is borrowed for a sacrifice. In a calamity such as in a forest or while going or staying in a jungle, when there is a fear from the thieves or from the wild animals one can perform a sacrifice from the forest-fire. This also shows that such borrowing of fire or vessels can take place under certain circumstances for which there is a penance. The conclusion is that new vessels should be made for a sacrifice.

Adhikaraṇa VII. Sūtras. 37-38 Dealing with the right of the castes to recite 17 samidhant verses in a modified sacrifice.

पुरुषकल्पेन विकृतौ कर्तृनियमः स्यादज्ञस्य तद्गुण-
त्वादभावादितरान्प्रत्येकस्मिन्नधिकारः स्यात् ॥ ६ । ६ । ३६ ॥

पुरुषकल्पेन with the performance of the act by a particular person, वा on the other hand ; विकृतौ in a modified sacrifice , कर्तृनियमः the restriction as to the agent ; स्यात् is, यज्ञस्य of the sacrifice ; तद्गुणत्वाद् of its being subordinate, अभावाद् by reason of the absence ; इतरान् to others ; प्रति toward ; एकस्मिन् in one ; अधिकारः right , स्यात् is.

36. On the other hand by reason of the act to be performed by a person in a modified sacrifice, the restriction is as to the agent because that is subordinate to the sacrifice; being not applicable to the other, the right is vested in one only.

There are certain sacrifices called अक्षर कल्प and आश्रयवेष्टि in which 17 verses called सामवेदी verses are recited. The question is whether the recitation is to be done by all castes or by the Vaiśyas only. About विकृति it is said “सप्तदश सामवेदी रजुन् यात्” “One should repeat seventeen सामवेदी verses.” and about प्रकृति there is a text “सप्तदश जुन् यादृश्यत्”. “A Vaiśya should repeat 17 verses” The objector upon these authorities, says that as the recitation is to be performed by a particular person i. e., वैश्य in a model sacrifice, the Vaiśya will repeat the सामवेदी verses in a modified sacrifice also. By reason of mentioning the person, the rule is limited to the agent of the act. The recitation is subordinate to the sacrifice and as the text does not apply to castes other than the Vaiśya, the right to perform the recitation of the सामवेदी verses is therefore vested in one caste only.

लिङ्गाच्चेज्याविशेषवत् ॥ ६ । ६ । ३७ ॥

लिङ्गाच्चेज्या by reason of the force of the texts, च and; इज्याविशेषवत् like a special fire offering

37. And also from the force of the texts like a particular fire offering.

The objector strengthens his position by quoting the texts mentioned in the commentary on sūtra 36 and gives an illustration of a particular fire oblation. वैश्यो वैश्यस्तोमेन यजेत ॥ "A vaiśya should perform a sacrifice with a hymn of his caste."

न वा संयोगपृथक्त्वाद् गुणस्येज्याप्रधानत्वादसंयुक्ता
हि चोदना ॥ ६ । ६ । ३८ ॥

न वा not so, संयोगपृथक्त्वाद् by reason of the separation of the texts, गुणस्य of the subordinate, गुणप्रधानत्वाद् by reason of the oblation being principal; असंयुक्ता disconnected, हि because, therefore, चोदना command.

38. Not so, by reason of the subordinate being separately connected and the the fire offering being the principal, the command is therefore disconnected.

The author lays down his सिद्धांत view and says that all the three castes are entitled to repeat the सामवेदी verses. The texts referred to in the commentary on sūtra 36 are not connected with each other. The restriction of the recitation by the vaiśya is limited to the model sacrifice and the general statement is about the modified sacrifice. They occur in different contexts, further the recitation is a subordinate act and the इज्या is principal. So the विधि text of the one, does not apply to the other. The इज्या is for all castes, the repetition of the verses is, therefore, to be done by all castes.

इज्यायां तद्गुणत्वाद्विशेषेण नियम्येत ॥ ६ । ६ । ३९ ॥

इज्यायां in a fire oblation, तद्गुणत्वाद् that being subordinate; विशेषेण specially, नियम्येत is restricted.

39. In a fire oblation by reason of its being subordinate, it is specially restricted.

The author gives a reply to the illustration given by the objector in sūtra 37. The special fire oblation is under a special text. "वैश्यो वैश्यस्तो मेन यजेत". The special song is for a vaiśya when he sacrifices. It is a special sacrifice for a special community, this does not apply to all. So the सामवेदी verses are to be recited by all castes in a modified sacrifice,

PĀDA VII.

Adhikaraṇa I. Śāstra 1—2 Dealing with the subject that in a विश्वजित् sacrifice parents &c., can not be presented as a fee.

स्वदाने सर्वमविशेषात् ॥ ६ । ७ । १ ॥

स्वदाने in presenting or offering property ; सर्व the whole, all ; अविशेषात् by reason of there being no special or particular.

1. In giving the property (as fee) the whole should be paid by reason of there being nothing special.

The objector says “ विश्वजिति सर्वस्वं ददाति ” “He gives the whole wealth in a विश्वजित्.” The question is, what is the meaning of सर्वस्व? whether it means that a sacrificer shall give as the fee all that which is in his proprietary possession or all that he happens to possess such as parents &c? According to the objector the parents are included in the term ‘सर्वस्व’

यस्य वा प्रभुः स्यादितरस्याऽशक्यत्वात् ॥ ६ । ७ । २ ॥

यस्य of which, वा on the other hand, प्रभुः master, owner, स्यात् is, इतरस्य of others, अशक्यत्वात् by reason of no power or dominion

2 On the other hand, (he can give all) of which he is owner, because he has no power over others.

The author says that a sacrificer can give as fee all over which he has proprietary rights, the parents can not be presented as the fee of a priest because the sacrificer has no power on them i. e., they are not chattels and can not be transferred.

Adhikaraṇa III. Dealing with the subject that in a विश्वजित् sacrifice, land can not be given.

न भूमिः स्यात्सर्वान्प्रत्यविशिष्टत्वात् ॥ ६ । ७ । ३ ॥

न not, भूमिः land; स्यात् is, सर्वान् to all, प्रति to, अविशिष्टत्वात् by reason of its being common.

3. Not land (to be given) by reason of its being not special of any.

The author says that the landed property can not be given as a fee of विश्वजित् sacrifice because it is not a special property of any one, being vested in the Crown.

Adhikaraṇa III Dealing with the subject that in a विश्वजित् sacrifice, horse &c. can not be given.

अकार्यत्वाच्च ततः पुनर्विशेषः स्यात् ॥ ६ । ७ । ४ ॥

अकार्यत्वात् by reason of uselessness, च and; ततः from other wealth; पुनः over and above, विशेषः distinction; स्यात् is.

4. (Horses &c. should not be given) by reason of their being of no use (to the priest); therefore they are distinguishable from other wealth).

The author says that horses &c. should not be given to a priest as his burden, because they will be of no use to him, on the other hand they will be a burden on him. There is a text न केसरियोददाति, न उभयतोदतः प्रतिगृह्णाति. He does not give horses, he does not accept the animals who have two rows of teeth."

Adhikaraṇa I V. Dealing with the subject that in a विश्वजित् sacrifice, that wealth only which is in existence can be given.

नित्यत्वाच्चानित्यैर्नास्ति संबंधः ॥ ६ । ७ । ५ ॥

नित्यत्वात् by reason of permanency, च and, अनित्यैः permanent, uncertain, न not, अस्ति is, संबंधः connection

5. (Only things in existence should be given) by reason of their being permanent; there is no connection with things uncertain.

The question is whether the wealth which you have acquired and which is in your possession should be given or all the wealth that you will acquire in future is also included in the term सर्वस्व. The author's reply is that only the wealth which you have in your present possession is meant because it is certain, while the wealth which one will acquire in future is uncertain and can not, therefore, form a subject of gift.

Adhikaraṇa V. Dealing with the subject that in a विश्वजित् sacrifice, a pious servant should not be given

शूद्रश्च धर्मशास्त्रत्वात् ॥ ६ । ७ । ६ ॥

शूद्रः a Śūdra, च and, धर्मशास्त्रत्वात् by reason of his service out of piety.

6. And a servant should not be given by reason of his service out of piety.

A slave who serves the three higher castes out of regard for piety and his religious duty should not be given as fee and is therefore not included under the term सर्वस्व

Adhikaraṇa VI. Dealing with the subject that all wealth that may be present at the time of donation should be given.

दक्षिणाकाले यत्स्वं तत्प्रतीयेत तद्दानसंयोगात् ॥६।७।७॥

दक्षिणाकाले at the time of donation; यत् that; स्वं wealth; तत् that, प्रतीयेत is meant, is known, तद्दानसंयोगात् that being connected with gift.

7. The wealth (which is in existence) at the time of gift is meant, because that can form a subject of gift.

When the terms "all wealth" are used, do they include all past and future wealth? The author says that only that wealth is meant which is in existence at the time of gift as that alone can form a subject of gift.

Adhikaraṇa VII Sūtra 8—13 Dealing with the performance of the ceremonies after the payment of fee in a विश्वजित् sacrifice

अशेषत्वात्तदन्तः स्यात्कर्मणो द्रव्यसिद्धित्वात् ॥६।७।८॥

अशेषत्वात् there being no remainder, अन्तः end, स्यात् is, कर्मणः of an act; द्रव्यसिद्धित्वात् by reason of the success depending on the wealth

8 By reason of there being no remainder, it should be considered to be an end of it, because the success of an act depends on wealth (money).

When the fee has been paid, what should happen to the ceremonies such as अवष्टुय &c after payment? The sacrificer has kept no money in reserve and as he has paid all that he had in possession, the sacrifice, according to the objector's view should be considered to be at an end. The post-payment ceremonies depend on money, there being no money, the sacrifice must end with the payment of the fee

अपि वा शेषकर्म स्यात्क्रतोः प्रत्यक्षशिष्टत्वात् ॥६।७।९॥

अपि वा or also, not so, शेषकर्म the remaining act, स्यात् may be, क्रतोः of the sacrifice, प्रत्यक्ष शिष्टत्वात् by reason of its being laid down directly.

9. Not so; the remaining act of the sacrifice should be (finished) being laid down directly.

Another objector says that the sacrifice should be finished and the money should be kept in reserve for the performance of the ceremonies after the payment of the fee. The sacrificer has to divide his wealth into 3 portions (1) for his own use, (2) for the sacrificial purpose, (3) for fee. According to the view of the first objector embodied in sūtra 8, all the three kinds of wealth should be paid on the occasion of माध्यदिनसवन and the sacrifice should be considered as at an end. According to the second objector the whole should not be given, as the third day ceremony ending with उदवसानाय should have to be performed and a portion should be reserved; and the end of the sacrifice should not be considered with the माध्यदिनसवन.

तथा चान्यार्थदर्शनम् ॥ ६ । ७ । १० ॥

तथाच similarly; अन्यार्थदर्शनम् seeing other texts.

10. And similarly seeing other texts.

The second objector relies on the text अवष्टयावुदेत्य वत्सरचमाश्विदयति "Rising from the sacrificial bath, he spreads calf's skin." The sacrificial bath and spreading of calf's skin are the ceremonies which are to be performed. So on the payment of the fee on the occasion of माध्यदिनसवन, the विश्वजित् sacrifice should not be considered as at an end.

अथेषं तु समञ्जसादानेन शेषकर्म स्यात् ॥ ६ । ७ । ११ ॥

अथेषं entire, तु on the other hand, समञ्जस proper, आदानेन by acquiring new wealth; शेषकर्म remaining act, स्यात् shall be.

11. On the other hand, (the gift of the) whole is proper; the remaining act should be completed with the new acquisition of wealth.

The first objector replies and sticks to his view. The whole should be paid as the priest's fee on the occasion of माध्यदिनसवन and the तृतीय सवन should be performed by earning fresh money.

नादानस्यानित्यत्वात् ॥ ६ । ७ । १२ ॥

न not; आदानत्वं new acquisition, अनित्यत्वात् by reason of its uncertainty.

12. By reason of no certainty of the fresh acquisition.

The second objector's reply is that you can not depend upon future acquisition which is uncertain, while the remaining ceremonies are sure to be performed.

दीक्षासु विनिर्देशादक्रत्वर्थेन संयोगस्तस्मादविरोधः
स्यात् ॥ ६ । ७ । १३ ॥

दीक्षासु in initiations, तु on the other hand, विनिर्देशात् by direction; अक्रत्वर्थेन with that which is not the object of the sacrifice, संयोगः connection; तस्मात् therefore; अविरोधः no contradiction, स्यात् is.

13. On the other hand by reason of the direction, there is no connection with the wealth reserved for the sacrifice; therefore there is no contradiction.

The author gives his own final view. He says that it is laid down "प्रकृतौ एव ज्योतिष्टोमे" The ज्योतिष्टोम is the model sacrifice and in the विश्वजित् sacrifice, it is applicable by the चोदक text. The future earnings can not be given, the wealth for one's enjoyment and for the sacrifice can not be given. The whole wealth referred to, therefore, means the portion of the wealth reserved for the fee. In this view there is no contradiction or inconsistency.

Adhikarana VIII Sūtras 14—20. Dealing with the complete (entire) gift in a विश्वजित् sacrifice included in a sacrifice extending over a period of eight nights.

अहर्गणे च तद्धर्मः स्यात्सर्वेषामविशेषात् ॥ ६ । ७ । १४ ॥

अहर्गणे in an अष्टरात्र sacrifice, च and, तद्धर्मः just like it, स्यात् is, सर्वेषां of all, अविशेषात् by reason of no difference.

14. And in an अहर्गण sacrifice, the same rule applies, being applicable to all.

Before understanding the सूत्र, it is better to explain what अहर्गण is. It is also called अष्टरात्र. In an अष्टरात्र sacrifice which is an अहीन sacrifice, on the first day विश्वजित् is performed, then अभिप्लव which extends over a period of 6 days and lastly अभिजित्. There is a sacrifice extending over a period of 12 days called द्वादशाह. Now the question is, what is the fee of the विश्वजित् in those sacrifices which extend over a period of days? The author's reply is that in them also, the fee is the same, the sacrifice being of similar nature as the entire wealth as mentioned in the preceding adhikarana.

द्वादशशतं वा प्रकृतिवत् ॥ ६ । ७ । १५ ॥

द्वादशशतं twelve hundred, वा on the other hand, प्रकृतिवत् just like the model sacrifice.

15. On the other hand, the fee may be 1200, just like the model sacrifice.

The objector says that ज्योतिष्टोम is the model sacrifice and so the fixed fee is 1200 cows. This view is accepted by the चारिकार as the view of the author.

अतद्गुणत्वात् नैवं स्यात् ॥ ६ । ७ । १६ ॥

अतदुपयत्वात्, being not subordinate to it, दु on the other hand; नैव not so; इयात् 18.

16. On the other hand, being not subordinate to it, it can never be so.

The author gives a reply to the objection raised in sūtra 15. He says that विश्वजित् is not a subordinate act of अतिदोम but an independent act itself, so there can not be a fixed fee.

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ ६ । ७ । १७ ॥

लिङ्गदर्शनात् by seeing the force of the text, च and.

17. And by seeing the force of the text.

“हीयते वाप्य पशुभिर्यो विश्वजित् न सर्वस्वदाति”. “He who does not give the entire wealth in a विश्वजित् sacrifice, is deprived of all the cattle.” This goes to show that even in अहर्गण the same principle applies i. e. the whole wealth should be given in a विश्वजित् ceremony, even if it is included in an अहर्गण sacrifice.

Adhikarṇa: IX. Sūtras 18—20. Dealing with the subject that a person possessing less than 1200 is not entitled to perform विश्वजित्.

विकारः सन्नभयतोऽविशेषात् ॥ ६ । ७ । १८ ॥

विकारः modified sacrifice, सन् being; उभयतः both, अविशेषात् by reason of there being nothing special.

18. The viśvajit is a modified sacrifice; so both can, by reason of there being nothing special.

The question is whether a person who possesses wealth less than 1200 cows or above 1200 is entitled to perform a विश्वजित् sacrifice. The objector's view is that both of them are entitled to perform it, because there is nothing special about it.

अधिकं वा प्रतिप्रसवात् ॥ ६ । ७ । १९ ॥

अधिकं more, वा on the other hand, प्रतिप्रसवात् by reason of the possibility of recurrence of the prohibited.

19. On the other hand, above 1200 by reason of the possibility of recurrence of the prohibited.

The author's view is that a person who is possessed of 1200 cows is only entitled to perform the विश्वजित्. It means that persons having more cows than 1200¹ can also perform the sacrifice; but persons possessing less than 1200 cows are not entitled to perform it.

अनुग्रहाच्च पादवत् ॥ ६ । ७ । २० ॥

अनुग्रहात् by reason of indulgence or favour or inclusion; च and; पादवत् like a quarter.

20 And by inclusion just like one quarter.

The author gives an additional reason in support of his argument. In connection with उयेतिहोम 1200 cows are mentioned, then it is said, having procured so much, or on procuring wealth, one should invite a ऋत्विक्. The author says in sūtra 19 that on the principle of प्रतिप्रसव the 1200 is the lowest limit and can not mean less than 1200 but only above it. He advances a further argument in support of his view based on the principle of अनुग्रह viz., the whole includes less. One rupee includes a quarter of it also. When more than 1200 is mentioned, the more includes 1200 also.

Adhikarana X. Sūtras 21—22. Dealing with the subject that "unlimited should be given in an अन्याधान" mean other number

अपरिमिते शिष्टस्य सङ्ख्याप्रतिषेधस्तच्छ्रुतित्वात् ॥ ६ । ७ । २१ ॥

अपरिमिते in an unlimited, शिष्टस्य of that which is laid down, सङ्ख्याप्रतिषेधः prohibition of a number by reason of the direct text

21. When it is laid down that unlimited should be given, it means the prohibition of number by reason of the direct text.

There is a text as regards the establishment of fire "एकादेया, षड्देयाः द्वादशदेयाश्चतुर्विंशतिर्देयाः, शतदेवं सहस्रं देयम् अपरिमितं देयम्" "One should be given, six should be given, twelve should be given, twenty-four should be given; hundred should be given, thousand should be given, unlimited should be given" The question is what is the meaning of अपरिमितं in the text? Does it prohibit the giving of the परिमितं which is indicated by one, five, twelve, twenty-four, hundred and thousand or does it mean that अपरिमितं is something that should be given? The objector says that अपरिमितं means the prohibition of any number, because the word clearly means what is not limited by a number.

कल्पान्तरं वा तुल्यवत्प्रसङ्ख्यानात् ॥ ६ । ७ । २२ ॥

कल्पान्तरं another gift, वा on the the other hand, तुल्यवत् like equal; प्रसङ्ख्यानात् by reason of mentioning

22. On the other hand, it means another gift, by reason of mentioning the equal.

The author says that it can not mean prohibition ; it means another gift by reason of the mention of the gifts of similar number (ejusdem generis). • It means large gift.

Adhikaraṇa XI. Sūtras 23—25 Dealing with the subject that the word ' unlimited ' means above one thousand.

अनियमोऽविशेषात् ॥ ६ । ५ । २३ ॥

अनियमः no rule, अविशेषात् being nothing special.

23. There is no rule, by reason of there being nothing special.

In the preceding Adhikaraṇa we have seen that अपरिमित means large gift other than the number mentioned in the text. Now the question is whether it means above or below one thousand? The view of the objector is that there is no rule to fix it one way or the other, because there is nothing to make it special.

अधिकं वा स्याद्वबहूयत्वादितरेषां सन्निधानात् ॥ ६ । ७ । २४ ॥

अधिकं more, वा on the other hand, स्यात् is, बहूयत्वात् by reason of the meaning 'many', इतरेषां of other, सन्निधानात् by reason of the proximity.

24. On the other hand, अपरिमित means above 1000 by reason of the meaning of 'many'; on account of its being in proximity with other numerals.

The author says that अपरिमित means more than 1000; because 'many' includes it and the term occurs near one thousand.

अर्थवादश्च तदर्थवत् ॥ ६ । ७ । २५ ॥

अर्थवादः recommendation, च and; तदर्थवत् like it.

25. And the commendatory text is like it.

The author strengthens his position by another argument. He says that अपरिमित is only a recommendation of a number which can be above 1000 but not less than 1000.

Adhikaraṇa XII. Sūtras 26 - 30 Dealing with the subject that हति, ह, स &c., which are in the nature of परकृति and पुराकल्प are अर्थवादः.

. परकृतिपुराकल्पं च मनुष्यधर्मः स्यादर्थाय ह्यनुकीर्तनम् ॥ ६ । ७ । २६ ॥ because ; अर्थाय for the fruit , अनुकीर्तनम् recitation or narration.

परकृति any act done by an individual ; पुराकल्प any act done by a large number of individuals, च and ; मनुष्यधर्मः duty of a man ; स्यात् is; हि

26. The acts of one individual or of many individuals is a duty imposed upon man, the narration of the acts is for fruit or reward.

The परकृति is the narration of the acts of one individual, पुराकल्प is the narration of the acts of a community They are known by the terms इति, इ and स The question is whether these are the duties to be observed by all men, or by a particular community. The view embodied in the present सूत्र is that they are the duties imposed upon the whole human race; the reason is that they are to excite one to achieve a certain object like the particular individual or a number of the individuals It is according to the objector मनुष्यमात्रविधि

तदुक्ते च प्रतिषेधात् ॥ ६ । ७ । २७ ॥

तदुक्ते on being connected with it; च and, प्रतिषेधात् by reason of the prohibition.

27. And on being connected with that (निंदा), by reason of the prohibition.

“अमेध्यावैमाषा. The beans are impure on account of the calumny attached.” It is a निषेधविधि In sūtra 26, the objector has (स्तुति) praise in his mind and in सूत्र 27 he has निंदा in view The acts of ancient people in by-gone age are either good or bad. The former are praised and the bad are spoken ill. The good acts are to be followed by all men but the bad acts are to be spurned by all

निर्देशाद्वा तदुर्मः स्यात्पञ्चाशत्तवत् ॥ ६ । ७ । २८ ॥

निर्देशात् by mentioning (a particular clan), वा on the other hand, तदुर्मः of that clan., स्यात् is, पञ्चाशत्तवत् like the division of rice into 5 portions.

28. On the other hand, by mentioning (a particular clan) it may belong to that (clan) like the division of rice into 5 portions.

Here is the second objector ; he says that परकृति and पुराकल्पा are not the duties to be observed by the whole human race ; they are only to be observed by a particular community, just as (“पञ्चावर्तजमद्वीना”) पञ्चावर्त is to be performed by the family of जमदग्नि by reason of the name being mentioned. पञ्चावर्त is described in अश्वलायनश्रौतसूत्र. It is a division of चक्षु into five portions. See पाचवर्त dictionary.

विधी तु वेदसंयोगादुपदेशः स्यात् ॥ ६ । ७ । २९ ॥

विधी on the command; तु on the other hand, वेद संयोगात् by reason of the connection with the scripture; उपदेशः exhortation, general statement; स्यात् 18.

29. On the other hand, a command by reason of its connection with the scripture, is a general statement.

The first objector says 'no'. The विधि by reason of the sanction from the Veda becomes a प्रवर्तकवाक्य. It is binding on all men.

अर्थवादो वा विधिषेवत्वात्तस्मान्नित्यानुवादः स्यात्

॥ ६ । ७ । ३० ॥

अर्थवादः discretionary or recommendatory, वा on the other hand, विधिषेवत्वात् being subordinate to a commandatory text, तस्मात् therefore, नित्यानुवादः permanent repetition or restatement, स्यात् 19

30. On the other hand, it is only a recommendation being subordinate to a command, therefore it is a permanent re-statement.

The author gives his own view. He says that it is not a command for a particular community or for the whole human race. It is a recommendation of a certain विधि to be found elsewhere. It is an अर्थवाद praising or deprecating certain commands or prohibition called विधि or निषेध.

Adhikaraya XIII Sūtras 31 - 40 Dealing with the subject that 'thousand years' mean thousand days.

सहस्रसंवत्सरं तदायुषामसंभवान्मनुष्येषु ॥ ६ । ७ । ३१ ॥

सहस्रसंवत्सरं thousand years, तदायुषां of that age असंभवात् by reason of impossibility, मनुष्येषु in mankind

31. One thousand years; by reason of that age being impossible amongst men.

पंचरंवाशतस्त्रिवृत्तः सम्बत्सराः पंचपंचाशतः पंचदशाः पंचपंचाशतः सप्तदशाः पंचपंचाशत एकविंशः त्रिंशसृजामयनं सहस्र सम्बत्सरं "Three times, fiftyfive years, 15 times, 55 years, seventeen times, fiftyfive years; twenty one times, fifty five years: that is thousand years are the limit of त्रिंशसृज्." The त्रिंशसृज् is to be performed within 1000 years. The question is, who is entitled to perform it? As a man can not attain that age, he is, according to the objector, not entitled to perform it. It is according to him, the gods only who can perform it by reason of their longevity. This is the first view.

अपिवा तदधिकारान्मनुष्यधर्मः स्यात् ॥ ६ । ७ ॥ ३२ ॥

अपिवा not so, तदधिकारात् by reason of his right to it; मनुष्यधर्मः duty of the man; स्यात् is.

32. Not so; being mentioned in connection with man's duties, it is his duty to perform it.

The second objector says 'no'. You are wrong when you say that it is the duty to be performed by gods on a count of the longevity. It is mentioned in connection with the duties of man, so men are entitled to it. Those who can attain that age by taking elixir vitae or can prolong their life by other processes, are entitled to it. According to the view of this objector, only perfect men (सिद्धपुरुष) are entitled to perform विश्वरजः. This is the second view.

नासामर्थ्यात् ॥ ६ । ७ । ३३ ॥

न not, असामर्थ्यात् by reason of the powerlessness

33. No; by reason of the powerlessness.

The first objector says that the elixir vitae has no such power that it may prolong one's life शतायुर्वैपुरुषः "A man is of hundred years' age."

सम्बन्धादर्शनात् ॥ ६ । ७ । ३४ ॥

संबन्धादर्शनात् by seeing no connection

34. By seeing no connection.

He strengthens his position by saying that there is no connection with the medicine and 1000 year's age, it may make a man stronger but a man of 1000 years is not seen. There is, therefore, no connection and no inference can be made about this long age.

स कुलकल्पः स्यादिति कार्णाजिनिरेकस्मिन्नसंभवात्

॥ ६ । ७ । ३५ ॥

सः that; कुलकल्पः performance of a generation; स्यात् is, इति end; कार्णाजिनिः the name of a Rishi, एकस्मिन् in one, असंभवात् by impossibility.

35. "It may be the performance of a generation" says Kāṇva-jini by reason of the impossibility in one man.

Then there is a third view of Kārṣṇajini. He says, that such a big sacrifice may be completed by his descendants in several generations.

अपि वा कृत्स्नसंयोगादेकस्यैव प्रयोगः स्यात् ॥६॥७॥३६॥

अपि वा not so, or also; कृत्स्नसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the complete whole; एकस्य of one, एव only, प्रयोगः performance; स्यात् is.

36. Not so, by reason of the connection with the completion of the whole, the performance is by one alone.

It is in reply to the third view. In as much as the result of an act reverts to the agent, so the sacrifice is not to be performed by several agents who may be born in future. The whole act is to be performed by one man in his life so as to achieve its fruit. What is the use of commencing an act and then not completing it in one's own life and not reaping its fruit? This is the fourth view according to माजद; this objector thinks that by undertaking the विश्वस्य one attains that age.

विप्रतिषेधात्तु गुणव्यन्यतरः स्यादिति लावुकायनः ॥६॥७॥३७॥

विप्रतिषेधात् by reason of contradiction, तु on the other hand, गुणी the secondary sense, व्यन्यतरः another, स्यात् is, इति end; लावुकायनः the Rṣi of the name.

37. "On the other hand", says Lābukāyana "to avoid contradiction the other is in a secondary sense".

The view of लावुकायन is that the word सहस्र is used in the the secondary sense. According to this view 250 persons can complete the विश्वस्य in four years, thus making up the total of 1000 years. This is the fifth view.

संवत्सरो विधासित्वात् ॥ ६ । ७ । ३८ ॥

संवत्सरः years, विधासित्वात् by reason of changing.

38. (There may be secondary sense attached to) year by reason of changeability.

According to the view embodied in the present सूत्र, the number 1000 can not be used in a secondary sense; it is fixed. According to this view a year is, therefore, used in a secondary sense which is variable. There are solar, lunar and seasonal years. You can take the year to mean any of them. This is the sixth view.

सा प्रकृतिः स्यादधिकारात् ॥ ६ । ७ । ३९ ॥

सा that; प्रकृतिः model, स्यात् is, अधिकारात् by reason of the right.

39. That (secondary sense) is accepted, it would be the sense in which it is used in a model sacrifice by reason of the right.

The विश्वसृज् is a modified sacrifice and the model sacrifice is गवामघ्नः. There the term is used in the sense of a month. यो वै मासः संवत्सरः "What is 'month' is a year" This is also impossible because no one can perform a sacrifice for a thousand months i. e. 83 years and 4 months.

The संवत्सर can not, therefore, mean a month; No one will like to undertake a life-long sacrifice which is to last for 83 years and 4 months after अन्याधान at the age of 25

'द्वादशै रात्रयः संवत्सरस्य प्रतिमा' "Twelve nights constitute the form of a year" According to this text, a संवत्सर means 12 nights, making up 33 years and 4 months of 12000 nights, this is also not a correct view because the term संवत्सर is connected with the term प्रतिमा (form) This is the seventh view.

अहानि वाऽभिसंख्यत्वात् ॥ ६ । ७ । ४० ॥

अहानि days, वा on the other hand, अभिसंख्यात्वात् by reason of enumeration

40. On the other hand, it means a day by reason of enumeration.

The final and the eighth view which is the author's view, is that the term संवत्सर is used in the sense of a day. He relies on the Vedic text आदित्यो वा सर्वं ऋतवः, सयदैवादेत्यथ वसंतो, यदा संगवोऽथग्रीष्मो, यदा मध्यं दिनो य वर्षा यदा पराह्णो य शरत्, यदाऽस्तमेत्यथ हेमन्तं शिशिरौ "The sun is all seasons, when he rises it is spring, when he enters the second quarter it is summer, when he is in the middle, it is a rainy season, when it is after-noon it is autumn, when he sets, it is हेमन्त and winter" So in a day all the six seasons are complete, the Vedic text i. e. श्रुति is, therefore, superior to किं (secondary sense).

END OF PĀDA VII.

PĀDA VIII.

Adhikaraṇa I. Sūtras 1 to 10 Dealing with the subject that only a person who has not performed अन्याधान is entitled to अनुहोतृ होम.

इष्टिपूर्वत्वादक्रतुशेषो होमः संस्कृतेष्वाग्निषु स्यादुपूर्वोऽप्याधानस्य सर्वशेषत्वात् ॥ ६ । ८ । १ ॥

इष्टिपूर्वत्वात् by reason of the precedence of the fire-offerings ; अक्रतुशेषः not subordinate to any sacrifice, होम fire-offering ; संस्कृतेषु in the consecra-

एषा, अग्निर्गु in the fire ; स्वात् is; अपूर्वः new ; अग्नि also; अथावत् of the establishnot it of fire ; सर्वशेषत्वात् being subsidiary to all.

1. By reason of the fire-offerings being in the beginning, the in homa which is not subordinate to any sacrifice is to be performed in a consecrated fire, though independent in itself by reason of the अग्न्याधान being subordinate to all.

प्रजाकामं चतुर्होत्रायाजयेत्. "One who is desirous of children, should be made to perform चतुर्होत्र होम." This text occurs in connection with द्विर्होम. There are चतुर्होत्र verses which are recited at the time of the performance of a na of that name. Now the question is, in what kind of fire, these offerings should be made? Whether it should be consecrated fire or common fire? The reply of the objector is that it should be in a consecrafirst fire ; he gives 4 reasons (1) that it is preceded by इष्टि; (2) it is not subordinate to any sacrifice. (3) The द्विर्होम is अपूर्व and (4) the अग्न्याधान subordinate to all.

इष्टित्वेन तु संस्तवश्चतुर्होत्रनसंस्कृतेषु दर्शयति ॥६॥८॥

इष्टित्वेन as an इष्टि, संस्तवः praise, चतुर्होत्र the चतुर्होत्र homa, असंस्कृतेषु in the common fire, दर्शयति shows.

2. On the other hand, the praises are of इष्टि; it appears that the चतुर्होत्र होम is to be performed in the non-consecrated fire.

एषावा अनाहिताग्नेरिष्टिर्यचतुर्होत्रात्: "It is a fire-oblation of those who have not established fire, it is that which is called चतुर्होत्र." The author gives a reply with the authority of the above text in view; he says that the praise is of the इष्टि and the चतुर्होत्रहोम is performed in common fire.

उपदेशस्त्वपूर्वत्वात् ॥ ६ । ८ । ३ ॥

उपदेशः injunction; तु on the other hand; अपूर्वत्वात् by reason of 'its being अपूर्व.

3. The injunction (as to its being subordinate to no sacrifice) is to avoid fruitlessness.

The author supports his view by another reasoning that the text is a विधि, as the ceremony is not subordinate to any sacrifice, in this view only, the text conveys a meaning, otherwise it will be meaningless.

स सर्वेषामविशेषात् ॥ ६ । ८ । ४ ॥

सः it, सर्वेषां of all; अविशेषात् by reason of no speciality.

4. The injunction refers to all, because there is nothing special about it.

The objector steps in and says that there is no special term to restrict the text to a person who has not performed अग्निपात्रम्. It refers to both whether he has established fire or not.

अपि वा कृत्वभावाद्नाहिताग्नेरशेषभूतनिर्देशः ॥६॥८॥५॥

अपि वा not so, कृत्वभावाद् by reason of the absence of the sacrifice; अनाहितान्ते: of a person who has not established fire, अशेषभूतनिर्देशः direction as to its being not subordinate to any.

5. Not so; it is to be performed by a person who has not performed अग्निपात्रम् by reason of there being no sacrifice; there is a direction of its being not subordinate to any sacrifice.

The author meets the objection of the objector and says that the अग्निपात्रम् is not subordinate to any sacrifice, nor is it a sacrifice: so any one who has not established fire can perform it.

जपो वाऽनग्निसंयोगात् ॥ ६ । ८ । ६ ॥

जपः recitation, वा on the other hand, अनग्निसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the unconsecrated fire.

6. On the other hand, it is only a repetition of the mantras because there is a mention of the unconsecrated fire.

The objector further says that because there are offerings to be made to the unconsecrated fire along with the repetition of the mantras, जपेन may be regarded as mere uttering of the mantras.

इष्टित्वेन संस्तुते होमः स्यादनारभ्याग्निसंयोगादितरेषामवाच्यत्वात् ॥ ६ । ८ । ७ ॥

इष्टित्वेन as an इष्टि, तु on the other hand, संस्तुते on being praised; होमः Homa, स्यात् is; अनारभ्याग्निसंयोगात् by reason of the connection of the fire with the general statement, इतरेषां of others; अवाच्यत्वात् by reason of meaninglessness.

7. On the other hand, on its being praised as इष्टि it is homa by reason of the general statement; in the other case to avoid meaninglessness.

The sūtra is not very clear; the author says that you interpret the text एवा अनाहिताग्नेरिष्टि to mean that this performance of the person who has not established fire resembles इष्टि. It is far-fetched, the simile is meaningless; the अर्थवाद fails. The text therefore means that this इष्टि pertains to the person who has not established fire, thus interpreted the text conveys sense and it is in praise of इष्टि.

उभयोः पितृयज्ञवत् ॥ ६ । ८ । ८ ॥

उभयोः of both; पितृयज्ञवत् like the offerings to the departed

8 Of both, like the offerings to the manes.

There is another objector who says that चतुर्होतृ is to be performed by both the persons who have established fire and who have not established fire just as in the case of the पितृयज्ञ.

निर्देशो वाऽनाहिताग्नेरनारभ्याग्निसंयोगात् ॥ ६ । ८ । ९ ॥

निर्देशः direction, वा on the other hand, अनाहिताग्नेः of a person who has not established fire; अनारभ्याग्निसंयोगात् by reason of the connection of the fire with the general statement.

9 On the other hand, the direction is as to the person who has not established fire, by reason of the connection of the fire with the general statement.

The author gives a reply that the text refers to the person who has not established fire, it does not contemplate both sorts of persons. अनारभ्याचीत is a general statement which does not refer to a particular state of things, those संज्ञा the applicability of which is not mentioned, may be read in a ब्रह्मयज्ञ. What the author means is that the चतुर्होतृ संज्ञा are not mentioned to belong to any particular ceremony; their applicability to अनाहिताग्नि is mentioned under a direct text and this establishes that the चतुर्होतृहोम is to be performed by a person who has not established fire.

पितृयज्ञे संयुक्तस्य पुनर्वचनम् ॥ ६ । ८ । १० ॥

पितृयज्ञे in the offerings to the departed, संयुक्तस्य of the combined, or composite, पुनः again, वचनम् a text.

10. Again in a पितृयज्ञ there is a text which applies to both.

The objector gave an example of the offerings to the manes. The author says in reply that there is a text in connection with it which per mits both the अद्वितीय and अनाद्वितीय to perform it but such is not the case in अद्वितीय होम.

Adhikaraṇa II, Sūtras II—19, Dealing with the subject that उपनयनहोम is to be performed in an unconsecrated fire.

उपनयनादधीत होमसंयोगात् ॥ ६ । ८ । ११ ॥

उपनयन् a person whose उपनयन ceremony is to be performed; आदधीत should establish fire, होमसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with homa.

11. A person whose उपनयन ceremony is to be performed should establish fire by reason of the connection with homa.

There is a text “उपनयनैर्विद्वन्निहुयात्” “A person who is undergoing the ceremony of the sacred thread should make three offerings” The question is whether the offerings should be made in the consecrated fire or the unconsecrated fire. The objector says that they should be made in the consecrated fire because the homa is connected with the उपनयन ceremony.

स्थपतीष्टवल्लौकिके वा विद्याकर्मानुपूर्वत्वात् ॥ ६ । ८ । १२ ॥

स्थपतीष्टिबत् like the स्थपतीष्टि, लौकिके in the unconsecrated fire, वा on the other hand, विद्याकर्मानुपूर्वत्वात् by reason of the knowledge and act having preceded it.

12. On the other hand, it should be performed in the unconsecrated fire like the स्थपतीष्टि, by reason of the knowledge and act preceding the अग्निवाचन.

The author's reply is that such offerings should be made in the unconsecrated fire like the स्थपतीष्टि which will be described in the next अधिकरण. The reason is that the consecration of the fire presupposes knowledge and action, which one can not have before the sacred thread.

आधानं च भार्यासंयुक्तम् ॥ ६ । ८ । १३ ॥

आधानं establishment of fire, च and, भार्यासंयुक्तम् in the company of a wife.

13. And the consecration of fire is in the company of his wife.

The author strengthens his position by saying that the consecration of fire is performed in the company of one's wife, this also shows that the उपनयनहोम which precedes the marriage is performed in an unconsecrated fire.

अकर्म श्रीध्वमाधानात्तत्तसमवायो हि कर्मणि ॥६५॥१४॥

अकर्म no act; च and, अर्ध्व subsequent to; आधानात् after the establishment of fire, तत्तसमवायः her company; हि because; कर्मणि with the acts.

14 And marriage after the establishment of fire is not for the sacrificial act, because its affinity is with the act.

The objector says that the marriage after the consecration of fire is for the purpose of procreation and there should be another wife for the establishment of fire. The reply of the author is that the marriage after the consecration of fire is not for the consecration of sacrificial act but in reality for procreation, because the consecration is connected with the sacrificial act. So there can be only one marriage possible

आहुवदिति चेत् ॥ ६ । ८ । १५ ॥

आहुवत् like the offerings to the manes, इति चेत् if you say.

15. If you say that it is like the offerings to the manes.

The objector says that just as the offerings to the manes can be made in the consecrated and unconsecrated fire, so there can be two wives for different purposes at two different times.

न श्रुतिविप्रतिषेधात् ॥ ६ । ८ । १६ ॥

न not, श्रुतिविप्रतिषेधात् by reason of the prohibition enjoined by the Veda.

16. No, by reason of the prohibition enjoined by the Veda.

The author's reply is that it is enjoined that 'स्नातोद्वहेत्' the marriage should be performed after the completion of the Vedic study thus prohibiting a marriage before the completion of it

सर्वार्थत्वाच्च पुत्रार्थो न प्रयोजयेत् ॥ ६ । ८ । १७ ॥

सर्वार्थत्वात् by reason of fulfilling all objects, च and, पुत्रार्थः desirous of a son, न not, प्रयोजयेत् not engage.

17. And by reason of fulfilling all objects, one desirous of procreation only, should not engage.

The author further removes the doubt that by marriage all worldly and heavenly objects are fulfilled, one should not marry merely for the purpose of procreation. This sūtra may be considered to embody the author's view or the objector's view; it is consistent in either view. धर्मे चार्थेष्वङ्गमिच्छनातिचरितव्या "She should not be disregarded in religious and wordly acts and desires."

सोमपानात्तु प्रापणं द्वितीयस्य तस्मादुपयच्छेत् ॥६।८।१८॥

सोमपानात् by reason of drinking soma, तु on the other hand; प्रापणं getting; द्वितीयस्य of the second; तस्मात् therefore; उपयच्छेत् should marry.

18. On the other hand, by reason of drinking soma, there is the marriage with a second wife; therefore one should marry.

The author says that there is a text "सोमपाने द्वितीयां जायामभ्यवृषते" "a soma drinker does not trouble his second wife" which shows that one can have a second wife under a certain contingency; but one can not have a wife for the performance of sacred thread ceremony.

पितृयज्ञे तु दर्शनात्प्रागाधानात्प्रतीयेत ॥ ६।८।१९॥

पितृयज्ञे in the offerings to the manes, तु on the other hand, दर्शनात् by seeing, प्राग् before, आधानात् before the establishment of fire; प्रतीयेत it appears.

19. On the other hand, in the पितृयज्ञ by seeing (the text) it appears that it can be performed even before the establishment of fire.

The author says that there is a text in connection with the पितृयज्ञ. "अप्यनाहिताग्निना कार्यः" "It should be performed also by one who has not established fire." You say that there are two wives for two different purposes (see सूत्र 15 at p. 407) but there is the above text from which the inference is that even persons who have not established the sacred fire, can perform it by the force of the word 'also' which occurs in the text, but such is not the case in the उपनयनहोम which is performed only in an unconsecrated fire.

Adhikaraṇa III. Sūtras 20-21. Dealing with the subject that the स्थपतीहि is performed in the unconsecrated fire.

स्थपतीष्टिः प्रयाजवदग्न्याधेयं प्रयोजयेत्तादृर्ध्याञ्चवा-
पवृज्येत ॥ ६।८।२०॥

स्थपतीहि a sacrifice which is to be performed by a स्थपति caste; प्रयाजवत् like प्रयाज offering; अग्न्याधेयं the establishment of fire; प्रयोजयेत् should employ or make; तादृश्यात् for the object of it; च and; अग्नयेऽस्य should be consigned to the fire.

20. The हव्यपतीष्टि should be performed like the प्रयाज offerings in the consecrated fire and for that object, the offerings be consigned to the fire.

As to हव्यपतीष्टि see कात्यायन श्रौत सूत्र chap I sūtra 12. There is a text in connection with the हव्यपतीष्टि, "एतया निषादहव्यपतिं याजयेत्" "By this, let him make निषाद हव्यपति perform a sacrifice." See chap. VI पाद 1. Sūtras 51-52. The question is whether such इष्टि should be performed in the consecrated fire, or the unconsecrated fire. The objectors' reply is that it should be performed in the consecrated fire, just as प्रयाज offerings are made without reciting मन्त्र, so they should be made in the हव्यपतीष्टि. The offerings should be made in the fire consecrated for the purpose.

अपि वा लौकिकेऽग्नी स्यादाधानस्यासर्वशेषत्वात्

॥ ६।८।२१ ॥

अपि वा not so; लौकिके unconsecrated; अग्नी in fire; आत् is, आधानस्य of the establishment of fire, असर्वशेषत्वात् by reason of being not subordinate to any sacrifice.

21. Not so, it should be made in the unconsecrated fire, because the अग्न्याधान is not subordinate to any sacrifice.

The author's reply is that the हव्यपतीष्टि should be performed in an unconsecrated fire, because अग्न्याधान is not subordinate to any ceremony.

Adhikaraṇa IV. Dealing with the subject that an animal offered as a penance for the breach of a vow by a religious student, is to be made in an unconsecrated fire.

अवकीर्णपशुश्च तद्वदाधानस्याग्नाप्तकालत्वात् ॥६।८।२२॥

अवकीर्णपशुः an animal offered as a penance for a breach of the vow by a religious student, च and, तद्वत् like it; आधानस्य of the establishment of fire; अग्नाप्तकालत्वात् by reason of its time not arriving.

22. And the animal to be offered as a penance for a breach of the vow by a religious student is to be done like it, because the time for the establishment of fire has not arrived.

The sūtra refers to गृध्रदेव्या; in this connection see sūtras 18—17 of the chap I of कात्यायन श्रौत सूत्र. The present sūtra embodies the सिद्धांत. When a religious student who is bound to observe the vow of celibacy, goes astray, he is to perform गण्डमेष्ट्या as a pñhance. Now the question is in which fire is the animal to be offered? The reply according to our author is, that it should be done in the unconsecrated fire because the time for consecration of fire is after the completion of the (ब्रह्मचर्याभ्यस) students' life. The subject is fully discussed by कात्यायन in the श्रौत सूत्र ब्रह्मचार्यवकीर्णो नैवृत्तगण्डभक्षोक्त "A religious student who goes astray, shall offer an ass consecrated to नैवृत्त."

Adhikarṇa V. Sūtras 23—24 Dealing with the subject that the offerings to the gods should be made when the sun is in the north &c.

उदगयनपूर्वपक्षाहः पुण्याहेषु दैवानि स्मृतिरूपान्यार्थ-
दर्शनात् ॥ ६ । ८ । २३ ॥

उदगयनपूर्वपक्षाहःपुण्याहेषु when the sun is in the north, in the first half of the month in the day and on some auspicious occasion, दैवानि the godly ceremonies, स्मृतिरूपाणि of those that belong to smṛiti as opposed to श्रौत कर्म, अन्यार्थ दर्शनात् by seeing the text of the smṛitis.

23 All the domestic ceremonies should be performed when the sun is in the north and in the first half of the month, during the day on some auspicious occasion, because there is a smṛiti text.

The ceremonies have been divided into दैव and पृथ्व्य. The former are again subdivided into श्रौत and स्मार्त. The author says that all the स्मार्तदैवकर्मा should be performed when the sun is in the north, in the bright half of the month, during the day and on some auspicious occasion. एतद्वै देवानां रूपं यदुदगयनं पूर्वपक्षोदः ॥ "It is the form of the gods, viz., winter solstice, the bright half of the month and day."

अहनि च कर्मसाकल्यम् ॥ ६ । ८ । २४ ॥

अहनि in the day, च and, कर्म साकल्यम् completion of the whole ceremony.

24. And the whole ceremony should be performed during the day.

The author says that the ceremony should be performed during the day but not in the night.

Adhikarṇa VI. Dealing with the subject that the offerings to the manes should be made when the sun is in the south and in the latter half of a month and at night.

इतरेषु तु पित्र्याणि ॥ ६ । ९ । २५ ॥

इतरेषु in the other, तु on the other hand, पित्र्याणि the offerings to the manes.

25. On the other hand, the offerings to the manes should be made in the other:

The author says that the पितृकर्म should be performed when the sun is in the south and in the latter i. e., dark half of the month, at night after the summer solstice.

Adhikarapa VII. Sūtra: 26-27. Dealing with the subject that begging alms and purchasing (soma) which are parts of ज्योतिहोम are permanent.

याचजाक्रयणमविद्यमाने लोकवत् ॥ ६ । ८ । २६ ॥

याचजाक्रयण begging and purchasing, अविद्यमाने on not having; लोकवत् just as in worldly matters.

26. Begging and purchasing should be done when one has not, just as it happens in the worldly affairs.

In connection with the ज्योतिहोमयज्ञ there is a text "द्वादश रात्रीर्दीक्षितो जुर्वि वन्वीत सोमं प्रीणाति". An initiated one begs alms for twelve nights and purchases some?," Now the question is whether a person who is penniless and has therefore no means of maintenance, should beg? and who has no soma, should purchase or all irrespective of wealth should do it? The reply according to the objector is that only those who have no means should beg and those who have no soma, should purchase it, because we see that in common life those persons who have nothing in possession should beg and those who have not the article wanted, should purchase it.

नियतं वार्थवत्वात्स्यात् ॥ ६ । ८ । २७ ॥

नियतं certain; वा on the other hand; अर्थवत्वात् by reason of their being for a purpose; स्यात् is.

27. On the other hand, they are to be done always by reason of their being for a purpose.

The author says that begging of the alms and purchasing of the soma should be done invariably, the possession of the same is immaterial. You are to obey the command of the Veda; otherwise the whole ceremony will be fruitless.

Adhikarapa VIII. Dealing with the subject that in ज्योतिहोम &c. the milk diet &c. are permanent.

तथा भक्षप्रैषाच्छादनसंज्ञमहोमद्वेषम् ॥ ६ । ८ । २८ ॥

सप्त similarly : भक्ष food ; प्रैष order; आच्छादन dress; संज्ञमहोम performance of संशय होम (to avert evil); द्वेष repetition of certain mantra (to avert enmity).

28. Similarly food, command, dress, सङ्गपनहोम and enmity.

In a उपोविष्टोम sacrifice, certain formalities are observed; a Brāhmaṇa lives on milk, a Kṣatriya on gruel and a Vaiśya on अमिक्षा (milk). In new and full moon sacrifices certain orders are given "Bring me प्रोक्षणी, get fuel ready &c.;" in a वाजपेय, one has to put on grass dress and has to perform संशयहोम and recite द्वेषमन्त्र. संशय होम is performed when one's animal has a liver complaint or has been hurt in the thigh or the leg. The द्वेष mantra is योस्मान् द्वेष्टि यंचवयद्विष्मः "One who is hostile to us and the one to whom we are hostile." (A V II. 11, 3) The question is, whether these rites are observed when one has not got those things or irrespective of them? It may be made clear thus, when one has no other food he may live on milk, gruel or whey, when one has no cloth dress, he may put on grass dress; one whose animal has vomited bile or has been hurt in the thigh or leg, should perform संशय होम: one who has got an enemy, he must recite the द्वेषमन्त्र. The author's view is whether you have them or not, they are permanent rites and should be performed.

Adhikarapa IX.—Dealing with the subject that there is no rule as to breaking of a fast in the last part of night.

अनर्थकं त्वनित्यं स्यात् ॥ ६ । ८ । २६ ॥

अनर्थकं fruitless, but on the other hand, अनित्यं not permanent; स्यात् is

29. On the other hand, (when it is apprehended that it will be) fruitless, it is not permanent.

According to शबर a fast is broken in the midday or after the midnight in a उपोविष्टोम. When a man has a complaint of indigestion, should he observe the fast strictly? The author's reply is 'no'; if the sacrificer by observing the rule strictly, dies of indigestion the whole sacrifice will become fruitless. So the rule may be relaxed and the sacrificer may break his fast to suit his convenience.

Adhikarapa X. Sūtras 30—42. Dealing with the subject that a goat is the animal for Agni and Some gods.

पशुसोदनायामनियमोऽविशेषात् ॥ ६ । ८ । ३० ॥

पशुसोदनायाम् where it is laid down as regards an offering of an animal, अनियमम् no rule, अविशेषात् there being nothing special.

30 Where it is laid down as to an offering of an animal, there is no rule for want of anything special.

In connection with अग्निसोम it is said योदीक्षितो यदग्नीषोमीयं पशुमाहुमते ॥ "an initiated offers an animal to Agni and Soma." The question is what animal should be offered? According to the objector, any animal would do, because there is no text to limit it to any particular animal.

छागो वा मन्त्रवर्णात् ॥ ६ । ८ । ३१ ॥

छागः a goat; वा on the other hand; मन्त्रवर्णात् by the force of the text.

31. On the other hand, it is goat by the force of the text.

The author gives his own view. He says that it is said "आहुवे छागस्य वपाया मेदसोऽनुग्दि" "Invoke Agni with the fat of the marrow of a goat;" from the force of the text, it appears that an अग्निषोमीय animal is a goat.

न चोदनाविरोधात् ॥ ६ । ८ । ३२ ॥

न not, चोदनाविरोधात् by reason of its being in contradiction to the direct command.

32. Not so; by reason of its being contrary to the direct command.

The objector says in reply that it can not be so, that the मन्त्रवर्ण (the force of a text) can not predominate over चोदना. There is a direct text about the offering of an animal, there is no ambiguity; you can not, therefore, take the aid of the force of the text (किं)

आर्षेयवदिति चेत् ॥ ६ । ८ । ३३ ॥

आर्षेयवत् like आर्षेयहोम, इतिचेत् if you say,

33. If you say that it is like आर्षेय होम.

The author's reply is that there is a general proposition about the animal to be offered to the gods अग्नि and सोम and the special text limits it to the goat, just as it happens in an आर्षेयहोम. The sacrificer has to perform it by repeating the प्रवर of all the ऋषि; then there is a special text under which he can repeat only three प्रवर. आर्षेयं वृणीते । त्रीन् वृणीते । "He repeats the names of the R̥ṣis; he repeats three names." Accordingly the author says that there is nothing inconsistent in it. As to आर्षेय homa, see वाचस्पत्य dictionary vol I. p. 819. See chap VI, Pāda I, 43.

न तत्र ह्यचोदितत्वात् ॥ ६ । ८ । ३४ ॥

न not, तत्र there, हि because, अचोदितत्वात् by reason of its being commanded.

34. Not so, because it is not commanded there.

The objector says that it is not so about the goat, there is no commandatory text about it, but about the repetition of the प्रवर there is a command which limits it to three.

नियमो वैकार्थ्यं ह्यर्थभेदाद्भेदः पृथक्त्वेनाभिधानात्

॥ ६ । ८ । ३५ ॥

नियमः rule, वा on the other hand; एकार्थ्यं one meaning; हि because; अर्थभेदात् by reason of the difference of meaning, भेदः difference, पृथक्त्वेन with the difference, अभिधानात् by reason of the name

35. On the other hand, there is a restrictive rule as they convey one meaning; by reason of the difference of meaning and naming, there is a difference.

The author's reply is that there are different kinds of animals. The goat is a species of animal. The animal is a genus. So there is no contradiction, by the force of the text, the term animal is restricted to a goat. When one says "अश्मानय" 'Bring an axle' the servant sees a carriage in front of him, he understands the axle of the wheel by the term अक्ष but can not think that अक्ष means dice for gambling. So when it is said that an animal is to be sacrificed to अग्नि and सोम अर्घ्ये then there is a text which lays down the fat of a goat, it is clear that the animal meant is a goat. When there is a difference of meaning of the terms 'animal' and 'goat' there is a difference of names and the term 'animal' is then not used in the restrictive sense of a goat.

अनियमो वार्थान्तरत्वादन्यत्वं व्यतिरेकशब्दभेदा-

भ्याम् ॥ ६ । ८ । ३६ ॥

अनियमः no rule; वा on the other hand, अर्थान्तरत्वात् by reason of the difference of the meaning, अन्यत्वं difference, व्यतिरेकशब्दभेदाभ्याम् by reason of the difference of words.

36. On the other hand there is no rule on account of the difference of meaning; there is (other-ness) difference on account of words.

The objector says that there are two words 'goat' and 'animal'; so on account of this difference of words there is a difference of meaning. The quality of being an animal is different from the quality of being a goat. A certain animal may not be a goat but a goat must be an animal. So an animal who goes limping is a छाग derivatively; a horse who goes limping is, therefore, a छाग

रूपाल्लिङ्गाच्च ॥ ६ । ८ । ३७ ॥

रूपात् by reason of the form, लिङ्गात् by reason of the gender, च and.

37. By reason of the form and gender.

The objector says that the word छाग means a horse of peculiar gait by reason of his form and gender. This is a philosophical discussion about the nature of the word. When a term 'man' is used, you at once have a picture of a tall man or a black man of peculiar form and gender. See chap. I पाद 3 अधिकरण X at pp 30 32

छागेन कर्माख्या रूपलिङ्गाभ्याम् ॥ ६ । ८ । ३८ ॥

छागे in a goat, न not, कर्माख्या the name from the act, रूपलिङ्गाभ्याम् from the form and gender.

38. In the goat the naming is not from form and gender.

The author says that the naming of the goat can not be from the form and gender

रूपान्यत्वान्न जातिशब्दः स्यात् ॥ ६ । ८ । ३९ ॥

रूपान्यत्वात् by reason of the difference of form, न not, जातिशब्दः genus, class, स्यात् is.

39. By reason of the difference of form, it does not denote a class.

The author says that there being a difference of form it can not be a genus.

विकारो नौत्पत्तिकत्वात् ॥ ६ । ८ । ४० ॥

विकारः modification, न not, नौत्पत्तिकत्वात् by reason the significant power

40. The modified form is also not meant, because of the significant power of the word

The author says छाग does not mean a horse of peculiar gait, because there is a natural connection between the word and its significant power. As soon as the word 'horse' or 'goat' is uttered, you at once know what the word conveys.

स नैमित्तिकः पशोर्गुणस्याचोदितत्वात् ॥ ६।८।४१ ॥

सः that; नैमित्तिकः accidental, पशोः of an animal, गुणस्य of the quality; अचोदितत्वात् by being not laid down

41. That is accidental, because the quality of the animal is not laid down.

The author says that in the original command, the animal is said to be a fit offering for अग्नि and सोम but nothing is said as to its quality of going &c. So this quality is only an accidental quality which makes an animal unfit for sacrifice

जातेर्वा तत्प्रायवचनार्थवत्त्वाभ्याम् ॥ ६।८।४२ ॥

जातेः of the genus, वा on the other hand, प्रायवचनार्थवत्त्वाभ्यां by constant conventional use and being consistent in meaning.

42. On the other hand, it is also genus by reason of the constant conventional use and consistent meaning

The author having established छाग to mean a species of animal, further says that it is also a genus by reason of the constant conventional use and its meaning not inconsistent with the विधिवाक्य

In this connection see the discussion of the author as to whether 'words' convey आकृति or व्यक्ति in chap I Pāda III Sūtras 30-35.

END OF PĀDA VIII.

END OF CHAPTER VI.

CHAPTER VII.

PĀDA I.

The author has dealt with उपदेश the direct command in the last foregoing six Chapters. Now in the succeeding chapters he deals with अतिदेश; "perform the sacrifice" is a direct command and is called उपदेश in मीमांसा and "perform the sacrifice like that sacrifice," is अतिदेश. The sacrifice which serves as a model to the other in which the procedure is similar to that of the model is called प्रकृति, and the other which is a modified form is called विकृति.

Āthikaraga I. Sūtras 1—12 Dealing with the subject that the qualities of प्रयाजः &c. are in the nature of an extraordinary principle.

श्रुतिप्रमाणत्वाच्चेषाणां मुख्यभेदे यथाधिकारं भावः
स्यात् ॥ ७ । १ । १ ॥

श्रुतिप्रमाणत्वात् by reason of the authority of the Veda; शेषाणां of the subordinate, मुख्यभेदे in the difference of the principle; यथाधिकारं according to the context.

1. By reason of the authority of the Veda the extraordinary principle of the subordinate acts in the difference of the principal shall be according to the context.

The प्रयाजः are read in the context of the दर्शपूर्णमासयाग. The question is; whether the प्रयाजः are the qualities of all the sacrifices or the qualities of the दर्शपूर्णमास in the context of which they are read. The reply of the author is that they are to be connected with the context of the principal. The subordinate act does not exist independent of the principal; the extraordinary principle is connected with the principal act and the subordinate act belongs to the principal. So the extraordinary principle of the principal is connected with its subordinate acts, all leading up to it.

उत्पत्त्यर्थाविभागाद्वा सत्त्ववदैकधर्म्यं स्यात् ॥ ७ । १ । २ ॥

उत्पत्त्यर्थाविभागाद् by reason of indivisibility of the object of the original act on the other hand; सत्त्ववत् like an animal; ऐकधर्म्यं belonging to all; सत्त्ववत्

2. On the other hand, by reason of the indivisibility of the object of the original, like an animal, they belong to all.

The objector says that you can not divide the object of the sacrifice which is the invisible extraordinary principle and so the प्रधाना belong to all sacrifices but not solely to the sacrifice in the context of which they occur. He gives an illustration "Do not touch a cow with a foot." Here 'a cow' means any cow i. e. the genus

चोदनाशेषभावाद्वा तद्भेदाद्व्यवतिष्ठेरन्तुत्पत्तेर्गुणभू-
तत्वात् ॥ ७ । १ । ३ ॥

चोदनाशेषभावाद् by being a part of the injunction, वा on the other hand; तद्भेदाद् by reason of the variety, व्यवतिष्ठेरन्तु ruled, laid down; उत्पत्तेः of the extraordinary principle; गुणभूतत्वाद् by being subordinate.

3. On the other hand, by reason of the partial nature of the injunction and its variety there is a rule laid down; because of the extraordinary principle being subordinate.

The author says that it is on account of this invisible अणु that all sacrificial acts are performed and the injunction relates to them. There are subordinate acts also which lead to the main act and they all subserve its purpose. They therefore belong to the main act which produces the extraordinary principle. As there are different sacrifices, there are, therefore, different commands. The main acts have their subordinate parts which have no connection with others.

सत्त्वे लक्षणसंयोगात्सार्वत्रिकं प्रतीयेत ॥ ७ । १ । ४ ॥

सत्त्वे in an animal; लक्षणसंयोगाद् by reason of the connection with the characteristic peculiarity; सार्वत्रिकं everywhere; प्रतीयेत is known.

4. In an animal, by reason of the connection with the characteristic peculiarity, it is known everywhere

The author now replies to the objector's illustration. The illustration of a cow does not hold good, because the peculiar characteristic of an individual cow is found everywhere in the class, but such is not the case here.

अविभागात् नैव स्यात् ॥ ७ । १ । ५ ॥

अविभागात् by reason of the indivisibility; नु on the other hand; नैव not so; स्यात् is

5. On the other hand, by reason of the indivisibility it is not so.

The objector says that the invisible extraordinary principle is known by inference, but on the contrary we see the sacrifice with our own eyes and the parts thereof. The parts are inseparable from the whole. So the essential characteristics or parts which lead to the extraordinary principle belong to all sacrifices.

द्वयर्थत्वं च विप्रतिषिद्धम् ॥ ७ । १ । ६ ॥

द्वयर्थत्वं double object, प्रतिषिद्धम् forbidden.

6. And double object is forbidden.

The objector says that if you do not hold that प्रयाजस belong to all sacrifices and hold that they belong to only दशपूर्णमासयाम, then there will be the following difficulty—There is प्रयाज in द्वादशमि then there will be also प्रयाज in सौर्ययाम. “प्रयाजे प्रयाजे कृष्यलं जुहोति” “In every प्रयाज, he makes a कृष्यल offering” कृष्यल is a weight as will appear from याज्ञवल्क्यस्मृति I 362, 363. A त्रसरेणु is a triad i. e. a collection of three atoms visible in a sun's ray while passing through an aperture, 8 such triads make one egg of a louse; 3 such eggs make a राजसर्प, 3 राजसर्पस make one गौरसर्प, 6 गौरसर्पस make one average यव (barley), 3 average barleys make one कृष्यल; 5 कृष्यलस make one माष, 16 माषस make one सुवर्ण, 4 सुवर्णस or 5 सुवर्णस make one पल.

वीहि (wild rice) is made of gold grains weighing one कृष्यल. Such gold grains when offered to fire constitute कृष्यलहोम, according to the text every प्रयाज contains कृष्यलहोम. You will have to perform a प्रयाज and along with the प्रयाज you will have to perform कृष्यल; but double object is prohibited by reason of the fault of splitting of a sentence. So प्रयाजस belong to all sacrifices.

उत्पत्तौ विध्यभावाद्वा चोदनायां प्रवृत्तिः स्यात्ततश्च

कर्मभेदः स्यात् ॥ ७ । १ । ७ ॥

उत्पत्तौ in the origin, विध्यभावात् there being no general command, वा on the other hand; चोदनायां in the special command, प्रवृत्तिः natural inclination; ततः therefore, कर्मभेदः variety of action

7. On the other hand, there being no general command in the origin, there is a natural inclination for the special command; therefore there is a variety of actions.

There is no विशि text as regards the sacrifice in general, we have only चोदना which directs us to special अपूर्व By virtue of this, there are different acts, in other words there are different objects in view, so there are different acts

यदि वाऽप्यभिधानवत्सामान्यात्सर्वधर्मः स्यात् ॥७।१।८॥

यदिवा or if, अभिधानात् like a name, सामान्यात् by reason of being common, सर्वधर्मः peculiarity of all, स्यात् is

8. Or if like a name, by reason of its being common, it is the peculiarity of all.

The objector says if you say that it is the अपूर्व which actuates one to perform a sacrifice and on account of the variety of this अपूर्व there is variety of actions. Accepting this to be so, the अपूर्व is genus and it applies to all sacrifices, and even in this view the peculiar marks of one sacrifice apply to all sacrifices. So the प्रयाजस belong to all sacrifices. As for illustration, when one says.—“This guest is a Punjabi, he ought to be entertained with barley”, the implication is that whenever any Punjabi guest comes, he ought to be entertained with barley.

अर्थस्य त्वविभक्तत्वात्तथा स्यादभिधानेषु पूर्ववत्त्वा-
त्प्रयोगस्य कर्मणः शब्दभाज्यत्वाद्विभागाच्छेषाणामप्रवृत्तिः
स्यात् ॥ ७ । १ । ९ ॥

अर्थस्य of the object; तु on the other hand, अविभक्तत्वात् by reason of indivisibility, अभिधानेषु in the names, पूर्ववत्त्वात् by reason of being before; प्रयोगस्य of the application, कर्मणः of the sacrifice, of an act, शब्दभाज्यत्वात् by being founded on the word, विभागात् by reason of divisibility, शेषाणां of the subordinate acts, अप्रवृत्ति non-application.

9. On the other hand, by reason of the indivisibility of the object, the same shall be in the case of the names; and of the sacrificial act being founded on the word, and being divided, the subordinate acts are applied.

The author says that your illustration does not apply. In the case of a Punjabi being fond of barley is based on past experience; it has nothing to do with a man but with the land of which it is the characteristic. It is indivisible i. e. this peculiarity is found in every Punjabi; but the sacrifice is founded on the Vedic text and it is performed with a particular object in view which is called अपुर्वं. This varies according to the nature of भावना or desires. There is no similarity and the subordinate acts of one sacrifice do not apply to the others.

स्मृतिरिति चेत् ॥ ७ । १ । १० ॥

स्मृति tradition ; इति चेत् if you say.

10. "There is a tradition" if you say.

The objector says that there is a tradition belonging to the recension of अरण्यपराशर which lays down that all the characteristic peculiarities belonging to दर्शपूर्णमास belong to all the इष्टीs.

न पूर्ववत्वात् ॥ ७ । १ । ११ ॥

पूर्ववत्वात् by reason of being like the previous

11. Not so, by reason of being like the previous

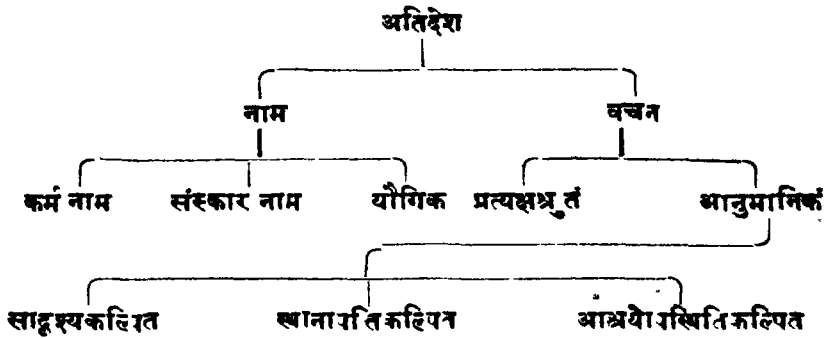

The author says no, you are not right. The tradition is not new, the विधि lays down that the modified sacrifice is to be performed like the model ones and the चोदक text applies the details thereof to the modified sacrifice. In this way the peculiar qualities are determined. It does not, therefore, lay down anything new; it is अनुवाद.

अर्थस्य शब्दभाव्यत्वात्प्रकरणनिबन्धनाच्छब्दादेवा-
न्यत्र भावः स्यात् ॥ ७ । १ । १२ ॥

अर्थस्य of the object, शब्दभाव्यत्वात् being founded on the word; प्रकरणनिबन्धनात्, by being connected or tied to the context, शब्दान् by virtue of the word, एव only, अन्यत्र elsewhere, भावः existence. स्यात् is.

12. The object (of any sacrificial act) being founded on the Vedic text and being connected with the context only, can have its existence elsewhere by reason of the Vedic text only.

This is the summary of what has been discussed at length in the अधिकरण. It says that the अपुर्वं has been laid down by the विधि text only, it applies to the main act with all its parts by reason of their being read in connection with the context of the main act. They can not be applied elsewhere, it is only the चोदक text which makes their applicability elsewhere, when such is the case it is called अतिदेश. So the अतिदेश primarily is of two kinds as shown in the table below :—

The अतिदेश is defined as follows.

प्रकृतात् कर्मणो यस्मात् तन्समानेषु कर्मसु ॥
धर्मप्रदेशो येन स्यात् सोतिदेश इति स्थितः ॥

“The rule of अतिदेश is that by which there is a transfer of the peculiar characteristics of the model sacrifice to another sacrifice of similar nature”.

The प्रत्यक्ष भुत is now to be explained

There is, therefore, a necessity of the study of अतिदेश

Adhikarana II. Sūtras 13 - 16 dealing with the subject that under the text “other is similar with श्वेन,” all the peculiarities of the श्वेनयाग have been applied to हवयाग.

सामाने पूर्ववत्त्वादुत्पन्नाधिकारः स्यात् ॥ ७ । १ । १३ ॥

सामाने in an equal, पूर्ववत्त्वात् by reason of being not new, उत्पन्नाधिकार falling under the context of its origin, स्यात् is

13. In equal sacrifices by reason of having their previous model, the original is the context.

There are two modified sacrifices called श्वेनयाग and हवयाग having their model ज्योतिहोम. They are similar, their similarity is described in connection with the context of हवयाग in this way “समानमितरपक्षेणेन” “The other is similar with श्वेन” Now the question is whether it is an अनुवाद or अतिदेशविधि? The objector says that you have already expressed your view in the previous अधिकरण, according to this view, it is an अर्थवाद. The हवयाग and श्वेनयाग are both modified sacrifices, they have their origin in ज्योतिहोम. So all the details that are applicable to the ज्योतिहोम are applicable to the हवयाग. In this view, it is an अनुवाद.

श्वेनस्येति चेत् ॥ ७ । १ ॥ १४ ॥

इवेत्येव of इवेन ; इतिचेत् if you say.

14. If you say 'of इवेन.'

There is a doubt expressed in the view of the objector. It is a Vi-dhi; the इवुवाग is similar to the इवेनवाग because both are performed in one day and both are the modifications of ज्योतिष्टोम. By taking इवेन, the word 'similar' has a meaning, otherwise it is meaningless, because it is इवेनवाग which is similar to इवुवाग.

नासन्निधानात् ॥ ७ । १ । १५ ॥

न not; असन्निधानात् by reason of no proximity.

15 Not so; by reason of no proximity.

In the इवेनवाग there are characteristics of the ज्योतिष्टोम and its own characteristics as well; so the other characteristics referred to in the text naturally belong to the ज्योतिष्टोम by reason of its proximity. This is how the objector meets the objection expressed in sūtra 14 to his view.

अपि वा यदपूरुषत्वादितरदधिकार्ये ज्योतिष्टोमिकाद्वि-
धेस्तद्वाचकं समानं स्यात् ॥ ७ । १ । १६ ॥

अपि वा or also, यदि if; अपूरुषत्वात् by reason of being अपूरुष; इतरत् the other, अधिकार्ये in the meaning 'over and above', ज्योतिष्टोमिकात् from the qualities pertaining to ज्योतिष्टोम, विधेः from the command, तद्वाचकं meaning that; समानं equal; स्यात् is.

16. Or also if by reason of the nature of the invisible principle, the word 'other' is used in the meaning 'over and above' the commands pertaining to the ज्योतिष्टोम; that meaning is then similar.

The author now concludes by saying that the text quoted under the commentary on सूत्र 13 is a विधि by reason of laying down the invisible principle (अपूरुष) and the word इतरत् means 'over and above' all the peculiarities of ज्योतिष्टोम. In this view only the word 'similar' becomes significant; as for instance when I say, give blankets to Deva Datta; give silk to Viṣṇumitra, give linen cloth to Yajñadatta and other to धर्म. Here the word 'other' is used in the meaning of 'besides' or 'over and above'. So having described the qualities of the इवुवाग the text says, 'the other details are similar to those of इवेन'. All the details of ज्योतिष्टोम are exhausted and over and above those details, the peculiar characteristics of इवेनवाग also apply. The text in this view is an अतिदेशविधि and makes all the details of the इयेनयाग applicable, besides the peculiar inherent characteristics of the origin of the हव्ययाग i. e. ज्योतिष्टोम

Adhikarana III Sūtras 17—21. Dealing with the subject that the text एतद्ब्राह्मणान्येव पंचहविषि read in connection with 5 offerings is transferred with विधि and अर्घ्यवाद.

पञ्चसञ्चरेष्वर्थवादातिदेशः सन्निधानात् ॥ ७ । १ । १७।

पंचसंचरेषु in the five offerings, अर्थवादातिदेशः the transference of अर्थवाद; सन्निधानात् by reason of proximity.

17. In the five offerings, there is a transference of अर्थवाद by reason of the proximity

There are 4 divisions of चानुमस्त्रियाग. (1) वैश्वदेव (2) वरुणप्रघास (3) साकमेध (4) सुनासीरीय In the वैश्वदेव eight offerings are mentioned as follows 1) आग्नेयमष्टाकपालं निर्वपति (2) सौम्यं चरुं (3) सवित्रद्वादशकपालं (4) सारस्वतं चरुं (5) पौष्णं चरुं (6) मारुतं सप्तकपालं (7) वैश्वदेवीनामिष्टीं (8) वायस्यथिष्यमेककपालम् (तै० ब्रा० १।८।२) (1) "He offers a cake baked on eight pans dedicated to Agni, (2) boiled rice dedicated to soma (3) a cake baked on 12 pans dedicated to sun, (4) boiled rice consecrated to Saraswati (5) boiled rice consecrated to पूषा, (6) a cake baked on seven pans consecrated to Maruts, (7) whey consecrated to विश्वेदेवा (8) a cake baked on one pan consecrated to Heaven and Earth " In the Brahman, there is an अर्थवाद of these offerings "वाग्निधनानि वा एतानिहविषि." "These offerings pertain certainly to the killer of the demon वृत्र." The अंगविधिः are also stated "त्रेधा संनद्धं र्हि संवति" "त्रेधा सञ्चरद्ब्रह्मः" "नव प्रयाजा हव्यंते" "नवानुयाजाः" (तै० ब्रा० १।८।३) "The grass becomes armoured thrice" "The sacrificial fuel becomes really thrice" "They offer 9 प्रयाजः" "nine, अनुयाजः."

In connection with वरुण प्रघास, the first 5 offerings are mentioned and in connection with the above said ब्राह्मण it is laid down "एतद्ब्राह्मणान्येव पंचहविषि बहुब्राह्मणानीतराणि" (तै० ब्रा० १।८।२) "The same ब्राह्मण applies to these five offerings, which applies to others" The objector says that there can be a transference of the अर्थवाद by reason of the proximity of the 5 offerings with the Brāhmaṇas There is no transference of अंगविधिः.

सर्वस्य वैकशब्द्यात् ॥ ७ । १ । १८ ॥

सर्वस्य of all, वा on the other hand, वैकशब्द्यात् unity of the sentence.

18. On the other hand, of all by reason of the unity of sentence.

The author says that there is transference of both the अंगविधिः with the अर्थवाद by reason of the word ब्राह्मण being similar That includes both विधि and अर्थवाद.

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ ७ । १ । १८ ॥

लिङ्गदर्शनात् by seeing the force of the text, च and.

19 By seeing the force of the text.

The author relies on लिङ्ग In connection with वरुण प्रयास there are 30 libations "वाजिनोयजस्याहुतीनां सप्तत्यै त्रिंशत्वाय" ॥ "They offer libations of a water-portion of अभिक्षा for the increase of the offerings to make them thirty." As to the explanation of वाजिन् see तै० ब्रा० १६।३ verse 9 and also vol. III P p. 1116 and 1117 of तै० सं० Ānandāśrama edition. If विधि is not transferred, there can not be 30 libations.

विहितान्वाच्येति चेत् ॥ ७ । १ । २० ॥

विहितान्वाच्यत् by reason of repetition of what is laid down ; न नोत्, इति चेत् if you say.

20 If you say 'it can not be by reason of the repetition of what is laid down.'

The objector says that in this view वरुणप्रयास is only a repetition of वैश्वदेव. This is an अभाषातसूत्र (introductory sūtra).

नेतरार्थत्वात् ॥ ७ । १ । २१ ॥

न नोत् so ; इतरार्थत्वात् by reason of being for the object of another.

21. Not so, by reason of being for the object of another.

The author says that you are wrong, it is not so If the विधि is transferred, the text relating to the kindling of fire becomes significant and has a meaning, it will be of use for the other offerings i.e. for the साहवियात्.

The 'ब्राह्मण' is thus explained in क्षत्रदीपिका "पूर्वेषां ब्राह्मणं यत्तदुत्तरैस्त्वितिदिश्यते । शेषे ते येन वाक्येन ततोषां ब्राह्मणमतम् ॥" "When a ब्राह्मण of the model sacrifices is transferred to the modified sacrifices, the शेषे text under which it is done, becomes their ब्राह्मण."

Adhikarapa IV dealing with the subject that by the text commencing with 'एतद्ब्राह्मणं च' the transference of एक कपालेन्द्राग्नि with विधि and अर्थवाद is intended.

एककपालेन्द्राग्नी च तद्वत् ॥ ७ । १ । २२ ॥

एक कपालैर्द्राप्ती in एक कपालैर्द्राप्ति, तद्वत् like it.

22. And similarly like it, in एक कपालैर्द्राप्ति.

एक कपाल ब्राह्मण is read in connection with वैश्वदेव and बह्व्यप्रवास and ऐन्द्राग्नि ब्राह्मण is read in connection with बह्व्यप्रवास alone. In this state, in connection with साकमेध, एक कपाल and ऐन्द्राग्नि ब्राह्मण are transferred by the text "एतद्ब्राह्मण ऐन्द्राग्निः एताद्ब्राह्मण एक कपालो यद्ब्राह्मण इतरश्चेतरश्च." "This is the ब्राह्मण, ऐन्द्राग्निः; this is the ब्राह्मण, एक कपालः; this is the same which applies to other, and which applies to other" The author says that in view of the principle laid down in the foregoing अधिकरण, the transference of both the विधि and अर्धवाद is intended.

Adhikarapa V dealing with the subject that in साकमेध there is a transference of एक कपाल pertaining to बह्व्य प्रवास.

एक कपालानां वैश्वदेविकः प्रकृतिराग्नयणे सर्वहोमापरि-
वृत्तिदर्शनादवभृथे च सकृद् द्वयवदानस्य वचनात् ॥११३॥

एक कपालानां of the sacrifices in which cake baked on one earthen pan is offered, वैश्वदेविकः pertaining to वैश्वदेव; प्रकृतिः model, आग्नयणे in first offering, सर्वहोम the whole होम, अपरिवृत्तिदर्शनात् by not seeing the completion; अवभृथे in a bath, सकृद् once, द्वयवदानस्य of the double offering; वचनात् by reason of a text.

23. Of the sacrifices in which a cake baked on one earthen pan is offered, the वैश्वदेव is the model; in the first offering, by not seeing the completion of the whole homa and by reason of the text for the double offering at a time on the occasion of the sacrificial bath.

In connection with वैश्वदेव there is a text "यावाह्यमिदमेक कपाल" (तै. सं. ११.४.२) and in connection with बह्व्यप्रवास, it is said "काय मेक कपाल" (तै. सं. ११.४.३) "A cake baked on one pan, consecrated to heaven and earth." "A cake baked on one pan dedicated to क i. e. प्रजापति" In connection with साकमेध after saying that there should be एक कपाल of वैश्वकर्म, there is a text एतद्ब्राह्मण एक कपाल "This is the ब्राह्मण, एक कपाल." The question is, whether it is the एक कपाल of वैश्वदेव or बह्व्य प्रवास, which should be transferred to साकमेध? The पूर्वपक्ष view is that वैश्वदेव is the model sacrifice, so the एक कपाल of वैश्वदेव is to be transferred. The author's view is embodied in the present sūtra in reply to the पूर्वपक्ष view. He criticises it; he says that if the details of वैश्वदेव be considered to be transferred to the साकमेध, there will be two difficulties.

The one is that in वैश्वदेव, in the first offering of the cake, the homa is not completed and that at the time of sacrificial bath there is a double offering. This एककपाल is peculiar to वैश्वदेव and its transference elsewhere is meaningless, while the peculiar characteristics of वरुणप्रवास will be significant, if transferred to साकमेध वरुणप्रवास is close to साकमेध and the पेंद्राप्र वाक्येण is also read in connection with वरुणप्रवास. So the एककपाल of वरुण प्रवास is transferred to साकमेध.

END OF PĀDA I.

PĀDA II.

Adhikarapa 1. Sūtras 1-21 dealing with the subject that the words such as रथतर &c. denote a particular tone of a song.

सान्नोऽभिधानशब्देन प्रवृत्तिः स्यादथाशिष्टम् ॥७२।१॥

सान्नः of the psalm ; अभिधानशब्देन by the word indicating the name ; प्रवृत्तिः inclination, tendency ; अथाशिष्टम् as taught.

1. By the word indicating a name of a psalm, there is inclination according to the instruction given by a preceptor.

There is a text "कवतीषु रथतरं गायति". कवतीs are first three verses from Book IV. सूक्त 31 of the R̥gveda. They commence with कयानश्चित्र आमुकवृत्ती &c. Then there is another verse from मंडल VII सूक्त 32 and verse 22 अभित्वाथूरनोनुमः &c. which is technically known as अभिवृत्ती and is to be sung in (रथतर) low tone. The above said text means that in कवतीs, रथतर is sung. The question is, what is to be transferred to the कवतीs ? The objector says that on account of the particular name of the psalm, the particular verse should be sung in the manner taught by the preceptor.

शब्दैस्त्वर्थविधित्वादर्थान्तरेऽप्रवृत्तिः स्यात्पृथग्भावा-
त्क्रियाया ह्यभिसम्बन्धः ॥ ७ । २ । २ ॥

शब्दैः by means of words ; ह्य on the other hand ; अर्थविधित्वात् laying down the meaning , अर्थान्तरे in a different sense ; अप्रवृत्तिः non-application ;

स्यात् is ; पृथग्भावात् by reason of the separation , क्रियाया of the action , हि because , अभिसंबन्धः connection.

2. On the other hand, by means of the words, the meaning being laid down, there can not be the use in a different sense, because of the difference, there is a connection with the action.

The author gives a reply that the words have a significant power and can not be used in a different sense, they convey their own sense. There is therefore an invariable connection of words with their sense. The sense is connected with the action. If there is a transference of the verse according to you, the sense conveyed by " अभित्वा " &c., is to be conveyed by " कथानश्चित्र " &c., which is absurd. So the verse is not transferred but only the tune or the musical mode. There are two modes of singing, one is called (वृद्धत्) loud tone and the other is (रथतर) low tone.

स्वार्थे वा स्यात् प्रयोजनं क्रियाया स्तदंगभावेनोप
दिशयेत् ॥ ७ । २ । ३ ॥

स्वार्थे in its own end , वा on the other hand , स्यात् is ; प्रयोजनं purpose , क्रियायाः of the action , तदंगभावेन by being its constituent part , उपदिशयेत् should direct, ordain

3. On the other hand, in its own end there is a purpose of the action ; it is laid down by its being a constituent part.

The verse which is to be sung in रथतर tune is अभित्वा शूर नोदुमः ; it is technically called अभिवती. The अभिवती, being used for its own end is, therefore, a constituent part of the कवती, and produces an invisible effect as laid down. This view is also difficult to support as the invisible result is presumed for an action.

शब्दमात्रमिति चेत् ॥ ७ । २ । ४ ॥

शब्दमात्रम् only verbal , इति चेत् if it be said.

4. If it be said that only verbal.

The objector says, 'let invisible result be laid aside', the रथतर is only a word; it should be used in कवतीs.

नीत्पत्तिकत्वात् ॥ ७ । २ । ५ ॥

न not ; औत्पत्तिकत्वाद् by the reason of the eternal connection.

5. No, by reason of the eternal connection.

The author says no. There is an eternal connection with the word and its meaning and no word can convey any other meaning.

शास्त्रं चैवमनर्थकं स्यात् ॥ ७ । २ । ६ ॥

शास्त्रं the code of rule ; च and, एवम् thus, अनर्थकं meaningless, स्यात्

6. And in this way the code of rule will be meaningless.

The author gives a reason in support of his view and says that if there be no connection or fixed meaning of the words, the whole rule as to प्रतिदेश will be meaningless.

स्वरस्येति चेत् ॥ ७ । २ । ७ ॥

स्वरस्य of स्वर, इतिचेत् if it be said

7- If it be said 'of स्वर'.

The objector says, let it not be a transfer of the मन्त्र (verse) or शब्द word but of the स्वर of the अभिवृत्ति.

नार्थाभावा छुतेरसंबन्धः ॥ ७ । २ । ८ ॥

न not, no, अर्थाभावात् by reason of want of sense, छुतेः of the text, असंबन्धः no relationship

8. No, by reason of the want of sense, there is no relationship with the text.

The author says that you are wrong there. The स्वर of the अभिवृत्ति is different from that of the कवती. The स्वर of the अभिवृत्ति can not be introduced into the कवती. The text which is कवतीपुरोधानरगायति, has therefore no connection with it. The स्वर is the line mark in the Vedic verses, which are therefore to be read according to the particular direction as to voice.

स्वरस्तूत्पत्तिषु स्यान्मात्रावर्णाविभक्तत्वात् ॥ ७ । २ । ९ ॥

स्वरः swara. तु on the other hand, उत्पत्तिषु in the origin ; स्यात् is ; मात्रावर्णा विभक्तत्वात् by reason of mark and letter being indivisible.

9. On the other hand, the स्वर is in the origin; because the mark and letter are indivisible.

The objector says that the स्वर is in the very pronunciation of the अभिवर्ती, because the marks and letters are indivisible. The marks and letters occur in अभिवर्ती and कवती. So the text quoted is an अनुवाद of the transference of the स्वर of अभिवर्ती to कवती. You can not do without a स्वर, it is used in pronunciation.

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ ७ । २ । १० ॥

लिङ्गदर्शनात् by seeing the force of the text, च and.

10. And by seeing the force of the text.

‘रथंतरमुत्तरयोनं पश्यामीति विद्यमित्रस्तस्मै । बृहदुत्तरयोः न पश्यामीति वशिष्ठ इति ॥
“I do not see रथंतर of the two उत्तरा songs, saying this, विद्यमित्र commenced a penance I do not see बृहत् and उत्तरा saying this वशिष्ठ &c.” These texts show that there is रथंतर of two songs called उत्तरा. This an argument which the objector advances as लिङ्ग in favour of his view that स्वर is transferred.

अश्रुतेस्तु विकारस्योत्तरासु यथाश्रुति ॥ ७ । २ । ११ ॥

अश्रुतेः by reason of being not laid down; तु on the other hand, विकारस्य of modulation, उत्तरासु in uttarā (a number of songs), यथाश्रुति according to instruction.

11. On the other hand, because in uttarā (a number of songs) no modulation is laid down, it is according to instruction.

The author says that nowhere it is laid down that in उत्तरा songs the voice should be modulated, it is pronounced according to the direction of the preceptor. In this view, there is no (प्रतिदेश) transfer of स्वर.

शब्दानां चासामञ्जस्यम् ॥ ७ । २ । १२ ॥

शब्दानां of the words ; च and ; असामञ्जस्यम् non-significance of the word,

12. And there is no significant power of the word.

The objector says that in this view, there is no meaning of a word. You say no शब्द can be transferred, because no रिक can convey the sense of another रिक, no रथंतर can, therefore, be sung in the कवती. But रथंतर is clearly meant and is to be transferred. The commentator gives an illustration that when a preceptor is gone abroad, the duties pertaining to her husband's office devolve on his wife. The pupils should obey her in his absence.

अपि तु कर्मशब्दः स्याद्वाचोऽर्थः प्रसिद्धग्रहणत्वाद्विकारे
ह्यविशिष्टोऽन्यैः ॥ ७ । २ । १३ ॥

अपि on the other hand, also; कर्मशब्दः word indicating action; स्यात् is; वाचः real sense; प्रसिद्धग्रहणत्वात् by reason of taking it in the popular meaning; विकारः modification; हि because; अविशिष्टः not special, not particular, without any difference; अन्यैः with others.

13. On the other hand, it is a word indicating action; this is the real sense by accepting the popular sense; because it a modification without any difference with others.

The author's reply is embodied in the present sūtra; it is divided into 3 parts. The first part says that all the meanings of रचन्तर are not accepted. The second is the view of the author about it, he says that it indicates an action and this is the real sense and so used in the common parlance. It is therefore a peculiar kind of song. The third part says that it is a modification just like other modifications, just as you convert the rice by removing the husk with the strokes of the pestle in a mortar, and you convert the pure rice into a flour by means of a grinding mill, similarly you bring out the sense of a verse by singing it in a peculiar way

अद्वयं चापि दृश्यते ॥ ७ । २ । १४ ॥

अद्वयं a song without ऋक्; च and, अपि also; दृश्यते is seen.

14. And a song without a rik is also seen.

The author says in support of his view that there are songs which are sung without a rik verse प्रजापतेर्हृदयमनृचं गायति "He sings a song called गजापतिहृदय without a rik." This fact also shows that रचन्तर is a peculiar tune.

तस्य च क्रिया ग्रहणार्था नानार्थेषु विरूपित्वादर्थो
ह्यासामलौकिको विधानात् ॥ ७ । २ । १५ ॥

तस्य its; च and; क्रिया action; ग्रहणार्था for practice; नानार्थेषु in different forms; विरूपित्वात् by being shown or manifested; अर्थः object; हि because; आसां of these; अलौकिक extraordinary or uncommon; विधानात् by reason of being ordained.

15. Its action (when there is no application) is for practice by reason of its being manifested in many forms; because the object of all these, is extraordinary by reason of being ordained.

The author says that when the songs are sung not for the purpose of a sacrifice, they are sung without such object; but they are sung with a view to learn or to teach them. They manifest themselves in many forms which it is impossible without a systematic learning. The object of the रथतर &c. is extraordinary because it is so laid down.

तस्मिन्संज्ञाविशेषाः स्युर्विकारपृथक्त्वात् ॥१२॥१६॥

तस्मिन् in it; संज्ञाविशेषाः particular names, स्युः are; विकारपृथक्त्वात् by reason of the difference of modification.

16. In it, there are particular names by reason of the difference of the modifications.

The author says that in a song there are different varieties; so there will be different names as वृहत्, रथतर &c.

योनिशस्याश्च तुल्यवदितराभिर्विधीयन्ते ॥१२॥१७॥

योनिशस्या the verses that are not to be sung; तुल्यवत् like equal; इतरानि with others, विधीयन्ते ordained.

17. And the verses that are not to be sung are equally ordained with others that are sung.

There are two kinds of praise verses; one set is set to tune and other are not. As for instance प्रज्ञां शंसति, निष्केन्द्रं शंसति., आज्यैः स्तुवते, पृष्टैः स्तुवते. The word 'शंसति' is used for the verses which are not set to tune. The word 'स्तुति' for the verses that are set to tune. By laying down the word 'शंसति' the verse that is not set to tune is shown to be the source of the song called रथतर. The author says that this fact also shows that the word साम is used in the meaning of song. In this connection, it is highly necessary to explain the terms योनि and इतरा. For the songsters, there are two works viz. छंद and इतरा. In the former, several varieties of Rik verses which are the योनि are collected; in the latter, a collection of three verses, is given. In this collection of three verses, the first verse is the योनि which is read in छंद and the other two are called इतरा. रथतरमुत्तरयोगीयति। यद्योऽन्यौत्तरात्मयोगीयति। "He sings उत्तरा with रथतर tune; he sings उत्तरा with the tune of the योनि."

अथोनौ चापि दृश्यतेऽतथायेनि ॥ ७ । २ । १८ ॥

अथोनौ in the verses that are not set to tune: च and; अपि also; दृश्यते is seen; अतथायेनि the song of not similar origin.

18. In the verses that are not set to tune, is seen the song of not similar origin.

The author says that in the verses that are not set to tunes are seen psalms. This fact goes to show that the word साम means song.

एकार्थ्ये नास्ति वैरूप्यमिति चेत् ॥ ७ । २ । १९ ॥

एकार्थ्ये in one object; नास्ति is not; वैरूप्य variety; इति चेत् if you say.

19. If you say that there is no variety in one object.

The objector says that there can not be a variety of forms in a रथतर; when you say रथतर, it excludes the idea of बृहत्.

स्यादर्थान्तरेष्वनिष्पत्तेर्यथा पाके ॥ ७ । २ । २० ॥

स्यात् is; अर्थान्तरेषु in other verses; अनिष्पत्तेः by reason of not practising; यथा just as; पाके in cooking.

20. There is, by reason of not practising in other verses just as in cooking.

The author says that in cooking food, you have to prepare different dishes. If you know how to prepare one variety of dish, that will not be of any help in preparing another variety of dish. You know cooking rice but when you prepare sweetmeat you will have to apply different process. So in the same way without practising your singing in other verses, your knowledge of singing in a रथतर tune will not be complete. Some copies read छोके in place of पाके; but that does not change the sense of the सूत्र.

शब्दानाञ्च सामञ्जस्यम् ॥ ७ । २ । २१ ॥

शब्दानां of the words; च and; सामञ्जस्यम् significance of the words.

21. And the significance of the word.

The author concludes his remarks by saying that the words convey their sense, in reply to the objection contained in सूत्र 12. In this view, छन्दसि are the verses of the Rigveda and रथतर is a tune. The former is by way of देशकल्पना as said in the भाष्य and the latter is by way of कर्मकल्पना. The कवतरीs are therefore to be sung in a रथ'तर tune.

END OF PĀDA II.

PĀDA III.

Adhikarana I. Sūtras 1—4 dealing with the subject that by the word अग्निहोत्र, there is the transference of its qualities

Now the नामातिदेश is explained. See at p. 422.

उक्तं क्रियाभिधानं तच्छ्रुतावन्यत्र विधिप्रदेशः स्यात्

॥ ७ । ३ । १ ॥

उक्तं it is said, it is stated; क्रियाभिधानं a name of an action; तत् that, श्रुतौ is mentioned; अन्यत्र elsewhere, विधिप्रदेशः transfer of the quality; स्यात् is.

1. It is stated to be a name of an action; it is elsewhere mentioned; it is a transfer of the qualities,

The sūtra embodies the सिद्धांत view and is divided into three parts. The parts will be clear from the Vedic text which runs thus. In connection with the कुंडपायिन sacrifice, it is said मासमग्निहोत्रमुहति. "He performs अग्निहोत्र for a month." Here the term अग्निहोत्र is to be explained. In the first part of the sūtra, it is said that it is a name of an action (कर्मनाम-धेय) It is explained in the chapter on नामधेय and तत्प्रत्ययभाव. See at p. 33. So it is a word in a fixed meaning; it is therefore, a proper noun. The question is, what does it convey in connection with कुंडपायिनयज्ञः? The reply is contained in part 2 of the sūtra. In the third part it is laid down that it is a transfer of the qualities of the अग्निहोत्र. The author says that अग्निहोत्र is a name and in connection with कुंडपायिन sacrifice, the qualities of the अग्निहोत्र are transferred. It is not a different action and therefore means that it should be performed like अग्निहोत्र for a month.

अपूर्वं वापि भागित्वात् ॥ ७ । ३ । २ ॥

अपूर्वं in the extraordinary principle; वा on the other hand; अपि also; भागित्वात् by reason of the fitness.

2. On the other hand, by reason of the fitness in the extraordinary principle.

The objector says that it is a name; it is an अग्निहोत्र in a कु'वपायिन sacrifice lasting for a month, just like the common अग्निहोत्र. It is therefore the name of both.

नाम्नस्वीत्पत्तिकत्वात् ॥ ७ । ३ । ३ ॥

नाम्नः of the name; तु on the other hand ; स्वीत्पत्तिकत्वात् by reason of eternal connection.

3. By reason of the eternal connection of the name.

The author says that there is an eternal relationship between a word and its signification. A word always conveys a fixed sense. It is not changeable; so it is not possible that अग्निहोत्र should be used in a double sense. The result is that it is (विधिप्रदेश) transference of the qualities of अग्निहोत्र.

प्रत्यक्षाद्गुणसंयोगात्क्रियाभिधानं स्यात्तदभावेऽप्रसिद्धं स्यात् ॥ ७ । ३ । ४ ॥

प्रत्यक्षाद् by reason of the visible ; गुणसंयोगात् by connection with the quality ; क्रियाभिधानं name of an action ; अप्रसिद्धं unknown ; स्यात् is ; तदभावे in the absence.

4. It is a name of an action by reason of the visible connection with the qualities; in the absence of them, it is not known.

The author says that it is called अग्निहोत्र by reason of the particular mode of sacrificing; it is a name of a sacrifice and so called by reason of its peculiar characteristics. If those characteristics do not exist, it can not be called अग्निहोत्र. Lasting of it for a month is not its essential characteristic and by reason of it, it can not be a different act. The term अग्निहोत्र is the name of a sacrifice having particular characteristics and its mention elsewhere is the transfer of those characteristics.

Adhikaraṇa II. Dealing with the subject that by the term प्रायश्चित्त, there is no transference of the characteristics.

अपि वा सन्नकर्मणि गुणार्थेषा श्रुतिः स्यात्

॥ ७ । ३ । ५ ॥

अपि वा on the other hand ; सत्रकर्मणि in a sacrificial session ; गुणार्थं descriptive of the quality ; एषा this ; श्रुतिः the text ; स्यात् is.

5. On the other hand, in a sacrificial session the text is descriptive of the qualities.

In the द्वादशाह sacrifice, the first day is called प्रायणीय In the गवामयन which is the modified form of द्वादशाह there is a text which says "वैश्वानरो ज्योतिष्टोमः प्रायणीय महर्भवति" The प्रायणीय pertaining to वैश्वानर and ज्योतिष्टोम is a day." In it also the first day is प्रायणीय. According to the view expressed in the preceding अधिकरण, there is the transference of the peculiar characteristics of the first day of द्वादशाह. But the author says that it is only the description of the qualities, it means the first day of the sacrifice and is a compound word. It is therefore not a नामधेय transferring the characteristics of the first day of द्वादशाह to the first day of गवामयन.

Adhikarāṇa III Sūtras 6—11. Dealing with the subject that by the term सर्वपृष्ठ these is a transfer of the सर्वपृष्ठ.

विश्वजिति सर्वपृष्ठे तत्पूर्वकत्वाज्ज्यैतिष्टोमिकानि
पृष्ठान्यस्ति च पृष्ठशब्दः ॥ ७ । ३ । ६ ॥

विश्वजिति in a sacrifice called विश्वजित्, सर्वपृष्ठे in a सर्वपृष्ठ (sacrifice); तत्पूर्वकत्वाद् of its being a model; ज्यैतिष्टोमिकानि pertaining to ज्योतिष्टोमः; पृष्ठानि, पृष्ठः; अस्ति is ; च and , पृष्ठशब्दः the word पृष्ठ.

6. In a विश्वजित् sacrifice in सर्वपृष्ठ, by reason of its being a model, the पृष्ठs of the ज्योतिष्टोम are intended; there is the word पृष्ठ.

The objector says that there is a text in connection with विश्वजित् sacrifice "विश्वजित् सर्वपृष्ठोभवति." "A विश्वजित् has all songs" In a ज्योतिष्टोम sacrifice, in the interval of noon पदमान there are 4 psalms in honour of महर्भ. (1) अमित्राशूरनोनुमः Rig. Veda VII. 32. 22. (2) कपानश्चित्र आयुवद्वृत्ती R. Veda IV. 31. 1. (3) तवेदस्म सतीवह Rig. Veda VIII. 88. 1. (4) तिरमिर्वैविद्वत् R. Veda VIII 66. 1. In these four सूक्तs, the psalms become 17 सोमs. They are called पृष्ठः The objector therefore says that these seventeen पृष्ठs which are in ज्योतिष्टोम are meant, because it is the model sacrifice of विश्वजित्. The text is, therefore, an अनुवाद.

षडहाद्वा तत्र हि चोदना ॥ ७ । ३ । ७ ॥

षडहाद्वा from षडाह (sacrifice lasting 6 days); वा or ; हि because ; चोदना a command.

7. Or from the वडाह sacrifice because there is a command.

The author says that in a ज्योतिष्टोम, there are not many वृहः; so it can not be an अनुवाद; it is a विधि. There is a command "वृहानोरथं वृहं भवति" "Of the songs, the रथं is the tune." So there can be a transference of वृहः from वडाह, where one वृह is daily ordained. viz. (1) रथं (2) वृह (3) वैरूप (4) वैराज, (5) शाकर (6) रैवत. By the word सर्ववृह, they are meant.

लिङ्गाच्च ॥ ७ । ३ । ८ ॥

लिङ्गाच्च by the force of the text ; च and.

8. And by the force of the text.

The author supports his view by the following texts वैरूपहोतुः साम, वैराजं मैत्रावरुणस्य, रैवतं ब्राह्मणाच्छंसिनः, शाकरमग्न्यावाक्यम् ॥ "वैरूप is the tune of a होता, वैराज is that of a मैत्रावरुण, रैवत is of a ब्राह्मणाच्छंसी and शाकर of an अग्न्यावाक्य."

उत्पन्नाधिकारो ज्योतिष्टोमः ॥ ७ । ३ । ९ ॥

उत्पन्नाधिकारः the class in which many songs occur, ज्योतिष्टोमः name of the sacrifices.

9. The ज्योतिष्टोम is the class in which many songs occur.

The objector said in the sūtra 6 that there is the word वृह. The author replies that there the word वृह is not in its original sense. The वृह of वडाह is only known as वृह. So the transference can be from वडाह. In the ज्योतिष्टोम the word is used in its secondary sense.

द्वयोर्विधिरिति चेत् ॥ ७ । ३ । १० ॥

द्वयोः of two ; विधिः command ; इति चेत् if you say.

10. If it be said that it is a command relating to both.

The objector says, let it not be an अनुवाद, but let it be a विधि. It is a विधि of both वृहत् and रथं. What do you say to this?

न व्यर्थत्वात् सर्वशब्दस्य ॥ ७ । ३ । ११ ॥

न no; व्यर्थत्वात् by reason of meaninglessness; सर्वशब्दस्य of the word 'all'.

11. No, by reason of the meaninglessness of the word 'all'.

The author says that the word is सर्ववृह, it is not applicable to the case of two viz. वृद्ध and एवतर In that case the सर्व becomes meaningless. So it is proper to hold that here the पूर्य mean the पूर्य of वृद्ध.

Adhikarṇa IV. Sūtras 12-15. Dealing with the subject that by the word 'अवभृथ' the transference of the qualities of सोम is intended.

तथावभृथः सोमात् ॥ ७ । ३ । १२ ॥

तथा in the same way ; अवभृथः sacrificial bath ; सोमात् from सोम.

12. In the same way, the sacrificial bath from सोम.

In connection with वृद्धप्रवास there is a text "वाक्यवानिष्कासेन तुषैश्चावभृथयति" "They go to the bath with the remnant of आमिक्षा and husk." निष्कास is the remnant left stuck to a vessel. In the दर्शपूर्णमासयाग, the water is sprinkled in all directions with the following mantra "प्राच्यादिदिशेदेवास्तृणोमार्जयन्ताम्" "In the eastern direction let the gods purify the priests" This sprinkling done for the removal of निष्कास is called by the word अवभृथ in आमिक्षा-याग and is transferred to दर्शपूर्णमासयाग by the वेदक text "एष वै दर्शपूर्णमासयोर्वभृथः". "This is verily the bath of the new and full moon sacrifices." ~~किञ्च~~ the question is, whether the अवभृथ of वृद्धप्रवास is the अवभृथ of दर्शपूर्णमास. The author's reply is that it is not. It is the अवभृथ of सोम according to the principle laid down in the preceding अधिकरण because in a सोम sacrifice, the bath is principal.

प्रकृतेरिति चेत् ॥ ७ । ३ । १३ ॥

प्रकृतेः from the model sacrifice ; इति चेत् if you say.

13. If it be said "from the model sacrifice".

The objector says that the model sacrifice of वृद्धप्रवास is दर्शपूर्णमासयाग. The अवभृथ of दर्शपूर्णमास is therefore meant. This is called आभाषणतन्त्र leading to another.

न भक्तित्वात् ॥ ७ । ३ । १४ ॥

न not ; भक्तित्वात् by reason of the secondary sense.

14. Not so, by reason of the secondary sense.

The author says that in दर्शपूर्णमासयाग the अवभृथ is used in a figurative sense. There is no bath in the new and full moon sacrifices but this sort of sprinkling with water is figuratively called अवभृथ. So the sense of अवभृथ in the दर्शपूर्णमास is not original but only secondary.

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ ७ । ३ । १५ ॥

विशदत्तेनात् by seeing the force of the text; च and.

15. And by seeing the force of the text.

नानुर्वाह्योति, नसामगावति, नवागमनमत्रजपति "He does not offer libation with life giving (आयुर्वा) verse. (See यजुर्वेद III 17. See at p. 188) he does not sing songs, nor does he repeat the मन्त्र for going." These are some of the acts prohibited from which it is inferred that the अवयुय referred to above, is taken from सोमयाग.

Adhikarapa V. Dealing with the subject that the substances viz. the husk and the remnant of the amikā pertain to the sacrificial bath of वरुणप्रवास.

द्रव्यदेशे तदुद्रव्यः श्रुतिसंयोगात्पुरोडाशस्त्वनदेशे तत्प्र-
कृतित्वात् ॥ ७ । ३ । १६ ॥

द्रव्यदेशे when a substance is mentioned, तत् द्रव्यः that substance; श्रुतिसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the text, पुरोडाशः sacrificial cake; तु on the other hand; अनादेशे on non-mention; तत्प्रकृतित्वात् by reason of its being a model sacrifice.

16. When a substance is mentioned, then that substance by reason of its connection with the text; and a puroḍāśa cake, if there be no mention, by reason of its being of model sacrifice.

As discussed in the preceding अधिकरणं, the अवयुय is taken from the सोमयाग. Now the question is, what material is to be used, whether the पुरोडाश cake which belongs to the model sacrifice or husk or remnant mentioned in the text वारुणमिकामिकसेनपुत्रैश्चोदयन्ति? "They go to the bath with the remnant of अमिक्षा and husk." The author's reply is embodied in the sūtra. He says that when a material is mentioned in the text, that material should be used but when no such material is mentioned, then the material used in the model sacrifice should be used. Here we have a direct text and that is preferable to श्रुति. If there had been no such direct text the material of the model sacrifice would be transferred. The model sacrifice of वरुणप्रवास is दक्षिणमासयाग.

Adhikarapa VI Dealing with the subject that by the word वैयस्य, there is no transfer of the peculiarities of the आतिथ्य sacrifice.

गुणविधिस्तु न गृहीयात्समत्वात् ॥ ७ । ३ । १७ ॥

गुणविधिः laying down of qualities ; नु on the other hand ; न not ; गुणवत् take, borrow ; समत्वात् by reason of being equal.

17. On the other hand, it is गुणविधि (laying down of qualities) and does not borrow them, being equal.

There is आतिथ्येष्टि in सोमयाग; in this connection there is a text “वैष्णवो नव-कपाकः” “A cake baked on nine pans consecrated to विष्णु” In connection with राजसूय there is another text “वैष्णवश्चिकपाकः” “A cake baked on three pans consecrated to विष्णु” Is it a case of transference of all the peculiarities of आतिथ्येष्टि or राजसूय? The reply is that both are equal; so there is no transference of the peculiarities. The word वैष्णव denotes that the deity of both of them is the same but there is no transfer (व्यतिदेश) of the peculiarities.

Adhikaraṇa VII. Sūtras 18-22 Dealing with the subject that by the word निर्मथ्य &c., there is no transfer of the qualities.

निर्मन्थ्यादिषु चैवम् ॥ ७ । ३ । १८ ॥

निर्मन्थादिषु in निर्मथ्य etc , च and , एवम् thus, similarly.

18. And similarly in निर्मथ्य &c.

There are texts “निर्मथ्येनेष्टकाः पचति” “बर्हिषाद्युपावद मवस्तृथाति” “भाज्येनसूपमनक्ति” “after churning (i. e. fire produced from two pieces of wood by the friction), they bake bricks” “With grass, they cover the pit under the sacrificial post.” “With ghee, they besmear the sacrificial post.” These are in connection with an animal sacrifice. Are these qualities of a पशुयाग to be transferred to दर्शपूर्णमासयाग? The reply of the author is in the negative. He says that as said above in the preceding अधिकरण, by the words निर्मथ्य, बर्हिषा and भाज्य, there is no transference of the peculiarities of an animal sacrifice to the new and full moon sacrifices.

Adhikaraṇa VIII Sūtras 19-22. Dealing with the subject that by the words “द्वयोः प्रययति”, there is no transference of the qualities of the सोमयाग.

प्रणयनन्तु सौमिकमवाच्यं होतरत् ॥ ७ । ३ । १९ ॥

प्रणयनं carrying of the fire, नु on the other hand ; सौमिकम् pertaining to सोम ; अवाच्यं not ordained ; हि because ; होतरत् other.

19. On the other hand, carrying of the fire pertains to सोमयाग, because the other is not ordained.

There is a text in connection with चातुर्मासयाग “द्वयोः प्रययति । तस्माद्- हाम्यां वति” “They carry in two, therefore with two they go.” This अग्निप्रणयन is a ceremony in the सोमयाग and it is also in दर्शपूर्णमासयाग. See the description of अग्निप्रणयन in sūtra 231 of chap. VI of कात्यायनश्रौतसूत्र. The question is, which अग्निप्रणयन is meant? The reply of the objector is that it is the अग्निप्रणयन of सोमयाग, as to the अग्निप्रणयन of दर्शपूर्णमासयाग there is no चौदक text and अग्निप्रणयन is the peculiar characteristic of सोमयाग.

उत्तरवेदिप्रतिषेधश्च तद्वत् ॥ ७ । ३ । २० ॥

उत्तरवेदि northern altar ; प्रतिषेधः prohibition ; च and ; तद्वत् like it.

20. And the prohibition of उत्तरवेदि is like it.

The objector says that there is a text “नवैश्वदेवउत्तरवेदि मुगधयति न शुनासीरीवे.” “They do not construct उत्तरवेदि in a वैश्वदेव sacrifice, nor in a शुनासीरीय.” The prohibition of the उत्तरवेदि in the text indicates that the peculiarities of सोमयाग are meant but not of दर्शपूर्णमासयाग in which there is no उत्तरवेदि.

प्राकृतं वाऽनामत्वात् ॥ ७ । ३ । २१ ॥

प्राकृतं belonging to the model sacrifice ; वा on the other hand ; अनामत्वात् by reason of having no name.

21. Or belonging to the model sacrifice by reason of having no name of any particular.

The author says that अग्निप्रणयन is not a नामधेय of the प्रणयन of सोमयाग. दर्शपूर्णमासयाग are the model sacrifices, so the ‘अग्निप्रणयन’ is used in the general sense of carrying fire to the eastern side.

परिसङ्ख्यार्थं श्रवणं गुणार्थमर्थवादो वा ॥ ७ । ३ । २२

परिसङ्ख्यार्थं for the sake of परिसङ्ख्या, श्रवणं the text, गुणार्थं for the sake of a quality ; अर्थवादः recommendation ; वा or.

22. The text is for परिसङ्ख्या or descriptive of quality or recommendation.

The objector said in the concluding part of सूत्र 19 that the other is not ordained by the text द्वयोः प्रययति, तस्माद्वाहाम्यां प्रययति । “They carry in two and therefore with two they go.” The author says in reply that there are three alternatives viz. that the text may be a परिसङ्ख्या, गुणवाद or अर्थवाद. If परिसङ्ख्या, it excludes वैश्वदेव, and शुनासीर out of the four parts of चातुर्मासयाग. (See at p. 424.); but परिसङ्ख्या has three defects (See at p. 20 and 178). If the text be considered to be a गुणवाद, the difficulty is that it lays down no quality. If it be considered an अर्थवाद, it is useless. (see below.) It is better to explain अग्निप्रणयन, it is carrying of fire from the place where it is produced by rubbing two pieces of wood against each other, to the northern altar in the eastern direction. If there had been no such text there would have been अग्न्याधान and उत्तरवेदि in (1) वैश्वदेव, (2) वरुणप्रघात (3) साकमेध and (4) शुक्लासीरीय.

Abhikaraṇa IX. Sūtra 23-25. Dealing with the subject that by the word द्वयोः प्रणयति the carrying of fire of the two middle is meant.

प्रथमोत्तमयोः प्रणयनमुत्तरवेदिप्रतिषेधात् ॥ ७ । ३ । २३ ॥

प्रथमोत्तमयोः of the first and last; प्रणयन carrying of the fire; उत्तरवेदि northern altar; प्रतिषेधात् by reason of the prohibition.

23. The carrying of the fire is of the first and the last by reason of the prohibition of उत्तरवेदि.

The text द्वयोः प्रणयति is quoted at length in the commentary on सूत्र 19. The question is which two are meant. We have seen on commenting on sūtra 17 of pāda I. (See at p. 424) that there are 4 divisions of चातुर्मास्ययाम. (1) वैश्वदेव (2) वरुणप्रघात (3) साकमेध (4) शुक्लासीरीय. The objector says that the 'two' referred to, are the 1st and the last, as the prohibition relating to उत्तरवेदि quoted in the commentary on sūtra 20 shows. The उत्तरवेदि and अग्निप्रणयन are connected with each other. The prohibition relates to उत्तरवेदि only but not to अग्न्याधान.

मध्यमयोर्वा गत्यर्थवादात् ॥ ७ । ३ । २४ ॥

मध्यमयोः of the middle two; वा on the other hand; गत्यर्थवादात् by reason of the description of motion.

24. On the other hand, of the middle two by reason of the description of the motion.

There is a text "उरू वा एतौ यज्ञस्य, यत् वरुणप्रघातः साकमेधश्च" "Verily they viz. वरुणप्रघात and साकमेध are the two thighs of a sacrifice." The वरुणप्रघात and साकमेध are as if the thighs of a sacrifice and it is completed by them. So this text is an अर्थवाद as said in sūtra 22 of the preceding अधिकरण. The author therefore says that the अग्निप्रणयन is in the वरुणप्रघात and साकमेध, as we see from the above text.

औत्तरवेदिकोऽनारभ्यवादप्रतिषेधः ॥ ७ । ३ । २५ ॥

औत्तरवेदिः pertaining to उत्तरवेदि; जनारभ्यवाद the general text; प्रतिषेधः prohibition.

25. As to that pertaining to उत्तरवेदि, it is a prohibition of the general text.

The author says that there is a general text "उपात्रवर्षति". "Here they make offerings." The text "द्वयोः प्रवर्षति" is the prohibition of the जनारभ्यवर्षति. When उत्तरवेदिs are prohibited, the उत्तरवेदि is necessarily prohibited. उत्तरवेदिमग्निमिदधाति "In the northern altar, they place fire". This is with a view to describe the quality as said in sūtra 22 of the preceding अधिकरण. Vide p 441. The conclusion is that the अग्निप्रवर्षण of the middle two, viz. वरुणप्रवास, and साकमेव is meant.

Adhikarapa X. Sūtras 26—27 dealing with the subject that by the word स्वरसाम &c., there is transference of the peculiarities.

स्वरसामैककपालामिक्षं च लिङ्गदर्शनात् ॥ ७।३।२६ ॥

स्वरसामैककपालामिक्षं song, cake baked on one pan and a curd dish; च and; लिङ्गदर्शनात् by seeing the force of the text.

36. And the स्वरसाम, एककपाल and आमिक्षा by reason of the force of the text.

The author's view is embodied in the present सूत्र (1) In connection with गवामयन it is said "अमितोदिवाकीर्त्यं त्रयं स्वरसामानः." "On both sides of दिवाकीर्त्यं, there are three स्वरसामs." There is the principal day which is called दिवाकीर्त्यं on both sides of which there are 3 days called स्वरसाम. In these स्वरसाम days there are 17 songs sung under a direct text. In connection with another sacrifice called षडह it is said षडह षडहोद्गी स्वदसामानी. "The षडह has songs having two स्वरसामs." According to the principle laid down in the अधिकरण where the term वैष्णव is explained, (See p. 440) as the objector would argue, the स्वरसाम can not refer to the स्वरसाम of the गवामयन. The author says no; you are wrong; the peculiarities of गवामयन are meant. The reason he assigns is that by seeing the लिङ्ग we arrive at this conclusion. There are six songs sung during the six days viz (1) त्रिवृत् (2) चतुर्विंश (3) सप्तदश (4) एकविंश (5) त्रिष्य (6) चतुर्विंश in षडह. Then in an अष्टाह, according to the text षड् तीर्थसप्तदशमहः तत्तुर्विंश-पानमभिषेकादहरेति "That which is the third day of 17 songs is carried to the place of thirty three songs." The third day's song is taken to the 5th day and 6th day's song is removed the 3rd day. Then under the text "त्रयावो सप्तदशानां मन्त्रोद्योततावः" "The continuity of three seventeen songs." The 6th, 7th and 8th days have without any intervention 17 songs. This shows that the peculiar characteristics of गवामयन are meant.

(2) In वैश्वदेव sacrifice, one cake is offered to आवापृथिवी deities and in आश्वयज्य sacrifice also one cake is offered to आवापृथिवी, under the text यत्सर्वं हुं करोति "which makes the whole offerings" by अर्थवाद, in connection with the latter the peculiarities of वैश्वदेव can be transferred.

(3) In वैश्वदेव sacrifice, the वैश्वदेवअमिक्षा is mentioned and the peculiarities are described, elsewhere after describing मैत्रावरुण्यामिक्षा, ('नवाग्निनेन प्रचरति' "They do not use watery portion of अमिक्षा"), by this prohibition, the peculiarities of वैश्वदेव are transferred.

चोदनासामान्याद्वा ॥ ७ । ३ । २७ ॥

चोदनासामान्यात् by reason of the general command; वा on the other hand.

27. Or by reason of the general command.

The author says by reason of the commonness of the texts, स्वरसाम, एक-कपाल and अमिक्षा, are transferred from the respective ceremonies mentioned in सूत्र 26.

Adhikarana XI. Sūtras 23-29 dealing with the subject that in the words 'वासेददति' the form is the cause.

कर्मजे कर्म यूपवत् ॥ ७ । ३ । २८ ॥

कर्मजे in a thing which is produced by an act; कर्म an act; यूपवत् like a sacrificial post.

28. In a thing which is produced by an act, it is an act like a sacrificial post.

वासेददति, अनेददति "He gives cloths, he gives a cart." The cloths and carts are made by a weaver and a carpenter respectively; just as a sacrificial post is prepared by an action so are cloths and cart. So these terms being based on an act of an agent, denote an action. This is the view of the objector.

रूपं वाऽशेषभूतत्वात् ॥ ७ । ३ । २९ ॥

रूपं form; वा on the other hand; अशेषभूतत्वात् by reason of nothing being left.

29. On the other hand, it is form by reason of nothing left (of action).

The author says that the terms apply to the objects when they are ready t. e. after the action is over. No one applies these terms when the cloth and cart are being made by the weaver and the carpenter. They apply to the forms which are ready for use. So in this view, these terms do not denote action. As to the example of the sacrificial post which the objector gives, it is said in reply that the action is going on; the illustration therefore does not hold good.

Adhikaraṇa XII Sūtras 30—33 dealing with the subject that in a गर्गविश्राज, the unconsecrated fire should be used.

विशये लौकिकः स्यात्सर्वार्थत्वात् ॥ ७ । ३ । ३० ॥

विशये in a doubt, लौकिकः common; स्यात् is; सर्वार्थत्वात् by reason of accomplishing all objects.

30. In a doubt the common fire, by reason of its accomplishing all objects.

In connection with गर्गविश्राज it is said “अग्निमुपनिषाय स्तुवीव”. “Having placed fire, he praises.” What kind of fire is meant, whether it is the common unconsecrated fire or the consecrated fire? The view of the objector which is not stated here is apparently that it is the Vedic fire, which is purified by the consecration ceremony.

The author's reply is that in such a case of doubt it is the common fire which is of use everywhere, and is therefore meant.

न वैदिकमर्थनिर्देशात् ॥ ७ । ३ । ३१ ॥

न not; वैदिकम् consecrated fire; अर्थनिर्देशात् being directed for the particular object.

31. Not the consecrated fire, being ordained for a particular object.

The author says that the consecrated fire can not be used, because it is used under a Vedic text for a particular purpose. आहवानीयेजुहोति । गार्हपत्येहवीचि अययति. “He sacrifices in आहवानीय fire, he offers libations in गार्हपत्य fire.”

तथोत्पत्तिस्तिरेषां समत्वात् ॥ ७ । ३ । ३२ ॥

तथा similarly; उत्पत्तिः origin; इतरेषां of the others; समत्वात् by reason of quality.

32. By the reason of the equality of its origin with others.

The author says further that the Vedic fire is also produced like common fire; so common fire should be used.

Adhikaraṇa XIII. Sūtras 33-34 dealing with the subject that under the text "the 11th sacrificial post is the sacrificial post", the ceremonies belonging to the sacrificial post do not apply.

संस्कृतं स्यात्तच्छब्दत्वात् ॥ ७ । ३ । ३३ ॥

संस्कृतं consecrated; स्यात् is; तत् that; शब्दत्वात् by reason of the word, text.

33. Consecrated by reason of that word.

In connection with एकादशिनी sacrifice it is said "उपशयोद्वयोमवसि" "उपशय becomes a sacrificial post." In the एकादशिनी sacrifice there are 11 sacrificial posts, the sacrificial posts erected from the south number 11; the eleventh is called उपशय. "यद्वक्षिणउपशय". "That which is from the south is called उपशय." The question is, whether purificatory ceremonies should be performed on the उपशय? The objector says, yes because it is called a द्रुप and so all the ceremonies which are performed on a द्रुप should be performed on the उपशय.

भक्त्या वाऽयज्ञशेषत्वाद्गुणानामभिधानत्वात्

॥ ७ । ३ । ३४ ॥

भक्त्या by the secondary sense; वा on the other hand; अयज्ञशेषत्वात् by reason of being not the part of the sacrifice; गुणानाम् of the qualities; अभिधानत्वात् by describing.

34. It is by the secondary sense being not subsidiary to the sacrifice and by describing the qualities.

The author says that no animal is tied to the eleventh pillar, so no ceremony is necessary "सर्वे वा अन्येद्रुपाः पशुमन्तः अवोपशय एवापशुः" "Animals are tied to other sacrificial posts, but not to the उपशय." So no rope is tied round it. It is a द्रुप not in the primary sense but only in the secondary sense. When it is called a द्रुप it is only to describe the qualities. As for example यजमानोवैद्रुप. "A sacrificer is certainly a sacrificial post." It is only to show the excellence of द्रुप that यजमान is called द्रुप.

Adhikaraṇa XIV. Sūtras 35-36 dealing with the subject that in the text द्रुपैर्व्यतिष्ठते &c. the word द्रुप means a matter of the R̥gveda.

कर्मणः पृष्टशब्दः स्यात्तथाभूतोपदेशात् ॥ ७ । ३ । ३५ ॥

कर्मणः of an action; पृष्टशब्दः word पृष्ट; स्यात् is, भूतोपदेशात् by laying down in similar direction.

35. The word पृष्ट denotes an action by laying down similar direction.

In connection with अग्निचयन, it is said "पृष्टैरुपविष्टैरे" "They worship with songs." The word पृष्ट is a proper name of a song in a ज्योतिष्येय in माध्वदिन-प्रवचन. The objector says that when this word is used in अग्निचयन, it means the peculiarities of the पृष्ट of ज्योतिष्येय according to the principle of अग्निहोत्र as explained in अधिकरण I of pāda III. at p. 434.

It, therefore, denotes an action and the peculiarities of पृष्ट are (1) the general दि'कार &c. and (2) the particular पृष्टविधीमन्त्रावायेत्. "meditate on the earth mentally."

अभिधानोपदेशाद्वा विप्रतिषेधाद्द्रव्येषु पृष्टशब्दः स्यात्

॥ ७ । ३ । ३६ ॥

अभिधानोपदेशात् by mentioning the name ; वा on the other hand ; विप्रति-
षेधात् by prohibition ; द्रव्येषु in a substance ; पृष्टशब्दः the word पृष्ट ; स्यात् is.

36. On the other hand, by mentioning the name and prohibition, the word पृष्ट is used in the sense of substance.

The author says that पृष्ट means a matter from the Rigveda, as for instance अग्निवायूरग्नौतुमः &c. Rig. Veda VIII. 32-22. The reason which he gives is that the आत्मनेपद form of the verb is used which prohibits the उप-स्थान (worship). By reason of the instrumental case and the आत्मनेपद form of the verb, the पृष्ट means the verses from the Rigveda, it therefore prohibits the separate act of उपस्थान. So it is not a transfer of the acts from ज्योतिष्येय. It means "sitting near fire with mantras" but not doing acts similar to पृष्ट in ज्योतिष्येय.

END OF PĀDA III.

PĀDA IV.

Adhikarapa I. dealing with the subject that in लोकेवेक &c. the transference of subordinate acts is inferred.

The author now proceeds to explain the inferential अनुमानिक अतिदेश. See the the division at p 422.

इतिकर्तव्यताविधेर्यजतेः पूर्ववत्त्वम् ॥ ७।४।१ ॥

इतिकर्तव्यता subordinate acts, अविधेः by reason of being not prescribed; यजतेः of the sacrifice, पूर्ववत्त्वम्, model.

1. The model of the sacrifice by reason of the subordinate acts being not prescribed.

There is a general text belonging to no context सौर्यं बहूनिर्वहेत् ब्रह्मवर्षसकामः (तै० सं० II 3. 2) "A person desirous of Brāhmanic splendour, should offer boiled rice consecrated to sun." We must before explaining the सूत्र explain what is भावना. It is volition, a faculty by which you desire to accomplish certain object. It consists of three parts (1) साध्य the desired end i. e. the fruit, (2) साधन is the means by which you achieve it, i. e. the different materials and (3) इतिकर्तव्यता which is the variety of the subordinate acts which lead up to that main act. See p 224 "अग्निदोमेन स्वर्गकामो यजेत." "A person desirous of heaven, should perform a sacrifice." Here in the text we find all the three elements, but in the text under consideration we see that there are साधन and साधन both but not इतिकर्तव्यता. The author says that in such cases where the इतिकर्तव्यता is not mentioned, you infer it from the model sacrifice.

Adhikarāṇa II Sūtras 2-12 dealing with the inference that in the text "सौर्यं बहूनिर्वहेत्" there is Vedic subordinate act.

स लौकिकः स्याद्द्रष्टृप्रवृत्तित्वात् ॥ ७।४।२ ॥

सः that; लौकिकः wordly, स्याद् is; द्रष्टृप्रवृत्तिस्त्वात् by seeing its application.

2. It is wordly, by seeing its application.

Now the question is, that when the इतिकर्तव्यता is not prescribed, then there is no rule to determine as to whether it is Vedic or profane? The objector's reply is that when there is nothing particular to indicate it, it should be considered secular. The acts performed to achieve the desired end are secular in as much as their applicability is seen.

वचनात् ततोऽन्यत्वम् ॥ ७।४।३ ॥

वचनात् by the text, तु on the other hand, ततः from that; अन्यत्वम् other-wise.

3. On the other hand, by the text, it is otherwise.

The objector continues that if there be any special text, then the इतिकर्तव्यता is Vedic.

लिङ्गेन वा नियम्येत तद्वस्य तद्गुणत्वात् ॥ ७।४।४ ॥

लिङ्गेन by the force of the text वा on the other hand; नियम्येत is regulated; तद्वस्य of the force of the text; तद्गुणत्वात् by reason of being its character.

4. On the other hand, it is regulated by the force of the text since it is the characteristic of the force of the text.

The author says that the इतिकर्तव्यता is not profane, it is Vedic. It is regulated by the inference derived from the text because it depends upon it. For instance, सौर्यचरं, प्रयज्ञेकृष्यारं, (तै. सं. II. 3. 2) &c. indicate that the इतिकर्तव्यता is Vedic but not profane.

अपि वाऽन्यापूर्वत्वाद्यत्र नित्यानुवादवचनानि स्युः

॥ ७।४।५ ॥

अपि not so; अन्यापूर्वत्वात् by reason of being based on unreasonable-ness; यत्र where, नित्यानुवादवचनानि permanent restatement.

5. Not so, being based on unreasonable-ness, when there is permanent restatement.

The objector says that you can not fix the Vedic इतिकर्तव्यता by inference from the texts, how can such inference be drawn where the passages are permanent repetition? It is therefore profane इतिकर्तव्यता.

मिथो विप्रतिषेधाच्च गुणानां यथार्थकल्पना स्यात्

॥ ७।४।६ ॥

मिथः mutual; विप्रतिषेधाच्च by reason of incompatibility, च and; गुणानां of subordinate acts; यथार्थकल्पना real applicability, स्यात् is.

6. And by reason of mutual incompatibility, there is the real applicability of the subordinate.

The objector continues in his own way and says that both वैदिक and लौकिक इतिकर्तव्यता can not exist side by side. If it is Vedic इतिकर्तव्यता, it can not be लौकिक. If it is लौकिक इतिकर्तव्यता, it can not be Vedic; when the लौकिक इतिकर्तव्यता is admitted to be applicable, all the subordinate acts of the model sacrifice are transferable. So only one is applicable and that is. लौकिक इतिकर्तव्यता.

भागित्वात् नियम्येत गुणानामभिधानत्वात्सम्बन्धाद्- भिधानवदथा धेनुः किशोरेण ॥ ७।४।७ ॥

भागित्वाद् by reason of participating, तु on the other hand; नियम्येत is limited; गुणानाम् of the subordinate acts, अभिधानत्वाद् by reason of indication; संबन्धाद् by relationship; अभिधानत्वात् like a name; वदथालike; धेनुः a cow, a mare, किशोरेण by its colt.

7. On the other hand, it is limited by reason of participating in the extraordinary principle because it indicates the subordinate acts. By virtue of relationship, it is like a name just as mare by the colt.

The author says that here the इतिकर्तव्यता is Vedic; because it partakes of the अपूर्व. The apurva is produced by the principal act and the subordinate acts lead up to it. When you mention अग्निहोत्र in कौटिल्य sacrifice, all the subordinate acts are meant by reason of the mutual relationship between the parts to the whole. He gives an illustration which can not be translated in any other language. धेनु means a cow but when there is the word 'किशोर' (colt) used, the word 'धेनु' comes to mean a mare. So the इतिकर्तव्यता in connection with the principal act which produces अपूर्व is Vedic.

उत्पत्तीनां समत्वाद्वा यथाधिकारं भावः स्यात् ॥७।४।८॥

उत्पत्तीनां of the origin; समत्वाद् by reason of equality; वा on the other hand; यथाधिकारं according to the context; भावः existence; स्यात् is.

8. On the other hand, by virtue of the equality of the origin, they are regulated by the context.

The शिङ्ग can not determine it, because प्रधान &c. are of equal origin. They are all the constituent parts of आग्नेय. So they pertain to the context of their principal (आग्नेय). If प्रधान be considered principal, then its शेष namely अनुवाक्य will be inferred. So the characteristics which are mentioned in connection with the प्रधान, are to be taken under that heading.

उत्पत्तिशेषवचनं च विप्रतिषिद्धमेकस्मिन् ॥७।४।९॥

उत्पत्तिशेषवचनं text as to principal and subordinate acts, च and; विप्रतिषिद्ध prohibition of the contrary; एकस्मिन् in one.

9. In one sentence, the principal and the subordinate acts are prohibited.

The objector says that when the subordinate acts go to make up the अपूर्व along with the principal, the constituent parts are raised up to a higher position; they are no longer subordinate acts. So the इतिवर्त्यता is not Vedic and your position that by one text both the principal and its parts are possible is untenable.

विध्यन्तो वा प्रकृतिवच्चोदनायां प्रवर्त्तत तथा हि
लिङ्गदर्शनम् ॥ ० । ४ । १० ॥

विध्यन्तो end of the विधि; वा on the other hand; प्रकृतिवत् like the model sacrifice; चोदनायां in a command; प्रवर्त्तत is applicable; तथा similarly; हि because; लिङ्गदर्शनम् force of the text,

10. On the other hand, it is the end of the विधि, like the model sacrifice, it is applicable in चोदना text; similarly is the force of the text.

The विधि is the command दर्शपूर्णमासाभ्यांयेत "Let him perform new and full moon and sacrifices." It is the commencement of the विधि; २. विध्यन्ति. The sentence or command on the strength of which a person acts or which prompts or induces a person to act or omit to act, is a विधि. विध्यन्त is the entire Brāhmaṇa with the पुरोडाश excepting the principal विधि. On the contrary, विध्यन्ति consists of the ब्राह्मण and पुरोडाश. The author says that the विध्यन्त makes the model sacrifice applicable; whatever procedure that belongs to the model sacrifice, applies to those of which it is the model. As for instance the procedure of those of which आग्नेय is the model, is from the आग्नेय. The model sacrifice of the सौर्यवाग is दर्शपूर्णमास. The whole procedure of दर्शपूर्णमास under the चोदना applies to सौर्यवाग. There are 8 constituent parts of आवना (1) what (2) by what (3) how. (1) साम्य (2) साम्य (3) इतिवर्त्यता. See at p. 443. The author says that the लिङ्ग also shows the name. The प्रमाण &c. belonging to दर्शपूर्णमास are found in सौर्यवाग. This argument shows that the इतिवर्त्यता is Vedic.

लिङ्गहेतुत्वादलिङ्गे लौकिकं स्यात् ॥ ० । ४ । ११ ॥

लिङ्गहेतुत्वाद् by virtue of लिङ्ग being the cause; लङ्गिणे in a case where there is no लिङ्ग; लौकिक profane; स्यात् is.

11. By virtue of the लिङ्ग being the cause, in a case where there is no लिङ्ग, it will be profane.

The objector says that you base your argument on the लिङ्ग. In those sacrifices where there is no लिङ्ग, the इतिवर्त्यता will not be Vedic. As for example ऐन्द्राग्नयेकादशकपालनिर्बपेत् "Let cakes baked on eleven pans be offered to इन्द्र and अग्नि"

लिङ्गस्य पूर्ववत्त्वाच्चोदनाशब्दसामान्यादेकेनापि निरूप्येत यथा स्थालीपुलाकेन ॥ ७ । ४ । १२ ॥

लिङ्गस्य of the force of the text, पूर्ववत्त्वात् by reason of the priority, च and, चोदनाशब्दसामान्यात् by reason of चोदना being common, एकेनापि by one only, निरूप्येत determines, यथा just like, स्थालीपुलाकेन with rice in a cauldron.

12. By reason of the priority of लिङ्ग and the चोदना being common, one only determines just as one (grain of) rice in a cauldron.

The author says that the लिङ्ग alone does not determine that the इतिकर्तव्यता is Vedic or profane, the चोदना which is common to all, coupled with the support of the लिङ्ग, determines that the इतिकर्तव्यता is Vedic. Just as you take only one grain of rice from the boiling kettle to see whether the rice has boiled or not, so one illustration is quite sufficient to settle the dispute that the इतिकर्तव्यता is Vedic.

Adhikaraṇa III. Sūtras : 3-20. Dealing with the subject that in गवामयन, the subordinate acts of ऐकाहिक should be performed.

द्वादशाहिकमहर्गणे तत्प्रकृतित्वादैकाहिकमधिकागमात्स-
दाख्यं स्यादेकाहवत् ॥ ७ । ४ । १३ ॥

द्वादशाहिक pertaining to the sacrifice lasting for 12 days, महर्गणे in several days; तत्प्रकृतित्वात् by reason of being the model of it; ऐकाहिकम् of one day; अधिकागमात् by reason of exceeding, तदाख्यं its name; स्यात् is; ऐकाहवत् like a sacrifice for a day.

13 In a sacrifice lasting for several days, the twelve days' sacrifice by reason of being the model of it; exceeding the songs of one day, they will be so called like a sacrifice for a day.

प्रजाकामा गवामयनमुपेयुः "They who are desirous of offspring, resort to गवामयन" After laying this down it is said that ज्योतिः, गौः and आशुः are one day sacrifices in it. The question is whether the इतिकर्तव्यता of द्वादशाह or एकाह applies to गवामयन? In गवामयन there are three यामs known as ज्योतिः, गौः and आशुः, they fall under the head of those sacrifices which last for several days, their model is द्वादशाह and as they have their names conventionally fixed, they are ऐकाह. In this state of doubt, the objector comes forward and says that the गवामयन has its model in the द्वादशाह by reason of its lasting for several days and the विभक्त is द्वादशाह though there are ऐकाहिक sacrifices named distinctly, yet they would not apply as more Vedic hymns are recited with modifications

लिङ्गाच्च ॥ १४११४ ॥

लिङ्गाच्च by reason of the force of the text, च and.

14. And by force of the text.

The objector gives a reason in support of his view. He says that the लिङ्ग also shows that the इतिकर्तव्यता of द्वादशाह belongs to गवामयन "द्वाभ्यां लोमावचति, द्वाभ्यां त्वच, द्वाभ्यामसृग् द्वाभ्यां मांसं" "With two he offers hair, with two he offers skin, with two he offers blood and with two he offers flesh." After giving these 6 pairs यद्द्वादशोप सवोभवति आत्मानं सेतुविरवद्यते "Those which are twelve उपसद्, (oblations) are offerings to the self" "From these texts, the inference is that the procedure of द्वादशाह applies. The illustration taken from ऐकादशिनी sacrifice is another लिङ्ग. There 361 series of soma extraction called सुति in a गवामयन, it is said यस्यातिरक्त मेकदशिन्या मालभेरन् अप्रियं भ्रातृव्यमतिरिच्येत द्वौ द्वौ पशुः समस्येयुः कनीयमायुः कुर्वीरन् यदंते ब्राह्मणवतः नवपशवामालभ्यते नाप्रियं भ्रातृव्यमतिरिच्यते न कनीयमायुः कुर्वीत "He who sacrifices an excess of animals in ऐकादशिनी, will have the increase of deadly enemies, two animals should be put in pair, the younger should be used in आयुः but they who sacrifice the nine animals belonging to ब्राह्मण will have neither an increase of deadly enemies, nor the younger will complete आयुः" If eleven is multiplied by 32, the total comes to 352, the remaining nine animals in order to complete 361 series of soma extractions are called ब्राह्मणवाक् in the text. This fact also shows that the इतिकर्तव्यता of द्वादशाह applies.

न वा क्रत्वभिधानादधिकानामशब्दत्वम् ॥ १४११५ ॥

न वा not so; क्रत्वभिधानात् by reason of the name of the sacrifice; अधिकानाम् of more songs, अशब्दत्वम् without an authority.

15. Not so, by reason of the name of the sacrifice; and of the more songs there is no authority.

The author gives his own view, he says that the name of the sacrifices is distinctly given; they are ऐकाह while the द्वादशाह is based upon inference of चोदक. The नामधेय which is based upon perception is superior to चोदक. So the result is that the इतिकर्तव्यता is of ऐकाह in a गवामयन. You say that more songs are recited, but there is no authority for this statement. It is not based on नामधेय but on a special text.

लिङ्गं संघातधर्मः स्यात्तदर्थोपत्तेर्द्रव्यवत् ॥ ७।४।१६ ॥

लिङ्ग force of the text, संघातधर्मः a characteristic of the collection of sacrifices, स्यात् is, तदर्थोपत्तेः by reason of securing the object; द्रव्यवत् like the material.

16. The लिङ्ग is the characteristic of the collection of sacrifices by reason of securing the object like the material.

As to लिङ्ग mentioned in सूत्र 14, the objector says that it is the characteristic of the बह्वर्ग्य The द्वादशाह is the collection of days (बह्वर्ग्यवत्) and it secures fruit गवामयन is also a species of बह्वर्ग्यवत् and it also secures a fruit. Here it partakes of all the characteristics of द्वादशाह. As for example when wild rice is substituted for the rice, it partakes of all the characteristics of the rice and undergoes all the processes required for purifying it and making it fit for the sacrifice.

न वार्थधर्मत्वात्संघातस्य गुणत्वात् ॥ ७।४।१७ ॥

न वा not so ; वार्थधर्मत्वात् by reason of partaking the characteristic of the reward ; संघातस्य गुणत्वात् the aggregate being subordinate.

17. Not so, by reason of partaking the characteristic of the reward, the aggregate being subordinate.

The author says that you are wrong, the द्वादशाह secures the object and so it does not partake of the quality of the बह्वर्ग्य, it being subordinate; just as when one says "bring me king's man", a man is brought but, not the king: so when one takes cooked food the principal ingredient is always thought of but not minor eatables namely vegetables and soup &c. The days therefore in the sacrifice produce the fruit but not the संघात (aggregate) so the 12 उपसदा (oblations) are not characteristics of the बह्वर्ग्य but of द्वादशाह.

अर्थोपत्तेर्द्रव्येषु धर्मलाभः स्यात् ॥ ७।४।१८ ॥

अर्थोपत्तेः by reason of securing the object; द्रव्येषु in the materials; धर्मलाभः transference of the characteristic; स्यात् is.

18. By reason of securing the object, there is transference of the characteristics in the materials.

The author says that you have given the example of the wild rice. It is a substitute of the rice and so it will partake of all its characteristics and undergoes all the processes.

प्रवृत्त्या नियतस्य लिङ्गदर्शनम् ॥ ७ । ४ । १९ ॥

प्रवृत्त्या by the application ; नियतस्य of the fixed ; लिङ्गदर्शनम् symbol or mark.

19. Fixed by the application, there is the symbol or mark.

The author says that the first day of द्वादशाह and that of गवामयन are called प्रायणीय. The twelve वर्षसदस as a matter of course follow, when the principal is accepted; they do not come by a बोद्धव्य text.

विहारदर्शनं विशिष्टस्यानारभ्यवादानां प्रकृत्यर्थत्वात्

॥ ७ । ४ । २० ॥

विहारदर्शनं seeing the 12th day ceremony ; विशिष्टस्य of 11th animal sacrifice which is special ; अनारभ्यवादानां of the general statement , प्रकृत्यर्थत्वात् by reason of being for the model sacrifice.

20. Seeing the 12th day ceremony of animal sacrifice which is special, by virtue of the general statement being for the model sacrifice.

The author further explains his view There is an एकादशिनी sacrifice in which 11 animals are sacrificed. There is a certain ceremony on the 12th day which is called विहार. There is अनारभ्य text belonging to no context आग्नेय मेव प्रथमेऽहनि आलभेरन्, सारस्वती मेरी द्वितीये, सोम्यं वज्रं तृतीये वाक्यं अंततः "Let an animal consecrated to Agni be brought for sacrifice on the first day, an ewe consecrated to सरस्वती on the second day, tawny coloured animal consecrated to सोम on the third day and an animal consecrated to वाक्य on the last day." This process is to be repeated. As a rule अनारभ्य text belongs to a model sacrifice, the present text will, therefore, apply to ऋषोत्तिहोम; but there are not many days, so the text will be read in connection with द्वादशाह. In the latter, there are no उपोतिः, गौः and जायुः, the text will therefore be read in connection with गवामयन. This is the reason why विहार is seen in गवामयन.

END OF PĀDA IV.

END OF CHAPTER VII.

CHAPTER VIII.

PADA I.

Adhikaraṇa I. Dealing with प्रतिज्ञा (promise, enunciation).

अथ विशेषलक्षणम् ॥ ८ । १ । १ ॥

अथ now ; विशेषलक्षणम् the definition of the special.

1. Now is the definition of the special.

In the foregoing chapter the अतिदेश has been described generally. Now the author enters into a new chapter and makes a promise to describe it specially. This sūtra is a प्रतिज्ञा sūtra and is an introduction to the subject which the author wishes to treat in the chapter.

Adhikaraṇa II. Dealing with the peculiarities of the special act.on.

यस्य लिङ्गमर्थसंयोगादभिधानवत् ॥ ८ । १ । २ ॥

यस्य whose, लिङ्गम् work, अर्थसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the object ; अभिधानवत् like a name.

2. Whose mark by reason of the connection with the object like a name.

सौर्यचन्द्रनिर्बपेद्वज्रवर्षसकामः (तै० सं० II. 3. 2) Here is a text "Boiled rice should be offered to सूर्य by a man who is desirous of the splendour of a Brāhmaṇa." In the text, we have the अपूर्व, it is the apūrva which actuates a person to the performance of an act. We have therefore in the text two essential elements of साधना given, namely साध्य and साधन. The सौर्ययाग is the means to secure the Brāhmaṇic glory or splendour. But the विध्यत or the procedure is not described. We do not know which is the देवता and what are the materials. It puts a person on an enquiry. The above text will read thus "सौर्यचन्द्रनिर्बपेदानेयवत्." The word निर्बपेत् is the लिङ्ग or mark which puts one to enquire how the offering should be made. The reply is that you should perform it like an आग्नेय sacrifice. The procedure of the आग्नेय will govern the सौर्ययाग.

Adhikaraṇa III Sūtras 3-10 dealing with the subject that in a soma-sacrifice, the characteristics of इष्टि are not transferred.

प्रवृत्तित्वादिष्टेः सोमे प्रवृत्तिः स्यात् ॥ ८ । १ । ३ ॥

प्रवृत्तित्वात् by reason of the application ; इष्टेः of इष्टि ; सोमे in सोम (sacrifice), प्रवृत्तिः procedure ; स्यात् is.

3. In a soma sacrifice, the procedure of इष्टि applies by reason of the application.

“उद्योतिहोमेन स्वर्गकामो यजेत” “A person desirous of heaven should perform अग्निहोम” The question is what is the (विष्यत्) procedure? The reply to the objector is that the procedure of इष्टि i. e. दशपूर्णमासवाग governs the सोम sacrifice. The reason is that the procedure of इष्टि applies to दीक्षणीया, आतिथ्या, प्रवचीया and animal sacrifice. Lastly comes सोमवाग. The objector says that the procedure of इष्टि governs all the above said sacrifices in order. Why should it not govern सोमवाग?

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ ८ । १ । ४ ॥

लिङ्गदर्शनात् by reason of the inference ; च and.

4. And there is also an inference.

एतदेकशतं प्रयाजानुयाजाः “It has one hundred प्रयाजs and अनुयाजs.” These characteristics of इष्टि are met with in a सोमवाग in which there are hundred प्रयाजs and अनुयाजs.

कृत्स्नविधानाद्वाऽपूर्वत्वम् ॥ ८ । १ । ५ ॥

कृत्स्नविधानात् by laying down all the details ; वा on the other hand ; अपूर्वत्वम् peculiarity of an extraordinary principle.

5. On the other hand, by laying down all the details, there is the peculiarity of an extraordinary principle.

The author says that the सोमवाग has all the details laid down, and therefore does not stand in need of borrowing the procedure from elsewhere. The इति कृतं स्यत् is known from the verb ‘यजति’.

सुगमिधारणाभावस्य च नित्यानुवादात् ॥ ८ । १ । ६ ॥

सुगमिधारणाभावस्य of non-existence of spoon and sprinkling of ghee ; च and ; नित्यानुवादात् by reason of the permanent restatement.

6. And there are no spoon and sprinkling of ghee by virtue of the permanent restatement.

“घृतं वै देवा ब्रूत्वा सोममग्नं सुचोवाह । तस्मात् सुचिसोमविनिर्नायते । न सोममाग्नेनाभिघादयति” “The gods making a thunderbolt from ghee, killed Soma; the two सुक् are its arms. The offering of soma is therefore not placed in सुक् (spoon) nor is it saturated with ghee.” The author assigns another reason for holding the सोमयाग to be a model in itself. He says that under the text there are no spoon and the sprinkling of ghee; if the दर्शपूर्णमास had been the model of सोमयाग, such could not have been the case. It is a नित्यानुवाद a permanent statement of fact.

विधिरिति चेत् ॥ ८ । १ । ७ ॥

विधिः prohibition ; इति चेत् if you say.

7. If it be said that it is a prohibition.

The objector says that it is not नित्यानुवाद but it is a negative precept; the text prohibits the two ingredients of दर्शपूर्णमास which are not applicable to सोमयाग It prohibits so much and no further.

न वाक्यशेषत्वात् ॥ ८ । १ । ८ ॥

न not, वाक्यशेषत्वात् by reason of completing the sentence.

8. No, by reason of completing the sentence.

The author says that it is not विधि but an अर्थवाद. It completes a sentence. अघचिषुर्वा एतत् सोमं यदभिषुण्वति । यदस्य सुचोवाहकुर्वति । यच्चाज्यमतिक्रमकाषुः । “Those who brew the soma, kill it, if they make spoons its arms and bring ghee near it.” There is elsewhere a विधि of which it is an अर्थवाद; अंशुरंशुस्ते देवसोमाप्यायताम् (T. S. I. 2. 11. 1.) ॥ “O! god, soma let each particle of thine increase.” If the former text be considered to be a विधि, there will be a split of a sentence.

शङ्कते चानुपोषणात् ॥ ८ । १ । ९ ॥

शङ्कते he doubts, च and; अनुपोषणात् by reason of not fasting.

9. And he doubts by reason of not fasting.

यदनुपोष्य प्रयायाद् ग्रीधवत् मेनममुष्मिन्लोके नेनीयेरंस्तस्मादुपोष्य प्रयायात् । “Those who remain without fasting, are carried to the other world tied with their necks, one should therefore remain fasting.” This is the procedure in दर्शपूर्णमास that one has to observe a fast but such is not the case in a सोमयाग and there is, therefore, no transference from दर्शपूर्णमास.

दर्शनमैष्टिकानां स्यात् ॥ ८ । १ । १० ॥

दर्शनम् seen ; ऐष्टिकानाम् minor offerings ; स्यात् is.

10. There are minor offerings seen.

This is a reply to the argument put forward in sūtra 4 by the objector. You say that there are प्रवाज and अनुवाज offerings from which you infer that the models of soma sacrifice are full and new moon sacrifices. But they are the offerings in दीक्षणीया &c down to अवभृथ. Their number is the same. They are the subordinate parts of सोमयाग which is therefore, an अवपूर्व in itself.

Adhikarapa IV. Dealing with the transference of the characteristic of इष्टिः in वैश्वानि sacrifice.

इष्टिषु दर्शपूर्णमासयोः प्रवृत्तिः स्यात् ॥ ८ । १ । ११ ॥

इष्टिषु in इष्टिः ; दर्शपूर्णमासयोः of the new and full moon sacrifices ; प्रवृत्तिः application ; स्यात् is

11. In इष्टिः there is the application of full and new moon sacrifices.

The question is what procedure will regulate वैश्वान sacrifice. The author has laid down a general law that the विध्यम् of दर्शपूर्णमास governs the इष्टिः. He has given no reason. Śābara says, that in the text ऐश्वानमेकादशक-कपयन्निर्वपेत् : "Let one offer cakes baked on eleven pans, to ईश and अग्नि dei- ties," the word निर्वपति means offering of ghee in a spoon to the fire; this procedure belongs to दर्शपूर्णमासयाग and so the procedure of दर्शपूर्णमास regu- lates the वैश्वान्.

Adhikarapa V. Dealing with the transference of the procedure of दर्शपूर्णमास to the जज्ञि- सोमीय animal sacrifice.

पशौ च लिङ्गदर्शनात् ॥ ८ । १ । १२ ॥

पशौ in an animal sacrifice ; च and ; लिङ्गदर्शनात् by seeing the inference from the text.

12. And in an animal sacrifice, by seeing the inference from the text.

The next question is, what is the procedure that regulates the जज्ञिसोमीय animal sacrifice? The author's reply is that it is the विध्यत of दशर्षणमास The reason, he says, is that an inference can be made from the Vedic texts. एकादश प्रयाजान् एकादशानुयाजान्, औषमाधार्य जुह्वापशुमनक्ति. "There are eleven प्रयाजs and eleven अनुयाजs, he besmears the animal with जुह्वा after sprinkling ghee from लुवा (ladle)".

Adhikaraṇa VI. Dealing with the transference of procedure of अग्निषोमीय to सवनीय and other animal sacrifice.

दैक्षस्य चेतरेषु ॥ ८ । १ । १३ ॥

दैक्षस्य, of अग्निषोमीय ; च and, इतरेषु in others.

13. And of अग्निषोमीय, in others.

The next question is, what procedure will regulate the सवनीय, निस्व and अनुवध्य? The reply is that the विध्यत of अग्निषोमीय applies to other animals also. The word दैक्ष means अग्निषोमीय. The लिंग is आलमेत which is common to all. The verb indicates that the model sacrifice is अग्निषोमीय. "वययाप्रातः सवने चरति, पुरोडाशेन मध्यं दिनेऽङ्गैस्तृतीयं सवने" । "They complete the morning libation with fat, midday with पुरोडाश cake and the third libation with limbs" The procedure of सवनस्य is common to all animal sacrifices. औदुम्बर-रोषो भवति. "A sacrificial post is made of उदुम्बर tree". These facts support the view embodied in the अधिकरण.

Adhikaraṇa VII. Dealing with the transference of the procedure of सवनीय to the ऐकादशिनी animal sacrifice.

ऐकादशिनेषु सौत्यस्य द्वैशान्यस्य दर्शनात् ॥ ८ । १ । १४ ॥

ऐकादशिनेषु a sacrifice in which eleven animals are sacrificed; सौत्यस्य of the time for preparing the सोम, द्वैशान्यस्य of two ropes; दर्शनात् by seeing.

14. By seeing the time for preparing the soma and two ropes in ऐकादशिनी animal sacrifice.

The question is, what विध्यत will govern the sacrifice in which eleven animals are sacrificed? The reply according to the author is that it is the विध्यत of सवनीय that governs the ऐकादशिनी. The reason is that two ropes by which animals are tied round a sacrificial post and the time for preparation of soma are common to both. अग्निहावेद्वैशने आदावह्राज्या रशान्यामे-कैर्द्वयपरिध्यति. "A priest fit to sit near the fire taking two ropes, ties the two ropes round each sacrificial post."

Adhikaraṇa VIII. Dealing with the transference of the procedure of ऐकादशिनी to the sacrifice where a large number of animals are sacrificed.

तत्प्रवृत्तिर्गणेषु स्यात्प्रतिपशु यूपदर्शनात् ॥ ८ । १ । १५ ॥

तत्प्रवृत्तिः its application; गणेषु collection of animals; स्यात् is; प्रति- पशुयूपदर्शनात् by reason of seeing separate sacrificial posts for each animal.

15. In the collection of animals, that applies by reason of seeing separate sacrificial posts for each animal.

We have seen अग्निषोमीय, सवनीय, अनुबन्ध and देकादशिनी where one and eleven animals are respectively sacrificed. The question is, what procedure will regulate a sacrifice where animals more than 11 are sacrificed? The author's reply is that the विध्वत् of देकादशिनी will apply. The reason is that in the first three, there is only 1 sacrificial post; it is only the देकादशिनी where there are more sacrificial posts than one. So the procedure of देकादशिनी applies to the पशुगण sacrifice.

Adhikarapa IX. Dealing with the transference of the procedure of सोमयाग to indefinite sacrifices.

अव्यक्तासु तु सोमस्य ॥ ८ । १ । १६ ॥

अव्यक्तासु in indefinite sacrifices; तु on the other hand; सोमस्य of the soma yāga.

16. On the other hand in indefinite sacrifices of the soma.

What is the procedure in those sacrifices in which the materials and the deity are not known? They are called अव्यक्तयाग which is translated here as indefinite "अग्निजितायजेत्" "Let him perform अग्निजित्." "In such cases" says the author "the सोमयाग is the model."

Adhikarapa X Dealing with the transference of the procedure of द्वादशाह to अहर्गण.

गणेषु द्वादशाहस्य ॥ ८ । १ । १७ ॥

गणेषु in sacrifices which last for days; द्वादशाहस्य of 12 day's sacrifice.

17. In sacrifices which last for days, of the द्वादशाह.

What is the procedure in those sacrifices which last for days? The reply according to our author is that it is the विध्वत् of द्वादशाह that governs अहर्गण, it belongs to the class of a द्वादशाह sacrifice.

Adhikarapa XI. Dealing with the transference of the procedure of गणयजन in a session of sacrifice lasting for a year.

गण्यस्य च तदादिषु ॥ ८ । १ । १८ ॥

कर्मणस्त्व of गवामयन sacrifice ; च and ; तदादि in sacrifices like it &c.

18. And in sacrifices like that &c., of the गवामयन.

What is the procedure in a session of sacrifices lasting for a year like आदित्यामयन, तपस्विनामयन &c ? The reply according to our author is that it is the विध्यत of गवामयन that governs them because they belong to the class of sacrifices lasting for a period of a year or upwards.

Adhikaraṇa XII. Dealing with the transference of the procedure of the first part to the latter part of an assemblage of days.

निकायिनां च पूर्वस्योत्तरेषु प्रवृत्तिः स्यात् ॥८११९॥

निकायिनां of assemblage of days ; च and , पूर्वस्य of the first , उत्तरेषु in the latter , प्रवृत्तिः application ; स्यात् is.

19. And of assemblage of days, the procedure of the first applies to the latter part.

There are sacrifices lasting for days called by one name such as साह च, सायस्क. The question is, what is the procedure that applies to them? The reason for this question is that the procedure for the preceding days is provided for but there is no provision for the procedure of the succeeding days. Under such circumstances, the procedure of the preceding days applies to the succeeding days.

Adhikaraṇa XIII. Sūtras 20—22 dealing with the subject that fruit &c. are not transferred.

कर्मणस्त्वप्रवृत्तित्वात्फलनियमकर्तृसमुदायस्यानन्वय-
स्तद्व्यन्धनत्वात् ॥ ८११२० ॥

कर्मणः of the principal act ; तु on the other hand ; अप्रवृत्तित्वात् by reason of non-application , फलनियमकर्तृसमुदायस्य of the fruit, the rule, the agent and the aggregate ; अनन्वयः non-transfer ; तद्व्यन्धनत्वात् by reason of dependence.

20. By reason of the non-application of the principal act, the fruit, the rule, the agent and the aggregate are not transferred, because they depend on it.

The present sūtra solves the question relating to the things that are transferred from the model sacrifice to the modified sacrifice. The principal act is not transferred, if that is transferred, then there will be no new name. It is only the characteristics or minor details that are transferred. The fruit is not transferred, the fruit of the model sacrifice and that of the modified sacrifice are different. The rule is also different, the दूरंगुण्यमास sacrifices are to be performed for one's whole life while सौर्वयाग is not to be performed for such a length of period. The sacrificers are different, they can not be one and the same at a time. The aggregate which goes to constitute the name of दूरंगुण्यमास can not be the same as that of the सौर्वयाग. So our author says that these aforesaid four parts can not be transferred, because they constitute the act and they are inseparable.

प्रवृत्तौ चापि तादर्थ्यात् ॥ ८ । १ । २१ ॥

प्रवृत्तौ in the application, च and; अपि also; तादर्थ्यात् by reason of its being for the object of that.

21. And in the application also by reason of its being for the object of that.

The author gives an additional reason in support of his view. He says that the minor details benefit the act but the fruit is for the sacrificer and it is not for the benefit of the action; similarly the rule is not for the action but for the guidance of the sacrificer to perform the sacrifice, the sacrificer himself is actuated by the desire to obtain heaven but not by the act itself; lastly the whole sacrifice is to secure the fruit but not to perform the act. So all these ingredients confer no benefit on the act itself, and are not, therefore, transferable.

अश्रुतित्वाच्च ॥ ८ । १ । २२ ॥

अश्रुतित्वाच्च by reason of being not laid down; च and;

22. And by reason of being not laid down.

The author gives another reason. He says that the procedure of दूरंगुण्यमास regulates the सौर्वयाग and so the प्रयाज and अनुयाज offerings are transferred as a matter of course to the सौर्वयाग. The fruit &c. can not be transferred by the विश्वं and there being no direct text for their transference, they can not be transferred.

Adhikāṅga XIV. Sūtras 23—25 dealing with the subject that the purificatory acts which are ends in themselves such as milking of the cows, are not transferable.

गुणकामेष्वश्रितत्वात्प्रवृत्तिः स्यात् ॥ ८ । १ । २३ ॥

गुणकामेषु in the subordinate acts which are objects in themselves; अश्रितत्वाच्च by reason of dependence; प्रवृत्तिः application, स्यात् is.

23 In the subordinate acts which are ends in themselves, by reason of dependence there is application.

The objector says that the subordinate acts which are performed for some object, are also transferable. As for example, गोदोहनेन प्रणयेत्पशुकामस्य, वपास्ते गायतानर "Let him carry water in a milk-pail, if desirous of cattle, O! singer, sing for him" In गोदोहनेन there is a ceremony which is called प्रणयन carrying of water in spoons, चमसेनापः प्रणयेत् । गोदोहनेन पशुकामस्य. "Carry water with a spoon, of one desirous of cattle in a milk-pail." This is in connection with new and full moon sacrifices. The दर्श and पूणमासयाग are the models of सौर्यायाग. When प्रणयन applies to the modified sacrifice, its dependent and connected ceremony गोदोहनेन is also transferred. When you pull the canvas, the picture which it bears, is also pulled along with it.

निवृत्तिर्वा कर्मभेदात्॥ ८ । १ । २४ ॥

निवृत्तिः non-application, वा on the other hand, कर्मभेदात् by reason of the difference of the act

24. On the other hand, there is non-application by reason of difference of the act.

The author says that the two acts are different. The object of the spoon is for the sacrifice and that of the milking of the cow is for the person. So it does not necessarily follow that on the application of the one, the other applies

अपि वाऽतद्विकारत्वात्कत्वर्थत्वात्प्रवृत्तिः स्यात्

॥ ८ । १ । २५ ॥

अपि वा on the other hand, अतद्विकारत्वात् by reason of its being not modified, कत्वर्थत्वात् by reason of its being for the sacrifice; प्रवृत्तिः application, स्यात् is

25. On the other hand, by reason of its being not modified and being for the sacrifice, there is the application.

"खादिरवीर्यकामाययूयकुः रीतः" । "For one who is desirous of strength, a sacrificial post of खदिर wood should be made." The author says that where the object is for the sacrifice, the subordinate act along with the object is transferred. The sacrificial post should be made of खदिर wood by a person desirous of prowess. The object of the sacrificial post is connected with the sacrifice.

Adhikarana XV. Dealing with the subject that in the cooked rice pertaining to सौर्ययाग, the two touching-ceremonies are optional.

एककर्मणि विकल्पोऽविभागो हि चोदनैकत्वात्

॥ ८ । १ । २६ ॥

एककर्मणि in one action ; विकल्पः option ; अविभागः indivisibility ; हि because ; चोदनैकत्वात् by reason of one command.

26. In one action, there is option because it is indivisible by reason of one command.

There is a text in connection with सौर्ययाग. सौर्यचरुं निर्विद्वद्ब्रह्मवर्णसकामः (तै० सं० II. 3 2) A person desirous of Brāhmanic splendour, should offer boiled rice consecrated to "sun." In the दर्शपूर्णमासयाग which are the model sacrifices, there are two acts of touching called अभिमर्शन "चतुर्होत्रापूर्णांमाली मभिमर्शेत् । पंचहोत्राभावस्य"'. Let one touch the offerings of पूर्णांमाली with चतुर्होत्र verse and the offerings of अभावस्य with पंचहोत्र verse "The "पृथिवीहोता" &c. are चतुर्होत्रमंत्र and "अग्निहोता" &c. are पंचहोत्रमंत्र (See p 388 and 389 of तै० ब्रा० Poona edition) The question is, whether this double अभिमर्शन applies to सौर्ययाग or not? Does चतुर्होता apply to सौर्ययाग when it is performed on the full moon day and पंचहोता when it is performed on the new moon day? The reply of the author is that it is optional. It can not be bifurcated in सौर्ययाग by reason of the बोद्धवा being one.

Adhikarana XVI. Dealing with the transference of the procedure of आग्नेय to the boiled rice in सूर्ययाग.

लिङ्गसाधारण्याद्विकल्पः स्यात् ॥ ८ । १ । २७ ॥

लिङ्गसाधारण्यात् by reason of the लिङ्ग (inference) being common ; विकल्पः option ; स्यात् is.

27. There is option by reason of the लिङ्ग being common.

The question is, whether the विध्यत of the boiled rice pertaining to सौर्ययाग is of दर्शपूर्णमास or आग्नेय? The objector says that according to the view expressed in the preceding अधिकरण, it is optional because there is one लिङ्ग "इवाग्ने प्रयागे कुर्यात्तदुहोति". तै० सं० II. 3. 3. In every प्रयाग, he makes a कुर्यात् offering."

ऐकार्थ्याद्वा नियम्येत पूर्ववत्त्वाद्विकारो हि ॥ ८ । १ । २८ ॥

ऐकार्थ्याद् by reason of its being for one object ; वा on the other hand;

नियन्ते is regulated; पूर्वत्वात् by reason of its being a model sacrifice; विकारः modified sacrifice; हि therefore.

28. On the other hand, it is regulated by reason of its being for one object; because it has a model, therefore it is a modified sacrifice.

The author says that the सौर्याग is a modified sacrifice and it has a model. Because सौर्याग and आग्नेय have one deity as their object, the विध्यत of आग्नेय therefore regulates the procedure of सौर्याग.

अश्रुतित्वान्नेति चेत् ॥ ८ । १ । २९ ॥

अश्रुतित्वात् by reason of not hearing it; इति चेत् if you say.

29. If you say "by reason of not hearing it".

The objector says that if you break up the उदित in सौर्या, it means 'whose deity is sun or suns' and the आग्नेय also, means 'whose deity is Agni or अग्नि'. So the सौर्या and आग्नेय have not one deity as their object.

स्याल्लिङ्गभावात् ॥ ८ । १ । ३० ॥

स्यात् is, लिङ्गभावात् by force of the text.

30. There is one deity by the force of the text.

The author says that there are texts which indicate that the deity of the aforesaid sacrifices is one.

In connection with सौर्याग. "अमुमेवादित्यं स्वेन मागधेयेनोपधावति सयवैर्ब्रह्मवर्चसंगमयनि" (तै० सं० २।१।१८) "He runs near the sun with his portion of offering; he obtains Brāhmaṇic splendour for him." In connection with आग्नेय there is the following text :—

अग्निरोवाहृतउत्तमाः स्वर्गमार्यस्तेयवृद्धास्त्वभ्यायंस्ते पुरोवाहकुर्मन्वा मसर्वतमपश्यं स्तं वृन् इद्रायन्नियस्व बृहस्पतयेन्नियस्व विश्वेभ्यो देवेभ्योन्नियस्वेति । सतानाह न्निये । तमवृद्धाग्नये न्नियस्वेति । सोमवीत् न्नियेह । यदाग्नेवोऽष्टाकपासोऽमावस्यायापोर्णमास्यां चाच्युतोभवति । अग्निमेव स्वेन मागधेयेन समवृषति ॥ तै० सं० (२।६।३) "The Angiras having been uplifted from here, went to heaven; having gone to the sacrificial ground they saw पुरोवाह in the form of a tortoise creeping; they said 'stop for इन्द्र'; 'stop for बृहस्पति' "for all the gods, stop." He said to them "I shall not stop." They said "stop for Agni." He said "I shall stop" When one offers cakes baked on eight pans on new and full moon days, he becomes exalted; he nourishes Agni with his own share."

तथा चान्यार्थदर्शनम् ॥ ८ । १ । ३१ ॥

तथा similarly ; च and ; अन्यार्थदर्शनम् seeing the other texts.

31. Similarly there are other texts.

The author quotes other texts in support of one deity. "अग्निर्हमूष्मादिभः" Rig Veda V. II 44 16. "Agni is the head of heaven. "वदुःखं वातवेदसः" Rig. Veda I. 50. 1. "Him, the well known Sun," in सौर्ज्याय.

Adhikarapa XVII. Sūtras 32-34 dealing with the subject that in the collision of the offering and the deity, the offering prevail.

विप्रतिपत्तौ हविषा नियम्येत कर्मणस्तदुपाख्यत्वात् ॥ ८ । १ । ३२ ॥

विप्रतिपत्तौ in case of conflict ; हविषा by offering , नियम्येत is regulated ; कर्मणः of action ; तदुपाख्यत्वात् by reason of its being an integral part of it.

32. In case of conflict, it is regulated by the offering, by reason of the action being the integral part of it.

There is a text ऐन्द्रमेकादशकपाङ्गनिर्वदेत्. "Let him offer cakes baked on eleven pans to इन्द्र". There are two words here from which an inference can be made; if you look to 'ऐन्द्र' it is governed by the सत्वाय procedure; if you look to 'एकादशकपाङ्ग' then the विप्रत्त of पुरोडाश applies. In this kind of conflict, the author says that the offering governs the procedure but not the deity. The reason is that the internal part of the sacrifice is the material and external part of it is the deity.

तेन च कर्मसंयोगात् ॥ ८ । १ । ३३ ॥

तेन with that ; च and ; कर्मसंयोगात् by reason of its connection with the act.

33. And with that, by reason of its connection with the action.

The author gives another reason in support of his view. What he says is, that the offering is the विद्म of the action, just as smoke is that of the fire.

गुणत्वेन देवताश्रुतिः ॥ ८ । १ । ३४ ॥

गुणत्वेन as a quality, देवताश्रुतिः the mention of the deity.

34. As a quality there is the mention of the deity.

The author further expands his view राजपुरुषः पूज्यः 'A king's man is to be respected.' Here the king is not praised; it is his official; so in the same way in ऐन्द्रपयः 'milk consecrated to इन्द्र', the attention is at once directed to पय (milk) but not to ऐन्द्र. (consecrated to इन्द्र) So the deity is subordinate and is mentioned as such.

The second explanation is that the sacrifice secures the fruit desired and is performed in honour of the deity. So in an indirect way the deity confers the boon and he is therefore praised indirectly and is, therefore, subordinate.

Adhikarana XVIII. Sūtras 35-39. Dealing with the subject that in the हिरण्य sacrifice called (शतकृण्यक) hundred rattis, the procedure of the material applies.

हिरण्यमाज्यधर्मस्तेजस्त्वात् ॥ ८ । १ । ३५ ॥

हिरण्यम् golden sacrifice, आज्यधर्मे. partakes of the procedure of ghee offering, तेजस्त्वात् by reason of the splendour.

35. The golden sacrifice partakes of the procedure of the ghee offerings by reason of the splendour.

There is a sacrifice called हिरण्य in which there are hundred pieces of gold weighing a ratti. There is a text in connection with it प्राजापत्यवृत्तेष्वग्निर्वेषेच्छतकृण्यलमायुष्कामः "One who is desirous of longevity should offer hundred pieces of gold in the shape of rice boiled in ghee to प्राजापति" See at 419. The question is, whether it partakes of the procedure of the ghee oblation which is made silently or of the wild rice offerings? The reply according to the objector, is that it is the procedure of ghee offerings that regulates it, because according to the view expressed in the foregoing Adhikarana, it is the similarity of the material that regulates the procedure. Here gold is transparent and ghee is also transparent and both are therefore similar.

धर्मानुग्रहाच्च ॥ ८ । १ । ३६ ॥

धर्मानुग्रहाच्च by partaking of the quality; च and.

36. And by partaking of the quality.

The objector further supports his view by saying that gold partakes many of the qualities of ghee. As for instance reflection.

औषधं वा विशदत्वात् ॥ ८ । १ । ३७ ॥

औषधं pertaining to the sacrifice in which wild rice is used ; वा on the other hand ; विशदत्वात् by reason of its expansion.

37. On the other hand, it partakes of the procedure of the sacrifice in which wild rice is used by reason of its expansion.

The author rejects the view of the objector. No; there you are wrong; the gold pieces after which the sacrifice is called are very strong and solid, and the wild rice is also solid, so there is a similarity between the gold and the wild rice by reason of their being solid. Gold is solid but ghee in its natural state is liquid, so there is no similarity.

चरुशब्दाच्च ॥ ८ । १ । ३८ ॥

चरुशब्दात् by reason of the word 'boiled rice', च and.

38. And by reason of the word 'boiled rice'.

The author gives an additional reason in support of his view. He says that the word चरु is used in the text quoted in the commentary on सूत्र 35.

तस्मिंश्च अणुश्रुतेः ॥ ८ । १ । ३९ ॥

तस्मिन् in it; च and, अणुश्रुतेः by reason of the mention of boiling.

39. And in it, there is mention of boiling.

The author gives further reason in support of his view. He says that we hear of boiling, this is possible in case of rice but not in the case of ghee.

Adhikarapa XIX. Sūtras 40—43 dealing with the subject that in the honey mixed with water there is the transference of the procedure pertaining to the ghee oblation done in silence.

मधूदके द्रव्यसामान्यात्पयोविकारः स्यात् ॥ ८ । १ । ४० ॥

मधूदके in honey mixed with water, द्रव्यसामान्यात् by reason of similarity of fluidity, पयोविकारः modification of milk, स्यात् is.

40. In honey mixed with water by similarity of fluidity, there is the modification of milk.

In connection with चित्रा sacrifice it is laid down “दधिमधुघृतं चाना उदकत-दुल्लः तत्तत्तुष्टं प्राजापत्यं भवति” “Curd, honey, ghee, fried rice, water and rice; all these mixed together are fit offerings to प्राजापति.” The question is what procedure is applicable to the mixture of honey and water called मधूदक.

The objector says that milk is also liquid and the honey-mixture is also liquid; so the procedure applicable to समाध regulates the procedure of the mixture under discussion.

आज्यं वा वर्णसामान्यात् ॥ ८ । १ । ४१ ॥

आज्यं pertaining to ghee oblation ; वा on the other hand ; वर्णसामान्यात् by reason of the similarity of the colour

41. It is the procedure applicable to the ghee oblations that regulates it, by reason of the similarity of colour

The author gives a positive denial and says that the procedure of ghee offering applies, the reason is that the honey mixture and ghee are both similar in colour.

धर्मानुग्रहाच्च ॥ ८ । १ । ४२ ॥

धर्मानुग्रहात् by reason of partaking of its quality ; च and.

42. And by reason of partaking of its quality.

The author supports his view by another reason that both ghee and the honey-mixture can be cleaned and the milking of the cow which is a peculiarity of the milk is not applicable to the honey mixture. So the procedure of the ghee oblations governs the honey mixture.

पूर्वस्य चाविशिष्टत्वात् ॥ ८ । १ । ४३ ॥

पूर्वस्य of the former , च and , अविशिष्टत्वात् by reason of its being common.

43. And of the former being common.

The author further explains his view. You say that both milk and honey-mixture are liquid, and therefore similar, but ghee is also liquid; so your argument loses force on the ground of fluidity. So the silent procedure, which pertains to the ghee oblations, regulates the honey-mixture.

END OF PĀDA I.

PĀDA II,

Addition: 1 Śūtras 1—9 dealing with the transference of the procedure pertaining to दध्ना समाध to आज्ये and सौत्रा मयि.

वाजिने सोमपूर्वत्वं सौत्रामण्याञ्च ग्रहेषु ताच्छब्दात्

॥ ८ । २ । १ ॥

वाजिने, in वाजिनेऽग्नौ ; सोमपूर्वत्वं whose model is सोम yāga ; सौत्रामण्या in सौत्रामण्यि ; च and ; ग्रहेषु cups ; ताच्छब्दात् by reason of the word 'सोम'.

1. In वाजिनेऽग्नौ and in the cups of सौत्रामण्यि, the soma yāga is the model by reason of the word 'soma'.

There are sacrifices known as वाजिनेऽग्नौ and सौत्रामण्यि. What is the procedure in these two sacrifices, whether it is of सोमयाग or दशरूपमासयाग? The texts in connection thereof are as follows "वाजिभ्योवाजिनं" "वाजिनं गृह्णाति" "To the horses, whey." "He takes वाजिन cup" The objector says that the विषयत of सोमयाग applies, because of the word सोम occurring in that connection "सोमो वै वाजिनं" "सुरासोम." "Soma is whey." "The wine is Soma."

अनुवचदकाराच्च ॥ ८ । २ । २ ॥

अनुवचदकारात् by reason of pronouncing the word वचदकार in the end ; च and.

2. And by reason of pronouncing the word 'वचदकार' in the end.

The objector now proceeds to give reason in support of his view "वाजिनस्याग्नेवीहीत्यनुवचदकरोति" सुरायावीहीत्यनुवचदकरोति." "He pronounces वचद after 'come, O! Agni, for the sake of whey'." "He pronounces वचद after come, for the sake of wine'." Here in these texts the वचदकार is pronounced at the end, this fact goes to show that the procedure of सोम governs these sacrifices.

समुपहूय भक्षणाच्च ॥ ८ । २ । ३ ॥

समुपहूय after invitation ; भक्षणात् by eating ; च and.

3. And by eating after invitation.

The objector gives the third reason in support of his view that the procedure of सोम guides these sacrifices. Just as in soma yāga people are invited and partake of the soma juice so also here the same thing happens. In सौत्रामण्यि wine is drunk in cups.

क्रयणश्रपणपुरीक्षगुपयामग्रहणासादनवासोपनहनञ्च तत्
तत् ॥ ८ । २ । ४ ॥

अपय purchasing; अपय boiling, पुरोह्य offering; अश्विन taking; आसादन placing; वासोपनहन tying in a cloth; वासोपनहन it.

4. Purchasing, boiling, offering, reciting (of अपय &c.) purchasing, placing and tying in a cloth, are like it.

The objector further supports his view by किन्तु. (1) अपय, just as soma is purchased so is wine "सीसेनपणीवात् अपयः कुपयसकुनिराविर्भीषति" "With lead, it should be purchased from a eunuch; he purchases अश्विन cup with gruel of a water-lily" (2) अपय, just as soma is fermented, so is wine "मैत्रावरुणपयसाभीषातिआश्विनं सकुभिः भीषाति." "He boils milk for मित्रावरुण deities, he ferments wine with gruel." (3) पुरोह्य, there is one offering in both. (4) अपयामर्ग, "उपयामग्रहीतोऽप्यभिद्रायत्वा" "Thou art taken by means of a ladle for thy continual pouring." It is recited in both (5) अश्विन, "अश्विनं ग्रह्णुयाति" "He takes the Aśvin cup." Taking of the cup is similar in both. (6) आसादन; गृहीत्वाऽऽसादति "After upholding it, he places it," placing of the cups is similar (7) वासोपनहन putting on silk cloth and living in this way for three nights. The वासोपनहन is very different word. From sūtra 181 of chap. VII of कात्यायन श्रौतसूत्र it appears that it is a piece of cloth for tying soma.

अप्यतिथ्यमोपनहनमाहर सोमपर्योणहनमाहरोष्णीषमाहरेति "He orders 'Bring cloth for tying soma, bring cloth for carrying it from the cart, and bring turban.'" p. 456 of कात्यायनश्रौतसूत्र of Chaukhamba Sanscrit series From these distinctive marks, the objector infers that विषय of सोमयाम applies to the वाजिनेय्या and सौत्रामणि

हविषा वा निषम्येत तद्विकारत्वात् ॥ ८ । २ । ५ ॥

हविषा by the offering: वा on the other hand, निषम्येत is regulated; तत् that, विकारत्वात् by reason of its modification.

5. On the other hand, it is regulated by the offering by reason of its modification.

The author gives his own view and says that it is the sameness of the material which is the विषय. It is therefore the procedure of the new and full moon sacrifices, that governs the वाजिनेय्या and सौत्रामणि because वाजि is the modified form of लवण and wine is the fermented form of some vegetable.

प्रशंसा सोमशब्दः ॥ ८ । २ । ६ ॥

प्रशंसा praise; सोमशब्दः the word 'सोम'.

... is by way of praise.

The objector replies each point raised in the opening part of the अधि- करणम्. He says that as to the word सोम occurring in the text quoted on the commentary on sūtra 1, it is by way of extolling it.

वचनानीतराणि ॥ ८ । २ । ७ ॥

वचनानीतराणि words; इतराणि others.

7. Others are mere words.

As to the reasons given in sūtra 4, the author says that they are verbal, they do not apply.

व्यपदेशश्च तद्वत् ॥ ८ । २ । ८ ॥

व्यपदेशः naming; च and; तद्वत् like it.

8. And the naming is like it.

The author says that the naming is also in praise and means no more “शवीरेवदीक्षणीयमाप्नोति । सोऽन्नमिः प्रायणीया । सिंहलोममिरातिर्वा ॥ “He performs दीक्षणीया with grass, प्रायणीया with new barley grain, मिरातिर्वा with the lion's hairs.”

पशुपुरोडाशस्य च लिङ्गदर्शनम् ॥ ८ । २ । ९ ॥

पशुपुरोडाशस्य of animal पुरोडाशः; च and; लिङ्गदर्शनम् seeing the mark.

9. And by seeing the marks of animal पुरोडाशः.

The author says that there is a distinctive mark. The cups are called पशुपुरोडाशः. “नैतेषां पशूनां पुरोडाशा विद्यन्ते । अहंपुरोडाशादव्यक्ते पशवः” “The cakes of the flesh of these animals do not exist, but these animals are cakes in the form of cups.” The cakes of the animal sacrifice are not used but the cups are called पुरोडाश here.

Adhikaraṇa 11. Sūtras 10—11 dealing with the subject that in the animal sacrifice, the procedure of संज्ञाया applies.

पशुः पुरोडाशविकारः स्याद्देवतासामान्यात् ॥ ८ । २ । १० ॥

पशुः animal sacrifice; पुरोडाशविकारः modification of पुरोडाशः; स्यात् is; *देवता
सामान्यात्* by reason of the similarity of the deity.

10. Animal sacrifice is the modification of पुरोडाशः by reason of the similarity of the deity.

In इवेतिष्टोम sacrifice, an अग्नीषोमीय animal is sacrificed “वेदीक्षितो- यदग्नीषोमीयं पशुना लभते” “He is initiated, who brings अग्नीषोमीय animal for sacrifice” In this connection the question is, whether in the case of an animal sacrifice, the procedure of the purodāśa applies or that of सत्राय? The reply of the objector is that it is the procedure of पुरोडाश that applies here. The reason is that the deity of the अग्नीषोमीय and the पुरो- डाश is the same.

प्रोक्षणाच्च ॥ ८ । २ । ११ ॥

प्रोक्षणात् by sprinkling water, च and.

11 And by sprinkling of water.

The objector gives a reason in support of his view. Sprinkling of water is the characteristic of the पुरोडाश and it is also found in the animal sacrifice अग्न्यस्त्वैवधीभ्यो जुष्टं प्रोक्षामि, “I sprinkle water of the herbs on the worshipped.” (Māṇḍūkya Samhitā, I 2 15; 24. 12. III. 8. 6, 124. 11).

पर्यग्निकरणाच्च ॥ ८ । २ । १२ ॥

पर्यग्निकरणात् by surrounding it with fire on all sides, च and.

12. And by surrounding it with fire on all sides.

The objector further gives his reason in support of his view. He says that making a circle of fire is the characteristic of पुरोडाश “आहवनीया हुत्मुक्तेन पशुं पर्यग्निकरोति”, “He surrounds an animal with the torch fire on all sides from आहवनीय.”

सन्नाय्यं वा तत्प्रभवत्वात् ॥ ८ । २ । १३ ॥

सन्नाय्यं pertaining to सत्राय, वा on the other hand; तत्प्रभवत्वात् by reason of being produced from it

13. On the other hand, it is the modification of सत्राय by reason of its being produced from it.

The author proceeds to lay down his own view and says, that it is the modified form of सत्राय i. e. the procedure of सत्राय applies to the animal sacrifice. The reason is that it is produced from the animal. See the explanation of सत्राय in the commentary on sūtra 41 of pāda IV of chap. VI, at p. 353.

तस्य च पात्रदर्शनात् ॥ ८ । २ । १४ ॥

तस्य its; च and; पात्रदर्शनात् by seeing the vessel.

14. And by seeing its vessel.

The author now relies on the लिङ्ग. An उखा a kind of vessel, used in सञ्जाय, is seen in an animal sacrifice. This fact also strengthens his view “यदिपशुहजारापचेत्” “If one roasts flesh in an उखा.” उखा is a kind of moving hearth. See at p. 244.

A linkarava III. Sūtras 15-18 dealing with the transference of the procedure of milk to the animal sacrifice.

दध्नः स्थान्मूर्तिसामान्यात् ॥ ८ । २ । १५ ॥

दध्नः of the curd, स्वात् is, मूर्तिसामान्यात् by reason of the similarity of the form.

15. Of the curd by reason of the similarity of the form.

We have seen in the preceding अधिकरण that the procedure of सञ्जाय applies to पशु sacrifice. What is सञ्जाय, whether it is the modification of curd or milk? The objector says that it is the modification of curd because both animal and curd are solid.

पयो वा कालसामान्यात् ॥ ८ । २ । १६ ॥

पयः milk; वा on the other hand, कालसामान्यात् by reason of time being common.

16. On the other hand, milk by reason of time being common.

The author gives his own view that the model is milk. Milk and flesh are produced fresh from an animal, they are not modifications of any. Curd is produced from milk. Milk is internal part and curd is external.

पश्वानन्तर्यात् ॥ ८ । २ । १७ ॥

पश्वानन्तर्यात् by reason of animal being proximate.

17. By reason of the animal being proximate.

The author gives another reason in support of his view. He says that both flesh and milk are produced from an animal directly and nothing intervenes.

द्रवत्वं चाविशिष्टम् ॥ ८ । २ । १८ ॥

द्रवत्वं motion; च and, अविशिष्टम् being common.

18. And motion being common,

The author proceeds to give another reason in support of his view. An animal goes and milk flows if not kept in a vessel. So the quality of इवत्वं is common to both.

Adhikaraṇa IV. sūtras 19--23 dealing with the transference of the procedure of milk to अमिक्षा.

आमिक्षाभयभाव्य-वादुभयविकारः स्यात् ॥८।२।१८॥

आमिक्षा curd dish, उभयभाष्यत्वात् by reason of being produced from both; उभयविकारः the modification of both, स्यात् is.

19. आमिक्षा is the modification of both by reason of being produced from both.

The objector says that आमिक्षा is the modification of both milk and curd "तत्ते पयसि रध्वानयनि स्वादेष्टव्यामिक्षा" "It is called, आमिक्षा consecrated to all the duties, when curd is put in hot milk" आमिक्षा is produced thus. First milk is heated and curd is placed in it. The solid portion of it, is called आमिक्षा and the watery portion is called वाजिण. See at p. 207. The objector's view is that it is produced from both, so it partakes the nature of both. It is, therefore, a modification of both.

एकं वा चोदनेकत्वात् ॥ ८ । २ । २० ॥

एकं one; वा on the other hand, चोदनेकत्वात् by reason of one command.

20. On the other hand, by reason of one command.

The author says that it can be a modification of one but can not be a modification of both, because the text quoted by you, shows that there can be only one विध्यत "स्वादेष्टव्यामिक्षा". "A curd-dish consecrated to स्वदेष्टव्या

दधिसंघातसामान्यात् ॥ ८ । २ । २१ ॥

दधि curd, संघातसामान्यात् by reason of solidity being common.

21. It is curd by reason of solidity being common.

The objector says "let your view be accepted; let it be a modification of one only. In that case आमिक्षा is the modification of curd because the curd is thick and आमिक्षा is also thick."

पयो वा तत्प्रधानत्वात्सलोकवद्गुणस्तदर्थत्वात् ॥८।२।२२॥

दधः milk; च on the other hand; प्रधानत्वाद् by reason of its being principal; लोकात् as in ordinary life; दधः of curd; तदर्थत्वाद् by reason of its being for it.

22. On the other hand, it is milk, by reason of its being principal as in ordinary life because curd is for it.

The author says that आमिक्षा is a modification of milk. The milk is in large quantity and curd is put in the heated milk in a small quantity.

The milk is principal and the curd is for thickening it and is therefore of secondary importance. In the absence of curd, any other acid can be put in, for thickening the milk. So the आमिक्षा is a modification of milk.

धम्मानुगृह्यच्च ॥ ८ । २ । २३ ॥

चर्नानुग्रहात् by partaking of its quality, च and.

23. And by partaking of its quality.

The author gives another reason in support of his view. He says that milk is fresh and the वैशदेव is also fresh. But curd is stale and can not, therefore, be the model of आमिक्षा.

Ādhikarapa V. Sūtras 24-28 dealing with the subject that in द्वादशाह by reason of the division of सत्र & अहीन, the procedure applies according to the rule.

सत्रमहीनश्च द्वादशाहस्तस्योभयथा प्रवृत्तिरैककर्मात्

॥ ८ । २ । २४ ॥

सत्र sacrificial session; अहीनः a sacrifice lasting for days; द्वादशाह lasting for 12 days, तद्वत् its, उभयथा both ways; प्रवृत्तिः application; ऐक-कर्मात् by reason of the action being one.

24. Sacrificial sessions and the sacrifice lasting for more than one day are द्वादशाह; its application is both ways by reason of the action being one.

The sacrifices which last for many days and are called द्वादशाह, are as follows प्राचक्षीय, अतिरात्र, पृष्टय, वडह, अयस्कंदोमा, अविवाक्यमहः, उदयनीय, अनि-रात्र. They are therefore divided into two main heads (1) अहीन and (2) सत्र. One or two persons may join together in an अहीन sacrifice lasting for more than one day and in a सत्र many persons take part. "एकोही वाहयोवा-

ऽग्नीनेनयजेत् । तादृशोक्तिना या तयेयुः । गृहपतिस्तदशाखयमुत्विजो ब्राह्मणः सत्र-मुपेयुः ॥ "Let one, two or many perform अहीन, let the initiated one make them perform their sacrifice, the master of the house himself, seventeen ऋत्विक्s and ब्राह्मणs sit in a sacrificial session" The विध्यत of द्वादशाह is two fold and द्वादशाह is the model of the अहर्गण sacrifice "द्वादशाह इवहर्गणानां प्रकृतिः"
"द्वादशाह is the model of अहर्गण sacrifices" Further अहर्गण are of two kinds (1) the sacrifices lasting for two nights to 11 nights called अहीन, (2) the sacrifices lasting for thirteen nights and upwards called सत्रs The objector says that the अहीन and सत्र are अहर्गण, so their procedure is governed by द्वादशाह.

अपि वा यजतिश्रुतेरहीनभूतप्रवृत्तिः स्यात्प्रकृत्या तुल्य
शब्दत्वात् ॥ ८ । २ । २५ ॥

अपि वा on the other hand, यजतिश्रुतेः by reason of the text about यजति;
अहीनभूतप्रवृत्तिः the application of अहीन, स्यात् is, प्रकृत्या with model sacrifice;
तुल्यशब्दत्वात् by reason of the equality of the word

25. On the other hand, by hearing 'यजति', the application is of अहीन, because of the equality of the word with the model.

The author says, you are wrong where you hear the word 'यजति', it applies to अहीन and the procedure of अहीन applies. The reason is that the word applicable to the modified sacrifice is the same as that applicable to the model sacrifice. As for instance "द्वादशाहेनप्रजाकामोयजेत्." "Let one who is desirous of progeny, perform द्वादशाह" But in those sacrifices of which सत्र is the model, the verb 'आसीरत्', or 'उपेयुः' is used as ऋत्विक्कामोऽसीरत् । ऋत्विक्कामोऽसीरत् । "Let one desirous of wealth perform a sacrifice"

द्विरात्रादीनामेकादशरात्रादहीनत्वं यजतिचोदनात्

॥ ८ । २ । २६ ॥

द्विरात्रादीनाम् of द्विरात्रि etc; ऐकादशरात्रात् up to sacrifices lasting for eleven nights; अहीनत्वं partaking the nature of अहीन, यजतिचोदनात् by reason of the command expressed in यजति.

26. Of द्विरात्र &c. up to sacrifices lasting for eleven nights are अहीन by reason of the command expressed in यजति.

The author explains those sacrifices which are governed by यजतिचोदना.
They are sacrifices lasting for two nights up to eleven nights. Their procedure is governed by the अहीन sacrifice, because they are अहीन i. e. come under the class of sacrifices lasting for more than one day."

त्रयोदशरात्रादिषु सत्रभूतस्तेष्व्वासनोपायिचोदनात्

॥ ८ । २ । २७ ॥

त्रयोदशरात्रादिषु in those sacrifices which last for 13 nights and upwards; सत्रभूतः the procedure of सत्र, तेषु in them, आसनोपायिचोदनात् by reason of the word उपासीरन् and उपेयुः

27, In those sacrifices which last for 13 nights and upwards, the procedure of सत्र applies by reason of the words "उपेयुः" and "उपासीरन्."

The author explains what सत्रs are. There are sacrifices lasting for 13 nights or upwards and their procedure is that of a सत्र. You can find them out by such words as उपेयुः and उपासीरन्. For example "त्रयोदशरात्रं ऋद्धिकामा उपेयुश्चतुर्दशरात्रं प्रतिष्ठाकामा उपासीरन्", "Those who are desirous of wealth perform a sacrifice lasting for thirteen nights, and those who are desirous of honour, perform a sacrifice lasting for a fortnight."

लिङ्गाच्च ॥ ८ । २ । २८ ॥

लिङ्गाच्च by reason of a mark, च and.

28. And by reason of a mark.

The author in support of his view makes an inference from the Vedic texts.

अग्निष्टोमो वै प्रजापतिः स उत्तरानेकाहानसृजन । तमेतं द्विरात्रायोऽहर्गणायुञ्जु सवमस्मान् माहासीः ॥ "अग्निष्टोम is the lord of the universe he created the succeeding ones and एकाहs, the द्विरात्रs &c. which are the अहर्गणs said to him, 'dost thou not kill us' "

Adhikarapa VI. Sūtras 29-32 dealing with the transference of the procedure of सत्र to पंच-दशरात्र &c.

अन्यतरतोऽतिरात्रत्वात् पंचदशरात्रस्याहीनत्वं कुण्ड-

पायिनामयनस्य च तद्भूतेष्वहीनत्वस्य दर्शनात् ॥ ८ । २ । २९ ॥

अन्यतरतः by reason of being other ; अतिरात्रत्वात् by reason of being अति- रात्र, पंचदशरात्रस्य of a sacrifice which lasts for 15 nights, अहीनत्वं the nature of अहीन, कुण्डपायिनामयनस्य of कुण्डपायिनामयन, च and, तद्भूतेषु in their dependence on it, अहीनत्वस्य दर्शनात् by seeing the nature of अहीन.

29. By reason of being other and being अतिरात्र, the पंचदशरात्र and कुंडपायिनामयन are अहीन because the अहीन nature is seen in their dependence on it.

पंचदशगात्रs are “त्रिवृद्ग्निरग्निष्टोमः त्रिरात्रो दशरात्र उदयनीयोत्तरात्रः”

त्रिवृत्, अग्निष्टुत् अग्निष्टोमः, त्रिरात्रः, दशरात्रः, उदयनीयः and अतिरात्रः

In कुंडपायिनामयन there is monthly अग्निहोत्र in the beginning and दशरात्र in the end. The महाव्रतs are उदयनीय, and अतिरात्र. In these two, there is no अतिरात्र in the beginning but there is in the end. The सूत्र therefore uses the word अन्यतर other or latter. The objector says that the पंचदशरात्र and कुंडपायिनामयन being अतिरात्र in the latter part, they have the distinctive features of अहीन. He further relies on the text ‘यदन्यतरतोत्तरात्रस्तेनाहीनः’ “because the latter part is अतिरात्र, therefore अहीन” and says that they are seen to be अहीन in the Vedic texts.

अहीनवचनाच्च ॥ ८ । २ । ३० ॥

अहीनवचनात् by reason of the text mentioning it to be अहीन, च and.

30. By reason of the text mentioning it to be अहीन.

The objector in support of his view relies on the Vedic text quoted in the concluding part of the commentary on sūtra 29

सत्रे वोपायिचोदनात् ॥ ८ । २ । ३१ ॥

सत्रे in a sacrificial session, वा on the other hand, उपायिचोदनात् by reason of the command containing the form of the verb ‘उपायि’

31. On the other hand, in a सत्र by reason of the command containing the form of the verb ‘उपायि’.

The author says that they both partake of the nature of a सत्र by reason of the verb ‘उपेयुः’ used. येष्वभूतिकार्यमिच्छंतस्तत्पुनं पंचदशरात्रमुपेयुः ॥ “Those who are desirous of success, should resort to the पंचदशरात्र sacrifice” In connection with कुंडपायिनामयन the text is भूतिकामाउपेयुः “Let those who are desirous of success, resort to it”. But Śābara in his commentary further adds that these texts are in the nature of a command and have preference over the text quoted in the commentary on सूत्र 29 which is by way of अर्थवाद recommendation.

सत्रलिङ्गञ्चदर्शयति ॥ ८ । २ । ३२ ॥

सत्रलिङ्ग the mark of a सत्र, च and, दर्शयति shows.

32. And there is the mark of a सत्र.

The author relies on the inference derived from the text in support of his view. गृहपति गृहपतिः सुब्रह्मण्य सुब्रह्मण्यः 'The master of the house is the master and the priest is priest' In connection with the कुंडपायिनामयन the text is quoted गृहपति सप्तदशासत्रमुपेतुः "The master of the house (making up) seventeen should resort to a सत्र," is a text seen in connection with a सत्र.

END OF PĀDA II.

PĀDA III.

Ādikāṇḍa I Sūtras 1—2 dealing with the subject that in the case of a single god, the procedure of आग्नेय applies; in that of अग्नावैष्णव, the procedure of अग्नीषोमीय applies.

हविर्गणे परमुत्तरस्य देशसामान्यात् ॥ ८।३।१॥

हविर्गणे in the case of manifold offerings, पर subsequent; उत्तरस्य of the subsequent, देशसामान्यात् by reason of common sequence

1. In the case of the manifold offerings, the subsequent to the subsequent by reason of the common sequence.

The example of the manifold offerings is "अग्नावैष्णवमेकादशकपालानिर्वयेत्, सारस्वतचरुं, वाईष्टान्यचरुं अग्नये पावकाय अग्नयेऽशुचये" "Let one offer cakes baked on eleven pans consecrated to Agni and विष्णु, boiled rice consecrated to सरस्वती, to बृहस्पति, to the holy अग्नि, to the pure अग्नि". The question is, whether आग्नेय is the विध्यंत of अग्नावैष्णव and the विध्यंत of the अग्नीषोमीय belongs to the offering to single deities? The objector's reply is that in the case of such manifold offerings, the offering to a single deity which comes subsequent is the modified form of अग्नीषोमीय, which is also subsequent; and the preceding one i. e. आग्नावैष्णव is the modified form of the आग्नेय which is first in the above quoted text. The objector says that the reason is obvious; the procedure is governed by the order in which they come.

देवतया वा नियम्येतशब्दत्वादितरस्याश्रुतित्वात्

॥ ८।३।२॥

देवतया by the deity; वा on the other hand, नियम्येत is regulated, शब्दत्वात् by reason of the nature of the word, इतरस्य of other, अश्रुतित्वात् by reason of there being no text.

2. On the other hand, it is regulated by the deity by reason of the nature of the word and of the other, there is no text.

The author says that you are wrong, in the case of हविर्गण the criterion is the deity but not the sequence. The deity is mentioned by the text as for instance "अग्नावैष्णवमग्नेयैशुचये" but the sequence is nowhere mentioned in the text. The conclusion is that अग्नीषोमीय is the model of अग्नावैष्णव by reason of double deity being common to both of them and अग्नेय is the model of the शुचिदेवता by reason of the single deity being common to both

Adhikarana II Sūtras 3-5 dealing with the subject that in जनकसप्तरात्र, in those days where त्रिवृत् singing the procedure of द्वादशाह applies

गणचोदनायां यस्य लिङ्गं तदावृत्तिः प्रतीयताग्नेयवत्

॥ ८ । ३ । ३ ॥

गणचोदनयां in a command relating to multiplicity, यस्य whose ; लिङ्ग mark; तदावृत्तिः repetition of it, प्रतीयत appears, अग्नेयवत् like अग्नेय.

3. In a command relating to multiplicity, it appears that that one is to be repeated whose mark is like अग्नेय.

In connection with जनकसप्तरात्र, it said that "चत्वारिंशद्विद्युन्महान् अग्निष्टोममुख्यानि" "Four days of त्रिवृत् songs अग्निष्टोम being principal." There are four days for songs; on the first day the त्रिवृत् psalm is sung. The question is whether the same psalm is to be sung on the following days like the model पृष्ट or on account of the number of days, the procedure of the songs of द्वादशाह will apply? The objector says that as त्रिवृत् psalm is sung on the first day, the same is to be repeated on the following days because of the चोदना being common to both, as was the case in the अग्नेय by reason of the deity being common "अग्नेयोगावकाश, अग्नेयैशुचये". "To the holy Agni, to the pure Agni."

नानाहानि वा संघातत्वात्प्रवृत्तिलिङ्गेन चोदनात्

॥ ८ । ३ । ४ ॥

नानाहानि many days, वा on the other hand; संघातत्वात् by reason of collection, प्रवृत्तिलिङ्गेन by the mark of the commencement, चोदनात् by reason of the command.

4. On the other hand, many days (द्वादशाह) by reason of the collection, because the command is regulated by the mark of commencement.

The author says that the procedure of वृष्ट does not apply but that of the द्वादशाह applies, the reason is clear because the ceremony extends over a large number of nights out of which four days are for the religious music. The question then naturally arises, what is the force of four days of त्रिवृत्? There is nothing wrong when the procedure of द्वादशाह applies, because the त्रिवृत् song is sung on the first day and on the remaining three days, पंचदश, सप्तदश and एकविंशस्तोत्रs are sung successively.

तथा चान्यार्थदर्शनम् ॥ ८ । ३ । ५ ॥

tथा similarly; च and; अन्यार्थदर्शनम् another text.

5. And similarly there is another text

The author relies on the Vedic texts in support of his view. “चत्वारि त्रिवृत् अहानि अग्निष्टोममुख्यनि” “येषामग्निष्टोमः प्रथमः इतरंऽनग्निष्टोमाः” “Four days of त्रिवृत् songs of which अग्निष्टोम is principal” “Of which अग्निष्टोम is the first, and others are non-अग्निष्टोमs.” These texts show that first is अग्निष्टोम if it had been the repetition of the first day, all of them would be अग्निष्टोमs.

Adhikarṇa III. Sūtras 6-7 dealing with the subject that the procedure of षडह applies to षड्विंशद्वात्र.

कालाभ्यासेऽपि वादरिः कर्मभेदात् ॥ ८ । ३ । ६ ॥

कालाभ्यासे in the repetition of time ; अपि also ; वादरिः the name of a ऋषि कर्मभेदात् by reason of the difference of action

6. In the repetition of time also, the view of वादरि is (the same) by reason of the difference of action.

In connection with षड्विंशद्वात्र soma yāga ceremony, it is said “षडहामवन्ति चत्वारोऽमवन्ति, पंचहामवन्ति” “There are six days, 5 days.” The question is, whether the procedure of द्वादशाह applies or that of षडह applies? The objector says that according to the view embodied in the previous Adhikarṇa and that of वादरि, in such cases where there is multiple of time as 24 and 36, the निश्चित of द्वादशाह will apply, because each extraction of soma is a different act.

तदावृत्तिं तु जैमिनिरहामप्रत्यक्षसंख्यत्वात् ॥ ८ । ३ । ७ ॥

तदावृत्तिं the repetition of it, तु on the other hand, जैमिनिः the name of a

अवि, अहम् of the days, अप्रत्यक्षसंख्यात् by reason of the number being inferential not perceptive.

7. On the other hand, according to Jaimini, it is the repetition of it (पठन) because the number of days is inferential.

The author says no, the ceremony that lasts for days which are multiples of six, is guided by पठन the reason is that the number six is primary and the multiples thereof namely 24 and 36 are only inferential and so their विध्यंत is पठन.

Adhikaraṇa IV. Sūtras 8—9 dealing with the subject that in collection of संस्थास, the procedure of द्वादशाह applies.

संस्थागणेषु तदभ्यासः प्रतीयेत कृतलक्षणग्रहणात्

॥ ८ । ३ । ८ ॥

संस्थागणेषु in the collection of songs, तदभ्यासः repetition of it, प्रतीयेत appears; कृतलक्षणग्रहणात् by reason of partaking its peculiarity.

8. In the collection of songs, it appears to be a repetition of the model because it partakes of its peculiarities

Now in the present Adhikaraṇa, the author treats of the collection of songs called संस्थास, as for example “अग्निष्टोमः पंचोक्त्यः, शताग्निष्टोमं भवति, शतातिरात्र भवति” “अग्निष्टोम, पंचोक्त्य, शताग्निष्टोम, and शतातिरात्र”. The question is, whether it is a repetition of ज्योतिष्टोम or of the days where the collection of songs is recited? The objector says that it is the repetition of ज्योतिष्टोम, because it partakes of the peculiarities of ज्योतिष्टोम; अग्निष्टोम, उक्त्य षोडशी, अतिरात्र are the collections of songs (संस्था) and come under ज्योतिष्टोम

अधिकाराद्वा प्रकृतिस्तद्विशिष्टा स्यादभिधानस्य तन्निमित्तत्वात् ॥ ८ । ३ । ९ ॥

अधिकारात् by reason of चोदना text, वा on the other hand; प्रकृतिः model; तद्विशिष्टा characterised by it; स्यात् is, अभिधानस्य of the name, तत् निमित्तत्वात् by reason of being for it

9. On the other hand, the model is characterised by it (उक्त्य) by virtue of the चोदना text and the name is for its sake

The author gives his own view that the model which is द्वादशाह is characterised by the उक्त्य &c. and the songs are sung on the completion of the ceremonies after which the songs are named; it is the अग्निहोम &c. which give the name to the collection of songs, but not the collection of songs to name ज्योतिहोम. So the procedure of द्वादशाह applies to संस्थायण.

Adhikaraṇa V Sūtras 10—11 dealing with the transference of songs from ज्योतिहोम to शतोक्त्य &c.

गणादुपचयस्तत्प्रकृतित्वात् ॥ ८ । ३ । १० ॥

गणात् from the collection of days, उपचयः transference; तत् प्रकृतित्वात् by reason of its being a model.

10. There is a transference from the collection of days (द्वादशाह) by reason of its being a model.

There is a text “शतोक्त्यंभवति, शतातिरात्रंभवति” “There is शतोक्त्य (possessing hundred songs) and there is शततिरात्र (having hundred अतिरात्रs)” The question in this Adhikaraṇa is, whether the songs should be borrowed from द्वादशाह or ज्योतिहोम? According to the objector the songs should be borrowed from द्वादशाह. He says that you have already laid down in the preceding अधिकरण that the model of the संस्थायण is द्वादशाह, it, therefore, follows that the songs of द्वादशाहण will be transferred to शतोक्त्य and शततिरात्र. This is called the doctrine of उपचय.

एकाहाद्वा तेषां समत्वात्स्यात् ॥ ८ । ३ । ११ ॥

एकाहात् from one day ceremony; वा on the other hand, तेषां theirs, समत्वात् by reason of equality, स्यात् is

11. On the other hand, from the one day ceremony, because they are equal with the modified.

The author says that the songs are borrowed from the ज्योतिहोम because the द्वादशाह has no songs, they both stand in need of borrowing from another. According to the well known adage “no beggar begs from another beggar”, the borrowing is not from द्वादशाह but from ज्योतिहोम.

Adhikaraṇa V. Sūtra 12—16 dealing with the subject that is “गायत्रीमेतद्द्वयंभवति &c.” the transference of original गायत्री is meant.

गायत्रीषु प्राकृतीनामवच्छेदः प्रकृत्याधिकारात्संख्या त्वादग्निहोमवदव्यतिरेकात्तदाख्यत्वम् ॥ ८ । ३ । १२ ॥

गायत्रीषु in गायत्री metre, प्राकृतीनाम् of the models, अवच्छेदः dropping of the letters, प्रकृत्याधिकारात् by reason of their arising, from the model, संख्यात्वात्

by the number ; अग्निष्टोमवत् like अग्निष्टोम ; अव्यतिरेकात् invariably ; तदाक्यस्त्वन् that name.

12. In the गायत्री metre the letters are dropped from those metres coming from the model by virtue of borrowing from the model and by reason of the number, like the अग्निष्टोम; because that name invariably applies.

It is said “वाजपेयेनेष्टाबृहस्पतिसत्रेन यजेत” “Having offered oblations by वाजपेय, let him perform बृहस्पतिसत्र,” further it is said “गायत्रमेनद्द्वयमेवति” “There is one day of गायत्री metre” Here in the oneday sacrifice called बृहस्पतिसत्र many metres such as जगती and त्रिष्टुप् are transferred from its model ज्योतिष्टोम The question that arises for solution in this अधिकरण, is whether गायत्री can be formed by dropping letters from the metres such as जगती and त्रिष्टुप् or the गायत्री which is mentioned above means the गायत्री verse in one of the दशतयी verses? गायत्री verse consists of 24 letters, so the objector says that as verses are borrowed from the ज्योतिष्टोम in बृहस्पतिसत्र, so the गायत्री can be formed by dropping any additional letters that may be in other metres. He gives an example of अग्निष्टोम शताग्निष्टोमभवति, in such a case you drop the वक्ष्य of द्वादशाह as laid down in the preceding Adhikarana, similarly according to the principle laid down in the अधिकरण, the गायत्री metre can be formed because it has a fixed number of letters viz. 24 The term गायत्री invariably applies to a metre of 24 letters, so it can be formed by dropping additional letters from another metre or combination of metres.

तन्नित्यवच्च प्रथक्सतीषु तद्वचनम् ॥ ८ । ३ । १३ ॥

तत् it; नित्यवत् permanent, च and, प्रथक्सतीषु in different, तद्वचनम् the word.

13. And it is permanent and the word applies in other than this.

The objector continues and says that the term गायत्री applies to a metre of 24 letters “येहिद्वेगायत्र्यौ सायकाजगती” “Those which are two गायत्री’s go to constitute one जगती” There are two गायत्री’s in a जगती metre and there are therefore 48 letters in it (जगती). If the term गायत्री had applied to a Rik verse and then two ऋक् verses will not make up a जगती. There is another text तिस्रोऽनुष्टुभश्चतस्रो गायत्रीकरोति. “Three अनुष्टुप्’s make four गायत्री’s.”

त्र विंशतौ दशेति चेत् ॥ ८ । ३ । १४ ॥

न नो, विंशतौ in twenty; दश ten, इतिचेद् if you say.

14. If it be said that in twenty, there is no ten.

Some one raises an objection to the view of the पूर्वपक्ष. The numeral twenty is different from 10. So in 48, there is no twenty four; one जगती does not make two गायत्री.

This सूत्र is liable to another interpretation.

न विंशती दशेति चेत् ॥ ८ । ३ । १४ ॥

14. If it be said "no, in twenty ten is included."

Another objector to the view of पूर्वपक्ष says, why do you drop letters from the जगती to make a गायत्री? Just as 100 includes 58 in itself so, the जगती of 48 letters includes a गायत्री of 24 letters.

ऐकसंख्यमेव स्यात् ॥ ८ । ३ । १५ ॥

ऐकसंख्यद् one number; एव also, certainly; स्यात् is.

15. Then there would be only one numeral.

The objector replies to the objection raised to his view; he says I do not say that in one numeral, another numeral exists, what I say is that in 48 letters, there are twice 24 letters, there is nothing wrong in saying this. If I say that one numeral changes into another numeral, then there will be only one numeral which is simply absurd.

According to the other interpretation the reply is, that if you say that the succeeding numeral includes the preceding numeral, then the numerals from unit up to million, will be reduced to a single numeral which is simply absurd.

गुणाद्वाद्रव्यशब्दः स्यादसर्वविषयत्वात् ॥ ८ । ३ । १६ ॥

गुणाद् by reason of a quality; वा on the other hand; द्रव्यशब्दः a word denoting substance; स्यात् is, असर्वविषयत्वाद्. by reason of its not applying to all.

16. On the other hand, by reason of a quality, it is a word denoting substance; it does not apply to all.

The author gives his own view; he says that the term गायत्री does not denote numeral but being a quality, it is a substance. If it had been a numeral, it would have applied to all, as twenty horses, twenty cows; but the term applies to a certain kind of verse of certain metre containing 24 letters. Hence it is a substance (or substantive noun) but not a numeral.

गोत्ववच्च समन्वयः ॥ ८ । ३ । १७ ॥

गोत्ववत् like cowness, the quality of being a cow; च and ; समन्वयः application.

17. And the application like the ('cowness') cow.

The author expands his view and says that the term गो cow means 'moving' which applies to many things that move but by the force of convention, it has come to mean an animal with dewlap i. e. a cow. The term गो, therefore, does not mean any other object. So in the same way the गायत्री means a particular ऋक् verse

संख्यायाश्च शब्दत्वात् ॥ ८ । ३ । १८ ॥

संख्यायाः of the numeral, च and , शब्दत्वात् by reason of being a word.

18. And because of the numeral being a word.

The author says that as to the numeral, it has nothing to do with the गायत्री it only denotes a number 24 or any other.

इतरस्याश्रुतित्वाच्च ॥ ८ । ३ । १९ ॥

इतरस्य of the other ; अश्रुतित्वात् having no name ; च and.

19. And because of the other having no name.

The author develops his argument that the Rik verse has no name but it will be to the purpose and relevant if it be called गायत्री. The गायत्री is, therefore, a common ऋक् verse

द्रव्यान्तरेऽनिवेशादुक्त्यलोपैर्विशिष्टं स्यात् ॥ ८ । ३ । २० ॥

द्रव्यान्तरे in other substance, अनिवेशात् by not applying; उक्त्यलोपैः by dropping the songs ; विशिष्टं is particularised ; स्यात् is.

20. By reason of not applying it to any other substance, it is particularised by dropping the songs.

The author further says that you have given the illustration of अग्निहोम. See at p. 486. About it, it can be said that the term अग्निहोम does not apply to any other substance; just as the term गायत्री applies to the Rik verse. What he means to say, is that अग्निहोम is a proper noun and the गायत्री is a common noun. Without dropping the उक्त्य, the days of द्वादशाह can not be converted in अग्निहोम, but by dropping the letters, the गायत्री can not be formed. So the illustration is dissimilar and does not, therefore, apply.

अशास्त्रलक्षणत्वाच्च ॥ ८ । ३ । २१ ॥

अशास्त्रलक्षणत्वाच्च by reason of the characteristics not laid down; च and.

21. And by reason of the characteristics not being laid down.

The author proceeds further in refuting the illustration of अग्निहोम. The songs are dropped in शताग्निहोम, but on the contrary you can not drop the letters in order to form a गायत्री.

उत्पत्तिनामधेयत्वाद्वा तथा पृथक्सतीषु स्यात्

॥ ८ । ३ । २२ ॥

उत्पत्तिनामधेयत्वाद् by reason of the permanent nature of the name; भव्यात् by way of figure of speech; पृथक्सतीषु in separate things, स्यात् is.

22. By reason of the permanent nature of the name, the use in a separate thing is by way of figure of speech.

The objector in sūtra 13 said that two गायत्रीस formed one जगती. See at p. 486. In the present सूत्र, the author meets the objection. 'वेदिद्वेगावयो-क्षाएकाजगती' "Those which are two गायत्रीस, go the constitute one जगती." The term गायत्री always means a certain ऋक् verse consisting of 24 letters; this is the sense which is attached to it by its very origin. So in the text quoted above, the term गायत्री is used by figure of speech "योद्वौकौरवौसपको-बाहीकः" In the sentence "Two inhabitants of Kuru are equal to one Punjabi." Two Kauravas can not be one Punjabi, it is only a figurative way of describing the valour. The text quoted above is only in praise of गायत्री.

वचनमिति चेत् ॥ ८ । ३ । २३ ॥

वचनम् command; इति चेत् if it be said.

23. If it be a command.

The objector sticks to his own view. What you say is quite correct; when the text is अनुवाद, it may be considered to be a praise, but what do you say when it is a विधि? "तिस्रोऽनुष्टुभश्चतस्रो गायत्रीकरोति" "Three अनुष्टुभs make four गायत्रीस". If you take गायत्री to mean 24 letters, then only the text can be reasonably explained. There are 32 letters in an अनुष्टुभ verse consisting of four quatrains; if you multiply 32 by three, the product is 96. If you divide the latter by four, the quotient is 24. In a word, 3 अनुष्टुभs make 4 गायत्रीस. This is the argument of the objector as embodied in the present सूत्र.

यावदुक्तम् ॥ ८ । ३ । २४ ॥

यावत् that much ; उक्तम् said, uttered.

24. When the whole is uttered.

The author says that it is the only illustration that you have given in this connection; here the figurative speech is used for a command. It happens frequently. "असौ पिष्टपिडाः सिंहाः कियंताम्" make lions out of these flour balls: "पुष्टैरुपतिष्ठते". He worships with songs." The 'lion' in the former sentence means an image of a lion; and the word 'song' in the latter, means verses.

अपूर्वे च विकल्पः स्याददि संख्याविधानम्

॥ ८ । ३ । २५ ॥

अपूर्वे in the model sacrifice; च and; विकल्पः option; स्याद is; यदि if; संख्याविधानम् command as to number.

25. And in the model sacrifice, there will be an option, if the number be considered to be commanded.

The author further shows the absurdity of the number of letters forming a Gāyatrī. If your view be accepted then in दृष्टिर्नसात् which is the model, there will be an option. After saying जगन्मादरिच्यत् 'let him perform परिचान with जगती', it is laid down गायन्मादरिच्यत् 'let him perform परिचान with गायत्री'. According to what you contend for, the verse आहुतोतापुषस्य-ताग्निं प्रयत्यध्वरे। वृषीध्वंहव्यवाहनं Rig Veda V. 28. 6. (In the sacrifice commenced, invoke, serve and obtain Agni, the carrier of offerings) will be optional. It will be omitted which is simply absurd.

ऋगुणत्वात्तेति चेत् ॥ ८ । ३ । २६ ॥

ऋगुणत्वात् by reason of being a quality of ऋक्; इतिचेत् if you say.

26. If you say that it can not be so, by reason of being a quality of the ऋक्.

The objector says that you are mistaken; it can not be so: it is a quality of the Rik verse. If you put on a dress without repeating the Rik verse it will be derogatory to the quality of the Rik verse. So the परिचान ceremony will be performed by repeating the verse आहुतोता &c.

तथा पूर्ववति स्यात् ॥ ८ । ३ । २७ ॥

तथा similarly; पूर्ववदि in the modified sacrifice ; स्यात् is.

27. The same will happen in the modified sacrifice.

The author says that the same thing will happen in बृहस्पतिसव, as what happens in वसिष्ठमस which is its model. In this view the quality of the Rik verse is not taken off and consequently no letters will be dropped to form a गायत्री.

गुणावेशश्च सर्वत्र ॥ ८ । ३ । २८ ॥

गुणावेशः introduction of a quality ; च and; सर्वत्र everywhere.

28. And the introduction of a quality every where.

The author says that the quality of being the rik verse applies to every letter of आहुदी but not to mere number 24.

निष्पन्नग्रहणान्नेति चेत् ॥ ८ । ३ । २९ ॥

निष्पन्नग्रहणात् by reason of accepting the conventional sense ; च not; इतिचेत् if you say,

29. If you say "not so, by reason of accepting the conventional sense"

The objector says that the term गायत्री should be accepted in the conventional sense of 24 letters and does not apply to a verse of Rik having 24 letters of which every letter has the quality of being the rik verse.

तथेहापिस्यात् ॥ ८ । ३ । ३० ॥

तथा similarly; इहापि here also; स्यात् is.

30. Similarly here also.

The author says "you apply the convention to the 24 letters; why do you not apply the convention to a rik verse having 24 letters?" The conclusion is that the गायत्री does not simply denote 24 letters but a Rik verse of peculiar metre.

यदि वाऽविशये नियमः प्रकृत्युपबन्धाच्छरेष्वपि प्रसिद्धः स्यात् ॥ ८ । ३ । ३१ ॥

यदिवा if on the other hand ; अविशये certain ; नियमः fixed convention ; प्रकृत्युपबन्धात् by force of the बोद्धव्य text ; शरेषु in the term 'शर' ; अपि also ; प्रसिद्ध famous ; स्यात् is.

31. If the term, the sense of which is certain by reason of the चोदक text (is applied elsewhere), then the term शर may be used for कुश grass.

The author further says that if you apply the term गायत्री in the sense other than the sense in which it is fixed without any doubt, then the शरमर्ष वहिभवति will come to mean the वहि should be made of कुश grass.

दृष्टः प्रयोग इति चेत् ॥ ८ । ३ । ३२ ॥

दृष्टः seen ; प्रयोगः application ; इति चेत् if you say.

32. If you say that the application is seen.

The objector says that we see the application of गायत्री in the general sense of 24 letters as for instance येद्वेगायत्रौत्सैकाजगती. "Those which are two गायत्रीः go to constitute one जगती "

तथा शरेष्वपि ॥ ८ । ३ । ३३ ॥

तथा similarly ; शरेषु in the term शर ; अपि also.

33. The same is the case in the term शर.

The author says that the same is the case with the term शर. "शरचक्षुर्मे-वेदंकुयवनं" The forest of शर is certainly a forest of कुश. Here the term शर is used in the sense of कुश grass.

भक्तयेति चेत् ॥ ८ । ३ । ३४ ॥

भक्तया by way of figure of speech ; इति चेत् if you say.

34. If you say, it is by way of figure of speech.

The objector says that kuśa grass by reason of its largeness and broad leaves, is called arrow on account of similarity. It is only by way of figurative speech.

तथेतरस्मिन् ॥ ८ । ३ । ३५ ॥

तथा same ; इतरस्मिन् in the other.

35. So in the other.

The author says that same reasoning applies to the case of गायत्री. When it is said that two गायत्रीः make one जगती, it means that twice the number of letters which compose the गायत्री makes one जगती i. e. the latter has 48 letters. The conclusion is that the term गायत्री is not used in the sense of number.

अर्थस्य चासमाप्तत्वाच्च तासामेकदेशे स्यात् ॥८॥३॥३६॥

अर्थस्य of the sense; च and; असमाप्तत्वाच्च by reason of non-completion; ; not; तासाञ् theirs; एकदेशे a portion; स्यात् is

36. And by reason of non-completion of the sense, they can not apply to a portion.

The author sums up the whole thing in a nut-shell. If you say that the additional letters from भिष्टुम् and जगती be dropped and the गायत्री be formed, in that case in making the गायत्री by dropping the letters, the sense will be lost, because the भिष्टुम् and जगती will be applied to the less number of letters namely 24. In so doing the main purpose being the removal of the additional letters, the sense will necessarily be lost and the whole thing will be reduced to an absurdity. The गायत्री does not apply to mere combination of 24 letters but to a rik verse having 24 letters. So the term गायत्री applies to the original गायत्री and it is taken from द्वाशतयी verse i. e. a verse from the Rigveda consisting of ten books.

END OF PĀDA III.

PĀDA IV.

Adhikaraṇa I. Dealing with the subject that the term दर्विहोम is the name of an action.

दर्विहोमो यज्ञाभिधानं होमसंयोगात् ॥ ८ । ४ । १ ॥

दर्विहोमः a name of a sacrifice, यज्ञाभिधानं the name of a sacrifice; होमसंयोगात् by reason of the connection of the word 'होम'.

1. दर्विहोम is the name of a sacrifice by reason of the connection of the word होम.

“यदेकयाजुहुयात्, दर्विहोमं कुर्यात्” “That one should perform a homa with one; let one perform दर्विहोम.” Here the question is, whether the term दर्विहोम is गुणविधि or कर्मन मध्ये? In the former view, it means a homa in which grass is offered. According to our author, it is a name of a sacrifice and is therefore a कर्मनामधेय. The reason is that the term होम occurs in it.

Adhikaraṇa II. Sūtras 2—3 dealing with the subject that the term दर्विहोम is the name of both the Vedic and worldly action.

स लौकिकानां स्यात्कर्तुस्तदाख्यत्वात् ॥ ८ । ४ । २ ॥

स it; लौकिकानां of the world, secular; स्यात् is; कर्तुः of the agent; तदा- ख्यत्वात् by reason of its name.

2. It is secular by reason of its name after the agent.

Having laid down in the previous अधिकरण that दर्विहोम is कर्मनामवैय, the next question for solution is, whether it is a name of a secular action or religious action? According to the objector it is the name of a secular action because the action is called after the sacrificer. As for example शिनीनां दर्विहोमिको ब्राह्मणः, अम्बष्ठानां दर्विहोमिको ब्राह्मणः "The ब्राह्मण pertaining to दर्विहोम for the warrior class, the ब्राह्मण pertaining to दर्विहोम for the mixed caste of ब्राह्मण father and वैश्य mother."

सर्वेषां वा दर्शनाद्वास्तुहोमे ॥ ८ । ४ । ३ ॥

सर्वेषां of all; वा on the other hand; दर्शनात् by seeing; वास्तुहोमे in the religious होम.

3. On the other hand, it is of all, by seeing it in the religious homa.

The author says that the दर्विहोम is both secular and Vedic, because we find such expressions एकपात्रहुयाद् दर्विहोमकुर्वीत. "One should perform a होम with one, let one perform दर्विहोम." Had it been purely a secular action there would not have been a दर्विहोम by one offering only; by reason of its being extraordinary, such an expression is used.

Adhikaraṇa III. Dealing with the subject that the term दर्विहोम is the name of a homa.

जुहोतिचोदनानां वा सत्संयोगात् ॥ ८ । ४ । ४ ॥

जुहोति oblation; चोदनानां of the command; वा on the other hand; सत्संयोगात् by reason of connection with it.

4. On the other hand, it is a command relating to जुहोति verb by reason of its connection with it.

The author advances step by step: first he lays down that दर्विहोम is कर्मनामवैय; secondly, he says that it is the name of both secular and religious actions. Now the question is, whether it is governed by जुहोतिचोदना or यजतिचोदना?

We have already seen that the term यज्ञ is used in connection with a यज्ञ and जुहोति is used in connection with a homa and we have also shown the difference between a यज्ञ and a होम. See at p. 225. Devoid of all technicalities, the question in clear language is, whether the दर्विहोम is the name of a यज्ञ or a होम? Our author says that it is the name of a homa because (जुहुयात्) विविचिह् is used.

Adhikaraṇa IV. Sūtras 5-9 refuting the position that the term दर्विहोम is a गुणविविचि.

द्रव्योपदेशाद्वा गुणाभिधानं स्यात् ॥ ८ । ४ । ५ ॥

द्रव्योपदेशात् by laying down the material, वा on the other hand; गुणानिधानं name of the material; स्यात् is.

5. On the other hand, by reason of laying down the material, it is a name of material.

This Adhikaraṇa under the principle सिद्धान्तोक्तित्वात् * applies to subjects both backward and forward. It is a repetition of what has been discussed in the preceding adhikaraṇas of this pāda. The objector says that the term दर्विहोम is composed of two terms दर्वि grass and होम an offering. It, therefore, means a homa in which grass is offered. In this view it is a गुणविविचि.

न लौकिकानामाचारग्रहणत्वाच्छब्दवतां चान्यार्थविधानात् ॥ ८ । ४ । ६ ॥

न not, लौकिकानां of the worldly people; आचारग्रहणत्वात् by reason of the acceptance of the procedure, शब्दवतां of the people who followed the word of the Veda; च and; अन्यार्थविधानात् by laying down other things.

6. Not so, by reason of the acceptance of the procedure of the profane people and by laying down other things for those who follow the word of the Veda.

The author says that it is not गुणविविचि because in the worldly action, the grass &c. are used. "त्वान्निःश्वया मूलवद्द्वयादग्न्याहुः शिति" "He offers an oblation with grass, the skin of which has holes and which has a stem at the root." But this is not laid down generally. In religious actions we see spoons &c. सुवेणजुहोति, चमसेनजुहोति. "He offers an oblation with a ladle, he offers an oblation with a spoon." These things have been laid down; you can not say that grass may be used in their place. The author means to say that there are two kinds of acts स्मार्त and श्रौत. In the former, the tradition is followed and in the latter, it is under an injunction in the performance of an act.

* For the explanation of this phrase, see Col. G. A. Jacob's "A Hand book of Popular Maxims."

दर्शनाच्चान्यपात्रस्य ॥ ८ । ४ । ७ ॥

दर्शनात् by seeing; च and; अन्यपात्रस्य of the other vessel.

7. And by seeing other vessels.

The author further gives an additional reason in support of his view. What he says is that we see many other vessels in the दर्विहोम. So it can not be a गुणविधि.

तथाग्निहविषोः ॥ ८ । ४ । ८ ॥

तथा similarly; अग्निहविषोः in fire and offering.

8. Similarly in fire and offering.

The author refutes the objector's view as to गुणविधि. In the preceding sūtra, it has been shown that there are other vessels in the दर्विहोम which can not be of grass, so there are fire and offerings in दर्विहोम. The grass can not take their place. This is the absurdity to which it will lead, if you consider दर्विहोम to be a गुणविधि.

उक्तश्रार्थसम्बन्धः ॥ ८ । ४ । ९ ॥

उक्तः is stated; च and, अर्थसम्बन्धः connection with the object.

9. And the connection with the object is stated.

The author says that the act which the fire performs can not be performed by any other, it shines and burns. So grass can not perform these functions. The conclusion is that दर्विहोम is name of a होम.

Adhikaraṇa V. Sūtras 10-28 dealing with the subject that word दर्विहोम has an extraordinary principle.

तस्मिन्सोमः प्रवर्तताव्यक्तत्वात् ॥ ८ । ४ । १० ॥

तस्मिन् in it; सोमः, सोम procedure, प्रवर्तता applies; अव्यक्तत्वात् by reason of the indistinctness.

10. In it, soma (procedure) applies by reason of the indistinctness.

The objector says that the विषय of soma yāga applies to the दर्विहोम, because (चोदना) the command relating to it is indistinct. As भिक्षुहोति "He offers an oblations on breaking (of a vessel)."

न वा स्वाहाकारेण संयोगाद्वचत्कारस्य च निर्देशात्तन्त्रे
तेन विप्रतिषेधात् ॥ ८ । ४ । ११ ॥

न वा not so; स्वाहाकारेण with the word 'स्वाहा'; संयोगाद् by reason of its connection; वचत्कारस्य of वचत्कार; च and; निर्देशाद् by reason of ordaining; तन्त्रे in the original ritual; तेन by it; विप्रतिषेधात् by reason of prohibition.

11. Not by reason of its connection with the word स्वाहा and by reason of ordaining वचत्कार in the original ritual and consequent prohibition of स्वाहा.

The author says that सोम can not be the model of दर्विहोम. First reason is that in the दर्विहोम the word स्वाहा is used, as for instance "पृथिव्यैस्वाहा । अतरिक्षायस्वाहा" "Swāhā to Earth, swāhā to the intervening space." while on the other hand in soma sacrifice, the word वचत् is used. If the soma sacrifice were the विप्रतिषेध of दर्विहोम, the वचत् would be used and स्वाहा should be presumed to be forbidden. But this is not so, so the दर्विहोम is an अपूर्ण itself.

शब्दान्तरत्वात् ॥ ८ । ४ । १२ ॥

शब्दान्तरत्वात् by reason of the use of the different word.

12. By use of a different word.

The author gives another reason in support of his view that सोम can not be the model of दर्विहोम. In a दर्विहोम, the term जुहोति is used in the command and in a सोमयाग the वोदना is indicated by वज्रति.

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ ८ । ४ । १३ ॥

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च by seeing the indicative mark; च and.

13. And by seeing the indicative mark.

The author proceeds further to support his view by saying that the force of the texts also lead to the same conclusion that the soma yāga is not the model of the दर्विहोम. In connection with औदुबरीहोम it is said, घृतेनपा- वापृथिवी आपृथेयामंतरा कर्षौजुहोति । आम्बुलादवसावयति । भूमिगते स्वाहा करोति.
"Let him propitiate heaven and earth, with water; in the interval he offers an oblation of ears; he sprinkles from the very root; and on falling on the ground, he utters स्वाहा." Here in this case, if सोमयाग had been a model, the word वचत् would have been used.

उत्तरार्थस्तु स्वाहाकारो यथा सामदश्यं तत्राविप्रति-
षिद्धा पुनः प्रवृत्तिर्लिङ्गदर्शनात्पशुवत् ॥ ८ । ४ । १४ ॥

उत्तरार्थः for other than the model; तु on the other hand; स्वाहाकारः the term स्वाहा; यथा just as, सामदश्यं the text pertaining to 17, तत्र there; अविप्रतिषिद्धा not contradictory; पुनः again, लिङ्गदर्शनात् by seeing the indicative mark; पशुवत् as an animal sacrifice.

14. On the other hand, the term स्वाहा is for other than the model sacrifice just as 17 सामधेनी though not prohibited there (in the model sacrifice), their reappearance is in the animal sacrifice.

The objector says that there is an अनारम्भ text "सप्तदश सामधेनीरन्वाह". "He repeated 17 सामधेनी verses in the end." According to the well known rule of मीमांसा the text will be applicable to the model sacrifice viz. दर्शपूर्णमास. There being 15 सामधेनी only in the दर्शपूर्णमास, their application is, necessarily, in the animal sacrifice. It is not prohibited in the दर्शपूर्णमास. So from this linga, the objector argues that as there is no contradiction of the 17 sāmadhenis being applied to पशुयाग after their non applicability in the दर्शपूर्णमास, so in the same way there is nothing wrong if स्वाहा is used in दर्विहोम and the pronunciation does not prevent the दर्विहोम to be a modified form of सोमयाग. "स्वाहाकारेण वषट्कारेण वादेवेभ्यो हविर्दीयते". "As offering to the gods is made by pronouncing स्वाहा or वषट्."

अनुत्तरार्थो वाऽर्थवत्त्वादानर्थक्याद्धि प्राकृतस्योपरोधः
स्यात् ॥ ८ । ४ । १५ ॥

अनुत्तरार्थः not for any other than the model; वा on the other hand; अर्थवत्त्वात् by being for a purpose, आनर्थक्यात् by reason of being without a purpose, हि because, प्राकृतस्य of the model, उपरोधः obstruction, स्यात् is.

15. It is not for any other than the model, by reason of its being for a purpose; because by reason of being without a purpose, it is obstructed in the model.

The author shows the inappropriateness of the illustration given by the objector in the preceding sūtra. The 17 सामधेनी verses under the general rule are to be read in दर्शपूर्णमास but as 15 verses are read there, so the reading of 17 सामधेनी verses will be inapplicable by their being useless there. They will, therefore, apply elsewhere. Here in your case the वषट् applies to the सोमयाग which you say is the विषय of दर्विहोम; but if the application of स्वाहा is inappropriate there by its being useless, then वषट् would apply to द्विहोम, but such is not the case. So द्विहोम has no विश्वं but is an अक्षर in itself.

न प्रकृतावपीति चेत् ॥ ८ । ४ । १६ ॥

न not ; प्रकृतौ in the model sacrifice ; अपि also , इतिचेत् if you say.

16. If you say "it is not in the model sacrifice also".

The objector says that स्वाहा is not used even in model sacrifices; there वषट् is used, as for instance in a नारिहोम "वृषट्करोवषट्का' एषवैप्रापतिः सप्त-दशोयज्ञे अन्वायते" "The वषट् consists of two letters and is the lord of the universe and fits in seventeen in a sacrifice." नास्ययज्ञोऽन्यथते प्रजापतौ वक्षेन प्रतितिष्ठति । "His sacrifice is not disturbed, in the lord of the universe, there is a permanent stay with the sacrifice " The objector concludes that the term स्वाहा is for the modified sacrifice.

उक्तं समवाये पारदौर्बल्यम् ॥ ८ । ४ । १७ ॥

उक्तं it is said ; समवाये in a collection ; पारदौर्बल्यम् weakness of the latter.

17. It is said in a collection, the latter becomes weak.

The term समवाय is used in the sense of collective principles of interpretation viz. भूति, लिंग, वाक्य, प्रकरण, ज्ञान and समाख्या. It is already explained in chap. III pāda III sūtra 14, at p. 114. When there is a conflict between any of the two or more principles of interpretation, the former prevails over the latter in order. By virtue of the context (प्रकरण) the वषट् applies to ना- रिहोम and by force of the sentence (वाक्य), स्वाहा applies. The author says in reply to the objection raised by the objector in the preceding sūtra that you are mistaken in such a case of conflict between two principles of interpretation as here between वाक्य and प्रकरण, the former therefore prevails.
So स्वाहा applies to नारिहोम. Further the term स्वाहा indicates the gift, as it is pronounced after an offering in the fire. The conclusion is that सोमवाग is not the model of the द्विहोम.

तच्चेदना वेष्टेः प्रवृत्तित्वाद्विधिः स्यात् ॥ ८ । ४ । १८ ॥

तच्चेदना command relating to it, वेष्टेः of the वेष्टि, प्रवृत्तित्वात् by reason of its applicability ; विधिः injunction ; स्यात् is.

18. On the other hand, the command relating to it, applies by reason of its applicability to वेष्टि. It is presumed to be an injunction.

The objector says that the procedure of नारिष्टहोम applies to दर्विहोम. सञ्चोदत here refers to जुहोतिचोदना which is common to both. Further the objector says that as the procedure of the नारिष्टहोम applies to all the इष्टि and पशुवध sacrifices, the presumption is that it is a विधि. Though there is no express text, yet from the universal application, it is concluded that the procedure of नारिष्टहोम applies to the दर्विहोम. As one who is habituated to do good to every one, the presumption is that he would do good to a particular person also. So in the same way as the procedure of नारिष्टहोम applies to all इष्टि and animal sacrifices, it will also apply to दर्विहोम as well.

शब्दसामर्थ्याच्च ॥ ८ । ४ । १८ ॥

शब्दसामर्थ्यात् by the force of the command, च and.

19. And by the power of the command.

The objector in support of his view says that in both of them the चोदना is common. The term जुहोति is used, as for instance नारिष्टाजु होति. "He performs नारिष्टयाग" So नारिष्टहोम is the model of दर्विहोम

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ ८ । ४ । २० ॥

लिङ्गदर्शनात् by seeing the indicative mark, च and.

20. And there is an indicative mark also.

The objector relies on the force of the texts in support of his view. "अदिक्कीरोऽवपथेनांतःपरिधिं निनयेत्" "अंतर्वेदितिष्ठत् सावित्राणिजुहोति" "When an insect dies, let one throw water inside the circle of the sacrificial ground, he performs oblation of सावित्री by sitting within the boundary of the altar" The परिधि and वेदि are the parts of the नारिष्टहोम.

तत्राभावस्य हेतुत्वाद्गुणार्थस्याददर्शनम् ॥ ८ । ४ । २१ ॥

तत्र there; अभावस्य of the absence; हेतुत्वात् by reason of; गुणार्थे in the object of subsidiary; स्यात् is; अदर्शनम् non-application.

21. There by reason of the absence, the procedure does not apply.

The author gives a reply to the objection of the objector. He says that the नारिष्टहोम can not be a model of the दर्विहोम. In a चातुर्मास्य, after the महापितृवज्र, व्यम्बकेष्टि is performed in a cross-path. After describing its performance like the दर्विहोम, it is said in that connection "नेधमा दर्विसंनक्षते, न प्रयाजाहव्यंते जानुयाजाहव्यंते न सामघेनारम्भाह" "Neither fuel nor grass is prepared, nor are प्रयाज offered, neither जानुयाज are offered nor is सामघेनी pronounced at the end." If the नारिष्ट homa had been a model, all these things mentioned in the text would find their place in व्यम्बकेष्टि.

विधिरिति चेत् ॥ ८ । ४ । २२ ॥

विधि: command, injunction ; इतिचेत् if you say.

12. If you say "it is a विधि".

The objector says that the text quoted by you is a prohibitory विधि. All these things, namely, fuel, grass, प्रयाज and अनुयाज and सामवेनी would have found their place in the व्यम्बकेष्टि but for the text quoted by you.

न वाक्यशेषत्वाद्गुणार्थे च समाधानं नानात्वेनोप-
पद्यते ॥ ८ । ४ । २३ ॥

न not ; वाक्यशेषत्वाद् being a supplementary sentence, गुणार्थे in गुणविधि ; च and ; समाधानं removal of a doubt, नानात्वेन with the multiplicity of sentences ; उपपद्यते arises

23. Not so, by reason of its being a supplementary sentence; if you remove the doubt by holding it to be a गुणविधि, there will be a multiplicity of sentences.

The author says that it can not be a विधि but an अर्थवाद. The reason is that it is a supplementary text of "आदित्यं घृते च दन्निर्वापेत् । पुनरेत्यगृहेषु" "Let him offer an oblation of rice in ghee to sun, after going into houses again." which is a विधि. If you hold the text quoted in the commentary on sūtra 21 to be a विधि, then there will a split of sentences (1) one is a prohibition of fuel and grass, (2) the others are of प्रयाज, (3) of the अनुयाज and (4) of the सामवेनी verses. This split of sentences is against the canons of the मीमांसा.

येषां वाऽपरयोर्होमस्तेषां स्यादविरोधात् ॥ ८ । ४ । २४ ॥

येषां of those, वा on the other hand, अपरयोः of the two subsequent (fires); होमः, होम ; तेषां of those, स्यात् is, अविरोधात् by reason of contradiction.

24. Of those sacrifices in which a homa is performed in the गार्हपत्य and दक्षिणाग्नि fires, their procedure will apply by reason of no contradiction.

The objector shifts his ground and says "very well by reason of the absence of those things mentioned above, the procedure of नारिष्टहोम does not apply. But there are certain sacrifices in which homa is made in गार्हपत्य and दक्षिणामि fire where the above mentioned things are not found, as for example पत्नीसंयाज &c There being similarity of procedure, their procedure will therefore govern that of the दक्षिंहोम

तत्रौषधानि चोद्यन्ते तानि स्थानेन गम्येरन् ॥८१२५॥

तत्र there ; औषधानि herbs ; चोद्यन्ते are ordained ; तानि they ; स्थानेन by the sequence , गम्येरन् may be used.

25 There the herbs are ordained; they will be substituted by the material of the model.

The author says that even पत्नीसंयाज can not be the model of the दक्षिंहोम; because in the latter some herbs are mentioned as the ingredients of the homa. As for instance in the गम्यकेटि, पुरोडाश cakes, कर्म vessels (vessels full of curd and parched flour) and rice are used. If पत्नीसंयाज were the model, the procedure of ghee would apply to the पुरोडाश cake which is not the case.

लिङ्गाद्वा शेषहोमयोः ॥ ८१२६ ॥

लिङ्गात् by the mark ; वा on the other hand ; शेषहोमयोः of the remaining Homas.

26. On the other hand, by the marks of the remaining Homas.

The objector further shifts his ground and says "very good the procedure of पत्नीसंयाज does not apply The procedure of पिष्टिलेपहोम and क्लीकणहोम will apply. The reason is that in the पत्नीसंयाज, the herbs are not used but ghee is used, but in these two homas just as in the दक्षिंहोम, herbs are used.

प्रतिपत्ती तु ते भवतस्तस्मादतद्विकारत्वम् ॥८१२७॥

प्रतिपत्ती the final disposal , तु on the other hand ; ते they ; भवतः become; तस्मात् therefore ; अतद्विकारत्वं not their modified form

27. They finally dispose of the homas and so it is not their modified form.

The author says in reply that पिष्टिलेपहोम and क्लीकणहोम are both प्रतिपत्तिकर्मा and the दक्षिंहोम is a principal act; so they can not be the models of the latter. As to प्रतिपत्तिकर्मा see at p. 219.

सन्निपाते विरोधिनामप्रवृत्तिः प्रतीयेत विध्युत्पत्ति-
व्यवस्थानादर्थस्यापरिणेत्यादृचनादतिदेशः स्यात् ॥८१२८॥

सङ्गिपाते in a collection; विरोधिनाम् of the contrary; अप्रवृत्तिः inapplicability; प्रतीयेत appears; विध्युत्पत्तिव्यवस्थानात् by reason of reading of the origin of the command in some context; अर्थस्य of the object; अपरिणेतृत्वात् by reason of non-transferability; वचनात् under a text; अतिदेशः transfer; इयात् is, takes place.

28. There appears to be an inapplicability in a case of collection of the contraries by reason of the reading of the origin of the command in some context and by reason of the non-transferability of the object. The transfer therefore takes place under a text.

The author summarises his own view that the दधिद्वेष्ट is its own अपूर्व; it has no model. So many models advanced by the objectors can not be its models as there are so many contrary things that they can not serve as models. The author further gives his reason that each विधि is connected with its context and it can not be transferred to any other context. The transfer however takes place under a बोधक text but not otherwise.

END OF CHAPTER VIII.

CHAPTER IX.

PĀDA I.

The author has dealt with अतिदेश in general in chap VII and the particular अतिदेश has been dealt with in chap VIII. He has shown what अतिदेश is and how many classes of it are there. In chap VIII he has dealt with the connection of the particular प्रकृति with the particular विकृति. In this chapter he deals with the adaptation of the procedure to the circumstances of the विकृति. This adaptation or modification of the practices of the model sacrifice to suit the circumstances of the modified sacrifice is what he calls ऊह. It is of three kinds.

Adhikarapa I Dealing with the application of the extraordinary principle of the said characteristics to अग्निहोत्र &c.

यज्ञकर्म प्रधानं तद्धि चोदनाभूतं तस्य द्रव्येषु संस्कार-
स्तत्प्रयुक्तस्तदर्थत्वात् ॥ ६ । १ । १ ॥

यज्ञकर्म the action of a sacrifice, प्रधानम् principal, तत् it; हि because; चोदनाभूतं depending upon an injunction, तस्य its, द्रव्येषु on materials, संस्कारः purificatory rites; तत्प्रयुक्तः performed on it; तदर्थत्वात् by reason of being for it

1 The action of a sacrifice is principal. It depends on an injunction. The purificatory rite is performed on its materials. It is performed because it is for it.

Before we proceed to explain the sūtra, it is better to understand प्रयोजक and निमित्त. The प्रयोजक is one that actuates any person to act in a certain way. The existence of the thing is the निमित्त. As for example you pay the wages of a gardner to protect your garden. The payment of the wages by you is the प्रयोजक and the garden is the निमित्त for the gardner, and the protection of the garden is the प्रयोजक and the existence of the garden is a निमित्त for you. Let us now come to our Vedic actions, the अपूर्व is the प्रयोजक and sacrifices which secure it are निमित्त. Now the question is, whether the different procedure for the performance of the sacrifice is for the sacrifice or for the अपूर्व? If you say that it is for the sacrifice, then there is no necessity of ऊह. The same procedure will apply to all the sacrifices but if it is for the attainment of अपूर्व, then the principle of ऊह will apply in order to adapt the procedure to suit the attainment of the अपूर्व of each sacrifice. The sūtra is, therefore, divided into four parts. The author says that the sacrifice is the principal thing because it secures the अपूर्व. This depends on the Vedic text, as for instance "सौर्यं चरुं निर्वपेद्ब्रह्मवर्चसकामः" तै. सं. II 3 2 "A person desirous of Brāhmanic splendour, should offer boiled rice consecrated to sun." Here we see that ब्रह्मवर्चस (Brāhmanic splendour) is the अपूर्व, it is that which actuates one to perform सौर्ययाग. The second question is "what is its procedure"? The वेदना comes in as a help "आग्नेयवत् कर्त्तव्यम्" It should be performed like आग्नेय. There it is said "आग्नेये जुष्टं निर्वपामि" "I offer thee dear, to fire." The term अग्नये will be meaningless in सौर्ययाग. So the मन्त्र will be read as सूर्याय जुष्टं निर्वपामि "I offer thee dear, to sun." The principle of ऊह applies in this way. The third part of the सूत्र says that the purificatory rite is performed on its materials as for instance pounding of rice. The question is, that when the result of pounding is visible, how is it that the visible result is considered to be अपूर्व? The reply is embodied in part 4, the author says that it leads to the attainment of अपूर्व indirectly. If instead of चरु ('नैवारं चरुं निर्वपेत्' "Let him offer wild rice.") नीवार is used, the same process of pounding and cleaning will apply under the principle of ऊह.

Adhikaraṇa II. Sūtras 2—3 dealing with the application of the extraordinary principle to sprinkling.

संस्कारे युज्यमानानां तादर्थ्यात्तत्प्रयुक्तं स्यात्

॥ ६।१।२॥

संस्कारे in purificatory rites, युज्यमानानां of those applied, तादर्थ्यात् by reason of being for it; तत् प्रयुक्तं their application, स्यात् is.

2. Those applied in the purificatory ceremony being for it, their application is for it.

As said in the last अधिकरण, cleansing and purifying process indirectly leads to the attainment of this अपूर्व'. In connection with दर्शपूर्णमास it is said "प्रोक्षिताभ्यां मुखेन मुखलाभ्यां मवहति । प्रोक्षिताभ्यां हवदुपक्षाभ्यां पिनष्टि" The pounding and grinding are to be done by the pestle and mortar and the stones sacrificially operated upon. The question is, whether the sacrificial operation is for the pounding and grinding or for the attainment of the अपूर्व? The objector's reply is that the direct result of the pestle and mortar is pounding of rice, so the purificatory rite is for pounding of rice. According to the context (प्रकरण) the purificatory rite is for the attainment of the अपूर्व and according to the वाक्य, it is for the subsidiary act. The वाक्य predominates over the context. In this view there is no ऊह; if the husk is removed from rice by the nails, there will be no sprinkling of water. So the (sprinkling of water) प्रोक्षण is only in case when pestle and mortar are used for the removal of the husk.

तेन त्वर्थेन यज्ञस्य संयोगाद्ब्रमेसम्बन्धस्तस्माद्यज्ञप्र-
युक्तं स्यात्संस्कारस्य तदर्थत्वात् ॥ ९ । १ । ३ ॥

तेन with it, तु on the other hand, अर्थेन with the object; यज्ञस्य of the sacrifice, संयोगात् being connected, ब्रमेसम्बन्धः procedure, तस्मात् therefore, because, यज्ञप्रयुक्तं application of the sacrifice, स्यात् is, संस्कारस्य of the purificatory rites, तदर्थत्वात् by reason of its being for it.

3. On the other hand, the sacrifice being connected with the object, the procedure is connected. It is applied to the sacrifice because the purificatory rite is for it.

The author says in reply to the objectors's view embodied in sūtra 2 The sūtra is divided into four parts. In the first, part pounding is connected with the sacrifice which secures the अपूर्व; pounding of rice produces some invisible effect in it, because it is connected with the अपूर्व. The second part says that the pestle and mortar are connected with the sprinkling of water; the third part says that the purificatory rite consisting of sprinkling of water is for the sacrifice which secures the अपूर्व. The fourth part says that the purificatory rite is to secure the अपूर्व. By the series of reasoning, the author comes to the conclusion that the प्रोक्षण is with a view to secure the अपूर्व. In this view, if the husk is removed from the rice, by means of nails, the nails must be previously sacrificially operated upon by प्रोक्षण ceremony. The principle of ऊह will therefore, apply.

This अङ्कितम् is liable to another interpretation, viz. dealing with the non-application of the final अपूर्व to the low and loud voice.

In connection with the ज्योतिष्टोम sacrifice it is said यावत्पा वावाकामयेत्, तावत्पा दीक्षणीयायामनुभूयात् । मंद्रप्रायणीयायां मंद्रतरमातिथ्यायां, उपाधुत्पसःसु । "By whatever tone one desires, he shall pronounce with the same tone in a दीक्षणीया, in a low tone in a प्रायणीया and in a lower tone in an आतिथ्या and silently in उपसत्s."

The question is, whether it is a final अपूर्व or a subordinate अपूर्व relating to दीक्षणीया &c. Accordingly, the पूर्वपक्ष view as embodied in sūtra 2 is that in a purificatory ceremony of the sacrificer like दीक्षणीया the loud and low voice as directed, being for the final अपूर्व applies to the दीक्षणीया &c. also. The whole consists of the parts, when the अपूर्व of the whole is obtained, it is useless as to the अपूर्व of the parts that constitute the whole.

Though in an अश्वमेध there is no दीक्षणीया, still in this view under the principle of ऊह, the text quoted above will apply to obtain the final अपूर्व.

To this view, the reply of the author is embodied in sūtra 3. The extraordinary principle of the sacrifice being connected with दीक्षणीया, the purificatory ceremony of the sacrificer like दीक्षणीया is also connected with the fruit of the sacrifice. The sacrifice secures अपूर्व and दीक्षणीया is for the sacrifice, and is therefore for the attainment of the अपूर्व. The author's conclusion is that the low and loud voice relates to the अपूर्व of the दीक्षणीया. As there is no दीक्षणीया in an अश्वमेध, there will be no ऊह of the voice.

Adhikaraṇa III Sūtras 3-5 dealing with the subject that procedure relating to the fruit and deity is for the अपूर्व.

फलदेवतयोश्च ॥ ६ । १ । ४ ॥

फलदेवतयोः of the fruit and the deity; च and

2. And of the fruit and the deity.

In connection with दर्शपूर्णमास, it is laid down as to fruit "अगन्मस्वः संज्योतिषाभूम" शु० य० २ २५. "Let us obtain heaven; let us be united with light" and as to deity "अग्नेरहमुज्जिति मनुज्जेवं सोमस्याहमुज्जितिमनुज्जेवं" सौ० सं० १६।१।१ "Let me obtain the highest victory after the victory of Agni, let me obtain the highest victory after the victory of सोम." The question is, whether स्वर्ग and अग्नि are the प्रयोजक of all these acts connected with heaven and अग्नि? or अपूर्व is the प्रयोजक of both? According to the पूर्वपक्ष view, these verses are only for the purpose of uttering the mantras and showing the reward and the deity. They do not lead to the अपूर्व. In सूर्यायाम there being no स्वर्ग and अग्नि, so there will be no ऊह,

न चोदनातो हि तादृगुण्यम् ॥ ६।१।५ ॥

चोदनातः by virtue of the command : हि certainly, तादृगुण्यं partaking of its quality.

5 No so, by virtue of the command, it partakes of its quality.

The author replies that you are mistaken; it is under a चोदना, that there is a transfer of the details from the model sacrifice to the modified sacrifice. It, therefore, partakes of the nature of the अपूर्व. The mantras relating to the fruit and the deity are not merely for the purpose of showing the fruit and the deity but partake of the अपूर्व. In this view the verses quoted in the commentary on sūtra 4 will be read as follows in सौयंयाग "आगन्म ब्रह्मवर्चसं सूर्यस्याहमुज्जितिमनूज्जेयम्" "Let us obtain the Brāhmanic splendour; let me obtain the highest victory after the victory of the sun." The principle of ऊह will, therefore, apply to the मंत्रs.

Adhikaraṇa IV Sūtra 2 6—10 dealing with the non application of the procedure to the deity.

देवता वा प्रयोजयेदतिथिवद्भोजनस्य तदर्थत्वात्

॥ ६।१।६ ॥

देवता the deity, वा on the other hand: प्रयोजयेत् should be entertained, अतिथिवत् like a religious mendicant, भोजनस्य of food, तदर्थत्वात् by reason of being for him.

6. On the other hand, the deity should be entertained like a religious mendicant by reason of the food being for him.

The objector says "very good, I accept your view that the god is not merely for remembering him as laid down in the preceding adhikaraṇa but he should be entertained like a religious mendicant, because the sacrificial food is prepared for him.

The deity is corporeal and partakes of food like a human being "जगृम्भातेदक्षिणमिद्रहस्तं" ऋ० वे० १०।४७।१ "I take hold of thy right hand, O! Indra" "इमेचिदिद्रोदसी अगारेयत् सगृभ्णामभवन्काशिरित्ते" ऋ० वे० ३।३०।५ "As thou, O! Indra, graspest the utmost limit of heaven and earth, thy fist must be very big" तुविप्रोवां वगोदः सुवाहुरंधसोमवे. इन्द्रावृक्षणिजिघ्रते"। ऋ० वे० ८।१७।८ "Indra who has strong neck, fatty stomach and strong arm being intoxicated with the soma juice killed the enemies." These are the texts which show that a deity has a corporeal body. There are other texts which show that he partakes of the food, "अखीन्द्र पिबच्च प्रस्थितत्त्वं" "certainly, O! Indra, drink and depart."

अर्थापत्त्याच्च ॥ ६।१।७ ॥

अर्थापत्त्या by reason of securing the object; च and.

7. And by reason of securing the object.

The objector assigns another reason, the deity is the lord of everything in the universe and secures the desired object. "इन्द्रो दिव इन्द्र ईशे पृथिव्यां इन्द्रो अपामित्र इत्" (R. V, X 89 10) "ईशानमस्य जगत् सुवर्ह्यमाशानमित्र तस्य वे" (T. S. II 4 14 2.) "इन्द्र of the heavens, इन्द्र the lord of the earth, इन्द्र is certainly the lord of the seas." "O! इन्द्र thou art lord of the moveable thou art lord of the immoveable guide to heaven." These texts show that the deity is the lord of the whole universe. There are other texts which show that he becomes pleased on an offering being made to him and grants rewards "आहुनिमित्र इन्द्रादो देवान् प्रोणाति" "तस्मै प्राना इवमूर्जं नियच्छति." "A devotee pleases the gods with offering; they being pleased, grant him desired valour,"

ततश्च तेन सम्बन्धः ॥ ६।१।८ ॥

ततः therefore, च and; तेन with it, सम्बन्धः connection

8. And therefore the deity is connected with it.

The objector goes on in the same manner and says that the fruit is connected with the god. He grants it on being pleased with the devotee. As for example "स इत् जनेन स विशा स जन्मना स पुनैर्वाङ्मरते धनान्मिः" "देवानां यः पितरमा विवासति भक्षामना इविषात्रक्षयस्वति" (T. S. II 3. 14. 3.) "तृत्तप-धैर्मित्रः प्रजयापशुभितर्पयति." "He fills corn with servants, with people, with birth, with sons, wealth and men." "He serves the father, the lord of knowledge with offerings made with devotion." "Indra being satisfied, gratifies him with offspring and cattle."

अपि वा शब्दपूर्वत्वाद् यज्ञकर्म प्रधानं स्याद्गुणत्वे देवताश्रुतिः ॥ ६।१।९ ॥

अपि वा on the other hand, शब्दपूर्वत्वाद् by reason of being based on the word, यज्ञकर्म the sacrifice, प्रधानं principal, स्यात् is, गुणत्वे in being subordinate; देवताश्रुतिः the mention of the deity

9. On the other hand, by reason of being based on the word, the sacrifice is principal and the mention of a deity is subordinate.

The author gives a reply to the objection raised by the objector. The view that the deity is the प्रयोजक is erroneous. The sacrifice is principal; its performance is based on the testimony of the Veda and we do not see any अपूर्व by perception, it (performance) leads to the fruit. It is indicated by यजति. The deity is subordinate. As for example "दृशंपूर्णमासाभ्यां स्वर्गकामायजेत" 'ज्जोतिष्टामेन स्वर्गकामायजेत' "A person desirous of heaven should perform new and full moon sacrifices." "One who is desirous of heaven should perform a ज्योतिष्टोम." The sacrifice is for securing the heaven but not for the deity. In this view, the deity is not प्रयोजक and is, therefore, subordinate.

As to the different aspects of the deity discussed above in relation to his corporeal nature &c., the commentator (शबर) has explained them at length. As to his corporeal nature, he says that it is by way of praise. The vocative case is with a view to point out the deity. "We have taken hold of your hand," (see at 508) this sentence means that we have come under your protection. So other different portions of the body like fist and neck are also by way of praise.

As to the food that is offered, it is stated that the deity does not take it. The food that is offered to the gods becomes tasteless afterwards, it is not because the gods have partaken of it, but because it has become stale.

As to the deity being the owner of the property, the author says that it is also by way of courtesy. The property of the deity is the property of the persons who serve him.

As to the deity being the lord of everything, it is said in reply that this is by way of figure of speech. When it is said that the deity has done this or that, it is only the desire of the shēbait, the deity has nothing to do with it. In this view the deity is not a प्रयोजक but only subordinate.

अतिथौ तत्प्रधानत्वमभावः कर्मणि स्यात्तस्य प्रीति-

प्रधानत्वात् ॥ ६ । १ । १० ॥

अतिथौ in the case of a religious mendicant ; तत् प्रधानत्वम् of his being principal ; अभावः absence ; कर्मणि action ; स्यात् is ; तस्य his ; प्रीतिप्रधानत्वात् love being principal.

10. In the case of a religious mendicant he is principal, the action is absent by reason of his love being principal.

The objector in sūtra 6 gave the illustration of a religious mendicant.

The author says in reply that your illustration does not hold good. In the case of a religious mendicant, the satisfaction of the mendicant is the principal object. 'अतिथेयैर्न संतुष्टस्तथा कुर्यात् प्रयत्नः'; "one should carefully do that which satisfies a religious mendicant" but in the present case, there is absence of the act that leads to the pleasure of a deity. It is a case of dissimilarity of illustration. In this view when securing of the reward depends upon the अपूर्व, there is an occasion for उद्.

Adhikaraṇa V Sūtras 11-19 dealing with the application of the extraordinary principle to sprinkling.

द्रव्यसंख्याहेतुसमुदायं वा श्रुतिसंयोगान् ॥ ६।१।११ ॥

द्रव्यसंख्याहेतुसमुदायं material, number, reason and aggregate, वा on the other hand, श्रुतिसंयोगान् by reason of connection with the text

11. On the other hand, material, number, reason and aggregate by reason of the connection with the text,

In connection with दर्शपूर्णमास "मोहान् प्राञ्चति" "वीन्मग्धिन्" "तिस्रसमिधः" "चतुर्होत्रा पौर्णमासी मभिवृन्" पंचहात्रा अमावस्याम् "शर्पेण जुहोति । तेन हि मग्धं क्रयते । "He sprinkles water on the wild rice" "three sacrificial boundary sticks," "Three sacrificial fuel-sticks," "let one touch the offerings of पूर्णमासी with the चतुर्होत्र verse and those of अमावस्या with the पंचहोत्र verse" "he performs a sacrifice with a winnowing basket, by it corn is winnowed"

The above texts are the texts illustrating the material, the number, the group and the reason. Take for example the first illustration "he sprinkles water on the wild rice" The question is whether washing or sprinkling is for the purpose of the rice or for the extraordinary principle? The objector's reply is that it is for the material, because we see that the material is purified. So in the case of "three sacrificial fuels"

The context shows that they are for the अपूर्व but the sentence shows that they are for the different objects mentioned above. According to the mimamsa rules of interpretation the sentence predominates over the context.

In the illustration "he sacrifices with the winnowing basket, because corn is winnowed by it" The reason shows that the homa is for the purpose of the winnowing basket. As to the text quoted in connection with अभिवृत्ति (see at P 465) "let one touch the offerings with the चतुर्होत्र verse and those of अमावस्या with the पंचहोत्र verse" it is with the object of touching ; so according to the objector washing is for the purpose of the material and so on.

अर्थकारिते च द्रव्येण न व्यवस्था स्यात् ॥६११२॥

अर्थकारिते on the extraordinary principle being the object ; च and ; द्रव्येण with the material ; न not , व्यवस्था arrangement स्यात् is.

12. And if the object had been to attain the extraordinary principle, there would have been no arrangement with the material.

The objector says further in support of his view that if the extraordinary principle had been the object, there would not have been any rule to guide one to prepare the material. As for example मैत्रावरुण एवमस्तीति "He boils milk for मैत्रावरुण." In this text, we clearly see that boiling of milk is the object.

अर्थो वा स्यात्प्रयोजनमितरेषामचोदनात्तस्य च गुण-

भूतत्वात् ॥ ६ । १ । १३ ॥

अर्थ the extraordinary principle , वा on the other hand , स्यात् is ; प्रयोजनम् object , इतरेषाम् of the others , चोदनात् by reason of being not ordained ; तस्य of it ; च and , गुणभूतत्वात् by reason of being subordinate

13. On the other hand the extraordinary principle is the object ; the others are not ordained, by reason of being subordinate to it.

The author's reply is very short, the thing to be obtained is the object; the अर्थ is the only object to be achieved : the other things are only इतिकर्तव्यता in the language of the Mimāṃsā. They are, therefore, not laid-down , the विधि applies to the principal and they are only subordinate to the principal.

अपूर्वत्वाद्व्यवस्था स्यात् ॥ ६ । १ । १४ ॥

अपूर्वत्वात् by reason of being the अपूर्व , व्यवस्था rule of guidance ; स्यात् is

14. By reason of the अपूर्व, there is a rule of guidance.

The author gives a reply to the view of the objector as embodied in sūtra 12. What he says is that owing to the अपूर्व which appertains to the ceremony of मैत्रावरुण, the rule as to the procedure applies. The procedure is to obtain the अपूर्व

तत्प्रयुक्तत्वे च धर्मस्य सर्वविषयत्वम् ॥ ९ । १ । १५ ॥

तत्प्रयुक्तत्वे on its being applied; च and ; धर्मस्य of the procedure ; सर्वविषयत्वम् application to all.

15. And on its being applied, the procedure will apply to all.

The author argues that if you say that sprinkling applies to materials, then it will apply to cooked rice intended for food and rice for sale as well.

तद्व्युक्तस्येति चेत् ॥ ९ । १ । १६ ॥

तद्व्युक्तस्य of one connected with it ; इति चेत् if you say

16. If you say, it will apply to the one of the context.

The objector says "no, sprinkling will not be done on all sorts of rice ; it will be done on the rice which is described in the context."

नाश्रुतित्वात् ॥ ९ । १ । १७ ॥

न not ; नाश्रुतित्वात् by reason of there being nothing stated.

17. Not so, by reason of there being nothing stated.

The author brings the fault that he has found with the view of the objector into prominence ; no, you are wrong : it is nowhere said that the act of sprinkling will apply to the rice of the sacrifice under performance.

अधिकारादिति चेत् ॥ ९ । १ । १८ ॥

अधिकारात् by division ; इति चेत् if you say.

18. If you say, by division.

The objector again supports his view and says that a priest can divide the rice for the sacrifice and for food and he can very easily distinguish it by this division.

तुल्येषु नाधिकारः स्यादचोदितश्च सम्बन्धः पृथक्
सतां यज्ञार्थेनाभिसम्बन्धस्तस्माद्यज्ञप्रयोजनम् ॥ ९ । १ । १९ ॥

तुल्येषु in equal , न अधिकारः no division , स्यात् is , अचोदितः not laid down, pointed out, च and , सम्बन्धः relationship; पृथक् separate existence; यज्ञार्थेन with the sacrifice , अभिसम्बन्धः relationship , तस्मात् therefore ; यज्ञप्रयोजनम् object of the sacrifice.

19. In equal, there is no division (difference). No relationship is pointed out, nor is there any separate existence. There is relationship with the sacrifice, therefore the sacrifice is the purpose.

The author summarises his whole argument advanced by him in the अधिकरण. He says that the grains of rice are all equal, there is no difference in them nor can one be made. The same rice can be used for food or for a sacrifice. Being taken for a sacrifice and water being thrown after performing certain process on them, they become fit for the sacrifice. The conclusion is that the प्रोक्षण & are for the अपूर्व but not for the material upon which the process is performed.

Aṭhaka and Mīmāṃsā 20.23 dealing with the subject that in the Agnistoma, silence applies to the preparation.

देशवद्भुत्वं तेषां स्याच्छ्रुतिनिर्देशात्तस्य च तत्र
भावात् ॥ ६ । १ । २० ॥

देशवद्भुत्वं restricted to the place, उपांशुत्वं silence, तेषाम् their, स्यात् is; श्रुतिनिर्देशात् by reason of the direction of the text, तस्य its, च and, तत्र there; भावात् by reason of existence.

20. The silence relating to it, is restricted to the place by reason of the direction of the text and because that exists there.

The adhikāraṇa opens with the siddhānta view of the author. In connection with उपांशुत्वं it is said ? "तस्मादापवायकस्य, तस्माद्यत् किञ्चित् प्राचीनमग्निर्वायोयात् तेन उपांशु चरति" "it is a clever move of the sacrifice, therefore whatever is prior to अग्निर्वायोमीय, they by it, behave silently" Now there is a doubt whether the silence mentioned in the text applies to all actions before अग्निर्वायोमीय or to the final अपूर्व. The author's reply is that the अपूर्वा that applies to the minor action, prior to अग्निर्वायोमीय subserves immediately and purifies the principal substance. So the quality of reading in low tone applies to the apūrva of the minor acts, it is therefore confined to a certain place in the sacrifice because the text imposes silence as a rule; it is to be observed strictly, because it finds its place there by invariable connection.

यज्ञस्य वा तत्संयोगात् ॥ ६ । १ । २१ ॥

यज्ञस्य of the sacrifice , वा on the other hand; तत्संयोगात्, by reason of its mention.

21 On the other hand, of the sacrifice by reason of its mention

The objector says that it applies to the sacrifice because it is expressly mentioned in the text. The objector's view is that the silence imposed by the text applies to the final apārva, because the term sacrifice is used as विधि

अनुवादश्च तदर्थवत् ॥ ९ । १ । २२ ॥

अनुवादः restatement ; च and , तदर्थवत् with that object.

22. And the restatement is with that object.

The objector proceeds further and says that the text is an अर्थवाद of the sacrifice , just as a hawk puts his steps in a silent and crooked way and takes hold of a bird unawares, so in order to accomplish the sacrifice, the sacrificer also acts in a crooked and silent way. Putting steps slowly and silently in a particular locality is not the object of the hawk but to seize his prey. So in the same way, the sacrificer's object is to accomplish the sacrifice but not to perform certain minor details in silence at a particular stage in the sacrifice.

प्रणीतादि तथेति चेत् ॥ ९ । १ । २३ ॥

प्रणीतादि sacrificial water etc ; तथा similarly , इतिचेत् If you say.

23. If you say, that similarly in the case of sacrificial water.

The प्रणीता is water sacrificially purified and placed in the north of आहवनीय fire. "प्रणीता नाम आपोमंत्रं संस्कृता आहवनीयस्योत्तरतोनिहिताः" see the commentary on अश्वलायन श्रौतसूत्र Poona edition at P 4 प्रणीता is water sacrificially purified and placed to the north of आहवनीय fire," यदापः प्रणयं स्तस्मादापः प्रणीता स्तत्प्रणीतानां प्रणीतात्वम् । श० ब्रा० १२ ७ ३ ९. "Because water is carried, therefore the water is called प्रणीता and the प्रणीता water has the quality of being प्रणीता "

In connection with दशं पूर्णमास it is said " यज्ञं तन्निष्पंतावध्वयुं यजमानौ प्राचयच्छतः यदध्वयुं यजमानौ वाचं यच्छतस्तत्प्रजापति भूयंगतौ यज्ञं तन्वाते स्यात्प्रणीताः प्रणेष्यन् वाचं यच्छति तां सह इविष्कृता विस्तृजति " "The priest and the sacrificer while preparing a sacrifice observe silence, because the priest and the sacrificer observe silence , the lord of the universe having manifested himself again, prepares the sacrifice , therefore carrying water he observes silence , with the maker of offering he gives it up."

The objector in continuation of his argument says that the same strict observance of silence applies to the final अर्घ्य i. e. the sacrifice in which प्रणीताप्रणयन (carrying of the holy water) is performed.

न यज्ञस्याश्रुतित्वात् ॥ ६ । १ । २४ ॥

न not so, यज्ञस्य of the sacrifice, अश्रुतित्वात् by reason of being not mentioned.

24. Not so, there is no mention of the sacrifice.

The author gives a reply to the objector that holding of the tongue imposed on the priest and the sacrificer while carrying water is by way of praise and for that part of the sacrifice but is not for the अर्घ्य.

तद्देशानां वा संघातस्यचोदितत्वात् ॥ ६ । १ । २५ ॥

तद्देशानां of that particular locality ; वा on the other hand, संघातस्य of the aggregate, अचोदितत्वात् by reason not being laid down.

25. On the other hand, the procedure is of that particular locality, because the aggregate is nowhere laid down.

The author summarises the whole argument and says that silence that is imposed, is restricted to that particular part of the sacrifice, because nowhere it is laid down by a text that it appertains to the whole of it. The low-reading therefore applies to all minor acts that precede the अग्नीषोमीय

Some commentators have included the sūtras 23 to 29 in a separate adhikarṇa and have numbered it as VII but we have followed our esteemed commentator शबर

Adhikarṇa VII Sūtras 26 28 dealing with the performance of drawing out of the bricks once

अग्निधर्मः प्रतीष्टकं संघातात्पौर्णमासीवत् ॥ ६ । १ । २६ ॥

अग्निधर्मः the fire ceremony ; प्रतीष्टकं on each brick ; संघातात् by reason of collection, पौर्णमासीवत् as in a full moon ceremony

26. The fire ceremony should be performed on each brick, by reason of collection as in a full moon ceremony.

There are texts " इष्टकामिश्रमिन्विनुते " " मङ्गुकेनाग्निं विकर्षति । वेनसशाकं वा इष्टकामिश्रमिन् विकर्षति । हिरण्यशकलसहज्ज्वाग्निं प्रोक्षति इध्ना मधुमिर्धेनाग्निं प्रोक्षति " " With the bricks, he establishes fire ; he pulls out fire with a toad tied to a branch of a tree, he draws out fire with a cane branch or branch of an aquatic tree ; he sprinkles fire with thousand pieces of gold ; he sprinkles fire with curd mixed with honey”.

The question is, “Should the act of drawing and sprinkling be performed on each brick or be performed at once simultaneously ?” The question therefore, narrows itself to this “whether the term ‘agni’ applies to a group of bricks or to any other substance different from the bricks?” If it applies to a group of bricks, then all bricks should be drawn in and sprinkled over separately and if it applies to a substance other than brick, then विकर्षण and प्रोक्षण may be performed on all of them simultaneously. The objector says that each brick should be drawn in and sprinkled over with water.

The reason is that each brick is separate ; when you draw a particular part of a body, the whole is drawn in, but such is not the case with the bricks, they are separate. There is an intervening space between them. So according to the objector all should be drawn in and washed separately. He says that just as the group of अग्नेय, उपशु and अग्नीषोमीय is included in the term पौर्णमास, so the term अग्नौ denotes a group of bricks. “यपवविद्वान् पौर्णमासी यजते । यपव विद्वानमावस्या य ते” One knowing this performs a full moon sacrifice, one knowing this performs a new moon sacrifice

अग्नेर्वा स्याद्द्रव्यैकत्वादितरासां तदर्थत्वात् ॥६११२७॥

अग्नेः of Agni ; वा on the other hand, स्यात् is, द्रव्यैकत्वात् by reason of the material being one, इतरासां of the others, तदर्थत्वात् by reason of being for it.

27. On the other hand, it is Agni by reason of the material being one and the others being for it.

In the अग्निवचन ceremony, the bricks are laid and the fire is established there. The author therefore says that the bricks are for the establishment of fire “इष्टकामिरन्विष्युते” . “With the bricks, he establishes fire” The bricks are in the instrumental case and are, therefore, subordinate. There are two kinds of things moveable and immoveable. A tree is an immoveable thing ; if you draw a leaf, the whole thing is put into motion but such is not the case with the moveable things. Here the fire is the moveable thing, so the विकर्षण and प्रोक्षण must be performed simultaneously at a time.

चोदनासमुदायात्तु पौर्णमास्यां तथा स्यात् ॥६११२८॥

चोदनासमुदायात् by reason of number of commands, तु on the other hand, पौर्णमास्यां in the full moon ceremony ; तथा so, similarly, स्यात् is

28. On the other hand, by reason of the number of commands; in the full moon ceremony that is so.

“यएवं विद्वान् पौर्णमासीं यजते यएव विद्वानमावस्यां यजते” One knowing this, performs a full moon sacrifice, one knowing this, performs a new moon sacrifice”.

The author says that it is all right in the case of पौर्णमासयाग There the term is not used in any other sense than आग्नेय and others, but here the action is performed by reason of a number of बोदनाः. Here in the case of अग्निष्यन, the different substance is meant. So the ceremony pertaining to fire should be performed simultaneously at a time on all the bricks.

Adhikaraṇa VIII sūtras 29-32 dealing with fixing of पत्नी संयाज to the days other than the final.

पत्नीसंयाजान्तत्वं सर्वेषामविशेषात् ॥ ६।१।२९ ॥

पत्नीसंयाजान्तत्वं ending of, पत्नीसंयाज, सर्वेषां of all, अविशेषात् by reason of being not special

29. The term पत्नीसंयाज applies to all (the days), because there is nothing special in it.

In connection with द्वादशाह there is a text ‘द्वादशाहेन प्रजा कामं याजयेत्’ ॥ “पत्नीसंयाजानि अहानिसतिष्ठते” “Let him make one desirous of progeny perform द्वादशाह sacrifice” “They maintain it up to the पत्नीसंयाज days.” The question is “whether all the days of द्वादशाह have the days of the पत्नीसंयाज or there is any exception to it.” ? According to the objector, the days end in the पत्नीसंयाज thereby he means that all the days of द्वादशाह have पत्नी संयाज days and further there is no exception mentioned there It is a general text without any exception.

लिङ्गाद्वा प्रागुत्तमात् ॥ ६।१।३० ॥

लिङ्गात् by reason of inference ; वा on the other hand, प्राक् before, उशमात् from the final (day)

30. On the other hand by reason of the inference (it appears that the end of पत्नीसंयाज is) before the final day.

The author gives his own view and says that there is an inference from the text पत्नीसंयाजानि अहानिसतिष्ठते न बह्वनुप्रवृत्तिः असंस्थितो हि तर्हि गृहः ” “ They maintain it to the end of पत्नीसंयाज day, no grass is subsequently brought, and the sacrifice is therefore incomplete,”

The day on which the पक्षीसंवाज ends is not the day on which the sacrifice is complete. This fact shows that the पक्षीसंवाज ends before the final day.

अनुवादो वा दीक्षा यथा नक्तं संस्थापनस्य ॥६१॥३१॥

अनुवादः restatement ; वा on the other hand ; दीक्षा initiation ; यथा as, like, नक्तसंस्थापनस्य of the nocturnal sitting.

31. On the other hand it is a restatement, just as initiation is of nocturnal sitting.

There is a text in connection with the discharge of the initiation ceremony वरुणपाशाभ्यां वाप्यवच्यते बोद्धवितः अहोरात्रैव वरुणपाशौ यदि वा संस्थापये वज्रमुक्तौ वरुणपाशाभ्यां स्याजक्तं संस्थाप्यो वरुणपाशाभ्यां मेवोन्मुच्यते आत्मनो हिंसायाः । अनुमुक्तः स वरुणपाशाभ्यां न तावद्दीक्षयामुच्यते । अवभृथो हि दीक्षोन्मोक्षनार्थः ॥ "One who is initiated, is bound by the two traps of वरुण ; days and nights are the two traps of वरुण ; one who maintains a sacrifice by day is not discharged from the traps of वरुण, but one who establishes it at night is discharged from the traps of वरुण and from self-slaughter". "He is not discharged from the initiation, till set free from the traps of वरुण ; the, sacrificial bath is for the discharge of the initiation".

The objector says that the text as to the discharge of the initiation is in eulogy of the night-sitting ; so the incomplete nature of the sacrifice is to show the length of the sacrifice and is by way of praise of पक्षीसंवाज. The sacrifice must end with पक्षीसंवाज and there is no exception made to it.

स्याद्वाऽनारभ्य विधानादन्ते लिङ्गं विरोधात् ॥६१॥३२॥

स्यात् is ; वा on the other hand ; अनारभ्यविधानात् by reason of the general text ; अन्ते in the end ; लिङ्गविरोधात् by reason of the opposition to the inference.

32. On the other hand it may be so, by reason of the general text but in the end by reason of the opposition to the inference.

If you consider the text to be an अनारभ्यविधि not applicable to any text and hold that all the days in general are meant to have the पक्षीसंवाज including the final day, then this view is in opposition to the inference that the sacrifice is not over on the day the पक्षीसंवाज is finished. See the text quoted in the commentary on sūtra 30. The result is therefore that पक्षीसंवाजस्त्व (the characteristic of पक्षीसंवाज) is limited to all the days of इन्द्रशाह excepting the final day.

Adhikarapa IX dealing with the application of the local order to "the first should be thrice repeated"

अभ्यासः सामधेनीनां प्राथम्यात्स्थानधर्मः स्यात् ॥६१॥३३॥

अभ्यासः repetition ; सामधेनीनां of सामधेनी verses ; प्राथम्यात् by reason of being first ; स्थानधर्मः the quality of sequence ; स्यात् is.

83. The repetition of सामधेनी verses by reason of being first, is of that which is there in order.

There are दर्शपूर्णमासयागाः, there सामधेनी verses are recited which form the model. In that connection it is stated “मिः प्रथमामम्बाह् त्रिरामामम्बाह् ” “He subsequently utters three first ; he subsequently utters three last.” The question for determination is, whether the repetition is the repetition of the ऋक् verses प्रबोवाजा etc., Rigveda III, 27. 1 or it is the repetition of the verses that happen to be first there. The reply of the author is that it means the repetition of that verse of the sāmādheni which is pronounced first. The reason is that the word ‘first’ is used which indicates the order.

Śabara has discussed the पूर्व पक्ष view on the ground that the ‘first’ and the ‘last’ are used in feminine gender and the ऋक् verse which is also in the feminine gender is therefore meant. This view he rightly rejects.

Adhikaraṇa X Sūtras 34-35 dealing with one performance of आरंभणीयेष्टि of दर्शपूर्णमासयागाः which are to be performed for one's whole life.

इष्ट्यावृत्तौ प्रयाजवदावर्त्ततारम्भणीया ॥ ६१ ॥ ३३ ॥

इष्ट्यावृत्तौ on the repetition of the offerings of the new and full moon; प्रयाजवत् like प्रयाज offering ; आवर्त्तत should be repeated; आरंभणीया, आरंभणीया offering.

84. On the repetition of the दर्शपूर्णमासेष्टि, like प्रयाज, the आरंभणीया should be repeated.

There are दर्शपूर्णमासयागाः; in that connection it is said “दर्शपूर्णमासाम्यास्त्रयं क्रमेण जेत”. “One who is desirous of heaven should perform new and full moon sacrifices.” There is an introductory ceremony laid down which is called आरंभणीयेष्टि, अग्नावैष्णविमेकादश कपालानिर्वपेत् सरस्वत्यैष्वदं सरस्वतेद्वादश कपाला-ग्रमये भगिनेऽष्टाकपालानिर्वपेत् कामयेताजायः स्यात् ॥ “One who wishes that he may be granivorous, shall offer cakes baked on eleven pans, consecrated to Agni and Viṣṇu, boiled rice to सरस्वती, cakes baked on twelve pans to सरस्वत् and cakes baked on eight pans to Agni who takes offerings.”

There is another text “यावज्जीव दर्शपूर्णमासाम्याजयेत्” “He shall perform the new and full moon sacrifices as long as he lives.” The दर्शपूर्णमास is to be continued for one's whole life. The question is whether the आरंभणीयेष्टि should also be performed at every performance of दर्शपूर्णमासयाग. The objecter's reply is that it should be repeated on the repetition of दर्शपूर्णमासभाग-just as अवाच, their parts are repeated with each performance.

सकृद्वाऽऽरम्भसंयोगादेकः पुनराऽरम्भो यावज्जीवप्रयोगात्

॥ ६ । १ । ३५ ॥

सकृत् once ; वा on the other hand ; आरम्भसंयोगात् by reason of the mention of the word beginning; एक one; पुनराऽरम्भ beginning; यावज्जीव प्रयोगात् by reason of the use of 'as long as one lives'.

85. On the other hand once by reason of the mention of (आरम्भ) beginning, there is only one beginning by reason of the use of 'as long as one lives.'

There is a vow in connection with दर्श पूर्णमासभाग. "पर्वणि पर्वणि मयह-दर्शपूर्णमासोक्तस्यै" "On each fortnight day, the new and full moon sacrifices shall have to be performed by me." This is the vow which is taken on the first performance of the दर्शपूर्णमास ; it can not be taken on each time. यावज्जीवमवादादभ्यर्च्य मासोक्तस्यै. As long as I live, the new and full moon sacrifices shall have to be performed by me." The author therefore argues that आरम्भोदेष्टि can be performed only once on the first performance of the दर्शपूर्णमास.

In another view this adhikarapa is called as dealing with the पुनरावृत्ति nature of the आरम्भोदेष्टि. The objector's view is that there is a beginning of the दर्श पूर्णमास on each occasion, so there will be an आरम्भोदेष्टि on each performance. The author's view is that it is connected with the agent ; because he takes a vow on the first performance of दर्शपूर्णमासभाग and thus makes himself fit for subsequent performance of दर्शपूर्णमासभाग. In either views, the result is that आरम्भोदेष्टि is to be performed only once on the first performance of दर्शपूर्णमासभाग.

Adhikarapa XI sūtras 36-37 dealing with the subject that the principle of सकृद् does not apply to the mantras uttered at the time of offering.

अर्थाभिधानसंयोगान्मन्त्रेषु शेषभावः स्यात्तत्राचोदि-

तमप्राप्तं चोदितामिधानात् ॥ ६ । १ । ३६ ॥

अर्थाभिधानसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the meaning ; मन्त्रे in the मन्त्र ; शेषभावः subordinate nature , स्यात् is, तत्र there ; अचोदितमप्राप्तं not adapted without a command : चोदितामिधानात् by reason of naming under a command.

86. By reason of the connection with the meaning, there is a subordinate nature in the mantras ; there is no adaptation without a command because the naming is under a command.

There is a निर्वाप मंत्र in हृष्य यजुर्वेद I, 1. 4. with some alteration; it is uttered at the time when offering is made to fire. देवस्यत्वासविताः प्रसवेऽश्विनोर्वाहुभ्यांपूष्णाहस्ताभ्यामग्नये जुष्टं निर्वपामि See Anand Āśram Series vol. I. 67. I give the translation from the white यजुर्वेद I, 19 as explained by मदीधर.

“O ! हवि I being inspired by सविता, offer thee who art beloved of अग्नि with the arms of Āśvin and the hands of पूषा ”

In the white यजुर्वेद the word प्रहयामि is read instead of निर्वपामि. The मंत्र is read in दर्शपूर्णमासयाग at the time of offering. Now the question is, whether the word. सविता, अश्विन and पूषा should be adapted in the modified sacrifice or not. The question then narrows itself to this, whether these words convey a meaning, if they do, then the principle of ऊह applies and if not, the ऊह will not apply. The author says that the names have meanings and the mantras are therefore subordinate and the principle of ऊह will not apply without any express command, because the names depend on commands.

The author says that ‘सविता’ does not indicate action nor does it mean Agni or any other god. So there will be no ऊह because it does not apply without a बोधना.

ततश्चावचनंतेषामितरार्थं प्रयुज्यते ॥ ६ । १ । ३७ ॥

ततः therefore ; च and ; अवचनं no authority ; तेषाम् of those ; इतरार्थं in another sense , प्रयुज्यते is applied.

37. And therefore there is no authority for those (that are not laid down) ; they are applied in the other sense.

The author further explains himself. He says that you can not sanction a thing which is not laid down. The words are used in a different sense, that is to praise the offering. सविताः प्रसवे on the rising of the sun; अश्विनो वाहुभ्यां with the arms of the sacrificer and his wife. The sacrificer and his wife, are so called because by offering a horse Āśvins bless them ; or with the arms of the sacrificer and the priest, which are as it were the arms of Āśvins.

पूषणं the sacrificer is maintained and nourished by the pious act of a sacrifice. So these are all in praise of निर्वाप

Where the gods such as सविता, अश्विन and पूषा are in connection with the sacrificer, there can not be ऋह. These words used in the मंत्र are for service but not for denoting the gods. So there is no ऋह.

Adhikarapa XIII Satras 38-39 dealing with the subject that in असमवेतशब्द the word अग्नि would be adapted in the modified sacrifice.

गुणशब्दस्तथेति चेत् ॥ ८ । १ । ३८ ॥

गुणशब्दः subordinate words ; तथा likewise ; इतिचेत् if you say.

38. " And the subordinate word is likewise " if you say.

The objector says that in the same way the term Agni in the above passage can not be adapted in the modified sacrifice because it also conveys a meaning-like सविता etc., as said above ; the terms सविता etc., are असमवेतशब्द i. e. are not tied by conventionalism ; so is अग्नि If that were so, it would be a case of similarity and there will be no disparity. So they are used not in the conventional sense but only to praise the offering. When there is nothing of conventionalism in them, they will be used in a different sense; so the term अग्नि will not be substituted by any other term in विकृति.

नसमवायात् ॥ ८ । १ । ३९ ॥

न not ; समवायात् by reason of close affinity.

39. Not so, by reason of close affinity.

The author says that अग्नि is a समवेतशब्द that is, the word is used in the sense in which it is fixed by convention. In the present case as said by the पूर्वपक्ष there is no offering of जुहू but to serve or propitiate अग्नि an offering is made ; we see the visible effect. There is no similarity in these terms अश्वि and अग्नि. The word अग्नि will therefore be adapted in the modified sacrifice.

This adhikarapa is explained otherwise and is called " In the mantra used in offering लङ्घ्य, the word आभ्य should be substituted."

In connection with दर्श पूर्णमास it is said " आभ्यमसिञ्जिषुहि देवान् । इषदि जावयति". "Thou art paddy; delight the gods; he throws it on the stone slab" The question is, whether आभ्य is समवेतशब्द or not, the objector says that it is a subordinate word and is, therefore, not fixed by convention (असमवेतशब्द) ; so the principle of ऋह does not apply.

The author says that the word आभ्य is invariably connected with the sense it conveys (समवेतशब्द) ; so the principle of ऋह applies. There is a शाकानामयन which lasts for 36 years ; in connection with that it is said "संस्थिते संस्थिते ऽहनिष्ठपनिर्मुग्धां वाति, कृतत्रयान् मृगान् हंसितेर्वातरका सबनीयपुरोडाशाः भवन्ति" see at P. 197 "In each departure of the day, the master of the house goes a-hunting ; with the flesh of those deers which he kills there, the cakes are made" According to the objector the text quoted in the second commentary on sūtra 38 will be read in the unmodified form "वाग्यमसिधितुहिदेवान्" According to the author the principle of ऊह will apply and the text will be modified as follows "मांसमसिधितुहिदेवान्". "Thou art flesh; delight the gods."

The principle that is deduced from these Adhikaraṇas after a discussion is that when the sense of the terms can be adjusted to the occasion there will be no ऊह as the term can be used in any sense suited to the occasion but when the sense of the term is unchangeable, then there can be substituted any other word to suit the occasion in the विकृति.

Adhikarṇa XIII dealing with the subject that the principle of ऊह does not apply to the यज्ञपति ¹² इडाह्वानं मन्त्र.

बोदिते तु परार्थत्वाद्विधिवदविकारः स्यात् ॥६१॥४०॥

बोदिते on being commanded ; तु on other hand ; परार्थत्वाद् by reason of being dependent ; विधिवत् like a विधि ; अविकार not modified ; स्यात् is.

40. On the other hand, on being commanded by reason of its being dependent, like the विधि it will be not modified.

In the दर्शपुर्वमासवाग, the verses invoking इडा are recited. In that connection, it is said दैव्या अन्वयव उपहृता उपहृता मनुष्याचर्मयज्ञमवाक्येष यज्ञपतिं यजन्ति" (T.B. III. 5. 8. 8.) "The divine priests who were invited and the invited men who protected the sacrifice and nourished the sacrificer." The question is, whether in a सत्र where there are many sacrificers, will the word यज्ञपति be in plural ? or will it be used without any modification ? The question will narrow itself to this, whether the term यज्ञपति is समवेतवचन or असमवेतवचन ? If the word is for the benefit of the sacrifice, it is समवेत वचन but if it is for praise, then it is असमवेत वचन. Here the term यज्ञपति is for the praise for इडा. Though the term यज्ञपति is read by बोदना, yet being subservient to the praise of इडा it will be used without any modification like विधि. It is in praise of इडा and if the sentence is one, the object is served and so the whole sentence without any modification will be read in the modified sacrifice. It is with an object to stimulate the sacrificer. Wherever a sacrificer is subordinate, any sacrificer will do. Here the sacrificer is subordinate and praising of the इह is principal; in this view the principle of ऊह does not therefore apply.

Adhikaraṇa XIV, dealing with the subject that the term sacrifice is to be modified in the hymn recited at the time when grass is brought from the jungle.

विकारस्तत्प्रधाने स्यात् ॥ ९।१४१॥

विकारः modification; तत् that ; प्रधाने in a principal ; स्यात् is ;

41. It will be modified, on its being principal.

In connection with दर्शपूर्णमास, there is a सूक्त which is read at the time of प्रस्तर प्रहरण carrying of grass from the jungle. It is said there. “अयं यजमान आयुराशस्त” “This sacrificer hopes for longevity.” The question is, that when there are many sacrificers, whether the word यजमान will then be modified or not. The author's reply is that here the word यजमान is principal ; so the principal of ऊह will apply. There are two kinds of मंत्र one kind is क्रियप्रकाशक explaining the performance of an action and the other is फलप्रकाशक explaining the reward of an action. In the former case, there will be no ऊह but in the latter case there will be ऊह. The मंत्र in the preceding अविकार्य is of the former class and that of the present अविकार्य is of the latter class. So in the present case the term यजमान will be modified ; in other words, the principle of ऊह will apply.

Adhikaraṇa XV sūtras 42-44, dealing with the subject that in a Nigada called invoking of सुमहाप्य the term हरिषत् is not modified.

असंयोगात्तदर्थेषु तद्विशिष्टं प्रतीयेत ॥ ९।१।४२॥

असंयोगात् by reason of there being no connection : तदर्थेषु in the sense of that ; तद्विशिष्टं particularised with it ; प्रतीयेत appears.

42. By reason of there being no connection with the sense of that, it appears to be particularised with it.

There is a ज्योतिषोम sacrifice; in it there is सुमहाप्यनिगद. There is a verse “इन्द्रागच्छहरिष आगच्छमेधातियेमेध वृषणश्चस्यमेन गौरावस्कंदिअइत्यायैआर” ऐ. जा. १।१२।२. O! Indra who has horses, O! ram of मेधातियि, O! lover of वृषणश्च's daughter O! white attacker, O! paramour of अइत्या, come.” This निगद is transferred to अग्निष्टुति which is its modified form by the षोडश, text. आनेयीसुमहाप्यामवति “The सुमहाप्य verse is in honour of अग्नि” Here the verse will be read as “अग्निआगच्छ” The question is, whether the epithets of इन्द्र such as हरिष etc., will also be modified or not. The author's view is that इन्द्र is समवेसार्थः, so the principle will undoubtedly apply, but हरिष etc., are असमवेतार्थ i. e. the meaning is not connected with the word by hard and fast rule, so it can apply to any individual god; there is therefore no necessity of alteration. The principle of ऊह does not apply. These epithets are in praise of इंद्र but they can also apply to अग्नि.

कर्माभावादेवमिति चेत् ॥ ६ । १ । ४३ ॥

कर्माभावाद् by reason of the absence of exploit ; एवम् so ; इति चेत् if you say ;

43. If you say, it is so by reason of the absence of exploit.

The objector says that these terms indicate the heroic exploits of इंद्र. As for instance Indra has two horses on both sides by means of which he carries away all. By assuming the form of a ram, he stole the son of कण्व named मेधातिथि. मेनका or मेना was the daughter of दुष्यन्त, Indra fell in love with her. Assuming the form of a white deer, Indra drank soma. Indra ravished अहव्या. These epithets are all समवेतवचन and apply to Indra only. In the view of the objector, for these reasons, the principle of ऊह does not apply.

न परार्थत्वात् ॥ ६ । १ । ४४ ॥

न not so ; परार्थत्वात् by reason of being subservient to others.

44. Not so, by reason of their being subservient to o hors.

The author says that you are mistaken ; they are in praise of Indra ; there is nothing special in them ; they can equally apply to अग्नि. As for instance, the quality of the horses is that they rob all of their wealth, this can equally apply to Agni. There is nothing special in it. इंद्र is called हरिवाद् because he plundered all by means of his horses ; this is a praise which can apply to इंद्र and अग्नि as well. As to the story of मेधातिथि, it is a fable in derogation to the eternality of the Veda and is therefore allegorical. It is a निगद and can equally apply to Agni.

The adhikaraṇa is called by another name i.e. dealing with the subject that in the मंत्र " तस्यै शत " the principle of ऊह does not apply.

In connection with उगोतिष्ठोम, it is said about a एकवर्षी (one year old) cow ' इयं गौलोमकयशो, तयातेकीणमि । तस्यै शतं तस्यै शतः तस्यै शधि तस्यै मस्तु, तस्याग्रानवनम्, तस्यै नवनीतम् तस्यै घृतं, तस्याग्रामिवा, तस्यै बाजिनम् " "This cow is a me is to purchase soma; I shall buy thee by means of her, there is for her boiled milk, for her cream, for her curd, for her watery portion of milk, for her is whey, for her butter, for her ghee, hers is the curd-dish, hers is the watery portion of curd." Here the dative case is used for the genitive.

In ज्ञाच स्क, it is said त्रिवत्स सांडसोमकृययः "Three-years old calf is a means of purchasing soma." In it the above said मंत्र is recited in connection with a bullock ; the first part of it is read as follows "अयसाण्डः सोमकृययः तेमकृययि" "This bullock is a means of purchasing soma, I purchase thee with it." Now the question is whether the latter part should also be read with modification or not. The author's reply is no ; because the passage is not applicable to a cow of one year in as much as milk, ghee, curd etc, can not be obtained from her, similarly it is not applicable to a bullock. In other words, there is nothing in the passage to stick it to the one year old cow ; so it can apply to a bullock as well. The words used are अयमवेत् and can apply to a bullock as well, in future time, and so the principle of ऊद् does not come into play.

The objector says that there is a possibility of the one year old cow, giving milk in future but there is no such possibility in a bullock.

The author says in reply that you are quite right ; a cow which is one year old will give milk in future time, so also a bullock will beget a cow on another cow which will produce milk in future. The मंत्र should be read without any alteration with the exception of one that is mentioned above.

Adhikarapa XVI. Sūtras 45—49 dealing with subject that in the sacrifice where an ewe is offered to सरस्वती, there is no application of the command to अग्निगु.

लिङ्गविशेषनिर्देशात्समानविधानेष्वप्राप्ता सारस्वती

स्त्रीत्वात् ॥ ६ । १ । ४५ ॥

लिङ्गविशेषनिर्देशात् by reason of mention of a particular gender ; समानविधानेषु where the command is equally applicable, अप्राप्तासारस्वती does not apply to सरस्वती ; स्त्रीत्वात् by reason of feminine gender

45. By reason of mention of a particular gender where the command is equally applicable, it does not apply to the sacrifice called सरस्वती

In अग्निष्टोम several animals are mentioned as victims आग्नेयः पशुरग्निष्टोमे आलव्ययैर्द्वाराः पशुस्कृणो ऐन्द्रावृष्यो योद्धशिनिसारस्वती मेवी अतिरात्रे "In an अग्निष्टोम an animal consecrated to Agni, in an उक्थ्य an animal consecrated to इन्द्र and अग्नि, in a योद्धशिर a powerful bullock consecrated to इन्द्र and in an अतिरात्र an ewe consecrated to सरस्वती should be brought "

In अग्निषोसीय there is a command "उपनयनं मेध्यादुराशामानां मेधपनिभ्यामेधं". तै. ब्रा. III 6. 6. 1. "Place the consecrated animals at the gate for slaughter for the two masters of the sacrifice (husband and wife or sacrificer and priest) for sacrifice." The question is whether this formula should be repeated in a सरस्वती sacrifice where ewe is offered. The author's reply is that under the circumstances where there is a common command there is no applicability of it to सरस्वती sacrifice. The reason is that there is a gender mentioned प्रास्म अग्निं भरत " And "For him, nourish fire" Here 'अस्मै' is in masculine gender and the ewe is in the feminine gender and the masculine gender can not apply to a female.

पञ्चभिधानाद्वा तद्धि चोदनाभूतं पुंविषयं पुनः पशु-

त्वम् ॥ ६ । १ । ४६ ॥

पञ्चभिधानात् by reason of general denomination, वा on the other hand, तद् that, हि because, चोदनाभूतं being a command, पुंविषयं applicable to men; पुनः again, पशुत्वं state of animal.

46. On the other hand by reason of the general denomination of animal and because that is a command and applicable to a male and to the state of an animal.

The objector says that the subject is that of an animal for the sacrifice and being in masculine gender applies to the whole class without regard to the sex. The ewe also comes under the 'genus' of animal and therefore the command to अग्निं applies to सरस्वती sacrifice.

विशेषो वा तदर्थनिर्देशात् ॥ ६ । १ । ४७ ॥

विशेष, particular, वा on the other hand, तदर्थनिर्देशात् by reason of its pointing out that object,

47. On the other hand it is particular by reason of its pointing out that object.

The author says that it is not general as you say, but in the formula the pronoun अस्मै is used in masculine gender and the ewe is in feminine gender. The masculine gender can not apply to a female.

पशुत्वं चैकशब्दात् ॥ ६ । १ । ४८ ॥

पशुत्वं animal nature, च and, ऐकशब्दात् by reason of one word.

48. And animal nature by reason of one word.

The objector harps on the same tune and says that animal is one word and belongs to a class and therefore requires a masculine gender.

यथोक्तं वा सन्निधानात् ॥ ६ । १ । ४६ ॥

यथोक्तं as said, वा on the other hand, सन्निधानात् by reason of the proximity;

49. On the other hand, it is as said by reason of the proximity

The author says that the pronoun will apply to the object referred to before. The pronoun in the quotation can not apply to any animal. As it is in masculine gender, it will apply to a male animal. The answer is a simple one, if the procedure relating to animal was common, then it did not apply to सरस्वतीयज्ञ by reason of the ewe being used in a feminine gender and if the procedure related to अग्निषोमीय then it applied to Saraswati by the principle of ऊहः but here the author's view is that the animal sacrifice is governed by the common विधि and so the सरस्वती sacrifice is an exception and अधिगुप्रेष does not apply अधिगु is a priest whose function is to kill an animal for the sacrifice माधव defines the term thus "अधिगुना मादैव्यः शमिता" He is a divine killer See at p. 432 of the Poona edition of न्यायमाला.

. Adhikaraṇa XVII Sūtras 50 - 53 dealing with the subject that in यज्ञायज्ञीय song, हरा should be sung in place of गिरा

आम्नातादन्यदधिकारे वचनाद्विकारः स्यात् ॥ ६ । १ । ५० ॥

आम्नातात् by being laid down; अन्यत् otherwise, अधिकारे in one connection; वचनात् under an authority; विकारः modification; स्यात् is

50. In connection with one sacrifice laid down as otherwise, it is modified under an authority.

In connection with ज्योतिषोम sacrifice, there is a song called यज्ञायज्ञीय which is sung. "यज्ञायज्ञीयेन्मुवीत" "He should praise with यज्ञायज्ञीय" In the verse (see infra in the commentary on Sūtra 52) there is a word 'गिरा' In that connection, it is said नगिरागिरेतिब्रूयात्, यदिगिरागिरेतिब्रूयात्, आत्मानंतदुद्गातोद्गिरिदैर्कृत्वोद्गेयं ॥ "The word 'गिरा' should not be pronounced as 'गिरा', if a singer pronounces 'गिरा' as 'गिरा' he shall throw himself up and by making it ऐर shall sing it." Now the question is 'whether the गिरा' should be pronounced with ग or without ग The reply of our author is that ग should be dropped. In connection with one context where it is laid down as to be read otherwise, then it should be considered to be modified The text clearly says that गिरा should not be pronounced as गिरा but it should be pronounced as हरा.

द्वैधं वा तुल्यहेतुत्वात्सामान्याद्विकल्पः स्यात् ॥ ६ । १ । ५१ ॥

द्वैच two-fold; वा on the other hand; तुल्यहेतुत्वात् by virtue of equal reasons; सामान्यात् by reason of common meaning; विकल्पः option; स्यात् is.

51. On the other hand, it should be two-fold by virtue of equal reasons; and by reason of common meaning there is option.

The objector says that as there is a double reading and both words गिरा and ह्रा have a common meaning, so there is option for a singer to insert any word he likes.

उपदेशाच्च साम्नः ॥ ६ । १ । ५२ ॥

उपदेशात् by reason of direct command, च and, साम्नः of a song.

52. And by reason of the direct command of the song.

The objector further gives a reason that it is laid down by the psalm "यज्ञायज्ञावोऽग्नये गिरा गिराचक्षसे" यजु० वे० २७।५२ सा० वे० पू० १।४।१. ऋ० वे० ६।४८।१. "O ye singers in every sacrifice, sing praises to the prosperous Agni." And there is a command यज्ञायज्ञीयेनस्तुवीत "Let him sing यज्ञायज्ञीय." So this fact also shows that there is an option of the reading.

नियमो वा श्रुतिविशेषादितरत्सामप्रदश्यवत् ॥ ६।१।५३ ॥

नियमः a restrictive rule, वा on the other hand, श्रुतिविशेषात् by reason of the special text, इतरत् the other; सामप्रदश्यवत् like 17 सामधेनी verses.

53. On the other hand, it is a restrictive rule by reason of the special text, and the other is like the seventeen Sâmadheni verses.

The author says that the rule as to pronouncing ह्रा in place of गिरा is fixed by special text of the Veda and the term 'गिरा' is used in the altered form like the seventeen Sâmadheni verses which are transferred to the modified sacrifice as fifteen verses. The conclusion of the author is clear that in the psalm, from the term 'गिरा', ग should be dropped while singing.

The author after describing the principle of ऊह as applicable to मंत्र, has commenced to discuss the second class of ऊह relating to साम in the present अधिकरण.

Adhik. page XVIII sūtras 54-58 dealing with the subject that ह्रा is to be sung.

अग्रगाणाच्छब्दान्यत्वे तथाभूतोपदेशः स्यात् ॥ ६।१।५४ ॥

अग्रगाणात् by reason of being not capable of singing, शब्दान्यत्वे on the word being changed into another form, तथाभूतः is in accordance with it, उपदेशः the direction, स्यात् is.

54. By reason of being not capable of singing, and on the word being changed into another form, the direction is in accordance with it.

We have already seen in the foregoing अधिकरण that गिरा should be pronounced as इरा ; the next question for solution is that it should be sung or should be simply pronounced. The objector says that the psalm is given as if it is not intended for singing, so it should be read in that way. If it had been intended for singing its form would be 'आइरीच' under the rules of music.

यत्स्थाने वा तद्गीतिः स्यात्पदान्यत्वप्रधानत्वात्

॥ ६ । १ । ५५ ॥

यत्स्थाने in whose place ; वा on the other hand, तत् that , गीतिः song ; स्यात् is , पदान्यत्वप्रधानत्वात् by reason of the modified form being principal.

55. On the other hand, one in whose place the word is substituted will be sung by the rule of music by reason of the modified form being principal.

The author says that it should be sung, as ' गिरा ' is substituted by 'इरा' and the word ऐर is the तद्धित form of इरा. So the इरा form shows that the song is to be set to music.

गानसंयोगाच्च ॥ ६ । १ । ५६ ॥

गानसंयोगात् by reason of being connected with music ; च and.

56. And by reason of its being connected with the music.

The author gives an additional reason in support of his view "उद्गोयमाइरा-चादाक्षासा" "Should be sung as 'आइरा' 'चा' and 'दाक्षासा' this is the form in which इरा and दक्षसे are set to music.

वचनमिति चेत् ॥ ६ । १ । ५७ ॥

वचनम् a precept , इति चेत् if you say

57. If you say that it is a precept.

The objector says that you say that " उद्गोयमा इराचादाक्षासा " ("Should be sung as 'आइरा', चा and 'दाक्षासा'") is a song set to music ; but I say it is some text containing a precept.

न तत्प्रधानत्वात् ॥ ६ । १ । ५८ ॥

न not so ; तत्प्रधानत्वात् by reason of its being principal.

58. Not so, by reason of its being principal.

The author says "it is not a विधि because the principal factor is ह्रा It is an अर्थवाद of ह्रा " The conclusion is that the psalm quoted in the preceding अधिकरण (see in the commentary on सूत्र 52) with the change discussed, is intended to be sung

End of Pāda I.

PĀDA II.

Adhikarana I Sūtra I - 2 dealing with the subject that the songs are called साम

सामानि मन्त्रमेके स्मृत्युपदेशाभ्याम् ॥ ६ । २ । १ ॥

सामानि songs, मन्त्रम् mantra, एके according to one, स्मृत्युपदेशाभ्याम् by the tradition and instruction

1. Verses set to music are साम according to one by the tradition and instruction.

There are several terms as for instance रथंतर, वृहत्, वैरूपं, वैराजं शकरं, रैवतं There is the verse अभित्वाशूर नोनुम ऋ. वे. VII 32. 22 The question is whether the verses set to music are called साम or only the songs are called साम In chapter II pāda 1 sūtra 36 songs are called साम (see at p. 56) The objector says that verses set to music are साम.

तदुक्तदोषम् ॥ ६ । १ । २ ॥

तत् that, उक्तदोषम् the defect as stated.

2. There is the defect as stated.

The author says that for reasons given at length in chapter VII pāda II, the songs are only called साम. see at p 433.

This अधिकरण is called " dealing with the subject that the code relating to adaptation is human" and commented upon differently

The question is, what is ऊह? "कया न शिञ्चन्नाभुवदुती" ऋ. वे. IV 31 1 is it a code of the ऋषिः and eternal or is it a mode of singing? According to one, says the objector, these verses are set to music and adapted according to the fixed canons of the Rṣis and are therefore permanent. The reason given is that such is the tradition and such is also the teaching of the preceptor to the disciples. Further " ऊहश्चकीर्तितः " "ऊह is desirable (depends on one's desire)" so runs the instruction to the Brāhmaṇa ; if it were so, it is a divine code and is binding; but if it were not so, then it would not be an authority.

The author says that according to your own view, ऊह is human. If it is विधीयते (depending on one's will) as you say, then it depends upon the wishes of an arranger, so it is a human institution. It is acceptable if based on reason.

Adhikaraṇa II sūtras 3—13 dealing with his subject that psalms are purificatory acts of the ऋक्

कर्म वा विधिलक्षणम् ॥ ९ । २ । ३ ॥

कर्म principal act, वा on the other hand ; विधिऋणम् characterised by command

3 On the other hand, it is the principal act being characterised by command.

It has been settled in the foregoing अधिकरण that the term 'साम' is used in the sense of songs. Now the question is whether these songs are principal or subsidiary with reference to ऋक् verses. In other words, whether the term साम denotes the principal act or the purificatory act. The objector's reply is, that it is principal because it is characterised by विधि " रथंतरं गायति " "He sings रथंतरं" The word (रथंतरं) is used in the accusative case and is a principal act. Secondly the principal act leads to rewards.

तादृग्द्रव्यं वचनात्पाकयज्ञवत् ॥ ९ । २ । ४ ॥

तादृग्द्रव्यं the material ; वचनात् under a text ; पाकयज्ञवत् like a cooking sacrifice.

4. Therefore the material is ऋक् under a text, just as in a cooking sacrifice.

The objector goes on developing his argument and says that in a principal action there is इतिकर्तव्यता i.e. different materials, here the material is the ऋक् verse. There is a text "ऋक्सामगायति" "He sings a song in a rik verse", just as in a पाकयज्ञ you have different materials such as parched grain, rice, ghee, etc., so we have here

तत्राविप्रतिषिद्धो द्रव्यान्तरे व्यतिरेकः प्रदेशश्च ॥ ९ । २ । ५ ॥

तत्र there, अविप्रतिषिद्धः not prohibited ; द्रव्यान्तरे in a different material ; व्यतिरेकः different, प्रदेशः transference, च and.

5. There is a different material though the transference is ~~not~~ prohibited, it is separate.

The objector says that you can take any शब्द verse and sing in any tune whether गृह्य or रथतर. The term साम applies to all songs.

शब्दार्थत्वात्तुनैवं स्यात् ॥ ६ । २ ॥ ६ ॥

शब्दार्थत्वात् by reason of its being for the object of the word ; तु on the other hand , नैवं not so , स्यात् is

6. It can not be so by reason of its being for the object of the word.

The author now commences to develop his own view. He says you are wrong, the psalms are not principal but they are subordinate because we see that they subserve the words. They are for the purpose of altering the words in a melodious way. They exist for the purpose of others. When sung, the Rik verses are pronounced melodiously.

परार्थत्वाच्च शब्दानाम् ॥ ६ । २ । ७ ॥

परार्थत्वात् by reason of being for the object of others ; च and ; शब्दानाम् of the words.

7. And of the words being for the object of others.

The author further goes on developing his argument that the words are subservient i. e. they serve the purpose of others. They are for praise.

असम्बन्धश्च कर्मणा शब्दयोः पृथगर्थत्वात् ॥ ६ । २ । ८ ॥

असम्बन्धः not connected , कर्मणा with the action , शब्दयोः of the words ; पृथगर्थत्वात् by reason of different objects.

8. And it is not connected with the action, there being different objects of the two words.

The author says that there is a difference between the action i. e. the verses that are selected for singing (स्तोत्र) and the song (as for instance the time in which it is sung) The object of रथतर is to sing the गृह्य. The former is the name of a tune and the latter is name of a स्तोत्र. It is the former that brings the latter to the ears of the hearers.

संस्कारश्चाप्रकरणोऽग्नित्वस्यात्प्रयुक्तत्वात् ॥ ६ । २ । ९ ॥

सौकरः purificatory act ; अमकर्म at non-sacrificial time ; अग्निवत् like fire ;
स्वात् is ; प्रयुक्तत्वात् by reason of being applied.

9. It is a purificatory act, at a non-sacrificial time like the fire by reason of being applied.

The objector says I accept your view that the psalms are for the purpose of चण्ड . It is quite reasonable that psalms should be sung at the time of learning music but there is no necessity of singing them at the time of a sacrifice when they have been once learnt, as for instance the establishment of fire once performed, ensures for the benefit of the entire sacrifice.

अकार्यत्वाच्च शब्दानामप्रयोगः प्रतीयेत ॥ ९ । २ । १० ॥

अकार्यत्वात् by reason of being for no purpose, चण्ड ; शब्दानाम् of the words , अप्रयोगः non-use , प्रतीयेत appears.

10. And by reason of the words being for no purpose, it appears that they were not used.

The author says that the psalms sung at the non-sacrificial occasion being not for the purpose of sacrifice, they are to be repeated again at the time of a sacrifice. The reasoning of शबर is very queer ; he says that the songs sung at the non-sacrificial occasion do not vanish and remain in existence up to the time of the sacrifice, there is then no repetition and if they can not be sung again, in that case also there can not be a repetition. But the psalms sung can be sung again and the psalms sung on the non sacrificial occasions are, therefore, useless and do not serve the purpose of the sacrifice.

आश्रितत्वाच्च ॥ ९ । २ । ११ ॥

आश्रितत्वात् by reason being dependent , चण्ड.

11. And by reason of being dependent.

The author now proceeds to show how the psalms are sung at the time of the sacrifice “ ओदुर्वरीस्पृष्टानपाश्रितवद्वातोद्गायेत् ” “ Having touched the pillar made of ओदुम्बर wood, let the उद्गाता sing unsupported by it.” There is a post made of ओदुम्बर wood in the middle and the उद्गाता touching it sings a song. So the illustration of अग्न्याधान does not hold good ; because when psalms are sung on the non-sacrificial occasions, no such formality as described above is observed.

प्रयुज्यत इति चेत् ॥ ९ । २ । १२ ॥

प्रयुज्यते should be practised ; इति चेत् if you say.

12. "It should be practised " if you say.

The objector says that from your reasoning it appears that the singing of psalms on the non-sacrificial occasion is useless, then what do you say to the text अर्द्धमासान् अभ्यस्य प्रयुज्यते तत्फलमाप्नुयति ? " Study for half of five months is proper ; it is fruitful "

गृहणार्थं प्रयुज्येत ॥ ६ । २ । १३ ॥

गृहणार्थं for acquisition ; प्रयुज्येत should be practised,

13. It should be practised for acquisition.

The author says that the reward mentioned here is not invisible but visible. When the preceptor imparts knowledge to his disciple, he makes him practise. As for instance a chariot-maker teaches his pupil by drawing a chart on the ground and a teacher teaches his pupil by drawing letters on a board or slate ; so in the same way the psalms sung on the non-sacrificial occasions are only with a view to acquire knowledge of music.

Adhikaraṇa III sūtras 14—20 dealing with the subject that in a group of three ऋक् the whole song should be finished after each ऋक्

तृचे स्याच्छ्रुतिनिर्देशात् ॥ ६ । २ । १४ ॥

तृचे in a song of three verses ; स्यात् is ; श्रुतिनिर्देशात् by reason of the vedic text.

14. In a group of three ऋक् verses by reason of the command of the vedic text.

In connection with ज्योतिष्टोम it is said " एकं मासं तृचे कुर्यात्सोत्रीयम् " " One stotriya psalm should be made in a group of three ṛik verses." The question is whether singing should be done at the end of each ऋक् or after a group of 3 ऋक् s. The reply according to the objector is that it should be done after the end of the group of 3 ऋक् verses. The reason is that it is so directed by the Veda.

शब्दार्थत्वाद्विकारस्य ॥ ६ । २ । १५ ॥

शब्दार्थत्वात् by reason of being for the purpose of the word ; विकारस्य of the modification.

15. By reason of the modification being for the purpose of the word.

The objector gives a reason in support of his view. The modulation of the voice is for the sake of the words, it will be more convenient to have the ऋक् verses grouped as three.

Take for example the sentence "give one rupee to three persons" it is impossible to give indivisible one rupee to three persons; so the rupee will be divided.

दर्शयति च ॥ ६ । २ । १६ ॥

दर्शयति it shows ; च and

16. And it shows.

The objector now proceeds to rely on the लिंग "शुक्लामोवाचमिथुनी संभवावेति सोमवीर्यं वैतं ममाकमस्मिन्नायार्थे वेदो मम महिमेति । तद्वै भूत्वोचतुः संभवामेति सोऽब्रवीत् । ननु वां ममाहं स्त्री त्रयार्थे वेदो मम महिमेति तास्मिन्नोभूत्वोचतुः मिथुनी संभावामेति सोऽब्रवीत् संभवामेति । तस्मादेकं साम तृचे क्रियते स्तोत्रोच्यम्" "He said to the साम 'let us be a pair', he said 'thou art not fit to be my wife, my glory is the Veda.' Then they became two and said 'let us be a pair,' he said 'you both are not enough to be my wife, my glory is the Veda.' Then they became three and said 'let us be a pair', then he agreed and said 'let us be a pair ; for a स्तोत्रीय psalm, therefore three verses are grouped together.' This shows that 3 ऋक् verses should be sung together.

वाक्यानां तु विभक्तत्वात्प्रतिशब्दं समाप्तिः स्यात्सं-
स्कारस्य तदर्थत्वात् ॥ ६ । २ । १७ ॥

वाक्यानां of the sentences ; तु on the other hand ; विभक्तत्वात् by reason of the division ; प्रतिशब्दं at every word ; समाप्तिः completion , स्वात् is ; संस्कारस्य of the purificatory rites ; तदर्थत्वात् being for it.

17. On the other hand by reason of the division of the sentence, there is a completion at every word by reason of the purificatory rite being for it.

The author says that every ऋक् is complete in itself because the vedic sentences are divided and the singing is for the purpose of showing the ऋक् to be clear and melodious.

There is no psalm of 3 ऋक्. The song is for purifying the ऋक्. So the song must be sung at the end of every ऋक् verse.

तथा चान्यार्थदर्शनम् ॥ ६ । २ । १८ ॥

तथा similarly ; च and ; अन्यार्थदर्शनम् seeing another text.

18. And similarly there is another text.

The author now supports his view by quoting authorities “अष्टाक्षरेण प्रथमायाश्चि प्रस्तौति द्व्यक्षरेणोत्तरयो” “एका वा अत्योत्तमास्तोत्रीया तामुद्गृह्णोद्गायेत्” “He sings in the first ऋक् with eight letters and with two letters in the two subsequent” “Taking the last स्तोत्रीय from it, let him sing.”

The inference from these texts is that the song should be sung at the end of each ऋक्

अनवानोपदेशश्च तद्वत् ॥ ६ । २ । १९ ॥

अनवानोपदेशः instruction as to singing in one breath ; च and, तद्वत् like it.

19. And similarly the instruction as to the song in one breath is like it.

The author says that there is a text अनवानगायति “He sings in one breath.” Singing in one breath is possible at the end of each but can not be so, if the song is sung at the end of the group of three ऋक्स. At the time of instruction, the song is sung at the end of each ऋक्, how can one become so expert as to sing at the end of three verses on the occasion of a sacrifice ? This fact also shows that the song is to be sung at the end of each ऋक् verse

अभ्यासेनेतरा श्रुतिः ॥ ६ । २ । २० ॥

अभ्यासेन by repetition , इतरा the other ; श्रुतिः text.

20. The other text is by repetition.

The author says that you have quoted the text एकमासत्वेऽहियते. The text shows the repetition Take for instance “त्रिपुकुलेषु देवदत्तो मोक्षयितव्यः”

Deva Dutta is to be fed in three families; this does not mean at a time but successively the person is to be fed in three families. So here it also means that the song is to be sung at the end of each ऋक् successively.

Adhikarana IV Sūtras 21—22, dealing with the subject that in three ऋक्स of equal measure a song is sung.

तदभ्यासः समासु स्यात् ॥ ६ । २ । २१ ॥

तदभ्यासः its repetition ; समासु in equal , स्यात् is.

21. Then the repetition is to be made in equal (measures).

In connection with the text "समादेशसामृद्धे किरतेकोत्रीय" see at p. 587; it has been explained in the foregoing अविकरण that the song should be sung at the end of each ऋक्. "The question is, what kind of ऋक् verses should be sung, whether they should be of equal measure, or of unequal measure. The reply of the author is that the said three ऋक्s should be of equal measure. If they are of an equal measure, there will be two sorts of faults called संशर and विकेश superfluity and deficiency. If the original ऋक् is of larger measure, the उत्तरा being of less letters the song shall have to be shortened in order to adapt it and similarly if the original ऋक् is of shorter measure, the उत्तरा being of more letters, the redundant letters will remain unpurified (impure)

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ ६ । २ । २२ ॥

लिङ्गदर्शनात् by seeing the inference from the text ; च and.

22. And by seeing the inference from the text.

The author now refers to the texts and makes an inference in support of his view. "स्यादसंस्कृतीयते सम्भवतीत्याहुः यदुद्गृह्णायत्रीपुक्रियतेऋक्त्वेनोत्पद्यति" "It is possible, they say, that gruel may be filled in a dish but when उद्गृही is sung in गायत्री, the ऋक् nature thereof is internally disorganised." This shows the defect of singing a longer song in a ऋक् of smaller number of letters. The result is that the song and the ऋक् should have equal number of letters in order to avoid the defects of संशर and विकेश. माधव. explains संशर and विकेश thus "शरोहिता केशोऽल्पत्वम्" (शर is killing and केश is smallness) If the song connected with the original ऋक् i.e. वेदि of larger measure, be sung with the उत्तरा of smaller number of letters, that being not supplemented by the whole song, the redundant part of the song will be cut off and if the उत्तरा has more letters than the original, then the redundant part of the ऋक् will be without a song. So the songs should be in the verses of equal measure, Adhikaraṇa V. Sūtras 23-24 dealing with the subject that the text उत्तरादोर्गायति means the two ऋक्s read in the book relating to उत्तरा.

नैमित्तिकं तूत्तरात्वमानन्तर्यात्प्रतीयेत ॥ ६ । २ । २३ ॥

नैमित्तिकं correlated, तु on the other hand ; उत्तरात्वम् the word उत्तरा, अन्तर्यात् by reason of its immediateness ; प्रतीयेत appears.

23. On the other hand, the word उत्तरा appears correlative by reason of its immediateness.

song should be sung. The reply of the objector is to obviate the defects called संशय and विदेश, the two अतिजगतीs should be imported and the song of equal measures should be sung.

Commentary on Sūtra 22.

The objector proceeds further to support his view from the text अतिजगती पुस्तुवति "They praise in अतिजगती" The plural number shows that the अतिजगती should be brought in.

Commentary on सूत्र 23.

The author says. "No, you are wrong; the term is correlative and इत्तरयोःगावति" is the श्रुति which predominates over लिङ्ग. The Brihatis will, therefore, remain intact and no अतिजगतीs will be brought in.

Commentary on सूत्र 24

The author says that you allege that the 'अतिजगती' is plural in अतिजगतीपुस्तुवति. The reason is that if you repeat बोहशी twenty one times, it is the repetition, of त्रैशेक. If you repeat अतिजगती seven times, the same result is achieved. The plural number is therefore used in त्रैशेक which has one deity, the group of three श्रुक् verses is properly applicable, for this reason no अतिजगतीs are to be brought in.

Adhikarapa VI. Sūtras 25 - 28 dealing with the subject that in a रथतर song, बृहती and पंक्ती should be strung together.

प्रागाधिकं तु ॥ २१. २१. २५ ॥

प्रागाधिकं intertwined song; तु on the other hand.

25. On the other hand, the song should be intertwined.

In connection with ज्योतिषोम it is said "बृहत्पृष्ठं भवति" "रथनरं पृष्ठं भवति" "Song of loud tone." "Song of low tone" The वेदि of रथतर is in बृहती metre "अमिताश्वरानामुमोदुरावाहयेनवः । ईशानमस्यजगतः स्वर्हश्रीशानमिन्द्र नश्चुवः" "We like milked cows salute thee, O ! brave and omniscient Indra, the Lord of the moveable and the Lord of the immoveable. Rigveda VII 32. 22. The इत्तर of the same is in पंक्ती metre. "नत्वावान् अग्न्यादिव्यो न पार्थिवोनजातो वज्रनिस्पृते । अश्वार्थतो मघवजिह्वाजिनांगम्यनस्वाहवामहे" श्रु० वे० VII, 32 23. "O ! Indra, the thunderer like thee there is no other heavenly or earthly creature born or will be born ; we desirous of horses, corn and cows, invoke thee."

The वेदि of बृहत् is बृहती "त्वामिन्द्रिहवामहे सातावाजस्य कारवः ॥ त्वां हवेन्द्र रतिनरस्वाहास्वर्चवः" श्रु० वे० VI. 46. 1. 'We the singers invoke thee to obtain corn ; the people, O ! Indra, invoke thee, the protector of the righteous when वृष is ready and in a battle consisting of cavalry."

The उत्तर of the same is in पङ्क्ति metre "सर्वं नदिचक्रं वज्रहस्तं धृष्युषामहः सत्त्वानोऽग्निवः । वामश्वं रथ्यमिन्द्र संकिरसन्नावाजगजिन्धुवे" O ! thou Indra desirable thunderer, having thunder-bolt in thy hand, terror of enemies, great and being praised, give us cow, and horse fit for a chariot as one gives big rewards (corn) to a victorious person". Rigveda VI. 46. 2.

It is said, न वै बृहद्रथंतरमेकच्छब्दो यस्योपूर्वा बृहती ककुभाधुत्तरः "There can not be one metre consisting of बृहत् and रथंतर tunes so that the first of them may be बृहती and the subsequent two may be ककुप्".

The question is whether the original ककुप् should be brought in from elsewhere or the बृहती of the original (योनि) and पङ्क्ति of the उत्तरा should be sung by repetition. The reply of the author is that बृहती and पङ्क्ति should be sung by repetition. The word in the text is प्रगयन. We must explain the term as explained by संसुदेव in his भाट्टदीपिका. First the बृहती should be read once in its entirety you should read the hemistich of the second verse with the final पाद of the first verse and then read the last hemistich of the second with the final पाद of it. This is called प्रगयन or repetition. As for instance, the above mentioned verses under the principle of प्रगयन will read as follow :-

अमित्वाशुरनोनुमोदुग्धा इवधेनवः ।

ईशानमस्य प्रगयनः स्वर्हृशमीशानमिन्द्रतस्युषः । योनिः

इशानमिन्द्रतस्युषः । नत्व वां अम्बोदिभ्योनपार्थिवोनजातोऽजनिष्यते ॥ 1st ककुप् नजातोऽजनिष्यते ।

अश्वार्यतोमत्रवच्चिन्द्रवाजिनोगद्व्यंतस्त्वाहवामहे । 2nd ककुप्

Thus a वृष song is formed by प्रगयन

ककुप् is a kind of metre. See the enumeration of छंद in वसुधेद chapter XV 4

It is defined as "अष्टांतावष्टाक्षरी पादो मध्यमीद्वादशाक्षरीककुप्" "The first and last quatrains have eight letters and the middle two have 12 letters." वेद दीपिका

Another definition is 'द्वितीयमुष्णिकं त्रिपदांत्योद्वादशकः आष्टचेत् पुरषिण्यकं मध्यमश्चेत् ककुप्'. It consists of three quatrains, if the final has 8 letters it is called द्वितीयमुष्णिक, or परोष्णिक if the first consists of twelve letters, it is called पुरषिण्यक and if the middle consists of twelve letters it is called ककुप्" कात्यायन सर्वानुक्रमणिका See Anandaram Berooah's grammar Vol. X, (Prosody) Para 55.

स्वे च ॥ ६ । २ । २६ ॥

स्वे In itself ; च and.

26. And in itself.

The author continues that if the original metre with the metre of the उत्तरा be sung in the प्रगाथ way, it is in its own element without seeking any external help.

प्रगाथे च ॥ ६ । २ । २० ॥

प्रगाथे in singing by प्रगाथ , च and.

27. And in singing by प्रगाथ.

The author says that by so doing the term प्रगाथ has a meaning. The term प्रगाथ derivatively means 'excessive singing' If a verse of one metre is followed by one or two verses of different metres, the whole together form a प्रगाथ or compound verse " Anandram Borooah's grammar Para. 22. Singing and repeating is प्रगाथ , so it becomes significant by singing in the way mentioned above

सिद्धदर्शनाव्यतिरेकाच्च ॥ ६ । २ । २८ ॥

सिद्धदर्शनाव्यतिरेकात् by seeing the invariable marks of inference ; च and.

28 And by seeing the invariable marks of inference from the text.

The author now cites authorities from which he concludes the argument in support of his view " पशवै प्रतिदिता बृहती यापुनःपदा । तद्यत्पादं पुनरारभते । तस्माद्ब्रह्मसोमातरमभिहिं करोति " "It becomes permanent when बृहती is repeated ; because its foot is repeated As a calf lows for its mother," commencing of the पाद again is प्रगाथ ; so the conclusion is that the बृहती of the first and पंक्ति of the उत्तरा should be sung and repeated again.

2 This अवकिरण is interpreted otherwise and in that view, it is called as "dealing with the subject that in रौरव and यौजाजय songs, बृहती and विश्वारपंक्ति should be sung by प्रगाथ "

Commentary on सूत्र 25.

There are two songs called रौरव and यौजाजय having a group of three पद verses.

The first is of बृहती metre and the last two are of विश्वारपंक्ति metres. The question is whether the बृहती should be brought in from elsewhere to make the song equal or the बृहती of the first and विश्वारपंक्ति of the उत्तरा should be formed into a group of 3 पदs to make it sung by repetition. The reply of the author is that प्रगाथ should be done.

Commentary on सूत्र 26.

The author says that in this view, singing will be according to its own model.

Commentary on सूत्र 27.

This explains the etymology of प्रगाथ.

The author relies on a 'लिङ्ग' "षष्टिस्त्रिष्टुभोमाध्यदिनसवनम्". The माध्यदिनसवनम् has 60 त्रिष्टुप्s. If by प्रगाथ, the singing is done with बृहती and विष्टारपङ्क्ति, then only 60 त्रिष्टुप्s are possible.

In a माध्यदिन सवनम्, there is one पञ्चमान and four पृष्टस्तोत्रम्. In a पञ्चमान there are three सूक्तम्s as follows :—

1. ' उषातेजातम् ', in it there are 3 गायत्री ऋक् verses
2. ' पुनानः सोम ', it is sung by प्रगाथ, the first is बृहती and the two subsequent verses are विष्टारपङ्क्ति
3. ' प्रतुद्रवपरिकोशम् ', in it there are three त्रिष्टुभ्. Four पृष्टस्तोत्रम्s are as given below :—
4. ' अभित्वाशूर ', it is sung by प्रगाथ, in it the first is बृहती and two subsequent verses are पङ्क्ति.
5. ' कथानश्चित्र ', in it there are three गायत्रीः.
6. ' त्वोदग्भसृतीपह् ', it is sung by प्रगाथ, there are one बृहती and two पङ्क्ति.
7. ' तितेभिर्वोविद्वसुम् ', it is sung by प्रगाथ, there are one बृहती and two पङ्क्ति.

There are thus 7 सूक्तम्s. Nine songs are sung as given below.

- I. सूक्त (1) गायत्री (2) आमहीयव songs
- II. सूक्त (1) रौरव (2) यौघाजय songs.
- III. सूक्त (1) औशन song.
- IV. सूक्त (1) रथतर song.
- V. सूक्त (1) वामदेव्य song.
- VI. सूक्त (1) नौघस song.
- VII. सूक्त (1) कालेव song.

In the first सूक्त in order to make two songs, there are 6 गायत्री verses by repetition. In the 5th सूक्त there are three verses which being repeated in order to form 17 स्तोत्रम्s, yield 17 गायत्रीः. Thus there is a total of 23 गायत्रीः.

In the sixth सूक्त by intertwining बृहती and पङ्क्ति there is a group of three चक्र verses in a वृहती metre. In the 7th सूक्त there being 17 stomas on both sides, 84 वृहतीs are formed. In the second सूक्त on the principle of प्रगाथ we have 6 वृहतीs. In the 4th सूक्त for the sake of रथार song on the principle of प्रगाथ we have two ककुप्s in रथारा and the first is वृहती already. They are sung in three alternatives, (1) three वृहतीs and two ककुप्s one by one; (2) once वृहती, three times ककुप् in the interval and once ककुप् in the end; (3) once वृहती and 3 times two ककुप्s. Thus we have 5 वृहतीs and 12 ककुप्s in order to make the seventeen स्तोमs.

With the exception of the third सूक्त, in the 6 सूक्तs we have 23 गायत्रीs, 45 वृहतीs and 12 ककुप्s. A ककुप् has 28 letters as we have seen (see p. 542). To it, if we add 2 feet of a गायत्री metre consisting of 16 letters, we have 44 letters of which one त्रिष्टुप् consists. In order to convert 12 ककुप्s into 12 त्रिष्टुप्s we require 24 feet of गायत्रीs viz. 8 गायत्रीs each consisting of 3 feet. Thus out of 23 गायत्रीs, we have only 15 गायत्रीs left, by multiplying with 3, we get 45 feet of गायत्रीs. By adding 45 वृहतीs, each consisting of 36 letters to the 45 feet of गायत्रीs, each foot consisting of 8 letters, we have $(45 \times 36) = 1620$ letters + $(45 \times 8) = 360$ letters = 1980. If we divide this figure by 44 letters of which one त्रिष्टुप् consists, the quotient is 45 त्रिष्टुप्s. Add 12 त्रिष्टुप्s already obtained, the total is 57. To this add 3 त्रिष्टुप्s of the 3rd सूक्त. We have thus 60 त्रिष्टुप्s. This result is possible on the principle of प्रगाथ.

3. This Adhikāṛṇa is further applied to other songs and it is called "as dealing with the subject that श्यावाश्व and अश्वीनवय should be sung by means of प्रगाथ of अनुष्टुप् and गायत्री."

Commentary on सूत्र 25.

In श्यावाश्व and अश्वीनवय, the first is अनुष्टुप् and the other two are गायत्रीs. The question is whether singing should be performed by importing the original अनुष्टुप् from outside, in order to make the song equal or the अनुष्टुप् of the first and गायत्री of the रथारा should be sung by प्रगाथ by making a group of three चक्र verses. The reply of the author is that singing should be performed in the प्रगाथ way as explained above.

Commentary on सूत्र 26.

In this view, the singing will be on its own model.

Commentary on सूत्र 27.

The term प्रगाथ will not be meaningless but will be significant.

The author relies on the argument from लिंग 'अनुविंशतिर्जगत्वंस्वृतीयसप्त-नम् चक्रं ककुप्' "In a स्वृतीयसप्तन, there are 24 गायत्रीs and one ककुप्." It is only on the rule of प्रगाथ that there can be 24 जगतीs and one ककुप् possible

There is a text - 'एकच्छंदा आवापः आर्जव पञ्चमः सप्तसामाः गायत्रीसुक्तः सप्ततः । श्यावाश्वधीगवे आनुष्टुभेष्टेभ्यतः । उच्छिहि सप्तम् ककुमिपौष्टकम् । कावर्मत्यं जगतीषु'

There is a पञ्चमः called आर्जव in the third सप्तमः ; there are 5 सूक्तः and seven सामः as detailed below :—

1 सूक्तः, 'श्यादिष्ट्यामदिष्ट्या', there are 3 गायत्री verses, and two सामः called गायत्रः and संहितः.

2. सूक्तः, 'पुरोहितोबोधसः' there are one अनुष्टुप् in the वेदि, two गायत्री in the उत्तरा, and two सामः called श्यावाश्वम् and आर्जवम्.

3. सूक्तः, 'ईशमन्सुताहमे', there are 3 उच्छिहः and one सामः called सप्तः.

4. सूक्तः, 'पवस्वमधुमसः' it is sung by प्रगाथ, the first is ककुप्, and the subsequent two are पंक्ती, the साधः is called पौष्टकः.

5. सूक्तः, 'अभिप्रियाणि पवते चर्वाहन्', there are 3 जगती in a सामः called कवः.

In the 1st सूक्तः, there are 6 गायत्री in the two सामः ; there are 24 letters in a गायत्री, so 6 गायत्री are equal to 3 जगती each consisting of 48 letters.

In the 2nd सूक्तः there are 6 अनुष्टुप् from one अनुष्टुप् and 2 गायत्री by repetition in two सामः on the principle of प्रगाथ 6 अनुष्टुप् are equal to 4 जगती. Thus we have 7 जगती in two सूक्तः. In the 3rd & 4th सूक्तः we have only one ककुप् in सप्तः and पौष्टकः. We have therefore one उच्छिहः & one ककुप् ; both have 28 letters each (see at p. 542) The total number of letters is 56 i. e. one जगती of 48 letters and one foot of गायत्री. Thus the total is 8 जगती and one foot of गायत्री. In the 5th सूक्तः there are 3 जगती of its own, thus giving the total of 11 जगती and one foot of गायत्री i. e. 8 letters in excess.

In the third सप्तमः there is also a स्तोत्रः called पञ्चमः. पञ्चमःको जगती; it is to be sung in प्रगाथ. The first is जगती and last two are विन्दारपंक्तिः. But on the principle of प्रगाथ, the ककुप् should be formed in the उत्तरा. There are 21 स्तोमः. They are to be sung alternatively. In the first we have 3 वृहती 1st, then one and lastly 3 वृहती again; in the middle we have 3 ककुप् first and three ककुप् again and one ककुप् in the end. Lastly one ककुप् first then 3 ककुप् each in the second and the last. We have thus 7 वृहती and 14 ककुप्.

$$7 \text{ वृहती} = 36 \times 7 = 252.$$

The middle foot of a ककुप् consists of 12 letters ; so there are 14 feet each consisting of 12 letters ; add to the above such seven feet of ककुप्.

$$252 + (12 \times 7) = 252 + 84 = 336.$$

By dividing it by 48 we have $\frac{336}{48} = 7$ जगतीs.

We have now $14 \times 2 = 28$ feet of 1st and last feet of a ककुप् consisting of 8 letters each left; but such six feet of a ककुप् make one जगती; 24 feet of ककुप्s yield 4 जगतीs. We have thus 4 जगतीs and 4 feet of ककुप्s each consisting of 8 letters.

We have seven feet of ककुप्s consisting of 12 letters left.

$12 \times 7 = 84$; add to it 8 letters in excess over the 11 जगतीs of the पवमान. $84 + 8 = 92$ Deduct 4 letters from the four feet of the ककुप्s in the above calculation. Thus we have $92 + 4 = 96 = 2$ जगतीs. The total number of जगतीs up to this, comes to 13 जगतीs. Adding this number to the 11 जगतीs of the पवमान, we get 24 जगतीs. Now we have to account for 4 feet of ककुप्s of eight letters each minus four letters.

$$32 - 4 = 28 = \text{one ककुप्.}$$

The result is 24 जगतीs and one ककुप्.

4 This adhikarṇa is applied to another song and is therefore called as dealing with the subject that ब्रह्मसाम is sung by applying the principle of प्रगाथ to the quarter of a ऋक्.

In connection with ब्रह्मसाम in गवामयन sacrifice it is said that चतुः शतमैः प्रवार्हताः प्रगाथा स्त्रयस्त्रिंशत्तंचसतोवार्हता लिङ्गकाः. There are 104 वृहतीs strung together in honour of इन्द्र and 33 सतोवृहतीs in a group of 3 verses. The question is whether the two ऋक् verses should be sung on the principle of प्रगाथ or the singing should be done in all the three ऋक्s. The reply is that two ऋक् verses should be sung on the principle of प्रगाथ. The reasons as contained in sūtras 26 and 27 are the same.

Commentary on 28 सूत्र.

The लिङ्ग is from the text “पंचसुमाः सुवार्हताः प्रगाथा जाप्यन्ते” “प्रगाथाs having सतोवृहतीs limited by five are obtained”. It is possible in प्रगाथ but not in a group of three verses.

Adhikarṇa VII dealing with the subject that there is an option in the modifications of letters which constitute the various modes of singing.

अथैकत्वाद्विकल्पः स्यात् ॥ ९ । २ । २९ ॥

अथैकत्वाद् by reason of the unity of purpose; विकल्पः option; स्यात् is.

29. By reason of the unity of the purpose, there is option.

There are many modes of singing in Sāmaveda. The song, as we know, is the product of the internal effort to produce a melodious sound. It is called साम. The ऋक् verses are adapted to a certain tune. There are modifications of letters called विश्लेष, विकर्षण, अभ्यास, विराम, स्तोम and others. Now the question is whether these modes enumerated above should be used collectively or at the option of a singer. The author says that it is at the option of the singer, the reason given by him is that the object is one and it can be accomplished by adopting any of the methods enumerated above.

Adhikarap. VIII, sūtras. 31 dealing with the subject that a song should be sung by साम in a text 'ऋचोस्तुवते सामनास्तुवते'

अथैकत्वाद्विकल्पः स्यादृक् सामयोस्तदर्थत्वात् ॥६१२३०॥

अथैकत्वात् by reason of the unity of the purpose, विकल्पः option, स्यात् is; ऋक्सामयोः of ऋक् and साम, स्यात् is, तदर्थत्वात् by reason of being for that object.

30. By reason of the unity of the purpose, there is option because the ऋक् and साम are for that object.

There is a text "ऋचास्तुवते सामनास्तुवते । यद्रचा स्तुवते तदसुराभ्यन्ववाय ऋचास्तुवते तदसुराभ्यन्ववायन् य एवं विद्वान् सामनास्तुवीत". "He sings with a ऋक् verse, he sings with a साम verse; if he sings with a ऋक् verse, it is surrounded by demons: but if he sings with a साम verse, it is not surrounded by demons. Knowing this one sings with a साम verse."

The question is whether the praise is to be done by ऋक् or by साम at the option or by साम alone without any option. The objector's reply is that according to the principle laid down in the preceding अधिकरण, you have an option either to eulogise by ऋक् verses or by साम verses. The reason is that the object of both is one, namely to sing a praise.

वचनाद्विनियोगः स्यात् ॥ ६१२३१ ॥

वचनात् according to the text, विनियोगः application; स्यात् is.

31. Application should be according to the text.

The author says that you are misguided and wrongly apply the principle of option laid down in the preceding अधिकरण. You must be guided by the text "The praise is by ऋक्, the praise is by साम, but if you do by ऋक्, the demons come; but, if you do by साम the demons do not come; so one knowing this, eulogies by the साम". Here praising by ऋक् is condemned and that by साम is highly spoken of. The conclusion is that the praise is to be done by साम only.

2. The adhikarāṇa is otherwise called "as dealing with the subject that the worship of आहवनीय is to be performed while singing with अयं सहस्रमानव सामवेदपूर्व ५ अयं ऋ० २।८२ and other".

Commentary on सूत्र 30.

There is a text "अयं सहस्रमानव इत्येतया आहवनीयमुपतिष्ठते." "The आहवनीय should be worshipped with the psalm 'अयं सहस्र मानव'." The question is whether the आहवनीय fire should be worshipped while singing or not. The objector's reply is that it is optional for the same reason as given above.

Commentary on सूत्र 31.

The reply of the author is that it should be worshipped while singing it. The reason is the text itself, अयं सहस्रमानव is the text of the model sacrifice. According to the direction given in the सामवेद, it is to be sung.

3. Adhikarāṇa dealing with "the subject that अग्निमूर्द्धा &c. ऋ० वे० VIII. 44 16. the mantra used at the time of offering, should be read in a protracted tone."

Commentary on सूत्र 30.

There are दाय्यानुवाक्य mantras used at the time of making offerings ; some say that they should be read in all the 3 स्वरस and others say that they should be read in all the four स्वरस The question is, how are you to read them ? The reply of the objector is that you have an option on the principle discussed previously.

Commentary on सूत्र 31.

The reply of the author is that they should be read in a protracted tone under the text 'तानोयञ्ज कर्मणि'. (1) In a sacrifice, there is protracted tone,' Adhikarāṇa IX sūtras 32-33 dealing with the subject that in the passage रथंतरमुत्तरयोगायति &c. the singing should be according to the letters of the उत्तरा.

सामप्रदेशे विकारस्तदपेक्षः स्याच्छास्त्रकृतत्वात् ॥९२॥३२॥

सामप्रदेशे in transference of a साम, विकारः alteration ; तदपेक्षः dependent on it ; स्यात् is शास्त्रकृतत्वात्, by reason of the Śāstric command.

32. In the transference of a song, the alteration depends on the first part, by reason of the Śāstric command.

It is laid down "रथंतरमुत्तरयोगायति" "यद्योन्यान्नुत्तरयोगायति" "कक्षतीषु रथं रंगायति" (2) He sings उत्तरा in a low tune ; he sings उत्तरा with the tune of its योनि; he sings कवती in a रथतर tune." The question is whether a song should be sung according to the letters in a योनि or उत्तरा. Take for instance "कयानशिवत्र आभुवदूनी सदाहृषःसखा । कयानशिवत्रयाहता । कस्त्वासत्योमदानांमहिष्टोमसदधसः । इदाचिदाकजेवसु ॥ अभिषुषः सखीनामभिता करिषुषाम् । शतंमवास्तूनभिः ॥ " May the respected, ever increasing and friendly disposed Indra be favourable to us by any praise and by any sacrifice performed wisely. Who is the true and great amongst the drinkers who can with the soma-juice intoxicate thee for the division of the enemies' wealth howsoever strongly locked? Thou art O! Indra a protector of the singers of equal fame; be favourably disposed to us by hundred-fold means of protection." Rigveda IV. 31-1-3 and verse 12 of Sāmaveda उत्तरार्चिक first प्रपाठक and first half अर्द्धप्रपाठक In it the fourth letter is शिच. The इ of it should be altered into आई Now the question is, whether the letter in the उत्तरा will be changed according to this change in the योनि. The objector's answer is that it would be so. In this view the first verse of the उत्तरा namely कस्त्वासत्योमदानां will have the alteration in the fourth letter, the fourth letter is त्यो य and जो will be dropt and आई will be brought in. So in the second verse namely अभिषुषः सखीनां " the अ of अ, the fourth letter will be changed into आई.

वर्णे तु वादरिर्यथाद्रव्यं द्रव्यव्यतिरेकात् ॥ ६ । २ । ३३ ॥

वर्णे in a letter, तु on the other hand, वादरिः the name of वादरि ऋषि; यथाद्रव्य according to the matter, द्रव्यव्यतिरेकात् by the difference of the matter.

33. On the other hand, the view of वादरि is that the change is in the letter according to the matter because it differs.

The author who has adopted the view of वादरि says that the change will not be governed by the योनि. The reason is not far to seek; in the fourth letter of योनि there is शिच but according to the rule of music, it will be pronounced as ए but ए is composed of आ and ई. In the first verse of the उत्तरा the fourth letter is त्यो; it is not इ and so in the second verse of the fourth letter is अ which is also not इ. In this view the objector's reply as embodied in sūtra 33 is not satisfactory, the only satisfactory reply is that wherever इ occurs in उत्तरा it will be changed into आई and this change is not governed by a similar change in the योनि.

Adhikarapa X Satras 34—38 dealing with the transference of musical stops of उत्तरा.

स्तोभस्यैके द्रव्यान्तरे निवृत्तिमृग्वत् ॥ ६ । २ । ३४ ॥

स्तोभस्य of the musical pause; एकै according to one; द्रव्यान्तरे in another verse ; निवृत्तिः cessation ; ऋगवत् like a ऋक् verse.

84. According to one, a musical pause is the cessation into another verse like a ऋक् verse.

There are texts “रथंतरंगावति” “रथंतरमुत्तरयोगावति” “यद्योन्यातिदुत्तरयोगावति” “He sings उत्तरा in a low tune ; he sings उत्तरा with the tune of its योनि ; he sings कवली in a low tune.” The question is whether स्तोम (musical stop) is transferable or not. The reply of the objector is that it is not transferable ; the reason is that साम is a musical song but not a स्तोम ; the latter is a stop and another verse commences after it. So a song is transferable but not such meaningless expressions as हा, ही which are musical stops. As the letters of ऋक् verse which can not be set to music are not transferable, so is a स्तोम.

सर्वातिदेशस्तु सामान्याल्लोकवद्विकारः स्यात् ॥९॥२॥३५॥

सर्वातिदेशः The transfer of the whole ; तु on the other hand ; सामान्यात् by reason of being in the general , लोकावत् like the ordinary music ; विकारः modification ; स्यात् is.

35. On the other hand, the whole is transferable by reason of its being included in the general ; the modification is just as is in the ordinary music.

The author says that you can not say that स्तोम ceases with the योनि and does not apply to उत्तरा. The song connotes ऋक्, स्तोम, स्वर and कालाभ्यास. The whole is transferred and स्तोम is not excluded. We see in the secular music, a musician throws in some meaningless expression for a division of time.

अन्वयञ्चापि दर्शयति ॥ ९ । २ । ३६ ॥

अन्वयः invariable connection , च and , अपि also ; दर्शयति shows.

36. And the invariable connection also shows.

The author proceeds to give his reason in support of his view. Where the musical sentences are complete, the स्तोम follows the स्वर.

निवृत्तिर्वाऽर्थलोपात् ॥ ९ । २ । ३७ ॥

निवृत्तिः completion ; वा on the other hand ; अर्थलोपात् by reason of meaninglessness.

37. On the other hand, the completion of musical sentences is to avoid meaninglessness.

The objector says that such stops as अग्निहवति &c. are to avoid meaninglessness which would otherwise follow शीत कर्मादीन्वः 'Indra is certainly a cold worker' is a supplementary sentence.

अन्वयोवार्थवादः स्यात् ॥ ९ । २ । ३८ ॥

अन्वयः invariable affinity ; वा on the other hand ; अर्थवादः by way of supplementary sentence , स्यात् is.

38. On the other hand, the invariable affinity is by way of supplementary sentence.

The author's reply is that such sentences as "शीतकर्मादीन्वः" "Indra is a doer of cold deed," are by way of अर्थवाद, for we do not see ईद्व.

Adhikara pa XI definition of स्तोमः.

अधिकञ्च विवर्णञ्च जैमिनिः स्तोमशब्दत्वात् ॥ ९ । २ । ३९ ॥

अधिकं redundant; च and; विवर्णं meaningless modified form; च and ; जैमिनिः the view of जैमिनि; स्तोमशब्दत्वात् by being the word स्तोम.

39. According to jaimini, by the word स्तोम is meant redundant and meaningless.

Now the author proceeds to explain what स्तोम is. During the course of singing there are some expressions which are used by a musician to gain time. The first kind of expressions is the repetition of the same word 'अग्नि' 'अग्नि' ; it is what is called अधिक (redundant) in the sūtra. The second kind of modified expression is meaningless as ओसाह. These two kinds of expressions come under स्तोम.

Adhikara pa XII dealing with sprinkling and pounding &c., of the wild rice &c.

धर्मस्यार्थकृतत्वाद्द्रव्यगुणविकारव्यतिक्रमप्रतिषेधे चो-

दनानुबन्धः समवायात् ॥ ९ । २ । ४० ॥

धर्मस्य of the function , अर्थकृतत्वाद् being for an object ; द्रव्यगुणविकारव्यतिक्रमप्रतिषेधे in substance, quality, modification, transgression and prohibition ; चोदनानुबन्धः a series of commands ; समवायात् by a close affinity.

40. The function being for an object, there is a series of commands in substance, quality, modification, transgression and prohibition because there is a close affinity.

The sūtra will be clear by the illustration of each. Take ब्रज्य; in connection with वाजवेय, it is said “वाहस्यस्यचरुं नीवारं सप्तदशशरादनिर्बपति” “He offers boiled/wild rice consecrated to बृहस्पति and seventeen dishes”. In the model sacrifice, the ब्रीहि is to be sprinkled with water; here we find निवार instead of ब्रीहि. The question is, whether the प्रोक्षण a ceremony or function which belongs to the model sacrifice where ब्रीहि is offered, should be performed on नीवार which is used in the modified sacrifice. The reply of the author is that on account of the close affinity of the नीवार with ब्रीहि by reason of its being a substitute, the चोदना of the model sacrifice applies and the function of sprinkling of water will be performed on नीवार.

2 Now take गुह्य. “उद्गीथा वा एतर्हिवाग्रवति यर्हिषुष्टः षडहः संतिष्ठतेः का वहुयदेकाम्यं पृच्छेन्नाभ्यस्मै ब्रूयात् संस्थिते षडहमभ्याश येदुघृतं वा” “It is a singing of a साम when the tongue moves; wherefore one takes to पृष्ट lasting for six days, he shall not talk much, shall not ask another and shall not speak to another. Let him eat honey or clarified butter when engaged in a sacrifice lasting for six days.” The question is, whether at the time when honey is used in fast, the function of बहु applies or not. The author says that the same silence is observed as when ghee is used in fasting.

3. Take विकार. In connection with राजसूय it is said “नैकर्त्तचरुं नका वपुता नमिरिदृश्यैवदे” The boiled rice consecrated to निकृति, for rotation in cups of those which have been cleaned by nails.” In the model sacrifice the pestle and mortar are sprinkled over with water; the question is whether nails used in their place should also be sprinkled over with water. The reply of the author is in the affirmative for similar reasons.

4. व्यतिक्रम. In connection with चातुर्मास्य, it is said “परिक्षीपशनिवुञ्जीत” “Let him tie an animal to the boundary post” The question is whether the ceremony relating to वृष should be performed on a परिधि or not. The reply of the author is in the affirmative for similar reasons.

5 प्रतिषेध. “नगिरागिरेतित्रयाद्यदिगिरा गिरेतित्रयाद्वात्मानंतदुद्गातोद्गिरिदेरंकृत्योद्गोर्यं” “Let him not pronounce गिरा as गिरा; but if a singer pronounces गिरा as गिरा, he shall throw himself up and shall sing by making it देर”. The question is whether the function relating to गिरा should be performed on हरा or not. The reply of the author is in the affirmative for similar reasons.

The author now commences to deal with the third class of ऊह called संस्कार ऊह (see at P. 504) from सूत्र 40.

Adhikarapa XIII. Sūtrae 41—43, dealing with the subject that the procedure relating to वृष applies to परिधि.

तदुत्पत्तेस्तु निवृत्तिस्तत्कृतत्वात्स्यात् ॥ ९।२।४१ ॥

तदुत्पत्तेः on its being made, in its origin ; तु on the other hand ; निवृत्तिः cessation ; तत् कृतत्वात् by reason of the procedure being over, स्यात् is. .

41. On the other hand on its being made, there is a cessation by reason of the procedure (relating to दूष) being over.

In the foregoing अधिकरण under the head of व्यतिक्रम, it is said that the function relating to दूष is applicable to परिधि. The objector says that when a परिधि is made for the establishment of आहुवनीय fire, the function relating to दूष is over. So the function relating to दूष does not apply to परिधि.

आवेशयेरन्वार्थवत्त्वात्संस्कारस्य तदर्थत्वात् ॥ ९।२।४२ ॥

आवेशयेरन् should be performed ; वा on the other hand , अर्थवत्त्वात् being for a purpose , संस्कारस्य of a purificatory rite ; तदर्थत्वात् by reason of its being for it.

42. On the other hand of the purificatory rite being for it, the function should be performed, so that it may be for a purpose.

The author's view is that the ceremony relating to a दूष should be performed on a परिधि, so that it may be fruitful. All the rites which are in conformity with परिधि should be performed , while those contrary to it should not be performed.

आख्या चैवं तदावेशाद्विकृती स्यादपूर्वत्वात् ॥ ९।२।४३ ॥

आख्या name ; च and ; एवम् thus , तदावेशात् by adoption of the function ; विकृती in a modified sacrifice ; स्यात् is , अपूर्वत्वात् by reason of the extraordinary principle.

43. And by adoption of the ceremony, the name is in the modified sacrifice by reason of the extraordinary principle.

In the model sacrifice where दूष is used, at the time of anointing the दूष, there is प्रैष to the effect "दूषायाज्यमानायानुवृहि." 'Order for the anointed sacrificial post' According to the पूर्वपक्ष view, the term परिधि should be used in place of दूष. To this, the author says that to all intents and purposes the परिधि is treated as दूष but the principle of ऊह does not apply and परिधि is used in the sense of दूष. Because the परिधि is with the bark and lies prostrate on the ground, and so it does not require to be smoothed and cut like a दूष but its anointment with ghee is not inconsistent ; it would therefore be done without inserting परिचये instead of यथाय in the प्रथमेन

Adhikarṇa XIV sūtras 44-45 dealing with the subject that the rites connected with the प्रथीता apply to milk &c.

परार्थेन त्वर्थसामान्यं संस्कारस्य तदर्थत्वात् ॥६१२४४॥

परार्थेन with the object of another, तु on the other hand, अर्थसामान्यं common object; संस्कारस्य of the purificatory ceremony; तदर्थत्वात् by reason of its being for the object of it.

44. On the other hand, the common object is with the purpose for others, because the purificatory rite is for the object of it.

There is a text. “विधापतं प्रजयापशुभिरर्द्धयति वर्द्धयत्यस्य भ्रातृव्यस्य हवि- निरुतं पुरस्ताच्चंद्रमा अभ्युदेति सत्रेधातुस्तान् विभजेत् येमध्यमास्तान्मनये दात्रे
पुरोडाशमष्टाकपालं निर्वपेत् । येस्य विष्टास्तानि द्राव्यं प्रदात्रे दधश्च दं क्षोदिष्टास्तान्
विष्णवेशिपि विष्टाय भृते चरं” । तै० स० २।१५।२. “Certainly his children and animals will decrease and his enemies will increase if the moon rises when he has already consecrated the offering; he shall divide the rice in three portions; he shall offer the middle class of them baked on eight pans to Agni, he shall offer the grossest of them boiled in curd to Indra, the giver;
he shall offer the most minute of them boiled in milk to Viṣṇu, the dweller in cattle”

The question is, whether on the curd and milk the ceremony performed on प्रथीता should be performed or not. The reply of the objector is that the milk and curd are for the principal sacrifice but not for प्रथीता; (see at P. 515): so the ceremony relating to प्रथीता should not be performed on them; there being no common object and the object of purification is for boiling of the offerings.

क्रियेरन्वार्थनिर्वृत्तेः ॥ ६१२।४५ ॥

क्रियेन् should be performed, वा on the other hand; अर्थनिर्वृत्तेः for the completion of an object.

45. On the other hand, they should be performed for the completion of the object.

The author's reply is that the ceremony relating to the holy waters should be performed on milk and curd, because an extraordinary principle is produced.

Adhikaraṇa XV. Śūtras 46-47 dealing with the functions of वृहत् and रथन्तर tunes.

एकार्थत्वादिभिर्भागाः स्यात् ॥ ६।२।४६ ॥

एकार्थत्वात् by reason of having one object ; अविभागः no division ; स्यात् is.

46. There is no division by reason of having one object.

In connection with उच्यते, it is said “वृहत्पृष्ठं भवति” “रथन्तरं वृहत् भवति” ‘A वृहत् in loud tune, a पृष्ठं in low tune’. Where वृहत् is used, रथन्तरं is also used. So there is an option, you can use any tune in a उच्यते.

निर्देशाद्वा व्यवतिष्ठेत् ॥ ६।२।४७ ॥

निर्देशात् by direction, वा on the other hand, व्यवतिष्ठेत् a rule is fixed.

47. On the other hand by direction, a rule is fixed.

The author says, you are wrong. there is a rule as to singing and you are to be guided by it “नेष्टवैर्गैर्ध, नचबलवद्गोयम् । रथन्तरे प्रस्तूयमानेऽमीकेषु स्वर्देशप्रतिबोधेत्” “It should not be sung in a high tune ; nor should it be sung with force ; when one sings रथन्तर, he should wink his eyes and look to heavens.” This is the rule about रथन्तर and as to वृहत् the rule is, “वृहति ऋचैर्गैर्धम् वृहतिगीयमाने समुद्रं मनसा ध्यायेत्” . “In वृहत्, one should sing in high tune, when one sings वृहत्, let him meditate on the ocean’ This difference is pointed out. The रथन्तर is to praise the heroes and वृहत् is sung to praise pictures &c.

Adhikaraṇa XVI. dealing with the subject that a कण्वरथन्तर has the collective qualities of वृहत् and रथन्तर.

अप्राकृते तद्विकाराद्विरोधाद्व्यवतिष्ठेत् ॥ ६।२।४८ ॥

अप्राकृते in the modified ; तद्विकारात् by reason of the modification ; विरोधात् by reason of the contradiction, व्यवतिष्ठेत् a rule is fixed, there is a rule.

48. In the modified sacrifice, by reason of the modification, there is a rule because of the contrary.

It is said in connection with वैश्यस्तोम “वैश्यस्तोमेनयजेत्” “कण्वरथन्तरं वृहत् भवति” “Let him sacrifice with a वैश्यस्तोम ; a वृहत् is in a mixed tune. The question is whether कण्वरथन्तर partakes of the qualities of रथन्तर and वृहत् or of one of them or of both The reply of the author is that कण्वरथन्तर being the modification of वृहत् and रथन्तर, partakes of the qualities of both but where there are contradictory qualities of वृहत् and रथन्तर, it partakes of either of them at the option. Where the qualities are not contradictory, it partakes of them collectively. In the opinion of अधिकारिक there is option only.

Adhikara pa XVII Sūtras 49—50 dealing with the subject that in a double song, the rule fixes the qualities of बृहत् and रथतर.

उभयसाम्नि चैवमेकार्थापत्तेः ॥ ६।२।४९ ॥

उभयसाम्नि in double song ; च and ; एवम् similarly ; एकार्थापत्तेः by reason of having one object.

49. And similiary in double songs, by reason of having one object.

There are sacrifices in which there are double songs "संसवदमेकुर्यात् । गोसव दमेकुर्यात् । अपिषतावपि एकाहे उमेवृहद्रथंतरेकुर्यात्" "In संसव both should be sung, in गोसव both should be sung: in a sacrifice lasting for a day both बृहत् and रथतर should be sung" In the model sacrifice, there are the characteristics of both बृहत् and रथतर, here in the modified sacrifice they find their place under a चोदक text Now the question is, whether double songs partake of the qualities of both The reply according to the objector is that double songs partake of the qualities of both i. e. बृहत् and रथतर just like कण्वरथतर, because their object is one i. e. बृह.

बृह is defined thus : "एकस्मिन्सूक्ते विद्यमानानां तिसृणामृचां ब्राह्मणोक्त विधानेन सप्तदशधाभ्यासः सप्तदशस्तोमस्तादृशेषुस्तोत्रेषु पृष्ठशब्दः भूयते सप्तदशानि पृष्ठानीति ।" "Text quoted in वाचस्पत्य "In one सूक्त when three ऋक् verses being repeated 17 times under the rules of ब्राह्मण, yield 17 स्तोमः, then to such psalms the word बृह applies, as 17 बृहः"

स्वार्थत्वाद्वा व्यवस्था स्यात्प्रकृतिवत् ॥ ६।२।५० ॥

स्वार्थत्वाद् by reason of having their object ; व्यवस्था a fixed rule ; प्रकृतिवत् like the model sacrifice.

50. On the other hand, by reason of having their object, there is a fixed rule like the model.

The author's view is that there is a difference between the रथतर and बृहत्; so in a रथतर, the rule of रथतर will apply and in a बृहत्, the rule of बृहत् will apply, because the procedure of each is for each separately. They are the characteristics of साम but not of बृह.

Adhikara pa XVIII. Sūtras 51-56 dealing with the subject that in सौर्व sacrifice &c., the पार्थ-यज्ञोप is not performed.

पार्वणहोमयोस्त्वप्रवृत्तिः समुदायार्थसंयोगात्तदभीज्या हि ॥ ६ । २ । ५१ ॥

पार्वणहोमयोः of two पार्वणहोमः; तु on the other hand, प्रवृत्तिः non application ; समुदायार्थसंयोगात् by its connection with the collective sense ; तदभीज्या the oblation with that object ; हि because.

51. There is the non-application of पार्वणहोम by its connection with the collective sense, because the oblation is with that object.

There are new and full moon sacrifices ; in that connection it is said कृत्वेणपार्वणौजुहोति. " He offers oblations in the पार्वणहोम with a ladle " The question is, whether in सौर्ययाग which is the modified form, the पार्वणहोम is to be performed or not. The issue narrows itself to this, whether the पार्वणहोम is to be performed at a certain time or is it a collective homa ? If the former, then the पार्वणहोम is to be performed in सौर्ययाग ; but in the latter case, it could not apply. The author's reply is that पार्वणहोम means a collection of all the sacrifices pertaining to fire, cake and animal and the sacrifice is with the object of all three collectively: and as in सौर्ययाग there are no three sacrifices, so the पार्वणहोम is not performed in a सौर्ययाग. The पार्वण means a sacrifice performed in honour of a deity called पर्व

कालस्येति चेत् ॥ ६ । २ । ५२ ॥

कालस्य 'of time' ; इति चेत् If you say.

52. 'Of time' if you say.

The objector says that पर्व always indicates time.

नामकरणत्वात् ॥ ६ । २ । ५३ ॥

न not ; नामकरणत्वात् by reason of no context.

35. Not so, by reason of no context.

The author says that you are mistaken, that the context does not show that पर्व means time but it denotes a collection. The word is also derived from the verb meaning gift. The gift is a collection ; so it is a collection of sacrifices.

मन्त्रवर्णाच्च ॥ ६ । २ । ५४ ॥

मन्त्रवर्णाच्च from the inference arising from the mantras , च and.

54. And from the inference from the mantras.

The author now proceeds to produce the authorities.

"शुक्लमवाजिनवयंपूर्णमासंयजामहे । अमावास्या शुभगाशुशेवा" (T B. III. 7 5. 13) "We invoke noblest corn-giving god of the full moon and of the fortunate and serviceable new moon "

This also indicates a collection of sacrifices.

तदभावेऽग्निवदिति चेत् ॥ ६ । २ । ५५ ॥

तदभावे in its absence ; अग्निवत् like fire , इति चेत् If you say.

55. "In its absence like fire" if you say.

The objector says that though the collection of sacrifices is not to be found in a सौर्ययाग, what harm is there if पार्वणहोम is performed just as ("अग्निं जग्न आवाह" T S II. 5 9. 4. O ! Agni, bring fire) fire is brought in a sacrifice whether it be near or not.

नाधिकारिकत्वात् ॥ ६ । २ । ५६ ॥

न not ; अधिकारिकत्वात् by reason of pertaining to the subject.

56. Not so, by reason of pertaining to the subject.

The पार्वणहोम belongs to the model of three sacrifices , it will partake of the subject where it is mentioned, in the case of आग्नेय, it is performed in honour of अग्नि So the illustration does not hold good. The result is that पार्वणहोम is not performed in सौर्ययाग.

Adhikaraga XIX sutras 57-58 dealing with the subject that the full moon & new moon sacrifices are two sacrifices.

उभयोरविशेषात् ॥ ६ । २ । ५७ ॥

उभयोः of both , अविशेषात् by reason of there being nothing special.

57. Of both, by reason of there being nothing special.

The question is, whether both the homas should be performed on the new moon and full moon days or whether on the new moon day the new moon day sacrifice should be performed and on the full moon day the full moon day sacrifice should be performed. The reply of the objector is that both should be performed, because in the context both are allowed to be performed.

यदभीज्या वा तद्विषयी ॥ ६ । २ । ५८ ॥

यद्विषया that sacrifice , वा on the other hand ; तद्विषयी its subject ,

58. On the other hand, that sacrifice should be performed of whose subject it is.

The author's reply is that sacrifice should be performed whose subject it is i. e. the new moon sacrifice should be performed on the new moon day and full moon sacrifice should be performed on the full moon day.

Adhikāraṇa 22 sūtras 59 60 dealing with the subject that समिद्ध &c. are the names of the sacrificer.

प्रयाजेऽपीति चेत् ॥ ६१२१५६ ॥

प्रयाजे in प्रयाज ; अपि also ; इतिचेत् If you say

59. In प्रयाज also, if you say.

The प्रयाज are laid down in connection with the दर्शपूर्णमासयाग "समिधो यजति, तनूनपातं यजति, इडो यजति, वहिर्यजति, स्वाहाकारं यजति". "He sacrifices समिद्ध, he sacrifices तनूनपात्, he sacrifices इड, he sacrifices वहि, he sacrifices स्वाहा." The question is, whether these are the names of deities or they are the names of the model sacrifices. The reply of the objector is that they are the names of the deities.

नाचोदितत्वात् ॥ ६१२११६० ॥

is not so ; अचोदितत्वात् by reason of there being no order.

60. Not so by reason of there being no order.

The author's reply is that you are mistaken, if they had been the names of the deities, the word 'समिद्ध' &c., would have been in the dative cases "यद्-ग्नयेत्यग्नेर्गुह्यात्" "Let him make an offering to Agni in the evening" but when द्वितीया is used as for instance "अग्निहोत्रं गुह्यति, He performs an अग्निहोत्र", it indicates a name of a sacrifice. So समिद्ध &c. are the names of the sacrifices.

END OF PADA. II.

PADA III.

Adhikāraṇa 1. sūtras 1 2 dealing with the subject that in the modified sacrifice, the word 'व्रीहि' &c. in a mantra are to be adapted.

प्रकृतौ यथोत्पत्तिवचनमर्थानां तथोत्तरस्यां ततो त-
त्प्रकृतित्वादर्थे चाकार्यत्वात् ॥ ६१३११ ॥

प्रकृतौ in the model sacrifice ; तथा just as ; उत्पत्तिवचनम् the original text ; अर्थानां of the object ; तथा similarly, उत्तरस्यां in the subsequent ; तसौ in a sacrifice , तत्प्रकृतिस्वात् by reason of its being the model ; अर्थे in the purpose ; च and ; अकार्यत्वात् by reason of being of no use.

1. In the model sacrifice just as is the original word of the object, so also in the subsequent sacrifice by reason of its being the model and in the purpose by reason of its being of no use.

In the model sacrifice, there are निर्वाप mantras "अग्नये जुष्टं निर्वपामि" "इन्द्राय महस्वते नैवार मे द्वादश कपालं निर्वपेत्" I offer the pleasing to Agni, let him offer cakes of wild rice baked on eleven pans to the powerful Indra like Marut." There are modified sacrifices.

"सौर्यं चक्रं निर्वपेद्ब्रह्मवर्चनकामः" "पेद्वाग्नमेकादश कपालं निर्वपेत् प्रजाकामः" "चित्रया यजेन पशुकामः" "वैश्वदेवी मा प्रायशीं निर्वपेद्ग्रामकामः" "Let one desirous of Brāhmanic glory offer boiled rice consecrated to the sun." Let one desirous of offspring offer cakes baked on eleven pans to Indra and Agni." "Let one desirous of cattle perform चित्रा sacrifice" Let one desirous of villages offer firstling to all the goddesses."

In the प्रकृति there is a मंत्र. "स्थोनते सदं कृणोमि वृत्तधाराया सुशेर्वकरायामि तस्मिन् सीदाम्बुने प्रति तिष्ठन्नीहीणां मेव सुमः समाप्तः" (T.B III. 7. 5 2) "I make a comfortable seat for thee with the flow of ghee ; I shall make it serviceable ; sit there O ! essence of barley on the immortal seat permanently with satisfaction. The mantra is transferred to the modified sacrifice under a चोदक text. The question is, whether the mantra is to be transferred to the modified sacrifice without any adaptation or with the adaptation. The reply of the author is that it should not be adapted. Where the object of a मंत्र remains the same in the modified sacrifice as it is in the model sacrifice there is no change; but where the purpose is not served by keeping the word intact, there the principle of ऊह applies, as for instance जग्नि and ऋहि are substituted by सूर्य and नीवार.

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ ६ । ३ । २ ॥

लिङ्गदर्शनात् by reason of seeing the लिङ्ग, च and

2. And by seeing the लिङ्ग

The author relies on the text "नमाता वद्धते न पिता न भ्राता न सखा" "There is no increase of mother, nor of father nor of brother, nor of friends" It does not prohibit the increase; because we see the brothers and friends increasing. It means that these words are not adapted, i. e. the principle of ऊह does.

The inference is that the principle of ऋ applies also. not apply to them where. Anukra. 11. Sūtras 9-8 dealing with the subject that in the offering of the lotus flower, the principle of ऋ applies to the mantra uttered at the time of spreading.

जातिनैमित्तिकं यथास्थानम् ॥ ६ । ३ । ३ ॥

जातिनैमित्तिकं common noun and adjective ; यथा just as, according ; स्थानम् to the respective place.

3. The common noun and the adjective according to their respective place.

There is a text “मौद्गल्यं निर्वपेत् श्रियैः श्रीकामः” “Let one desirous of wealth offer boiled kidney-beans to श्री” There it is laid down “पौडरिकाणिवर्णीषि भवति” “The lotuses become grass.” In the model sacrifice there is a text for spreading स्तरण.

‘अभिस्तृणीहि परिधेद्वेदिं । जामिमहिंसी स्मुयाश्रयाना । होतृवदना हरिताः सुवर्णाः । निष्काशमे यजमानस्य बध्ने । तौ ब्रा० III. 7 5 13 Spread, O ' grass, cover the altar ; lying prostrate, on the altar do not kill the progeny ; they are green and of colour and are fit to be the seat of a Hota ; they are the ornaments of the sacrificer in the next world ”

The मंत्र is transferred in the modified sacrifice by a चोदक text. There हरीः is a common noun and हरित is its adjective and applies to it only. But in the modified form as we see the पुडरीक is used for spreading and its concomitant quality is red (रक्त) The question is, whether the principle of ऋ applies to the common noun only or does it apply to the noun and its adjective? The reply of the author is that the principle of ऋ applies to both and both the words should be adapted at their respective places.

अविकारमेकेऽनार्पत्वात् ॥ ६ । ३ । ४ ॥

अविकारम् unmodified ; एके according to one school ; अनार्पत्वात् by reason of its being not human.

4. According to one school, it is transferred unmodified by reason of its being not human.

The objector accepts the first part of the first sūtra and says that the स्तरण मंत्र should be transferred unmodified without any change because it is improper to make any substitution in the Vedic मंत्र which is of divine origin.

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ ६ । ३ । ५ ॥

लिङ्गदर्शनात् by seeing the लिङ्ग ; च and,

5. And by seeing the लिङ्ग.

The objector proceeds to give reason in support of his view by quoting authorities. There is a text in connection with आग्नेय "आग्नेये छागस्यवपाया-मेदसोऽनुवृद्धिः" "In Agneya, utter मेदस् (omentum) in place of वपा (omer-tum)." Had there been ऊह, there would have been no such direction and again in connection with अग्निषोमीय animal "यद्येकं दूषमुपस्पृशेत् एष ते वायवो इति व्रूयात्" "यदि द्वौ एतौ ते वायवः" "यः द्वौ दूषन् एते ते वायवः" "If he touches one दूष let him say this is thine O ! वायु," "if he touches two, these are thine O ! वायु," "If he touches many, these are thine O ! वायवः" If there were ऊह, there would have been no such direction.

विकारो व्रातदुक्तहेतुः ॥ ६ । ३ । ६ ॥

विकारः adaptation , वा on the other hand , तदुक्तहेतुः for that reason.

6. On the other hand, there is adaptation for the said reason.

The author says that in the concluding part of the first sūtras, (see at P. 561) the reason is given for ऊह So there is ऊह for the reason given therein. Where the sense of the मन्त्र is served by a change, there the principle of ऊह applies.

लिङ्गं मन्त्रचिकीर्षार्थम् ॥ ६ । ३ । ७ ॥

लिङ्गम् mark , मन्त्रचिकीर्षार्थम् with the object for the desire for the mantra.

7. The लिङ्ग is with the object for the desire for the मन्त्र.

The objector relies on the inference derived from the texts quoted in the commentary on सूत्र 5. The author says that it is with a view to show the nature of the desire for the मन्त्र.

नियमो बोधयभागित्वात् ॥ ६ । ३ । ८ ॥

नियमः restrictive rule ; वा on the other hand ; उभयभागित्वात् by reason of partaking of both.

8. On the other hand, it is a rule by reason of partaking of both.

As to the text about touching of दूष the objector relies on the लिङ्ग argument. The author says that had there been no such restrictive rule, all the मन्त्रा could have been read even when there was only one दूष.

Adhikarana III. dealing with the subject that in an अग्नीषोमीय animal sacrifice, there is a penance on touching the common दूष.

लौकिके दोषसंयोगादपवृक्ते हिचोदते निमित्तेन प्रकृ- तौ स्यादभागित्वात् ॥ ९ । ३ । ९ ॥

लौकिके in the worldly यूप, दोषसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the sin, अपवृक्ते on prohibiting its touch, हि because, चोदते is directed, निमित्तेन by cause, प्रकृतौ in the model sacrifice, स्यात् is, अभागित्वात् by reason of not partaking of it

9. In the worldly यूप by reason of the connection with the sin on prohibiting touch, there is a direction for a cause ; in the model sacrifice by reason of not partaking of it

There is a ज्योतिष्टोम sacrifice, there अग्नीषोमीय animal is ordained "यदिपकंयूपमुपस्पृशेत्त वायोइतिद्वयाद्यदिद्वौवेतो ते वायु इति, यदिद्वौ पते तेवायवः इति" "If he touches one sacrificial post, he must utter, it is thine O ! वायु, if two, then he shall say they (two) are thine O ! वायु, if many then he shall say, they are thine O ! वायवः".

The question is, whether this applies to a वैदिक यूप or a लौकिक यूप The reply of the author is that it applies to a लौकिक यूप because a sin is committed by touching the यूप and so penance is provided for "यूपोवैयज्ञस्य दुरिष्टमासुचते, यद्यूपमुपस्पृशेत्तस्यदुरिष्टमासुचते तस्माद्यूपो नोपस्पृश्यः" "Sacrificial post certainly removes all the evils of a sacrifice, if one touches a sacrificial post, it removes the evil of a sacrifice, a sacrificial post should not, therefore, be touched" after this, the above said text is given as direction for a penance. So on account of this direction there is a prohibition as to touching the यूप and there is, therefore, a penance This applies to an ordinary यूप, this can not apply to the Vedic यूप as touching is there indispensable for smoothing and anointing it.

Adhikāra IV. 10-14 dealing with the subject that in a sacrifice of two animals, the dual number should be substituted in the मंत्र having singular and plural numbers.

अन्यायस्त्वविकारेणा दृष्टप्रतिधातित्वादविशेषाच्च ते- नास्य ॥ ९ । ३ । १० ॥

अन्यायः not right, तु on the other hand, अदृष्टप्रतिधातित्वात् by reason of its not obstructing the seen, अविशेषात् by reason of there being nothing special; च and; तेन by it; अस्य its.

10. On the other hand, it is improper; it therefore applies unmodified by reason of its not obstructing the seen and there being nothing special of it.

There is an अग्नीषोमीय animal ; it is said of it. "योदीक्षितोवदग्नीषोमीयं पशु- मालभते" "One who is initiated, brings an अग्नीषोमीय animal for the sacrifice."
There is a mantra in connection with one rope "अदितिःपाशंप्रमुक्तवेतम्"
(T. S. III. 1. 4. 4) "let अदिति break this trap (bond)." then there is another मंत्र in connection with many ropes "अदितिः पाशां प्रमुक्तवेतान्" (Maitrāyaṇi Samhitā IV. 14. 4.) "Let अदिति break these traps." In the model sacrifice they are to be used collectively There is a modified sacrifice of two animals "मैत्रंश्वेतमालभेत वारणं कृष्णमपि श्वेष्वधीनां च संवाचककामः"
"Let one desirous of corn, sacrifice a white animal to मित्र, black to वरुण in the mixture of water and vegetable." The मंत्रs relating to ropes are transferred to the modified sacrifice under a चोदक text. Now the question is, which mantra is to be used, either the mantra which has a singular number or the mantra which has a plural number ? The view of one objector is that the singular number is unjust and improper because it applies to one animal in the model sacrifice and there is nothing special in it to apply to two animals , the formula containing the plural number can, therefore, be transferred without any modification to the modified sacrifice.

विकारो वा तदर्थत्वात् ॥ ६ । ३ । ११ ॥

विकारः modification , वा on the other hand ; तदर्थत्वात् by reason of its being for it.

11. On the other hand, modification by reason of its being for it.

The second view is that the plural number can not apply ; there being two ropes , so the principle of ऊह will apply and the dual number will be substituted in place of the singular or plural number in the formula. It may be said that this is the author's view.

अपित्वन्यायसम्बन्धात्प्रकृतिवत्परेष्वपियथार्थं स्यात् ॥ ६ । ३ । १२ ॥

अपि on the other hand , अन्यायसम्बन्धात् being connected with impropriety ; प्रकृतिवत् like the model sacrifice ; परेषु in the modified sacrifice ; अपि also ; यथार्थं significant ; स्यात् is.

12. On the other hand, being connected with impropriety, like model, it will become significant in the modified sacrifice also.

The third view is that the plural number is improper but singular number should be employed in the modified form as in the model sacrifice.
The plural includes one and it also includes two as well. So you can employ either of the formulas.

यथार्थं त्वन्यायस्याचोदितत्वात् ॥ ९ । ३ । १३ ॥

यथार्थं correct form, तु on the other hand ; अन्यायस्य of improper form ; अचोदितत्वात् being not ordained.

13. On the other hand, correct form should be used; because the improper form is not ordained.

The author says that both formulas are incorrect ; so they can not be used. It is the correct dual form that should be used. So the principle of उद्देश्य applies to both the formulæ

छन्दसि तु यथादृष्टम् ॥ ९ । ३ । १४ ॥

छन्दसि in the Veda ; तु on the other hand ; यथादृष्टम् as seen.

14. On the other hand, in the Veda like the seen.

The author says that in the common parlance plural is not used for singular nor is singular used for the plural or dual. Such is also the case in the Vedic language.

Adhikaraṇa V. Sūtras 15-19, dealing with the subject that in connection with the अग्नीषोमीय animal, the mantras relating to one rope or many ropes may be optionally employed.

विप्रतिपत्तौ विकल्पः स्यात्तत्सत्त्वाद्गुणे त्वन्यायक-
ल्पनैकदेशत्वात् ॥ ९ । ३ । १५ ॥

विप्रतिपत्तौ on contradiction, विकल्पः option ; स्यात् is, सत्सत्त्वात् by reason of equality ; गुणे in the subordinate act ; तु on the other hand, अन्यायकल्पनैक-
देशत्वात् by reason of the partial nature of the supposition of impropriety.

15. On contradiction, there is option by reason of equality, because of the partial nature of the supposition of impropriety in the subordinate act.

In the same connection as we have seen in the preceding अधिकरण, there are two मन्त्रः. In the model sacrifice there is one rope, while there is the मन्त्र relating to many ropes. The question is, whether in such a state of conflict, should the मन्त्र containing the singular number be imported ? The reply of the author is that there is no उत्कर्ष ; but you have an option because both numbers are equal in context. You can consider the plural to be improper in connection with one rope.

प्रकरणविशेषाच्च ॥ ९ । ३ । १६ ॥

प्रकरणविशेषात् by reason of the special context, च and.

16. And by reason of the special context.

The author says that the special context shows that they are both equal as said in sūtra no 15.

अर्थाभावात् नैव स्याद्गुणमात्रमितरत् ॥ ९ । ३ । १७ ॥

अर्थाभावात् by reason of the want of an object, नु on the other hand; न not; एवम् thus; स्यात् is, गुणमात्रम् merely subordinate, इतरत् the other.

17. On the other hand, by reason of the want of an object it can not be so and the other is merely subordinate.

The author further says that there is no उत्कर्ष You give the example of a द्विवचन as for instance कुलालयज्ञ at P 380. but there the उत्कर्ष is proper. Here there is no duality or plurality of यजमान, so here the principle of उत्कर्ष does not apply. ("उत्कर्षोवाद्ययज्ञवत् ।" "There is transference forward as in द्विवचन" (There is the sūtra in some books embodying the पूर्वपक्ष view of which the present sūtra is a reply).

द्यावोस्तथेति चेत् ॥ ९ । ३ । १८ ॥

द्यावोः of heaven and earth, तथा similarly; इति चेत् if you say.

18. "Similarly the heaven and earth" if you say.

The objector says "very good, do not take the example of the sacrifice, but take the मन्त्र read in connection with दर्शपूर्णमासयोग "द्यावापृथिव्योरहर्देवयज्यया वृत्रहाभूयात्" (K. S., V. 1.) "Let me be a killer of वृत्र with the gods' offerings of heaven and earth." The principle of उत्कर्ष applies there, similarly the principle of उत्कर्ष will apply here also

नेत्पत्तिशब्दत्वात् ॥ ९ । ३ । १९ ॥

न not; नेत्पत्तिशब्दत्वात् by reason of the word being connected with the origin.

19. Not so, by reason of the word being connected with the origin.

The author replies that the principle of उत्कर्ष does not apply here because the मन्त्र in connection with द्यावापृथ्वी is not connected with the origin while here the mantra is connected with the origin of the ropes explaining the variation of the number.

Adhikāraṇa VI. dealing with the subject that in a proceeding by a person having two wives in connection with new and full moon sacrifices, the principle of उत्कर्ष does not apply to the मन्त्र "पक्षीतिगच्छ"

अपूर्वे त्वविकारोऽप्रदेशात्प्रतीयेत ॥ ६ । ३ । २० ॥

अपूर्वे in the model sacrifice ; इ on the other hand ; अविकारः no modification ; अप्रदेशात् by reason of non-transference ; प्रतीयेत appears.

20. On the other hand, there appears to be no modification in the model sacrifice by reason of no transference.

In connection with दर्शपूर्णमासयोग there is a text “ प्रोक्षणीरासादयेन्मवर्हिर्गुपसा- दयलुचः संवृष्टिपदोर्मन्त्रं भाज्येनोदेहि” श० ब्रा० ११-१२-५१. “Bring the vessel containing water (प्रोक्षणी), place the sacred fuel ; cleanse the ladle and having adorned the wife (of the sacrificer) bring us clarified butter.” Now in the present text the expression पदोर्मन्त्रं is used if a sacrificer has got more than one wife, would the term be adapted to suit the occasion? The reply of the author is that the मन्त्र would not be altered, because in the model sacrifice there is no transfer and consequently the principle of ऊह does not apply. So the मन्त्र would be read unaltered

Adhikarṇa VII dealing with the subject that in a proceeding by a person having two wives, the principle of ऊह does not apply to the formula पदोर्मन्त्रं in the modified sacrifice.

विकृतौ चापि तद्वचनात् ॥ ६ । ३ । २१ ॥

विकृतौ in the modified sacrifice , च and , अपि also , तद्वचनात् by reason of that authority.

21. And in the modified sacrifice, by reason of that authority.

The author says that we have seen in the preceding अधिकरणं that the principle of ऊह does not apply to the model sacrifice , the same principle applies to the modified sacrifice The formula quoted in the commentary on sūtra 20, will be read unaltered in the modified sacrifice for the same reason.

Adhikarṇa VIII dealing with the subject that the rule relating to सवनीय animal being the same as the अगनीधोमीय animal, the principle of ऊह does not apply to the formula “प्रास्मैभस्मिन्”

अग्निगुः सवनीयेषु तद्वत्समानविधानाश्चेत् ॥ ६ । ३ । २२ ॥

अग्निगुः the command to the animal killer , सवनीयेषु in सवनीय animals, तद्वत् like it , समानविधानाः of similar rules , चेत् if

22. The command to the animal killer is similar in सवनीय animal by reason of the similar rules.

In a soma sacrifice, there is an अगनीधोमीय animal “येदीक्षितो यदगनीधोमीयं यमु- द्राकमहे” “One who is initiated brings an अगनीधोमीय animal for a sacrifice.”

There is अग्निगुपैव. "प्रास्माजग्निर्भतस्तृणीव वहिरम्बेर्नमाता मन्पता मनुपितानुभाता".
 तै. ब्रा. ३।६.१।१ "Kindle fire for him, spread grass; let the mother hold him in high esteem let the father and brother follow suit" The procedure relating to अग्नीषोमीय and सवनीय horse is the same. The question is whether in सवनीय where there are many animals, the formula will be read with the change of number "आग्नयः पशुग्निश्रामश्चास्यः ऐदाग्न उक्येद्वितीयः । ऐंद्रोवृष्णः षोडशितृतीयः । सायस्वतीमेव तगात्रेचतुर्थी" "In an अग्निहोम an animal consecrated to Agni, secondly in an उक्य an animal consecrated to इन्द्र and अग्नि, thirdly in a षोडशी a powerful bullock consecrated to इन्द्र and अग्नि and fourthly in an अतिरात्र an ewe consecrated to सरस्वती should be brought."

We have already seen that there is no ऊह in सरस्वतीयाग in Pada I.
 अधिकरण XVI सूत्र 45 (see at P 527), the author therefore, says that for reasons, given in the preceding adhikarṇa there is no change of number in the formula and the principle of ऊह does not apply.

Adhikarṇa IX. sūtras 23-25 dealing with the subject that when wild rice is used in place of rice, there is no change of the word 'rice' in the formula.

प्रतिनिधौ चाविकारात् ॥ ९।३।२३ ॥

प्रतिनिधौ in a substitute, च and ; अविकारात् by reason of no change.

23. And in a substitute by reason of no change.

Sometimes it so happens that नीवार is used in place of ब्रीहि. There is a मंत्र in connection with ब्रीहि "स्योनतेसदनं कृणोमि । घृतस्यधारवाप्तुशेषकल्प-यामिनस्मिन्सीदासृते प्रतिनिष्टब्रीहिणां मेधसुमनश्चमानः. T.B. III. 7. 5 2 "I make a comfortable seat for thee with the flow of ghee, I shall make it serviceable; sit there, O! essence of rice on the immortal seat permanently with satisfaction."

Now the question is, whether the word ब्रीहि in the formula will be changed, when नीवार is used in its place. The reply of the author is that the principle of ऊह does not apply to the substitute and the formula will be read unchanged

अनाज्ञानादशब्दत्वमभावाच्चेतरस्य स्यात् ॥ ९।३।२४ ॥

अनाज्ञानात् there being no mention; अशब्दत्वम् no word; अभावात् by the absence; च and ; इतरस्य of the other; स्यात् is.

24. There will no ऊह, if there had been no word ब्रीहि and by reason of there being no other word.

The objector says that the principle of ऊह does not apply if, there had been no word ब्रीहि in the formula and if there had been no such term as नीवार. What the objector argues is, that as there are two terms नीवार and ब्रीहि, so the principle of ऊह will apply.

तादर्थ्याद्वा तदाख्यस्यात्संस्कारैरविशिष्टत्वात् ॥६३॥

तादर्थ्यात् by reason of its being for it, वा on the other hand, तदाख्यं that name, स्यात् is; संस्कारैः with purificatory rites, विशिष्टत्वात् being common.

25. On the other hand, that name is for its object by reason of the purificatory ceremony being common.

The author says, you are wrong, the नीवार is for the object of ब्रीहि and that name also indicates ब्रीहि and the ceremonies of pounding and cleaning are also common, so the principle of ऊह does not apply

उक्तञ्च तत्त्वमस्य ॥ ६ । ३ । २६ ॥

इत्तं described, च and, तत्त्वम् real nature, अस्य its

26. And its real nature is also described.

The author says that we have described all this in chapter VI in dealing with substitute; so the principle of ऊह does not apply. See pages from 334 to 339.

Adhikaraṇa X. Sūtras 27—28 dealing with the subject that in a double animal sacrifice the principle of ऊह does not apply to the formula “सूर्यचक्षुर्गमयताम्”

संसर्गिषु चार्थस्यास्थितपरिमाणत्वात् ॥ ६ । ३ । २७ ॥

संसर्गिषु in the bodily organs, च and, अर्थस्य of the object, अस्थितपरिमाणत्वात् by reason of multiplicity.

27. And in bodily organs by reason of the multiplicity of the objects.

In connection with अक्षिगुर्गमय the different organs are described. Then there is a text “सूर्यचक्षुर्गमयताम् प्राणमन्ववसृजताम्”. (T.B. III 6. 6.2.) “Let eye go to the sun and let vital airs merge in the air.” The question is, whether in a double animal sacrifice, the principle of ऊह applies or not, because the eye sees two animals. If it applies, then the word चक्षुः will be read in dual number. The reply of the author is that the principle of ऊह does not apply because the light in the eye is one though the objects may be many. The subject that receives the impressions of so many diverse objects being one, the mantra will be read without any modification.

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ ९ । ३ । २८ ॥

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च by seeing the force of the text, च and.

28. And by seeing the force of the text.

The author relies on the लिङ्ग argument in support of his view "अमाताकन्दे नमज्जाननाभिः प्राणोहिमः" "There is no increase of mother nor of marrow, nor of navel, and certainly of the vital airs." The text shows that the principle of ऊह does not apply to the bodily organs. See the discussion at P 561.

Adhikāṣya XI. Ūtras 29-31 dealing with the subject that in a double animal sacrifice the word 'एकवा' in the अग्निगुप्तेय should be repeated.

एकधेत्येकसंयोगादभ्यासेनाभिधानं स्यात् ॥ ९ । ३ । २९ ॥

एकधेति 'in one way', एकसंयोगाच्च by reason of the mention of one; अभ्यासेन by repetition, अभिधानं name, स्यात् is 29 'In one way' by reason of the mention of one; it is known by repetition.

There is अग्नीषोमीय animal in अग्निहोम sacrifice "योदीक्षितो यदग्नीषोमीयं पशुमालभते" "He who is initiated brings an अग्नीषोमीय animal to a sacrifice." There is a command to अग्निगु priest. "एकवाऽस्य त्वचमाच्छयतात्" सौ. ब्रा. १.६.६.२ "Cut off his skin once." There are two animals in the modified sacrifice. The question is whether the formula is to be repeated twice in the case of two or more animals or it is to be repeated once. The author's reply is that it should be repeated twice in the unmodified form because then the process of cutting the skin will govern all the sacrificial animals.

अविकारो वा बहूनामेककर्मवत् ॥ ९ । ३ । ३० ॥

अविकारः no change, वा on the other hand, बहूनाम् of many, एककर्मवत् like one act.

30 On the other hand, it should remain unchanged like the performance of many acts by one.

The objector says that you are mistaken, the formula is to be repeated once. Here is an illustration. He gives water to the cows in one way, this shows that all the cows are given water in one way at one and the same time. So the command relating to the stripping off the skin is also like it.

सकृत्त्वं चैकध्यां स्यादेकत्वात्त्वचोऽनभिप्रेतं तत्प्रकृति-

त्वात्परेष्वभ्यासेन विवृद्धावभिधानं स्यात् ॥ ६।३।३१॥

सकृत् of being once, तु on the other hand; एकस्य of being in one way; स्यात् is, एकरवात् by reason of being one, स्वचः of the skin, अनमिष्येत undesirable; सत्प्रकृतित्वात् of its being the model, परेषु in the subsequent actions; अभ्यासेन by repetition, विवृद्धौ on the increase, अभिधानं naming, स्यात् is.

31. On the other hand, the formula is to be repeated once by reason of the skin being one; by reason of its being a model, it is unsuitable; so in subsequent acts on the increase, the naming will be (by repetition.)

The reply of the author is that the illustration does not apply; in the model sacrifice, there is one skin, so the formula can be repeated only once but in the modified sacrifice where the animals are more than one the repetition of the formula once is not sufficient. So on the number of the animals increasing, the formula will have to be repeated twice Adhikarana XII. Sūtras 32 - 40 dealing with the subject that in the modified double sacrifice, the word मेधपति is to be adapted according to the deity.

मेधपतित्वं स्वामिदेवतरय समवायात्सर्वत्र च प्रयुक्त-
त्वात्तस्याचान्यायनिगदत्वात्सर्वत्रैवाविकारः स्यात् ॥६।३।३२॥

मेधपतित्वं the word मेधपति, स्वामिदेवतरय of the master and the deity; समावायात् being connected, सर्वत्र everywhere, च and, प्रयुक्तत्वात् being used, तस्य its, च and; अन्यायनिगदत्वात् being mentioned as improper, सर्वत्र every where, एव certainly, अविकारः no change; स्यात् is.

32. The word 'मेधपति' being connected with the master and the deity and being used everywhere and as it is said to be improper, it is to be used unaltered every where.

In a command given to अग्निगु it is said "दैव्याःशमितार इतमनुष्याश्चारभ-ष्वम् । उपनैयत मेध्यादुराशाशाना मेधपतिभ्यामेधम्" सौ.शा. ३।६.६।३ "Commence O ! divine and human शमितार priests (whose duty is to kill the sacrificial animals) place the consecrated animals at the gate for slaughter for the masters of the sacrifice (husband and wife or Agni and soma) and ye who are anxious of the sacrifice....." There are two kinds of animal killers, viz, the divine and the human, addressing both of them, the Hotā priest directs them to commence the business. In another recension of the Veda in the place of 'मेधपतिभ्यामेध' the reading is 'मेधपतयेमेध.' The question is, whether the singular form or the dual form is used in the modified sacrifice where there are many animals ; if the principle of ऊह applies and singular form is transferred, does मेघपति mean sacrificer, the master of the sacrifice ? Or if the dual form is transferred, does it mean अग्नीषोमी dual gods ? In this state of conflict the first view embodied in the sūtra is that in अग्नीषोमीय animal sacrifice there are two gods and one यजमान, so the sūtra says that the term मेघपति is connected with the three masters, namely, the two gods and the master of the sacrifice ; this is undesirable and improper in the model sacrifice that the singular or dual form be used: so what seems to be proper is that the principle of ऊह does not apply to the formula.

अपि वा द्विसमवायोऽर्थान्यत्वे यथासंख्यं प्रयोगः
स्यात् ॥ ६ । ३ । ३३ ॥

अपि वा on the other hand, द्विसमवायः connection with two, यथासंख्यं respectively, प्रयोगः application, स्यात् is 33 On the other hand, there is connection with two and on the sense being different, the application shall be according it.

The other view is that where one यजमान is meant the singular form is used, but where both the sacrificer and the god are meant the plural form is used. The principle of ऊह applies according to the number of gods and the sacrificer; the singular, dual and plural forms are, therefore, used accordingly-

स्वामिनो वैकशब्दादुत्कर्षो देवतायां स्यात्पत्न्यां द्वि-
तीयशब्दः स्यात् ॥ ६ । ३ । ३४ ॥

स्वामिनः of the master ; वा on the other hand ; एकशब्दात् being one word ; उत्कर्षः transference forward, देवतायां in the deity ; स्यात् is ; पत्न्यां in the wife, द्वितीय शब्दः the 2nd word, स्यात् is.

34. On the other hand the the master being one word, there will be an importation of deity or the wife would be the second word.

The third view is that the word मेघपति does not mean master and god. When the term is used, it means one master and if you import god also into it, there will be a splitting of the sentence ; or you will have to consider the यजमान and his wife along with him. So why should you not consider the word मेधपति to mean the god ? This will be against the context. According to this view, the wife of यजमान is meant and the principle of ऊद् will apply according to the number of यजमान.

देवता तु तदाशीष्ट्वात्सम्प्राप्तत्वात्स्वामिन्यनर्थिका-
स्यात् ॥ ६ । ३ । ३५ ॥

देवता deity, तु on the other hand, तदाशीष्ट्वात् by reason of the object of the hopes, सम्प्राप्तत्वात् having parted with the ownership, स्वामिनि in the word master ; अनर्थिका meaningless, स्यात् is.

35. On the other hand, the god by reason of the object of the hopes and having parted with the ownership the word master becomes meaningless.

The fourth view is that मेधपति is the god, because he is the object of all desires and hopes and the master of the sacrifice can not be the object of hopes and secondly the master has parted with the property which has been spent in the ceremony. So in this view, the master is meaningless and मेधपति, therefore, means god

उत्सर्गाच्च भक्त्यातस्मिन्पतित्वं स्यात् ॥ ६ । ३ । ३६ ।

उत्सर्गाच्च by reason of relinquishment, च and, भक्त्या by secondary sense, तस्मिन् in him ; पतित्वं ownership, स्यात् is

36. By reason of relinquishment, the ownership is in him in a secondary sense,

The fourth critic gives his reason in support of his view. The यजमान can not be looked upon as owner because he parts with the proprietary rights in favour of the sacrifice, he can be looked upon as owner only by a figure of speech. This is the view of our author.

उत्कृष्येतैकसंयुक्ते द्विदेवते सम्भवात् ॥ ६ । ३ । ३७ ॥

उत्कृष्येत transfer ; एकसंयुक्तः in connection with one ; द्विदेवते two gods ; सम्भवात् by reason of the possibility.

There is an importation in connection with one by reason of the possibility of two gods.

The objection to the 4th view is that there will be a transfer of the formula, because it applies to one god and there is a possibility of there being two gods.

एकस्तु समवायात्तस्य तल्लक्षणत्वात् ॥ ९ । ३ । ३८ ॥

एकः one, तु on the other hand, समवायात् on account of affinity; तस्य its; तल्लक्षणत्वात् by reason of possessing its characteristics.

38. On the other hand, it is one by affinity because it has that characteristic.

The objector says that the double gods may be looked upon as one collectively and in that case the singular formula applies as for instance "Bring the articles of killing for the set of gods." "एकस्मै गायत्र्यै च इ एनयत्"

संसर्गित्वाच्च तस्मात्तेन विकल्पः स्यात् ॥ ९ । ३ । ३९ ॥

संसर्गित्वात् by reason of jointness, च and, तस्मात् therefore, तेन by it; विकल्पः option, स्यात् is.

39. By reason of jointness, there will then be option.

The author says that when offering is made to two gods, the offerings become the joint property of both and so there is an option in the use of the formula.

एकत्वेपि गुणानपायात् ॥ ९ । ३ । ४० ॥

एकत्वे in unity, अपि also; गुणानपायात् by reason of the undesirability of quality.

40. In unity also, by reason of the undesirability of the qualities.

The author says that the singular form is undesirable, so it is not imported. The result is that the formula either in the singular or in any other form will be used according to the number of the gods.

* Adhikarṇa XIII. Sūtras 41-42 dealing with the subject that in a sacrifice of animals to many gods also, the singular form of सेवपति to be optionally used.

नियमो बहुदेवते विकारः स्यात् ॥ ९ । ३ । ४१ ॥

नियमः restrictive rule, बहुदेवते in many deities; विकारः modified form; स्यात् is.

41. There is a restrictive rule ; in the case of many deities, the modified form.

There are animals sacred to gods "सतान्पशूनादित्येभ्यः कामाय भालभते" "वैश्व-देवैश्च भालभते" "He brings those animals to आदित्य for sacrifice to obtain desires" "Let him sacrifice smoke-coloured animal for विश्वेदेवाः" We have discussed in मेघपति formula in the preceding अधिकरण and have seen that in an अग्नीषोमीय animal sacrifice we have the option to use the singular or the dual form. Now in a sacrifice where there are several animals, which formula will be used? whether the singular form or the dual form? The objector says that the singular form is unsuited. The dual form will apply by the rule but being not suited, the principle of ऋह will apply and the plural form will be substituted.

विकल्पो वा प्रकृतिवत् ॥ ९ । ३ । ४२ ॥

विकल्पः option, वा on the other hand, प्रकृतिवत् like the model sacrifice.

42. On the other hand, there is an option like the model sacrifice.

The author's reply is that we accept that the dual form will be unsuited, but we do not accept that the singular form does not apply. You can look upon the gods as one collective body. In this view you have an option to use either the singular or the dual form.

Adhikāraṇa XIV dealing with the subject that in एकादशिनी sacrifice, the singular form of मेघपति should be altered.

अर्थान्तरे विकारः स्याद्देवतापृथक्त्वादेकामिसमवाया-
त्स्यात् ॥ ९ । ३ । ४३ ॥

अर्थान्तरे in a different object, विकारः modification; स्यात् is; देवतापृथक्त्वात् by reason of the deity being different, एकामिसमवायात् one being sufficient for one, स्यात् is.

43. In a different object, there is modification by reason of the gods being different and one being sufficient for one.

There is an एकादशिनी sacrifice, in connection with it, it is said "वैवारमेवेन वापयति, मिथुनसारस्वत्याकरोतिस्त्रीभ्येन दधातिरेतः, प्रजनयति पौष्णेन" "He makes it fit for cultivation by means of an animal consecrated to Agni; he makes a pair by an animal consecrated to सरस्वती, he throws seed with an animal consecrated to सोम and produces progeny with an animal consecrated to पूषा. There is another text "आग्नेयःकुरुग्रीवः । सारस्वती मेवी । वसुःसौम्यः । पौष्णःश्यामः" (T.S., V. 5. 22 1) "An animal having black neck is consecrated to Agni ; an ewe is consecrated to सरस्वती ; a tawny coloured animal is consecrated to सोम ; a black animal is consecrated to पूषा".

The question is, whether the द्वैव formula should be used in the singular or dual form or should it be used optionally as in the model sacrifice ?

The singular form can not be used because there are different deities which can not be looked upon as one collective body and separate animals are dedicated to them separately, so the principle of jointness does not apply. As there is a large number of deities, so the principle of ऊह applies and the plural form will be substituted.

END OF PADA III

PADA IV.

Adhik. and 1 sūtras 1 16 dealing w t the subject that there is ऊह in the formula षड्विंशतिरस्यैवकुर्यः &c, (it has 26 lbs) aft ragging, ting

षड्विंशतिरभ्यासेन पशुगणे तत्प्रकृतित्वाद्गणस्य प्र-
विभक्तत्वादविकारे हि तासामकात्स्न्येनाभिसम्बन्धो विकार-
राक्व समासः स्यादसंयोगाच्च सर्वाभिः ॥ ९ । ४ । १ ॥

षड्विंशतिः twenty six, अभ्यासेन by repetition, पशुगणे in a group of animals तत्प्रकृतित्वात् by reason of its being a model, गणस्य of the group ; प्रविभक्तत्वात् by reason of being divided, विकारे in a modified form ; हि because, तासाम् their, अकात्स्न्येन in a part, अभिसम्बन्धः relationship, विकारात् by reason of a modified form, समास aggregate, स्यात् is, असंयोगात् by reason of no connection, च and ; सर्वाभिः with all.

1. In a group of animals, there is a repetition of twenty six by reason of its being a model and the group being divided ; because in the unmodified form, their relationship is with a part, and by reason of the modified form, there will be no aggregate because there is no connection with all.

In a उद्योतिष्टोम sacrifice, there is an अग्नीषोमीय animal "वेदीक्षितेष्वद्विष्टोमीयं पशुमारुहते" "One who is initiated brings an animal consecrated to Agni and Soma for sacrifice." In connection with this there is "अग्निर्देव" "अह-

विंशतिरवर्चक्यः ताभ्यमुदयोष्यावयातात्" ॥ तै. ब्रा. ३।६।६।३. It has twenty six ribs ; remove them from their places in their order." This is transferred under a चोदक text to the sacrifice of two or more animals; "मैत्रश्वेतमाकमवे, वारुणकृष्णमर्पाचौषजीनांचलंवाचकामः" "Let one desirous of corn, sacrifice a white animal to मित्र, black to वरुण in the mixture of water and vegetable "

Now the question is, whether the word 'चव्विंशति' should be repeated or should it be used unmodified? or should the word be modified? or should the words 'अस्य चव्विंशति' be repeated or should they be modified? The first view embodied in the sūtra is that the word चव्विंशति should be repeated because in the model sacrifice there is only one animal and it has 26 ribs, so this will be divided in a group of animals ; if you apply the formula unmodified, the whole number of the ribs will not be covered by it because in two animals there will be 52 ribs and if you apply the formula in a modified form, it may apply to an animal of 52 ribs and may not necessarily apply to two animals of 26 ribs each. According to this पूर्वपक्ष view it is reasonable to repeat the formula in case of each animal in an unmodified form

अभ्यासेऽपि तथेति चेत् ॥ ६।४।२ ॥

अभ्यासे in repetition ; अपि also , तथा similarly , इतिचेत् If you say.

2. "In repetition also the same" if you say.

The objection to the 1st पूर्वपक्ष view is that the same applies to the repetition. If you say that the formula in its modified form is improper by reason of its being contrary to the form in the model sacrifice, I say the same is the case with the repetition. In the model sacrifice, the formula is not repeated , so the form in the modified sacrifice will be contrary to it.

न गुणार्थकृतत्वाच्च ॥ ६।४।३ ॥

च not so , गुणात् by reason of its being a quality ; अर्थकृतत्वाच्च by reason of being for the purpose , च and

3. Not so, by reason of its being a quality and for a purpose.

The propounder of the 1st view says that you are mistaken in saying that the same fault is in repetition ; it is not so, because it is one of the characteristics of a word to be repeated and secondly the repetition in the present case is for a purpose, there being two animals in the modified sacrifice.

समासेऽपि तथेति चेत् ॥ ६।४।४ ॥

समासे in the aggregate ; अपि also , तथा similarly ; इतिचेत् If you say.

4. "In the aggregate also the same" if you say.

The objector to the 1st view says that when the number of the ribs are collectively mentioned the same thing happens ; the total number of ribs are at once mentioned. So the formula should be uttered in the modified form.

नासम्भवात् ॥ ६।४।५ ॥

न not so , असम्भवान् by reason of impossibility.

5. Not so, by reason of impossibility

The propounder of the 1st view says that in my case the चोदक text is fully realised but in your case the application of the formula is in the modified form, but the चोदक text is preferable to प्रयोग text. So the formula should be repeated in its unmodified form.

स्वाभिश्च वचनं प्रकृतौ तथेह स्यात् ॥ ६।४।६ ॥

स्वाभिः with its own , च and , वचनं formula , प्रकृतौ in the model sacrifice ; तथा similar ; इह here , स्यात् is

6. And the formula in the model sacrifice is in its proper form and so is here.

The propounder of the 1st view says that in case of repetition, the 26 ribs in the modified sacrifice are the same as in the model sacrifice but in giving the aggregate number of ribs, the particular number of the ribs is changed.

वह्नीक्रीणान्तु प्रधानरवात्समासेनाभिधानं स्यात्प्रधान्यमभिगोस्तदर्थत्वात् ॥ ६।४।७ ॥

वह्नीका of the ribs ; तु on the other hand ; प्रधानत्वात् by reason of being principal ; समासेन by the aggregate ; अभिधानं naming , स्यात् is ; प्रधान्यं principal ; अभिगोः of अभिगु priest, तदर्थत्वात् by reason of being for it.

7. On the other hand, by reason of the ribs being principal the naming is by aggregate ; the अभिगु priest, is principal because he is for it.

The objector to the view of the propounder who is our author says that the ribs are principal, the formula should, therefore, be uttered after giving the aggregate number of the ribs in it. The अग्निगु priest is for the purpose of the ribs but not for counting animals, hence the formula should be repeated in the modified form. In this view of the author, the 1st view is repelled, the other views in which the number of animals is principal are, therefore, rejected.

तासां च कृत्स्नवचनात् ॥ ६ । ४ । ८ ॥

तासां their ; च and , कृत्स्नवचनात् by the whole sentence

8. And by reason of their being covered by the whole sentence.

The formula is for the purpose of removal of the ribs by the अग्निगु and so the ribs are covered by the entire formula. The number contained in the formula covers the entire number of ribs. The author supports his view in this way.

अपि त्वसन्निपातित्वात्पक्षीवदान्नातेनाभिधानं स्यात् ॥ ६ । ४ । ९ ॥

. अपि तु on the other hand , त्वसन्निपातित्वात् by reason of being remote ; पक्षीवत् like a पक्षीवत् , अज्ञानेन by the action , अभिधानं naming , स्यात् is

6. On the other hand by reason of its being remote, like पक्षीवत्, there will be naming by the direction.

The second objector to the view of the सिद्धांती steps in and says that the formula is repeated first and then the action of the अग्निगु commences after killing the animal to recover the ribs, so it is very remote. Why do you not permit repetition of the formula in an unmodified form just as it was done in the case of 'पक्षीवत्तद्वत्' ? (see sūtra 20 pāda III of this chapter at P 568) So the second objector maintains that the repetition of the formula in the unmodified form is proper and right.

विकारस्तु प्रदेशत्वाद्यजमानवत् ॥ ६ । ४ । १० ॥

विकारः modification , तु on the other hand , प्रदेशत्वात् by reason of transfer ; यजमानवत् like a यजमान (sacrificer)

10. On the other hand, there is modification by reason of transfer as in a यजमान (sacrificer.)

The author says that the formula is transferred from the model sacrifice to the modified sacrifice and applies to अग्निगु "देव्याशमिहारे वद मनुष्या आरभन्व" । तै० ब्रा० ३।६।१ । 'Ye divine and human killers of animals, commence," "षड्विंशतिरस्यवक्रयस्ता अनुष्ठायोप्यावयतात्" तै० ब्रा० शा० ३.

 "It has twenty six ribs, remove them from their places in their order." We see that the text is for the purpose of the ribs but not for the purpose of the number 26. Hence the principle of ऊह applies as in the case of a यजमान ; where the यजमान is one, the singular number is used and where there are two, the dual form is used.

अपूर्वत्वात्तथा पत्न्याम् ॥ ९।४।११ ॥

अपूर्वत्वात् by reason of the अपूर्व nature, तथा similarly, पत्न्याम् in पत्नीसद्वह
 11. And by reason of the अपूर्व nature in पत्नीसद्वह.

The objector gave an illustration of पत्नीसद्वह of the foregoing pāda at
 P. 568 in sūtra 9 but the author says that it does not apply. There is no doubt that the formula will not be altered by reason of the varying number of the wives, in दशोर्णयाम there is no transfer, so the principle of ऊह does not apply there, but here the formula is uttered for the removal of the ribs by the अधिगु. So the principle of ऊह applies in the present case.

अनाम्नातस्त्वविकारात्सङ्ख्यासु सर्वगामित्वात् ॥९।४।१२॥

अनाम्नातः not laid down, तु on the other hand, अविकारात् by reason of no modification, संख्यासु in number, सर्वगामित्वात् by reason of applicability to all.

12. On the other hand, it is not laid down by reason of no modification, because in the number there is the applicability to all.

The third objector comes forward and says that here you are mistaken.
 The Vedic text contains number 26 and the the changed form is what is not sanctioned by the Vedas, it will therefore apply in an unmodified form because the number is applicable to all. In other editions of the मीमांसा सूत्रs, the सूत्र commences with आम्नातः which means 'as laid down' but in the Chaukhambha edition, it reads अनाम्नातः which we have preferred.
 It makes no difference ultimately.

सङ्ख्या त्वेवं प्रधानं स्याद्वक्रयः पुनः प्रधानम् ॥९।४।१३॥

संख्या number, तु on the other hand, एवं in this way; प्रधानं principal;
 स्यात् is; वक्रय ribs, पुनः again, प्रधानम् principal.

13. On the other hand the number in this way is principal and the ribs are again principal.

The author says that the number of the ribs becomes important and the ribs are already stated to be principal (See Sūtra 7 at P. 579.) So the aggregate number should be given in the formula in the modified sacrifice.

अनाम्नातवचनमवचनेन हि वङ्क्रीणां स्यान्निर्देशः ॥६१॥१४॥

अनाम्नातवचनम् the formula is not laid down ; अवचनेन unauthorised text ; हि because ; वङ्क्रीणां of ribs , स्यात् is , निर्देशः direction.

14. The formula is not laid down ; because by an unsanctioned text, there is a direction as to ribs.

The author says that the altered formula is not in compliance with the formula in the model sacrifice in form but this is for the recovery of the ribs ; but if you do not repeat the changed formula, it will not cover the whole number of ribs

अभ्यासो वाऽविकारात्स्यात् ॥ ६ । ४ । १५ ॥

अभ्यासः repetition , वा on the other hand ; अविकारात् by reason of no modification.

15. On the other hand there is repetition by reason of no modification.

The fourth objector comes forward and says "well, the whole formula will not be repeated but only अस्य will be repeated ; because no modification is sanctioned."

पशुस्त्वेवं प्रधानं स्यादभ्यासस्य तन्निमित्तत्वात्तस्मात्समासशब्दः स्यात् ॥ ६ । ४ । १६ ॥

पशुः animal ; तु on the other hand , एवं in the same way ; प्रधानं principal स्यात् is ; अभ्यासस्य of repetition ; तन्निमित्तत्वात् by reason of being for it ; तस्मात् therefore ; समासशब्दः aggregate word ; स्यात् is.

16. On the other hand, the animal is principal in this way; by reason of the repetition being for it, there would be, therefore, an aggregate word.

The author sums up his whole view in this concluding sūtra ; what he says is that the animal is principal according to you and the repetition is for the animal ; so the aggregate words i. e. entire number of the ribs will be substituted in place of "अस्य वङ्क्रीणां" according to the number of the animals.

Adhikaraṇa II. dealing with the subject that the text “चतुस्त्रिंशद्वाजिनः” is the special text giving the 34 ribs of a सवनीय horse of अश्वमेधयज्ञ

अश्वस्य चतुस्त्रिंशत्तस्य वचनाद्विशेषिकम् ॥६११७॥

अश्वस्य of the horse sacrifice , चतुस्त्रिंशत् thirty four ; तस्य of it ; वचनात् by the text , विशेषिकम् speciality.

17. There is speciality by reason of the text of 34 of the horse.

There is an अश्वमेधः sacrifice , in it there is a सवनीय animal “अश्वस्तूपरो- गोमृगस्ते प्राजापत्याः” शुक्ल यजु० २४।१ “Horse and hornless bos gaveus are the animals consecrated to प्राजापति” In the model sacrifice which is अग्नीषोमीय there is a text “वद्विंशतिरश्ववक्रयः” तै० ब्रा० ३।६ ६।३ “It has 26 ribs” Under a चोदक text, it is transferred here in the modified sacrifice

चतुस्त्रिंशद्वाजिनोश्चर्वध्वं धावन्तीरश्वस्य स्वधितिः समेति । अष्टिद्विगान्ना वयुना . कृणोत पुरुषवरनुचुर्वाविशस्त ॥ क० वे० book I 162. 18 “The sword cuts well the thirty four ribs of the horse which is swift and dear to the gods, remove them cleverly from its body without piercing , cut them from each part distinctly.”

Now the question is, whether the ribs of a horse should be mentioned separately or should they be added with the ribs of other animals and mentioned collectively ? The reply as contained in the सूत्र is that there is a special text, so the number of the ribs in the case of a horse should be separately mentioned

Adhikaraṇa III sūtra 18 21 dealing with the subject that the whole ऋक् verse is prohibited by ‘do not utter 34 &c.’ in the case of the सवनीय horse of the अश्वमेध

तत्प्रतिषिध्य प्रकृतिर्नियुज्यते सा चतुस्त्रिंशद्वाच्यत्वा- त् ॥ ६१४।१८ ॥

तत् it ; प्रतिषिध्य prohibiting , च and ; प्रकृतिः the model sacrifice ; नियुज्यते fits in , सा it , चतुस्त्रिंशद्वाच्यत्वात् by reason of the text containing thirty four.

18 Prohibiting it, the formula of the model sacrifice fits in by reason of the text containing 34.

There is a text “न चतुस्त्रिंशदितिव्यात् । वद्विंशतिरित्येव व्यात्” “Do not utter thirty four but utter only twenty six” This text prohibits the formula by giving the number of the ribs of the horse separately ; the result is that the text in connection with the model sacrifice giving the twenty six ribs prevails. The conclusion is that the principle laid down in अविकरण 1. applies and all the ribs collectively of the horse, cow and deer will be inserted in the formula i.e. $34 + 26 + 26 = 86$

ऋग्वास्यादान्नातत्वादविकल्पश्च न्याय्यः ॥ ९।४।१९ ॥

ऋक्. a ऋक् verse, वा on the other hand, स्यात् is, अन्नतत्वात् by reason of its being laid down, अविकल्पः no option, च and, न्याय्यः proper.

19. On the other hand, the ऋक् verse by reason of its being laid down; it is proper not to have option.

The objector says that there is a ऋक् verse quoted in the commentary on sūtra 17 (at P. 583) which mentions the number of the ribs to be 34 and if you give option to repeat the formula, the result will be contradictory. So it is proper that 34 ribs of the horse should be separately mentioned

तस्यां तु वचनादैरवत्पदविकारः स्यात् ॥ ९।४।२० ॥

तस्यां in it, तु on the other hand; वचनात् under a text, ऐरवत् like ऐर, पदविकारः change of word, स्यात् is

20. On the other hand, in it by reason of the text, there is a change of word as in ऐर.

The objector continues in reply to the सिद्धोक्त view expressed in सूत्र 18 and says that the whole text is not prohibited as you say but there is only a change of word. Instead of the number 34 the number 26, is substituted.

सर्वप्रतिषेधो वाऽसंयोगात्पदेन स्यात् ॥ ९।४।२१ ॥

सर्वप्रतिषेधः the prohibition of the whole, वा on the other hand, असंयोगात् by reason of there being no connection, पदेन with the word

21. On the other hand, the whole is prohibited, by reason of there being no connection with the word.

The author says that the prohibition relates to the whole ऋक् verse, but not to the number 34. If you hold that it relates to the word only the sanctity of the मंत्र is gone by taking a word or a phrase from it.

मंत्रोद्गीतः स्वरतोवर्णतोवाभिध्याप्रयुक्तो न तमर्थमाह । स वाग्बज्जो यजमानं हिनस्ति य. यैश्च शत्रुः स्वरतोपराधात् । Text quoted in महाभाष्य of पतञ्जलि "A verse of the Veda pronounced incorrectly either by accent or by letter does not convey the meaning, that thunderbolt of tongue kills a sacrificer just as an enemy of इन्द्र by the fault of accent."

The result is that the formula should be read after giving the number of the ribs collectively.

Adhikaraṇa IV. dealing with the subject that in अग्नीषोमीय animal, by the word 'उरुक' omentum is meant.

बनिष्ठुसन्निधानादुरुकेण वपाभिधानम् ॥ ९ । ४ । २२ ॥

बनिष्ठु organ ; सन्निधानात् by reason of proximity, उरुकेण by the word उरुक, वपाभिधानं the name of fat.

22. By reason of being near the organ, by 'उरुक' is meant fat.

There is an अधिगु प्रैष in connection with अग्नीषोमीय animal in ज्योतिषोत्तम, बनिष्ठुमस्यमाराविष्टो रुकमन्यमाना" तै० ब्रा० ३।६।६।३।४

"Do not pierce the organ (viscera) considering it to be fat (adipose tissue)" The question is to determine the meaning of 'उरुक' ; whether it means an owl or fat. We all know that रु & र invariably interchange into each other, therefore, उरुक is उलुक, and means an owl. The author says that the word means omentum, because the formula is uttered to guide the अधिगु not to cut through the viscera of the animal killed under a mistaken belief that it was a adipose tissue. So the proper meaning of the word on the occasion is marrow or omentum. In this view, the principle of ऊह will apply to उरुक and will be used in singular, dual and plural forms according to the occasion.

Adhikaraṇa V Sūtras 23-24 dealing with the subject that in the text relating to अधिगु command प्रशसाबाहु the word 'प्रशसा' is used in the sense of praise

प्रशसाऽस्याभिधानम् ॥ ९ । ४ । २३ ॥

प्रशसा the term प्रशसा, असि a sword, अभिधानम् name

23. The term 'प्रशसा' means a sword

In the same connection, there is, a command to the 'अधिगु' 'प्रशसाबाहुकृत्य-तात्' तै० ब्रा० ३।६।६।२. "Cut off the arms in their entirety." Now the question is, what the term प्रशसा means "असिर्वैशालमाचक्षते" "A शस्त्र is certainly called a sword." According to the objector, it therefore means a sword.

बाहुप्रशंसा वा ॥ ९ । ४ । २४ ॥

बाहुप्रशंसा praise of arms ; वा on the other hand.

24. Or it may be in praise of the arms.

The author says that it means "cut off the praiseworthy arms." It means the arms should be recovered in their entirety ; when an axe is already sanctioned, what is the use of mentioning a sword? The fore-legs which are arms are praised because the animal walks with them; by bowing down on them he takes provender. In this view the principle of ऊह applies, and the number will vary according to the number of animals.

Adhikaraṇa VI. Sūtra 26-27 dealing with the subject that, in the text relating to the command to "अग्निगृह्येनमस्यवक्ष" &c, the words गृह्येन &c mean in their entirety.

गृह्येन-शला-कश्यप- कवचस्तेकपर्णेष्वकृतिवचनं प्र-
सिद्धसन्निधानात् ॥ ६ । ४ । २५ ॥

गृह्येन hawk, शला dart, कश्यप tortoise; कवच thorn; कर्णेषु leaf of a tree, अकृतिवचनं words denoting form, प्रसिद्धसन्निधानात् by reason of the proximity of the well-known

25. In hawk, dart, tortoise, thorn and leaf of a tree there is the significance of the form by reason of the proximity of the well-known.

In this connection, there is अग्निगृह्येन 'गृह्येनमस्यवक्षःकृणुतात् । शलादोषणी कश्यपेवासी । कवचोऽस्तेकपर्णोऽष्टीवताः' तै० ब्रा० ३।६।६।२३. "Cut off the thorax in the shape of a hawk, cut off the wrist in the shape of a dart and shoulders like a tortoise, make the thighs connected with the root in the shape of door-frames and in the shape of the leaves of a करवीर tree."

Now the question is, whether they signify form or they mean removal of the parts in their entirety. The objector's reply is that they indicate the form by virtue of being near the well known parts of the body. They therefore mean "make its breast resemble like the hawk and arms like the darts and shoulders like a tortoise and thighs like thorns and knees like the leaves of a karavīr tree".

कात्स्न्यं वा स्यात्तथाभावात् ॥ ६ । ४ । २६ ॥

कात्स्न्यं entirety; वा on the other hand, स्यात् is; तथाभावात् by reason being like it

26. On the other hand, in its entirety by reason of its being like it.

The author says that you are not right, it means a direction to the अग्निगृह्येन to remove the organ in its entirety, so that it may resemble the things mentioned in the text.

अग्निगोश्च तदर्थत्वात् ॥ ६ । ४ । २७ ॥

अग्निगोः of the अग्निगु priest ; च and , तदर्थत्वात् by reason of its being for that object.

27. And the अग्निगु priest is for that object.

The author says that the अग्निगु priest is for the purpose of removing the parts of the body and this is a direction intended for him so that the parts of the body may be recovered uninjured “यथातत्त्वमनश्यति तथासाकल्येनोद्धरणीयम्” “It may not be destroyed, so that it may be recovered in its entirety” “गात्रं गात्रं मस्यात्तूनं कृणुतात्” तै० ब्रा० ३।६।३ “Cut off its each part unimpaired.”

Here the principle of ऊह does not, therefore, apply.

Adhikarapa VII dealing with the non-performance of the penance by उद्योतिष्मती on the extinction of the fire obtained for the new-moon sacrifice

प्रासङ्गिके प्रायश्चित्तं न विद्यते परार्थत्वात्तदर्थं हि विधीयते ॥ ६ । ४ । २८ ॥

प्रासङ्गिके in the incidental , प्रायश्चित्तं penance ; न not ; विद्यते is ; परार्थत्वात् by reason of being for another , तदर्थं for it , हि because , विधीयते laid down.

28. In the incidental there is no penance by reason of its being for another. It is laid down for it.

In connection with अग्निहोत्र it is laid down, “अनयेज्योतिष्मते पुरोडाशमहाकपाकं निर्वपेत् । यस्याग्निं रुद्धोऽहुतेऽग्निहोत्रं उद्गायेत्” “Let him whose fire when brought extinguishes before the अग्निहोत्र is performed, offer a cake baked on eight earthen pans to the brilliant fire”. Then further it is explained in जैमिनिन्यायमाकाश.

Every day in order to perform an अग्निहोत्र, the fire is taken from गार्हपत्य and thrown into आहवनीय. If the fire so recovered extinguishes by non-performance of the अग्निहोत्र, the इष्टि is performed by way of penance. Now the question which is intended to be solved in this अधिकरण is, when the fire is taken for the new and full moon sacrifices and goes out without performance of the Agnihotra, should this ज्योतिष्मती sacrifice be performed? The reply of our author is that no penance is to be performed, because it is in connection with Agnihotra and for incidental acts there is no necessity. The penance is for the sacrifice of अग्निहोत्र and occurs in that context. Where the fire is taken for अग्निहोत्र and if it goes out without performance, the penance is for averting the evil that will otherwise befall. But in the case of दर्शपूर्णमासयागस, the fire being not for the अग्निहोत्र there is no necessity of the penance.

Adhikarṇa VII sūtras 29-30 dealing with the non-performance of ज्योतिष्मती as a penance on extinction of the preserved fire

धारणे च परार्थत्वात् ॥ ६ । ४ । २९ ॥

धारणे in preservation, च and, परार्थत्वात् by reason of its being for another.

29. And in preservation by reason of its being for another.

It is laid down "धार्योगतश्चिद् आहवनीयः" "By a गतश्री the आहवनीय fire should be maintained." The गतश्री are "त्रयोहवैगतश्चिद् ब्राह्मणः शुश्रुवाश्च ग्रामणी, राजन्यः" Three are गतश्री (whose wealth is gone) a serving Brāhmaṇa, a villager and a warrior." According to कल्पसूत्र, और्वो गौतमो भारद्वाजः "Descendants of और्वो गौतम and भारद्वाज." are the गतश्री.

The धारणा consists in पर्युक्षण throwing water silently, परिसमूहन throwing fuel in the fire silently, and दृणावयव throwing leaves in it. The question is, whether the ज्योतिष्मती should be performed when this preserved fire goes out. The reply of our author is in the negative, because the fire so kept can be used in all ceremonies. The ज्योतिष्मती sacrifice is for a special purpose as seen in the preceding अधिकरण.

क्रियार्थत्वादितरेषु कर्म स्यात् ॥ ६ । ४ । ३० ॥

क्रियार्थत्वाद् by reason of being for action, इतरेषु in others; कर्म ceremony; स्यात् is.

30. By reason of being for action in others, there is a ceremony.

The author says, "you objector, advance as your argument that as पर्युक्षण &c are done, so the penance may also be performed. These acts are performed, as their performance is necessary to preserve the fire and they are also ordained, but the performance of penance is in the case of a fire going out on fetching it for अग्निहोत्र, but not in the case of preservation of the same for no special object.

Adhikāṇḍa IX- dealing with the subject that no मंत्र is to be repeated at the time the fire is taken for the new and full moon sacrifices,

न तूत्पन्ने यस्य चोदनाऽप्राप्तकालत्वात् ॥ ९ । ४ । ३१ ॥

न not, तु on the other hand, उत्पन्ने on production, यस्य its, चोदना direction, अप्राप्तकालत्वात् by reason of there being no time for it.

31. On the other hand, the direction does not apply on its production (for another) by reason of there being no time for it.

In connection with the removal of fire in the अग्निहोत्र sacrifice, the following मंत्र is recited “वाचात्वाहोत्रा प्राणेनोद्गात्रा चक्षुषाऽध्वयुर्णामनसाग्रहणा भोत्रेणुग्नीधैतैस्त्वापंचभिदैर्यैर्ऋत्विग्भिरुद्धरा मि” (Ap. Śrauta Sūtras VI. 1. 6 & Mānava Ś S I 6 1 2) With the tongue by होत्रा, with the vital air by उद्गाता, with the eye by अध्वयुः, with the manas by ब्रह्मा, with the eye by अग्नीध्र, by these five divine priests, I recover thee”

Now the question is, whether this mantra is to be repeated at the time when the fire is removed for the purpose of performing the दर्शपूर्णमासयागः. The reply of our author is in the negative, the reason is that the fire in the अग्निहोत्र is produced for अग्निहोत्र, there is the injunction to repeat the मंत्र at the time of taking the fire but such is not the occasion in the दर्शपूर्णमासयागः. They are performed on the occasion of the new and full moon, while the अग्निहोत्र is performed every day in the morning & evening. So no mantra is to be recited at the time when fire for the performance of the new and full moon sacrifices is removed.

Adhikāṇḍa X sūtra 32-40 dealing with the subject that the procedure of gift does not apply to the boiled rice of the first day in a sacrifice.

प्रदानदर्शनं श्रपणे तदुर्मभोजनार्थत्वात्संसर्गाच्च म-
धूदकवत् ॥ ९ । ४ । ३२ ॥

प्रदानदर्शनं seeing the gift, श्रपणे in boiling; तदुर्मभोजनार्थत्वात् by reason of its being for food, संसर्गात् by mixture; च and; मधूदकवत् like honey & water.

32 The gift is seen in boiling, by reason of its being for food and by mixture like honey and water.

In connection with ज्योतिषोम it is laid down : “अदित्यः प्रायणीयः पयसि चरुः” “प्रायणीय with boiled rice in milk consecrated to ‘अदिति’”. The प्रायणीय is the first day of गवामयन or अतिरात्र derivatively it means the first day. “प्रायणी- येऽद्यनुत्थामेके प्रातःकालत्वात्” कात्यायनश्रौत सूत्र. XII. 138 (See Chaukhambha Sanscrit series P. 625).

The question is whether the procedure relating to gift should apply to milk or not. The reply of the objector is that the rice boiled in milk is intended as an offering. The word milk is used in the locative case but that does not affect it in the least, because it is intended as food and the boiled rice can not be separately offered without the milk in which it is boiled. Just as we see in a प्राजापत्य the mixture of curd, honey, ghee, rice and water is offered, so also here. The procedure of gift, therefore, applies to milk.

संस्कारप्रतिषेधश्च तद्वत् ॥ ६ । ४ । ३३ ॥

संस्कारप्रतिषेधः prohibition of purificatory rites, तद्वत् like it.

-33. Prohibition of purificatory rite is like it.

The objector says that certain rites in connection with it are prohibited. "अयमुषा वत्सानपाकरोति" अपवित्रवतिर्गादोदयति" He drives off the calves without a वयु verse" "He milks a cow when not purified."

This लिङ्ग supports the view of the objector

तत्प्रतिषेधे च तथाभूतस्य वर्जनात् ॥ ६ । ४ । ३४ ॥

तत्प्रतिषेधे on its prohibition, च and, तथाभूतस्य any thing in its similar form : वर्जनात् by prohibition.

34. And on its prohibition, anything in its form is also prohibited.

The objector further says that you prohibit the milk, the rice which is boiled in it, is necessarily prohibited. If you say that the milk is not for offering, the rice which is boiled in the milk will necessarily be excluded from the gift.

अधर्मत्वमप्रदानात्प्रणीतार्थे विधानादतुल्यत्वादसंसर्गः

॥ ६ । ४ । ३५ ॥

अधर्मत्वं no characteristics, अप्रदानात् by reason of being not given; प्रणीतार्थे for the purpose of holy water, विधानात् by reason of being laid down; अतुल्यत्वात् by reason of its inequality : असंसर्गः no amalgamation.

35. It is not its characteristic by reason of its being not given and by reason of its being for the purpose of cooking and because of inequality, there is no amalgamation.

The author says that it is the rice that is given but not the milk. The milk is for the purpose of boiling. The चरु can not be prepared without boiling it. In the milk There is an inequality because the rice is the object of the gift and the milk is in the locative case in which the rice is boiled ; if milk be considered to be an object of gift there will be split of sentences which is considered to be a serious mistake by the मीमांसकs. The चरु is an object of gift to the sun-god and the milk is an भाधार (substratum) of चरु but not of sun-god. In this view the procedure relating to gift does not apply to milk

परो नित्याऽनुवादः स्यात् ॥ ९ । ४ । ३६ ॥

परः the other ; नित्यानुवादः permanent statement

36. The other is a permanent statement of facts.

The author further argues that as to what you say about the किङ्क, it may be said in reply that the texts are permanent statements of facts which have nothing to do with the gift or no gift.

विहितप्रतिषेधो वा ॥ ९ । ४ । ३७ ॥

विहितप्रतिषेधः prohibition of a practice sanctioned , वा on the other hand.

37. Or it may be a prohibition of a sanctioned practice.

The author says that these texts may be in order to prohibit a practice that may have been sanctioned by some other school. There might be a school of मीमांसकs who might be maintaining driving off the calf by repeating a यजुर्मन्त्र at the time of milking a cow.

वर्जने गुणभावित्वात्तदुक्तप्रतिषेधात्स्यात्कारणात्केवला-
शनम् ॥ ९ । ४ । ३८ ॥

वर्जने in prohibition ; गुणभावित्वात् by reason of its being subordinate ; तदुक्तप्रतिषेधात् by reason of the said prohibition , स्यात् is , कारणात् by reason ; केवलाशनम् only diet.

38. In prohibition by reason of its being subordinate and by reason of the said prohibition; only (simple) diet by this reason (is allowed).

The author further develops his own view and explains it fully. When milk is prohibited, it means the prohibition of rice cooked in milk. When a physician prohibits a patient not to take milk, the rice cooked in milk is necessarily prohibited, the milk being subordinate. The simple diet is no doubt allowed. We know that under the Hindu system of medicine, no milk is allowed to a patient

व्रतधर्माच्छलेपवत् ॥ ९ । ४ । ३९ ॥

स्वधर्मात् by reason of observance of a vow ; च and ; केपचत् like food.

39. And by reason of the observance of a vow like the (abstinence from certain kinds of) food.

The objector apparently supports our author and says, why do you cite the example of a patient? Take the illustration of a religious student who is prohibited to take the meat diet. He is not to take the food which is supplied by the same spoon along with flesh, similarly when milk is prohibited, the rice cooked in milk is also prohibited:

रसप्रतिषेधो वा पुरुषधर्मत्वात् ॥ ६ । ४ । ४० ॥

रसप्रतिषेधः the prohibition of the juice ; वा on the other hand , पुरुषधर्मत्वात् ably reason of being the duty of a man

40 On the other hand, the prohibition of the juice (of flesh) is by reason of its being the duty of a man.

The author says that the way in which you explain the prohibition is not proper. In the case of the prohibition of flesh to a religious student some "invisible effect is in view and therefore even the soup or any other article which is in contact with it is prohibited, but the prohibition relating to milk is with a view to prevent any disorder of the bodily humours such as bile or phlegm. The result is that the procedure relating to gift should not be performed on the boiled rice in milk but only the procedure relating to प्रणीता : e. cleaning &c should be performed

Adhikaraṇa X 1 sūtra 41 42 dealing with the subject that in अम्युदयेति the procedure relating to gift applies to curd and milk

अम्युदये दौहापनयः स्वधर्मा स्यात्प्रवृत्तत्वात् ॥ ६ । ४ । ४१ ॥

अम्युदये in अम्युदयेति , दौहापनयः transference of milking ; स्वधर्मा its own procedure ; स्यात् is , प्रवृत्तत्वात् by reason of being commenced.

41. In an अम्युदयेति, when there is transference of milking, its own procedure applies, because it has been commenced.

There is a text विवाएन प्रजया पशुभिरर्जयति वर्जयत्यस्यात्तृणं यस्य हविर्निरुतं पुरस्ताच्चंद्रमाश्चम्युदेतिज्जेधातंडुलान् विभजेत् मध्यमास्तानग्नये द्वात्रेपुगेडाशमष्टाकपालानिर्वपेत् येस्थविष्टास्तानिद्राय प्रदात्रे दधंश्चक्रं येणष्टास्तान् विष्णवेऽपि विष्टाष्टतेचक्रं । तै. सं. २।५।५२ "Certainly his children and animals will decrease and his enemies will increase, if the moon rises when he has already consecrated the offering, he shall divide the rice in three portions; he shall offer the middle class of them baked on eight pans to Agni, the giver, he shall offer the grossest of them boiled in curd to इन्द्र the giver; he shall offer the most minute of them boiled in milk to विष्णु, the dweller in cattle."

A sacrificer under a mistaken belief of अनावस्या commences a द्यौः sacrifice but moon rises in the morning and is thus compelled not to perform the दशैवाग, his animals and children die and enemies increase. The priest commences the दशैवाग on the next day and on account of the moon the rice intended for the former god is transferred to another god. This has been explained at length in chap VI. (see at p. 355.) Now the question is, what is the procedure relating to दध्नेचरु and मूलेचरु? (i e. rice boiled in curd or boiled in milk.) Does the प्रदेयधर्म or प्रणीताधर्म apply? According to the view expressed in the preceding अधिकरण, the procedure relating to gift does not apply to rice boiled in curd or milk. The author says that as the sacrifice has already been commenced, it is only a transfer of a deity, so its own procedure will apply. The milk or curd therein is intended for the offering, the procedure of gift, therefore, applies.

शृतोपदेशाच्च ॥ ६ । ४ । ४२ ॥

शृतोपदेशात् by reason of the direction of "boiled", च and

42. And by reason of the direction of 'boiled.'

The author relies on the लिंग argument. He says that the text uses the word शृत which means boiled in milk with the ready rice; it is not like पयसिचरु.

Adhikaraṇa XII sūtras 43-44 dealing with the subject that the procedure relating to gift does not apply to curd and milk in a पशुकामेष्टि.

अपनयो वार्थान्तरे विधानाच्चरूपयोवत् ॥ ६ । ४ । ४३ ॥

अपनयः transfer; वा on the other hand; अर्थान्तरे in a different object; विधानात् by being laid down, चरूपयोवत् like boiled rice in milk.

43. On the other hand there is a transfer by reason of ordaining it for a different object like the boiled rice.

There is a पशुकामेष्टि, in connection with it, it is said "यः पशुकामः स्यात् सोऽनावस्यामिष्ठा वत्सानपाकध्यात् । येनोदिष्ठास्तान्मन्ये सनिमतेष्टाकपास्त्रिर्नर्षपेष्टु । वे मध्यमास्तान् विष्णुः शेषिषिष्टायश्रुतेचरु । येनविष्ठास्तानिद्रायप्रदात्रे दध्नेचरु" "One who is desirous of cattle should drive off calves after performing a sacrifice on the new moon day".

"Let him offer the minutest of them baked on eight pans to Agni, the donor, the middle one boiled in milk to Viṣṇu, the dweller in cattle, and the grossest of them boiled in curd to Indra, the giver."

The question is, which procedure applies? whether that of adhikaraṇa XI or Adhikaraṇa X, in other words whether the प्रदेयधर्म or प्रणीताधर्म applies? Apparently the present text is not different from the one discussed in adhiḥikarṇa XI and the principle laid down there will, therefore, apply but our author says that there is a change of principle, because the object is entirely different: in the preceding अधिकरण as we have seen the sacrifice had been already commenced but it was diverted to avert the evil effect of certain error: so the procedure could not be changed. There the milk and curd were for gift, so the procedure could not be changed by the change of deities. On the contrary in the present case the sacrifice is commenced afresh and is with a certain object, so the principle laid down in अधिकरण X i.e. 'यदसिद्धं' applies and प्रणीताधर्म will govern it.

लक्षणार्था शृतश्रुतिः ॥ ६ । ४ । ४४ ॥

लक्षणार्था for the purpose of pointing out, शृतश्रुतिः the word शृत 'boiled'

44. The word शृत is for pointing out.

The author says that the word शृत is used in the same sense as in the preceding अधिकरण (see sūtra 42), but this is with a view to indicate the substance i.e. the boiled rice.

Adhiḥikarṇa XIII. Sūtras 45-50 dealing with the non-performance of प्रदेयधर्म on the milk.

अयणानां त्वपूर्वत्वात्प्रदानार्थविधानं स्यात् ॥ ६ । ४ । ४५ ॥

अयणानां of boiled milk, तु on the other hand; त्वपूर्वत्वात् by reason of the extraordinary principle, प्रदानार्थे for the purpose of gift, विधानं command; स्यात् is.

45. On the other hand, by reason of the extraordinary principle, the injunction relating to milk is for gift

In a व्युत्तिष्टोम it is said, ययसामैत्रावरुणं धीणाति । सक्तुमिर्मथिनंधावाग्मिर्होति योजनंहिरण्येन शुक्रमाज्येन गार्गीवत् "He boils milk for Mitra and Varuṇa. With parched grain मथी, with grain हारियोजन, with gold शुक्र and with ghee गार्गीवत्"

The question is, whether the प्रदेयधर्म or प्रणीताधर्म applies to the milk. The milk is mixed with सोम and heated and then it is offered to मैत्रावरुण. The objector says that the invisible effect is produced by the mixture of milk with soma and then it is offered to the deity; the procedure relating to gift, therefore, applies to it.

गुणो वा अयणार्थत्वात् ॥ ६ । ४ । ४६ ॥

गुणः subordinate, अयणार्थत्वात् by reason of being for mixture.

46. On the other hand, it is subordinate by reason of its being for mixture.

The author says that you are mistaken, the milk is for the purpose of mixing it with soma juice

अनिर्देशाच्च ॥ ९ । ४ । ४७ ॥

अनिर्देशाच्च by reason of there being no direction ; च and

47. And by reason of there being no direction.

The author gives a further reason that it is not said that the milk is to be offered to the god The milk is not connected with the deity.

अतेश्च तत्प्रधानत्वात् ॥ ९ । ४ । ४८ ॥

अतेश्च: according to the Veda, च and ; तत्प्रधानत्वात् by reason of that being principal.

48. And that being the principal according to the Vedas.

The author gives another reason in support of his view ; in the Vedio text, the soma is principal.

अर्थवादश्च तदर्थत्वात् ॥ ९ । ४ । ४९ ॥

अर्थवादः, अर्थवाद , तदर्थत्वात् for the object.

49. And the अर्थवाद is for that object.

The author says that the praise is also with the object of mixture with सोम. As for instance समिन्त्रोऽवौत्पयसैवमेसामग्नीणम् "The god मित्र said, boil milk with soma for me " It is an अर्थवाद , it means that the soma juice is to be mixed with milk ; the chief thing, is therefore, सोम juice.

संस्कारं प्रति भावाच्च तस्मादप्यप्रधानम् ॥ ९ । ४ । ५० ॥

संस्कारं purificatory rite ; प्रति towards, for , भावाच्च being, च and ; तस्मात् therefore , अपि also , अप्रधानं not principal , स्यात् is.

50 And being for the purificatory rite, it is, therefore, not principal.

The author says that the milk is for the purpose of making a mixture of soma by heating it, it is, therefore, not principal. The procedure of gift namely purchasing &c., which apply to soma does not apply to the milk which is used as mixture with soma juice.

Adhikarapa XIV Sūtras 51 55 dealing with the subject that in an अश्वमेध there is a separate sacrifice by the sentence "ईशानायपरस्वत" &c.,

पर्यग्निकृतानामुत्सर्गे तादर्थ्यमुपधानवत् ॥ ९ । ४ । ५१ ॥

पर्यग्निकृतानाम् of those that have been taken round the fire ; उत्सर्गं relinquishment , तादर्थ्यम् being for that purpose , उपधानवत् like placing near

51. In relinquishment of those that have been taken round the fire, they are for that object like placing near.

There is a text in connection with अश्वमेध "ईशानायपरस्वत आकमने" अश्वमेध

३१२८. "He brings a deer for sacrifice to ईशान" In the model sacrifice it is said "पर्व्यग्निं कृतान् आख्यातुनत्सृजति" "They relinquish the wild animals that have been taken round the fire". The question is whether the touching of the wild animals is for relinquishment or it is a prohibition of the remaining act. The reply of the objector is that taking of the animals round the fire is with a view to relinquish it. For example, चरु is placed near, "एतच्छुद्धसाक्षादन्नं यएचरुं एनंचरुपदधाति" "It is certainly a visible food, he is चरु, he who places it near." चरु is therefore, for placing near.

शेषप्रतिषेधो वाऽर्थाभावादिडान्तवत् ॥ ८ । ४ । ५२ ॥

शेषप्रतिषेधः prohibition of the remaining act, वा on the other hand, अर्थाभावात् by reason of the want of purpose, इडान्तवत् like the end of इडा.

52. On the other hand, it is a prohibition of the remaining act by reason of the want of purpose like the end of इडा.

The author's reply is that it is a prohibition of the remaining act, because no purpose is served by mere touching. For example, in an आतिथ्या there is इडाति which is omitted. The result is that all those acts which are performed after पर्व्यग्निकरण and before relinquishment are to be omitted.

पूर्वत्वाच्च शब्दस्य संस्थापयतीति चाप्रवृत्तेनोप-
पद्यते ॥ ८ । ४ । ५३ ॥

पूर्वत्वात् by reason of the word having commencement: वा on the other hand, च and; संस्थापयति of the word 'he finishes', च and; अप्रवृत्तेन in an act which is not commenced, उपपद्यते applies.

53. And by reason of the word having commencement; 'he finishes' does not apply to an act which is not commenced.

The author says that when an act has been commenced, it is generally finished. The word finished, will not apply to an act which is not commenced. This argument also shows that it is intended as prohibitory of the subsidiary acts.

प्रवृत्तेर्ज्ञहेतुत्वात्प्रतिषेधे संस्काराणामकर्म स्यात्तत्कारित्वादाया प्रयाजप्रतिषेधे ग्रहणमाज्यस्य ॥ ८ । ४ । ५४ ॥

प्रवृत्तेः of the application ज्ञहेतुत्वात् being for the sacrifice; प्रतिषेधे on prohibition संस्काराणां of the subsidiary acts अकर्म non performance; स्यात् is, तत्कारित्वादाय by reason of being for it, दया as, प्रयाजप्रतिषेधे on the prohibition of प्रयाज, ग्रहणम् taking, आज्यस्य of ghee.

54. Of the application 'being for the sacrifice, (and) on the prohibition of the purificatory rite, there is non-performance by reason of its being for it ; as the taking of ghee on the prohibition of प्रयाज .

The author says that the purificatory rite is for the sacrifice ; if there were no sacrifice, there would be no subordinate acts in order to achieve its performance. Just as ghee is for प्रयाज offering and if there were no प्रयाज offering, there will be no ghee taken, so here in the present case no subordinate act will be performed, the object is merely the relinquishment of the animal.

क्रिया वा स्यादवच्छेदादकर्म सर्वहानं स्यात् ॥ ९ । ४ । ५५ ।

क्रिया action , वा on the other hand , स्यात् is , अवच्छेदात् by reason of separation , अकर्म non-performance , सर्वहानं loss of all , स्यात् is

55. On the other hand, there is an action by reason of the separation ; there is non-performance of all subordinate acts, if there is non-performance of the principal act.

The author further explains the view clearly. If there were no sacrifice there would be no subordinate purificatory act. So there is an act before the पर्व्यग्निकरण along with all the subsidiary acts. The prohibition, therefore, relates to all acts subsequent to पर्व्यग्निकरण and before relinquishment.

Adhikāṣa xv. sūtras 56-60 dealing with the subject that a separate action is laid down by 'आज्येनशेषं तस्यापयति'

आज्यसंस्थाप्रतिनिधिः स्यादव्योत्सर्गात् ॥ ९ । ४ । ५६ ।

आज्यसंस्था finishing with ghee, प्रतिनिधिः substitute , स्यात् is ; व्योत्सर्गात् by reason of relinquishing the substance.

56. The finishing with ghee is a substitute by reason of relinquishing the substance.

There is a text in the model sacrifice, "त्वाहं पक्षीवतमीकुरमेत" ; पर्व्यग्निकृतं पक्षीवतमुत्सृजति , again आज्येनशेषं तस्यापयति " He brings an animal pertaining to पक्षीवत and consecrated to त्वहा for a sacrifice " "He relinquishes a पक्षीवत animal after taking it round the fire " "He finishes the remaining act with clarified butter.

The question is, whether ghee is a substitute of the former substance or this is a separate act in itself. The reply of the objector is that it is a substitute because when the main substance is relinquished in the act, the ghee is substituted in its place to complete it.

समाप्तिवचनात् ॥ ९ । ४ । ५७ ॥

समाप्तिवचनात् by reason of the word 'completing.'

57. By reason of the word 'completing'

The objector gives a reason in support of his view, he says that the word संस्थापयति shows that he finishes by ghee. So it is a substitute

चादना वा कर्मोन्सर्गादन्यैः स्यादविशिष्टत्वात् ॥६१॥५८॥

चोदना command, injunction, वा on the other hand, कर्मोन्सर्गात् by reason of the completion of the act, अन्यैः by others, स्यात् is, अविशिष्टत्वात् by reason of there being nothing special

58. On the other hand, it is an injunction; by reason of the completion of the act, there is another separate act, because there is nothing special in it

The author says that it is a separate act. When the former act is finished, the second act is commenced. There is nothing special in 'संस्थापयति', it is not distinguishable from आलभति or निर्वपति.

अनिज्यां च वनस्पतैः प्रसिद्धाऽन्तेन दर्शयति ॥ ६१॥५९॥

अनिज्यां non-sacrifice, च and, वनस्पतैः of the herbs, प्रसिद्धा well known, तेन from it, दर्शयति appears

59. Of the herb, it is well known that it is non-sacrifice, from it also, it appears.

The author supports his view from the लिङ्ग argument. The herbs are well known as अनिज्या.

“यत्त्वष्टारं च वनस्पतिमावाहयस्वथवैनौयज्यसि त्वाष्ट्रो नवमो प्रयाजो जथाधानस्पत्या वृथम्यत्रैवेताविष्टीविद्यात्” If thou bringest त्वष्टा and herbs or if thou sacrificest both of them, the ninth day is of त्वष्टृ with the प्रयाज offerings and the tenth day is by herbs, here know these two oblations.” It shows the absence of वनस्पतीज्या. When the remaining act is finished, the herb is offered in his and if the preceding act is finished, it is not offered. When the वनस्पतीज्या is omitted, it shows the completion of the preceding act. This shows that it is a separate act. Similarly in the present case it is a separate act.

संस्था तद्वत्तत्वात्स्यात् ॥ ६१॥६०॥

संस्था the completion, तद्वत्तत्वात् by reason of the deity of the same, स्यात् is.

60. The completion is by reason of the deity of the same.

The author says that the completion by ghee on which the objector has insisted in sūtra 56 is by reason of the common god of the preceding act which was commenced, namely, the पाद्रीवत and was to be completed by a separate act, viz., by the offering of ghee.

CHAPTER X.

PĀDA I.

We have seen in the foregoing chapters that the प्रकृति is the model sacrifice, and the विकृति is the modified sacrifice, that certain details are transferred to the modified sacrifice and this transference in general was described in chapter VII. In chapter VIII, it was described which particular sacrifice was the model of a modified sacrifice. When the principle of transference called व्यतिदेश by the मीमांसा was fully established in chapters VII, and VIII, it was described in chapter IX, how certain details had to be modified in order to suit the occasion, this doctrine is called ऊह or adaptation. In chapter X, we have to see what details of the model sacrifice are unnecessary in the modified sacrifice and are, therefore, to be omitted. This doctrine is called the doctrine of वाच or omission, or suspension; it is just the opposite of ऊह. Where ऊह is necessary, the doctrine of वाच does not apply. It is divided into 3 main divisions according to आहदीपिका-

In other words, suspension is by implication, by express text and by prohibition. Others have divided it into प्राप्तवाच and अप्राप्तवाच. Now let us see how this principle of suspension is explained in the present chapter.

Adhikarapa 1 sūtras 1-3 dealing with the subject of suspension of those details of the model sacrifice which are of no purpose in the modified sacrifice.

विधेः प्रकरणान्तरेऽतिदेशात्सर्वकर्म स्यात् ॥ १७१११ ॥

विधेः of the command ; प्रकरणान्तरे in the context of others ; अतिदेशात् by reason of transfer , सर्वकर्म the whole action ; स्यात् is.

1. By reason of the transfer of the command in the other context, the whole action should be performed.

The objector says that when the proceedings of the model sacrifice, are transferred to the modified sacrifice, it means the transfer of the whole action.

अपि वाऽभिधानसंस्कारद्रव्यमर्थे क्रियेत तादर्थ्यात्

॥ १० । १ । २ ॥

अपि वा on the other hand , अभिधानसंस्कारद्रव्यम् the mantras, the purificatory rites and the substance , अर्थे in an object , क्रियेत is done ; तादर्थ्यात् by reason of their being for it

2. On the other hand the mantras, purificatory rite and substance are with a purpose by reason of their being for it.

The author says that the subordinate acts such as pounding and cleaning are performed on a substance to produce a certain effect in the model sacrifice , if there is no necessity of performing such act in the modified sacrifice, the act will not be performed by reason of the inapplicability of the चोदक text.

तेषामप्रत्यक्षविशिष्टत्वात् ॥ १० । १ । ३ ॥

तेषाम् their ; अप्रत्यक्षविशिष्टत्वात् being specialized by the invisible effect.

3. By reason of their being specialised by the invisible effect.

The author gives a reason in support of his view; he says that the मन्त्र, संस्कार, क्रिया and द्रव्य are laid down by the text in the model sacrifice to produce certain invisible effect , they are, therefore, necessary ; but when any of them is not necessary in the modified sacrifice, the principle of वाच comes into play. As cooking of कृष्णल, though unnecessary, is done under a special text "स्वयंदितवर्हिर्भवति" "The self-cut grass is used" In such a case the material of the model sacrifice is not imported. स्वयंकृतावेदिर्भवति" "The self-constructed altar is used" In such a case no ground is dug and prepared for an altar , स्वयंशीर्षांशिका भवति "The branch cut by one's self is used;" in such a case, a sword is unuscessary. In this view the accompanying ceremonies such as reciting of the mantras are omitted.

The same अविकार्य is explained differently and is called "dealing with suspension of pounding of कृष्णरु" "

There is a प्राजापत्य ceremony in which चरु is offered. There is a text in that connection "प्राजापत्यं चरुं निर्वपेच्छतकृष्णरुमायुष्कामः" "One who is desirous of long life, shall offer hundred pieces of gold weighing one ratti each in the shape of चरु consecrated to प्राजापति"

In a model sacrifice, it is laid down "ग्रीहीनवहति" "he pounds the wild rice" So accordingly, removal of husk by pounding the कृष्णरु should be done; but there is no necessity of doing so, because there is no husk, similarly boiling or cooking of it, will not be performed. The same argument of the objector and the author as discussed above will apply.

The अविकार्य is interpreted in a third way and is called "dealing with the suspension of invocation of विष्णु in boiled rice consecrated to विश्वदेवास"

There is, a text in connection with काम्येष्टि. "वैश्वदेवं चरुं निर्वपेद्वातुः स्वदेव । तं चर्हिर्वदं कृत्वा शम्यया स्फेप नम्युहेत् । इदमहममुं चामुं चम्युहामीति । यं द्विष्यात्-प्यायन्यदधो विमृशेद्य स्फेप आशिक्षयेत् तद्विष्णवे उरुक्रमायावयेत्" ॥ "One who has an enemy, shall offer the boiled rice consecrated to विश्वदेवास. Placing it on grass, let him divide it with the cudgel and sword, saying 'I divide this and that'. Thinking one whom he dislikes, let him offer the boiled rice that falls down or sticks to the wooden sword, to विष्णु of great strides."

The चरु is to destroy an enemy. In it some rite in addition to आग्नेय पुरोडाश which is the model, is performed. The remnants of the पुरोडाश after the sacrifice are placed on the grass, they are divided into 4 parts by the hand for the purpose of being eaten up by the priests; 'this is for ब्रह्मा', this is for अथर्व, this is for होता and this is for अग्नीध्रः. These different portions are thus ear-marked. Here in the present case on account of the cruel nature of the act, the division instead of being made by the hand, is done by means of the thin-edged cudgel and sword, with a mantra इदमिदमहममुं चामुं चम्युहामि "I divide this and this, the share of ब्रह्मा"; it is, therefore, an additional act. At that time, if by chance the चरु falls down on the ground or sticks to the cudgel, then that fallen or stuck चरु should be offered to विष्णु and at the time of division and offering, the enemy should be kept in view. In the वैश्वदेव ceremony, at the time of falling or sticking of the ऋ, the वैष्णवयाग is prescribed. In वैश्वदेव, the आघार and प्रयाज which are the subordinate acts will benefit the वैष्णवयाग and will not be separately performed. In it there is an invocation mantra “विश्वाश्चदेवानावह” “Bring all the gods.” In विष्णुयाग the invocation मंत्र is “विष्णुमावह” “Bring Viṣṇu” In the वैश्वदेव during the interval of सामधेनी and प्रयाज, the होता reads the invocation formula; but that is the time to invoke the वैश्वदेव but not विष्णु, because विष्णुयाग is performed at the time of falling or sticking of the ऋ after the performance of प्रयाज, अरिष्टहोम and division of पुरोडाश cake. So for the reasons given above, there is no necessity of invoking विष्णु when विश्वदेव has been invoked, it is therefore, unnecessary and improper. The same arguments of the objector and the author apply and the conclusion is that invocation of विष्णु is omitted.

Adhikaraṇa II dealing with the subject that in दीक्षणीया &c. the initial ceremony (आरंभणीया) is omitted.

इष्टिरारम्भसंयोगादङ्गभूतान्निवर्त्तितारम्भस्य प्रधानसं-
योगात् ॥ १० । १ । ४ ॥

इष्टिः sacrifice ; आरंभसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the beginning ; अङ्गभूतात् by reason of its being a part ; निवर्त्तित is suspended ; आरंभस्य of the beginning , प्रधानसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the principal.

4. The sacrifice by reason of the connection with the beginning and by reason of its being a part, is suspended because the beginning is connected with the principal.

There is a उयोतिष्टोम sacrifice “उयोतिष्टोमेनस्वर्गकामोयजेत्” “Let one desirous of heaven perform a उयोतिष्टोम.” In it there are many proceedings belonging to दशैर्दशमासयाग, its models , amongst them, दीक्षणीया is one “आग्नावैष्णवमेकादशकपालनिर्वपेत्” “Let him offer a cake baked on eleven earthen pans to Agni and Vishnu”.

In the model sacrifice there is an आरंभणीयेष्टि “आग्नावैष्णवमेकादशकपालनिर्वपेदृशपूर्णमासाधारममाणः सरस्वतैर्वचं सरस्वते द्वादशकपालमग्नये भुग्निने अष्टाकपालनिर्वपेद्यः कामयेतभग्यत्वाद् स्यात्” “Let one who commences full and new moon sacrifices, offer cakes baked on eleven earthen pans to Agni and Viṣṇu, boiled rice to सरस्वती, cakes baked on twelve earthen pans to सरस्वत् ; one who desires that he may become fortunate and owner of corn shall offer cakes baked on eight earthen pans to the fortunate Agni".

The question is, should the आरंभवीदेहि be performed in दीक्षणीया thus transferred to ज्योतिषोम? The reply of the author is in the negative because the इहि is a prefatory ceremony only and when दीक्षणीया has become a part of ज्योतिषोम which is principal, the introductory ceremony of the ज्योतिषोम having been performed, there will be no occasion for performing the prefatory ceremony of the दीक्षणीया.

Adhikarapa III dealing with the subject that in अनुयज्ञ &c. the आरंभवीदेहि is suspended.

प्रधानाच्चान्यसंयुक्तात्सर्वारम्भान्नित्तैतानङ्गत्वात्

॥ १०।१।५ ॥

प्रधानात् being principal ; च and ; अन्यसंयुक्तात् being connected with the other , सर्वारंभात् by reason of the beginning to all ; नित्तैतान् are suspended ; अङ्गत्वात् by reason of there being no parts.

5. And being principal and connected with another and by reason of the beginning to all, they are suspended, because they have no parts.

There is a राजसूययज्ञ "राजसूयेनस्वाराज्यकामो यजेत" "Let one desirous of self-sovereignty perform a राजसूय. In it there are ists, animal, soma, grass sacrifices , the question is, whether in अनुमति which pertain to इहि, the introductory ceremony is to be performed or not. The reply of the author is in the negative ; though they are principal sacrifices, yet being with another principal sacrifice they are omitted. The ज्योतिषोम is also said to be the beginning by reason of accomplishing all desires ; the अग्निहोम is also said to be the first; so every one is to be the first and the अन्नमसि is also the first; so there can not be an आरंभवीदेहि.

Adhikarapa IV Sūtras 6-8 dealing with the subject that the आरंभवीदेहि is suspended in आरंभवीया.

तस्यां तु स्यात्प्रयाजवत् ॥ १०।१।६ ॥

तस्यां in it ; तु on the other hand ; स्यात् is ; प्रयाजवत् like प्रयाज.

6. On the other hand, there is in it like प्रयाज.

See the quotation under the commentary on सूत्र 4. (at p. 602) The question is, whether आरंभवीया is to be performed in the आरंभवीया. The reply of the objector is that it should be performed just as प्रवाजः are performed,

न वाङ्मभूतत्वात् ॥ १० । १ । ७ ॥

नवा not so ; भूतत्वात् by reason of its being a part.

7. Not so, by reason of its being a part.

The author says no, the आरंभणीया should not be performed in आरंभणीया because it is itself a part of दर्शपूर्णमास, it is a prefatory ceremony of the दर्शपूर्णमास, there can not be another prefatory ceremony in it.

एकवाक्यत्वाच्च ॥ १० । १ । ८ ॥

एकवाक्यत्वात् by reason having a unity of sentence , च and.

8. And by reason of having a unity of sentence.

The author gives another argument in support of his view , if you hold that आरंभणीया is to be performed in an आरंभणीया, it will split the unity of a sentence which is always to be shunned by a मीमांसक.

1. Adhikaraṇa V. dealing with the subject that in the case of a peg, offering pertaining to यूप is suspended.

कर्म च द्रव्यसंयोगार्थमर्थाभावान्निवर्तत तादर्थ्यं श्रु-
तिसंयोगात् ॥ १० । १ । ९ ॥

कर्म ceremony , च and , द्रव्यसंयोगार्थम् with an object in connection with the substance ; अर्थाभावात् by reason of the failure of that object , निवर्तत is suspended , तादर्थ्यं is for it , श्रुतिसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the Vedic text.

9. And the ceremony is with an object in connection with the substance and is suspended by reason of the failure of that object ; it is for it by reason of the connection with the Vedic text.

In a ज्योतिष्टोम sacrifice there is an अग्नीषोमीय animal “योदीक्षितो यदग्नीषोमीयं पशुमालभते” “One who is initiated brings an अग्नीषोमीय animal for a sacrifice.” In connection with it, it is laid down , “यूप मच्छेप्यता होनव्यम् । नदि दीक्षितस्याग्नौ जुहोति । आज्यं चारुणिं चादाय यूपस्यांतिके अग्निमथित्वा यूपान् जुहोति” “Let one desirous of cutting and making a sacrificial post, perform a homa ; he shall not make an offering in the fire of the initiated: taking clarified butter and pieces of wood and having produced fire by friction near the sacrificial pillar, he shall offer oblations pertaining to the sacrificial post."

In connection with सायस्क, it is said "ललेवालीयूपोभवति" There is no sacrificial post but only the peg to which a bullock is tied. Now the question is, whether the offering in connection with यूप is to be made in such a case where a peg is used to tie an animal. The reply of our author is in the negative, because the offering is for the purpose of यूप and when that is absent, no offering is to be made, because a यूप is separately prepared and the peg which has already been made, is used as यूप, so there is no necessity of the offering in connection with the sacrificial post.

Adhikarṇa VI. Sūtras 10-13 dealing with the subject that in a सायस्क, the offering to pillar is suspended.

स्थाणौ तु देशमात्रत्वादनिरुक्तिः प्रतीयेत ॥१०॥१०॥

स्थाणौ in a pillar, तु on the other hand, देशमात्रत्वाद् by reason of the restriction to the locality; अनिरुक्तिरु no suspension, प्रतीयेत appears.

10 On the other hand, in a pillar by reason of the restriction to the locality, it appears that there is no suspension.

In connection with the अग्नीषोमीय animal, there is a text "स्याप्यस्याप्यादुतिर्बुद्धेति" "In the case of a pillar, he offers oblations relating to the pillar." The question is, whether स्याप्यादुति is to be performed in a सायस्क or not. The reply of the objector is that it should be performed, because it directly benefits the ceremony आरादुपकारक When the wood is removed from a tree for the purpose of a यूप, the remaining portion of the tree from the root upwards is called स्याप्य, a certain ceremony in connection with it is performed and offering is made "वनस्पते शतवृक्षो विरोहइत्यामश्चनेबुद्धेति" तै० सं० ६३।३।३. "He offers oblations in the lower part of the tree saying, arise, O ! Lord of the forest with hundred offshoots."

अपि वा शेषभूतत्वात्संस्कारः प्रतीयेत ॥ १० । १ । ११ ॥

अपि वा on the other hand, शेषभूतत्वाद् by reason of being subsidiary action, तत्संस्कारः its purificatory rite; प्रतीयेत appears.

11. On the other hand, by reason of its being a subsidiary action, it appears to be a purificatory rite.

The author says that it is not आरादुपकारक but only a सनिपातोपकारक (see at p. 186) because it appears to be a purificatory rite in connection with यूप "यूपमच्छेप्यतास्याप्यादुतिःकर्तव्या" "One desirous of cutting a sacrificial post shall offer oblation pertaining to a pillar." The rite is not in connection with the स्थाणु, but it is for the purpose of द्रुप. When the wood is separated from the tree, the rite is performed to sanctify the pillar, just as a garland worn by a preceptor is placed in a holy place by the students because it was worn by their spiritual preceptor; so here also the ceremony is with the object of द्रुप. It does not, therefore, directly benefit the sacrifice but only indirectly. So when there is no द्रुप, no ceremony in connection with स्थाणु is necessary.

समाख्यानं च तद्वत् ॥ १० । १ । १२ ॥

समाख्यानं, समाख्या naming, च and , तद्वत् like it.

12. And the समाख्या is like it.

The author now relies on the समाख्या argument; स्थाणुवाहुति is वहीतत्पुरुष i. e. the offering to the pillar, when there is no द्रुप, there is no pillar and the वाहुति in connection with it, therefore, fails.

मन्त्रवर्णश्च तद्वत् ॥ १० । १ । १३ ॥

मन्त्रवर्ण inference from the text, च and , तद्वत् like it.

13. And the inference from the text is like it.

The author relies on the लिंग argument "अतस्त्वद्देशवन्मण्डपतेष्टवक्ष्योविरोह । R. V. III. 8. 11, T. S. I. 3. 5. 1; T. B. 1. 2. 1-5. "Therefore. O! god, the lord of the forest, fructify with hundred-fold branches."

The मन्त्र is also in honour of द्रुप which is separated from the tree. This also shows that this ceremony is a purificatory rite and सविपत्त्वो- क्तम्. It ought not to be performed on a peg in connection with सायक.

Adhikarana VII sutras 14-15. dealing with the subject that the उषाम प्रयाज is a purificatory

प्रयाजे च तन्न्यायत्वात् ॥ १० । १ । १४ ॥

प्रयाजे in a प्रयाज, च and , तन्न्यायत्वात् by reason of the same argument.

14. And in प्रयाज, by reason of the same argument

In दर्शपूर्णमासयाग, there is उषामप्रयाज and in connection with it, it is said "स्वाहृत्कारमवाहि" "He offers स्वाहा oblation." The question is, whether it is आराधनकारक or only a purificatory rite like the स्थाणुवाहुति mentioned in the preceding अधिकारम्. In प्रयाज, ghee offerings are made to different deities, स्वाहाग्निं, स्वाहा सोमं, स्वाहा प्रजापतिं, स्वाहासर्वदेवीं "Swāhā to Agni, Swāhā to Soma, Swāhā to Lord of the universe, Swāhā to Agni and Soma."

The reply of the author is that as स्वाहादुर्गि is a संस्कारकर्म, so is स्वाहा. It is only to remember the deities that the different आहुतियाः (offerings) are made; the invisible effect is produced from the principal sacrifice, the प्रजा offering being only a subordinate act.

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ १० । १ । १५ ॥

लिङ्गदर्शनम् by seeing the लिङ्ग, च and

15 And by seeing the लिङ्ग.

The author relies on the लिङ्ग argument and says that the same inference is also from the text "स्वाहाग्निं, स्वाहा सोमं, स्वाहाप्रजापतिं, स्वाहासर्वदेवीं स्वाहापूषं" "Swāhā to Agni, Swāhā to Soma, Swāhā to Son-god, Swāhā to Saraswatī, Swāhā to पूषा. These texts show that it is a purificatory rite of the deities. The principle of वाच will, therefore, apply.

Adhvaryu VIII sūtras 16-18 dealing with the आरादुष्कारक nature of the अग्निर्वायं

तथाज्यभागान्निरपीति चेत् ॥ १० । १ । १६ ॥

तथा similarly, आज्यभाग the ghee offering, अग्नि, fire, अपि also, इतिचेत् if you say.

16. "And in the same way that the offering is to अग्नि also," if you say.

The objector says that in the same way the ghee offering to अग्नि, e. अग्निभाग is also governed by the same principle as laid down in the preceding अधिकरण. It is also a संस्कारकर्म of a deity. It is just like प्रजा offering.

व्यपदेशाद्देवतान्तरम् ॥ १० । १ । १७ ॥

व्यपदेशम् by reason of definition, देवतान्तरम् the other deity

17. By reason of designation, the other deity.

The author says that the principal deity is अग्नि and the other deities come under him अग्निमग्निमावहोमेमनावह अग्निमावह "O! Agni, bring Soma, bring Agni." So we see the god अग्नि is the principal deity. So the offering to him benefits him directly, it is आरादुष्कारक

समत्वाच्च ॥ १० । १ । १८ ॥

समत्वात् by reason of equality ; and.

18. By reason of equality.

The author relies on another argument in support of his view. He says that the sacrifice and deity are on equal footing ; the sacrifice is in honour of the deity , there can be no sacrifice without a deity, So there is a reciprocal relationship with the sacrifice and the deity “अग्नीषोमीयस्य यदाधारी चक्षुषीचाएनी यदाज्यभागौ यक्ष्मयाजा इज्यन्ते चर्मवा एतद्यज्ञस्यक्रियते चर्म यजमानस्यस्रातम्यस्य अभिभूत्यै” “These ghee offerings are the Soma libations of the sacrifice ; the portion of the ghee with which प्रयज्ञ offering is made, is like its two eyes , it serves as an armour of the sacrifice , it is an armour for the prosperity of the sacrificer's brother's son (it is an armour against the prosperity of the sacrificer's enemy)”

So the अग्निवाग confers benefit directly In this view, the principle of वाच will not apply.

Adhikarana IX sūtras 19-33 dealing with the subject that the animal cake sacrifice is purificatory of the deity

पशावपीति चेत् ॥ १० । १ । १९ ॥

पशौ in animal , अपि also , इतिचेत् If you say.

19. “In animal also” if you say.

There is an अग्नीषोमीय animal in a उपोदिष्टाव, “आसोमं बहुत्यग्निं प्रति तिष्ठति तौ सम्भवतो यजमानमसि सम्भवतो वरुणं पाशाभ्यां वा एषाभिधीयते यो दीक्षितो यदाग्नीषोमीय पशुमाह्वयते वरुणं पाशाभ्यामुच्यते” “They bring Soma with Agni ; make it stable, they (two) unite, while bringing forth a sacrificer, he is named with the traps of Varuṇa ; when he brings an अग्नीषोमीय animal to a sacrifice, he is discharged from the traps of Varuṇa.”

In that connection it is laid down, “अग्नीषोमीयस्य वपया प्रचक्ष्याग्नीषोमीयपशुपुरोडाशमनुनिर्वपति” “Having used the omentum of the अग्नीषोमीय animal, he subsequently offers cakes made of animal flesh” Now the question is, whether a पशुपुरोडाशयाग is आरादुपकारक or with the object of the purificatory rite of the deity. The reply of the objector is that the पशुपुरोडाशयाग is also governed by the principle laid down in Adhikarana VIII, because it directly benefits the sacrifice.

न तदुभूतवचनात् ॥ १० । १ । २०

न not so, तद्भूतत्वात् by reason of the word being subject to it.

20. Not so, by reason of the word being subject to it

The author expounds his view and says that you are wrong; the text "आसोमवद्व्यग्निना प्रतिविष्टति &c. is an अर्थवाद; from it, it appears that the deity of the animal is the same as that of the sacrifice. The पुरोडाशयाम by reason of the similarity of the deity, is a purificatory rite of the deity.

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ १० । १ । २१ ॥

लिङ्गदर्शनात् by seeing the लिङ्ग, च and.

21. And by seeing the लिङ्ग.

The author relies on the लिङ्ग argument and says that the inference from the text also shows that the पशुपुरोडाश is a purificatory rite of the deity "इन्द्राय वज्रिण्वृषममालमेत" "To Indra armed with thunderbolt, a bullock should be sacrificed." In the order of the पशुपुरोडाश, there are two याज्याः, "इन्द्रं स्तुहि वज्रिणं स्तोमपटं", स्तुहि शूरं वज्रिणं सुवतीक्षि."

"Distil for Indra who holds thunderbolt, and whose praise is sung by वृष्टि distil for Indra who is brave, holds thunderbolt and is of good renown," This shows the unity of the god and also that the ceremony is for the object of देवतात्स्कार.

गुणो वा स्यात्कपालवद्गुणभूतविकाराच्च ॥ १० । १ । २२ ॥

गुणः subsidiary, वा on the other hand, स्यात् is, कपालवत् like an earthen pan, गुणभूतविकारात् by reason of being a modification of the subordinate act; च and.

22. On the other hand, he is subsidiary like a pan by reason of his being a modification of the subordinate act.

The objector replies that the deity is only subordinate, the argument that the deity of पशुयाम and पुरोडाशयाम is one, does not support the view that the ceremony is a purificatory rite of the deity, because the earthen pan can be used for both winnowing the rice and for the purpose of baking the cakes, so in the same way the deities अग्नीषोम, though one and the same in पशुयाम and पुरोडाशयाम, are subordinate. In दर्शपूर्णमासयाम which are the model sacrifices, the dual deities are subordinate. The objector argues that the पशुपुरोडाश is, therefore, अराहुपकारक and is not a purificatory rite of the deity.

अपि वा शेषभूतत्वात्तत्संस्कारः प्रतीयेत स्वाहाकार-
वदङ्गानामर्थसंयोगात् ॥ १० । १ । २३ ॥

अपि वा on the other hand, शेषभूतत्वात् by reason of being a subordinate act; तत्संस्कारः its purificatory rite, प्रतीयेत appears; स्वाहाकारवत् like the word 'स्वाहा', अंगानाम् of the parts, अर्थसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the object

23. On the other hand, it appears to be a purificatory rite by reason of its being a subordinate act like स्वाहाकार, because the parts are connected with the object.

The author says that the पशुपुरोडाश is a purificatory rite, it does not directly confer benefit on the sacrifice; it is a subordinate act for the purpose of the deity, like the स्वाहाकारवाज (oblation by uttering स्वाहा) which has no direct purpose but is only a देवतासंस्कार ceremony. The subordinate acts are only for the benefit of the principal act, so they are सन्निपात्योपकारक but not भारादुपकारक. because the offering that is made, is to the deity

व्यद्वचनञ्च विप्रतिपत्तौ तदर्थत्वात् ॥ १० । १ । २४ ॥

व्यद्वचनम् the text as regards accumulation, च and, विप्रतिपत्तौ in case of difference, तदर्थत्वात् by reason of its being for it.

24. And the text as regards accumulation in case of difference, is for its object.

In a सौत्रामण्य, there is a difference of a deity i.e. the deities of the animal and पुरोडाश are different and the text about increase is construed as a purificatory rite of the deity.

" यद्बैसौत्रामण्यां व्यद्वं तदस्याः समृद्धं यदभ्यदेवत्याः पशुपुरोडाशाः भवति " "What is an increase in a सौत्रामण्य sacrifice, is its surplus and becomes the animal cakes of other deities "

So we see that the animals that are in increase are dedicated to the other deities

गुक्षेपीति चेत् ॥ १० । १ । २५ ॥

गुक्षे in a subordinate act, अपि also; इति चेत् If you say.

25. "In a subordinate act also" if you say.

The objector says that the increase according to you is not possible, if it were for the benefit of the sacrifice, but there is the same difficulty, if you hold it to be a purificatory rite of the deity.

नासंहानात्कपालवत् ॥ १० । १ । २६ ॥

न not so; नसंहानात् by reason of no loss; कपालवत् like an earthen pan.

26. Not so, by reason of no loss, like an earthen pan.

The author gives a reply to the objection, he says just as a कपाल which is used for winnowing rice is used for baking the पुरोडाश, does no harm to another कपाल; so a gift made to another deity in पशुपुरोडाश does no harm to the deity of the पशुपुरोडाश.

गृहाणाञ्च सम्प्रतिपत्तौ तद्वचनं तदर्थत्वात् ॥ १० । १ । २७ ॥

गृहाणां of the cups, च and; सम्प्रतिपत्तौ in the harmony; तद्वचनं that text, तदर्थत्वात् by reason of being for that object

27. And in the harmony of the cups, that text is for that object.

The author gives another reason in support of his view. In the सौत्राग्रयण there is the same deity of the cups of wine; in connection with it, there is a text about पुरोडाश "नैतेषां पशूनां पुरोडाशा विद्यन्ते, ग्रहपुरोडाशा ह्येते पशवः" "There are no cakes (पुरोडाश) of these animals; these animals are cakes (पुरोडाश) in the form of cups." It is said by reason of the absence of the purificatory rite of the different gods in contemplation, that the cups are the पुरोडाश. What is common in them? They are both purificatory of the deities, if the पुरोडाश is purificatory, the cups are also. So the view that it is a संस्कार is correct and is supported by the सिद्ध argument.

. गृहाभावे च तद्वचनम् ॥ १० । १ । २८ ॥

गृहाभावे in the absence of the cups; च and; तद्वचनं that text.

28. And in the absence of the cups, that text.

The author says that there is another text "नैतस्य पशोर्मह्युक्तं ति । पुरोडाश वा ने च पशुः" "There is no cup of this animal; the animal has only a cake." There are 8 sacrifices in a सौत्राग्रयण viz. आश्विन, सारस्वत and वैश्व animal sacrifices. Having described them and their पुरोडाश, the fourth चर्हस्य sacrifice is laid down. The above text occurs in that connection. In this text, it is shown that there is no cup but only the पुरोडाश. This shows that the cup and the पुरोडाश serve the same purpose and the cup is with the object of the purificatory rite of the deity. This is the author's लिङ्ग argument.

देवतायाश्च हेतुत्वं प्रसिद्धं तेन दर्शयति ॥१०११२६॥

देवतायाः of the deity ; च and , हेतुत्वं the reason , प्रसिद्धं well known , तेन from it , दर्शयति is shown.

29. And the reason of the deity is well known ; and from it, it is also shown.

There is a third लिङ्ग argument in support of the view that it is देवतासंस्कारः. There is a text 'अग्निभ्यः कामेभ्यः पशवश्चातुष्यंते कामावाग्मन्य आग्नेया पुरोडाशमवन्ति आग्नेयाहिपशवः' "The animals are sacrificed to Agni for (the accomplishment of) desires, desires are Agni, the cakes consecrated to Agni are offered ; and the animals are consecrated to Agni."

The text shows that the पुरोडाश cakes are for the deity of the animal; this leads to the conclusion that the पशुपुरोडाश is a purificatory rite of the deity.

अविरुद्धोपपत्तिरर्थापत्तेः शृतवद्भूतविकारः स्यात्

॥ १० । १ । ३० ।

अविरुद्धोपपत्तिः the application of the procedure which is not contradictory ; अर्थापत्तेः by reason of the inference ; शृतवद् like the boiled milk गुणवद्भूतविकारः subordinate modification , स्यात् is.

30. There is the application of the procedure which is not contradictory by reason of the inference, like the boiled milk, though subordinate modification.

The author meets the objection embodied in sūtra 22, where it is said that the minor details in the nature of subordinate actions do not apply to the principal sacrifice performed in honour of अग्नीषोम. The author says that the minor details of अग्नीषोम being the means, should be performed just as in शृतवद् and दध्नुश्च where though the milk and curd are intended for gift, yet the प्रणीता ceremonies are performed on them. There is, therefore, no harm in performing them.

स द्वयर्थः स्यादुभयोः श्रुतिभूतत्वाद्विप्रतिपत्तौ तादृश्या-
विकारस्वमुक्तं तस्यार्थवादत्वम् ॥ १० । १ । ३१ ॥

स it ; द्वयर्थः having double object , स्यात् is, उभयोः of both , श्रुतिभूतत्वात् by reason of the Vedic text being for it , विप्रतिपत्तौ in the conflict , तादृश्यात् by reason of its being for its object , विकारस्वम् modification , उक्तम् laid down ; तस्य its , अर्थवादत्वम् nature of अर्थवाद.

31. It has a double object by reason of the Vedic text being for it ; in this conflict, the modification is laid down for its object, and hence its nature of अर्थवाद.

The author meets another objection embodied in sūtra 22, the objection is stated thus, "in a सोत्रामणि, in the animal sacrifices known as आश्विन, सारस्वत, सुत्राम after the deities, the पुरोडाश takes known as ऐन्द्र, इन्द्र and सावित्र after the gods, are not transferred from the animal sacrifice, if the संस्कार view were correct, they would have been transferred"

To this, the reply of our author is that the object of the सोत्रामणि is two-fold, one is the purificatory rite of the god and the other is the concealment of the defect. Both the objects have been laid down by the Vedic text. In order to conceal the defect of the animal, before a different deity, there is therefore no transfer ; so the modification will be in the same context. The argument of the objector does not, therefore, favour the view that the पशुपुरोडाश confers a benefit on the sacrifice directly and the text in connection with it is by way of अर्थवाद

विप्रतिपत्तौ तासामाख्याविकारः स्यात् ॥ १० । १ । ३२ ॥

विप्रतिपत्तौ on conflict ; तासाम् their ; आख्या name , विकारः modification स्यात् is.

32. On conflict, their name is modified.

The author says in the सूत्र that the god of the पशुपुरोडाश is the same as that of the animal. If the god of the animal and the पुरोडाश be different, there will be meaninglessness. See the gods to whom the animals are sacrificed. 'आश्विनंधूमाश्वमेदे सारस्वतमेवमैन्द्रमृषमं' "He brings for a sacrifice a smoke-coloured animal consecrated to Aświns, a ram consecrated to Saraswati and a bullock consecrated to Indra."

See the text in connection with puroḍāśa (at p. 608) “द्वैत्रमेकादशकपालं निर्वपति स। वषट्कादशकपालं वारुणं दशकपालं” “He offers cakes baked on eleven pans consecrated to इन्द्र, cakes baked on twelve pans to sun-god and cakes baked on ten pans to Varuṇa.”

So we see that the gods of पुरोडाश are the modified forms of the names of the gods of the animals, सरस्वती is the modified form of सवि and आश्विन of वरुण. In इन्द्र we see the change of order.

अभ्यासो वा प्रयाजवदेकदेशोऽन्यदेवत्यः ॥ १० । १ । ३३

अभ्यासः repetition, वा on the other hand, प्रयाजवद् like प्रयाज offering ; एकदेशः one part, अन्यदेवत्य. the other deity.

33. On the other hand, there will be repetition like प्रयाज offerings ; the other deity belongs to a part.

The author gives another reason in favour of his view that there is no transfer even upon the hypothesis that it is a purificatory rite. He says that if you do not accept the said argument, there will be a repetition of पुरोडाशयाग. The deity of the animal is the deity of the पुरोडाश, under a चोदक text. The cup is prescribed for the god of the animal and the god of पुरोडाश is different, the sacrifice stands unmodified. He is, therefore, to be connected with the animal of the god and the cup. That is not possible without repetition of the sacrifice, because its part has a different deity like प्रयाज offerings. In this view of the संस्कार, there is no उत्कर्ष or transference forward. Accordingly, the principle of वाच will apply, when there will be no अग्नीषोम in यावन्मपशुयाग there will be no पशुपुरोडाश connected with it.

Adhikara a x. śūtras 34-44 dealing with the subject that in the text “तैर्व्यं चर्हं निर्वपेत्” the word चर्ह means boiled rice.

चर्हर्विवर्तिकारः स्यादिज्यासंयोगात् ॥ १० । १ । ३४ ॥

चर्हः rice ; हर्विवर्तिकारः modified form of offering, स्यात् is ; इज्यासंयोगात् by reason of its connection with the sacrifice.

34. The चर्ह (rice) is modified form of offering by reason of its connection with the sacrifice.

It is laid down, “सौम्यं चरुं निर्वपेद्ब्रह्मवर्चसकामः” “One desirous of Brāhmanic splendour should offer boiled rice consecrated to sun-god.” The सूर्यवाग is the modified form of आग्नेय.

The question to be determined is, whether चरु means pot or rice, the reply of the author is that it means rice because it is connected with the sacrifice. It can become an object of offering.

प्रसिद्धगृहणत्वाच्च ॥ १० । १ । ३५ ॥

प्रसिद्धगृहणत्वाच्च by reason of accepting the well-known signification ; च and.

35. And by reason of accepting the well-known signification

The objector says, why should you not accept the well known signification of the term ‘चरु’ ? In common language, it means a pot, a vessel.

ओदनो वाऽन्नसंयोगात् ॥ १० । १ । ३६ ॥

ओदनः the boiled rice , वा on the other hand , अन्नसंयोगात् by reason of its connection with the corn.

36. On the other hand, the boiled rice by reason of its connection with the corn,

The author says that चरु also means rice , why should you not accept the word in that sense in a sacrifice ? It will then signify the corn which is an object of offering to the deity No substance which is not eatable is offered to a deity.

न द्वयर्थत्वात् ॥ १० । १ । ३७ ॥

न not so , द्वयर्थत्वात् by reason of the double meaning.

37 Not so, by reason of the double meaning.

The objector says that the word चरु is always used in a single sense, it has no double meaning. Everywhere चरु means a pot, because rice is kept in a pot, so चरु came to mean rice by the figure of speech known as metaphor. It is not proper to accept the metaphorical sense and reject the sense in which it is commonly used.

कपालविकारो वा विशयेऽर्थोपपत्तिभ्याम् ॥ १० । १ । ३८ ॥

कपालविकारः the modification of the earthen pan , वा on the other band ; विशये in case of doubt ; अर्थोपपत्तिभ्याम् by reason of the purpose and the propriety.

38. Or in a case of doubt, it may mean a pan by reason of the purpose and the propriety.

The objector says that if there be any doubt, the word चरु may mean a pan on which पुरोडाश cake is baked , when a pot is not available you can prepare the rice on a pan. It is both reasonable and serviceable

गुणमुख्यविशेषाच्च ॥ १० । १ । ३८ ॥

गुणमुख्यविशेषाच्च by reason of the difference of the principal and subsidiary च and

39. And by reason of the difference of the principal and the subsidiary.

The objector gives a reason in support of his view , when the question is, which is to be suspended either the principal or the subsidiary, the subsidiary will be suspended :

तच्चक्षुतौ चान्यहविष्ठात् ॥ १० । १ । ४० ॥

तच्चक्षुतौ In that text, च and , अन्यहविष्ठात् by reason of other offering.

40 And by reason of other offerings in that text.

The objector says that there are other offerings in connection with च which lend support to his view “प्रानापत्य घृतचरुं निर्वपेच्छतकुण्डलमावृत्ताम्” “Let one desirous of long life, offer hundred pieces of gold, each weighing a ratti and boiled as rice in clarified butter to ब्रजापति.”

Here we see that शतकुण्डल is an offering and चरु is used in connection with it

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ १० । १ । ४१ ॥

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च by reason of the force of the text , च and

41. And by seeing the force of the text.

The objector relies on the text in support of his view “मारुतचरुं निर्वपेत् पृथ्वीनां दुग्धे प्रैयंगवंप्रामकामः” “Let one desirous of a village, offer rice of प्रियंगु creeper boiled in cow's milk to रुद्र.”

Here we see that the substance prepared from प्रियङ्गु can not be चरु but is a different offering and चरु is, therefore, a dish-pot

ओदनो वा प्रयुक्तत्वात् ॥ १० । १ । ४२ ॥

ओदनः boiled rice ; वा on the other hand , प्रयुक्तत्वात् by the usage.

42. On the other hand, rice by the usage.

The author says that the word चरु is universally used in the sense of rice. The primary sense is rice and the secondary sense is pot but not vice versa. Farther the term 'cooking' is also used for चरु

अपूर्वव्यपदेशाच्च ॥ १० । १ । ४३ ॥

अपूर्वव्यपदेशात् by reason of designating the extraordinary principle ; च and

43. And by reason of designating the extraordinary principle.

The author gives a reason in support of his view ; he says that the extraordinary principle has been pointed out in चरु and that is possible in rice but not in a pot "पुरोडाशे वैदेवा अस्मिंल्लोक आध्वनेव चरुणामुष्मिंल्लोके । पुरोडाशेन आध्नोति चरुणाऽमुष्मिन्" "The gods by means of पुरोडाश became prosperous in this world and by means of चरु in the other ; by means of पुरोडाश one prospers here and by रु in the other world "

The चरु and पुरोडाश in the text have been put on the same level , so the word चरु means rice.

तथा च लिङ्गदर्शनम् ॥ १० । १ । ४४ ॥

तथा similarly , च and ; लिङ्गदर्शनम् the force of the text

44. And similarly the force of the text is visible.

The author relies on the लिङ्ग argument "उदनीयं प्रायश्चित्तं चरुः, आदित्य-उदनीयः" "The boiled rice of प्रायश्चित्त consecrated to अदिति, the boiled rice of उदनीय consecrated to अदिति."

After describing this, there are other texts as supplementary. "आज्यं त्रैवचरुमभिपूर्य चतुर आज्यभागान् यजति, पञ्चमभिस्तिस्रस्रणीषीमौ यजति । षष्ठीषीमाविष्ठा सवितारं यजति, अदितिमोदनेन" "He sacrifices four portions of ghee after filling ghee with boiled rice ; having offered libations of welfare pertaining to the way, he makes a sacrifice for Agni and Soma, having offered libations to अग्नीषोम, he makes a sacrifice for सवितृ and with boiled rice to अदिति."

From these texts, we see that चरु and ओदन given as offering to अदिति are one and the same thing, चरु is, therefore, synonymous with ओदन.

Adhikarapa XI sūtras 45-48 de ling with the subject that चरु is cooked in a pot.

स कपाले प्रकृत्या स्यादन्यस्य चाश्रुतित्वात् ॥१०११४५॥

सः That, कपाले in a pan, प्रकृत्या by the model, स्यात् is, अन्यस्य of another, च and, अश्रुतित्वात् by reason of its being not laid down

45. That in a pan by the model sacrifice, because any other is not heard of.

Now the question is, in what is the चरु to be cooked ? The reply of the objector is that it should be cooked in a pan ; because it is used in the model sacrifice and further no other vessel is mentioned in the Vedic text. सौर्यचरुनिर्बपेदग्रहवचंसकामः "Let one desirous of Brāhmanic splendour offer boiled rice to sun-god " It ought to be अष्टाकपाल according to the model sacrifice.

एकस्मिन्वाविप्रतिषेधात् ॥ १० । १ । ४६ ॥

एकस्मिन् in one, वा on the other hand, विप्रतिषेधात् by reason of the contradiction.

46. In one, by reason of the contradiction.

Another objector comes forward and says that there are eight कपालs (pans) in the model sacrifice, they will come in the modified sacrifice under a principle called अतिदेश, it is incongruous. So only कपाल will be used for cooking the rice.

न वाऽर्थान्तरसंयोगादपूपे पाकसंयुक्तं धारणार्थं चरी भवति तत्रार्थात्पात्रलाभः स्यादनियमोऽविशेषात् ॥१०११४७॥

न वा not so ; अर्थान्तरसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the other, अपूपे in a cake ; पाकसंयुक्तं for cooking ; धारणार्थं to hold ; चरी in boiled rice, भवति is, तत्र there ; अर्थान् for the object, पात्रलाभः a vessel ; अनियमः no rule ; अविशेषेण तु by reason of there being nothing special.

47. Not so; by reason of the connection with another in the cake ; in rice, there is (a vessel) to hold it for cooking , there is a vessel for the object. So there is no rule by reason of there being nothing special.

The third objector comes forward and says that in the case of the पुरोडाश cake, it can be cooked on a pan. But rice can not be so cooked, there must be such a vessel in which water can be held. The heat of the water will boil the rice but the pan is enough to cook the bread only where heat can reach , in this view no particular vessel is insisted upon, but the vessel must be such in which water may be held.

चरी वा लिङ्गदर्शनात् ॥ १० । १ । ४८ ॥

चरी in a pot , वा on the other hand , लिङ्गदर्शनात् by seeing the force of the text.

48. On the other hand, a pot by seeing the लिङ्ग

As we have seen in the preceding अधिकरण, the term चरु is used in the sense of rice and the pot in which rice is cooked.

The चरु is thus described in कर्मप्रदीप as quoted in वाचस्पत्य.

स्वशाखोक्तः प्रसुक्खिणीहृद्भोऽ कठिनः शुभः । नचातिशिथिलः पाक्यो सचरुः
स्थान्नचारसः ॥ “चरु is a corn prescribed by one's own Vedic school boiled, unburnt, soft, delicious, not very loose and easy to digest, it is not without juice.”

The method of preparing चरु is described in chapter 1V, of कात्यायनश्रौत-सूत्र See सूत्रः 4 and 6. The author says that the rice should be cooked in a pot and this conclusion is based upon the texts. “यासुस्थालीपुसोमाः स्युस्ते अरवःस्युः” “In those dishes in which soma is fermented, the very same dishes are called चरुs.”

Now there are several other अधिकरण which do not find place in other books. When चरु means rice boiled and cooked in a pot, the process that applies in the case of baking a cake does not apply to the boiling of rice. The following process applies to preparation of a पुरोडाश

1. देवय. Grinding of the rice in a mill and converting it into flour,
- . संयजन. Mixing the rice flour with the प्रणीता water ; it is kneading the flour with the help of water specially set a part for the sacrifice.

- 3 संवपन Putting the flour into a vessel with a view to mix it with water.
- 4 संतोपन Heating the pan with the hot cinder under it
- 5 उपधानः. Placing of the pan on the hot cinders with a view to bake the cake.
- 6 प्रथुकरण Spreading over the पुरोडाश with the hand on the pan placed on the burning cinders.
- 7 श्लथीकरण Smoothing it and making it even.
- 8 अन्यूहः Covering the cakes with cinders in order to bake them.
- 9 अवशवलन Kindling the cinders on the cakes with the aid of grass
- 10 व्युद्धृत्यामादनं Separating the cakes from the pans and placing them on the अंतर्वेदि

Adbikarapa in sūtras 49-50 dealing with the subject that to चरु in सूर्ययाग, process of grinding does not apply

तस्मिन्पेषणमनर्थलोपात्स्यात् ॥ १० । १ । ४६ ॥

तस्मिन् in it, पेषण grinding, अनर्थलोपात् by reason of uselessness, स्यात् 18

49. In it, there is grinding by reason of uselessness.

The question is whether the process of grinding should be performed on चरु or not. The reply of the objector is that it should be performed because if flour is not prepared, it will be useless

अक्रिया वा अपूपहेतुत्वात् ॥ १० । १ । ५० ॥

अक्रिया non-performance; वा on the other hand; अपूपहेतुत्वात् by reason of the cake

50. On the other hand, it is not performed by reason of the cake.

The author's reply is in the negative; because in the case of the cake the flour is required; but that can not be had without grinding the rice:

so in the case of चर there is no necessity of grinding. The principle of बाध, therefore, applies.

Adhikaraṇa xiii dealing with the subject that there is no mixing of water with the flour in the case of चर in सूर्ययाग.

पिण्डार्थत्वाच्च संयवनम् ॥ १० । १ । ५१ ॥

पिण्डार्थत्वात् with the object of making ball, च and, संयवनम् mixing water with flour

51. And mixing of water with flour is with the object of making balls.

In connection with the model sacrifice it is said "प्रणीतामिहं विविषीति" "He mixes holy water with the flour to be offered"

Now the question is, whether such a process of mixing water with flour is applicable to सूर्ययाग. The reply of our author is in the negative; the reason is that in चर such process is not required, it is only in the case of preparing the balls or cakes that water is needed in kneading the flour

Adhikaraṇa xiv dealing with the subject that in चर in सूर्ययाग, flour is not put in a vessel with a view to mix it with water

संयवनञ्च तादर्थ्यात् ॥ १० । १ । ५२ ॥

संयवनं putting the flour into a vessel with a view to mix it with water, च and, तादर्थ्यात् by reason of its being for that object

52. And the putting of the flour in a vessel with a view to mix it with water by reason of its being for that object.

In the model sacrifice, there is a text "सवितु प्रसूत इत्यैवैनं देवताभिः संययति" "He puts it into a vessel with a view to mix water with these deities after repeating सवित्रा प्रसूत्रि (the verse 30 of chap. 10 of the White यजुर्वेद where 10 gods are mentioned)."

The question is, whether this process of putting the flour in a vessel with a view to knead it applies to चर or not. The reply of our author is in the negative because there is no necessity. The principle of बाध applies.

Adhikaraṇa xv. There is no heating of pan with the hot cinders underneath, in the case of चर in the सूर्ययाग.

सन्तापनमधःश्रपणात् ॥ १० । १ । ५३ ॥

सन्तापनम् heating , अधः श्रपणात् by placing the hot cinders underneath.

53. There is heating of the pans by placing the hot cinders underneath.

There is a text in the model sacrifice “वसुनां रुद्राणामादित्यानां भृगूनामग्नि रसां धर्मस्यनपत्ता तपध्वं” (Maitrāvaṇī Saṁhitā, I 1. 8) “perform the penance of वसु, रुद्र, आदित्य, भृगु, अग्निरा and धर्म”

The question is, whether heating of the pans by the hot cinders underneath, applies to चरु in a सूर्ययाग. The author's reply is in the negative for the same reason as given in the case of other processes. The same principle of वाच, therefore, applies Adhikaraṇa xvi. There is no placing of the pans on the hot cinders in the case of चरु in सूर्ययाग.

उपधानं च तादर्थ्यात् ॥ १० । १ । ५४ ॥

उपधानं placing of the pans on the hot cinders , च and , तादर्थ्यात् by reason of its being for that object

54. And placing of the pans on the hot cinders by reason of its being for its object.

The question is, whether the process of placing the pans on hot cinders which belongs to the model sacrifice applies to चरु or not. The reply of the author is in the negative for the same reason

Adhikaraṇa xvii. there is no spreading and smoothing of the cakes on the pans in the case of चरु in सूर्ययाग

पृथुश्चक्षणे वाऽनपूपत्वात् ॥ १० । १ । ५५ ॥

पृथुश्चक्षणे in spreading and smoothing , वा on the other hand , अनपूपत्वात् by reason of there being no cake.

55. On the other hand, spreading and smoothing by reason of there being no cake.

In the model sacrifice, it is said “उदयया उदययस्वेति पुरोडाशं प्रथयति” “He spreads the cake by uttering ‘उरुपृथा’ (अथर्ववेद १३।३।५२) ‘उरुपृथस्व’ (अथर्ववेद. ११।२।१७). The पुरोडाश is spread with the hand by reciting the two verses quoted from अथर्ववेद. "सतेतन्वातनु सुज्यता मितित्रिभिः परिमाष्टि" "He smooths it with hand three times by repeating 'सतेतन्वातनु सुज्यता' (let the body be framed by the body)." It is smoothed with the hand three times. The question is, whether these ceremonies apply to ऋह or not. The reply of our author is in the negative for the same reason.

Audhikarapa xviii. There is no covering of the cakes with cinders in the case of ऋह in पूर्वप्राग.

अभ्यूहश्रोपरिपाकार्थत्वात् ॥ १० । १ । ५६ ॥

अभ्यूहः covering of the cake with hot cinders, च and, उपरिपाकार्थत्वात् by reason of its being for baking the upper portion.

56. And covering of the cake with hot cinders, by reason of the r being for baking.

There is a text in the model sacrifice "वेदेन भस्मनागाराद् अभ्यूहति". "He covers the cinders with the ashes of kuśā grass"

The question is, whether the covering of the cake with hot cinders applies to ऋह or not. The reply of our author is in the negative for the similar reason.

Adhikarapa xix. There is no kindling of the cinders on the cakes in the पूर्वप्राग

तथावज्ज्वलनम् ॥ १० । १ । ५७ ॥

तथा similarly ; अवज्ज्वलनम् kindling the cinders on the cake.

57. Similarly kindling of the cinders on the cakes.

There is a text in the model sacrifice "दर्भपिक्नुं लैरभिज्ज्वलयति" "He kindles with the leaves of kuśā grass"

The question is, whether this process of kindling of cinders on the cakes applies to ऋह or not. The reply of our author is that it does not apply for similar reason.

Adhikarapa xx. There is no separating of cakes from the pans and placing them on the middle altar in case of ऋह in पूर्वप्राग

व्युद्धृत्यासादनं च प्रकृतावश्रुतित्वात् ॥ १० । १ । ५८ ॥

व्युद्धृत्यासादनं separating the cakes from the pans and placing them on the अन्तर्वेदि, च and , प्रकृतौ in the model sacrifice ; अशुद्धिवात् by reason of its non-mention.

58. And separating of cakes from the pans and placing them on the अन्तर्वेदि by reason of its non-mention in the model sacrifice.

It is said in the model sacrifice "अन्तर्वेदिहवीष्यात्प्रादयति". "He places the offerings on the middle altar".

The practice in the model sacrifice is that cakes are removed from the pans and placed on the अन्तर्वेदि. The question is, whether such a practice is to be followed in the case of चक्षुः and it should be placed on the middle altar after taking it from the dish. The reply of the author is in the negative, because no such process, viz. taking the boiled rice from the dish and placing it on the middle altar is mentioned in the model sacrifice and further there is no necessity in the case of चक्षुः. The conclusion is that the principle of वाच applies in all these above-mentioned processes.

END OF PĀDA I.

PĀDA II.

Adhikaraṇa 1 sūtras 1 2. dealing with the subject that चक्षुः made of golden pieces should be cooked.

कृष्णलेप्वर्धलोपादपाकः स्यात् ॥ १० । २ । १ ॥

कृष्णलेपु in कृष्णल होम , अर्धलोपात् by reason of uselessness , अपाकः no cooking , स्यात् is

1. There is no cooking in कृष्णल by reason of uselessness.

There is a text "प्राजापत्यं च निर्वपेद्दशतकृष्णलमायुष्कामः" "Let one desirous of longevity, offer hundred pieces of gold each weighing a ratti cooked in ghee, formed as rice and consecrated to प्राजापति"

In the model sacrifice, the puroḍāśa is baked. The question is, whether the cooking should be performed in the case of these golden pieces.

The reply of the objector is that the cooking or boiling of कृष्णक is unnecessary and should, therefore, be dispensed with.

स्याद्वा प्रत्यक्षशिष्टत्वात्प्रदानवत् ॥ १०।२।२ ॥

स्यात् is ; वा on the other hand ; प्रत्यक्षशिष्टत्वात् by reason of being laid down directly ; प्रदानवत् like the gift.

2. On the other hand, it should be performed, by reason of its being laid down like the gift.

The author's reply is that there is a direct text. "पुरोदशवति" "He boils it in ghee"

It should be performed by reason of this command, though कृष्णक is not establie, yet as boiling of it produces an invisible effect under a special text, it should be performed as an object of gift.

Adhikaraṇa II satras 3 12 dealing with the subject that there are no उपस्तरय and अभिचारय in the case of कृष्णक.

उपस्तरणाभिचारणयोरमृतार्थत्वादकर्म स्यात् ॥१०।२।३॥

उपस्तरणाभिचारणयोः quartering and spreading of पुरोदश and flushing it with ghee, अमृतार्थत्वात् by reason of their being for nectar, अकर्म non-performance; स्यात् is.

3. The quartering, spreading (of Purodāśa) and flushing it with ghee, by reason of their being for the nectar, should not be performed

In the model sacrifice उपस्तरय and अभिचारय are performed "यद्वपस्तृणायभिचारयत्पृथ्नाहुतिमेवैना करोति" "He who spreads and levels the cake and flushes the remnants with ghee, makes a nectar offering of it."

The उपस्तरय is spreading, levelling, quartering of the पुरोदश and placing it ; and अभिचारय is removing the remnants thereof from the spoon by flushing them with ghee The question is, whether the ceremonies mentioned above should be performed in the कृष्णकहोम The reply of the author is that they should not be performed as the object of the ceremonies is to secure a taste in the पुरोदश but no taste is possible in a कृष्णक.

क्रियेत वार्थवादत्वात्तयोः संसर्गहेतुत्वात् ॥१०।२।४॥

क्रियेत should be done ; वा on the other hand ; वार्थवादत्वात् by reason of अर्घ्यवाद ; तयोः their ; संसर्गहेतुत्वत् being the cause of contact.

4. On the other hand, they should be performed by reason of अर्घ्यवाद and their being the cause of contact.

The text as to 'a nectar offering' is by way of an अर्घ्यवाद ; it can equally apply to the case of the कृष्णल, because by ghee it can be removed from the spoon. So the principle of वाच, according to the objector, does not apply.

अकर्म वा चतुर्भिराप्तिवचनात्सह पूर्णं पुनश्चतुरवत्तम्

॥ १० । २ । ५ ॥

अकर्म non-performance ; वा, on the other hand , चतुर्भिः with the word 'four', आप्तिवचनात् by reason of the text as to finish ; सह with ; पूर्ण completion , पुनः again , चतुरवत्तं fourfold nature.

5. On the other hand, they should not be performed by reason of the completion with the word four in the completion text where the four-fold nature finds full realisation.

The author's reply is that they should not be performed because 4 कृष्णल are offered and so there is no necessity of quartering them and further as there are no remnants left stuck in the spoon, there is therefore, no necessity of flushing them. "चत्वारिकृष्णलान्यवच्छति" He offers four pieces of gold कृष्णल "

क्रिया वा मुख्यावदानपरिमाणात्सामान्यात्तद्गुणत्वम्

॥ १० । २ । ६ ॥

क्रिया action , मुख्यावदानपरिमाणात् by reason of the measure of the principal offering , सामान्यात् in common , तद्गुणत्वम् its subordination.

6. On the other hand, they should be performed by reason of the measure of the principal offering ; in common it is its subordinate.

The objector says that in the model sacrifice the offering is thus described. "अङ्गुष्ठपर्यन्तमात्रं देवतानामवच्छति" "He makes an offering to the god to the extent of a digit of a thumb."

Here the term कृष्णल is used in the sense of measure and (weight) limited to number four. The measure does not dispense with the substance. The mea-are limits the principal gift but does not do away with the substance. Take for instance. "Feed Devadutta ; here are curd, ghee, vegetable and ice ; feed यद्दत्त like Devadutta but with oil". The oil does not dispense with the curd, vegetable &c, but oil is to be used in place of ghee. So उपस्तरण and अग्निधारण are not dispensed with.

तेषां वैकावदानत्वात् ॥ १० । २ । ७ ॥

तेषां their ; , and ; वैकावदानत्वात् by reason of one gift.

7. And by reason of their one gift.

The objector says that the four कृष्यल्ल are, therefore, considered to constitute one offering and that is the reason why there is no division into four.

आप्तिः संख्या समानत्वात् ॥ १० । २ । ८ ॥

आप्तिः completion , संख्यासमानत्वात् by reason of the number being the same.

8. Completion, by reason of the number being the same.

The objector says that you have referred to the completion text "चत्वारिकूपकान्यवद्यति" "He offers four pieces of gold कूपक."

It is in praise of the number four but does not show suspension, as for instance "यद्वा ईशः प्रातः सवनेपृच्छते, प्रातः सवनेवा एतद्वा ईशवेद्यं संवापयति" "The offering which is consecrated to विश्वेदेवा and taken in the morning libation, establishes ईशदेव sacrifice in the morning libation."

The text is in praise of ईशदेव but is not for the purpose of suspension of other सवने (libations).

सतोस्त्वप्तिवचनं व्यर्थम् ॥ १० । २ । ९ ॥

सतोः of the existent ; तु on the other hand , अप्तिवचनं completion sentence ; व्यर्थम् useless

9. On the other hand, the completion sentence of the existent, is useless.

The author says, the praise is as a rule, of the non-existent thing, it is useless to praise the thing that is already in existence: so the अप्तिवचनं can not be considered to be in praise of उपस्तरण and अग्निधारण already existing.

विकल्पस्त्वैकावदानत्वात् ॥ १० । २ । १० ॥

विकल्पः alternative, तु on the other hand ; एकावदानत्वात् by reason of one gift.

10. On the other hand, there is alternative by reason of one gift.

The objector says that from the आहितत्वन, the inference is that both उपस्तरण and अग्निसंस्पर्श are suspended but by virtue of the inference arising from the nature of one gift, they are not suspended. On account of this dilemma, the completion sentence does not suspend the operation of both the ceremonies.

सर्वविकारे त्वभ्यसानर्थक्यं हविषो हीतरस्य स्यादपि
वा सिद्धकृतः स्यादितरस्यान्याय्यत्वात् ॥ १० । २ । ११ ॥

सर्वविकारे on the offering of the whole, तु on the other hand ; अभ्यसानर्थक्यं uselessness of the repetition ; हविषः of the offering ; हि because, हीतरस्य of the other ; स्यात् is, अपि also, वा on the other hand ; सिद्धकृतः of the सिद्धत् ; स्यात् is, हीतरस्य of the other ; अन्याय्यत्वात् by reason of the unreasonableness.

11. On the other hand, on the offering of the whole, the repetition of the other offering is useless, by reason of the other सिद्धकृत offering being unreasonable.

The objector says, according to you when all the four कृष्णकः are offered at a time there will be no repetition of the offerings ; but from my point of view, when the second कृष्णकः is offered, there is a repetition and सिद्धकृत offering according to me is unreasonable.

अकर्म वा संसर्गार्थनिवृत्तत्वात्तस्मादाप्तिसमर्थत्वं
॥ १० । २ । १२ ॥

अकर्म non-performance ; वा on the other hand ; संसर्गार्थनिवृत्तत्वात् by reason of the object of removal of things stuck, तस्मात् therefore ; आप्तिसमर्थत्वं the propriety of the completion text.

12. On the other hand, they are not to be performed by reason of the object of removal of the thing stuck ; the completion text is, therefore, proper.

The author says, you have misunderstood the whole thing ; the object of उपस्वरण is to anoint the ladle and that of अभिचारण is to remove the offering that has stuck to the ladle, so that it may fall in the fire. There is no sticking of the solid and pure gold pieces to the ladle, so there is no necessity of उपस्वरण and अभिचारण. In this view the वाङ्मय्य is proper “अन्तरिक्षेणान्यवयवित्तुस्तुरवस्यः” “He offers four pieces of gold कृष्णक in order to complete the quality of being four-fold.”

Adhikarapa III. sūtras 13-16. dealing with the subject that the golden pieces should be stuck.

भक्षणां तु प्रीत्यर्थत्वादकर्म स्यात् ॥ १० । २ । १३ ॥

भक्षणां of food, तु on the other hand, प्रीत्यर्थत्वात् being for satisfaction ; अकर्म non-performance, स्यात् is

13. On the other hand by reason of eating (of food) being for satisfaction, it should not be done.

In the प्रकृति sacrifice, there is इक्षामक्षय (eating of sacrificial food) by quartering the पुरोडाश cake into four. The question is whether the कृष्णक should be eaten or not. The reply of the objector is that as कृष्णक can not be eaten, so there is no eating of कृष्णक.

स्याद्वा निर्वृतिदर्शनात् ॥ १० । २ । १४ ॥

स्यात् is ; वा on the other hand, निर्वृतिदर्शनात् by reason of seeing the term ‘sucking’.

14. On the other hand, by seeing the term ‘sucking’.

The author’s reply is that they should be eaten in a particular way without the application of teeth, as there is a text, पुरोडाशकारमक्षयति निर्वर्ततेमक्षयति “They eat by making on onomatopœic sound पुरोडाश (as done in sucking sugar-cane), they eat as a child drinks milk.

When sugarcane juice is sucked, there is peculiar sound which is here called पुरोडाश and when कृष्णक is anointed with ghee, the ghee is sucked just as done by a child and taken in ; it is called निर्वर्त, in the verb and निर्वृति in the substantive form.

वचनं वाज्यभक्षस्य प्रकृती स्यादभागित्वात् ॥१०।२।१५॥

वचनं text, वा on the other hand ; वाज्यभक्षस्य of eating ghee ; प्रकृती in the model sacrifice ; स्यात् is, भागित्वात् by reason of its indivisibility.

15. On the other hand, the text is in connection with eating of ghee, in the model sacrifice by reason of its indivisibility

The objector says that the text relates to the sucking of ghee which has stuck to the golden pieces because in the model sacrifice, the ghee is indivisible.

वचनं वा हिरण्यस्य प्रदानवदाज्यस्य गुणभूतत्वात्

॥ १० । २ । १६ ॥

वचनं text ; वा on the other hand , हिरण्यस्य of gold , प्रदानवत् like a gift ; वाज्यस्य of ghee ; गुणभूतत्वात् by reason of being subordinate.

16. On the other hand, the text is in connection with gold like the gift, the ghee being subsidiary.

The author says that you are mistaken, the principal thing is gold pieces and the ghee is only subordinate. The text, therefore, relates to the gold pieces (कृष्णक) Take for example, the following sentence, "There is a stick on the heap of the bricks, beat him with it" Here the stick is principal and the heap of the bricks is subordinate , so the beating is to be done by the stick. Similarly here the eating function in a peculiar way applies to the gold pieces. There is a parallel case ; a gift is made of a thing which is eatable but gold can also be an object of gift. So also here, Adhikarany. dealing with the subject that in कृष्णकचक्ष the text एकवाप्रदानेचरति" means the simultaneous offer for eating

एकधोपहारे सहत्वं ब्रह्मभक्षाणां प्रकृती विहितत्वात्

॥ १० । २ । १७ ॥

एकधा in one offer , उपहारे in eating , सहत्वं simultaniety ; ब्रह्मभक्षाणां of the food set apart for ब्रह्मा , प्रकृती in the model sacrifice , विहितत्वात् by reason of being ordained.

17. In one offer for eating, there is simultaniety of the eating of the portions set apart for the ब्रह्मा priest, by reason of its being ordained in the model sacrifice.

In connection with eating of कृष्णल, it is laid down "एकवाज्जल-परिहरति" "He partakes of ब्रह्मा's food once."

In the model sacrifice there are four divisions of इडा offering and at the time of the repetition of the formula 'शंयु', four parts are offered for eating. Now the question is, whether eating should, once, be done of one part only or of all simultaneously, because the word 'एकवा' (once) is used. The reply of the author is that all portions should be eaten simultaneously, because it is so laid down in the model sacrifice. By eating one part only, the other 3 parts are left out; if all are eaten up, the time is lost sight of. So it is better to have time dropped which is subsidiary, but not the portions which are principal.

Adbikara ga v. sūtrae 18-19. dealing with the subject that in कृष्णलचक्र, the whole food is to be offered to ब्रह्मा.

सर्वत्वं च तेषामधिकारात्स्यात् ॥ १० । २ । १८ ॥

सर्वत्वं the whole, च and, तेषाम् their; अधिकारात् by reason of the right; स्यात् 18.

18. And the whole, by reason of the right in them.

In connection with कृष्णलचक्र, it is said "सर्वब्रह्मणेपरिहरति" "He gives the whole to ब्रह्मा."

The question is, whether the gift is for the food of ब्रह्मा only or for other priests as well. In the model sacrifice the practice is to allot four portions to ब्रह्मा and four to other priests each. The reply of the objector is that the whole share allotted to him belongs to ब्रह्मा, because he is entitled to those four shares given to him.

पुरुषापनयो वा तेषामवाच्यत्वात् ॥ १० । २ । १९ ॥

पुरुषापनयः the removal of man, वा on the other hand, तेषाम् their, वाच्यत्वात् by reason of their being not sanctioned.

19 On the other hand, the removal of other priests: their taking of it is not sanctioned.

The author says that if you say that ब्रह्मा should take the portion allotted to him, the other priests will not be deprived of it because such a thing is no where laid down. Hence the whole goes to ब्रह्मा without the participation of it by others.

Adhikaraṇa vi. dealing with the subject that the portions of the food should be taken by ब्रह्मा at the proper time

पुरुषापनयात्स्वकालत्वम् ॥ १० । २ । २० ॥

पुरुषापनयात् by reason of the removal of other priests ; स्वकालत्वम् appointed time.

20. By reason of removal of other priests, there is appointed time.

Now when it is established that the whole is to be given to ब्रह्मा, the next question for solution is, whether the portions are to be taken one time or at the time fixed for the priests. The reply of the author is that they should be taken by the ब्रह्मा at the appointed time in the model sacrifice. Four portions are to be taken by the ब्रह्मा at four different times; the ब्रह्मा will, therefore, take away all the portions at the fixed time.

Adhikaraṇa vii dealing with the subject that there is no division into four in the ब्रह्मा's food.

एकार्थत्वादाविभागः स्यात् ॥ १० । २ । २१ ॥

एकार्थत्वात् by reason of one object ; अविभागः no division ; स्यात् is.

21. By reason of one object, there is no division.

In the model sacrifice, there is a division of the food. "इदंब्रह्मण, इदं होतु- रिदमग्नयोरिदमग्नीध्रः" "This is of ब्रह्मा, it is of होता; it is of अग्नयु; it is of अग्नीध्र".

Now the question for determination in ब्रह्मा's food is, whether this division is to be made or not. The reply of our author is, that no allotment is to be made, because the whole is to be offered to ब्रह्मा "सर्वंब्रह्मणे परिहरति" "He grants the whole to the ब्रह्मा".

So in this view, there is no division in कृण्वलपद. The division is made with a view to avoid quarrel amongst the priests, but as here the whole gift is taken away by the ब्रह्मा, there is, therefore, no necessity of division.

Adhikaraṇa vii sūtras 22-23 dealing with the subject that in a उद्योतिष्टोम, the gift to a ऋत्विक् priest is for the purpose of securing his services.

ऋत्विग्दानं धर्ममात्रार्थं स्याद्ददातिसामर्थ्यात् ॥१०।२।२२॥

ऋत्विग्दानं a gift to ऋत्विक् (priests), धर्ममात्रार्थं with a view to religious fruit ; स्यात् is ; ददातिसामर्थ्यात् by the force of the word "gives"

22. A gift to ऋत्विक् priests is with a view to religious fruit, by force of the word ददाति.

There is a उद्योतिष्टोम sacrifice, in connection of which it is said "गौश्चअश्वश्चअभ्यतरश्चगर्दभाश्च अजाश्च अवयश्चग्रीह्यश्चयवाश्चतिकाश्चमाषाश्च तश्चद्वादशशतं दक्षिणा" "ऋत्विग्भ्यो दक्षिणां ददाति" "His fee of twelve hundred consists of the cow, the horse, the mule, asses, goats, sheep, rice, barley, sesamum, and bean". "He grants a fee to the priests".

The question is whether a gift to the ऋत्विक् is for religious merit or for procuring his services. The reply of the objector is that it is for religious merit, because the term ददाति which indicates invisible fruit, is used. The fact that this honorarium does not depend upon the extent of the work done, shows that it is to secure the invisible result that the donation is made to the ऋत्विक् priest.

परिक्रियार्थं वा कर्मसंयोगाल्लोकवत् ॥ १० । २ । २३ ॥

परिक्रियार्थं for securing the services, वा on the other hand ; कर्मसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the work done ; लोकवत् as in ordinary life.

23. Or for securing the services, by reason of its connection with the work done as in ordinary life.

The author says that the gift is with a view to secure the services of a ऋत्विक् ; here there is no invisible principle involved. The payment is made and the work is done in return for it. So the payment is in the nature of the wages, just as a labourer is engaged to carry fuel.

दक्षिणायुक्तवचनाच्च ॥ १० । २ । २४ ॥

दक्षिणायुकवचनात् by reason of the text 'engaged on fee' ; च and.

24. By reason of the text "engaged on fee".

The author gives a further reason in support of his view that there is a text "दक्षिणायुक्ता वहति ऋत्विजः" "The priests engaged on fee carry on the work".

This text also shows that the priests are engaged on fee and they do the work in return

नचाऽन्येनानम्येत परिक्रीयात्कर्मणः परार्थत्वात्

॥ १० । २ । २५ ॥

न not ; च and , अन्येन by any other means . आनम्येत can be secured ; परिक्रियात् by reason of hiring ; कर्मणः for work , परार्थत्वात् for the purpose of another.

25. And nor can service be secured by any other means ; because hiring for the work is for the purpose of another.

The author says that you can not have any work without payment for it. So the payment to ऋत्विक् is in the nature of wages

परिक्रीतवचनाच्च ॥ १० । २ । २६ ॥

परिक्रीतवचनात् by reason of the text 'hired' ; च and

26. And by reason of the text 'hired'

The author says that there is a text "दीक्षितमदीक्षिता दक्षिणापरिक्रीता ऋत्विजोयाजयति" "The priests engaged on a fee though uninitiated, make the initiated perform a sacrifice".

It shows that a ऋत्विक् is hired on wages.

सनिधन्येव भृति वचनात् ॥ १० । २ । २७ ॥

सनिधि in alms ; एव certainly ; भृतिवचनात् by reason of the word 'wages'

27. By reason of the word 'wages' in connection with alms.

There is begging of alms enjoined in connection with उद्योतिष्टोम “द्वादशरा- त्रीर्दीक्षितो भृतिवन्वीत” “An initiated one begs alms for twelve nights”

See Chapter vi Pāda 8, Sūtras 26-27. at p 411. The sacrificer goes out a-begging for 12 nights to pay the wages of the ऋत्विक्. This fact also goes to support the author's view.

नैष्कर्तुकेण संस्तवाच्च ॥ १० । २ । २८ ॥

नैष्कर्तुकेण with a carrier of fuel , संस्तवाच्च by reason of the praise ;
च and.

28. By reason of the praise of the carrier of fuel.

There is a text “यथावैदारुहारो नैष्कर्तुको निष्कर्तनभृतः कर्मयोगे वर्तते एवं चापते यज्ञस्य ऋत्विजः” “Just as a wood carrier, a wood-utter or one who lives by cutting, carrying and selling wood, is engaged in his work, so are the priests of a sacrifice”.

A ऋत्विक् is placed on the same level with a labourer who carries wood from the forest

Adhikarapa ix. sūtras 29-33. dealing with the subject that in a उद्योतिष्टोम, the sacrificial food is for the final disposal.

शेषभक्षाश्च तद्वत् ॥ १० । २ । २९ ॥

शेषभक्षाः remnants of the food , च and , तद्वत् similarly.

29. And similarly the remnants of the food.

There are remnants of the food in the उद्योतिष्टोम and दर्शपूर्णमासवाग.
The question is whether the remnants are for securing the services or not. The reply of the objector is that they are like the दक्षिणा in the form of the wages of the priest.

संस्कारो वा द्रव्यस्य परार्थत्वात् ॥ १० । २ । ३० ॥

संस्कारः purificatory rite ; वा on the other hand ; द्रव्यस्य of the substance ; परार्थत्वात् by reason of being for another.

30. On the other hand, it is a purificatory rite by reason of the substance being for another.

The author says that the remnants being for the purpose of a sacrifice, can not be for hiring priests. They serve the purpose of a sacrifice.

शेषे च समत्वात् ॥ १० । २ । ३१ ॥

शेषे in the remnants, च and, समत्वात् by reason of equality.

31. And by reason of equality in the remnants.

The author says that as the sacrificial food is given away to the deity, both the sacrificer and the priest have no right to give and take it. There is no proprietary right left in the sacrificer, nor has the priest capacity to accept it.

स्वामिनि च दर्शनात्तत्सामान्यादितरेषांतथात्वम्

॥ १० । २ । ३२ ॥

स्वामिनि in the master, च and, दर्शनात् by reason of seeing, तत् सामान्यात् by reason of its being common; इतरेषां of others; तथात्वम् the sameness.

32 And by seeing in the master; by reason of its being common, the same with others.

The author says that the sacrificer partakes of इडा with four other priests "यजमानं चमासमुपहृता इडमक्षयति" "The invited priests with the sacrificer as the fifth, eat the sacrificial food".

It is evident that a sacrificer is not hired and the other four priests are also on the same level with him. So the remnants are not for the purpose of hiring a priest.

तथा चान्यार्थदर्शनम् ॥ १० । २ । ३३ ॥

तथा similarly; च and, अन्यार्थदर्शनम् other proofs.

33. And similarly there are other proofs.

The author relies on other instances. In a कुंडपायिनामक sacrifice the remnants from the ladle are eaten. "अत्सरुकेः श्वमसैः सोमाद्भक्षयति" "They drink soma with the spoons without handles". अत्सरुक is a sacrificial vessel or spoon which has no handle and is formed in the shape of a sword.

Eating of the remnants is not for the purpose of securing the services but for the final disposal of the same.

Adhikaraṇa x, dealing with the subject that in a सन्न there is no appointment of a अतिथिः.

वरणमृत्विजामानमनार्थत्वात्सत्रे न स्यात्स्वकर्मत्वात्

॥ १० । २ । ३४ ॥

वरणम् appointment ; ऋत्विजाम् of the priests ; आनमनार्थत्वात् for the purpose of securing services , सत्रेन with the sacrificial session , स्यात् is ; स्वकर्मत्वात् by reason of one's own act.

84. The appointment of the ऋत्विक् is to secure his services ; it is not in a sacrificial session being one's own act.

There are sacrificial sessions as द्वादशाह &c. "द्वादशाहसुदिकामा वपेयुः" "Let those desirous of prosperity, resort to द्वादशाह sacrifice".

In the ज्योतिष्टोम which is a model sacrifice, there is an appointment of a ऋत्विक्. "अग्निर्मेहोतासमेहोता होतस्त्वमेहोतासि" "Agni is my होता priest, he is my होता priest, O ! Hotā, thou art my हो १ priest".

Now the question is, whether the appointment is to be made in a सत्र or not. The reply of the author is that the appointment ceremony should not be performed, because that is done to ensure the payment of the fees; but here in a सत्र the sacrificer himself is the priest, so there is no necessity of appointment. None appoints himself. "येयजमानाः सऋत्विजः". "Those who are sacrificers, are themselves priests".

Adhikāraṇa x', sūtra 85-88 dealing with the subject that there is no hiring in a सत्र.

परिक्रियश्च तादर्थ्यात् ॥१० । १ । ३५ ॥

परिक्रियः hiring , च and , तादर्थ्यात् by reason of its being for it.

33. And hiring by reason of its being for it.

In connection with ज्योतिष्टोम, there is a text (see the commentary on sūtra 22 at p 633 where the fee of the ऋत्विक् is fully detailed), the question is, whether the payment of the fee is to be made in a सत्र. The reply of the author is that no such payment is to be made, because it is done to secure the services of a ऋत्विक्, but in a सत्र the यजमान is the ऋत्विक् and he can not hire himself.

प्रतिषेधश्च कर्मवत् ॥ १० । २ । ३६ ॥

प्रतिषेधः prohibition , च and , कर्मवत् like the act.

36. And the prohibition is like the act.

The objector says that it amounts to a prohibition, “अदक्षिणानिसत्राणि” “The sacrificial sessions are without fees”

The fact that there is no दक्षिणा in a सत्र does not necessarily prohibit the sacrifice itself.

स्याद्वाप्रासर्पिकस्य धर्ममात्रत्वात् ॥ १० । २ । ३७ ॥

स्यात् is, वा on the other hand, प्रासर्पिकस्य of the gift, धर्ममात्रत्वात् by reason of being for the religious motive.

37. On the other hand it may be by reason of the gift being out of religious motives.

The objector says that it prohibits the gift which is made out of religious motives

न दक्षिणाशब्दात्तस्मान्नित्यानुवादः स्यात् ॥ १० । २ । ३८ ॥

न not, दक्षिणाशब्दात् by reason of the word ‘fee’, तस्मात् therefore; नित्यानुवादः a permanent restatement, स्यात् is.

38. Not so, by reason of the word ‘fee’; it is, therefore, a permanent restatement.

You are mistaken, it is not a prohibition of religious gift, because the सत्रs are said to be without fees “अदक्षिणानिसत्राणि” “The sacrificial sessions are without fees”. “नह्यत्रगौर्दीयते, नावासोनहिरण्यं” “Here neither cow, nor cloth, nor money is given” The fee is paid to secure the services.

“गोश्वाभ्वभ्राश्वतरश्मर्गदंभश्चाजाश्चावयश्च ब्रीहयश्चयवाश्च तिलाश्चमाषाश्च तस्यद्वादशशतं दक्षिणाः” “His fee of twelve hundred consists of cows, horses, mules, asses, goats, sheep, rice, barley, sesamum and beans.”

The gift to a ऋत्विक् is a दक्षिणा or fee. It is by way of prohibition of such a fee, because there is no hiring of the ऋत्विक् by reason of no appointment. The prohibition does not relate to any gift made out of charity.

Adhikarapa xii sūtras 39 40 dealing with the subject that in उद्वसनीय which is not a part of a सत्र, the gift is to secure the service.

उदवसानीयः सत्रधर्मा स्यात्तदङ्गत्वात्तत्र दानं धर्ममात्रं

स्यात् ॥ १० । २ । ३९ ॥

उदवसानीयः the ceremony called उदवसानीयः; सत्रधर्मा partaking the quality of a सत्र, स्यात् is, तदङ्गत्वात् by reason of its being a part of it, तत्र there, दानं gift, धर्ममात्रं mere charity, स्यात् is.

39. The उदवसानीय partakes the quality of a सत्र by reason of its being a part of it. There the gift is out of charity (religious motive).

There is a ceremony called उदवसानीय or पूष्टशमनीय performed after the सत्र. In connection with it, there is a text "सत्रादुदवसायपूष्टशमनीयेनऽप्यतिष्ठो- मेनसहस्रदक्षिणेनयजेत्" "Having finished a सत्र, let them perform a sacrifice with ऽप्यतिष्ठोम of पूष्टशमनीय having a fee of a thousand".

Now the question is, whether in this पूष्टशमनीय, the fee is a charitable gift or a consideration to secure the services

Then another question arises in this connection, whether पूष्टशमनीय or उदवसानीय is a part of a सत्र, if the reply is that it is a part of a सत्र, then the gift made is for a charitable object, in view of the principle laid down in the preceding अधिकरण. The reply of the objector is that it is a part of a सत्र, because it is performed after its completion; उदवसानीय is, therefore, a part of a सत्र. See other examples "अग्निं विस्वासीत्रामण्यं यजेत्, बाजपेये-
नेष्ट्वावृहस्पतिसवनेनयजेत्" "Let him perform सौत्रामणि after establishing fire. Let him perform वृहस्पतिसव after having performed बाजपेय

In this view, the gift being impossible for one's own self, is for a charitable purpose

न त्वेतन्प्रकृतित्वाद्भिक्तचोदितत्वाच्च ॥ १० । २ । ४० ॥

न not, तु on the other hand, एतत् प्रकृतित्वात् by reason of its being its model, विभक्तचोदितत्वात् by reason of its being separately laid down.

40. On the other hand, it is not so by reason of its being a model and by its being separately laid down.

The author says that you are mistaken; the उदवसानीय sacrifice is a separate sacrifice, the सत्र is not its model. Further it is not like सौत्रामणि or वृहस्पतिसव. The word 'उदवसानीय' is derived from उद + अव + इयति + इयप् = उदवसाय 'after rising, or giving up' it means a ceremony commenced after the completion of a सत्र It is, therefore, an independent ceremony. The gift therein is, therefore, to secure the services.

Adhikarapa xiii, sūtras 41-42, dealing with the subject that in उदवसानीय, the कृत्विक् is different from the sacrificers.

तेषां तु वचनाद्द्वियज्ञवत्सहप्रयोगः स्यात् ॥१०२॥४१॥

तेषां their, तु on the other hand, वचनाद् by reason of the text; द्वियज्ञवत् like a sacrifice in which there are two sacrificers; सहप्रयोगः joint participation, स्यात् is

41. On the other hand, their joint participation by reason of the text, like the sacrifice in which two sacrificers take part.

There is a text, "सत्रादुदवसायपृष्ठशमनीयेनज्योतिष्टोमेनसहस्रदक्षिणेन यजेत्" "Having finished a सत्र, let them perform a sacrifice with ज्योतिष्टोम of पृष्ठशमनीय having a fee of a thousand

It has been established in the foregoing अधिकरण that उदवसानीय is not a part of a सत्र. The question is, whether all the sacrificers should simultaneously perform it or not. The reply of the objector is that all should join together, because in the text, the word 'यजेत्' which is in the plural form, is used, just as in a द्वियज्ञ the king and his priest join together ("राजपुरोहितौ सायुज्यकामौयजेयाताम्" "Let the king and his priest desirous of salvation perform a sacrifice"); so in a पृष्ठशमनीय all the sacrificers can join together,

तत्रान्यानृत्विजो वृणीरन् ॥ १० । २ । ४२ ॥

तत्र there; अन्यान् others; कृत्विजः priests, वृणीरन् should be appointed.

42. There, other priests should be appointed.

Before the author has answered the question propounded in sūtra 41, he has taken up another question in the present सूत्र. The question is, whether the sacrificers who are the priests in a सत्र or other priests should be appointed in an उदवसानीय. The reply of the author is that the priests should be appointed from the sacrificers, because the उदवसानीय is not apart from the सत्र.

Adhikaraṇa xiv, dealing with the subject that in उदवसानीय the priests should perform the sacrifice one after the other.

एकैकशस्त्वविप्रतिषेधात्प्रकृतेरैकसंयोगात् ॥१०।२।४३॥

एकैकशः one by one ; तु on the other hand ; अविप्रतिषेधात् by reason of no prohibition ; प्रकृतेः of the model sacrifice , च and , एकसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with one.

43. On the other hand, one by one by reason of no prohibition and because in the model sacrifice there is connection with one,

The author says in reply to the question propounded in sūtra 42, and left unsolved, that all should not perform the उदवसानीय but they should perform it one after the other because in the model sacrifice only one sacrificer is allowed to perform it and because there is no prohibition to adopt such procedure in the उदवसानीय. As to the example of द्वियज्ञ, he says that does not hold good in the case of an उदवसानीय. The plural is used, because all the sacrificers have to perform the उदवसानीय after the completion of the सत्र separately.

Adhikaraṇa xv. sūtras 44,45 dealing with the subject that in कामेष्टि, the donation is for the invisible effect.

कामेष्टौ च दानशब्दात् ॥ १० । २ । ४४ ॥

कामेष्टौ in a desire-accomplishing sacrifice ; च and ; दानशब्दात् by reason of the word 'gift'.

44. And in the कामेष्टि by reason of the word gift.

In the सत्र called सारस्वत there is a कामेष्टि, in connection with it, there is a text "प्लाक्षं प्रस्त्रयणं प्राश्वानयेकामायाष्टाकपालं पुरोडाशं निर्वपति तस्यामभ्वां पुरुषीचधेनुकेष्ट्वा प्रतियमुनामवमृथमभ्यषयन्ति" "Having sucked the juice of a fig tree, he offers cakes baked on eight pans to Agni for accomplishment of desire ; in it, having gifted a mare, a female slave and two cows, they go to the Yamunā for a bath "

Now the question is, whether the gift is for the purpose of hiring the priests. We have already seen that the gift in a वृद्धशमनीय is for the purpose of hiring the priests, though it is not a part of a सत्र. The objector says that similarly in a कामेष्टि also, the gift is for securing the services of the priests

वचनं वा सत्रत्वात् ॥ १० । २ । ४५ ॥

वचनं command, वा on the other hand ; सत्रत्वात् by reason of being a सत्र.

45. On the other hand, it is a command by reason of the सत्र.

The author says that it is the command which is binding, because it produces some invisible effect. The gift in कामेष्टि is, therefore, for a charitable purpose, further the कामेष्टि is a part of a सत्र and there the gift if made under a text is for the production of invisible extraordinary effect ; the gift can not be for the hiring of the priests as there are none in a सत्र.

Adhikaraṇa xvi dealing with the subject that a gift to an enemy in the new and full moon sacrifices is for charity (invisible effect)

द्वेष्ये च चोदनादक्षिणापनयात् ॥ १० । २ । ४६ ॥

द्वेष्ये in an enemy, च and ; अचोदनात् by reason of there being no command, दक्षिणापनयः non-application of fee ; स्यात् is.

46. And there is a non-application of fee in an enemy, by reason of there being no command.

In connection with दर्शपूर्णमासयाग, it is laid down “वदिपक्षीः संयाजयन् कपालमभिजुहुयाद्धैश्वानरंद्वादश कपालं निर्वपेत् ॥ तस्यैकहायनोगौर्दक्षिणा, तं सद्धे- स्यादद्यात्”. “If, while performing पक्षीसंयाज, one offers a cake, he shall offer a cake baked on twelve pans to वैश्वानर, its fee is one year old cow ; he shall give it to an enemy”.

The question is, whether one year old bullock is to be given to secure services or with a view to secure invisible effect The reply of the author is that the fee can not be given to an enemy to secure his services, being not ordered to do any work in the sacrifice ; the gift to him can not, therefore, be to secure his services but to secure religious virtue.

Adhikaraṇa xvii sūtras 47-48, dealing with the subject that the living persons are entitled to perform the अर्घ्ययज्ञ.

अस्थियज्ञोऽविप्रतिषेधादितरेषां स्याद्विप्रतिषेधादस्थिनाम्

॥ १० । २ । ४७ ॥

अस्थियज्ञः bone sacrifice , अपि also , अविप्रतिषेधात् by reason of no prohibition , इतरेषां of the other , स्यात् is , विप्रतिषेधात् by reason of prohibition , अस्थिनाम् of the bone.

47. The अस्थियज्ञ by reason of no prohibition, is of the others because of the prohibition of the bones.

There is a text "यदिसदीक्षितानां प्रमोयेततद्गन्धवा कृष्णाग्निने अस्थीनुपनक्ष योऽस्यनेदिष्ठस्तन्स्यस्थाने दीक्षयित्वातेनसह यजेरन् । ततः संवत्सरेऽग्निरन्याजयेत्"

"When any of the initiated sacrificer dies in the course of a सत्र, then his bones shall be placed on a deer's skin after cremating him. His nearest relation shall be initiated in his place and shall perform the sacrifice with them. For a year the bones may be made to sacrifice." The question is whether the bones should perform the सत्र or the living persons. There a text "अस्थिर्मुपदधाति" "He places the pot containing the bones".

This shows that the bones are capable of performing the सत्र. The reply of the author is that the bones of the dead can not perform the sacrifice and it is the living person who can do so , the अस्थियाग is for the living person but not for the dead. The living persons should perform the sacrifice for a year.

यावदुक्तमुपयोगः स्यात् ॥ १० । २ । ४८ ॥

यावदुक्तम् as much said , उपयोगः application ; स्यात् is.

48. As much said, is applicable.

The author says that you allege that there is a text which shows that the bones have a capacity to take part in the sacrifice. No, they are given the power of a sacrificer as much as the text could, but no further. The bones have not the full power of the sacrificer. So the bone-sacrifice is by the living persons.

Adhikarapa xviii dealing with the subject that the muttering of the prayers ~~is~~ not performed by the bones in the अस्थियज्ञ,

यदि तु वचनात्तेषां जपसंस्कारमर्थलुप्तं सेष्टि तदर्थत्वात्

॥ १० । २ । ४६ ॥

यदि if, तु on the other hand, वचनात् under a text, तेषां their, जपसंस्कारम् muttering of the prayer and shaving, अर्थलुप्तं for no purpose; सेष्टि with the इष्टि, तदर्थत्वात् by reason of its being for it.

49. On the other hand, if it is under a text, the muttering of the prayer and shaving are not to be performed being for no purpose; the इष्टि is much more so, by reason of its being for him.

The सूत्र is divided into two parts, in the first it is to be determined whether जप and shaving &c are to be performed in the अस्थियाग or not. The reply of the author is that the अस्थियाग is sanctioned under a special text, the जप and shaving &c, are for no purpose, so they need not be performed. In the second part of the सूत्र, the other question for solution is, whether the दीक्षणीयेष्टि should be performed. The reply is that it should not be performed, because it is for the sake of the sacrificer. The bones have not the capacity to be initiated "यजमानोदीक्षणीयस्यति" "A sacrificer shall be initiated".

Adhikarana xix. Dealing with the subject that the measuring of औदम्बरी branch and touching of शुक्र are to be performed.

क्रत्वर्थं तु क्रियेत गुणभूतत्वात् ॥

क्रत्वर्थं for the sacrifice; तु on the other hand; क्रियेत should be done; गुणभूतत्वात् being subordinate.

On the other hand, they should be done for the sacrifice, he being subordinate.

This sūtra is not given in शबर, but it is mentioned and numbered as a separate अधिकरण by other commentators.

In the model sacrifice, the branch of an औदम्बर tree is cut off according to the measure of the sacrificer and शुक्र cup is touched by him. The question is, whether these ceremonies should be performed in the bone-sacrifice or not. The obvious reply is in the negative according to the principle laid down in the preceding अधिकरण , but our author says that they should be performed, because they are performed for the sake of a sacrifice and the sacrificer is therein subordinate Abhikaraṇa xx dealing with the subject that in अस्थियज्ञ, the desire-accomplishing act should not be performed.

काम्यानि तु न विदन्ते कामा ज्ञानक्षयेतरस्यानुच्य-
मानानि ॥ १० । २ । ५० ॥

काम्यानि desire-accomplishing acts ; तु on the other hand ; न not ; विदन्ते exist , कामाज्ञानात् by reason of no knowledge of desire ; यथा just like , इतरस्य of the other ; अनुच्यमानानि not expressed

50. On the other hand, desire-accomplishing acts do not exist by reason of no knowledge of the desire, just like the desire of the other not expressed,

There is a ज्योतिष्टोम sacrifice ; there is a text in connection with it, 'यदिकामयतेवर्षेत् पर्जन्यमिति नीचैः सदोमिनुयाद्' "One who wishes rain to fall, let him construct the sacrifice-hall low".

Now the question is whether the desire-accomplishing act of making the pandal low, is to be performed in the अस्थियज्ञ The reply of the author is in the negative. The reason is that there is no desire left in the dead bones, like the desire of the living man when not expressed.

Abhikaraṇa xxi sūtras 51-58 dealing with the non-performance of the praises of the bones in the अस्थियज्ञ with the सूक्तवाक

ईहार्थाश्चाभावात्सूक्तवाकवत् ॥ १० । २ । ५१ ॥

ईहार्थाः objects of activity , च and , अभावात् by reason of the absence , सूक्तवाकवत् being fit in the praises

51. And they are with the objects of activity ; by reason of the absence, (they should not be performed) being fit in the सूक्तवाक (praises.)

In the अस्थियज्ञ there are प्रायणीयस् transferred from दर्शपूर्णमासवाज ; the सूक्तवाक is also transferred to it. "अयं यजमान आयुराशास्ते, सुप्रजास्त्वमाशास्ते-

विश्वप्रियमग्नास्ते यदनेनहविषाऽऽशास्ते तदस्यात् तदभ्यात् तदस्मैदेवारासताम्”
 “This sacrificer hopes for longevity, hopes for good progeny, hopes for universal popularity, and hopes it with this offering ; let him eat it, think it and let the gods reach him.”

Now the question is, whether the सूक्तवाक should be repeated or not. The reply of our author is that it should not be repeated, because it expresses the hopes which find their place in a living man but not in the dead bones , it is appropriate in the सूक्तवाक

स्युर्वाऽर्थवादत्वात् ॥ १० । २ । ५२ ॥

स्युः are , वा on the other hand , अर्थवादत्वात् by reason of being a praise.

52. On the other hand, it should be repeated being a praise.

The objector says that it should be repeated being अर्थवाद , there is nothing objectionable in it.

नेच्छाभिधानात्तदभावादितरस्मिन् ॥ १० । २ । ५३ ॥

न not so , इच्छाभिधानात् by reason of the mention of the desire , तदभावात् by reason of its being absent , इतरस्मिन् in the other.

53. Not so, by reason of the mention of the desire and that is absent in the other.

The author supports his view by saying that you are mistaken , the desire is expressed in the सूक्तवाकर्मन्त्र but there is no desire in the bones ; so the repetition of the सूक्तवाक should not be done as it will be ludicrous, the desires and hopes pertain to the living being but not to the dead bones

Adhikaraṇa xxii. sūtras 54 55 dealing with the subject that in an अस्थियज्ञ there is no desire of the होता.

स्युर्वा होतुकामाः ॥ १० । २ । ५४ ॥

स्युः are , वा on the other hand , होतुकामाः the desire of the Hotā

54. On the other hand, there is the desire of the Hotā.

Take for example the द्वादशाह ; there is a text “ततःसंवत्सरेभस्थीमिवाजयेत्”

"Then in a year let him make the bones perform a sacrifice".

The वीक्षा &c, are transferred under a चोदक text There are desires of the होता mentioned in the model sacrifice. "यंकामयेत् इह शुमान्स्यादिति पराचीतस्यैवामुपहृयेत् अपशुमानेवभवति । यंकामयेत् प्रमायुक्तः स्यादिति तस्योच्चैस्तरावचट्कुर्व्यात् । यंकामयेत् पापीयान् स्यादिति नीचैस्तरां तस्य पाप्यावचट्कुर्व्यात् यंकामयेत् वर्षीयान्स्यादिति उच्चैस्तरां तस्य पाप्यावचट्कुर्व्यात् ॥ "One who wishes that some one may become deprived of cattle, let him invoke इह conversely so that he may become deprived of cattle. One who wishes that another may be short lived, let him utter वचट् aloud, one who wishes that some one may become sinful, let him utter वचट् in a low voice with the पाप्या, one who wishes that another may become old, let him utter वचट् in a loud tone with the वर्षीयान्."

The question is whether the desire of the होता should be expressed in the case of the bones. According to the objector, they should be expressed as they come by चोदक text in the अस्तिवचन.

न तदापीष्टु इति ॥ १० । २ । ५५ ॥

न not so ; तदापीष्टुत् by reason of their being desires.

55. Not so, by reason of their being desires.

The reply of our author is that they should not be expressed, because they are hopes which can exist in a living person but not in the dead bones.

These five अधिकार्य are based on the principle of कृत्वाचिन्ता baseless anxiety. The bones of the deceased have been substituted in the place of the sacrificer. Now the question that naturally arises is, whether all the functions belonging to the sacrificer apply in the case of his dead bones. They are answered by our author in the negative with the exception of one सूत्र in which औदम्बरी branch measurement and touching of the शुक्र cup are given. This अधिकारण does not find its place in शबर's edition and very probably appears to be spurious, because the principle of कृत्वाचिन्ता does not strictly apply to it (See at P. 644)

Adhikaraṇa xxiii. atp. 56-57, dealing with the subject that सर्वस्व sacrifice should be performed after the death of the sacrificer.

सर्वस्वारस्यदिष्टगती समापनं न विद्यते कर्मणी जीवसंयोगात् ॥ १० । २ । ५६ ॥

सर्वस्वारस्य of सर्वस्वार ; दिष्टगती on the death ; समापनं completion ; न not ; विद्यते exists ; कर्मणः of action ; जीवसंयोगात् by reason of being connected with life.

56. On the death, the completion of the सर्वस्वार does not exist, because the action is connected with life.

There is सर्वस्वारयज्ञ , in connection with it there is a text “मरुत्कामो ह्येतेन-यजेत यः कामयेतानामयः स्वर्गोलीकमियां” “One who is desirous of death, let him perform this sacrifice i. e. one who wishes to go to heaven without any trouble”.

The question is, whether the सर्वस्वार should be completed when the sacrificer has reached his end. The reply of the objector is that as the sacrificer dies, the sacrifice commenced comes to an end ; so it need not be completed, because the action is connected with the life.

स्याद्वोभयोः प्रत्यक्षशिष्टत्वात् ॥ १० । २ । ५७ ॥

स्यात् is , वा on the other hand , उभयोः of both ; प्रत्यक्षशिष्टत्वात् by reason of the direct command

57. On the other hand, of both by reason of the direct command.

The reply of the author is, that both the commencement and the end are directly laid down , so the sacrifice must be completed by the agent appointed by the deceased. “आर्भवेप्रस्तूयमाने ओदम्बरी परितोऽदशेन वासस परिवेष्ट्य ब्राह्मणा परिसमापयन्मेवञ्च मृत्तिसम्प्रेष्यग्निं विशति” “On singing a आर्भवं and having dressed an ओदम्बरी branch with the new cloth, he enters the fire saying O ! Brāhmaṇas, finish my sacrifice”.

So we see the completion is to be achieved by the command give to the priests.

Adhikarṇa XXIV. dealing with the subject that touching of the end called शुक्ल ईश, & the parts of सर्वस्वार should be performed after the end of the sacrificer.

गते कर्मास्थियज्ञवत् ॥ १० । २ । ५८ ॥

मृते on death ; कर्मस्थित्यवकाशः the sacrifice like कर्मस्थित्यवकाशः.

58. On death, the sacrifice is like कर्मस्थित्यवकाशः.

The measurement of the औदम्बरी branch and touching of the cup are for the purpose of the sacrifice as seen in the bone-sacrifice under अग्निहोत्र 19, at p. 644. So here too they should be performed for the sake of the sacrifice.

Adhikaraṇa XXV sutras 59-60 dealing with the subject that in सर्वस्वार् on the death of the sacrificer, the desire for life should be expressed.

जीवत्यवचनमायुराशिषस्तदर्थत्वात् ॥ १० । २ । ५९ ॥

जीवति In the living ; अवचनम् no pronouncement ; आयुः life ; आशिषः benediction ; तदर्थत्वात् by reason of being for its object.

59. In the living, the benediction for life should not be pronounced, because that is for its object.

The होता reads a formula "आशास्तेयजमानः" "The sacrificer has a hope".

The question is whether this benediction for life should be pronounced in सर्वस्वार् where the sacrificer is desirous of dying and performs it to end his life. The reply of the objector is that it should not be uttered, as it is utterly inconsistent.

वचनं वा भागित्वात्प्राग्यथोक्तात् ॥ १० । २ । ६० ॥

वचनं formula, वा on the other hand ; भागित्वात् by reason of sharing it, प्राक् यथोक्तात् before the utterance as said

60. The formula should be uttered by reason of his sharing it before the utterance as said.

The author says that the सूत्र should be uttered, because he hopes to live before singing the आर्चमन्त्रवचनम् which is the allotted time for the death of the sacrificer. During this interval the sacrificer naturally wishes to live.

Adhikaraṇa xxvi. dealing with the performance of ऋतुयाज्य &c, in द्वादशाह.

क्रिया स्यादुर्ममात्राणाम् ॥ १० । २ । ६१ ॥

क्रिया procedure ; स्यात् is ; उर्ममात्राणाम् of the invisible purpose.

61. Procedure of the invisible purpose should be performed.

There is a द्वादशाह ; in this connection, there is a text "द्वादशाहसृष्टिकामा वपेदुः" "Let those who are desirous of prosperity, perform a द्वादशाह."

There is a certain procedure which is transferred from the model sacrifice as for instance, वरण appointment of a priest and आत्रेयद्विरप्यदानम् gift to the priest of the आत्रेय gotra. As we know that the द्वादशाह being a सत्र, is performed by the sacrificers without the assistance of the priest; the necessary result will be that there will be no appointment of the priests and the gifts to them. The reply of our author is that they should be performed in order to comply with the चोदक text and for production of the invisible effect

Adhikaraṇa xxvii dealing with the subject that in a पवमानेहि, निर्वाप is performed.

गुणलोपे च मुख्यस्य १० । २ । ६२ ॥

गुणलोपे on the omission of the subordinate ; च and ; मुख्यस्य of the principal.

62. And on the omission of the subordinate, the principal is omitted.

There are पवमानेहि in अग्निपाधान "योऽग्नयेपवमानाय पुरोडाशमष्टाकपात्रं निर्वपेत् । अग्नये पावकाग्नये शुचये" "Let him offer cakes on eight pans consecrated to the domestic fire, the holy fire, the pure fire."

There is a transfer under the चोदक text "अग्निहोत्रहवण्याहविनिर्वपेत्" "Let him make an offering with the अग्निहोत्र ladle."

In the अग्निहोत्र, the offerings are made to the fire with the sacrificial vessel. The sacrificial vessel is not used because there is no occasion for the अग्निहोत्र in the पवमानेहि. So the result is that when the vessel by which offerings are made in the fire is not used in the पवमानेहि, the offerings (निर्वाप) will not be made.

The reply of the author is that it is not necessary that on the omission of the subordinate, the principal must necessarily be omitted. The निर्वाप will be made though the instrument by which it is made, is omitted.

Adhikaraṇa xxxiii śātra 63-66 dealing with the subject that in वाजपेय, there is omission of the handfals.

मुष्टिलोपात्तु संख्यालोपस्तद्गुणत्वात्स्यात् ॥१०॥२॥६३॥

मुष्टिलोपात् by reason of dropping the handful, तु on the other hand ; संख्यालोपः dropping of the number ; तद्गुणत्वात् by reason of its being subordinate , स्यात् is.

63. On the other hand, it is better to drop the number than the handful, because it is subordinate.

There is a वाजपेय sacrifice ; in connection with it, it is said “शरदिवाजपेयेन स्वराज्यकामोयजेत्” “Let, one who is desirous of self-sovereignty, perform वाजपेय in the autumn” There it is said “नैवारः सप्तदशशरावः क्षीरेचूर्णवति” “The चरु is made of wild rice in milk in seventeen cups” In the model sacrifice the number of the handfuls is given चतुरोमुष्टीर्निर्वपति” “He offers four handfuls.”

Both are transferred in the modified sacrifice under a चोदक text. So we see that there are 17 cups of चरु in the modified sacrifice and 4 handfuls of the model sacrifice. The question is, whether the number may be omitted, or the handfuls be omitted or both of them. According to the objector, the number is to be omitted, it is subordinate and handfuls are principal, according to the principle laid down in the foregoing अधिकरण, the number being subordinate will have to be omitted.

न निर्वापशेषत्वात् ॥ १० । २ । ६४ ॥

न not so ; निर्वापशेषत्वात् by reason of being subordinate to the offering.

64. Not so, by reason of being subordinate to the offering.

The author says that the number in the sentence is an adjective of the handfuls but it is connected under the मुष्टि principle with the offering. You know मुष्टि prevails over the वाक्य. In this view, the handfuls will be suspended.

संख्या तु चोदनां प्रति सामान्यात्तद्विकारः संयोगाच्च

परं मुष्टेः ॥ १० । २ । ६५ ॥

संख्या the number ; तु on the other hand ; चोदनां to the injunction ; प्रति towards . सामान्यात् being common ; तद्विकारः its modification ; संयोगाच्च by connection ; च and ; परमुष्टेः farther of the handfuls.

65. On the other hand, the number being common with the injunction, is dropped and by connection, further the handfuls.

The 2nd objector comes forward and says that the number 4 of the model sacrifice is substituted by 17 handfuls and by cups ; so both the number and the measure should be set aside

न चोदनाभिसम्बन्धात्प्रकृती संस्कारयोगात्

॥ १० । २ । ६६ ॥

न not so , चोदनाभिसम्बन्धात् by reason of the connection with the injunction ; प्रकृतौ in the model sacrifice , संस्कारयोगात् by reason of the purificatory rite.

66. Not so, by reason of the connection with the injunction and by the connection with purificatory rite in the model sacrifice.

The author says that under the चोदक text the four handfuls are transferred ; if both are set aside, the sacrifice will be impossible. So neither of them will be set aside under the चोदक text , and further 17 cups will not be equal in measure to 4 handfuls So we have four handfuls also ; to obviate this difficulty neither of them will, therefore, be set aside, but on the contrary in order to preserve the number which happens first in the sentence, the handfuls which are subsequent in order shall be, consequently, omitted.

Adhikararāya xxix dealing with the subject that in the text 'वेजुमाकमेत' &c' the words वेजु &c. mean cow.

श्रौतपत्तिके तु द्रव्यतो विकारः स्यादकार्यात्वात्

॥ १० । २ । ६७ ॥

श्रौतपत्तिके in its origin ; तु on the other hand ; द्रव्यतः from substance विकारः ; suspension ; स्यात् is ; अकार्यत्वात् by reason of its being for no use.

67. On the other hand, when the word is applicable to the whole class in its origin, the substance is suspended by reason of its being of no use.

There is a text “आव श्रित्याञ्जुमालभेतमाकर्तव्यमैन्द्रभृषिम्” “Let him sacrifice a cow to heaven and earth, a calf to मरत् and a bullock to इद्र.” The word used are षेनु (a female of an animal who has given birth to a new offspring, वत्स offspring and ऋषम a male of an animal) They are adjectives and therefore applicable to the whole species. They, therefore, mean goat &c according to the objector. Do these words mean goat &c.? The author says that they are conventionally used in the sense of a cow calf and bullock but under a षोदक text they mean goat and others, but श्रुति prevails over वाक्य. Hence these terms mean cow &c. The goat &c. being of no use though transferred under a षोदक text, are not meant by these terms.

Adhikaraṇa XXX dealing with the subject that in the text “श्वेतमालभेत” the sacrifice of goat is meant.

नैमित्तिके तु कार्य्यत्वात्प्रकृतेः स्यात्तदापत्तेः॥१०।२।६८॥

नैमित्तिके in the accidental, तु on the other hand, कार्य्यत्वात् by reason of being of use, प्रकृतेः of the model sacrifice, स्यात् is, तदापत्तेः by reason of its being proper.

68. On the other hand, in the accidental being of use, because the model sacrifice is complied with.

There is a text “वायव्यश्वेतमालभेतभूतिकामः” “Let one who is desirous of prosperity sacrifice a white animal to Vāyu”

Now in the text the words श्वेत, is used which is an adjective and belongs to a class. The question is, whether the term means a goat or not. The reply of the author is, that when the term means a quality which does not clash with the model sacrifice, then the animal of the model sacrifice is meant. Here the term ‘श्वेत’ (white) is a quality and belongs to the whole class, but in the model sacrifice the goat is the animal used for the sacrifice. So the goat is meant by श्वेत, being appropriate and not contrary to the model sacrifice. Here the conventional sense of the word is omitted when the word is a quality.

Adhikaraṇa XXXI dealing with the subject that in the सायस्क and चित्रा, the peg and rice are not सहिर wood and wild rice respectively.

विप्रतिषेधे तद्वचनात्प्राकृतगुणलोपः स्यात्तेनच कर्मसंयोगात्

॥ १०।२।६९॥

विप्रतिषेधे on conflict, तद्वचनात् by reason of its text; प्राकृतगुणलोपः the omission of the quality of the model sacrifice; स्यात् is, तेन by it, च and; कर्मसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the act.

69. On conflict, by reason of its text the quality of the model sacrifice is omitted, because it is connected with the act.

In connection with सायक it is said खलेवालीयुगेभवति "A peg becomes a sacrificial post" In the model sacrifice the यूप is made of खदिर wood. "The question is whether the peg is made of खदिर wood or not"

In चित्रा it is laid down "दधिघृतमाषेधानास्तदुलालत्वं दृष्टं प्राजापत्यं भवति" "An offering to प्राजापति consists of the mixture of curd, ghee, water, parched rice and common rice."

In the model sacrifice the व्रीहि (wild rice) is used. The question is, whether the rice should be ground as wild rice. The reply of our author is that in this conflict, the procedure of the model sacrifice will be omitted, because it is connected with the action. It will be thus illustrated fully. In the model sacrifice the यूप is made of खदिर wood and certain ceremonies are performed which are explained from time to time in the preceding chapter as occasion arose, but here in सायक the peg is treated as यूप for all intents and purposes. It is ready-made, so there is no necessity of making it from the खदिर wood. In the case of rice, in the model sacrifice the rice is ground and converted into flour to make पुरोडाश cakes for the deity, but here nothing of the kind is to be done, because the rice mixed with other things is offered to प्राजापति.

Adhikarapa XXXii. sūtras 70-71 dealing with the subject that in the case of a peg, cutting &c should not be performed.

परेषां प्रतिषेधः स्यात् ॥ १० । २ । ७० ॥

परेषां of others, प्रतिषेधः prohibition, दृशत् is.

70. There is a prohibition of others.

Now the question is, whether cutting, hewing and erecting &c apply to खलेवाली. The reply of the author is that the peg to which the animal is tied is treated as a sacrificial post, under a special text, there is, therefore, no necessity of other ceremonies viz. cutting, hewing and setting up as it is ready-made.

प्रतिषेधाच्च ॥ १० । २ । ७१ ॥

प्रतिषेधात् by reason of prohibition ; च and

71. And by reason of prohibition.

The author gives another reason in support of his view. If you apply the cutting process to the peg, the entire nature will be changed ; it will be, no longer, a peg. So the very nature of the peg presupposes that there is no necessity of the process of cutting as it is ready-made.

Adhikaraṇa XXXIII dealing with the subject that the ceremonies of sprinkling round of water &c. should be performed on a peg

अर्थाभावे संस्कारत्वं स्यात् ॥ १० । २ । ७२ ॥

अर्थाभावे in the absence of the purpose , संस्कारत्वं performance of purificatory rite , स्यात् is.

72. If there be no visible effect to be produced in it, the rite should be performed.

There are certain ceremonies performed in the model sacrifice on a sacrificial post. They are, for instance, levelling of the ground with the मैत्रावरुण rod, sprinkling of water, forcibly driving it in the ground and anointing it. The question is, whether they should be performed or not in view of the principle laid down in the preceding adhikaraṇa. The reply of the author is that these ceremonies are not performed for the purpose of the peg but for the purpose of the sacrificial post. These ceremonies performed on the peg make it more firm to hold the animal ; so there is nothing wrong in performing them, because the object of anointing it, is to produce an invisible effect in the दूष, so they should be performed on the peg also.

Adhikaraṇa XXXIV, dealing with the subject that in a महापितृयज्ञ, pounding of the parched rice should be performed

अर्थेन च विपर्ययादेः तादर्थ्यात्तत्त्वमेव स्यात्

॥ १० । २ । ७३ ॥

अथन with the object, च and, विपर्यासे on transposition ; तादर्थ्यात् by reason of that being for it, तत्त्वम् existence ; एव also, स्यात् is.

73. And on the transposition of the object, the existence is not destroyed by reason of that being for it.

In connection with महापितृयज्ञ there is a text ; "सोमार्थगितुम-
तेषद्वृषालपितृभ्योवर्हिषद्वृष्ये घानः पितृभ्योऽग्निष्वातेभ्योऽभिवाम्यायैदुग्धे मथं" "To Soma with the manes, cakes baked on six earthen pans, to the manes sitting on the kuśa grass (वर्हिषद्) parched rice ; to the departed souls whom the fire has consumed (अग्निष्वासा), mixture called मथं in the milk of a cow whose calf is dead." The question for determination is, should the pounding be performed in the case of the parched rice ?
If it is done, the घान will be changed into a सक्तु (gruel) In this state, the author says that the order may be changed, that will not change the nature of the rice, it should be pounded first and then parched It will remain घान

According to अष्टकुमारिल, the illustration is taken from the latter part of the text quoted above viz. "पितृभ्योऽग्निष्वासेभ्योऽभिवाम्यायैदुग्धेमथं" "To the departed souls whom the fire has consumed (अग्निष्वासा) mixture called मथं in the milk of a cow whose calf is dead " अभिवाम्या is a cow whose calf is dead, मथं is a mixture prepared by throwing gruel in a liquid. It is thus described.

सक्तुभिः सर्पिषाभ्यर्क्तेः शीतवारिपरिप्लुतैः । नात्युष्णोनातिसांद्रश्चमथं इत्यभिधी- यते ॥ "मथं is neither very hot nor very thick and is a mixture of gruel with ghee and cold water."

In the model sacrifice, there is grinding first and then baking of the पुरोडाश cake afterwards, the order is here changed, first the rice is parched to make it घान and then ground to prepare the mixture called मथं

PĀDA III.

Adhikaraṇa I Sūtras 1 to 12 dealing with the subject that in animal sacrifice &c. the सामवेदी &c. which is the हतिकर्तव्यता of the model sacrifice should be performed

विकृतौ शब्दवत्त्वात्प्रधानस्य गुणानामधिकोत्पत्तिः
सन्निधानात्॥ १० । ३ । १ ॥

विकृतौ In the modified sacrifice ; शब्दवत्त्वात् by reason of the word ; प्रधानस्य of the principal , गुणानाम् of the subordinate acts ; अधिकोत्पत्तिः multiplication , सन्निधानात् by reason of proximity.

I. In the modified sacrifice, by reason of the word of the principal, the subordinate acts will multiply because it is near it.

In the Soma yāga, there is an अग्नीषोमीय animal “योदीक्षितोयदग्नीषोमीयपशुमालभेत” “An initiated one shall offer an अग्नीषोमीय animal.” In connection with it, it is said “एकादश प्रयाजान्यजति, एकादशानुयाजान्यजति” “He offers eleven प्रयाजः, he offers eleven अनुयाजः.”

Then further “चातुर्मास्यैः स्वर्गकामो यजेत” “Let one who is desirous of heaven perform four-month-sacrifice”

In this connection it is said “नवप्रयाजान् यजति नवानुयाजान्” “He offers nine प्रयाजः and nine अनुयाजः.”

Further “वायव्यश्चेतमालभेत भूतिकामः” (Āp Ś XIX. 163) “Let one who is desirous of prosperity, offer a white animal consecrated to वायुः.”

In this connection, it is said “हिरण्यगर्भः समवर्ततामे” ऋ० वे० १०।५२।१. “हिरण्यगर्भः existed in the beginning”, Ghee is sprinkled. In the अवबृथ (sacrificial bath) it is said “अप्सु नृणां प्रास्याचारमाचारयति” “Having tasted ghee, he sprinkles ghee on men in water”

The question is, whether the हतिकर्तव्यता is transferred from the model sacrifice or not. If not transferred, are these above mentioned acts separate acts? If transferred, are they गुणवित्तिः? The reply of the objector is that they are not transferred. The reason is that the terms ‘यजति’, ‘आचारयति’ show different acts, the हतिकर्तव्यता of the model sacrifice is not transferred because it is close to the principal.

प्रकृतिवत्तस्य चानुपरोधः ॥ १० । ३ । २ ॥

प्रकृतिवत् like the model sacrifice, तस्य its; च and; अनुपरोधः no obstruction.

2. And like the model sacrifice, there will be no obstruction of it.

The objector says in support of his view that in the model sacrifice there will be a regular and continuous procedure and all these terms indicate different acts

चोदनाप्रभुत्वाच्च ॥ १० । ३ । ३ ॥

चोदनाप्रभुत्वात् by reason of the power of the command, च and.

3. And by reason of the power of the command.

The objector says that these verbs have a force of a command; so they show different acts separately performed with their auxiliaries.

प्रधानं त्वङ्गसंयुक्तं तथाभूतमपूर्वं स्यात्तस्य विध्युपलक्षणात्सर्वो हि पूर्ववान्विधिरविशेषात्प्रवर्तितः ॥ १० । ३ । ४ ॥

प्रधानं the principal, तु on the other hand; अङ्गसंयुक्तं connected with the parts. तथाभूतम् in the object, अपूर्वं invisible effect; स्यात् is; तस्य its; विध्युपलक्षणात् by reason of its transfer to the modified sacrifice, सर्वः every one; पूर्ववान् having a precedent; विधिः model, अविशेषात् by reason of its being not special; प्रवर्तितः applies.

4. The principal consists of its subsidiary acts; in this state, it produces an invisible effect: by reason of its transfer to the modified sacrifice, every one of it has a model, because it applies without any distinction.

The author says that you are mistaken in your view; the principal act with all its details produces an invisible effect which is विध्युत् as explained in the foregoing chapter (see chapter vii Pada iv, Śūtra 10.

at p 431) It is transferred to the modified sacrifice; all the details which find their place in the model sacrifice, are therefore, transferred under a चादक text without any reservation.

न चाङ्गविधिरनङ्गे स्यात् ॥ १० । ३ । ५ ॥

न not, च and, अङ्गविधिः supplementary command pertaining to the parts, अनङ्गे in a sacrifice which has no part, स्यात् is.

5. And there can not be any अङ्गविधि in a sacrifice which has no parts.

The author says that they are subordinate and are गुणविधिस, just as drawing is possible on a canvas, so the गुणविधि is possible in a sacrifice which has subsidiary acts.

कर्मणश्चैकशब्दात्सन्निधाने विधेरान्वयासंयोगो गुणेन
तद्विकारः स्याच्छब्दस्य विधिगामित्वाद्गुणस्य चोपदेयत्वात्
॥ १० । ३ । ६ ॥

कर्मणः of the act, च and, एकशब्दात् by reason of one word, सन्निधाने in prox. mty, विधेः of the principal command, आख्या name, संयोगः with the connection, गुणेन with the subordinate act, तद्विकारः its modification, स्यात् is, शब्दस्य of the word, विधिगामित्वात् by reason of the application to the विधि, गुणस्य of the subordinate act, उपदेशत्वात् by reason of being ordained.

6. And the act (consisting of the principal and subordinate) by reason of one word ; being close to the principal विधि, the गुणविधि is connected with it under a name ; by this subordination, there is a modification because the word applies to the विधि and the subordinate acts are ordained,

The author says that when an act is mentioned, it means both the principal act and its details of which it consists. In this way the subordinate acts are included in the principal act, so they are गुणविधिस. The प्रधान is a subordinate act ; the number and the अङ्गानां that are pronounced there, vary in each sacrifice. So the command relates to the प्रयाज & , and the subordinate acts are thereby laid down. In this view these different details are only गुणविधिसः.

अकार्यत्वाच्च नाम्नः ॥ १० । ३ । ७ ॥

अकार्यत्वाच्च by reason of being for no purpose , च and ; नाम्नः of the word.

7. And by reason of the word being for no purpose.

The author says that the word is connected with the meaning , if it were not so, the whole would be of no purpose. So the details are subordinate parts.

तुल्याच्च प्रभुता गुणे ॥ १० । ३ । ८ ॥

तुल्या equal , च and , प्रभुता capable of conveying , गुणे in a subordinate act.

8 And they are equally capable of conveying the subordinate (act).

The objector said in sūtra 3 that verbs show the sacrificial act , the author says that the words have the power to convey the principal act with its details , it can equally convey the subordinate acts. One who can eat stones, can easily eat the cakes prepared from मुहग. (kidney bean). The author, therefore, concludes that the प्रयाज &c. are subordinate acts.

सर्वमेव प्रधानमिति चेत् ॥ १० । ३ । ९ ॥

सर्वम् all , एव certainly ; प्रधानम् principle ; इति चेत् if you say.

9. If you say "all are principal".

The objector says that on account of the use of the verbs, they are all equally principal acts.

तथाभूतेन संयोगादयथार्थविधयः स्युः ॥ १० । ३ । १० ॥

तथाभूतेन with that state , संयोगात् by reason of connection , अथर्वविधिः the विधि in their proper sense ह्युः are.

10. By reason of the connection with that state, the विधि will be in the proper sense of the term.

The author says in reply that from the verb the principal with the subordinate acts will be inferred. What is naturally a subordinate act will remain so and can not become a principal act by the force of the verb. By reason of this relationship of the principal with the subordinate acts, the verbs will convey the exact sense and will not disturb the mutual relationship. What is principal, will remain principal and what is subordinate will remain subordinate.

विधित्वं चाविशिष्ट मेवं प्राकृतानां वैकृतैः कर्मणायोगात्तस्मात्सर्वं प्रधानार्थम् ॥ १० । ३ । ११ ॥

विधित्वं the nature of injunction , च and , अविशिष्टम् not different ; एवं certainly , प्राकृतानां of the model sacrifices , वैकृतैः with the modified sacrifices , कर्मणायोगात् by reason of the connection of the act , तस्मात् therefore , सर्वं all , प्रधानार्थम् for the object of the principal.

11. And there is no difference of the injunction of the model sacrifice by reason of the connection of the act with the modified sacrifice ; therefore all is for the principal.

The author says that there is no difference with the nature of the विधि. What is विधि in the model sacrifice, is an अर्थवाद in the modified sacrifice. As for instance in the model sacrifice

“अग्निं स्विष्टकृतं यजति यज्ञस्य प्रतिद्वै” (ŚB. II. 2.3 24) “He sacrifices to the स्विष्टकृतं अग्नि for the permanence of the sacrifice.” It is a विधि but is an अर्थवाद in the modified sacrifice “अग्निं स्विष्टकृतं यजति यज्ञमेव प्रतिद्वै” “He sacrifices to स्विष्टकृतं अग्नि and makes the sacrifice permanent.”

In the model sacrifice “अक्षुषीवापतेयस्ययदाज्यभागी” “They are the eyes of the sacrifice, they-the offering of ghee”

In the modified sacrifice, “आज्यभागीयजनिचक्षुसीवूनंतरा” “He offers clarified butter, they are the eyes and no other”

All these are for the principal act ; hence they are subordinate acts.

समत्वाच्च तदुत्पत्तेः संस्कारैरधिकारः स्यात् ॥१०॥११॥

समत्वाच्च by reason of equality , च and तदुत्पत्तेः of their origin , संस्कारैः with the rites ; अधिकारः procedure, right , स्यात् is.

12. And by reason of the equality of their origin with the rites, the procedure is (regulated).

The author says that all can not be principal acts , in the model sacrifice, the प्रयाज is performed in the beginning, then the principal act commences and in the end the अनुयाज is performed So in the modified sacrifice the same order is reserved

“प्रजापतिर्यद्वह्मसृजन स आज्यं पुरस्तादसृजन पशुं मध्यतः पृथदाज्यं पश्चात्”
“The Lord of the universe created sacrifice , he created clarified butter first, animals in the middle, and the mixture of ghee in the end”

So we see the प्रयाज and अनुयाज are for the principal act and are, therefore, not principal.

Adhikarasya ii. cātra 13-17. dealing with the subject that in an animal sacrifice in honour of ब्रह्म, the latter part of the mantra हिरण्यगर्भं &c. used in sprinkling ghee, is subordinate.

हिरण्यगर्भः पूर्वस्य मन्त्रलिङ्गात् ॥ १० । ३ । १३ ॥

हिरण्यगर्भः, हिरण्यगर्भ , पूर्वस्य of the first part ; मन्त्रलिङ्गात् by the sign of the मंत्र.

13. हिरण्यगर्भं of the first part, by the sign of the मंत्र.

There is a sacrifice in honour of वायु "वायव्यंश्चेत्तमालमेतभूतिकायः" "Let one desirous of prosperity, sacrifice white animal consecrated to वायु"

There it is said, "हिरण्यगर्भःसमवर्ततामे भूतस्वजातः पतिरेक आसीत् । सदा चार पृथ्वीद्यामुतेमां कस्मैदेवाय हविषाविधेमः" ऋ. वे. १०।१२।११. "हिरण्यगर्भ (golden child) existed in the beginning, as soon born, he became lord of the creation : he supported this earth and the heaven: whom should we make our offering"?

Clarified butter should be sprinkled with this मंत्र The question is, which portion is to be used as the भाषार? The reply of the objector is that the first part is to be used as the गुणविधि, because in the model sacrifice the god is प्रजापति and here हिरण्यगर्भ is also synonymous with प्रजापति. This is an indicative mark in support of the objector's view.

प्रकृत्यनुपरोधाच्च ॥ १० । ३ । १४ ॥

प्रकृत्यनुपरोधात् by reason of no obstruction of the model sacrifice ; च and.

14. And by reason of no obstruction of the model sacrifice.

The objector says in support of his view that in this way the model sacrifice is complied with, if you use the latter part of the mantra ; "उद्धोष्वर" &c, the mantra used in the model sacrifice will be suspended.

उत्तरस्य वा मन्त्रार्थित्वात् ॥ १० । ३ । १५ ॥

उत्तरस्य of the latter part, वा on the other hand, मन्त्रार्थित्वात् by reason of the मन्त्र being for the purpose

15. On the other hand, the latter part by reason of the मन्त्र being for the purpose.

The author says that the first part of the मन्त्र is of no purpose ; it is not गुणविधि The ऋक् verse commencing with हिरण्यगर्भ is pronounced while sprinkling ghee Now it is to be seen which portion of it is for the purpose. The latter portion is "कस्मैदेवाय हविषाविधेमः", it is एकस्मैदेवाय, this is appropriate. Further the god is हवि, and क is synonymous with इन्द्र; so in this view also, the latter portion is appropriate and proper.

विध्यतिदेशात्तच्छ्रुतौ विकारः स्याद्गुणानामुपदेश-

त्वात् ॥ १० । ३ । १६ ॥

विध्यतिदेशात् by reason of the transfer of injunction, तच्छ्रुतौ in that which is laid down, विकारः modification, स्याद् is, गुणानाम् of the subordinate acts, उपदेशत्वात् by reason of being laid down.

16. By reason of the transfer of the injunction, there is a modification in that which is laid down; because the subordinate acts have been laid down.

The author says that in the model sacrifice, there is the mantra for आवाह " ऊर्ध्वोऽध्वरोदिष्टिस्पृशमहुनायज्ञोयहापतेरिन्द्रावान्स्वाहा वृद्धज्ञाः तै. सं. ३।१।२।१ "Swāhā to the master's sacrifice which is an extensive sacrifice touching the heaven, devoid of slaughter, not crooked, and performed in honour of Indra. It has great splendour "

Here we have हिरण्यगर्भं &c, to be used as मंत्र in sprinkling ghee. Now take the illustration, "this is curd, ghee, vegetable and rice, feed देवदत्त with these" "Feed यज्ञदत्त with oil like देवदत्त." Here we see the substance 'oil' sets aside ghee and other things remain intact, so also in the present case the latter part of the ऋक् in हिरण्यगर्भं will be of use and sets aside the ऊर्ध्वोऽध्वर" used in the model sacrifice, क being synonymous with इन्द्र

पूर्वस्मिंश्चामन्त्रत्वदर्शनात् ॥ १० । ३ । १७ ॥

पूर्वस्मिन् in the first part, च and, अमन्त्रत्वदर्शनात् by seeing the absence of मंत्र

17. And by seeing the absence of mantra in the first part.

The author says that the first part of आवाह in the model sacrifice is done silently without uttering the मंत्र and second part is the one in which there is the final word स्वाहा and that is the one which is set aside by the हिरण्यगर्भम्. From this argument, it appears that the latter part is गुणविधि

Adhikarapa III, sūtras 18-22. Dealing with the subject that in चातुर्मास्ययाग in some ceremony, the placing and tying are the subordinate acts of the model sacrifice

संस्कारे तु क्रियान्तरं तस्य विधायकत्वात् ॥१०॥३॥१८॥

संस्कारे in the purificatory rite ; तु on the other hand , क्रियान्तरं separate action ; तस्य its , विधायकत्वात् by reason of its being commanded

18. On the other hand, in the purificatory rites, there is a separate action by reason of its being commanded,

There are some ceremonies in connection with चातुर्मास्ययाग ; there is a text in connection with it उत्करेवाजिनमासादयति परिधीं पशुं नियुज्जत "They place whey on the heap of mud dug out from the altar and tie an animal to the fence stick "

The question is, whether placing of whey and tying of the animal are separate acts or are subordinate acts That question resolves itself into whether these acts are for producing some invisible effect or for some visible effect If the former, they are separate independent acts or if the latter, they are subordinate acts The reply of the objector is that they are separate acts The reason is that the placing of whey on the heap of the mud dug from the pit prepared for the altar is impossible by reason of its being high and being pointed at the top ; the परिधि being thin and lying straight is not fit for tying an animal. So these acts are performed out of charitable object

प्रकृत्यनुपरोधाच्च ॥ १० । ३ । १८ ॥

प्रकृत्यनुपरोधात् by reason of the model sacrifice being not obstructed ; च and,

19. And by reason of the model sacrifice being not obstructed,

The objector says that in this way the model sacrifice will be complied with ; the offering is placed on the altar and the animal is tied to the द्वार. So they are separate acts.

विधेस्तु तत्र भावात्सन्देहे यस्य शब्दस्तदर्थः स्यात्

॥ १० । ३ । २० ॥

विधेः of the command , तु on the other hand , तत्रभावात् being there , सन्देहे on doubt , यस्य whose ; शब्दः word , तदर्थः its meaning , स्यात् is.

20. On the other hand, the command being there by transfer, on doubt the word conveys the meaning in which it is used.

The author expresses his own view and says the placing of whey and tying of the animal are not separate acts ; they are subordinate acts These acts are transferred to the modified sacrifice under a बोद्धक text and we see their objects ; they should be performed for the objects for which they are performed, because the words convey the sense. Hence they are गुणविधिसः.

संस्कारसामर्थ्याद्गुणसंयोगाच्च ॥ १० । ३ । २१ ॥

संस्कारसामर्थ्यात् by reason of the power of the ceremony , गुणसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the quality , च and.

21. By reason by the power of the ceremony and by reason of the connection with the quality.

The author says in reply that you allege that the placing of whey and tying of the animal are not possible by reason of the pointed nature of the heap of the mud at the end and the thinness of the stick , but the end of the heap can be made wide and the stick can be enlarged. So they are not separate acts.

विप्रतिषेधात्क्रियाप्रकरणे स्यात् ॥ १० । ३ । २२ ॥

विप्रतिषेधात् by reason of the prohibition , क्रियाप्रकरणे in the context of the procedure , स्यात् is.

22. And by reason of the prohibition in the context of the procedure.

The author further says that you allege that as in the सौत्रासयि, the placing of whey is out of charitable purpose, so here also ; but there is prohibition by reason of the impossibility in producing visible effect in connection with सौत्रामणि ; there the placing of whey is for an invisible object but here it is for a visible object. The conclusion is that these acts are गुणविधिः.

Adhikaraṇa iv sūtras 23-29 dealing with the subject that in अग्निचयन both the offerings of the model and the modified sacrifices should be performed.

षड्भिर्दीक्षयतीति तासां मन्त्रविकारः श्रुतिसंयोगात्

॥ १० । ३ । २३ ॥

षड्भि with six ; दीक्षयति he initiates . इति participle used to complete a sentence, तासाम् their , मन्त्रविकारः the modification of a मन्त्र , श्रुतिसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the text

23. In the text "he initiates with six" the mantras are modified by reason of the connection with the text.

There is अग्निचयन "यएवविद्वानग्निं चिनुते" "One knowing this, establishes fire".

There are दीक्षाहुतिः both in the model and in the modified sacrifices. The आहुतिः in the model sacrifice are "आकृतिमग्निं प्रयुजं स्वाहा मनोमेवामग्निं प्रयुजं स्वाहा, चित्तं विज्ञातमग्निं प्रयुजं स्वाहा वाचोविधृतिमग्निं प्रयुजं स्वाहा, प्रजापतये मनवे स्वाहा, अग्नये वैश्वानगाय स्वाहा, विश्वैदेवस्य नेतुर्मर्तो बृणीत सख्यम् । विश्वेराय इधुष्यसिद्युम्नं बृणीतपुष्यसे स्वाहा" तै० सं० ४।१।१।१९. "Swāhā (welcome) to Agni who stimulates us for an undertaking , swāhā (welcome) to Agni who stimulates our mind and intellect , welcome to Agni who stimulates our brain which is a means of knowledge ; welcome to Agni who stimulates our retentive tongue; welcome to Mann, the progenitor; welcome to Agni who is favourable to all , welcome to thee who art divine supporter of the universe and whose patronage is wished for by man, and who art a master of wealth and from whom wealth is sought for performing a sacrifice."

The आहुतिः in the modified sacrifice are : आकृत्यै प्रयुजेऽग्नये स्वाहा, मेधावै मनसेऽग्नये स्वाहा, दोषायेऽपसेऽग्नये स्वाहा, सः स्वत्यै पूष्णेऽग्नये स्वाहा, आपो देवीर्बुध-

तीर्विश्वशंभुवोद्यावापृथिवी उर्वर्तगिदं बृहस्पतिर्नो हविषावृधातु स्वाहा, विश्वेदेवस्य नेतुर्मर्तो वृणीत सख्यं विश्वे राय इषुष्यसिद्युम्न वृणीत पुष्यसे स्वाहा” तै० सं० १।२।२।१.

“welcome to Agni who stimulates us for an undertaking, welcome to Agni who is my mind and intellect, welcome to Agni who is my vow and penance; welcome to Agni who is my tongue and supporter, let the divine copious, corn-producing water, heaven and earth, the vast sky and the lord of the universe increase with our offering and welcome to them, welcome to him who is the divine supporter of the universe and whose patronage is wished for by man and who is a master of wealth and from whom wealth is sought for performing a sacrifice.”

Having mentioned the आहुतिs, it is said ‘षड्भिर्दीक्षयति’ तै० सं० ५।१।१।१. He initiates with six.

The question is, whether the आहुतिs of the model sacrifice are suspended or both should be joined together. The reply of the objector is that the आहुतिs of the modified sacrifice will be performed, thereby suspending the आहुतिs of the model sacrifice, the reason is that there is an express word ‘six’ used in the text, it means the आहुतिs of the modified sacrifice thus suspending the आहुतिs of the model sacrifice.

अभ्यासात् प्रधानस्य ॥ १० । ३ । २४ ॥

अभ्यासात् by reason of the repetition, प्रधानस्य of the principal.

24. On the other hand, by reason of the repetition of the principal.

The author says that when there is no possibility of joining the practice of the model sacrifice with the modified sacrifice, there is no समुच्चय or aggregate, but where such a thing is possible, the doctrine of समुच्चय or tacking applies, in this view, the principal will be repeated. There is a text “द्वादशबुहोति” “He offers twelve” Adding the practice of the model sacrifice with that of the modified sacrifice is called समुच्चय (aggregate or tacking).

The tacking of the practice of the model sacrifice with the modified sacrifice is here possible.

आवृत्त्या मन्त्रकर्म स्यात् ॥ १० । ३ । २५ ॥

आवृत्त्या by repetition , मंत्रकर्म the act of uttering the मंत्र , स्यात् is.

25. By repetition, the act of uttering the मंत्र is done.

The objector says that there is an express text of enjoining the repetition of the मंत्रs for the modified sacrifice , if the repetition is to be made, the same मंत्रs of the modified sacrifice will be repeated twice over.

अपिवा प्रतिमन्त्रत्वात्प्राकृतानामहानिः स्यादन्यायश्च

कृतेऽभ्यासः ॥ १० । ३ । २६ ॥

अपि वा on the other hand , प्रतिमन्त्रत्वात् by reason of each मंत्र ; प्राकृतानाम् of the model sacrifice , अहानिः no suspension , स्यात् is , अन्यायः improper ; च and , कृते on once pronouncing , अभ्यास repetition.

26. On the other hand, by reason of each मंत्र, there is no suspension of the मन्त्रs of the model sacrifice , on once pronouncing the mantra of the modified sacrifice, the repetition of the same is improper.

The author says that you accept that there are 12 आहुतिस and you admit the repetition of the मन्त्रs of the modified sacrifice. In this view also, there is no suspension of the मन्त्रs of the model sacrifice ; because there are मन्त्रs of the model sacrifice ready at hand and the repetition of the same मन्त्रs of the modified sacrifice over again is improper. So there will be समुच्चय (tacking). You can very easily make up the aggregate by adding up the आहुतिस of both the model and modified sacrifices instead of repeating the आहुतिस of the modified sacrifice twice over which is improper.

पौर्वापर्यञ्चाभ्यासे नापपद्यते नैमित्तिकत्वात् ॥१०३२॥

पौर्वापर्यं priority and posteriority ; च and , अभ्यासे in a repetition न अपपद्यते does not arise , नैमित्तिकत्वात् by reason of their being correlative.

27. And the priority and posteriority do not arise in the case of repetition by reason of their being correlative.

The author gives a further reason in support of समुच्चय. He says "षट्पूर्वाभ्युहोति, षडुत्तराभ्युहोति" "He offers the former six, he offers the latter six."

The word पूर्व and उत्तर are correlative terms, if there were the repetition of the मन्त्र of the modified sacrifice only, these terms would not have been used; but their use, only in the case of समुच्चय where the six आहुतिस of the model sacrifice are added up with the six आहुतिस of the modified sacrifice, has significance.

तत्प्रथक्त्वं च दर्शयति ॥ १० । ३ । २८ ॥

तत्प्रथक्त्वं their separation, च and, दर्शयति indicates

28. And their separation shows.

There is a text "द्वयभ्युहोति अग्निकी चाध्वरिकी." "He makes both offerings pertaining to fire and sacrifice"

The author argues from this सिद्धि that there could not be a division of two sets of the आहुतिस i. e. the अग्निकी (of the modified sacrifice) and अध्वरिकी (of the model sacrifice). if there had not been an addition of two sorts of आहुतिस This fact also supports the doctrine of समुच्चय.

न चाविशेषाद्व्यपदेशः स्यात् ॥ १० । ३ । २९ ॥

न not, च and; अविशेषात् by reason of there being nothing special; व्यपदेशः the denomination, स्यात् is.

29. And there can be no denomination, by reason of there being nothing special.

The author says that there is a text "अध्वरस्व पूर्वमग्निरुपाग्निहोतृकर्म अग्निकर्म" "The first is the offering of the sacrifice, then subsequently that of the fire, that is the latter ceremony pertaining to fire"

The first अध्वरिकी and then अग्निकी are the divisions of the आहुतिस; this denomination also supports the doctrine of समुच्चय Had there been no difference in these आहुतिस, there would have been no such denomination.

Adhikāraṇa v. sūtras 30.33 dealing with the subject that in the re-establishment of fire, the fire of establishment of fire is omitted.

अग्न्याधेयस्य नैमित्तिके गुणविकारे दक्षिणादानम- धिकं स्याद्वाक्यसंयोगात् ॥ १० । ३ । ३० ॥

अग्न्याधेयस्य of the establishment of fire ; नैमित्तिके on being the cause , गुणविकारे on the modification of the subordinate act ; दक्षिणादानम् payment of fee ; अधिकं in addition , स्यात् is ; वाक्यसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the sentence.

30. On the establishment of fire being the cause and on the modification of the subordinate act, the payment of fee will be in addition by reason of the connection with the sentence.

There is पुनराधान (re-establishment of fire on some cause) ; “ माग्ययशः भीकामानां पुनरादधीत । योऽग्नीनाधायभाग्यज्यानिपुत्रज्यानि वा जीयेत सपुनरादधीत ” “Those who are desirous of fortune, fame and wealth shall re-establish fire, one who after establishing fire, lives old with fortune and son, shall re-establish fire.”

In this connection it is said, “पुनरुत्स्यूतं वासोदक्षिणापुनरुत्सष्टोऽनुब्धान्” “The cloth sewn again and a bullock dedicated again are the fees”

In connection with अग्न्याधान (establishment of fire) the fee mentioned is, “एकादेयाषड्देयाद्वादशदेयाश्चतुर्विंशतिर्देयाः शतदेयं सहस्रदेयमपरिमितदेयम्” “One should be given, six should be given, twelve should be given, twenty four should be given, hundred should be given, thousand should be given, an unlimited should be given.”

Now the question is, whether in पुनराधान the fee of the अग्न्याधान is suspended or is it paid in addition to the fee of पुनराधान ? The reply of the objector is that in view of the principle laid down in the preceding अधिकारणा, there is समुच्चय, the fee will be in addition to the fee of the पुनराधान because the अग्न्याधान is the cause of it and there is a text “उभयोर्ददाति अग्न्याधेयिकीश्चापुनराधेयिकीश्च” “He gives both namely the fees pertaining to establishment and re-establishment of fire.” There is, therefore, समुच्चय of the fee of the model sacrifice and that of the modified sacrifice.

शिष्टत्वाच्चेतरासां यथास्थानम् ॥ १० । ३ । ३१ ।

विशेषात् by reason of the text, च and इ तस्मात् of the others ; यथास्थानम् in the order.

31. And by reason of the text, there will be an aggregate of the other in order.

विकारस्त्वप्रकरणे हि काम्यानि ॥ १० । ३ । ३२ ॥

विकारः suspension, तु on the other hand, अपकरणे in no context ; हि because, काम्यानि desire-accomplishing.

32. On the other hand, there is suspension ; there it is not in the context, because they are desire-accomplishing.

The author says that there is no समुच्चय, but the principle of वाच्य applies and the fee of the model sacrifice will be suspended ; it has no bearing on the context of the modified sacrifice which is for a certain cause. What he means to say is that पुनराधान is performed for a certain cause and अन्याधान is its model, the fee of the model sacrifice is out of the context of the modified sacrifice, so there is no समुच्चय but वाच्य. As to the text of the payment of the fee “उभयोर्दक्षिणाद्वर्ति &c” (“He pays both kinds of fees”) it means that the fee of the अन्याधान is to be paid in अन्याधान and that of पुनराधान is to be paid in पुनराधान. So the fee of the model sacrifice is suspended

शङ्कते च निवृत्तेरुभयत्वं हि श्रूयते ॥ १० । ३ । ३३ ॥

शङ्कते inferred, च and, निवृत्तेः on suspension, उभयत्वं both, हि because ; श्रूयते is mentioned.

33. And the suspension is inferred because both are mentioned

The author says that the fee of the model sacrifice is suspended, because there is a text, “यद्वैकृतीर्द्वर्तिदक्षिणा उभयोऽपितेनदक्षिणा प्रस्ताभवंति । ननु उभयोऽपि प्रदीयते यत उभयोपि प्रस्ताभवंति” “When the fee of the modified sacrifice is paid both fees are thereby paid ; both fees are certainly paid since both fees have been paid”

This लिङ्ग also shows that the fee of the अन्याधान should be paid in अन्याधान and that of पुनराधान in पुनराधान. So the fee of अन्याधान will be suspended in पुनराधान.

Adhikaraṇa vi. dealing with the subject that in अग्रयण, the अन्वाहार्य fee is suspended by cloth and calf.

वासो वत्सञ्च सामान्यात् ॥ १० । ३ । ३४ ॥

वासः cloth ; वत्सः calf , च and , सामान्यात् by reason of being common.

34. And cloth and calf, by reason of being common.

There is an अग्रयण sacrifice , in this connection it is laid down “इताद्यायजमानस्यापराभवायनक्षानामैवान्य पुराणानामग्नेयः सौम्यः श्यामाङ्गो वै- श्वदेवः पशुसिद्धः पावाधियो एरुक्पातः” “For the first offering with a view to have the sacrificer victorious, of the new ones to Indra and Agni and of old ones to Agni, grass to Soma, boiled rice to विश्वदेवास and a cake baked on one pan to Heaven and Earth.”

About the fee it is said “वासोदक्षिणावत्सः प्रथमजोदक्षिणा” “cloth is the fee, the first born calf is the fee.”

In the model sacrifice, the fee is अन्वाहार्य which is defined as follows.

यच्छास्त्रं कर्मणामादौ याचते दक्षिणामवेत् ॥ आमावास्या द्वितीयं स्यादन्वाहार्यं विष्णुर्वा ॥ “The learned men say that the fees that are given at the funeral ceremony in the beginning and at the end, secondly that which are given on the new moon day are called अन्वाहार्य.”

The question is, whether the fee consisting of cloth and calf should be paid in addition to the अन्वाहार्य fee (which is paid at the end of any monthly ceremony or death anniversary). The reply of our author is that the fee paid in the form of cloth or calf suspends the payment of the अन्वाहार्य fee ; the reason is that each has its fee prescribed. It is common ; there is nothing special to show that there should be समुच्चय.

Adhikaraṇa vii dealing with the subject that in अग्रयण, the procedure of अन्वाहार्य fee applies to cloth and calf.

अर्थापत्तौस्तदुर्माः स्याद्विमित्ताख्याभिसंयोगात्

॥ १० । ३ । ३५ ॥

अर्थापत्तेः by reason of serving the purpose , तदुर्माः partaking its quality ; स्यात् is ; विमित्ताख्याभिसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the name of the cause.

35. By reason of serving the purpose, they partake of its quality, because they are connected with the name of the cause.

In connection with आग्रयण, the question is whether the gift of cloth and calf partakes of the nature of अन्वाहार्य fee or not. The reply of our author is, that it takes the place of अन्वाहार्य fee, so the procedure of अन्वाहार्य applies to it. The word दक्षिण is applicable to it which is made to secure the services.

Adhikaraṇa viii dealing with the subject that in आग्रयण, in the case of calf there is no cooking.

दाने पाकोऽर्थलक्षणः ॥ १० । ३ । ३६ ॥

दाने in the gift, पाकः cooking, अर्थलक्षणः mark of the object.

36. In the gift, the cooking which is the mark of the gift.

This is the case of suspension. The question is, whether cooking is to be performed in the case of the calf, the object of gift. The reply of our author is that it will be suspended, the reason is that the gift is to secure the services but not to feed the priest. So the cooking is not transferred from the model sacrifice. Further the calf, but not its flesh, is mentioned as an object of gift.

Adhikaraṇa ix dealing with the subject that in आग्रयण, in the case of cloth, there is no cooking.

पाकस्य चान्नकारित्वात् ॥ १० । ३ । ३७ ॥

पाकस्य of cooking : च and, चान्नकारित्वात् by reason of the food.

37. And of the cooking by reason of the food.

Now the question is whether the cooking should be performed on the cloth the object of gift. The reply of our author is that it should not be performed, because no use is served by cooking the cloth, which is not a food.

Adhikaraṇa x dealing with the subject that in the आग्रयण in the case of cloth and calf there is no sprinkling of ghee.

तथाभिचारणस्य ॥ १० । ३ । ३८ ॥

तथा similarly ; अभिचारणस्य of the sprinkling of ghee.

38 And similarly of the sprinkling of ghee,

This is the third case of suspension. The question is whether अभिचारण is to be performed on the cloth and calf ; it is done on the cooked rice with a view to give relish Here in the case of the calf and cloth, no relish is necessary to secure the services of the priest, so it need not be performed.

Adhikaraya x. sūtras 39-44 dealing with the subject that in a उयोतिष्टोम, the fee of 1200 is of the cows only

द्रव्यविधिसन्निधौ सङ्ख्या तेषां गुणत्वात्स्यात्

॥ १० । ३ । ३८ ॥

द्रव्यविधिसन्निधौ in proximity with the injunction relating to the substance, सङ्ख्या number, तेषां their, गुणत्वात् by reason of the subordinate nature ; स्यात् is

39. In proximity with the injunction relating to the substance, the number thereof is by reason of the subordinate nature.

There is a उयोतिष्टोम sacrifice, “उयोतिष्टोमेन स्वर्गकामोयजेत” “Let one who is desirous of heaven, perform उयोतिष्टोम ”

It is said in that connection “गोश्चाश्वश्चअश्वतरश्च गर्दभश्च अजाश्चावयश्च ब्रीहयश्च यवाश्चतिलाश्च माषाश्च तस्यह्यद्दशशतं दक्षिणा” “His fee of twelve hundred consists of cows, horses, mules, asses, goats, sheep, rice, barley, sesamum and beans ”

Now the question is, what does ‘1200’ qualify ? Does it qualify each substance or does it qualify the whole set of substances mentioned above or does it qualify any particular substance ?

The reply according to the 1st पूर्वपक्ष is, that ‘1200’ qualifies each substance mentioned in the text The reason is that, being in contact with the substance the number is a quality and therefore qualifies each substance separately

समत्वात् गुणानामेकस्य श्रुतिसंयोगात् ॥ १० । ३ । ४० ॥

समत्वात् by reason of equality, गुणानाम् of the subordinate acts ; एकस्य of one, श्रुतिसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the text.

40. On the other hand, by reason of the equality of the subordinate acts, it applies to one because of the mention in the text.

The second objector says that if the number applies to each separately, it is vague. It applies to one only, because in the text the singular number is used and all the subordinate acts are equally connected with the number. So the number applies to only one substance enumerated in the text.

यस्य वा सन्निधाने स्याद्वाक्यतो ह्यभिसम्बन्धः

॥ १० । ३ । ४१ ॥

यस्य whose ; वा on the other hand , सन्निधाने in proximity , स्यात् is , वाक्यतः syntactically , हि because , अभिसम्बन्धः connection.

41. On the other hand, it will apply to that which is near because it is syntactically connected.

The third objector says that it is accepted that the number applies to one substance only but I do not accept that it applies according to one's own choice. It applies to one which is very close to it in the sentence. The word 'मात्र' is close to it , so the number applies to it.

असंयुक्तास्तु तुल्यवदितराभिर्विधीयन्ते तस्मात्सर्वा-

धिकारः स्यात् ॥ १० । ३ । ४२ ॥

असंयुक्ताः being unconnected ; तु on the other hand ; तुल्यवत् like equal , इतराभिः with the others ; विधीयन्ते are laid down ; तस्मात् therefore ; सर्वाधिकारः application to all , स्यात् is.

42. On the other hand, being unconnected, like equal it is connected with others ; therefore it applies to all collectively.

The fourth objector steps in and says that if you qualify the मात्र with the adjective 1200, it is unconnected , but the whole set of substances is mentioned equally, so the number applies to all of them collectively. The number 1200, therefore, applies to all the substances taken together in one collection.

असंयोगाद्विधिश्रुतावेकजाताधिकारः स्याच्छ्रुत्याको-

पात्कतोः ॥ १० । ३ । ४३ ॥

असंयोगात् by reason of want of connection ; विधिश्रुती in scriptural injunction ; एकजाताधिकारः application to one class, स्यात् is, श्रुत्याकोपात् to avoid contradiction with the scriptural text ; कतोः of the sacrifice.

43. By reason of want of connection in the scriptural injunction, it applies to one class only and to avoid contradiction with the scriptural text, it applies to the sacrifice.

The Sūtra contains the view of our author ; he says that in the text the word 'तस्य' is used in the singular number, so the number can not apply to all the substances collectively ; it can therefore apply to one class only. In order to avoid the contradiction that would arise, the word 'तस्य' applies to the sacrifice. The passage therefore means that the fee of the sacrifice is 1200.

शब्दार्थश्चापि लोकवत् ॥ १० । ३ । ४४ ॥

शब्दार्थः signification of the word, च and, अपि also ; लोकवत् like the word in common language.

44. And the signification of the word is like the word in common language.

The author gives a reason in support of his view. He says that in common parlance also the number denotes one kind of substance. Give him hundred, it means a hundred of one class ; otherwise there will be a confusion. So according to our author the term 1200 governs one class of substance.

Adhikaraṇa xii sūtras 45-49 dealing with the subject that by the text "तस्य द्वादशशतं दक्षिणा" it means the number of cows.

सापशूनामुत्पत्तितो विभागात् ॥ १० । ३ । ४५ ॥

सा that, पशूनाम् of the animals ; उत्पत्तितः by virtue of the significant power, विभागात् by reason of the division.

45. That applies to animals by reason of the division by virtue of the significant power.

The author having established in the preceding अधिकार्य that the number applies to one of the substances of a class mentioned in the text, raises another question whether it applies to the animals or to the grains. He says that the number can apply to the animal because to the grain the word denoting number can not apply, but on the contrary, the term denoting quantity or measure applies. The terms denoting the measure of capacity are आवक, दोग, कुडव, खारी. Further the service can not be secured by the 1200 माष seeds. It is the number of the animals that can secure one's services.

अनियमोऽविशेषात् ॥ १० । ३ । ४६ ॥

अनियमः no rule, अविशेषात् by reason of there being nothing special.

46. (On the other hand,) there is no rule by reason of there being nothing special.

The objector says that your view is accepted, but there is nothing special to restrict the number it may apply to any animal mentioned in the text.

भागित्वाद्वा गवां स्यात् ॥ १० । ३ । ४७ ॥

भागित्वात् by reason of great usefulness, वा on the other hand, गवां of the cows, स्यात् is

47. On the other hand, of the cows by reason of great usefulness.

The author says that of the animals the cow is most useful, so she should be given as fee. The horse is also useful but its gift is prohibited "नकेसरिणोददाति नीभयतोदतः प्रतिगृह्णात" 'He does not give animals having mane and he does not take animals having two rows of teeth.'

प्रत्ययात् ॥ १० । ३ । ४८ ॥

प्रत्ययात् by the practice

48. By the practice.

The author gives another reason in support of his view. He says that the term 'cow' is first in the text and according to the usage, no other animal that comes after her in the text can have priority; so she has priority in the class of animals mentioned in the text.

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ १० । ३ । ४९ ॥

किङ्गदर्शनात् by seeing the indicative mark ; च and

49. And by seeing the indicative mark.

The author gives another reason based on the किङ्ग argument.

“सहस्रं दक्षिणा, सहस्रं स्तोत्रीया वाचस्य साहस्रस्य उदाराधरा गौर्गवि प्रतिष्ठिता तावदस्माज्जोकादसौलोकः” “इदं ते हव्ये काभ्ये च द्रेज्योतेर दिते सरस्वति महिषिभूति, एताते अग्न्ये नामानि देवेभ्यो मा सुकृतं भूतात्” (V.S. viii 8. 43, Ś B iv. 5. 8. 10)

“One thousand is the fee. There are thousand, psalms; as long as there are upper and lower rows of cows, of one thousand fixed in the class of cows, so long is the other world from this world” “O! Light, Aditi, Saraswati, great and renowned are thy names. O! unkillable (cow), who is fit to be worshipped, to be given, to be offered, to be desired and pleasant, well of me to the gods speak”

- So the number 1200, applies to cows only. In some editions the adhikaraṇas XI. and XII. have been grouped together and treated as one,

Adhikaraṇa xiii sūtras 50 52 dealing with the subject that the fee should be given after division.

तत्र दानं विभागेन प्रदानानां पृथक्त्वात् ॥१०॥३॥५०॥

तत्र there, दानं gift, विभागेन by division, प्रदानानां of the gift, पृथक्त्वात् by reason of separation.

50. There the gift is by division, by reason of the gift being separate.

It has been established that the fee in the ज्योतिष्टोम is 1200 cows; the next question is, whether the cows should be given to the priest collectively or should they be divided amongst them? The reply of our author is that they should be divided amongst the priests by the sacrificer, because the gift is separate to them.

परिक्रयाच्च लोकवत् ॥ १० । ३ । ५१ ॥

परिक्रयात् by reason of hiring ; च and, लोकवत् just as in common life.

51. And by reason of hiring, just as in common life.

The author gives another reason in support of his view. He says that the gift is with a view to secure the services of the priests. When a master hires a number of labourers, he pays them separately ; so here also the sacrificer must pay the priests separately.

विभागं चापि दर्शयति ॥ १० । ६ । ५२ ॥

विभागं division ; च and, अपि also ; दर्शयति shows.

52. And the division is shown.

The author says that there are texts which show division “तृयोवेविभवेदाविमत्रतु” (V.S. viii. 45, Ś B. iv. 3. 4. 15) “कृण्वन्निनेनविजाह्यदक्षिणां ददाति” “अग्नीध्रेऽग्रेददाति, अग्निमुज्जमेवपितृन् प्रीणाति, ब्रह्मणे ददाति प्रस्तूयै, होत्रे ददाति । जेष्ट्रे ददाति, हविर्धान आसीनेभ्यः अश्वयुभ्यो ददाति, उद्गातृभ्यो ददाति । अंतः सदसि आसीनेभ्यः यथाशब्दं प्रासर्पकेभ्यो ददाति” “Omniscient creator will distribute amongst you, having excited the greed with the skin of a black antelope, he gives a fee, he gives to अग्नीध्र first, he satisfies the Pitris only whose mouth is fire, he makes a gift to ब्रह्मा for progress, he makes a gift to Hotā ; he gives to जेष्ट्रा ; he gives to the अश्वयु priests sitting in a हविर्धान cart ; he pays a fee to the उद्गातृ priests ; he gives to the priests sitting in the middle of the assembly and moving forward, according to his power.”

Adhikara p. xiv cētra 53-55 dealing with the subject that the division of the fee depends on the समाख्या 10 • ज्योतिष्टोम.

समं स्यादश्रुतित्वात् ॥ १० । ३ । ५३ ॥

समं equal, स्यात् is, अश्रुतित्वात् by reason of its being not sanctioned by the Veda.

53. Equal by reason of its being not sanctioned by the Veda.

The next question for determination is, how should the division be effected? The objector replies that the division must be equal, because the contrary is not heard of in the Vedas. When a substance is given to a body collectively, the division will be, of course, equal amongst them.

अपि वा कर्मवैषम्यात् ॥ १० । ३ । ५४ ॥

अपि वा on the other hand, कर्मवैषम्यात् by reason of the inequality of the work done.

54. On the other hand, by reason of the inequality of the work done.

The second objector says no, there can not be an equal division. There will be an unequal division by reason of the inequality of the work done by the priests. Just as labourers are paid according to the amount of the work done, so the priests are also paid here.

अतुल्याः स्युः परिक्रये विषमाख्या विधिश्रुतौ परिक्रया कर्मण्युपपद्यते दर्शनाद्विशेषस्य तथाभ्युदये ॥१०३॥५॥

अतुल्याः unequal ; स्युः are , परिक्रये in hiring , विषमाख्या inequality ; विधिश्रुतौ under an injunction of a text , परिक्रयात् from hiring , कर्मणि in action ; उपपद्यते arises , दर्शनात् by seeing , विशेषस्य of the special text ; तथा similarly , अभ्युदये in future reward.

55. There is inequality in hiring ; the inequality arises under an injunction of the text but not by the inequality of the work done : because there is seen a special text in connection with future reward.

The author says that there is an inequality of distribution of the gifts not by reason of the inequality of the work done but by reason of the scriptural text which clearly permits it. In connection with the initiation उद्गाता it is said, “अभ्युद्युद्गृहपतिं दीक्षयित्वा ब्रह्माणदीक्षयति, तत उद्गातात् ततो होतारं । ततस्तं प्रतिप्रस्थाता दीक्षयित्वा अग्निं दीक्षयति । ब्रह्मणा च्छिनं ब्रह्मणः, प्रस्तोतारमुद्गातुः, मैत्रावरुणं होतुः । ततस्तं नेष्टा दीक्षयित्वा तृतीयो दीक्षयति । अग्नीध्रं ब्रह्मणः, प्रतिदत्तारमुद्गातुः, अच्चावाकं होतुः । ततस्तं उन्नेता दीक्षयित्वा पाविनी दीक्षयति । पोतारं ब्रह्मणः, सुब्रह्मण्यमुद्गातुः, प्रावस्तुतं होतुः । ततस्तमन्यो दीक्षयति ब्रह्मणः । वा आचार्यं प्रेषितः” ॥ “अभ्युद्गृहपतिं” after initiating the master of the house, initiates ब्रह्मा, then होता, then उद्गाता, then प्रतिप्रस्थाता initiating him initiates the second group, ब्रह्मणा च्छिन्ना from ब्रह्मा group, प्रस्तोता from उद्गाता group, मैत्रावरुण from होता group, then नेष्टा initiating him initiates the third group, अग्नीध्र from ब्रह्मा group, प्रतिदत्तार from उद्गाता group, अच्चावाक from होता group ; then उन्नेता initiating him, initiates the fourth group, पोता from ब्रह्मा group, सुब्रह्मण्य from उद्गाता group, प्रावस्तुन् from होता group : then another ब्रह्मण्य initiates him, either a religious student or one sent by the preceptor” (See at pp.

179 & 180). According to the above texts, the one share goes to अश्वधु, गहा, उहगाता, होता.

Half 1sharers are प्रतिप्रस्थाता, ब्रह्मजाच्छसी, प्रलोता, मैत्रावरुण; 1/3 sharers are नेहा, अग्नीध्र. प्रतिहर्षा, अच्छावाक, 1/4 sharers are पोता, सुमहायय, प्रावस्तुत, उन्नेता.

In this view there are $1 + \frac{1}{2} + \frac{1}{3} + \frac{1}{4} = \frac{12+6+4+3}{12} = \frac{25}{12}$

1. Out of 1200 cows, the share of अश्वधु group will be, by the rule of three,

$$\frac{25}{12} : 1 :: 1200$$

$$\frac{1200 \times 12}{25} = \frac{48 \times 25 \times 12}{25} = 48 \times 12 = 576 \text{ cows.}$$

II Out of 1200 cows, the share of प्रतिप्रस्थाता group will be, by the rule of three,

$$\frac{25}{12} \cdot \frac{1}{2} : 1200 = \frac{48 \times 25 \times 6 \times 2}{2 \times 25} = 48 \times 6 = 288 \text{ cows.}$$

III. Out of 1200 cows, the share of नेहा group will be, by the rule of three,

$$\frac{25}{12} : \frac{1}{3} :: 1200 = \frac{48 \times 25 \times 4 \times 3}{3 \times 25} = 48 \times 4 = 192 \text{ cows.}$$

IV. The share of the उन्नेता group out of 1200 cows will be, by the rule of three,

$$\frac{25}{12} : \frac{1}{4} :: 1200 = \frac{48 \times 25 \times 4 \times 3}{25 \times 4} = 48 \times 3 = 144 \text{ cows.}$$

The whole total comes to 1200 cows,

This is the distribution sanctioned by the text.

Adhikarana xv sutras 56-58 dealing with the subject that in the one-day-sacrifice called अश्वधु "अश्वधु" the fee of the whole sacrifice is suspended.

तस्य धेनुरिति गवां प्रकृती विभक्त्योदितत्वात्सा-

मान्यात्तद्विकारः स्यादश्वधेर्गुणशब्देन ॥ १० । ३ । ५६ ॥

अश्वधु his ; धेनुः cow ; इति a participle indicating quotation ; गवां of cow ; प्रकृती in the model sacrifice ; विभक्त्योदितत्वात् by reason of separate command ; सामान्यात् by reason of being common ; तद्विकारः its modification

स्यात् is ; यथा just as ; इष्टि oblation ; गुणशब्देन by the word indicating the quality.

56. The text "his cow" sets aside as a rule the 'cow' in the model sacrifice by reason of the separate command, just as the इष्टि by the word indicating the quality.

There is a भू sacrifice lasting for a day "अथैषभूर्वेभ्यदेवक्रिदूरेव सर्वस्य विश्ववत्यस्नोद्गीया धेनुर्दक्षिणा" "This भू sacrifice in honour of विश्वेदेव, the whole repeated thrice, its psalm is विश्ववती and the fee is cow."

In the foregoing अधिकरण we have been putting interpretation on the text relating to the fee in the model sacrifice ; now the question is as to the fee in the modified sacrifice ; the question is, whether the fee mentioned in the present text suspends the fee of the cow in the text mentioned in the commentary on sūtra 39 or all the substances mentioned therein. (see at p 675). The objector says that the fee in the text in the model sacrifice qualifies the cow, the horse &c. separately but in the modified sacrifice, the cow is the only fee. So the fee in the shape of the cow mentioned in the model sacrifice, is only suspended, while all other substances will remain intact as fees in the modified sacrifice. He gives an illustration "सौर्यनिर्वापेत्" "Let him make an offering to Sun-god," The word निर्वाप suspends the application of particular procedure of दर्शपूर्ण मासयाग.

सर्वस्य वा क्रतुसंयोगादेकत्वं दक्षिणार्थस्य गुणानां
कार्यैकत्वादर्थे विकृतौ श्रुतिभूतं स्यात्तस्मात् समवायाद्विकर्म
भिः ॥ १० । ३ । ५० ॥

सर्वस्य of all ; वा on the other hand ; क्रतुसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the sacrifice , एकत्वं oneness , दक्षिणार्थस्य of the object of the fee , गुणानाम् of the subordinate parts ; कार्यैकत्वात् by reason of oneness of an action , अर्थे in the object ; विकृतौ in the modified sacrifice ; श्रुतिभूतं dependent on a text ; स्यात् is , तस्मात् therefore , समवायाद् by reason of the connection ; हि because ; कर्मभिः with the action.

57. On the other hand, of all by reason of the connection with the sacrifice ; the oneness of the object of the fee by reason of the oneness of the action ; of the subordinate—acts in the modified sacrifice, the object of the model sacrifice, is governed by the text ; therefore by reason of the connection with the action.

The author says in reply to the objector, that you are mistaken in connecting the word 'fee' with every substance in the text of the model sacrifice. The fee comes at the end, meaning thereby that all substances from cows down to माव are the fee of the उयोतिष्टोम. Here in the शू sacrifice a cow is the only fee. So the whole of the model sacrifice will be suspended by the fee in the modified sacrifice. The action is one and its fee is one, the fee in the modified sacrifice is specially mentioned.

So the fee of the modified sacrifice will be, and there and as the fee of the model sacrifice is one, the whole of it will be, therefore, set aside.

चोदनानामनाश्रयाल्लिङ्गेन नियमः स्यात् ॥१०।३।५८॥

चोदनानाम् of the command, अनाश्रयात् being without support, लिङ्गेन by the form of the text, नियमः rule, स्यात् is.

58. By reason of the command being without support, the rule is by the force of the text.

The author says that you have given the illustration of सौर्ययाग but there चोदना is not sufficiently pointed out by any word indicating इतिक्रतुः प्रवृत्तिः; so the लिङ्ग indicated by the word निर्वाप governs the procedure; but in the present case we have the text showing a cow to be the fee of the sacrifice thereby setting aside the fee as mentioned in the text in connection with उयोतिष्टोम.

Abhikaraṇa xvi. sūtras 59-61. dealing with the subject tant in a सायस्कृ by the three years old heifer, all the means of purchase are suspended.

एका पञ्चेति धेनुवत् ॥ १० । ३ । ५९ ॥

एकापञ्चेति 'one and five', धेनुवत् like a cow.

59. 'One and five' like a cow.

There is a text "यस्य सोममपहरेयुरेकांशं दक्षिणा दद्यादमिदं धे पञ्चगा." "One whose soma is stolen, shall give one cow as a fee; on being burnt, 5 cows."

Now the question is, whether the numerals, one and five mentioned in this text suspend the entire fee of the sacrifice as in the case of the cow according to the principle laid down in the preceding section. The reply of the objector is in the affirmative in accordance with the principle laid down in the preceding अधिकारः. The other commentators have treated this sūtra as a separate अधिकारः but we have followed our learned commentator शबर

Without finishing the reply, the author gives another independent sūtra.

त्रिवत्सश्च ॥ १० । ३ । ६० ॥ ॥

त्रिवत्सः three years old heifer ; च and

60. And 3 year-old-heifer.

In connection with सायस्क there is a text "सोमक्रयः स्वर्द्धमानानां" "The purchase of soma by the competitors, is by means of a three-years old hieifer "

There are other means of purchase transferred under a चोदक text "अजया कीणाति, अश्वमेधकीणाति, अश्वशफेनकीणाति, वाससाकीणाति" "He purchases it with a goat ; he purchases it with a bullock , he purchases it with the hoof of a horse , he purchases it with a cloth."

The question is whether the 3 years old-heifer suspends the bullock or the whole means of purchase mentioned in the model sacrifice. The reply is that all the means of purchase are set aside, because they are connected with the purchase.

तथा च लिङ्गदर्शनम् १० । ३ । ६१ ॥

तथा similarly , च and , लिङ्गदर्शनम् , लिङ्ग is seen.

61. Similarly the लिङ्ग is seen.

The author relies on the लिङ्ग argument "अपरस्मिन् सायस्के जीगौः सोमक्रयणीव्यः वृशास्त्रेवांस्पर्द्धा" "In the latter सायस्क, a female cow which is a means of the purchase of सोम and about whom competition is certainly excluded."

From the term स्वर्द्धा (emulation, competition) it is clearly inferred that the female cow suspends all the means of purchase, so here also.

Adhikaraṇa xvii that in the text "यस्यसोममपहरेयुः" &c. by 'वृशां' the number of cows is suspended.

एके तु श्रुतिभूतत्वात्सङ्ख्यया गवां लिङ्गविशेषेण
॥ १० । ३ । ६२ ॥

एके in one ; तु on the other hand , श्रुतिभूतत्वात् by the reason of its being dependent on the text ; संख्यया with the number , गवां of cows, लिङ्गविशेषेण by the special लिङ्ग

62. On the other hand, in one by reason of the text with the number of the cows, by the special लिङ्ग.

In the present सूत्र, the reply of the author to the question in the sūtra 59, is embodied. The author says that one cow is in the place of 1200 cows, by reason of the text mentioned in sūtra 59. We see that it is the number of the cows which is important and which alone is set aside. So all other objects of payment are left intact and it is the number of the cow only which is altered.

Adhikara pa xviii. sūtras 60-64 dealing with the subject that in अश्वमेध by "प्रकाश" the portion of अश्वयु is suspended

प्राकाशौ तथेति चेत् ॥ १० । ३ । ६३ ॥

प्रकाशौ candle (sticks) ; तथा similarly , इति चेन् if you say.

63. And similarly 'candlestick', if you say.

In connection with अश्वमेध, it is said "हिरण्यमयौ प्रकाशावश्वयवेददाति"
"He gives gold candle sticks to an अश्वयु priest."

The word 'प्रकाश' means a candle stick according to one, and according to others it means a mirror. The question is, whether the gift of golden stand for lamp dispenses with the entire payment of the fee of the sacrifice or does it suspend the payment of the portion of the अश्वयु's fee? The difficulty arises in this way, if the word ददाति is connected with the 'प्रकाश', then it dispenses with the payment of the entire fee and if it is connected with अश्वयु's then it suspends the payment of the share allotted to the अश्वयु. According to the objector, it is connected with, 'प्रकाश' so the payment of the entire fee is dispensed with.

अपि त्वय्यवार्थत्वाद्विभक्तप्रकृतित्वाद्गुणोदन्ताविकारः
स्यात् ॥ १० । ३ । ६४ ॥

अपि on the other hand ; अववाच्यत्वात् by reason of being for the purpose of a part ; विभक्त्युक्तिश्चात् by reason of being divided in the model sacrifice ; ग्रन्थेर्वाविकारः the modification in the extent of the subordinate act , स्यात् is.

64. On the other hand, being for the purpose of a part and being separate in the model sacrifice, there is a modification in the extent of the subordinate act.

The author says that you are mistaken , here the text limits the payment of the golden stand to one part i. e. to अश्वयु' only ; further we also see that the shares of all the priests are divided: (see sūtra 55 and its commentary at pp. 661, 662) in this view there is setting aside of the share of the अश्वयु' only but not of the whole gift. The अश्वयु' gets a gold stand for lamp or mirror in lieu of the share allotted to him in the model sacrifice. So his share will be suspended (dispensed with) in the language of the नीमांसा.

Adhikaraṇa xix sūtras 65-67 dealing with the subject that in उपहृद्य sacrifice, the fee of the entire sacrifice is suspended by horse.

धेनुवच्चाश्वदक्षिणा स ब्रह्मण इति पुरुषापनयो यथा
हिरण्यस्य ॥ १० । ३ । ६५ ॥

धेनुवत् like cow ; अश्वदक्षिणा the fee of the horse ; स ब्रह्मण that to Brāhmaṇa priest ; पुरुषापनयः the deprivation of other priests ; यथा just as , हिरण्यस्य in the case of gold.

65. And like 'cow' the fee of the horse , that to Brāhmaṇa priests: the deprivation of other priests just as in the case of the gold.

There is उपहृद्य sacrifice, in this connection, it is said "उपहृद्योऽनिरुक्तस्तेना-
मिशस्यमानं याजयेत्" "उपहृद्य is not defined , let him make the praiseworthy, perform a sacrifice with it"

The fee mentioned is "अश्वः श्यावोदरमललादोदक्षिणा" "सहानिरुक्तस्य ब्रह्मणेदयः" "The fee consists of a dark horse of golden forehead" "It is not defined , it should be given to the ब्रह्मा priest."

The question is whether the gift of the horse to ब्रह्मा suspends the payment of his own share as laid in the preceding अधिकरण or does it suspend the entire payment of the fee as laid down in Adhikaraṇa xv. relating to धेनु in भू sacrifice? (See at p. 684) The reply of the author is that the entire payment will be suspended as in the case of भू sacrifice, because the fee of horse is mentioned and that is to be paid to Brahma; the other priests will be deprived just as golden कृष्णल are given to ब्रह्मा alone. In order to secure the services of other priests, they may be paid otherwise.

एके तु कर्तृसंयोगात्स्ववत्तस्य लिङ्गविशेषेण ॥१०३१६॥

एके in one, तु on the other hand कर्तृसंयोगात् by reason of the mention of the agent; स्ववत् like a garland, तस्य its, लिङ्गविशेषेण by special लिङ्ग

66. On the other hand, it suspends only one portion by reason of the mention of the agent, like a garland, by special लिङ्ग.

The objector says that it suspends the payment of the share of the ब्रह्मा priest, because he is expressly mentioned. He says that the illustration of garland is appropriate but not that of gold कृष्णल "सजमुद्रगात्रेददाति" "He gives a garland to the उद्गाता priest."

अपि वा तदधिकाराद्विरण्यवद्विकारः स्यात् ॥१०३१६॥

अपि वा on the other hand, तदधिकारात् by reason of its being under that topic, विरण्यवत् like the gold, विकारः the modification; स्यात् is.

67. On the other hand, by reason of its being under that topic, the modification is like the gold.

The author says in reply to the doubt expressed by the objector in the preceding sūtra. The gift of horse occurs in connection with the fee, so it sets aside the payment of the entire fee of the model sacrifice and the illustration of the payment of golden कृष्णल to ब्रह्मा alone holds good.

Adhikaraṇa xx. sūtras 68—72 dealing with the subject that in the अतयेय with सोमचमस, the payment of the entire sacrifice is suspended.

तथा च सोमचमसः ॥ १० । ३ । ६८ ॥

तथा similarly; च and; सोमचमसः the Somachamas (soma cup).

68. And similarly the soma chamas (Soma cup).

There is a ऋतुपेय sacrifice ; in this connection, the fee mentioned is, "ऋतुम्बरः सोमचमसो दक्षिणा स प्रियाय सगोत्राय ब्रह्मणे देयः." "The fee is soma-cup made of उदुम्बर wood ; it ought to be given to the dear ब्रह्मा of the same clan."

The question is, whether it suspends the payment of the share allotted to ब्रह्मा or does it suspend the payment of the fee of the entire sacrifice ? The reply of the objector is, just as the offer of the garland suspends the payment of fee to उदुम्बरात्, so does the offer of सोम ladle made of उदुम्बर wood suspends the payment of the fee of the entire sacrifice.

सर्वविकारो वा क्रत्वर्थे प्रतिषेधात् पशूनां ॥१०॥३॥६॥

सर्वविकारः the modification of all, वा on the other hand ; क्रत्वर्थे for the purpose of a sacrifice ; प्रतिषेधात् by reason of prohibition, पशूनाम् of the animals.

69. On the other hand, the modification of all, because for the purpose of sacrifice the animals are prohibited.

The author says that it not only suspends the payment of ब्रह्मा's share but the gift of the entire sacrifice also, because there is a prohibition of the gift of the animals. "ऋतुवैसोमोऽनृतं पशवो यत् पशून् दद्यात् सोऽनृतं कुर्यात् ऋतुम्बरः सोमचमसो दक्षिणा" "Soma is truth, the animals are false; one who gives animals is false : the fee is soma cup made of उदुम्बर wood "

The gift of animals is prohibited and instead of them, the gift of soma ladle, made of उदुम्बर wood is ordained. So the entire gift is set aside ; in this view, the animals will be given to other priests.

ब्रह्मदानेऽविशिष्टमिति चेत् ॥ १० । ३ । ७० ॥

ब्रह्मदाने in the gift to ब्रह्मा ; अविशिष्टम् not particular ; इति चेत् if you say.

70. 'It is not particular with the gift to ब्रह्मा', if you say.

The objector says there is no prohibition concerning the gift to ब्रह्मा ; the text means that the gift of सोमचमस should be made to ब्रह्मा to whom the animals are given as a gift ; so the text can be construed as sanctioning the gift.

उत्सर्गस्य क्रत्वर्थत्वात्प्रतिषिद्धस्य कर्मस्यास्य च गौणः
प्रयोजनमर्थः स दक्षिणानां स्यात् ॥ १० । ३ । ७१ ॥

उत्सर्गस्य of the gift ; क्रत्वर्थत्वात् being for the sacrifice ; प्रतिषिद्धस्य of the prohibited , कर्म action ; स्यात् is , न not ; च and ; गौणः subordinate ; प्रयोजनम् purpose , स that ; दक्षिणानां of the fee ; स्यात् is.

71. The gift being for the sacrifice, there is no action of the prohibited ; nor is the purpose with the subordinate acts ; that object is with the fee.

The author says in reply that the gift of सोमचमस suspends the payment of the fee of the entire sacrifice, the gift of the soma ladle is क्रत्वर्थ (for the purpose of the sacrifice) and the gift of animals is prohibited and is not allowed , the gift to ब्रह्मा is not the fee of the entire sacrifice, it is a part of it , in the presence of the principal, the subordinate acts will not be thrust in. The object of the gift of सोमचमस is to set aside the gift of the entire sacrifice and the object of the gift of the entire sacrifice is to secure the services of the priests. So the conclusion is that by the gift of सोमचमस, payment of the fee of the entire sacrifice is suspended.

यदि तु ब्रह्मणस्तदूनं तद्विकारः स्यात् ॥ १० । ३ । ७२ ॥

यदि if , तु on the other hand ; ब्रह्मणः to ब्रह्मा ; तदूनं without it ; तद्विकारः its modification , स्यात् is.

72. On the other hand, if to the ब्रह्मा, without it there is a modification.

In this अधिकार्य. these two sūtras are connected together. The objector says that if you give the soma चमस to ब्रह्मा alone, the rest of the gift minus the gift to ब्रह्मा remains in the modified form.

सर्वं वा पुरुषापनधात्तासां क्रतुप्रधानत्वात् ॥ १० । ३ । ७३ ॥

सर्वम् all , वा on the other hand ; पुरुषापनधात् by reason of deprivation of the other priests ; तासां theirs ; क्रतुप्रधानत्वात् by reason of the sacrifice being principal.

73. On the other hand, the entire by reason of the deprivation of the other priests and by reason of the sacrifice being principal.

The author says that the gift given to ब्रह्मा is the fee of the entire sacrifice and other priests do not, therefore, get any share in it. When a fee is given, it is meant for the entire sacrifice, but not for any particular individual. The other priests get nothing. The fee of the entire sacrifice as given in the text (see the commentary on sūtra 39 at p. 675) is suspended.

The sūtras 72-73. are classed under a different अधिकार्य dealing with the subject that by 'सोमचमसेन', there is a suspension of the entire fee and other priests.

Commentary on sūtra 72.

The objector says that by the gift of सोमचमस, the fee of ब्रह्मा is paid up and the remainder of the fee may be given to others.

Commentary on 73.

The author says that the entire fee of the sacrifice is paid by the gift of सोमचमस to ब्रह्मा.

Adhikara pa xxi sūtras 74-75. dealing with the subject that in वाजपेय, there is a rule to distinguish the chariot allotted.

यजुर्युक्तेऽध्वर्योर्दक्षिणा विकारः स्यात् ॥१०॥१॥७४॥

यजुर्युक्ते in the charist yoked with यजुमन्त्र, दु on the other hand; अध्वर्योः of अध्वर्यु' priests, दक्षिणाविकारः suspension of the fee; स्यात् is.

74. On the other hand, in the chariot yoked with यजुमन्त्र, there is the suspension of the fee of अध्वर्यु'.

In connection with वाजपेय sacrifice there is a text; "यजुर्युक्तेऽध्वर्योर्देवदाति" "He makes a gift of a chariot, yoked while यजु mantras were uttered, to an अध्वर्यु' priest."

There are chariots, carts, slaves, coins &c. given to the priests. They are all seventeen in number. There are 17 chariots; one is for the sacrificer the chariot which is adorned with मन्त्र of the यजुर्युक्ते is offered to यजुमन्त्र at the time of gift. Now the question is, when this gift to अध्वर्यु' in the form of a chariot is given, whether the अध्वर्यु' gets other shares or not. The reply of the objector is that when the chariot is offered to यजुमन्त्र, he does not get any other share in the chariots, slaves, carts, coins &c.

अपि वा श्रुतिभूतत्वात्सर्वासां तस्य भागो नियम्यते

॥ १० । ३ । ७५ ॥

अपि वा on the other hand , श्रुतिभूतत्वात् by reason of the text ; सर्वासां of all , तस्य his , भागः share ; नियम्यते demarcated.

75. On the other hand, by reason of the text, of all gifts, his share is demarcated.

The author says that you are mistaken in applying the principle of वाच here , the thing is that in compliance with the text, the gift is promised but in order to specify the shares of the priests, the chariots are marked out thus The chariot adorned with the mantras of यजु is offered to अश्वयु, that adorned with rik mantras to होतृ and the one that is adorned with the Soma मंत्र is given to उद्गाता. This is the rule for the guidance of the sacrificer in distributing the chariots, but that does not suspend the payment of other fees.

END OF PĀDA III.

PADA IV.

In this पाद, the author deals with समुच्चय.

Adhikaraṇa 1 verses 1—2 dealing with the subject that in अग्निनक्षत्र, भारिहोम &c. there is a combination with नक्षत्रेहि &c.

प्रकृतिलिङ्गासंयोगात्कर्मसंस्कारं विकृतावधिकं स्यात्

॥ १० । ४ । १ ॥

प्रकृतिलिङ्गासंयोगात् by reason of there being no connection with the mark of the model sacrifice ; संस्कारं the purificatory rite ; विकृतौ in the modified sacrifice ; अवधिकं in addition ; स्यात् is.

1. By reason of there being no connection with the mark of the model sacrifice, the purificatory rite in the modified sacrifice will be in addition.

1, There is अग्निचयन "य एष विद्वानग्निचिनुते" "One who knows it establishes fire." There are नक्षत्रेष्टि in connection with it.

"अग्नये कृत्तिकाभ्यः पुरोडाशमष्टाकपालं निर्वपेत् । सोऽनुजुहोति । अग्नये स्वाहा, कृत्तिकाभ्यः स्वाहा. अम्बायै स्वाहा, नियतये स्वाहा, अन्नपतिरै स्वाहा, निवर्गपत्यै स्वाहा निपुणकायै स्वाहा" "Let him offer cakes baked on eight earthen pans to Agni and Krittikas." He offers oblations afterwards, hail to Agni, hail to Krittikas, hail to अम्बा, hail to destiny, hail to अन्नपति, hail to निवर्गपति; hail to the clever goddess "

1. There are गारिह homas in the model sacrifice. The question for solution in this अधिकरण is, whether the नक्षत्रेष्टि supersede the गारिहहोम or they are to be performed in addition.

2. In connection with श्येनयाग, it is said "लोहितोष्णीषा लोहितवस्त्रा निर्वी- ता श्रुतिवजः प्रचरन्ति" "The priests with red turbans, red dress and sacred thread on the left shoulder move about "

In the model sacrifice, it is laid down "निर्वीतमनुप्याणां प्राचीना वीतं पितृ- णामुपवीतं देवानामुपव्ययते तदेव लक्ष्ममेव तत्कुरुते" "nirvīta is of men; prāchināvīta is of the manes, upavīta is of the gods. He who puts on upavīta, accepts the symbol of gods." (see at pp 124 and 126)

The question is whether the उपवीत is superseded or not.

3. In connection with the घृष्टवपद it is said 'मध्वाशयेद्वचुर्नवा' "He shall eat honey or ghee."

Then in the model sacrifice, it is laid down "पयोद्वतं ब्राह्मणस्य यवागुरुज-म्वस्यामिक्षा वैश्यस्य" "The fast of a Brāhmaṇa is by milk, that of a kṣattriya is by gruel and that of a Vaiśya a by curd dish" (see at p. 307). The question is, whether it is a case of supersession or of combination. The reply in the ordinary way will be that the procedure of the modified sacrifice will annul the procedure of the model sacrifice. The reply of the author is that it is not a case of supersession, but a case of combination, the reason is that the minor details of the modified sacrifices such as homas have no connection with the mark of the model sacrifice. Both of them produce invisible effect and the procedure of the modified sacrifice does not take the place of the procedure of the model sacrifice. So the result is that the नक्षत्रेष्टि will be performed in the अग्निचयन in addition to the गारिह homa. The same principle of combination applies to other illustrations.

चोदनालिङ्गसंयोगे तद्विकारः प्रतीयेत प्रकृतिसंविधानात्॥

१०।४।२॥

चोदनालिङ्गसंयोगे in connection with the mark of चोदना ; तद्विकारः its modification ; प्रतीयेत is inferred ; प्रकृतिसंविधानात् by reason of the proximity of the model sacrifice.

2. In connection with the mark of the चोदना, its modification is inferred by reason of the proximity of the model sacrifice.

There is an objection "शरमयवर्हिर्भवति" "The grass is of reeds." As शर supersedes the कुश, so also here. The reply is embodied in the sūtra. Here the शर is connected with the mark of the model sacrifice i. e. it serves the purpose of कुश. The object which grass serves, is served by शर and so it sets aside the कुश. The illustration does not, therefore, apply in the present case.

This अधिकरण is also called "as dealing with suspension of वर्हि made of kuśa by the वर्हि made of reeds."

Commentary on Sūtra 1.

It is said "सोमारौद्रं च दन्विषेत् कृष्यानीदीहीषामभिरण्" "Having enchanted the black rice, let him offer boiled rice consecrated to Soma and Rudra."

In connection with it, it is said "शरमयवर्हिर्भवति" "The grass is made of reeds."

The question is whether it sets aside the वर्हि made of कुश. The objector says that the principle of समुच्चय applies and the शर will be in addition to कुश.

Commentary on sūtra 2.

The reply of the author is in the negative, the reason is that शर is connected with the कुश of the model sacrifice and serves its purpose; so it sets aside the कुश. It is, therefore, a case of वाच

Adhikāraṇa 11. sūtras 1-2 dealing with the subject that in वाचवेद्य by the noise of the chariot and the noise of the drum, the gram and the mantra are both suspended.

Commentary on sūtra 1.

There is वाचवेद्य. It is said "शरदि वाजवेद्येन द्वाभ्यामप्यकाशयेत्" "One who is desirous of self-sovereignty shall perform वाजपेय in autumn "

In that connection, it is said "रथघोषेणमाहँदस्य स्तोत्रमुपाकरोति" हुँदु-भिघोरेणमाहँदस्य स्तोत्रमुपाकरोति" "He sings the praises of माहँद with the noise of a chariot, he sings the praises of माहँद with the noise of the drums."

In the model sacrifice, it is laid down "उपावर्तध्वमितिर्वाभ्यां स्तोत्रमुपाकरोति" (§ B iv. 2 5 8,) "'Cease', He incites to praises with darbha grass "

उपाकरण is inciting to praises The question for determination is, whether the noise of the chariot and that of the drum supercede the मंत्र or the grass or both. The reply of the objector is that the noise supercedes the मंत्र and the substances viz. chariot and drum, supercede the grass, being of the same class.

Commentary on sūtra II

The reply of the author is that the sound of the chariot and drum suspends the मंत्र and the grass. In this view रथघोष and हुँदु, भघोष are तत्पुरुषसमास.

Ādhikāra pa III sūtras 3-5 dealing with the subject that in बृहस्पतिमन्त्र with the बार्हस्पत्य cup &c, the cups of the model sacrifice belonging to इन्द्र and वायु are combined

सर्वत्र तु ग्रहाम्नामधिकं स्यात्प्रकृतिवत् ॥१०१३॥

सर्वत्र every where, तु on the other hand, ग्रहाम्नामन्त्र the ordaining of the cups, अधिकं for increase, स्यात् is, प्रकृतिवत् just as in the model sacrifice.

3. On the other hand, every where the ordaining of the cups is for increase, just as in the model sacrifice.

In connection with बृहस्पतिमन्त्र, it is laid down बार्हस्पत्यमर्दगृह्णाति"; "He takes the बार्हस्पत्य cup"

In connection with विष्णुवन्त्र it is said "भर्कगृह्णति" "He takes the भर्क cup" In connection with अश्वमेध, it is said "सौवर्णराजताभ्यां महिमानीमर्दगृह्णाति" "He takes two glorious cups for gold and silver"

There are cups dedicated to the deities इन्द्र and वायु in the model sacrifice; now the question for solution is, whether the cups of the modified sacrifice are added to the cups of the model sacrifice or they supersede the cups of the model sacrifice. The reply of our author is that the cups of the model and modified sacrifices will be combined; because all the cups together secure the object of the sacrifice: it is not the separate cups that secure the object. He gives an illustration of the model sacrifice, where first the cups of इद्र and वायु are mentioned, then the cups of मैत्रावरुण are ordained

अधिकैश्चैकवाक्यत्वात् ॥ १० । ४ । ४ ॥

अधिकैः with the combination ; च and , एकवाक्यत्वात् by reason of the unity of the sentence

4. And with the combination, by reason of the unity of the sentence.

The author relies on another argument in support of his view. In connection with वाजपेय it is said, “सप्तदशष्टेग्रहागृह्यते द्वये प्राजापत्या सोमग्रहाः सुरा-ग्रहाश्च” “These seventeen cups are taken, they are consecrated to प्राजापति consisting of soma cups and wine cups” but there are no wine cups in the model sacrifice. So the cups of both the modified and model sacrifices are combined together

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ १० । ४ । ५ ॥

लिङ्गदर्शनात् by seeing the force of the text , च and.

5. And by seeing the force of the text.

The author relies on the लिङ्ग argument in support of his view. “विरण्यो वा षपयन्नक्तुर्यज्ञाजपेयः अग्नीवह्मग्निष्टोमं कामत्युक्थ्य मतिषोडशिनं नाति-राज माप्नोति” “Wide is the sacrifice which is called वाजपेय, it surpasses अग्निष्टोम, it exceeds उक्थ्य, it exceeds षोडशी but does not reach अतिरात्र”

Here the word ‘विरण्य’ meaning ‘wide’ ‘expanded’ leads one to the inference that the doctrine of समुच्चय is meant.

Adhikaraṇa iv dealing with the subject that in a वाजपेय sacrifice with the animals dedicated to प्राजापति, the animals of the sacrifice are combined together.

प्राजापत्येषु चाम्नानात् ॥ १० । ४ । ६ ॥

प्राजापत्येषु in प्राजापत्य ; च and ; चाम्नानात् by reason of laying down.

6. And in प्राजापत्य, by reason of laying down.

There is वाजपेय, "वाजपेयेनस्वाराज्यकामोयजेत" "Let one desirous of self-sovereignty, perform वाजपेय"

There are animals dedicated to प्रजापति "सप्तदशप्राजापत्यान् पशुनालभते" "He sacrifices seventeen animals consecrated to प्रजापति" There are also animals in the model sacrifice

The question is whether by the animals dedicated to प्रजापति, the animals of the model sacrifice are set aside or are combined together. The reply of our author is that there is a combination; the reason is that there is a text to that effect

"ब्रह्मवादिनो वदन्ति नाग्निष्टोमो नोक्त्यो न षोडशीनातिरात्र इति । अथकस्माद्वाजपेये सर्वेयज्ञकनवोऽवरुह्यन्ते पशुभिरिति ब्रूयात् । यद्वाग्नेयं पशुमालभेतऽग्निष्टोमे तेना वरुह्ये । ऐन्द्राग्नेनोक्त्यम् ऐन्द्रेण षोडशिनं सारस्वत्यातिरात्रं माकृत्या वृहत्स्तो मेता इतो वै यज्ञाकनवस्तान् पशुभिरैवावरुह्ये" "The experts in spiritual science say that not अग्निष्टोम, not उक्त्य, not षोडशी, not अनिरात्र (can). Why are all of the sacrifice कनव put in a barrier? Say, by the animals When one brings an animal consecrated to Agni, by it I put a barrier round the अग्निष्टोम; by the animals consecrated to इन्द्र and अग्नि, I put a barrier to उक्त्य, by an animal consecrated to इन्द्र, to षोडशी, by animal consecrated to सारस्वती to अनिरात्र, by an animal consecrated to मरुत् to वृहत्स्तोत्र. These are the sacrificial कनव to which I put a barrier by means of animals"

Adhikaraṇa v dealing with the subject that in सामग्रहणीष्टि with the आमनहोम the अनुयाज offerings are combined.

आमने लिङ्गदर्शनात् ॥ १० । ४ । ७ ॥

आमने in आमनहोम, लिङ्गदर्शनात् by seeing the लिङ्ग

7. And in आमनहोम by seeing the लिङ्ग.

There is a सामग्रहणीष्टि, "वैश्वदेवी सामग्रहणीनिर्बपेद्रामकामः" "Let one desirous of a village perform सामग्रहणीष्टि in honour of all the deities."

In that connection it is said, "आमनमस्याः देवा इतितिक्क आहुतिर्जुहोति" "Whose deity is आमन, he makes three offerings."

There are 3 अनुयाज in the model sacrifice. The question is, whether by आमनहोम the अनुयाज offerings are superseded or not. The reply of our author is in the negative, he says that it is a case of combination. He relies upon the inference derived from the text "बहिरात्मा वै प्रयाजानुयाजा

आत्मादेवतायत् प्रयाजानुयाजानां पुस्तिका उपरिष्ठाङ्गुल्या द्वहिरात्मानंसजाताना
मादघोन अथ यन्मध्यनोजुहानि मध्यत एवसजातानामात्मानंधत्ते” “The external soul consists of प्रयाजस and अनुयाजस ; the deity is the soul: wherefore are the प्रयाजस and अनुयाजस made in the beginning and subsequently. Let him establish the external soul of those born with him ; and he who offers oblations in the middle, maintains the internal soul of those who are born with him.” This shows that अनुयाजस are not superseded

Adhikaraṇa vi sūtras 8-9 dealing with the subject that in महाव्रत with ऋत्विगुपगान, the पत्न्युपगान is combined

उपगेषु शरवस्यात्प्रकृतिलिङ्गसंयोगात् ॥ १० । ४ । ८ ॥

उपगेषु in the musicians ; शरवत् like the reed ; स्यात् is ; प्रकृतिलिङ्गसंयोगात् by reason of the mention of the sign of the model sacrifice.

8. In the musicians, like the reed by reason of the mention of the sign of the model sacrifice.

In गवामयन there is महाव्रत one day sacrifice. In that connection, it is 811 “पत्न्युपगायन्ति, पिच्छोलाभिरुपगायन्ति, कांडवीणादभिरुपगायन्ति, आपाटस्त कभिरुपगायन्ति” “The wives sing ; they sing with musical instrument made of पिच्छोडा wood, they sing with lyre made of reed , they sing with trumpet-flower ”

In the model sacrifice it is said “ऋत्विज उपगायन्ति” “The priests sing ”

The question is whether by the music of the wives, the music of the priests is set aside or not

The reply of the objector is that here the music is the vocal music ; so the wives sing in place of the priests, like the reed superseding the kuśa, the music of the wives, therefore, supersedes that of the priests.

आनर्थक्यात्त्वधिकं स्यात् ॥ १० । ४ । ९ ॥

आनर्थक्यात् by reason of meaninglessness, तु on the other hand, अधिकं combination , स्यात् is

9. On the other hand, by reason of meaninglessness, there will be a combination.

The author says that the music here intended is the instrumental music ;
so there will be a combination, otherwise there will be meaninglessness

In order to escape meaninglessness of the चोदक text, the music of the wives will be combined with that of the priests.

Adhikaraṇa vii. sūtras 10-12, dealing with the subject that in अंजनाभ्यञ्जन the anointment of butter and the anointment of incense are combined together.

संस्कारे चान्यसंयोगात् ॥ १० । ४ । १० ॥

संस्कारे in a purificatory rite, च and , अन्यसंयोगात् by reason of the mention of another time.

10. And in a purificatory rite, by reason of the mention of another time.

There is a ceremony called अंजनाभ्यञ्जन lasting for 49 days. In that connection, it is mentioned “गौग्गुलवेनप्रातः सवने समञ्जते अमिवाञ्जते पैलुदश-रवेणमार्घ्यदिने सवने सीर्गंधकेन तृतीयसवने” “He anoints in the morning सवन with गुग्गुल resin, in the mid-day सवन with the resin of a palm tree and in the evening सवन with perfume.”

In the model sacrifice there is an anointment by butter. The question for determination is, whether the anointment by incense is in addition to the anointment by butter or in lieu of it. The reply of our author is that it is in addition to the anointment by butter. The reason is that in the model sacrifice, the anointment by butter is at the time of दीक्षा and in the अंजनाभ्यञ्जन the anointment is at the time of brewing the soma juice. So the principle of समुच्चय applies.

प्रयाजवदिति चेत् ॥ १० । ४ । ११ ॥

प्रयाजवत् like प्रयाज , इतिचेत् if you say.

11. If you say “like प्रयाज ”

The objector says that “तिष्ठंतपशुप्रयजति” “They offer a sitting animal,” in the model sacrifice, the time of प्रयाज oblation is after the placing of the offering and is different, there the principle of समुच्चय does not, therefore, apply: so here too it will not apply.

नार्थान्यत्वात् ॥ १० । ४ । १२ ॥

न not so ; अर्थान्यत्वात् by reason of the object being different.

12. Not so, by reason of the object being different.

The author says that in the case of anointments, the object is different;

the object of anointment by butter in the beginning is for comfortable movement and after the sacrifice has commenced, the anointment by incense is to make the body rough. So the objects being different there will be combination and the doctrine of समुच्चय, therefore, applies.

Adhikaraṇa viii sūtras 13-15 dealing with the subject that in महाव्रत the lower garment is combined with the upper garment

आच्छादने त्वेकाध्यात्प्राकृतस्य विकारः स्यात् ॥

१० । ४ । १३ ॥

आच्छादने in covering, तु on the other hand; ऐकाध्यात् by reason of one object, स्यात् is, प्राकृतस्य pertaining to the model sacrifice, विकारः setting aside, obstruction, स्यात् is

13. On the other hand, in covering by reason of one object; the garment of the model sacrifice is set aside.

In connection with महाव्रत, it is said "तार्यं यजमानः परिवरो दर्शनमपत्नी." "The sacrificer puts on a cloth besmeared with ghee and his wife puts on a dress of grass"

In the model sacrifice, it is said "अहतवासः परिधने" "He puts on new dress." तार्यं is a cloth oiled with ghee; माधव says that it is a blanket oiled with ghee. It is prepared from the bark of तृय tree, hence it is called तार्यं. It is most probably like a chaddar to cover the upper part of the body. अहत is cloth newly prepared for the occasion, not cut and not worn before. It is thus described by वाचस्पत्य 'इषकीर्तनव इवेतं सदृशं यज्ञधारितं अहततं विज्ञानीयात् पावनसर्वकर्मसु' "निर्णैत्रकाद्याकृतं यदहततत् प्रचक्षते" "That which is slightly washed, new, white and with ten (cubits) and which was not worn previously, is known as अहत which is pure in all ceremonies." "That which is not washed by a washerman is called अहत"

It corresponds to our modern dhoti to cover the lower and private parts. Now the question is, whether तार्यं is in addition to अहत garment or not.

The objector says that the object being to cover the body, it can be covered with a chaddar, there is therefore no necessity of a dhoti, So the principle of समुच्चय does not apply.

अधिकं वान्यार्थत्वात् ॥ १० । ४ । १४ ॥

अधिक an addition , वा on the other hand ; अन्यार्थत्वात् by reason of the object being different

14. On the other hand, an addition by reason of the object being different.

The author says that the principle of समुच्चय applies, the object of both kinds of dress being different. The upper garment is to cover the upper part of the body and the lower garment is to cover the lower part of the body. So both kinds of dress are indispensable

समुच्चयं च दर्शयति ॥ १० । ४ । १५ ॥

समुच्चय combination ; च and ; दर्शयति is shown.

15. And combination is shown.

The author relies on the texts which he says show समुच्चय. “वासांसि वारा ह्यो गान्दीवमु चतुर्कुण्डविषाण्यवासांसि वस्त्रं सयति, ततोऽभवयुः ऋषिः ” “He puts off cloth, bark and shoes , he unties the clothes with a horn of a black deer, an then अवयुः priest puts them on ”

The ‘वासांसि’ is in plural form showing thereby that more clothes are meant. It is in support of समुच्चय ; there can not be clothes in plural, if there were no combination.

Adhikaraṇa ix, sūtras 16-17 dealing with the subject that in महाव्रत sacrifice, रथं तर song &c. are combined with श्लोक song &c.

सामस्वर्थान्तरश्रुतेरविकारः प्रतीयेत ॥ १० । ४ । १६ ॥

सामसु In songs , अर्थान्तरश्रुतेः by reason of a text for different object ; अविकारः combination, प्रतीयेत appears.

16. In songs by reason of the text for a different object, it appears that there is a combination.

In connection with महाव्रत it is said “श्लोकेन पुः स्नात्सदसः स्तुवते अनुश्लोके न पश्चात् सदसः क्रौंचेन चात्वालमवेक्ष्यमाणः” “He sings श्लोक before the assembly and sings after-song behind the assembly, after visiting the quadrangle with a क्रौंच song.”

The songs from the model sacrifice are transferred by the चोदक text. The question is, whether they are suspended or combined together. The reply of our author is that there is a combination of both kinds of songs by reason of their object being different, as appears from the text itself.

अर्थे त्वश्रूयमाणो शेषत्वात्प्राकृतस्य विकारः स्यात् ॥

१० । ४ । १७ ॥

अर्थे in an object तु on the other hand, अश्रूयमाणे being not laid down, शेषत्वात् being a subsidiary act, प्राकृतस्य of the model sacrifice; विकारः suspension, स्यात् 18.

17. On the other hand, the object being not laid down and being a subsidiary act it suspends the song of the model sacrifice.

The author says that when the object is not different and they being subordinate, the principle of समुच्चय does not apply and they will be governed by the principle of बाध "कौत्सं भवति" "काण्वं भवति" "वसिष्ठस्य जनिष्ठे भवतः." "There is कौत्स song, there is काण्व songs, there are the two songs called the parents of वसिष्ठ "

These are the cases of बाध and the songs of the model sacrifice will be suspended

The sūtra 17 is called a separate Adhikaraṇa and is called as dealing with the subject that in a particular modified sacrifice, by कौत्स &c. the songs of the model sacrifice are suspended. It requires no separate commentary. The author says that the psalms in the model sacrifice play a subordinate part. They are in the nature of सहाकार of the ऋक् verses though not so expressly said. Because their object being one, the कौत्स &c. supersede the psalms of the model sacrifice.

Adhikaraṇa x, sūtras 18 -19 dealing with the subject that under a rule by कौत्स &c, one &c. are suspended

सर्वेषामविशेषात् ॥ १० । ४ । १८ ॥

सर्वेषाम् of all, अविशेषात् by reason of there being nothing special.

18. Of all, by reason of there being nothing special.

There are texts "कौत्सं भवति, काण्वं भवति, वशिष्ठस्य जनिष्ठे भवतः. शुक्लाशुक्लीये भवतः, मगधशुक्लीये भवतः, कौत्सानि भवन्ति." "There is कौत्स, there is काण्व, there are parents of वसिष्ठ, there are pure and impure, there are भर्ग and यश, there are कौच songs."

There are also songs of the model sacrifice. As seen in the preceding अधिकरण in the case of these songs, the principle of वाच applies. The next question for determination is, whether one song sets aside one song of the model sacrifice, two of the modified sacrifice set aside the two songs of the model sacrifice and so on or one sets aside all the songs of the model sacrifice. The reply of the objector is that there is nothing in the text to indicate the speciality, all songs will be, therefore, set aside by the songs of the modified sacrifice.

एकस्य वा श्रुतिसामर्थ्यात्प्रकृतेश्चाविकारात् ॥१०४१९॥

एकस्य of one, वा on the other hand; श्रुतिसामर्थ्यात् by the force of the text, प्रकृतेः of the model sacrifice, च and; अविकारात् by reason of being not modified

19. On the other hand, of one by the force of the text and by reason of the model sacrifice.

The author says that one song sets aside only one song by reason of the force of the text, and the rest of the songs of the model sacrifice will remain intact. In this way the चोक्त text will be complied with. One song will suspend one song, two songs will suspend two songs and many songs will suspend many according to the number.

Adhikara pa xi dealing with the subject that in the sacrifices in which the songs are in increase or in decrease, the songs of the model sacrifice will be suspended accordingly.

स्तोमविबृद्धौ त्वधिकं स्यादविबृद्धौ द्रव्यविकारः स्यादितरस्याश्रुतित्वाच्च ॥ १० । ४ । २० ॥

स्तोमविबृद्धौ on the increase of the songs, तु on the other hand; अधिकं combination, स्यात् is, अविबृद्धौ on decrease, द्रव्यविकारः annulment, स्यात् is, इतरस्य of the other, अश्रुतित्वात् by reason of being not heard of

20. On the increase of the songs, there is combination and on the decrease there is annulment, because the other is not heard of.

From the principle laid down in the preceding अधिकरण, it necessarily follows that there are sacrifices in which the songs are less in number than those in the model sacrifice and some times more than those in model sacrifice. If the number of the songs in the model sacrifice preponderates over those in the modified sacrifice, the excess number will be combined with the number of the modified sacrifice. This is called आवाप. If the number of the model sacrifice is less than that of the modified sacrifice, the principle of समुच्चय will not apply and the principle laid down in the preceding section will govern the case. It is called उद्वाप (elimination)

Adhikarana XI, sūtras 21-22 dealing with the subject that in पवमान alone, the आवाप and उद्वाप of the songs of the sacrifices in which songs increase and decrease apply.

पवमाने स्यातां तस्मिन्नावापोद्वापदर्शनात् ॥१०४॥२१॥

पवमाने in पवमान, स्यातां 810, तस्मिन् in that; आवापोद्वापदर्शनात् by reason of seeing आवाप and उद्वाप

21. Both are in पवमान. by reason of seeing आवाप and उद्वाप.

In the last अधिकरण we have explained आवाप and उद्वाप, in the present अधिकरण. the author says that in पवमान we see both of them “त्रीणिहवैयङ्ग्यो- दराणिगायत्रीवृद्धती अनुष्टुप् । अत्र हवैवावपति, अतएवोद्वापति” “Three are the bellies of a sacrifice, viz गायत्री, वृद्धती and अनुष्टुप्, here is आवाप, hence is उद्वाप,” वचनानित्वपूर्वत्वात् ॥ १० । ४ । २२ ॥

वचनानि texts, तु on the other hand; अपूर्वत्वात् by reason of being extraordinary.

22. On the other hand, text by reason of its being extraordinary.

The author says that there is no justification for this extraordinary thing; it is under the text quoted above that both आवाप and उद्वाप apply.

Adhikarana xii sūtras 23-24. dealing with the subject that in the sacrifices, &c the words indicating command denote the duty.

विधिशब्दस्य मन्त्रत्वे भावः स्यात्तेन चोदना ॥१०४॥२३॥

विधिशब्दस्य of the word ‘command’ ‘injunction’, मन्त्रत्वे in the nature of मन्त्र; भावः existence; स्यात् is, तेन hence; चोदना command.

23. In the nature of the मन्त्र, there is an existence of the word indicating command; hence there is injunction.

In connection with दर्शपूर्णमास it is said, "दर्शपूर्णमासाभ्यां स्वर्गकामो यजेत" ब्रह्मणेयोऽष्टाकपालो अमावस्यायां पौर्णमास्यां चाश्नुतो भवति." "Let one who is desirous of heaven perform new and full moon sacrifices" "When one performs fire oblations consisting of cakes baked on eight pans, he becomes infallible."

There are many synonyms of अग्नि as for instance अग्निः, शुचिः, पावकः, धूमकेतुः, कृशानुः, वैश्वानरः शोडित्यः &c.

Now the question is, whether we can use any word to denote the deity 'अग्नि'. The reply of our author is that it is अग्नि alone that is connected with the word indicating the command, because the offering made to it, is connected with the विधि and hence arises the binding effect thereof.

Further when the object is performance of the act, then any word indicating the sense may be used, when the word is itself the object, in that case you can not substitute the synonym at your sweet will. माधव has given an illustration in this connection. In order to add to the prestige of देवदत्त in the royal assembly he is addressed as a preceptor, teacher &c. But the father, mother and maternal uncle are not pleased by being addressed with names but by their titles. So here also; the word 'अग्नि' has a special charm in it आग्नेयः कर्तव्यः The sacrifice of which the deity is अग्नि should be performed.

शेषाणां वा चोदनैकत्वात् तस्मात् सर्वत्र श्रूयते ॥१०॥१२॥

शेषाणां of the subsidiary acts; चोदनैव ररात् by the unity of command; तस्मात् therefore; सर्वत्र every where, श्रूयते laid down.

24. And the subsidiary acts being governed by one command, therefore it is every where so laid down.

The author says that the injunctive word should be connected with the object conveyed; because in the मन्त्र there is one injunctive word, it is repeated every where as for instance अयाद्, उज्जिति and ज्वाहा "अयादग्नेः प्रिया-धामानि, अयाद् सोमस्य प्रिया धामानि अयादग्निस्तस्य सुत्राभ्याः प्रिया धामानि" ५३० २१५०. "He sacrificed for the dear abode of अग्नि, he sacrificed for the dear abode of सोम, he sacrificed for the dear abode of इन्द्र the saviour."

This is the example of अयाद्. “अग्नेदजिति मनुज्जेष, सोमस्योजिति मनुज्जेष” The reading in the white यजुर्वेद (II 15) is different. “I obtained the victory of अग्नि ; I obtained the victory of सोम.”

These are examples of उजिति.

The following are the examples of स्वाहा. “स्वाहाग्निं स्वाहासोम” “Hail to Agni , hail to Soma.”

The result is that by virtue of the injunctive word, there is an extraordinary principle in the nature of the मन्त्र

Adhikarana xiv dealing with the subject that in the transferred ceremony also, the injunctive word denotes the deity

तथोत्तरस्यांततौ तत्प्रकृतित्वात् ॥ १० । ४ । २५ ॥

तथा similarly , उत्तरस्याम् in the subsequent ; ततौ ceremony , तत् प्रकृतित्वात् by reason of its having a model sacrifice.

25. Similarly in the subsequent ceremony by reason of its having a model sacrifice.

There is a text ‘सौर्यं चरुं निर्वपेद्ब्रह्मवर्चसकामः’ “Let one desirous of Brāhmānic glory, offer boiled rice consecrated to sun-god.”

There are many synonyms of sun god. सूर्यः, भास्करः, आदित्यः, सविता, दिवाकरः &c ,

The question is, whether any of them can be used in place of सूर्य. The reply of our author is that the injunctive word and the word denoting the deity are connected. Just as in the model sacrifice by the word ‘अग्नि’ the sacrifice intended for it is meant, so here also by the word सूर्य the sacrifice intended for him is meant. There is a special charm in the word. So the same principle applies in the case of the model sacrifice.

Adhikarana xv eūtra 26-29 dealing with the invocation of fire in the establishment of fire, with its attributes.

प्राकृतस्य गुणश्रुतौ सगुणेनाभिधानं स्यात् ॥ १० । ४ । २६ ॥

प्राकृतस्य of the model sacrifice ; गुणश्रुतौ by reason of the text about the quality ; सगुणेन with its quality ; अभिधानं address ; स्यात् is.

26. Of the model sacrifice by reason of the text about the quality, the address is with its quality.

There is establishment of fire “यएवविद्वानग्निमाधत्ते” “One who knows this, establishes fire.”

There are पवमान offerings “अग्नयेपवमानायाष्टारुपास्तनिधयेत्। अग्नये पावका- ग्नयेष्टुचये” (Āp Śrauta Sū, v. 21. 5.) “Let him offer cakes baked on eight pans to the holy fire, to the sacred and purifying fire.”

The question is, whether अग्नि is to be addressed with its attributes, or without its attributes. The reply of our author is that it is to be addressed with its attributes

अविकारो वाऽर्थशब्दानपायात्स्याद्द्रव्यवत् ॥१०१४१२७॥

अविकारः not altered, वा on the other hand; अर्थशब्दानपायात् by reason of not giving up the significant word; स्यात् is; द्रव्यवत् like the substance.

27. On the other hand, unaltered by reason of not giving up the significant word, like the substance.

The objector says that the word should be used without any attribute just as in the model sacrifice, because the important word is अग्नि which can not be omitted. He gives an illustration “साव्यापवासर्वदेवत्यायदा वशा; वायस्यामास्तमेत भूतिकामः” “It is the female goat which has divinity; one desirous of prosperity sacrifices a goat consecrated to the wind-god.”

Though the word ‘वशा’ is an attribute of अजा (goat), yet in a sacrifice अजा is used for goat without the adjective.

तथारम्भासमवायाद्वा चोदितेनाभिधानं स्यादर्थस्य श्रु-
तिसमवायित्वादवचने च गुणशास्त्रमनर्थकं स्यात् ॥१०१४१२८॥

तथा similarly; आरम्भासमवायात् by reason of its being not connected with the origin, वा on the other hand; चोदितेन by that which has been laid down, अभिधानं address; स्यात् is; अर्थस्य of the meaning; श्रुतिसमवायित्वाद् by reason of being connected with the text; अवचने on not pronouncing; च and; गुणशास्त्रम् the text as to attribute, अनर्थकं meaningless, स्यात् is.

28. On the other hand by reason of its being not connected with the origin, the address is by what has been laid down; the meaning being connected with the text, on not pronouncing (the attribute) the text as to the attribute will be meaningless.

The author says that the deity should be addressed with his attribute; because the deity is not connected with the commencement of the sacrifice; nor is the sacrifice accomplished by the form of the deity. If that were so, the uttering of 'अग्नि' will be sufficient to convey the idea of पवमान. But the deity is connected with the word as said in the foregoing अधिकरण; the deity is connected with the offering, and if he is not addressed with his epithet, the text containing his attribute will be meaningless.

द्रव्येष्वारम्भगामित्वादर्थे विकारः सामर्थ्यात् ॥१०॥१२६॥

द्रव्येषु in the substances, आरम्भगामित्वात् by the reason of the word being connected with the origin, अर्थे in meaning, विकारः modification; सामर्थ्यात् by reason of the powers.

29. In the substances, in the meaning of the the word being connected with the origin, there is modification by reason of the power.

The author says in reply to the illustration of the goat given by the objector, that the case of the substance is entirely different; it conveys the full sense, when the goat of a particular quality has been killed in the sacrifice, the fat of that particular goat is meant. So it can be mentioned without its attributes. It is a case of समुच्चय.

Adhikaraṇa xvi. sūtras 30—31 dealing with the subject that in the ghee offerings of अन्याधान, अग्नि is to be addressed without the attributes.

बुधन्वान्पवमानवद्विशेषनिर्देशात् ॥ १० । ४ । ३० ॥

बुधन्वान् 'whose मन्त्र is बुध'; पवमानवत् like पवमान; विशेषनिर्देशात् by reason of the mention of the particular.

30 'बुधन्वान्' like पवमान, by reason of the mention of the particular.

There is अन्याधान ceremony; in connection with this we have seen the address to Agni in the preceding अधिकरण. There are ghee offerings in which it is said "बुधन्वान् आग्नेयः कार्यः पावकवान् सौम्यः" "The inspiring fire ceremony and purifying soma ceremony should be performed." In some copies वृधन्वान् is read which means 'brilliant' or 'increasing.'

Now the question is whether अग्नि is to be addressed with its attribute or without its attribute. The reply of the objector is that it is addressed with its epithet बुधन्वान् (inspiring, stimulating) just as it is laid down in the preceding अधिकरण that it is to be addressed with its epithet.

मन्त्रविशेषनिर्देशान्न देवताविकारः स्यात् ॥१०४॥३१॥

मन्त्रविशेषनिर्देशात् by reason of pointing out a special मन्त्र, न not; देवताविकारः the modification of the deity, स्यात् is.

31. There is no modification of the deity, by reason of pointing out a special मन्त्र.

The author says that the deity is to be addressed without the adjective बुधन्वान्, because that points out only special मन्त्र which is to be uttered in honour of the deity. His मन्त्र is बुध, so the deity is so called here; it is not his epithet "अग्निस्तोमेनबोधय समिधानो अमर्त्य" "Arouse immortal Agni, besmeared with ghee with the praise."

So it is connected with the मन्त्र; it does not really qualify अग्नि. The deity (अग्नि) is to be addressed with the मन्त्र (बुध). So the word बुधन्वान् shows what मन्त्रे is to be uttered at that time.

Adbikarapa xvii sūtras 32-33, dealing with the subject that in गवानुवधन and पृषदाज्यहोम there is an address with the injunctive words namely उक्ता and वनस्पति only.

विधिनिगमभेदात्प्रकृतौ तत्प्रकृतित्वाद्विकृतावपिभेदः

स्यात् ॥ १० । ४ । ३२ ।

विधिनिगमभेदात् by reason of the difference between the injunction and the mantra; प्रकृतौ in the model sacrifice; तत्प्रकृतित्वाद् by the reason of its being a model sacrifice; विकृतौ in a modified sacrifice, अपि also; भेदः difference; स्यात् is.

32. By reason of the difference between the injunction and the mantra in the model sacrifice there will be a difference in the modified sacrifice because that is its model.

There is अग्निहोम. In that connection, it is said "गौरनुवधोऽजोऽग्नीषोमीयः" "Cow is an अनुवध animal and goat is अग्नीषोमीय" See for explanation at P. 160.

There are many synonyms of गौ as for instance उक्ता, उक्ता, अही, मही, अदिति, इला. The question is, whether in the मन्त्र the cow should be addressed with any of the synonyms or with the injunctive word Similarly "घृषदाज्येनवनस्पतिं यजति" "He sacrifices herb with curd mixed with ghee."

There are many synonyms of वनस्पति, as for instance, वृक्षः, पादपः, हुमः, नगः. The question is, whether in the मन्त्र the वनस्पति should be addressed with any of the synonyms or with the injunctive word. There is a difference in the model sacrifice in the विधि and मन्त्र. As for instance in the विधि "शोदीक्षितोयदग्नीषोमीयं पशुमारुभते", "One who is initiated 'sacrifices an अग्नी-षोमीय animal."

In the मन्त्र "छगस्य वपाया मेदसोऽनुब्रूहि" "Invoke with the fat of the marrow of a goat." See p. 413.

Now the reply of the objector is that as there is a difference in the model sacrifice in the विधि and निगद, so the same difference will arise in the modified sacrifice. So you can use any synonymous word for गौ and वनस्पति.

यथोक्तं वा विप्रतिपत्तेर्न चोदना ॥ १० । ४ । ३३ ॥

यथोक्तं just as directed, वा on the other hand, विप्रतिपत्तेः of the difference ; न not , चोदना an injunction.

33. On the other hand, just as directed ; but the difference is not an injunction.

The author says that there should be an address just as directed ; the गौ should be addressed as वृक्षा because it is so directed "वृक्षाया वपायामेद सोनुब्रूहि" "Invoke with the fat of the marrow of a cow."

This difference between the injunctive and mantric address has no force of a चोदना and it is not necessary that it should be repeated every where. In the case of वनस्पति, there is no such direction and it should be addressed with that word alone.

Adhikarapa xviii. sūtras 34-35. dealing with the subject that in a sacrificial bath, अग्नीषरुण the dual deities should be addressed with the स्विष्टकृत् word.

स्विष्टकृद्देवतान्यत्वे तच्छब्दत्वान्निवर्तत ॥१०॥४॥३४॥

स्विष्टकृद्देवतान्यत्वे in the deity of स्विष्टकृत् being different ; तच्छब्दत्वात् by reason of that word ; निवर्तत is suspended.

34. In the deity of स्विष्टकृत् being different, by reason of that word, it is suspended.

There is a sacrificial bath called अवशुच, "वाशुनेनैककपालेनावशुचंयति" "They go to the sacrificial bath with a cake baked on earthen pan and consecrated to वरुण." "

In that connection, it is said "अग्नीवरुणोऽस्विष्टकृतौपजति" "He sacrifices स्विष्टकृत् to Agni and Varuna "

The question is, whether in the निगम the deities should be addressed with स्विष्टकृत् or not. The question resolves itself into whether the word स्विष्टकृत् is रुदि (सांविज्ञायिक) or यौगिक, i.e. whether it is used in its conventional sense or in its etymological sense. The reply of the objector is that अग्नि is addressed as स्विष्टकृत् in its conventional sense; so the word can not apply to the dual deities अग्नीवरुण and they should, therefore, be addressed without स्विष्टकृत्, that being the epithet of अग्नि alone.

संयोगो वाऽर्थापत्तेरभिधानस्य कर्मजत्वात् ॥१०११३५॥

संयोगः compound word, वा on the other hand, अर्थापत्तेः by reason of the signification of the word; अभिधानस्य of the address, कर्मजत्वात् by reason of its depending on action.

35. It is a compound word, by reason of the significance of the word, because the address depends on the action.

The author says that the word स्विष्टकृत् is derived etymologically from component parts meaning "completing the sacrifice excellently." In that view the dual deities अग्नीवरुण may also be addressed with this epithet, as it can equally apply to them

Adhikarsa xix sūtras 36-37 dealing with the subject that in the अग्नीषोमीय animal sacrifice, in every proceeding, the deity अग्नि, is to be addressed without the epithet.

सगुणस्य गुणलोपे निगमेषु यावदुक्तं स्यात् ॥

१० । ४ । ३६ ॥

सगुणस्य of one who is with the attribute; गुणलोपे on the deprivation of the attribute; निगमेषु in the mantra, यावदुक्तं restricted to that only; स्यात् is.

36. Of one who is with the attribute, on the deprivation of the attribute in the mantra, the application is restricted to that only.

There is an अग्नीषोमीय animal in the soma sacrifice. In that connection, it is said, “अग्नीषोमीयस्यघपया प्रचर्याग्नीषोमीयं पशुषु रोदाशमनुनिर्वपति” “Having served with the fat of an अग्नीषोमीय animal, he subsequently offers cakes made of animal flesh,”

In स्विष्टकृत् there is an omission of the epithet of अग्नि “अग्निं यजति” He offers an oblation to अग्नि ”

The question is, whether the epithet of स्विष्टकृत् is deprived in the sacrifice only and remains intact in the मंत्र as in the model sacrifice or the epithet is deprived every where. The reply of the objector is that अग्नि is to be addressed without the epithet in the sacrifice as the text “अग्निं यजति” shows, but not every where. The result is that suspension takes place only in the sacrifice but not in all mantras.

सर्वस्य वैकर्म्यात् ॥ १० । ४ । ३७ ॥

सर्वस्य of all , वा on the other hand , ऐकर्म्यात् by reason of the unity of the action.

37. Of all, by reason of the unity of the action.

The reply of the author is that this deprivation or suspension of the quality of स्विष्टकृत् takes place every where, even in the मंत्र So the deity अग्नि is to be addressed without the epithet in every निगद.

Adhikarapa xx dealing with the subject that in अनुयाजस्य, the स्विष्टकृत् sacrifice is a purificatory rite,

स्विष्टकृदावापिकोऽनुयाजे स्यात्प्रयोजनवदङ्गानामर्थसं-
योगात् ॥ १० । ४ । ३८ ॥

स्विष्टकृत्, स्विष्टकृत् , आवापिकः pertains to आवाप ; अनुयाजे in अनुयाज ; स्यात् is ; प्रयोजनवत् for a purpose ; अङ्गानाम् of the parts ; अर्थसंयोगात् by reason of being connected with purpose.

38. The स्विष्टकृत् in अनुयाज pertains to आवाप, being for a purpose because the parts are connected with the purpose.

There are full and new moon sacrifices ; there are three अनुयाज offerings , the last is called स्विष्टकृत्. The question for determination is, whether this last offering called स्विष्टकृत् is आराधुपकारक or only a subordinate act. आवाप is the intervening part between the ghee offering and the स्विष्टकृत्

The reply of our author is that the स्विष्टकृत् is connected with वाज्या and is, therefore, a subordinate act. The subordinate acts have their objects in view.

Adhikeraṅga xxi sūtras 39-41 dealing with the subject that in the new and full moon sacrifices वाज्या and पुरोनुवाक्य are subordinate acts.

अन्वाहेति च शस्त्रवत्कर्म स्याच्चोदनान्तरात् ॥१०११३॥

अन्वाह इति, 'अन्वाह' ; च and ; शस्त्रवत् like शंसति ; कर्मस्य of the action ; स्यात् is ; चोदनान्तरात् by reason of separate injunction.

39. And अन्वाह like शंसति is the principal act, by reason of a separate injunction.

There are दर्शपूर्णमासयागाः ; there it is said "सिष्टम्यायामन्वाह, आसीनः पुरोनुवाक्याम्" He utters वाज्या at the end while sitting ; he utters पुरोनुवाक्य at the end while sitting."

The question is, whether the वाज्या and पुरोनुवाक्य are the principal acts or the subordinate acts. The reply of the objector is that the uttering of the वाज्या and पुरोनुवाक्य is the principal act just as the uttering of the praises of the deity is a principal act, the reason is that it is a separate injunction.

संस्कारो वा चोदितस्य शब्दस्य वचनार्थत्वात् ॥

॥ १० । ४ । ४० ॥

संस्कारः purificatory rite ; वा on the other hand ; चोदितस्य of the injunction ; शब्दस्य of words, वचनार्थत्वात् by reason of the purpose of the word.

40. On the other hand, it is a subordinate act because there is the purpose of the word of the injunction.

The author says that it is a subordinate act ; there is no reason for supposing an invisible effect of the चोदना, when we see the visible effect of it. It has been explained in the chapter ii. at p. 44 that the principal act is one that has extraordinary or invisible result ; while the result of the subordinate act is visible. The injunction in the present case is 'for the production of a visible effect ; so the uttering of the वाज्या and पुरोनुवाक्य is a subordinate act.

स्याद्गुणार्थत्वात् ॥ १० । ४ । ४१ ॥

स्यात् is, गुणार्थत्वात् by reason of its being for a subordinate act.

41. It may be, by reason of its being for a subordinate act.

The author gives his reason in support of his view "तिष्ठन् याज्यामन्वाह आसीनः पुरोनुवाक्या मन्वाह" "He utters याज्या subsequently while not in motion ; he utters पुरोनुवाक्य while sitting."

The objects being स्थान and आसन, the repeating of याज्या and पुरोनुवाक्य is a subordinate act.

Adhikarana XXII dealing with the subject that there is no ऊह in the मनोता verses.

मनोतायां तु वचनादविकारः स्यात् ॥ १० । ४ । ४२ ॥

मनोतायां in मनोता, तु on the other hand, वचनात् by reason of the text ; विकारः modification, स्यात् is.

42 On the other hand, in मनोता, there is no modification by reason of the text.

There is an animal sacrifice in honour of वायु "वायव्यं वेत माकमेत भुक्ति-कामः" "Let one who is desirous of prosperity offer a white animal to वायु."

In the model sacrifice, in the अग्नौषोमीय animal, there is मनोतामन्त्र. "त्वं ह्यग्ने प्रथमो मनोता अस्याधियो अभवोदस्महोता" ऋ० वे० मं० ६ सू० १ मं० १ "O ! Agni, thou art certainly first wished for object, O ! charming one, act as a hotâ priest of this ceremony."

The manotâ मन्त्र is transferred here under the वीदक text. The question is whether the principle of ऊह applies to the मनोतामन्त्र, here वायु being the deity. In the model sacrifice, अग्नीषोम are the deities, so the मनोतामन्त्र being addressed to अग्नि is appropriate under a text "यद्यप्यन्यदेवस्यः पशुः आग्ने द्येव मनोता कार्श्या" "Though the animal is consecrated to another deity, yet मनोता should be read like fire-oblation."

But in the modified sacrifice the deity is वायु, so the principle of ऊह ought to apply as a matter of necessity, but our author says that the principle of ऊह does not apply; because there is an express text that there is a different deity and the animal is different in the model sacrifice. There in the model sacrifice the मन्त्र remains unchanged, so here in the modified sacrifice also.

Adhikaraṇa xxiii sūtras 43—46, dealing with the subject that कण्वरथतर is to be sung in its own योनि.

पृष्ठार्थेऽन्यद्रथन्तरात्तद्धोनिपूर्वत्वादृषां प्रविभक्तत्वात् ॥

॥ १० । ४ । ४३ ॥

पृष्ठार्थे in the object of पृष्ठ ; अन्यद्रथतरात् other than रथतर ; तद्धोनि पूर्वत्वात् by reason of that being the योनि in the model sacrifice , दृषात् is ; दृषां of the ऋक् verses , प्रविभक्तत्वात् being divided ,

43. In the object of पृष्ठ, other than रथतर (should be sung,) by reason of that being the योनि in the model sacrifice and by reason of the ऋक् verses being divided.

There is a वैश्यस्तोम “वैश्योवैश्यस्तोमेनयजेत्” “Let a vaiśya perform a sacrifice with a song of the vaiśya class.”

In this connection, it is said “कण्वरथतरभवति” “Here is कण्वरथतर” कण्वरथतर is said to be a modification of both. The question for determination is, whether कण्वरथतर is to be sung in the योनि of रथतर or वृहत् or in its own योनि.

The reply of the objector is that for the purpose of पृष्ठ, other than रथतर i e कण्वरथतर is ordained ; its योनि is रथतर because its model sacrifice is ज्योतिष्टोम where the song is chanted in the योनि of रथतर, because thereby the ऋक् verses are divided.

स्वयोनौ वा सर्वाख्यत्वात् ॥ १० । ४ । ४४ ॥

स्वयोनौ in its own योनि , वा on the other hand ; सर्वाख्यत्वात् by reason of its having the name of all.

44. On the other hand, in its own योनि by reason of its having the name of all.

The author says that it should be sung in its own योनि, because कण्वरथतर is used in a particular sense of its own. It is a particular kind of tune ; so it will be sung in its own योनि.

यूपवदिति चेत् ॥ १० । ४ । ४५ ॥

यूपवत् like a sacrificial post ; इति चेत् if you say.

45. If you say “like a sacrificial post”

The objector says that as any wooden pillar upon which the ceremony is performed is ब्रह्म, so here the tune in which the song may be sung, may similarly be called कण्वरथतर.

न कर्मसंयोगात् ॥ १० । ४ । ४६ ॥

न not so ; कर्मसंयोगात् by reason of its connection with the action.

46. Not so, by reason of its connection with the action.

The reply of the author is that any wooden pillar may be used for the purpose of a ब्रह्म and ceremonies may be performed on it, but in the case of कण्वरथतर, there is a particular tune which is to be sung in its own येनि.

Adhikaraṇa xxiv śūtras 47—48 dealing with the subject that कण्वरथतर is to be sung in its own येनि and उत्तरा.

कार्यत्वादुत्तरयोर्यथाप्रकृति ॥ १० । ४ । ४७ ॥

कार्यत्वात् by reason of the action , उत्तरयोः in the two उत्तरा ; यथाप्रकृति just like the model sacrifice.

47. By reason of the action, in the उत्तरा just as it is in the model sacrifice.

When कण्वरथतर is to be sung in its own येनि what is about the उत्तरा ? Whether it is to be sung in the रथतर उत्तरा or बृहत् उत्तरा or in the उत्तरा of its own येनि ? The reply of the objector is 'उत्तरयोगार्थंति' "They sing in two उत्तरा songs."

That means the उत्तरा of रथतर or बृहत् as the case may be, because in that case the model sacrifice will be complied with under a चोदक text. In this view, the उत्तरा of its own येनि will be left out.

समानदेवते वा तृचस्याविभागात् ॥ १० । ४ । ४८ ॥

समानदेवते in the common deity ; वा on the other hand ; तृचस्य of a collection of three verses ; अविभागात् by reason of indivisibility.

48. On the other hand, in the song which has a common deity, by reason of indivisibility of तृच.

As we have said in the preceding chapter, at p. 432 the sāma songs consist of 8 वक् verses which are called तृच The first verse is called येनि and the last two verses are called उत्तरा Now in reply to the view of the objector, our author says that if the येनि is sung in one tune and the इराताः are sung in another tune, there will not be one deity. So the इराता will be sung in कण्ठरथ'तर like its own वेदिनि.

Adhikarapa xxv. dealing with the subject that in अग्निष्टुत, the स्तुति and शस्त्र are to be applied unmodified.

ग्रहाणां देवतान्यत्वे स्तुतशस्त्रयोः कर्मत्वादविकारः
स्यात् ॥ १० । ४ । ४६ ॥

ग्रहाणां of the cups ; देवतान्यत्वे on the deity being different ; स्तुतशस्त्रयोः of the praise verses , कर्मत्वात् by reason of their being principal action ; अविकारः unmodified ; स्यात् 18.

49. On the deities of the cups being different, the स्तुति and शस्त्र praises by reason of their being principal, are to be applied unmodified.

There is a one-day ceremony called अग्निष्टुत ; in that connection, it is said 'आग्नेयाग्रहाभवति' "There are cups consecrated to अग्नि."

The question for determination is, whether the स्तोत्र and शस्त्र are to be applied after modification according to the deities. The reply of our author is in the negative. The principle of ऊह does not apply ; the reason is that these praises are principal acts and so they will be transferred from the model sacrifice without any modification.

Adhikarapa xxvi sūtras 50-59 dealing with the subject that in चातुर्मास्य ceremony, the word 'आहव्य' should be used unmodified at the time of invocation.

उभयपानात्पृषदाज्ये दध्नःस्यादुपलक्षणं निगमेषु पात-
व्यस्योपलक्षणात् ॥ १० । ४ । ५० ॥

उभयपानात् by reason of drinking both ; पृषदाज्ये in a mixture of ghee with curd ; दध्नः of the curd ; स्यात् is ; उपलक्षणं use, pointing out ; निगमेषु in the mantras , पातव्यस्य of the substance to be drunk ; उपलक्षणात् by reason of pointing out.

50. By reason of drinking both, there is an addition of curd in the mixture called पृषदाज्य because in the model sacrifice the substance to be drunk is pointed out.

There are चातुर्मास्य ceremonies "चातुर्मास्यैः स्वर्गकामोपजेत" "Let one who is desirous of heaven perform चातुर्मास्य sacrifices."

There are अनुयाज offerings "पृषदाज्येनानुयाजान्यजति" "He offers अनुयाज oblations with the mixture of ghee and curd."

पृषदाज्य is a mixture of ghee with curd. There is an invocation मंत्र in the model sacrifice "देवान् आज्यपान् आवह". "Bring the gods, the drinkers of ghee."

Now this मंत्र will be transferred here in the modified sacrifice under a चोदक text. The question is, whether the deities are to be invoked with the modification or without the modification. In other words whether the principle of ऊह applies or not. If the principle of ऊह applies, are they to be addressed as आज्यपान् दधिपान् or दधिपान् or पृषदाज्यपान्

The reply of the objector is that they should be addressed as आज्यपान् दधिपान् "अथपृषदाज्य गृह्णाति, द्वयंवाहदं सर्पिश्चैव दधिच, द्वं वैमिथुनं प्रजननं, मिथुनमेवैतत् प्रजननं क्रियते" "He partakes of a mixture called पृषदाज्य; it is a component of ghee and curd, a pair is for procreation; it is a twin to produce progeny"

The reason which he gives, is that in the model sacrifice only ghee is used, so the gods are addressed as आज्यपान्, but in the चातुर्मास्य, the mixture called पृषदाज्य is used: so the gods should be addressed by adding curd to the epithet. They will be, therefore, addressed as आज्यपान् दधिपान् both.

न वा परार्थत्वाद्यज्ञपतिवत् ॥ १० । ४ । ५१ ॥

न not; वा on the other hand; परार्थत्वात् by reason of its being for another; यज्ञपतिवत् like यज्ञपति.

51. On the other hand not so, by reason of its being for another like यज्ञपति.

The reply to the objection by our author is that the curd is not to be mentioned separately; because the substance to be offered for drinking is for others. It is a mere hint intended for drinkers; if the mention of one substance is sufficient, there is no need of mentioning the other. Just as यज्ञपति in इहास्तुति; it is not for the purpose of the praise of the sacrificer: it is with a view to praise both the sacrifice and the priests. "इमं यज्ञवान्येच यज्ञपतिवद्वा" "The owner of the sacrifice and those who make this master of the sacrifice prosper," The addition of the word पतिवत् is redundant. So here too; आज्यपान् is sufficient: there is, therefore no need of mentioning the दधिपान् along with it.

स्याद्वा आवाहनस्य तादर्थ्यात् ॥ १० । ४ । ५२ ॥

स्यात् is ; वा on the other hand ; आवाहनस्य of invocation ; तादर्थ्यात् by reason of being for its object.

52. On the other hand, it should be done, because it is with the object of invocation.

The objector says that the 'curd' should also be added, the illustration of यज्ञपति does not apply because there the praise is not for one's own self but for the praise of इवा, while here in the present case the invocation is in remembrance, both the drinker and the substance drunk, should be remembered.

न वा संस्कारशब्दत्वात् ॥ १० । ४ । ५३ ॥

न not ; वा on the other hand ; संस्कारशब्दत्वात् by reason of the word indicating purificatory rite.

53. On the other hand not so, by reason of the word indicating purificatory rite.

The reply of our author is that you are mistaken here, no addition should be made. पृषदाज्य is ghee mixed with curd, curd is mixed with it with a view to give it colour, it is, therefore, not a different substance.

स्याद्वाद्रव्याभिधानात् ॥ १० । ४ । ५४ ॥

स्यात् is, वा on the other hand, द्रव्याभिधानात् by reason of naming of the substance.

54. On the other hand, there should be an addition by reason of naming of the substance.

The objector says that there should be an addition or ऊह, because we see that there is a different substance which is a mixture of ghee and curd. "अथपृषदाज्यं पृष्ठाति, द्वयं वा इदं सर्पिश्चैषदधिच, द्वंद्वै मिथुनं प्रजननं मिथुनं मेवैतत् प्रजननं क्रियते." "He partakes of a mixture called पृषदाज्य, it is a component of ghee and curd; a pair is for procreation; it is a twin to produce progeny."

दध्नस्तुगुणभूतत्वादाज्यपानिगमाः स्युर्गुणत्वं श्रुतेरा-
ज्यप्रधानत्वात् ॥ १० । ४ । ५५ ॥

दध्नः of the curd ; तु on the other hand , गुणभूतत्वात् being subordinate ; आज्यपा drinker of ghee ; निगमः pronunciation ; स्युः are ; गुणत्वे subordination , श्रुतेः of the text , आज्यप्रधानत्वात् by reason of ghee being principal.

55. On the other hand, the curd being subordinate, the 'आज्यपा' is to be pronounced ; it is subordinate because in the text the 'आज्य' is principal.

The author says that in the text "घृषदाज्येनानुयाजान् यजति" "He offers अनुयाज oblations with the mixture of curd and ghee"

The ghee is principal and the curd which is mixed with it, is with a view to give it a colour It is, therefore, subordinate. So there is no necessity of adding it and the principle of ऊह does not, therefore, apply.

दधिवा स्यात्प्रधानमाज्ये प्रथमान्त्यसंयोगात् ॥

१० । ४ । ५६ ॥

दधि curd , वा on the other hand ; स्यात् is ; प्रधानम् principal ; आज्ये in ghee ; प्रथमात्यसंयोगात् by reason of the connection of the first and the last

56. On the other hand, the curd is principal ; because in ghee, the first and the last are connected.

Now the second objector comes forward and says that you are mistaken, ghee is not principal but curd is principal : so the duties should be addressed as 'दधिपान्', because ghee is connected with the first, viz, उपस्तरण (quartering of the पुरोडाश cake and placing the portions on the altar) and the last, viz अभिघारण (sprinkling of ghee) "यदिचसत्वेयजेत द्विरुपस्तृणीयात्सकृदभिघारयेद्, ओषधयेवैप्रियंगव ओषधिव्येव पश्यन् प्रतिष्ठापयति"

"यदि प्रावृषि यजेत सकृदुपस्तृणीयाद् द्विरभिघारयेद् वृष्ट्यैव पश्यन् अभिजिघर्ति"

"If one performs a sacrificial session, he shall place the portions of the sacrificial cakes on the altar twice and sprinkle them with ghee once ; the प्रियंगु creepers are certainly medicinal herbs he makes the animals permanent in the medicinal herbs. If he sacrifices during the rains, he shall place the portions of the sacrificial cakes on the altar once and sprinkle them with ghee once , he makes the animals shine forth during the rains."

By reason of the connection with उपस्तरण and अभिघारण, ghee is for संस्कार and therefore subordinate and curd is principal. So the curd alone is to be mentioned १० दक्षिणान्.

अपिवाज्यप्रधानत्वाद्गुणार्थे व्यपदेशे भक्त्या संस्कार-
शब्दः स्यात् ॥ १० । ४ । ५७ ॥

अपिवा on the other hand ; वाज्यप्रधानत्वाद् by reason of ghee being principal , गुणार्थे in the object of subordinate acts ; व्यपदेशे in the denomination , भक्त्या by the metaphorical sense , संस्कारशब्दः the word denoting purificatory rites ; स्यात् is.

57. On the other hand, by reason of ghee being principal, in the denomination in the object of the subordinate act, the word denoting purificatory rite is in the secondary sense.

The author says that ghee is principal in all sacrificial acts, by reason of the use of ghee in the subordinate acts, the use of the word is in the secondary sense.

अपि वाख्याविकारत्वात्तेन स्यादुपलक्षणम् ॥ १०।४।५८॥

अपि also ; वा on the other hand ; वाख्याविकारत्वात् by reason of the modification in the name ; तेन by that ; स्यात् is , उपलक्षणम् pointing out.

58. On the other hand, by reason of the modification in the name, the pointing out should be by that.

The third objector steps in and says that the substance is a compound called पृषदाज्य which is a mixture of ghee and curd, so the deities should be addressed as "पृषदाज्यपान्"

न वा स्याद्गुणशास्त्रत्वात् ॥ १० । ४ । ५९ ॥

न वा not so ; स्यात् is , गुणशास्त्रत्वात् by reason of laying down the quality.

59. Not so by reason of laying down the quality.

The author says that पृषदाज्य is not entirely a different substance; पृषत् means coloured, or variegated and वाज्य means ghee. It is not like सुरा, though a fermented liquor used in a रुदि sense ; here पृषदाज्य is ghee coloured and purified by curd. So the मन्त्र of invocation should be read unmodified and the principle of ऊह does not apply.

END OF PĀDA IV.

PĀDA V.

Adhikarana I sūtras 1-8, dealing with the subject that on the transference of a portion, the first ones are transferred

आनुपूर्व्यवतामेकदेशग्रहणेष्वागमवदन्त्यलोपः स्यात् ॥१०।५।१॥

आनुपूर्व्यवताम् of those that come in order, एकदेशग्रहणेषु on the transference of a portion, आगमवत् like the incomers, अन्त्यलोपः omission of the last, स्यात् is

1. On transference of a portion of those that come in order, the last one is omitted like the incomers.

There are texts “द्यावापृथ्वीयमेककपालं” (M.S I. 10.1) “आश्विनं द्विकपालं” “वैष्णवं त्रिकपालं” “The cakes baked on one pan and consecrated to heaven and earth” “The cakes baked on two pans and consecrated to Aświns.” “The cakes baked on three pans and consecrated to Viṣṇu”

In the model sacrifice, the text is “आग्नेयसष्टाकपालनिर्वपेत्” “He shall offer cakes baked on eight pans to Agni”

The question is, which cakes are to be omitted either the first or the last in the modified sacrifice? The reply of our author is that, the last ones are to be dropped. The reason is that in things which are arranged in order, the last one will be omitted, because that is unimportant. He gives an illustration that in an assembly where people have gathered, the first comers will be seated in order and if there be no seat the last comers will go away and will get no place.

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ १०।५।२॥

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च by reason of the indicative mark; च and,

2. And by reason of the indicative mark,

The author gives a reason in support of his view by quoting texts “लुप्येतवा एतत् षष्ठमहोयत् पञ्चहानुपयंति” “लुप्येतवा एतत् षष्ठकपालंयत् पञ्चकपालंनिर्वपति” “The sixth day is omitted when they resort to five day-sacrifice The sixth cake is omitted when they offer five cakes.”

Here we see the last one is omitted

विकल्पो वा समत्वात् ॥ १० । ५ । ३ ॥

विकल्पः option , वा on the other hand ; समत्वात् by reason of equality.

3. On the other hand, there is option by reason of equality.

The objector says that the last and the first are both on an equal footing; so there is an option You can omit the first if you like.

क्रमादुपजनोऽन्तेस्यात् ॥ १० । ५ । ४ ॥

क्रमात् from order , उपजनः origin, coming in, production , अन्ते in the end. स्यात् is.

4. On coming in order, the last.

The objector says that the illustration you have given does not apply. In your illustration, the hall is crowded, so the last comers will not get the seats, but here there is no crowd to be displaced. So any of the कपालाः may be omitted. No order is to be observed

लिङ्गमविशिष्टं सङ्ख्याया हि तद्वचनम् ॥ १० । ५ । ५ ॥

लिङ्गम् mark , अविशिष्टम् general ; सङ्ख्यायाः of the number ; हि because; तद्वचनम् that word

5. The लिङ्ग is general, because that word relates to the number.

The objector refutes the argument based on the लिङ्ग. He says that the text lays down that the sixth will be omitted. Any number that completes the reckoning is the 6th, irrespective of the order. There is nothing particular in the लिङ्ग.

आदितो वा प्रवृत्तिः स्यादारम्भस्य तदादित्वाद्वचनादन्त्यविधिः स्यात् ॥ १० । ५ । ६ ॥

आदितः from the beginning , वा on the other hand ; प्रवृत्तिः application; स्यात् is ; आरम्भस्य of the commencement ; तत् that , आदित्वात् by reason of being the first ; वचनात् by reason of the text ; अन्त्यविधिः omission of the last ; इत्यात्, is.

6. On the other hand, the application is from the beginning ; of the commencement being the first by reason of the text, the last is to be omitted.

The author says that you are mistaken ; every where the commencement is from the first in order and the result will be the omission of the last ones. It does not require any text to elucidate the matter. The first ones will be transferred to the modified sacrifice and the last ones will be suspended.

Adhikarapa 11, sūtras 7-9 dealing with the subject that in the sacrifices of one तृक, the anog with the first त्रिक is to be sung.

एकत्रिके तृचादिषु माध्यन्दिनेछन्दसां श्रुतिभूतत्वात् ॥

१० । ५ । ७ ॥

एकत्रिके in the sacrifice of one त्रिक ; तृचादिषु in the first of each तृच ; माध्यन्दिने in माध्यदिनपवमान , छन्दसां of the metres ; श्रुतिभूतत्वात् being dependent on the text.

7. In the sacrifice in one त्रिक and माध्यदिनपवमान the first of each तृच, by reason of the mantra being dependent on the text.

There is a sacrifice of one त्रिक, in which there is mixture of one and three ceremonies grouped together. There is a text “अथैष एकत्रिकः । तस्यै कस्यां बहिष्पवमानं, तिसृषु होतु रज्यम्. एकस्यां मैत्रावरुणस्य, तिसृषु ब्राह्मणाच्छंसिनः । एकस्यां मच्छावाकस्य, तिसृषु माध्यन्दिनः पवमानः” “There is a sacrifice called एकत्रिक, of it in the one there is बहिष्पवमान, in all the three the ghee of hotā priest in the one of मैत्रावरुण priest, in all the three of ब्राह्मणाच्छंसी ; in the one of मच्छावाक, in all the three माध्यन्दिनपवमान.”

In the model sacrifice, there are three तृच of माध्यदिनपवमान (1) इत्यात् “जात” Rig. V. ix. 61. 10. is in the गयत्री metre. (2) “तुनानः सोमः Rig. V. ix. 63. 22 ; 107, 4 ; 6. is in the वृहती metre (3) ‘प्रतुष्टवः’ Rig. V. ix. 87. 1. is in the त्रिष्टुप् metre In this connection it is said “त्रिच्छंदा आवापो माध्यन्दिनः पवमानः” “It has three sorts of metres and the offering consists of माध्यन्दिन-पवमान.”

The question is, whether under the text "एकत्रिकस्यमाध्यदिनेतिषु" "By one त्रिक in माध्यदिन in all three." three verses from the verse of each वृच should be transferred or the three verses of the first वृच should be transferred. The reply of the objector is that the first of each वृच should be transferred, because the metres are dependent on the text in the model sacrifice. त्रिब्रुदा आवापः माध्यदिनः पचमानः पंचसामा" "It has three sorts of metres, the offering in it consists of माध्यदिनपचमान and it has five psalms."

आदितो वा तन्न्यायत्वादितरस्यानुमानिकत्वात् ॥

१० । ५ । ८ ॥

आदितः from the first ; वा on the other hand ; तन्न्यायत्वात् by reason of that rule ; इतरस्य of the other, अनुमानिकत्वात् by reason of being based on the inference.

8. On the other hand, from the first by reason of that rule and by reason of the other based on an inference.

The author says that the music should be performed in the first वृच ; it is in accordance with the view as laid down in the preceding अधिकरण (see at p. 724) It is consistent with the order; while on the other hand, singing it in the छंद of each वृच is based on the model sacrifice and is, therefore, inferential. The first being direct, is preferable.

यथानिवेशञ्च प्रकृतिवत्सङ्ख्यामात्रविकारत्वात् ॥

१० । ५ । ९ ॥

यथा निवेशं introducing the ऋक् in order, च and, प्रकृतिवत् like the model sacrifice, सङ्ख्यामात्रविकारत्वात् by reason of the modification of the number only.

9. And introducing the ऋक् according to the model sacrifice is by reason of the modification of the number only.

The author says further in support of his view that there will be, undoubtedly, a वाच. In the view contended for by the other side, there is the change in the number. You take one verse from here and the other from there, but if you stick to the order, you will take the first वृच which is more equitable and reasonable.

Adhikarapa. iii. sūtras 10-11. dealing with the subject that ऋ is to be sung in one ऋक्.

त्रिकस्तुचे धुर्यं स्यात् ॥ १० । ५ । १० ॥

त्रिकः त्रिक ; तुचे in तुच (song) ; धुर्यं in धू song , स्यात्, 18.

10. The त्रिक which is in धू song, is to be sung in तुच.

There is an एक त्रिक sacrifice, तस्यैकस्यां वहिष्पवमानं, तिसृषुहोतुराज्यं । एकस्यां मैत्रावरुणस्य, तिसृषुब्राह्मणाच्छंसिनः एकस्या मच्छावाकस्य तिसृषुमाध्वदिनः पवमानः” “Of it in the one, there is वहिष्पवमान, in all the three, the clarified butter of hotā priest ; in the one, of मैत्रावरुण priest, in all the three of ब्राह्मणाच्छंसि , in the one, of मच्छावाक, in all the three of “माध्वदिनपवमान”

There are songs in धू. The question is whether they are to be sung in a तुच or in one ऋक्. The reply of the objector is that they should be sung in a तुच as laid down in the previous अधिकरण

एकस्यां वा स्तोमस्यावृत्तिधर्मत्वात् ॥ १० । ५ । ११ ॥

एकस्यां in one verse ; वा on the other hand ; स्तोमस्य of the song ; स्यात्, 18 ; आवृत्तिधर्मत्वात् by reason of the characteristic of the repetition.

11. On the other hand, in one verse by reason of the characteristic of the song to be repeated

The reply of the author is that in धू the song is to be sung in a ऋक् verse, because it is said “आवृत्तं धूर्नुस्तुवते, पुनरावृत्तं पृष्ठैरुपतिष्ठते” “He sings repeated praises in धू, he worships with पृष्ठ songs repeatedly.” But this kind of repetition is not possible without taking the ऋक् verse from each तुच.

Adhikarapa IV, sūtras 12-13 dealing with the subject that in the द्विरात्र sacrifice &c, the विध्यत of दशरात्र applies.

चोदनासु त्वपूर्वत्वान्निर्द्देशेन धर्मनियमः स्यात् ॥ १० । ५ । १२ ॥

चोदनासु in the commands, तु on the other hand, त्वपूर्वत्वात् by reason of being extraordinary ; निर्द्देशेन by the inference from the text ; धर्मनियमः rule as to the procedure, स्यात्, is.

12. On the other hand, in the command, there being extraordinary principle, the rule as to procedure is by the inference from the text.

There are two-night-sacrifices &c. called महर्गय. The question is, whether the entire procedure of द्वादशाह applies or of दशरात्र after eliminaing the first and last days The द्वादशाह is the model of all अग्नी sacrifices as seen before. The first day is called प्रायणीय and the last day is called वद्यनीय. The remaining 10 days are called दशरात्र. The six days out of them are called पूह and the other four are called छंदोम.

Now the author says that the command as to perform the द्विरात्र is binding ; the प्रायणीय and वद्यनीय are connected with the model sacrifice ; so the procedure of दशरात्र will apply. There the लिङ्ग is the guide “यत् प्रथमंतद्द्वितीयं तद्द्वितीयंतसुतीयं जगतीमंतर्गच्छति” “What is first, the same is the second ; what is second, the same is the third, जगती disappearing.”

That which is the first day of द्विरात्र is the second day of द्वादशाह called गायत्री the second day of द्विरात्र is the third day called त्रैस्तुभ ; as there are two days only the 4th day called जगती ipso facto disappears This लिङ्ग supports the view of the author.

प्राप्तिस्तु रात्रिशब्दसम्बन्धात् ॥ १० । ५ । १३ ॥

प्राप्तिः transference, तु on the other hand . रात्रिशब्दसम्बन्धात् by reason of the connection of the word ‘night’.

13. On the other hand, the transference by reason of the connection of the word ‘night’

The author supports his view by adducing another reason He says that द्विरात्र and दशरात्र are similar, because in both of them the word ‘रात्रि’ occurs. So the procedure (विपर्यय) of दशरात्र applies to द्विरात्र

Adhikarapa v. dealing with the transference of the आहुननसंज्ञा at random in अग्निचयन with “सप्तमिराहुनोति”

अपूर्वासु तु सङ्ख्यासु विकल्पः स्यात्सर्वासामर्थवत्त्वात्॥

१० । ५ । १४ ॥

अपूर्वासु that which have been ordained, तु on the other hand, संख्यासु in numbers ; विकल्पः option, स्यात् is, सर्वासाम् of all, अर्थवत्त्वात् by reason of being for a purpose.

14. There is option in the numbers which have been ordained, because all are for a purpose.

There are mantras for आहुनन i. e. establishing fire in the उला and there are संज्ञा for चयन i. e. putting fire in अग्निक्षेत्र where different kinds of seeds are sown. In the model sacrifice it is said "सप्तभिराहुनीत" and "अनुर्वशमिर्वपति" "He establishes fire in उक्त with seven" ; "he establishes fire in अग्निहोत्र with fourteen." The अग्निव्यवस्था (establishment of fire) is the modified sacrifice where the मंत्रा are transferred under a षोडश text. The question is, whether the mantras of both kinds are transferred according to the order in view of the principle laid down in the 1st Adhikaraṇa. The reply of our author is that they are to be transferred according to their appropriateness but not according to the order. The reason is that these mantras will be for a purpose, otherwise they will be meaningless.

Adhikaraṇa vi sūtra 15-25 dealing with the subject that in a sacrifice where songs preponderate, the songs are to be transferred from the modified sacrifice.

स्तोमविवृद्धौ प्राकृतानामभ्यासेन सङ्ख्यापूरणमविकारा
त्सङ्ख्यायां गुणशब्दत्वादन्यस्य चाश्रुतित्वात् ॥ १० । ३ । १५ ॥

स्तोमविवृद्धौ in the case where the songs preponderate ; प्राकृतानाम् of the model sacrifice , अभ्यासेन by repetition ; सङ्ख्यापूरणम् the completion of the number , अविकारात् by reason of no change ; सङ्ख्यायां in the number ; गुण-शब्दत्वात् ; being subordinate ; अन्यस्य ; of others ; च and ; अश्रुतित्वात् being non-Vedic.

15. In the case where the songs preponderate, the number is to be completed by repeating the songs of the model sacrifice by reason of no change and the number being subordinate and importing of others being non-Vedic.

There are sacrifices which are called विवृद्धस्तोम (See chap x. pada iv. Adhikaraṇa xi sūtra 20 at p. 703).

"एकविंशेनातिरात्रेण प्रजाकामं याजयेत्, त्रिखवेनीजस्कामं, त्रयस्त्रिंशेन प्रतिष्ठाकामं" "Let one who is desirous of progeny, be made to perform अतिरात्र having twenty one songs ; one who is desirous of splendour shall perform अतिरात्र having three times nine songs ; one who is desirous of honour shall resort to one having thirty three songs."

We have already explained the principles of आवाप and उद्वाप. at p. 704. Now here the question is, whether the songs are to be imported from the modified sacrifice when the songs in the model sacrifice fall short of the required number. The objector's reply is in the negative; he says that in order to complete the required number, you are to repeat the same songs. The reason is that the number is subordinate and importation of the songs from another place is nowhere laid down. There are as many faults in accepting the unordained dictum, as there are in rejecting the ordained one.

आगमेन वाऽभ्यासस्याश्रुतित्वात् ॥ १० । ५ । १६ ॥

आगमेन by importation ; च on the other hand ; अभ्यासस्य of repetition ; अश्रुतित्वात् being non-Vedic.

16. On the other hand by importation, because the repetition is un-Vedic.

The author says that by the importation of the songs from the modified sacrifice, the number in the model sacrifice should be completed, because the repetition of the songs over and again is nowhere allowed. When importation and repetition are both non-Vedic, the importation is more reasonable and proper than the repetition of the same songs.

सङ्ख्यायाश्च पृथक्त्वनिवेशात् ॥ १० । ५ । १७ ॥

सङ्ख्यायाः of the number ; च and, पृथक्त्वनिवेशात् by reason of being applicable to several objects.

17. And of the number being applicable to several objects.

The author gives a reason in support of his view and says that the number applies to separate objects. As for instance 'eight pots'. One pot can not be repeated eight times.

पराकशब्दत्वात् ॥ १० । ५ । १८ ॥

पराकशब्दत्वात् by reason of the word 'reverse'.

18. By reason of the word 'reverse'.

The author says that the word पराक् is used which is inconsistent with the idea of repetition "परामुद्विष्यमानेनस्तुवति" "They praise with उद्विष्यमान reversely."

उक्तविकाराच्च ॥ १० । ५ । १९ ॥

उक्तविकारात् by reason of the non-modification of that which is uttered; च and.

19. By reason of the non-modification of that which is uttered.

The author says that the repetition of the thing once uttered is condemned. "जामिवा एतच्छस्यक्रियते यदेकभूयः क्रियेत" "He who makes one repeated, commits the sin of making the sacrifice female."

अश्रुतित्वान्नेति चेत् ॥ १० । ५ । २० ॥

अश्रुतित्वात् by reason of being not ordained, न नोत ; इति चेत् if you say.

20. If you say "it should not be done by its being not ordained."

The objector says that importation is not sanctioned by any text of the Veda

स्यादर्थबोद्धानां परिमाणशास्त्रम् ॥ १० । ५ । २१ ॥

स्यात् is, अर्थबोद्धानां those that are commended objects, परिमाणशास्त्रम् the text as to the quantity

21. It should be done, because the laying down of quantity is the object of the text.

The author says in reply that there is the text 'एकविंशेनातिरात्रेण प्रजाकामं याजयेत्' "Let one desirous of progeny be made to perform अतिरात्र having twenty one songs "

Now the number 21 is to be completed This can be completed only by importing the songs from elsewhere. Importation is, therefore, the only proper and reasonable method.

आवापवचनं वाभ्यासे नोपपद्यते ॥ १० । ५ । २२ ॥

आवापवचनं the text as to the offering, च and ; वाभ्यासे in repetition, न नोत ; उपपद्यते applies

22. And the आवाप text is not applicable to repetition.

The author gives another reason in support of his view. We have already explained आवाप and उद्गाप in sâtra 20 of Pâda iv, at p. 704. "त्रीणिहिवैयस्योद्गाणि गायत्री बृहती अनुष्टुप् । अत्रहि एवावपंति, अतएवोद्गापंति" "Three are the bellies of a sacrifice viz., गायत्री, बृहती and अनुष्टुप्, here is आवाप, hence is उद्गाप.

These terms आवाप and उद्गाप will not occur, if there were a repetition.

साम्नां चोत्पत्तिसामर्थ्यात् ॥ १० । ५ । २३ ॥

साम्नां of songs, च and ; उत्पत्तिसामर्थ्यात् by reason of the force of the origin.

23. And by reason of the force of the origin of the songs.

The author assigns another reason in support of his view ; if you complete the number in the model sacrifice by repeating the same songs, the other songs whose number is in abundance will be meaningless and without any definite purpose.

धूर्येष्वपीति चेत् ॥ १० । ५ । २४ ॥

धूर्येषु in धू ; अपि also ; इति चेत् if you say.

24. If you say that in धू also.

The objector says that in धू there is a repetition. Why should it not be here?

नावृत्तिधर्मत्वात् ॥ १० । ५ । २५ ॥

न not so, नावृत्तिधर्मत्वात् by reason of the characteristics of the repetition.

25. Not so, by reason of the characteristics of the repetition.

The author says that in धू there is an express text laying down repetition "आवृत्तिर्धूर्येषु वृत्ते, पुनरावृत्तिं वृत्तैरुपतिष्ठते" "He sings repeatedly in धू ; he worships with वृत्त songs repeatedly."

But on the other hand there is no text here. So the illustration of धू does not hold good. See sūtra 11 of this pāda (at p. 726.)

Adhikaraya vii. dealing with the subject that in वहिष्पवमान, another ऋक् is to be imported.

वहिष्पवमाने न ऋगागमः सामैकत्वात् ॥ १० । ५ । २६ ॥

वहिष्पवमाने in वहिष्पवमान ; नु on the other hand ; ऋगागमः the importation of ऋक् verse ; सामैकत्वात् by reason of the unity of the psalm.

26. On the other hand, in वहिष्पवमान, the ऋक् is to be brought in, by reason of the unity of the psalm.

What is to be done in वहिष्पवमान in a sacrifice where there is a large number of songs ? Will there be a repetition or importation of the sāma?

In view of the principle laid down in the preceding अधिहरण, there will be importation of साम ; but our author's reply is that there will be importation of a ऋक्, because there is unity of psalms. “यदुत्तरयोः पद्यमान योस्तुच्चायतुच्चादि'करोति । अथकस्माद् बहिष्पवमाने सकृदेवहि'करोति” “एकं हितत्र साम” “He makes the hi sound for each तुच् in the two subsequent पद्यमान ; why does he make hi once in बहिष्पवमान ? There is only one साम.

Adhikarapa viii sūtras 27-33 dealing with the subject that in सामवेनीs, the number is to be completed by importing the remainder.

अभ्यासेन तु संख्यापूरणं सामिधेनीष्वभ्यासप्रकृति—

त्वात् ॥ १० । ५ । २० ॥

अभ्यासेन by repetition, तु on the other hand ; संख्यापूरणं the completion of the number ; सामवेनीषु in सामवेनीs ; अभ्यासप्रकृतित्वात् by reason of the repetition in the model sacrifice.

27. On the other hand, in सामवेनीs the number is to be completed by repetition, because there is repetition in the model sacrifice.

There are new and full moon sacrifices “एकविंशतिमनुब्रूयात्प्रतिष्ठाकामस्य ; चतुर्विंशतिमनुब्रूयाद्ब्रह्मवर्चसकामस्य ; एकविंशतिचानुब्रूयादन्नकामस्य ; द्वाविंशति मनुब्रूयात् प्रतिष्ठाकामस्य ; षड्विंशतिमनु ब्रूयात् पशुकामस्य” ॥ “Let one who is desirous of honour utter twenty-one, let one who is desirous of the Brāhmaṇik splendour utter twenty-four ; let one who is desirous of grain utter twenty-two ; let one who is desirous of cattle utter twenty-six.

Now the question is, whether in सामवेनी the number is to be completed by importation or by repetition or by repetition of those that are mentioned and by importation of the remaining. The reply of the objector is that the number is to be completed by the repetition, because in the model sacrifice there is repetition. There is a text “त्रिःप्रथमाम्बाह्विदत्तमी” “तृचदससामिधेभ्यः” “He uttered three first and three last subsequently.” There are fifteen सामवेनीs.”

There are fifteen सामवेनी verses, the text shows that they are to be repeated till the number fifteen is completed. When such is the case in the model sacrifice, the modified sacrifice will follow suit.

अविशेषान्नेति चेत् ॥ १० । ५ । २० ॥

अविशेषत् by reason of there being nothing special ; न नोत् ; इतिचेत् if you say.

28. " By reason of there being nothing special " if you say.

The objection to the पूर्ववत् view is, that there is no special text to show that there should be repetition. It is general. The model sacrifice has 15 सामवेदी verses and there are twenty one in the modified sacrifice. Where is the text which gives you direction ?

स्यात्तद्वर्मेत्वात् प्रकृतिवदभ्यस्येताऽऽसङ्ख्यापूरणात् ॥

१० । ५ । २९ ॥

स्यात् is ; तद्वर्मेत्वात् by reason of the characteristic of the model sacrifice ; प्रकृतिवत् like model sacrifice , अभ्यस्येत् should be repeated ; आसङ्ख्यापूरणात् by reason of completing the number limited.

29. It should be so, by reason of the characteristic of the model sacrifice ; it should be repeated just as in the model sacrifice, by reason of completing the number limited.

The objector meets the objection and says that the modified sacrifice follows the model sacrifice, there is a repetition in the model sacrifice, so there will be also in the modified sacrifice in order to complete the number 21.

यावदुक्तं वा कृतपरिमाणत्वात् ॥ १० । ५ । ३० ॥

यावदुक्तं upto what has been ordained ; वा on the other hand , कृतपरिमाणत्वात् by reason of having fixed the quantity.

30. On the other hand, there is repetition up to what has been ordained by reason of having fixed the quantity.

The author expresses his own view in the present सूत्र. You can repeat the सामवेदी verses as much as it is ordained. You can complete the number by repeating the first and the last ; but you will have to import the remaining verses. 'त्रिःप्रथमामवाह, त्रिस्तमा' "He uttered three first and three last subsequently."

You can repeat the the first and the last as allowed by the text ; as to the rest, you will have to import the songs to complete the number.

There are 11 verses. If you repeat the first and the last three times, the number will be 15 but in order to complete 21, you require 6 more which will be brought in from out-side.

अधिकानाञ्च दर्शनात् ॥ १० । ५ । ३१ ॥

अधिकानां of excess ; च and ; दर्शनात् by seeing.

31. And by seeing excess

The author says that importation can be inferred from the following texts “नजगत्या परिदध्यात् । यजगत्यापरिदध्यात्, तच्छृङ्गासिगमयेत् । त्रिष्टुभा-परिदधाति”. “Let him not cover it with जगती, if he covers it with यगती, it will turn the metre : he covers it with त्रिष्टुप्.”

कर्मस्वपीति चेत् ॥ १० । ५ । ३२ ॥

कर्मसु in the sacrifice ; अपि also ; इतिचेत् if you say.

32. If you say “that it should also be in the sacrifice”

The objector says that in ह्य also there should not be repetition but importation according to the view contended for, by you.

न चोदितत्वात् ॥ १० । ५ । ३३ ॥

न not ; चोदितत्वात् by reason of there being directed.

33. Not so, by reason of there being directed.

The author says that there is a repetition in ह्य, by reason of the text “आहुतं ध्रुवस्तुवते, पुनराहुतं ह्यष्टै रपतिहते” “He sings repeatedly in ह्य; he worships with ध्रुव songs repeatedly.”

But here in the present case, there is no such text. So there will be repetition up to the number fifteen and the remaining six shall be brought in from outside to complete the number 21,

Adhikaraṇa ix. sūtras 34-41 dealing with the subject that the षोडशी pertains to the model sacrifice.

षोडशिनो वैकृतत्वं तत्र कृत्स्नविधानात् ॥ १० । ५ । ३४ ॥

षोडशिनः of the षोडशी; वैकृतत्वं the state of the modified sacrifice; तत्र there; कृत्स्नविधानात् by reason of laying down the entire procedure.

34. The षोडशी partakes of the nature of the modified sacrifice, because there the entire procedure is laid down.

There is a षोडशी Having taken उपोनिषद् as a model, there is a text; “यएवंविद्वानेतंषोडशीं गृह्णाति भवत्यात्मना परास्य भ्रातृभ्यो भवति” “He who knows this, takes षोडशी cup ; he himself flourishes, his enemies are overcome.”

Now the question is, whether षोडशी pertains to the model sacrifice or the modified sacrifice. The reply of the objector is that the षोडशी pertains to the modified sacrifice, because its entire procedure is laid down in the modified sacrifice. It is, therefore, to be classed among the details of the modified sacrifice.

प्रकृतौ चाऽभावदर्शनात् ॥ १० । ५ । ३५ ॥

प्रकृतौ in the model sacrifice , च and , अभावदर्शनात् by seeing its absence.

35. And by seeing its absence in the model sacrifice.

The objector supports his view by giving his reasons He says that it is nowhere found amongst the details of the model sacrifice. See chapter II Pāda iv. sūtra 26 at p. 83 “द्वेस्तोत्रीये विराजमतिरिच्येते” “Two स्तोत्रीयं exceed one विराज ”

अयज्ञवचनाच्च ॥ १० । ५ । ३६ ॥

अयज्ञवचनात् by reason of non-sacrificial text ; च and.

36. And by reason of non-sacrificial text.

The objector gives another reason in support of his view. What he says is, that षोडशी is not the name of any sacrifice, nor is it in a उपोनिषद् which is the model sacrifice “अयज्ञो वा वैषज्योतिष्ठोमोयत् षोडश्याहीनः” “अयज्ञो वा एषयोऽसामः” “The उपोनिषद् is not a sacrifice, if it is devoid of षोडशी.” “It is not a sacrifice where there is no psalm.”

This is, by way of an अर्थवाद extolling षोडशी.

प्रकृतौ वा शिष्टत्वात् ॥ १० । ५ । ३७ ॥

प्रकृतौ in the model sacrifice ; वा on the other hand ; शिष्टत्वात् by reason of its being so ordained.

37. On the other hand, in the model sacrifice, by reason of its being so ordained.

The author says that the षोडशी belongs to the model sacrifice, because it is laid down in connection with उपोनिषद् which is the model sacrifice.

प्रकृतिदर्शनाच्च ॥ १० । ५ । ३८ ॥

प्रकृतिदर्शनात् by seeing the model sacrifice ; च and.

38. And by seeing the model sacrifice.

The author supports his view by giving a reason, He says that the षोडशी is in the model sacrifice, “तिस्रः संस्तुतानां विराज मतिरिष्यते” “Three of the songs exceed विराज.”

If षोडशीs are accepted, then only three songs are possible.

आम्नातं परिसङ्ख्यार्थम् ॥ १० । ५ । ३९ ॥

आम्नातं laying down ; परिसङ्ख्यार्थम् for the object of परिसङ्ख्या.

39. Laying down is with an object of परिसङ्ख्या.

The author gives another reason in support of his view. You say that because the entire procedure is pointed out, the षोडशी belongs to the modified sacrifice; but you overlook the fact that it does not prohibit its belonging to the model sacrifice. The text is general “अग्निष्टोमे राजन्यस्य नाक्षस्य चातिरात्रे” “Of a prince in an अग्निष्टोम, and of a Brāhman in an अतिरात्र ”

It is in the nature of परिसङ्ख्या.

उक्तमभावदर्शनम् ॥ १० । ५ । ४० ॥

उक्तम् is said ; अभावदर्शनम् its absence.

40. Its absence is said.

The author replies to the objection raised in sūtra 35; you say that it does not find its place in the model sacrifice. “द्वे संस्तुतानां विराजमतिरिष्यते” “Two of the songs exceed one विराज ”

By reason of the absence of it amongst the details of the model sacrifice, the षोडशी becomes optional but that does not necessarily prohibit what has already been laid down.

गुणादयज्ञत्वम् ॥ १० । ५ । ४१ ॥

गुणात् by reason of the praise ; अयज्ञत्वम् non-sacrificial.

41. By reason of the praise, it is non-sacrificial.

The author meets the objection raised in sūtra 36. It is called अयज्ञ in the figurative sense. The result is that the षोडशी belongs to the model sacrifice.

Some commentators have used the word ‘षोडशी’ to mean a cup. In that sense also, the whole argument of the objector and the author will remain the same.

Adhikaraṇa x, sūtras 42-43-44-45. dealing with the subject that षोडशी is to be taken from आग्रयण.

तस्याग्रयणाद्ग्रहणम् ॥ १० । ५ । ४२ ॥

तस्य its ; आग्रयणाद् from आग्रयण ; ग्रहणम् taking.

42. It is taken from आग्रयण.

In the foregoing अधिकरण it is determined that षोडशी belongs to the model sacrifice. The question to be determined in the present अधिकरण is, whether it is to be taken from आग्रयण or from उक्ष्य cup. The author's reply is that it is to be taken from आग्रयण cup.

The reason is that there is a text "आग्रयणाद्ग्रहणमिषोडशिनः". "He takes षोडशी from आग्रयण."

उक्ष्यात् च वचनात् ॥ १० । ५ । ४३ ॥

उक्ष्यात् from उक्ष्य ; च and ; वचनात् by a text.

43. And from उक्ष्य under a text.

The objector says that the षोडशी should be taken from उक्ष्य, because there is a text to that effect. "उक्ष्याद्ग्रहणमिषोडशिनः" "He takes षोडशी from उक्ष्य cup."

Having left the अधिकरण, the 11th Adhikaraṇa has been commenced by the author.

Adhikaraṇa xi. dealing with the subject that the षोडशी is to be taken at the time of तृतीय-सवन.

तृतीयसवने वचनात्स्यात् ॥ १० । ५ । ४४ ॥

तृतीयसवने at the time of the 3rd सवन ; वचनात् under the text ; स्यात् is.

44. At the time of the third सवन under the text.

There is a अग्नौतिष्ठोम sacrifice ; in that connection, it is said "यः षोडशीं गृह्णाते इन्द्रियं देव दीर्घमात्मबलं" "He who takes षोडशी maintains sensory and motor organs, physical power and soul."

The question is, whether the षोडशी is to be taken from every सवन or from the third सवन. The reply of our author is that it should be taken from the third सवन. Having finished the 11th अधिकरण the author takes up the 10th अधिकरण from the place where he left it.

अनभ्यासे पराक्शब्दस्य तादर्थ्यात् ॥ १० । ५ । ४५ ॥

अनभ्यासे in no repetition, पराक्शब्दस्य of the word 'पराक्'; तादर्थ्यात् by reason of being used in that sense

45. In the sense of no repetition, because the word पराक् is used in that sense.

The objector who urges that बोडशी is to be from the उक्त्य, assigns a reason in support of his view 'पराचमुक्त्यान्निगृह्णातिबोडशिन' "He takes बोडशी reversely from the उक्त्य cup "

He says that the word पराक् means non-repetition as "पराची सामधेनीरन्वाह, अनभ्यस्ता सामधेनी रन्वाह" "He utters सामधेनी subsequently in a reverse order, he utters सामधेनी subsequently without repetition."

In this view, he says, that it should be taken from आग्रयण and उक्त्य.

उक्त्यविच्छेदवचनत्वाच्च ॥ १० । ५ । ४६ ॥

उक्त्यविच्छेदवचनत्वात् by reason of the text about separation from the उक्त्य, च and.

46. By reason of the text about separation from the उक्त्य.

The objector says that there is a text "विच्छिन्दन्ति इ वा एतदुक्त्यं यदुक्त्यानि बोडशिनंचततः प्रणयन्ति" "The उक्त्य is certainly separated, because उक्त्य and बोडशी are carried from it "

This text also supports that the बोडशी is taken from उक्त्य. So it is to be taken from both.

आग्रयणाद्वा पराक्शब्दस्य देशवाचित्वात्पुनराधेयवत् ॥

१० । ५ । ४७ ॥

आग्रयणात् from आग्रयण, वा on the other hand; पराक् शब्दस्य of the word पराक्; देशवाचित्वात् by reason of denoting space, पुनराधेयवत् like re-establishment of fire.

47. On the other hand, from आग्रयण because the word 'पराक्' denotes space, just as in re-establishment of fire.

The author says that बोडशी is to be taken from आग्रयण because there is a text "आग्रयणाद्गृह्णातिबोडशिन" "He takes बोडशी from आग्रयण."

The word 'पराक्' which you say means 'non-repetition' means 'across', denoting the space just as in पुनराधान "पराधमन्याधेयात् पुनराधाति" "He establishes fire again reversely from the establishment of fire."

Here 'पराध्' means subsequent in time.

विच्छेदः स्तोमसामान्यात् ॥ १० । ५ । ४८ ॥

विच्छेदः separation ; स्तोमसामान्यात् by reason of the unity of the song.

48. The separation, by reason, of the unity of the song.

The author replies to the objection embodied in sūtra 46. He says that the text in connection with separation which would otherwise occur, is by reason of the number of both being the same "एकविंशस्तोमत्वाद् उक्थ्यविंशद्-इव षोडशी" "The षोडशी is like the body of the उक्थ्य, by reason of the twenty one songs"

So the षोडशी is to be taken from आग्रयण alone.

Adhikaraya xii, sūtras 49-52 dealing with the subject that the षोडशी cup is with the praise-songs.

उक्थ्याऽग्निष्टोमसंयोगादस्तुतशस्त्रः स्यात्सति हि संस्था-
न्यत्वम् ॥ १० । ५ । ४९ ॥

उक्थ्याग्निष्टोम संयोगात्, उक्थ्य being connected with अग्निष्टोम; अस्तुतशस्त्रः without praise-songs, स्यात् is, सति on being (with them); हि because ; संस्थान्यत्वम् different series of songs.

49. उक्थ्य being connected with अग्निष्टोम, it is without praise songs, because if it be with them, then there would be different series of songs.

In connection with षोडशी, it is said "अग्निष्टोमे राजन्यस्य गृहीयादुक्थ्ये प्राक्." "Let him take of the warrior class in an अग्निष्टोम and it should be also taken in an उक्थ्य"

Now the question is, whether षोडशी is with शस्त्र and स्तोत्र or without them. The praise songs that end in शंसति or शंसते are called शस्त्र and those that end in स्तुवति or स्तुवते are called स्तोत्र. The reply of the objector is that the षोडशी cup is without the songs. The reason is that a series of songs in an अग्निष्टोम is connected with उक्थ्य, if the षोडशी were with the songs, there would be another संस्था. So the षोडशमे cup is without the praise-songs.

संस्तुतशस्त्रो वा तदङ्गत्वात् ॥ १० । ५ । ५० ॥

संस्तुतशस्त्रः the praise-songs ; वा on the other hand ; तदङ्गत्वात् by reason of their being the parts.

50. On the other hand, with the praise songs by reason of their being the parts.

The author says that the drinking from the चोदशी cup is accompanied by the praise songs ; the reason is that they are the parts of the sacrifice "अहं वागृहीत्वाचमसंवीज्यस्तोत्रमुपाकरोति" "He sings a praise-song after taking a cup or uplifting a spoon"

They are, therefore, the occasions for reading the praise songs.

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ १० । ५ । ५१ ॥

लिङ्गदर्शनात् by seeing the लिङ्ग ; च and.

51. And by seeing the लिङ्ग.

The author relies on the लिङ्ग argument in support of his view. "ऊर्ध्वा वा अन्ये यत्कतवः संतिष्ठते तिर्य्यचोन्ये । येहोतारमभिसंतिष्ठते, तेऊर्ध्वान्ये वा अष्टावाकंते तिर्य्यचः" "There are some sacrifices to be completed upwards, there are others in a curve, those that comply with the hotā's संस्था (a series of songs in a sacrifice), are up and those that comply with that of an अष्टावाक are in a curve."

This text shows that there are two kinds of sacrifices having the संस्था of the होता and अष्टावाक. If the चोदशी had been without स्त्री and शस्त्र, such would not have been the case.

वचनात्संस्थान्यत्वम् ॥ १० । ५ । ५२ ॥

वचनात् under a text ; संस्थान्यत्वम् coming under a different संस्था.

52. Under a text, it would come under a different संस्था.

The author says that you argue that if the चोदशी were with praise songs, it would come under a different संस्था (class) ; the reply is, what harm is there ? It can be done under a text.

Adhikaraṇa xiii. sūtras 53-54. dealing with the subject that in a द्विरात्र of अंगिरः, the चोदशी is by way of विसंस्था.

अभावादतिरात्रेषुगृह्यते ॥ १० । ५ । ५३ ॥

अभावाद् by reason of the absence , अतिरात्रेषु in अतिरात्र ; गृह्यते is taken.

53. By reason of the absence, it is taken in अतिरात्र.

There is a हिरात्र ceremony of अंगिरा ; in this connection, it is laid down "वेङ्कनसंपूर्वेद्युः सामभवतिषोडशपुरे" "The वेङ्कनस psalm is sung in the forenoon and the षोडशी afterwards."

The question is, whether it is विधि as regards षोडशी or does it amount to परित्यक्ता ? The reply of the objector is that it is an injunction (विधि) as regards that which does not exist. Because there is no षोडशी in हिरात्र ceremony, so it lays down a विधि to the effect that in the later part of the day the षोडशी may be sung.

अन्वयो वानारभ्य विधानात् ॥ १० । ५ । ५४ ॥

अन्वयः context, connection ; वा on the other hand ; न not ; वानारभ्यविधानात् by reason of being with an वानारभ्यविधि.

54. On the other hand, it is connected by reason of its being an वानारभ्यविधि (belonging to no particular context.)

The author says that the text quoted belongs to no particular context ; at 14, what is called वानारभ्यविधि. When it is connected with हिरात्र, it means that it is to be on the 2nd day of अंगिरस् हिरात्र. There are several हिरात्र ceremonies. षोडशी is to be on the second day of अंगिरा's हिरात्र and thereby excluding other हिरात्रs. So this is by way of परित्यक्ता. The हस्तिकार has taken just the opposite view ; what is पूर्वपक्ष here, is the author's view there and what is the author's view here, is the objector's view there.

Abhikarapa xiv. sūtras 55-57. dealing with the subject that in different अह्नीय sacrifices, षोडशी is to be taken.

चतुर्थेचतुर्थेऽहन्यहीनस्य गृह्यतइत्यभ्यासेन प्रतीयेत भोजनवत् ॥ १० । ५ । ५५ ॥

चतुर्थे चतुर्थे अहनि on the 4th, on the 4th day ; अहीनस्य of अहीन ; गृह्यते is taken , इति अभ्यासेन by repetition ; प्रतीयेत appears , भोजनवत् like food.

55. "Of the sacrifice that lasts for more than a day, it is taken on the 4th day, 4th day" ; it appears to be so from repetition like the food.

It is said in the model sacrifice in connection with षोडशी "चतुर्थेचतुर्थेऽहन्यहीनः सगृह्यते" "On the fourth day, fourth day of a sacrifice that lasts for more than one day, it is taken." The question for determination is, whether the चोदशी is to be repeated in one अहीन sacrifice on each 4th day or is it to be performed on the 4th of several अहीन sacrifices? The reply of the objector is that in one अहीन sacrifice चोदशी is to be repeated on each 4th day i. e. the 4th day, 8th day and so on. He gives the example of food, if one is to take food on the 4th day, it means the successive 4th day in a fortnight.

अपि वा सङ्ख्यावत्त्वान्नानाहीनेषु गृह्यते पक्षवदेक
स्मिन्संख्यार्थभावात् ॥ १० । ५ । ५६ ॥

अपि वा on the other hand, संख्यावत्त्वात् by reason of the number being laid down; नानाहीनेषु in many अहीने; गृह्यते is taken, पक्षवत् like a fortnight; एकस्मिन् in one; संख्यार्थभावात् by reason of the number being for the object.

56. On the other hand, in several अहीन sacrifices it is to be taken by reason of the number like a fortnight; because in one there can not be the same object of the number.

The author says that the 4th day is to be taken in different अहीन sacrifices, because the 4th day can be only one in one अहीन sacrifice. He gives an example of a fortnight in which there can be only one 4th day. If you say "Feed देवदश on every 4th day"; it means the fourth day of each fort-night.

भोजने तत्सङ्ख्यं स्यात् ॥ १० । ५ । ५७ ॥

भोजने in the case of food; तत्सङ्ख्यं that number, स्यात् is.

57. In the case of food, that number is proper.

The author says that you have given the illustration of food to be taken on the 4th day successively. In that case it is right that each fourth day successively should be taken to mean by the expression, but in the case of अहीन, where the matter is different, you are to be guided by the language of the text.

Adhikāraṇa xv dealing with the subject that in the modified sacrifice, the sops are to be taken from the आग्नयम् &c.

जगत्साम्नि सामाभावाद्भक्तः सामतदाख्यं स्यात् ॥

१० । ५ । ५८ ॥

जगत्सामि in a जगत् song; सामाभावात् by reason o' the absence of the song ;
जगत्: connected with the जगत् ; साम song ; तद्वत् its name ; स्यात् is.

58. In a जगत् song ; it being nowhere in the songs, is a song after the ऋक् and is so called. -

In a ज्योतिषोम it is said "यदिरथंतरसामासोमः स्याद्विषुवायवाग्रान्ग्रहान् युक्तीयात्; यदिवृद्धसामा शुक्राग्रान्, यदि जगत्सामा आग्रयणाग्रान्" "If the soma has a रथंतर song, let him take the cups preceded by those pertaining to इन्द्र and वायु, if it has a वृद्ध song, then the cups preceded by शुक्र and if it has a जगत् song, then the cups preceded by आग्रयण."

Here the whole thing centres round the text "यदिजगत्सामा आग्रयणाग्रान्"
"If it has a जगत् song, then cups preceded by आग्रयण."

The question is, whether the आग्रयण &c. are to be taken in the model sacrifice or in the modified sacrifice. There are soma juice cups; they are called by different names as शुक्र, आग्रयण &c. The reply of our author is that there is no song in the सामवेद by the name of जगत्साम, it is on the other hand a जगत्साम. It means a साम produced from जगती, it is in a विषुवात्. So the आग्रयण is to be placed in a विषुवत्, the modified sacrifice.

The Adhikarapa is differently called, "by the word जगत्साम, the विषुवत् is meant."

What is जगत्साम ? There are 4 alternatives.

(1) Whether it is रथंतर or वृद्ध ? (2) Whether it is both ? (3) Whether it is रथंतर only ? (4) Whether it is a song produced from जगती ?

After finding faults with all the first three alternatives set forth above, the author accepts the last view and holds that it is in विषुवत्

Adhikarapa xvi. sūtras 59 61 do long with the subject that in a संसृज, उपवती and अग्रियवती verses are absent.

उभयसामि नैमित्तिकं विकल्पेन समत्वात्स्यात् ॥

१० । ५ । ५६ ॥

उभयसामि in a sacrifice which has double songs ; नैमित्तिकं causal ;
विकल्पेन by option ; समत्वात् by reason of equality ; स्यात् is.

59. In a sacrifice which has double songs, there is a cause by option because of the equality

There are sacrifices in which there are double songs "संसवमैकुर्वीत्"
"Let him do both in a संसव."

In the model sacrifice, it is said "उपवती रथंतरबृहत् अत्रियदं कुर्वीत्, अत्रिय-वती बृहत्पृष्ठस्य" "Let him sing उपवती verse at every step of a रथंतर song and अत्रियवती of a बृहत् song."

Now in a गोसव or संसव both the बृहत् and रथंतर tunes come by the principle of अतिदेश. The rik verses containing the word उप are sung in रथंतर in the beginning and the verses containing the word अत्रिय are sung in बृहत्. The question is, whether both kinds of verses are to be sung in the गोसव or there is an option. The principle of समुच्चय does not apply and so the objector says that there is an option. They are both on equal footing and the combination of both of them is contrary. The बृहत् has अत्रियवती verses and रथंतर has उपवती verses ; so you can choose either of them but the combination is not possible

मुख्येन वा नियम्येत ॥ १० । ५ । ६० ॥

मुख्येन by the principal , वा on the other hand ; नियम्येत may be regulated.

60. On the other hand, it may be regulated by the principal.

The second objector says that they are not on equal footing ; the रथंतर happens to be first.

निमित्तविधाताद्वा क्रतुयुक्तस्य कर्म स्यात् ॥१०॥५॥६१॥

निमित्तविधाताद्वा by reason of the disappearance of the cause ; वा on the other hand , क्रतुयुक्तस्य of the sacrifice , कर्म the action ; स्यात् is.

61. On the other hand, by reason of the disappearance of the cause, the action is of the sacrifice.

The author says that here the causes or bases on which the songs depend, are रथंतर and बृहत्, they disappear and so the procedure is to be regulated by the sacrifice. Neither there is रथंतर song nor is there बृहत्. So there will be no beginning with the उपवती or with अत्रियवती verses. In this connection, it is better to explain the difference between a क्रतु and यज्ञ which are both translated by the word 'sacrifice.' The former is a sacrifice with the sacrificial posts while the latter is without them.

Abhikaraṇa xvii; sūtras 62-64. dealing with the subject that the ऐन्द्रवायव cups are not to be displaced, but to be taken first of all.

ऐन्द्रवायवस्याग्रवचनादादितः प्रतिकर्षः स्यात् ॥

१० । ५ । ६२ ॥

ऐन्द्रवायवस्य of ऐन्द्रवायव (cups) ; अग्रवचनात् under the text of priority ; आदितः from the beginning ; प्रतिकर्षः taking out, displacement ; स्यात् is.

62. Under the text that ऐन्द्रवायव cups are first, they should be displaced and taken first of all.

In the इयोतिष्टोम sacrifice, 1st उपांशु and 2nd अंतरयाम are अक्षरा cups and 3rd इन्द्रवायव and 4th मैत्रावरुण are the क्षरा cups. The text in that connection is "वाग्वाणवावदैन्द्रवायवो यदैन्द्रवायवामाग्रहामहन्ते वाचमेवानुप्रयन्ति अण्वाधारायाश्च ह्नाति" "It is the tongue ; they are the इन्द्रवायु cups, those who take the इन्द्रवायु cups, hold the tongue. He takes them with the minute flow."

The question is, whether the इन्द्रवायव cups should be taken even before उपांशु and अंतरयाम or in the order given above. The reply of the objector is that they should be taken first of all, should be displaced and brought before उपांशु and अंतरयाम cups.

अपि वा धर्माविशेषात्तदुर्माणां स्वस्थाने प्रकरणादग्र-
त्वमुच्यते ॥ १० । ५ । ६३ ॥

अपि also ; वा on the other hand ; धर्माविशेषात् by reason of the procedure being general ; तदुर्माणाम् of the procedure of that , स्वस्थाने at its own place , प्रकरणाद् by reason of the context , अग्रत्वम् the priority ; उच्यते is called.

63. On the other hand, by reason of the procedure being general, the procedure of that will be at its own place ; by reason of the context, it is called first.

The author says that no displacement will take place ; ऐन्द्रवायव cups will be taken in their own order ; because they happen to be first in their class, so they are called first.

क्षरासंयोगाच्च ॥ १० । ५ । ६४ ॥

क्षरासंयोगात्, by reason of the connection with the 'क्षरा', च and.

64. And by reason of the connection with 'धारा'.

The author says that ऐंद्रवायव cups are धारा cups. And as they are taken first in the class of धारा cups, so they are first.

Adhikarapa xviii sūtras 65-66 dealing with the subject that even when any desire is connected the ऐंद्रवायव cups are prohibited to be taken first.

कामसंयोगे तु वचनादादितः प्रतिकर्षः स्यात् ॥१०॥५॥६५॥

कामसंयोगे in connection with the desire, तु on the other hand; वचनात् under the text, आदितः from first, प्रतिकर्षः displacement; स्यात् is.

65. On the other hand, when desire is connected under the text, they will be displaced and brought first.

There is a text "ऐंद्रवायवामान् ग्रहान् शुद्धीयाद्यः कामयेत यथापूर्वं प्रजा-प्रकल्पेरन्" "Let him take cups preceded by इन्द्रवायव cups, if he wishes to raise progeny as before"

The question is, that when any desire to be fulfilled is connected with the ऐंद्रवायव cups, should they, then, be taken from their place and drunk first? The reply of the objector is that there is an express text for this transposition and the ऐंद्रवायव cups should be taken first.

तद्देशानां वाऽग्रसंयोगात्तदुक्तं कामशास्त्रं स्यान्नित्य-
संयोगात् ॥ १० । ५ । ६६ ॥

तद्देशानां in their order; वा on the other hand; अग्रसंयोगात् by reason of being the first; तदुक्तं connected with it; कामशास्त्रं the text laying down the desire, स्यात् is, नित्यसंयोगात् by reason of being connected permanently.

66. On the other hand, by reason of being the first in their order, the text laying down the desire is along with it; because it is permanently connected.

The author says that there will be no transposition and ऐंद्रवायव cups will be taken in their order. They are first in the धारा cups and being taken up, they fulfill the purpose; because, the accomplishment of desire is permanently connected with the taking of the cups in their proper order.

Adhikaraṇa xix. sūtras 67-69. dealing with the subject that आश्विन &c. cups are to be transposed and taken first.

परेषु चाग्नशब्दः पूर्ववत्स्यात्तदादिषु ॥ १० । ५ । ६७ ॥

परेषु in subsequent ; च and ; अग्नशब्दः the word 'first' ; पूर्ववत् like the preceding ; स्यात् is ; तदादिषु in that etc.

67. And the word 'first' in the subsequent ones, like the preceding (अधिकरण) in that &c.

There is उद्योतिष्टोम, there are cups subsequent to ऐन्द्रवायव which are mentioned for the accomplishment of certain desires.

“आश्विनामान् गृहीयादामयाविनः” “शुक्राग्रान् गृहीयादभिचरतः” “मंथ्यमान् गृहीयादभिचर्यमाणस्य” “Let those who are afflicted with a disease take cups preceded by आश्विन” “Let those who perform sorcery take cups preceded by शुक्र.” “Let those who will perform sorcery, take cups preceded by मंथी.”

Now the question is, whether these cups are to be taken in the order or should they be taken first, by displacement for the accomplishment of the desires mentioned? The reply of the objector is that in view of the principle laid down in the foregoing अधिकरण the cups are to be taken in their order, without any displacement.

प्रतिकर्षो वा नित्यार्थेनाग्नस्य तदसंयोगात् ॥ १०।५।६८॥

प्रतिकर्षः displacement ; वा on the other hand ; नित्यार्थेन by the permanent object ; अग्नस्य of the first ; तदसंयोगात् by reason of its being unconnected.

68. On the other hand, there is displacement ; the object is permanently connected with the 'first', by reason of that being unconnected.

The author says that the text is uncommon ; the fruit is assigned in case the cup is taken first. If the cup is taken in the order of the model sacrifice, there will be nothing extraordinary ; it is only in the case of displacement that a certain fruit is accomplished. So the शुक्र or the आश्विन cup is to be taken first after displacement.

प्रतिकर्षञ्च दर्शयति ॥ १० । ५ । ६९ ॥

प्रतिकर्ष displacement ; च and ; दर्शयति is shown.

69. And the displacement is shown.

The author says that there are texts which go to show that the cups are to be taken out of their order for the accomplishment of the desired object "धारयेयुस्तं यंकामायगृहीयुः ऐन्द्रवायवंगृहीत्वा सादयेत् तयंकामायगृहीयुः" "Let them hold that which they take up with the particular object ; let him place cups consecrated to इन्द्र and वायु gods and which have been taken up with the particular object "

So they should be taken first after displacement.

Adhikaraṇa xx. sūtras 70-72, dealing with the displacement of आश्विन &c. cups and taking them before ऐन्द्रवायव.

पुरस्तादैन्द्रवायवस्यागूस्य कृतदेशत्वात् ॥ १० । ५ । ७० ॥

पुरस्तात् before ; ऐन्द्रवायवस्य of ऐन्द्रवायव , अगूस्य of the first ; कृतदेशत्वात् by reason of being arranged.

70. Before ऐन्द्रवायव, by reason of making the first as the place.

These above-mentioned cups are to be taken first after displacement in order to accomplish the desire; this proposition has been established in the foregoing अधिकरण Now the question is, whether they are to be taken before the अचारा cups or चारा cups, namely उपोशु and अंतरयाम or after them and before ऐन्द्रवायव The reply of our author is that they are to be taken before ऐन्द्रवायव cups, because they are located as first in the चारा class of the cups.

तुल्यधर्मत्वाच्च ॥ १० । ५ । ७१ ॥

तुल्यधर्मत्वात् by reason of having the equal characteristics ; च and.

71. By reason of having the equal characteristics.

The author gives a reason in support of his view; he says that the word "first" means first of the class. All these cups partake of the characteristics of the चारा cups , so they are to be taken first in the ऐन्द्रवायव class of cups.

तथा च लिङ्गदर्शनम् ॥ १० । ५ । ७२ ॥

तथा similarly , च and ; लिङ्गदर्शनम् indicative mark.

72. And similarly there is an indicative mark.

The author relies on the text. "धारयेयुस्तं यंकामायगृहीयुः । ऐन्द्रवायवंगृहीत्वासादयेत् । अथतंसादयेद् यंकामायगृहीयुः" "Let them hold that which they take up with the particular object; let him place the इन्द्रबायव cups after taking them up: let him place that which he has taken up with the particular object." This goes to show that they are to be taken up before ऐन्द्रबायव.

Adhikarapa xxi. sūtras 73-74, dealing with the subject that the remnants of a cup are to be transposed.

सादनं चापि शेषत्वात् ॥ १० । ५ । ७३ ॥

सादनं remnants, sediments; च and, अपि also; शेषत्वात् by reason of being the शेष.

73. And the remnants also by reason of being the शेष.

The above named cups have been transposed as seen in the preceding adhikarapa; will the remnants be also transposed or not? The reply of our author is in the affirmative, because it is the remainder.

लिङ्ग दर्शनाच्च ॥ १० । ५ । ७४ ॥

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च by seeing the force of the text, च and.

74. And by seeing the force of the text.

The author relies on the लिङ्ग argument.

"धारयेयुः यंकामायगृहीयुः । ऐन्द्रबायवं गृहीत्वासादयेत् । अथतंसादयेत् यंकामाय-गृहीयुः" "Let them hold that which they take up with the particular object; let him place the इन्द्रबायव cups after taking them up: let him place that which he has taken up with the particular object."

So we see that ग्रहण (taking up) and सादन (placing) both accompany together.

Adhikarapa xxii. s. trs 75-76, dealing with the subject that the gift is not displaced.

प्रदानं चापि सादनवत् ॥ १० । ५ । ७५ ॥

प्रदानं the gift; च and; सादनवत् like the remnants or sediments.

75. And the gift is also like the remnants.

Now the question is whether the gift of the contents is also to be transposed or not. The reply of the objector is that it will also follow the principle applicable to the remnants i. e. it will be transposed.

न वा प्रधानत्वाच्छेषत्वात्सादनंतथा ॥ १० । ५ । ७६ ॥

न not so; वा on the other hand, प्रधानत्वात् by reason of being the principal ; शेषत्वात् by reason of the subordinate, सादनं remnants, sediments; स्यात् like.

76. Not so; by reason of being the principal and by reason of the subordinate, the remnants are transposed.

The author says that the gift is principal while the remnants are subordinate, so the gift can not be transposed like the remnants.

Adhikaraṇa xxiii entries 77-78. dealing with the subject that in श्यनीका when ऐंद्रवायव्य cups are said to be first, it is in the nature of समानविधि.

श्यनीकायां न्यायोक्तेष्वाम्नां गुणार्थं स्यात् ॥१०५॥७७॥

श्यनीकायां in श्यनीका ; न्यायोक्तेषु when properly stated ; आम्नां ordaining ; गुणार्थं by way of description of quality , स्यात् is.

77. In श्यनीका when it is properly ordained, it is by way of description of quality.

There is a sacrifice extending for 12 days. There is a श्यनीका in it. The first and the last days are called प्रायणीय and उदयनीय respectively. They have ऐंद्रवायव्य cups first, then there is the 10th day. After excluding these 3 days, the remaining nine days are called श्यनीका. The first day has ऐंद्रवायव्य cups, the second day has शुक्र and the third day has the आश्विन्य cup first. The same process is repeated in the remaining two groups of three days in the श्यनीका. In the model sacrifice i.e. in the द्वादशाह, the first day has the ऐंद्रवायव्य cups first, here in the श्यनीका, we also find the ऐंद्रवायव्य cups on the first day which is the 2nd day of the द्वादशाह. So the objector says that this repetition which is under the चोदक text and, therefore justified, is by way of description of the quality (गुणत्वात्) i. e. for the praise.

अपि वाऽहर्गणेष्वग्निवत्समानविधानं स्यात् ॥

१० । ५ । ७८ ॥

अपि वा on the other hand ; अहर्गणेषु in the sacrifice lasting for days ; अग्निवत् like the establishment of fire ; समानविधानं equal command ; स्यात् is.

78. On the other hand in the sacrifice lasting for days like the establishment of fire, it is of equal command.

The author says that in such sacrifices which last for days, such procedure is under a विधि of equal force, the same being in the modified and the model sacrifices, just as it is in अभ्याधान. “अथातोऽग्निहोमेनैवानुयजति, तमु कथेन, तमति रात्रेण, तंचतुरात्रेण, तंपंचरात्रेण, तंसप्तरात्रेण, तंनव रात्रेण, तंदशरात्रेण, तमेकादशरात्रेण.” “Now he makes him sacrifice by अग्निहोम, by उक्थ्य, by अतिरात्र by four night-ceremony, by five-night-ceremony, by seven-night ceremony, by nine-night-ceremony, by ten-night-ceremony and by eleven-night-ceremony.”

So they are both of similar विधि (binding force).

Adhikarana xxiv sūtras 79-82 dealing with the subject that व्यूढद्वादशाह is the modification of समूह.

द्वादशाहस्य व्यूढसमूढत्वं पृष्ठवत्समानविधानं स्यात् ॥

१० । ५ । ७९ ॥

द्वादशाहस्य of द्वादशाह, व्यूढसमूढत्वं, व्यूढ and समूढ nature पृष्ठवत् like the पृष्ठ (songs), समानविधानं of equal commands, स्यात् is

79. The व्यूढ and समूढ of द्वादशाह are of equal commands, like the पृष्ठ songs.

The द्वादशाह is of two kinds viz: समूढ and व्यूढ. The समूढ द्वादशाह has been described in the foregoing अधिकरण. The प्रायणीय, उदयनीय and tenth days are left out, they have ऐन्द्रवायव cups. The remaining nine days are as follows :—

I समूढ द्वादशाह or त्रयनीक		II व्यूढ द्वादशाह
1st day ऐन्द्रवायव,	2nd day of द्वादशाह.	1st day ऐन्द्रवायव
2nd day शुक्र,	3rd day ... „ ...	2nd day ऐन्द्रवायव
3rd day आश्रयण,	4th day .. „ ...	3rd day शुक्र
4th day ऐन्द्रवायव	...	4th day }	आश्रयण
5th day शुक्र	...	5th day }
6th day आश्रयण	...	6th day ऐन्द्रवायव
7th day ऐन्द्रवायव	...	7th day }	शुक्र
8th day शुक्र	...	8th day }
9th day आश्रयण	...	9th day आश्रयण
		10th day }
		11th day }	ऐन्द्रवायव
		12th day }

The question is whether व्यूढ is the modified form of समूढ. The reply of the objector is that neither is the model of the other ; they are equally independent and have their separate विधिs, just as it is in the model sacrifice in the case of वृहत् and रथतर songs,

व्यूढो वा लिङ्गदर्शनात्समूहविकारः स्यात् ॥१०।५।८०॥

व्यूढः, व्यूढः, वा on the other hand , लिङ्गदर्शनात् by seeing the लिङ्ग, समूहविकारः modification of समूह

80. On the other hand व्यूढ is the modified form of समूह, by seeing the लिङ्ग.

The author says that व्यूढ is the modified form of समूह. The reason is that there is a लिङ्ग "एदवायवस्य वा पुतदायतनयस्तुयमहः" "The fourth day is on the other hand, a place of एदवायव cups," It is said in connection with व्यूढ. The 4th day of व्यूढ has not एदवायव but आप्रयण ; on the other hand समूह has एदवायव on the 4th day. So it is possible only when व्यूढ is considered to be the modified form of समूह

कामसंयोगात् ॥ १० । ५ । ८१ ॥

कामसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the desire

81. By reason of the connection with the desire.

The author gives a reason in support of his view. "यः कामयेत बहुस्यै प्रजायेय". "He who desires that he may have many children..... .."

The काम्य or वैमिशिक कर्म is the modified form of the नित्यकर्म. As व्यूढ is connected with the accomplishment of desire, it is a modified form and can not, therefore, be a model

तस्योभयथा प्रवृत्तिरैककर्म्यात् ॥ १० । ५ । ८२ ॥

तस्य of that ; उभयथा in both ways , प्रवृत्तिः application , ऐककर्म्यात् by reason of being one act,

82. Its application is in both ways, because being one act.

The author says in conclusion that the अहर्गण्य applies in both ways. Where there is a श्रुति or लिङ्ग, there the व्यूढ applies and in other cases समूह applies as a general rule.

Adhikarana xiv. sutras 83-87 dealing with the subject that in the season of animal sacrifice the इक्षणीकाः are increased in their place.

एकादशिनीवत् त्र्यनीका परिवृत्तिः स्यात् ॥ १० । ५ । ८३ ॥

एकादशिनीकत् like एकादशिनी ; :यनीकापरिहृतिः repetition of the यनीका ; इयात् 18.

83. Like एकादशिनी, यनीका is to be repeated.

We know what यनीका is. It is thus defined “ऐन्द्रवायवाग्रौ प्रायणीयोदयनीयौ, दशमंवाहः, अथेतरेषां नवानामन्धामैन्द्रवायवाग्रं प्रथममहः, अथ शुक्राग्रम्, अथाग्रयणाग्रम्, अथैन्द्रवायवाग्रं, अथ शुक्राग्रं, अथाग्रयणाग्रम्, अथैन्द्रवायवाग्रम्, अथ शुक्राग्रम्, अथाग्रयणाग्रम्” “The first (प्रायणीय) and the last (उदयनीय) days have the cups consecrated to इन्द्र and वायु first and the tenth day also. Of the remaining nine days, the first day has ऐन्द्रवायव first, then शुक्र first, then आग्रयण first, then ऐन्द्रवायव again first, then शुक्र first, then आग्रयण first : then lastly ऐन्द्रवायव first, then शुक्र first and then आग्रयण first.

As explained above, excluding the 1st, 10th and 12th days of the द्वादशाह, the remaining nine days are called यनीका (see at p 750). Now गवामयन is the annual sacrifice of समूह द्वादशाह. It has 361 days. They are divided into पूर्वपक्ष and उत्तरपक्ष consisting of 180 days each. The 181st day is विषुवान्, the 1st half consists as follows.

प्रायणीय 1st day

चतुर्विंश 2nd day.

Then 4 अभिप्लवस of 6 days each = 24 days.

1 पृष्ठपद of 6 days = 6 „

30 days. 1st month.

In this way, the 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th months.

Then 3 अभिप्लवस of 6 days each = 18 days.

1 पृष्ठपद of 6 days = 6 days.

1 अभिजित् of 1 day = 1 day.

3 स्वरसाम of 1. day = 3 days.

28 days.

Taking the 1st two days mentioned above, the total is 30 days, the whole total thus comes to 180 days : 181 st day is विषुवान्.

2nd half.

3 स्वरसामस of one day each = 3 days.

1 विषुजित् of one day = 1 day.

1 वृहस्पति of 6 days = 6 days.*

3 अभिषेक of 6 days each = 18 days.

28 days.

Then again.

1 वृहस्पति of 6 days = 6 days,

4 अभिषेक of 6 days each = 24 days.

30 days. 2nd month.

In the same way, the 3rd, 4th and the 5th months.

Then again.

3 अभिषेक of 6 days each = 18 days.

1 आयु of 1 day = 1 day.

1 गी of one day = 1 day.

10 days of द्वादशाह = 10 days.

1 महावृत्त of one day = 1 day.

1 अतिरात्र of one day = 1 day.

32 days.

Adding with the 28 days of the 1st, they make up 60 days i.e. 2 months. In this way the annual गवामयन is divided.

In these 180 days, the ज्योतिषा are to be repeated ; how are they to be repeated ? Are they to be repeated according to the दृढकलित or स्वस्थानविवृद्धि principle ? The ज्योतिषा when repeated successively till the 180th is reached, are said to be repeated according to the दृढकलित principle. As for instance, ऐन्द्रायन, शुक्ल and आश्वयुज, then the repetition of the same 3 times successively, is called ज्योतिषा. Then repeating the ज्योतिषा in the same order twenty times is according to the दृढकलित principle.

While on the other hand स्वस्थानविवृद्धि principle is to divide the 180 days into nine parts consisting of twenty days. The first part consists of ऐन्द्रायन, the second part of शुक्ल and the third of आश्वयुज and so on till all the 9 parts are completed. This is in पूर्वपक्ष or the 1st half consisting of 180 days, this calculation is done on the अनुक्रम principle i.e. in the proper order. While in the उत्तर पक्ष i.e. 2nd half consisting of 180 days, it is done by the प्रतिक्रम or reverse order i.e. आग्रयण, then शुक्र and ऐन्द्रवायव last and so on in the प्रतिक्रम order. The second half is also divided into 9 parts consisting of 20 days each. Now the question for determination in this अधिकरण is, whether the त्रयनीका is to be repeated according to दंडकलित or स्वस्थानविवृद्धि, as explained above. The reply of the objector is that it is to be done on the दंडकलित principle just as it is in एकादशिनो i.e. a sacrifice consisting of 11 animals.

* The order of वृहस्पति, songs will be reversed here, the अतिरात्र being last becomes first. (see at p. 755 in the commentary on सूत्र 85).

स्वस्थानविवृद्धिर्वाऽहामप्रत्यक्षसङ्ख्यत्वात् ॥१०॥५॥८५॥

स्वस्थानविवृद्धि, स्वस्थानविवृद्धि ; वा on the other hand ; अन्दास् of the number of the days ; अग्रत्यक्षसङ्ख्यत्वात् by reason of the number being not laid down.

84. On the other hand, they should be done on the स्वस्थानविवृद्धि principle, because the number of the days have not been laid down.

The author says that the त्रयनीकास are to be repeated on the स्वस्थानविवृद्धि principle, as no rule has been laid down about the number of days, so it is proper that the cups should be repeated in their own places.

पृष्ठ्यावृत्तौ चाग्रयणस्य दर्शनात् त्रयस्त्रिंशो परिवृत्तौ

पुनरेन्द्रवायवः स्यात् ॥ १० । ५ । ८५ ॥

पृष्ठ्यावृत्तौ on repetition of the songs ; च and ; आग्रयणस्य of the आग्रयण ; दर्शनात् by reason of seeing ; त्रयस्त्रिंशे in thirty-three, परिवृत्तौ on reversal, पुनः again, ऐन्द्रवायवः, ऐन्द्रवायु cups, स्यात् is.

85. On the repetition of the songs, by reason of seeing the आग्रयण and on reversal of 33 again, there are ऐन्द्रवायव cups.

The author gives a reason in support of his view. In पृष्ठ, the order is विवृत्त, चक्षदश, सप्तदश, एकादश, त्रिंश and त्रयस्त्रिंश.

They are in order for six days successively See the list of the days in the उत्तर half, in the commentary on सूत्र 83 at p. 753. Now if we apply the principle of दंडकलित, excluding the प्रायणीव and चतुर्विंश in the पूर्वपक्ष, the त्रयनीका will be completed on the 173rd day. There will be 7 days left in excess. The 180th day will be of ऐन्द्रवायव. The 181st day i.e. विपुवाव will be the day of शुक्र and the 1st स्वरसाम day will be the आग्रयण day. The श्यनीका will be complete with विश्वजित्, the त्रयस्त्रिंश i. e. the first day of the पृष्ठ will be एन्द्रवायव.

This is contrary to the लिङ्ग.

“जगतीवैल्लंघांसि प्रत्यचरोहन्ति आग्रयणवैमहाः, वृहत्पृष्ठानि, त्रयस्त्रिंशस्तोमः.”
“The metres descend towards the जगती; the आग्रयण is the cup, the वृहत् is the पृष्ठ (song) and thirty three are the psalmus”

But on the contrary according to the स्वस्थानविवृद्धि principle the श्यनीका will be complete in the 1st half (पूर्वपक्ष) i. e. the 180 days which are divided into 9 parts. The उत्तरपक्ष will commence and the पृष्ठ will come under the first part consisting of 20 days. According to the प्रतिलोम principle, the आग्रयण will come first in the first part consisting of 20 days. So the लिङ्ग is consistent with स्वस्थानविवृद्धि doctrine. Though the 33rd (त्रयस्त्रिंश) is the last day of पृष्ठ, yet comes first here by the प्रतिलोम principle.

वचनात्परिवृत्तिरैकादशिनेषु ॥ १० । ५ । ८६ ॥

वचनात् under a text, परिवृत्तिः repetition; एकादशिनेषु in एकादशिनी.

86. There is a repetition in एकादशिनी under a text.

The author says that the case of एकादशिनी is entirely different. There is an express text which lays down the दंडकलित principle “वारुणमंततः पुनः पर्यावृत्तेषु आग्नेय मेव प्रथमेऽहनि आलभेत” “Last is the animal consecrated to वरुण, then again on repetition the animal consecrated to Agni is brought to the sacrifice on the first day.”

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ १० । ५ । ८७ ॥

लिङ्गदर्शनाद् by seeing the लिङ्ग, च and

87. And by seeing the लिङ्ग.

The author says that there is also a लिङ्ग to support the proposition that दंडकलित principle applies in the case of एकादशिनी “प्राणावा एकादशिनायदेकादशिनिमिरीयुरहानि अतिरिच्यन्ते पशवोवा” “The एकादशिनी is the life, because they resort to एकादशिनी, either the days or animals increase.” This increase or decrease is possible only under the दण्डकलित principle.

Adhikaraya xxvi, dealing with the subject that in इष्टु the metre is to be changed in the mantra.

छन्दोव्यतिक्रमाद्व्यूढे भक्षपवमानपरिधिकपालस्यमन्त्राणां यथोत्पत्तिवचनमूहवत्स्यात् ॥ १० । ५ । ८८ ॥

छन्दोव्यतिक्रमात् by reason of the change of metre ; व्यूढे in व्यूढ ; भक्षपवमान परिधि कपालस्य of भक्ष, पवमान, परिधि, कपाल. मन्त्राणां of the mantras, यथोत्पत्ति वचनं as original text ; ऊहवत् like ऊह ; स्यात् is.

88. By reason of the change of metre in व्यूढ, the mantras belonging to भक्ष, पवमान, परिधि and कपाल should be read as original, like ऊह.

We have seen what व्यूढ is. In it the भक्ष, पवमान, परिधि and कपाल are transferred under a चोदक text. There are भक्षमन्त्र in the three सवन in the गायत्री, त्रिष्टुम् and जगती metres. So also in three पवमान and in three परिधि गायत्रीमध्यमः परिधिः त्रैष्टुभोदक्षिणः जागत उत्तरः." "गायत्री is the middle boundary stick, the त्रिष्टुम् is the southern and जगती is the northern."

Similarly in connection with कपाल, there is a text. "अष्टकपालः प्रातःसवनीय, एकादशकपालः माध्यंदिनीयः, द्वादशकपालस्तार्तीयसवनिकः." "The cakes baked on eight pans belong to the morning सवन, the cakes baked on eleven pans belong to the midday सवन and the cakes baked on twelve pans, the third सवन."

Here too the metres will be गायत्री, त्रिष्टुम् and जगती. Under a text there is a change of metres "कुंदांसिवा अन्योन्यस्य लोकमभिधायन् गायत्री त्रिष्टुमः, त्रिष्टुजगत्याः, जगतीगायत्र्याः." "The metres wishing the place of one another, the गायत्री of त्रिष्टुम्, त्रिष्टुम् of जगती and जगती of गायत्री"

The question is, whether there should be an entire change of the metre or there should be only a verbal change in the मन्त्र. The reply of our author is that the entire metre is not to be displaced but there will be only a verbal change on the principle of ऊह and the मन्त्र will be read in their proper order. The mantras are given in the commentary of शबर, for fear of prolixity, they are not given here

END OF PĀDA V.

PADA VI.

Adhikaraṇa I. sūtra 1-2 dealing with the subject that ह्यस्तर &c. songs should be sung in

एक

एकच स्थानि यज्ञे स्युः स्वाध्यायकम् ॥ १० । ६ । १ ॥

एकचस्थानि in one ऋक् verse, यज्ञे in a sacrifice, स्युः are, स्वाध्यायकम् just as in reading.

1. In a sacrifice in one ऋक् verse, just as in reading.

There are songs such as ह्यस्तर, वैरूप, वैराज, शक्र and रेतव.

The question is whether they should be sung in one ऋक् verse or in a group of three ऋक् verses. The reply of the objector is that they should be sung in one ऋक् verse, because while music is practised, these songs are sung in one ऋक् verse.

तुचे वा लिङ्गदर्शनात् ॥ १० । ६ । २ ॥

तुचे in a group of 3 ऋक् verses, वा on the other hand, लिङ्गदर्शनात् by reason of seeing the force of the text.

2. On the other hand, in a group of 3 ऋक् verses, by reason of seeing the force of the text.

The reply of our author is that they should be sung in a group of 3 ऋक् verses, in support of his view, he relies on the inference derived from the text. "अष्टाक्षरेण प्रथमायाश्चतुः प्रस्तोविद्विंशत्यक्षरेणोत्तरयोः" "He sings the ऋक् verse of the first (यानि) with eight letters and of the उत्तरा with two letters." There is another text

"ऋक् सामउवाच मिथुनी संभवावेति । सोऽब्रवीत् नवैतन्ममाल मसिजायार्थे वेदेमे महिमेति । तद्वेभूत्वोवाचतुः संभवामेति सोऽब्रवीत्तैष्वाममालं सोऽजायार्थेवेदो मेमहिमेति । तास्तिस्रोमूत्रोवाच मिथुनीसंभवामेति सोऽब्रवीत्संभवाम इति । तस्मादेकसाममूत्रे क्रियते स्तोत्रीयं" "Rik said to the साम 'let us be a pair', he said 'thou art not fit to be my wife, my glory is the Veda'. Then they became two and said, 'let us be a pair'; he said 'you both are not enough to be my wife, my glory is the Veda'. Then they became three and said 'let us be a pair', then he agreed and said 'let us be a pair' : for a स्तोत्रीय psalm therefore, three verses are grouped together" (See at p. 557).

Adhikaraṇa II. dealing with the subject that by the word ह्यस्तर the time limit of seeing.

Swaraj Is The Goal

Of All Our Political Parties

BUT

To Win Swaraj One Must

First Know How It Was lost.

This knowledge is denied in the case of most educated Indians from the books on Indian History read in Schools and Colleges.

All these books—particularly the chapters devoted to the British Period—are written from the British Point of View.

The result is that Britons have been whitewashed and Indians blackened, as far as practice is concerned.

Hence the so-called history of India ascribed to Indians, first and foremost, which were not theirs, and they are obliged to fight in the name of a God which they only profess and disbelieve in, and for a cause in which some of which they were not superior.

We certainly wish to blame.

But we must first we must red dress our fault, so that we may apply the right remedy.

Englishmen could certainly claim to be superior in certain respects.

But we must know exactly in what respects they were superior.

This knowledge of the true History of "Rise of the Christian Power in India"

स्वदे॒शं प्र॑ति॒वीक्ष॑णं काल॒मात्रं परार्थ॑त्वात् १०६।३॥

स्वदे॒शं प्र॑ति॒वीक्ष॑णं waiting for स्वदे॒श, काल॒मात्रं a time limit, परार्थ॑त्वात् by reason of its being for the object of another.

3. Waiting for स्वदे॒श, it is a time limit by reason of its being for the object of another.

There is a verse in the Sāma Veda "अ॒भित्वा॑ इ॒रनो॑ नुमोदु॒ग्धा इव॑धेनवः । इ॒यानि॑म॒स्यज॑गतः स्वदे॒शमो॒यानि॑मि॒त्रं ह॒युषः" Rig V vii. 32. 22 "We like much cows, salute thee O ! Brave and omniscient Indra, the lord of the moveable and the lord of the immoveable"

There is a direction to the इ॒रगता "रथ॑ नरे प्र॒स्तूय॑माने॒तमी॒क्षेत् स्वदे॒शं प्र॑ति॒वीक्षे॑त्" "Let him shut his eyes when रथ॑तर tune is sung and let him wait for 'स्वदे॒श' "

The question is, whether स्वदे॒शं प्र॑ति॒वीक्षे॑त् (i. e. seeing for his sight, waiting till he reaches the word स्वदे॒श in the verse) has for its object the part of the body or certain time limit. The reply of our author is that it means closing of the eyes till the singer reaches the word स्वदे॒श in the verse, because the word स्वदे॒क् is used for the object of praising. (the observed of all observers)

Adhikarana 11) verses 4-5 dealing with the subject that the बृहत् and रथ॑तर are divided in the पू॒ष्ट्य lasting for six days in गवाम॑यन

पू॒ष्ट्यस्य॑ यु॒गप॑द्विधेरेका॒हवद्वि॑साम॒त्वम् ॥१०६।४॥

पू॒ष्ट्यस्य॑ of a song ; यु॒गप॑द्विधे by reason of simultaneous विधि , एका॒हवत् like एका॒ह , द्विसाम॒त्वम् by reason of having double songs

4. By reason of simultaneous विधि in connection with पू॒ष्ट्य, it has double simultaneous song like एका॒ह

There is गवाम॑यन in which there is a पू॒ष्ट्य lasting for six days. In connection with the पू॒ष्ट्य it is laid down "पू॒ष्ट्यः षड॑हो॒बृह॑दर्थ॒तरसा॑मा" "पू॒ष्ट्य lasts for six days and has बृह॑दर्थ॒तर tune."

The question for determination is, whether the songs should be sung in बृह॑त् and रथ॑तर together or they should be sung in बृह॑त् on one day and रथ॑तर on the other day.

The reply of the objector is that they should be sung together, because the text with reference to पू॒ष्ट्य is बृह॑दर्थ॒तरसा॑मा which is बृह॑द्वि॒हि combined with द्वैदसमास It means that they should be sung together just as is done in एकाह "उयोगामयाविनउभे कुर्यात् संसवे उभेकुर्यात् अपचितावपि एकाहेवृहद्व्यं-तरे कुर्यात्" "Let him sing both in the case of one afflicted with an ever-lasting disease, let him sing both in संसव, let him sing वृहत् and रथतर in an expiatory sacrifice lasting for a day"

विभक्ते वा समस्तविधानात्तद्विभागेविप्रतिषिद्धम्

॥ १० । ६ । ५ ॥

विभक्ते in division, वा on the other hand; समस्तविधानात् by reason of laying down the entirety, तद्विभागे in that division, विप्रतिषिद्धम् prohibited.

5. On the other hand, in division by reason of laying down the entirety, in that division there is a prohibition

The author says that the songs should be sung by turns, one day वृहत् and on the other day रथतर, because the word वृहदथतरसामा is बहुव्रीहिसमास In that view both वृहत् and रथतर should be sung alternatively, just as in a sentence "feed देवदत्त with ghee and oil for a month" It means that he is to be fed with ghee for a fortnight and with oil for another fortnight. The illustration of एकाह, he says, does not hold good, for the simple reason that there is an express prohibition as to the division there, but there is no such prohibition here. (See the text quoted in the commentary on sūtra 4 above)

Amnikarasa's sūtras 6-12 dealing with the subject that in एकादशिनी, the animals are to be divided in प्रायणीय & उदयनीय

समासस्त्वेकादशिनेषु तन्प्रकृतित्वात् ॥ १० । ६ । ६ ॥

समासः collectively, नु वा on the other hand, एकादशिनेषु in एकादशिनी, तन्प्रकृतित्वात् by reason of that being in the model sacrifice

6. On the other hand collectively in एकादशिनी, by reason of that being in the model sacrifice.

There is an एकादशिनी sacrifice in which there are 11 animals. In that connection, it is said "एकादशि गान् प्रायणीयोदयनीययोरतिरात्रयोरसमेत" "Let him sacrifice eleven animals on प्रायणीय and उदयनीय and in two अतिरात्रs."

Now the question is, whether all the eleven animals are to be sacrificed on the प्रायणीय or on the उदयनीय day, or they are to be divided. The doubt arises, as there can not be an equal division. The reply of the objector is that they are all to be sacrificed on the प्रायणीय day or the उदयनीय day, because in the ज्योतिषोम which is its model sacrifice, all the animals are sacrificed on one day

विहारप्रतिषेधाच्च ॥ १० । ६ । ७ ॥

विहारप्रतिषेधान् by reason of the prohibition of fire sacrifice, च and.

7. And by reason of the prohibition of sacrificing an animal on each day.

The objector supports his view and says that the sacrifice of an animal on each day is prohibited "अन्वहमेकैकं मालमेति विहारः" Sacrificing of animals on one day each is called विहार.

श्रुतितो वा लोकवद्विभागः स्यात् ॥ १० । ६ । ८ ॥

श्रुतिः by reason of the text, वा on the other hand, लोकवत् just as in the ordinary life, विभागः division, स्यात् is

8 On the other hand, by reason of the text, there is a division just as in the ordinary life.

The author says that there is a direct text which enjoins both प्रायणीय and उदयनीय. So the division will be as is in the ordinary life, as for instance, the sentence "Give 100 Rs. to देवदत्त and यशदत्त" means collectively, but when one says "Here are 100 Rs, give them to देवदत्त and यशदत्त", he means distributively

विहारप्रकृतित्वाच्च ॥ १० । ६ । ९ ॥

विहारप्रकृतित्वात् by reason of the fire sacrifice being the model sacrifice, च and.

9. And by reason of the sacrifice of each animal on each day in the model sacrifice.

The author gives a reason in support of his view ; he says that the principle of विहार applies in the model sacrifice. As far as possible, the animals are to be distributed in both प्रायणीय and उदयनीय

विशये च तदासत्तेः ॥ १० । ६ । १० ॥

विशये in a doubt, च and, तदासतोः by reason of the compliance with that

10. And in a doubt, by reason of the compliance with that.

The author says that if you admit that the animals are to be distributed between प्रायणीय and उदानीय, the next question is, how to distribute them, when there is an odd number? The author says that the model sacrifice is the guide for that purpose. In this view, five animals will be allotted to प्रायणीय and six animals will be allotted to the उदानीय

त्रयस्तथेति चेत् ॥ १० । ६ । ११ ॥

त्रयः three, तथा similarly, इतिचेत् if you say

11. If you say, "three similarly"

The objector says that three animals should be allotted to the प्रायणीय

न समत्वात्प्रयाजवत् ॥ १० । ६ । १२ ॥

न not so, समत्वात् by reason of equality, प्रयाजवत् as in प्रयाज

12. Not so, by reason of equality as in प्रयाज offering.

The author says that this arbitrary principle of division is not proper, because the animals must be equally divided. In this view, five will be allotted to the प्रायणीय and six will go to the उदानीय; the excess number i.e. one will be allotted to the उदानीय, because the excess comes last and so it will be allotted to the last day

Adhikarapa v. entries 13-14 dealing with the subject that the text "विश्रजित् सर्वपृष्ठः" means that all are to be introduced in one part of a पृष्ठ

सर्वपृष्ठे पृष्ठशब्दात्तेषां स्यादेकदेशत्वं पृष्ठस्य कृतदेश-
त्वात् ॥ १० । ६ । १३ ॥

सर्वपृष्ठे in all-पृष्ठ, पृष्ठशब्दात् by reason of the word पृष्ठ, तेषां their; स्यात् is; एकदेशत्वं in one place; पृष्ठस्य of पृष्ठ; कृतदेशत्वात् by reason of its being so directed.

13. By reason of the word 'पृष्ठ' in all पृष्ठ, they are to be in one place of the पृष्ठ because it is so directed.

There is a text "विश्रजित् सर्वपृष्ठः" "विश्रजित् has all the songs." In पृष्ठ there are 6 songs on six successive days viz: रथतर, बृहत् वैरूप, वैराज शाकर, and रैवत. They are sung in a विश्वजित् There is a space between the माध्यदिनपवमान and the मैत्रावरुण song called पृष्ठदेश.

The songs are sung here The question for determination is, whether all the six songs are to be sung in this intervening space of विश्वजित् or in their proper place. The reply of the objector is that they should all be sung there, because the language warrants it. The विश्वजित् has got all the songs and they are to be sung in a limited space That will be done in the space indicated above.

विधेस्तु विप्रकर्षः स्यात् ॥ १० । ६ । १४ ॥

विधे. by reason of the command, तु or the other hand, विप्रकर्षः separation of space ; स्यात् is.

14 On the other hand, there will be separation of space by reason of the command.

The reply of our author is that the songs will be sung at their proper places by reason of the text “पवमाने रथतरं करोति आर्भवेवृहत् मध्य इतराणि । वैरूपं होतुः पृष्ठंवैराजं ब्रह्मसाम शाकरं मैत्रावरुणसाम रैवत मच्छावाकसामः” ‘He sings रथतर tune in a पवमान, बृहत् tune in an आर्भवे and others in the middle (मध्यपवमान) वैरूप is the song of the Hotā, वैराज is that of the ब्रह्मा, शाकर is that of the मैत्रावरुण and रैवत is that of the मच्छावाक’

Adhikaraṇa vi sūtras 15-21 dealing with the subject that the songs वैरूप & वैराज are to be introduced in the पृष्ठ

वैरूपसामा क्रतुसंयोगात् त्रिवृद्देकसामा स्यात् ॥ १७।६।१५॥

वैरूपसामा, वैरूप song; क्रतुसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with a sacrifice, त्रिवृत् just as त्रिवृत्, एकसामा one song, स्यात् is

15. The वैरूप song pertains to the whole sacrifice, just as त्रिवृत् belongs to the sacrifice.

There is उपेतिष्टोम in which there is a series of songs called उक्थ्य and षोडशी In their connection it is said, “उक्थ्यो वैरूपसामा एकविंश, षोडशी वैराजसामा” “उक्थ्य has वैरूप and एकविंश पृष्ठ song, षोडशी has वैराज psalm.”

The question is, whether वैरूप and वैराज are to be introduced in the whole sacrifice or at the time of performance of पृष्ठ. The reply of the objector is that they are to be introduced in the whole sacrifice just as त्रिवृत् song belongs to the whole sacrifice, or the fee of a स्तोत्रिय paid in the shape of a cow pertains to the whole sacrifice

पृष्ठार्थे वा प्रकृतिलिङ्गसंयोगात् ॥ १० । ६ । १६ ॥

पृष्ठार्थे for the पृष्ठ ; वा on the other hand , प्रकृतिलिङ्गसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the indicative power of the model sacrifice.

16. On the other hand, it is for the पृष्ठ, by reason of the connection with the indicative power of the model sacrifice.

The author says that they are with the object of the पृष्ठ. In the model sacrifice, there are वृहत्साम and रथतरसाम which are for the object of the पृष्ठ. From this fact, the inference is that वैरूपसाम and वैराजसाम are for the purpose of the पृष्ठ.

त्रिवृद्धदिति चेत् ॥ १० । ६ । १७ ॥

त्रिवृद्धत् like त्रिवृत् , इतिचेत् if you say

17 If you say, "like त्रिवृत्"

The objector says that the त्रिवृत् साम is for the entire sacrifice , so here too.

न प्रकृतावकृत्स्नसंयोगात् ॥ १० । ६ । १८ ॥

न not so , प्रकृतौ in the model sacrifice ; अकृत्स्नसंयोगात् by reason of their being not connected with the whole.

18. Not so , by reason of their being not connected with the whole in the model sacrifice

The author's reply is that in the case of वैरूप and वैराज, we have seen that in the model sacrifice the songs have no connection with the entire sacrifice but they are with the object of the पृष्ठ , on the other hand there is no such inference in the case of त्रिवृत् from the model sacrifice

विधित्वान्नेति चेत् ॥ १० । ६ । १९ ॥

विधित्वात् by reason of its being a command , न not so , इतिचेत् if you say.

19. If you say "not so, by reason of its being a command".

The objector says that as the fee paid in the form of a cow is for the whole sacrifice, so the songs also, "धेनुर्धैवभूर्वैश्वदेवः त्रिवृदेव सर्वस्तस्य विश्वस्तस्य स्तोत्रियाधेनुर्दक्षिणा". "Cow or land, this वैश्वदेव has त्रिवृत् and all, his fee is cow which has all and which is fit for a स्तोत्रीय."

Here धेनु is the fee of the whole sacrifice.

स्याद्विशये तन्न्यायत्वात्कर्माविभागात् ॥१०६।२०॥

स्यात् is ; विशये in a case of doubt , तन्न्यायत्वात् by reason of its being proper , कर्माविभागात् by reason of the unity of the action.

20. It is so in a case of doubt, by reason of its being proper and the unity of the action.

The reply of the author is that in a case of doubt as to whether the payment of the fee in the form of a cow is in lieu of performance of the whole sacrifice or not, the answer that it is in lieu of the performance of the whole sacrifice is proper, because the sacrifice is one indivisible whole, but in the present case the inference from the model sacrifice is contrary. So the illustration of the payment of the fee does not hold good here.

प्रकृतेश्चाविकारात् ॥ १० । ६ । २१ ॥

प्रकृतेः of the model sacrifice , च and , अविकारात् by reason of being not changed

21. And by reason of the model sacrifice being not changed.

The author further gives his reason that if you hold these songs to pertain to the पृष्ठ alone, it will be consistent and quite in keeping with the model sacrifice

Adhikarṇa: vii. sūtras 22 23 dealing with the subject that in the text त्रिवृदग्निहोम, the modification of the number in the songs is meant.

त्रिवृति सङ्ख्यात्वेन सर्वसंख्याविकारः स्यात् ॥१०६।२२॥

त्रिवृति in a त्रिवृत् , संख्यात्वेन with the number , सर्वसंख्याविकारः the modification of the whole number , स्यात् is

22. In त्रिवृत् with the number, the modification of the whole is meant.

There is a text "त्रिवृदग्निहोमः" "An Agnistoma has त्रिवृत्".

The question is, whether the number three (त्रिवृत्) as used applies to all the materials used in the अग्निहोम or to the songs only. The objector says that it applies to all the materials used in the अग्निहोम. They are to be taken three times, because there is nothing to limit the number to any thing particular.

स्तोमस्य वा तल्लिङ्गत्वात् ॥ १० । ६ । २३ ॥

स्तोमस्य of the song वा on the other hand ; तल्लिङ्गत्वात् by the reason of the inference from the text.

23. On the other hand, of the song by reason of the inference from the text.

The author says that the number (त्रिवृत्) applies to songs only. The reason is that every where in the Vedic language, it applies to the songs "त्रिवृद्विद्विष्वमान". "विद्विष्वमान has त्रिवृत्".

The Vedic musicians use the word to mean 9 vik verses used as songs.

Adhikarana viii sūtras 24-26 dealing with the subject that in the double songs, there is a combination of वृहत्, & रथतर

उभयसाम्नि विश्वजिद्विभागः स्यात् ॥ १० । ६ । २४ ॥

उभयसाम्नि in double songs ; विश्वजिद्वत्: like विश्वजिन्, विभागः separation, स्यात् 18.

24. In double songs, like विश्वजिन् there is a separation.

There are sacrifices in which both kinds of songs वृहत् & रथतर are to be sung. The question is, whether they are to be sung separately or in a combination. The reply of the objector is that they are not to be sung in a combination as it is in the case of a विश्वजिन्. See Adhikarana v. at p. 763

पृष्ठार्थे वाऽतदर्थत्वात् ॥ १० । ६ । २५ ॥

पृष्ठार्थे in the object of the पृष्ठ, वा on the other hand, अतदर्थत्वात् by reason of its being not for it

25. On the other hand, in the object of the पृष्ठ by reason of its being not for it.

The author says that the songs are for the पृष्ठ, so they are to be in combination "उभेष्टुद्वयतरे कुर्यात्". "Let him sing both पृष्ठ and रथतर".

The text shows that they are to be sung in combination but not separately. While in the case of the other i. e. विश्वजिन् there is a direct text sanctioning separation. So the illustration of विश्वजिन् does not hold good.

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ १० । ६ । २६ ॥

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च by seeing the लिङ्ग . च and.

26. And by seeing the लिङ्ग .

The author says that there are texts from which the inference is that they are to be sung in combination in one place of वृहत् "महावृक्षौ वै वृहत्प्रयंतरे निधनेन समाप्येते यन्महावृक्षौ समुच्छ्रयते । नद्यत्र विभग्नं प्रभग्नं." "The वृहत् and प्रयंतर are the two great trees which end with the decadence because the great trees increase, here is no break "

There is another text "पूर्वाह्णो वै प्रयंतरम्, अपरान्होवृहत्" "The प्रयंतर is in the fore-noon and the वृहत् in the afternoon " This text goes to show that this happens in the course of a day at one place

Adhikarapa ix sūtras 27 28 dealing with the subject that eating of honey and ghee is to be done at the end of वृहत्

पृष्ठे रसभोजनमावृत्ते संस्थिते त्रयस्त्रिंशोऽहनि स्या- त्तदानन्तर्यात्प्रकृतिवत् ॥ १० । ६ । २७ ॥

पृष्ठे in a पृष्ठ ; रसभोजनम् eating of the liquid , आवृत्ते on repetition ; संस्थिते on happening , त्रयस्त्रिंशे on the thirty three, अहनि on the day, स्यात् is; तदानन्तर्यात् by reason of that being at the end of it, प्रकृतिवत् as in the model sacrifice.

27. In a पृष्ठ when there is a repetition of the eating of the liquid, it is to be done on the day of thirty-three by reason of that being at the end of it as in the model sacrifice.

There are two kinds of वृहत्, one commencing with त्रयस्त्रिंश and the other ending with त्रयस्त्रिंश In द्वादशाह the वृहत् has six songs named त्रिवृत्, पंचदश, सप्तदश, एकविंश, त्रिणव and त्रयस्त्रिंश.

This is the order in the model sacrifice but in the modified sacrifice the order is reversed There the eating of honey and ghee is transferred under a चोदक text "संस्थिते पृष्ठे वृहत्सु आशयेद्वृत्तंवा" "In the वृहत् when पृष्ठ is commenced, let him eat honey or clarified butter."

Now the question is, whether the eating of ghee or honey is to be performed at the end of वृहत् त्रयस्त्रिंश. The reply of the objector is that it should be done at the end of the त्रयस्त्रिंश song ; because that is the order in the model sacrifice and by eating the ghee and honey the procedure of the model sacrifice will be complied with.

अन्ते वा कृतकालत्वात् ॥ १० । ६ । २८ ॥

अन्ते at the end, वा on the other hand; कृतकालत्वात् by reason of the time (of the tune)

28. On the other hand, at the end, by reason of the time (of the tune.)

The author says that the eating should be done at the end of षडह. It so happens that षडह ends with त्रयस्त्रिंश in some cases, but that will not justify eating at the end of त्रयस्त्रिंश, it is accidental. So the eating should be done at end of षडह, irrespective of the fact that the षडह ends in the त्रयस्त्रिंश or त्रिवृत्.

Adhikarāṇa x sūtras 29-30 dealing with the subject that on the repetition of षडह, the eating of honey and ghee is to be done once

अभ्यासे च तदभ्यासः कर्मणः पुनः प्रयोगात् ॥ १० । ६ । २९ ॥

अभ्यासे in repetition; च and; तदभ्यासः its repetition; पुनः प्रयोगात् by reason of the reapplication; कर्मणः of the act.

29. And on repetition, there is its repetition by reason of the application of the act again.

There is a text "आवृत्तं पृथ्वं षडहमुपयति" "They resort to षडह in which there is a repeated पृथ्वं"

The text in connection with eating of honey and ghee is transferred under a चोदक text "संस्थिते पृथ्व्ये षडहेमध्याशयेद्भूतं वा" "In the षडह when पृथ्वं is commenced, let him eat honey or clarified butter."

Now the question is, whether the eating of honey and ghee is to be repeated on each repetition of षडह or at the end of the last षडह. The reply of the objector is that the eating of honey and ghee is to be repeated because on the repetition of the षडह, each detail is to be repeated such as the songs &c. So the repetition of eating is also in conformity with this practice.

अन्ते वा कृतकालत्वात् ॥ १० । ६ । ३० ॥

अन्ते at the end ; वा on the other hand ; कृतकालत्वात् by reason of the time limit.

30. At the end, by reason of the time limit.

The author says that the eating is to be performed at the end of the last षडह, because the time for eating is fixed , it can not be repeated.

Adhikarapa xi dealing with the subject that in गवामयन eating of honey & ghee is to be repeated every month,

आवृत्तिस्तु व्यवाये कालभेदात् स्यात् ॥ १०।६। ३१ ॥

आवृत्तिः repetition , तु on the other hand ; व्यवाये is an interval ; कालभेदात् by reason of separation of time , स्यात् is.

31. On the other hand, there is repetition in an interval by reason of the separation of time.

There is गवामयन, in the first, second, 3rd, 4th, and 5th months there are 4 अभिप्लवस of six days each and one षडह of six days See the commentary on sūtra 83 of Pada v. at p 753. The question is, whether the eating of honey and ghee is to be done at the end of the last षडह of the 5th month or it is to be repeated every month. The reply of the author is that it is to be repeated every month ; the reason is that there is an intervening space of 4 अभिप्लवस that come after the षडह. As the षडहs do not follow each other without interruption, the principle laid down in the preceding अधिकरण does not apply.

Adhikarapa xii sūtras 32-33. dealing with the subject that in द्वादशाह all the sacrificers are entitled to partake of the honey ,

मधु न दीक्षिता ब्रह्मचारित्वात् ॥ १०।६। ३२ ॥

मधु honey ; न ,not , दीक्षिताः initiated , ब्रह्मचारित्वात् by reason of celibacy.

32. The initiated ones do not partake of honey by reason of celibacy.

The question is, whether in a सत्र of द्वादशाह where all the ऋत्विक्स are initiated, do all the sacrificers so initiated are entitled to partake of the honey? They are enjoined to observe celibacy and the celibates are forbidden to partake of honey "मधुमौलं च वज्रयेत्" "Honey (wine) and flesh are forbidden ”

The reply of the objector is that they are not entitled to partake of it, by reason of their celibacy.

प्राश्येत यज्ञार्थत्वात् ॥ १० । ६ । ३३ ॥

प्राश्येत they should eat, यज्ञार्थत्वात् by reason of its being for the sacrifice.

33. He should eat, by reason of its being for the sacrifice.

The author says that the celibate should eat honey, because the eating of it is for the purpose of the sacrifice. The prohibition is for a religious student so that he may not go astray by taking such substance as honey.

Adhikarana xiii sūtras 34-44 dealing with the subject that मानस is the part of the 10th day (द्वादशाह)

मानसमहरन्तरं स्याद्भेदव्यपदेशात् ॥१०६॥३४॥

मानसं, मानस , अहः day , अन्तरं separate , स्यात् is , भेदव्यपदेशात् by reason of marking the difference.

34. मानस is a separate day, by reason of marking the difference.

In connection with द्वादशाह, it is said “अनयात्वापात्रेण समुद्ररसया प्रजापतये जुष्टं गृह्णामि, प्राजापत्यं मनोम्रहं गृह्णाति”. “I take thee blessed, by means of this (earth) as vessel and with ocean as (soma) juice for the Lord of the universe. He takes the मानस cup consecrated to प्रजापति.”

Now the question is, whether this मानस is one of the days of द्वादशाह or it is a separate day. The reply of the objector is that it is a separate day, the reason is that there are marks to indicate that it is a separate day “बावैद्वादशाहो मनोमानस” “Tongue is certainly the द्वादशाह and mind is मानस.”

The द्वादशाह is compared with speech and मानस is compared with अन्नः. The text therefore shows that मानस is a separate day from द्वादशाह.

तेन च संस्तवात् ॥ १० । ६ । ३५ ॥

तेन by it ; च and ; संस्तवात् by reason of praise.

35. And by reason of the praise by it.

The objector gives a reason in support of his view ; that the द्वादशाह is praised by मानस ; one does not praise himself, he is praised by another: मानस is, therefore, different from द्वादशाह.

अहरन्ताच्च परेण चोदना ॥ १० । ६ । ३६ ॥

अहः from the day ; अन्तात्, from the last , च and , परेण further ; चोदना command.

36. And the command is further from the last day.

The objector gives another reason in support of his view He says that there is a text “पत्नीः संयाज्य प्रांचउदत्य मानसाय प्रसर्पति” “Having completed पत्नीसंयाज and coming from the east, they advance towards मानस.”

The पत्नीसंयाज is the last act in the द्वादशाह and the text shows that मानस is subsequent to पत्नी संयाज This fact shows that मानस is a separate day from द्वादशाह.

पक्षे सहस्र्या सहस्रवत् ॥ १० । ६ । ३७ ॥

पक्षे in that view ; सहस्र्या the number, सहस्रवत् like the thousand.

37. In that view, the number is like the thousand.

The objector meets the objection raised to his view. The objection is that if मानस is a separate sacrifice to be performed on the 13th day, how is द्वादशाह applicable to it ? The reply is that as in the अतिरात्र there are 1000 days and the word ‘thousand’ applies in those cases also where days exceed thousand; so here also the word ‘द्वादशाह’ will apply to thirteen days; cf. baker’s dozen which consists of 13.

अहरङ्गं वांशुवच्चोदनाभावात् ॥ १० । ६ । ३८ ॥

अहः day ; अंशं part , वा on the other hand , अंशुवत् like अंशु ; चोदनाभावात् by reason of there being no command.

38. It is a part of the day like अंशु, by reason of there being no command.

The author says that मानस is a part of the tenth day because there is no such चोदना text showing that मानस is a separate sacrifice to be performed on the 13th day. Take for instance अंशु and अदाय cups which are prescribed; they are only parts of the sacrifice. They are not separate from the main sacrifice. So the मानस cup is not a separate sacrifice.

दशमविसर्गवचनाच्च ॥ १० । ६ । ३९ ॥

दशमविसर्गवचनात् by reason of the completing sentence of the 10th day, च and.

39. And by reason of the completing sentence of the 10th day.

The author gives another reason in support of his view that there is a text “एषवैदशमस्यान्होविसर्गो यन्मानसं” “That which is a ‘मानस’ cup is the completion of the tenth day” It shows that the मानस is at the conclusion of the 10th day and is, therefore, its part.

दशमेऽहनीति च तद्गुणशास्त्रात् ॥ १० । ६ । ४० ॥

दशमे in the 10th; अहन् day, इति participle signifying quotation, च and ; तद्गुणशास्त्रात् by reason of that being ordained as subordinate.

40. And in the 10th, there is day by reason of that being ordained as subordinate.

The author says that the मानस is only a part of the tenth day and its subordination is supported by the texts, “दशमेऽहनिमानसाय प्रसर्पति” “दशमेऽहनिसर्परात्रीभिर्ऋग्भिः स्तुवंति” “On the 10th day they advance for the मानस cup.” “They praise with the सर्परात्री verses on the 10th day”

The 10th day is, therefore, principal and the मानस cup is subordinate and the praise sung in its honour is only a part of the 10th day

सङ्ख्यासामञ्जस्यात् ॥ १० । ६ । ४१ ॥

सङ्ख्यासामञ्जस्यात् by reason of the fitness of the number.

41. And by reason of the fitness of the number.

The author says that in this view that the मानस is a part of the tenth day, the number in the द्वादशाह will quite fit in.

पश्वतिरेके चैकस्य भावात् ॥ १० । ६ । ४२ ॥

पश्वतिरेके in the increase of animals ; च and , एकस्य of one, भावात् by existence.

42. And in the increase of animals, by reason of the increase of one.

The author further gives a reason. In एकादशिनी there are 11 animals but under the principle of अतिदेश they are transferred to the द्वादशाह ; only one animal is added. “यःपशुरतिरिच्येत स पौत्राग्निः कार्यः” “The animal that is in addition, should be offered to ईद and अग्नि”

Had there been 13 days as contended for by the objector, then two animals would have been added.

स्तुतिव्यपदेशमङ्गेनविप्रतिषिद्धं व्रतवत् ॥१०६।४३॥

स्तुतिव्यपदेश differentiation based on the praise , अङ्गेन by the part ; विप्रतिषिद्धम् prohibited , व्रतवत् just as in the महाव्रत.

43. Differentiation based on the praise by the praise of the part is prohibited, just as in the महाव्रत.

The sūtra refutes the argument of the objector embodied in the sūtras 34-35, you say that the मानस is a separate sacrifice because one does not praise himself i. e. a part can not praise the whole of which it is a part. The author says in reply that you are wrong here See in महाव्रत, the whole is praised by the part. By the praise of महाव्रत, the animal सत्र is praised, “यंति वा एते मिथुनाद्वये संवत्सरमुपयंति । अतर्वेदि मिथुनौ संभवत स्तेनैवमिथुना यंति” “Those who resort to the annual sacrifice, do not live in a pair ; if they live in a pair within the precincts of the altar they become pairs by it” Here we have an illustration in which by praise of a part, the whole is praised thereby.

In ordinary life also there are instances ‘Deva Dutta appears to be beautiful with his charming hairs.’

वचनादतदन्तत्वम् ॥ १० । ६ । ४४ ॥

वचनात् by reason of the text ; अतदन्तत्वम् not its end.

44. By reason of the text, it is not its end.

The author meets the objection raised in sūtra 36. Ordinarily पक्षीसंवाज takes place at the end of the 12th day but under the special text, it takes place on the 10th day , and मानस takes place after it.

Adhikarana xxv sūtras 45-50 dealing with the subject that many are entitled to perform a सत्र.

सत्रमेकः प्रकृतिवत् ॥ १० । ६ । ४५ ॥

सत्रम् sacrificial sessions, एकः one ; प्रकृतिवत् just as in प्रकृति.

45. One should perform a सत्र just as in प्रकृति.

द्वादशाह &c are सत्रs. Now the question is, whether one should perform a सत्र or many should join it. The reply of the objector is that one should perform it, just as one performs ज्योतिष्टोम which is its model.

वचनात्तु बहूनां स्यात् ॥ १० । ६ । ४६ ॥

वचनात् by reason of the text , तु on the other hand , बहूनां of many ; स्यात् is

46. By reason of the text, it is of many.

The author's reply is that there are many sacrificers in a सत्र. “यएवं विद्वांसः सत्रमासते, य एवं विद्वांसः सत्रमुपयन्ति” “Those who know this, resort to a sacrificial session ” “Those who know this, have recourse to a sacrificial session ”

The text clearly shows by the plural number used in it that many sacrificers participate in a sacrificial session.

अपदेशः स्यादिति चेत् ॥ १० । ६ । ४७ ॥

अपदेश naming , स्यात् is ; इति चेत् if you say.

47. ‘It is naming’ if you say.

The objector says that it is only अपदेश. The plural number is used only to indicate the action but not the sacrificers As for instance, when rain falls, the agriculturists will commence cultivation. The plural is to indicate the several action of cultivation; one only can cultivate but not many. So here also, the plural is used to show several acts of sacrifices in which only one shall take part at a time

नैकव्यपदेशात् ॥ १० । ६ । ४८ ॥

न not so ; एकव्यपदेशात् by reason of naming one

48. Not so, by reason of naming one

The author says that you are wrong in saying that the plural verb is used to indicate the variety of acts , but singular number is also used which is quite in variance with the argument you advance “यश्चैकुरूप-मक्षिः सत्रे प्रतिगृह्णाति । एक एव यजेत्” “One who accepts a gift in a sacrificial session, eats a carcass ; let one only perform a sacrifice.”

If your view were correct, no singular form should be used in such cases, where there are various acts. This fact shows that the plural number is intentionally used to indicate the plurality of the sacrificers.

सन्निवापञ्च दर्शयति ॥ १० । ६ । ४९ ॥

सन्निवाप collection of fire at one place, च and ; दर्शयति shows.

49. And collection of fire at one place shows.

The author supports his view by saying that सन्निवाप text also leads to the same conclusion

पंचभिः पशुभिः यदयमाणः सन्निवपेत्, सावित्राणिहोष्यन्त सन्निवपेत् "Let one who will perform a sacrifice with five animals collect fire at one place, let one who will perform सावित्री sacrifices, collect fire at one place"

The collection of many fires at one place is called सन्निवाप There can not be many fires unless there be many sacrificers This fact also lends support to the author's view.

बहूनामिति चैकस्मिन्विशेषवचनं व्यर्थम् ॥ १०।६।५०॥

बहूनाम् of many इति is a participle, च and ; एकस्मिन् in one ; विशेषवचनं the special text, व्यर्थम् meaningless.

50. And the special text 'of many' in one, will be meaningless.

There is a text "यो वै बहूनां यजमानानां गृहपतिः स सत्रस्य प्रत्येता, समूयिष्ठां ऋद्धिमाप्नोति." "He who is the house master of many sacrificers, is the conductor of the sacrificial session ; he obtains great prosperity."

When there is one गृहपति and several sacrificers, there is a special reward shown under the text quoted The author says that if there be not many sacrificers, the text will be meaningless. This fact also supports his view

Adhikarṇa xv sūtras 57-58, dealing with the subject that in a सत्र, all the sacrificers are entitled to be priests

अन्ये स्युर्ऋत्विजः प्रकृतिवत् ॥ १० । ६ । ५१ ॥

अन्ये others ; स्युः should be, ऋत्विजः priests, प्रकृतिवत् just as in the model sacrifice,

51. Others should be the priests just as in the model sacrifice.

It is established in the fore-going अधिकरण that in a सन्न there are several यजमानसः. The question is, whether they themselves act as priests or outsiders should be engaged as priests. The reply of the objector is that outsiders should be engaged as priests, because in the उद्योतिहोम which is its model sacrifice, outsiders are engaged as priests

अपि वा यजमानाः स्युर्ऋत्विजामभिधानसंयोगात्तेषां
स्यादयजमानत्वम् ॥ १० । ६ । ५२ ॥

अपि also ; वा on the other hand , यजमानाः sacrificers ; स्युः are , ऋत्विजाम् of the priests ; अभिधानसंयोगात् by connection of the name ; तेषां of those ; स्यात् is, यजमानत्वम् the position of a sacrificer.

52. On the other hand, the sacrificers shall act by reason of the priests' name being connected. Theirs is the position of the sacrificers.

The author says that the sacrificers themselves are the priests because their name is connected with the action “अध्वर्युर्गृहपतिं दीक्षयित्वा ब्रह्माण्दीक्षयति ततोहोतारं ततउद्गातारं” “The अध्वर्यु after initiating the master of the house initiates ब्रह्मा, then होता and then उद्गाता”.

All the priests are named in connection with the initiation. This fact supports the view that the sacrificers are the priests.

कर्तृसंस्कारो वचनादाधातुवदिति चेत् ॥ १० । ६ । ५३ ॥

कर्तृसंस्कारः purificatory rite of the agent ; वचनात् under a text ; आधातुवत् just like one in the establishment of fire ; इति चेत् if you say.

53. “It is a purificatory rite of the agent under a text just like one in the establishment of fire” if you say.

The objector says that one can not initiate himself , the text quoted by you contemplates the initiation of others. It is only by way of a purificatory rite of the priests, just as it happens in the establishment of fire.

“यस्तं श्वोग्निमाधास्यत् स्यात् सपतां रात्रिं ब्रतंश्चरेदिति नर्मासमश्नीयाच्च स्त्रियमुपेयात्”. “One who wishes to establish fire on the following day, shall observe the vow on the preceding night. He shall not eat flesh nor shall he go to a woman."

In the उयोतिष्ठोम all the priests observe the vow. So in the same way, the purificatory rite pertains to the priests appointed from outside.

स्याद्विशये तन्न्यायत्वात्प्रकृतिवत् ॥ १० । ६ । ५४ ॥

स्यात् is, विशये in a doubt, तन्न्यायत्वात् by reason of its being proper; प्रकृतिवत् just as in the model sacrifice.

54. It may be in a doubt by reason of its being proper, just as in the model sacrifice.

The author says that where there is a doubt as to whether the priests should be appointed amongst the sacrificers or from outsiders, it is proper that they should be appointed from the sacrificers or from outsiders according to the model sacrifice. Here in a सत्र it is proper that they should be appointed from the sacrificers 'येयजमानास्त एव कृत्विजः' "Those who are the sacrificers are the priests"

In the उयोतिष्ठोम which is the model sacrifice, the दीक्षा is for the purification of the sacrificers, so here also. In the द्वादशाह the initiation ceremony is transferred from the model sacrifice, there the procedure will be governed by the procedure of the model sacrifice. In the establishment of fire, as to the vow to be observed by the priest (आवाता), there is a clear text "कृत्विज उपवसति, ततो रात्रि व्रतचरेत्" "The priests observe a fast." "Let him observe a vow during that night"

स्वाम्याख्याः स्युर्गृहपतिवदिति चेत् ॥ १० । ६ । ५५ ॥

स्वाम्याख्याः names of masters ; स्युः are ; गृहपतिवत् like गृहपति, इति चेत् if you say.

55. "If they mean masters like गृहपति" if you say.

The objector says that just as गृहपति means 'master' so the different names of the priests may also connote the masters, so that others may be employed in a सत्र.

न प्रसिद्धग्रहणत्वादसंयुक्तस्य तदुर्मण ॥ १० । ६ । ५६ ॥

न not ; प्रसिद्धग्रहणत्वात् by reason of the well known signification; असंयुक्तस्य of the one not associated, तदुर्मण with the duties of that.

56. Not so, by reason of the 'well known signification ; it is not associated with the duties of that.

The अश्वयु^१ &c, have their own conventional meaning ; a sacrificer performing the duty of an अश्वयु^१ can not be called अश्वयु^१. The function of the sacrificers is not that of the priest, they are therefore not connected. The गृहपति is entirely different. It is a compound word meaning the 'lord of the house' and in the model sacrifice also the term is used for the 'sacrificer'. The text "येवैवा बहुनां यजमानानां गृहपतिः ससत्रस्य प्रत्येता सहिभूयिष्टामृद्धिमाप्नोति" "(He who is the house master of many sacrificers is the conductor of the sacrificial session, he obtains great prosperity)"

This shows that out of several sacrificers only one can be a गृहपति and others discharge the duties of both the गृहपति and यजमान. This is a special text, the inference is that they are the priests also. If they are all of equal rank, this will not be the case.

दीक्षिताऽदीक्षितव्यपदेशश्च नोपपद्यतेऽर्थयोर्नित्यभावित्वात् ॥ १० । ६ । ५७ ॥

दीक्षितादीक्षितव्यपदेशः distinction of the initiated and uninitiated ; च and ; न not, उपपद्यते arises, अर्थयोः of the object, नित्यभावित्वात् by reason of the objects being permanently in existence.

57. And the distinction of the initiated and the uninitiated does not arise by reason of the objects being permanently in existence.

The author says that there is a distinction made "दीक्षिताः सत्रैर्यजन्ते, अदीक्षिता अहीनैर्यजन्ति" "The initiated ones sacrifice with a सत्र and the uninitiated ones with an अहीन."

The initiated ones perform a sacrifice for their own object while the uninitiated ones perform it for others. This distinction supports the view of the author ; in a सत्र the sacrificers are all initiated while in an अहीन, the uninitiated ones perform the sacrifice.

अदक्षिणत्वाच्च ॥ १० । ६ । ५८ ॥

अदक्षिणत्वाच्च by reason of the absence of fee ; च and.

58. And by reason of the absence of fee.

The author gives another reason in support of his view. He says that no payment of fee is made in a सत्र "अदक्षिणानिसत्राणि आहुः । न ह्यत्र गौ दीयते ना घासो न हिरण्यं". "The सत्रs are said to be without fees ; here neither a cow is given, nor cloth nor gold "

The absence of payment of fees also shows that there are no priests from outside.

Adhikarapa xvi, sūtras 59-60. dealing with the distinction between सत्र and अहीन.

द्वादशाहस्य सत्रत्वमासनोपायिचोदनेन यजमानबहुत्वेन च सत्रशब्दाभिसंयोगात् ॥ १० । ६ । ५९ ॥

द्वादशाहस्य of द्वादशाह , सत्रत्वम् nature of a सत्र, आसनोपायिचोदनेन with the text containing आसन and उपायि ; यजमान बहुत्वेन with many sacrificers ; च and ; सत्रशब्दाभिसंयोगात् by reason of that being connected with the word सत्र.

59. The द्वादशाह is a सत्र with the text containing आसन and उपायि and with many sacrificers by reason of their being connected with the word सत्र.

There are two kinds of द्वादशाह, one is called सत्र and the other is अहीन. The question propounded for determination is the difference between them. The author says that the चोदना text relating to सत्र contains either the verbal form of आसन or उपायि. "यएवंविद्वांसः सत्रमासते, यएवंविद्वांसः सत्रमुपयन्ति" "Those who know this resort to a सत्र, those who know this have recourse to a सत्र.

These are the कृद् forms of the verbs. The second distinguishing feature is that there are many sacrificers but with limited number.

"चतुर्विंशतिपरमाः सप्तदशावराः सत्रमासीत्". "At the most twenty four and at the least seventeen join in a सत्र."

यजतिचोदनादहीनत्वं स्वामिनां चाऽस्थितपरिमाण-
त्वात् ॥ १० । ६ । ६० ॥

यजतिचोदनात् by reason of the text containing यजति; अहीनत्वं the nature of an अहीन ; स्वामिनां of masters ; च and ; अस्थितपरिमाणत्वात् by reason of the numberless sacrificers.

60. The अहीन is so called by reason of the text containing यजति and by reason of the numberless sacrificers.

The author says that the distinguishing feature of अहीन is that the text enjoining it contains the verbal form of यजति, as for instance, "द्विरात्रेण यजेत" "Let him perform द्विरात्र."

The second feature is that it has innumerable sacrificers. No limit is fixed.

Adhikaraṇa xvii sūtras 6: 67. dealing with the subject that in a पौंडरीक, the fee is paid once.

अहीने दक्षिणाशास्त्रं गुणत्वात्प्रत्यहं कर्मभेदः स्यात् ॥

१० । ६ । ६१ ॥

अहीने in an अहीन, दक्षिणाशास्त्रं rule as to payment of fee, गुणत्वात् by reason of being subordinate, प्रत्यहं every day, कर्मभेदः variance of action; स्यात् is.

61. In an अहीन, the rule as to payment of fee is daily, by reason of its being subordinate, because the action varies every day.

There is a पौंडरीक sacrifice lasting for 11 nights "पौंडरीकेण एकादशरात्रेण स्वाराज्यकामो यजेत" "Let one who is desirous of heavenly government perform पौंडरीक lasting for eleven nights."

In that connection it is said, 'अयुतं पौंडरीके दद्यादश्वसहस्र मेकादशं' "Let him give ten thousand, one thousand horses or eleven."

The question is, whether this is a daily fee or the fee of the whole sacrifice. The reply of the objector is that it is a daily fee because the action varies every day and the fee is subordinate and the day is principal. The payment of fee is, therefore, a daily function.

सर्वस्य वैकर्म्यात् ॥ १० । ६ । ६२ ॥

सर्वस्य of the whole; वा on the other hand, एकर्म्यात् by reason of the unity of the act.

62. On the other hand, of the whole by reason of the unity of the act.

The author says that the whole sacrifice is one act and the payment of the fee is for the whole sacrifice ; you can not break up the integrity this way.

पृषदाज्यवद्वाऽह्नां गुणशास्त्रं स्यात् ॥ १० । ६ । ६३ ॥

पृषदाज्यवत् like पृषदाज्य , वा on the other hand ; अह्नां of the day , गुणशास्त्रं subordinate ; स्यात् is.

63. On the other hand, like पृषदाज्य, the days are subordinate.

The objector says that the days may be considered subordinate just as in पृषदाज्य. “पृषदाज्येनानुयाजान् यजति” “He offers अनुयाज oblations with curd mixed with clarified butter.”

Here the पृषदाज्य varies every day with the अनुयाज , similarly it is with the payment of fee. पृषदाज्य is a mixture of ghee and curd.

ज्योतिष्टोम्यस्तु दक्षिणाः सर्वासामेककर्मत्वात्प्रकृतिवत्तस्मान्नासां विकारः स्यात् ॥ १० । ६ । ६४ ॥

ज्योतिष्टोम्य pertaining to a ज्योतिष्टोम , तु on the other hand ; दक्षिणाः fee ; सर्वासाम् of the whole ; एककर्मत्वात् by reason of the unity of the act ; प्रकृतिवत् just as in the model sacrifice , तस्मात् therefore , न not , आसां their ; विकारः modification , स्यात् is.

64. On the other hand, the fee of the ज्योतिष्टोम is of the whole by reason of the unity of the act, just as in the model sacrifice ; therefore their modification is not (allowed).

The author says that in a ज्योतिष्टोम, the fee is of the entire sacrifice ; the example of पृषदाज्य does not hold good ; because it is a material and is subordinate , the material that is once used can not be used second time in a sacrifice Here the fee is paid to secure the services of the priest for the entire sacrifice and is sufficient to secure the services for the whole sacrifice

द्वादशाहे तु वचनात्प्रत्यहं दक्षिणामेदस्तत्प्रकृतित्वात्परेषु तासां संख्याविकारः स्यात् ॥ १० । ६ । ६५ ॥

द्वादशाहे in a द्वादशाह , वचनात् under a text ; प्रत्यहं daily , दक्षिणामेदः variation of fee ; तदप्रकृतिरेवात् by reason of that being the model of it ; परेषु in others ; तासां their , सङ्ख्याविकारः modification of numbers , स्यात् is.

65. In a द्वादशाह under a text, there is a daily variation of fee, by reason of that being the model of it ; in others, their number is modified.

The objector says that as to द्वादशाह there is a direct text “अन्वहं द्वादशशतं ददाति” “He pays twelve hundred every day.” So the fee is paid there daily and the पौडरीक is its modified form. So the fee is to be paid daily in पौडरीक also.

परिक्रियाविभागाद्वा समस्तस्य विकारः स्यात् ॥

१० । ६ । ६६ ॥

परिक्रियाविभागात् by reason of the indivisibility of hiring , वा on the other hand , समस्तस्य of the whole , विकारः modification , स्यात् is

66. On the other hand, by reason of the indivisibility of the hiring, the whole is a modification.

The author says that you can not divide the work done by the priests daily , as the whole work is one, the wages are paid for the whole work. So the principle of the model sacrifice will be modified as regards the payment of fees.

भेदस्तु गुणसंयोगात् ॥ १० । ६ । ६७ ॥

भेदः variation , तु on the other hand ; गुणसंयोगात् by reason of the connection (with the subordinate)

67. And the variation by reason of the connection with the subordinate.

The author says that in द्वादशाह there is a daily fee by reason of the extracting of the soma juice which is a subordinate act ; this fact does not break up the integrity of the act of hiring which is one entire whole.

Adhikaraṇa xviii adtras 6"-1 dealing with the subject that in पौडरीक sacrifice, नयन ceremony is to be performed on all fees after division.

प्रत्यहं सर्वसंस्कारः प्रकृतिवत्सर्वासां सर्वशेषत्वात् ॥

१० । ६ । ६८ ॥

प्रत्यहं every day ; सर्वसंस्कारः the purificatory rite on all ; प्रकृतिवत् just as in the model sacrifice ; सर्वात् of all ; सर्वशेषत्वात् by reason of all being the remainder.

68. Every day, the purificatory rite on all just as in the model sacrifice by reason of all being the remainder.

The पौर्वरोक is the example, it is established in the foregoing अधिकरण that the fee is paid once. In the model sacrifice, it is laid down 'माध्य दिने सवने दक्षिणानीयते' "The fees are brought and purified in the midnoon सवन."

The question is whether the whole fee is to be brought on every day and then purified or to be brought in and purified once for all or to be brought in and purified after division. The reply of the objector is that the purificatory ceremony is to be performed every day just as in the model sacrifice where the purificatory ceremony is performed every day. Here the purificatory rite is to be performed on the whole which remains unpaid every day

एकार्थत्वान्नेति चेत् ॥ १० । ६ । ६९ ॥

एकार्थत्वात् by reason of the unity of the object, न not so ; इति चेत् if you say.

69. "Not so, by reason of the unity of the object ; if you say"

The second objector says that you are wrong The object of the payment of fee is one, namely the securing of the services of a priest ; the payment is made once, so that the purificatory rite may be performed once for all.

स्यादुत्पत्तौ कालभेदात् ॥ १० । ६ । ७० ॥

स्यात् is ; उत्पत्तौ in origin ; कालभेदात् by reason of the difference of time.

70. In the origin it is divided, by reason of the difference of time.

The 1st objector says that you are wrong, my view is supported by the practice of द्वादशाह which is its model, "तस्मात् त्रिष्टुभोलोके माध्यदिने सवने दक्षिणानीयते" "Therefore in the world of त्रिष्टुभ, in the midnoon सवन, the fees are brought and purified "

So the purificatory rite is to be performed on the entire वक्षिणा on the occasion of साध्यदिनसवन. If you do not perform the नयनसंस्कार on any साध्यदिनसवन, the purificatory rite is omitted. This is not proper.

विभज्य तु संस्कारवचनाद्द्वादशाहवत् ॥१०६।७१॥

विभज्य after division, तु on the other hand, संस्कारवचनात् by reason of the text relating to the purificatory rite; द्वादशाहवत् like द्वादशाह.

71. On the other hand, after division by reason of the text relating to the purificatory rite like द्वादशाह.

The author proceeds to express his own view in the present sūtra. He says that the fee should be divided into 11 parts and the purificatory rite is to be performed on them on each day, the reason is that the द्वादशाह is the model of पौडरीक and in the model sacrifice the नयनसंस्कार is performed every day. The performance of नयनसंस्कार on the fees after division daily does not break up the integrity of the act of hiring the services of the priests.

Adhikaraṇa xix sūtras 72-75 dealing with the subject that by "मनोक्त्व," as many ऋक् verses are to be imported as are required.

लिङ्गेन द्रव्यनिर्देशे सर्वत्र प्रत्ययः स्याल्लिङ्गस्य सर्व-
गामित्वादाग्नेयवत् ॥ १० । ६ । ७२ ॥

लिङ्गेन by the mark, द्रव्यनिर्देशे on substance being pointed out; सर्वत्र every where, प्रत्ययः recognition. स्यात् is, लिङ्गस्य of the mark; सर्वगामित्वात् by reason of being applicable to all; आग्नेयवत् as in the establishment of fire.

72 When a substance has been pointed out by a mark, it is to be recognised by it because the mark points it out every where as in the establishment of fire.

There is a text in connection with a particular sacrifice "मनोक्त्वः सामन्वेनोचति" "All the verses of मनु become *सामधेनी*s."

The question is, whether all ऋक् verses having the mark of मनु should be imported from the दाशतयी verses and treated as सामधेनी verses or only the verses which are required for *सामधेनी*s. The reply of the objector is that all should be brought in and treated as *सामधेनी*s because they are distinguished by a peculiar mark. As for example, all the psalms addressed in honour of अग्नि are to be used in arranging the bricks; and the whole Soma dregs are to be eaten up with the water. No distinction is made there

यावदर्थवार्थं शेषत्वादल्पेन परिमाणं स्यात्तस्मिंश्च लिङ्गसामर्थ्यम् ॥ १० । ६ । ७३ ॥

यावत् as long; अर्थ object; च on the other hand, अर्थशेषत्वात् by reason of the accomplishment of the object; अल्पेन with the short number; परिमाणं limit, स्यात् is; तस्मिन् in it, च and, लिङ्गसामर्थ्यम् power of the mark.

73. On the other hand, in proportion to the object by reason of the accomplishment of the object; there is a limit with the short number; in it, is the power of the mark.

The author says that only so many verses are to be imported as are necessary for the purpose of सामधेनी, the number of which is fifteen only. The distinguishing mark will extend to that limit only though there may be many such verses marked by मनु.

आग्नेये कृत्स्नविधिः ॥ १० । ६ । ७४ ॥

आग्नेये in the आग्नेय; कृत्स्नविधिः the injunction as to the whole.

74. In the आग्नेय, the whole is enjoined.

The author says that in आग्नेय, the entire set of verses is permitted "आग्नेयैः सूक्तैरिष्टका उपदधति" "He places bricks with the psalms in honour of अग्नि"

There is a large number of bricks which are to be arranged after pronouncing the मन्त्र. So the case of अग्न्याधान is entirely different and does not hold good here where the सामधेनी verses are limited and मनु verses are many.

ऋजीवस्य प्रधानत्वादहर्गच्छे सर्वस्य प्रतिपत्तिः स्यात् ॥

१० । ६ । ७५ ॥

ऋजीवस्य of the dregs, प्रधानत्वात् by reason of being principal; अहर्गच्छे sacrifice lasting for days ; सर्वस्य of the whole ; प्रतिपत्तिः final disposal ; स्यात् is.

75. The soma dregs being principal in the sacrifice lasting for days, the whole is to be used as their final disposal.

ऋजीष is सोम dregs In वाचस्पत्य it is explained as thus : “मादकद्रव्यस्याभिषवणेन सारांशेऽगृहीते अवशिष्टः नीरसभागः अवतिष्ठते एवं सोमस्याभिषवणे निःसारांश ऋजीष इत्युच्यते” “In brewing an intoxicating substance, when the essential part is extracted, the dregs without juice are left. Similarly in brewing soma, the juiceless dregs of it are called ऋजीष ”

There is a text in connection with it “यथावा अहर्गणे ऋजीषमप्सु प्रास्यति” “Just as he eats ऋजीष with water in a sacrifice lasting for days ”

The dregs of the soma juice mixed with water are eaten up every day in an अहर्गण. As to this practice, the author says that they are eaten up for their final disposal under a special text. The illustration therefore does not hold good in the case of सामधेनी verses

Adhikaraṇa xx dealing with the subject that in a cloth the measuring and carrying (of the soma) are to be effected

वाससि मानोपावहरणे प्रकृतौ सोमस्य वचनात् ॥

१० । ६ । ७६ ॥

वाससि in a cloth , मानोपावहरणे in the measurement and carrying ; प्रकृतौ in the model sacrifice ; सोमस्य of soma , वचनात् under the text.

76. By reason of the text about soma in the model sacrifice, the measurement and carrying of it, is in a cloth,

In ज्योतिषोम it is laid down that the soma is to be measured and carried. How should it be done ? Should it be weighed and carried in baskets ? Is there any rule ? The author says that there is a text “वाससि-मिनोति वाससा च उपावहरति” “He measures it in a cloth and carries it with a cloth.”

So the सोम is to be measured in a cloth and to be carried in it. The practice is that soma creeper sufficient for the sacrifice is purchased, tied in this cloth and carried to the sacrificial ground in a cart called इषिर्वावशकट. The सोम is taken out in a cloth to meet the demand of the day and the rest is left in the cart covered with the same in which it was measured.

Adhikaraṇa xxi dealing with the subject that in a sacrifice lasting for several days, another cloth should be procured.

तत्राहर्गणेऽर्थाद्रासःप्रकृतिः स्यात् ॥ १० । ६ । ७७ ॥

तत्र there, अहर्गणे in an अहर्गण, अर्थात् by reason of the object; रासः cloth; प्रकृतिः the model sacrifice, स्यात् is 77 In the अहर्गण by reason of the object, there is a different cloth (in compliance with) the model sacrifice.

As explained in the commentary on sūtra 76, the cloth in which the सोम is purchased is left in the cart to cover it; so another cloth will be required to carry the quantity sufficient for the day in an अहर्गण. The author says that if the sacrifice had been एकाह, the cloth in which the Soma creeper was purchased by measuring it, would have been sufficient for carrying it from the cart to the sacrificial ground. But here on account of the large number of days a fresh cloth will be required for (उपावहरण) carrying it to the sacrificial ground for the purpose of fermentation.

Adhikaraṇa xxii sūtras 78-79 dealing with the subject that another cloth should be procured for carrying the soma creeper to the sacrificial ground

मानं प्रत्युत्पादयेत्प्रकृती तेन दर्शनादुपावहरणस्य ॥

१० । ६ । ७८ ॥

मानम् measure; प्रत्युत्पादयेत् is procured; प्रकृती in the model sacrifice; तेन by that; दर्शनात् by seeing; उपावहरणस्य of carrying.

78. In the model sacrifice, the cloth is procured for measuring the soma creeper; by seeing the same used in carrying it to the sacrificial ground.

The question is whether the cloth for उपावहरण is procured at the time of the weighing of the सोम creeper or at the time of carrying it to the sacrificial ground from the द्विर्धानशकट. The reply of the objector is that the same cloth will do on both occasions as it is the practice in the model sacrifice i.e. the अचोतिहोम. The द्वादशाह is the modified sacrifice. So the same practice should be adhered to.

हरणे वा श्रुत्यसंयोगादर्थान्विकृतौ तेन ॥ १० । ६ । ७८ ॥

हरणे at the time of carrying it , वा on the other hand ; श्रुत्यसंयोगात् by reason of there being no mention of it in the text ; अर्थात् by reason of the object , विकृतौ in the modified sacrifice , तेन with it,

79. On the other hand, at the time of carrying it to the sacrificial ground, by reason of there being no mention of it in the text ; by reason of the object with it in the modified sacrifice.

The author says that fresh cloth should be procured at the time of carrying the Soma creeper from the cart to the sacrificial ground. The reason is that there is no such text which says that the cloth for weighing and carrying should be the same. We see further that there are 12 days in the sacrifice, the soma creepers sufficient for one day is, therefore, taken out and the remainder is left in the cart , different cloth will necessarily, be required. So the same cloth can not serve the purpose of both.

END OF PĀDA VI.

PĀDA VII.

Adhikarapa I, sūtras 1-2 dealing with the subject that in a उपोषिष्टेन there is a different offering of each part.

पशोरेकहविष्टुं समस्तचोदितत्वात् ॥ १० । ७ । १ ॥

पशेः of an animal; एक हविष्टुं one entire offering ; समस्तचोदितत्वात् by reason of the whole being ordained.

1. There is one entire offering of the animal by reason of the whole being ordained.

There is an अग्नीषोमीय animal in a उद्योतिष्ठोम. वेदीक्षितो यदग्नीषोमीयं पशु- जलमेते” “One who is initiated, shall offer an अग्नीषोमीय animal.”

The question is, whether the entire animal is one offering or different parts of it constitute different offerings. The reply of the objector is that the entire animal constitutes one offering. The reason is that the whole animal is mentioned in the text “अथोखत्वाहुः कापेया दक्षिणस्य पूर्वपदस्यावदेयं, तत् सर्वस्य पशोरवत्तमवति” “अथो खत्वाहुः गोपायना दक्षिणस्य पूर्वपदस्यावदेयं तत्सर्वस्य पशोरवत्तमवति” । “The descendants of अगिरस say that the right foot should be offered first, that means the offering of the entire animal ; the protectors of cow say that the right foot should be offered first, which means the offering of the entire animal.”

प्रत्यङ्गं वा गृहवदङ्गानां पृथक्कल्पनत्वात् ॥१०७२॥

प्रत्यङ्गं every part ; वा on the other hand ; गृहवत् like a cup ; अङ्गानां of the parts ; पृथक्कल्पनत्वात् by reason of separate dedication.

2. On the other hand, every part like the cup by reason of the separate dedication of the parts.

The author says that not the whole animal is to be offered. The different parts of the animal's body will be offered because the different parts are mentioned for offerings “हृदयस्याग्नेऽवद्यति जिह्वाया अवद्यति, वक्षोऽवद्यति दोष्णोरवद्यति, पार्श्वयोरवद्यति, गुदस्यावद्यति” “He offers heart first, he offers tongue first ; he offers thoracic part first ; he offers lateral parts first ; he offers anus first.”

The author gives the illustration of the cups “सोमेर्पेद्रवायवं गृह्णाति, मैत्रावरुणं गृह्णाति, आश्विनं गृह्णाति” “In soma sacrifice he takes ऐन्द्रवायु cups, मैत्रावरुण cup and आश्विन cup.” This shows that soma juice is to be taken separately but not the soma creeper as a whole.

Adhikaraṇa II. sūtras 3-6 dealing with the performance of the sacrifice by the heart &c., the particular parts of the animal.

हविर्भेदात्कर्मसोऽभ्यासस्तस्मात्तेभ्योऽवदानं स्यात् ॥

॥ १० । ७ । ३ ॥

हविर्भेदात् by reason of the different offerings ; कर्मसः of the sacrifice ,

अव्यासः repetition ; तदमात् therefore ; तेष्वः from them ; अवदानं cutting ; स्यात् is.

3. By reason of the different offerings there is the repetition of the sacrifice, therefore from them also there must be a cutting off.

When it is established that the whole animal is not to be offered, but only parts thereof are to be offered, the next question to be determined is, whether all the parts of the animals are to be sacrificed or only those which are pointed out. The reply of the objector is that the parts to be cut off should be from the whole animal and the whole should be thus offered, otherwise if the parts pointed out were only to be offered, there will be a repetition of the offering. So the result is that the pieces should be cut off from the entire animal.

आज्यभागवद्वा निर्द्देशात्परिसंख्यास्यात् ॥१०॥१॥

आज्यभागवत् like ghee offering : वा on the other hand ; निर्द्देशात् by reason of pointing out, परिसंख्या implied prohibition, स्यात् is.

4. On the other hand, like ghee offering by reason of the pointing out, there is an implied prohibition.

The reply of our author is that only those parts which are pointed out should be offered because there is an express text “एकादशवैतानि पशोरवदानानि” “These are the eleven parts of the animal to be cut off and offered.”

The result is that only 11 parts are to be taken for the offering and the rest are prohibited impliedly, just as in a गृहमेधीय offering of the ghee oblation on the 5th alternative is an implied prohibition.

तेषां वा द्वयवदानत्वं विवक्षन्नाभिनिर्द्दिशेत्पशोः पञ्चावदानत्वात् ॥ १० । ७ । ५

तेषां their, वा on the other hand ; द्वयवदानत्वं double cutting ; विवक्षन् laying down, अभिनिर्द्दिशेत् appears to be, पशोः of an animal, पञ्चावदानत्वात् by reason of cutting into five parts.

5. On the other hand, the text appears to be laid down about their double cutting ; because the animal is to be cut off into five parts,

There are 3 defects in the implied prohibition, स्वार्थहानि, परार्थकल्पना, and प्राप्तवाच. (See at p. 20) So the objector says that it is not a परिसंख्या. It is also said that the animal is to be cut off into five pieces, and there are eleven parts of the animal which are to be cut off; they are to be divided into two each. So in this view, no portion of the animal is left out.

अंसशिरोनूकसक्थिप्रतिषेधश्च तदन्यपरिसङ्ख्यानेऽन-
र्थकः स्यात्प्रदानत्वात्तेषां निरवदानप्रतिषेधः स्यात् ॥
१० । ७ । ६ ॥

अंस shoulder, शिरः head, अनूक vertebral column, सक्थि thigh, प्रतिषेधः prohibition; च and; तदन्यपरिसङ्ख्याने if the other parts are impliedly prohibited, अनर्थकः meaningless, स्यात् is प्रदानत्वात् by being the object of gift; तेषाम् their; निरवदानप्रतिषेधः prohibition of cutting off, स्यात् is.

6. If the other parts are impliedly prohibited, the prohibition relating to shoulder, head, vertebral column and thigh is meaningless; by being the objects of gifts, their cutting off is prohibited.

The objector further advances his argument and says that according to you only 11 parts are allowed to be cut off and the rest are prohibited impliedly. If that were so, then there would have been no express prohibition relating to shoulder, head, backbone and thigh. The real matter is that the dividing of these prohibited organs, is prohibited. So it is not in the nature of a परिसंख्या.

अपि वा परिसङ्ख्या स्यादनवदानीयशब्दत्वात् ॥१०।७।७॥

अपि also; वा on the other hand, परिसंख्या, परिसंख्या, स्यात् is; अनवदानीय शब्दत्वात् by reason of the word 'not to be cut off'.

7. On the other hand, it is परिसंख्या by reason of the word 'not to be cut off'.

The author says in reply to the objection of the objector. It is a परिसंख्या, because there is a text "माहृतवान् अनवदानीयान् सुगमहांसच आजि सुदुभ्योहरति" "He wins cups and the portions consecrated to मरुत् and not to be offered, from those who run over the boundary mark." It shows that there is such a thing as अनवदानीय (any thing that can not be offered). This fact shows that it is a परिसंख्या. If all parts were to be offered in the sacrifice, the portions that are not fit to be cut off are not possible. The horn and hoof can not be offered apparently. So all the parts can not be offered. It is therefore reasonable to hold it to be परिसंख्या.

अब्राह्मणे च दर्शनात् ॥ १० । ७ । ८ ॥

अब्राह्मणे in the non-Brahmans, च and ; दर्शनात् by seeing.

8 And by seeing in non-Brahmanas.

The author gives another reason in support of his view, he says that "कुक्कभोराजपुत्रः प्राश्नाति धुवग्नेयः" "A son of of a king protector of the cups drinks wine."

कुक्कभ (spirituous liquor) is to be drunk by a non-Brahman only. If all the parts were to be cut off and offered, such prohibition will not arise.

श्रुताश्रुतोपदेशाच्च तेषामुत्सर्गवदयज्ञशेषत्वं ॥ १० । ७ । ९ ॥

श्रुताश्रुतोपदेशात् by reason of laying down boiled and not boiled ; च and ; तेषाम् their, उत्सर्गवत् like the पाद्वीवत् offering, अयज्ञशेषत्वम् the state of being nothing left in the sacrifice.

9. And by reason of laying down 'boiled' and 'unboiled' ; there will be nothing left in the sacrifice like the पाद्वीवत् offering.

The author says that there is a text, "द्वयानि अंगानि अभिमृशति श्रुतानि अश्रुतानि च" "He touches two kinds viz boiled and unboiled"

There are two kinds of animal flesh, 'boiled' and 'unboiled', the boiled flesh is for an offering in the sacrifice. If all parts were to be offered in the sacrifice, this distinction will not arise. Just as, "पर्यग्निं कृतं पाद्वीवत् वत्सृजति" "They relinquish the पाद्वीवत् which has been taken round the fire."

They are there not boiled. This fact goes to show that it is a परिसंख्या and only 11 parts are to be offered and the rest are forbidden by implication.

11 parts of the animals are "इदं जिह्वा वक्त्रायकृद्वृक्षौ सव्यंदोः उभेफ-

एवं दक्षिणाधोऽङ्गः गुदं तृतीयमिति दैवतावदानानि । दक्षिणोत्तः, सव्याधोऽङ्गः गुदं तृतीयमिति सौविष्टकृतानि । "The offerings to the gods consist of the heart, the tongue, the thoracic region, the liver, the two kidneys, the left arm, the lateral sides, the right buttock and thirdly the anus ; the right shoulder, the left buttock and thirdly, the anus are fit offerings for स्विष्टकृत्."

Abhikaraṇa iii. sūtras 10-11 dealing with the subject that in a उज्योतिहोम sacrifice, three parts other than those of the sacrifice are to be offered

इज्याशेषात्स्विष्टकृदिज्येत प्रकृतिवत् ॥ १० । ७ । १० ॥

इज्याशेषात् from the parts ordained for the sacrifice, स्विष्टकृत्, स्विष्टकृत् offering, इज्येत should be made, प्रकृतिवत् as in the model sacrifice:

10. From the parts ordained for the sacrifice, the स्विष्टकृत् offering should be made as in the model sacrifice.

In the उज्योतिहोम sacrifice, there is an अग्नीषोमीय animal "योदीक्षितो यदग्नीषोमीयं पशुमालभेत" "An initiated one sacrifices an अग्नीषोमीय animal "

Under a चोदक text, the स्विष्टकृत् is transferred. In that connection it is said "अग्नीः स्विष्टकृतं यजति" "He sacrifices स्विष्टकृत् with three organs."

The question is, whether these three portions are those which are mentioned as eleven parts or besides them? The reply of the objector is that these three parts are those which are the parts of the body fit for the sacrifice, namely the heart &c. In this way, the model sacrifice will be complied with ; because in the new and full moon sacrifices, which are the models, the offerings are made from the remnants of the पुरोडाश cake.

अथ द्वैर्वा शरवद्विकारः स्यात् ॥ १० । ७ । ११ ॥

अथैः with three parts ; वा on the other hand ; शरवत् just like a reed ; विकारः modification ; स्यात् is.

11. On the other hand, there will be a modification with three parts just like reed.

The author says that there are three other parts ; they are not the parts out of the eleven pointed out in the foregoing अधिकारः. They are as follows "यदोष्णः पूर्वाद्धादग्नेये समवधति, गुदस्य मध्यतः श्रोण्याजघनतः" "He offers the first half of the arm to Agni, the middle of the anus, and the lower part of the buttock."

The author gives an illustration “यथाशरमवर्हिः” “The वर्हि grass is made of reed.”

The कुश grass is superseded by the शर, so in the same way the eleven parts enumerated in the foregoing अधिकरण are replaced by the three parts specified in the text. See for the full text in the commentary on the sūtra 9 of the preceding अधिकरण. (at p 793)

Adhikaraṇa iv, sūtras 12-16 dealing with the subject that in अघ्यूष्णी there is the suspension of इडा food

अघ्यूष्णी होतुस्त्वयङ्गवदिडामक्षविकारः स्यात् ॥१०७॥१२॥

अघ्यूष्णी, अघ्यूष्णी, तु on the other hand, होतु of the hotā priest, त्वयङ्गवत् like three parts; इडामक्षविकारः modification of इडा food, स्यात्, is

12. The अघ्यूष्णी is the modification of इडा food of the Hotā priest.

In connection with the उयोतिष्टोम there is an अग्नीषोमीय sacrifice where it is said, “अघ्यूष्णीहोत्रेहरति” “They take the अघ्यूष्णी for the hotā”

What is the meaning of अघ्यूष्णी? In वाचस्पत्य the meaning given is “समुद्रापीनायां धेन्वी” the cow with large udders, but माधव says it is some organ other than the heart &c mentioned in the foregoing अधिकरण धूर्तस्वामी says “अघ्यूष्णीकारसोमास” He reads it amongst the synonyms of flesh. According to Monier William’s Dictionary “it is a tubular vessel above the udder, or above the scrotum” Now the question is, whether this अघ्यूष्णी allotted to होता is in lieu of the इडामक्ष or in addition to it after division. The reply of our author is that it is in lieu of इडा food just as the three parts replace the 11 parts as enunciated in the foregoing अधिकरण iii, (see above.

शेषे वा समवैति तस्माद्रथवन्नियमः स्यात् ॥१०७॥१३॥

शेषे in the subordinate; वा on the other hand; समवैति is united: तस्मात् therefore; रथवत् like a chariot; नियमः rule; स्यात्, is,

13. On the other hand, it is united in the subordinate; therefore the rule is like that relating to the chariot.

The objector says that it is in addition to any other food to which he is entitled. It is only a rule to apportion the share to the Hotā priest.

It is not governed by the adhikarāṇa iii of Pāda vii but Adhikarāṇa xxi of Pāda iii where it is said that a chariot adorned with यजुर्मन्त्र is offered to अश्वयु (see at p. 692) "The text is अनस्यमिरिहावर्द्धति" "They increase इहा not with bones."

So the share of the flesh given to a hotā is in addition to the food, 'अनस्य' as used in the text is thus defined "ह्रोमानङ्गीहानपुरीततद्" "The lungs, the spleen and the intestines"

अशास्त्रत्वात् नैवं स्यात् ॥ १० । ७ । १४ ॥

अशास्त्रत्वात् by reason of there being no prescribed rule ; तु on the other hand ; न not , एवं also , स्यात् is.

14. On the other hand, it can not be so, by reason of there being no prescribed rule.

The author says that you are mistaken. It is not so ordained ; it can not be considered a rule of division As to the text you quote, it is in the present tense and is, therefore, an अनुवाद, it is not in विधि. The offer of अश्वयु to होता is, therefore, in lieu of इहा food.

अपि वा दानमात्रं स्यादभक्षशब्दानभिसम्बन्धात् ॥
१० । ७ । १५ ॥

अपि also ; वा on the other hand ; दानमात्रं mere donation ; स्यात् is ; अभक्षशब्दानभिसम्बन्धात् by reason of having no connection with the word 'food'.

15. On the other hand, it may be a donation because there is no connection with the word 'food'.

The objector says that it may be a donation in addition to the इहा food because, there is no word which shows that अश्वयु is intended for eating.

दातुस्त्वविद्यमानत्वादिडाभक्षविकारः स्याच्छेषं प्रत्य-
विशिष्टत्वात् ॥ १० । ७ । १६ ॥

दातुः of the donor ; तु on the other hand ; अविद्यमानत्वात् By reason of the absence ; इहाभक्षविकारः modification of इहा food , स्यात् is , शेषं remnants ; प्रति towards ; अविशिष्टत्वात् by reason of there being nothing special.

16. On the other hand, by reason of the absence of the donor, it is in lieu of इडा food because in the remnants, there is no speciality.

The author says that there can not be a gift because there is no donor and in the offerings that have been made to the deity there is no ownership left in the sacrificer. So both the priest and the sacrificer are equally entitled to it. The conclusion is that the offer of अघ्यूष्णी is in lieu of इडा food.

Adhikaraṇa v dealing with the subject that वनिष्टु is in lieu of food.

अग्नीधश्च वनिष्टुरघ्यूष्णीवत् ॥ १० । ७ । १७ ॥

अग्नीधः, अग्नीध ; च and , वनिष्टुः, वनिष्टु , अघ्यूष्णीवत् like अघ्यूष्णीः,

17 . And वनिष्टु is of अग्नीध like अघ्यूष्णी.

The author says that the same principle applies to वनिष्टु which is given to अग्नीध priest in lieu of his food. The same arguments as given in the foregoing अधिकरण apply mutatis mutandis to the present case of अग्नीध. वनिष्टु is explained by माधव that it is like अघ्यूष्णी an organ other than the heart &c. the 11 parts of the animal mentioned in the commentary on the sūtra 9 at p 793. सोमनाथ the learned commentator of शास्त्रदीपिका says that it is a flesh near the omentum. भूर्तस्वामी thinks it to be a particular part of the large intestine. "A part of the entrails of an animal offered in sacrifice;" or, "the particular part of the intestines near the omentum." (Monier Williams).

Adhikaraṇa vi. sūtras 18-19. dealing with the subject that मैत्रावरुण is also entitled to the remnants of the food.

अप्राकृतत्वान्मैत्रावरुणस्याभक्षत्वम् ॥ १० । ७ । १८ ॥

अप्राकृतत्वात् being absent in the model sacrifice ; मैत्रावरुणस्य of मैत्रावरुण ; अभक्षत्वम् not eatable.

18. There is no food for मैत्रावरुण by reason of its being absent in the model sacrifice.

The question is, whether in a उपरिदिष्टे, the मैत्रावरुण priest is entitled to partake of the remnants of the food The reply of the objector is that he is not entitled, because there is no such procedure in the model sacrifice

स्याद्वा होत्रध्वर्युर्विकारत्वात्तयो कर्माभिसम्बन्धात् ॥

१० । ७ । १६ ॥

स्यात् is ; वा on the other hand , होत्रध्वर्युर्विकारत्वात् by reason of his being assistant of hotâ and अध्वर्युः ; तयोः their , कर्माभिसम्बन्धात् by reason of being connected with the act.

19. On the other hand there is, by reason of his being an assistant of hotâ and अध्वर्युः, because they are connected with the act.

The author says that मैत्रावरुण is entitled to the remnants ; because he obeys the commands of अध्वर्युः and helps the होता in reading the मंत्रः. "तस्मान्मैत्रावरुणं प्रेष्यतिचानुवाह" "Therefore a मैत्रावरुण priest obeys the command and follows in reading."

In this way, being connected as assistant in the sacrifice, he is entitled to the remnants

Adhikaraya vii sūtras 20-21. dealing with the subject that the मैत्रावरुण has only one portion.

द्विभागः स्याद्विकर्मत्वात् ॥ १० । ७ । २० ॥

द्विभागः two shares , स्यात् is , द्विकर्मत्वात् by reason of there being double work.

20. There are two shares, by reason of there being double work.

As shown in the preceding अधिकरण, मैत्रावरुण helps the अध्वर्युः and होता ; now the question is, 'what share does he get' ? The reply of the objector is that he gets two shares, being an assistant of two priests.

एकत्वाद्विकभागः स्याद्विभागस्याश्रुतिभूतत्वात् ॥ १० । ७ । २१ ॥

एकत्वात् being one ; एकभागः entitled to one share , स्यात् is ; भागस्य of a share ; अश्रुतिभूतत्वात् by reason of there being no text.

21. On the other hand, being one he is entitled to one share, there being no text for assigning his shares,

The reply of the author is that he is entitled to one share only because मैत्रावरुण्य priest is one; nowhere it is said that he is entitled to the share of अश्वयु and होता.

Adhikarapa viii, sūtras 22-23. dealing with the subject that the प्रतिप्रस्थाता gets no remnants.

प्रतिप्रस्थातुश्च वपाश्रपणात् ॥ १० । ७ । २२ ॥

प्रतिप्रस्थातुः of a प्रस्थाता , च and , वपाश्रपणात् by reason of boiling the fat.

22. And of the प्रतिप्रस्थाता by reason of boiling the fat.

What is the share of प्रतिप्रस्थाता in the अग्नीषोमीय animal? The function of the प्रतिप्रस्थाता is to boil the animal fat The reply is that he is also entitled to the remnants.

अभक्षो वा कर्मभेदात्तस्याः सर्वप्रदानत्वात् ॥ १० । ७ । २३ ॥

अभक्षः no share in the food , वा on the other hand , कर्मभेदात् by reason of separate work ; तस्याः its ; सर्वप्रदानत्वात् by reason of there being no residue.

23. On the other hand, he has no share in the food by reason of his separate work and of there being no residue.

The author says that the function of the प्रतिप्रस्थाता is to boil the omentum, so he is not entitled to any remnants of the animal flesh and as the whole of the omentum is offered and no residue is left, he is not entitled to any share

Adhikarapa ix sūtras 24-33 dealing with the subject that by “वाज्यभागौ यजति” the extraordinary principle of गृहमेधीय is laid down.

विकृतौ प्राकृतस्य विधेर्ग्रहणात्पुनः श्रुतिरनर्थिका स्यात्॥

१० । ७ । २४ ॥

विकृतौ in the modified sacrifice, विधेः of the command; ग्रहणात् by taking; प्राकृतस्य of the model sacrifice; पुनःश्रुति repetition ; अनर्थिका meaningless ; स्यात् is.

24. In the modified sacrifice, by reason of the command of the model sacrifice, the repetition is a tautology (meaningless).

In connection with the चातुर्मास्य it is laid down, "मरुद्भ्यो गृहमेधिभ्यः सर्वासांदुग्धे सायमोदने" (Maitrāyaṇī Samhitā, I 10. 1.) "To the मरुद्भ्यो of गृहमेधि, in the milk of all, in the evening rice." There is a text. "आउय-भागीयजति" He offers ghee oblations."

There are certain questions to be determined in this अधिकरण ; whether this offering of ghee transferred under a चोदक text is only an अनुवाद, or whether it is a double act under the चोदक and the present texts. There are 8 views set forth in the present अधिकरण. The first view is that it is only a statement of facts ; because we have the offering of ghee in the model sacrifice ; its repetition in the modified sacrifice is only a tautology and is, therefore, an अर्थवाद. Take the example, from this house, the Brāhmanas named देवदत्त, विष्णुभेन्न and यज्ञदत्त are to be fetched, The naming of the persons is by way of surplusage or अर्थवाद.

अपि वाऽऽग्नेयवद्द्विशब्द-व स्यात् ॥ १० । ७ । २५ ॥

अपि also, वा on the other hand, आग्नेयवत् like the establishment of fire, द्विशब्दत्वं by reason of the double repetition, स्यात् is

25. On the other hand, it is like the establishment of fire by reason of the double repetition.

The second view is that it is only a repetition, the text in the model sacrifice is, "आउयभागी यजति" "He offers ghee oblations."

In the modified sacrifice also "आउयभागी यजति"

The offering of ghee could have been performed according to the text of the model sacrifice even without this repetition. The same object is served by these two texts. It is a repetition just as it is in the आग्नेय "अग्निमग्ने भावह" "O ! Agni, bring Agni."

The deity is addressed with a view to bring himself. We find the same example in the ordinary life, "here is a stick, beat him with the stick." It is, therefore, neither an अनुवाद nor another sacrifice.

न वा शब्दपृथक्त्वात् ॥ १० । ७ । २६ ॥

न not so, वा on the other hand, शब्दपृथक्त्वात् by reason of the difference of the text

26. On the other hand, it is not so by reason of the difference of the text

The third view is that it is neither an अर्थवाद nor the same object denoted by two texts. It is by way of praise You are to act according to the model sacrifice ; if you so act, the ghee offering will be made , in doing so, the sacrifice will be completed.

अधिकं वार्थवत्त्वात्स्यादर्थवादगुणाभावेवचनादविकारे
तेषु हि तादर्थ्यं स्यादपूर्वत्वात् ॥ १० । ७ । २७ ॥

अधिक addition , वा on the other hand , अर्थवत्त्वात् by reason of being for the purpose , स्यात् is , अर्थवादगुणाभावे in the absence of statement of facts and praise , वचनात् under a text , विकारे in modification , तेषु in them , हि because , ; तादर्थ्यं being for it , स्यात् is ; पूर्वत्वात् by reason of its being extraordinary.

27. On the other hand, it is an additional sacrifice by reason of its being for the purpose , there being no statement of facts and praise, by reason of the text it remains unchanged : in this state, by reason of its being extraordinary.

The fourth view is that it can not be an अर्थवाद ; it is not the same thing denoted by two texts , it is not by way of praise but a separate sacrifice. The separate text which lays down an extraordinary principle can not be meaningless , its object is fully served, if we consider ghee offering to be an entirely different sacrifice.

प्रतिषेधः स्यादिति चेत् ॥ १० । ७ । २८ ॥

प्रतिषेधः prohibition ; स्यात् is , इति चेत् if you say.

28. "It is a prohibition" if you say.

The fifth view is that it is by way of a परिसंख्या The force of the text, "आज्यभागौ यजति" "(He offers ghee oblations) is that only one part from the model sacrifice, namely the ghee offering is transferred while other details shall not be transferred As for example when we say "five sorts of animals having five nails are eatable", we mean thereby that other animals are not eatable.

नाश्रुतत्वात् ॥ १० । ७ । २९ ॥

न not so ; अश्रुतत्वात् by reason of its being not ordained

29. Not so, by reason of its being not ordained.

The sixth view is set forth in this and the following sūtras. The critic says that the text is not in the nature of a परिसंख्या. As said repeatedly a परिसंख्या has three defects, स्वार्थहानि, परार्थकल्पना, & पाप्मनाद.

अग्रहणादिति चेत् ॥ १० । ७ । ३० ॥

अग्रहणात् by not accepting ; इति चेत् if you say.

30. 'By not accepting' if you say.

He further says that there is no necessity of making an inference of a चोदक text ; it is sufficient that you have a direct text in the modified sacrifice. In this view, why should you create a difficulty by importing a चोदक text unnecessarily?

न तुल्यत्वात् ॥ १० । ७ । ३१ ॥

न not so ; तुल्यत्वात् by reason of the equality.

31. Not so, by reason of the equality.

The seventh view is that the ghee offering and other details are on all equal footing, it will be inequitable to have ghee offering under the text and the other details transferred on the principle of अतिदेश. So they are all equally transferred under the principle of अतिदेश.

तथा तद्ग्रहणे स्यात् ॥ १० । ७ । ३२ ॥

तथा similarly ; तद्ग्रहणे in its acceptance.

32. Similarly it will be in the acceptance thereof.

This is an objection to the seventh view. If you accept the principle of अतिदेश and hold that ghee offering is to be made under the चोदक text, the same objection will apply to it. Why should other details be not transferred ?

अपूर्वतां तु दर्शयेद्ग्रहणस्यार्थवत्त्वात् ॥ १० । ७ । ३३ ॥

अपूर्वता extraordinary principle ; but on the other hand , दर्शयेत् may show , ग्रहणस्यार्थवत्त्वात् by reason of the acceptance being for the purpose.

33. On the other hand, it may show an extraordinary principle : by reason of the acceptance being for the purpose.

The author says that if you accept the text, “(आश्रयभागी यजति)”, it will show that the गृहमेधीय is separate from दर्शयिष्यमासयाग because it has its own extraordinary principle. In accepting the गृहमेधीय to be पूर्ववान्, (having a model) the text quoted above will be meaningless. The procedure will no doubt be borrowed, but it will not affect the extraordinary nature of गृहमेधीय

Adhikaraṇa xx dealing with the subject that in the गृहमेधीय sacrifice, the स्विष्टकृत् &c are to be performed

ततोऽपि यावदुक्तं स्यात् ॥ १० । ७ । ३४ ॥

ततः therefore , अपि also , यावत् as many as , उक्तं mentioned , स्यात् is.

34. Therefore, there are as many as are mentioned.

The result from the foregoing अधिकरण is that you are to borrow those details which are mentioned by the direct text, “अग्नये स्विष्टकृते समन्वयति” “इदामुपह्वयति” “He offers to the स्विष्टकृत् fire” “He offers इदा.”

In this view स्विष्टकृत् &c, allowed under a special text, are to be borrowed.

Adhikaraṇa xi sūtras 35-37 dealing with the subject that in a गृहमेधीय there is no eating of remnants,

स्विष्टकृदुक्षप्रतिषेधः स्यात्तुल्यकारणत्वात् ॥

१० । ७ । ३५ ॥

स्विष्टकृदुक्षप्रतिषेधः prohibition of the eating of स्विष्टकृत् remnants ; स्यात् is , तुल्यकारणत्वात् by reason of equal causes.

35. There is a prohibition of the eating of the स्विष्टकृत् remnants, by reason of the equal causes.

The अपूर्व nature of the गृहमेधीय being established in the foregoing अभि-

करण, the author proceeds to determine the question whether the स्विष्टकृत् remnants are to be eaten or not. There is a text "अग्निं स्विष्टकृत् यजति" "He performs a sacrifice to the स्विष्टकृत् fire."

If you accept गृहमेधीय to be अपूर्व, then there are no remnants to be eaten, but our author proceeds on the assumption that it is पूर्ववान् (having a model) and says that by the word स्विष्टकृत्, there is परिसंख्या as regards eating thereof. In view of the principle laid down in the last अत्रिकरण, both the स्विष्टकृत् and the eating thereof are forbidden, but by virtue of the special text quoted, only स्विष्टकृत् offering to the fire is permissible.

अप्रतिषेधो वा दर्शनादिडायां स्यात् ॥ १० । ७ । ३६ ॥

अप्रतिषेधः no prohibition, वा on the other hand; दर्शनात् by seeing; इडायां in the case of इडा, स्यात् is.

36. On the other hand, there is no prohibition, by seeing it in the case of इडा.

The objector says that you lose the permissibility of a certain procedure under the special texts; there is a text "इडासुपहृत्यति". "He offers इडा."

The word इडा indicates that the eating is not forbidden.

प्रतिषेधो वा विधिपूर्वस्य दर्शनात् ॥ १० । ७ । ३७ ॥

प्रतिषेधः prohibition, वा on the other hand, विधिपूर्वस्य of the previous injunction; दर्शनात् by seeing.

37. On the other hand, it is a prohibition by seeing the previous injunction.

The author says that it is a परिसंख्या about eating of the स्विष्टकृत् remnants; it does not operate as परिसंख्या of all sorts of eating. The विधि text ("अग्निं स्विष्टकृत् यजति") "He makes a sacrifice to the स्विष्टकृत् fire." relates to the स्विष्टकृत् only. The example of इडा remnants will not hold good here.

Adhikaraṇa xii, sūtras 38-39 dealing with the subject that in प्रायश्चीना and आतिथ्या, the end is in शंयु and इडा.

शंखिडान्तत्वे विकल्पः स्यात्परेषु पत्न्यनुयाजप्रतिषेधोऽनर्थकः स्यात् ॥ १० । ७ । ३८ ॥

शङ्खि गृहान्तत्वे in the end of शंयु and इडा ; विकल्पः option ; स्यात् is , परेषु in the latter part , पक्ष्यनुयाजप्रतिषेधः prohibition as to पक्षी and अनुयाज ; अनर्थकः meaningless

38. There is an option in the end of शंयु and इडा ; in the latter part, the prohibition as to पक्षी and अनुयाज will be meaningless.

In the ज्योतिषोम it is said “शंख्यंता प्रायणीया संतिष्ठते न पक्षीःसंयाजयन्ति । इडांता आतिथ्या संतिष्ठते नानुयाजान् यजति ’ “They sit up to the end of शंयु in प्रायणीया but do not perform पक्षीसंयाज , they perform आतिथ्या up to the end of इडा food but do not perform अनुयाज.”

The question is, whether the प्रायणीया is to end in शंयुवाक and आतिथ्या in इडा food, or the whole series of the details is to be performed. The reply of the objector is that by the prohibition of पक्षीसंयाज and अनुयाज, it follows that besides these, the rest of the details is to be performed.

नित्यानुवादो वा कर्मणः स्यादशब्दत्वात् ॥१०७३९॥

नित्यानुवादः permanent statement, वा on the other hand, कर्मणः of an action ; स्यात् is , अशब्दत्वात् by reason of being nowhere ordained

39. On the other hand, it is a permanent statement of facts, because the action (subsequent to शंयुवाक) is nowhere ordained.

The author says that the text which you consider to be by way of a परिसंख्या is only an अनुवाद. It is a statement of facts; it shows the practice: it does not prohibit the action. Take the text “नांतरिक्षेनदिवि अग्निश्चेत्तस्यः” “Neither in the sky nor in the intervening space, the fire is to be established.” It is not a परिसंख्या but only an अनुवाद. So here also.

The result is that the प्रायणीया ends in the repetition of शंयुमंत्र and the आतिथ्या ends in इडाभक्षण, because any subsequent act is nowhere laid down, when they are in the end.

Adhikarana xiii sūtras 40-42 dealing with the rule of the first शंयु and इडा in प्रायणीया and आतिथ्या

प्रतिषेधार्थवत्त्वञ्चित्तरस्य परस्तात्प्रतिषेधः स्यात् ॥१०७४०॥

प्रतिषेधार्थवत्त्वात् by reason of the prohibition being for a purpose ; उत्तरस्य of the subsequent , परस्तात् subsequent ; प्रतिषेधः prohibition ; स्यात् is.

40. By reason of the prohibition being for a purpose, subsequent acts of the second are prohibited.

In the foregoing अधिकरण it is established that प्रायणीया and आतिथ्या end in शंयुवाक and इडाभक्षण. In the model sacrifice, there are two sorts of शंयु and इडा ; one before पत्नीसंयाज, and the other after it. The question is, which शंयु is meant ? The reply of the objector is that the second one is meant ; in that view the prohibition as to पत्नीसंयाज which is before शंयु will be significant and the subsequent acts are already prohibited.

प्राप्तेर्वा पूर्वस्य वचनादतिक्रमः स्यात् ॥ १० । ७ । ४१ ॥

प्राप्तेः is meant ; वा on the other hand , पूर्वस्य of the first ; वचनात् under a text , अतिक्रमः transgression , स्यात् is.

41. On the other hand, the first is meant under the text, (otherwise) there will be a transgression.

The author says that the first शंयु is meant , in that view only the prohibition as to पत्नीसंयाज will be a permanent statement of facts. The author says that the text shows that प्रायणीया is to end in शंयुवाक and the subsequent performance of पत्नीसंयाज is prohibited. The second शंयु which follows the पत्नीसंयाज necessarily fails.

प्रतिषेधस्य त्वरायुक्तत्वात्तस्य च नान्यदेशत्वम् ॥

॥ १० । ७ । ४२ ॥

प्रतिषेधस्य of prohibition , तु on the other hand , त्वरायुक्तत्वाद् being connected with त्वरा (quick) , तस्य of it , च and ; नान्यदेशत्वम् the state of no other place

42. The prohibition being connected with त्वरा (quick), it has no other place for it.

The author relies on the लिङ्ग argument in support of his view , he says that there are texts “देवासुराः सत्यमभजंत । अर्द्धदेवा सत्यस्याभजंत अर्द्धमसुराः । तदसुरैः सत्यमनुच्यमानदेवानपाक्रामत् । ते प्रायणीयं निरवपन्तच्छृण्वन्तमासीत् । अथ असुराय ह मायन्ततो यज्ञः तत्त्वरे इति । तमेवं कृत्वा त्वरितं माद्वियन्ते”

“आतिथ्यं निरवपंस्तदिडास्तमासीदथासुरा यज्ञमार्यंस्ततो यज्ञः तत्त्वर इति । तदिडांतमेव कृत्वा त्वरितमाद्रियते” “The gods and the Titans divided truth ; half of truth came to the share of the gods and the other half was allotted to the Titans. The Titans without telling truth surpassed the gods ; they performed प्रायणीयः it ended in शंयु. The Titans went to the sacrifice ; then the sacrifice sped. Acting thus, they appreciate speediness.” “They resorted to आतिथ्य ; it ended in इडा and then the Titans went to the sacrifice : the sacrifice sped. Therefore making the sacrifice end in इडा, they appreciate speediness.”

The texts are quoted to show why the प्रायणीया and आतिथ्या end in शंयु and इडा. The inference from them is that the first शंयु and इडा are meant, then only (त्वरित) quickness in the text will be significant.

Adhikarana xiv, sūtras 43-46 dealing with the subject that by the text “यदुपसद उपसाद्यते” &c. the extraordinary principle of the उपसत् is laid down.

उपसत्सु यावदुक्तमकर्म स्यात् ॥ १० । ७ । ४३ ॥

उपसत्सु 10 उपसत्s ; यावन् as much , उक्तम् said ; अकर्म no work ; स्यात् is.

43. In उपसत्s, as much said should not be done.

In a उयोतिष्टोम there are 6 upasads named अग्नि, अनीक, सोम, शल्य, विष्णु, तेजस.

In that connection it is said “अप्रयाजास्ता अननुयाजाः” “They are without प्रयाजs and अनुयाजs.”

The question is, whether all the details are to be performed with the exception of the prohibited one, whether that alone which is ordained is to be performed and the rest is not to be performed or it is अपूर्व. The reply of the first objector is that alone which is prohibited should not be performed and the rest should be performed.

लोत्रेण वाऽगुणत्वाच्छेषप्रतिषेधः स्यात् ॥ १०।७।४४॥

लोत्रेण with a text pertaining to a ladle ; वा on the other hand , गुणत्वात् by reason of its being subordinate , शेषप्रतिषेधः prohibition of the remaining ; स्यात् is.

44. On the other hand, with the text pertaining to a ladle by reason of its being subordinate, the rest is prohibited.

The second view is that you must perform all the details which are allowed with the exception of those that are prohibited. "भुवेणाघारमाधारयति" "He sprinkles ghee with a ladle"

The text shows that the sprinkling of ghee with a ladle is permitted and the rest is prohibited by the principle of परिसंख्या.

अप्रतिषेधं वा प्रतिषिध्यप्रतिप्रसवात् ॥१०७१४५॥

अप्रतिषिद्धं not prohibited, वा on the other hand, प्रतिषिध्य after prohibiting, प्रतिप्रसवात् by reason of the counter-command.

45. On the other hand, not prohibited, after prohibiting, by reason of the counter-command

The first objector says that you are wrong, the prohibited details are not to be performed and the rest should be performed. The text you quote is not in the nature of a परिसंख्या but it is प्रतिप्रसव i.e. permitting a thing to be done with some conditions after prohibiting it. The whole text runs thus

"नान्यामाहुतिं पुरस्ताज्जुहुयाद् यदन्या माहुतिं पुरस्ताज्जुहादन्यमुखंकुर्यात् भुवेणाघारमाधारयति" "No other offering should be made first, if one makes another offering first, he shall turn his face towards the other side. He, therefore, sprinkles ghee with a ladle"

This clearly shows that it is by way of a प्रतिप्रसव. As in ordinary life, bathing is strictly prohibited to an invalid, but with certain conditions it is permissible as for example with tepid water or by washing the body with a wet towel. This kind of permission with conditions attached to it is called प्रतिप्रसव, (counter-command)

अनिज्या वा शेषस्य मुख्यदेवतानभोज्यत्वात् ॥

१०।७।४६॥

अनिज्या not to be performed, वा on the other hand, शेषस्य of the remaining; मुख्यदेवतान् principal deities, अनभोज्यत्वात् by reason of there being no offering of ghee.

46. On the other hand, the rest is not to be performed because there is no offering of ghee to the principal deities.

The author's view is in this concluding sūtra, the prohibition as to प्रयाज and अनुयाज is by way of अनुवाद The complete text is “नान्यामाहुतिं पुरस्ताज्जुहुयादाग्नेय्या अग्निर्हि मुखमित्यभिधाय यदन्यामाहुतिं पुरस्ताज्जुहुयाद्वेकती मन्यन्मुखकुर्यादाग्नेय्या अग्निर्हिमुखंभुवेण आघारमाघारयति नान्यं यजते अग्निमनीकसोमं शल्यं विष्णुतेजन” “No other offering should be made first, saying, fire is verily the mouth of all fire-oblations, if he offers other offerings in the modified sacrifice, he shall turn his face aside because fire is the mouth of fire oblations. He sprinkles ghee with a ladle . he does not make any offering, such as, अग्नि, अनीक, सोम, शल्य, विष्णु and तेजन ”

The ghee offerings to the principal deities are prohibited ; and the rest is without the offerings of ghee The result is that the six उपसदs are in the nature of अपूर्व and only those details are to be performed which are allowed by the direct text. No चोदक text intervenes

Adhikarana xiv sūtras 47-50 dealing with the subject that with the text “वरुणैककपालेन” & the extraordinary principle of the sacrificial bath is laid down

अवभृथे वह्निषः प्रतिषेधाच्छेषकर्म स्यात् ॥१०॥४७॥

अवभृथे in the sacrificial bath . वह्निषः of वह्निः ; प्रतिषेधात् by reason of prohibition , शेषकर्म the rest of the action ; स्यात् is

47. In the sacrifice by reason of the prohibition of वह्निः, the rest of the action is to be performed.

In a उपोतिष्ठोम, there is a sacrificial bath “वारुणैककपालेनावभृथमभ्यवयति”, “They resort to the sacrificial bath with a cake baked on one potsherd and consecrated to वरुण ”

In that connection it is said “अपवह्निषः प्रयाजान् यजति । अपवह्निषौ अनुयाजौ यजति” “He offers प्रयाजs without वह्निः ; he offers two अनुयाजs without वह्निः ”

Now the question is, whether with the exception of the fourth प्रयाज and first अनुयाज which constitute the वह्निःयाग, the rest should be performed; or with the exception of the ghee offerings, the text operates as परिसंख्या as to the rest ; or the sacrificial bath is an अपूर्व. The reply of the first objector is that with the exception of the वह्निःयागs, the rest should be performed , the reason is that they are only prohibited The rest of the details will be transferred by the चोदक text.

आज्यभागयोर्वा गुणत्वाच्छेषप्रतिषेधः स्यात् ॥१०।७।४८॥

अज्यभाग ये : of the ghee offerings ; वा on the other hand ; गुणत्वात् being subordinate , शेषप्रतिषेधः prohibition of the rest , स्यात् is.

48. By reason of the ghee offerings being subordinate, the rest is prohibited.

The second objector says that the rest of the details are prohibited because the अनुयाज are ordained. It is a परित्यक्ता as to the rest of the details , the ghee offerings are permissible “अप्सुमंतावाज्यभागौयजति” “अप्स्वग्ने सधिष्टव अप्सुमे सोमो अत्रवीत्” “He makes final ghee offerings in waters” “O ! Agni there is thy place in the water , Soma told me in the waters.”

प्रयाजानां त्वेकदेशप्रतिषेधाद्वाक्यशेषत्वं तस्मान्नित्यानुवादः स्यात् ॥ १० । ७ । ४९ ॥

प्रयाजानां of the प्रयाज , तु on the other hand , एकदेशप्रतिषेधात् by reason of the prohibition of a part , वाक्यशेषत्वं subordination of a sentence , तस्मात् therefore ; नित्यानुवादः permanent statement, स्यात् is.

49. By reason of the prohibition of a part of the प्रयाज offerings, there is subordination of sentences , it is, therefore, a permanent statement of facts.

The first objector says that it is not a परित्यक्ता. In that view the text is split up into two sentences, one lays down the अनुयाज offerings and the other prohibits the बर्हिर्वाग. This splitting up of sentences is highly to be deprecated by the Mīmāṃsakas. It is therefore an अनुवाद i. e. a mere statement of the facts.

आज्यभागयोर्ग्रहणं नित्यानुवादो वा गृहमेधीयवत्स्यात् ॥ १० । ७ । ५० ॥

आज्यभागयोः of ghee offerings ; ग्रहणं acceptance ; नित्यानुवादः by way of permanent statement , गृहमेधीयवत् like a गृहमेधीय ; स्यात् is,

50. The acceptance of the ghee offering is by way of statement of facts like a गृहमेधीय .

The author concludes the discussion and says that the sacrificial bath is अपूर्व, a model in itself, in that view, the text is clear and there is no splitting up of the text into two sentences. You are to perform those details of the sacrifice which are allowed by the express texts as in the case of a गृहमेधीय or उपसद्.

Adhikaraṇa xvi sutras 51-57 dealing with the subject that the rule in वाजपेय &c. the यूप &c. are of खदिर wood &c. is restrictive.

विरोधिनामेकश्रुतौ नियमः स्याद्गृहणस्यार्थवत्त्वाच्छ-
रवच्च श्रुतितो विशिष्टत्वात् ॥ १० । ७ । ५१ ॥

विरोधिनाम् of two contradictories; एकश्रुतौ in one text, नियमः restrictive rule; स्यात् is; ग्रहणस्य of the transference, अर्थवत्त्वात् by reason of being for a purpose, शरवत् like the reed, च and, श्रुतितः from the text; विशिष्टत्वात् by reason of the special feature.

51. When there are two contradictories in one text, it is a restrictive rule, by reason of the transference being for a purpose like the reed and by reason of the special feature of the text.

There is a वाजपेय sacrifice “शरदि वाजपेयेन स्वाराज्यकामो यजेत” “Let one desirous of the sovereignty in heaven, perform a वाजपेय in an autumn”

In that connection it is laid down “रवादिरोयूषो भवति” “A sacrificial post is made up of खदिर wood”

The question is, whether the यूप is to be constructed from रवदिर wood, or पलाश or रोहतक wood

In another connection, it is laid down “वृहत् पृष्टं भवति” “There is a वृहत्, पृष्ट.”

The question is, whether the पृष्ट is of वृहत् tune alone or रथंतर also.

In connection with त्रैधातवी it is laid down “यवमयो मध्यमः”, “The middle one is made of barley.”

The question is whether the middle पुरोडाश is made of barley only or of rice also. The reply of our author is that on account of the optional nature of the materials in the model sacrifice under the text there is a contradiction, in this view, the present text laying down the खदिर wood is by way of नियम and does away with पलाश or रोहतक wood just as शर is in the place of कुशा in "शरमयी वह्नि". "The वह्नि grass consists of reed"

The reason is that by so doing, the acceptance of the material will be for the purpose and the special substance mentioned in the text will displace the other materials that would otherwise be transferred under the चोदक text. The same reasoning will apply mutatis mutandis in the case of barley and वृहत्.

उभयप्रदेशान्नेतिचेत् ॥ १० । ७ । ५२ ॥

उभयप्रदेशात् by reason of the transfer of both, न not so, इतिचेत् if you say

52. "Not so, by reason of the transfer of both" if you say.

The objector says that it is not a नियम, under the चोदक text both materials are transferred. How is it that one is accepted? It is therefore optional to use any of them.

शरेष्वपीति चेत् ॥ १० । ७ । ५३ ॥

शरेषु in the reed, अपि also, इतिचेत् if you say.

53. "In the reeds also" if you say.

The author says that the illustration of शर is appropriate. How is it that the principle of बाध applies and the शर displaces the कुशा grass? The same thing happens here also.

विरोध्यगूहणात्तथा शरेष्विति चेत् ॥ १० । ७ । ५४ ॥

विरोध्यगूहणात् by reason of not accepting the contradictories; तथा similarly, शरेषु in the case of शर; इतिचेत् if you say.

54. "By reason of not accepting the contradictories, the same is the case with the शर" if you say.

The objector says that कुशा and शर are two contradictory substances; if you accept the शर, the कुशा will be, necessarily, displaced.

तथेतरस्मिन् ॥ १० । ७ । ५५ ॥

तथा similarly, इतरस्मिन् in the others.

55. Similarly in the others.

The author says such is also the case with खदिर, पल्लव & रोहतक wood. If you accept one kind of wood, the other kind is, necessarily, set aside.

श्रुत्यानर्थक्यमिति चेत् ॥ १० । ७ । ५६ ॥

श्रुत्यानर्थक्यम् : meaninglessness of the text, इति चेत् if you say

56. "The text is meaningless" if you say.

The objector says that if by accepting the खदिर wood, the पल्लव wood is set aside, the चोदक text under which both of them are optional is meaningless.

गृहणस्यार्थवत्त्वादुभयोरप्रतिपत्तिः स्यात् ॥१०।७।५७॥

गृहणस्य of acceptance, अर्थवत्त्वात् by reason of being for the purpose ; उभयोः of both ; अप्रतिपत्तिः no application ; स्यात् is

57. By reason of the acceptance being for the purpose, there can not be an application of both

The author says that there is a direct text, if you accept the खदिर wood, it will be significant and for the purpose. In that view, there is no option left ; both can not come under the चोदक text.

Adhikarapa xvii. sūtras 58-60 dealing with the subject that in the desire-accomplishing sacrifice, the substance and the duty of the model sacrifice are suspended

सर्वासाञ्च गुणानामर्थवत्त्वाद्गृहणमप्रवृत्ते स्यात् ॥१०।७।५८॥

सर्वासां of all ; च and, गुणानाम् of subordinate acts, अर्थवत्त्वात् by reason of the significance, गृहणम् acceptance ; अप्रवृत्ते. of no application, स्यात् is:

58. And by acceptance of all, by reason of the significance of the subordinate acts there is no application.

There are desire-accomplishing sacrifices "आग्नेयमष्टकपालं निर्वपेद्ब्रह्मचर्यकामः" "अग्नी रोमीयमेकादशकपालं निर्वपेच्छ्रयामाकं ब्रह्मचर्यसकामः" "ऐन्द्रमेकादश कपालं निर्वपेत्प्रजाकामः" "One who is desirous of splendour shall offer cakes baked on eight potsherds and consecrated to Agni; one who is desirous of Brahmanic glory shall offer cake made of श्यामाक, baked on eleven potsherds to Agni and soma : one who is desirous of progeny shall offer cakes baked on eleven potsherds to Indra "

The question is, whether in these desire-accomplishing sacrifices, the materials and the deity of the model sacrifice are suspended or not. The reply of the author is that the materials and the deity of the कार्मेष्टि being for a special purpose and that both having been specially prescribed, there is no occasion for the application of the चोदक texts which operate in the case of other details about which the texts are silent.

अधिकं स्यादिति चेत् ॥ १० । ७ । ५६ ॥

अधिकं 'combination', स्यात् is ; इति चेत् if you say.

59. "There is a combination" if you say.

The objector says that the deities and the materials of both the model and modified sacrifices may be combined.

नार्थाभावात् ॥ १० । ७ । ६० ॥

न not so, अर्थाभावात् by reason of the want of purpose.

60. No so, by reason of the want of purpose.

The author says that though the चोदक text is not prohibited by the direct text, the purpose is served by one deity and material and so there is no necessity for the transfer of the deity and material from the model sacrifice.

Adbikaraya xviii sūtras 61-63 dealing with the subject that in a सौमपोष्य animal sacrifice the खदिर-made sacrificial post is a restrictive rule.

तथैकार्थविकारे प्राकृतस्याप्रवृत्तिः प्रवृत्तौ हि विकल्पः

स्यात् ॥ १० । ७ । ६१ ॥

तथा similarly ; एकार्थविकारे where one object is modified ; प्राकृतस्य of the thing of the model sacrifice , अप्रवृत्तिः suspension , प्रवृत्तौ in application ; हि because ; विकल्पः option ; स्यात् is.

61. Similarly where one object is modified, the thing of the model sacrifice is suspended ; because in its application, there is a dilemma.

In a certain sacrifice it is laid down "अदुम्बरोक्षुपो भवति" "There is a sacrificial post made of उदंबर wood "

Now the question is, whether the खदिर post which would have been borrowed from the model sacrifice but for this text, is replaced or not. The reply of the author is in the affirmative ; one क्षुप serves the purpose, either the कदिर or the उदुम्बर one : in such a state, the principle laid down in the preceding अधिकरण applies i.e. the substance of the model sacrifice will be replaced. If you borrow the substance from the model sacrifice there will be a dilemma in the matter of choice which is highly undesirable.

यावच्छ्रुतीति चेत् ॥ १० । ७ । ६२ ॥

यावच्छ्रुति just as much laid down, इतिचेत् if you say.

62. 'Just as much laid down' if you say.

The objector says that there is the बोदक text under which कदिर wood would be used and there is the direct text under which उदुम्बर wood is to be used, why should you not combine both of them?

न प्रकृतावशब्दत्वात् ॥ १० । ७ । ६३ ॥

न not, प्रकृतौ in the model sacrifice; अवशब्दत्वात् by reason of there being no such direction

63. Not so, by reason of there being no such direction in the model sacrifice.

The author says that it is wrong, in the model sacrifice there is the कदिर post and in the modified sacrifice we have उदुम्बर sacrificial post; but nowhere it is said in the model sacrifice that two kinds of यूपस will be used. So the principle of समुच्चय does not apply.

Adhikaraṇa XIX, sūtras 64-71. dealing with the subject that the persons desirous of Brahmanic glory should perform the sacrifice with the rice only.

विकृती त्वनियमः स्यात्प्रषदाज्यवद्गूहणस्य गुणार्थ-
त्वादुभयोश्च प्रदिष्टत्वादगुणशास्त्रं यदेति स्यात् ॥
१० । ७ । ६४ ॥

विकृती in the modified sacrifice, तु on the other hand, अनियमः no rule; स्यात् is; प्रषदाज्यवत् like the mixture of curd and milk; गूहणस्य of the acceptance; गुणार्थत्वात् by reason of being for the purpose of the quality, उभयोः of both, च and, प्रदिष्टत्वात् by reason of being laid down; गुणशास्त्रं laying down the quality of the subordinate act, यदा then; इति participle; स्यात् is.

64. On the other hand, in the modified sacrifice there is no rule like the mixture of curd and milk by reason of the acceptance being for the purpose of the quality and by reason of both being laid down ; when the laying down the quality of the subordinate act is (set aside),

There are texts "सौमारीद्रवृतेचरं निर्वपेच्छुक्लानां व्रीहीणां ब्रह्मचर्वसकामः" "सौमारीद्रवृतेचरं निर्वपेच्छुक्लानां व्रीहीणामभिचरन्" "नैऋतचरं निर्वपेच्छुक्लानां व्रीहीणां" "सौर्यचरं निर्वपेच्छुक्लानां व्रीहीणां" "One who is desirous of Brahmanic glory shall offer चर made of white wild rice and boiled in ghee to Soma and Rudra ; one performing witchcraft shall offer चर made of black wild rice to Soma and Rudra ; let him offer चर made of black wild rice to मिश्रति. Let him offer चर made of white wild rice to Sun-god.

The question for determination is, whether the sacrifice is to be performed with the wild rice of the model sacrifice or rice only. The reply of the objector is that there is no rule ; just as in the वृषदाज्य, you have both the curd and ghee, so here also. If you accept the rice, it is in compliance of the direct text which lays down the quality of the rice ; if you accept both, it is in accordance with the direction of the चोदक and direct texts ; but the quality of the rice will be set aside by the use of wild rice in the sacrifice. The result is that you have an option.

ऐकार्थ्याद्वा नियम्येत श्रुतितो विशिष्टत्वात् ॥१०७६५॥

ऐकार्थ्याद् by reason of there being one object , वा on the other hand , नियम्येत lay down as a restrictive rule , श्रुतिः from the text , विशिष्टत्वात् by reason of its being specialised

65. On the other hand, it is a restrictive rule by reason of there being one object and by reason of its being specialised by the text.

The author says that it is a restrictive rule. The object of the sacrifice is fulfilled by the use of one substance only whether it be barley or rice. And as there is a special direction in the text, the barley of the model sacrifice will be replaced, because both can not be used.

विरोधित्वारुच्य लोकवत् ॥ १०७६६ ॥

विरोधित्वाद् by reason of there being contradictory , च and , कोकवत् as in the ordinary life.

66 And by reason of there being contradictory as in the ordinary life.

The author says that two contradictory things can not exist side by side. You can not use barley and rice in the same sacrifice Just as in ordinary life you can not use fish and milk together So the qualified rice replaces the barley of the model sacrifice.

क्रतोश्चतदगुणत्वात् ॥ १० । ७ । ६७ ॥

क्रतोः of the sacrifice , च and , तदगुणत्वात् by reason of its being of the same quality

67. And of the sacrifice, by reason of its being of the same quality.

The author gives another reason in support of his view. He says that the sacrifice is said to be black or white. The rice is also said to be white or black, so it will be in conformity with the quality of the sacrifice.

विरोधिनाञ्च तच्छ्रुतावशब्दत्वाद्विकल्पः स्यात् ॥ १० । ७ । ६८ ॥

विरोधिनां of the contradictories ; च and , तच्छ्रुती in that text , अवशब्दत्वाद् by reason of being not mentioned , विकल्पः option , स्यात् is.

68. And of the contradictories being not mentioned, there is an option.

The author says that when there are two contradictory things under the चोदक and the direct texts and there is no mention as to the transfer, there is an option In this view also, it is a restrictive rule

पृषदाज्ये समुच्चयाद्ग्रहणस्य गुणार्थत्वम् ॥ १० । ७ । ६९ ॥

पृषदाज्ये in पृषदाज्ये ; समुच्चयात् by reason of the combination , ग्रहणस्य of the acceptance ; गुणार्थत्वम् for the object of the quality.

69. In पृषदाज्य by reason of the combination, because there the acceptance is for the object of the quality.

The author says that you have given the example of दूधदाय. It is a mixture of ghee and curd. The principle of समुच्चय, therefore, applies there ; the reason is that you can not produce the material called दूधदाय without the above-said mixture. There are other materials produced in ordinary life as red-powder by mixing lime and turmeric and red vermillion by mixing mercury and sulphur. But in the present case you are not going to make a third substance by mixing barley and rice.

यद्यपिचतुर्वक्षीति तु नियमे नोपपद्यते ॥१०॥७॥७०॥

यद्यपि though ; चतुर्वक्षी, चतुर्वक्षी . इति participle , तु on the other hand ; नियमे in a restrictive rule , न नो ; उपपद्यते arises.

70. On the other hand, 'though चतुर्वक्षी' does not arise in the view that it is a restrictive rule.

The objector says that if you take the view that it is a restrictive rule and does away with the चोदक text, then पंचवक्षी will replace चतुर्वक्षी which is not the case

क्रत्वन्तरे वा तन्न्यायत्वात्कर्मभेदात् ॥ १० । ७ । ७१ ॥

क्रत्वन्तरे in another sacrifice ; वा on the other hand , तन्न्यायत्वात् by reason of its being proper , कर्मभेदात् by reason of being different act.

71. On the other hand, in another sacrifice by reason of its being proper ; because it is a different act.

The author says that you make a confusion. In the दर्शपूर्णमासयाग, there is a पुरोडाश cake. So the sacrificer is called चतुर्वक्षी but in an animal sacrifice he is called पंचवक्षी. So there is a difference of sacrifices ; they are entirely different things.

Adhikarapa xx, sūtras 72-73 dealing with the subject that by the text 'पंचावक्षीवचपाकायां' the पंचावक्षी applies to the portions also.

यथाश्रुतीति चेत् ॥ १० । ७ । ७२ ॥

यथाश्रुति according to the text ; इतिचेत् if you say.

72. 'According to the text' if you say.

There is a text in connection with the animal sacrifice in a अपौलिङ्गोम “यद्यपिचतुरवस्रो यजमानः पञ्चावसैव वपाकार्या” “Though a sacrificer is चतुर्वसी, yet the fifth offering is to be made of the omentum”

Now the doubt arises by hearing the term ‘पञ्चावस’ in connection with the omentum, it has no application to the other parts of the animal. What are चतुर्वसी and पञ्चवसी? They are the गोत्र- of the sacrificers “आमदग्न्या वत्सविदावार्ष्टिषेणश्चतेत्रयः । पञ्चावसिन् एवान्ये सर्वेचतुरवसिन्ः” “The descendants of जमदग्नि, वत्सविद् and वार्ष्टिषेण are three, these are offerers of four oblations and others are offerers of five oblations.” Then there is another text “आमदग्न्यावत्सविदावार्ष्टिषेणस्तथैव च । भागंवाश्चवना और्वा पञ्चावसिन् ईरिताः” “The descendants of जमदग्नि, वत्सविद्, वार्ष्टिषेण, भागं & और्वा are the offerers of five oblations” The पञ्चावसीय in शुनासीरीय consists of पञ्चवसी an oblation consisting of five-fold cut (or ladled) ghee which is offered without disturbing fire “पञ्चकृत्योऽवदाय संपादितमाज्यं पञ्चावसीयं.” “Offering five times from the collected ghee is called पञ्चावसीय” (See at p. 1178 of vol. iii. of तै० सं० आर्णदाख्यम series).

The reply of the objector is that when पञ्चावस in the text applies to the omentum only, it does not apply to the other portions of the animal.

न चोदनैकत्वात् ॥ १० । ७ । ७३ ॥

न not so, चोदनैकत्वात् by reason of there being one injunction.

73. Not so, by reason of there being one injunction.

There are the portions of the animal and there is omentum; both are governed by one चोदक text. You can not split up the text by dividing it into two parts. It will constitute the defect of splitting up of a sentence which a Mīmāṃsaka highly deprecates. So one text governs both and the result is that पञ्चावस applies to the portions of the animal as well.

END OF PĀDA VII.

PĀDA VIII.

Adhikaraṇa I. sūtras 1-4 dealing with the subject that the prohibition of the transferred अनारभ्यविधि is by way of पदुदात्त.

प्रतिषेधः प्रदेशेऽनारभ्यविधाने च प्राप्तप्रतिषिद्धत्वाद्भि
कल्पः स्यात् ॥ १० । ८ । १ ॥

प्रतिषेधः prohibition ; प्रदेशे in the transferred text ; अनारभ्यविधाने in the scattered text , च and ; प्राप्तप्रतिषिद्धत्वात् by reason of the transferred prohibition , विकल्पः optional ; स्यात् is.

1. The prohibition in the case of the scattered text and the transferred text is optional by reason of the transferred prohibition.

In connection with महापितृयज्ञ transferred by चोदक, there is a text. “नहोतारं वृणीते नार्षेय” ““He does not appoint a होता nor does he repeat the names of the R̥ṣis.” There is a scattered text.

“ओभावयेति चतुरक्षरम् अस्तु औषडिति चतुरक्षरं यजेति द्वयक्षरं, ये यजामहे इति पञ्चाक्षरं, द्वयक्षरो वषट्कार एवै प्रजापतिः सप्तदशोयज्ञेषु अन्वायसे” (M.S., I.4.11) “ततोनानु याज्ञेषु ये यजामहे करेति” “ओभावय” consists of four letters ; अस्तुऔषट् consists of four letters ; ‘यज’ consists of two letters ; ‘ये यजामहे’ consist of five letters, वषट् has two letters ; these seventeen are the Lords of the universe and fit in the sacrifices. Therefore in अनुवाज, ‘ये यजामहे’ are not uttered.

Now the question is, whether the appointment of a priest in the महापितृयज्ञ and the repetition of ‘ये यजामहे’ in अनुवाज are prohibited by reason of these texts, when in the model sacrifice they are allowed. The reply of the objector is that when there is a prohibition by reason of the direct and चोदक texts, it is an option.

अर्थप्राप्तवदिति चेत् ॥ १० । ८ । २ ॥

अर्थप्राप्तवत् like the attaining of the object ; इति चेत् if you say.

2. “Like the attaining of the object” if you say.

The objection to the पूर्वपक्ष view is that when there are विधि and प्रतिषेध in conflict, it is the latter that prevails. As for instance, do not take poison ; do not put your finger into the serpent's mouth and do not kick thorns with your foot. All these prohibitions are for some object in view and will, therefore, prevail.

न तुल्यहेतुत्वादुभयं शब्दलक्षणम् ॥ १० । ८ । ३ ॥

न not ; तुल्यहेतुत्वात् by reason of the equal causes , उभयं both , शब्दलक्षणं based on the word

3. Not so, by reason of the equal causes ; both are based on the word.

The reply of the objector is that you are mistaken Both the command and the prohibition are based on the texts So they are both equally binding. The result is that it is optional

अपि तु वाक्यशेषः स्यादन्याय्यत्वाद्विकल्पस्य विधी-
नामेकदेशः स्यात् ॥ १० । ८ । ४ ॥

अपि also , तु on the other hand , वाक्यशेषः supplementary sentence ; स्यात् is ; अन्याय्यत्वात् by reason of the impropriety , विकल्पस्य of the option ; विधीनाम् of the commands , एकदेशः only partial, स्यात् is.

4. On the other hand, it is a supplementary sentence by reason of the impropriety of the option ; the command is only partial.

The author says that the texts are only supplementary texts and the prohibition is only partial. The महापितृयज्ञ is to be performed with all the details of the model sacrifice with the exception of the appointment of priests and that all the यज्ञs should be performed with all the details with the exception of the repetition of 'वे यज्ञमाहे' in the अनुयाज offerings. This kind of prohibition which is partial is called पशुर्दास. The author says that the option which you say is improper. The texts are, therefore, in the nature of पशुर्दास.

Adhikarana II. dealing with the subject that in "not those to be done in animal sacrifice" the negative is by way of अर्थवाद.

अपूर्वं चार्थवादः स्यात् ॥ १० । ८ । ५ ॥

अपूर्वं in the case of अपूर्वं , च and , अर्थवादः recommendation ; स्यात् is.

5. In the case of अपूर्वं, it is a recommendation.

There are full and new moon sacrifices in which there are ghee offerings. Taking them as models, it is said “न तौपशौकरोति न सोमे” “He does not perform those two in an animal sacrifice nor in a soma sacrifice.”

Now the question is, whether the text is prohibitory text or a पयुंदास or अर्थवाद. It is not पयुंदास. It is said in connection with दर्शपूर्णमासयाग ; there is no relevancy of the सोमयाग. You can not say that the दर्शपूर्णमास should be performed with the exception of सोमयाग, you can not say that it is a prohibition that is transferred to सोमयाग by बोद्धक text because सोम is a model in itself (अपूर्व). The result is that it is अर्थवाद and means that as there are no ghee offerings in सोमयाग, should not they be made in an animal sacrifice ? The question suggests the answer, it means that the ghee offerings should not be made in an animal sacrifice. It is called a question of negation in grammar and a leading question in law.

Adhikaraṇa in dealing with the subject that the prohibition in the text “नातिरात्रे गृह्णाति बोद्धशिव” is by way of option.

शिष्टा तु प्रतिषेधः स्यात् ॥ १० । ८ । ६ ॥

शिष्टा after having laid down ; तु on the other hand ; प्रतिषेधः prohibition ; स्यात् is.

6. On the other hand, after having laid down, there is prohibition.

There is another form of a negative. In connection with a उयोतिष्ठोम it is laid down “अतिरात्रे बोद्धशिव गृह्णाति, नातिरात्रे बोद्धशिव गृह्णाति” “He takes बोद्धशी cup in an अतिरात्र, he does not take बोद्धशी in an अतिरात्र.”

As to such texts where the thing is once laid down and then it is prohibited, it can not be पयुंदास (an exception) “In an अतिरात्र, a बोद्धशी is used, then again it is not used”. The अतिरात्र is the same, you can not say that with the exception of बोद्धशी, all details should be performed in an अतिरात्र. So you can not assert a thing at one time and then deny it in the same breath ; you can not blow hot and cold. Secondly it is not अर्थवाद. When you say “Excepting the horses and cows others are not animals” Here by denying the other animals the title of ‘animal’, you praise the cows and horses, but here you can not praise the बोद्धशी by prohibiting it. So the prohibition in the present case where two contradictory texts exist side by side, is by way of option.

Adhikaraṇa iv dealing with the subject that the prohibition in the text “अनाहुतिर्वैजृतिः” is by way of अर्थवाद.

न चेदन्यं प्रकल्पयेत्प्रकल्पमावर्थवादः स्यादानर्थक्यात्पर-
सामर्थ्याच्च १०।८।७॥

न not, चेत् if; अन्यं another, प्रकल्पयेत् lay down; प्रकल्पे in so laying down, अर्थवाद by way of अर्थवादः, स्यात् is; आनर्थक्यात् by reason of its being meaningless, परसामर्थ्यात् by reason of being dependent on the force of another; च and.

7. If it lays down another, on so laying down, it is by way of अर्थवाद by reason of its being meaningless and dependent on the force of another.

In connection with अग्निहोत्र, it is laid down “जृतिः कयवाग्वा जुहुयाद् गवेः पुकयवाग्वा वाजुहुयाद् न प्राम्यान् पशून् हिनस्ति न आरण्यान् ॥ अनाहुतिर्वैजृतिः-लायच गवेधुकाश्च । पयसा अग्निहोत्रं जुहुयात्” (T.S.V 43 1&2; “Let him offer gruel* made of wild sesamum, let him offer gruel made of wild wheat. He does not kill village animals or wild animals. The wild sesamum and wild wheat are not fit for offerings. Let him offer them with milk.”

The first part of the text “जृतिः कयवाग्वा.....” is a विधि “अनाहुतिर्वैजृतिः.....” is a prohibition “पयसा.....” is again a विधि. In this state of facts, the principle laid down in the preceding अधिकरण will apparently apply; but our author says that when you prescribe another substance, then it will be an अर्थवाद. जृतिः is a wild sesamum and गवेधुक is a wild wheat. First you say that they may be offered but subsequently you say that they are not fit for offering and lastly you permit their offering with milk. So it is an अर्थवाद because the prohibition is meaningless by reason of the subsequent permission and because they become fit by being mixed with another substance. It is in praise of milk.

Adhikaraṇa v. dealing with the subject that in त्रैयम्बक &c, the offering of ghee and the non-offering of ghee &c, are by way of अर्थवाद.

पूर्वैश्च तुल्यकालत्वात् ॥ १० । ८ । ८ ॥

पूर्वैः with the preceding ones ; च and , तुल्यकालत्वात् by reason of equal time

8. And with the preceding ones, by reason of equal time.

In वातुमांस्य in connection with त्रैयम्बक it is said “अभिघार्याः नाभिघार्या इति मीमांसते, यदभिघारयेद्गुदायास्ये पशुनभिदध्यात् ॥ यन्नाभिघारयेन्न रुद्रायास्ये पशु नभिदध्यात् ॥ अथोखत्वाद्गुरभिघार्यापि न हि हविरनभिघृतमस्ति”

“होतव्य अग्निहोत्रं न होतव्यमिति मीमांसते ब्रह्मवादिनः यदि जुहुयाद् यथा पूर्वं माहुति जुहुयात् यन्न जुहु गदग्निः परापतत् तूष्णीं मेव दक्षिष्य, यथा पूर्वं माहुति जुहोति नाग्निः परापतति” They determine whether ghee should be sprinkled or not, if he sprinkles ghee, he places the animals in the principal vital air of Rudra; if he does not sprinkle ghee, he does not place animals in the principal vital air of Rudra. Therefore it is said that ghee should be sprinkled, certainly no offering is without ghee. The Brahmavadins determine whether an अग्निहोत्र should be performed or not, if he does he shall offer oblations as before, if he does not, fire will go away. Let him offer oblation silently, if he offers oblation as before, the fire does not turn away.”

The question is whether the sprinkling of ghee should be made in त्रैयम्बक or not, whether an अग्निहोत्र should be performed or not. There are both विधि and निषध. The अग्निहोत्र should not be performed, if it were performed, it should be done in a low tone. The author in this state of conflicting statements considers it an अर्थवाद and places it on an equal footing with the principle laid down in the preceding अधिकरण. He says that the question for determination for a मीमांसक is, whether an अग्निहोत्र should be performed or not, if it were performed it would be done with a certain condition attached. So also in the case of अभिघारणा. In this view it is a praise or अर्थवाद by reason of its being a subordinate sentence (वाक्यशेषः)

Adhikaraṇa vi sūtras 9-11 dealing with the subject that in the establishment of fire, the calumny is by way of option.

उपवादश्च तद्वत् ॥ १० । ८ । ९ ॥

उपवादः calumny, च and ; तद्वत् like it.

9. And the calumny is like it.

In connection with अग्न्याधान, it is said “य एवं विद्वान् वारवंतीयं गायति, य एवं विद्वान् वामदेव्यं गायति” “One who knows this, sings वारवंतीय, one who knows this, sings वामदेव्यं गायति”

There it is said “उपवीता वा एतस्याग्नेयोमवन्ति यस्याग्नाधेये ब्रह्मा सामानि गायति” “His fires are despoiled (by delay), if ब्रह्मा sings songs in an अग्न्याधेय.”

The question is, whether this calumny which is attached in case ब्रह्मा sings songs, is by way of prohibition or not. The fact is that the ब्रह्मा never sings songs, it is the उद्गाता only who sings, so the word ‘ब्रह्मा’ includes the उद्गाता also by the reason of its general signification. It is not an अर्थवाद. The author, therefore, says that, it is governed by the principle laid down in the adhikaraṇa vi sūtra 6. (at p. 821) i. e. you can not assert two contradictory things in one and the same breath. So singing of the साम will be optional.

प्रतिषेधादकर्मैति चेत् ॥ १० । ८ । १० ॥

प्रतिषेधात् by reason of the prohibition ; अकर्म non-act ; इति चेत् if you say.

10. “By reason of the prohibition, it is non-act” if you say.

The objector says that the prohibition as to ब्रह्मा not singing songs is an indication that it is not an act which is enjoined ; it is, therefore, prohibited.

न शब्दपूर्वत्वात् ॥ १० । ८ । ११ ॥

न not so ; शब्दपूर्वत्वात् by reason of its being based on the word.

11. Not so, by reason of its being based on the word.

The author says that you are mistaken; there is a text where it (दानपाक) is praised. So from praise you infer that it ought to be done and from dispraise, you infer that it ought not to be performed. So in this state of conflict, it is proper to consider the text to be optional.

Adhikāra vii, sūtra 12-15, dealing with the subject that the prohibition in the text "दीक्षितो न ददाति न जुहोति न पचति" is by way of पचुं दास

दीक्षितस्य दानहोमपाकप्रतिषेधाऽविशेषात्सर्वदानहोम-
पाकप्रतिषेधः स्यात् ॥ १० । ८ । १२ ॥

दीक्षितस्य of an initiated दानहोमपाकप्रतिषेधः the prohibition as to the donation, sacrifice and cooking, अविशेषात् by reason of there being nothing special, सर्वदानहोमपाकप्रतिषेधः prohibition of the entire donation, sacrifice and cooking ; , स्यात् is 12 The prohibition relating to donation, the sacrifice, and cooking by an initiated is a prohibition of the entire donation, sacrifice and cooking by reason of there being nothing special.

In connection with a श्रुतिहोम, it is said, "दीक्षितो न ददाति न जुहोति न पचति" "An initiated does not make a gift, perform a sacrifice or cook food."

The question for determination is, whether all gifts, sacrifices and cooking are prohibited or only those which are not for the purpose of the sacrifice (कृत्यार्थ) or those कृत्यार्थs which are transferred by the श्रुति text are prohibited. The reply of the objector is that the whole is prohibited, because there is no word which limits it to any thing special.

अक्रतुयुक्तानां वा धर्मः स्यात्क्रतोः प्रत्यक्षशिष्टत्वात् ॥

१० । ८ । १३ ॥

अक्रतुयुक्तानां those which do not pertain to the sacrifice ; वा on the other hand ; धर्मः characteristics ; स्यात् is ; क्रतोः of the sacrifice ; प्रत्यक्षशिष्टत्वात् by reason of being laid down directly.

13. On the other hand, it is of those that do not pertain to the sacrifice, because as to those of the sacrifice, it is directly laid down.

The second objector says that the prohibition relates to those details which are पुरुषार्थ or conducive to the object of a man. The reason is that the कर्त्तव्य is directly laid down and so it can not be prohibited.

तस्य वाप्यानुमानिकमविशेषात् ॥ १० । ८ । १४ ॥

तस्य its, वा on the other hand ; अपि also ; अनुमानिकम् the inferential one ; अविशेषात् by reason of there being nothing special.

14. On the other hand, the inferential one, by reason of there being nothing special.

The third objector says that it is only those details which are transferred by a चोदक text from the model sacrifice that are prohibited, because they are based on an inference and further there is nothing special in them

अपि तु वाक्यशेषत्वादितरपथ्युदासः स्यात्पूतिषेधे
विकल्पः स्यात् ॥ १० । ८ । १५ ॥

अपि also ; तु on the other hand ; वाक्यशेषत्वात् by reason of being a supplementary text, इतर of the other, पथ्युदासः prohibition; स्यात् is, प्रतिषेधे in-prohibition ; विकल्पः option ; स्यात् is.

15. On the other hand, by reason of being a supplementary text, it is a पथ्युदास ; of the other in a prohibition it is optional.

The author expresses his view in this सूत्र It is a पथ्युदास. It is a partial prohibition, it relates to the पुरुषार्थ. It can not be a prohibition of कर्त्तव्य ; because it will put a stop to the performance of the sacrifice. So it is a prohibition of the acts when done with some desire but their performance is not prohibited if they are for the object of the sacrifice.

Adhikarapa viii. dealing with the subject that by उत्सर्गद्वय &c. the आहवनीय is suspended.

अविशेषेण, यच्छास्त्रमन्याय्यत्वाद्विकल्पस्य तत्सन्दिग्ध
माराद्विशेषशिष्टं स्यात् ॥ १० । ८ । १६ ॥

अविशेषेण generally ; यत् which ; शास्त्रम् laid down ; अन्याय्यत्वात् by reason of the impropriety ; विकल्पस्य of the option ; तत् that ; सन्दिग्धम् doubtful ; मारात् distant ; विशेषशिष्टं laid down specially ; स्यात् is.

16. That which is generally laid down, by reason of the impropriety of the option, is doubtful and inapplicable; the special laid down applies.

There is an अवश्यम् text, यदाहवनीयेजुहोति तेन सोऽशानीष्टः प्रीतः "By whatever he offers in an आहवनीय, his desired one is pleased."

In connection with स्मृतिहोम, it is laid down "पदेजुहोति, कर्त्तव्यजुहोति "He offers on a step; he offers in the way."

In connection with राजसूय it is said "वस्तीकवामुत्सृज्यजुहोति" "Having taken the fat of a white ant, he offers (an oblation)."

At some other place it is laid down "गार्हपत्ये पत्नीसंवाजम् जुहोति" "He makes पत्नीसंवाज offerings in a गार्हपत्य fire."

Now the general text permits the offerings in the आहवनीय and by special texts we see that there are different procedures laid down. The question for determination is, whether in this conflict, between the general and special texts, there is an option or not. The reply of our author is that the special text prevails over the general text, because the option is improper when special procedure is laid down.

Adhikampa 1x sūtras 17-19 dealing with the subject that in वैश्वं &c, the injunction relating to 17 सामवेदी is by way of a subordinate sentence.

अप्रकरणे तु यच्छास्त्रं विशेषे श्रूयमाणमविकृतमाज्य
भागवत्प्राकृतप्रतिषेधार्थम् ॥ १० । ८ । १७ ॥

अप्रकरणे in reference to no particular context; तु on the other hand; यत् what; शास्त्रं laid down; विशेषे is particular; श्रूयमाणम् is heard; अविकृतम् unmodified; भागवत्प्राकृतम् like ghee offering; प्राकृतप्रतिषेधार्थम् with a view to prohibit the subordination to the model sacrifice.

17. On the other hand, what is laid down with reference to no particular context and is heard in connection with any particular act, it is unmodified like the ghee offerings and is with a view to prohibit the subordination to the model sacrifice.

There is an अवश्यम् text "सप्तदशसामवेदीरुक्तं यावत्" "Let him pronounce seventeen सामवेदी verses at the end."

Then again in वैश्वं, अन्तरकथा, &c we hear the same text. The question is,

"what is the effect of this अनारभ्य text when heard in connection with a modified sacrifice"? The reply of the objector is that it is a model in itself like the ghee offering in the गृहमेधीय (See Pada vii Adhikaraṇa ix sūtras 24-33. at p. 802) and it is with a view to prohibit the subordination to the model sacrifice.

विकारे तु तदर्थं स्यात् ॥ १० । ८ । १८ ॥

विकारे in a modification, तु on the other hand, तदर्थम् with that object ; स्यात् is.

18. On the other hand, in a modification with that object

The objector supports his view by an argument ; had it been for the object of the modification, it would have been for it, but it is not so ; the result is that it is a model in itself.

वाक्यशेषो वा क्रतुना ग्रहणात्स्यादनारभ्यविधानस्य ॥

१० । ८ । १९ ॥

वाक्यशेषः a supplementary sentence, वा on the other hand ; क्रतुना with the sacrifice ; न not, अग्रहणात् by reason of non-application ; स्यात् is, अनारभ्यविधानस्य of the scattered injunction

19. On the other hand, it is a supplementary sentence by reason of its application in a sacrifice and by reason of the scattered injunction.

The author says in reply that it is in the nature of a वाक्यशेष (supplementary statement) The reason is that the general text is in the nature of the injunction (विधि) describing the nature of the सामवेदी The particular application thereof to वैश्व &c. is by another text which supplements the विधि. Both form one complete text ; the one is विधि and the other is its supplement.

Adhikaraṇa x sūtras 20-22 dealing with the subject that with the injunctive text "वृथिवेस्वाहा" &c. the स्वाहा in those offerings in which no स्वाहा is laid down, is prescribed

मन्त्रेष्ववाक्यशेषत्वं गुणोपदेशात्स्यात् ॥ १० । ८ । २० ॥

मन्त्रेषु in the mantras, वा on the other hand ; अवाक्यशेषत्वं no subordination of sentence ; गुणोपदेशात् by reason of laying down the quality.

20. On the other hand, in the mantras, there is no subordination of sentence by reason of laying down the quality.

In connection with द्विहोम as model sacrifice, it is laid down,

“पृथिव्यै स्वाहा अंतरिक्षाय स्वाहा वायवे स्वाहा” “Hail to the earth ; hail to the intervening space , hail to the wind ”

There is an अनारभ्य text “वषट्कारेण वा स्वाहाकारेण वा देवेभ्योऽन्नं प्रदीयते” “Food is offered to the gods with वषट् or स्वाहा ”

The question is, whether the 1st text is the supplement of the अनारभ्य text as laid down in the previous अधिकरण. The reply of the author is that the preceding अधिकरण does not apply and it is, therefore, not a supplementary text. The reason is that in the preceding अधिकरण by reason of the apprehension that the sentence will be fruitless, it was so held but in the present case the offering is of the principal things and conduces to the fruit of the action. So also in other द्विहोमः, the word स्वाहा should be pronounced. So the mantras of the first text are not supplementary sentences

अनाम्नाते च दर्शनात् ॥ १० । ८ । २१ ॥

अनाम्नाते in those also which are not laid down ; च and ; दर्शनात् by seeing.

21. And by seeing in those also which are not laid down.

The author says that in those acts where the reading of the word ‘स्वाहा’ is not laid down, it is read “घृतेनद्यावापृथिवीआपृलेया मिति (T S , I 3.1. 2, vi 2 10.5) औदुम्बर्या विशाखे जुहोति आंशान् अवन्नावयति भूमिप्राप्ते स्वाहाकरोति” “Fill up the earth and sky with ghee; he performs a homa with उदुम्बर wood in विशाखा, he drops down intestines , on falling on the ground, he utters स्वाहा.”

प्रतिषेधाच्च ॥ १० । ८ । २२ ॥

प्रतिषेधाच्च by reason of the prohibition , च and.

22. And by reason of the prohibition,

The author supports his view by saying that some where there is a prohibition “न स्वाहेति वचनं करोति मंत्रचनान्” “He does not pronounce स्वाहा nor does he utter मंत्रः.”

When there is an applicability of स्वाहा, then only there will be a prohibition. This indirectly shows that it is not a supplementary text. The result is that the rule as to the supplementary sentence laid down in the preceeding अधिकरण does not apply to the case of the संक्षेप.

Adhikaraṇa xi. sūtras 23-28. dealing with the subject that there is a direction of fire and the cups in the modified sacrifice.

अग्न्यतिग्राह्यस्य विकृतावुपदेशादप्रवृत्तिः स्यात् ॥

॥ १० । ८ । २३ ॥

अग्न्यतिग्राह्यस्य of the fire and the cups ; विकृती in the modified sacrifice ; उपदेशात् by reason of the direct injunction ; अप्रवृत्तिः non-application ; स्यात् is.

23. There is non-application of the fire and the cups in the modified sacrifice by reason of the direct injunction.

In connection with the establishment of fire, there is a text “यस्य विद्वानग्निं विनूते . He who knows this, piles up fire.”

As regards cups, there is a text “उपहृत्मानवा एतच्छस्य यदतिग्राह्यः” “It is the support of the sacrifice namely the अतिग्राह्य cup.”

अतिग्राह्य is the name of a particular cup. Now the question is, whether the अग्निचयन and अतिग्राह्य are transferable to the modified sacrifice or not. The reply of the objector is that they are not transferable, because we have direct texts where they apply.

“अथातोऽग्निमग्निहोमेनानुयजति, तमुक्थेन, तमतिरात्रेण तंचतुरात्रेण तं पंचरात्रेण तं षड्रात्रेण तं सप्तरात्रेण तमष्टरात्रेण संनवरात्रेण तं दशरात्रेण”

“यत् प्रष्ट्येऽतिगृहीयात् प्रांचं यद् पृष्टानिसंगृहीयुः यदुक्थेऽतिगृहीयात्” “He offers subsequent oblations in the fire with अग्निहोम, with उक्थ with अतिरात्र with four night sacrifice, with five night sacrifice, with six night sacrifice, with seven night sacrifice, with eight night sacrifice. with nine night sacrifice, with ten night sacrifice.” If he takes up अतिग्राह्य in a पृष्ठ, the पृष्ठ will occupy the front sacrifice, if he takes up अतिग्राह्य in a उक्थ.....”

If they had applied to the modified sacrifice there would have been a जोड़क text. The result according to the objector, is that they do not apply to the modified sacrifice under the principle of अतिदेश.

मासिं गृह्णञ्च तद्वत् ॥ १० । ८ । २४ ॥

मासि in every month ; ग्रहण practice ; च and ; वस्तु like it.

24. And the practice every month is like it.

The objector gives another reason in support of his view. He says that there is a text "मासिमासि अतिप्राज्ञाग्रहणे" "He takes up अतिप्राज्ञ every month."

If the वेदिक text had applied, there would have been no direct text as to the use of the अतिप्राज्ञ cup monthly.

ग्रहणं वा तुल्यत्वात् ॥ १० । ८ । २५ ॥

ग्रहण borrowing , वा on the other hand ; तुल्यत्वात् by reason of the equality.

25. On the other hand, borrowing by reason of the equality.

The author says that as you will borrow other details under a वेदिक text, what harm is there if they are also taken under the अतिप्राज्ञ and उपवेद as well. They are both equally good.

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ १० । ८ । २६ ॥

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च by seeing the force of the text , च and.

26. And by seeing the force of the text.

The author relies on the force of the texts "कंकचितं चिन्वीत शीरे चितं चिन्वीत यः कामयेत सुशीर्षा अस्मिन्लोके सम्मवेष्ट" पञ्चैतानतिप्राज्ञान् युज्यति" "Let him pile fire in the form of a heron, let him pile fire in the form of a head if he desires that he may become of good head." He takes five अतिप्राज्ञ cups consecrated to इन्द्र

ग्रहणं समानविधानं स्यात् ॥ १० । ८ । २७ ॥

ग्रहण borrowing , समानविधानं of an equal विधि , स्यात् is.

27. And the borrowing is of an equal विधि.

The author says that those acts are of समानविधि for which there is a direct text prescribed in the model sacrifice and similar text in the modified sacrifice. So the establishment of fire and using of the अतिप्राज्ञ cup are of the same class of विधि (समानविधि).

मासिग्रहणमभ्यासप्रतिषेधार्थम् ॥ १० । ८ । २८ ॥

मासिमद्वयम् borrowing in a month ; अग्न्यासमविषेधार्थम् with the object of prohibiting the repetition.

28. And borrowing in a month is with the object of prohibiting the repetition.

The author replies to the objection raised in सूत्र 24. He says that they are to be practised every month but not every day.

Adhikaraṇa xii. sūtras 29-32 dealing with the subject that पुरोडाश is to be divided into 4 parts along with उपस्तरस्य and अभिचारस्य.

उत्पत्तितादर्थ्याच्चतुरवत्तं प्रधानस्य होमसंयोगादधिक-
माज्यमतुल्यत्वाल्लोकवदुत्पत्तेर्गुणभूतत्वात् ॥ १० । ८ । २६ ॥

उत्पत्तितादर्थ्यात् the original being for it ; चतुरवत्तं quartering ; प्रधानस्य of the principal ; होमसंयोगात्, by reason of being connected with the sacrifice ; अधिकम् excess ; माज्यं ghee ; अतुल्यत्वात् by reason of the inequality ; लोकाद्वत् as in ordinary life ; उत्पत्तेः of the origin ; गुणभूतत्वात् by reason of being subordinate.

29. The origin being for it, the quartering is of the principal because it is connected with the sacrifice. The ghee is in excess by reason of the inequality just as in ordinary life, their origin being subordinate.

In connection with दर्शपूर्णमास, it is said "चतुरवत्तं जुहोति" 'He offers four parts'.

Now the question is, whether the quartering or dividing into 4 parts is of the principal substance or of उपस्तरस्य and अभिचारस्य also. The reply of the objector is that this चतुरवत्तं relates to the पुरोडाश only, not to the ghee that is sprinkled over it. The reason is that the principal substance is पुरोडाश and it is for the sacrifice ; ghee is necessarily in excess and the उपस्तरस्य and अभिचारस्य are subordinate in the sacrifice. 'He eats one seer', it means one seer of the bread and dāl but vegetables are certainly in excess ; such is also the case here. The dividing into 4 parts therefore relates to पुरोडाश only.

तत्संस्कारश्चतुश्च ॥ १० । ८ । ३० ॥

उत्संस्कारभूतेः by reason of hearing as to their being purificatory rites; च and.

30. And by reason of hearing as to their being purificatory rites.

The objector supports his view by an argument that उत्संस्कार, and अभिचार are mere purificatory rites "यदुपस्तृणाति अभिचारयति अक्षुषाहुति मेधैर्वा करोति" "When he spreads grass and sprinkles ghee, he makes an offering of nectar"

This shows that the principal substance is to be apportioned.

ताभ्यां वा सह स्विष्टकृतः सकृत्स्वे द्विरभिचारणेन तदा.
प्रिवचनात् ॥ १० । ८ । ३१ ॥

ताभ्यां with them (two); वा on the other hand; सह with; स्विष्टकृतः of स्विष्टकृतः सकृत्स्वे in being once; द्विः twice, अभिचारणेन with sprinkling of ghee; तदाप्रिवचनात् by reason of the text for securing it.

31. On the other hand with them, in one of स्विष्टकृत with sprinkling of ghee twice, by reason of the text for securing it.

The author says that the division of the पुरोडाश cake is along with उत्संस्कार and अभिचार. The reason is that in a स्विष्टकृत, there is also उत्संस्कार and one offering of two cuts of अभिचार (sprinkling of ghee twice). "सकृदुपस्तृणाति सकृदभ्ययति द्विरभिचारयति चतुरवत्तस्यासौ" "He spreads grass once, he makes an offering once, he sprinkles ghee twice in order to make it four parts.

The conclusion is that the चतुरवत्ता applies to उत्संस्कार and अभिचार also.

तुल्यवत्त्वाभिधाय सर्वेषु भक्त्यनुक्रमणात् ॥ १० । ८ । ३२ ॥

तुल्यवत् equal; च and; अभिचार, having mentioned; सर्वेषु in all; चतुरवत्त्वाभिधाय by reason of the enumeration of the portions.

32. Having mentioned the equal division in all by reason of the enumeration of the portions.

The author gives a reason in support of his view. "अस्मादिवा यत्तानिदेव यत्तानि अक्षुषाहुति यदुपस्तृणाति तदुपस्तृणात्यसौ च पूर्वमवदानं तद्यज्यं ये यदुपस्तृणाति"

सहस्रताये चदमिधारयति तद्वत्कारणम्” “There are four offerings given to the gods; when he spreads grass, it is for the अनुवाक्य, the first offering is for the वाक्या; the subsequent one is for the देव्य, when he sprinkles ghee, it is for the वषट्.”

The text shows that the 4 parts consist of अमिधारयण and उपस्तरण (1) उपस्तरण for अनुवाक्य (2) 1st offering for वाक्या (3) the second offering for deities, (4) अमिधारयण for वषट्कार.

Adhikaraṇa xiii. sūtras 33-34 dealing with the subject that there is a necessity of चतुरवरा in उपांशुयाग.

साम्प्रदर्शयवन्निर्णयेत ॥ १० । ८ । ३३ ॥

साम्प्रदर्शयवत् like the 17, न not, निर्णयेत has been ruled.

33. Like the 17, there is the rule.

There is an उपांशुयाग in the दर्शपूर्णमासयाग. In connection with it, there is a text “चतुरवत्तुहोति” “He offers four cuts of an oblation”

The question for determination is, whether in an उपांशुयाग, four portions are to be made or not. The reply of the objector is that the principle laid down in the Adhikaraṇa ix, sūtras 17-19, at p. p. 827, 828, applies i. e. it is by way of a वाक्यशेष. The division into four, does not apply in उपांशुयाग. It applies to herbs and milk being based on the principle applicable to the उपस्तरण and अमिधारयण.

हविषो वा गुणभूतत्वात्तथाभूतविवक्षा स्यात् ॥ १० । ८ । ३४ ॥

हविषः of an offering, वा on the other hand, गुणभूतत्वात् being subordinate; तत्त्वं similarly; तथाभूत in that state, विवक्षा desire for an application; स्यात् is.

34. On the other hand, the offering being subordinate, there is a desire of the application in that state.

The author says that चतुरवरा* is the quality or the characteristic of a कृता, as it will also apply to an उपांशुयाग. You say that the allotments into 4 parts relates to the उपस्तरण and अमिधारयण of an जीवन्ति and तन्वाय. The text relating to उपस्तरण and अमिधारयण is not a supplementary sentence of चतुरवरा; what it means is that a substance which can be apportioned into 4 portions, whether of any other substance is taken in a ladle and is offered four times, by making imaginary division of it. It is one offering, but divided into four parts and thrown into fire successively.

parts should be offered into fire. So the अनुवाद also applies to वशीकृत्य.

Adhikarma xiv. sūtras 35-46 dealing with the subject that the आग्नेय and वैश्वानर of the वशीकृत्यमासयाम are by way of अनुवाद.

पुरोडाशाम्यामित्यधिकृतानां पुरोडाशयोरुपदेशस्तच्छ्रु- तित्वाद्देश्यस्तोमवत् ॥ १०। ८। ३५ ॥

पुरोडाशाम्याम् with the two पुरोडाश cakes, इति participle; अधिकृतानां of those who are entitled under a text, पुरोडाशयोः about the two पुरोडाश cakes; उपदेशः direction; तच्छ्रुतित्वाद् by reason of the text to that effect; वैश्यस्तोमवत् like the वैश्यस्तोम.

35. To those who are entitled under a text with the "two पुरोडाश cakes" it is a direction about the two पुरोडाश cakes by reason of the text to that effect like the वैश्यस्तोम.

In connection with the वशीकृत्यमासयाम, there is a text "पुरोडाशाम्यामेवा सोमयाजिनं याजयेद्यावेतावान्येयश्चैद्राग्नेयः सन्नायेन तु सोम सोमयाजिनं" "Let him make one who has not performed a सोमयाग offer two पुरोडाश cakes consecrated to Agni and Andragna; on the other hand one who has performed soma shall be made to offer with सन्नाय."

The question is, whether the text is a विधि or an अनुवाद. In the former case there are six different views which we shall presently examine. The first view is that it is an अधिकारविधि. It is a शेष of 'सर्वकामो यजेत' "Let one who is desirous of heaven, perform a sacrifice."

A person desirous of heaven should perform the sacrifice with these two पुरोडाश cakes. The reason is that the text so lays it down; just as "वैश्य वैश्यस्तोमेन याजयेत्" "Let him make a vaiśya perform a sacrifice with the वैश्यस्तोम." is an अधिकार विधि, so it is also an अधिकारविधि investing a sacrificer with a certain right to which he is entitled in case he is desirous of heaven and wishes to perform the sacrifice without soma.

न त्वनित्याधिकारोऽस्ति विधौ नित्येनसम्बन्ध- स्तस्माद्वैश्वानरोपत्वम् ॥ १०। ८। ३६ ॥

न not; तु on the other hand; अनित्याधिकारः not a permanent right; विधि is; विधि in an injunction, नित्येन with the permanent; सम्बन्ध connection; तस्मात् therefore; वैश्वानरोपत्वम् supplementary sentence.

36. Not so, it is not a permanent right ; in the injunction there is a permanent connection, therefore it is not a supplementary sentence.

The second objector says that the दूर्गन्मासवाग् are permanent वाग् as said "वायवाग् दूर्गन्मासवाग् यजेत्" "Let him perform the new and full moon sacrifices as long as he lives."

These two Puroḍāśa cakes are permanent being accompanied with the fruit. How can they benefit an असेमवाजी who is not permanent but only वैमिषिक? It can not therefore be a शेष of an अधिकारविधि, but it is a text laying down separate acts apart from दूर्गन्मासवाग्. It, therefore, means that an असेमवाजी desirous of heaven should offer आग्नेय and द्वाभ्य पुरोडाश cakes. So they are different acts.

सति च नैकदेशेन कर्तुः प्रधानभूतत्वात् ॥१७८३७॥

सति on its being so ; च and, न not ; नैकदेशेन with a portion ; कर्तुः of an agent, प्रधानभूतत्वात् by reason of being the principal.

37. And in the case of its being so, it is not so with a portion by reason of the agent being the principal.

The 2nd objector supports his view by an argument. He says, "take it for granted that it is a supplementary text, the connection between the असेमवाजी and पुरोडाश cakes does not arise. In that case the agent is the principal ; without the fruit, there is no principal. The two पुरोडाश cakes being the parts of the दूर्गन्मास there will be no separate fruits thereof." So this argument is also in refutation of the view maintaining it to be a शेष of an अधिकार विधि.

कृत्स्नत्वात् तथा स्तोमे ॥ १० । ८ । ३८ ॥

कृत्स्नत्वात् by reason of the entirety ; तु on the other hand ; तथा similarly स्तोमे in a song.

38. On the other hand, by reason of the entirety in a song.

The second objector shows the inapplicability of the illustration. He says that the वैश्यस्तोम is complete in itself but not a part of any other ; so it is connected with the fruit. The illustration of the वैश्यस्तोम does not hold good here.

कर्तुः स्यादिति चेत् ॥ १० । ८ । ३८ ॥

कर्तुः of the agent ; स्यात् is ; इति चेत् if you say.

39. "It is of the agent" if you say.

The third objector puts forward his own view ; it is a direction for a कर्त्तव्य. It means that a person who is an अतोमवाजी and desirous of heaven should be made to offer these two दुरोदास cakes.

न गुणार्थत्वात्प्राप्ते न चोपदेशार्थः ॥ १० । ८ । ४० ॥

न not so ; गुणार्थत्वाद् by reason of his being for a subordinate act ; प्राप्ते on obtaining ; च and ; न not ; उपदेशार्थः for the purpose of direction.

40. Not so, by reason of his being for the subordinate act : he is not for the purpose of direction.

The second objector meets the 3rd objector with a reply and says that the priests are only subordinate ; the sacrificer is the principal. The direction is not for the priests. The result is that the offering of the two दुरोदास cakes is a distinct act in itself.

कर्मणोस्तु प्रकरणे तन्न्यायत्वाद्गुणानां लिङ्गेन काल-

शास्त्रं स्यात् ॥ १० । ९ । ४१ ॥

कर्मणोः of the two acts ; तु on the other hand ; प्रकरणे in the context ; तन्न्यायत्वाद् by reason of its propriety ; गुणानां of the subordinate acts ; लिङ्गेन with the mark ; कालशास्त्रं ordaining of time ; स्यात् is.

41. On the other hand, of the two acts, in the context by reason of the propriety, with the mark of the subordinate act, it is ordaining of time.

The fourth objector comes forward and puts forth his view. It is not a separate act ; it is only with the object of pointing out the time. It lays down that there are no दुरोदास cakes for the अतोमवाजी. It is proper. It is an injunction laying down time. See chap iv. Pāda iv. Sūtra 6 at p. 242. The result is that at the time of a non-come sacrifice in connection with दूर्वाग्न्यासयाग, two cakes are to be offered. The fruit of this special offering will contribute to the fruit of the entire sacrifice.

यदि तु साक्षात्तं वेत्स्यजिनो न ताभ्यां समन्वयोस्ति
विभक्तकालत्वात् ॥ १० । ८ । ४२ ॥

यदि if, तु on the other hand; साक्षात् milk; वेत्स्यजिनः soma sacrificers; न not, ताभ्यां with them; समन्वयः connection, अस्ति is; विभक्तकालत्वात् by reason of the divided time.

42. On the other hand, if the soma sacrificers offer milk then there is no connection with the two cakes by reason of the divided time.

The second objector refutes the view of the 4th objector by saying that if the soma sacrificer is a साक्षात् (offers milk) then he has no connection with the two cakes. The reason is that the पुरोडाश cakes will be offered first and then the milk offering afterward, you can not therefore divide the time. So it is not an injunction as to that but only a separate act.

अपि वा विहितत्वाद्गुणार्थायां पुनः श्रुतौ सन्देहे श्रु-
तिर्द्विदेवतार्था स्यादधानभिप्रेतस्तथाऽऽग्रे यो दर्शनादेकदेवते॥
१० । ८ । ४३ ॥

अपि also; वा on the other hand; विहितत्वाद् by reason of being ordained;
गुणार्थायां for the object of a subordinate act, पुनः again; श्रुतौ on hearing;
सन्देहे in a doubt; श्रुतिः text; द्विदेवतार्था for the object of two deities;
स्यात् is; यथा as though, अनभिप्रेतः not applicable; तथा yet; आग्नेयः Agneya;
दर्शनात् by seeing; एकदेवते in one deity.

43. On the other hand, by reason of being ordained, on hearing it again for the object of the subordinate act, the text is for the object of two deities; though not applicable, yet Agneya is seen in connection with one deity.

The 5th objector says that it is an अनुवाद (statement of fact) as regards अग्निः. The reason is that it is laid down in both full and new moon sacrifices "यदाग्नेयेष्टाकाशोऽमावस्यायां पौर्णमास्यां चाष्टयुतो भवति" "When a cake baked on eight potshards is offered to अग्नि on a new and a full moonday, it becomes permanent." While on the other hand पूर्वज्ञान is only laid down in connection with a पूर्णमासयाग.

There are texts "आग्नेयं चतुर्धा करोति" "साकंप्रस्थान्ये आग्न्यमाणाग्न्यां प्रचर्य आग्नेयेन पुरोडाशेन" "He divides the offering to Agni into four." "In a साकं प्रस्थान्य having served with the ghee oblations, he (makes an offering) with a cake consecrated to Agni."

विधिं तु बादरायणः ॥ १० । ८ । ४४ ॥

विधिं injunction; तु on the other hand, बादरायणः according to Bādarāyana.

44- On the other hand, it is an injunction according to Bādarāyana.

The sixth view is the view of Bādarāyana. It is a कालविधि of ऐन्द्राग्न. Before सोमयाग there is an offering of सत्वाय "तदु इ संनयेत्" "Then let him offer सत्वाय."

प्रतिषिद्धविज्ञानाद्वा ॥ १० । ८ । ४५ ॥

प्रतिषिद्धविज्ञानाद् by reason of knowing the prohibited, वा on the other hand.

45. By reason of knowing the prohibited.

The 7th and the last view is expressed by the author in this sūtra. He says that it is an अनुवाद of both. It is a statement of facts. The text, therefore, means that all अनुमयाजो offers two पुरोडाश cakes namely आग्नेय and ऐन्द्राग्न, and one who is a सोमयाजो performs the offering with सत्वाय.

तथा चान्यार्थदर्शनम् ॥ १० । ८ । ४६ ॥

तथा similarly, च and ; अन्यार्थदर्शनम् seeing another proof.

46. And similarly there is seen another proof

The author in support of his view relies on the texts "चतुर्दशपौर्णमास्या मासुतयो ह्यन्ते त्रयोदशमावसरायां". "Fourteen offerings are made on the full moon day and thirteen on the new moon day."

There will be an increase of the offerings by reason of the additional act. In the full moon sacrifice there will be 14 offerings which are as follows: 5 प्रयाजः, 2 ghee offerings, 3 principal offerings, 3 स्थिङ्क्य offerings and one अनुयाज; while in the new moon sacrifice there are 13 offerings by reason of there being no उपानुयाग.

Adhikāraṇa xv, sūtras 47-48 dealing with the subject that in an उपानुयाग sacrifice the material is the ghee of उपानुयाग vessel.

उपांशुयाजमन्तरा यजतीति हविलिङ्गाश्रुतित्वाद्यथाका-
मी प्रतीयेत ॥ १० । ८ । ४७ ॥

उपांशुयाजम्, उपांशुयाग ; अन्तरा in the interval ; यजति offers ; इति participle हविलिङ्गाश्रुतित्वात् there being no indication of the offering , यथाकामी according to one's own will ; प्रतीयेत appears

47. In the text "he makes an उपांशुयाग in the interval", by reason of there being no indication of the offering, it appears that one may offer according to his own will.

In the full and new moon sacrifices, it is said "उपांशुयाजमन्तरा यजति" "He makes an उपांशुयाग in the interval"

There is a doubt as to the material to be offered. The reply of the objector is that there is no indication as to the material to be used in the उपांशुयाग, a sacrificer may use any material he likes. He can take any ghee for the offering

ध्रुवाद्वा सर्वसंयोगात् ॥ १० । ८ । ४८ ॥

ध्रुवात् from the ध्रुवा vessel ; वा on the other hand , सर्वसंयोगात् by reason of its connection with all

48. On the other hand, from the ध्रुवा vessel by reason of its connection with all

The author says that you will have to make an offering of the ghee from the ध्रुवा vessel in the उपांशुयाग because it is connected with all sacrifices. "सर्वस्मैवा एदद्यज्ञायगृह्यते यद्भुवाया मान्यम्" "The ghee which is in a ध्रुवा vessel, is taken for all (purposes)"

In all यजति offerings, the ghee is taken from the ध्रुवा vessel.

Adhikaraṇa xvi. sūtras 45-50 dealing with the subject that there is a rule as to the deity in an उपांशुयाज.

तद्वच्च देवतायां स्यात् ॥ १० । ८ । ४९ ॥

तद्वत् similarly , च and ; देवतायां in the deity , स्यात् is.

49. And similarly in the deity.

In this sūtra the question is, what is the rule as to the deity in the उपांशुयाजः ? The objector says, as I said in the preceding अधिकरण there is no rule as to the material in the उपांशुयाज, so also there is no rule as to the deity. "विष्णुरुपांशुयद्ययः." "Viṣṇu should be worshipped silently."

तान्द्रीणां* प्रकरणात् ॥ १० । ८ । ५० ॥

तान्द्रीणां of the slow metre, प्रकरणात् by reason of the context

50. By reason of the context of the slow metre.

The author says that that the deity of the उपांशुयाज is regulated by the context of slowly pronouncing of the verses. The deity of the विष्पत is the deity of the उपांशुयाज, you can not therefore say that there is no rule as to the deity

Adhikarṇa XVII sūtras 51-61 dealing with the subject that of an उपांशुयाज, विष्णु &c, are the deities and the performance is on the full moon day

धर्माद्वा स्यात्प्रजापतिः ॥ १० । ८ । ५१ ॥

धर्माद्वा by reason of the characteristic, वा on the other hand ; स्यात् is ; प्रजापतिः the lord of the universe

51. Prajāpati is the deity by reason of the characteristic.

In the preceding अधिकरण, we have seen that there is a rule as to the deity of the उपांशुयाज. It is laid down there that the deity of उपांशुयाज is governed by the context pertaining to the तान्द्री. Now the question is, whether there is any rule in the तान्द्री or not. The questions for determination in the present अधिकरण are, whether the deity is प्रजापति, is he अग्नि or विष्णु and the उपांशुयाज is to be performed on the new moon day or is it to be performed on the full moon day and विष्णु is the deity ? Or is it to be performed on both occasions and there is an option of deities ? The reply of the 1st objector is that the deity of the उपांशुयाज is प्रजापति because that is the characteristic of the प्रजापतियज्ञ. In a प्रजापत्य sacrifice every thing is done silently.

* In some copies, there is 'तान्द्रीणां' which is better ; it means "of the context."

देवतायास्त्वनिर्वचनं तत्र शब्दस्येह मृदुत्वं तस्मादिहा
धिकारेण ॥ १० । ८ । ५२ ॥

देवतायाः of the deity, तु on the other hand, अनिर्वचनं no mention ; तत्र there, शब्दस्य of the word. इह here, मृदुत्वं mildness, तस्मात् therefore, so; इह here; अधिकारेण with the right

53. On the other hand there being no mention of the deity, and there is the softness of the word, so he is to be determined by the right.

The second objector says that you are mistaken in holding that प्रजापति is the deity, the प्राजापत्य sacrifice is, no doubt, of silent character 'प्रजापति-मनसायजेत्' "Let him sacrifice to प्रजापति silently "

The text shows that whatever is done in a प्राजापत्य sacrifice is done silently, but the converse does not necessarily hold good In the उपोष्याग, however, the words uttered are soft, so the deity of the उपोष्याग is not प्रजापति. Of the gods who are entitled to the offering, Agni is the principal deity ; अग्नि is therefore the deity of उपोष्याग

विष्णुर्वा स्याद्दोत्राम्नानादमावास्याहविश्च स्याद्दोत्रस्य
तत्र दर्शनात् ॥ १० । ८ । ५३ ॥

विष्णुः the deity, वा on the other hand, स्यात् is ; दोत्राम्नानात् by reason of being laid down in connection with a होता, अमावस्याहविः new moon offering ; च and ; स्यात् is, दोत्रस्य pertaining to होता ; तत्र there, दर्शनात् by reason of seeing,

53. On the other hand. Viṣṇu is the deity by reason of his being laid down in connection with hota; and new moon oblation is the offering by reason of seeing hota there.

The third objector says that you are all mistaken ; विष्णु is the deity because there is a text which lays down विष्णु in connection with होता on the model of the new moon sacrifice. "इदंविष्णुर्विचक्रमे प्रतद्विष्णुः स्तुते वीर्येण" "Viṣṇu strode this (universe); he sings praises of his valour."

If विशु is the deity of an उपाशुयाग, then it is all right by performing it on an अमावस्या day.

अपि वा पौर्णमास्यां स्यात्प्रधानशब्दसंयोगाद्गुणत्वा-
न्मन्त्रो यथा प्रधान स्यात् ॥ १० । ८ । ५४ ॥

अपि also ; वा on the other hand , पौर्णमास्यां on the full moon day ; स्यात् is , प्रधानशब्दसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the principal word . गुणत्वात् by reason of being subordinate , मन्त्रः, मन्त्र , यथा just as ; प्रधानं principal , स्यात् is

54. On the other hand, on the full moon day by reason of the connection with the principal word, because the mantra is subordinate just as it may become principal.

The fourth objector says that the उपाशुयाग does not take place on an अमावस्या day, the text lays down to be performed on a full moon day “आज्यस्यै च नो उपाशुपौर्णमास्यां यजन्” “Let us (both) offer ghee oblations silently on a full moon day.”

You can not therefore transfer it to the new moon sacrifice because there is the मन्त्र in the उपाशुयाग , where there is an उपाशुयाग, there it shall be recited : the converse of this is not true. The उपाशुयाग is not for the मन्त्र but the मन्त्र is for the उपाशुयाग.

आनन्तर्यञ्च साक्षाद्यस्य पुरोडाशेन दर्शयत्यमावस्या
विकारे ॥ १० । ८ । ५५ ॥

आनन्तर्यं the interval ; च and , साक्षाद्यस्य of सप्ताय , पुरोडाशेन by पुरोडाश cake , दर्शयति shows ; अमावस्याविकारे in the modification of अमावस्या.

55. And the interval of सप्ताय is shown by पुरोडाश cake in the modification of अमावस्या.

The fourth objector advances an argument in favour of his view. He says that in a साकंप्रस्थाप्य the modified sacrifice of the new moon sacrifice, there is an interval in सप्ताय by means of the पुरोडाश offering, but not by means of the उपाशुयाग. “आज्यभागाभ्यां प्रथम्याग्नेयेन च पुरोडाशेनाग्नीधेः चैव अक्षय सह कुम्भीभिरभिकामजाह”. “Having discharged with the ghee oblations, taking the पुरोडाश cake consecrated to fire in the ladle of an अग्नीष and moving with the pots, he says "

This लिङ्ग argument, says the fourth objector, is in his favour.

अग्नीषोमविधानात्तु पौर्णमास्यामुभयत्र विधीयते ॥

१० । ८ । ५६ ॥

अग्नीषोमविधानात् by reason of laying down अग्नीषोम , तु on the other hand ; पौर्णमास्याम् in the full moon sacrifice . उभयत्र in both , विधीयते it is laid down.

56. On the other hand, by reason of laying down अग्नीषोम in the full moon sacrifice, it is laid down in both.

The objector says that the उपांशुयाज takes place on both the full and new moon sacrifices, "उपांशुयाजमतरा यजति" "यदेतदाज्यस्यैव नौ उपांशु पौर्णमास्यां यजन्". 'He performs उपांशुयाज in the interval Let us (both) offer ghee oblations silently on a full moon day.'

In the full moon sacrifice when the उपांशुयाज is performed, the deities are अग्नीषोम but when it is performed on the अमावस्या day, the deity is विष्णु

प्रतिषिद्ध्यविधानाद्वा विष्णुः समानदेशः स्यात् ॥

१० । ८ । ५७ ॥

प्रतिषिद्ध्य after prohibition , विधानात् by reason of laying down , वा on the other hand , विष्णुः Viṣṇu , समानदेशः of equal time , स्यात् is.

57. On the other hand, by laying down after prohibition, (the deity) Viṣṇu is of equal time.

The fourth view is the view of the author embodied in the present Sūtra He says that an उपांशुयाज is performed in the full moon sacrifice and the deities are Viṣṇu &c. The reason is that the text lays down the उपांशुयाज for the full moon sacrifice after prohibiting it in the new moon sacrifice. Having said in the model sacrifice "आज्यस्यैव नौ उपांशु पौर्णमास्यां यजन्" "Let us (both) offer ghee oblations silently on a full moon day", it is further said, "जामि वा एतच्चस्यक्रियते एदन्वाचौ पुरोडासी उपांशुयाज मत्सु यजति" "He who offers the two subsequent पुरोडाश cakes in the interval of an उपांशुयाग, make a repetition of a sacrifice."

From this, it follows that it is to be performed on the full moon day.

"विष्णुरुपांशुयष्ट्योऽजामित्वाय प्रजापतिरुपांशुयष्ट्योऽजामित्वायग्नीषोमी उपांशुयष्ट्यावजामित्वाय" "Viṣṇu should be worshipped with the silent offerings in order to avoid repetition ; the lord of the universe should be worshipped with the silent offerings in order to avoid repetition ; Agniṣoma should be worshipped with the silent offerings in order to avoid repetition."

So the result is that the उपांशुयाज is to be performed on the full moon day and Viṣṇu &c are the deities for the occasion.

तथा चान्यार्थदर्शनम् ॥ १० । ८ । ५८ ॥

तथा similarly ; च and , अन्यार्थदर्शनं seeing another proof.

58. Similarly there is another proof visible.

The author says that there is another text "चतुर्दश पूर्णमास्यामाहुत योह्यन्ते त्रयोदशाऽमावस्यायां" "On the full moon day, fourteen offerings are made , on the new moon day, thirteen offerings are made"

By reason of the absence of the उपांशुयाग, there are only thirteen offerings on the अमावस्या day. See the commentary on sūtra 46. at p. 839

न चानङ्ग सकृच्छ्रुतावुभयत्र विधीयेतासम्बन्धात् ॥

१० । ८ । ५९ ॥

न चेत ; च and , अङ्ग the principal , सकृत् once , श्रुती in the text ; उभयत्र at both places , विधीयेत is laid down , असम्बन्धात् by reason of the want of connection.

59. Nor again the principal once laid down, appertains to both by reason of want of connection,

The author gives the second reason in support of his view ; that the उपांशुयाग is principal but not a subordinate part. A part being subordinate to a principal can apply to two principals but a principal can not be connected with another principal.

गुणानां च परार्थत्वात्पूवृत्तौ विधिलिङ्गानि दर्शयति ॥

१० । ८ । ६० ॥

गुणानां of the subordinate act, च and, परार्थत्वात् being for the object of another, पूवृत्तौ application, विधिलिङ्गानि the marks of an injunction ; दर्शयति shows.

60. And the subordinate acts being for the object of another, the marks of the injunction are shown in the application.

The author says in support of his view, that a subordinate act is for the purpose of another, there are marks of a विधि in the application to the principal. The principal is not for the object of another. “अप्सुमंता वाज्यभागी यजतीत्येकादश प्रयाजान् यजत्यैकाशानुयाजान्” “He makes offering of ghee shining in water ; he offers eleven प्रयाजस and eleven अनुयाजस.”

From this text also, it appears that उपोशुवाज is not in the new moon sacrifice because it is principal.

विकारे चाश्रुतित्वात् ॥ १० । ८ । ६१ ॥

विकारे in the modification, च and ; अश्रुतित्वात् by reason of being not heard.

61. And in the modification, it is not heard.

The author gives the last reason in support of his view. In a साकप्रस्थाप्य, which is a modification of the new moon sacrifice, the उपोशुवाज is nowhere heard of “आज्यभागाभ्यां प्रचर्याग्ने येन चपुरोडाशेनाग्नीध्रे न्नचौप्रदाय सह कुम्भीभिरभिक्रामन्नाह” “Having discharged with the ghee oblations, taking the पुरोडाश cake consecrated to fire in the ladle of an अग्नीध and moving with the pots, he says.....”

The text shows that after an आग्नेय, there is सन्नाय but not उपोशुवाज This also shows that there is no उपोशुवाज in the new moon sacrifice.

Adhikarapa xviii. sūtras 62-70 dealing with the subject that in one पुरोडाश offering also, there is an उपशुभाग.

द्विपुरोडाशायां स्यादन्तरार्थत्वात् ॥ १० । ८ । ६२ ॥

द्विपुरोडाशायां in the offerings of the two cakes, स्यात् is ; अन्तरार्थत्वात् by reason of being for the interval.

62. There is in the offering of the two cakes by reason of their being for the interval

In connection with the द पूर्णमासयाग, there is a text “उपशुभाजमन्तरा यजति” “He performs an उपशुभाग in the interval”

In the foregoing अधिकरण it is established that in the full moon sacrifice there is an उपशुभाज and there are deities विष्णु &c. After the performance of a सोमयाग, there are two पुरोडाश cakes in the full moon sacrifice and one before it. The question for determination is, whether the उपशुभाज is to be performed in two पुरोडाश cakes only or between two पुरोडाश cakes and one पुरोडाश cake. The reply of the objector is that it is to be performed in the offering of two cakes. The reason is that there will be an interval between the two cakes. ‘उपशुभाज मन्तरा यजति’ (‘He performs an उपशुभाग in the interval’) will be complied with.”

There can be an interval in the offering of two cakes but not in the offering of one cake

अजामिकरणार्थत्वाच्च ॥ १० । ८ । ६३ ॥

अजामिकरणार्थत्वाच्च by reason of not repeating the same, च and

63. And by reason of its being for not doing the same.

The objector gives a reason in support of his view that in order to remove the जामिदोष (defect of similarity) this is done

“जामि वा एतद्यज्ञस्यक्रियते यदन्वंचौ पुरोडाशादुपशुभाजमन्तरा यजति । विष्णु उपशु यद्व्योऽजामित्वाय, प्रजापति उपशु यद्व्योऽजामित्वाय अग्नीषोमादुपशु यद्व्योऽजामित्वाय” “He who offers the two subsequent पुरोडाश cakes in the interval of an उपशुभाग makes the repetition of a sacrifice, Viṣṇu should be worshipped with the silent offerings in order to avoid repetition ; the Lord of the universe should be worshipped with the silent offerings in order to avoid repetition ; Agni-soma should be worshipped with the silent offerings in order to avoid repetition."

जामि means similarity, repetition or imitation ; जामिदोष would arise, if उपशुभाग is performed in the offering of one cake "जामि वा एदचक्षस्य क्रियते यदन्वंचौ पुरोडाशौ पुरोडाशं कृत्वा पुनरनुष्ठीनः पुरोडाश एव" "He makes a repetition of a sacrifice, when he makes one cake of the two subsequent cakes and (offers it) as a subsequent cake."

तदर्थमिति चेन्नतत्प्रधानत्वात् ॥ १० । ८ । ६४ ॥

तदर्थम् it is for it ; इति चेत् if you say , न नोत्, तत्प्रधानत्वात् by reason of its being principal.

64. 'It is for it' if you say ; it is not so by reason of its being principal.

The second objector says that you assert that the उपशुभाग is in the offering of two cakes by reason of its being for the interval This interval is subordinate in the full moon sacrifice which is principal So the उपशुभाग can take place in the offering of one cake which is also in the full moon sacrifice

अशिष्टेन च सम्बन्धात् ॥ १० । ८ । ६५ ॥

अशिष्टेन by that which is not laid down , च and , सम्बन्धात् by reason of the connection.

65. And by reason of the connection with one that is not laid down.

The 2nd objector supports his view by saying that you can not connect the उपशुभाग with the interval which is not laid down. The interval is laid down as subordinate , so उपशुभाग can be performed in the offering of one cake also.

उत्पत्तेस्तु निवेशः स्याद्गुणस्यानुपरोधेनार्थस्य विद्व-
मानत्वाद्विधानादन्तरार्थस्य नैमित्तिकत्वात्तदभावेऽश्रुतौ स्यात्॥

१० । ८ । ६६ ॥

उत्पत्तेः by reason of the origin , तु on the other hand ; निवेशः introduction, स्यात् is. गुणस्य of a quality; अनुपरोधेन with the uninterrupted connection, अर्थस्य of the object, विद्यमानत्वात् by reason of the interval; विधानात् by reason of laying down; अंतरार्थस्य of the object of interval; नैमित्तिकत्वात् by reason of its being causal, तत् that; अभावे in absence, अनुत्तौ on not being heard, स्यात् is.

66. On the other hand, by reason of the origin, it is introduced with the uninterrupted connection with the quality, because there exists the object, by reason of laying down the object of interval and by reason of its being causal. In its absence, it is not heard.

The first objector replies that you are mistaken in understanding the text which is the origin of an उपाश्रुयाग, it is said, "उपाश्रुयागमंतरा यजति" "He performs an उपाश्रुयाग in the interval."

By reason of this text, the quality is connected with the principal by the principle of concomitance or affinity. A principal can not exist without its subordinate part. So the उपाश्रुयाग will be introduced in the interval. If it is not performed in the offering of one cake, it will not be meaningless. The offering of two cakes is for the interval, if there is no interval between the offering of one cake and the other, the term द्विपुरोडाश will not be heard of. So the result is that an उपाश्रुयाग is to be performed in the offerings of two cakes.

उभयोस्तु विधानात् ॥ १० । ८ । ६७ ॥

उभयोः of both, तु on the other hand, विधानात् by reason of laying down.

67. On the other hand, by reason of laying down in both.

The author says that the उपाश्रुयाग is prescribed for both the offerings of one cake and of two cakes "भाउयस्यैव ना उपाश्रु पौर्णमास्यां यजन्" "Let us both sacrifice silently in the full moon sacrifice"

It applies to the पूर्णमासयाग which consists of the offering of one cake before the performance of the सोमयाग and the offering of two cakes after the performance of the सोमयाग.

गुणानाञ्च परार्थत्वादुपवेषवददेति स्यात् ॥ १० । ८ । ६८ ॥

गुणानां of the subordinate parts, च and ; परार्थत्वात् for the purpose of other ; उपवेष्टवत् like उपवेश , यदा when , इति स्यात् is.

68. And the subordinate parts are for the purpose of others, like उपवेश ; when it is, it will happen.

The author gives a reason, the interval is subordinate and is for the purpose of an उपश्रुत्याग It benefits the उपश्रुत्याग but that does not necessarily prevent its performance in the offering of one cake Take for example, the pans are placed by means of an उपवेश , but if an उपवेश is not available, you can do it by means of other instruments The उपवेश is not an indispensable thing. So also in the case of an अनिरात्र, you can perform the उपश्रुत्याग where there is no interval i.e. even in the case of the offering of one cake. An उपवेश is a stick to divide the burning circles It is thus described by कर्क in the commentary on कात्यायनश्रौत सूत्र viz “मूलादुपवेशकरोति” “He prepares उपवेश from the root” It is a सूत्र of कात्यायन chap iv 41.

“प्रथमं तुष्णीशाखा मूलमरुति प्रमाणाधिक प्रमाणं कृत्वा प्रथमं कार्यतस्मादुपवेशं करोति उपवेशं चारुहिमात्रप्रादेशमात्रो वा पराशरोक्तः” “First, after cutting the root of a branch of the size of a cubit or a span, it should be separated, an उपवेश (a pair tongs) is made therefrom , an उपवेश is said by ‘पराशर’ to be of the size of a cubit or a span ”

So उपवेश is prepared from the lower part of the branch of a tree

अनपायश्च कालस्य लक्षणं हि पुरोडाशौ ॥१०८६॥

अनपायः permanence , च and , कालस्यलक्षणं characteristics of time ; हि certainly , पुरोडाशौ two पुरोडाश cakes.

69. And permanence; two पुरोडाश cakes are the characteristics of time.

The author says that the interval is the peculiarity of two cakes. As for example you order a man at the time of sounding of a bell or conch, but if there were no bell or conch, even then the man will come at the proper time. If you say to him “come to me at the time when cows return from the jungle,” the man so ordered will not wait for the return of the cows which may sometime come earlier or sometime later. He will come to you in the evening. So here also ; the interval does not prohibit the performance of an उपश्रुत्याग in the offering of one cake “अमित्रो यद्यप्यस्य क्रियते यदम्बुषौ पुरोडाशौ उपश्रियुयाजमंतरा यजति" "He makes a repetition of a sacrifice, if he offers the subsequent two cakes in the interval of the उपश्रियुयाज".

There are three cakes. The first cake is offered to अग्नि before the performance of the सोमयाग and the two पुरोडाश cakes by the interval of the उपश्रियुयाज after the performance of सोमयाग. This subsequent offering of the two cakes is characterised by time but that leaves the offering of one cake intact.

प्रशंसार्थमजामित्वम् ॥ १० । ८ । ७० ॥

प्रशंसार्थम् for the purpose of praise; अजामित्वम् the absence of similarity.

70. The absence of similarity is for the purpose of praise.

The author attempts to reply to the objection embodied in the sūtra 69. The अजामिकरण (non-repetition) which you mention is only by way of praise; it does not bring any fruit. Two acts should not be similar, otherwise there will be a defect of repetition. Just as उपस्तरण and अमिचारण are called the offering of immortality "अमृतं वा आज्यं मर्त्यं हविर्विदुपास्तृणात्यमिचारणत्वमु-ताहुतिमेवैनां करोति" "Ghee is immortality (nectar) and an offering is mortality, when one covers it with grass and sprinkles ghee, he makes an offering of immortality (nectar)."

It is only to praise उपस्तरण and अमिचारण, so here also it is in order to praise the उपश्रियुयाज.

END OF PĀDA VIII.

END OF CHAP. X.

CHAP. XI.

PĀDA I.

The author has described the principles of वाच and समुच्चय in chapter x. In the latter half (उत्तरपट्टक) which deals with the extent of अतिदेश, these two chapters, viz., the 11th and 12th are also included. The application of the principle laid down in the present chapter is to both उपदेश and अतिदेश. In the eleventh chapter, the author treats of तंत्र and भावाप.

The process by which you benefit many at a time is called तंत्र; an illustration will explain it better. A lamp placed in a multitude of Brāhmaṇas will benefit the whole assembly by shedding its light on all sides. If you pound a large quantity of rice, you can by this process clean the whole quantity at a time.

The process by which a benefit is conferred on each individual by repeating it at every time is called भावाप, as bearing each Brāhmaṇa with sandal paste and feeding them each individually. So if you commence removing husk from each individual rice one by one, it is a slow process of भावाप. All these are the illustrations of an भावाप.

Adhikaraṇa I satras 1-4 dealing with the subject that आग्नेय &c. collectively on the principle of तंत्र, secure heaven.

प्रयोजनाभिसम्बन्धात्पृथक् सतांततः स्यादैककर्म्यमेक-
शब्दाभिसंयोगात् ॥ ११ । १ । १ ॥

प्रयोजनाभिसम्बन्धात् by reason of the connection with the purpose ; पृथक्सतां of separate individuals, ततः thence; स्यात् is ; ऐककर्म्यम् fruit ; एक-शब्दाभिसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with one sentence.

1. By reason of the connection with the purpose, of the separate individual, there is one fruit by reason of the connection with one sentence.

There is a text that “दशपुर्णमासाभ्यां स्वर्गकामोयजेत”. “Let one desirous of heaven perform new and full moon sacrifices.”

All the आग्नेय &c. though separate, conduce to the attainment of heaven jointly, because there is one text which shows that the full and new moon sacrifices with all their primaries conduce to the attainment of heaven. Just as one says the whole village digs a well or a tank ; he thereby means one tank or well dug by all the villagers collectively, but not each villager digging wells separately. So here also all the primaries which are included under the term of the दशोर्णमासयागः conduce to the attainment of heaven but not each primary conduces separately to the attainment of heaven.

शेषवद्वा प्रयोजनं प्रतिकर्म विभज्येत ॥ ११ । १ । २ ॥

शेषवत् like the subordinate acts , वा on the other hand ; प्रयोजनं purpose ; प्रतिकर्म each act , विभज्येत divides.

2. On the other hand, like the subordinate acts, the purpose divides each act.

The objector says that you are mistaken there ; each detail which makes up the whole, contributes its quota of share in securing heaven. You must divide the fruit into each separately. When you say, bathe the assembly of the Brāhmaṇas ; you mean to bathe each Brāhmaṇa individually one after the other. So here also distribute the fruit amongst all the subordinate parts.

अविधानात् नैव स्यात् ॥ ११ । १ । ३ ॥

अविधानात् by reason of not being ordained ; नैव on the other hand ; नैव not ; एवम् thus, so , स्यात् is.

3. On the other hand, it would not be so by reason of not being so ordained.

The author says that in the case of an assembly of the Brāhmaṇas all the individuals constitute the Brāhmaṇa assembly; here you will have to bathe Brāhmaṇas separately. An individual Brāhmaṇa is not apart from the assembly of the Brāhmaṇas , but in the case of the subordinate parts and the whole , the matter is entirely different, all the subordinate acts lead up to one result which is the result of the whole sacrifice. You can not separate it. The result or fruit is one.

शेषस्य हि परार्थत्वाद्विधानात्प्रतिप्रधानभावः स्यात् ॥

११ । १ । ४ ॥

शेषस्य of the subordinate, हि because; परार्थत्वात् being for another; विधानात् by reason of the injunction; प्रतिप्रधानभावः the separation of each principal, स्यात् is.

4. The subordinate being for another, by reason of the injunction, there will be a separation of each principal.

The author says that in the illustration of bathing of the Brāhmaṇa assembly, the bathing is a subordinate act and because its fruit is visible, so it is a purificatory rite of a man. So this will be performed in the case of each individual Brāhmaṇa. The result of this discussion is that if there are several principals and the object is one, the subsidiary act will be performed once for all, because they all collectively secure one object, but if the object of each principal is separate, then the subsidiary act will be repeated in the case of each.

Adhikaraṇa II, sūtras 5-10, dealing with the subject that all the subordinate acts constitute one whole act.

अङ्गानान्तु शब्दभेदात्क्रतुवत्स्यात्फलान्यत्वम् ॥११॥१५॥

अंगानां of the parts; तु on the other hand; शब्दभेदात् by reason of the difference of the word, क्रतुवत् like a sacrifice, स्यात् is, फलान्यत्वम् separate fruit.

5. On the other hand, of the parts by reason of the difference of word like a sacrifice, there is separate fruit.

We have seen in the preceding अधिकरण that several principal acts which are performed in one sacrifice conduce to one fruit of the whole sacrifice. Now the question is, whether the parts which constitute the whole of a principal act conduce to different results or one result. The reply of the objector is that the parts are for different objects, they have therefore different results. The reason is that there are different वेदान्ता texts "समिधो यजति" "तद्वनपातं यजति" "He sacrifices समिध्, he sacrifices तद्वनपातं"

* The word "स्यात्" does not find its place in the Chaukhambha edition.

Their objects being different, the objects of the parts will necessarily be different. The fruit will necessarily be different just as the objects of the different sacrifices are different.

अर्थभेदस्तु तत्राप्येकैकार्थ्यदैककर्म्यम् ॥ ११।१।६ ॥

अर्थभेदः difference of objects ; तु on the other hand ; तत्र there ; अथ इह here ; ऐकार्थ्यत्वं by reason of the unity of the object , ऐककर्म्यम् unity of act.

6. On the other hand, there is a difference of objects ; here by reason of the unity of the object, there is unity of act.

The author says that where there is a variety of objects to be achieved, the case is different but here in the case of the parts constituting the whole, the object and the act are one. This is a great difference.

शब्दभेदान्नेति चेत् ॥ ११।१।७ ॥

शब्दभेदात् by reason of the difference of the text ; न not so ; इति चेत् if you say.

7. "Not so, by reason of the difference of the text" if you say.

The objector says that there is a difference of texts as regards these parts showing that their object is different. So there can not be a unity of action.

कर्मार्थत्वात्प्रयोगे ताच्छब्दं स्यात्तदर्थत्वात् ॥ ११।१।८ ॥

कर्मार्थत्वात् by reason of its being for the act ; प्रयोगे in the application ; तत् that ; शब्दः word ; स्यात् is ; तदर्थत्वात् by reason of its being for the object.

8. By reason of its being for the act, in the application that word is used because it is for its object.

The author says that when the principal is laid down under a text, its constituent parts are also presumed to be laid down along with it under the same text. If there are different texts which may be called अंगविधिः, they do not constitute different acts because they are all for the purpose of the sacrifice and the texts in their connection are for the purpose of the same one end. Take for example the दृशंपूर्णमास, there are many parts about which there are texts such as “समिधोयजति” “He sacrifices समिध्” &c. They all lead up to one result, namely, the attainment of heaven. They, therefore, constitute the इतिकर्तव्यता and come under one designation of दृशंपूर्णमासकर्म.

कर्तृविधेर्नानार्थत्वाद्गुणप्रधानेषु ॥ ११।१।९ ॥

कर्तृविधेः of the injunction relating to the agent ; नानार्थत्वात् by reason of the variety of the object , गुणप्रधानेषु in the subordinate and the principal.

9. In the subordinate and principal, by reason of the variety of the object of the injunction relating to the agent.

The objector says that you are mistaken in saying that the विधि which relates to the principal applies to its subordinate acts also, because the latter contribute to the object of the former. The object of the principal is to obtain the fruit, while that of the parts is for the principal. The injunction is laid down for the object of the principal but no such injunction is laid down as regards the parts. One injunction can not cover both the principal and the subordinate parts.

आरम्भस्य शब्दपूर्वत्वात् ॥ ११।१।१० ॥

आरम्भस्य of the commencement ; शब्दपूर्वत्वात् by reason of being dependent on the text.

10. Because any act commenced depends on the text.

The author says that when the text says “द्वर्गकामोयजेत” “Let one desirous of heaven perform a sacrifice,” the question naturally arises, how one should perform the sacrifice to obtain heaven. The enquiry resolves itself into 3 parts ; how, what and by what i. e. the इतिकर्तव्यता, साध्य and साधन. The इतिकर्तव्यता comes under the same विधि. You can not separate it from the principal act.

Adhikāraṇa III, sūtras 11-19, dealing with the subject that the desire-accomplishing sacrifices like the new and full moon sacrifices should be completed with all their parts,

एकेनापि समान्येत कृतार्थत्वाद्यथा क्रत्वन्तरेषु प्राप्त्येषुचो

त्सावत्स्यात् ॥ ११ । १ । ११ ॥

एकेनापि with one also ; समान्येत can be completed ; कृतार्थत्वात् by reason of having accomplished the object ; यथा just as , क्रत्वन्तरेषु separate sacrifices ; प्राप्त्येषु on obtaining ; च and ; दशरावत् like the additional one , स्यात् is.

11. With one also, it can be completed by reason of having accomplished the object just as in separate sacrifices and on obtaining like the additional (cows).

The next question for determination in the present अधिकरण is whether all the parts of दर्शपूर्णमास sacrifices which are काम्यकर्म should be performed or only few of them. The reply of the objector is that only so many parts should be performed as are necessary for the accomplishment of the object, just as it is the practice in the other sacrifices such as सौर्य, आर्यमण, प्राजापत्य & नैऋत &c, the sacrificer obtains the fruit of as many acts as he is capable of performing. There is another example of a लघ्वय "वाग्यतस्त्रिषो दोहयित्वाविष्टुष्टवागनन्वारभ्यतूष्णीमुत्तरा दोहयति"

"Having controlled his tongue and milked three cows, he breaks silence and having recommenced silence, he milks the others"

Three cows are to be milked by controlling the tongue and the other cows are to be milked silently after opening the mouth. The number of other cows depends upon the stock of the sacrificer.

फलाभावान्नेति चेत् ॥ ११ । १ । १२ ॥

फलाभावात् by reason of the absence of the fruit ; न. not so ; इति चेत्, if you say.

12. "Not so, by reason of the absence of the fruit" if you say.

The second objector says that if you do not perform all the parts of the दर्शपूर्णमास, there will be no reward of the sacrifice.

न कर्मसंयोगात्प्रयोजनमशब्ददोषं स्यात् ॥११॥११॥३॥

न not so ; कर्मसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the act ; प्रयोजनं object , शब्ददोषं fault of the word , स्य त् is

13. Not so, by reason of the connection with the act ; the object is not deprived of the fault of the word,

The first objector says that you are mistaken that the fruit is connected with the principal act. The word 'यजेत्' in the text 'दर्शपूर्णमासाभ्यां स्वर्गकामो यजेत्' ("Let one who is desirous of heaven, perform new and full moon sacrifices") is connected with दर्शपूर्णमास, the principal sacrifices but not with their parts. In this view only the word 'यजेत्' is without any flaw and if you connect it with the parts also, in that case, the text will be strained to the unusual limit.

एकशब्दादिति चेत् ॥ ११ । १ । १४ ॥

एकशब्दात् by reason of being one word , इति चेत् if you say.

14. "By reason of being one word ' if you say.

The second objector says that there is one word which is connected with the principal act consisting of several parts. It is, therefore, one act for which there is one word.

नार्थपृथक्त्वात्समत्वादगुणत्वम् ॥ ११ । १ । १५ ॥

न not so , नार्थपृथक्त्वात् by reason of the difference of the object ; समत्वात् by reason of equality ; अगुणत्वम् the state of being not subsidiary.

15. Not so, by reason of the difference of the object ; by reason of the equality, it will not be subsidiary.

The first objector says that all are not connected with the fruit of the sacrifice. The principal is for the fruit and the parts are for the principal. This is the distinction. If you do not observe this distinction, the principal and the parts will be on the equal footing ; no one will be subordinate, they will be all principals. Śābara has interpreted the sūtras 14-15. differently, but I have preferred this interpretation.

विधेस्त्वेकश्रुतित्वादपव्यायविधानान्नित्यवच्छ्रुतभूता
मिसंयोगादर्थेन युगपत्प्राप्तेर्यथाप्राप्तं स्वशब्दो निवीतव-
त्सर्वप्रयोगे प्रवृत्तिः स्यात् ॥ ११ । १ । १६ ॥

विधेः of the injunction ; तु on the other hand ; एकश्रुतित्वाद् by reason of being based on one text ; अपव्यायविधानात् by reason of not prescribing them alternately , नित्यवत् permanently ; श्रुतिभूतमितं भोगात् being connected with the text, अर्थेन with the object, युगपत् simultaneously ; प्राप्ते on being secured ; यथाप्राप्तं just as obtained ; स्वशब्दः own text ; निवीतवत् like निवीत ; सर्वप्रयोगे application in all , प्रवृत्तिः application ; स्यात् is.

16. On the other hand, by reason of the injunction based on one text and by not prescribing them alternately and being connected, as they are permanently heard, with the इतिकर्तव्यता and by reason of securing the object simultaneously, just as obtained, the own text like निवीत applies in all proceedings.

The author after discussing the pros and cons from the point of view of the objector expresses his own view. He says that all the parts are included in the principal and the principal, with all its parts, completes the sacrifice. The reasons are as follow : (1) that there is one text "स्वर्गकामो दशपूर्णमासाह्वी यजेत" "Let one desirous of heaven perform the, new and full moon sacrifices" It means दशपूर्णमास with all their details but not in their incomplete form; (2) these parts are not to be performed alternately, i. e., at one time one detail, then at another time another detail ; (3) they are to be performed in the same form in which we hear them in the दशपूर्णमास i.e. in their entire and complete form with the parts depending upon the principal ; (4) because there is an object to be achieved, so all these details on being performed benefit the principal act. You can not make distinction amongst them. He gives an illustration of the निवीत. "निवीताः प्रवृत्तिः" "The priests wearing the sacred thread on the right shoulder move about." Here no distinction is made amongst the priests, so they will all wear it. So the text will apply here to all the details without any distinction or omission.

तथा कर्मोपदेशत्वात् ॥ ११ । १ । १७ ॥

tथा similarly , कर्मोपदेशत्वात् by the direction for action.

17. And similarly by the direction for the action.

The author gives another reason in support of his view that the दशपूर्णमास mean the principal with all its details "चतुर्विंशपूर्णमास्यामाहुतयो ह्ययंते त्रयोदशमावस्यायां" "On the full moon day, fourteen offerings are made and thirteen on the new moon day."

2 ghee offerings, 5 प्रयाजस, 3 principal offerings, 1 स्विष्टकृत् and 3 अग्न्याज are 14 offerings on a पूर्णमासी. By reason of one offering of two in the ऐन्द्रयामा there are 13 offerings on an अमावस्या. From this we see that all the parts make up the principal.

क्रत्वन्तरेषु पुनर्वचनम् ॥ ११ । १ । १८ ॥

क्रत्वन्तरेषु in the other sacrifice , पुनर्वचनम् another text.

18. In the other sacrifice, there is another text.

The author replies to the objection raised in sūtra 11 wherein, the example of सौर्ययाग &c is given. He says that the sacrifices are different and the texts are different, "सौर्यं चरुं निर्वपेत्तृप्रज्ञवर्चसकामः" "One who is desirous of the Brāhmaṇic splendour, offers boiled rice to the sun."

• Then again it is said, "ऐन्द्राग्नमेकादश कपालनिर्वपेत् प्रजाकामः" "One who is desirous of progeny offers cakes baked on eleven potsherds to इन्द्र & अग्नि."

Thus we see that they are different and not connected with each other. The illustration, therefore, does not hold good here

उत्तरास्वश्रुतित्वाद्विशेषाणां कृतार्थत्वात्संदाहे यथाकामि प्रतीयेत ॥ ११ । १ । १९ ॥

उत्तराश्रु in the other cows , अश्रुतित्वात् by reason of there being not

* In some editions, it is 'स्व' in place of 'स'.

laid down ; विशेषाणां of the special ; कृतार्थत्वात् by reason of being utilised ; संदेहे in milking ; यथाकामी according to one's desire ; प्रतीयेत it appears.

19. In other cows by reason of those being not laid down and by reason of the special being utilised in milking, it appears that he can do according to his desire.

The author replies to the illustration embodied in sūtra 11. He says that there is no injunction as to the milking of the उत्तरा ; it is only the 3 cows which are to be milked under the restraint of tongue imposed, after it the mouth is opened. The milking of these cows is to be commenced in which the sacrificer has a right to use the milk for himself. There he is not restricted to any number ; it depends upon his sweet will. This illustration also, therefore, does not hold good.

Adhikaraṇa iv. sūtras 20-24 dealing with the subject that the desire-accomplishing acts should be performed repeatedly for the excessive reward.

कर्मण्यारम्भभाव्यत्वात्कृषिवत्प्रत्यारम्भं फलानि स्युः ॥

११ । १ । २० ॥

कर्मणि in an act ; आरम्भभाव्यत्वात् by reason of its commencement कृषिवत् like agriculture ; प्रत्यारम्भ every repetition ; फलानि fruit ; स्युः are.

20. In an act by reason of its commencement, like agriculture every repetition bears fruit.

The question is whether a desire-accomplishing act should be performed once or repeated to procure excessive reward. The reply of the author is that it should be repeated to secure repeated fruits like every cultivation bearing fruit.

अधिकारश्च सर्वेषां कार्य्यत्वादुपपद्यते विशेषः ॥

११ । १ । २१ ॥

अधिकारः right, title ; च and ; सर्वेषां of all ; कार्य्यत्वात् by reason of being an act ; उपपद्यते is obtained ; विशेषः special.

21. All are entitled ; by reason of being an act, the special is obtained.

The author gives a reason in support of his view. All the sacrifices when repeated are entitled to be called with a special designation, as once, twice, thrice, &c. This kind of special phraseology arises only in the case when the acts are entitled to be repeated.

सकृत् स्यात्कृतार्थत्वादङ्गवत् ॥ ११ । १ । २२ ॥

सकृत् once, तु on the other hand ; स्यात् is, कृतार्थत्वात् by reason of the accomplishment, अङ्गवत् like the parts.

22. On the other hand, once by reason of the accomplishment like the parts.

The objector says that the desire-accomplishing acts should be performed only once ; the reason is that when the object is accomplished why should they be repeated ? The parts are not repeated ; they accomplish the object of the principal. So the principal should not be repeated.

शब्दार्थश्च तथा लोके ॥ ११ । १ । २३ ॥

शब्दार्थः the meaning of the word ; च and ; तथा similar ; लोके in the ordinary life.

23. And the meaning of the word is also similar in the ordinary life.

The objector says that in ordinary life we say "bring a load of wood" we mean once but not repeatedly.

अपि वा संप्रयोगे यथाकामी प्रतीयेताश्रुतित्वाद्विधिषु
वचनानि स्युः ॥ ११ । १ । २४ ॥

अपि also ; वा on the other hand, संप्रयोगे in the application ; यथाकामी one to act according to his wishes, प्रतीयेत appears ; श्रुतित्वात् by reason of the absence of text ; विधिषु in injunctions ; वचनानि texts ; स्युः are

24. On the other hand, in the application it appears that one is to act according to his wishes ; there is no direction as to the performance once : in connection with the injunction there are texts both ways.

The author sums up both views and says that it depends upon the will of the sacrificer, he may perform it once or repeat it. There is no text which limits the performance to one time only. There are texts both ways.

एकशब्दात्तथाङ्गेषु ॥ ११ । १ । २५ ॥

एकशब्दात् by reason of one text, तथा similarly; अंगेषु in parts.

25. And similarly in the parts, by reason of one text.

The author replies to the objection of the objector embodied in sūtra 22 that you have given an illustration of the parts, but that illustration does not hold good for this reason that there is one text which applies both to the principal and its parts. So for the purpose of the principal they are performed once only. But here the repetition is of the principal for the excessive fruit.

लोके कर्मार्थलक्षणम् ॥ ११ । १ । २६ ॥

लोके in the ordinary life, कर्मार्थलक्षणम् the act is characterised with the object.

26. In the ordinary life, the act is characterised with the object.

The author replies to the objection raised in sūtra 23. He says that in the ordinary life also when you say bring fuel, it will be brought once or twice according to the need. So this illustration does not hold good.

Adhikaraṇa v. sūtras 27-28 dealing with the subject that the parts are not to be repeated.

क्रियाणामर्थशेषत्वात्प्रत्यक्षतस्तन्निवृत्त्याऽपवर्गः स्यात् ॥

११ । १ । २७ ॥

क्रियाणां of the action; अर्थशेषत्वात् being fully completed with its object; प्रत्यक्षतः visibly, तन्निवृत्त्या with its completion; अपवर्गः end; स्यात् is.

27. Of the action being fully completed with its object, visibly its end is the accomplishment.

The rice is pounded and then it is ground; as soon as the husk is removed.

ved and flour is prepared, the act, says the author, is complete in itself by accomplishing its desired object.

धर्ममात्रे त्वदर्शनाच्छब्दार्थेनापवर्गः स्यात् ॥११॥१२॥

धर्ममात्रे in the case of धर्म ; तु on the other hand ; त्वदर्शनात् by reason of the invisible effect ; शब्दार्थेन with the object of the word ; अपवर्गः accomplishment ; स्यात् is

28. On the other hand, in the case of धर्म by reason of the invisible effect, the accomplishment is by compliance with the object of the word.

The author proceeds and says that in the case of धर्म, where invisible effect is produced by the act, the object is accomplished by mere compliance with the word. In the case of pounding of rice, you will have to repeat the strokes of the pestle till the husk is removed from the rice but in religious acts, “अग्निचित्यामौदुम्बरमुलूखलं सर्वौषधस्य पूरयित्वा वह्न्यत्र तदुपदधाति” (“In an अग्निचयन, having filled a mortar made of Udambar wood, with all kinds of herbs, he pounds them and here he places them”) the object is not to remove the husk from the rice, mere compliance with the text is sufficient. The process of (तदहनन) pounding will not, therefore, be repeated.

Adhikarṇa vi. sūtras 29-37 dealing with the subject that the प्रयाज &c. parts should be performed once.

क्रतुवच्चानुमानेनाभ्यासे फलभूमा स्यात् ॥११॥१२॥

क्रतुवत् like the sacrifice ; च and ; अनुमाने by the inference ; अभ्यासे in repetition ; फलभूमा excessive fruit ; स्यात् is.

29. Like the sacrifice, by the inference there is excessive fruit in the repetition.

The question is whether such parts as प्रयाज &c. should be repeated or should be performed once. The reply of the objector is that they should be repeated. It is inferred that if you repeat them, you will get excessive fruit just as in the case of the sacrifice. See Adhikarṇa iv sūtras 20-26. (at p. p. 361-363.). The principle laid there, applies here also.

सकृदा कारयेकत्वात् ॥ ११ । १ । ३० ॥

सकृद् once; वा on the other hand; कारयेकत्वात् by reason of the unity of the cause.

30. On the other hand, once by reason of the unity of the cause.

The author says that the parts should be performed only once because there is only one reason namely the parts benefit the principal. If once the parts are performed, they achieve the object of the principal, if they do not achieve it in one performance, what hope is there that they would do so on repetition?

परिमाणं अनियमेन स्यात् ॥ ११ । १ । ३१ ॥

परिमाणं the limit; अ अनियमेन without any restrictive rule; स्यात् is.

31. And the limit will be without any restrictive rule.

The author gives another reason in support of his view; he says that there is a limit of 14 offerings in the पुनमा and 13 in the अमावस्या sacrifice. See the commentary on sūtra 17 (at p. 800). If your view is correct, then there will be no such restriction, there will be any number as 15 17 &c.

फलस्यासम्भन्निर्वृत्तेः क्रतुषु स्यात्फलान्यत्वम् ॥ ११ । १ । ३२ ॥

फलस्य of the fruit; सम्भन्निर्वृत्तेः by reason of the achievement; क्रतुषु in the sacrifices; स्यात् is; फलान्यत्वम् difference of fruit.

32. By reason of the achievement of the fruit; in the sacrifices there is a difference of fruit.

The author replies to the objection of the objector embodied in sūtra 29. He says that you have given the illustration of the desire-accomplishing sacrifices; but there the fruits are different; here the object is not wordly, but it is to obtain heaven & it is however achieved by accomplishment of the act. So your illustration does not apply in the present case.

अर्थवांस्तु नैकत्वादभ्यासः स्यादनर्थको यथा भोजन
नैकस्मिन्नर्थस्यापरिमाणत्वात्प्रधाने च क्रियार्थत्वादभियमः
स्यात् ॥ ११ । १ । ३३ ॥

अर्थवान् of the fruitful, तु on the other hand, न not; ऐकत्वाद् by reason of being one act, अभ्यासः repetition, स्यात् is, अनर्थकः useless; यथा just as, like, भोजनम् food; एकस्मिन् one; अर्थस्थ of the object; अपरिमाणत्वाद् by reason of unlimited nature; प्रधाने in the principal; च and; क्रियार्थत्वाद् by reason of the object of the action; नियमः restrictive rule; स्यात् is.

33 The repetition is fruitful by reason of the variety of the action; in one (act) it is useless like the food by reason of the unlimited nature of the principal fruit; and by reason of the object of the action there is no restrictive rule.

The sūtra is divided into 3 parts. The objector in the first part says that there is a variety of acts, so in order to achieve the objects, the acts will have to be repeated; in the second part he says that where the act is one, there is no need of repetition as in the case of food. You take food, you feel satisfied you, but do not repeat it then and there. The third part says that the fruit of the principal act is unlimited and a restriction is put to it by the parts. If your subordinate acts are large in number, the fruit would be in abundance. So the fruit of the principal is in proportion to the repetition of the subordinate parts.

पृथक्त्वाद्विधितः परिमाणं स्वात् ॥ ११ । १ । ३४ ॥

पृथक्त्वाद् by reason of the separation; विधितः under an injunction; परिमाणं limit; स्यात् is.

34. By reason of the separation, there is a limit under an injunction.

The objector replies to the argument of the author embodied in sūtra 31. He says that the objects of the offerings are different, so with reference to the objects, there is a limit under the text quoted by you.

अभ्यासो वा प्रयोगवचनैकत्वात्सर्वस्ययुगपच्छास्वा
दफलत्वाच्च कर्मणः स्यात्क्रियार्थत्वात् ॥ ११ । १ । ३५ ॥

अभ्यासः no repetition ; वा on the other hand ; प्रयोगवचनैकत्वात् by reason of the unity of the text for application ; सर्वस्य of all युगपत् simultaneously ; शास्वात् by reason of being laid down ; अफलत्वात् by reason of being fruitless ; कर्मणः of acts, स्यात् is, क्रियार्थत्वात् by reason of being for the principal act.

35. On the other hand, there is no repetition by reason of the unity of the text for application ; all are simultaneously laid down and by reason of the subordinate acts being fruitless, because they are for the principal act.

The sūtra is divided into 4 parts. In the first the author says that the parts are not to be repeated, because there is one text under which the principal with all its parts apply. In the second part he says that the subordinate parts all apply at one and the same time. In the third part he says that they do not lead to any fruit being subordinate to the principal. In the fourth part, he says that if they are fruitless, as said, the result would be that they are useless : in order to avoid this, he says, they are for the object of the principal.

अभ्यासो वा छेदनसम्मार्गावदानेषु वचनात्सकृदवस्य ॥
११ । १ । ३६ ॥

अभ्यासः repetition ; वा on the other hand ; छेदनसम्मार्गावदानेषु in cutting, washing and offering ; वचनात् under the text ; सकृदवस्य of the word 'once'.

36. On the other hand, there is a repetition by reason of the word 'once' in cutting, washing and offering.

The objector says that the subordinate acts should be repeated. In connection with the offerings to the departed souls it is laid down "सकृद-च्छेद-वर्द्धिर्भवति" "The grass is cut once."

In connection with the अनुयाज, it is laid down "सकृत् परिधीन् समारि" "The whisker boundary sticks once."

In connection with विष्टकृत there is a text, “असकृदाच्छिन्नं बहिर्भिर्भवति” “He cuts once from the second half.”

The objector argues that if the parts are to be performed once, then there was no necessity of using the word ‘once’ in the text. The result is that the subordinate acts except in the above said cases, are to be repeated.

अनभ्यासरतु वाच्यत्वात् ॥ ११ । १ । ३७ ॥

अनभ्यासः no repetition, तु on the other hand; वाच्यत्वात् by reason of being laid down.

37. On the other hand, there is no repetition by reason of being laid down.

The author says in reply that in दर्शपूर्णमास it is said that “असकृदाच्छिन्नं बहिर्भिर्भवति”, “The grass is not cut once”

The पितृयाग is their modified form. Under the principle of अतिदेश the असकृदाच्छिन्नं बहिर्भिर्भवति will be transferred, in order to restrict it, it is said that the grass cut should be of one time only. So in the same way in प्रयाज the washing is said to be performed three times, but for the text, the washing would have been performed three times in अनुयाज under the principle of अतिदेश. So the text “द्विहविषोवयति” “He makes two offerings” would have applied to the स्विष्टकृत offering had there been no text quoted in सूत्र 36. So the word ‘once’ is intentionally used for a purpose and, therefore, does not lend support to the view that the subordinate parts should be repeated.

Adhikaraṇa VII, sūtras 38-45, named kapinjala.

बहुवचनेन सर्वप्राप्तेर्विकल्पः स्यात् ॥ ११ । १ । ३८ ॥

बहुवचनेन with the plural number, सर्वप्राप्तेः taking of all; विकल्पः optional, स्यात् 12.

38. With the plural number, taking of all is optional.

There is a text “वसन्ताय कर्पिकानाकमेत” “Let him bring partridge for a sacrifice.”

The word कर्पिक is used in the plural; a कर्पिक is a species of birds. The question is whether a limited number such as 3, 4, 5, &c. should be taken optionally or 8 may be taken in order to comply with the text. The reply of the first objector is that as you can not fix any number, you can take any number from 3 to quadrillion (पराद) optionally.

दृष्टः प्रयोग इति चेत् ॥ ११ । १ । ३९ ॥

दृष्टः is seen ; प्रयोग an application , इति चेत् if you say.

39. "The application is seen" if you say.

The second objector objects to the view of the first objector and says that in four also, the plural number is used and the word 'कपिजल' is used for a peacock also.

तथेह ॥ -

तथा similarly , एव here.

Similarly here.

He further supports his view and says that some time a man is called a lion, so also a 'कपिजल' may be used in the sense of a peacock and may be, therefore, brought to the sacrifice optionally.

This सूत्र does not find its place in the Chaukhambha Sanscrit series.

भक्त्येति चेत् ॥ ११ । १ । ४० ॥

भक्त्या by figure of speech; इति चेत् if you say.

40. "By figure of speech" if you say.

The first objector says that it is in a secondary sense.

तथेतरस्मिन् ॥ ११ । १ । ४१ ॥

तथा similarly ; इतरस्मिन् in the other.

41. Similarly in the other.

He continues to say that the same applies to other numerals ; 4 contains more units than 3 and so on ; so they are correlative. All numerals from 3 to quadrillion (पराद) come under all or many.

प्रथमं वा नियम्येत कारणादतिक्रमः स्यात् ॥ ११ । १ । ४२ ॥

प्रथमं the first ; वा on the other hand ; नियम्येत is restricted ; कारणात् for a reason ; अतिक्रमः violation ; स्यात् is.

42. On the other hand, the first is restricted ; for a reason it is violated.

The author after discussing the pros and cons of the different views on the subject gives his own view , he says that 3 is fixed as it happens to be the first in the plural number , but this rule may not be observed, if there be a special cause -“एकादेया, षड्देया द्वादशदेया चतुर्विंशतिदेया” ‘One should be given , six should be given ; twelve should be given ; twenty should be given.’”

अन्यथाविशेषात् ॥ ११ । १ । ४३ ॥

अन्यथाविशेषात् by reason of three being nothing special in the purpose of the text.

43. By reason of there being nothing special in the purpose of the text.

The author gives another reason in support of his view, He says that there is a text ‘युगलमेत’ , it does not describe the nature of the animal ; whether it should be costly or big , nor is it said that it will confer greater reward ; but if you pass over a muscular animal and take a lean instead, you transgress the rule You can therefore take a fat animal fit for a sacrifice in order to comply with the text. So here also.

तथा चान्यार्थदर्शनम् ॥ ११ । १ । ४४ ॥

तथा similarly , च and , चान्यार्थ दर्शनम् seeing of another object.

44. And similarly there is another object seen.

There are texts which, says the author, lead to the same conclusion.

“कुष्मा याम्या अवलितारौद्रानमोरूपाः पार्श्वान्वाः, तेवर्मात्राज्जोद्गमः” “The black are consecrated to यम, the arrogant to रुद्र and the sky-coloured to the god of rains ; of them, the tenth is consecrated to वैश्रवण.”

The first three deities have three animals each in this view of the author and the tenth therefore, belongs to the dual deities वैश्रवण.

प्रकृत्या च पूर्ववत्तदासत्तेः ॥ ११ । १ । ४५ ॥

प्रकृत्या with the model sacrifice , च and ; पूर्ववत् like the preceding ; तदासत्तेः by reason of its proximity.

45. And with the model sacrifice like the preceding by reason of its proximity.

The author says that there is another सिद्धि which shows that plural includes the lowest number three. अग्नीषोमीय is borrowed from the model sacrifices. It also depends upon the numeral three according to the principle laid down in the preceding sūtra. In a द्वासेयीय there is another proof; "ओदनामुद्रति" "He uplifts rice." The first triad is heard without any quality as "मध्यमस्य"; of the middle at other places, you have "पंचमो मध्यमः" "अष्टमो मध्यमः" "the middle of the fifth." "the middle of the eighth."

Adhikaraṇa viii sūtras 46-51 dealing with the subject that the milking of the उत्तरा cow is by way of अनुवाद.

उत्तरासु यावत्स्वमपूर्वत्वात् ॥ ११ । १ । ४६ ॥

उत्तरासु in उत्तरा cows ; यावत्, as many as ; स्व, own property ; पूर्वत्वात् by reason of the extraordinary principle.

46. In उत्तरा cows, as many as one owns, by reason of the extraordinary principle.

In connection with सहाय, there is the milking of the cows. It is said, "वाग्यत स्ति ओदोहयित्वा विशुद्धवागनन्वाल्भ्योत्तरा द्वादयति" "Having controlled his tongue and milked three cows, breaks silence and having recommenced silence, he milks the others."

The question for determination is as to whether the milking of उत्तरा cows is a द्विविध or अनुवाद. (This text is discussed in the sūtras 11-19. at pp 857-861 See the commentary on them). The objector says that it is a द्विविध, because it lays down an extraordinary principle.

यावत्स्वं वाऽन्यविधानेनानुवादः स्यात् ॥११।१।४७॥

यावत्, as many as ; स्व, own property, वा on the other hand ; अन्यविधानेन by reason of laying down another ; अनुवादः restatement, स्यात् is.

47. On the other hand, "as many as one owns" is an अनुवाद by reason of laying down another.

The author says that the later portion of the text is an अनुवाद but the first part of it is a द्विविध. If there are two द्विविध in a text, it will be a split of a sentence.

साकल्यविधानात् ॥ ११ । १ । ४८ ॥

साकल्यविधानात् by reason of laying down the entirety.

48. By reason of laying down the entirety.

The author says in support of his view that the entire number of वसरा cows has been prescribed for milking “नास्यैतां रात्रिं पयसाग्निहोत्रं जुहुयात् कुमारश्च न पयोत्तमेन” ‘No Agnihotra should be performed that night with the milk nor shall his tender boys get milk.’

अहूर्यत्वाच्च ॥ ११ । १ । ४९ ॥

अहूर्यत्वात् by reason of the sense of all, च and.

49. And by reason of the sense of ‘all’.

The author supports his view by another reason. “बहुवृक्षान्नायदेवे- भोहविः” “The offering to Indra consists of milk from many cows.”

The text also shows that all the cows are to be milked for the god’s offering.

अग्निहोत्रे चाशेषवदवागूनियमः प्रतिषेधः कुमारानाम् ॥

११ । १ । ५० ॥

अग्निहोत्रे in an agnihotra; च and; अशेषवत् entire; ववागूनियमः rule about gruel, प्रतिषेधः prohibition; कुमारानाम् of youngsters.

50. And in an Agnihotra the rule about the entire gruel and the prohibition with respect to the youngsters.

The author gives two illustrations in support of his view. One relates to ववागु. It is a liquid substance made from any grain chiefly rice by boiling it. (See the note at p. 822). “नास्यैतां रात्रिं पयसाग्निहोत्रं जुहुयात् अन्यस्यै देवतायै प्रसमन्यस्यै देवतायै दद्यात् तादृक्तस्याद्वयवान्ना जुहुयात्” “Let him not perform an agnihotra that night; let him offer that which is to be offered to another deity, let it be that; let him offer gruel.”

The milk taken from the वसरा cows is not to be offered to any deity; in its place you can take gruel. The second case is that of the youngsters; the milk which is so reserved after milking the वसरा cows is not to be given to the youngsters. This also shows that all the वसरा cows are to be milked.

सर्वप्रायिणापि लिङ्गेन संयुज्यते देवतामिसंयोगात् ॥

॥ ११ । १ । ५१ ॥

सर्वप्रापिणा showing all; अपि also; लिगेन with the mark; संयुज्यते fits in; देवताभिलेखात् by reason of the connection with the deity.

51. It fits in with the mark showing all, by reason of the connection with the deity.

The author gives another किङ्ग argument in favour of his view. He says that there is a text from which it appears that all the उत्तरा cows which one owns should be milked for an offering to the deity. "वृत्तेभ्यश्च हवा पत्न मनुष्येभ्यश्च पुराप्यापयन्ते अथैतद्दिदेवेभ्य एवैता आप्यापयन्ति" (T. B., III. 7 4.17. &c) "They nourish the calves certainly and men formerly, therefore they nourish the gods."

Abhidhāna ix sūtra 52-56 dealing with the subject that the आचार &c, which are the parts of the subordinate parts should be performed once for all.

प्रधानकर्मार्यत्वादङ्गानां तदुभेदात्कर्मभेदः प्रयोगे स्यात्॥

॥ ११ । १ । ५२ ॥

प्रधानकर्मार्यत्वात् being for the object of the principal act; अङ्गानां of the subordinate acts; तदुभेदात् by reason of its difference, कर्मभेदः difference of act; प्रयोगे in application, स्यात् 18.

52. Of the subordinate acts being for the object of the principal act, by reason of its difference, there will be a difference of acts in the application.

In the दर्शगुणसाधन the आनेत्र &c are the primary acts; their subsidiary are आचार &c. The question for determination is whether the subsidiary acts should be performed for each primary act separately or they should be performed once for all. The reply of the objector is that they should be performed separately for each primary act.

क्रमकोपश्च योगपदात् स्यात्* ॥ ११ । १ । ५३ ॥

क्रमकोपः breach of order; च and; योगपदात् by reason of simultaneousness; स्यात् is.

53. And there will be a breach of order if performed simultaneously.

The objector supports his view by criticising the other view. If you

* In other editions, there is 'योगपद' instead of 'योगपदात्'.

say that all the subsidiary acts should be performed simultaneously then there will be no order.

तुल्यानां तु यौगपद्यमेकशब्दोपदेशात्स्याद्विशेषाद्य-
हणात् ॥ ११ । १ । ५४ ॥

तुल्यानां of the equals ; तु on the other hand ; यौगपद्यन् simultaneousness एकशब्दोपदेशात् by reason of laying down one direction ; स्यात् is विशेषाद्विशेषात् by reason of not taking any thing special.

54. On the other hand, there is simultaneous performance of the equals by reason of laying down one direction and by not taking any thing special.

The author says that the दर्शपूर्णमासयज्ञाः are prescribed under one text all the subsidiaries are connected with the primaries simultaneously. They are all on equal footing with respect to the agent, time and place. There are 4 priests, they all perform the principals with all their subordinate parts. The fruit of दर्शपूर्णमासयज्ञाः is one, "दर्शपूर्णमासयज्ञैर्दशमो वजेत" "Let one who is desirous of heaven, perform new and full moon sacrifices."

All the parts equally contribute to the attainment of that object. There is no special direction to point out any subordinate act. So all of them should be performed once for all ; there is, therefore, no necessity for repeating them in the case of each primary.

एकाध्यादियथायः स्यात् ॥ ११ । १ । ५५ ॥

एकाध्यात् by reason of having one object ; अन्वयात् no breach of order, स्यात् is.

55. By reason of having one object, there is no breach of order.

The author replies to the objection raised by the objector in sūtra 53. He says that all the subsidiaries collectively achieve the object ; so there is no order. No breach of order is, therefore, possible.

तथैवान्यार्थदर्शनं कामुकायनः ॥ ११ । १ । ५६ ॥

तथा similarly ; च and ; अन्यार्थदर्शनं another proof ; कामुकायनः the name of a कवि.

56. "Accordingly there is another proof" says कामुकायन.

The author in support of his view relies on the authority of कानुका who is some older मीमांसा writer. He cites an authority.

“चतुर्दशपौर्णमास्यामाहुतयो द्वयं ते त्रयोदशमासस्याय” “They make fourteen offerings in a full moon sacrifice and thirteen in a new moon sacrifice.”

If there were repetition, there would not be 13 or 14 offerings as laid down in the text.

तन्न्यायत्वादशक्तेरानुपूर्व्यं स्यात्संस्कारस्य तदर्थत्वात् ॥

॥ ११ । १ । ५७ ॥

तन्न्यायत्वात्, by reason of its propriety ; अशक्तेः by reason of the helplessness ; आनुपूर्व्यं one after the other , स्यात् is ; संस्कारस्य of the purificatory rite ; तदर्थत्वात्, by reason of being for it.

57. By reason of its propriety ; by reason of the helplessness, there is performance one after the other because the purificatory rite is for it.

The sūtra is divided into 3 parts. The objector says that the simultaneous action is proper everywhere (2) but it is helpless in the present case. You see that one burning coal can not cook all the cakes ; so the process will have to be repeated (3) because the process is for the object of cooking.

असंसृष्टोऽपि तादर्थ्यात् ॥ ११ । १ । ५८ ॥

असंसृष्टः separated ; अपि also ; तादर्थ्यात्, by reason of being for the object.

58. Even separated, they are for its object.

The objector says that if these subordinate acts are performed separately, they are for the benefit of their primary, in close proximity of which they happen to be.

विभवाद्वा प्रदीपवत् ॥ ११ । १ । ५९ ॥

विभवात् on account of its richness ; वा on the other hand ; प्रदीपवत् like a lamp,

59. On the other hand, on account of its richness, like a lamp.

The author says that just as a candle-light put in an assembly sheds its lustre on all sides, so these subsidiaries performed once, benefit all the primaries.

अर्थात् लोके विधितः प्रतिप्रधानं स्यात् ॥ ११।१।६० ॥

अर्थात् ~~by~~ reason of the object, लोके in the ordinary life ; विधितः by an injunction प्रतिप्रधानं primary with each ; स्यात् is

60. In the ordinary life, by reason of the object ; by an injunction it is with each primary.

The objector criticises the illustration given by the author. The objector says that the lighting of one lamp or repetition thereof depends upon the object. If it once lit, it sheds lustre on the assembly, it is done once for all, if it is not sufficient for the purpose, then any number will be required according to the need. But in the religious acts, the benefit or the contrary of it is known from the scriptural injunction. From the proximity and special application, it appears that the subsidiary benefits the primary, in the proximity of which it is performed. Hence the subsidiary acts should be repeated in the case of each primary act.

सकृदिज्यां कामुकायनः परिमाणविरोधात् ॥ ११।१।६१ ॥

सकृद् once, इत्यां the offering ; कामुकायनः name of a ~~कृति~~, परिमाणविरोधात् by reason of its being contrary to the limit

61. "Once the offering" says कामुकायन by reason ~~of~~ its being contrary to the limit.

The objector refutes the view of कामुकायन, you say that the subsidiary should be performed once for all and base your view on his, it is just in contravention of the limit of the offerings i. e. 14 and 18 in पूर्णमा and अग्रयण respectively.

विधेस्त्वितरार्थत्वात्सकृदिज्याश्रुतिज्यतिक्रमः स्यात् ॥

११।१।६२ ॥

विधेः of an injunction ; इतरार्थत्वात् by reason of being for the other ; सकृद् once ; इत्यां offering ; श्रुतिज्यतिक्रमः breach of the text ; स्यात् is.

62. Because the injunction (as regards the subordinate parts) is for the other (principal) ; there will be a breach of the text which lays down simultaneous performance.

The objector says that the subordinate parts are for the primary, when they are performed in proximity with any primary, they will be for its benefit: so they will have to be repeated in the case of each primary. So the number 14 has been fixed in पूर्वमा and 18 in समावहना. It is by way of अनुवाद

विधिवत्प्रकरणाविभागे प्रयोगं वादरायणः ॥११११६३॥

विधिवत् like an injunction, प्रकरणाविभागे in the indivisibility of the context; प्रयोगं application; वादरायणः name of a वि.

63. "Like the injunction in the indivisibility of the context, there is the application" says वादरायणः.

The author relies upon the authority of his own preceptor वादरायणः. He says that the subsidiaries are to be performed once for all because all the primaries come under one context. The order or proximity upon which the objector relies is weaker than the context under the rules of interpretation. Though the injunction relating to the six primaries is of equal force, yet you have to know the इतिकर्तव्यता of प्रयाज from their context. Suspending the order or sequence they are to be performed at a time simultaneously.

अपि केकेन सन्निधानं विशेषकहेतुः ॥ ११ । १ । ६४ ॥

अपि also; च and; एकेन by one; सन्निधानम् proximity; विशेषकः not special; हेतुः cause.

64. And also though in proximity with one, it is not a special cause.

The author gives a reason in support of his view. He says that though the subsidiaries are performed in connection with one particular primary, yet they will not cease benefiting others and thus becoming special. They are, therefore, not to be repeated.

कश्चिद्विधानान्नेति चेत् ॥ ११ । १ । ६५ ॥

कश्चित् somewhere; विधानम् by reason of the injunction, च not so; इति चेत् if you say.

65. "Somewhere by reason of the injunction, it is not so" if you say.

The objector says that there is an injunction somewhere laying down simultaneous action, "सद्वज्जति सद्विजति" "They pound together, they grind together."

So by प्रतिषेधा, the inference is that at other places, there is a repetition of the acts.

न विधेश्चोदितत्वात् ॥ ११ । १ । ६६ ॥

Not so, विधेः of the injunction, चोदितत्वात् by reason of the binding force

66. Not so, by reason of the binding force of the injunction.

The author says that there निर्वाप is laid down ; in order to counteract the force, the तत्र is laid down. In आग्नेय and अग्नीषोमीय, the निर्वाप is laid down, by reason of this distributive action, pounding and grinding would have been separately done but for the text which lays down the collective action (तत्र).

Adhikaraṇa x. sūtras 67-70 dealing with the subject that the 'black-necked' is to be offered separately.

व्याख्यातं तुल्यानां यौगपदमगृह्यमाणविशेषाणाम् ॥

११ । १ । ६७ ॥

व्याख्यातं have been explained, तुल्यानां of equal grades ; यौगपदम् simultaneousness, अगृह्यमाणविशेषाणाम् of those not specially taken.

67. Those acts which are not specially taken and are of equal grade have been explained to be done simultaneously.

There is a text, "आग्नेयंकृष्णप्रीवमालभेत, सौम्यं वधु माग्नेयं कृष्णप्रीवं पुतो-घायांस्यदमानः" (I S., V, 5 23. 1 &c) "Let one competing for the foremost position bring a black-necked animal to Agni, a reddish brown animal to Soma and blacknecked animal to Agni."

The animal no. 1. and the animal 3 in the above text are the same. The question is whether they should be offered distributively or collectively. The reply of the objector is that you have already explained the "collective" (यौगपद, in the preceding अधिकरण and so they will be offered to the deities once for all, because there is nothing special to direct the procedure.

भेदस्तु कालभेदाच्चोदनाज्यवायात्स्याद्विशिष्टानां विधिः

प्रधानकालत्वात् ॥ ११ । १ । ६८ ॥

भेदः difference ; तु on the other hand , कालभेदात् by reason of the difference of time ; ऋदनाद्यवायात् by reason of the intervening injunction; स्यात् is ; विशिष्टाणाम् of the special , विधिः command , प्रधानकालत्वात् by reason of time being principal.

68. On the other hand, separately by reason of the difference of time and by reason of the intervening injunction ; there is a special command because time is principal.

The author says that the principle of सत्र as laid down in the preceding अधिकरण does not apply here for two reasons , because there is a difference of time, the first is an animal of black neck for the god Agni, the second is the brown coloured animal or ichneumon for the god Soma and the third is the 'black necked' animal for the god fire. The second reason is that second intetvenes the first and third and if these animals are offered simultaneously, the order will be disturbed, so there is a special injunction by reason of time being principal here

तथा चान्यार्थदर्शनम् ॥ ११ । १ । ६६ ॥

तथा similarly ; च and , अन्यार्थदर्शनम् seeing other proof.

69. And similarly seeing other proof.

The author supports his view by the लिङ्ग argument "अभितः सौम्यमाग्नेषी भवतः" "On all sides there are animals consecrated to Soma and Agni."

विधिरिति चेन्न वर्तमानापदेशात् ॥ ११ । १ । ७० ॥

विधि'injunction , इति चेत् if you say ; न not ; वर्तमानापदेशात् by reason of the use of the present tense.

70. If you say that it is not an injunction, by reason of the use of the present tense.

The author says that the text quoted in the commentary on sūtra 69 is not a विधि, because the present tense is used. It is by way of अपवाद.

END OF PĀDA I.

PĀDA II.

In the first Pāda the principle of Tantra was considered in connection with the principal, here, it will be considered along with the subsidiaries.

Adhikaraṇa I. sūtras 1 2 dealing with the subject that of आग्नेय &c. time, space &c. are not in the nature of a Tantra.

एकदेशकालकर्तृत्वं मुख्यानामेकशब्दोपदेशात् ॥

११।२।१॥

एकदेशकालकर्तृत्वं, unity of space, time and the agent; मुख्यानां of primaries; एकशब्दोपदेशात् by reason of one command.

1. Unity of space, time and agent of the primaries by reason of one command.

In the दशपूर्णमास the आग्नेय &c are principal. There are space, time and agent as follows "समेदर्शपूर्णमासाभ्यां यजेत" "पौर्णमास्यां पौर्णमास्या यजेत, अमवास्यायाममावस्यया यजेत" "दशपूर्णमासयोर्यज्ञकत्वोश्चत्वार ऋत्विजः" "Let him perform new and full moon sacrifices on an even ground, let him perform a full moon sacrifice on a full moon day, let him perform a new moon sacrifice on a new moon day. there are four priests in the new and full moon sacrifices."

In connection with the चातुर्मास्य sacrifice, there are texts as regards space, time and agent, "प्राचीनप्रवणे वैश्वदेवेन यजेत" "वसंते वैश्वदेवेन यजेत" "चातुर्मास्यानां यज्ञकर्तॄणां पञ्चर्त्विजः" "Let him perform a वैश्वदेव sacrifice on a ground sloping to the east; let him perform a वैश्वदेव sacrifice in a spring; there are five priests in the चातुर्मास्य sacrifices."

Now the question for determination is, whether the space, time and agent are governed by the principle of तन्त्र with respect to the आग्नेय &c the primaries or they are separate in each case. The reply of the objector is that the principle of तन्त्र applies. The reason is that they are parts of the procedure and they are connected with one fruit and there is one injunction with respect to them. There is no special direction to the contrary, they are, therefore, governed by the principle of तन्त्र.

अविधिश्चेत्कर्मणामभिसम्बन्धः प्रतीयेत तल्लक्षणार्था-
भिसंयोगाद्विधित्वाच्चेतरेषां प्रतिप्रधानभावः स्यात् ॥
११।२।२ ॥

अविधिः not injunction ; चेत् if ; कर्मणाम् of actions ; अभिसम्बन्धः connection ; प्रतीयेत appears, तल्लक्षणार्थाभिसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with its secondary sense ; विधित्वात् by reason of its being an injunction ; च and ; इतरेषां of every other of them, प्रतिप्रधानभावः the state of primary with each ; स्यात् is.

2. If it is not an injunction, it appears to be connected with the action ; by reason of the connection with its secondary sense and by reason of the injunctive nature, it is primary with every other of them.

The author says that if you do not consider it a special command, then the text with respect to space &c will not apply to the आग्नेय &c distribu-tively. It is an injunction, so it will apply to each primary distributively on the principle of an आवाप I have followed शबर in this interpretation, but all other commentators have considered the 1st sūtra as containing the view of the author and the second sūtra consisting of the view of the objector.

Adhikarapa ii. sūtras 3—11 dealing with the rule that the subsidiaries are governed by the space &c of the primaries.

अङ्गेषु च तदभावः प्रधानं प्रतिनिर्देशात् ॥११।२।३॥

अङ्गेषु in the subsidiaries ; च and, तदभावः its absence ; प्रधानं principal ;
प्रति towards, निर्देशात् by reason of pointing out.

3. And in the subsidiaries, it is absent by reason of pointing to the primary.

The question is "what is the rule as to the subsidiaries?" Whether the rule as to space, time and agent with regard to them is based on तच्च or आवाप. The reply of the objector is that the rule does not apply to the subsidiaries ; because it is mainly directed to the primaries. Just as material and deity are in connection with the primaries only, so are space, time and agent connected with the primaries.

यदि तु कर्मणो विधिसम्बन्धः स्यादैकशब्दात्प्रधाना-
र्थाभिधासंयोगात् ॥ ११ । २ । ४

यदि if, तु on the other hand ; कर्मणः of the action ; विधिसम्बन्धः connection of the injunction ; स्यात् is, ऐकशब्दात् by reason of one text ; प्रधानार्थाभिधासंयोगात् by reason of being connected with the name of the object of the primary.

4. If on the other hand, the injunction is connected with the action by reason of one text and being connected with the name of the object of the primary.

The author says that there is one text and it is connected with the principal act and all the subsidiaries come under the designation of one primary. So the text relating to space, time and agent applies to the subsidiaries collectively but not distributively. The principal of हव्य but not the principal of आवाप governs them.

तथा चान्यार्थदर्शनम् ॥ ११ । २ । ५ ॥

तथा similarly ; च and ; अन्यार्थदर्शनम् another proof.

5. And similarly there is another proof.

The author relies on the लङ्ग argument in support of his view. “उग्रमिह वा एतानि घोराणिहवीषियदमावस्यायां संभ्रियन्ते आग्नेयं प्रथमं मैत्रे उत्तरे”
“Fierce or dangerous are the offerings, if in the new moon, the first offering is prepared to Agni and then two offerings to Indra.”

This kind of sequence is possible at one time only.

श्रुतिश्चैषां प्रधानवत्कर्मश्रुतेः परार्थत्वात् ॥ ११ । २ । ६ ॥

श्रुतिः a text ; च and ; ऐषां, of these ; प्रधानवत् like the primary ; कर्मश्रुतेः by reason of the text as regards action ; परार्थत्वात् being for the object of another.

6. And the text in connection with them is like the primary, by reason of the text as regards action being for the object of another,

The author gives another reason in support of his view. He says that the rule as to space, time and agent is like the principal act; the text relating to a procedure is for the purpose of another. So the text applies to the subsidiaries collectively but not distributively.

कर्मणोऽश्रुतित्वाच्च ॥ ११ । २ । ७ ॥

कर्मणः of the action ; अश्रुतित्वात् by reason of being not heard of ; च and.

7. By reason of the action being not heard of.

The author gives another reason in support of his view. He says that we hear of no action, no procedure, no principal but only the level ground, the time of performance and the priests who perform it. This is all intended for the principal. So the text in connection with the space, time and agent applies to the subsidiaries on the principle of तत्र but not on the principle of भावात्.

अङ्गानि तु विधानत्वात्प्रधानेनोपदिश्येरंस्तस्मात्स्यादेकदेशत्वम् ॥ ११ । २ । ८ ॥

अङ्गानि the subsidiaries ; तु on the other hand ; विधानत्वात् being prescribed, प्रधानेन with the principal , उपदिश्येरन् are governed ; तस्मात् therefore ; स्यात् is ; एकदेशत्वम् subordinate nature.

8. On the other hand, the subsidiaries being prescribed, are governed by the text relating to the primary, therefore their subordinate nature.

The author says that the text which applies to the primary, applies equally to the subsidiaries, so they are subordinate to the primaries. When we say “दूर्ध्णमासाभ्यां यजेत स्वर्गकामः” “Let one desirous of heaven perform new and full moon sacrifices.” we mean the full and new moon sacrifices with all their complete parts. The subordinate parts, therefore, subserve the main object ; they are not apart from the principal act. So the text with reference to space, time and agent governing the principal governs its parts also. So they need not be repeated in case of each subsidiary.

द्रव्यदेवतं तथेति चेत् ॥ ११ । २ । ९ ॥

इत्यदेवत् the deity and the material, तथा similarly; इतिचेन् if you say.

9. If you say "similarly the deity and the material."

The objector says that the material and the deity of the principal and the subordinate are sometimes different; so why should you not apply a distributive principle in the present case? This is an introductory सूत्र called आभाषात्

न चोदनाविधिशेषत्वान्नियमार्थो विशेषः ॥११॥२१७॥

न not so, चोदनाविधि शेषत्वात् by reason of the part of an injunctive sentence; नियमार्थः for the object of restriction, विशेषः special.

10. Not so, by reason of the part of the injunctive sentence; the special is for the object of restriction.

The author says that the deity and material are governed by the विधिशेष (injunctive part of the text) "इहाग्निःपुरोडाशश्च" "इहाज्यमग्निचौनी" Here are Agni and पुरोडाश cake." "Here are clarified butter and Agni and Soma (dual deities)."

These texts relate to the principal, "आज्येन प्रयाजान् यजति" "शेषात् स्विष्टकृतं यजति" "He makes प्रयाज offerings with ghee." "He makes स्विष्टकृत्य offering from the remainder."

These texts relate to the subordinate parts. you can not apply the rules of one to the other. The materials and deities are governed by a part of a चोदनाविधि, while the text relating to space, time &c governs the procedure of the subsidiaries. The illustration of the deity and the material does not hold good, because they are governed by a different set of rules.

तेषु समवेतानां समवायात्तन्त्रमङ्गानि भेदस्तु तद्भेदा
त्कर्मभेदः प्रयोगे स्यात्तेषां प्रधानशब्दत्वात्तथा चान्यार्थदर्श
नम् ॥ ११ । २ । ११ ॥

तेषु in them; समवेतानां of the combined, समवायात् by reason of the combination; तन्त्र by a तन्त्र; अङ्गानि the subordinate parts: भेदः difference; तु on the other hand; तद्भेदात् by reason of its separation; कर्मभेदः difference of procedure; प्रयोगे in an application; स्यात् is; तेषां theirs; प्रधानशब्दत्वात् by reason of being a principal word, तथा similarly ; च and ; अन्यार्थदर्शनम् another proof.

11. In them of the combined (parts), by reason of the combination; the subordinate parts are governed by तत्र and on separation, there is separation. There will be a difference of procedure in the application by reason of their being the principal word ; and there is another proof.

The author sums up the whole argument and says that if the materials and deities of the subsidiaries are combined with those of the primaries, the principle of तत्र will apply, because the subsidiaries then come under their primary ; but if on the other hand, there is a separation, the principle of भावाप will apply because in that case they are themselves primaries. There will be a separation in the case of each. In the third part of the sūtra, the author relies on the लिङ्ग argument in support of his view. This sūtra is divided into 3 parts. In the first part, the application of तत्र is explained, in the second part, the principle of भावाप is applied and in the third part he relies on the text,

“चतुर्दश पौर्णमास्यामाहुतयोद्धयंते त्रयोदशमावस्यायां” “Fourteen offerings are made on the full moon day and thirteen on the new moon day.”

Adhikarapa III. sūtras 12-18 dealing with the subject that in राजसूय &c the subsidiaries are to be repeated.

इष्टिराजसूयचातुर्मास्येष्वैककर्म्यादङ्गानां तत्रभावः स्यात् ॥

११।२।१२॥

इष्टिराजसूयचातुर्मास्येषु in the इष्टि, राजसूय and चातुर्मास्य ; ऐककर्म्यात् by reason of the unity of the act ; अङ्गानां of the subsidiaries ; तत्रभावः once for all ; स्यात् is.

12. In the इष्टि, राजसूय and चातुर्मास्य, by reason of the unity of the act, the subsidiaries are to be performed once for all.

“वर्षपूर्णमासाभ्यां स्वर्गकामो यजेत” “राजसूयेन स्वाराज्यकामो यजेत” “चातुर्मास्यैः स्वर्गकामो यजेत” “Let one who is desirous of heaven perform new and full moon sacrifices.” “Let one who is desirous of heaven, perform the चातुर्मास्य sacrifices.”

These are the texts. The question is whether the subsidiaries in the दशपूर्णमास, राजसूय and चातुर्मास्य are to be performed once for all or separately. The reply of the objector is that they constitute one act and there is one fruit of the sacrifices, so the subsidiaries are to be performed once for all.

कालभेदान्नेति चेत् ॥ ११ । २ । १३ ॥

कालभेदात् by reason of the difference of time; न not so; इति चेत् if you say.

13. "Not so, by reason of the difference of time" if you say.

The author says that the principle of तत्र does not apply by reason of the difference of time. Somewhere there is a difference of time, some where there is a difference of space. As to time "पौर्णमास्यां पौर्णमास्या यजेतामावस्यायाममावस्या यजेत" "चातुर्मास्य पर्वणां घसन्ते वैश्वदेवेन यजेत, वर्षासुवर्षाप्रघासैर्यजेत, हेमन्तेसाकमेधैर्यजेत" "Let him perform a full moon sacrifice on a full moon day and a new moon sacrifice on a new moon day. Let him perform a वैश्वदेव sacrifice of the चातुर्मास्य and of ceremonial occasions in a spring, a वर्षाप्रघाश in the rains and a साकमेध in winter."

As to the difference of space in a राजसूय "वाहस्पत्यश्चरुर्ब्रह्मणो गृह्यैर्द्रमे-कादशकपालो राजोगृहे आदित्यश्चरुर्महिष्या गृहे" "The boiled rice to Brihaspati in the house of Brahman, and a cake baked on eleven potsherds in the house of a king, and boiled rice to Aditi in the house of a queen "

The पूर्णमासीयाग is different from the अमावस्यायाग, so the principle of आवाप applies,

नैकदेशत्वात्पशुवत् ॥ ११ । २ । १४ ॥

न not so; एकदेशत्वात् by reason of its part ; पशुवत् like an animal sacrifice.

14. Not so, by reason of its being a part like an animal sacrifice.

The objector says that the अमावस्या or पूर्णमासीयाग is a part of the दशपूर्णमासयाग, their fruit is one. Just as in an animal sacrifice, the omentum is offered in the morning, the पुरोडाश cake in the noon and the parts of an animal in the evening without the repetition of the subsidiaries; so here also. The principle of तत्र, therefore, applies.

अपि वा कर्मपृथक्त्वात्तेषां तन्त्रविधानात्साङ्गानामुप-
देशः स्यात् ॥ ११ । २ । १५ ॥

अपि also ; वा on the other hand , कर्मपृथक्त्वात् by reason of the difference of action ; तेषां theirs ; तन्त्र, Tantra , विधानात् by reason of being laid down , साङ्गानाम् with the parts ; उपदेशः direction , स्यात् is.

15. On the other hand, by reason of the difference of the action, they are laid down to be done collectively and so there is a direction for their performance with the subsidiaries.

The author says that the दर्शयाग is different from the पूर्णमासयाग. They are to be performed on the new moon day and full moon day respectively. So the दर्शयाग is to be performed with its subsidiaries once for all and similarly the पूर्णमासयाग is to be performed with its subsidiaries once for all. The principle of तन्त्र applies in the case of each , but when the दर्शपूर्णमासयाग are looked upon as one, the performance of the subsidiaries is considered to be done on the principle of आवाप.

तथा चान्यार्थदर्शनम् ॥ ११ । २ । १६ ॥

तथा similarly ; च and , अन्यार्थदर्शनम् another proof.

16. And similarly there is another proof.

The author relies on the लिङ्ग argument in support of his view. "चतुर्दशपौर्णमास्यामाहुतवो ह्वयन्ते त्रयोदशमावस्यायां" "The offer fourteen oblations on the full moon day and thirteen on the new moon day."

तथा तदवयवेषु स्यात् ॥ ११ । २ । १७ ॥

तथा similarly , तदवयवेषु in their parts ; स्यात् is.

17. Similarly in their parts.

"The principle of आवाप being laid down" says the author, 'it will apply in the case of the parts of the राजसूय &c by reason of the difference of time & space"

पशौ तु चोदनैकत्वात्तन्त्रस्य विप्रकर्षः स्यात् ॥ ११ । २ । १८ ॥

पशौ in the animal sacrifice ; तु on the other hand ; चोदनैकत्वात् by reason of one command , तन्त्रस्य of a तन्त्र , विप्रकर्षः remoteness ; स्यात् is.

18. On the other hand, in the animal sacrifice, by reason of one command of तन्त्र, there is remoteness.

The author says that you have given an illustration of an animal sacrifice which is one but the दशपूज्यमासभाग are two different sacrifices though in form they are similar. The animal is one but the parts are offered at different times. “वपया प्रातः सवने प्रचरन्ति पुरोडाशेन माध्यंदिने अग्नौस्तृतीयसवने.” They set about with omentum in the morning सवन, with cakes in the midday सवन and with the viscera in the evening सवन.”

The time of the offerings is different but the animal sacrifice is one, but here in the present case, we have “अमावस्यायामावस्यया यजेत” “Let him perform new moon sacrifice on the new moon day.”

This is a great difference, so your illustration does not apply.

Adhikaraṇa iv sūtras 19-23 dealing with the subject that the subsidiaries of आग्नावैष्णवं are to be performed separately.

तथा स्यादध्वरकल्पेष्टौ विशेषस्यैककालत्वात् ॥

११ । २ । १६ ॥

तथा similarly, स्यात् is, अध्वरकल्पेष्टौ in अध्वरकल्पेष्टि, विशेषस्य of the special; एककालत्वात् by reason of the unity of time.

19. Similarly in the अध्वरकल्पेष्टि by reason of the unity of the time of the special offering

There is a desire accomplishing इष्टि named अध्वरकल्प. It is laid down, “अग्नावैष्णवं प्रातरष्टा कपालं निर्वपेत्, सारस्वतं चरुं बार्हस्पत्यं चरुमाग्नावैष्णवं मेकादशकपालं माध्यंदिने, सारस्वतं चरुं बार्हस्पत्यं चरुमाग्नावैष्णवं द्वादशकपालं मपराह्णे सारस्वतं चरुं बार्हस्पत्यं चरुं यस्यैवातव्यः सोमेन यजेत”. “Let him offer cakes baked on eight potsherds to Agni and Viṣṇu in the morning, boiled rice to सारस्वत and बृहस्पति and cakes baked on eleven potsherds to Agni and Viṣṇu in the noon and boiled rice to सारस्वत and बृहस्पति and cakes baked on twelve potsherds to अग्नि and Viṣṇu and let one whose enemy perform a सोमयाग, offer boiled rice to सारस्वत and बृहस्पति.”

Now the question is whether the act which have been enjoined at different times should be performed collectively or distributively. The reply of the objector is that they should be performed collectively, just as in an animal sacrifice. The reason is that these special parts which are prescribed to be performed at different times are ordered to be done at one time “पुरावाचः प्रवक्षिन्निर्वपेत्” “Let it be offered before the speech of speakers.”

There is nothing wrong in it ; such is the case in the animal sacrifice where different parts of the animal which are directed to be offered at different times are offered on the principle of तत्र.

इष्टिरिति चैकत्रच्छ्रुतिः ॥ ११ । २ । २० ॥

इष्टिः, इष्टि , इति च and ; एकत्रच्छ्रुतिः what is laid down as one.

20. 'इष्टि' is what is laid down as one.

The objector says that the sacrifice अश्वरकश्येष्टि is in the singular number, though there are many यागः. So they are treated as one because the principle of तत्र applies.

अपि वाकर्मपृथक्त्वात्तेषां च तन्त्रविधानात्साङ्गानामुप-
देशः स्यात् ॥ ११ । २ । २१ ॥

अपि also ; वा on the other hand , कर्मपृथक्त्वात् by reason of the difference of action ; तेषां theirs ; च and ; तन्त्रविधानात् by reason of being laid down to be done collectively , साङ्गानाम् with the parts ; उपदेशः direction ; स्यात् is.

21. On the other hand, by reason of the difference of the action, they are laid down to be done collectively and so there is a direction for their performance with the subsidiaries.

The author says that the आगनावैष्टव्य &c are separate ; the principle of तत्र applies as far as each is concerned. Each is to be performed with all its parts on the principle of तत्र. In relation to others the performance is on the principle of आवाप. See the commentary on sūtra 15. (at p 887).

पृथमस्य वा कालवचनम् ॥ ११ । २ । २२ ॥

पृथमस्य of the first offering , वा on the other hand ; कालवचनम् a text regarding the time.

22. On the other hand, it is a text, as regards the time of the first offering.

The author replies to the objection embodied in sūtra 19 where the objector says that the different acts ordained to be performed at different times are directed to be done at one time. The author says it is not so; it is shown how the first निर्वप is to be done ; he stops there but thereby he does not prohibit the other offerings at their proper time. So there is nothing special in the text "पुरावाचः प्रवदितोर्निबपेत्" "Let him offer it before the speech of the speakers"

फलैकत्वादिष्टिशब्दो यथान्यत्र ॥ ११ । २ । २३ ॥

फलैकत्वात् by reason of the unity of the result, इष्टिशब्दः the word इष्टि, यथा just as ; अन्यत्र in others.

23. By reason of the unity of result, the word इष्टि is used just as in others.

The author replies to the objection embodied in sūtra 20. He says that an aggregate of sacrifices is called अव्यक्तेष्टि in the singular number on account of the achievement of one result. There are other similar instances सर्ववृष्टेष्टि, सृगारेष्टि, सुमनानामेष्टि.

Adhikarapa v sūtras 24-25 dealing with the subject that the वसाहोम is to be performed separately.

वसाहोमस्तन्त्रमेकदेवतेषु स्यात्प्रदानस्यैककालत्वात् ॥

११ । २ । २४ ॥

वसाहोम the offering of marrow, तन्त्रम्, तन्त्र, एकदेवतेषु to one deity ; स्यात् is ; प्रदानस्य of offering, एककालत्वात् by reason of the unity of time

24. The offering of marrow is to be done collectively to one deity by reason of the unity of the time of the offering.

The example is of those animals which are offered to one deity. There are 17 animals for प्रजावृत्ति. In the model sacrifice namely the अग्निषोमीय animal sacrifice, the वसाहोम is performed; "वाग्यार्द्धं वसाहुहोति" "He offers marrow with a half verse of a वाग्या" It is transferred in the modified sacrifice. The question for determination is whether वसाहोम is to be performed separately or once for all. The reply of the objector is that it should be performed once for all, because the deity is one and the वसाहोम is to be performed on the principle of तन्त्र; the time of offering is one and the half rik of the वाग्या where the offering is made is common to all.

कालभेदात्वावृत्तिर्देवताभेदे ॥ ११ । २ । २५ ॥

कालभेदान् by reason of the difference of time सु on the other hand ;
आहुतिः repetition , देवताभेदे on the difference of the deity

25. On the other hand, by reason of the difference of time, there is repetition on the difference of the deity.

The author says that where there is a different time of offering as in the case of एकदशनि where different half viks of वायवा end and different deities are worshipped, the principle of आवाप applies. In such a case you can not perform the वसाहोम once for all. The fifth अधिकरण has been divided by other commentators into two अधिकरण, the first contains the author's view as to तत्र it applies where there is one deity and a time of offering as in the case of प्राजापत्य but where the deities are different and the offerings are made at different times, it is impossible to apply the principle of तत्र. The principle of आवाप will, therefore, apply. This view of having two अधिकरण seems to be correct ; but we have followed our learned commentator Śabara.

Aduikaraṇa vi. sūtras 25-28 dealing with the subject that यूपाहुति is to be performed once for all.

अन्ते यूपाहुतिस्तद्वत् ॥ ११ । २ । २६ ॥

अन्ते in the end , यूपाहुतिः the offering at the the sacrificial post ; तद्वत् like it.

26. In the end, the offering at the sacrificial post like it.

There are 11 sacrificial posts in a यजोतिहोम "एकादशयूपाश्रितानि" "He cuts eleven sacrificial posts."

In the model sacrifice namely in the अग्नीषोमीय animal sacrifice, there is an offering in connection with the sacrificial post, "यूपस्यातिकेऽग्निमग्निं त्वयूपाहुतिं जुहोति" "Having produced fire by friction near a sacrificial post, he makes an offering relating to the sacrificial post."

The question is whether this यूपाहुति is to be performed once for all or should it be performed near each sacrificial post? The reply of the objector is that it is to be performed separately just as laid down in the preceding अधिकरण.

इतरप्रतिषेधो वा ॥ ११ । २ । २७ ॥

इतरप्रतिषेधः prohibition of the other ; च on the other hand.

27. On the other hand, it is a prohibition of the other.

The author says that the text “यूपस्थांति के ऽग्निंमथित्वा यूपान्तिं जुहोति” “Having produced fire by friction near a sacrificial post, he makes an offering relating to the sacrificial post.” is a prohibition to the use of the आहवनीय fire, “आहवनीये जुहोति” “He makes an offering in an आहवनीय fire.” because आहवनीय fire is used everywhere in होम. The text is not an injunction as to the offering to be made near a sacrificial post. The आहवनीय fire is there and can be had easily but in order to put the sacrificer to a little labour, it is ordered that he should produce it near the sacrificial post by rubbing two pieces of sticks. So the principle of तत्र applies and the यूपान्ति is performed once for all—

अशास्त्रत्वाच्च देशानाम् ॥ ११ । २ । २८ ॥

अशास्त्रत्वात् by reason of being not capable to be ordained ; च and ; देशानाम् of the place.

28. And by reason of the place being not capable to be ordained.

The author gives another reason in support of his view. It is not an अतिरिक्तविधि i. e. a rule to fix the place, because fire is not to be produced there. You ought not to produce fire near the sacrificial post as a rule, lest it may catch fire. So the यूपान्ति is to be performed once for all.

Adhik. 7. vii. adras 29-32. dealing with the sacrificial bath.

अवभृथे प्रधानेऽग्निविकारः स्याच्च हि तद्धेतुरग्निसंयोगः ॥ ११ । २ । २९ ॥

अवभृथे in the sacrificial bath ; प्रधाने in the principal ; अग्निविकारः modification of fire, स्यात् is, न not ; हि because ; तद्धेतुः for the reason ; अग्निसंयोगः connection with fire.

29. In the sacrificial bath which is principal, there is the modification of fire ; for this reason there is no connection with fire.

In a ज्योतिष्टोम, there is a sacrificial bath. It is laid down “अवभृथे न चरति” “They perform bath in the water.”

The question is, whether the primary act is to be performed in the water singly or with the subsidiaries also. The objector says that in the primary act, there is the modification of the fire-offering, so only the primary act should be performed. This is the reason why fire is not mentioned in this connection. "आहवनीयेजुहोति" "He makes an offering in the आहवनीय fire."

The fire is ordained for all homas; it is used in the primary and subsidiaries but in the present case the water is ordained for the primary only. The word 'अवसृज्य' connotes the sacrifice in which cake is offered to The god Varuṇa. So this ceremony is to be performed in the अवसृज्य, water is, therefore, prescribed. The subsidiaries are out of question.

द्रव्यदेवतवत् ॥

द्रव्यदेवतवत् like the material and the deity.

This Sūtra does not find its place in the Chaukhambhā edition, but it forms a part of Śabara commentary.

The objector gives an example in support of his view that when materials and deity are prescribed for the primary, they do not apply to the subsidiaries.

साङ्गो वा प्रयोगवचनैकत्वात् ॥ ११ । २ । ३० ॥

साङ्गः with the subsidiaries, वा on the other hand; प्रयोगवचनैकत्वात् by reason of the unity of the text for application.

30. On the other hand, with the subsidiaries, by reason of the unity of the text for application.

The author says that अवसृज्य is to be performed in the water with all its subsidiaries, because there is one text for the performance; water is for प्रयोग (performance) but not for अवसृज्य. It does not mean "bath in the water" but "with the अवसृज्य ceremony in the water" So the water is the part of the procedure (प्रयोग). It means the undivided application of the primary with all its subsidiaries. The result is that the अवसृज्य with all its subsidiaries is laid down.

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ ११ । २ । ३१ ॥

लिङ्गदर्शनात् by seeing the लिङ्ग, च and.

31. And by seeing the लिङ्ग.

The author relies on the लिङ्ग argument in support of his view. "अवसृ- श्व' प्रास्थाचारयति" "Having thrown grass in the water, he sprinkles ghee."

The force of the text is that if you do not sprinkle ghee in the water the injunction as regards throwing grass will be useless. This shows that the primary along with the subsidiaries is to be performed.

शब्दविभागाच्च देवतानपनयः* ॥ ११ । २ । ३२ ॥

शब्दविभागाच्च By reason of the division of the word , च and, देवतानपनयः the application of the deity.

32. By reason of the division of the word, the application of the deity.

The objector says that the deity and the material pertain to the primary and so the अवभृथ is to be performed with the primary only. The author says in reply that there is a division by the words, अवभृथ means principal and आचार &c, mean the parts , the material and the deity are no doubt connected with the word अवभृथ , they do not apply to the parts. Water is, therefore, laid down as a part of the procedure. So the example of the material and deity does not hold good

Adhikaraṇa will be in 33 - 41 dealing with the subject of the sacrificial ground in the वरुण प्रघास &c

दक्षिणेऽग्नौ वरुणप्रघासेषु देशभेदात्सर्वं क्रियते ॥

११ । २ । ३३ ॥

दक्षिणे in the southern ; अग्नौ in fire ; वरुणप्रघासेषु in वरुणप्रघास ; देशभेदात् by reason of the difference of the place ; सर्वं all , क्रियते is done.

33. In the southern fire in a वरुणप्रघास, by reason of the difference of the place all is done.

In a वरुण प्रघास, the sacrificial hearth is separately laid down "पृथगग्नी प्रणयतः पृथग्वेदीकुदतः" "Let them carry fire separately, let them construct altar separately "

In that connection, it is said, "अष्टाव चर्युरुत्तरे विहारे हवींष्यानादयति-मादवीमेव प्रतिप्रस्थातादक्षिणस्मिन्" "An Adhwaryu priest places the offering on the northern hearth and a प्रतिप्रस्थाता priest places the offering consecrated to मरुत on the southern hearth."

* In the Chaukhambhā edition, the reading is प्रथः in place of अपनयः.

The question for determination is whether the subsidiaries in the southern hearth should be performed separately or those which have been performed in the northern hearth are quite sufficient. The reply of the author is that they should be performed separately, because those that have been performed in the northern hearth are for the object of the northern hearth and those that are performed for the southern hearth are for the object of the southern hearth. So the subsidiaries are to be performed separately.

अचोदनेतिचेत् ॥ ११ । २ । ३४ ॥

अचोदना no stimulating command, इतिचेत् if you say.

34. "No stimulating command" if you say.

The objector says that there is no text which shows that there is any fruit for the separate performance, nor is there any इतिकर्तव्यता. There being only one साध्य & इतिकर्तव्यता, so the principle of तत्र applies.

स्यात्पूर्णमासीवत् ॥ ११ । २ । ३५ ॥

स्यात् is ; पूर्णमासीवत् like the full moon sacrifice.

35. It is just like the full moon sacrifice.

The author gives an example of the पूर्णमासीयाग. Though the fruit of दर्शपूर्णमासयाग is one, yet these two sacrifices are to be performed separately. So here also, (See Adhikarṇa iii. at p. 887.)

प्रयोगचोदनेति चेत् ॥ ११ । २ । ३६ ॥

प्रयोगचोदना command as to the procedure, इतिचेत् if you say.

36. "There is the command as to the procedure."

The objector says that in case of the पूर्णमासीयाग, the chodanā is indicated by यजति which applies to the procedure.

इहापिमारुत्याः प्रयोगश्चोदते ॥ ११ । २ । ३७ ॥

इह अपि here also ; मारुत्याः of मारुती, प्रयोगः application ; चोदते is directed.

37. Here also, the application of मारुती is directed.

The author says that here in the present case also, the offering to मरुत is laid down separately:

आसादनमिति चेत् ॥ ११ । २ । ३८ ॥

आसादनम् placing near ; इति चेद् if you say.

38. "Placing near" if you say.

The objector says that in the present case "आसादयति" (at p. 894.) is used which means placing near. It can not mean sacrificing.

नोत्तरेणैकवाक्यत्वात् ॥ ११ । २ । ३९ ॥

न not so ; उत्तरेण in connection with the northern hearth ; एकवाक्यत्वात् by reason of being one with the text.

39. Not so, by reason of being one with the text in connection with the northern hearth.

The author says that you must read both the texts together. The आसादन of the text relating to the northern hearth should be inserted in the text relating to the southern hearth. The placing of the materials of the sacrifice is for the purpose of the offering. So the subsidiaries are to be performed at both places separately.

अवाच्यत्वात् ॥ ११ । २ । ४० ॥

अवाच्यत्वाद् by reason of its being not conveyed.

40. By reason of its being not conveyed,

The author says that the 'आसादयति' does not convey directly the signification of होम. It is in the secondary sense. Just as in the full moon sacrifice, the procedure in the present case is governed by the verb 'आसादयति'.

आम्नायवचनं तद्वत् ॥ ११ । २ । ४१ ॥

आम्नायवचनं The Vedic text ; तद्वत् like it.

41. The Vedic text is like it.

The author says that the meaning of 'आसादयति' is also supported by the text. "यदेवाध्वर्युः करोति तत् प्रतिप्रस्थाता करोति" "यस्मिन्नेव होमस्तस्मिन् प्रोक्ते देवतायजनं" "The प्रतिप्रस्थाता does what the अध्वर्युः priest does ; where there is a homa, there he utters देवयजनम्."

So it means that there should be a separate sacrifice in the southern hearth.

Adhikara pa ix. sūtras 42-47 dealing with the application of the principle of त्व' to the agent.

कर्तृभेदस्तथेति चेत् ॥ ११ । २ । ४२ ॥

कर्तृभेदः the difference of the agent ; तथा similarly ; इति चेत् if you say.

42. "Similarly the difference of the agent" if you say.

Now the question is, whether the priests will be the same or different. The reply of the objector is that in view of the principle laid down in the preceding अधिकरण, the agents will be different in the northern and the southern portions of the sacrificial ground.

न समवायात् ॥ ११ । २ । ४३ ॥

न not so ; समवायात् by reason of the affinity.

43. Not so, by reason of the affinity.

The author says that the principle of त्व' applies in the case of the agents. The reason is that there is a text which shows that there is a limited number of the agents. "चातुर्मास्यानां पञ्चकतूनीपचत्विजः" "There are five priests of the चातुर्मास्य sacrifices."

The पञ्चमयसा is a part of the चातुर्मास्य and so there will be five priests only. Two are already mentioned namely अश्वत्थु' and प्रतिप्रस्थाता; होता, जम्बीर and ब्रह्मा are the remaining priests. The limited number of the priests shows that the principle of त्व' applies.

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ ११ । २ । ४४ ॥

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च by seeing the लिङ्ग ; च and.

44. And by seeing the लिङ्ग.

The author relies on the force of the text, "प्रवयसदृक्मदक्षिणां ददाति" "He gives a strong bull as fee."

There is one fee which shows that there is only one agent. One fee will not be sufficient for a double set of priests.

वेदिसंयोगादिति चेत् ॥ ११ । २ । ४५ ॥

वेदिसंयोगाच्च by reason of the connection with the altar ; इति चेत् if you say.

45. "By reason of the connection with the altar" if you say.

The objector says that there is a text "अंतर्वैद्यः पादोदोतुर्भवति बहिर्वैद्यः" "One foot of the hotā is within the altar and the other is without it."

One pair of feet of the होता can not be at two places. The force of the text shows that there should be two hotā priests.

न देशमात्रत्वात् ॥ ११ । २ । ४६ ॥

न not so ; देशमात्रत्वात् by reason of the limit of the space

46. Not so, by reason of the limit of the space.

The author says that it is with a view to define the place. The text means that the होता should sit at a place where his one foot is placed near the internal altar and the other at the external altar.

एकवाक्यत्वात् ॥ ११ । १ । ४७ ॥

एकवाक्यत्वात् by reason of the unity of the sentence.

47. By reason of the unity of the sentence.

The author gives a reason in support of his view, it is one sentence and it is to show the proximity to the altars and the unity of the object. If you take a different view, there will be a split of a sentence.

Adhikaraṇa x. śloka 48-49 dealing with the subject that in the अपरान्ति, the principle of त्व does not apply.

एकाग्नित्वादपरेषु तन्त्रं स्यात् ॥ ११ । २ । ४८ ॥

एकाग्नित्वात् by reason of one fire, अपरेषु in other fires ; तन्त्रं the principle of तन्त्रं ; स्यात् is.

48. By reason of one fire, the principle of तन्त्रं applies to other fires.

In a बह्व्यवसास where there are eight आग्नेयस and one मादती, the पत्नीसंवाजस are performed in the गार्हपत्य fire. The question is whether the पत्नीसंवाजस are to be performed all at once or separately. The reply of the objector is that they should be performed once, because there is only one गार्हपत्य fire ; like the आहवनीय fire in the southern hearth, the गार्हपत्य fire is not different.

नाना वा कर्तृभेदात् ॥ ११ । २ । ४९ ॥

माना differently; वा on the other hand ; कर्त्तुमेदम् by reason of the difference of the agent

49. On the other hand, differently by reason of the difference of the agents.

The author says that the आग्नेयस with their parts are to be performed by the अथर्व्यु, while the मातृनी with its parts is to be performed by the प्रतिप्रधाना. There will be a confusion of the duties of each, if you apply the principle of तत्र. So the पक्षीपात्राः are to be performed on the principle of आयाज.

Adhikarana xi sūtra 50 58 dealing with the subject of relinquishment of those animals round which fire has been taken

पर्यग्निकृतानामुत्सर्गे प्राजापत्यानां कर्मोत्सर्गः श्रुतिसा
मान्यादारण्यवत्तस्माद्ब्रह्मसाम्नि चोदनापृथक्त्वं स्यात् ॥
॥ ११ । २ । ५० ॥

पर्यग्निकृतानां of those round whom fire has been carried ; उत्सर्गे in relinquishment ; प्राजापत्यानां of those dedicated to प्राजापति ; कर्मोत्सर्गः end of the act ; श्रुतिसामान्यात् by reason of the common text , आरण्यवत् like the wild animals , तस्मात् therefore ; ब्रह्मसाम्नि in a ब्रह्मसाम , चोदना command; पृथक्त्वात् by separation , स्यात् is.

50. In the relinquishment of the animals round whom fire has been carried and who are dedicated to प्राजापति, there is the end of the act by reason of the common text like the wild animals; therefore in ब्रह्मसाम, there is a separate injunction.

In a वाजपेय there are 17 animals transferred from the model sacrifice ; in that connection, there is a text "तान्पर्यग्निकृतानुत्सर्जतिब्रह्मसाम्नालभते" "They relinquish those round whom fire has been taken ; they bring them to the sacrifice with the ब्रह्मसाम."

The question is whether "तान्पर्यग्निकृतानुत्सर्जति" "They relinquish those round whom fire has been taken," prohibits the rest of the sacrificial act and "ब्रह्मसाम्नालभते" "They bring them to the sacrifice with the ब्रह्मसाम," is an injunction with respect to another act or the first part prohibits the subsequent subsidiary acts by taking the torch fire round the animals and the second part is intended to have the effect of प्रतिप्रसव (counter-command) in course of time. The reply of the objector is that it indicates the completion of one act by reason of the common nature of the text just as in an अश्वमेध 'एवमग्निं कृताचारयानुत्सृजति' "They relinquish the wild animals round whom fire has been taken," the wild animals after the taking of the torch fire round them are relinquished. In this view, the second part of the text is a direction for another act.

संस्कारप्रतिषेधो वा वाक्यैकत्वे क्रतुसामान्यात् ॥

११ । २ । ५१ ॥

संस्कारप्रतिषेधः prohibition of the subsidiary act ; वा on the other hand ; वाक्यैकत्वे in one sentence ; क्रतुसामान्यात् by reason of the common nature of the sacrifice.

51. On the other hand, it is a prohibition of the subsidiary act by reason of the common nature of the sacrifice in one sentence.

The author says that you are mistaken. There is one text and the sacrifice is common. The text prohibits the subsidiary acts for the present, leaving them to be performed when an occasion arises.

वाक्यैकत्वे क्रतुसामान्यात् ॥ ११ । २ । ५२ ॥

वाक्यैकत्वे in one sentence ; क्रतुसामान्यात् by reason of the common nature of the sacrifice.

52. By reason of the common nature of the sacrifice in one sentence.

This sūtra has been separately numbered by Śabara though it has been read by him at the end of sūtra 51. The other commentators do not read it separately.

The author gives a reason in support of his view ; he says that if your view is correct, one part prohibits the performance and the other part lays down another act. The sentence will be split up which is a serious fault according to the principles of the śrīmāna. There is one sacrifice; you can not, therefore, have a text of such a double nature.

वपानां चानभिचारणस्य दर्शनात् ॥ ११ । २ । ५३ ॥ vapana omentum ; च and , anabicharaṇasya of non-sprinkling ; darśana by seeing.

53. And by seeing of the omentum being not sprinkled with ghee.

The author relies on the likṣ argument in support of his view “सव्या वा एतर्हि वपा यदनभिघृता ब्रह्मै ब्रह्मसाम यद् ब्रह्मसाम्नात्मते तेनासव्या-स्तेना मिघृता” “Omentum is therefore reverse (सव्य) because it is not sprinkled with ghee ; the ब्रह्मसाम is ब्रह्म ; that which is brought to a sacrifice with ब्रह्मसाम, is right and, therefore, ghee is sprinkled.”

If the text is a prohibition of the subsidiary acts, then it is possible for the omentum to be not sprinkled with ghee, because no ghee is left in the वृद्ध by performance of the प्रयाज ; but if it prohibits the action itself, then the sprinkling with ghee is possible for another act ब्रह्मसाम. This argument also supports the view of the author.

Adhikaraṇa xii, sūtras 54-57, dealing with the subject of पञ्चशारदीय.

पञ्चशारदीयास्तथेति चेत् ॥ ११ । २ । ५४ ॥

पञ्चशारदीयाः, Pañcha Śārādīya sacrifices, तथा similarly; इतिचेत् if you say.

54. “पञ्चशारदीय similarly” if you say.

There is an अहीन sacrifice named पञ्चशारदीय lasting for five days. It is performed annually for five years; hence it is called पञ्चशारदीय. In the first year, when the new moon day falls on the विशाखानक्षत्र, 17 young cows and 17 bullocks are taken. A torch is carried round them and they are sacrificially purified ; the cows are sacrificed and the bullocks are relinquished.

“सप्तदशमादतीक्ष्णत्वा अप्रधीता उपाकरोति, सप्तदशपृग्नीरक्षस्तान् पर्यग्नि-कृतान् प्रोक्षितान् इतरा आत्मते प्रेतानुत्पृजतिततः स वत्सरे राजीवो आनयति तांश्च शोक्नस्तान् पचन्निहतान्” “He prepares seventeen three-year old, barren cows for an offering to वत्स, seventeen thin bodied oxen round whom a fire brand has been carried and who have been sacrificially purified ; the one set is brought to the sacrifice and the other is relinquished : they bring the lotus-coloured ones in a year and those oxen round whom the fire brand has been carried "

The question for determination is, whether the 17 bullocks are to be relinquished as in the case of the wild animals in an अवशेष by completing the sacrifice or it is only a cessation of the subsidiary acts for the time being as in the case of the प्राजापत्य animals. The reply of the objector is that the principle laid down in the preceding अधिकरण applies i. e. it is a cessation of the subsidiary acts for the time being and they will be transferred forward for the last i.e. the 5th year.

न चोदनैकवाक्यत्वात् ॥ ११ । २ । ५५ ॥

न not so , चोदनैकवाक्यत्वात् by reason of one sentence of the injunction.

55. Not so, by reason of one sentence of the injunction.

The author says that it is a completion of the act, because there is one text, 17 cows are to be sacrificed and 17 bullocks are to be relinquished. There are 34 acts which are put on the same level by the text; you can not split it into two and say that under it, cows are to be sacrificed and bullocks are to be left for the time being to be used in the sacrifice in the last year. The text governs both sets of animals equally.

यातयामत्वाच्च ॥ ११ । २ । ५६ ॥

यातयामत्वात् by reason of being stale , च and.

56. And by reason of being stale.

The author gives another reason in support of his view. He says that the animals which have been used and relinquished in the first year will be stale for the next year. This act is, therefore, prohibited.

संस्कारणां च तद्दर्शनात् ॥ ११ । २ । ५७ ॥

संस्कारणां of the subsidiary acts ; च and ; तद्दर्शनात् by seeing it.

57. And by seeing the subsidiary acts.

The author gives another reason in support of his view. He says that taking of the fire brands round the animals and preparing them for the sacrifice annually also leads to the conclusion that these annual performances are separate and independent acts.

Adbikāraṇa xiii. sūtras 58-62, dealing with दशपेय.

दशपेये क्रयप्रतिकर्षात्पु.तिकर्षस्ततः प्राचां तत्समानं
तन्त्रं स्यात् ॥ ११ । २ । ५८ ॥

दशपेये in a दशपेय ; क्रयप्रतिकर्षात् by reason of the transference backward of the sale ; प्रतिकर्षः transference , ततः therefore , प्राचां of the preceding one ; तत् समानं equal to it, तन्त्रं, तन्त्रं , स्यात् is

58. In a दशपेय by reason of the transference backward of the sale, there is the transference of the 'preceding ones ; they are of equal तन्त्र.

In a राजसूय there are two soma sa. rifices called दशपेय and अभिषेचनीय lasting for a day each. Now the question is, whether these subsidiaries should be performed once for all or separately. The objector says that they should be performed once for all, because सोम is purchased for both अभिषेचनीय and दशपेय together. "सहसोमक्रीणात्प्रतिषेचनीयदशपेययोः" "Soma of the अभिषेचनीय and the दशपेय is purchased together."

The अभिषेचनीय being prior, the दशपेय will be transferred backward by reason of the purchase of the soma, because then only there can be a simultaneous purchase of सोम for both. When it is transferred, all the subsidiary acts which take place before the purchase of सोम will necessarily be transferred backwards. The reason is that both अभिषेचनीय and दशपेय are of equal तन्त्र. So the result is that the subsidiaries of both of them will be performed once for all.

समानवचनं तद्वत् ॥ ११ । २ । ५९ ॥

समानवचनं the text as to equality . तद्वत् similarly.

59. Similarly the text as to equality.

The objector supports his view by quoting a text as to the equality of these two soma sacrifice, "समानो वा एवयन्नो यद्दशपेयश्चाभिषेचनीयश्च" "Equal are the sacrifices called दशपेय and अभिषेचनीय."

They are of equal तन्त्र , so the sacrifices are also of equal grade.

अप्रतिकर्षो वाऽर्थहेतुत्वात् ॥ ११ । २ । ६० ॥

अप्रतिकर्षः no transference ; वा on the other hand , अर्चयेतुस्वात् by reason of the object being the cause.

60. There is no transference by reason of the object being the cause.

The author says that there are two kinds of purchase of soma, one with the object and the other only under the text. The first is done before the sacrifice is commenced, because no sacrifice can commence without soma. It may be exhausted before the sacrifice is over or the vendor may demand a higher price, so sufficient quantity of soma is purchased in the beginning. It is no doubt done once for all, but the other kind of purchase is only verbal and done in compliance with the text during the progress of the sacrifice at its proper time. This nominal purchase which is done under the command can not be transferred backward and will have to be performed at its proper time.

पूर्वस्मिंश्चावभृथस्य दर्शनात् ॥ ११ । २ । ६१ ॥

पूर्वस्मिन् in the preceding one ; च and ; अवभृथस्य of the sacrificial bath ; दर्शनात् by seeing.

61. And in the preceding one by seeing the sacrificial bath.

The author gives another reason in support of his view "समानं वा पत चर्वाविच्छिदं दति यदभिषेचनीयस्यावभृथमभ्यस्यति" "The equality of the sacrifices is violated, if they resort to the bath of the अभिषेचनीय."

Here we see that the sacrificial bath which is at the end of the sacrifice is said to be at the end of अभिषेचनीय ; if the principle of तत्र had applied, it would have been said to be at the end of दक्षयेत्.

दीक्षाणां चोत्तरस्य

दीक्षाणां of the initiation ; उत्तरस्य of the succeeding one.

And the initiation of the succeeding one.

This sūtra is not separately given in शबर's edition of जैमिनि's सूत्र, but he has commented upon it. With the exception of भाट्टदीपिका all the commentators have given the sūtra separately.

The author in order to support his view says that the initiation ceremony which takes place in the beginning is given in the दशपेय, "सद्योदीक्षयति सद्यः सोमं क्रीणाति" "He initiates him at once and he purchases soma at once."

It may be borne in mind that the अग्निवेदनीय is first in order and दशपेय is after it.

समानः कालसामान्यात् ॥ ११ । २ । ६२ ॥

समानः equal ; कालसामान्यात् by reason of the common time.

62. Equal, by reason of the common time.

The author says in reply to the objection raised in sūtra 89 that these two soma यज्ञाः are said to be equal, because they are performed in the same season. They are performed in the same रात्रसूय sacrifice.

Adhikaraga xiv sūtras 63-65 dealing with the sacrificial bath in बह्व्यप्रवास.

निष्कासस्यावभृथे तदेकदेशत्वात्पशुवत्प्रदानविप्रकर्षः
स्यात् ॥ ११ ॥ २ । ६३ ॥

निष्कासस्य of the remnants ; अवभृथे in a sacrificial bath , तदेकदेशत्वात् by reason of the partial nature ; पशुवत् like the parts of the animal ; प्रदान-विप्रकर्षः difference of offering , स्यात् is.

63. By reason of the partial nature of the remnants of the अग्निस्रा in a sacrificial bath, like the parts of the animal, there is a difference of offering. .

In the चातुर्मास्यवाग in the बह्व्यप्रवास the अग्निस्रा consecrated to बह्व्य is taken from the model sacrifice, "वारुण्यग्निष्कलेन तुषैश्चावभृथमभ्यवदति" "They resort to the bath with the remnants of the curd-dish consecrated to Varuṇa and with husk."

There the procedure is thus described. There are nine offerings in the बह्व्यप्रवास ; the eighth is अग्निस्रा for बह्व्य. The 9th is a cake baked on one pan to प्रजावति. In the अग्निस्रा is placed a ram made of barley flour. Then the ram with the अग्निस्रा is offered in the sacrifice and then afterwards having walked with the cake, the remnants of अग्निस्रा stick to the vessel and the husk of the barley, they go to the sacrificial bath.

The question for determination is, whether going with the अग्निस्रा and the husk subsequent to the procession with one कपाळ, after having performed the sacrifice with the ram made of barley is a separate proceeding like the offering of an animal, "प्रातः सवनेवपया प्रचर्यतृतीयसवनेद्दयाद्यं नै प्रचारः" "After having performed the ceremony with the omentum in the morning, there is a performance of the ceremony in the evening with the heart, the viscera." or is it a separate and independent act in itself or is it a mode of final disposal? The reply of the objector is that it is only a separate proceeding like the parts of the animals that are offered at different times; because the remnants of the आनिक्षा are only the parts of the अवशुध्य

अपनयो वा प्रसिद्धेनाभिसंयोगात् ॥ ११ । २ । ६४ ॥

अपनयः a separate act, वा on the other hand प्रसिद्धेन with the well known, अभिसंयोगात् by reason of the connection

64. On the other hand, it is a separate act, by reason of the connection with the well known

The author says that it is a separate act because it is connected with the sacrificial bath which is well known

प्रतिपत्तिरिति चेन्न कर्मसंयोगात् ॥ ११ । २ । ६५ ॥

प्रतिपत्तिः mode of final disposal, इति चेत् if you say, न नो so; कर्मसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the action.

65. If you say "it is a mode of final disposal" it is not so, by reason of the connection with the action

The author says that it is not a प्रतिपत्तिकर्म, because it is connected with the act itself.

adhikaraṇa xv sūtras 63 68 dealing with उदयनीय.

उदयनीये च तद्वत् ॥ ११ । २ । ६६ ॥

उदयनीये in उदयनीय; च and, तद्वत् similarly.

66. And in उदयनीय similarly.

In connection with the उपोसिद्धो, it is laid down, "प्रायणीयस्य निष्कासे उदयनीय मभिनिर्वपति" "With the remnants of the प्रायणीय, they complete उदयनीय."

The question for determination is whether the उदयनीय is a separate act, a mode of disposal or a purificatory act,

As said in the preceding अधिकरण ; the उदयनीय is a separate act itself. This is one view.

प्रतिपत्तिर्वाऽकर्मसंयोगात् ॥ ११ । २ । ६० ॥

प्रतिपत्तिः final disposal , वा on the other hand ; अकर्मसंयोगात् by reason having no connection with the action.

67. It is a final disposal by reason of its having no connection with the act.

The second view is that it is a mode of final disposal, because it is said to dispose of the remnants of अभिक्षा, belonging to the प्रायश्चित्त by निर्वाप (throwing them into fire)

अर्थकर्म वा शेषत्वाच्छ्रयणवत्तदर्थेनविधानात् ॥

॥ ११ । २ । ६८ ॥

अर्थकर्म, अर्थकर्म (purificatory act) , वा on the other hand ; शेषत्वात् by reason of being a शेष , श्रयणवत् like boiling , तदर्थेन for its object ; विधानात् by reason of being ordained.

68. On the other hand, it is an अर्थकर्म (purificatory act) by reason of its being subordinate like boiling, because it is ordained to be for its object.

The author gives his own view; it is an अर्थकर्म because the remnants of the अभिक्षा are subordinate to the offering in the fire (निर्वाप). The reason is that the word निष्कास is used in the locative case. It is a substratum; it is a means of purification and by the completion of उदयनीय, the object is obtained and the निष्कास which accomplishes it, becomes fruitful. So the उदयनीय with the निष्कास produces an invisible effect just as the boiling of milk does, "पयसामैत्रावरुणे धीणाति, घानामिहोरियोजने" "He mixes (soma) with milk in मैत्रावरुण cup and with parched grain in हारियोजन

END OF PĀDA II.

PĀDA III.

In the 2nd Pāda, the author has dealt with the principle of Tantra with reference to the sacrifices which take place on one and the same day. In the 3rd Pāda, he treats of those sacrifices which take place on different occasions.

Adhikaraṇa 1. dealing with the subject that time of the subsidiaries like the har &c, is different from the time of the principal

अङ्गानां मुख्यकालत्वाद्वचनादन्यकालत्वम् ॥११३१॥

अङ्गानाम् of the subsidiaries, मुख्यकालत्वात् by reason of the time of the principal; वचनात् under a text, अन्यकालत्वम् different time.

1. The time of the subsidiaries by reason of the time of the principal, is different under a text.

The author says that the time, space and agent of the subsidiaries have been described, they are governed by those of the principal but where a text lays down a different time, space and agency it will be so acted upon. Just as in the new moon sacrifice, in the forenoon the altar is made and in water bath is performed.

Adhikaraṇa 2. dealing with the subject that the principle of त्वेव applies to the establishment of fire.

द्रव्यस्य कर्मकालनिष्पत्तेः प्रयोगः सर्वार्थः स्यात्स्वकालत्वात् ॥ ११ । ३ । २ ॥

द्रव्यस्य of the material, कर्मकालनिष्पत्तेः by reason of being produced at the time of the action; प्रयोगः application, सर्वार्थः for the object of all, स्यात् is, स्वकालत्वात् by reason of its own time.

2. By reason of the material being produced at the time of the action, the application is for the object of all, because it has its own time.

There is a fixed-time for अग्न्याधान, "इत्येते ब्राह्मणोऽग्निमादधीत प्रीयो रात्र्य

शरदि वैश्यः "Let a ब्राह्मण establish fire in spring, let a king in summer and a वैश्य in autumn."

The question is, whether fire should be established once for all at its appointed time or should it be established at the time of each different sacrifice? The reply of the author is that अग्न्याधान is to be performed at its appointed time once for all. The fire can be taken for the use of any sacrifice that may be performed at a different time from that of the अग्न्याधान

Adhikṛap. in sūtras 3-4 dealing with the subject that in the अग्नीषोमीय animal sacrifice &c, the principle of त्वं applies to the sacrificial post.

यूपश्चाकर्मकालत्वात् ॥ ११ । ३ । ३ ॥

यूपः the sacrificial post, च and, अकर्मकालत्वात् by reason of the different time of action.

3. And the sacrificial post, by reason of the different time of action.

There are अग्नीषोमीय, सवनीय and अनुबन्ध्य animals in the ज्योतिषोम. The sacrificial posts are thus described. "आदिरे वज्राति, पलाशे वज्राति, रोहि तके वज्राति" "He ties it to a sacrificial post made of अदिर wood ; he ties it to one made of पलाश wood ; he ties it to one made of रोहितक wood."

The question is, whether there should be separate sacrificial posts or one only. The reply of the author is that the principle of Tantra applies to the sacrificial posts. The reason is that the animals are tied at different times, "वृथकालेदोषास्तु यूपं किरति कृतेवा राजनि" "They cut a sacrificial post at a different time, as at the time of initiation or purchase of the king (soma)."

एकयूपं च दर्शयति ॥ ११ । ३ । ४ ॥

एकयूपं one sacrificial post ; च and ; दर्शयति is seen.

4 And one sacrificial post is seen,

The author says that we see one sacrificial post in the text, "सवनीये पशौ त्रिवृतायूपं परिवीयेति त्रिवृता परिव्याणां विदधाति" "On tying a सवनीय animal to a sacrificial post with a thrice-twisted cord, he twists it round three times."

The result is that the principle of Tantra applies to the sacrificial post.

Adh karṇa iv satras 5-7, dealing with the subject that the principle of तृप्ति applies to the purificative rites of a sacrificial post.

संस्कारास्त्वावर्तैरन्नर्थकालत्वात् ॥ ११ । ३ । ५ ॥

संस्काराः the purificatory rites , तु on the other hand , आवरोहन् are repeated , अर्थकालत्वाद् by reason of the time of the object .

5. On the other hand, the purificatory rites are repeated by reason of the time of the object.

The rites connected with the यूप are washing, anointing, erecting and cutting. Now the question is, whether they are to be repeated or should be performed once for all. The reply of the objector is that they should be repeated, because they are to be performed at the time when an animal is tied. So they are to be repeated at every time when an animal is tied to the sacrificial post.

तत्कालस्तु यूपकर्मत्वात्तस्य धर्मविधानात्सर्वार्थानां

च वचनादन्यकालत्वम् ॥ ११ । ३ । ६ ॥

तत्कालः at that time, तु on the other hand, द्युपकर्मत्वात् by reason of their being the rite in connection with the sacrificial post; तस्य of it; धर्म विधानात् by reason of laying down the duty; सर्वार्थानाम् accomplishment of all objects; च and, वचनात् under a text; अन्यकालवत् another time.

6. On the other hand, at the same time, by reason of their being the rite in connection with the sacrificial post and by reason of laying down the duties in connection with it ; and there is another time under a text of all accomplishing objects.

The author says that these ceremonies are performed at the time of the initiation when the sacrificial post is fixed ; these rites are performed, because they are for it and because they are laid down. The grass is for the use of several animals ; an animal is tied to it at different times under a text. So the ceremonies in connection with the sacrificial post is performed at one time, though the animals may be tied to it at different times as occasion requires it.

सकृन्मानं च दर्शयति ॥ ११ । ३ । ७ ॥

सकृन्मानं measuring once ; च and , दर्शयति shows.

7. And once measuring shows.

The author relies on the किञ्च argument, “सिद्धतायूपं परिधीय सवनीयं पशुं नृपाकरोति” “He prepares a सवनीय animal for a sacrifice after tying it round the sacrificial post with a thrice-twisted cord.”

The cutting of the sacrificial post only once as appears from measuring of it by taking सकृन् round the rope shows that these rites are to be performed on the principle of तत्र only but not on the principle of आवाप.

Adhikarava v. sūtras 8—11. dealing with the subject that the principle of तत्र applies to स्वह.

स्वरुस्तन्त्रापवर्गः स्यादस्वकालत्वात् ॥ ११ । ३ । ८ ॥

स्वहः, स्वह ; तत्रापवर्गः the completion by तत्र , स्यात् is , अस्वकालत्वात् by reason of its having no time.

8. The completion by तत्र in the case of स्वह is by reason of its having no time.

As to the construction of a स्वह, see chap iv Pāda II अधिकरण 1 at p. 216. The question is, whether the स्वह is to be fixed at the time of each anointment of the animals. The objector says that the principle of तत्र applies to it and as soon as the anointment is over, it is thrown away into fire, there is the completion or end of the स्वह. The reason is that it has no time of its own ; it is used at the time of the anointment, “स्वरुणा वा स्वधितिना वा पशुं समनक्ति” “He anoints an animal with a स्वह or an axe”

साधारणे वाऽनुनिष्पत्तिस्तस्य साधारणत्वात् ॥

११ । ३ । ८ ॥

साधारणे in common , वा on the other hand ; अनुनिष्पत्तिः getting after ; तस्य its ; साधारणत्वात् by reason of its being common.

9. On the other hand, in common it is got after by reason of its being common.

The author says that both यूप and स्वह are produced from one tree;

the first chip that falls from the wood which is prepared as दूष is called स्वर. It is prepared after the दूष and is fixed at the top of the दूष. The author says that the same principle applies to it. As one दूष is sufficient for several animals, so is one स्वर "यदेतदूषस्य स्वरं करोति" "Because he prepares a स्वर of this sacrificial post."

The result is that there is only one स्वर which is common to all.

सोमान्ते च प्रतिपत्तिदर्शनात् ॥ ११ । ३ । १० ॥

सोमान्ते at the end of a soma sacrifice, च and , प्रतिपत्तिदर्शनात् seeing the प्रतिपत्ति (final disposal)

10. And seeing the प्रतिपत्ति (final disposal) at the end of soma sacrifice.

The author says in reply to the statement made by the objector in sūtra 8 where he says that the principle of तत्र applies up to the end of स्वर when अग्निषोमीय animal is done away with. The author says that the प्रतिपत्तिकर्म or final disposal takes place at the end of all three सवनस "संस्थिते सोमेऽग्नौ प्रस्तरं प्रहरति स्वरं वा यद्वैशसाय" "On the completion of a सोमयाग, the grass or स्वर is thrown in the fire for the final end of the sacrifice."

The principle of तत्र, therefore, extends to the final disposal of all the सवनस.

तत्कालो वा प्रस्तरवत् ॥

तत्कालः its time , वा on the other hand ; प्रस्तरवत् like the grass.

On the other hand, its time (is) like the grass.

This सूत्र does not find its place in the edition of शबर but it is commented upon by other commentators excepting the author of भाट्टदीपिका.

The objector says that it is the time of the स्वर which is to be offered in the fire at the end of each सवन just as grass is done.

न चोत्पत्तिवाक्यत्वात्प्रदेशात्प्रस्तरं तथा ॥११॥३॥११॥

न not so ; च and ; उत्पत्तिः origin , वाक्यत्वान् by reason of the text , प्रदेशात् by reason of the principle of अतिदेश , प्रस्तरे in the case of grass ; तथा similarly.

11. Not so; by reason of the text as to its origin as it is in case of the grass by reason of the principle of अतिदेश.

The author gives a reply He says that the text which ordains the final disposal, is "सोमांते प्रसरं प्रहरति स्वरं वा यज्ञवैशाखाय" "He throws grass or a स्वर at the end of a सोम sacrifice for the final end of the sacrifice"

The text shows that at the end of soma, the final disposal of grass and स्वर takes place, but the final disposal of grass takes place at the end of each सवन If you hold that the grass is to be finally disposed of at the end of each सवन and स्वर is to be disposed of at the end of all सवना, there will be a split of a sentence which is to be avoided. The case of grass is entirely different, its final disposal is regulated by the principle of अतिदेश. Its disposal is laid down in दर्शगुणसायम. "आशिर्मिः प्रसरं प्रहरति" "He throws grass in the fire with benedictions."

So the illustration of the final disposal of the grass does not hold good; it is disposed of under a चोदक text while स्वर is disposed of after the performance of all सवना under a direct text.

Adhikaraṇa fr. sūtras 12-14 dealing with the subject of throwing of the black antelope's horn.

अहर्गणे विषाणप्रासनं धर्मविप्रतिषेधादन्ते प्रथमे
वाहनि विकल्पः स्यात् ॥ ११ । ३ । १२ ॥

अहर्गणे in the sacrifices lasting for days, विषाणप्रासनं the throwing of a horn; धर्मविप्रतिषेधात् by reason of the difference of the duties, अन्ते on the last day; प्रथमे on the first; वा or अहनि day, विकल्पः, option स्यात् is.

12. In the sacrifices lasting for days, the throwing of a horn by reason of the difference of the duties, is optional; either it is on the first day or on the last day.

A black antelope's Horn is used for scratching the body, "कृष्णविषाणया कंदूयति." "He scratches with the horn of a black antelope." when it is no longer required, it is thrown away in a pit. "नीतामुदक्षिणामुचात्वाले कृष्णविषाणां प्रास्यति" "Having carried the fee, he throws the horn of a black antelope in a pit."

It is said in connection with a व्योतिहोम; it is transferred to the अहर्गण under a चोदक text: now the question is, when should it be thrown either on the first day or on the last day? The reply of the objector is that it is entirely optional. If you throw it on the first day, then the text which lays it down after the payment of fees is not complied with. If you throw it on the last day, the rubbing of the body with the hand which should be done, will not be complied with. So in this state of dilemma, the objector says that in either case, there will be a transgression of the rule; there is, therefore, an option.

पाणेस्त्वश्रुतिभूतत्वाद्विषाणानियमः स्यात्प्रातः सवन-
मध्यत्वाच्छिष्टे चाभिप्रवृत्तत्वात् ॥ ११ । ३ । १३ ॥

पाणे: of the hand, तु on the other hand; अश्रुतिभूतत्वात् being not heard of, विषाणानियमः of the mode as to scratching by horn, स्यात् is; प्रातः, प्रातःसवनः; मध्यत्वात् by reason of being in the middle; शिष्टे on being sanctioned; च and, अभिप्रवृत्तत्वात् by reason of commencement being made.

13. On the other hand, by reason of the scratching by hand being not heard of, the rule as to scratching by horn is prescribed, because there are many *प्रातःसवन*s and because the commencement is made of that which is sanctioned,

The author says that there is no authority for scratching with the hand; the scratching is done with the horn only, you can not, therefore, throw it on the first day because there will be many *प्रातःसवन*s where the horn is required, before the अहर्गण is over; when you have commenced performing the sacrifice, you will have to do it under the rule as laid down. The horn will be, therefore, thrown into the pit after the fee of the sacrifice is paid i.e. when the sacrifice is completely over.

शिष्टे चाभिप्रवृत्तत्वात् ॥ ११। ३ । १४ ॥

शिष्टे in what has been laid down; च and, अभिप्रवृत्तत्वात् by reason of having undertaken to perform.

14. And by reason of having undertaken to perform what has been laid down.

This sūtra has been separately numbered in शबर's edition, but excepting the author of भाट्टदीपिका, other commentators have not separately numbered it. It is a concluding part of the sūtra 13. It is already commented upon in connection with sūtra 13. It requires no separate commentary, you can consider it a separate reason in favour of the author's view.

Adhikaraṇa vii. sūtras 15-16 dealing with the subject of breaking silence.

वाग्विसर्गो हविष्कृता बीजभेदे तथा स्यात् ॥

११ । ३ । १५ ॥

वाग्विसर्गः breaking of silence, हविष्कृता by the offering maker; बीजभेदे in difference of seeds, तथा similarly; स्यात् is

15. Similarly is the breaking of silence by the offering-maker in the नानाबीजेषु.

In a राजसूय, there is the नानाबीजेषु. In that connection there are texts, "अग्नयेगृहपतये आश्लामष्टाकपालं निर्वपेत्, सोमायवनस्पतये श्यामाकंचरं, सवित्रे प्रसवित्रे सतीनानामष्टाकपालं" "Let him offer a cake of rice of rapid growth (called āśa) baked on eight potsherds to the domestic fire, the master of the house, boiled millet to Soma, the lord of the forest and cake of different varieties of peas, baked on eight potsherds to सविता the stimulator."

For the variety of grains, only one mortar is used; they are, therefore, threshed successively. In the model sacrifice, it is said, "अपः प्रणे व्यन् वाचं यच्छति तांसह हविष्कृता विच्छजति" "Desirous of carrying holy water, he restrains tongue; they loosen it along with the हविष्कृत्."

The silence is broken at the time of carrying of the holy waters when the offering maker is called. It is transferred here under the चोदक text. The question is whether silence should be broken at the time when हविष्कृत् is called or at the end. The reply of the author is that it should be done at the end, as laid down in the preceding Adhikaraṇa.

यथाह्वानमपीतिचेत् ॥ ११ । ३ । १६ ॥

यथा just as; आह्वानम् calling; अपि also; इतिचेत् if you say.

16. "Just as calling also" if you say.

This sūtra does not find its place in the edition of other commentators excepting भाइदीपिका. If the silence is broken before calling इविष्कृत, it will be against the rule of observing silence before calling इविष्कृत. If the silence is broken after it, the rule enforcing silence after it will be broken. So in view of the sūtra 13 of the preceding अधिकरण, silence should be broken at the end.

Adhikaraṇa viii dealing with the तन्त्र nature of the animal and cake sacrifices.

पशौ च पुरोडाशे समानतन्त्रं भवेत् ॥ ११ । ३ । १७ ॥

पशौ in the animal sacrifice; च and, पुरोडाशे in the पुरोडाश sacrifice, समान तन्त्र the same तन्त्र; भवेत् should be.

17. And in the animal and the पुरोडाश sacrifices the same तन्त्र applies.

There is an अग्नीषोमीय animal sacrifice in which there are both animal and पुरोडाश offerings. The question is, whether the silence should be broken after the animal sacrifice or after the पुरोडाश offering. The arguments both pros and cons of the preceding Adhikaraṇas mutatis mutandis apply to the present case. The result is that the silence should be broken once for all at the end of both sets of offerings.

Adhikaraṇa ix. sūtras 18-21 dealing with the subject of joining fire.

अंगप्रधानार्थोयोगः सर्वापवर्गं विमोकः स्यात्* ॥

११ । ३ । १८ ॥

अंगप्रधानार्थः being for the subsidiary and the principal; योगः joining (of fire), सर्वापवर्गे on the completion of the whole, च and, विमोकः the release; स्यात् is

18. The joining of fire being for the object of the subsidiary and principal, the release is after the completion of the whole.

In connection with the अग्न्याधान it is laid down, “अग्निं धुनज्मिश्रं वसाधुतेने तिलुहोति । अग्निमेव तद्युनक्ति” “पुनरिमंस्तनं मधुमंतं धयामीत्यग्निविमोकं जुहोति”

* The सूत्र is differently read by other commentators with the exception of बहदेव.

“I join fire with powerful ghee' saying this, he makes an offering ; he, therefore, joins fire only ; 'again I suck this sweet breast' he offers the release of fire.”

The question for determination is, whether the joining of fire is for the purpose of the subsidiary and primary acts and its release is therefore, at the end of all or it is for the object of the principal and therefore its release is after the completion of the primary. The reply of the objector is that it is for the object of the primary and subsidiary and the release of the fire is after the completion of the entire ceremony.

प्रधानापवर्गे वा तदर्थत्वात् ॥ ११ । ३ । १९ ॥

प्रधानापवर्गे on the completion of the primary , वा on the other hand ; तदर्थत्वात् by reason of its being for its object.

19. On the other hand, on the completion of the primary by reason of its being for its object.

The author says that the joining of fire is for the primary, so the release of the fire is after the completion of the primary, “पञ्चभिर्युनक्ति पाँको यज्ञो यावानेव यज्ञस्तमात्मते” “He joins with five, because a sacrifice is five-fold ; in proportion to a sacrifice he brings it.” This text shows that mixing of fire is for the purpose of the sacrifice.

अवभृथे च तद्वत्प्रधानार्थस्य प्रतिषेधोऽपवृत्तार्थत्वात् ॥ ॥ ११ । ३ । २० ॥

अवभृथे in a sacrificial bath ; च and , तद्वत् similarly ; प्रधानार्थस्य for the primary ; प्रतिषेधे prohibition , अपवृत्तार्थत्वात् by reason of the completion.

20. And in a sacrificial bath similarly for the primary; there is a prohibition by reason of the completion.

The author says that in an अवभृथ, the prohibition relating to the appointment of a hotâ and the repetition of गोत्र is proper “नहोतारं वृणीतेनार्षेयं” “There is no appointment of a hotâ nor is there a repetition of family names.”

The appointment of a hotâ is for soma (“यद्योतारं वृणीते जगति तद्वृणीते” “When he appoints: होतार, he woos the whole world.”) and will ensure for the benefit of the entire sacrifice but for the prohibition which is, therefore, proper. On the parity of reasoning, the joining and release of fire is for the principal.

अहर्गणे च प्रत्यहं स्यात्तदर्थत्वात् ॥ ११ । ३ । २१ ॥

अहर्गणे in an अहर्गण , च and , प्रत्यहं every day; स्यात् is, तदर्थत्वात् by reason of its being for it.

21. And in the अहर्गण, it is every day by reason of its being for it.

The author relies on the second illustration in support of his view; he says that in the द्वादशाह the joining and release of fire takes place daily. "सवा अहरह्यु'नक्ति अहरहर्विमु'चति" "He joins (fire) daily, he releases it daily." कुमारिक मह् has interpreted the अधिकरण otherwise: what is पूर्वपक्ष here is सिद्धांत there and what is सिद्धांत here is पूर्वपक्ष there.

Adhikaraṇa ix. sūtras 22-33 dealing with the subject of the call of सुब्रह्मण्य.

सुब्रह्मण्या तु तन्त्रं दीक्षावदन्यकालत्वात् ॥ ११ । ३ । २२ ॥

सुब्रह्मण्या the call of सुब्रह्मण्य; तु on the other hand; तन्त्रं by तन्त्र; दीक्षावत् like the initiation, अन्यकालत्वात् by reason of the different time.

22. The call of सुब्रह्मण्य is by तन्त्र like the initiation by reason of the different time.

In a द्वादशाह there is the time of उपसत् called प्रवर्ग्य day where इष्टि is performed. Now the question is, whether the call of सुब्रह्मण्य should be performed once for all or at different times, "अयहेसुत्या मागच्छुद्वपदे सुत्या मागच्छुष्वः सुत्य मागच्छ" "Come to the extraction of soma juice on the third day; come to the extraction of juice on the second day; come to the extraction of juice to-morrow."

The reply of the objector as embodied in the sūtra is that it should be done once for all, because its time is different from that of the दीक्षा which when once performed enures for the benefit of the entire sacrifice. This sūtra is an entire अधिकरण in all other commentaries but in the edition of शबर it is treated as the view of the objector.

तत्कालाच्चादावर्तेत प्रयोगतो विशेषसम्बन्धात् ॥ ११ । ३ । २३ ॥

सत्कालत्वात् by reason of being of that time ; आवर्तत्वे should be repeated ; प्रयोगतः in the application ; विशेषतयोगात् by reason of the connection with the special.

23. By reason of being of that time, it should be repeated in the application, because there is a connection with the special.

Now the question for determination is what is about the call of the सुगन्धपत्र which is done at the time when soma is extracted (सुत्याकारः)? The reply of the author is that it should be repeated at every extraction because there is a special connection with the application, "अद्यसुत्यामागच्छ"

The word 'अद्य' 'today' shows that it is to be done on every occasion.

अप्रयोगाङ्गमिति चेत् ॥ ११ । ३ ॥ २४ ॥

अप्रयोगाङ्गं not a part of the application , इति चेत् if you say.

24. "It is not a part of the application" if you say.

The objector says that the word अद्य is not a part of the application in the model sacrifice whence it has been transferred by the principle of अविवेक 'सुत्यामागच्छ' "come to the extraction of soma juice"

This applies equally to any day So the call is to be made once for all but should not be repeated.

प्रयोगनिर्देशात्कर्तृभेदवत्* ॥ ११ । ३ । २५ ॥

प्रयोगनिर्देशात् by reason of the direction of the application ; कर्तृभेदवत् like the difference of the agent

25. By reason of the direction of the application like the difference of the agent.

The author says that though the word अद्य is not essential, yet the performance that is done for any day ensures for the benefit of that particular day just as we have seen in the case of विहार where अद्ययु* places the 8 offerings in the northern part of it and प्रतिप्रस्थादा does in the southern part of it. As the principle of आवाप applies there by reason of the

* There is 'हवात्' before 'प्रयोग' in other editions.

difference of space, so it also does here by reason of the difference of time. (See chap xi Pāda ii Sūtra 33 at p. 894.)

तद्भूतस्थानादग्निवदिति चेत्तदपवर्गस्तदर्थत्वात् ॥

११ । ३ । २६ ॥

तद्भूतस्थानात् by reason of the deity of that invocation ; अग्निवत् like fire ; इति चेत् if you say ; तदपवर्गः its end , तदर्थत्वात् by reason of that being for it.

26. "If you say that by reason of the deity of that invocation like fire"; (the reply is) that there is the end by reason of that being for it.

The author gives a reply to the objection of the objector which is also embodied in the sūtra. The objector says that the deity is invoked for one day just as fire and that invocation enures for the benefit of the whole sacrifice ; so also here, the सुवह्मण्य may be invited once for all. The author says that the invitation is seen to be ending on the same day, because it is only for the object of that one like other purificatory rites, just as sprinkling water on fire. So it is to be repeated.

अग्निवदिति चेत् ॥ ११ । ३ । २७ ॥

अग्निवत् like fire , इति चेत् if you say.

27. 'Like fire' if you say.

The objector says that the establishment of fire enures for the benefit of the whole sacrifice, so does the invitation of the सुवह्मण्य.

न प्रयोगसाधारण्यात् ॥ ११ । ३ । २८ ॥

न not so ; प्रयोगसाधारण्यात् by reason of the common nature of the application.

28. Not so by reason of the common nature of the application.

The अन्वयाधान is performed at its own time ; but here in the case of the invitation of the सुवह्मण्य, it is done for that act only. It enures for the benefit of that act for which it is performed.

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ ११ । ३ । २९ ॥

किङ्करत्वात् by seeing the किङ्क ; च and.

29. And by seeing the किङ्क also.

The author relies on the किङ्क argument. “एवं ह्यहसंस्थिते संस्थितेऽह्न्याग्नीमा नारं प्रविश्य सुब्रह्मण्य सुब्रह्मण्या माह्वयेति प्रेष्यति” “He says thus ‘on each departure of a day, entering the habitation of the ~~अग्नी~~ O! Subrahmanya, call सुब्रह्मण्या’ thus he commands.

This text also shows that this invitation takes place every day.

तद्धि तथेति चेत् ॥ ११ । ३ । ३० ॥

तत् that ; हि because ; तथा similarly ; इति चेत् if you say.

30. ‘That is similarly’ if you say.

The objector says that दूपाहुति is performed once for all ; it enures for the benefit of all. See chap xi pāda ii. : Adhikaraṇa vi at p. 891. The word क्व refers to the दूपाहुति ceremony.

नाशिष्टत्वादितरन्यायत्वाच्च ॥ ११ । ३ । ३१ ॥

क्व not so ; नाशिष्टत्वात् by reason of that being not laid down ; इतर न्याय-त्वात् by reason of another principle ; च and.

31. Not so, by reason of that being not laid down and by reason of another principle.

The author says that the example of दूपाहुति does not hold good for two reasons, first that it is a prohibition of आहवनीय fire (see sūtra 27. at
p. 899.) and secondly that you can not fix a limit of the place. (See sūtra
28. at p. 892.)

विध्यैकत्वादिति चेत् ॥ ११ । ३ । ३२ ॥

विध्यैकत्वात् by reason of one injunction ; इति चेत् if you say.

32. “By reason of one injunction” if you say.

The objector says that one विधि alone governs it just as you have one कसीवरी (water taken for the purpose of soma) and one जवन्मृग,

न कृत्स्नस्य पुनः प्रयोगात्प्रधानवत् ॥ ११ । ३ । ३३ ॥

क्व not so ; कृत्स्नस्य of the whole ; पुनः again ; प्रयोगात् by reason of the application ; प्रधानवत् like the principal.

33. Not so, by reason of the application of the whole again, like the principal.

The author says in reply that a ceremony that is done once benefits that act only by reason of the difference of time but when it is repeated, it benefits all. The primaries are repeated every day. The अग्निपत्र, पद्मान, cups, spoons and praises like स्तोत्र and शस्त्र are also repeated, but वसतीवरी (water taken for the purpose of soma) is done once only. The author says that the soma extraction takes place every day, so the invitation of सुवक्ष्य is to be repeated every day at the time of सुत्या (extraction of soma)

Adhikaraṇa xii sūtras 34-45 dealing with the subject of the maintenance of the vessels.

लौकिके तु यथाकामी संस्कारानर्थलोपात् ॥११॥३४॥

लौकिके in the ordinary things; तु on the other hand, यथाकामी just as one wishes, संस्कारानर्थलोपात् by reason of the non-omission of the purificatory rites.

34 On the other hand, in the ordinary things just as one wishes by reason of the non-omission of the purificatory rite.

The instances of the ordinary things are following; 1st, place "समेदर्शपूर्णमासाभ्यां यजेत" "Let him perform the new and full moon sacrifices on the even ground." 2nd, agents, ("दर्शपूर्णमासयोः यत्नकत्वोश्चत्वार आत्विजः" "There are four priests of the new and full moon sacrifices.") and 3rd, sacrificial utensils such as vessels, spoons &c.

The question is, whether they will serve the purpose of another sacrifice or not, or new ones should be provided for. The reply naturally is that new ones should be procured, because things once used should not be used again in a sacrifice. The reply of the author is that it depends upon one's will, he may use the same place and priests or he may procure the new ones, there is no omission of the purificatory rite by taking new ones by reason of its absence. There is, therefore, no hard and fast rule.

The question is, how do you meet the text as to the priests? ("आत्विजाणां वाचिष्ठिरित्येव" A priest and a preceptor should not be disobeyed)" The reply is that it is in connection with man's duties (पुरुषधर्म) but it is not a rule of procedure of a sacrifice (कर्मधर्म) This is about the agent and place. Having left this portion of enquiry, Śābara has abruptly taken another subject in his commentary ; while other commentators have treated this sūtra as a separate Adhikaraṇa. He proceeds to deal with the sacrificial vessels.

यज्ञायुधानि धार्यैरन्प्रतिपत्तिविधानाद्जीषवत् ॥

११ । ३ । ३५ ॥

यज्ञायुधानि the sacrificial weapons, धार्यैरन् should be maintained ; प्रतिपत्तिः final disposal, विधानात् by reason of injunction ; जीषवत् like the soma dregs.

35. The sacrificial weapons should be maintained by reason of the injunction for their final disposal like the soma dregs.

The sacrificial vessels should be maintained because they are ordered to be finally disposed of with the dead body of the sacrificer, “आहिताग्निमग्निमिदं हति यज्ञमप्सु पात्रैश्च” “They burn one who has established fire with the sacrificial vessels.” The author who holds that the sacrificial vessels should be maintained till the death of the sacrificer gives an illustration of soma dregs which are kept till the sacrificial bath is over. ‘अप्सु महरति’ “They throw them in water.”

यजमानसंस्कारो वा तदर्थः श्रूयते तत्र यथाकामी तदर्थं त्वात् ॥ ११ । ३ । ३६ ॥

यजमानसंस्कारः, purificatory rite of a sacrificer ; वा on the other hand ; तदर्थः for this object ; श्रूयते is heard ; तत्र there ; यथाकामी according to one's wishes ; तदर्थं त्वात् for its object.

36. On the other hand, it is a purificatory rite of the sacrificer and they are for the object there ; so one may use them according to his wishes, being for the object of the action.

The objector says that the vessels are for the object of the sacrifice ; they can be used according to the wishes of the sacrificer. He may use the new vessels or use the same vessels. Those vessels may be used which may serve the purpose of the sacrifice.

मुख्यधारणं वा मरणस्यानियतत्वात् ॥११।३।३७॥

मुख्यधारणं maintenance of the vessels of the first sacrifice, वा on the other hand, मरणस्य of the death, अनियतत्वात् by reason of uncertainty.

37. On the other hand, the vessels of the first sacrifice should be kept by reason of the death being uncertain.

The author says in reply that the vessels used in the first sacrifice should be preserved for this reason that if the sacrificer dies after its completion and before the other sacrifice is commenced, the cremation ceremony will have to be performed without the vessels if they are not preserved.

यो वा यजनीयेहनि म्रियेत सोऽधिकृतः स्यादुपवेषवत् ॥

११ । ३ । ३८ ॥

यः one, who, वा on the other hand; यजनीये in the sacrifice; जहनि day; सः he; अधिकृतः is entitled; स्यात् is; उपवेषवत् like the lower part of the branch.

38. On the other hand, one who dies on the sacrificial day, he is entitled like the lower part of a branch.

The objector says that there is no necessity of preserving the vessels; suppose the sacrificer dies on the very day of the sacrifice, he is entitled to the cremation ceremony, just as a सन्नयि is entitled to use the lower part of the branch in arranging the pans and cinders. What he means is that for a sacrificer who has commenced the sacrifice for the first time, the vessels will be finally disposed of, in the funeral pyre without being used. So the new vessels can be used. He gives the example of सन्नयि; he says that the lower part of the branch of a tree is used in placing the pans for baking the cakes, but not in the case of a non-sannaya; you can not use the lower part of it for the purpose.

न शास्त्रलक्षणत्वात् ॥ ११ । ३ । ३९ ॥

न not so; शास्त्रलक्षणत्वात् by reason of the definition being laid down.

39. Not so, by reason of the definition as laid down.

The author says that the illustration does not hold good. The lower part of the branch is for the सन्नयि and not for any other. The branch is used for driving off calves, as the lower part of it is used for arranging the potherds. Such is not the case here ; you have to cremate the body with the vessels ; the vessels are there on the second day ; they can be disposed of.

उत्पत्तिर्वा पुयोजकत्वादाशिरवत् ॥ ११ । ३ । ४० ॥

उत्पत्तिः origin ; वा on the other hand, पुयोजकत्वात् by reason of their being subsidiary ; आशिरवत् like the milk.

40. On the other hand, new ones by reason of their being subsidiary like the milk.

The author says in the alternative ; what harm is there if these vessels are taken anew? they are subordinate just as in a ऋतपेय another cow is taken for milking, “ऋतपेये घृतव्रतौभवतः” “अभावे व्रतदुहोऽन्यायजमानस्य व्रतदुहामाशिरैरुहन्ति” “They observe a fast in a ऋतपेय.” “In the absence of a cow required for milk in a fast, he milks another cow of the sacrificer for milk.”

शब्दासामञ्जस्यमिति चेत् ॥ ११ । ३ । ४१ ॥

शब्दासामञ्जस्यम् meaninglessness of the word, इति चेत् if you say.

41. “Meaninglessness of the word” if you say.

The objector says then “the sacrificial vessels” have no meaning. The word यज्ञपात्र is used for the vessels that have been used in a sacrifice but not for the new vessels.

तथाऽऽशिरैऽपि ॥ ११ । ३ । ४२ ॥

तथा similarly, आशिरै in the milk, अपि also.

42. Similarly in the milk also.

The author says that the new cow which is obtained for the sacrifice for milking, can not be considered व्रतदुह् ; but if the new cow is a व्रतदुह् so also the new यज्ञपात्र.

शास्त्रात्तु विपुयोगस्तत्रैकद्रव्यचिकीर्षा प्रकृतावयेहापूर्वार्थवद्भूतोपदेशः ॥ ११ । ३ । ४३ ॥

शास्त्रात् by reason of being laid down ; च and ; विपुयोगः separation ; तत्र there ; ऐकद्रव्यचिकीर्षा desire of one substance ; प्रकृती in the model sacrifice ; अवहे here ; अवपूर्वार्थवद् like the object of extraordinary principle ; भूतोपदेशः statement of fact,

43. On the other hand, there is the separation by reason of its being laid down ; there is a desire of one substance. Here there is the statement of fact in order to achieve the extraordinary principle.

The author says that this meaninglessness is caused under the scriptural command "वृत्तव्रतौभवतः". "They observe fast."

In the अयोनिहोम which is the model sacrifice, in order to live on the milk diet, milk is obtained from ब्रवदुह् cow. This practice obtains by अतिदेश in the अतपेय and a new cow is obtained for the milk. Here in the present case, burning of those vessels which are once used up is possible; it is only in some extraordinary cases that the strict compliance with the text is not observed and the final disposal of the unused up vessels takes place.

पूकृत्यर्थत्वात्पौर्णमास्याः क्रियेरन् ॥ ११ । ३ । ४४ ॥

पूकृत्यर्थत्वात् by reason of being for the model sacrifice ; पौर्णमास्याः from the full moon sacrifice ; क्रियेरन् should be preserved.

44. By reason of their being for the model sacrifice, they should be preserved from the full moon sacrifice.

In other editions, another Adhikaraṇa commences from this sūtra. The question for determination is, whence these vessels should be preserved i.e. what is the starting point ? The reply of the objector is that from the time of the full moon sacrifice. The text as to the sacrificial vessels belongs to no particular context. So it is for the दशपूर्णिमासयागाः, the model sacrifices. Their origin is there, so they should be preserved from the period when the full moon sacrifice is performed.

अग्न्याधेये वाऽविप्रतिषेधात्तानि धारयेन्मरणस्यानिमि-

त्तत्वात् ॥ ११ ३ । ४५ ॥

अग्न्याधेये in the establishment of fire वा on the other hand, अविप्रतिषेधात् by reason of the non-obstruction, तानि hey ; धारयेन् should be preserved ; मरणस्य of death, अनिमित्तत्वात् by reason of being uncertain.

45. On the other hand, in the establishment of fire by reason of the non-obstruction, they should be preserved because death is uncertain.

The author says that these vessels should be preserved from the time of the establishment of the fire. The वयमान and offerings are borrowed from the full moon sacrifice under the चोदक text; but as the अग्न्याधान takes place before the पूर्वमासयोग, and if the sacrificer happens to die before the full moon sacrifice and after अग्न्याधान, his body will be cremated without the vessels. So the vessels should be preserved from the time of the अग्न्याधान.

Adhikarapa xli dealing with the subject that the principle of तृप्ति applies to place, agent and vessels.

प्रतिपत्तिर्वा यथान्येषाम् ॥ ११ । ३ । ४६ ॥

प्रतिपत्तिः the final disposal, वा on the other hand, यथान्येषाम् like that of others.

46. On the other hand, the final disposal is like that of others.

This sūtra is in continuation of sūtra 34 in Śabara's edition, (see at p. 923.) but in other texts, it belongs to the same Adhikarapa. The author says that the final disposal of these vessels is like that of other vessels to which soma has stuck. They are thrown in the water at the time of the sacrificial bath; while on the other hand the final disposal of these vessels consists in throwing them on the body of the sacrificer but not in burning them "दक्षिणेपाशोऽहुमासादयति" "In the right hand, they place अहु."

Adhikarapa xlii, sūtras 47-53 dealing with the use of सोम

उपरिष्ठात्सोमानां प्राजापत्यैश्चरन्तीति ॥ ११ । ३ । ४७ ॥

उपरिष्ठात् सोमानां subsequent to soma; प्राजापत्यैः with प्राजापत्य animals; चरन्तीति they commence.

47. Subsequent to soma, they commence with the प्राजापत्य animals.

This sūtra is incomplete in Śabara and आह्वयिका editions but in other editions there is a further text, "सर्वेषामविशेषाद्वाच्योहि प्रकृतिकालः" "by reason of there being general to all, because the time of the model sacrifice is only inferential." This additional portion forms a part of the commentary of Śabara.

In the वाजपेय, there are प्राजापत्य animals borrowed from the model sacrifice. In that connection, it is said, "उपरिहृतसोमानं प्राजापत्यैश्चरति" "Subsequent to Soma, they commence with animals consecrated to प्राजापति."

There the order is as follows :

In the 3rd सवन, the first is आर्मवपवमान, then the soma accompanied with songs up to वैश्वदेव cups, then the soma homa with songs, then अग्निहोम songs and the उक्त्य&c the modification of soma. The questions propounded for discussion are, whether the performance of this प्राजापत्य is at the time of आर्मवपवमान or at the time of soma accompanied with songs or at the time of the soma modification or at the end of all. The reply is that it is to be performed after all, because the word soma is used in the general sense. So it is to be performed after all at the end, because the time of आर्मवपवमान which would come from the model sacrifice under a बोद्ध text is inferential and the time laid down by the direct text will, therefore, prevail. This is one view which is the author's view.

अङ्गविपर्यासोविनावचनादिति चेत् ॥ ११ । ३ । ४८ ॥

अङ्गविपर्यासः confusion of the parts ; विनावचनाद् without any command ; इति चेद् if you say.

48. "There will be confusion of the parts without any command" if you say.

The objector says that there will be a transposition of the order as to the parts, if you perform the प्राजापत्य after all somas. As for instance, "अग्निमादतादूर्ध्वमनुयाजैश्चरति प्रहृत्य परिधीनं हारियोजने नमश्चरति" "They commence अनुयाज after अग्निमादत्." "After finally disposing of परिधि, he commences हारियोजन "

Both these, namely, the order of अनुयाज and the disposal of the परिधि will be upset.

उत्कर्षः संयोगात्कालमात्रमितरत्र ॥ ११ । ३ । ४९ ॥

उत्कर्षः transference forward, संयोगाद् by reason of the connection; कालमात्र only a time, इतरत्र elsewhere.

49. There will be transference forward by reason of the connection with (the animal sacrifice); elsewhere it indicates only a time.

The reply of the author is that the अनुयाज and परिधि प्रहरण will be transferred to the animal sacrifice which seems to be proper under the circumstances; what do you say as to the text which lays down that after the अग्नीमारुत they perform अनुयाज? “अग्निमारुतादूर्ध्वमनुयाजैश्चरन्ति प्रहृत्यपरिधिं जुहोति” “They commence अनुयाज after अग्निमारुत and after finally disposing of the परिधि he makes oblations.” The reply is that it denotes time, just as in “दशम्यामासाभ्यामिष्ट्वा सोमेनयजेत” “Let him perform soma after the new and full moon sacrifices.”

Take an ordinary conversation, “अग्निहोत्रवेत्तायामार्गतम्यन्” “Come at the time of अग्निहोत्र.” it denotes the time of अग्निहोत्र though it may not be performed.

प्रकृतिकालासत्तेः शस्त्रवतामिति चेत् ॥ ११ । ३ । ५० ॥

प्रकृतिकालासत्तेः by reason of getting the time of the model sacrifice; शस्त्रवताम् after the songs; इति चेत् if you say.

50. “By reason of getting the time of the model sacrifice, after the songs” if you say.

The second objector puts forward his own view. He says that it is to be performed after those somas which are accompanied with songs. (See the order in the commentary on sūtra 47 at p 928) The second order is meant here. He says that it is the proper time. It will be in compliance with the time of the model sacrifice and the parts will not be transposed. It is the time after the third extraction of soma (तृतीयसवन).

न श्रुतिप्रतिषेधात् ॥ ११ । ३ । ५१ ॥

न. not so; श्रुतिप्रतिषेधात् by reason of the contravention of the text.

51. Not so, by reason of the contravention of the text.

The author says that it will contravene the text which means the soma in general ‘अपरिहृतसोमानां प्राजापकं इक्षरति’ “They perform the प्राजापक after the somas.”

How can you make it special?

विकारस्थाने इति चेत् ॥ ११ । ३ । ५२ ॥

विकारस्थाने after the order of the modification ; इति चेत्, if you say.

52. "After the order of the modification" if you say.

The third objector says that it will be after the उक्त्य् & the modifications of soma. See the order in the commentary on sūtra 47. at p. 928). They are the modifications of the अग्निहोम. So the प्राजापत्य will come after them.

न चोदनापृथक्त्वात् ॥ ११ । ३ । ५३ ॥

न not so ; चोदना पृथक्त्वात् by reason of the different command.

53. Not so, by reason of the different command.

The author says that it is governed by the different command. These are different actions, one belongs to soma sacrifice ; the other pertains to the animal sacrifice. So the प्राजापत्य will be commenced when all soma rites are over.

Adhikaraṇa xiv sūtras 54-56 dealing with the sulj-^{not} of सूक्तवाक.

उत्कर्षे सूक्तवाकस्य न सोमदेवतानामुत्कर्षः पश्वनङ्ग- त्वादथा निष्कर्षेनान्वयः ॥ ११ । ३ । ५४ ॥

उत्कर्षे in transference ; सूक्तवाकस्य of सूक्तवाक ; न not ; सोमदेवतानाम् of soma deities ; उत्कर्षः transference ; पश्वनङ्गत्वात् by reason of there being not parts of the animal sacrifice ; यथा just as ; निष्कर्षे in expulsion ; न not ; नान्वयः union.

54. When the सूक्त वाक is transferred forward, the soma dieties are not transferred forward, by reason of their being not parts of the animal sacrifice, just as in expulsion, there is separation.

When अनुवाज्ज are transferred forward, the सूक्तवाक is also transferred forward along with them. There the deities of सवनीय पुरोवाज्ज are praised "भृज्यन्मिन्द्रायहरिवतेधामाभिः पूषणवते करंभेण सरस्वतीवतेपरिषापेण सूर्यस्वयम्भवे- सो वनस्पतिरभवत्" "Parching with the rice to इन्द्र who possesses horses, with gruel to पूषा, with fried grains of rice to हरस्वती. The god of soup has to-day become vegetable."

The question is, whether these deities are also transferred forward by virtue of the forward transfer of the सूक्तवाक to the animal sacrifice. "अग्निमा- स्तादूर्ध्वमनुयाजैश्चरति" " They commence with अनुयाजस after अग्निमास्त offerings."

The reply of the objector is that they will not be transferred forward, because the deities do not belong to the animal sacrifice. The अनुयाजस accompanying the parts of the animal sacrifice can follow them only, they can not accompany the parts of the soma. The deities are the parts of the soma. So they can not be transferred to the animal sacrifice. The objector gives an illustration that in the पूर्णमासयाग where the deities of the दर्शयाम are absent, the deities of दर्श are not transferred on the transfer of सूक्तवाक.

वाक्यसंयोगाद्दोत्कर्षः समानतन्त्रत्वादर्थलोपादनन्वयः ॥

११ । ३ । ५५ ॥

वाक्यसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the सूक्तवाक ; वा on the other hand ; उत्कर्षः transference forward ; समानतन्त्रत्वात् by reason of their belonging to the same तन्त्र ; अर्थलोपात् by reason of the omission of the object ; अनन्वयः separation.

55. By reason of the connection with the सूक्तवाक, there is a transference forward by reason of their belonging to their same तन्त्र and by reason of the omission of the object, there is a separation.

The author says that there will be a transfer of the deities forward ; the reason is that you can not disconnect the deities from the सूक्तवाक. The illustration, he says, does not hold good ; the दर्श and पूर्णमास sacrifices are governed by the same तन्त्र principle and the two have therefore, one सूक्तवाक ; but the sacrifices take place on different occasions. If you praise the deities of the new moon on the full moon day, and those of the full moon on the new moon day there will be anomaly. The illustration is, therefore, dissimilar. The result is that there will be a separation of the duties.

END OF PĀDA II.

PĀDA III.

Adhikaraṇa I. sūtras 1—3, dealing with the subject of the applicability of त'त्र to the subordinate parts.

चोदनैकत्वाद्वाजसूयेऽनुक्तदेशकालानां समवायात्तन्त्रम-
ङ्गानि ॥ ११ । । ४ । १ ॥

चोदनैकत्वात् by reason of one command ; राजसूये in a राजसूय, अनुक्तदेशकालानां of those whose time and space have not been specified ; समवायात् by reason of the combination ; त'त्र the principle of त'त्र ; अङ्गानि the subordinate parts.

1. By reason of one command, in a राजसूय on account of the combination of those whose time and place have not been ordained, the principle of त'त्र applies to the subordinate parts.

In the राजसूय there are many primaries, the time and place of which are not given. The question is, whether the principle of Tantra or आवाय applies to the subordinate parts. The objector says that the principle of Tantra applies ; the reason is that the primaries with their subsidiaries combined together conduce to the fruit under one चोदना.

प्रतिदक्षिणं वा कर्तृसम्बन्धादिष्टिवदङ्गभूतत्वात्समुदायो
हि तन्निर्वृत्यातदेकत्वादिकशब्दोपदेशः स्यात् ॥११।४।२॥

प्रतिदक्षिणं different fees ; वा on the other hand ; कर्तृसम्बन्धत् by reason of the connection with the agent , इष्टिवत् just as in the इष्टिः ; अङ्गभूतत्वात् by reason of subordination ; समुदायः combination , हि because ; तन्निर्वृत्या by the accomplishment of that ; तदेकत्वाद् by reason of its being one ; एकशब्दोपदेशः one text ; स्यात् is.

2. On the other hand, there is a different fee by reason of the connection with the agent, just as in the इष्टिः by reason of the subordination there is a combination because when that is accomplished, there is one text on account of its unity.

The author says that just as in the दशगुणमासयामः, though the fruit is one, yet the subordinate parts in both of them are separately performed. So in the राजसूय there are different priests because there are different fees, “आग्नेर्वैष्णव एकादशकपालः, ऐन्द्रावैष्णवश्चरुः सोमा वैष्णवस्त्रिकपालो वाम-

नोदक्षिणा सोमा पौष्णएकादशकपालः ऐन्द्रापौष्णश्चरुः, पौष्णश्चरुः, श्यामोदक्षिणा”
“There are cakes baked on eleven potsherds to Agni and Viṣṇu. There is boiled rice to Indra and Viṣṇu. There are cakes baked on three potsherds to Viṣṇu. A dwarf is the fee. There are cakes baked on eleven potsherds to Soma and Puṣa. There is boiled rice to Indra and Puṣa. There is boiled rice to Puṣa. A black animal is the fee”.

By virtue of this difference of fees, there are different priests ; by reason of this difference, the subordinate parts will have to be performed separately.

तथा चान्यार्थदर्शनम् ॥ ११ । ४ । ३ ॥

तथा similarly , च and ; अन्यार्थदर्शनम् another proof.

3. Similarly there is another proof.

The author relies on the तिरङ्ग argument in support of his view.

“आग्नावैष्णवमेकादश कपालं निर्वपेदेन्द्रावैष्णवमेकादशकपालं वैष्णवं त्रिकपालं ब्रह्मणे इक्षिणा ।” “Let him offer cakes baked on eleven potsherds to Agni and Viṣṇu, cakes baked on eleven potsherds to Indra and Viṣṇu and cakes baked on three potsherds to Viṣṇu and a dwarf is the fee.”

This is one triad

2. “अग्नीषोमीयमेकादश कपालं मिन्द्रासोमीय मेकादश कपालं सौम्यं चरुं वसु- इक्षिणा” “There are cakes baked on eleven potsherds consecrated to Agni and Soma, cakes baked on eleven potsherds to इन्द्र and सोम and boiled rice to soma. The fee is a reddish brown animal.”

This is another triad, “यत्पूर्वत्रिसंयुक्तं धीरजननंतद्, यदुत्तरत्रिसंयुक्तं पशु जननंतत्” “The first triad produces a warrior and the last triad produces an animal.”

The terms ‘first’ & ‘last’ clearly show the difference of the application.

Adhikaraṇa ii. sūtras 4 7 dealing with the rule as to the appointment of priests from the commencement.

अनियमः स्यादिति चेत् ॥ ११ । ४ । ४ ॥

अनियमः no rule, स्यात् is ; इति चेत् if you say.

4. “There is no rule” if you say.

The question for determination is, whether those priests who have been appointed in the commencement of the sacrifice are to continue for the whole period, or they are to be changed at the change of each proceeding. The reply of the objector is that there is no hard and fast rule.

नोपदिष्टत्वात् ॥ ११ । ३ । ५ ॥

न not so ; उपदिष्टत्वात् by reason of the direction.

5. Not so, by reason of the direction.

The author says that it is not so, because when the sacrificer appoints a priest, he does so for the whole sacrifice, "अनेनमाराजसूय संशकेन कर्मसमुदायेन वाजस्य". "Make me sacrifice by means of this ceremony called राजसूय"

So the appointment is for the whole sacrifice.

लाघवापत्तिश्च ॥

लाघवापत्तिः the defect of levity ; च and.

And there is the defect of levity.

This sūtra finds its place in other editions. The author says that it will be considered levity on your part if you change your priest at every change of procedure.

प्रयोजनैकत्वात् ॥ ११ । ४ । ६ ॥

प्रयोजनैकत्वात् by reason of the object being one.

6. By reason of the object being one.

The author gives another reason in support of his view ; he says that the payment of fees also indicates that the service of the priest is for the whole sacrifice.

अविशेषार्था पुनः श्रुतिः* ॥ ११ । ४ । ७ ॥

अविशेषार्था for the object of the common ; पुनः श्रुतिः repetition of the text.

7. The repetition of the text is for the object of the common.

The author says that sometimes, the payment of the fee for the subordinate parts is laid down, but it is for the common object. It conduces to the general welfare which is the end of the sacrifice.

Adhikaraṇa a iii. sūtras 8-9 dealing with the subject that the subsidiaries are to be performed separately in an अवहेति.

अवेष्टौ चैकतन्त्र्यं स्याल्लिङ्गदर्शनाद्वचनात् काम संयोगेन ॥ ११ । ४ । ८ ॥

अवेष्टौ in an अवहेति , च and ; एकतन्त्र्यं the principle of तन्त्र. स्यात् is, लिङ्गदर्शनात् by reason of seeing the लिङ्ग ; वचनात् by reason of the text , कामसंयोगेन with the connection with desire.

* In some editions, there is विशेयार्था.

8. And in an अवेदि the principle of तत्र applies by reason of seeing the लिंग, because of the text and of the connection with the desire.

In a राजसूय there is an अवेदि consisting of five offerings; in connection thereof different fees are laid down, “आग्नेयमष्टाकपालं निर्वपति हिरण्यं दक्षिणा । ऐंद्रमेकादशकपालं मृषभोदक्षिणा । वैश्वदेवं चरुं पिशंगी वष्टीही दक्षिणा । मैत्रावरुणीमामितां वशादक्षिणा । वार्हस्पत्यं चरुं शितिपृष्टोदक्षिणा”. “He offers a cake baked on eight potsherds to Agni with the fee of gold, a cake baked on eleven potsherds to Indra with the fee of a bullock, boiled rice to the *विश्वेदेव*s with the fee of a tawny coloured cow of six years, curd-dish to मित्रावरुण with the fee of a barren cow and boiled rice to बृहस्पति with the fee of a white-backed animal.”

The question is, whether in these ceremonies the subordinate parts should be performed all at a time or separately. The reply of the objector is that they are to be performed at a time because there is a किञ्च, “यदिब्राह्मणो यजेत, वार्हस्पत्ये मध्येनिधायानुतिं हुत्वा ममिञ्चारयेत् । यदि राजन्यः, ऐंद्रम् । यदि वैश्यः, वैश्वदेवम्” “If a ब्राह्मण makes a sacrifice, let him sprinkle ghee after placing it in the middle and making an oblation to बृहस्पति, if a अत्रिय to इन्द्र and if a वैश्य to *विश्वेदेव*s”

Here “placing in the middle &c” shows one performance. The second reason is that there is a text which lays down the desire, “एतदैकजायकामं याजयेत्” “Let him make one desirous of corn to perform it”

There is unity of purpose and number which also shows that the अवेदि is one and the subordinate parts should be performed once for all. Some text writers have considered, “यचनात् कामसंयोगेन” as a different sūtra embodying the author's view therein.

क्रत्वर्थायामिति चेन्न वर्णसंयोगात् ॥ ११ । ४ । ९ ॥

क्रत्वर्थायाम् in the object of the sacrifice ; इति चेत् if you say ; न not वर्णसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the caste.

9. If you say it is for the object of the sacrifice ; not so, by reason of the connection with the caste.

The author says that you are mistaken ; the five subsidiaries have the different fees prescribed, the subordinate acts should, therefore, be performed separately. As to the different castes, the text has no bearing on the वर्तमान which a king is exclusively entitled to perform.

Adhikaraṇa iv. sūtras 10-12. dealing with the subject that the desire accomplishing पवमानेहि is to be performed separately.

पवमानहविःष्वैकतन्त्र्य प्रयोगवचनेकत्वात् ॥११॥१०॥

पवमानहविः ; in the पवमान offerings ; एकतन्त्र्य the principle of तन्त्र, प्रयोगवचनेकत्वात् by reason of the unity of the text of the application.

10. The principle of तन्त्र applies to the पवमान offerings by reason of the unity of the text of the application.

In an अन्वावाप, there are वर्तमानेहि "अग्नयेपवमानायाष्टाकपालं निर्ववति । अग्नये पावाकयाग्नये शुचये" । "He offers a cake baked on eight potsherds to the purifying fire ; to the fire which is holy, to the fire which is pure."

The question for determination is, whether the principle of तन्त्र or अन्वाप applies. The reply of the objector is that the principle of तन्त्र applies, because there is one text for application "अहोनिरूप्याधि" "The days are to be ascertained."

By reason of this text as to application, the subsidiaries are to be performed simultaneously.

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ ११ । ४ ॥ ११ ॥

लिङ्गदर्शनात् by seeing the लिङ्ग ; च and.

11. And by seeing the लिङ्ग.

The objector relies on the लिङ्ग argument "समानवर्हीचिनवति" "They have the same sacrificial grass." in support of his view.

वर्तमानापदेशाद्वचनात् तन्त्रभेदः स्यात् ॥११॥११॥

वर्तमानापदेशात् by reason of having the present tense , वचनात् by reason of the text ; तु on the other hand ; तन्त्रभेदः difference of तन्त्र; स्यात् is.

12. On the other hand, by reason of the text having the present tense, there is the difference of Tantra.

The author says that the subsidiaries are to be performed separately because there is the text.

"अथवा कामयेत वर्षीयान्भेदात् स्यामिति तस्याग्नयेवमानात् निरुद्ध आवापः

• कायशुचये चोत्तरे हविषी समानवर्हिषी निर्वपेत् तदेनमग्रहीत् तेन स उत्तरं वर्षीयान्
 भेषान् भवति” “When one wishes to become great and noble, having ascertainied (time) for the purifying Agni, let him make an offering in which there is the same sacrificial grass in the northern hearth to the purifier and the pure ; then he took him and thereby he becomes great and noble subsequently.”

In the first offerings the subsidiaries are to be performed on the principle of भावाप and in the last offerings, on the principle of तत्र

What do you say as to the text about the application, “अग्नेनिरूपायि” ?
 “The days are to be ascertained.” The reply is that it is about time, but has nothing to do with the application or procedure.

सहत्वे नित्यानुवादः स्यात् ॥ ११ । ४ । १३ ॥

सहत्वे in the simultaneity ; नित्यानुवादः permanent statement , स्वात् is.

13. In the simultaneity, there is a permanent statement.

The author says that you rely on the किङ्ग argument, “समानवर्हिषिभवेति”
 “They have the same sacrificial grass.” but this is a statement of facts, “ये ब्रह्मवर्चसकामः स्यात् तस्य सर्वाणि हविषि निरूपायि,” “One who is desirous of Brahmanic glory, all his offerings should be ascertained.”

When the object is to obtain the splendour of a Brāhmaṇa, there is the joint application. It is a statement of facts as they exist, the inference made from it is the joint performance there.

Adhikaraṇa vi sūtras 14—21 dealing with the subject of वीक्षा &c, in a द्वादशाह.

द्वादशाहे तु प्रकृतित्वादेकैकमहरपट्टयेत कर्मपृथक्त्वात्॥

११ । ४ । १४ ॥

द्वादशाहे in a द्वादशाह ; तु on the other hand ; प्रकृतित्वात् by reason of the model sacrifice ; एकैकम् one by one; अहः day; अपट्टयेत should be completed ; कर्मपृथक्त्वात् because the action is separate.

14. On the other hand, in a द्वादशाह by reason of the model sacrifice, it should be completed every day because the action is separate.

There is a द्वादशाह. “द्वादशाहेन प्रजाकामं यामयेत्” ‘Let him make one who is desirous of progeny, perform a द्वादशाह.”

There are दीक्षा, उपसद्, सुत्या, and one performer. Now the question is, whether they should be performed on each day i. e. दीक्षा and उपसद् each separately on separate days and सुत्या on one day thus making up 25 days, or 1. सायकस should be performed, or the दीक्षा उपसद् and सुत्या should all be performed on 4th day or lastly they should be performed at their proper time and thus making up 36 days on the principle of स्वादिदिदि. The reply of the 1st objector is that they should be performed with दीक्षा and उपसद् each separately on separate days and सुत्या on one day according to the model sacrifice thus making up 25 days as total. His reason is that they are separate acts in themselves.

अहां वा श्रुतिभूतत्वात्तत्र साङ्गं क्रियेत यथा माध्यन्दिने

॥ ११ । ४ । १५ ॥

अहां of the days, च and ; श्रुतिभूतत्वात् by reason of being laid down ; तत्र there ; साङ्गं with all its parts ; क्रियेत should be performed ; यथा just as ; माध्यन्दिने in the noon.

15. And by reason of the days being laid down, all should be performed there with the subsidiaries just as in the माध्यन्दिने.

The second objector says that by making up 25 days, you contravene the express text which lays down 12 days. So the दीक्षा, उपसद् and सुत्या should be performed on each day at noon just as they are done in a सातपथीय.

अपि वा फलकर्तृसम्बन्धात्सह प्रयोगः स्यादाग्नेया

ग्नीषोमीयवत् ॥ ११ । ४ । १६ ॥

अपि also ; वा on the other hand, फलकर्तृसम्बन्धात् by reason of the connection with the fruit and the agent ; सहप्रयोगः the joint application, स्वात् is ; आग्नेयाग्नीषोमीयवत् just as in आग्नेय and अग्नीषोम.

16. On the other hand, by reason of the connection of the fruit and the agent, there is the joint application just as there is in आग्नेय and अग्नीषोम.

The 3rd objector says that both of you are wrong ; my view is that they should all be performed on the principle of वृत्त on the fourth day. The reason is that there is one fruit and the fee is also one for the priest, just as आग्नेय and अग्नीषोम are performed once for all by reason of one fruit and one agent.

साङ्गकालश्रुतित्वाद्वा स्वस्थानानां विकारः स्यात् ॥

११ । ४ । १७ ॥

साङ्गकालश्रुतित्वाद् by reason of the time of the subsidiary with the principal being laid down, वा on the other hand ; स्वस्थानानां of those that are at their places ; विकारः modification; स्यात् is.

17 On the other hand, by reason of the time of the subsidiary with the principal being laid down, there is the modification of those that are at their places.

The author after discussing the different opinions says that you can not perform all the subsidiaries on the 4th day, because the text lays down different time of the subsidiaries with the primaries : their time is, therefore, different. The result is that 12 उपसद्, 12 दीक्षाs and 12 सुखाs will have to be performed separately on each day. So there will be 36 days considered as द्वादशाह.

दीक्षोपसदां च संख्या पृथक्पृथक् प्रत्यक्षसंयोगात् ॥

११ । ४ । १८ ॥

दीक्षोपसदां of दीक्षा and उपसद्, च and, संख्या number; पृथक् पृथक् each separately; प्रत्यक्षसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the direct.

18. And the number of दीक्षा and उपसद् is separate by reason of the connection with the direct.

The author says that there will be 12 दीक्षाs and 12 उपसद्s and the द्वादशाह is, therefore, correctly called by reason of its connection with these things so differently performed.

वसतीवरीपर्यन्तानिपूर्वाणितंत्र मन्यकालत्वादवभृथादी-
न्युत्तराणिदीक्षाविसर्गार्थत्वात् ॥ ११ । ४ । १९ ॥

वसतीवरीपर्यन्तानि up to taking of water for soma ; पूर्वाणि preceeding ones ; व'त्तद् the principle of व'त्त ; मन्यकालत्वात् by reason of their different times; अवभृथादीनि sacrificial bath, etc, उत्तराणि following ones, दीक्षाविसर्गार्थत्वात्

by reason of their being for the completion of the दीक्षा.

19. The preceding ones up to the taking of water for soma are to be performed on the principle of तत्र by reason of their different time and the following ones i. e. the sacrificial bath &c. by reason of their being for the completion of the दीक्षा.

The water taken for soma is called वसतीवरी. The author says that the principle of तत्र applies to all the rites up to the taking of water for soma in the preceding ones and अवसृष्ट &c in the latter ones because the sacrificial bath ends the दीक्षा, “अप्सुदीक्षां प्रवेशयित्वा देवाः स्वर्गलोकं मावन्त्यवसृष्टुः स्नातितामेव दीक्षामालभते । अथ यदपो वभृथमभ्यव्ययं तितामेव दीक्षां पुनरप्सु प्रवेशयति” The gods went to heaven after thrusting the दीक्षा in water when one bathes in water he is thereby initiated but when one resorts to the अवसृष्ट (sacrificial bath) he thereby thrusts the दीक्षा (initiation) in the ‘water.’

तथा चान्यार्थदर्शनम् ॥ ११ । ४ । २० ॥

tथा similarly ; च and ; अन्यार्थदर्शनम् another proof.

20. And similarly there is another proof.

The author relies on the लिङ्ग argument in support of his view “एवमिह दशो वा एवमिह दशः” “This द्वादशाह consists of 86 days.”

चोदनापृथक्त्वे त्वैकतन्त्र्यं समवेतानां कालसंयोगात् ॥

११ । ४ । २१ ॥

चोदनापृथक्त्वे, chodanā being separate ; तु on the other hand ; एकतन्त्र्यं simultaneity of performance; समवेतानां of the connected ones ; कालसंयोगात् by reason of the relationship with the time.

21. On the other hand, on the चोदना being separate, there is simultaneity of performance of the connected ones by reason of the relationship with the time.

The author says that you have given the illustration of आग्नेय and अग्नीषोम which are performed together at a time, even though the चोदना text is different. The reason is that the time is one and all the parts with the principal will, therefore, be performed together. “पौर्णमास्यां पौर्णमास्यां वसेत सांगया” “Let him perform a full moon sacrifice with all the details on the full moon day.”

The पूर्णमासवाग will, therefore, be performed with the primary and its subsidiaries once for all. So here according to the time of the primary, all the subsidiaries up to the taking of the वसतीवरी should be performed on the principle of तत्र just as it is done in the establishment of fire.

Adhikaraṇa vi. sūtras 22 25 dealing with the subject that those subsidiaries whose time is not different from that of the primaries are to be performed separately.

भेदस्तु तद्भेदात्कर्मभेदः प्रयोगे स्यात्तेषां प्रधानशब्द-
त्वात् ॥ ११। ४। २२ ॥

भेदः difference ; तु on the other hand ; तद्भेदात् by reason of its time ; कर्मभेदः difference of action , प्रयोगे in application ; स्यात् is , तेषां their ; प्रधानशब्दत्वात् with the term principal.

22. There is a separate performance by reason of the difference of time ; there is difference of action in the application, they being connected with the term principal.

The question for determination is, what is the principle applicable either तत्र or आवाप in the case of those subsidiaries whose time is not different from that of the primaries? The reply of the author is that they are to be performed separately along with their primaries, because the time of their performance is different just as in the दशै & पूर्णमास. The time of the subsidiaries is governed by their primaries, because they are connected with their primaries.

तथा चान्यार्थदर्शनम् ॥ ११। ४। २३ ॥

तथा similarly ; च and ; अन्यार्थदर्शनम् another proof.

23. And similarly there is another proof.

The author relies on the छिन्न argument in support of his view. “पक्षीसं- याजिताभ्यहानि संतिष्ठते” “It lasts up to the end of the ‘पक्षीसंयाज’ day.”

This shows that the principle of आवाप applies to the days of the पक्षीसंयाज.

श्वासुत्यावचनं तद्वत् ॥ ११। ४। २४ ॥

श्वासुत्यावचनं the call after the morning extraction , तद्वत् similarly.

24. Similarly the call after the morning extraction.

The author gives another example of श्वासुत्या call which is made every evening after the extraction of soma, "संस्थिते संस्थिते ऽहन्याग्नीध्रगारं प्रविश्य सुब्रह्मण्या सुब्रह्मण्या माह्वयेति प्रैष्यति" "He thus commands on the departure of each day after entering the room of the अग्नीध्र priest, O ! Subrahmanya, call सुब्रह्मण्या."

The repetition of the word 'संस्थिते' shows that the principle of आवाप applies.

पश्वतिरेकश्च ॥ ११ । ४ । २५ ॥

पश्वतिरेकः excess of animal ; च and

25. And the excess of animal.

There is a text which shows that the animal that exceeds the number 11 is called ऐश्वान, "यदेकः पशुरतिरिष्यते ऐश्वानः कार्यः" "When one animal is in excess, it should be consecrated to Indra and Agni"

When an animal is sacrificed each day, in a पश्वैकादशिनी then only there is a possibility of the 12th in excess.

Adhikarapa VII. sŭtras 26-28. dealing with the subject that at the time of उपसव् the call of सुब्रह्मण्या should be performed without modification.

सुत्याविवृद्धौ सुब्रह्मण्यायां सर्वेषामुपलक्षणं प्रकृत्यन्वयादावाहनवत् ॥ ११ । ४ । २६ ॥

सुत्याविवृद्धौ on the increase of सुत्या; सुब्रह्मण्यायां in the call of सुब्रह्मण्या, सर्वेषाम् all; उपलक्षणं generalisation; प्रकृत्यन्वयात् by reason of the affinity or association with the model sacrifice; आवाहनवत् like the invocation formula.

26. In the case of the increase of सुत्या, in the call of सुब्रह्मण्या, there will be generalisation everywhere by reason of the relationship with the model sacrifice like the invocation formula.

In the model sacrifice there is a formula, "इत्येहे सुत्यामागच्छमववत्", "Maghva, come on such and such day."

The word इति in the formula, is in the place of the numeral, namely, 'such and such day' "2nd day" "3rd day" &c. This formula is transferred under the principle of अतिदेश in the द्वादशाह Here the time being different from the time of the principal, how is this formula to be repeated? The objector says that this formula is to be repeated with modification as 13 th or 14th day &c. The reason is that in the स्वीतिहोम which is the model sacrifice, there is an affinity of the number with the days. They vary there. The objector supports his view by an illustration ; he says that the invocation formula is repeated by reason of the difference of time. “आग्नेये हृष्णग्रीवमालभेत सौम्यं च तन्माग्नेये हृष्णग्रीवं” “Let him sacrifice black-necked animal to Agni, tawny-coloured to Soma and black necked to Agni.”

Here though the deity of the first and the 3rd is the same, yet by the intervention of the 2nd, the invocation formula is repeated.

अपि वेन्द्राभिधानत्वात्सकृत्स्यादुपलक्षणं कालस्य-
लक्षणार्थत्वात् ॥ ११ । ४ । २७ ॥

अपि also, वा on the other hand, वेन्द्राभिधानत्वात् by reason of naming इन्द्र, सकृत् once ; स्यात् is, उपलक्षण generalisation ; कालस्य of the time ; लक्षणार्थत्वात् being for the secondary sense.

27. On the other hand, by reason of naming Indra, it should be uttered once, by reason of the time being for the secondary sense.

The author says that the formula should be repeated only once and the numeral that is used is in the secondary sense to denote time. The deity is important and primary.

अविभागाच्च ॥ ११ । ४ । २८ ॥

अविभागात् by reason of impartibility ; च and,

28. And by reason of impartibility.

The author says that you have given an illustration of the invocation formula. The illustration does not apply ; in that case the time is divided by reason of the intervention of “सौम्यं च तन्माग्नेये” (tawny-coloured to soma).

This result is that the मन्त्र is to be uttered without any modification.

The अधिकरण is named by Sabara as dealing with ऊह applied as once for all or differently, but we have here preferred other commentator in naming the Adhikaraṇa.

Adhikaraṇa viii sūtras 29 35 dealing with the subject that, the principle of तृत्र applies to कुम्भी &c.

पशुगणे कुम्भीशूलवपाश्रपणीनां प्रभुत्वत्तन्त्रभावः
स्यात् ॥ ११ । ४ । २९ ॥

पशुगणे in an animal sacrifice, कुम्भीशूलवपाश्रपणीनां of the pot, rod and the cauldron ; प्रभुत्वात् by reason of their sufficiency , तन्त्रभावः fit to be used for all , स्यात् is.

29. In the animal sacrifice, the pot, the rod and the cauldron by reason of their sufficiency are fit to be used for all.

कुम्भी is a small pot in which the parts of an animal are cooked. शूलः are the pieces of wood on which heart and viscera of the animal are baked. वपाश्रपणी is a cauldron in which omentum is boiled. The question is, whether one vessel is sufficient for the culinary purposes. The reply of the author is that they are sufficient for the culinary purposes ; they should not be changed at every time.

भेदस्तु सन्देहाद्देवतान्तरे स्यात् ॥ ११ । ४ । ३० ॥

भेदः being separate ; तु on the other hand ; सन्देहात् by reason of doubt ; देवतान्तरे for another deity ; स्यात् is.

30. On the other hand, they should be separate, by reason of the doubt for another deity.

The objector says that the vessels enumerated above should be separate, because there will be an uncertainty in the case of one vessel as to which part of the animal is intended for an offering to a particular deity.

अर्थाद्वा लिङ्गकर्म स्यात् ॥ ११ । ४ । ३१ ॥

अर्थात् for the purpose, वा on the other hand, लिङ्गकर्म symbol or marking ; स्यात् is.

31. For the purpose, the mark or symbol should be made.

The author says that all should be cooked in one cauldron, pot or on one rod and for distinction you must make some mark to distinguish one from others.

प्रतिपाद्यत्वाद्वासानांभेदः स्यात्स्वयाज्यापूदानत्वात् ॥

११ । ४ । ३२ ।

प्रतिपाद्यत्वात् by reason of disposal ; वसतः of the marrow ; मेदः difference ; स्यात् is ; स्वयाज्यत् under its own याज्या ; अप्रदानत्वात् by reason of being incapable of gift.

32. By reason of the disposal of the marrow, there is a separate vessel, because it is incapable of gift under its own याज्या.

The objector says that the marrow can not be distinguished, you can not put a mark on it. It is further offered in the fire with half ऋक् which is recited at the time. So you can not distinguish which marrow belongs to a particular animal, for it, therefore, there should be a separate pot. In the edition of Śibara, there is प्रतिपाद्यत्वात् but in the commentary it is read as अयाज्यत्वात्, but both mean the same thing. The other commentators excepting खड्गदेव have read अयाज्यत्वात्.

अपि वा प्रतिपत्तित्वात्तन्त्रं स्यात्स्वत्वस्याश्रुतिभूतत्वात् ॥

११ । ४ । ३३ ॥

अपि also, वार on the other hand ; प्रतिपत्तित्वात् by reason of its being for the final disposal, तन्त्रं the principle of तन्त्र, स्यात् is, स्वत्वस्य of its own ; अश्रुतिभूतत्वात् by reason of the fact that nowhere it is laid down.

33. On the other hand, by reason of its being for the final disposal, there will be only one vessel, because nowhere it is laid down that it should be offered with its own offering formula.

The author says that one vessel should be sufficient for boiling the marrow because it is for the final disposal. There is no text which says that it should be offered with its own half ऋक् recited at the time of offering.

सकृदिति चेत् ॥ ११ । ४ । ३४ ॥

सकृत् once, इति चेत् if you say.

34. Once, if you say.

The objector says that the marrow may be offered once with the half ऋक् belonging to any offering.

न कालभेदात् ॥ ११ । ४ । ३५ ॥ is not so ; कालभेदात् by reason of the difference of time.

35. Not so, by reason of the difference of time.

The author says that it is not possible, because there is time of each पात्रपादार्धं (half rik of a yājya). This Adhikaraṇa has been treated by Śabara as one but by other commentators, it is divided into 3 Adhikaraṇas.

Adhikaraṇa ix. sūtras 36-38 dealing with the subject that by reason of the difference of the cooking time there is a separate vessel for the marrow.

पक्तिभेदात्कुम्भीशूलवपाश्रपणीनांभेदः स्यात् ॥

११ । ४ । ३६ ॥

पक्तिभेदात् by reason of the difference of cooking ; कुम्भीशूलवपाश्रपणी the pot, the rod and cauldron , भेदः difference , स्यात् is

36. By reason of the difference of cooking, the pot, the rod and cauldron should be separate.

This sūtra does not find its place in the editions of other commentators excepting खड्गेव but he has read it as a concluding sūtra of the preceding Adhikaraṇa. The commentary has made it absurd by putting it as the view of the objector. He says that owing to the difference of the deities to whom the animals are offered the principle of Tantra applies. (This is not a correct exposition of the text as it stands at present).

जात्यन्तरेषु भेदः पक्तिवैषम्यात् ॥ ११ । ४ । ३७ ॥

जात्यन्तरेषु in the different species of animals ; भेदः difference ; स्यात् is ; पक्तिवैषम्यात् by reason of the dissimilarity of cooking

37. In the different species of animals there is a difference, by reason of the dissimilarity of cooking.

The author says that when there are animals of different species, their flesh takes different time in being cooked. The flesh of some animals is cooked sooner, while that of the others takes a longer time. So there will be separate vessels for the flesh of the different species of animals to be cooked.

वृद्धिदर्शनाच्च ॥ ११ । ४ । ३८ ॥

वृद्धिदर्शनात् by seeing the increase ; च and.

38. And by seeing the increase.

The author gives a reason in support of his view. He says that there is an increase of vessels in सौत्रमणि by reason of variety ; “शूक्ष्मं मातरेण वाऽव-भूयमभ्यवर्तते.” “They resort to the sacrificial bath with the rods or rice gruel.”

Adhikaraṇa x. sūtras 39 40 dealing with the separation of the earthen pans,

कपालानि च कुम्भोवत्तुल्यसंख्यानाम् ॥ ११ । ४ । ३९ ॥

कपालानि pans , च and , कुम्भोवत् like a pot ; तुल्यसंख्यानां of equal number 39 And the pans are of equal number like the pot.

There is an अश्वप्रतिग्रहेष्टि ; in it there are पुरोडाश cakes baked on 4 pans for the deity वरुण and varving according to the number of horses. “यावतो ऽश्वान् प्रतिगृह्णीयात् तावतश्चतुष्कपालान् वारुणाभिर्वपेत्” “Let him offer as many cakes baked on four potsherds to Varuṇa as he takes the horses in gift.”

The question for determination is, whether all the cakes should be baked on big pans or there should be 4 pans for each पुरोडाश cake. The reply of the objector is that the principle of Tantra applies just as in the case of कुम्भी &c. (See Adhikaraṇa viii at p. 945).

प्रतिप्रधानं वा प्रकृतिवत् ॥ ११ । ४ । ४० ॥

प्रतिप्रधानं for each primary ; वा on the other hand ; प्रकृतिवत् as in the model sacrifice.

40. On the other hand, for each primary as in the model sacrifice.

The author says that there should be four pans for each पुरोडाश, just as it is in the दर्शपूर्णमासयाग which are the model sacrifices.

सर्वेषां वाभिप्रथमं स्यात् ॥ ११ । ४ । ४१ ॥

सर्वेषां of all , वा on the other hand ; वाभिप्रथमम् extension ; स्यात् is.

41. On the other hand, there is the extension of all.

The author advances an argument in favour of his view , he says that the extension of पुरोडाश which is laid down, is not possible if there are not separate pans, “यावत्कपालं पुरोडाशं प्रथवति” “He spreads a cake to the extent of a potsherd.”

The पुरोडाश cake is to be extended up to the full length of the pan.

Adhikaraṇa xi. dealing with the subject that the mantras pertaining to the threshing stroke should be uttered once for all.

एकद्रव्ये संस्काराणां व्याख्यातमेककर्मत्वात् ॥११॥४१॥

एकद्रव्ये in one substance; संस्काराणां of the purificatory rites; व्याख्यातम् is explained; एककर्मत्वात् by reason of its being one act.

42. In one substance, the purificatory rite is explained by reason of its being one act.

In connection with the दशपूर्वमासयागः, the rice is threshed; there at the time of threshing, the following Mantra is uttered “अवरक्षोदिवः सपत्न्यस्यासं” आपस्तम्बश्रौतसूत्र I. 19. 11. “Protecting heaven from the killing enemy.”

The question is, whether this mantra should be uttered with each stroke or should be pronounced once for all. The reply of the author is that it should be repeated once for all, because there is one substance and there is one act, namely, threshing consisting of so many strokes.

Adhikaraṇa xii. dealing with the subject that in ज्ञानमन्त्रोद्देशे, the मन्त्र is to be recited at each time.

द्रव्यान्तरे कृतार्थत्वात्तस्य पुनः प्रयोगान्मन्त्रस्य च तद्गुणत्वात्पुनः प्रयोगः स्यात्तदर्थेन विधानात् ॥११॥४३॥

द्रव्यान्तरे in the different substance; कृतार्थत्वात् by reason of its accomplishing the object; तस्य of this, पुनः प्रयोगात् by reason of its repetition; मन्त्रस्य of the मन्त्र, च and; तद्गुणत्वात् by reason of its being subordinate; पुनः प्रयोगः repetition, स्यात् is; तदर्थेन with its object; विधानात् by reason of being laid down.

43. In the different substance, by reason of its accomplishing the object, by reason of the repetition of the मन्त्र and by its being subordinate, it is to be repeated because it is laid down for it only.

In a रात्रयुग there is ज्ञानमन्त्रोद्देशः There are many cereal grains used in it. “अग्नये गृहपतये अश्वत्थामशकपालंनिर्वपेत्” “सोमय ववस्पतयेऽश्वत्थामाकंचद” “Let him offer cakes made of rice of quick growth and baked on eight pots/herds to the domestic fire.” Let him offer boiled black rice to Soma, the lord of the forest.”

The process of threshing is borrowed from the model sacrifice. Now the question is, whether the मन्त्र for threshing is to be repeated once or on the occasion of threshing each cereal grain. The reply of the author is that the principle of आवाप applies and as there are different varieties, the formula of threshing will have to be repeated on each occasion because the mantra enures only for the purpose of threshing one class of cereal grain and when another class of cereal grain is taken for threshing, the mantra will have to be repeated.

Adhikareṣa xiii, sūtras 44-45, dealing with the subject that in निर्वाप &c, there is the difference of the मन्त्र

निर्वपणलवनस्तरणाज्यग्रहणेषु चैकद्रव्यवत्प्रयोजनैक
त्वात् ॥ ११ । ४ । ४४ ॥

निर्वपणलवनस्तरणाज्यग्रहणेषु in offering, cutting, covering and taking of ghee; च and , एकद्रव्यवत् like one substance , प्रयोजनैकत्वात् by reason of the unity of the object.

44. In offering, cutting covering, and taking of ghee like one substance by reason of the unity of the object.

There are four ceremonies mentioned here (1) निर्वाप In the दशपूर्णमास it is said, “चतुरोमुष्टीन्निर्वपति” “He offers four handfuls.”

The mantra that is repeated is, देवस्यत्वासवितुः प्रसवेऽश्विनोर्बाहुभ्यां पूषणो हस्ताभ्यामग्नयेजुष्टनिर्वपामि” White Yajur Veda I. 10. “I being inspired by god Savita, make a pleasing offering to thee, Agni with the hands of पूषा and the arms of Aswins.”

2. छदन, “अयुर्वायुर्वायुष्टीजुर्नाति” “He cuts odd or even handfuls”; the mantra that is repeated at the cutting of the grass is “वर्हिर्वैवसदनं इमि” “I cut the grass the seat of the gods.”

3. उपस्तथा spreading the grass on the वेदि, “त्रिधा तु पंचधा तु वावेदिस्तृष्यति” “He covers the altar thrice or five times”

The mantra is, ‘ऊर्णाभ्रदंसं वास्तृष्यामि’ “I spread thee, soft as wool.”

4. आज्यग्रहण taking of ghee in a जुहु “चतुर्जुह्वीकृति” “He takes it four times in a जुहु.”

The mantra is, “शुक्लं त्वाशु कार्याग्नेवाग्नेदेवेभ्यो यजुषे यजुषेष्टृहामि” “I take thee, the resplendent one (ghee) in the resplendent one (vessel) for the gods at every place in every ceremony.”

The question is, whether these mantras of different ceremonies are to be repeated on each offering, cutting, covering and taking of ghee; in other words, the question narrows itself to, whether the principle laid down in Adhikaraṇa xi or Adhikaraṇa xii applies, or whether the principle of Tantra or अवाप applies. The reply of the objector is that the principle of तन्त्र laid down in Adhikaraṇa xi. at p. 949. applies because the object is one.

द्रव्यान्तरवद्वा स्यात्तत्संस्कारात् ॥ ११ । ४ । ४५ ॥

द्रव्यान्तरवत्, like the different substances, वा on the other hand, स्यात् is ; तत्संस्कारात् by reason of their being purified.

* 45. On the other hand, it will be like the different substances by reason of their being purified.

The author says that the principle of अवाप embodied in Adhikaraṇa xii. at p. 949 applies because every handful of rice offered is purified by the mantra. So every offering should be accompanied by the repetition of the mantra, the same principle applies in the case of others.

Adhikaraṇa xiv. sūtras 46 47, dealing with the subject that the principle of तन्त्र applies to the मन्त्र uttered at the time of sprinkling water on the altar.

वेदिप्रोक्षणे मन्त्राभ्यासः कर्मणः पुनः प्रयोगात् ॥

११ । ४ । ४६ ॥

वेदिप्रोक्षणे in sprinkling water on the altar मन्त्राभ्यासः repetition of the मन्त्रः कर्मणः of an act, पुनः प्रयोगात् by reason of the repetition.

46. In sprinkling water on the altar, the mantra is to be repeated by reason of the repetition of the act.

There is a (sprinkling of water on an altar), वेदिप्रोक्षणे "त्रिप्रोक्षति" "He sprinkles water thrice".

The mantra is "वेदिरसिर्हिवेत्वा" "O ! grass, thou art alta "

The question is, whether the mantra is to be uttered once or with each sprinkling of water. The reply of the objector is that it is to be repeated in each case, because there are separate acts.

एकस्य वा गुणविधिर्द्रव्यैकत्वात्तस्मात्सकृत्प्रयोगः

स्यात् ॥ ११ । ४ । ४० ॥

एकत्वं of one ; अतः on the other hand ; लुब्धविधिः laying down of quality ; अस्मैकत्वात् by reason of the unity of substance , तस्मात् therefore ; सङ्गत one ; अयोगः application ; स्यात् is.

47. On the other hand, it is laying of quality of one by reason of the unity of the substance; therefore there will be one application.

The author says that the purification of the altar is one act and the sprinkling of water is only a quality. The altar is purified by uttering the mantra , so the mantra is to be uttered once only.

Adhikaraṇa x. sūtras 48-49 dealing with the subject that the principle of लुब्ध applies to the pronunciation of the मंत्र at the time of rubbing each part of the body.

काङ्क्षने प्रत्यङ्गं कर्मभेदात् स्यात् ॥ ११ । ४ । ४१ ॥

काङ्क्षने in rubbing ; प्रत्यङ्गं each part of the body , कर्मभेदात् by reason of difference of act , स्यात् is.

48. In rubbing each part of the body, by reason of the difference of the act.

There is उत्पत्तिर्होम , in this connection, there is a mantra for scratching the body with the horn of a black antelope. "हृषिमुखानकृषः" "In ploughing, thou art black ploughshare".

The question is, whether the mantra should be uttered on the occasion of rubbing each part of the body with the horn when irritating sensation arises simultaneously in each part of it. The reply of the objector is that it should be repeated while scratching the different parts of the body, because there is a difference of acts.

अपि वा चोदनैककालमैककर्म्यं स्यात् ॥ ११ । ४ । ४२ ॥

अपि also , अतः on the other hand ; चोदना command ; ऐककालम् at one time ; ऐककर्म्यं one act , स्यात् is.

49. There is no चोदना ; it happens at one time and it is one act

The author says that the mantra should be repeated once ; because there is no चोदना ; it is not done for the purification of the body. The teasing desire arises and it is satisfied by rubbing the parts with the horn at one time.

Adhikaraṇa xvi dealing with the subject that the principle of मन्त्रः applies to the uttering of मन्त्रः on the occasions of dream and crossing of streams &c.

स्वप्ननदीतरणामिर्वर्षणामेध्यप्रतिमन्त्रेषु चैवम् ॥

११ । ४ । ५० ॥

स्वप्ननदीतरणामिर्वर्षणामेध्यप्रतिमन्त्रेषु on the repetition of the mantras on the occasion of dream, crossing of rivers, excessive rain and dung ; च and ; एवम् same.

50. In the repetition of the मन्त्रः on the occasion of dream, crossing of the river, excessive rain and dung, the same principle applies.

In श्रुतिर्होम there is a mantra to be repeated by the initiated (1) on the occasion of a dream, "एवमग्नेवतपा अति" "Thou art, O ! Agni an observer of a vow". (2) on the occasion of crossing any stream "देवीरापोअपानपात्" "The god water, the grandson of Āpas". (3) on the occasion of rain, "उन्मदीरोजोभते" "He has the bathing lustre". (4) on the occasion of seeing any excrement "अवृचचक्षुः" "Unimpaired sight".

These mantras are pronounced to ward off the evil effects. If the dreamer after one dream rises and sleeps again, should he repeat it again or not? (and the same question in the case of others). The reply of the author is that the mantra is to be repeated once and the principle of Tantra applies.

Adhikaraṇa xv dealing with the subject that the मन्त्रः is to be repeated once, on depart.

प्रयागे त्वार्यनिवृत्तेः ॥ ११ । ४ । ५१ ॥

प्रयागे on departure ; तु on the other hand ; निवृत्तेः by reason of the completion of the object.

51. On departure by reason of the completion of the object.

When an initiated goes on a journey, the following mantra is uttered, "महादिभिः श्रेयः मेहि" "Go, prosperous with the blessings &c."

The question is, whether this mantra is to be repeated on each march or once for all in the beginning. The reply of the author is that it is to be uttered once in the beginning, because the sacrificer starts with an object and the accomplishment thereof is in connection with the undertaking of the journey

Adhikarana xiv cūṭ as 52 53 dealing with the subject that the मंत्र is to be repeated in the case of उपरव separately

उपरवमन्त्रस्तन्त्रं स्याल्लोकवद्वहुवचनात् ॥११।४।५२॥

उपरव मंत्रः, उपरवमंत्र ; तंत्र by the principle of तंत्र, स्यात् is ; लोकवत् as in ordinary life, बहुवचनात् by reason of the plural number.

52. The उपरवमंत्र is governed by the principle of तंत्र, as it is) in ordinary life by reason of the plural number

उपरव is a pit for the extraction of soma juice in the उद्योतिष्टोम. It is in the form of a stool. These pits are four in number. The mantra is pronounced on the occasion of digging the pits, "रक्षोहृणो बलग्रह्णो वैष्णवान् इवामि" तै० सं० १३ २.१ "I dig demon-killing and charm-killing pits pertaining to Viṣṇu."

Now the question is, whether this mantra should be pronounced once for all or on digging each pit. The reply of the objector is that it should be repeated once for all, because in the mantra the plural number is used (वैष्णवान्), meaning thereby that the mantra is to enure for the benefit of all the four pits.

न सन्निपातित्वादसन्निपातिकर्मणां विशेषग्रहणे कालैकत्वात्सकृद्वचनम्* ॥ ११ । ४ । ५३ ॥

न not so, सन्निपातित्वात् by reason of the association of ideas, असन्निपातिकर्मणां of the acts in which there is no association of ideas, विशेषग्रहणे in taking the special, कालैकत्वात् by reason of the time being one.

53. Not so by reason of the association of ideas (of the acts to be performed) ; in taking the special acts in which there is no association of ideas, there is a recitation of the mantra once by reason of time being one.

* Śabara and संक्षेप have omitted सकृद्वचनम् from the सूत्र.

The author says that the हविषमंत्र is to be repeated on the occasion of digging each pit, because there are different pits and so the mantra is associated with each act of digging; but where there is no such association and time is one, the mantra is repeated once for all, as for instance in the case of calling सुवह्मणा. The plural number is used out of respect.

Adhikaraṇa XIX. sūtras 54-56 dealing with the subject that the mantras हविष्कृत्, अग्नि, are to be repeated severally.

हविष्कृदग्निगुपुरोऽनुवाक्यामनोतस्यावृत्तिः कालभेदात्
स्यात् ॥ ११ । ४ । ५४ ॥

हविष्कृदग्निगुपुरोऽनुवाक्यामनोतस्य, of हविष्कृत्, अग्नि command, पुरोनुवाक्या and मनोता; आवृत्तिः repetition; कालभेदात् by reason of the difference of time; स्यात् is.

54. (The mantras pertaining to) हविष्कृत्, अग्नि, पुरोनुवाक्या and मनोता are to be repeated by reason of the difference of time.

In a उयोतिष्ठोम, in each सवन there are पुरोडाश cakes and there is a mantra calling on the हविष्कृत्, "हविष्कृदेहि" "Come, O ! offering-maker"

In the वाजपेय, there are sacrificial and the प्राजापत्य animals; in that connection there is a mantra commanding the अग्नि "दैव्यः शमितारः" "O ! divine killer."

There is पुरोनुवाक्या "अग्नेनयसुपथा" "O ! Agni, lead us by good path." Rig I. 189. 1.

Lastly there is the मनोतामंत्र, "त्वं अग्ने प्रथमो मनोता" "Rigveda vi. 1. 1." "Thou, O ! Agni, art the first wished-for object."

Now the question for determination is, whether these mantras should be pronounced once or repeatedly. The reply of the author is that they should be repeated separately, because there is a difference of time. In the case of the हविष्कृत् मंत्र there is a difference of time for extracting soma. Similarly in the case of अग्नि and मनोता there are मंत्रs, three different सवनs; and in the case of पुरोनुवाक्या by reason of the सोमप्राग intervening, "आग्नेयं कृष्णग्रीवमालभेत सौम्यं वज्रमाग्नेयं कृष्णग्रीवम्" "(Let him sacrifice black necked animal to Agni, tawny-coloured to Soma and black-necked to Agni.)" there is a difference of time.

अग्निगोश्च विपर्यासात् ॥ ११ । ४ । ५५ ॥

- अग्निगोः of the अग्नि; च and; विपर्यासात् by reason of the transposition.

55. And by reason of the transposition of the अग्निगु

The author says that in the case of the अग्निगु, there is an additional reason. If you utter the अग्निगुप्रेषमन्त्र in the morning सवन, the पर्व्यग्निकरण of the animals will be suspended ; if you do it at the time of the मध्य-सम in the 3rd सवन you will perform those acts which should have been performed previously. So in order to avoid this confusion, the mantra is to be repeated on different occasions.

करिष्यद्वचनात् ॥ ११ । ४ । ५६ ॥

करिष्यत् done ; वचनात् by reason of the word.

56. By reason of the word "done"

The author says that the words used in the command made to अग्निगु are "आरब्धमुपनयत" "Commence and bring." ; as soon as this command is given, the activity on the part of the अग्निगु to commence the act is observed. If you transpose the order and utter the formula before its time, you will have to postpone all other proceedings which would have taken precedence, if performed in the ordinary course. So in order to avoid this confusion the प्रेषमन्त्र is to be repeated at every time.

END OF CHAP. XI.

CHAPTER XII.

PĀDA I

Ādhikarapa I. sūtras 1-7 dealing with animal and पुरोडाश sacrifices.

तन्त्रिसमवाये चोदनातः समानानामेकतन्त्र्यमतुल्येषु तु
भेदः स्याद्विधिपुक्रमतादर्थ्यात् श्रुतिकालनिर्देशात् ॥१२॥१॥

तन्त्रिसमवाये at the time of many primaries ; चोदनातः by command ; समानानाम् of equal ; ऐकतन्त्र्यम् one simultaneous performance , अतुल्येषु in unequal , तु on the other hand ; भेदः difference, स्यात् is , विधिपुक्रमतादर्थ्यात् by reason of the commencement of the subordinate being for it ; श्रुतिकालनिर्देशात् because the scripture has directed its time.

1. When there are many primaries, there is simultaneous performance, if they are governed by one command ; but in unequal, there is difference because the commencement of the subordinate is for it and because the scripture has directed its time.

In the 11th chapter, the author has dealt with Tantra and भावाय and in the present chap XII, he deals with प्रसंग. In Tantra the performance of the subordinate parts is intentionally done for the benefit of one or more primaries; on the other hand in a प्रसंग the performance of the subordinate parts is done originally for the benefit of one primary but it benefits another primary also though originally it is performed for one primary only. As a big lantern which is burning on a palace though originally lit for the royal house also sheds lustre on the public road though the object of the lantern is to illuminate the royal house. Other illustrations will come before the reader, as we proceed to examine the view of the author on different sacrificial rites. In the अग्नीषोमीय animal sacrifice, there is a पुरोडाश cake. “अग्नीषोमीयस्यवपयाप्रचर्याग्नीषोमीयं पशुपुरोडाश-मेकादशकपालं निर्वपेत्” “Having served with the omentum of the अग्नीषोमीय animal let him offer cakes made of the animal flesh and baked on eleven patsherds to the dual deities अग्नीषोम ”

Here we see two different acts, the animal sacrifice and the offering of the cake. Now the question is, whether the subordinate parts performed in the animal sacrifice should be repeated in the पुरोडाश or their performance in the animal sacrifice will also enure for the benefit of the पुरोडाश. The reply of the objector is that there should be a separate performance, because one has no connection with the other ; the first is an animal sacrifice and the other is an offering of the पुरोडाश cakes : because the underlying principle is that if the primaries are connected with each other and governed by one चोदना, the Tantra principle will apply there. But if they are governed by different चोदना, then आवाप will come into operation, because the text so directs it and because the parts belong to their primaries.

गुणकालविकाराच्च तन्त्रभेदः स्यात् ॥ १२ । १ । २ ॥

गुणकालविकारात् by reason of the modification of the quality and time ; च and , तन्त्रभेदः difference of तन्त्र , स्यात् is.

2. By reason of the modification of the quality and time, there will be a difference of Tantra

The objector further supports his view and says that the animal sacrifice and पुरोडाश offerings are different by reason of the quality and time. In the animal sacrifice, there are 11 प्रयाज offerings and 11 अनुयाज offerings but in पुरोडाश we have five प्रयाज offerings and 3 अनुयाज offerings. In the animal sacrifice, you use घृतदाज्य a mixture of curd and ghee, while in पुरोडाश, only ghee is used. In the animal sacrifice, the animal remains standing, while you can use any substance near at hand for the पुरोडाश cake. The पुरोडाश is offered after the omentum ; so there is a great difference and the principle of आवाप, therefore, governs them.

तन्त्रमध्ये विधानाद्वा मुख्यतन्त्रेण सिद्धिः स्यात्तन्त्रार्थ-
स्याविशिष्टत्वात् ॥ १२ । १ । ३ ॥

तन्त्रमध्ये in the middle of tantra ; विधानात् by reason of being laid down ; वा on the other hand ; मुख्यतन्त्रेण by one primary ; सिद्धिः accomplishment ; स्यात् is ; तन्त्रार्थस्य of the object of the primary ; अविशिष्टत्वात् by reason of being not special.

3. On the other hand, by reason of its being laid in connection with the primary, the accomplishment will be by one primary, because the object of the primary is not special.

The author says that the subordinate parts are to be performed in the animal sacrifice only, the performance there, will benefit the offering of the cakes ; the reason is that the पुरोडाश offering is read in connection with the animal sacrifice, “अग्नीषोमीयस्य षपद्याप्रचयमग्नीषोमीयं पशुपुरोडाशमेकादशं कपालं निर्वपेत्” “Having commenced with the ornament of the अग्नीषोमीय animal, let him offer an animal cake baked on eleven potsherds and consecrated to अग्नीषोम” ; and so it will be considered to be benefitted by the performance of the subordinate parts in the animal sacrifice, because there is nothing special in the text to make it particular : the object of the animal sacrifice is general. Just as the lamp lit on the royal palace sheds lustre not only on the royal palace but also on the public way

विकाराच्च न भेदः स्यादर्थस्याविकृतत्वात् ॥१२॥१४॥

विकारात् by reason of the modification, च and, न not, भेद. difference; स्वात् is, अर्थस्य of the object, अविकृतत्वात् by reason of being not changed.

4. And there is no difference by reason of the modification, because the object is not changed.

The author replies to the objection embodied in sūtra 2. He says that there are five प्रयाज offerings in पुरोडाश and there are eleven in the animal sacrifice; what harm is there if more are performed? There is no difference in the object for which the प्रयाज offerings are made, there is only a change of number. One is given milk, but if he is given milk and sugar, it is an additional advantage. So long as the object is not changed, there is nothing wrong, if there is a modification of quality and time.

एकेषां वाशक्यत्वात् ॥ १२ । १ । ५ ॥

एकेषां of one, वा on the other hand ; शक्यत्वात् by reason of the capacity.

5. On the other hand, by reason of the capacity for one.

The objector says that the subordinate acts can benefit only one primary; their capacity to confer benefit does not extend to others.

आहोपुरीषकं स्यात् ॥ १२ । १ । ६ ॥

आहोपुरीषकं a boasting of heroic exploit, स्यात् is

6. It may be a boasting of heroic exploit.

The author says that one performance accomplishes the object ; no further repetition of the same is required: what is completed, does not require another completion. What is done can not be done again. This sūtra does not find its place in other editions.

एकान्वित्यदर्शनम् ॥ १५१॥ ७ ॥

एकान्वित्यत् like one fire ; च and ; दर्शनम् proof.

7. There is also proof like one fire.

The author relies on the लिङ्ग argument to show that there is only one fire for the animal and पुरोडाश sacrifices. “मध्वेऽग्नेराज्याहुती जुहोति पुरोडाश-याहुती चश्वाहुतीश्च.” “In the fire, he makes an offering of ghee, cake and animal.”

Adhikarana ii, dealing with the subject that the ghee offering is to be made in the पुरोडाश offering of the animal sacrifice.

जैमिनेः परतन्त्रत्वापत्तेः स्वतन्त्रप्रतिषेधः स्यात् ॥

१२११॥ ८ ॥

जैमिनेः the view of Jaimini ; परतन्त्रत्वापत्तेः by reason of the application of the तन्त्र , स्वतन्त्रप्रतिषेधः prohibition of one's own application ; स्यात् is.

8. The view of Jaimini is that by reason of the application of the तन्त्र one's own application of tantra is prohibited.

Take the same पशुपुरोडाश , अग्न्यभाग are not in the animal sacrifice, “होतृत्वेऽग्नेरपशौ” “They (both) are neither in a सोमयाग nor in an animal sacrifice,” while they find their place in the पुरोडाश under the ऋक् text. The question is, whether they should be performed or not. The author says that when the पुरोडाश offering has been governed by the Tantra principle of the animal sacrifice, the procedure so far as governed by the प्रयोगवचन (the text relating to procedure) is prohibited but not that which is transferred to the पुरोडाश offering from elsewhere under the ऋक् text. When देवतः rides in the car of यजुः, there is no necessity of देवतः's own car, but that does not mean that he should not have his own apparel. The प्रयोगवचन under which they are both governed will benefit both by one performance under the principle of वसं, but the procedure which does not find its place in the animal sacrifice and which is borrowed from elsewhere is not thereby prohibited.

Adhikarana iii, sūtras 9-10, dealing with the subject that in a soma sacrifice, there are no separate offerings.

नानार्थत्वात्सोमैर्दर्शपूर्णमासप्रकृतीनां वेदिकर्म स्यात् ॥

१२११॥ ९ ॥

नामार्थत्वात्, by reason of the variety of the objects ; सोमै in a soma sacrifice, दशपूर्वमासप्रकृतीनां of the full and new moon sacrifices as models ; वेदिनां the construction of altars ; स्यात् is.

9: By reason of the variety of the objects, in a soma sacrifice, the construction of the altar is of the full and new moon sacrifices, as its models.

Now the question is, whether the altars should be differently constructed in the सोमयाग as is done in its model sacrifices दशपूर्वमासयागः. The reply of the objector is that separate altars should be made in compliance with the practice of the full and new moon sacrifices, its models, because there the altars are separately constructed for placing the offerings.

अकर्म वा कृतदूषा स्यात् ॥ १२ । १ । १० ॥

अकर्म non-construction ; वा on the other hand ; कृतदूषा defective, स्यात् is.

10 On the other hand, it should not be constructed ; if constructed, it is defective.

The author says that you should not construct a separate altar according to the practice of the new and full moon sacrifices, if constructed it will be of no use. If you enquire, where will be the offering placed? The reply is that you can place it on the big altar. So there is no necessity of constructing a separate altar.

Adhikaraga iv sūtras 11—12, dealing with the vessels of the new and full moon sacrifices

पात्रेषु च प्रसङ्गः स्याद्दोमार्थत्वात् ॥ १२ । १ । ११ ॥

पात्रेषु in the case of vessels, प्रसङ्ग the principle of प्रसङ्ग, स्यात् is, दोमार्थत्वात् by reason of their being for a होम.

11. The principle of प्रसङ्ग applies in the case of the vessels by reason of their being for the होम.

In a soma sacrifice, the cup and spoon are used, there are also certain rites of the full and new moon sacrifices such as सप्तम and दुरोदास performed; there are जुहु and उपश्रुत vessels belonging to them. The question is, whether the vessels of the soma, namely, the cups and spoons will be sufficient or the vessels of the new and full moon sacrifices, viz. जुहु and उपश्रुत should also be used in these rites which are borrowed from the दशपूर्वमासयागः. The reply of the objector is that the principle of प्रसङ्ग applies and the cups and spoon are quite sufficient, as they are for the purpose of a होत.

न्याय्यानि वा प्रयुक्तत्वादप्रयुक्ते प्रसङ्गः स्यात् ॥

१२ । १ । १२ ॥

न्याय्यानि proper, वा on the other hand, प्रयुक्तत्वात् by reason of being used, अप्रयुक्ते when not used, प्रसङ्गः the principle of प्रसङ्ग, स्यात् is.

12. On the other hand, they are proper, by reason of being used ; when not used, the principle of प्रसङ्ग applies.

The author says that it is proper that the vessels of the दर्शपूर्णमासयागस should be used in those rites of the दर्शपूर्णमासयागस which are imported, while those vessels which are already in the soma sacrifice may serve the purpose and will not be newly brought in. The principle of प्रसङ्ग will apply in the latter case. When there are no vessels in a ceremony belonging to it there will be a necessity of borrowing them. When there is no car of his own near by, Devadutta goes in the car of यशदत्त but if the car is there, he would not do so. So the vessels of the दर्शपूर्णमासयागस will be used only in those rites which are connected with दर्शपूर्णमासयागस and transferred to the सोमयाग.

Adhikarapa dealing with the performance of animal and पुरोडाश sacrifice in the शामित्र fire.

शामित्रे च पशुपुरोडाशो न स्यादितरस्य प्रयुक्तत्वात् ॥

१२ । १ । १३ ॥

शामित्रे in the fire for cooking the sacrificial flesh ; पशुपुरोडाशः the animal पुरोडाश sacrifice, स्यात् is, इतरस्य of the other ; प्रयुक्तत्वात् by reason being used.

13. In the शामित्र fire, the animal पुरोडाश sacrifice should not be performed by reason of the other being used.

* The question for determination is, whether the animal पुरोडाश cakes should be cooked in the शामित्र fire or the शाकाहुतीव fire. The reply of the author is that they should not be cooked in the शामित्र fire because गार्हपत्य fire, has already been used. "एवोक्तं च गार्हपत्यो भवति" This गार्हपत्य fire is after it. शाकाहुतीव fire is lit in the eastern part of the sacrificial ground having bamboo built stall called प्राचीनदशाका (see frontispiece fig I) ; first आहवनीय fire is burnt in the उत्तरवेदी ; गार्हपत्य fire is lit afterwards. So the offering of पशु पुरोडाश (animal cake) should be cooked in the गार्हपत्य fire which is already there before the शामित्र fire.

Adhikarapa vi dealing with the offering in the प्राजहित fire.

अपशं वाऽग्निहोत्रस्य शालामुखीये न स्यात्प्राजहित-
स्य विद्यमानत्वात् ॥ १२ । १ । १४ ॥

अपशं cooking ; वा on the other hand ; अग्निहोत्रस्य of अग्निहोत्र ; शालामुखीये in the शालामुख fire , स्यात् is , प्राजहितस्य of the प्राजहित ; विद्यमानत्वात् by reason of presence.

14. On the other hand, cooking in the अग्निहोत्र should not be in the शालामुखीय, because of the presence of the प्राजहित.

Now the question for determination is, whether in the अग्निहोत्र of कौटर्गाय-नामयन, the cooking is to be made in the शालामुखीय or in the प्राजहित fire. The शालामुखीय fire has already been explained. The fire burnt in the eastern part of the sacrificial ground called प्राचीनवश having a stall is called शालामुखीय. The first fire burnt is आहवनीय and after the completion of the rites in the उत्तरवेदी, the गार्हपत्य fire is burnt. In the preceding Adhikarapa it is laid down that the पशुपुरोडाश offerings should be cooked in this शालामुखीय fire which happens to be गार्हपत्य. The author therefore, says here that the term गार्हपत्य is used to denote शालामुखीय in the secondary sense, as the offerings of the अग्निहोत्र will be cooked in the principal गार्हपत्य which is otherwise known as प्राजहित. It is the fire lit in the western part of the प्राचीनवश stall and is principal गार्हपत्य fire ; what the author means is that when the principal गार्हपत्य (प्राजहित) is present, there is no necessity in cooking the offerings in the 'शालामुखीय' fire which is गार्हपत्य fire in the secondary sense.

Adhikarapa vii, sūtras 15-16 dealing with the निर्वाण in relation to the two soma carts.

हविर्द्वानि निर्वपणार्थं साधयेतां प्रयुक्तत्वात् ॥१२१॥१५॥

हविर्द्वानि in a हविर्धान cart ; निर्वपणार्थं for the purpose of the offering ; साधयेतां completion should be made , प्रयुक्तत्वात् by reason of the act being commenced.

15. In a हविर्धान cart, the completion should be made for the purpose of the offering, by reason of the act being commenced.

There are two carts called द्विविधान carts in which different sacrificial materials are placed. They remain standing at the द्विविधानमंडप. The निर्वप is offered at a place to the west of the गार्हपत्य fire. The question is, whether the निर्वप offering should be made to one of these two carts or another cart should be brought in. The reply of the objector is that one of them will be quite sufficient for the निर्वप offerings ; there is no need of procuring a third one because the act has been already commenced with them.

असिद्धिर्वाऽन्यदेशत्वात्प्रधानवैगुण्यादवैगुण्ये प्रसङ्गः
स्यात् ॥ १२ । १ । १६ ॥

असिद्धिः failure ; वा on the other hand ; अन्यदेशत्वात् by reason of the separate place , प्रधानवैगुण्यात् by reason of the principal being spoiled ; अवैगुण्ये on the principal being not spoiled , प्रसङ्गः the principle of प्रसङ्ग ; स्यात् 18.

16. On the other hand, there will be a failure by reason of the separate place and by reason of the principal being spoiled. On the principal being not spoiled, the principle of प्रसङ्ग will apply.

The author says that one of the carts named द्विविधानि will not do ; because they stand at a distance from the place of the offering. If you bring one of the carts to the place of the offering, the principal ceremony, namely, the सोमयाग will be spoiled. If the principal ceremony is not spoiled, then one of these carts will do Adhikaraṇa viii. dealing with the subject of another cart.

अनसाञ्च दर्शनात् ॥ १२ । १ । १७ ॥

अनसाञ्च of the carts ; च and ; दर्शनात् by seeing.

17. And by seeing the carts (in the plural number).

This sūtra is a concluding part of the preceding Adhikaraṇa in all other editions but Śābara has treated it as a separate Adhikaraṇa. The author says that the 'cart' is used in plural number which shows that a third cart is used, "अनासिप्रवर्तयन्ति" "They employ carts."

Adhikaraṇa ix. dealing with the subject that दीक्षा and जागरण should be performed separately.

तद्युक्तत्वं च कालभेदात् ॥ १२ । १ । १८ ॥

तद्युक्तत्वं combination with it , च and ; कालभेदात् by reason of the difference of time.

18. And combination with it by reason of the difference of time.

In the soma sacrifice, the vigil takes place on the day of initiation, "प्रथमं इक्षितो रात्रिजागतिं तथा स्वप्ने न व्यावर्तते" "The first night on which the initiated remains awake, is changed by him in dreaming"

In the दशपूर्णवाग, the same is said of जीवत्सव्य day as regards vigil. It is transferred to the प्रायणीय under a चोदक text; the time thereof falls in the middle, now the question is, whether the vigil which falls in the middle should be kept separately or the vigil that was kept on the initiation day would enure for the benefit of the whole sacrifice. The reply of the author is that the vigil should be separately kept, because the vigil of the initiation day will not enure for the whole sacrifice.

Adhikarṇa x. dealing with the subject of तत्र and आवाप in the case of the separate विहार.

मन्त्राश्च सन्निपातित्वात् ॥ १२ । १ । १६ ॥

मन्त्राः the मन्त्रs ; च and ; सन्निपातित्वात् by reason of their distant benefit.

19. And the मन्त्रs by reason of their distant benefit.

In the वह्न्यप्रघात there are different sacrificial hearths ; there are mantras for taking ghee, sprinkling water and touching. The question is, whether they should be repeated separately. The reply of the author is that they should be separately recited, because they are associated with separate acts and remind separate acts. They are separate acts of मन्त्रसु and प्रतिप्रस्थासु and so, the mantras will be of necessity recited separately.

Adhikarṇa xi. dealing with the establishment of fire in a Soma sacrifice.

धारणार्थत्वात् सोमेऽग्न्यन्वाधानं न विद्यते ॥ १२ । १ । २० ॥

धारणार्थत्वात् by reason of its being for the maintainance ; सोमे in soma ; अग्न्यन्वाधानं re-establishment of fire ; न not ; विद्यते exists.

20. In soma by reason of its being for the maintainance, there is no re-establishment of fire.

In a soma sacrifice, there are इक्षि like दीक्षणीया&c. The establishment of fire is transferred there by the चोदक text. Now the question is, whether the fire should be separately kept in the दीक्षणीया or the अग्न्यन्वाधान of soma will enure for the benefit of the whole. The reply of the author is that when fire is once established for the Soma sacrifice, there is no necessity of re-est-establishment of it for the दीक्षणीया &c.

Adhikaraṇa xii. sutras 21-24. dealing with the vows belonging to the full and new moon sacrifices.

तथा व्रतमपेतत्वाद् ॥ १२ । १ । २१ ॥

तथा similarly ; व्रतम् the vows ; अपेतत्वाद् by reason of being already undertaken.

21. Similarly the vows, by reason of their being already undertaken.

Now the question is, whether the vows which have been taken in the soma sacrifice enure for the benefit of the whole sacrifice or another vow should be taken in the इष्टि like प्रायणीय &c transferred from the दर्शपूर्णमासयाग under the वेदक text The reply of the author is that the vow taken in the beginning is quite sufficient and lasts for the period of the whole sacrifice and there is, therefore, no necessity of taking another vow in connection with the इष्टि a part of the same sacrifice.

विप्रतिषेधाच्च ॥ १२ । १ । २२ ॥

विप्रतिषेधात् by reason of the prohibition , च and

22. And by reason of the prohibition.

The author gives a reason in support of his view, "अग्नेव्रतपते व्रतं कारिष्यमि" "O! Agni, lord of the vow, I shall observe a vow"

By taking a vow in the present, the prohibition of any future undertaking is thereby prohibited

सत्यवदिति चेत् ॥ १२ । १ । २३ ॥

सत्यवत् like truth ; इति चेत् if you say

23. 'Like truth' if you say.

The objector says that though speaking of truth is a man's duty (सत्यवत्) yet when one commences दर्शपूर्णमासयाग, he undertakes an additional vow.

न संयोगपृथक्त्वाद् ॥ १२ । १ । २४ ॥

न not ; संयोगपृथक्त्वाद् by reason of the separate connection.

24. Not so, by reason of the separate connection.

The author says that there are two different duties, one is पुरोवाच i. e. the duty of telling the truth during the whole life and the other कृतवर्त्य imposed during the course of a sacrifice, so the vow which one takes at the commencement of a sacrifice is कृतवर्त्य and lasts for the whole of the sacrifice and, therefore, there is no necessity of undertaking it at every stage.

Adhikaraṇa XIII. sūtras 25-27 dealing with the subject of reception of gods

ग्रहार्थं च पूर्वमिष्टेस्तदर्थत्वात् ॥ १२ । १ ॥ २५ ॥

ग्रहार्थं for the object of reception of gods, च and, पूर्वम् before, इष्टे of or from इष्टि; तदर्थत्वात् by reason of being for the object

26. And for the object of reception of gods by reason of being for the object before the इष्टि

See XI Adhikaraṇa at p 965, it is in continuation of the same just as the establishment of fire enures for the benefit of the whole sacrifice consisting of soma and इष्टि, so does the invitation to the gods and receiving them as guests enure for the whole sacrifice, “ममाग्ने वर्चोविहवेष्वास्त्विति पूर्वमग्निं गृह्णाति देवता एव तत्पूर्वेषु गृहीताः श्वोभूते यजते” “O ! Agni in the invocation, let there be my splendour” (R V, X 128 1) saying this he receives Agni (as guest) first, the gods that are received on the previous day are worshipped on the following day”

You invite the gods on the previous day and worship them on the following day.

“अग्निः प्रथमो देवतानां विष्णु परमो यदाग्नावैष्णवमेकादश कपालं निर्वपति देवता यज्ञं च तदुभयतः परिगृह्य दीक्षते” “Agni is the first (last) of the gods and Viṣṇu is the highest when one offers cakes baked on eleven potsherd to Agni and Viṣṇu, it is a sacrifice in honour of a deity and, therefore, they initiate both ways.”

The same deities invited for the soma shall serve the purpose of the इष्टि.

शेषवदिति चेन्न वैश्वदेवो हि स्याद्व्यपदेशात् ॥

१२ । १ । २६ ॥

शेषवत् like the subordinate part; इति चेन्न if you say, न not, so, वैश्वदेवः by reason of all the deities; हि because; स्यात् is, व्यपदेशात् by reason of designation.

26. "If you say like the subordinate parts," not so, by reason of all the deities ; it may be a designation.

The sūtra is divided into 3 parts. The first part embodies the objection of the objector, it says that the gods of दीक्षणीया are received, but the gods of the subordinate parts are not thereby received. The second part embodies the reply of the author, he says that you are wrong, there is the worship of all the gods. "साध्यावसवोरुद्राः" "The साध्याs, वसुs and रुद्रs."

The third part embodies the reply of the objector. He says that the gods are named, "अग्निर्वसुभिः सोमोऽर्यैर्द्रो र्मरुद्भिर्वरुण आदित्यैर्वृहस्पतिर्विश्वेदेवैः" "Agni with वसुs, soma with रुद्रs, इंद्र with मरुत्s, वरुण with अदित्यs and वृहस्पति with all the gods "

In other editions there are 2 different sūtras which our learned commentator has put into one.

न गुणार्थत्वात् ॥ १२ । १ । २७ ॥

न not so ; गुणार्थत्वात् by reason of its being for the praise.

27. Not so, by reason of its being for the praise.

The author says that the designation is not for the purpose of limiting the number but for the purpose of praising the deities, as in the expression, "all animals such as the horse, cow &c", the specification does not exclude other animals

Adhikarapa xiv dealing with the subject of equipment of wife

सन्नहनञ्च वृत्तत्वात् ॥ १४ । १ । २८ ॥

सन्नहन the equipment, च and, वृत्तत्वात् by reason of its being already undertaken.

28. And the equipment by reason of its being already undertaken.

The equipment of one's wife is laid down in the दर्शपूर्णमासयोगसूत्रेण पट्टीसनहति "He equips the wife with a grass rope."

Now the question is, whether in the इष्टिs which are the parts of the soma, the equipment transferred from the दर्शपूर्णमास under the चोदक text is to be performed or not. At the time of initiation, the equipment is performed for the object of the soma, "योयज्ञेण पट्टीसनहति । मेघलयादोक्षितो मिषु नत्वाय" "He adorns the wife with a grass rope, the initiated one with a girdle for becoming a pair."

The equipment is for tightening the dress and ensures for the benefit of the whole sacrifice.

Adhikar. pa xv dealing with the subject of the forest food.

अन्यविधानादारण्यभोजनं न स्यादुभयं हि वृत्त्यर्थम् ॥

॥ १२ । १ । २९ ॥

अन्यविधानात् by reason of laying down another ; आरण्यभोजनं forest food ; न not , स्यात् is , उभयं both , वृत्त्यर्थम् for maintenance.

29 By reason of laying down another, there is no forest food; both are for maintenance.

In connection with दशपूर्णमासयागः, there is forest food, “यदारण्यानश्नाति- तेनारण्यानयो इन्द्रियमेवात्मनो धत्ते” “When one partakes of the forest food, thereby he maintains forest and one's own sense organs”

It comes to प्रायश्चीया under a चोदक text The author says that the forest food should not be partaken of, because another food is laid down in the soma sacrifice which is the principal, “पशेन्न तं प्रक्षुप्तस्य वा गूराज्जन्यस्यामि क्षावैश्यस्य” “Milk food is for a priest, gruel is for a warrior and curd-dish is for a merchant.”

They are both for maintainance. So the food prescribed in soma sacrifice will do and there is no necessity to resort to the forest food when transference in प्रायश्चीया suffices.

Adhikarapa xvi. dealing with the remnants of food.

शेषमक्षास्तथेति चेन्नान्यार्थत्वात् ॥ १२ । १ । ३० ॥

शेषमक्षाः remnants of the food ; तथा similarly , इति चेत् if you say ; न not ; अन्यार्थत्वात् by reason of their being for another.

30. If you say “remnants of the food similarly”; no, by reason of their being for another object.

The sūtra is divided into two parts ; the first part embodies the objector's view. He says that the same principle applies to the remnants of food. The second part embodies the author's view ; he says no ; they are for a different object. They are not for maintenance, they are for purification, “यजमानश्चमाक्षतिवज इदमक्षयति” “The four priests and the fifth sacrificer partakes of हव्य food.”

So eating of the remnants will be transferred to the इष्टि which are the parts of सोमयाग from दर्शपूर्णमासयाग

Adhikarapa xvii. sūtras 31-33. dealing with the subject of hiring the services.

भृतत्वाच्च परिक्रयः ॥ १२ । १ । ३१ ॥

भृतत्वाच्च by reason of maintenance ; च and , परिक्रयः hiring of services.

31. And by reason of maintenance, there is hiring of services.

In the दर्शपूर्णमासयाग, the hiring of the services depends on the gift of food prepared with rice. It is transferred here under a जोदक text. But in soma the fee is 1200, "तस्यद्वादशशतदक्षिणा" "His (or its) fee consists of 1200"

This is for the maintenance of the priests.

Now the question is, whether there should be a separate fee of the इष्टि which are the parts of the सोमयाग. The reply of the author is that the fee of the soma is quite sufficient and no separate fee is required for the parts; because the securing of the services is for the whole sacrifice including its parts.

शेषभक्षस्तथेति चेत् ॥ १२ । १ । ३२ ॥

शेषभक्षः eating of the remnants of the food , च and ; तथा similarly ; इति चेत् if you say.

32. And eating of the remnants of food similarly, if you say.

The objector says that eating of the remnants of food may be considered in lieu of the services secured for the subordinate parts (see Adhikarapa xvi sūtra 30. at p. 969)

न कर्मसंयोगात् ॥ १२ । १ । ३३ ॥

न not so ; कर्मसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the act.

33. Not so, by reason of the connection with the act.

The author says that eating of the remnants is not in lieu of the services secured but for purification. The sūtras 32 & 33 have been put under a different Adhikarapa by other commentators.

Adhikarapa xviii sūtras 34-40 dealing with the appointment of a होता.

प्रवृत्तवरणात्प्रति तंत्रवरणात्प्रतितन्त्रवरणं होतुः क्रियेत॥

१२ । १ । ३४ ॥

प्रवृत्तवरणात् by reason of the commencement of the appointment ; प्रति- त'वरणात् and by reason of the appointment for each त'त्र , प्रति-त'वरण' appointment for each part ; होतुः of a होता , क्रियेत should be done.

34. By reason of the commencement of the appointment and by reason of the appointment for each Tantra, there is appointment of the होता for each part.

In the दशगुणमासयाग, there is the appointment of a होता, "अग्निर्देवो देवो होता देवान्यश्नत्" "Agni the divine hota priest sacrifices to the gods." it is transferred to the इष्टि, the parts of the soma under a चोदक text ;
but there is also an appointment of a होता in a सोम sacrifice, "अग्निर्होता स मे होता हो नस्त्वमे होतासोति होतारं वृणीते" "Agni- is the hota , he is my hota , O ! priest, thou art my hota' saying this he appoints a hota."

The question is, whether the appointment of the होता ensures for the benefit of the whole sacrifice or there should be another appointment in the इष्टि. The reply of the author is that the appointment should be for the इष्टि separately The reason is that when the sacrifice has been commenced, the appointment of a होता is for each त'त्र separately, so there must be a separate appointment for each.

ब्रह्मापोति चेत् ॥ १२ । १ । ३५ ॥

ब्रह्मा Brahma; अपि also ; इतिचेत् if you say.

35. "Brahma also" if you say.

The objector says that if your view is that होता should be appointed separately, then Brahma should also be separately appointed.

न प्राङ्नियमात्तदर्थं हि ॥ १२ । १ । ३६ ॥

न not so , प्राङ्नियमात् by reason of the previous appointment ; तदर्थं for it , हि because.

36. Not so, by reason of the previous appointment, because it is for it.

The author says that the appointment of a Brahma is before the commencement of the sacrifice ; so it is for the purpose of the sacrifice ; it therefore, ensures for the whole sacrifice ; but in the case of the appointment of a hotā, the appointment is after the act is commenced and it is for the purpose of the invisible effect.

निर्दिष्टस्येति चेत् ॥ १२ । १ । ३७ ॥

निर्दिष्टस्य of the directed , इतिचेत् if you say.

37. "Of the directed" if you say.

The objector says that a day previous to the new moon, the construction of an altar is directed, "पूर्वे नूमावस्यागवेदिं करोति" "On the previous day to the new moon, he constructs an altar."

The work is done by the Brahma , so he should be considered to have been appointed after the commencement

न श्रुतत्वात् ॥ ॥ १२ । १ । ३८ ॥

न not so ; श्रुतत्वात् by reason of not being laid down.

38. Not so, by reason of not being laid down

The author says that the construction of the altar one day before the new moon is laid down but no where Brahma's appointment is so laid down He is appointed on the full moon day and so his appointment ensures for the benefit of the new moon sacrifice also. He is, therefore, not appointed for each separate part but for the whole sacrifice.

होतुस्तथेति चेत् ॥ १२ । १ । ३९ ॥

होतुः of the होता ; तथा similarly , इतिचेत् if you say.

39. "The Hotā similarly" if you say.

The objector says that the appointment of the होता is also likewise for the whole sacrifice.

न कर्मसंयोगात् ॥ १२ । १ । ४० ॥

न not so ; कर्मसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the act.

40 Not so, by reason of the connection with the act.

The author says that the appointment of the hotā is after the sacrifice¹ has commenced, "सामवेनी ३५६" "He recites सामवेनी verses subsequently"

The recital of the सामवेनी verses commences before the appointment of the hotā. So the appointment of the hotā is for the accrual of the invisible effect.

Adhikaraṇa xix. dealing with the sprinkling of water on the वह्नि grass.

यज्ञोत्पत्त्युपदेशे निष्ठितकर्मप्रयोगभेदात्पूतितन्त्रं क्रियेत॥

१२ । १ । ४१ ॥

यज्ञोत्पत्त्युपदेशे in the direction relating to the origin of a sacrifice ; निष्ठित-कर्मप्रयोगभेदात् by reason of the difference of the application of the fixed act ; प्रतितन्त्रं separate तन्त्र ; क्रियेत should be done.

41. In the direction relating to the origin of the sacrifice by reason of the difference of the application of the fixed act, it is to be done separately.

There is वह्नि in अतिथ्या, the same is in उपसद् and अग्नीषोमीयः. When वह्नि is cut, water is sprinkled on the front part and the lower part is washed. Now the question is whether this sprinkling of water should be repeated in each case or the process performed in one, shall enure for the benefit of the others, because the वह्नि is the same. The reply of the author is that the sprinkling should be performed separately in each case, because the sprinkling that is done in the अतिथ्या enures for the benefit of that only. So the process is to be repeated in each case.

न वा कृतत्वात्तदुपदेशो हि ॥

न not so ; वा on the other hand, कृत्वात् by reason of having done it ;
तदुपदेशः direction for it, हि because.

Not so by reason of having done it, because the direction is for it.

The sūtra does not find its place in the edition of Śābara, but it has been commented upon by all other commentators. They consider it to embody the opinion of the author and the preceding sūtra as containing the view of the objector. The author says that there will be no repetition, because sprinkling is done with the object of purifying the वह्नि; but if it is done for the object of the अतिथ्या only, the sprinkling will have to be repeated in each case separately.

Adhikaraṇa xx dealing with the subject that the principle of प्रसंग does not apply to the संशयमन्त्र there.

देशपृथक्त्वान्मन्त्रोऽव्यावर्तते ॥ १२ । १ । ४२ ॥

देशप्रत्ययत्वात् by reason of the separation of the place ; मन्त्रः मन्त्र ; अनावर्तते is repeated.

42. By reason of the separation of the place, the mantra is repeated.

There is a सख्यमन्त्र recited when grass is spread, “वर्णाञ्जदसंस्थास्तृणामि” “I spread thee soft as wool.”

Now the question is, whether the सख्यमन्त्र should be repeated separately while spreading grass. The reply of the author is that it is to be repeated, because the प्राग्वश where grass is spread is different from the उत्तरवेदि. The प्राग्वश is purified by it but not the उत्तरवेदि. So the मन्त्र will have to be repeated.

प्राग्वश is an eastern portion from the house where offerings are placed and where the sacrificer and his wife reside (See frontispiece fig I. 3.)

Adhikarṇa XXI sūtra 43 44 dealing with the subject of the सख्यमन्त्र

सख्यमन्त्रे तथेति चेत् ॥ १२ । १ । ४३ ॥

सख्यमन्त्रे in सख्यमन्त्रे, तथा similarly, इति चेत् if you say.

43. “In सख्यमन्त्रे similarly” if you say.

Grass is purified in the अतिथ्या place and carried to the अग्नीषोमीय place after arranging and fastening it with the accompaniment of the Vedic mantras; it is called सख्यमन्त्र. The tying of grass in a bundle is सख्य and carrying it to another place is मन्त्र. There are two mantras for the purpose “पूषाते प्रथिमन्त्रात्” “बृहस्पतेर्मन्त्राद्भिरामि” “Let Puṣa tie thy bundle” “O ! Brihaspati, I carry thee with my head.”

Now the question is, whether these mantras should be read when the बर्हि is carried in a bundle from the place of अतिथ्या to the place of अग्नीषोमीय. The reply of the objector is that they should be repeated according to the principle laid down in the preceding Adhikarṇa.

नान्यार्थत्वात् ॥ १२ । १ । ४४ ॥

न not so ; नान्यार्थत्वात् by reason of the object being different.

44. Not so, by reason of the object being different.

The author says that the object of the सख्यमन्त्र is different. Here in carrying the grass from the place of अतिथ्या to अग्नीषोमीय, there is no necessity of repeating the mantras, because no mantras are repeated when it is carried from the place of गार्हपत्य to आहवनीय. These mantras are for the purpose of carrying grass from the place where it is cut and tied. (कृत्वादेशः)

END OF PĀDA I.

PĀDA II.

In the preceding pāda the author examined the acts which fell with in the the scope of Tantra but now he proceeds to examine those acts which are without its pale.

Adhikaraṇa I sūtras 1—7, dealing with the subject that in the sacrificial fire, the ordinary act is forbidden.

विहारो लौकिकानामर्थं साधयेत्प्रभुत्वात् ॥१२।२।१॥

विहारः sacrificial fires ; लौकिकानाम् of the ordinary , मर्थम् object ; साधयेत् accomplish ; प्रभुत्वात् by reason of the capacity.

1 The three fires may accomplish the ordinary act by reason of the capacity.

The विहार means the three fires. The objector says that the sacrificial fire can also accomplish the acts of the ordinary life such as cooking, burning and lighting ; because it is competent to do so

मांसपाकप्रतिषेधश्च सदृशः ॥ १२।२।२॥

मांसपाकप्रतिषेधः the prohibition about the cooking of flesh , च and ; सदृशः like it.

2. The prohibition about the cooking of flesh is like it

The objector supports his view by saying that the cooking of flesh is properly prohibited, showing thereby that other ordinary acts are not prohibited, "यस्मिन्वाग्नी देवपचेषुः क्रव्यादङ्कुतः" "[In the fire in which they cook, they make it carnivorous.]"

निर्देशाद्वा वैदिकानां स्यात् ॥ १२।२।३॥

निर्देशात् by reason of the direction ; च on the other hand ; वैदिकानां of the Vedic acts ; स्यात् is.

3. On the other hand, by reason of the direction, it is for the Vedic acts.

The author says that by reason of the direct text, it appears that the sacrificial fire is intended for the Vedic rites only, “यदाहवनीयेषुहोत्रितेनको द्यामीहः प्रीतोभवति” “When he offers an oblation in the आहवनीय fire, then his (wished for) deity is pleased.”

सति ओपासनस्य दर्शनात् ॥ १२ । २ । ४ ॥

सति in its existence ; च and , उपासकस्य of the worshipped fire ; दर्शनात् by seeing.

4. And in its existence, there is seen उपासक fire.

The author gives a reason in support of his view ; he says that in a राजसूय sacrifice, there is a text about the औपासन fire, (fire in which worship is performed) “यः कामयेत राष्ट्रमस्य प्रजायै स्यादिति तस्योपासने पशुमास्रस्य हव्यम्” “One who wishes that his kingdom may be for his subject, shall bring an animal for a sacrifice in the आहवनीय fire.”

This text is in connection with the राजसूय sacrifice when it is commenced and when there is this triple fire. If the triple fire had been sufficient to extend its use to the ordinary acts, there would have been no necessity of the औपासन fire.

अभावदर्शनाच्च ॥ १२ । २ । ५ ॥

अभावदर्शनात् by seeing the absence ; च and.

5. And by seeing the absence.

The author says that you have relied upon the argument that the cooking of flesh is prohibited. The prohibition relates to the cooking of flesh which is not intended for the sacrificial purposes.

“मांसीयन्तिह वा एतस्याजुह्वतो यजमानस्याग्नयोयजमानमेवध्यायन्ति यजमानं लंकाहवन्ति पचन्ति ह वान्यध्वग्निषुहव्यामासं अयैतेषां नातो न्यामांसाशविद्यते” “When a sacrificer does not offer oblations, the fires long for flesh, meditate on the sacrificer, think about the sacrificer ; and those who cook flesh uselessly in other fires have no other longing for flesh left.”

मांसपाकी विहितप्रतिषेधः स्यादाहुतिसंयोगात् ॥

१२।२।६॥

मांसपाकः the cooking of flesh ; विहितप्रतिषेधः 'prohibition of the act which is laid down ; स्यात् is ; आहुतिसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the offering.

6. The cooking of flesh is in the nature of the prohibition of that which is laid down by reason of the connection with the offering.

The author says that you assert that the cooking of flesh is prohibited and thereby you infer that other acts are not prohibited in the sacrificial fire. This prohibition of cooking of flesh relates to the boiling of omentum which is prescribed to be done in the आहुवनीय, because it is connected with the offering, "तस्मादाग्नौमांसं पचति पचिष्याद्वाहुतीनुं होति" "Therefore in the fire, in which oblations are made, flesh is not cooked."

In the आहुवनीय fire the offerings are made and the boiling of omentum, in it is, therefore, prohibited.

वाक्यशेषो वा दक्षिणस्मिन्ननारभ्यविधानस्य ॥

॥ १२।२।७॥

वाक्यशेषः supplementary sentence ; वा on the other hand ; दक्षिणस्मिन् in the southern fire ; नारभ्यविधानस्य of the scattered texts.

7. On the other hand, it may be a supplementary sentence of the scattered text in the southern fire

The author gives another reason about this prohibition as regards the cooking of flesh. He says that it is in connection with the vow of the wife to subsist on flesh, "दक्षिणेऽग्नी पचिष्यत्तं अपचति" "In the southern fire he cooks flesh during the fast of his wife."

When the wife is suffering from some malady, she subsists on flesh diet; so flesh will necessarily be cooked in the दक्षिणाग्नि. The text is, therefore, in the nature of पच्युं शस्य a conditional prohibition and is not general. It is a supplementary text as it is here called.

Adhikaraṇa II. sūtras 8-10. dealing with the animal पुरोडाश cake.

सवनीये छिद्रापिधानार्थत्वात्पशुपुरोडाशो न स्यादन्ये-

हविर्भाष्यदिने अग्नेस्तृतीयसवने” “They commence with omentum in the morning सवन, with cakes in the midday सवन and with the bodily organs in the evening सवन.”

If there had been no पुरोडाश cake, the difference of time as regards application of the materials would have been meaningless. So the animal cake should be made.

Adhikaraṇa III. sūtras 11-13, dealing with the subject of the call of हविष्कृत्.

हविष्कृत्सवनीयेषु न स्यात्प्रकृतौ यदि सर्वार्था पशुं
प्रत्याहूता सा कुर्याद्विद्यमानत्वात् ॥ १२ । २ । ११ ॥

हविष्कृत् the call of हविष्कृत्, सवनीयेषु in the सवनीयस, न not, स्यात् is, प्रकृतौ in the model sacrifice, यदि if; सर्वार्था for the accomplishment of the objects; पशुं an animal, प्रत्याहूता it is called back; सा she; कुर्यात् should be made; विद्यमानत्वात् by reason of the existence.

11. The call of हविष्कृत् is not in the सवनीयस; if in the model sacrifice, it is for the accomplishment of all objects, and the call is made already for the animal sacrifice by reason of the existence.

The question for determination is whether there is a call of हविष्कृत् in a सवनीयपुरोडाश. In the model sacrifice, however, there is a call in the case of the materials which are herbs but not in the case of milk (सन्नाद्य). The animal sacrifice which has its model in the सन्नाद्य, has, therefore, no call of हविष्कृत्. The objector, therefore, says that as there is a common call to हविष्कृत् with respect to herbs and milk in the model sacrifice, so there is none in the सवनीय animal sacrifice. It is based on the principle of कृत्वाचिता. This sūtra is itself a separate Adhikaraṇa in other editions.

पशौ तु संस्कृते विधायमात् ॥ १२ । २ । १२ ॥

पशौ in the animal; तु on the other hand, संस्कृते on being purified; विधायमात् by reason of its being laid down.

12. On the other hand, in the animal which has been purified there is, by reason of its being laid down.

In the third सवन, before boiling the parts of the animal killed, there is an offering of the सवनीय animal; after it there is an offering of अन्न to the god Soma and two cakes to आश्विनस. Now the question is, whether there is a call of हविष्कृत् in अन्न and अवाक offerings. The reply of the objector is that २३ should be made separately, because it is laid down in the case where the parts of the animals are boiled and because it will be for a purpose there by reason of their being completed and हविष्कृत having been discharged. In other editions, there is an addition to the sūtra, "तार्तीयसवनिकेषु स्यात् सौम्याश्विनयोश्चापवृत्कार्यत्वात्" "It should be done in the third सवन by reason of the offerings to सोम and आश्विनस."

This portion though omitted in the sūtra forms a part of Śabara's commentary. What the objector means to say is that the हविष्कृत has been discharged by the completion of the second सवन, so there is a necessity of a fresh call.

योगाद्वा यज्ञाय तद्विमोके विसर्गः स्यात् ॥१२।२।१३॥

योगात् by reason of being engaged, वा on the other hand; यज्ञाय for a sacrifice; तद्विमोके on its completion; विसर्गः discharge; स्यात् is

13. On the other hand, by reason of being engaged for the sacrifice, the discharge is on its completion.

The author says that the same हविष्कृत will do, because he is engaged for the whole sacrifice; he can not, therefore, leave the place before the sacrifice is over. "कस्त्वायुनक्तिस्त्वायुनक्ति" "Who engages thee, he engages thee."

So his services can not be dispensed with, before the sacrifice is over.

Adhikaraṇa iv. sūtras 14-16 dealing with the subject of the nocturnal sacrifice

निशि यज्ञे प्राकृतस्याप्रवृत्तिः स्यात्प्रत्यक्षशिष्टत्वात् ॥

॥ १२।२।१४ ॥

निशियज्ञे in the nocturnal sacrifice; प्राकृतस्य of model sacrifice; अप्रवृत्तिः completion; स्यात् is; प्रत्यक्षशिष्टत्वात् by the reason of the direct injunction.

14. In the nocturnal sacrifice, the Tantra of the model sacrifice ends by reason of the direct injunction.

There is a कश्चेति, "अथ त्वेराक्षोभ्येऽष्टाकपातं निर्वपिष्यो रक्षोभ्योऽभिधीयात्" "One who is afraid of demons, shall offer cake baked on eight potsherds to Agni, the demon killer."

There is another text, "अमावस्यायानिशि यजेत" "Let him sacrifice at night on the new moon day."

Now the question is, whether this nocturnal sacrifice which is performed to ward off the demons, is governed by the Tantra of दृश्यान्, because in other text it is said that it is to be performed on the night of the new moon. The author says that it is not so governed, because there is a direct text which lays down that it is a separate इहि which is performed with certain object in view ; so it can not be governed by the Tantra of the new moon sacrifice.

कालवाक्यभेदाच्च तन्त्रभेदः स्यात् ॥ १२ । २ । १५ ॥

कालवाक्यभेदात् by reason of the difference of time ; च and ; तन्त्रभेदः difference of तन्त्र ; स्यात् is.

15. And by reason of the difference of time and text, there is a difference of Tantra.

The author says that it a difference of time and text; the काम्येहि is performed at the midnight of the अमावस्या and the दृश्यान् is performed on the next day in the day. The text as regards the nocturnal sacrifice finds its place in the context of the काम्येहि while the text as regards the new moon sacrifice is in connection with the new and full moon sacrifices.

Adhikarapa v. sūtras 16-17. dealing with the digging of an altar.

वेद्यद्वयनम्रतं विप्रतिषेधात्तदेव स्यात् ॥ १२ । २ । १६ ॥

वेद्यद्वयनम्रतं the fast observed in connection with the digging of the altar , विप्रतिषेधात् by reason of the prohibition ; तदेव the same ; स्यात् is.

16. The fast, observed in connection with the digging of the altar by reason of the prohibition shall remain the same.

There is a fast observed in connection with the digging of the altar in the new moon sacrifice ; now the question is whether a separate fast should be observed in connection with the nocturnal sacrifice. The reply of the author is that both the digging of the altar and the fast observed in connection with the new moon sacrifice will enure for the benefit of the nocturnal sacrifice.

तन्त्रमध्ये विधानाद्वा तत्तन्त्रा सवनीयवत् ॥१२॥१७॥

तन्त्रमध्ये in one particular तन्त्र ; विधानात् by reason of its being ordained ; तत्तन्त्रा its तन्त्र , सवनीयवत् like a सवनीय animal sacrifice.

17. By reason of its being ordained in one particular Tantra, its tantra is governed like that of a सवर्णीय animal sacrifice.

The author strengthens his argument and says that विशिष्य falls on the अमावस्या, so it will be governed by the Tantra of the अमावस्या. The altar is already dug for the इक्ष्वाक and the fast is observed in that connection ; so no useful purpose will be served by demolishing the altar and constructing another and breaking one fast and keeping another. So the principle of प्रसंग will apply as it does in the case of a सवर्णीय animal cake (See अधिकरण iii. at p 979).

Adhikarana vi. dealing with the subject of fuel and grass

वैगुण्यादिध्मवर्हिर्नसाधयेदग्न्यन्वाधानं च यदि देवतार्थम् ॥ १२ । २ । १८ ॥

वैगुण्यात् by reason of the failure ; इक्ष्मवर्हिः fuel and grass, च not ; साधयेत् accomplish , अग्न्यन्वाधानं the re-establishment of fire, च and ; यदि if , देवतार्थम् for the deity.

18 By reason of the failure, the fuel and grass would not accomplish it; and the re-establishment of fire, if it is for the deity.

As to sacrificial fuel and sacred grass, the author says that they have been procured for the new moon sacrifice, so if the principle of प्रसंग applies, there will be an insufficiency of them and the object of both will not be accomplished. So in that case the principle of प्रसंग will not apply and the fuel and grass should be separately procured.

Adhikarana vii. dealing with the re-establishment of fire for the object of the deity:

अग्न्यन्वाधानं च यदि देवतार्थम् ॥ १२ । २ । १९ ॥

अग्न्यन्वाधानं the re-establishment ; च and ; यदि if ; देवतार्थम् for the deity.

19. And the re-establishment of fire, if done for the object of the deity.

The author further says that if the re-establishment of fire is done for the purpose of one deity, the principle of प्रसंग will not apply and you will have to re-establish the fire. This sūtra is a concluding part of sūtra 18 and so by many commentators, it is not treated as a separate Adhikarana and others. It may be stated here that the Adhikaraṇas iv-vii have been included into one and treated as one adhikaraṇa.

Adhikaraṇa viii, sūtras 27-28 dealing with the subject of आरम्भणीया.

आरम्भणीया विकृती न स्यात्प्रकृतिकालमध्यत्वात्
कृता पुनस्तदर्थेन ॥ १२।२।२० ॥

आरम्भणीया, the आरम्भणीया, विकृती in a modified sacrifice, न नो, द्यात् is, प्रकृतिकालमध्यत्वात् by reason of falling within the time of the model sacrifice, कृता if done; पुनः again; तदर्थेन with its object

20. The आरम्भणीया should not be performed in the modified sacrifice by reason of falling within the time of the model sacrifice; if done again, it will be for its object.

The question for determination is, whether in the modified sacrifices, the आरम्भणीया of the दशपूर्णमासयाग should be performed or not. The reply of the objector is that it should not be performed, because this performance of the modified sacrifice falls within the time of the दशपूर्णमासयाग. "यावद्विजिह्व-शपूर्णमासायागो यजेत" "Let one perform the new and full moon sacrifices, as long as he lives."

The modified sacrifices of the दशपूर्णमासयाग fall during one's life and as the आरम्भणीया is the initial ceremony, so it need not be repeated on the performance of each modified sacrifice.

सकृदाऽऽरम्भसंयोगात् ॥ १२।२।२१ ॥

सकृद once, at one time, आरम्भसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with commencement.

21. By reason of the connection with the commencement at one time.

The objector relies on one performance of आरम्भणीया which ensures for one's full life. See chap ix pāda 1. Adhikaraṇa x sūtras 34-35. at pp. 520 and 521.

स्याद्वा कालस्याद्येषभूतत्वात् ॥ १२।२॥२२ ॥

स्याद्वा is; वा on the other hand, कालस्याद्येषभूतत्वात् by reason of the time being subordinate.

22. On the other hand, it may be performed by reason of the time being subordinate.

The author says that the आरंभवीया should be performed in the modified sacrifice, because the time in the दशैवजमास is मत्तवर्ध or the duty imposed on the performer in the दशैवजमासमास but can not ensure for the benefit of all other sacrifices that may be performed by him during his life. See chap. ix. pāda ix. Adhikaraṇa 1. sūtras 1-7. at p. p. 75 et seq.

आरंभविभागाच्च ॥ १२ १ २ १ २३ ॥

आरंभविभागाच्च by reason of the division of the commencement ; च and.

23. And by reason of the division of the commencement.

The author gives another reason in support of his view. He says that the commencements of the model sacrifice and the modified sacrifice are different.

Adhikaraṇa ix dealing with the subject that when there are conflicting characteristics, those ones which are in large number shall prevail.

विप्रतिषिद्धधर्माणां समवाये भूयसां स्यात्सधर्मकत्वम् ॥

॥ १२ १ २ १ २४ ॥

विप्रतिषिद्धधर्माणां of the conflicting characteristics ; समवाये in a combination, भूयसां prevalence of the majority, स्यात् is, सधर्मकत्व being of one type.

24. When there is a combination of the conflicting characteristics, those of the majority of one type will prevail.

In the पंचदशरात्र there are 15 nights, there is अग्निष्टुत the first day. Its model is अग्निष्टुत which is एकाह, there is a call to सुप्रज्ञप्ता. This ceremony is transferred to the पंचदशरात्र and is called आग्नेयी सुप्रज्ञप्ता. On the remaining 14 days the वैशीसुप्रज्ञप्ता ceremony at the time of वसत is transferred from their respective model sacrifices. Now the question is, that under this conflict of calls of आग्नेयी and सुप्रज्ञप्ता, which Tantra will apply? The reply of the author is that it will be governed by the majority of the calls of the वैशीसुप्रज्ञप्ता. So it is in the ordinary life ; where there are more lamps, they shed more lustre than those that are few in number. So the वैशीसुप्रज्ञप्ता call will be performed in this view.

This sūtra or Adhikaraṇa is otherwise interpreted by the वार्तिककार, who says that in connection with the कन्देहि it is said "अग्नयेदात्रे पुरोडाशं कृत्वा कपालं निर्बयेत् इन्द्राय मन्त्रे पुरोडाशमेकादश कपालं दक्षिणचतुष्टयाग्रेकादशं तस्यैव प्राजापत्यं पशुकामः" Let one desirous of cattle offer cakes baked on eight potsherds to Agni, the donor, cakes baked on eleven potsherds to Indra, the donor, and curd, honey, clarified butter, water, parched rice and their mixture to the Lord of the universe." Here we see seven separate ceremonies; the ghee oblation called श्रयभान should be performed by Tantra once. The offering to Indra therein is the modified form of the देव ceremony and the curd offering is the modified form of सन्ध्या. Both of them being governed by the procedure of the new moon sacrifice, have बृहन्वती verses as पुरोडाश, while honey, clarified butter and water offerings are the modified forms of an वागुग, the verses are borrowed therein from the full moon sacrifice. The first two have बृहन्वती and last three have कन्देहि verses. In this state of conflict, the majority namely कन्देहि will prevail and they will, therefore, be read throughout.

Adhikarṇa I. dealing with the subject that when there is an equal number of conflicting characteristics, the first will prevail.

मुख्यं वा पूर्वचोदनाल्लोकवत् ॥ १२ । २ । २५ ॥

मुख्यं the first, वा on the other hand, पूर्वचोदनात् by reason of the first command, लोकवत् as in ordinary life.

25. On the other hand, the first by reason of the first command as in ordinary life.

The question is, when the number of the conflicting characteristics is equally balanced, what will be the procedure? The first will govern the whole, as for example :—

"अग्नयेकादशमेकादश कपालं निर्बयेत्" & "सारस्वतीमेर्षं कनस्यतये" "Let him offer cakes baked on eleven potsherds to Agni and Viṣṇu; and one consecrated to सारस्वती to the Lord of forests."

Here (अग्नयेकादशमेकादश) Agni and Viṣṇu being first, will govern the whole procedure.

तथा चान्यार्थदर्शनम् ॥ १२ । २ । २६ ॥

तथा similarly; च and; चान्यार्थदर्शनम् another proof.

26. And similarly there is another proof.

The author relies on the सिद्ध argument, "सर्वत्र सर्वे पूर्वमथान्तेति"

प्रापिके च कर्मवदनिर्गमः” “यथावैपुर्वाविस्मयिगोत्रसन्वाहसाधिनंवेदीर्षतेवावसा स्वतोत्येवमेवैतत्” “Just as in the beginning of a sacrifice, an animal is sacrificed, so like it is the fire oblation.” “Just as the subsequent acts do not get precedence over the preceding acts nor are they displaced, similarly it is also.”

Adhikaraga xi dealing with the subject of a performance of दीक्षणीया in an अग्निहोत्र.

अङ्गगुणविरोधे च तादर्थ्यात् ॥ १२ । २ । २० ॥

अङ्गगुणविरोधे in a conflict between a subordinate part and the quality of the principal ; च and ; तादर्थ्यात् by reason of its being for the object of it.

27. And in a conflict between the subordinate part and the quality (of the principal) by reason of its being for the object of it.

In a अग्निहोत्र there is a दीक्षणीया, “इहृयापयुनालोमेन वा यजेत, सोऽमाव-स्यायां पौर्णमास्यां वा यजेत” “Let him who performs a sacrifice by means of the इहृ, animals and Soma, do so on a new moon day or full moon day.”

There is, one day for the दीक्षणीया and the soma sacrifice. There is a conflict, एकादीक्षातिष्ठ उपसदः पंचमीमसुतः” “One दीक्षा, three उपसद्स and the fifth, the extract of soma juice.”

According to the view expressed in the foregoing Adhikaraga, the दीक्षणीया should be given preference, but the author says that when there is a conflict between the subordinate parts and the principal, the latter shall prevail. So the extraction of soma being principal, will have precedence and the दीक्षणीया will be transferred forward.

Adhikaraga xii. सूत्रas 28-30. dealing with the परिधि.

परिधेद्वयं र्थत्वाद् भयधर्मा स्यात् ॥ १२ । २ । २८ ॥

परिधेः of the परिधि; द्वयं र्थत्वाद् being for two objects; भयधर्मा possessing characteristics of both ; स्यात् is.

28. The परिधि being used for two objects, partakes the characteristics of both.

The परिधि is used for two objects; one is its own, namely making a fence round the fire and the other is for tying an animal. One view is that it they are not inconsistent, both kinds of rites should be performed on the परिधि. This sūtra is an Adhikaraṇa in itself in other editions.

यौघ्यस्तु विरोधे स्यान्मुख्यानन्तर्याय ॥ १२ । २ । २९ ॥

यौघ्यः the characteristics of a sacrificial post ; तु on the other hand ; विरोधे on conflict ; स्यात् is ; मुख्यानन्तर्याय by reason of being close to the chief (principal).

29. On the other hand, the characteristics of the sacrificial post shall prevail, if there be conflict by reason of its being close to the chief (principal).

The objector says that if there be a conflict of the characteristics of the परिधि and those of the द्वय, then those of the latter shall prevail, because the द्वय belongs to internal autonomy of the sacrifice i. e. to the animal ; while the परिधि appertains to the external side of it, namely, fire.

इतरो वा तस्य तत्र विधानादुभयोरचांगसंयोगः ॥

१२ । २ । ३० ॥

इतरः the other ; वा on the other hand ; तस्य its ; तत्र there ; विधानात् by reason of its being laid down ; उभयोः of both ; च and ; अंगसंयोगः connection with the parts.

30. On the other hand, the other by reason of its being laid down there; both are connected with the parts.

The author says the characteristics of परिधि shall prevail, because it is used in tying animals to it under the text “परिधौषु निधुञ्चति” (“they tie an animal to the परिधि”); if the rites of a sacrificial post are performed on it, it will lose the character of a परिधि. So the rites in connection with परिधि should be performed. As to the external and internal autonomy, the author says that both the sets of the characteristics are connected with the subordinate parts but not with the principal part. The concluding part of the sūtra is a separate sūtra in other editions.

Adhikaraṇa XIII. sūtras 31-33. dealing with the subject of the सुवर्णीय oak.

पशुसवनीयेषु विकल्पः स्याद्वैकृतश्चेदुभयोरश्रुतिभूतः
स्यात् ॥ १२ । २ । ३१ ॥

प्रसूतवनीये in the animal सवनीय ; विकल्पः option ; स्यात् is ; वैदिकः the characteristics of the modified sacrifice ; चेत् if ; वययोः of both ; अनुतिष्ठत्वात् by reason of both being not laid down.

31. There is option in the सवनीय animal ; if there are characteristics of the modified sacrifice, by reason of both being not laid down.

The सवनीय animal sacrifice commences in the morning and ends in the evening, "अथवा प्रातः सवनेचरति पुरोडाशेन माध्यन्दिने वा वैस्तुतीयसवने" "They commence with the omentum in the morning सवन, with the पुरोडाश cake in the midday सवन, and with the bodily parts in the third सवन."

The सवनीय पुरोडाश cakes are also ordained along with it. The mid-day and the evening सवने are obviously प्रसंगी falling under the तर्क of the animal sacrifice, but the question relates to the morning सवन. The reply of the objector is that it is optional, you can apply the Tantra of the animal sacrifice or the पुरोडाश cakes of the midday सवन ; because the proceedings of the modified sacrifice will be complied with, as both are not governed by any direct authority.

पाशुकं वा तस्य वैशेषिकाम्नानात्तदनर्थकं विकल्पे
स्यात् ॥ १२ । २ । ३२ ॥

पाशुकं the tantra of the animal sacrifice, वा on the other hand, वैशेषिकाम्नानात् by reason of the special being laid down, तदनर्थकं it will be meaningless ; विकल्पः option, स्यात् is.

32. On the other hand, the Tantra of the animal sacrifice governs it, by reason of the special being laid down ; it will be meaningless, if it be optional.

The author says that there is a special text under which it is governed by the animal sacrifice ; otherwise the text will be meaningless "अग्निमन्त्रोत्तरमवृत्तीत्यं सुवासुदी यजमानः" "This sacrificer who has either extracted soma juice or not has to day appointed Agni as his देवा".

If the पुरोडाश cakes were तर्की, then the वैशेषिकस्य will have to deliver the command and the words "सुवासुदी यजमानः", ("The sacrificer who has either extracted soma juice or not.") in the text will be meaningless. This shows that the पुरोडाश cake is a प्रसंगी.

पशोश्च विप्रकर्षस्तन्त्रमध्ये विधानात् ॥ १२ । २ । ३३ ॥

पक्षी of the animal sacrifice ; च and ; विनश्यत् separation ; पक्षी in the middle ; विनश्यत् by reason of its being laid down.

33. And there is a separation of the animal sacrifice by reason of its being laid down in the middle.

The author says in support of his argument that the omentum of the animal is used in the morning, the पुरोडाश cake in the midday and parts of the animal in the evening. The fact that 'पुरोडाश' falls in the middle also shows that it is governed by the Tantra of the animal sacrifice and is a प्रसंगी.

Adhikaraṇa xiv. dealing with the subject that the त्वत् of the modified sacrifice applies when there are त्वत्s of the model and modified sacrifices equally balanced.

अपूर्वं च प्रकृती समानतन्त्रा चेदनित्यत्वादनर्थकं हि
स्यात् ॥ १२ । २ । ३३ ॥

अपूर्वं no precedence, च and ; प्रकृती in the model sacrifice ; समानतन्त्रा of the same Tantra ; चेत् if ; चेदनित्यत्वात् by reason of its having no permanent character, अनर्थकं meaningless ; हि because, स्यात् is.

34. And in the model sacrifice there will be no precedence, if the modified sacrifice is of the same Tantra ; by reason of its having no permanent character, it will be meaningless.

The model sacrifices which are नित्यकर्म's are performed on each fortnight day while the modified sacrifices which are काम्येहि and partake of the impermanent nature also fall on the fortnight day. Now the question is, that both of them being of the same Tantra, which tantra will govern the modified sacrifice? The reply of the author is that it will be governed by the tantra of the विकृति, because it is of impermanent nature, it will lose its character, if you apply the Tantra of the model sacrifice. The काम्येहि is performed with a certain object in view and in this view the modified sacrifice is the त्वत्री and the model sacrifice is the प्रसंगी.

Adhikaraṇa xv sūtras 36-38 dealing with the subject of the त्वत्प्रसंगेति.

अन्निकश्च गुणः साधारणेऽविरीधात्क्रांस्यभोजिवदमुख्ये-
ऽपि ॥ १२ । २ । ३४ ॥

अधिकः greater ; च and ; गुणः quality; साधारणे in the common; अविरोधः by reason of no opposition ; कस्यनोन्नितं like a pupil eating in a vessel made of bell metal ; अनुवन्ते not principal ; अपि also.

35. In the common, the one with greater quality by reason of no opposition like a pupil eating in a vessel made of bell metal, though not principal.

There is an आश्रयवेदि in which there are three offerings as following (1) वैशाख्य (2) वैश्वदेव (3) चावावृषयी. There is flowering grass prescribed in the चावावृषयी while in the others it may be a flowering grass or non flowering grass. Now the question is, which Tantra will apply? The reply of the author is that in having the flowering grass, there is an additional quality and there is nothing inconsistent; so the flowering grass which is the quality of the चावावृषयी offerings may be used, though it is not first in order. As for instance a disciple is not ordered to take food in the vessel made of bell metal but if his spiritual preceptor takes it in such a vessel, he can partake of it in it as the remnants of his preceptor's food. This sūtra is an अधिकृत्य in itself in other editions.

तत्प्रवृत्त्या तु तन्त्रस्य नियमः स्यादप्या पाशुकं सूक्त-
वाकेन ॥ १२ । २ । ३६ ॥

तत्प्रवृत्त्या with the application of that ; तु on the other hand ; तन्त्रस्य of the तन्त्र, नियमः rule, स्यात् is ; अप्या just as ; पाशुकं pertaining to the cake of the animal sacrifice ; सूक्तवाकेन by the सूक्तवाक.

36. On the other hand, with the application of that, the Tantra is laid down, just as in the purohita cake pertaining to the animal sacrifice, by the सूक्तवाक.

The objector says that when the flowering grass is used, it shows that all the three offerings are governed by the Tantra of the चावावृषयी, just as it is seen above in the case of the सवनीय पुरोहित cake, in Adhikaraṇa xiii. sūtras 31-33. at p. 988 & 989

न वाऽविरोधात् ॥ १२ । ३७ ॥

न not so ; वा on the other hand ; अविरोधात् by reason of there being no inconsistency.

37. No so, by reason of there being no inconsistency.

The author says that all are not governed by the Tantra of चावापुचिरी. Here the flowering grass is used, because it is not inconsistent with the use of grass in दे'प्राण and वैश्वदेव. The case of सवनीय पुरोडाश is entirely different. There the वृकशक makes it special; see sūtra 39 at p. 988. So the illustration of the सवनीयपुरोडाश does not hold good here.

* अशास्त्रलक्षणत्वाच्च ॥ १२ । २ । ३८ ॥

अशास्त्रलक्षणत्वाच्च by reason of the peculiarities not enjoined by the scripture ; च and.

38. By reason of the peculiarities not enjoined by the scripture.

The author says in support of his view that the flowering grass is not under any direct text but under a बोधक text. So it does not lay down any hard and fast rule as to Tantra

END OF PĀDA II.

PĀDA III.

Adhikāra pā 1. sūtras 1-2. dealing with the subject of calf's skin in विश्वजित्.

विश्वजिति वत्सत्वङ्नामधेयादितरथा तन्त्रभूयस्त्वादहत्
स्यात् १२ । ३ । १ ॥

विश्वजिति in a विश्वजित्, वत्सत्वङ् calf's skin, नामधेयात् by reason of नामधेय ; इतरथा otherwise ; तन्त्रभूयस्त्वात् by reason of the majority of तन्त्र ; अहत् unwashed cloth ; स्यात् is.

1. In a विश्वजित्, the calf's skin by reason of the नामधेय ; otherwise by reason of the majority of Tantra, the lower garment.

There is an अहीन sacrifice called अहत् तन्त्र. There are two अहिरोम sacri-

* In Śābara and जीह्वदीपिका, it is शाक ; but I have preferred the reading of other commentators.

does in the beginning and in the end called विश्वजित् and अग्निजित्. In the middle there is a पदम् called ज्योतिः. In the विश्वजित्, the calf's skin is joined for dress and in the ज्योतिहोम, there is the lower garment joined. These two kinds of dress come to the अष्टरात्र. The question is, which dress should be used. The reply of the objector is that calf's skin comes under the नामज्येप, while other comes under the रोदक text. The first applies to one day and the other applies to all other days. Under the नामज्येप, the calf's skin is to be used but on account of the large number of the Tantra as laid down in sūtra 24 of pāda 2 at p. 984, the lower garment may be used. So there is an option in the case of dress.

अविरोधो वा उपरिवासो हि वत्सत्वक् ॥१२॥१३॥

अविरोधः no inconsistency वा on the other hand ; उपरिवासः upper garment ; हि certainly ; वत्सत्वक् calf's skin.

2. On the other hand, there is no inconsistency ; the calf's skin is the upper garment.

The author says that there is no inconsistency, both kinds of dress may be worn, one is upper garment and the other is the lower garment. The principle of समुच्चय applies.

Adhikaraṇa II. sūtrae 3-7, dealing with the subject of the after-offerings.

अनुनिर्वाप्येषु भूयस्त्वेन तन्त्रनियमः स्याच्छिष्टकृद्दर्शनाच्च ॥ १२ । ३ । ३ ॥

अनुनिर्वाप्येषु in the subsequent offerings ; भूयस्त्वेन with the majority ; तन्त्रनियमः the rule of तन्त्र, स्यात् is ; शिष्टकृद् दर्शनाच्च by seeing the शिष्टकृद् च and.

3. In the subsequent offerings, with the majority the Tantra should be governed and by seeing the शिष्टकृद्

In the अग्न्याधान it is said, “अग्नीषोमीयस्य पुरोडाशमनुदेवसुवाहवीषिर्विचरति” “He subsequently makes an offering of the पुरोडाश of the अग्नीषोमीय to the eight gods.

In the समुच्चय animal sacrifice also, there are subsequent offerings. There the majority will govern the Tantra. The objector says that the subsequent offerings are larger in number ; so they will have their own Tantra and the पुरोडाश cakes will be regulated by them. Further the objector says that the word 'स्विष्टकृत' is met with, "अग्नीषोमीयस्य वैकाशक-प्राक्स्वदेवदुर्वा च इविषामग्नये स्विष्टकृते समवयति" "He offers to स्विष्टकृते. Again the offerings consecrated to the eight gods, from the cakes baked on eleven potsherds and consecrated to the अग्नीषोम."

It is proper that the subsequent offerings are governed by their own Tantra.

आगन्तुकत्वाद्वा स्वधर्मा स्याच्छ्रुतिविशेषादितरस्य च
मुख्यत्वात् ॥ १२ । ३ । ४ ॥

आगन्तुकत्वात् by reason of being incomer वा on the other hand; स्वधर्मा its own characteristics, इत्यात् is, श्रुतिविशेषात् by the special text; इतरस्य of the other, मुख्यत्वात् by reason of being the principal

4. On the other hand, by reason of being incomers, they are governed by the r own characteristics and by the special text, the other being the principal.

The subsequent offerings come after the पशुपुरोडाश and so merge into its Tantra and by reason of a special text, the पशुपुरोडाश is first, "पशुपुरोडाश अनुनिर्वादि" "He makes an offering subsequent to the animal cakes."

स्वस्यानत्वाच्च ॥ १२ । ३ । ५ ॥

स्वस्यानत्वाच्च by reason of its own order ; च and.

5. And by reason of its own order.

The author says that the order in the animal पुरोडाश is fixed. In the morning you have omentum, in the noon the पुरोडाश cakes and in the evening the parts of the animal. If you give precedence to the subsequent offerings, the order of the animal sacrifice will be upset.

स्विष्टकृच्छ्रपणान्नेति चेद्विकारः पवमानवत् ॥ १२ । ३ । ६ ॥

स्विष्टकृच्छ्रपणात् by reason of the स्विष्टकृत offering ; न नो इति चेत् if it be so, विकारः the modification ; पवमानवत् like पवमान.

6. "If you say no, by reason of the स्विष्टकृत offering", (the reply is that,) the modification is like पवमान.

The sūtra consists of two parts; the first part embodies the query by the objector. It is embodied in the concluding part of sūtra. 3 at p. 202; but this additional portion does not find its place in other editions excepting माहदीपिका. The first part, therefore, forms a separate sūtra in these editions.

The second part embodies the reply of the author. He says that this modification takes place under the text and so it should be complied with, just as it is done in a पवमान. “अग्नये पवमानायनिर्वपति” “अग्नयेस्विष्टकृते समवधति” “He makes an offering to the purifying fire.” “He makes an offering to the स्विष्टकृत् fire.”

The author of माहदीपिका says that if you give the subsequent offerings precedence, then there is a command to मैत्रावरुण “अग्नये स्विष्टकृते श्रेष्ठ” “command for स्विष्टकृत् fire.”

If the subsequent offerings govern the त्वं, then there will be a command to the hotā in the following form “अग्निस्विष्टकृतं यज” “Perform a sacrifice to स्विष्टकृत् fire”

It is only in the case of the पशुपुरोडाश being the त्वं, that the simple statement in the following form is possible “अग्नयेस्विष्टकृते समवधति” “He makes an offering to the स्विष्टकृत् Agni.”

अविकारो वा प्रकृतिवच्चोदनां प्रति भावाच्च ॥

१२।३।७॥

अविकारः without modification ; वा on the other hand ; प्रकृतिवच् like the model sacrifice , चोदनामिति of the command ; भावाच्च by reason of its being ; च and.

7. On the other hand, without modification like the model sacrifice by reason of its being a statement of the command.

The author says that you can do even without a स्विष्टकृत् offering; then the question arises what will be the effect of the offering? “देविकोदविषामग्नये स्विष्टकृते समवधति” “He makes an offerings consecrated to the deity to the स्विष्टकृत् fire”

Here in the case of the modification, there will be a split of sentence. In the new and full moon sacrifices, there is a command as to the use of स्विष्टकृत्; so it is to reiterate it.

Adhikaraṇa iii. dealing with the combination of straightness &c in आचार.

एकं कर्मणिशिष्टत्वाद्गुणानां सर्वकर्म स्यात् ॥१२।३।८॥

एककर्मणि in one act ; सिद्धत्वात् by reason of being laid down ;
सुबोधिनी of the subsidiaries ; सर्वकर्म all ceremonies ; स्यात् is.

8. In one act by reason of their being laid down, the subsidiaries are all to be performed.

There is a text, "आधारे ऋजुमाधायति सततमाधायति प्राञ्चमाधायति"
"In sprinkling he sprinkles straight, he sprinkles continuously, he sprinkles in front."

Here the question is, whether all these should be performed or not. The author says that there is one act, as for example (माधाय) sprinkling of ghee; it should be done in the ways given in the text i.e. the principle of समुच्चय will apply.

Adhikarṇa iv. sūtras 9-11, dealing with option.

एकार्थास्तुविकल्पेरन्समुच्चये ह्यावृत्तिः स्यात्प्रधानस्य ॥

॥ १२ । ३ । ९ ॥

एकार्थाः those that have one object ; इ on the other hand, विकल्पेरन् may be optionally used, समुच्चये in combination, हि because; आवृत्तिः repetition ; स्यात् is ; प्रधानस्य of the principal.

9. On the other hand, those that have one object in view may be optionally used ; in combination, there will be a repetition of the principal.

The author says that when there are two or more substances for one purpose, any one may be used, as for instance rice and barley; कादिर wood &c.; दूधम् & रसम् &c. If the object is attained by one substance or thing, there is no use of repeating it.

अभ्यस्येतार्थवत्त्वादिति चेत् ॥ १२ । ३ । १० ॥

अभ्यस्येत should be repeated, अर्थवत्त्वात् by reason of being for its purpose; इति चेत् if you say.

10. 'It should be repeated by reason of its being for the purpose' if you say.

. The objector says that it should be repeated in order to make the substance subservient to the purpose, so that all the substances may be used and be for the purpose.

नाश्रुतत्वाद्भि विकल्पवच्चदर्शयति कालान्तरेऽर्थवत्त्वं
स्यात् ॥ १२ । ३ । ११ ॥

न not so ; अश्रुतत्वाद् by reason of its being not laid down ; हि because ; विकल्पवच् like option ; च and ; दर्शयति is seen , कालान्तरे in course of time ; अर्थवत्त्वं being of use ; स्यात् is.

11. Not so, by reason of its being not laid down; the optional use is seen ; and it may be of use in course of time.

This sūtra consists of 3 parts The author says that the repetition is not sanctioned, but there are texts showing the optional use ; one is sufficient and the other may be of use in some other act This is the reading of the sūtra according to Śabara and he is followed by स्वदेव in his भाट्टदीपिका But other commentators have divided all the three parts into 3 different sūtras and between the first and second parts there is the following sūtra.

सतिचाभ्यासशास्त्रत्वात् ॥

सति on being ; च and ; अभ्यासशास्त्रत्वाद् by reason of repetition being laid down,

And where there is repetition, it should be done by reason of its being so laid down.

The objector says that it should be repeated in compliance with the text which lays down repetition "इमेवद्वन्द्वे भवतः" "There are both द्वन्द्व and द्वन्द्व."

Adhikaraṇa v. sūtras 12 13. dealing with the subject of expiation.

प्रायश्चित्तेषु चैकार्थान्विष्पन्नेनाभिसंबोगस्तस्मात्
सर्वस्य निर्घातः ॥ १२ । ३ । १२ ॥

प्रायश्चित्तेषु in expiatory rites ; च and ; ऐकार्थाद् by reason of the unity of the object ; विष्पन्नेन with the accomplished ; अभिसंबोगः connection ; तस्मात् therefore , सर्वस्य of the whole ; निर्घातः removal.

12. And in the expiatory rites by reason of the unity of the object, there is a connection with the accomplished (fault); therefore the whole (fault) is removed (by one).

There are two kinds of expiatory rites ; one for voluntary acts of commission or omission ; the other for those acts or omissions over which the performer has no control. As to the former, “यदि शुक्लो यः अतिमि चाहुः स्वाहेति गार्हपत्ये जुह्याद्य यदि जुष्टो दक्षिणाग्नौ भुवः स्वाहेति दक्षिणाग्नौ स्वः स्वाहेत्याहवनीय एव” “If a sacrifice is destroyed by reason of the शुक्लो, then the offerings should be made in the गार्हपत्य fire by uttering ‘welcome, भुवः’; if by reason of the दक्षिणा, then the offerings should be made in the southern fire by uttering welcome भुवः’ and if by reason of the अतिमि then the offerings should be made in the आहवनीय fire by uttering ‘welcome स्वः.’”

How is the sacrifice destroyed ? It is destroyed by not observing what has been laid down and doing what is prohibited. Now the question is, what is to be done? Whether all the expiatory rites should be performed or one would do. The author says that one would do, to remove the sin, as there is one fault and so one sort of expiatory rite out of many prescribed will do.

समुच्चयस्तु दोषार्थः ॥ १२ । ३ । १३ ॥

समुच्चयः combination ; तु on the other hand ; दोषार्थः for removal of fault.

13. There is a combination for removal of fault (sin).

When a fault is committed by a sacrificer over which he has no control, he must perform all the expiatory rites prescribed, “यस्याहुतमग्निहोत्रं सूर्योऽभ्युदयात् सूर्याभ्युदयान्तर्निर्घयेत् ; सौर्यमेककपालं यस्याहुतमग्निहोत्रं सूर्योऽभ्युदयात्” “If the sun arises when one has commenced an Agnihotra, he shall offer boiled rice to Mitra ; if the sun arises, when one has commenced an Agnihotra, he shall offer cakes baked on one potsherd to the Sun.”

These two sūtras have been put into one Adhikaraṇa by Śābara making sūtra 12 embody the view of the objector; but in other editions there are two separate Adhikaraṇas. These two sūtras provide two sets of expiatory rites under two different circumstances. Both sūtras, therefore, embody the author's view.

Adhikaraṇa vi. sūtras 14-15 dealing with the subject that the यज्ञः should be read on those days on which reading is prohibited.

मंत्राणां कर्मसंयोगः स्वधर्मेण प्रयोगः स्यादधर्मस्य तद्धिमित्त्वात् ॥ १२ । ३ । १३ ॥

मंत्राणां of the यज्ञः; कर्मसंयोगः connection with the action; स्वधर्मेण with their own characteristics ; प्रयोगः application ; स्यात् is ; चर्चस्व of the characteristics ; इतिनिमित्तत्वात् by reason of their being for the object.

14. The mantras are connected with the action ; they are to be applied with their own characteristics, because the characteristics are for their object.

There is a text, "पूर्णिमाध्ये चतुर्थाश्वेदं स्तुत्यिदानीमाध्ये" "There is no study on the new and full moon days, no study in storm, no study in thunder."

The question is, whether the mantras should be repeated in the sacrifices which are performed on the full and new moon days. The reply of the objector is that they should not be repeated, because the peculiarities of these mantras are that they are not to be read on the full and new moon days.

विद्यांप्रतिविधानाद्वा सर्वकारणं प्रयोगः स्यात् कर्मार्थ-
त्वात् प्रयोगस्य ॥ १२ । ३ । १५ ॥

विद्यांप्रतिविधानात् by reason of being laid down for the object of knowledge ; वा on the other hand ; सर्वकारणं in all cases , स्यात् should be ; प्रयोगः application, कर्मार्थत्वात् by reason of being for the object of the action ; प्रयोगस्य of application.

15. On the other hand, by reason of being laid down for the object of knowledge, the application should be in all cases, because the application is for the object of the action.

The author says that the prohibition as to reading relates to the acquisition of knowledge but it does not relate to the repetition of the mantras on the occasion of a sacrifice

Adhikarapa vii. sutras 16 19 dealing with मंत्रस्वर.

भाषास्वरोपदेशेऽस्यैव प्रायश्चनप्रतिषेधः ॥१२॥३॥१६॥

भाषास्वरोपदेशे in the direction of भाषास्वर, ऐव like एव ; प्रायश्चनप्रतिषेधः the prohibition of the original स्वर

16. By reason of the direction of भाषास्वर like ऐव, there is a prohibition of the original स्वर

There are स्वर in the Vedic mantras. There are many mantras which have a different स्वर in the भाषा, it is called मन्त्रिस्वर. The mantra which is read with a particular स्वर in the मन्त्र is called भाषास्वर or भाषास्वरोपदेशः.

Now the question is, "how is the mantra to be read"? The reply of the objector is that it should be read according to भाष्यर which is defined as follows, "उदासीना बहुवचनस्यैव तथा वाङमनेयिनः । उच्चारणीयस्वरं प्राहुः सर्वत्र निरुद्धवदते" "The उदासीन, बहुवच and वाङमनेयी schools pronounce mantras in a loud or low tone. It is called उच्चारणिक."

Just as श्री is read ऐ at the time of singing, so the original श्री is suspended and आदिश्री is used.

मन्त्रोपदेशोवा न भाषिकस्य प्रायोपपत्तेर्भाषिकश्रुतिः ॥

१२ १ ३ १ १० ॥

मन्त्रोपदेशः direction regarding the pronunciation of the mantra; वा or the other hand, व not, भाषिकरूप as regards modulation; प्रायोपपत्तेः by reason of getting at the excellent origin; भाषिकश्रुतिः the text as to स्वर.

17. On the other hand, it is a direction as regards mantra but not as regards modulation. The text as to मन्त्र is (based,) by reason of the excellent development.

The author says that mantras should be read according to the direction given in the mantra वाङ्, because they are known after it, while the आषिक् स्वर is for excellent pronunciation and if the mantras are read in the sacrifice according to the origin, the tune will be spoiled. The direction in the आषिक् स्वर, is for excellent reading.

विकारः कारणाग्रहणे तन्नयायत्वाद् दृष्टेऽप्येवम् ॥

१२ । ३ । १८ ।

विचारः modification ; कोत्तव्यमहने on not accepting the reason ; तद्व्यापत्वाद्, by reason of its propriety ; हृष्टे in the seen ; अपि also, एवम् thus.

13. There is a modification on not accepting the reason ; by reason of its propriety, it is so even in the seen,

The sūtra as read in the Chaukhamba Sanskrit series seems to be incorrect, in view of the reading in the other texts. The first part of the sūtra is the concluding part of the śraṅgā, after it commences a new Adhikaraṇa. In the other texts it is with a vowel. So the meaning will be clear by having ṣṭ. There is modification for a reason; ṣṭ becomes ṣṭ. So the Vedic ṣṭ becomes ṣṭ at the time of singing. The objec-tor says that any mantra which is seen in the मन्त्रपाठ should be read as it is directed there. But what about those mantras which take their origin in the ब्राह्मण only ?

तदुत्पत्तेर्वा प्रवचनलक्षणत्वात् ॥ १२ । ३ । १६ ॥

उत्पत्तेः by its origin ; वा on the other hand ; प्रवचनलक्षणत्वात् by reason of the characteristics of being pronounced as directed.

19. On the other hand, by its origin by reason of the characteristics of being pronounced as directed.

The author says that the mantra, which is not read in the मन्त्र पाठ but takes its origin in the ब्राह्मण should be sung as directed in the ब्राह्मण, the reason is that the characteristic of a mantra is that it is to be pronounced as it is instructed Adhikaraga viii dealing with the recitation of a मन्त्र in an action.

मन्त्राणां करणार्थत्वान्मन्त्रान्तेन कर्मादिसम्बिपातः
स्यात्सर्वस्य वचनार्थत्वात् ॥ १२ । ३ । २० ॥

मन्त्राणां of the मन्त्रs, करणार्थत्वात् being for the act; मन्त्रान्तेन with the end of the मन्त्र कर्मादि सम्बिपातः the connection of the commencement of the action स्यात् is; सर्वस्य of the whole, वचनार्थत्वात् by reason of being for the meaning of the text.

20. The mantras being for the act, the connection of the commencement of the action is with the end of the mantra ; the whole of it is for the meaning of the text.

The question is, whether in an action the whole mantra should be recited or only a short passage from it to remind the action. The reply of the author is that the whole of it to the end should be recited, because the whole of it conveys the sense and action is also connected with the whole of it.

Adhikaraga ix śātras 21-23, dealing with the subject of अनुष्ठान.

सन्ततवचनाद्वारायामादिसंयोगः ॥ १२ । ३ । २१ ॥

सन्ततवचनात् by reason of the word 'immediate' ; द्वारायामादि- in the आरा ; संयोगः the connection with the beginning.

21. By reason of the word 'immediate' in आरा, the connection with the beginning will suffice.

There is a text "सततं ब्रह्मोपासितुं शक्नोति" "He offers a continuous flow of ghee libation called ब्रह्म in an अग्निचयन ceremony."

In ब्रह्मोपास ceremony, there are 12 offerings for one ब्रह्मोपास; there is a mantra, "आवश्चमे प्रसवश्चमे प्रयतिश्चमे धितिश्चमे, कतुश्चमे, स्वरश्चमे हलो कश्चमे, आवश्चमे धुतिश्चमे ज्योतिश्चमे सुवश्चमे" तै. सं. २. १. १. "May for me power, knowledge, purity, desire, digestive power, sacrifice, tune, praise, speaking power, hearing power, light, heaven....."

For the remaining, there are other mantras, "आवश्चमे अपावश्चमे" "May for me breathing in and breathing out....."

Now the question is, whether the whole mantra should be read or only a part in the beginning to remind the act. The reply of the objector is that only a part in the beginning in the case of वारा, by reason of causing no delay.

कर्मसन्तानो वा नानाकर्मत्वादितरस्याशक्यत्वात् ॥

॥ १२ । ३ ॥ २२ ॥

कर्मसन्तानः series of acts ; वा on the other hand ; नानाकर्मत्वात् by reason of variety of acts ; इतरस्य of the other ; अशक्यत्वात् by reason of the incapacity.

22. On the other hand, there is a series of acts, by reason of the variety of acts, because of the incapacity of the other.

The author says that the act of offering takes a short time, and the reciting of the mantras takes a longer time, "द्वादशद्वादशान् ब्रह्मोति" तै. सं. २. १. २. "He makes twelve out of twelve offerings"

The act can not be prolonged with the recitation of the mantra. In view of the principle laid down, in the preceding Adhikarapa, the whole mantras should be recited in the beginning but not a part of it. See T. S. Anandasrama edition at p. 8270.

Adhikarapa x. dealing with the subject of आवश्चमे.

आधारे च दीर्घधारत्वात् ॥ १२ । ३ । २३ ॥

आधारे in sprinkling with ghee ; च and ; दीर्घधारत्वात् by reason of long.

23. And in sprinkling with ghee by reason of long flow.

There are texts in connection with the sprinkling of ghee in the full and new moon sacrifices, "सततमाधारयति" "दीर्घधारयाहुतेति" "He continuously sprinkles ghee" "He makes an oblation with a long flow of ghee."

Here in this case also the आधार and the recitation of the mantra can not be of equal durability. The author says that the ghee which is taken in a उड्ड should be dropped in आहुतयोर्व fire gradually in dribblets, in order to keep pace with the mantra which should be recited in its entirety.

Adhikaraṇa xi. dealing with the subject of option in the case of more than one वृत्त for any act.

मन्त्राणां सन्निपातित्वादेकार्थानां विकल्पः स्यात् ॥

१२।३।२४॥

अर्थार्थ of the mantras; सन्निपातित्वात् by reason of being associated with an act indirectly; एकार्थत्वात् of those having one object in view; विकल्पः option; स्यात् is.

24. By reason of the mantras being associated with an act indirectly and having one object in view, there is an option.

Where there are mantras for one object as for instance for the division of पुतीका cake, "तूयावी विभक्तु" "वार्थमावी विभक्तु", "Let you divide it for you" "Let वार्थमा divide it for you." There is an option in the use of them; you can make a choice and use any one mantra, because the mantra is only सन्निपात्योपकारक i.e. it confers a benefit indirectly.

Adhikaraṇa xii. dealing with the combination of वृत्त.

संख्याविहितेषु समुच्चयोऽसन्निपातित्वात् ॥१२।३।२५॥

संख्याविहितेषु in those acts where number is laid down; समुच्चयः combination; असन्निपातित्वात् by reason of there being no connection (with the act).

25. In those acts where number is laid down, there is a combination by reason of there being no connection (with the act).

The author says where number is mentioned as for instance, "चतुर्विंशति वृत्तैश्चैवार्थमावी विभक्तु" "चतुर्विंशति वृत्तैश्चैवार्थमावी विभक्तु" "He takes a wooden spatula with four, he digs with two, and he carries with six." There will be a combination; the number can not be completed without समुच्चय. There can be a connection.

tion with the act by reason of this combination of the mantras only.

Adhikaraṇa 11, 25, 26 dealing with the subject that there is option in the case of the मन्त्र "उदप्रत्यक्ष"

ब्राह्मणविहितेषु च संख्यावत्सर्वेषामुपदिष्टत्वात्

॥ १२ । ३ । २६ ॥

ब्राह्मणविहितेषु in those मन्त्र which have been laid down in the ब्राह्मण ; च and , संख्यावत् like the number , सर्वेषाम् of all , उपदिष्टत्वात् by reason of all being laid down

26. And in those मन्त्र which have been laid down in the ब्राह्मण, there is a combination like the number, by reason of all being laid down.

There are two mantras in the ब्राह्मण for extending the पुरोडाश cake. "उदप्रत्यक्षेति पुरोडाशं प्रथयति" "उदप्रत्यक्षयतिः प्रथयामिति पुरोडाशं प्रथयति" "He extends the पुरोडाश cake (By uttering) 'spread it wide.'" "He extends the पुरोडाश cake by uttering 'let the master of the sacrifice spread it extensively.'"

The objector says that the principle of समुच्चय applies in view of the rule laid down in the preceding Adhikaraṇa, because both are sanctioned.

वाज्यावच्छेदकारयोश्च समुच्चयदर्शनं तद्वत् ॥१२॥३॥२७॥

वाज्यावच्छेदकारयोः of वाज्या and वच्छेदकार ; च and ; समुच्चयदर्शनं seeing the combination ; तद्वत् like it.

27. And there is seen combination of वाज्या and वच्छेदकार similarly.

The objector says that there is a समुच्चय of वाज्या with वच्छेदकार, "वाज्याया वच्छेदकारोति" "After वाज्या he utters वच्छेद."

This also shows that the principle of समुच्चय applies.

विकल्पो वा समुच्चयस्याश्रुतित्वात् ॥ १२ । ३ । २८ ॥

विकल्पः option ; वा on the other hand ; समुच्चयस्य of the combination ; श्रुति is ; अश्रुतित्वात् by reason of being nowhere laid down.

28. On the other hand, there is an option because combination is nowhere laid down.

The author says that the principle laid down in Adhikaraṇa xi. sūtra 24 at p. 1002 applies and so there is an option, because nowhere समुच्चय is laid down.

गुणार्थस्वादुपदेशस्य ॥ १२ । ३ । २९ ॥

गुणार्थस्वाद् by reason of being the object of the quality; उपदेशस्य of direction.

29. By reason of being the object of the quality, there is a direction.

The author says that you rely on the fact that all are laid down and thereby support your argument as to the doctrine of समुच्चय. You are mistaken, it is laid down with the object of praise, "गुणार्थेनपुनः श्रुतिः परिसंख्या अर्थवादोवा" "With the object of praise, there is either repetition, implied prohibition (परिसंख्या) or अर्थवाद."

Adhikaraṇa xiv. sūtras 30-32. dealing with combination is वषट्कार.

वषट्कारे नानार्थत्वात्समुच्चयो होत्रास्तु विकल्परन्ने- कार्यत्वात् ॥ १२ । ३ । ३० ॥

वषट्कारे in the वषट्कार ; नानार्थत्वाद् by reason of its being for manifold objects, समुच्चयः combination, होत्राः the mantras pertaining to a होत्रा; तु on the other hand ; विकल्परन्ने may be optionally used ; एकार्थत्वाद् by reason of their being for one object.

30. There is a combination in the वषट्कार by reason of its being for manifold objects ; on the other hand, mantras pertaining to the होत्रा may be optionally used, by reason of their being for one object.

The sūtra is given here according to the Chankhamba Sanskrit series of of Śabara's edition. The first part says that the principle of समुच्चय applies in the case of वषट्कार i. e. it is for the gift and वाग्वा is for the deity. Both are combined, this is the view of the author and seems to be an Adhikaraṇa in itself but the other commentators with the exception of बहदेव consider it a part of the preceding Adhikaraṇa. The second part contains the view of the objector who says that the mantras pertaining to both being for one object should be optionally used, "वषट्कारवचने" "Arise, O Lord of the forest." for erecting the stupa. "गुणार्थत्वात्" "being and well dressed." for tying rope round the post.

क्रियमाणानुवादित्वात् समुच्चयो वा होत्राणाम् ॥

१२ । ३ । ३१ ॥

क्रियमाणानुवादित्वात् by reason of the statements of the acts to be done ; समुच्चयः combination , वा on the other hand ; होत्राणाम् mantras relating to the Hota.

81. On the other hand, by reason of the statement of the acts to be done, the principle of combination to the mantras relating to the Hota.

The author says that the principle of समुच्चय applies to the mantras of the hota, because the mantras are for the purpose of reminding the acts to be done. The hota repeats the mantras and वचसु acts accordingly. So the principle of combination applies.

समुच्चयं च दर्शयति ॥ १२ । ३ । ३२ ॥

समुच्चयं combination , च and ; दर्शयति it shows.

82. And it shows combination.

The author supports his view by the किङ्ग argument, "विप्रथमामन्वाह" "ज्योतिष्यतीरुद्रयात्" "विप्रथमामन्वाह विदत्तमी" "He utters the first verse thrice at the end." "Let him utter ज्योतिष्यती verses at the end." "He utters the first and the last verses thrice at the end."

END OF PĀDA III.

PĀDA IV.

Adhikaraṇa I. sūtras 1-2. dealing with the combination of अय.

जपाश्चाकर्मसंयुक्ताः स्तुत्याशीरभिधानाश्च याजमानेषु समुच्चयः स्यादाशीः पृथक्त्वात् ॥ १२ । ४ । १ .

अपः the अपमन्त्रः ; च and , सम्बन्धितः not connected with any act ; स्तुति-श्रीतिशायः praise, benediction and description ; च and , वाक्यान्वेष्टु in the वाक्य pertaining to the sacrificer ; समुच्चयः combination , स्यात् is ; अर्थः इत्युक्त्या by reason of the separation of the benediction.

1. And the अप मन्त्रः are not connected with any act and are in praise, benediction and description; the principle of combination applies to the mantras pertaining to the sacrificer by reason of the separation of the benediction.

There are अप मन्त्रः (the mantras that are counted on a rosary) e.g. "वैष्णवो मनुच्यवाग्यंतया" "वाहस्पत्यमनुच्यवाग्यंतया" "Let him control his tongue after uttering वैष्णवी verses" "Let him control his tongue after uttering verses in honour of पृथुस्पति" They are classed under three heads.

(1) Praise, "अग्निमुधादिष" "Agni is the forehead of heaven."

(2) Benediction, "आयुर्दाने अस्यायुर्मेदेहि" "O ! Agni, thou art life-giver ; give him life "

(3.) Description "एवेसित्वेवेऽसि" Thou art this, thou art this."

The author says that the principle of समुच्चय applies to these अपमन्त्रः, because the benedictory mantras are entirely separate. Others have divided the अप मन्त्रः into two classes; one स्तुति and the other benedictory mantras and have translated the word अग्निज्ञान as class or denomination.

समुच्चयं च दर्शयति ॥ १२।४।२॥

समुच्चयं combination , च and , दर्शयति it shows.

2. And it shows combination.

The author relies on the द्विग argument. "विप्रथमान्वाह" "विप्रथमा-मन्वाह" "He utters the first thrice at the end." He utters the last thrice at the end."

Adhikaraṇa 11, sutra 34, dealing with the subject that in a वाक्य and अनुवाक्य there is option.

याज्यानुवाक्यास्तु तु विकल्पः स्यादेवतोपलक्षणार्थ-
त्वात् ॥ १२।४।३॥

याज्यानुवाक्यास्तु in वाक्य and अनुवाक्य , तु on the other hand ; विकल्पः option ; स्यात् is ; देवतोक्तकार्त्तत्वात् by reason of their being for pointing out the god,

3. On the other hand, there is option in वाज्या and अनुवाक्य by reason of their being for pointing out the god.

There is a pair of वाज्या and अनुवाक्य in an ईन्द्राग्न्यस्य ceremony as for instance, "इदं वागास्येह विः त्रिभिर्द्रावुहस्पती" Rig Veda I. V. 49. 1. "O ! Indra and Brihaspati, this pleasing-offering in your mouth.....first of the pair "अथ वा परिचिच्यते सोमदं द्रावुहस्पती" "वृहस्पतिर्न परिपातु" "O ! Indra and Brihaspati, this soma is poured out for you" "Let Brihaspati protect us." 2nd of the pair.

The question is, whether there is an option, or does the principle of अनुवाक्य apply? The author says that you have an option because the mantras are to remind you of the gods ; one can serve the purpose. The principle of अनुवाक्य does not apply.

लिङ्गदर्शनाच्च ॥ १२ । ४ । ४ ॥

लिङ्गदर्शनात्, by seeing the लिङ्ग ; च and.

4. And by seeing the लिङ्ग.

The author relies on the लिङ्ग argument.

"ऋतुर्वेदेवानां वाज्यानुवाक्ये, एकवाग्रत्यागच्छति गमयत्यभ्या" "The sacrifice of the gods is in the वाज्या and अनुवाक्य ; by one he comes and by the other he departs."

But between themselves i. e. वाज्या and अनुवाक्य inter se, the principle of अनुवाक्य applies.

Adhikaraṇa iii. sūtras 5-7. dealing with the subject that the principle of अनुवाक्य applies to the substance used in purchasing सोम.

क्रयेषु तु विकल्पः स्यादेकार्थत्वात् ॥ १२ । ४ । ५ ॥

क्रयेषु in the purchase, तु on the other hand ; विकल्पः option, स्यात् is ; एकार्त्तत्वात् by reason of its being for one object.

5. On the other hand, there is option in the purchase by reason of its being for one object.

"There are several commodities used to purchase soma by way of exchange. "अन्नयाक्रीणाति हिरण्येन क्रीणाति" "He purchases (it) with a goat; he purchases (it) with gold."

The question is, whether the principle of समुच्चय applies or not. The objector says that you can purchase soma with any of the commodities; so you can choose one, because there is one purpose of all these commodities i. e. to purchase soma.

समुच्चयो वा प्रयोगद्रव्यसमवायात् ॥ १२ । ४ । ६ ॥

समुच्चयः combination ; वा on the other hand ; प्रयोगद्रव्यसमवायात् by reason of the union of the commodities of purchase.

6. On the other hand, there is a combination by reason of the union of the commodities of purchase

The author says that the principle of समुच्चय applies, because with them you purchase soma and pay its price and by paying a higher price, you settle the bargain more easily.

समुच्चयञ्च दर्शयति ॥ १२ । ४ । ७ ॥

समुच्चयं combination , च and , दर्शयति it shows.

7. And it shows combination.

The author relies on the किङ्ग argument.

"तदैक्षमिःक्रीणाति दशाक्षराविरादविराजमेव प्राप्नोति" "He purchases it with ten; the विराद् has ten letters, he obtains sovereignty."

Adhikara pa 17. dealing with the subject that the principle of समुच्चय applies to the minor होम called गुदोपचयः.

संस्कारे च तत्प्रधानत्वात् ॥ १२ । ४ । ८ ॥

संस्कारे in the purificatory rite ; च and ; तत्प्रधानत्वात् by reason of its being principal.

8. And in the purificatory rite by reason of its being principal

In an अग्नीषोमीय animal sacrifice, it is said "गुदोपचयति" "He sacrifices with the rectum."

After the sacrifice of an animal, his minor parts such as anus &c.

are finally disposed of. In an एकादशिकी there are 11 animals; the question is, whether one पुण्ययजन will be sufficient or not. The reply of the author is that the पुण्ययजन is a final disposal of the useless parts of the animal; as all the parts of all the animals should be finally disposed of and the principle of अहुयजन, therefore, applies.

Adhikaraga v. dealing with the subject that in the piling of fire, the number of sticks optional.

संख्यासु तु विकल्पः स्याच्छ्रुतिप्रतिषेधात् ॥१२॥१॥

संख्यासु in the number ; तु on the other hand ; विकल्पः option ; स्यात् is; श्रुतिप्रतिषेधात् by reason of the contradiction in the text.

9. On the other hand, there is option in the number by reason of the contradiction in the text.

There are commandatory texts in connection with the fee in an अन्वाधीन "एकादेसा षड् देसाह्विंशदेसा" "One should be given, six should be given and twelve should be given."

The question is, whether there is option or combination (समुच्चयः); the reply of the author is that there is option, in the case of समुच्चय, the text is contradicted, for example $1+6=7$; the text nowhere says 7. So the principle laid down in Adhikaraga iii at p. 1007. does not apply.

Adhikaraga vi. sūtras 10-16, dealing with the subject that there is option in a tail.

द्रव्यविकारात् पूर्ववदर्थकर्म स्यात्तया विकल्पेन नियम-
प्रधानत्वात् ॥ १२ ॥ ४ ॥ १० ॥

द्रव्यविकारात् by reason of the modification of the substance, तु on the other hand ; पूर्ववत् as before, like the previous act ; अर्थकर्म essential act ; स्यात् is; तया with it; विकल्पेन at the option, नियमप्रधानत्वात् because the rule is principal.

10. By reason of the modification of the substance, it is an essential act ; it is to be done at the option, because the rule is principal.

"जावन्त्या पत्नीः संवाजयन्ति" "They perform the पत्नीसंवाज with a tail."

In an अग्नीषोमीय animal sacrifice, a tail is offered; it is an essential act; the question for determination is, whether in a sacrifice where several animals are offered, all the tails should be offered or only one would do. The solution of the question depends upon the solution of another question which arises in the case ; is the offering of the tail an अर्चकर्म or a प्रतिफलकर्म? It is an अर्चकर्म in view of the principle laid down in the preceding Adhikaraṇa, you have, therefore, on option and the doctrine of समुच्चय does not apply. The reason is that the पक्षीसंवाज is prescribed in the दर्शपूर्णमासवाक्य; there the tail and ghee are optionally recommended. The same tail comes to the अग्नीषोमीय animal sacrifice under a चोदक text. As it is optional in the model sacrifice, so it is in the modified sacrifice. This is what the author lays down as the सिद्धांत view.

द्रव्यत्वेऽपि समुच्चयो द्रव्यस्य कर्मनिष्पत्तेः प्रतिपद्यु
कर्मभेदादेवं सति यथाप्रकृति ॥ १२ । ४ । ११ ॥

द्रव्यत्वे in the nature of the substance ; अपि also ; समुच्चयः combination ; द्रव्यस्य कर्मनिष्पत्तेः by reason of the accomplishment of the act, प्रतिपद्यु with each animal ; कर्मभेदात् by reason of the difference of the acts, एवम् thus ; सति in existence ; यथाप्रकृति the procedure as that of the model sacrifice.

11. Also in the nature of the substance, there is a combination by reason of the accomplishment of the act; there being difference of the acts with each animal, the procedure (is) just as (it is) in the model sacrifice.

The objector says that here the principle of समुच्चय applies, because the tail is obtained by killing the animal. The object of the वाक्य is the performance of the पक्षीसंवाज. Now in the case of a number of animals, many tails will be obtained. So they ought to be offered for the purpose of the पक्षीसंवाज. If that is so, the model sacrifice will be complied with. The offering of the tail though essential, is governed by the principle of समुच्चय.

कपालेऽपि तथेति चेत् ॥ १२ । ४ । १२ ॥

कपाले in the pans ; अपि also ; तथा similarly ; इति चेत् if you say.

12. "In the pans also, similarly" if you say.

The author says that if that were so then the principle of समुच्चय will apply to the pans as well. "पुनोदासकपालेन पुण्ड्रवद्वि" "He scatters husk with a potsherd."

The पुरोडाश pans are used for winnowing rice and for baking cakes. So you can use the pans for winnowing rice and in baking cakes i. e. you must have all of them for winnowing as well as for baking.

न कर्मणः परार्थत्वात् ॥ १२ । ४ । १३ ॥

न not so ; कर्मणः of the act ; परार्थत्वात् being for the object of another.

13. Not so, by reason of the act being for the object of another.

The author continues and says that it is absurd, the pans are for baking cakes primarily but winnowing of rice is incidental. So any of the pans may serve the purpose for winnowing. In the same way killing of the animal is for the purpose of obtaining viscera but not to obtain its tail ; it is obtained incidentally. It is directed to be offered in a पक्षीहत्याया, any one may serve the purpose in a sacrifice where several animals are killed.

प्रतिपत्तिस्तु शेषत्वात् ॥ १२ । ४ । १४ ॥

प्रतिपत्तिः final disposal ; तु on the other hand ; शेषत्वात् by reason of its being a subordinate act.

14. On the other hand, it is a final disposal by reason of its being a subordinate act.

The objector says that the offering of the tail is a final act of disposal (प्रतिपत्तिकर्म). The essential thing is the offering of the viscera of the animal, the tail being of no use, is finally disposed of.

शृतेऽपि पूर्ववत्स्यात् ॥ १२ । ४ । १५ ॥

शृते in the boiled milk ; अपि also ; पूर्ववत् as in the preceding ; स्यात् is.

15. In the boiled milk also, as in the preceding.

The objector says that as the burning of the tail is the final disposal thereof, so also boiling of rice in curd or milk in the अन्तुपदेति may be considered प्रतिपत्तिकर्म.

विकल्पोऽन्यथकर्मनियमप्रधानत्वाच्छेदे च कर्मकार्यस्य

मवायात्तस्मात्तेनार्थकर्म स्यात् ॥ १२ । ४ । १६ ॥

विकल्पः optional ; अर्थकर्मनियमप्रधानत्वात् by reason of the rule of the essential act being principal , शेषे in the subordinate, च and, कर्मकार्यसम्बन्धात् by reason of being connected with the extraordinary principle ; तस्मात्, therefore , तेन by it , अर्थकर्म essential act , स्यात् is.

16. It is optional, by reason of the rule of the essential act being principal ; and in the subordinate, by reason of the act connected with the extraordinary principle, it is an essential act.

This sūtra embodies the author's view in reply to the objector's objections contained in sūtras 14 and 15. The author says that the burning of the tail with ghee is optional in दग्धपूजनासरागस, by reason of only the tail being laid down in connection with the पञ्चीसंयाज. It is transferred to the अग्नीषोमीय sacrifice , the burning of the tail being an अर्थकर्म in the पञ्चीसंयाज, it is, therefore, optional as in the model sacrifice. As to the illustration of boiling of rice in milk or curd in an अम्युदवेष्टि, the author says that though milk or ghee is subordinate, yet it is so connected with the principal act that the boiling of rice in milk or curd is an अर्थकर्म.

Adhikaraṇa vii sūtras 17-22, dealing with the subject that in उक्ता fire it is optional.

उखायां काम्यनित्यसमुच्चयो नियोगे कामदर्शनात् ॥

१२ । ४ । १७ ॥

उखायां in the उक्ता fire; काम्यनित्यसमुच्चयः combination of the permanent and desire accomplishing acts ; नियोगे in a command ; कामदर्शनात् by reason of the connection of desire.

17. In an उक्ता fire, there is a combination of the permanent and the desire-accomplishing acts, by seeing the connection of desire with the command.

The उक्ता fire is kept in an उक्ता vessel "उक्ताग्निमिदं उक्ताग्निः" "He produces fire with heat or torture."

An उक्ता is a vessel to keep अम्युदवेष्टि fire; it is tied round the sacrificer's neck with the slings for a year. The fire so kept in the vessel and tied round the sacrificer's neck is called उक्ता fire. Though a sacrificer after having been thus initiated, does not perform an अग्निष्टोम, yet the same, for the purpose of ~~the~~ are performed. Then taking it to be the model, there are texts.

“वृक्षामाग्नेयतो ब्रह्मवर्षसकामस्याहवाम्बादप्यात् । आद्रादवायसकामस्याहवाम्बादप्यात् । वैद्युताद्रृषिकामस्य” “Let him who is desirous of the Brahmanic glory establish fire by taking it from the front of a burning tree ; let him who is desirous of grain establish fire by taking it from a gridiron ; let him who is desirous of rains establish fire by taking it from lightening ”

The ~~वृक्ष~~ fire is for a permanent act and the fire produced from friction of the trees &c is for desire accomplishing acts. The question is, whether in such a case the principle of ~~समुच्चय~~ applies. The objector says that in the ~~वृक्ष~~ fire, there is a combination of the permanent and the desire-accomplishing acts, the reason is that in the text quoted ~~above~~, we find the desire connected with the forest fire or electric fire &c. So the principle of ~~समुच्चय~~ applies.

असति चासंस्कृतेषु कर्म स्यात् ॥

असति in the absence ; च and ; असंस्कृतेषु in the non-consecrated fires ; कर्म sacrifice , स्यात् is.

And in the absence, the sacrifice will be in the non-consecrated fire.

This sūtra, does not find its place in Sabara and ~~संवेद~~. The objector gives a reason in support of his view, if you use the काम्य fire (fire intended for the accomplishment of desires), the sacrifice will have to be performed in the unconsecrated fire in the absence of the ~~वृक्ष~~ fire replaced by it.

तस्यच देवतार्थत्वात् ॥ १२ ॥ ४ ॥ १८ ॥

तस्य of that ; च and ; देवतार्थत्वात् being for the deity.

18. And of its being for the deity.

The objector continues and says that the ~~वृक्ष~~ fire being for the deity, it is necessary to combine it as consecrated, with the काम्य fire.

विकारो वा नित्यस्याग्नेः काम्येन तदुक्तहितुः ॥ १२ ॥ ४ ॥ १९ ॥

विकारः modification ; वा on the other hand ; नित्यः of the permanent ;

अग्नेः of fire ; काश्येन with the desire accomplishing act ; अनुवादितुः the above said reason.

19. On the other hand, it is a modification of the permanent fire , with the desire, the above said reason is connected.

The author says that the काश्य fire is the modification of the permanent fire and the desire is connected with the said reason. The meaning is that if you have any desire to be accomplished, you have to perform the sacrifice in the fires as described (काश्य fires) , but if you have no desire to be accomplished, you can use the permanent fire which is at hand.

वचनादसंस्कृतेषु कर्म स्यात् ॥ १२ । ४ । २० ॥

वचनात् under a text , असंस्कृतेषु in the unconsecrated fire ; कर्म sacrifice ; स्यात् is.

20. Under a text, there can be a sacrifice in an unconsecrated fire.

The author says that there is nothing wrong in performing the sacrifice in an unconsecrated fire if done under the command of a text, "नास्तिवचनवशा- तिमार्ः" "There is nothing heavy for a text."

This is a reply to the objector's view embodied in the intervening sūtra between 17 and 18. at p. 1013.

संसर्गो चापि दोषः स्यात् ॥ १२ । ४ । २१ ॥

संसर्गो in the contact ; च and ; अपि also ; दोषः wrong ; स्यात् is.

21. And in contact also, there is wrong.

The author says that if you combine both fires, the purity of fire will be affected ; it will be a mixed fire, "अग्नयेष्टु चयेऽष्टाकपालान्नर्पेत्" "Let him offer cakes baked on eight potsherds to the pure fire "

वचनादिति चेदथेतरस्मिन्नुत्सर्गापरिग्रहः कर्मणः कृत-
त्वात् ॥ १२ । ४ । २२ ॥

वचनात् under a text ; इति चेत् if you say ; च so, also ; इतरस्मिन् in the other

* In Sabara and अथवेव, there is 'वचनादिति.'

case, इत्सर्गापरिग्रहः offering without acceptance of the deity, कर्मणः of the act; कृतत्वात् by reason of having been done

22. 'Under a text' if you say; so also in the other case, there is offering without acceptance of the deity, by reason of the act having been done.

The sūtra consists of three parts. The first part embodies the objector's view; he says that there is nothing wrong, if you make an offering in the composite fire because the text so ordains it. The second part contains the author's reply, he says that it also happens in the other case when you make an offering in the unconsecrated fire. The third part is the continuation of the author's view, he says further that in both cases, there being nothing wrong done under a text, the permanent fire is modified and the offering is made in the unconsecrated fire, because by the establishment of fire, the deity is invited, "प्रपूर्वेद्युरग्निं गृह्णाति सर्वैश्वरो भूते देवताभियजते" "He who receives Agni on the preceding day, he worships the deity on the following day."

It is, therefore, no wrong if you invite the deity by making an offering in an unconsecrated fire. In other editions, this sūtra is split up into 3 different sūtras.

Adhikārṇa pa till sūtras 23-25, dealing with the subject that इत्सा fire is the आहवनीय fire.

स आहवनीयः स्यादाहुतिसंयोगात् ॥ १२ । ४ । २३ ॥

सः he, it, आहवनीयः, आहवनीय fire. स्यात् is, आहुतिसंयोगात् by reason of the connection with the offering

23. It is the आहवनीय fire, by reason of the connection with the offering.

The question is, what kind of fire is the fire which is obtained for the desire-accomplishing act. The objector says that it is the आहवनीय fire, because the offerings are made there; derivatively it means "in which offering is made after bringing it"

अन्यो विदुः त्याहरणात् तस्मिन् संस्कारकर्म शिष्टत्वात् ॥
१२ । ४ । २४ ॥

अन्यः other ; वा on the other hand ; इत्थादरथात् by reason of getting it from elsewhere ; तस्मिन् in it ; तु on the other hand ; संस्कारकर्म purificatory rite ; सिद्धत्वात् by reason of being laid down.

24. On the other hand, it is other than the आहवनीय fire, by reason of getting it from elsewhere; in it there is purificatory rite by reason of its being laid down.

The आहवनीय is a consecrated fire and is used in a conventional sense; you can not twist it, by deriving its meaning from the component parts: while the काश्यप fire is obtained from elsewhere and the संस्कारकर्म, as for instance अग्न्याधान is to be performed therein under a text.

In other editions, the sūtra and Adhikaraṇa end at 'इरथात्'. The Adhikaraṇa lays down that the इत्था fire alone is आहवनीय and the काश्यप fire is not. The other Adhikaraṇa commences from "तस्मिन्नु संस्कारकर्म" &c. It treats of the subject that in the काश्यप fire, no ceremony of अग्न्याधान is performed. So this concluding part of the sūtra which in Śābara's edition is सिद्धांत view, is the view of the objector to the effect that in the काश्यप fire, the अग्न्याधान can be performed. This reading of the sūtra in the Chaukambā Sankirt series of Śābara's commentary seems to be incorrect for obvious reasons and is not supported by any commentator, even by संवदेन.

स्थानात्तु परितुष्येरन् ॥ १२ । ४ । २५ ॥

स्थानात् by reason of the place , तु on the other hand ; परितुष्येरन् are omitted.

25. By reason of the place, they are omitted.

The author says that as this unconsecrated fire takes the place of the consecrated fire, therefore, the purificatory rite is omitted : the object is served by the unconsecrated fire.

Adhikaraṇa ix. sūtrae 26 27 dealing with the subject that there is no tying of इत्था fire always.

नित्यधारणे विकल्पो न ह्यकस्मात्प्रतिषेधः स्यात् ॥
१२ । ४ । २६ ॥

नित्यधारणे in tying it always ; विकल्पः option ; न not ; हि because ; अकारणम् for no reason ; प्रतिषेधः prohibition ; : स्यात् is.

26. There is option in tying it always ; there is no prohibition for no reason.

We have seen that the उक्ता vessel containing आहवनीय fire is tied round the neck of a sacrificer for a year with the slings. The question is, whether it remains tied up with one's neck for ever or not. The reply of the objector is that there is a prohibition about it, by reason of the injunction and prohibition, you have to make a selection in the matter, "प्रतिसमिधीत स्राष्ट्व्यमस्मैजनयति" "If he kindles it again, it produces enemies for him."

नित्यधारणाद्वा प्रतिषेधो गतश्रियः ॥ १२ । ४ । २० ॥

नित्यधारणात् by reason of tying it always , वा on the other hand ; प्रतिषेधः prohibition ; गतश्रियः for one who has lost fortune.

27. On the other hand, by reason of tying it always, there is a prohibition for one who has lost fortune.

The author says that the आहवनीय fire is to be maintained always by one who has lost fortune, "नित्यव्रत आहवनीयोगतश्रियः" "The आहवनीय fire of a गतश्री is perpetually maintained."

The उक्ता fire takes the place of the आहवनीय fire, so under this text it will have to be maintained always. The above said prohibition relates to it; it will, therefore, follow that the fire is not to be tied round the neck always.

Adhikaraṇa x. sūtras 28-29 dealing with the subject that in a सत्र and अहीन all are entitled to do an act which is to be done by one.

परार्थान्येकः प्रतियन्तिवत् सत्राहीनयो यजमानगणे
जनियमोऽविशेषात् ॥ १२ । ४ । २८ ॥

परार्थानि those that are for the purpose of another ; एकः one ; प्रतियन्तिवत् like going to every side, सत्राहीनयोः of a सत्र and अहीन, यजमानगणे in an assembly of the sacrificers , अनियमः no rule ; अविशेषात् by reason of there being nothing special.

28. Those that are for the purpose of another like the one going to every side, in an assembly of sacrificers in connection with the सत्र and अहीन, there is no rule, by reason of there being nothing special.

This sūtra is again wrongly printed in Śabara's edition, while the other commentators have read it differently I shall try to explain it in this state of confusion. There are several sacrificers in a sattrā or अहीन, there is a ceremony called शुक्रस्पर्श touching of the शुक्र cup. "शुक्रयजमानोऽम्बारभक्त" "यजमानसम्मितीदुम्बरी भवति" "The sacrificer touches the शुक्र cup" "An Udambar stick is measured by the sacrificer"

The question is, whether one यजमान or all of them should do it. The author says that as the act is not for the purpose of any sacrificer, any one may do it; if the act had been for the benefit of the sacrificers, all would have done it. So any one may do it. When one has done it, the rest may not repeat it.

In an अहीन there is no rule; so any one of them may perform it, because there is nothing special in it, to show the contrary.

॥ मुख्यो वाऽविप्रतिषेधात् ॥ १२ । ४ । २६ ॥

मुख्यः the principal, वा on the other hand, अविप्रतिषेधात् by reason of the prohibition.

39. On the other hand, the master of the sacrifice should do it, by reason of the prohibition.

We have seen in the preceding sūtra that in a sattrā, one alone can perform the शुक्रस्पर्श and we have also seen further that there is no rule in an अहीन as to who is to do it. In the present sūtra the author says that it is the गृहपति who does it; because there is a prohibition for others to do it. This Adhikaraṇa is divided into 3 Adhikaraṇas by other commentators.

Adhikaraṇa xi - sūtras 30-34, dealing with the subject that in a सत्र certain rites pertaining to the sacrificer are to be performed by all

सत्रे गृहपतिरसंयोगाद्द्वौत्रवदाम्नायवचनाच्च ॥१२॥४॥३०॥

सत्रे in a सत्र; गृहपतिः the master of the house; असंयोगात् by reason of there being no connection, द्वौत्रवत् like the acts pertaining to a द्वौत्रा; आम्नायवचनाच्च by reason of the word of the scripture; च and.

30. In a satta the master of the house by reason of there being no connection; and like the act pertaining to a hotā, by reason of the word of the scripture

In a satta, all the sacrificers are the priests, now the question is, whether the rites such as anointing the body and applying collyrium in the eyes are to be performed in the case of all sacrificers or in the case of the gṛhpati alone. The reply of the objector is that these rites are to be performed only on the master of the sacrifice, as no other is connected with the word gṛhpati. Just as the ceremonies connected with the hotā are performed by the hotā alone; so here also. Further we have a text to support this view, “ये वै सत्रे बहुनां यजमानानां गृहपतिः स सत्रस्य प्रत्येता स हि भूमिष्ठावृद्धिदृष्टोति” “He who is the master of the house, in a satta of several sacrificers, is the leader of the satta, he obtains big fortunes.”

सर्वैः वा तदर्थत्वात् ॥ १२ । ४ । ३१ ॥

सर्वैः by all, वा on the other hand, तदर्थत्वात् by reason of that being for them.

31. On the other hand by all, by reason of that being for them.

The author says that all the sacrificers are equally entitled to the rites, because the sacrifice is for the benefit of all.

विप्रतिषेधे परम् ॥ १२ । ४ । ३२ ॥

विप्रतिषेधे when there is a conflict; परं the other.

32. When there is a conflict, the other (prevails).

The author assigns a reason in support of his view; he says that when there is a conflict between the पुरोययि and ऋत्विज्य, the latter prevails; in this view, as all the sacrificers contribute to the success of the sacrifice, they are all entitled to the performance of the purificatory rites.

हीने परार्थत्वात् ॥ १२ । ४ । ३३ ॥

हीने in the ceremonies pertaining to a hotā priest; परार्थत्वात् by reason of his being for another.

33. In the ceremonies pertaining to a hotā priest, by reason of his being for another.

The author says that you have given the illustration of a hotā priest ; there the case is entirely different ; he is engaged for another and the act is not for himself, so any one who is engaged, shall have to do it. The illustration, therefore, does not apply to the present case.

वचनं परम् ॥ १२ । ४ । ३४ ॥

वचनं a text ; परम् the other.

34. The text is other.

The author says that you rely on the text of the Scripture but that is only an अर्थवाद.

Adhikaraṇa xii sūtras 35-40. dealing with the subject that the ब्राह्मण alone are entitled to officiate as ऋत्विक्स.

प्रभुत्वादात्त्विज्यं सर्ववर्णानां स्यात् ॥ १२ । ४ । ३५ ॥

प्रभुत्वात् by reason of being able ; आत्त्विज्यं to officiate as priests ; सर्ववर्णानां of all castes ; स्यात् is.

35. By reason of being able, all castes are entitled to officiate as priests.

Now the question is, whether all castes are entitled to officiate as priests. The reply of the objector is that all are entitled, because they are learned and proficient and so they can act as priests.

स्मृतेर्वा स्याद्ब्राह्मणानाम् ॥ १२ । ४ । ३६ ॥

स्मृतेः by reason of the tradition , वा on the other hand ; स्यात् is ; ब्राह्मणानां of the ब्राह्मण.

36. On the other hand, the Brahmanas by reason of the tradition.

The author says that the Brāhmanas alone are entitled to officiate as priests, because it is handed down from time immemorial as tradition by the good men.

फलचमसविधानाच्चेतरेषाम् ॥ १२ । ४ । ३७ ॥

फलचमसविधानाच्चेतरेषाम् by reason of फलचमस being ordained ; च and ; इतरेषां in the case of others.

37. By reason of फलकमस being ordained in the case of others.

The author now proceeds to give the reasons in support of his view, 1) that in the case of others the फलकमस drink in place of soma is prescribed, सयदिराजन्यवैश्यं वा याजयेत् । सयदिसौमं विमहयिषीत यजमानो यव-हविषा हृत्य ताः सन्धियं दधम्युन्मृज्य ता अस्मै नक्ष्यं प्रयच्छेत् सौमं" "If a Kshatriya or a Vaiśya be assisted in performing a sacrifice and if he wished for a soma drink, then young spouts of udambara tree should be pounded and their juice mixed with curd should be given to him for a drink ; no soma is to be given."

For a क्षत्रिय soma drink is indispensable, so a क्षत्रिय or a वैश्य can not officiate as a priest.

साक्षात्प्येवं प्रतिषेधः सोमपीयहेतुत्वात् ॥ १२।४।३८॥

सखावे in सखाय ; अपि also ; एवं thus ; प्रतिषेधः prohibition ; सोमपीयहेतुत्वात् by reason of the soma drink.

38. So there is also a prohibition in सखाय, by reason of the soma drink.

The author gives the second reason in support of his view. In a सखाय drink also, there is a similar prohibition, "न राजन्यो न वैश्यो वा साखाय्यं वा पिबेत् अतोमपीयोऽवे" "Let not a king or a tradesman drink सखाय, because he can not drink soma."

A क्षत्रिय or a वैश्य is not entitled to drink सखाय, because they are not entitled to drink soma. They can not, therefore, officiate as priests.

चतुर्धाकरणे च निर्देशात् ॥ १२।४।३९॥

चतुर्धाकरणे in dividing into 4 parts, च and निर्देशात् by direction.

39. And by direction, in dividing into 4 parts.

The author proceeds to give the 3rd reason in support of his view. He says that in the इत्येवंमासयाग, only Brāhmanas are authorised to divide the इत्येव cake into 4 parts "ब्राह्मणानामेवेदं हविः सोम्यानां सोमपीयानि ह्यब्राह्म-हव्यास्ति" "This food offering belongs to the Brāhmanas who perform a sacrifice and drink soma juice ; it does not belong to a non-Brāhman."

This also shows that Brāhmanas alone are entitled to officiate as priests.

because if the non-Brāhmaṇas were entitled to do so, they would have had been prohibited to partake of the शेषभक्षः (remnants of food).

अन्वाहार्ये च दर्शनात् ॥ १२ । ४ । ४० ॥

अन्वाहार्ये in the monthly wages, च and, दर्शनात् by seeing.

49. And by seeing in the monthly wages.

The author gives the fourth reason in support of his view. He says that the अन्वाहार्य fee is paid to a Brāhmaṇa only "तपते वै देवा बहुतादोयद्-ब्राह्मणा यदन्वाहार्यमाहरतीति तानेव तेन प्रीणाति" "These gods certainly eat the offering when Brāhmaṇas receive अन्वाहार्य food, by this, he pleases them."

The ऋत्विक्स are paid अन्वाहार्य and so the ब्राह्मण alone are entitled to officiate as priests

END OF PĀDA IV.

End of the Pārva Mīmāṃsā Sūtras of Jaimini.
